320 QUINCY AVE., QUINCY

Stop in with this ad during our Grand Opening week, Oct 29th - Nov 4th and get 30% off your order.

Dependable cleaners

Offer valid at 320 Quincy Ave. only. Must accompany incoming order. One time use. Cannot be combined with other offers. Not valid on wash - dry - fold, wedding gowns, tablecloths, leather, suede or fur cleaning. Exp: 11/04/12 #86

Looking for a great doctor?
Have your pick.

To find a doctor, pick from the best in the field. Beth Israel Deaconess HealthCare. 100 highly experienced primary care doctors in 31 locations near you. Choose from internal medicine physicians or family medicine physicians, and have confidence in knowing they are part of a leading academic medical center as well as two outstanding community hospitals in Needham and Milton.

To pick the right doctor for you, visit bidmc.org/pcpnow, or call 1-877-40-NEW MD.

Beth Israel Deaconess HealthCare

Recreation Department Tennis Tournament Champs

WOMEN'S SINGLES Championship Bowl is presented to Singles Champion Helen Mao (second from left) from Recreation Director Barry Welch. Finalist Pheobe Chan (second from right) receives her award from Tournament Co-Director Michelle Hanley. Story, other photos on Page 21.

MEN'S SINGLES CHAMP - Lionel "Shine" Buckley Bowl is presented by Judy Brazil of the Quincy Credit Union (left) to Men's Singles Champion Robert Yee (second from left.) Finalist Jakub Janiga receives his award from Recreation Director Barry Welch.

WOMEN'S 35 AND OVER - (from left) Recreation Director Barry Welch (left) presents the Championship Silver Bowl to Women's 35 and Over Champion Helen Mao with Finalist Phoebe Chan and Tournament Co-Director John Franceschini.

MEN'S 35 AND OVER - (from right to left) Recreation Director Barry Welch presents the Championship Silver Bowl to Men's 35 and Over Champion Jakub Janiga with Finalist Phillip D'Orazio.

GIRLS UNDER 16 - (from left) Recreation Director Barry Welch (left) presents the Championship Silver Bowl to Girls 16 and Under Champion Emily Sato with Finalist Sanjana Kadirvel receiving her award from Tournament Co-Director John Franceschini.

BOYS UNDER 16 - (from left) Recreation Director Barry Welch (left) presents the Championship Silver Bowl to Boys 16 and Under Champion Justin McGaffigan. Finalist Steven Ross receives his award from Tournament Co-Director John Franceschini.

WOMEN'S DOUBLES - (from right to left) Recreation Director Barry Welch presents the Championship Silver Bowl to Women's Double Champions Ann Foresman and Helen Mao. Finalists Emily Sato and Amanda Wong receive their awards from Tournament Co-Director Michelle Hanley.

MEN'S DOUBLES - (from right to left) Recreation Director Barry Welch presents the Henry "The Master" McAuliffe Bowl to Men's Doubles Champions Robert Yee, Jr. and Robert Yee, Sr. with finalists Nathan Boulanger and Adam Honatchanthara.

Recreation Department Tennis Tournament Champs

Over 135 Matches Played In 42nd Annual Event

MEN'S 50 AND OVER - (from left) Recreation Director Barry Welch (left) presents the Richard Meade Championship Bowl to Men's 50 and Over Champion Mark Donaghue with Finalist Ken Tarabelli receiving his award from Tournament Co-Director Michelle Hanly.

MIXED DOUBLES - (from right to left) Recreation Director Barry Welch presents the William F. Ryan Championship Silver Bowl to Mixed Doubles Champions Aileen Eleey and Ron Abell with finalists Benjamin Yee and Christine Tran receiving their awards.

MEN'S "B" CHAMPS - (from right to left) Judy Brazil of the Quincy Credit Union present the Championship Bowl to Men's "B" Champion Tyler Perron with Finalist Kevin Moy receiving his award from Recreation Director Barry Welch.

Participation in the sport of tennis may never return to the numbers that the sport enjoyed in the late 1970's, however if the 42nd Annual all city Tennis Championships is any indicator, tennis is very much alive and well in Quincy.

Recreation Director Barry Welch pointed out more than 135 matches were played in the tournament's 11 divisional events, under near perfect weather conditions during a 12-day period at the municipal courts on the grounds of Quincy High School.

Once again the caliber of play didn't disappoint. Some new faces joined some past participants, some fathers teamed with sons and with daughters, some young and not so young joined with familiar champions to fight to the top again, earning for another year the title of City Champion. The much-anticipated annual event is conducted and supervised by the City of Quincy Recreation Department and sponsored by the Quincy Credit Union. The city's own "fall classic" traditionally attracts the finest resident tennis players and is believed to be the longest running municipal court tournament in New England.

New champions were the rule in this year's tournament as seven events had different champions from last year. There were four repeat champions this year. Helen Mao in the Women's 35 and Over Singles division, Jakub Janiga in the Men's 35 and Over division, teammates Ron Abell and Aileen Eleey in the Mixed Doubles division, and Justin McGaffigan in the Boy's 16 and Under division.

In the Men's Singles event, Robert Yee was awarded the Lionel "Shine" Buckley Bowl for the first time when he defeated Jakub Janiga in the final, 6-0, 6-0. Yee, who was the Boy's 16 and Under Champion in 2005 and 2006, returned to the tournament this year and earned his spot in the final by defeating Kevin Paterno, 6-3, 6-3. Janiga defeated Nathan Boulanger, 6-1, 6-3, to make the final. There were many competitive matches in the Men's Singles division this year, Tournament Director John Franceschini noted.

Tournament veteran Helen Mao won her first Women's Singles title by defeating four-time champion Phoebe Chan, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, in the final. In the semi-final matches, Mao defeated Emily Sato, 7-6, 6-2, and Chan defeated Kathy Brennan, 6-2, 6-1. One of the best matches of the tournament was in the Quarterfinals of this division when Kathy Brennan defeated Rachel Smith, 6-4, 6-3.

Helen Mao and Ann Foresman won their second Women's doubles title by defeating Emily Sato and Amanda Wong, 6-0, 6-0, in the finals. In semi-final action, Mao and Foresman defeated the team of Samantha Pham and Tanya Tonnu, 6-0, 6-0, and Sato and Wong defeated Rachel Smith and Kathleen Conroy, 6-3, 6-3.

Tournament veteran Mark Donaghue stepped into the winner's circle in the Men's 50 and Over Singles bracket by defeating Ken Tarabelli, 6-0, 6-1. This is the first title for Donaghue who defeated Joe McGaffigan, 6-0, 6-0, to earn his spot in the final. Tarabelli defeated Richard Hagborg, 6-3, 6-3 to qualify for the final in this event. Donaghue was presented the Richard Meade Bowl from the Director of Recreation Barry Welch.

Some of the best tennis of the tournament was played during the 35 and Over Singles Championship matches in both the women's and men's divisions. Five-time champion Helen Mao defeated tournament veteran Phoebe Chan, 6-2, 6-0, in the Women's 35 and Over Singles final. On the men's side, Jakub Janiga was crowned Men's 35 and Over Singles Champion for the second year in a row. Janiga defeated Phillip D'Orazio, 6-4, 6-1, in one of the tournaments best matches. Tournament Co-Director Michelle Hanly presented the championship bowl to Janiga.

In men's doubles, the father and son team of Robert Yee Sr. and Robert Yee Jr. captured the coveted Henry McAuliffe Bowl by defeating Nathan Boulanger and Adam Honathanthara with a score of 6-3, 6-4. Tournament Co-Director John Franceschini noted that this was a great year for men's doubles with 18 teams competing for the sought-after McAuliffe Silver Bowl.

Ron Abell and Aileen Eleey won the William F. Ryan Bowl for mixed doubles by defeating Benjamin Yee and Christine Tran, 6-0, 6-0, in the final. This is the fourth mixed doubles title for Abell and Eleey who secured their spot in the finals by defeating the father and daughter team of Kadirvel Subramanian and Sanjana Kadirvel, 6-2, 6-0. Yee and Tran defeated the brother sister team of Steve and Emily Ross, 6-1, 6-2, in the semi-finals.

The 16 and Under Singles events were popular again this year with over 20 participants. Justin McGaffigan won his second Boy's 16 and Under Singles title. Emily Sato won her first title in the Girl's 16 and Under Singles. McGaffigan defeated Steven Ross, 6-2, 6-1. Sato defeated Sanjana Kadirvel, 6-3, 6-3. The tournament spectators marveled at the number of young participants in this year's tournament. All of the youngsters are a credit to their parents and tennis coaches alike. Franceschini and Hanly both agree that these children were a joy to work with this year. The future is bright for tennis in the City of Quincy.

Tyler Perron defeated Kevin Moy, 6-1, 6-1 to win his first Men's "B" Singles title. Perron won a great match on his way to the final when he defeated Saradhi Valluru, 6-2, 6-0.

Welch had high praises for the continued commitment by the Quincy Credit Union.

"There are not many communities fortunate enough to have traditional family events like this tournament. It continues to provide stability to our community values and traditions," said Welch. "This is the 17th year that the Credit Union has provided the funds necessary to continue this activity. The participants and the community, whether they play or watch the event, are grateful for their generosity and their commitment to Quincy.

"I would also like to recognize the continued outstanding work of John Franceschini who has, for over 30 years, been the guiding force who as director makes the tournament draw to ensure the championship quality of the tournament. Continuing to be the glue that holds the event together is Michelle Hanly an 18-year veteran who coordinated and supervised over 135 matches over 12 days. They make a well-recognized team that is much appreciated by the tennis community. We are fortunate to have their skills."

Welch, Hanly, and Franceschini joined with Judy Brazil of the Quincy Credit Union to present each finalist and champion with a plaque for his or her achievement. Each champion was also presented with the permanent silver bowl, which has the name of each champion engraved and is kept on year-round display in the main office of the Recreation Department.

SUBSCRIPTION FORM

FILL OUT THIS SUBSCRIPTION BLANK AND MAIL TO

The Quincy Sun

1372 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169

NAME _____

STREET _____

CITY _____

STATE _____

ZIP _____

CHECK ONE BOX IN EACH COLUMN

☐ 1 YEAR IN QUINCY $25.00

☐ 1 YEAR OUTSIDE QUINCY $30.00

☐ 1 YEAR OUT OF STATE $38.00

☐ CHECK ENCLOSED

QUINCY'S MARY PRATT, 93, a former pitcher for the Rockford Peaches holds up the movie "A League of Their Own," the feature film that made her and the All American Girls Professional Baseball League famous.

MARY PRATT'S cardboard display she brought to Middlesex Community College to tell students about her days playing professional baseball. Her apartment is filled with memorabilia from the AAGPBL.

Quincy's Mary Pratt Cherishes Pro Baseball League Days

93-Year-Old Former Professional Women's Baseball Player Reunites With Former Teammates

By COLLEEN CASEY

It's been 20 years since the Hollywood blockbuster "A League of Their Own" was released, a film that brought the stories of the All American Girls Professional Baseball League to life.

Recently the real stars who inspired the movie reunited in Cooperstown, NY at the National Baseball Hall of Fame, where a special program in the Grandstand Theatre was held in their honor. The five-day reunion even included an associate/player baseball game at the Syracuse Chiefs' Alliance Bank Stadium.

In attendance was Quincy's Mary Pratt, a 93-year-old former pitcher who played in the AAGPBL for the Rockford Peaches and Kenosha Comets from 1943-1947.

Pratt, along with league associates and former players Kathy Bergstrum, Helen Nordquist, Marie Kelley, Loraine Sumner and Linda Lundine made the five and a half hour drive out to New York for the annual celebration.

"So many people are interested in what we did," said Pratt. "The history is wonderful."

In the opening scenes of the movie, an older, former player Dottie Hinson says good bye to her family, takes a bus to an AAGPBL reunion and see's some of her former teammates, now in their 80's, playing a baseball game.

Pratt did the same thing a few weeks ago in real life in Syracuse.

"They put a home plate out in left field and played it there. It was more of the thing of the older players playing and some of them were getting hurt," said Pratt, who watched from the sideline. "They had school girls there and announced that after you hit, one of the girls will run for you. There's something about women. They never grow up. It was great."

Females were first included in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1988. Since then the exhibit has under gone expansion and is now called "Diamond Dreams." Pratt's worn down suitcase is part of the exhibit on display.

"When we were making overtures to be accepted at Cooperstown, (Hall of Fame Curator) Ted Spencer saw the name of his former gym teacher on the list," said Pratt. "They were looking for us to donate things so I gave them my suitcase."

"I look and see what we have gained at Cooperstown," she said. "To think in a man's organization we were able to act in such a nice way."

Pratt attributes the movie for the AAGPBL's rebirth.

"No one would ever have known about what we really did," said Pratt. "Because of the movie people wanted to know what we had done."

Pratt recalled Penny Marshall telling some of the league's associates that she did not want to make a documentary, but a story of something that happened fifty years earlier and that she was going to take a few changes for the stage.

One part that stood out to Pratt was Tom Hanks' role as manager Jimmy Dugan. In the movie the outspoken alcoholic manager escorts the team everywhere, including the locker room.

"I can tell you one of the liberties Penny Marshall took was with Tom Hanks and his character. The men never came in the locker room. They would meet us in front of the bench and give us the signs for the game and that would be it. But Tom Hanks played a great part."

She did however confirm the players were forced to attend charm school, just like the movie portrayed and her team, the Rockford Peaches did sing a song, just like in the movie.

Pratt recalled meeting Wareham native Geena Davis, the actress who played star catcher Dottie Hinson at her house in Quincy. She praised Davis for her athletic performance.

"I told her she was a good athlete and I asked her if she caught. She said no and that Rosie O'Donnell was the real athlete. She said she was really into archery and wanted to try out for the Olympics."

Pratt said that Marshall has given some of the funds raised by the movie to help the AAGPBL and attends some of the reunions. Even some actresses like Megan Cavanaugh, who played slugger Marla Hooch, have donated their movie uniforms to Cooperstown to show support.

Although her playing days are long over, Pratt is still highly involved with the league. She tries to attend every reunion that's held once a year in different cities around the country. Last year was San Diego, this year was Syracuse and next year will be in Chicago, where it all began.

A POSTER with the AAGPBL player names hangs in Mary's Pratt's living, along with autographed baseball cards, reminding Mary of her playing days.

To keep in touch with former players and friends, Pratt contributes an article entitled "Out and About" three times a year in the leagues "Touching Bases" newsletter to inform members of current updates.

In addition to staying active in the league, Pratt makes sure to keep herself physically active. As a retired gym teacher, Pratt stressed the importance of exercise and physical education and said she works out at Planet Fitness in Weymouth twice a week.

She's come along way from playing with the boys in the park league in Quincy.

"So much of this has tied into what I did my entire life," said Pratt, who went on to graduate from Boston University's Sargent College and teach physical education and coach for more than 40 years.

Quincy Sun Photos/Emily Taft

And after all these years, Pratt is still waiting to see a women's program as strong as the AAGPBL once was.

She added, "I still haven't seen a girls program that can equate to what Mr. Wrigley and we did. Forty years ago Title IX was passed and 20 years ago "A League of Their Own" came out. We've made headway but still have a long way to go."

Fall Automotive Care

'Shuttering' Subaru, Accelerating Jeep Grand Cherokee

Ask The Car Doctor With AAA's John Paul

Q. I have a 2003 Buick Century. Lately, whenever I park my car on an incline, it's almost impossible to get the gear shift out of park. It just seems to be locked in there so tight that it almost feels like the shifter could possibly break. Do you have any suggestions?

A. More than likely, the parking pawl is worn and causing the shifter to bind up. Considering the car is nearly 10 years old, the most practical solution would be to not fix the problem. Rather than fix the problem, whenever the car is parked on an incline, apply the emergency brake, then shift the car into park. By applying the parking brake you reduce stress and pressure on the internal parking mechanism.

Q. I have recently started to experience a 'shuttering' while driving my Subaru. It seems to happen at any and all speeds, including coasting to a stop sign. I only have 34,000 miles on this car and planned to keep it for a long while. Do you have any ideas as to what it may be?

A. It is possible that the transmission clutches are starting to fail. Although, I would be critical of the transmission fluid if it was changed recently. If the fluid was changed and anything but Subaru fluid is used, a transmission shutter is possible. If this is the case, a fluid exchange with Subaru fluid may reduce or eliminate the problem.

Q. I have a 1988 Toyota Camry with a four-cylinder engine and a five speed manual transmission. I have replaced the fuel filter and fuel pump, battery, distributor, rotor, engine coolant temperature sensor and the cold start injector. First thing in the morning when it is cooler out, the car takes longer to start up. Could you help me sort this out by guiding me to the root cause of the problem?

A. The most common problem is the cold start injector timer switch. The other common issue is the ignition coil on some of these older Toyota engines not developing sufficient spark when the engine is cold.

Q. I have a 1999 Jeep Grand Cherokee, purchased used about eight years ago. I never had a problem with it, until last month when it suddenly accelerated on me. I was only going about 30 mph as I made a right turn, when it suddenly accelerated on me and I couldn't stop it. The brakes did nothing; I needed to turn off the ignition to get it back under control. Jeep tells me they don't know any problems like this and can't tell me how to get it fixed, yet there are reports after reports online of this issue. I just want my Jeep fixed. Is there a "fix" for this issue?

JOHN PAUL

A. If this were my vehicle, I would spend time looking at the throttle (gas pedal) linkage and throttle body. If the linkage jammed and the power brake booster was leaking, I could see this scenario happening. Under acceleration, the booster would lose vacuum and make the brake pedal seem ineffective, all while the car is accelerating.

Q. I have a 2004 Pontiac Bonneville and I'm happy with this General Motors car so far. I've owned them all, Ford to Plymouth. My question is electrical; all the gauges in the dash, one by one, have stopped working or read incorrectly except the speedometer. The car works fine and starts up okay. There is a computer on the dash that keeps track of the miles per gallon; oil change, fuel used and all of these items still work fine. My wife loves the car and has had three Pontiacs since 1993. I took out the dash and brought it to a diagnostics shop and they told me everything is fine and working. A friend who is a mechanic says there are several computers working behind the dash and the only ones who have access to the codes are the GM dealers. The car now has 51,000 miles on it. Should I spend thousands at the dealer to trace down the problem or run the car into the ground and then buy my wife a new car?

A. The problem can be due to poor electrical grounds or even low battery voltage. With a little time and effort, a good technician (although a General Motors technician may be more familiar with the problem) should be able to find and fix the problem. Regarding whether you should buy a new car or fix this car, my only advice is "happy wife-happy life."

Q. I recently heard about the controversy concerning the repair law ballot question in Massachusetts and now I'm more confused than ever. I thought the law passed this summer addressed the issue. Now I hear from one group to vote no and from you to vote yes. Can you clarify your position on this?

A. There are certain critical aspects of the information that your car stores and transmits, and the current legislation could give the manufacturer ownership of that information-not you. A yes vote advocates your ownership of all the information that your car produces-including open-access to the information necessary to have it repaired by your trusted repair shop-and your right to choose other third-party service providers to whom you grant access. In addition this telematics technology allows remote diagnosis of potential safety issues that could impact your vehicle.

AAA Urges A 'Yes' Vote On Auto Repair Ballot Question 1

Saying that there should be no compromise when it comes to the rights of vehicle owners, AAA Southern New England is calling on Massachusetts voters to vote "yes" on Question 1 on the November election ballot.

Question 1 would require auto manufacturers to make all service and diagnostic information available to consumers and independent repair shops - not just their franchised dealership service centers.

"AAA wholeheartedly believes that motor vehicle owners have the right to choose where they want to have their vehicles repaired," said Mark A. Shaw, AAA Southern New England President and CEO. "Your vehicle produces valuable information about its health and condition. AAA thinks you should own this information, all of it, and should be free to share it as you see fit."

Earlier this year, the Massachusetts legislature passed a compromise bill that addressed some of the concerns of AAA. However, the compromise bill doesn't require automakers to share all of the information on telematics. This is information which would allow some pending vehicle problems, including those that may directly impact safety, to be diagnosed remotely.

"We believe that the compromise grants concessions to the automakers that provide loopholes for them to continue guarding vehicle information," Mr. Shaw said.

AAA, acting on behalf of its more than two million Massachusetts members, monitors automotive trends and emerging technologies in order to develop and improve vehicle-related benefits for members. In addition,

AAA assists members and all motorists by being a valuable resource in the development of industry guidelines, regulations, legislation and best practices.

"Massachusetts is setting the standard by which this vital consumer protection issue is defined, and will be the model for the rest of the nation," Mr. Shaw said. "Yes, the 'right to repair' legislation passed this year was a victory for consumers, but it doesn't go far enough to assure that vehicle owners won't have to compromise their repair and possible privacy rights due to a last-minute legislative loophole."

Repair...Anywhere is the name of AAA's campaign in favor of Question 1 on the Massachusetts ballot. More information is available at RepairAnywhere.org.

Collision and Automotive Center, Inc.
Old Fashioned Quality Service for Today's High Tech Cars

DRIVE HAPPY

Collision Repairs • Rentals
Approved by insurance companies with your claims efficiently handled

- We'll tow you home from anywhere in New England
- Free pick up and delivery in Quincy

Jay Galvin & Phyllis Ash are ready to help you!

248 WILLARD STREET, QUINCY • (617) 471-7072 • 7AM - 6PM

258 Willard Street
Quincy, MA 02169

BLUE HILLS TOWING COMPANY
24 Hour Towing and Recovery

(617) 696-6450
Fax: (617) 479-5424
www.bluehillstowing.com

ECO MUFFLER CENTER

WE'RE GOOD,
WE'RE HONEST,
WE'RE ECO

191 QUINCY AVE, QUINCY (617) 472-7600
WWW.ECOMUFFLER.COM

Ayers COLLISION CENTER 440B East Squantum St.
Quincy, MA 02171
617-328-0056
WWW.AYERSCOLLISION.COM

Taking Care of Details...

- > Insurance Company Coordination
- > Car rentals
- > FREE detailing with every repair

Receive an  gift card up to $200 with every qualifying* collision repair! *contact us for details

Disabled? Apply For Social Security Benefits From Home

If your disabling condition makes it hard for you to drive or arrange transportation to your local Social Security office, we have some good news. You can complete and submit your application for Social Security disability benefits from your own home computer. Get started at www.socialsecurity.gov/disability.

The application process involves determining 1) whether you have sufficient work to be eligible for Social Security; 2) the severity of your medical condition; and 3) your ability to work. Because we carefully review so many cases — more than three million each year — it can take us three to five months to determine whether you are eligible to receive benefits.

The amount of time it takes to make a decision on your application can vary depending on a number of factors, such as:

- the nature of your disability;
- how quickly we obtain medical evidence from your doctors, hospitals, or other medical sources; and

• whether we need to send you for a medical examination in order to obtain evidence to support your claim.

We do a number of things to speed up the process when we can. For example, our Compassionate Allowances initiative allows us to fast-track certain cases of individuals with very severe disabilities such as Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS). There are 165 different types of disabilities that qualify for this expedited decision, and that list continues to expand. Learn more about Compassionate Allowances at www.socialsecurity.gov/compassionateallowances.

Another way we speed up decisions is with our Quick Disability Determinations initiative, which uses technology to identify applicants who have the most severe disabilities and allows us to expedite our decisions on those cases. Read more about Quick Disability Determinations at www.socialsecurity.gov/disabilityresearch/qdd.htm.

There are things you can do to help speed up the decision process too. The more information you provide up front, the less time it will take us to obtain the evidence we need — and the faster we can process your application. The types of information we need include:

- medical records or documentation you have; we can make copies of your records and return your originals;
- the names, addresses, and phone numbers for any doctors, hospitals, medical facilities, treatment centers, or providers related to your disabling condition; and
- the names, addresses, and phone numbers for recent employers and the dates worked for each employer.

We also ask you to sign release forms that give us permission to obtain the information needed from third parties to make a decision on your claim.

The best place to start is online at www.socialsecurity.gov/disability. Select "Disability Starter Kits" in the left column. There, you'll find important information to help you with your application.

If you're not able to work due to a disability, apply online for Social Security disability benefits at www.socialsecurity.gov/disability.

QUINCY POLICE HOT SPOTS

QUINCY POLICE STATISTICS: OCT. 12 - 19

ARRESTS: 34

TOTAL CALLS: 1,148

TOTAL STOLEN VEHICLES: 2

FRIDAY, OCT. 12

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 12:56 a.m., Centre Street. Business. Two men drove up, one man in brown coat. Arrested made for attempted B&E and trespassing.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 6:58 a.m., Quincy Avenue. Caller states over night the side of building has had graffiti sprayed on it.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 2:13 p.m., Palmer Street. See caller in the lobby of station, she states her car was stolen 8-9 months ago and she has suspect information.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY/PAST, 3:57 p.m., South Street. See caller in the police lobby. Report filed.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 10:15 p.m., Burgin Parkway. Report filed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 10:25 p.m., Billings Street. Spray painted porch and motor vehicle. Caller indicated his porch was vandalized and the MV parked in front of his house was spray painted in black with word on the hood.

SATURDAY, OCT. 13

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 12:09 a.m., Palmer Street. Kicked picket off fence. Three males, dark hoodies, blue jeans, heading towards Sea Street right side of street on Palmer. Group sent home with parents who will make restitution with victim. Four pickets broken.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 8:47 a.m., Atlantic St. Tagging. Side and front of building were tagged. Caller has suspect information.

LARCENY, 12:27 p.m., Falls Blvd. Stolen wallet. Caller at customer service desk. Wallet stolen from shopping cart.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 12:39 p.m., Newport Ave. Past. See caller in the police station lobby. Store has the suspect on video.

LARCENY, 12:40 p.m., Parkway. Medication. See caller in the lobby of the station.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:01 p.m., Burns Ave. Fence damaged. Caller indicates construction company broke her fence.

LARCENY, 3:10 p.m., Rockview Road. See caller in the police station lobby. Crime occurred in Saugus.

ARMED ROBBERY, 10:45 p.m., Bedford St. Gun show. Two black males, purple pants, grey sweatshort, hats, checked bag. Fled toward MBTA station. MBTA notified. One male party possibly had a knife.

SUNDAY, OCT. 14

LARCENY, 9:14 p.m., Beale St. Cell phone. Caller in police station lobby states cell phone taken from house after delivery Oct. 8.

MONDAY, OCT. 15

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 2:41 a.m., Doane St. Dwelling. Apartment under construction no forced entry front door was unlocked and open.

LARCENY, 10:52 a.m., Hudson St. Medication. Party had meds stolen on Friday.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:20 p.m., Safford St. To vehicle. Keyed left side fender, hood and right side fender.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 1:52 p.m., Caledonia Ave. Past. 2006 Harley Davidson motorcycle 9x3117.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 3:41 p.m., Quincy Ave. Locker. See caller in the lobby of the station. Had $90 stolen from his locker.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 5:59 p.m., Schlager Ave. Dwelling. Arrived home rear door open, caller outside waiting for officers..

TUESDAY, OCT. 16

LARCENY, 1:51 p.m., Hancock St. Macbook, iPhone. See caller, had a Macbook and an iPhone stolen.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 11:53 p.m., Arnold St. Dwelling. Caller states went down to basement and noticed a window broken and screen torn. Unknown when it happened.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 17

LARCENY, 2:38 p.m., Batterymarch Park. Report filed.

LARCENY, 6:02 p.m., Falls Blvd. Past. Caller from QPD lobby states her purse was found in parking area at Walmart and was missing money out of it. Surveillance from store has the person that turned in purse, going into caller's purse before returning it. Walmart Security has recorded incident ready for QPD according to caller.

THURSDAY, OCT. 18

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 5:05 a.m., Franklin St. Business. Door alarm. Door found pried open upon arrival. Male was getting on 215 bus headed towards Independence Ave. as unit arrived. Transit Police notified in an attempt to stop bus and identify subject.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:26 p.m., Linden St. To car. Vehicle was entered and trashed, nothing taken, doesn't want to see officer. Just put on record.

FRIDAY, OCT. 19

LARCENY, 3:13 a.m., Arthur St. Fare evasion. Original call was cab driver having trouble with a fare. Upon arrival determined fare evasion had occurred. Unable to locate suspect.

STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLES: Palmer Street, Caledonia Avenue.

CAR BREAKS: Overlook Road, Colonial Drive, George Road, Victory Road.

BREAKS AND ATTEMPTED BREAKS: 35 Franklin St., Arnold Street, Schlager Avenue, 100 Quincy Ave., Doane Street, Burgin Parkway, 300 block of Centre Street, Willow Avenue.

If you have information on the above crimes, drug activity or any crime, please call the Quincy Police Detective Bureau at 617-745-5764 or log onto the following website: <http://tinyurl.com/ytf6td>.

To report suspicious drug activity, call the Drug Hotline at 617-745-5730. You will not be required to identify yourself, but it could help. To make an appointment to view the Registered Sex Offenders book, call Detective James Dentremon at 617-745-5755.

To contact the Crime Prevention Officer for tips or comments, my direct line is 617-745-5719. My e-mail address is dminton@ci.quincy.ma.us — Lt. Dan Minton

Entries in the Quincy Police Hot Spots are compiled and submitted by the Quincy Police Department.

They are published by The Quincy Sun as a public service to make local residents more aware of any crime activity in their neighborhood. Questions concerning the Hot Spots list should be directed to Crime Prevention Officer Lt. Dan Minton, 617-745-5719.

A Job Well Done

By QUINCY POLICE LT. DAN MINTON

On Sunday, Oct. 14 at approximately 12:16 P.M., Quincy Police Dispatch gave out a call of an erratic driver all over the road in the area of Adams and Beale Street.

The caller gave a description of the vehicle and the license plate to the Dispatcher as she followed the suspect vehicle, stating her concern that the driver was intoxicated. Dispatch informed units that the suspect vehicle was now traveling on Adams Street towards Quincy Center.

LT. DAN MINTON

The caller then told the Dispatcher that the driver was stopped at a red light by City Hall and appeared to be asleep at the wheel. Officer Bruce Trieu made his way towards City Hall and was informed by the Dispatcher that the suspect vehicle was stopped at the light in the right lane on Hancock Street at Temple Street, with the left turn signal blinking.

Officer Trieu pulled up behind the vehicle as the light turned green. The suspect vehicle made a right turn onto Washington Street with the left turn signal still blinking. The Officer activated his blue lights and siren and stopped the vehicle near the Post Office on Washington Street.

When Officer Trieu approached the driver and asked him if he was o.k., the male driver and sole occupant stared blankly as if to search for an answer. When asked again, the driver shut his eyes as if he was going to fall asleep and dropped his chin to his chest. The Officer was able to ask the driver if he had a medical condition and the driver slurredly said he did not.

Next to the driver, the Officer observed on the middle arm rest two small plastic bags of brown powder bundled as Heroin commonly is. Officer Trieu directed the driver to step from his vehicle and asked if he had been drinking. The driver said no. The driver's pupils appeared pin point similar to some one who had just shot Heroin.

Although the driver denied shooting up, when he rolled up his shirt sleeves, Officer Trieu observed a fresh puncture mark on his left arm. Based on observations made by the driver along with the statements from the witness, the driver, a 27 year-old Cohasset resident was placed under arrest for operating his vehicle while under the influence of class A drugs, heroin.

A search of the vehicle revealed a small, black plastic bottle cap under the driver seat which contained brown residue consistent with heroin.

Officer Trieu then interviewed the witness in depth, who said that she actually honked at the driver to go because of the green light, but he was asleep.

Nice Work!

NATIONAL GRID DOOR TO DOOR: beware of solicitations from people at your door offering discounts, deals or reduced payments. There have been reports in the South Shore about this type of scam.

As always, never open the door to solicitors. Talk from the other side of the closed door if you need to know what they are selling.

Best action:

Call the police and let us check them out. In this city, going door to door, with the exception of politicians and religious groups, requires a photo identification issued by the city after a background investigation has been conducted.

Real Estate

Quincy Real Estate Transactions Oct. 15 - Oct. 19

Seller	Buyer	Amount	Address
Marinilli Family Trust	Christopher Brown, Suzanne Brown & David Harrington	$379,500.00	37-39 Quincy Avenue
Graham J. Ellis	Abby Losordo	$134,000.00	195 Independence Avenue Unit 125
1 Lenox Street Realty Trust	Richard L. Gysan Sr. 1998 Realty Trust	$325,000.00	1 Lenox Street
Jun Wang, Xiaoling Liu & Shelley X. Liu	Wei Huang	$175,000.00	115 West Squantum Street Unit 1003
Michael K. Grehan	KyleJason Real Estate Development Trust	$120,000.00	72 Stedman Street
Michael K. Grehan	William Casey	$250,000.00	67-71 Robertson Street
John Galligan & Brooke Bergstrom	Bob Chen & Bao P. Chen	$185,000.00	31 Densmore Street
Boston Property Holdings LLC	Hao W. Cao, Jian X. Cao & Xiao C. Liu	$403,000.00	86 Davis Street
Amna Zahid, Fawad Khawaja & Amna F. Khawaja	Sarojini D. Shilbulal	$362,000.00	82 Village Drive Unit 8-4
Sharon L. Clancy	Julia C. Smith & Dennis M. Smith	$300,000.00	30 Harbor Street
Ruth M. Marrocco	Daniel O'Brien & Linda O'Brien	$360,000.00	7 Seagull Road
Ann M. Spaulding	Ka W. Lam	$165,000.00	808 Willard Street Unit F-12
William G. Boylen & Mary T. Boylen	Cordelia Sullivan	$333,000.00	65 Highfield Road
Linda Holbrook Realty Trust	Keith J. Gott & Michelle A. Gott	$340,000.00	20 Petrel Road
Federal National Mortgage Association	John MacNeil & Matthew MacNeil	$179,900.00	32 Moffat Road Unit 32
DLJ Mortgage Capital Inc.	Valerie T. Plante	$225,000.00	1 Thurston Avenue
Catherine A. Alfieri & Michael J. Alfieri	Blanca A. Viehl & Richard A. Viehl	$208,000.00	200 Falls Blvd. Unit C302
Elizabeth S. Major	Michael Yeung & Scot B. Letourneau	$257,500.00	73 Franklin Avenue
Paula Martin	Frederick J. Barry, III & Lisa K. Jachowicz	$345,000.00	100 Marina Drive Unit 316
Kathleen E. Armstrong	Lesley Mai	$290,000.00	One Cityview Lane Unit 713
Dat C. Tran & Elaine P. Tran	Tony Xiong Yu & Pui Ying Leung	$405,000.00	341 Centre Street

Stay Warm While Keeping Energy Costs Down

It may not be too cold yet, but winter will be here before you know it along with shorter, colder days.

That's why now is a good time to start thinking about preparing your home for the cold winter months ahead. When it's icy outside, we step inside to shake off the cold, but keeping our homes heated can be costly and energy intensive. National Grid wants to remind customers how they can stay warm, save on energy costs and be more energy-efficient by taking advantage of a few simple tips.

The following are several easy, but important steps you can take you not only make sure your house stays warm but also to help cut down on heating costs this winter.

Lower your thermostat to 8 degrees. In the winter, set the thermostat between 65 and 70 degrees during the day and to 58 degrees at night or when away from home for several hours. If you have a heat pump, make sure to slowly increase the temperature to avoid running the emergency heat. You can learn more about your thermostat online by visiting the U.S. Department of Energy website.

Seal air leaks. Seal all holes from pipes and wires that enter/exit the living space. This includes entrances, pull-downs and attic stair openings, light fixtures, pipes and wires. Attic entryways should be weather stripped and insulated.

Seal off fireplaces.

Never use a fireplace as a heat source for your home. Even as a supplemental heat source, the cold air introduced to a warm home

Cont'd On Page 30

SEE JAYNE TALK
WWW.C21ABIGAILADAMS.COM

Century 21
ABIGAIL ADAMS AGENCY
617-471-7575

Tina Belcher

For Personal Help with all of your
Real Estate Needs

CALL FOR FREE HOME MARKET ANALYSIS

(781)812-6497

Flavin & Flavin 1005 Hancock St. Quincy
Visit: www.tinabelcherhomes.com

49 Beale St., Quincy, MA 02170
617-472-4330
www.c21annex.com

Over 70 Seller and Buyer Agents
specializing in Residential, Commercial
Real Estate, Bank Owned Properties,
Short Sales and Rentals

ANNEX REAL ESTATE SCHOOL
Offering Salesperson's, Broker's and Continuing Ed. classes
"STILL NUMBER ONE"

Quincy Sun Featured Home of the Week

61 CURTIS STREET

Tina Belcher from Flavin & Flavin Realty would like to introduce her new listing located at 61 Curtis Street (Hospital Hill). Asking price $345,900. This home features a beautiful finished basement, newer eat in kitchen, fire place living room, over sized heated garage and land containing over 14,000 sq ft. This house is conveniently located giving easy access to the MBTA and all major highways. For further details on this home and all other Quincy Properties visit www.tinabelcherhomes.com for a free search.

Tina Belcher (781)812-6497
Flavin & Flavin Realty
617-479-1000

FLAVIN & FLAVIN REALTY

Buying? • Selling?

Don't be FRIGHTENED

Call
FLAVIN &
FLAVIN

We do a BOOtiful job
for Buyers & Sellers

It's no Trick, just a Treat!

Complete Real Estate Service Since 1925

Flavin & Flavin

1085 Hancock St. Quincy Center
Visit: www.flavinandflavin.com

617-479-1000

SUN FUN PAGE

King Crossword

- ACROSS
- Send forth
 - "— com-pany, ..."
 - Scepter
 - Broad
 - Furnace output
 - out a living
 - Find not guilty
 - Savings plan
 - acronym
 - Person, place or thing
 - "Loves me (not)" determinant
 - Had a home-cooked meal
 - Old woman's home?
 - Coffee vessels
 - Company agent
 - Money of Moldova
 - "The Age of Anxiety" poet
 - Brewery product
 - Insisted on
- DOWN
- Lamb's mama
 - Blend
 - Altar
 - affirmative
 - Serena's game
 - From one end to t'other
 - Slowly with-draw (from)
 - Cereal tidbit
 - Sondheim or Colbert
- ACROSS
- List-ending abbr.
 - Historic times
 - Concerning
 - More angry
 - Macadamize
 - Lawyers' org.
 - Work together
 - Obtain
 - Camel feature
 - Singer Campbell
 - Sailor's assent
 - Puppies' calls
 - Harvard rival
- DOWN
- Say again
 - Veggie in Creole cooking
 - Transaction
 - Lo-o-ong time
 - Dawn goddess
 - "— Lang Syne"
 - Genealogy chart
 - Count
 - Coaster
 - Lather
 - Citric quaff
 - Verve
 - Hide
 - Lawlessness
 - Exist
 - Vim
 - Thorough-fare (Abbr.)
 - Long story
 - Do as you're told
 - "— and Circum-stance"
 - iPad down-loads
 - French assent
 - Carte lead-in
 - Aviv
 - preceder
 - Compass pt.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Wishing Well®

3	5	8	6	7	8	4	8	7	4	6	7	5
F	N	Y	B	T	O	B	U	A	E	E	K	E
8	6	2	3	6	3	4	3	5	7	2	6	8
E	S	A	E	E	E	G	L	W	E	C	L	N
4	7	4	5	3	5	6	7	8	4	3	4	7
E	A	N	T	I	H	F	F	R	E	N	R	I
6	8	5	4	6	7	4	2	4	8	6	3	7
R	I	O	O	E	R	U	H	S	C	L	G	M
3	2	8	5	3	7	5	6	8	5	8	6	2
S	A	H	U	R	S	G	I	O	H	T	A	N
3	6	5	2	8	2	5	6	8	7	3	7	8
U	N	T	G	H	E	S	T	E	T	N	A	R
7	2	7	8	2	3	2	3	2	3	2	3	2
N	O	D	S	F	D	H	E	O	E	M	P	E

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

HOCUS-FOCUS

BY HENRY BOLTINOFF

HOCUS-FOCUS

CAN YOU TRUST YOUR EYES? There are at least six differences in drawing details between top and bottom panels. How quickly can you find them? Check answers with those below.

Trivia test

by Fifi Rodriguez

- GEOGRAPHY: Where are the Balearic Islands located?
- ANATOMY: Where is the ulna located in the human body?
- ANCIENT WORLD: Who kidnapped Helen of Troy, an event that started the Trojan War?
- LITERATURE: Who wrote the novel "Light in August"?
- HISTORY: In what year was the first Zeppelin flight?
- INVENTIONS: What did Elisha Otis invent?
- GENERAL KNOWLEDGE: Where is original Mayo Clinic located?
- U.S. STATES: In what state is Mount Rushmore located?
- ANIMAL KINGDOM: What is a group of ducks called?
- RELIGION: What is a more common name for the religious group called United Society of Believers in Christ's Second Appearing?

- Answers
- Mediterranean Sea
 - Forearm
 - Paris
 - William Faulkner
 - 1900
 - Elevator safety brake
 - Rochester, Minn.
 - South Dakota
 - A gaggle
 - Shakers

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

CALIFORNIAN MAGIC MAZE • FRUITS AND NUTS

A P M J H E C Z X U S Q N L J
A G E C Z (P I S T A C H I O) X
V O T V T R P N U L J H E C G
O A G U Y W V T N R P N L R K
C I G N N E C B L D Z X A W P
A U S R A T P O E W N P M T A
D L J I C M S C Z G E O E U P
O L I V E G N E A S D H M N A
B A Y X P I E E H C Y L S L Y
W U T S U F Q T O C I R P A A
P O N Q L K J H G F D C B W C

Find the listed words in the diagram. They run in all directions - forward, backward, up, down and diagonally.

- | | | | |
|----------|----------|--------|-----------|
| Almond | Fig | Mango | Pistachio |
| Apricot | Grapes | Olive | Quince |
| Cashew | Hazelnut | Papaya | Walnut |
| Chestnut | Lychee | Pecan | |

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your honesty continues to impress everyone who needs reassurance about a project. But be careful you don't lose patience with those who are still not ready to act.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Pushing others too hard to do things your way could cause resentment and raise more doubts. Instead, take more time to explain why your methods will work.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Be more considerate of those close to you before making a decision that could have a serious effect on their lives. Explain your intentions and ask for their advice.
CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You might have to defend a workplace decision you plan to make. Colleagues might back you up on this, but it's the facts that will ultimately win the day for you. Good luck.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The Big Cat's co-workers might not be doing enough to help get that project finished. Your roars might stir things up, but gentle purr-suasion will prove to be more effective.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Someone you care for needs help with a problem. Give it lovingly and without judging the situation. Whatever you feel you should know will be revealed later.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) While you're to be admired for how you handled recent workplace problems, be careful not to react the same way to a new situation until all the facts are in.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Rely on your keen instincts as well as the facts at hand when dealing with a troubling situation. Be patient. Take things one step at a time as you work through it.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your curiosity leads you to ask questions. However, the answers might not be what you hoped to hear. Don't reject them without checking them out.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Be careful not to tackle a problem without sufficient facts. Even sure-footed Goats need to know where they'll land before leaping off a mountain path.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Appearances can be deceiving. You need to do more investigating before investing your time, let alone your money, in something that might have some hidden flaws.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your recent stand on an issue could make you the focus of more attention than you would like. But you'll regain your privacy, as well as more time with loved ones by week's end.

BORN THIS WEEK: You're a good friend and a trusted confidante. You would be a wonderful teacher or a respected member of the clergy.

(c) 2012 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

CryptoQuip

This is a simple substitution cipher in which each letter used stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Solution is accomplished by trial and error.

Clue: N equals O

PG P TNNC XEVABX MESD JNL
JLEGAQ YPKFDYPKEVEPSG, E UNBMC GBTTDGK
"UFPK'G QNBL GESD?"

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

King Crossword

Answers

Solution time: 21 mins.

Magic Maze

ANSWERS:

— MASTER

Cryptoquip

ANSWER:

"What's your sine?"
would suggest risky mathematicians, I
As a good pickup line for

Houghs Neck Congregational

Houghs Neck Congregational Church, 310 Manet Ave., Quincy, will hold a Family Sunday worship service this Sunday at 10 a.m. All are welcome to attend.

Sale Of Fair Trade Items Sunday At Point Church

Sunday worship is at 10 a.m. on Oct. 28th at Quincy Point Congregational Church 444 Washington St.

Sheena Delmonte will be deacon of the day and Sherri Russell will be lay reader.

The Rev. Ann G. Suzedell's sermon is named, "Not to be Served but to Serve."

After worship the mission's committee is having a SERRV Sale in the social Hall following worship. All are welcome to come shop SERRV's unique and handcrafted fair trade items from around the world. Items available like: authentic décor items for your home, handmade dishware, stunning handcrafted baskets, gorgeous fair-trade jewelry, scarves, and bags. Give special fair trade gifts that improve the lives of artisans and farmers worldwide. All are also welcome to attend

Pastor John Castricum will preach the sermon "Transformed Hearts."

June Paul and Ralph Jacobs will serve for the Diaconate, and a fellowship coffee hour will follow the service.

Fellowship hour in the Social hall at the same time as the sale, complete with coffee and light refreshments.

Quincy Point Congregational Church is sponsoring "Americans in Paris" evening at the Neighborhood Club, 27 Glendale Rd., Quincy Thursday, Nov. 1 from 7 to 9:30 p.m. to raise funds for the QPCC Access Fund and Interfaith Social Services. Hor d'oeuvres and dessert will be served.

Vocal and instrumental music will be offered by soloists and musicians from QPCC. Silent auction items include a Bruins hockey puck signed by Bobby Orr and Coco, Mademoiselle Chanel eau de parfum.

Donation requested is $35 per person. For Tickets or more info contact: Quincy Point Congregational Church office at 617-773-6424.

RELIGION

'Spooky Walk' Saturday At Wollaston Congregational

Wollaston Congregational Church will host a "Spooky Walk" appropriate for kindergarteners through fourth graders Saturday, Oct. 27 from 6 to 8 p.m.

There will be Halloween

Community United Methodist

Quincy Community United Methodist Church, 40 Beale St. will hold a Blessing of the Animals Sunday, Oct. 28 at 10:30 a.m.

The public is invited to either bring their pet, or a photo of the pet.

"Each person will have to use his or her best judgment as to whether or not a pet should attend," said Rev. Dr. Susan F. Jarek-Glidden, pastor of Quincy Community. All pets must be on a leash or in a carrier. In addition to present pets, everyone is also invited to bring photos, preferably framed, of past pets. Photos will be placed on the altar during the service.

A gift to the Quincy Animal Shelter will also be included in the worship service. For more information, call 617-773-7432.

Cake Decorator At MOPS Meeting

Cake decorator Audrey MacDonald will be the guest at the MOPS of Quincy (Mothers of Preschoolers) meeting Thursday, Oct. 25 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the All-Purpose Room of Fort Square Presbyterian Church, 16 Pleasant St., Quincy.

Extra cakes and frosting will be provided, but feel free to bring your own materials. Pregnant women and mothers of preschool children are invited to attend the meetings held the second and fourth Thursday of the school year. Free childcare is provided.

Bethany Church

Bethany Congregational Church, Quincy Center will have Sunday Worship Service and Sunday School at 10 a.m.

The Rev. Gary W. Smothers conduct the service and preach a sermon entitled "The Tragedy of The Commonplace".

Fellowship with light refreshments will follow the worship service.

All are welcome to attend Bethany Church Worship Services and its numerous group activities. Bethany has a Youth Group, a Men's Group, an Outreach Mission Group doing various charity works and a Friday morning Bible Study Class.

The church office is open from 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Visit www.bethanycongregational-churchquincy.org for updates and activities.

Thanks to the Video Ministry, for those unable to attend worship service on Sundays, the Bethany Church Service is broadcast on Quincy Access Television at 6 p.m. on Thursday evenings on Channel 8.

Childcare will be available for infants and toddlers during worship service on Sundays. The church is wheelchair accessible.

Wollaston First Baptist Church

Regular worship service will be held at 10:30 a.m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church of Wollaston, 81 Prospect Ave.

All are welcome.

Pastor C. Michael Cunningham's sermon will be "Bearing Fruit with our Talent."

Serving the church will be greeters Emma Mahn and Beverly Moulton and Scripture reader Steve Monsaur.

Following the service, there will be a fellowship coffee hour in the Chapel.

Adult Bible Class meets each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. in the Chapel.

Also on Sunday, Oct. 28 there will be a free "Afternoon at the Movies" with popcorn from 2 to 4 p.m. the movie "Hocus Pocus" is age appropriate for pre-schoolers and up.

Bring a pillow and blanket for comfort.

The program is open to all young people of the community.

Quincy Religion Directory SERVICES & ACTIVITIES
Catholic	Catholic	Congregational	Congregational
St. Mary's Church 95 Crescent St., Quincy • 617-773-0120 Masses Saturday, 4pm, Sunday 7, 9:30 & 11:30am, Weekdays 8am Handicapped Accessible New Members Welcome!	Sacred Heart Church "A Roman Catholic Community walking together in Faith, Worship, Education and Service" 386 Hancock St., North Quincy, MA 02171 (617) 328-8666 Sunday Masses 4pm (Sat.) 7:45am, 9am (Family Liturgy) 10:30am (with Choir) and 5pm Weekday Masses Mon.-Fri. 7am and 9am, Sat. 9am Handicapped Accessible Confessions Sat. 3-3:45pm in Saint Joseph Oratory	HOUGH'S NECK CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 310 Manet Avenue 617-479-8778 www.hncong.org Family Worship Service Oct. 28 at 10AM 'Transformed Hearts' All are welcome to attend FELLOWSHIP COFFEE HOUR FOLLOWING SERVICE	Wollaston Congregational Church United Church of Christ 48 Winthrop Avenue Quincy, Massachusetts Sunday Worship at 10 a.m. Rev. Dr. Mary Louise Gifford will conduct the service and preach the sermon "Take Heart" Office: 617-773-7432 www.wollycong.org
ST. AGATHA CHURCH MILTON-QUINCY 432 Adams Street Milton, MA 02186 • 617-698-2439 Schedule of Masses: Saturday: 4:30PM Sunday: 7:30AM, 9:00AM (Family Mass), 10:30AM, 12 NOON, 5:00PM Weekday Masses: 7:00 & 9:00AM Reconciliation 3:45PM-4:15pm on Saturdays, other times by appointment Handicapped Accessible, handicapped parking, elevator to Upper/Lower Churches ~ Air-Conditioned	St. Joseph's Church 550 Washington Street Quincy, MA 02169 617-472-6321 SUNDAY MASSES: 4 p.m. (On Saturday) 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Weekday Masses 9am CONFESSIONS: Saturday, 3:00-3:30 pm Handicapped accessible & Handicapped parking, side entrance air conditioned	BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH Spear & Coddington Streets Quincy Center, 617-479-7300 WWW.QUINCYBETHANYCHURCH.ORG Sunday Worship Oct. 21 and Sunday School at 10AM. The Rev. Gary W. Smothers will preach the sermon 'The Tragedy Of The Commonplace' Child Care Available ALL ARE WELCOME! Fellowship Time in Allen Parlor	UNION CONGREGATIONAL Beach St. & Rawson Rd., Wollaston (617) 479-6661 Rev. John Swanson, Pastor Sunday Worship Service 10 AM QUINCY POINT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 444 Washington St. • 617-773-6424 Worship and Church School 10 am Rev. Ann Suzedell, Pastor email: office@quincypointcong.org
St. John The Baptist ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH 44 School St., Quincy 617-773-1021 Weekend Mass Schedule Saturday, 4:00 PM Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 AM Sunday night 5:30 PM Weekday Masses Monday - Saturday 8:00 AM Latin Mass 1 st & 3 rd Wednesdays (Lower Chapel) 7:00 AM Confessions Wed. 8:30 - 9:30 AM Sat. 2:30 - 3:30 PM Handicapped Accessible	Saint Ann's Church 757 Hancock St., Wollaston 617-479-5400 Pastor: Rev. John J. Ronaghan Weekend Mass Schedule: Saturday 4:00 PM Sunday 7:00, 9:00, 11:30AM Daily Masses: 9:00 AM	To Advertise in this Directory, Call 617-471-3100
Salvationist THE SALVATION ARMY 6 Baxter St., Quincy • 617-472-2345 9:45 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION 11AM WORSHIP SERVICE BRASS BAND MUSIC 7PM TUES WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP 6:45PM WEDS. BIBLE STUDY	Methodist QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH 40 Beale St., Wollaston 617-773-3319 10:30 AM Sunday Worship Rev. Dr. Susan Jarek-Glidden, Pastor	Christian Science First Church of Christ, Scientist 16 Beale Street, Quincy 617-472-0055 Sunday Services and Sunday School 10:30 a.m. Wednesday Evening Meetings - where testimonies of healing are shared 7:30 p.m. ALL ARE WELCOME! Catholic Community Dignity BOSTON Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender CATHOLICS Our families, friends And allies Liturgy & social hour: Sundays, 5:30 PM St. John the Evangelist Church 35 Bowdoin St., Beacon Hill, Boston 617-421-1915 www.dignityboston.org
Nazarene Wollaston Church of the Nazarene Sunday Worship 8:30 AM Liturgical Worship 9:45 AM Sunday School 11:00 AM Celebration Worship Kevin C. Dunlop, Lead Pastor Phil Nuss, Youth & Small Groups Pastor John Chastain, Music & Campus Pastor Dev. Kreuter, Children's Pastor Don Reed, Visitation Pastor 37 E. Elm Ave., Wollaston 617-472-5660 Email: office@wconaz.org www.wconaz.org		HOPE LOVE PEACE JOY

OBITUARIES

Albert A. Megna U.S. Army Veteran World War II

A funeral Mass for Albert A. Megna of North Weymouth, formerly of Quincy, was celebrated Oct. 20 in St. John's Church, Quincy.

Mr. Megna died Oct. 16. Beloved husband of Rose M. (Imprescia) Megna.

Loving father of Mary DeAngelis and her husband, John, of North Weymouth, and the late Virginia Ekholm. Brother of Vito Megna of Texas. Proud Grandfather of Teresa, Janine and her husband George, and John and his wife Kerri. Great Grandfather of Kendall.

Mr. Megna was a World War II veteran serving with the United States Army where he was also the recipient of the Purple Heart. He was a member of the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, 101st Infantry Veterans Association, as well as the Yankee

ALBERT A. MEGNA

Division.

He enjoyed going to Foxwoods. He will be sorely missed by all those who had the pleasure of knowing him.

Burial was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the Wounded Warrior Project, P. O. Box, 758517, Topeka, KS 66675.

Patrick M. Faherty, Jr., 45 Paralegal, Worked In AG's Office

A funeral Mass for Patrick M. Faherty, Jr., 45, of Lowell and formerly of Quincy, was celebrated Oct. 20 in Holy Trinity Parish at Most Blessed Sacrament Church.

Mr. Faherty died Oct. 17.

He was born in Boston and raised in Quincy, graduating from Quincy High School in 1985. He also graduated from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. For the last 10 years, he lived in Lowell.

Mr. Faherty was a paralegal and previously worked in the Attorney General's Office for over 14 years.

He was active in quad rugby and had played in college and later for the Boston Pit Bulls, traveling nationally and internationally. He was always the smile in the room and loved chocolate. For Mr. Faherty, his loving wife and daughter were the highlights of his life.

Beloved husband of Tracy Elizabeth (Spencer) Faherty. Devoted father of Liliana Roisin Faherty. Cherished son of Patrick M. and Bridget B. (McDonagh)

PATRICK M. FAHERTY, Jr. Faherty of Marston Mills. Dear brother of Breeda Snow and her husband Ian of Winthrop, Muiread Craft of Falmouth, and Deirdre Faherty of CA. Uncle of Liam Craft. Also survived by many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to the Faherty Family Benefit, c/o Citizens Bank, 295 Main St., Tewksbury, MA 01876.

Diana Giunta Retired Nurse

DIANA GIUNTA

all of Quincy.

Cherished sister of Estelle Hieger of TX, Pauline Stanton of Quincy and Harry Galloucis of Halifax. Doting grandmother of Diana and Peter Giunta both of Quincy.

Interment was in Forest Hill Cemetery, Boston.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Lydon Chapel for Funerals, 644 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Hancock Park, 164 Parkway, Quincy, MA 02169.

A funeral service for Diana (Galloucis) Giunta of Quincy was held Tuesday in the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church, Boston.

Mrs. Giunta died peacefully Oct. 18 with her family by her side.

She was a proud graduate of Boston City Hospital School of Nursing class of 1951. She received her Bachelor's degree in Nursing from Curry College in 1980.

She was a scholarship student at the Museum of Fine Arts School.

Mrs. Giunta worked as a Registered Nurse for Boston City Hospital for 30 years and Quincy City Hospital for 15 years.

She loved her garden as well as playing the piano.

Wife of the late Guy P. Giunta, she was the loving mother of Catherine Bill and her husband Ronald, Paula Giunta, Christopher Giunta and his wife Leah,

Ann Marie Vieira

ANN MARIE VIEIRA

and Andrew.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in St. Michael's Cemetery, Boston.

Memorial donations may be made to American Heart Association, 20 Speen Street, Framingham, MA 01701.

A funeral Mass for Ann Marie (Princiotta) Vieira of Quincy was celebrated Oct. 19 Holy Trinity Parish at Most Blessed Sacrament Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Vieira died Oct. 15. Beloved wife of William A. Vieira, Jr. of Quincy.

Loving mother of Laurie of Quincy, Janice of South Boston and William A. Vieira III of Quincy. Cherished sister of Donna Dalrymple, and Michael and Joseph Princiotta. Predeceased by her brothers and sisters, Carol Beatty, Diane Tinsley, Alice Morse, Lorraine Gurley, Elaine Laythe, and Mary, James, Francis, John, Richard, Robert and Ronald Princiotta. Also survived by grandchildren Jake, Kyle

Gilbert G. Bairdi

A private burial service was held for Gilbert G. Bairdi of Quincy. Mr. Bairdi died Oct. 17.

Beloved husband of the late Gloria M. (Locurto).

Loving father of Joseph G. Bairdi and his wife, Diane, of Hanson, and Michael J. Bairdi of Randolph. Brother of Albert Bairdi of Marshfield and the late Robert Bairdi. Grandfather of Brian and Jenna Bairdi. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements

GILBERT G. BAIRDI

were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Brian T. McDonald Volunteer For St. Peter's Church

A funeral Mass for Brian T. McDonald of Port Orange, FL and formerly of Quincy was celebrated Sept. 21 at St. Peter's Catholic Church, Deland, FL.

Mr. McDonald died Sept. 17.

He served as a volunteer for St. Peter's Church and his favorite charity was the Family Life Center. He will be sadly missed by his friends and supportive neighbors Nancy and Terese. He was a true animal lover and loved and cared for Einstein and all other animals left in his care.

Dear friend of Richard Stuart of FL. Loving son of the late Edward McDonald and Dorothy (Bagley) McDonald. Brother of Mark McDonald of CA, Lawrence McDonald of MA, Kathryn McBride and Daryl McBride of Kingston, Clare Downey and Robert Rizzi of Kingston, Edward Vincent McDonald and Christine McDonald of Cohasset, and the late Paul McDonald. Uncle to many nieces and nephews.

BRIAN T. McDONALD

Funeral arrangements were made by Lohman Funeral Homes, Port Orange, FL.

Memorial donations may be made to St. Peter's c/o Father Tom Connery (Family Life Center), 359 New York Ave., Deland, FL 32720.

Obituaries Updated Daily at thequincysun.com

THE POTTING BENCH
139 Howard St.
Braintree (off Quincy Ave.)
781-843-7111
www.thepottingbench.net

Open 7 Days

Thoughtfully designed Funeral Sprays
& Baskets

Delivery to all local Funeral Homes

A Better Value For Quincy Families

At Deware Funeral Home, we are proud to offer more value and superior service to Quincy families. A full service traditional funeral is $5,995* with no hidden costs. The price includes:

Funeral Ceremony • Visitation • Casket

At Deware Funeral Home, we put the needs of our customer first. We also offer a Simple Burial Plan for $3,395.

With Deware Funeral Home, you can trust us to provide the compassionate care you expect at an exceptional value, backed by a 100% service guarantee.

Exclusive provider of Dignity Memorial® benefits.

Deware Funeral Home

576 Hancock Street | Quincy, MA 02170 | 617-472-1137

www.dewarefuneralhome.com

*$5,995 plan includes basic services: funeral director and staff, embalming and preparation, visitation, funeral ceremony, transportation to place of disposition, 20-gauge metal casket, website announcement, and memorial stationery package in register book. 100 thank you cards. 100 prayer cards.
A Service Family Affiliates of AFT's and Service Corporation International, 206 Winter Street, Fall River, MA 02720. (508) 676-2454.

Daniel T. DeCoste, Sr., 74

Marine Corps Veteran, Verizon Operator

A funeral Mass for Daniel T. DeCoste, Sr., age 74, of Rockland, formerly of Quincy, was celebrated Tuesday in Saint John the Baptist Church, 44 School St., Quincy.

Mr. DeCoste died unexpectedly Oct. 18 at home.

Born and raised in Quincy, he graduated from the former Saint John's Elementary School in Quincy and from Quincy High School, Class of 1957. He lived in Rockland for six months, previously a lifelong Quincy resident.

Mr. DeCoste served in the United States Marine Corps from 1957 to 1959 and attained the rank of Lance Corporal.

He was employed for 16 years as an operator for Verizon, Inc. Earlier, he was the owner and operator of the former New Bridge Café in Weymouth. In addition, he worked as a general contractor for the former DeCoste Brothers Corporation and as a bricklayer with the Bricklayers Union Local 3.

Mr. DeCoste was a member of the Adams Heights Men's Club of Quincy, the Quincy Lodge of Elks, the William R. Caddy Marine Corps League Detachment #124 of Quincy, and the Marine Corps League.

He was an enthusiastic traveler, avid reader and enjoyed playing billiards and Scrabble. He treasured coffee mornings with his lifelong friends as well as playing cards. He was devoted to his family, especially his grandchildren.

Beloved husband of the late Louise R. (Galante) DeCoste.

Elizabeth A. Flaherty, 84

Retired Carney Hospital Employee

A Mass of Christian Burial for Elizabeth A. (Quinn) "Betty" Flaherty, 84, of Squantum, formerly of Milton, was celebrated Tuesday in Saint Agatha Church, Milton.

Mrs. Flaherty died unexpectedly Oct. 18 surrounded by her family.

The beloved wife of the late John P. Flaherty, Jr., cherished mother of Elizabeth "Betty Ann" MacRitchie and her husband, Jay, of Squantum, Susan P. McCarthy of Squantum and Lt. John N. Flaherty Mass. State Police and his wife, Kim, of Bridgewater. Daughter of the late Cornelius and Elizabeth (Kane) Quinn, both born in Scotland. Sister of Barbara Armstrong of Medfield, Francis Quinn of Northbrook, IL and the late retired Quincy Deputy Fire Chief Neil Quinn, William, James, Helen, Catherine, Jean Quinn, Mary Shepherd and Margaret Stearns. Devoted grandmother of Krystin MacRitchie of New York City, Joseph A. MacRitchie III and his wife Daniella of Quincy and Andrew McCa-

DANIEL T. DECOSTE, SR.

Devoted father of Daniel T. DeCoste, Jr., Quincy Fire Dept. of Norwell, Darrin J. DeCoste, Boston Fire Dept. and his wife Karen C. DeCoste of Hanover, Denise L. Calabro and her husband Patrick J. Calabro, Quincy Police Dept. of Hanover, and Dennis M. DeCoste of Quincy.

Survived by his beloved grandchildren, John D. DeCoste, Michael P. DeCoste, Cassandra A. Calabro, Alexandra P. Calabro, Paige L. DeCoste, Meredith L. DeCoste, and Darrin J. DeCoste, Jr.

Loving brother of Myrtle Oberg of Quincy, the late Francis "Frank" DeCoste, the late John "Jack" DeCoste, the late Gerald "Gerry" DeCoste, and the late Charles "Dick" DeCoste.

Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Interment with Military Honors at Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the Boston Firefighters Burn Foundation, 55 Hallett Street, Dorchester, MA 02124.

rthy of Squantum.

She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews.

Born and educated in Quincy, she was a longtime employee of Carney Hospital, retiring in 2008.

Mrs. Flaherty was a devoted New England sports fan. She enjoyed traveling, especially on trips to Foxwoods and Disney World with her family. She had a special place in her heart for dogs, especially Blue, Jack and Bear.

The essence of her life was her family, faith, and friends. They were the foundation of all that was truly important to her. She will be sadly missed by all that knew her.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Dolan Funeral Home, 460 Granite Ave., East Milton.

Memorial donations may be made to Boston Catholic Television, PO Box 9196, Watertown, MA 024714 or a local animal shelter.

Brian W. Picard, 55

Member Int'l Longshoremen's Association

A memorial service for Brian W. Picard, 55, of Quincy, was held Sunday at the Dennis Sweeney Funeral Home, Quincy.

Mr. Picard died Oct. 16 with his family at his side.

A lifelong Quincy resident, he graduated from Quincy High School and was a longtime member of the International Longshoremen's Association, Local 800.

Mr. Picard was a gregarious person and enjoyed life to the fullest. He was a strong and compassionate man with a great sense of humor and amazingly befriended people at every opportunity. He enjoyed travel, was an avid gardener and gourmet cook and especially loved the time he spent with family and friends.

The devoted companion and lifetime partner of Judy Devlin, he was the loving father of Christina Devlin of Quincy; beloved son of

BRIAN W. PICARD

Mary E. (Tirrell) Picard of Quincy and the late Robert F. Picard; dear brother of Linda M. Picard of N. Quincy, Mary N. Picard Reilly and her husband Peter E. Reilly of Rye, NH, John P. Picard of Quincy and the late Joseph and David Picard; and is also survived by many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Burial will be held at a later date.

Memorial donations may be made to a charity of choice.

Michael C. Christopher, 52

Member Union Laborers Local 223

A funeral Mass for Michael C. Christopher, 52, of Weymouth, formerly of Quincy, was celebrated Wednesday in Sacred Heart Church, Weymouth.

Mr. Christopher died Oct. 19 at Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston after a long battle with cancer.

Born in Dorchester, he was raised and educated in Quincy. He was a 1978 graduate of North Quincy High School.

He lived in Weymouth for over 10 years, previously living in Quincy.

Mr. Christopher was a lifelong member of the Union Laborers Local 223.

He enjoyed watching football, playing darts, and treasured gardening. Michael was devoted to his family, especially his children and granddaughter.

Beloved father of Sarah D. Christopher, Stephen M. Christopher, Jessica A. Christopher, and Bridget E. Christopher all of Weymouth.

Loving grandfather of Camryn Whipple.

Devoted son of Paul F. and Bridget (Walsh) Christopher of Braintree.

Nina Dorothy Nye, 83

Private funeral services were recently held for Nina Dorothy Nye, 83, a life-long Quincy resident. She died Sept. 28 surrounded by the love, comfort and care of her family.

She was the beloved wife of 55 years to the late Charles A. Nye.

Loving mother of five children, Barbara Nye of Quincy, Mary Smelcer of Holbrook, Claire O'Dell of Whitman, Susan Lefebvre of Rhode Island and Mi-

MICHAEL CHRISTOPHER

Brother of Brian M. Christopher of MD, Thomas P. Christopher of Braintree, Catherine W. Alessi of Abington, and Ann-Marie Christopher of Braintree.

Also survived by aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Loving companion of Amy Crowell of Chatham.

Interment was in Knollwood Memorial Park, Canton.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Avenue, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, 30 Speen St., Framingham, MA 01701-1803.

chael Nye of Weymouth. She is also survived by 15 loving grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great-granddaughter.

She was involved in all our lives and brought joy and happiness to each and every one of us. She will be sadly missed.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Hamel, Wickens & Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams St. Quincy Center.

Katherine E. Mullen, 91

Member Of St. Ann's Women's Club

A funeral Mass for Katherine E. (Bischoff) Mullen, 91, of Quincy was celebrated Monday at St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Mullen died Oct. 17.

She was raised in Matapan and moved to Quincy after marrying. She raised her six children in her Wollaston Hill home which was the site of constant large gatherings of family and friends.

She graduated from Hyde Park High in 1939 and her yearbook said "Kay is that brown-eyed lass that can never be found without a smile!"

Throughout her life she remained close to her group of girlfriends from her childhood and high school years that were affectionately known as the "Gabby Daffies."

She had a love for the beach and ocean especially at Ocean Bluff in Marshfield.

Mrs. Mullen was known for her quick wit, and great sense of humor - she always enjoyed a good laugh. She was a longtime member of the Mary Ann's women's club at St. Ann's. Most of all, she loved her family who were the cornerstone of her life. She will be missed by all of those who had the joy to know her.

KATHERINE E. MULLEN

Beloved wife of the late John R. Mullen. Loving mother of Thomas R. Mullen and his wife Rosalind of Milton, William J. Mullen and his wife Hong of Quincy, Loretta DeBettencourt and her husband Ted of Oak Bluffs, John G. "Jerry" Mullen and his wife Susan of Quincy, Francis X. Mullen and his wife Barbara of Hanover, and Joseph D. Mullen and his wife Maryanne of Quincy. Survived by her sister Josephine Kindamo of Marshfield, and her brothers Karl Bischoff of Canton and William Bischoff of NJ. Also survived by 14 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Quincy.

Other Obituaries On Page 30
and online at
www.thequincysun.com

She outlived
all her friends...
What should
we do?

Maybe we should first
ask these questions:
What about you? What about your friends?
We help lots of families balance what they'd like to do...

with the people who will be there, and the money that's available. What's the right thing to do? You decide...
At Keohane Funeral and Cremation Service we can help you find it.

John Keohane

Keohane
FUNERAL & CREMATION SERVICE

785 Hancock Street
Quincy

333 Hancock Street
North Quincy

21 Emerald Street
Hingham

www.Keohane.com
1-800-KEOHANE

OBITUARIES

Lucia C. O'Connell, 89

A Mass of Christian Burial for Lucia C. "Lucy" (Marrocco) O'Connell, 89, of Rhode Island and formerly of Quincy was celebrated at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mrs. O'Connell died Oct. 21.

She was born in Quincy and attended Quincy Public Schools. She was a caring nurturing person and was a second mother to many. She enjoyed cooking and knitting baby blankets for family and friends.

Wife of Late John G. O'Connell. Cherished mother and mother-in-law of Kathleen O'Connell and David Dow of RI. Beloved sister of Joseph Marrocco of Duxbury, Alfred Marrocco of Rockland, Rita Carver of FL, Dorothy Finn of Pocasset and the late Justino Marrocco, Constantino Marrocco, Eleanor Thorbahn and

LUCIA C. O'CONNELL

Frances Morrill. She was the adoring Grandmother of Emma and Jonathan Dow of RI. She is also survived by many loving nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Lydon Chapel for Funerals, 644 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to Mount Saint Rita health Center where she was so lovingly cared for during her last years at <http://www.mountstrita.org/>

Sheila G. Grant, 65

Regional Manager Eastern Newsstand

Private funeral services were held for Sheila G. (Cohen) Grant, 65, of Halifax, formerly of Quincy.

Mrs. Grant died Oct. 20 at Jordan Hospital.

Raised and educated in Quincy, she had lived in the city until 2011.

She had worked for 10 years as a regional manager for Eastern Newsstand. She enjoyed cruises and traveling to Hawaii.

The beloved wife of Arthur F. Grant to whom she was married for 48 years, she was the loving mother of Robert Grant of Raleigh, NC, Scott Grant of Quincy and Diane Fitzgerald of Rockland; dear grandmother of Kyle Fitzgerald, Corey Fitzgerald, Arthur Grant and Maxwell Grant; beloved sister of Noreen Burgess of Cranston, RI, Jaime Horn of Pocasset, Kelley Cipallo of Bourne, Mark Cohen of Brockton, Raymond Cohen of Framingham, Joseph Cohen of Modesto, CA and Michael Cohen of Kingston; and is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Dennis Sweeney Funeral Home, 74 Elm St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Heart Association, 20 Speen St., Framingham, MA 01701.

Frances Mancuso, 88

A funeral Mass for Frances (Ciraolo) Mancuso, 88, of Quincy was celebrated Wednesday at 10 a.m. at St. John's Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Mancuso died Sunday.

Born in Sicily, she was raised and educated in Italy and moved to Quincy in 1963. She was a longtime communicant of St. John's church.

Wife of the late Charles Mancuso. Daughter of the late Joseph and Pietera (Lamentola) Ciraolo. Mother of Peter Mancuso of Quincy and Joseph Mancuso and his wife Mary of Braintree. Sister of Angelo Ciraolo of Hanover and the late Joseph Ciraolo. Grandmother of Maureen, Lisa, Elizabeth, Joseph, Jr., and the late Matthew Mancuso. Also survived by nine great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Bolea-Buonfiglio Funeral Home, 116 Franklin Street, Quincy.

Interment was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Fall Fashion Show, Luncheon To Benefit DeVanna Center

A "Fall into Fashion Show" and luncheon to benefit the Dianne DeVanna Center, a program of Bay State Community Services, will be held Sunday, Nov. 4 from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Hatherly Country Club, Scituate.

Tickets are $45 per person. RSVP by Oct. 26.

Send checks payable to Bay State Community Services to BSCS, Megan Ward, 13 Temple St., Quincy, MA 02169, or Margaret Connolly, 164 Old Oaken Bucket Rd., Norwell, MA 02061.

Tickets will be held at the door. Call 617-471-8400 X181 for more information.

Stay Warm While Keeping Energy Costs Down

Cont'd From Page 25

through an open flue isn't as efficient as sealing off a fireplace and using the primary source of heat. For natural gas fireplaces, turn off the pilot light when not in use. Seal off the fireplace area or the flue area to prevent cold air from leaking in.

Seal duct work. This is the number one way to conserve energy. Make sure that all duct work is sealed at joints and intersections with duct sealer or silicon caulk. Otherwise, supply duct work can leak heated air into the attic or crawlspace, and outside air can be drawn into the return duct work, increasing costs and reducing comfort dramatically. Ducts can be sealed using foil-backed tape of silicon caulking.

Lower water heater to 120-125 degrees. Many water heaters are automatically set at 140 degrees. Lowering the temperature on your water heater to between 120 and 125 degrees will reduce the amount of fuel needed to heat the water.

Change furnace filters every month. This is the number one reason for furnace breakdowns. Inspect heating and cooling equipment annually, or as recommended by the manufacturer. Have a professional check and clean furnaces once a year.

Weather strip doors and windows. Inspect windows and doors for air leaks. If you can see daylight around a door or window frame, then the door or window needs sealing. Air leaks can be sealed with caulking or weather-stripping.

Insulate water pipes coming from the water heater. Insulate the first three to six feet of cold and hot water pipes near the water heater. Insulating all hot water pipes is not necessary where pipes are located in a crawlspace or attic.

Add an insulation blanket to the water heater. Wrapping the water heater with an insulation blanket can save heating money by slowing the drop in temperature from the hot water tank as it sits unused. Inexpensive insulation kits are available at most home improvement stores.

Add insulation to attic. When adding insulation, start at the top and work down only after eliminating air infiltration.

In addition to following these simple tips, National Grid offers several high efficiency heating program incentives to help make your home more energy efficient. For more information on National Grid's energy efficiency programs and incentives for resident, businesses and commercial customers, visit <https://www1.national-gridus.com/EnergyEfficiencyPrograms>.

Customers can also reach National Grid directly through their toll-free customer service line at 1-800-732-3400.

Medical Use Of Marijuana Topic At Kennedy Center

Arlene Goldstein of Bay State Community Services will be at the Kennedy Center, 440 East Squantum Street on Friday, Oct. 26th from 10 to 11 a.m. to discuss legalizing "medical" marijuana.

Come learn about Ballot Question 3 which proposes legalizing "medical" marijuana in Massachusetts. Find out more information on this issue so you can make an educated choice at the November polls.

The 20-minute presentation will be followed by a discussion. Is it only about "compassionate care?"

Light refreshments will be served

To attend this presentation, call the Quincy Council on Aging at (617) 376-1506.

Moments
in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Nov. 7, 1776, Congress chooses Richard Bache to succeed his father-in-law, Benjamin Franklin, as postmaster general. Franklin invested nearly 40 years in the establishment of a reliable system of delivering mail. He was fired in 1774 for opening and publishing Massachusetts Royal Governor Thomas Hutchinson's correspondence.

• On Nov. 5, 1895, Rochester, N.Y., patent attorney George Selden wins U.S. Patent No. 549,160 for an "improved road engine" powered by a "liquid-hydrocarbon engine of the compression type." With that, as far as the government was concerned, George Selden had invented the car -- though he had never built a single one.

• On Nov. 10, 1928, the first installment of "All Quiet on the Western Front," Erich Maria Remarque's acclaimed novel of World War I, is first published in serial form. Remarque's realistic depiction of trench warfare from the perspective of young soldiers was eventually translated into more than 20 languages.

• On Nov. 11, 1942, Congress approves lowering the draft age to 18 and raising the upper limit to age 37, increasing the number of draftees. During the first draft in 1940, 50 percent were rejected for health reasons and 20 percent of those who registered were illiterate.

• On Nov. 8, 1951, Yankees catcher Yogi Berra is voted the American League's most valuable player for the first time in his career. He went on to be the league MVP twice more, in 1954 and 1955.

• On Nov. 9, 1965, the biggest power failure in U.S. history occurs as all of New York state, and parts of seven neighboring states and eastern Canada are plunged into darkness. The blackout during the evening rush hour trapped 800,000 people in New York's subways and stranded thousands more in office buildings and elevators.

• On Nov. 6, 1977, the earthen Toccoa Falls Dam in northeastern Georgia gives way, and 39 people die in the resulting flood. A volunteer fireman had inspected the dam and found everything in order just hours before it suddenly failed, sending water approaching speeds of 120 mph thundering down the canyon and creek.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Council Unauthorizes $5,000 Sewer Fines

Cont'd From Page 1

ing at houses with his adult children, and he noticed an illegal sump pump that was original to the house.

"This particular house I saw on Penn's Hill, an 80+-year-old woman passed away, the children were now dealing with the house," Coughlin said. "The house was built in the 1940s -- the plumbing, that sump pump to the sewer drain, I could tell was original to the house. I'm assuming the 80+-year-old woman, she didn't know. The children...they probably don't know. I'm willing to bet that most people coming to buy that house aren't going to know that this is an illegal connection."

Councillor Doug Gutro added that he had a similar sump pump in his house fixed after he moved in and was only able to recognize it from his experience working for the EPA.

"My house was built in 1928, I bought in 2000. It had exactly that and because of what I do for a living I knew that was an illegal connection. I hired a plumber and had it remedied," Gutro said. "I'm of the mindset that you enlighten not frighten. You do a public education campaign and let people know the rules have changed."

Because of those concerns, Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee made an amendment to the ordinance, saying the fees and charges wouldn't be effective until July 1, 2013. Raymond said he was open to such an amendment.

"We're a department that's clearly moving in the direction of hopefully being more open and letting people know that we're going to hold them accountable but after a fair process of letting people know what we expect them to do," Raymond said.

The commissioner went on to explain that residents and businesses with legal connections needed to stop paying costs associated with unauthorized users. The city pays by volume and unaccounted for volume get passed onto customers.

"By no means is this not a tough ordinance -- it is," Raymond said. "But it needs to be. This is a protection of our infrastructure, and we're paying money because of the illegal, illicit use of our system. The rate-payers are subsidizing those people who are not playing by the rules."

The other new fees include $375 for a new connection, $200 a day for a sewer pipe inspection, and $25 for denying department employees access to property. For prohibited discharge, the new fines range from $1,000 for a first offense to $5,000 for third or subsequent offences for residential customers and from $2,500 to $7,500 for non-residential customers.

The city is also authorized to place liens on the property of customer who doesn't pay the charges quickly enough.

The new code also allows property owners of residential properties with four or fewer units to have their laterals cleaned, if needed, once per fiscal year by the Sewer Department at no cost to the owner. For residences with five or more units, or commercial properties, the owner would pay the cost for a lateral cleanout.

The council unanimously passed the overhaul of the sewer code and the new fees, and the ability to place liens.

By SCOTT JACKSON

Storm Vs. Elks, Panthers Vs. Mustangs In Final-Four

Youth Football Semi-Finals Under The Lights Saturday At Vets' Stadium

By SEAN HALPIN

It was a beautiful autumn afternoon of football on Sunday at Veterans Stadium as the Quincy Youth Football League completed its second round of Playoffs. The #2 seed, Quincy Point Panthers stood idle this week.

The #1 Seed, Squantum Storm hosted the Milton Mustangs in the early game. The Storm, coming off a two-week hiatus, put on a strong performance. RB Max Storch scored on a 12-yard TD run on the opening drive. RB Liam O'Connor rushed for the conversion making the score 7-0.

Later in the second quarter, Milton QB Jeff Wolfe scored from 1 yard out and rushed for the conversion, tying the game at 7-7. The Storm immediately fired back as RB O'Connor scored a 48 yard TD run on the first play of the series. The conversion rush was stopped but, the Storm took the lead, 13-7 at the half.

The Storm kicked off to the Mustangs to start the second half and managed to pin Milton deep on their own 2 yard line. Eight plays later, the Mustangs turned the ball over on downs on the 33 yard line.

The Storm capitalized on the field position as O'Connor scored on 4 yard TD run. O'Connor rushed in for the conversion making the score 20-7, Storm. On the next play from scrimmage, Storm DB Cullen Walsh recovered a Mustangs fumble on the 50 yard line. The Storm failed to capitalize.

Later in the fourth quarter, Safety Max Storch intercepted a mustang pass to seal the victory for the Storm.

Storm Head Coach Mike Killilea got some fine two-way performances from O'Connor, Storch, Raphy Veras, Luca Smith (9 Tackles), Mark Monahan, Zach Spencer, Cullen Walsh, Tim Layden, Tom Veasey, Christian Connors, Ryan Manning and Tom Jaehnig.

The Storm advances to the QYFL Final-Four next Saturday night. The #1Seed, Storm (4-1) will host the #3 Seed, West Quincy Elks (5-1) at 5 p.m. under the lights at Veterans Stadium. The #2 Seed, Quincy Point Panthers (4-1) will host the #4 Seed, Milton Mustangs at 6:30pm.

The second game of the afternoon featured the #3 seed, West Quincy Elks hosting the #5 North Quincy Apaches.

The Elks put up another dominating performance in their quest for the Title. On the opening series, Linebacker John Teixeira recovered

ELKS RUNNING BACK Davi Soares (#5) gains yardage as Matt Eagles(#24) of the Apaches closes in on the tackle.

STORM RB Liam O'Connor (#22) drives through Milton tacklers on his way to a endzone.

Photos Courtesy Diane O'Connor

ered an Apaches fumble setting up a 2 yard TD run by RB Aaron Etienne. Teixeira added the extra point making the score 7-0.

On the next series, the Elks defense forced the Apaches to punt. Teixeira returned the punt 35 yards for a TD. Etienne rushed in for the extra point extending the Elks lead to 14-0.

Later in the second quarter, Elks DE Patrick O'Callahan recovered an Apaches fumble. Five plays later, Teixeira scored on a 10 yard run making the score 20-0. Teixeira added another TD on a 1 yard run as the first half ended. The Elks entered the locker room with a 26-0 lead.

The second half opened with a long drive for the Elks that featured some fine running by Davi Soares, Shorn Hawthorn and Curtis Frazier. RB Davi Soares capped off the drive with a 7 yard TD run. The game ended with the final score:

Elks -32 Apaches-0.

This was the final game of the season for the North Quincy Apaches. Apaches Head Coach, Ted Arnott had some fine performances, particularly from his 8th graders: Chris Mann, Shawn Kelly, Brandon Chen, Brian Maloney, Ronan O'Farrell, Matt Eagles, Eric Huang, Robert Lindsay, Brendan Ganno, Derek Bille and Michael Dockery. Many of these players have been with the Apaches for over five seasons.

QYFL FINAL-FOUR PLAYOFF PREVIEW:

STORM Vs. ELKS: The #1 Squantum Storm (4-1) will host the #3 West Quincy Elks (5-1) Saturday night at 5 p.m. The Storm offense features the "Dynamic-Duo" of running backs in Liam O'Connor and Max Storch who have combined for 15 touchdowns this season. The Elks are lead by RB/LB John Teixeira (9 TD's), QB Angelo DePaulo and RB STORM RUNNING BACK Max Storch (#33) rushes the Ball with blocking from Cullen Walsh (#6).

Aaron Etienne.

The Storm defeated the Elks, 25-7 in a previous game this season. The defending champion, Elks will try to even the score with The Storm this Saturday night.

PANTHERS vs. MUSTANGS: The #2 Quincy Point Panthers (4-1) host the #4 Milton Mustangs (1-5) Saturday night at 6:30 p.m. The Panthers are lead by OL/DL Kevin Phu, QB Nick Mayberry, RB/DB Brendan Jenner and RB/LB Domenic Coleman who is the QYFL's leading scorer this season with 12 TD's. Despite their 1-5 record, The Mustangs Defense is one of the best in the League and has allowed only 54 points this season.

The Mustangs are lead by Lineman Jack Stetson, Michael Corcoran and Collin McSweeney and QB Jeff Wolfe. The Panthers continue their quest for their first QYFL title since 1992.

JUNIOR VARSITY RECAP: ELKS-14 APACHES-6

The West Quincy Elks Jayvee's defeated the previously unbeaten North Quincy Apaches on Saturday. Elks RB Curtis Frazier scored two Touchdowns and Connor Donahey scored for the Apaches.

MANETS-18 STORM-6

The Houghs Neck Manets continue to improve every week. This past Saturday, the Manets defeated the Storm Jayvee's 18-6 at Cavanaugh Field.

Bréndon O'Brien had 3 Touchdowns for the Manets. The Storm was lead by RB John Paul Kelly, also playing well for the Storm were Antonio Allen, Andrew Airosus, Mikey Adamson, Daniel Steele, Michael Golden, Josh Dangora Samantha Smith and Anthony Gattorna.

PANTHERS-13 MUSTANGS-0

Mario Vrapí scored on a 90 yard TD run for the

More Sports Pages 34, 35

Panthers and Jules Wiggins added the extra point. Later in the Game Mike Lommano scored as the Panther defeated the Mustangs Saturday at Fore River Field. Aiden O'Connell, Marcus Laptiste, Cullen O'Connell and Mark McKenna put in strong performances for the Panthers JV.

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION
Docket No. NO12P2375EA

Commonwealth of Massachusetts The Trial Court Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200

Estate of:
Linda Currier
Date of Death:
July 22, 2012

To all interested persons:
A petition has been filed by: John A Brusco of Norwood, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: John A Brusco of Norwood, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 11/07/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordonez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: October 4, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

10/25/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION GIVING NOTICE OF PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF CONSERVATOR OR OTHER PROTECTIVE ORDER PURSUANT TO G.L. c. 190B, §§-304 & §5-405

Docket No. NO12P2424PM

Commonwealth of Massachusetts The Trial Court

Probate and Family Court

Norfolk Probate

and Family Court

35 Shawmut Road

Canton, MA 02021

In the matter of:

Sandra Lee Mullen-Cunha

Of: Quincy, MA

RESPONDENT

(Person to be Protected/Minor)

To the named Respondent and all other interested persons, a petition has been filed by Victoria D Capuzzo of Orange, MA in the above captioned matter alleging that Sandra Lee Mullen-Cunha is in need of a Conservator or other protective order and requesting that Victoria D Capuzzo of Orange, MA (or some other suitable person) be appointed as Conservator to serve With Corporate Surety on the bond.

The petition asks the court to determine that the Respondent is disabled, that a protective order or appointment of a Conservator is necessary, and that the proposed conservator is appropriate. The petition is on file with this court.

You have the right to object to this proceeding.

If you wish to do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance at this court on or before 10:00 A.M. on the return date of 11/14/2012. This day is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline date by which you have to file the written appearance if you object to the petition. If you fail to file the written appearance by the return date, action may be taken in this matter without further notice to you. In addition to filing the written appearance, you or your attorney must file a written affidavit stating the specific facts and grounds of your objection within 30 days after the return date.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The outcome of this proceeding may limit or completely take away the above-named person's right to make decisions about personal affairs or financial affairs or both. The above-named person has the right to ask for a lawyer. Anyone may make this request on behalf of the above-named person. If the above-named person cannot afford a lawyer, one may be appointed at State expense.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordonez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: October 11, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

10/25/12

CLASSIFIEDS

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION

Docket No. NO12P2366EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200

Estate of:
Michael A Panarelli
Date of Death:
August 14, 2012

To all interested persons:
A petition has been filed by: Michael J Panarelli of North Dighton, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Michael J Panarelli of North Dighton, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 11/07/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordonez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: October 4, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate
10/25/12

REPORT POTHOLE

Potholes are a year-round problem and should be reported to the Department of Public Works.

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION GIVING NOTICE OF PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN FOR INCAPACITATED PERSON PURSUANT TO

G.L. c. 190B, §5-304
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
Docket No. NO12P2423GD

In the matter of:
Sandra Lee Mullen-Cunha
Of: Quincy, MA
RESPONDENT
Alleged Incapacitated Person

To the named Respondent and all other interested persons, a petition has been filed by Victoria D Capuzzo of Orange, MA in the above captioned matter alleging that Sandra Lee Mullen-Cunha is in need of a Guardian and requesting that Victoria D Capuzzo of Orange, MA (or some other suitable person) be appointed as Guardian to serve Without Surety on the bond.

The petition asks the court to determine that the Respondent is incapacitated, that the appointment of a Guardian is necessary, and that the proposed Guardian is appropriate. The petition is on file with this court and may contain a request for certain specific authority.

You have the right to object to this proceeding. If you wish to do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance at this court on or before 10:00 A.M. on the return date of 11/14/2012. This day is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline date by which you have to file the written appearance if you object to the petition. If you fail to file the written appearance by the return date, action may be taken in this matter without further notice to you. In addition to filing the written appearance, you or your attorney must file a written affidavit stating the specific facts and grounds of your objection within 30 days after the return date.

IMPORTANT NOTICE
The outcome of this proceeding may limit or completely take away the above-named person's right to make decisions about personal affairs or financial affairs or both. The above-named person has the right to ask for a lawyer. Anyone may make this request on behalf of the above-named person. If the above-named person cannot afford a lawyer, one may be appointed at State expense.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordonez, First Justice of this Court.
Date: October 11, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate
10/25/12

LEGAL NOTICE

INFORMAL PROBATE PUBLICATION NOTICE

Docket No. NO12P2218EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Division
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200

Estate of:
William John Cornwell
Also Known As:
Bill Cornwell
Date of Death:
July 20, 2012

To all persons interested in the above captioned estate, by Petition of:

Petitioner Charles F Cornwell of Standish, ME.
A Will has been admitted to informal probate.

Charles F Cornwell of Standish, ME has been informally appointed as the Personal Representative of the estate to serve without surety on the bond.

The estate is being administered under informal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but interested parties are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration. Interested parties are entitled to petition the Court to institute formal proceedings and to obtain orders terminating or restricting the powers of Personal Representatives appointed under informal procedure. A copy of the Petition and Will, if any, can be obtained from the Petitioner.
10/25/12

LEGAL NOTICE

INFORMAL PROBATE PUBLICATION NOTICE

Docket No. 12P2360
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Division
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200

Estate of:
Kathleen Madden
Date of Death:
July 2, 2012

To all persons interested in the above captioned estate, by Petition of:

Petitioner Michael Madden of Quincy, MA.

Michael Madden of Quincy, MA has been informally appointed as the Personal Representative of the estate to serve without surety on the bond.

The estate is being administered under informal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but interested parties are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration. Interested parties are entitled to petition the Court to institute formal proceedings and to obtain orders terminating or restricting the powers of Personal Representatives appointed under informal procedure. A copy of the Petition and Will, if any, can be obtained from the Petitioner.
10/25/12

PERSONAL

HAPPY 16TH BIRTHDAY JOHN CRUMP!

Love, Your Favorite Aunt and Godmother 10/25

Prayer to Blessed Virgin
"Oh, most beautiful, flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful vine, splendor of heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh, Star of the Sea, help me and show me, herein you are my Mother. Oh, Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth! I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in this necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mother, I place this cause in your hands (three times). Say this prayer 3 consecutive days, and then you must publish and it will be granted to you. Thanks to St. Anthony & St. Joseph. M.T. 10/25

FOR SALE

Moving, 2 TRUCKS
2002 Silverado 4x4 139,000 mi.
71/2 Ft. Plow Runs great $5,900.00
2002 Ford Ranger 103,000 mi.
Runs excellent. Looks great $3,500.00
Call (617) 773-4761 11/1

ANTIQUE AUTHENTIC YANKEE BEAN POT- 3 QT W/ STAMP '3' ON IT. $50 CALL 617-407-1055 10/25

FOR LEASE

COMMERCIAL SPACE AVAILABLE
1800 sq. ft. Including Loading Dock & Conveyor Belt 330 Washington St.
Quincy
Please call Nancy 857-312-3653 11/8

YOGA

GENTLE TO MODERATE
6 WEEKS $60- BEGINS OCT. 15TH
$12 WALK-IN
UNION CONG CHURCH
136 RAWSON RD.
CHRISTINE 617-472-7550
ONGOING SESSIONS 11/8

HELP WANTED

Great Holiday Job Opportunities!
Manage your own seasonal store.
Exciting concepts coming to Brockton Mall!
Earn extra $$$ for the Holidays!
Call Kathryn
888-422-5637x119 10/25

BORN AGAIN INTERNATIONAL MINISTRIES
33 Newport Ave. in Quincy looking to hire a part-time host pastor, outreach pastor, and a Sunday school teacher. Volunteer positions are also available. Interested candidates should send a CD or DVD of your preaching to P.O. Box 190936 Roxbury MA 02118 11/29

SERVICES

DCS PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

One call does it ALL!!!

• Fall Clean ups
• Snow Plowing
• Snow Removal & more

FREE ESTIMATES
10% OFF FIRST SERVICE

Joe (857)939-3442 11/7

AFFORDABLE, HIGHEST QUALITY PAINTING AND HANDYMAN SERVICES.
FREE Estimates • No Job Too Small • Insured • Quincy-Based
CALL KURT AT HAMMERHEAD SERVICES, LLC 901-219-9652 10/25

HAMMERHEAD GREEN

CERTIFIED MASS HERS RATER.
ASSIST BUILDERS IN MEETING STRETCH CODE COMPLIANCE.
ASSIST HVAC CONTRACTORS IN TESTING DUCT INSTALLATION.
OFFER ENERGY EFFICIENCY STRATEGIES, BLOWER DOOR & DUCT BLASTER TESTING FOR AIR LEAKAGE & THERMAL ENVELOPE TESTING. QUINCY BASED. CALL KURT AT HAMMERHEAD GREEN. 901-219-9652. 10/25

CLEANING SERVICES

DASILVA CLEANING SERVICES
Home & Office Cleaning
Professional, Affordable
Reliable & Trustworthy
Weekly or Bi-Weekly References
CALL MEIRY 781-803-2922 12/27

SISTERS CLEANING
IF YOU NEED SOMEONE TO CLEAN YOUR HOUSE. WE DO HOUSES, APTS & OFFICES.
CALL NOW 978-587-2252 12/27

SKIN CARE

FREE FACIAL

Individual or groups

MARY KAY
Celebrating 50 Years Skincare for Women Age 12 & Beyond
MICHELLE, Consultant
781-258-7564 TF

REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS

REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS

CITY OF QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS
PURCHASING DEPARTMENT

1305 HANCOCK ST., QUINCY, MA 02169

Invites sealed bids/proposals for furnishing and delivering to the City of Quincy:

TURNKEY PHOTOVOLTAIC INSTALLATION

NOVEMBER 14, 2012 @ 11:00 A.M.

The City of Quincy, Massachusetts is seeking a qualified supplier to provide turnkey photovoltaic installations on its public buildings, schools and land via Power Purchase Agreement ("PPA").

The objective of this Request for Qualifications (RFQ) is to identify and select the most qualified suppliers to then propose a turnkey photovoltaic system supplier. The winning supplier(s) will then begin negotiating for the design, qualification, assembly, test, shipping and installation, startup and monitoring of as much as 10 MW (or more) of fully functioning grid-connected PV systems, corresponding with the most advantageous PPA and largest financial benefit to the City.

Detailed specifications are available on-line at the City of Quincy's website, www.quincy.ma.gov and also available at the office of the Purchasing Agent, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, Massachusetts, 02169, between the hours of 8:30 AM and 4:30 PM for a non-refundable printing charge of $25.00

Bids/Proposals will be received at the office of the Purchasing Agent until the time and date stated above, at which time and date they will be opened and registered. Late Bids/Proposals, delivered by mail or in person, will be rejected.

Proposals must be in a sealed envelope/box. Submittals must be properly identified on the outer envelope: "REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS- TURNKEY PHOTOVOLTAIC INSTALLATION."

If applicable, bids shall be in accordance with M.G.L. Chapter 30B, Chapter 149 as amended, and Chapter 30, Sections 39A, 39B and 39F-R.

The right is reserved to reject any or all RFQ's or to accept any part of an RFQ or the one deemed best for the City, and waive any informalities in the bidding, if it is in the best interest of the City to do so.

Thomas P. Koch, Mayor
Kathryn R. Hobin, C.P.O.

10/18, 10/25/12

Quincy Can't Close The Deal Against Duxbury

By JEFF OHLSON

The Duxbury Green Dragons came into Veterans stadium riding a 32-game winning streak, and they left with their streak extended to 33 games with a 37-28 win over the Presidents.

Quincy didn't make it easy for Duxbury as Jalen Green had another huge game rushing for 151 yards.

The Presidents were up 12-7 at half time thanks to a Jaquan Harris interception return for a touchdown and a James Lam touchdown pass to Alex Heffernan. The Harris interception came with pressure on the quarterback by Peter Cedrone and Harris made the play and being a state qualifier in track, Harris was gone for six points. Quincy looked ready to upset the dragons.

"We had an opportunity to win this one. We just couldn't close the deal," said Quincy Coach Bill Reardon.

In the second half, the game was less about Duxbury coming back and more about lost opportunity for the Presidents. In the fourth quarter, Quincy was in position to drive on the Dragons after a fake punt netted the Presidents a first down. However, the play was nullified by a holding call.

"Going into the game, we knew this team was good. We could have stupid penalties we couldn't have turnovers. Now we didn't have any turnovers, the penalties killed us," Reardon said.

Another key penalty against the Presidents was a personal foul on a Quincy defensive lineman for kicking a Duxbury player in the helmet during a play in which Quincy recovered a fumble in a big defensive stand. The crowd roared in displeasure over the call and the referees failed to explain the play to Quincy Coach Bill Reardon.

"The mystery personal foul. Called for kicking a lineman in the face during the play? In was a turnover for us, we had the ball, and you would imagine it would be a dead ball foul, but they said he kicked him in the face during the play. I don't know how you kick him in the face during the play? I have no idea," Reardon said.

Quincy's offense looked good against a very good defense. Not only did Jalen Green have his usual big game, but sophomore quarterback James Lam also was solid with no turnovers and three touchdown passes, two to Alex Heffernan. Heffernan seemed to get open every play for the Presidents and had a big day. To go with his big interception return, Jaquan Harris also had a touchdown catch. Lam's development as a passer has been big for Quincy.

"He did great under the circumstances, there were breakdowns but he doesn't get flustered and you love that about him" said Coach Reardon.

Although the final score was 37-28, the game was a lot closer than that score indicated as Quincy was down by 23-20 with only six minutes to go in the game. It's another tough loss for Quincy but they have a lot to build on.

"Kids fought hard and we feel like we have a ton to build on. They are playing great, we just got to get rid of the penalties, we really got to get rid of the penalties."

The Presidents host Scituate tomorrow (Friday) at 4:30 p.m. in the first game of a double-header at Veterans Memorial Stadium. North Quincy entertains Hanover in the nightcap starting at 7:30 p.m.

Gabby Zorkers had five kills and two aces. Emma Kelly had eight digs and one ace. Dunbar had five kills, two aces and two digs, and Caroline McBride had three kills and one block.

"Alysha played consistent and well. Laura swung great on the outside. Rachel played pretty well too."

The Presidents traveled to Duxbury Friday and defeated the Green Dragons in four sets, 21-25, 27-25, 25-17 and 25-22. After dropping the first set, Quincy picked up steam and ultimately prevailed in the three close sets that followed.

Jorgensen was a rock, finishing the night with nine kills and seven blocks. Connolly had nine digs and two aces and Laura Donahue ended with six kills and a block.

Quincy hosted Rockland Monday and beat the Bull Dogs 3-0.

"There was a great overall team effort," said Niosi. Collectively the team recorded 30 kills 18 digs and nine aces.

The Presidents hosted Silver Lake on Wednesday at 5 p.m. and will travel to Hanover Friday at 5 p.m.

—By COLLEEN CASEY

North Quincy Loses Heartbreaker To Scituate

By COLLEEN CASEY

Things were not looking good for North Quincy when they entered the locker room during halftime Friday. The Red Raiders were trailing the Sailors 20-7 after a miserable, rainy two quarters. North knew they needed to turn things around fast if they wanted to win.

Determined to score, North started the second half with an impressive 83-yard drive, led by senior quarterback Andrew Minton (13 of 23, 143 yards passing) and senior running back Cole Barrett (27 yards on 10 carries). But on fourth and seven, with North knocking on the door, Scituate's Jack White scooped up a pass that bounced off a receiver's foot and returned the interception 99-yards to give Scituate a 27-6 lead.

"We do it right down the field. And it ends up being 7 for them, that's a 14-point swing, not getting in and giving that up," said Connor. "And then we come down and score and score again. There's a lot to be proud of."

The Raiders refused to back down, and persevered to score on their following two drives to cut the lead, 27-20 with 4:00 remaining in the game.

North responded to the "immaculate reception" with a 75-yard push up the field, capped by a 2-yard score from junior running back Eddie Guinto (40 yards on 11 carries). Minton plowed through on the keeper to earn the extra two points as the clock expired in the third.

Antoine Allen (79 yards on 11 carries), Barrett and Guinto took turns running the ball forward the next drive. Allen found the end zone from 10-yards out and Minton ran in for the conversion to put the game in reach.

"I saw a lot of toughness from their defense," said Allen. "They were quick. I just found the holes. I busted my butt to find the holes and breakaway."

But Scituate was not done. Junior running back Dwyane Kirton (131 yards on 17 carries) and quarterback Mike Stewart took turns carrying the ball, and Kirton capped a 9-play drive with a 6-yard score. Francis Donovan's kick was good to give the Sailors a 34-22 lead.

North got the ball back with 2:00 minutes remaining. Minton connected with Barrett and Allen to move the Raiders up to Scituate's 28-yard line, but solid Scituate defense forced a turnover on downs to secure the victory.

"I'm proud of the kids for fighting back," said coach Jim Connor. "We were down 27-6 and they got momentum and it's their homecoming. There are a lot of things to come back from. But our kids showed a lot of heart and came back."

The Raiders recovered the opening kickoff and Minton hit Allen with a 13-yard pass to give them a 6-0 advantage early on. Vinny Tran recovered a fumble on Scituate's following drive, but the Raider's were forced to punt after six plays.

"That's what Andrew can do. He's got it in the tank. He's hitting them right on the money and he's great under pressure. He's a heck of player and did a great job. He ran the whole offense well," said Connor.

Stewart, who was 3 of 4 with 86 yards passing in the first, scored on a 10-yard run to end the opening quarter.

North started with the ball in the second and was forced to punt on fourth down. However Scituate blocked the punt and Pat Twohig picked up the ball and carried it 5-yards into the end zone to put the Sailors up 13-6.

"We had a blocked punt for a touchdown and a 99-yard interception return for a touchdown against us. It hits a foot. It's a series of unfortunate events," said Connor. "That kind of stuff happens. We were just trying to keep fighting through it. I thought we did. I tip my hat to Scituate they got the job done."

Kirton scored for Scituate at the end of the first. He broke several tackles and rushed 39-yards into the end zone.

White had an interception North's responding drive to return the ball to Scituate. But the Sailors did not score thanks to Barrett, who pulled down an interception pass and returned the ball to North as the clock ran out to end the half.

Veterans' Memorial Stadium will host a Patriot League football double-header Friday. Quincy will play Scituate at 4:30 and North will face Hanover at 7:30.

North Quincy Girls' Volleyball Downs Hingham, In Second Place

By COLLEEN CASEY

Although the North Quincy girls' volleyball team lost a tough 3-0 battle with league opponent Pembroke on the road last Friday, the Red Raiders bounced back and defeated Hingham 3-0 Monday.

North Quincy (12-3) is currently in second place in the Patriot League, behind Quincy (13-2) and Pembroke (14-2) who are tied for first. Friday's loss put them out of the running for the league championship.

"We played down there in a loud environment," said coach Kerry Ginty of the loss to Pembroke. "Pembroke played really well. The crowd got to us and we ended up losing three games straight which is so not like us."

But the Raiders were able to move on, and quickly. They sent the Harborwom-en home in three quick sets, 25-17, 25-13 and 24-14. The senior on the squad, Elaine Chan, Lisa Wong, Shannon Callaghan, Rose Bennett, Natasha Sautter and Emily Luc, showcased their experience.

"We played well we got some great play from some of the seniors," said Ginty. "Rose has always done well for us. We moved her back to the outside. Shannon Callaghan played solid couple games in the middle, as well as Lisa Wong. Lisa's been setting for the last two games and came on strong to help us settle down the court."

Luc had solid back row play, finishing the night with 13 digs.

With the season winding down, North has been preparing itself both mentally and physically for tournament play. Tournament games draw big crowds and are typically played on the road in neutral locations.

Ginty has scheduled a non-league game down in Brockton for Monday.

"We always go down there at the end of the season," said Ginty. "They're an athletic team and the environment will imitate a tournament game. We're getting ourselves mentally ready for pressure situations and a loud crowd. It's going to be good for us to be in those types of games. Being away at the end of the season is always good."

The Red Raiders will also travel to Silver Lake Friday and take on the Lakers at 5 p.m. The game will be another test for them leading into the final stretch.

Ginty added, "We'd love to have a crowd follow and come down to support us. To have support is fantastic."

Quincy Girls' Volleyball Tied For League's Top Spot

With playoffs right around the corner, the Quincy girls' volleyball team has continued to excel, winning three of their past three matches. Quincy (13-2) is now tied with Pembroke (14-2) for the top spot in the Patriot League.

The Presidents dominated Patriot League foe Hingham last week, sweeping the Harborwomen 28-26, 25-19, 25-13.

Quincy coach Jacqui Niosi was pleased with the victory.

"Hingham played aggressive," said Niosi. "We started off slacking a bit but we picked up our momentum towards the end."

The first set was close, with neither team managing to gain more than a four-point lead. Stellar serving from junior setter Courtney Ryan kept the Presidents alive after some communication mishaps, but Quincy held on to take the first set.

"Courtney served great. She got us some pretty big leads in the game, which was helpful," said Niosi.

Senior Michelle Connolly served Quincy to five straight points to start the second. Hingham eventually tied the game 14-14, but Quincy was able to take advantage of the Harborwomen's mistakes and pulled away. Senior captain Alysha Dunbar and freshman Nicole Jorgensen were prominent, earning crucial points with decisive kills.

Quincy kept improving and played their best by the third set. After dropping a point at the beginning, Ryan went on a seven-point serving streak that included back-to-back-to-back aces to put the Presidents out in front. The Harborwomen couldn't catch up, and ultimately committed five service errors before the end of the set.

The 6-foot-3 Jorgensen was huge for the Presidents, keeping the momentum rolling with monstrous blocks and kills that made even the Hingham players want to get out of the way.

"She's come along way in a short amount of time," said Niosi of Jorgensen. "She's very athletic and a nice kid, very coachable. When she gets a good kill it's pretty hard. It grabs your attention. She's learning consistency and the correct arm swing. But she's doing really well."

Rachel Papile had seven kills. Ryan had 25 assists, six aces, six digs and one block.

Cross Country

North Girls Grab Share Of Patriot Fisher Crown

North Quincy's girls did what they had to in order to win.

They swept the top three spots over the 2.5-mile Pageant Field course led by a record-breaking performance by Emily Bryson and topped the Titans 25-30. Bryson smashed the old course record of 15:55 set in 2010 by Emily Bittrich of Duxbury with a wire-to-wire 15:17. The sophomore went through the mile split in 5:38 and never looked back.

Danielle Mullaney (16:02) and Julia Bryson (16:17) took 2nd and 3rd to clinch the victory. Mary Zheng and Marguerite Belcher finished 9th and 10th for the Raiders to close out the scoring.

"I took the kids aside prior to the start and said 'this is for Briana' and they responded," said Coach Geoff Hennessy.

Teammate senior Briana Mullaney has been unable to run due to a heart condition after passing out in the Scituate meet.

"She knew she couldn't go for us even though she still jogs and jumps in some workouts, but she's being closely monitored. It's nothing deadly, but she's just tired all the time. Hopefully things will work out.

"She plays hockey and runs spring track as well, but it's looking like the fall is a wash. She worked the finish line today and nobody wanted to disappoint. The team ran like women possessed," Hennessy added.

EMILY BRYSON of the North Quincy girls' cross country team set a new 2.5-mile Pageant Field course record with a 15:17 mark to lead the Red Raiders over Pembroke.

Indeed every athlete ran a seasonal personal best, and broke 20 minutes.

"That's never happened before since we designed this course," said Hennessy. He pointed out that 19th finisher Samantha Feeney improved from 27 minutes to 19:59 over the season. "In our sport you see yourself improve. Sometimes that's the only thing that keeps kids going.

"I gave her a special clock that was given me by a friend just to express how proud I was of her. It shows what hard work and consistent attendance can do."

Mike Mullaney continued on his tear across the Patriot league winning again to remain undefeated posting a personal best 13:52 clocking. Despite that, the Raiders dropped a 20-40 decision to the consensus League champs and possibly All-state champs. "Pembroke is a top team state wise," said Hennessy. "They're talented, deep and well coached."

Danny Tran was 10th for NQ.

North traveled to Whitman-Hanson (10/23) for their final dual meet and then will travel to Silver Lake for the Patriot League championship.

"We didn't race well last time we were here and I let them know it. This time we can make things right."

All runners will attend as there are JV as well as Varsity runs over the three-mile circuit.

North Quincy Girls' Soccer Wins 3

By COLLEEN CASEY

With the 2012 soccer season nearing an end, the North Quincy girls' team has continued marching towards one of the most successful seasons in team history. North won three out of four games last week to climb to second place in the Patriot Fisher Division.

The Red Raiders (13-3-2, 6-3-2 Fisher Division) traveled to Middleborough and came away with a 2-0 victory despite horrible weather conditions. Sophomore midfielder Courtney Campo notched her fourth goal of the season. Freshman forward Marissa McGue gave North some breathing room early in the second off a feed from Campo to score her 10th goal of the season. Outstanding defense from Sydney Chang, Lauren Campo and Julia O'Donnell thwarted the Sachems' scoring attempts. Senior keeper Christine Kelliher posted the shutout.

North then traveled to Cambridge Rindge and Latin and blanked the Falcons 3-0. Freshman Molly Donahue took a pass from Courtney Campo and buried the shot from 15-yards out. Senior striker Shannon McCleary then converted an Alie Coleman feed for her ninth goal of the year. Danielle Paschall notched her sixth of the year off an assist from Campo. Liz Kelly and Kelliher shared the shutout.

The Raiders hosted Scituate in a game that decided the Fisher Division champion. North came up short, losing a hard fought test 2-1. After the Sailors scored midway through the first half, McCleary lofted a shot over the visiting keeper to tie the game. Ciara Forde got the assist. North fought valiantly the rest of the half, but Scituate scored the game winner with 14 minutes remaining.

In their final game of the week, the Raiders dominated Silver Lake at Veterans' Memorial Stadium and came away with 3-1 win. McCleary put North on the scoreboard when her direct kick from 25-yards out found the back of the net. McCleary added another early in the second, earning her 12th of the season. Forde finished the scoring. She crashed the net and tracked the ball over the goal line off a shot from McGue. Haley McKay, Arianna Viscione and Abby Smith led the defense.

"We lost a tough one to Scituate," said coach Paul Bregoli. "But the girls still have a chance for 15 wins, which would break a school record. The 2001 set the record with 14 wins."

The junior varsity team beat Hanover 2-1. Freshman Emily Anglehart scored two goals, bringing her season total to 19. Kelly Shionis got the win in goal.

QUINCY-NORTH QUINCY Football Hall of Fame Committee presented special mementos to Mayor Thomas Koch and School Supt. Dr. Richard DeCristofaro to commemorate the 80th Thanksgiving Day game between the Presidents and Red Raiders Nov. 22. The mayor, a 1981 graduate of North Quincy High School, holds a red Raider hat while Dr. DeCristofaro, a 1970 graduate of Quincy High School, holds a blue hat for the Presidents. The jerseys they are holding are two-sided. The front of the mayor's jersey is North Quincy black and the back is white for Quincy while the superintendent's jersey is white on the front for Quincy and black on the back for North Quincy.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

White And Blue For Quincy,

Black And White For North Quincy

Commemorative 80th Q-North Thanksgiving Football Jerseys On Sale

By COLLEEN CASEY

It's official.

In honor of the 80th Thanksgiving Day Football game this year, both the Quincy and North Quincy teams will be wearing commemorative jerseys to honor the 80-year old rivalry.

The Quincy Presidents (3-4) will be sport white jerseys with blue numbers. The Red Raiders (2-4) will wear black jerseys with white numbers. The front of the jerseys have a football with 80th Anniversary inside of it, with Thanksgiving Day Football 1932-2012 underneath.

Replica jerseys are on sale now. Adult sizes medium, large, X-Large and 2XL are available for $40 each. If you are interested mail a check payable to the Football Hall of Fame to Ron Ivil, 23 Grampian Way Weymouth, MA 02188. Or call 781-337-0062. Enclose your school preference, size and number desired.

"We're very happy. They turned out really nice," said Hall of Fame President Ron Ivil. "I think they're going to be a success. We're just glad we could do it for the kids."

To raise funds for other 80th Anniversary Thanksgiving Day game activities, the Hall of Fame is holding a 1950's themed fundraiser on Friday, Oct. 26 from 7-11 p.m. at the Sons of Italy in Quincy. The event will include a silent auction, buffet and music from two 1950's themed bands, The Aladdins and McNulty Pride featuring Ray Papile.

For more information contact Joe Minukas at j.minukas@comcast.net.

Ivil would like to thank committee members Kenny Burgess, George Mallett, Matt Ivil, Priscilla Ivil, Kathy Minukas and Connie Lombardi for organizing the fundraiser.

VOICE FOR HEALTH

by Dr. Gabrielle Freedman
Chiropractor

SHARED SENSE OF RESPONSIBILITY

You certainly don't have to be a chiropractor to appreciate the brain's importance as the center of the nervous system and its ability to exert centralized control over every organ in the body. In order to preserve the health and well-being of the brain, chiropractors have been trumpeting the importance of wearing protective helmets when cycling and participating in other sports and activities. It is alarming, therefore, that new research indicates that four out of five Americans participating in public bike-sharing programs do not wear helmets, which places them at increased risk for head injuries. This is a significant finding when one considers that head injuries account for about 33% of all bicycle injuries and about 75% of bicycle-related deaths.

We recommend wearing helmets whenever possible. Our body is normally very resilient. However it does have limits that need to be respected. At FAMILY PRACTICE OF CHIROPRACTIC, we work with the nervous, muscular, and skeletal systems to correct faults and relieve pain. We're located at 112 McGrath Hwy., Quincy. Please call 617.472.4220 to schedule an appointment. We offer computerized spinal scans. We are able to adjust patients sitting, standing, or lying down to accommodate any level of discomfort. If your problem is a chiropractic condition we offer you exceptional service.

P.S. By removing impingements that restrict the flow of nerve energy, the chiropractor helps ensure that the brain can exert its beneficial effects across the entire body.

Check us out on facebook:
<http://www.facebook.com/familypacticeofchiropractic>

www.freedmanchiro.com

AGNITTI INSURANCE

HOME • AUTO • BUSINESS
LIFE • FINANCIAL

Anthony L. Agnitti, CIC, LIA
Certified Insurance Counselor
Licensed Insurance Advisor
CALL FOR A QUOTE ON PROPER INSURANCE
COVERAGE AT COMPETITIVE PRICES!
ASK ABOUT OUR AUTO AND HOMEOWNER INSURANCE
DISCOUNT PROGRAMS
24-Hour Emergency Access
770-0123
21 FRANKLIN ST., QUINCY

ASTRONAUT DANIEL BURBANK recently visited students at the Merrymount Elementary School. Students who participate in the after-school Space Camp program also met Burbank before he spoke to the entire school. From left to right is Team Apollo: Kylie Acerra, SaiTeja Thirakala, Subhash Madiraju, and Fallon Hobin.

Quincy Sun Photos/ Emily Taft

OTHER STUDENTS who participate in the after-school Space Program with Astronaut Daniel Burbank are (from left) Team Columbia: Samantha Coletti, Courtney Dondero, Ellie Anderson, and Emily Kraunelis. Students who participate in the after school program work in teams and learn about space exploration using science, technology, engineering, and math concepts.

MERRYMOUNT TEACHER Lorie Hammerstrom (right) asked Astronaut Daniel Burbank (left) to speak at the school and meet with the 51 students who participate in the after school Space Camp program.

NASA'S Daniel Burbank Flew On Two Shuttle Missions 'Follow Your Dreams,' Astronaut Encourages Merrymount Students

By EMILY TAFT

NASA Astronaut Daniel Burbank recently visited the Merrymount School and talked with students about his time in space and urged them to believe they are capable of achieving their dreams.

"I didn't want to be an Astronaut. I was very interested in the concept but I didn't think I was smart enough, and I was wrong," said Burbank. "You have no idea what you are capable of doing, believe in your capabilities and believe in what you can do. If it is something you want to do it is within your power to do it.

"There are three things you want to do to become who you want to be. First you have to work hard, pick things you love to do so it doesn't feel like work. Second be good and genuinely care about the people around you, and lastly don't give up, be willing to try again."

After attending the Advanced Honeywell Educators Space Academy at the U.S. Pace and Rocket Centre in Huntsville, Alabama, Merrymount teacher Lorie Hammerstrom became more enthralled in space and NASA, which brought her to want to bring an Astronaut to the school.

"I met a man who organizes Astronaut visits in the area and he asked if I was interested in having a visit, and I said of course I was," said Hammerstrom. "I asked the parent teacher organization (PTO) to pay for the visit and they were thrilled to support it. It was important to have him come because it brings space travel alive for the kids. They get to meet someone who has actually been in space, and who was the commander of the international space station."

Hammerstrom, who teaches 4th grade science and social studies, developed Merrymount's after school Space Camp program after receiving the Ezickson Award, a mini grant that allowed her to fund the program. The program is meant to teach kids about space exploration using science, technology, engineering and math concepts. After eight sessions students will each take on a segment of what they learned and share it with the parents at a graduation ceremony hosted by the PTO. The program is so popular that this year Hammerstrom said she has 51 students, so she had to break the program up into three sessions.

"Students learn to work in teams each week," said Hammerstrom. "They created a mission patch on the first week and chose an astronaut to research. We will also look at planet exploration, looking at what is happening currently to creating our own planet rover, landing unit and rocket to explore a new (fictional) planet that we have named Planet Hammer. During our last class the kids will run a simulation where they will have to fix the Hubble Space Telescope using tools similar to those NASA might use."

Hammerstrom asked Burbank to come to the school and meet with not only the students who participate in the after school program but also to talk with the entire school about his job.

"Having Dan Burbank come really excited the kids and made it that much more real to them," said Hammerstrom. "The kids were so excited to meet Dan and they loved his presentation. I think they will remember it for years to come."

Burbank was selected by NASA in 1996 where he then reported to the Johnson Space Center and worked on technical assignments in the Astronaut Office Operations Planning branch and the International Space Station branch, along with serving as Capsule Communicator for both space shuttle and station missions. Burbank is a veteran of two space shuttle missions, the ISS Expedition 29 and the Expedition 30. He returned recently to Earth after spending six months aboard the ISS Expedition where he served as the commander.

For Hammerstrom Burbank's visit to the school was a dream come true.

"As a space enthusiast, and as someone who has been to the advanced space academy, it was a dream come true to have a real live astronaut in my own classroom," Hammerstrom said. "He lived his dream and they (the students) can live their dreams too, whatever they are."

Join us as we celebrate the Grand Opening of our new Quincy Branch at
60 McGrath Highway!

Stop by our new and improved branch and enter to win one of our prizes each week!

Week 1: $100 American Express Gift Card	Week 2: $250 Gift Card for Dinner at Top of the Hub	Week 3: Weekend Getaway to Washington, DC
--	--	---

Week 4: Grand Prize Cruise to the Caribbean!
Subject to availability.

No purchase necessary to enter. Entries must be received before October 27, 2012. Open to residents of Massachusetts who are 18 years of age or older at the time of entry. Employees of Bank of Canton, their subsidiaries and affiliates, their vendors, and immediate family members are not eligible to win. For official sweepstakes rules, please visit a Bank of Canton branch or call 888.828.1690. Odds of winning depend on the number entries received.

Bank of Canton
Member FDIC
Member NCUA

888.828.1690 • 60 McGrath Highway, Quincy, MA 02169 • www.bankofcanton.com

BOOK YOUR PARTY NOW FUNCTION SPACE AVAILABLE

The View Restaurant & Tavern
PRESIDENTS GOLF COURSE
357 West Squantum St., Quincy, MA 02171
617.770.2500
SERVING BREAKFAST, LUNCH & DINNER

9th Grader Nancy Aimola Honored

Page 25

D.A.'s 'Be A Hero' Campaign

Page 24

69
THOMAS CRAN PUBLIC LIBRARY
PO BOX 699164
QUINCY MA 02269-9164
CAR-RT LOT#B-09

The Quincy Sun

Historic Quincy's Hometown Weekly Newspaper Since 1968

VOL. 45 No. 7

Thursday, November 1, 2012

75c

Happy 100th, Montclair School!

MONTCLAIR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL students Juliana Beane (left) and Cailynn McGuinness (right) hold up the centennial program for the school's recent 100th anniversary celebration.

THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY celebration held at the Montclair School Oct. 20 was attended by 500 former and present students, administrators and teachers. They included Claire Holbrook (left), a retired Montclair School secretary and retired kindergarten teacher Janice Erler.

Quincy Sun Photos/Lisa Aimola

CENTENNIAL EVENTS included Montclair School fifth graders who performed their own rendition of Madonna's song, "Vogue." Story, other photos on Page 23.

72% Voter Turnout Seen Here President, Senate Races In Spotlight Next Tuesday

By ROBERT BOSWORTH

With the ever-tightening Presidential and U.S. Senate races in their final days, more than 41,000 Quincy voters are expected to cast ballots in next Tuesday's state election.

The Nov. 6th election — particularly the race for the White House between President Barack Obama and former Massachusetts Governor Mitt Romney and the U.S. Senate showdown between incumbent Scott Brown and challenger Elizabeth Warren — is generating wide-spread interest locally.

Sample Ballot - Page 19
Ballot Questions - Pages 20-21
Where to Vote - Page 22
Ward & Precinct Street Directory - Pages 12-16 -

The city's number of registered voters is at an all-time high of 57,612, says City Clerk Joseph Shea. That registration number includes 3,742 new voters who registered during an eight-week period from

Aug. 17 to Oct. 17.

Traditionally, turnout for Presidential elections has been among the highest for all city elections. Four years ago, 70.65 percent of the city's 56,364 voters went

Cont'd On Page 10

Superstorm Sandy Packs Coastal Punch Here

Fallen Trees, Storm Surge, Downed Power Lines
Cause Major Disruption, Moderate Damage

Quincy took its punch from Superstorm Sandy standing up Monday, with emergency workers able to keep pace with the fallen trees, storm surge and downed power lines that caused a major disruption and moderate damage throughout the city, Mayor Thomas Koch said Tuesday.

"We were ready for the worst, and I am grateful for the tremendous work performed by all of our emergency responders — from department heads on down — who were out there on the ground throughout the storm and made a great dif-

Cont'd On Page 16

New Neighborhood Watch Signs Posted In Ward 2

By SCOTT JACKSON

Throughout Ward 2 last week, 15 new signs alerting would-be criminals about a neighborhood crime watch were installed.

The new signs were installed as part of Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall's CAP (citizens alert police) initiative with House Majority Leader Ron Mariano's assistance. They warn, "if I don't call the police, my neighbor will." Croall wants the signs to encourage neighbors to network with each other and Community Police Officer Matt Miller to discourage crimes.

"One of the platforms

Cont'd On Page 2

For more Quincy news, visit:

The Quincy Sun.com

Neponset Bridge Complete - Page 3 ♦ Wreath Ceremony Nov. 8 - Page 35
Maryrose Mirick Representing 'Go Red For Women' - Page 11

New Neighborhood Watch Signs Posted In Ward 2

Cont'd From Page 1

that I ran on was installing a citizens alert police initiative which is really just designed to help neighbors network with each other and further strengthen the relationship with the community police officer and also the department and hopefully put ourselves in the best place possible to discourage any criminal activity," Croall said.

Croall explained that he doesn't think crime is a major issue in Ward 2, which stretches from Quincy Point west to Franklin Street and from School Street south to the Braintree and Weymouth lines.

"Any time that you deal with a city the size of Quincy you have issues. But again, we're taking a proactive approach to engage and involve the neighborhoods. Ron extended himself within the program to provide the resources and make the signage possible," Croall said.

"Brad and I were talking and he mentioned that this was one of his initiatives and I asked how can I help and he said 'you can buy the signs' so I said I can do that," Mariano said. "I want to be supportive of the initiative's Brad has started coming in as a new councillor. He has a lot of good ideas and we talk constantly and I think that communication alerted me to issues down here that he was aware of that I wasn't."

Miller, in his third year as Ward 2's community police officer, called the signs an effective tool for policing.

"The signage is a good thing in two ways. One, it deters crime by criminals knowing that there's a sign here that the community is active and aware of what's going on. And secondly it tells the neighborhood to call the police when they see something," Miller said. "It's a very good tool for policing."

Mariano added that Ward 2 is an ideal place to install the signs because of how tight-knit the neighborhood is.

"You're not really going to always have a participation to have a crime watch together, but this has always been a fairly solid neighborhood. People don't leave, houses are passed from generation to generation," Mariano said. "It re-establishes those roots, and brings people back together."

"If you're going to break into houses and you're looking around at two in the morning and you see them you say 'maybe I should go somewhere else because maybe someone is looking out the window and these people will call the cops.'"

The signs are new, but Croall said his constituents are already behind his CAP initiative. He's hosted three community meetings - two at the Fore River Clubhouse and another in the Penn's Hill area - focused on the initiative.

"You need the people to drive the initiative, I think that was evidenced certainly at the first meeting. We had over 100 attendees so there's an appetite for this," Croall said.

Crane Library Closed

Nov. 12, Nov. 22

The Thomas Crane Public Library will be closed on Monday, Nov. 12 to observe Veterans Day.

For Thanksgiving, the library will close at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 21 and will remain closed all day on Thursday, Nov. 22.

The Main Library will be open regular hours again beginning Friday, Nov. 23 and continuing through the Thanksgiving weekend.

NEW NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH signs have been posted throughout Ward 2 thanks to a collaborative effort by state Rep. Ron Mariano (left) and Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall (center). The signs are an effective tool for policing, says Community Police Officer Matt Miller (right).

Quincy Sun Photo/Emily Taft

W ARCHBISHOP
WILLIAMS
HIGH SCHOOL

Open House

Thursday, November 8
6-8pm

80 Independence Avenue, Braintree, MA 02184

Meet current students, faculty, and coaches, and learn more about the admissions process.

Pre-register at: www.awhs.org/events

Manet Community Health Center

We are a not-for-profit health and social services provider and we exist to be your partner for a healthier life.

Thank you for your patience as we upgrade our electronic health record system on November 1st!

Your VOTE "counts" Vote November 6th!

Chúng tôi nói tiếng việt

我們說中文

نتكلم العربية

हम हिंदी बोलते है

Hough's Neck

Phone: (617) 471 8683

Hull

Phone: (781) 925 4550

North Quincy

Phone: (617) 376 3000

Snug Harbor

Phone: (617) 471 4715

Quincy Medical Center

Phone: (857) 403 0820

Massachusetts League
of Community Health Centers

DEAP
DIABETES EDUCATION
ACCREDITATION PROGRAM

AADE American Association
of Diabetes Educators

www.manetche.org

$33.7M Neponset River Bridge Project Completed

Local elected officials joined Lt. Gov. Tim Murray and MassDOT Secretary and CEO Richard Davey last Thursday to celebrate the completion of the Neponset River Bridge that links Quincy to Boston.

The milestone was ushered in with the removal of the barrels that have been staged to channel vehicles traveling over the bridge during construction, meaning drivers now have full use of the bridge.

"Governor Patrick and I are committed to working with cities and towns to invest in critical infrastructure improvements," Murray said. "In working with both Quincy and Boston through the state's Accelerated Bridge Program, we are finishing major renovations to the Neponset River Bridge Project ahead of schedule and look forward to future economic growth opportunities and a better quality of life for the community."

Some minor finish work and punch-list items remain, however any lane restrictions will be done during off-peak travel periods and will not affect normal commuting hours, state officials said.

The project, which began in February 2010, was a $33.7 million reconstruction of the structurally deficient bridge. Funded by the Patrick-Murray Administration's Accelerated Bridge Program, the project was originally scheduled to be fully complete in August 2013, however, because of an aggressive construction schedule, it will now finish in March 2013 — five months ahead of its original schedule.

"The Neponset River Bridge is a critical link between Quincy and Boston, and we're excited to see this finish ahead of schedule," said Secretary Davey. "I want to thank our District 6 Construction team and our contractor JF White for their hard work in finishing early."

"I appreciate MassDOT's willingness to work with the City of Quincy to limit traffic disruptions and reduce abutment impacts as much as possible," said State Sen. John Keenan of Quincy. "The Neponset River Bridge is a critical link between Quincy and Boston and is another example of the state's commitment to rebuilding our infrastructure."

"It is important that Quincy legislators continue to capitalize on the state funding necessary to repair our bridges and roadways for the future of our economic development," said state Rep. Bruce Ayers whose legislative district includes the bridge area.

PUBLIC OFFICIALS cut a ribbon marking the completion of the $33.7 million Neponset River Bridge project. The bridge that connects Quincy to Boston is visible in the background. From left are: Thomas Tinlin, commissioner of the Boston Transportation Department; Ward 3 Councillor Kevin Coughlin, Sen. Jack Hart of Dorchester, Sen. John Keenan of Quincy, Richard Daley, secretary and CEO of the state's Department of Transportation; Lt. Gov. Tim Murray, Rep. Bruce Ayers of Quincy and Rep. James Murphy of Weymouth.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Noble

"Quincy residents traveling Hancock Street and Quincy Shore Drive have been very patient and understanding with the delays during construction of this bridge," said another local legislator, state Rep. Tackey Chan. "We are pleased it is completed and it represents a modern entryway into Quincy for both drivers and pedestrians."

Mayor Thomas Koch applauded the governor's team for investing in "critical public infrastructure."

"Governor Patrick and Lt. Gov. Murray have built Massachusetts into a national model for investing in our critical public infrastructure, and the ahead-of-schedule and on-budget completion of the Neponset River Bridge is a great testament to the Administration's ongoing commitment to protecting and improving our transportation infrastructure in Quincy and across the Commonwealth," Koch said.

Food Drive Nov. 7-14 At Presidents Cafe' To Benefit Local Pantries

A Fall Food Drive will be held Nov. 7-14 at the Presidents Cafe' located at Quincy High School.

In exchange for a non-perishable food item, patrons will be offered a free dessert of their choice from the Cafe's menu. All collected items will be donated to Quincy Food Pantries.

The restaurant is open Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

For additional information, contact the Presidents Cafe at 617-376-3349.

Dina's Hair & Nail Unisex Salon

5 School St., Quincy
617.479.1797

Adult Cuts	$9.00
Color	$30.00
Hair Cut & Blowdry	$25.00
Matrix Perm	$40.00
Wax, Lip & Eyebrows	$6.00

Chair for Rent
call Dina for more info.

Includes wash, cut & style

WE ALSO DO EXTENSIONS
1st time clients only

PAYING TOP DOLLAR for your unwanted jewelry!

APPRAISING,
BUYING &
SELLING...

Del Greco Coins

399 WASHINGTON STREET ♦ ROUTE 53 ♦ WEYMOUTH
LOCATED OFF RT. 3, EXIT 16A, TO RT. 53N

♦ 781.337.5069 ♦

HOURS: MONDAY - FRIDAY 9-5 • SATURDAY 9:30-2

Refinance your Jumbo at an excellent rate!

3.29%

APR

15-YEAR FIXED
NO POINTS!

COLONIAL FEDERAL SAVINGS BANK

"Your neighborhood bank!"

QUINCY: 15 Beach Street 617-471-0750 • 1000 Southern Artery (Residents only) 617-479-1430
HOLBROOK: 802 South Franklin Street 781-767-1776

EAST WEYMOUTH: Middle & Washington Streets 781-331-1776 • www.colonialfed.com

Insured FDIC

Here's your chance to lower the rate and shorten the term on your fixed-rate Jumbo mortgage ... or convert your adjustable-rate Jumbo to a fixed before rates start moving up. Right now, Colonial Federal has $10 million to lend in Jumbo mortgages at a very favorable fixed rate. If you're determined to pay off your mortgage as soon as possible, this loan will help you do that. Come see us or call Angela Blanchard, VP/Retail Lending, at 617-471-0750. Or apply online at colonialfed.com. Have another loan or term in mind? Call us. We may be able to help.

(Also available for new Jumbo loans.)

Some additional facts: Annual Percentage Rate (APR) effective as of 10/3/12 and may change. Applies to 1-2 family owner-occupied homes. Assumes a maximum 80% loan-to-value and first mortgage position. Subject to credit approval. A 15-Year Jumbo loan would be repaid in 180 equal monthly principal plus interest payments of $7.03 per $1000 borrowed, which do not include taxes or insurance premiums, if applicable. So your actual monthly payment will be greater. Must borrow at least $417,000 for this loan.

The Quincy Sun

(USPS 453-060)
Published Weekly on Thursday by
The Quincy Sun Publishing Co., Inc.
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

Robert H. Bosworth
Publisher and Editor

Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.
Founder
1968 - 2009

75¢ per copy. $25.00 per year by mail in Quincy
$30.00 per year by mail outside Quincy - $38.00 out-of-state

Telephone: 617-471-3100 Fax: 617-472-3963

online at: www.thequincysun.com

email address: thequincysun@verizon.net

rbosworth@thequincysun.com

Periodicals postage paid at Boston, MA
Postmaster Send address change to:
The Quincy Sun, 1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

The Quincy Sun assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Nov. 8, 1793, after more than two centuries as a royal palace, the Louvre is opened as a public museum in Paris. In 1993, a wing once occupied by the ministry of finance was opened to the public. It was the first time the entire Louvre was devoted to museum purposes.

• On Nov. 4, 1922, British archaeologist Howard Carter and his workmen discover a step leading to the tomb of boy-king Tutankhamen in the Valley of the Kings in Egypt. In the tomb was a solid-gold coffin containing the mummy of Tut, preserved for more than 3,000 years.

• On Nov. 5, 1930, Sinclair Lewis is awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature. In 1926, he turned down the Pulitzer Prize awarded him, but in 1930 decided to accept Sweden's Nobel Prize.

• On Nov. 3, 1964, residents of the District of Columbia cast their ballots in a presidential election for the first time. The passage of the 23rd Amendment in 1961 gave citizens of the nation's capital the right to vote for president and vice president.

• On Nov. 9, 1970, the Supreme Court refuses to hear a challenge by the state of Massachusetts regarding the constitutionality of the Vietnam War. By a 6-3 vote, the justices rejected the effort of the state to bring a suit in federal court in defense of residents claiming protection under a state law that allowed them to refuse military service in an undeclared war.

• On Nov. 6, 1984, the New York Stock Exchange decided to keep its doors open on a presidential election day for the first time in 193 years. The move didn't sit too well with traders, who responded to the news with a chorus of boos and hisses. Fortunately, the Dow did manage to post a 15-point gain on the day.

• On Nov. 7, 1991, basketball legend Earvin "Magic" Johnson stuns the world by announcing his sudden retirement from the Los Angeles Lakers after testing positive for HIV, the virus that causes AIDS. Today, Johnson is a prominent spokesman for AIDS awareness and a successful businessman.

Nairi Aprahamian Promoted At O'Neill And Associates

O'Neill and Associates announces Nairi Aprahamian of Quincy has been promoted to Vice President of Operations.

Aprahamian will continue to handle the firm's human resources and IT services, manage the office and building which the firm occupies, as well as coordinate and supervise the firm's robust high school and undergraduate internship programs.

She Aprahamian joined O'Neill and Associates after completing multiple internships with the firm and graduating from Boston

NAIRI APRAHAMIAN

College where she earned a bachelor's degree in communications.

Son Beams

By ROBERT BOSWORTH

Down To The Wire

According to recent polls, the U.S. Senate race between incumbent Scott Brown and challenger Elizabeth Warren appears to be going down to the wire with Election Day less than a week away.

Political observers believe the biggest factor in the deciding this race will be turnout.

That's because turnout is expected to be considerably higher next Tuesday compared to the number of voters who went to the polls in the special Senate election that Brown won in January, 2010.

BROWN

WARREN

That should be the case in Quincy where City Clerk Joseph Shea believes 72 percent of the city's 57,612 registered voters – or about 41,480 – will cast ballots next Tuesday.

That's an increase of some 12,000 voters compared to the turnout in the special U.S. Senate election. In Quincy, 29,364 voters went to the polls two years ago, a turnout of 52 percent of the city's then 56,003 registered voters. Statewide, turnout was 54 percent.

In that special election, the Republican Brown won Quincy enroute to his decisive victory over state Attorney General Martha Coakley, a Democrat. In Quincy, Brown polled 15,607 votes to Coakley's 13,330 votes – a margin of 2,277 votes or 53 percent to 43 percent.

Obviously this time around there will likely be a lot more votes in play with the higher turnout forecast.

So the question is – who do these "new" voters support?

Will they line up behind Brown and help him win a full six-year term or will they back Warren, a Democrat and Harvard law professor, who is trying to reclaim the seat long-held by the late Ted Kennedy?

To be re-elected, Brown must appeal to unenrolled voters (formerly Independents) because the Republican Party is much smaller in number than the Democratic party. Without those unenrolled voters and even some Democrats, it's difficult for any GOP candidate to win state-wide in Massachusetts. Just look at the results from the 2010 state election. Every state-wide office – including several open seats – was won by a Democrat.

The race for the White House could also impact turnout and votes for the Senate candidates.

President Obama – who is considered a virtual shoe-in to carry Massachusetts over former state Governor Mitt Romney next Tuesday – may have a significant impact on the Senate race. Obama is fairly popular in the Bay State and some political observers believe his supporters will vote automatically along party-lines and cast a vote for Warren next Tuesday.

But don't discount Mitt Romney's effect on the electorate here, either. The former Bay State governor has narrowed the President's lead in several battleground states after impressive performances in three televised debates. While not expected to win Massachusetts and its 11 electoral votes, Romney's "Mittmentum" could swell his Bay State vote total and help boost Brown's support, too.

If you want an early indication in Quincy how the U.S. Senate race is faring, watch the crawl on Quincy Access TV showing the unofficial vote totals in Quincy. Those numbers will start appearing at the bottom of local televisions on Channels 8 and 11 Election Night around 8:30 p.m. – about a half hour after the polls close.

Brown swept the city's six wards and carried 20 out of 30 precincts here in the special Senate race and if he's going to win re-election, a good omen would be to win some of those early precincts. If Warren has an early edge, it could spell a disappointing night for Brown.

You can bet some local supporters for Brown and Warren will be paying a lot of attention to Quincy's returns next Tuesday. The city was considered a bellwether for Brown supporters two years ago when the former state senator from Wrentham became the first Republican to be elected U.S. senator from Massachusetts since Edward Brooke won election in 1966 (and re-election in 1972).

Quincy, in recent history, has been a good barometer for state-wide candidates. If you win Quincy, you'll likely win the state.

The city's voter registration numbers also mirror the state in that unenrolled voters (formerly Independents) are first, Democrats second and Republicans third. So, Quincy's voting demographics essentially align with the state. That makes Quincy – while not an exact science – a good bellwether for state-wide returns.

THE LATEST voter registration numbers are in and show more than half of the new voters do not prefer a political party.

But Democrats made some considerable gains, too.

From Aug. 17 to Oct. 17 (the registration period from the Sept. 6 state primary to the state election next Tuesday), some 3,742 new voters registered in Quincy.

Of that number, more than half were unenrolled: 1,985. Next were Democrats with 1,452 and Republicans third with 274.

The previous registration period also saw a similar trend.

From Feb. 17 to Aug. 17 (Presidential Primary to state primary), 2,819 new voters registered in Quincy. Of that total, 1,625 were unenrolled, 951 Democrats and 222 Republicans.

So, during the eighth-month period of Feb. 17 to Oct. 17, the city registered 6,561 new voters. Of that number, 3,610 were unenrolled; 2,403 were Democrats and 496 were Republicans. As a percentage, 55 percent were unenrolled, 36.6 percent were Democrats and 7.5 percent were Republicans (the balance were other affiliations).

All total, the city has 57,612 registered voters. They break down this way:

- 27,715 unenrolled.
- 24,324 Democrats.
- 5,177 Republicans.

There are also 192 Libertarians and 189 other affiliations.

THE 57,612 registered voters in Quincy is an all-time high, says City Clerk Joseph Shea.

It surpasses the 56,364 voters who were registered for the 2008 Presidential Election.

Registration peaks during Presidential election years. But the total can also drop as voters pass away and others are put on an inactive list if they fail to respond to the city census.

Despite the record number of registered voters, it's doubtful the city will see the highest number of votes cast in a Quincy election.

That distinction occurred in the 1960 when John F. Kennedy defeated Richard M. Nixon for President. In that election, 45,565 voters went to the polls in Quincy – a turnout of 93 percent of the city's 49,447 registered.

For 2012 to set a new mark for voters, turnout next Tuesday would have to be around 79.5 percent of the 57,612 registered (that's about 45,801 voters).

SHEA

Scenes From Yesterday

FORTY TON CRANE
AT QUINCY ADAMS DEPOT,
QUINCY, MASS.

THIS 1912 POSTCARD is a view of the overhead crane that for many years was near the old Quincy Adams depot at Liberty and Water Streets in South Quincy. The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad installed the crane in 1907 on a siding of its mainline tracks that ran through Quincy Center. It provided a much needed improvement in the freight handling service for Quincy granite contractors and the dozens of monument producing companies in South Quincy at the time. Rough granite blocks were brought here by the railroad from quarries in Rhode Island, Vermont, New Hampshire and many other stone-producing areas to be worked into monuments and memorials by Quincy's stone-cutting craftsmen. The finished product including thousands of monuments made from Quincy granite was shipped from here to all parts of the country and beyond. Today, the site of this postcard scene is in the middle of Burgin Parkway. To contact Tom Galvin, e-mail tmgalvin@verizon.net.

From the Collection of City Historian Tom Galvin

READERS FORUM

10 Reasons To Vote No On Physician Assisted Suicide

As a leader of a Faith Community in Milton/Quincy, St. Agatha Parish, Milton/Quincy, I would like to submit for publication the 10 reasons Cardinal Sean O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston, gives for saying, "NO" to Physician Assisted Suicide.

I truly believe that these reasons make sense and should lead us to saying, "NO" to Question 2. Life is sacred from the moment of conception to the moment of natural death!

- 1) Question 2 would legalize assisted suicide; suicide is always a tragedy and never a dignified way to die.
- (2) Suicide always impacts others beyond the individual that takes his or her life.
- (3) Doctors strongly oppose assisted suicide & Question 2.
- (4) Advocates for the disabled strongly oppose assisted suicide and Question 2.
- (5) Terminal diagnoses are often wrong.

(6) Question 2 is shockingly flawed.

(7) Question 2 does not require a patient to consult with a psychiatrist or palliative care expert before receiving the lethal prescription.

(8) Question 2 does not require family notification.

(9) Assisted suicide would weaken efforts to expand and improve palliative care.

(10) Complex issues like assisted suicide should be decided in a legislative process rather than a ballot initiative.

Any one of these 10 reasons, standing alone, is enough reason for saying, "NO" to this issue. Everyone should take the time to learn more and more about this issue and the impact that it has on all people.

Physician assisted suicide is suicide. All suicide is a tragedy. Please say, "NO" to Question 2!

Fr. Peter Casey
Pastor, St. Agatha
Parish, Milton/Quincy

Substance Abuse Task Force: Vote No On Question 3

On Nov. 6th we will head to the polls to make a number of very important decisions for our country and our Commonwealth.

While the elections for President and United States Senator certainly garner the greatest attention, there are other items further down the ballot that will have direct and drastic impacts on our society if passed. Today we write to discuss one such item - Ballot Question 3.

Ballot Question 3 seeks to legalize the sale and use of so-called medical marijuana. The proponents of this bill tell a story of the benefits and uses of marijuana. What they fail to do, however, is tell the truth about how the passage of this bill will drastically change our community for the worse.

The way this question is written allows for 35 dispensaries to be opened across our Commonwealth. There is nothing in the bill that prevents one from being opened near your child's school, your local church or even your own home. The people who would staff these facilities will almost assuredly not be licensed medical professionals like you would see at a real pharmacy. If you have seen such a facility in operation in California it is not uncommon for the workers there to be high while providing this service. Ultimately, marijuana dispensaries are a true farce and do not belong in this or any other community in Massachusetts.

The proponents of Question 3 tell us that it will only help suffering people deal with pain. In practice it encourages drug use en masse and Question 3 as written provides little to no oversight of who gets marijuana and how much they can get. The vague language describing what types of medical conditions warrant medical marijuana usage will inevitably lead to widespread substance abuse. Just as in California and other states who have taken this step, people will be able to get a prescription for medical marijuana because they suffer from chronic cases of 'the Mondays'. Large quantities of legally prescribed marijuana will spill onto our streets and into the hands of our children.

Question 3 is poorly written and guarantees increased marijuana usage in our population. We know that marijuana starts some people on a destructive path toward abuse of other more powerful substances.

School officials, medical providers and parents groups dedicate themselves to stopping young people from using drugs. A 'yes' vote on Question 3 in one stroke has a crippling effect on those efforts to reduce substance abuse in our schools and on our streets. It is a dangerous piece of legislation that will have a number of unintended consequences we will have to confront at the local level.

We ask you to join with us in opposing this harmful piece of legislation. On Nov. 6th, vote 'no' on Question 3.

Mayor's Substance Abuse Task Force
City of Quincy

(Editor's Note: The full text of Questions 1, 2 and 3 - all laws proposed by initiative petition - appears on Pages 20 and 21.)

Quincy's Yesterdays

This Week
1963
49 Years Ago

Talks Ongoing On Shipyard Sale

Although he wouldn't confirm nor deny reports in the Wall Street Journal, Arthur Homer, chairman of the board of Bethlehem Steel, said talks were ongoing with General Dynamics concerning the Fore River yard.

Homer noted there was not sufficient merchant ship construction to maintain both the Fore River and Sparrows Point, Maryland shipyards. Currently there was no merchant work in Quincy while the Maryland yard had six contracts.

Fore River had contracts for two attack subs of the Thresher class.

DELLA CHIESA ELECTED TO FOURTH TERM

Mayor Amelio Della Chiesa easily won re-election in a contest with City Council President Charles Shea with 19,039 votes to Shea's 10,774. The turnout was 64 percent.

In close votes, two new members were slated to join the council. In Ward 1, Francis McCauley defeated Leo Burke. City Clerk John Gillis said that ballots in those wards and citywide would be impounded pending recounts.

In the at-large contest, 20-year veteran Carl Anderson was defeated by Ward 5 Councillor George Burke who not only won an at-large seat, but topped the ticket in a six-man field. At-large councillors John Quinn and David "Tuck" McIntosh were re-elected.

BILL FILED FOR GOVERNOR'S MANSION

Rep. Della Chiesa filed legislation that would have the state purchase the Powell estate at 79 Presidents Lane as official residence of the governor.

The mansion was built in 1835 by Charles Francis Adams, son of John Quincy Adams, who served as ambassador to Great Britain during the Civil War.

The proposed purchase was backed by the Presidents Hill Association.

QUINCY-ISMS

There was a ribbon cutting ceremony by the mayor and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Curry for the opening of the new Curry Hardware on Copeland St. ... Ernest Collins, age 88, principal of Quincy High School for 32 years, and who retired in 1948, died of a heart attack at a subway station in Boston. ... City, state and MDC officials toured the site of the First Rail Road. Rep. Joseph Brett recently passed legislation that had the MDC take ownership of the site. ... Ernest Montilio announced that as a result of the expansion of the parking facilities at the Ross area he planned an expansion and renovation of his pastry shop and bakery on Chestnut St. ... Building inspector Alrick Weidman said the deterioration of the dome on the United First Parish Church would require that it be removed from the church for major restorations. ... The Quincy Housing Authority was expected to open bids for the construction of 75 elderly units at Mary and Scammell Streets. ... Sixty-five policemen were among the 200 persons attending the funeral at Christ Church for patrolman George Ross. He collapsed and died while in the traffic control booth opposite Art Theater. ... James Triglia was a sticker candidate for Ward 4 councillor. ... High tide covered the Squantum causeway with four inches of water. ... By unanimous vote the city council named the intersection at Federal and Presidents Avenues after Ralph Gioncardi who was killed aboard the USS Peary when bombed at Pearl Harbor. ... Richard Koch was named citizen of the year by the Quincy Jewish War Veterans. ... NQHS cheerleaders were Chrissy DeLuca, Carole Pistone, Joan Welch, Susan Perry, Roxanne Goward, Cathy Coughlin, Sandy LaPointe, Barb Benedini, Sharon Caruso, Cindy Curran, Sharon Sager, Jennie Morrill. ... Frank Foy was chairman of the World War I Veterans annual Armistice Eve dinner. ... Mrs. Louis Arienti was venerable of the Stella del Nord Lodge. ... Maurice Daly, director of the Quincy Trade School, was the speaker at the communion breakfast of the Holy Name Society of Our Lady of Good Counsel. ... Police Chief William Ferrazzi required all police, both on and off duty, to carry their .38 caliber service revolver. ... Burton Development announced plans for a 200-boat marina on Town River, at the site of the former Baker Yacht Basin. ... Real estate agent Elmer (Mike) Fagerlund, former granite manufacturer, was the new president of the Quincy Kiwanis Club.

Arts & Entertainment

MUSICIAN/STORYTELLER Roger Tincknell recently performed for students at the Bernazani Elementary School and also did a workshop with the school's fifth graders. Tincknell uses music and multicultural instruments to tell stories to children. In this photo students K-2nd grade enjoy and participate in his music.

Tara Golden Photography

QUINCY RESIDENT Jennifer Fenlon (center, with Liz Drew and Laurie Fisher) stars as shy hairdresser Annelle Dupuy-Desoto in the Milton Players' production of Steel Magnolias, opening tomorrow (Friday).

Jennifer Fenlon Cast In Milton Players' 'Steel Magnolias'

The Milton Players opens its 2012-2013 season Friday, Nov. 2 with the heartfelt and bittersweet comedy Steel Magnolias, which remains a live theatre favorite 25 years after its stage debut.

The play, made famous by the 1989 movie featuring Sally Field, Julia Roberts and Dolly Parton, depicts the laughter and tears shared by close friends who experience life events in a small Louisiana town. These mixed but very real emotions and the characters' strong friendships are what make the show stand the test of time, according to the six female members of the show's cast.

Quincy resident Jennifer Fenlon, who plays the simple yet enigmatic hairdresser Annelle Dupuy-Desoto, notes that "the situations the characters deal with are relatable to women past, present and future."

While the show deals with powerful emotions, it is staged relatively simply, taking place entirely in the in-home beauty parlor of the flamboyant Truvy

Jones. Laurie Fisher, who plays Truvy, has a special affection for the show, having been born, summered and performed her first live theater in Natchitoches, the small town in which Steel Magnolias is set.

Her grandmother was good friends with Margaret Harling, wife of the play's author, Robert Harling, and knew some of the actual people on which the characters were based. "It's a beautiful story with a lot of laughs...and a lot of gorgeous hairdos!" she says. "It's timeless."

The Milton Players presents Steel Magnolias Friday, Nov. 2 through Sunday, Nov. 11 at the Milton Women's Club, 90 Reedsdale Rd.

For tickets or more information visit www.milton-players.org or call 617-698-7469.

First Aid for Seniors Nov. 7

Ruth Jones, BSN, RN, BC, CP-FS of the Quincy Health Department, will hold a session on First Aid for seniors Wednesday, Nov. 7 from 9 a.m. to noon at the Kennedy Center, 440 East Squantum St. Learn what to do in an emergency to help yourself and others.

Registration is required for this session as space is limited. Call the Quincy Council on Aging at (617) 376-1506 to register for this event.

332 Victory Road,
Marina Bay, MA 02171
617 471-3511

SUNDAY FOOTBALL
1 PM TIL CLOSE
PITCHER OF COORS LIGHT &
ORDER OF CHICKEN WINGS
(Double dipped, Buffalo, BBQ or Terriyaki)

$9.99
(minimum of 2 people to purchase)

1/2 Price Pizzas
Any Size. Any Topping

SUNDAY BRUNCH
10AM-2PM

$10.99
$5.99 12yrs and younger

DINNER FOR TWO

Sunday thru Thursday

$29.99

with a bottle of wine

Visit our website at captainfishbones.com for more details

Drawing Classes Begin Nov. 13 At Kennedy Center

Drawing classes will be held at the Kennedy Center beginning Tuesday, Nov. 13.

The six-week program will be held on Tuesdays from 1 - 3 p.m. and the cost is $93.

This class is designed to develop drawing skills, learn about different drawing mediums, depth, shading and more. Instructor is Deni Sindel who has her BFA from Hartford Art School, University of Hartford.

To sign up, call the Quincy Council on Aging at (617) 376-1506.

QUINT'S
House
of Flowers

Family Owned & Operated
Since 1919

761 Southern Artery
QUINCY

617-773-7620

*Puzzled about
your future?*

Let us help you put the pieces together.

Regina Russell's Tea Room

We have been in the Psychic business since 1973.
Walk-in service & private readings by appointment.
Psychics available for home and office parties.

Phone Readings Available: 888-655-3456

Open Monday thru Friday 10:30 am - 9:30 pm
Saturday & Sunday 10:30 am - 5:00 pm

40 Franklin Street - Quincy, MA - Phone: 617-472-9806
Free weekly horoscopes on our website: www.rtsroom.com

BEALE STREET News And Tobacco

19 Beale St., Quincy
617-471-9811

* 99¢ Greeting Cards * Cigars & cigarette accessories

Fine selection of roll your own cigarette tobacco

* Featuring GREEN MOUNTAIN COFFEE

"Sit and Relax at our New Keno Table"

Voted Best of the Best
7 Times!

35 Billings Road., N. Quincy
617-328-0448 • 617-328-9842
www.Balduccis-Online.com

DOUBLE
DEAL

2 Lg. Cheese Pizzas

$13.95 +tax

(toppings extra • Expires 11/30/12)

$3.00 OFF

Order of $20.00 or more
(Expires 11/30/12)

WE DELIVER (limited area)

Social

Quincy's Erin Nunes Appalachia Adventure Life-Changing Experience

Erin Nunes of Quincy is a senior at Fontbonne Academy who one day hopes to become a lawyer.

She has an active life in the Fontbonne community. She is a member of The Good Fountain Players (Fontbonne's drama troupe), the track team, National Honor Society. She is a Peer Educator and Peer Minister and is the President of the Spanish National Honor Society.

This summer, to fulfill the direct service requirement of her social justice project at Fontbonne, Erin travelled with her church, St. Agatha's of Milton, to the small town of Salem, West Virginia in Appalachia. Living and working on a farm, Erin also worked on improving people's homes, building porches, repairing roofs, and adding siding.

ERIN NUNES

The host vegetable farm, called Nazareth Farm, hosts mission groups each week, and their philosophy is based on the four cornerstones of simplicity, prayer, community, and service. Erin found the experience refreshing. Eating all homemade food from the farm, living without clocks (or watches), and music, she found herself able to become more present in her everyday tasks. "It changed my life," said Erin, "on the way into the farm there was a sign that said 'expect a miracle' and that is exactly what happened."

Witnessing the poverty in Appalachia was transforming. After the summer experience, Erin shifted the focus of her social justice project from homelessness to poverty in Appalachia, in the hopes of raising awareness on the subject and encouraging others to care about the impoverished region.

Erin has become more aware of all she has and continues to try to live simply, "I try never to look at a clock and just be in the moment."

"Sometimes the bell will ring and I will be really surprised at how quickly the time passes," she commented.

BLUE HILL ADVENTURE & Quarry Museum was recently recognized with a citation from the Massachusetts House of Representatives for its participation in the first Neponset River Clean Up. From left are Museum Board Members Kumu Gupta, David Hodgdon and Linda Monti of Monti Granite Company.
Photo Courtesy Kumu Gupta

'Secrets Of Container Gardening' Topic Nov. 7

The Houghs Neck Garden Club will meet Wednesday, Nov. 7 in the community room at Nut Island.

The meeting is open to the public and all are welcome.

The program will be presented by Dana Roberts of "Blooming Design" and president of the Hull Garden Club. The topic is "Secrets of Container Gardening".

Roberts will talk about container gardening while demonstrating the design of four containers—one each for fall, Christmas, bulbs and herbs. The containers will be raffled after the program.

Refreshments and a brief business meeting start at 7 p.m. followed by the program at 7:30 p.m. Refreshment hosts are by Donna Berry and Elizabeth Goodman. President Joanne Bythorow presiding.

The Houghs Neck Garden Club is a member of the Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts.

Healthy Brain Program At Kennedy Center

Tammy Faye of the Harvard Aging Brain Study will be at the Kennedy Center, 440 East Squantum St. Thursday, Nov. 8 at 1 p.m. to discuss how the brain ages and ways to keep your brain healthy as it ages.

The information Faye will provide is based on research done by the study.

Registration is required as space is limited.

To register, all the Quincy

Council on Aging at (617) 376-1506. Have your member ID number ready.

Holiday Blues Topic Nov. 15

Do you get "blue" around the holidays? You are not alone.

On Friday, Nov. 15th at 10 a.m. Ruth Jones, BSN, RN, BC, CP-FS, of the Quincy Health Department will be at the Kennedy Center, 440 East Squantum St. to discuss the holiday blues many people experience during the holiday season. Learn the tools to get you through the holiday season happily.

Registration is required as space is limited. To attend call the Quincy Council on Aging at (617) 376-1506 and have your member ID number ready.

Mount Wollaston Cemetery Historical Walking Tour Saturday

Quincy City Historian Tom Galvin will lead a historical walking tour of Mount Wollaston Cemetery Saturday, Nov. 3 at 1 p.m.

Participants should meet at the Greenleaf Street gate on the Southern Artery.

The tour will focus on Quincy's renowned granite industry including notable granite monuments and Quincy granite industry leaders.

The tour also features many of Quincy's leading citizens of the 19th and 20th centuries such as the Adams and Quincy families as well as political, civic and business leaders and more.

Rain date: next spring.

Sen. Keenan Speaker Tonight At Montclair/Wollaston Neighborhood Meeting

The Montclair/Wollaston Neighborhood Association will meet Thursday, Nov. 1 at 7:30 p.m. at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, Harvard and West Squantum Sts.

State Sen. John Keenan

will be the guest speaker. He will discuss recent legislative actions and concerns of Quincy residents.

There will be a question and answer segment, and light refreshments will be served.

MASS HYSTERIA
THE UNDISCOVERED
COMEDY CABARET
SPOOFING THE BAY STATE!
Common Market
97 Willard, Quincy
Saturday Nov. 10
Call 617-773-9532
8:30 pm - $25 pp
KAH
Have dinner before or after show!

Fall into Fashion

at

HAIRPLACE ONE
85 QUINCY AVENUE

Call for Appt. 617-472-1060

PLENTY OF PARKING

www.hairplaceone.com

St. Agatha School's

9TH Annual Christmas Shopping Night

St. Agatha School Gym,
440 Adams Street, Milton

Friday, November 16th • 5 pm to 9 pm

$2 Admission (children under age 12 free)

You have to see it to believe it! Unique gift ideas!

For more info go to: www.stagathaparish.org/school

Call: 617-696-3548

Email: acanale13@aol.com

Marie's Kitchen

BY MARIE D'OLIMPIO

Jim's Chicken, Zucchini, Tomato & Quinoa

Each time I call New York or my son Jim calls me, we either discuss music (his favorite subject as a pianist) or food. Since we both play, we talk about certain arrangements for songs he is playing. Although I could never play some of his music, it's always fun to talk about it. This time, he also gave me a great recipe for chicken which I have tried and it got raves from the family.

CHICKEN WITH ZUCCHINI & COUSCOUS

4 pieces of chicken breast
2 medium zucchini (sliced 1/4 inch thick)
1 small onion (chopped)

1 clove garlic (chopped)
3 large fresh tomatoes (cut in pieces)
salt and pepper to taste
3 tablespoons olive oil
1 box of quinoa couscous

In a pan, begin by cooking the quinoa. Set aside. In the hot oil, sauté the chicken and then after about 15 minutes, add the zucchini and tomatoes, cover and cook until vegetables are tender and a liquid has formed from the vegetables.

When this is done, add the quinoa and cook until blended. The combination of the quinoa with the chicken is so tasty and healthful.

BAXTER PHARMACY PRESCRIPTIONS

BAXTER PHARMACY AND MEDICAL SUPPLIES
DEDICATED TO OLD FASHIONED SERVICE

Hours: M-F 8AM-6:30PM Sat 9AM-4PM

ORTHODIC SUPPORTS • BATH SAFETY PRODUCTS • DIABETIC SUPPLIES
OSTOMY • WALKERS • CANES • CRUCHES • COMMODOES • CARDS • GIFT ITEMS

464 Washington Street, Quincy, MA

LOCAL DELIVERY AVAILABLE 617-773-7733 www.baxterpharmacy.com

TURKEYS!

Bongi's - A Thanksgiving Tradition

For over 75 years - 3 Generations - Bongi's has been serving the South Shore with the highest quality Turkeys available.

This year be sure to serve your family the Best Turkey.
This Thanksgiving make sure it is a Bongi's Turkey!

Bongi's will also cook & prepare a Turkey for your table.

Now taking orders for Thanksgiving

Bongi's Turkey Roost

Children's Programs At Library

The Thomas Crane Public Library announces the following children's programs will be held in November.

On Saturday, Nov. 3rd at 10 a.m. in the large meeting room at the Main Library join Musician Dara VanRe-moortel for a very special program for infants, toddlers and preschoolers. With keyboard, felt board, finger puppets and other engaging visual props, Dara incorporates familiar songs, nursery rhymes, easy-to-learn songs, finger plays, rhythmic activities, creative movement, and instrument playing for a highly interactive concert for the whole family.

This program is for children ages 0-4 accompanied by an adult. No registration is required. This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

Storytime with Cheryl

Join storyteller Cheryl Dunford for a family story-time full of stories, songs, rhymes and more for children ages 2-5 accompanied by an adult Saturday, Nov. 10th at 10 a.m. in the large meeting room at the Main Library. No registration required. Sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

Mad Science - Weather

In this Mad Science of Greater Boston workshop children ages 4-8 will investigate why it rains, what causes lightning and even how weather can be predicted via a science called meteorology. Through hands-on activities and exciting demonstrations participants they'll step into the shoes of a meteorologist and create some of their own regional weather forecasts, and they'll make a UV bead bracelet to take home so they can continue to explore the amazing world of weather.

The workshop will be held on Saturday, Nov. 17 at 10 a.m. at the Main Library. Registration is required. Beginning Monday, Nov. 5th, register online, in person or by calling 617-376-2411. Due to space limitations, this program is limited to Quincy residents. Sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

Fall Session II Storytimes

Weekday morning storytimes for children ages 4 months through 5-years old begin Friday, Nov. 9th. The library offers several programs by age. Stop by the library or check our website thomascranelibrary.org for details. Due to overcrowding registration will be required for Mother Goose on the Loose and Just for Twos storytimes.

Registration is underway online, by phone at 617-376-2411 or in person in the Main Library Children's Room. Registration is limited to Quincy residents.

Book Clubs for Kids

The Night Owls Book Club for children in grades 3-4 usually meets on the second Monday of each month. We will meet on Monday, Nov. 5th (11/12 is the Veteran's Day Holiday). This month read anything you like and share it with the group.

The Phoenix Book Club for children in grades 5-8 meets on the second Tuesday of each month to discuss a variety of books. The Club will meet Tuesday, Nov. 13th at 7 p.m. at the Main Library. This month we will be discussing School Stories.

There is a selection of school stories available at the desk in the Main Library Children's Room to choose from or you can go to the shelves and pick your own. If it takes place at school, read it for November.

Make Your Own Wrapping Paper

On Saturday, Nov. 24th children ages 8 and older are invited to a craft program where they will learn how to use rubber stamps and other materials to create one of a kind wrapping paper. Stamp pads, paint and other crafts supplies can get messy so come dressed to get your hands dirty. This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

The Catholic pastors of Quincy encourage you to vote to Question 2.

Holy Trinity Parish
Sacred Heart Parish
Saint Ann Parish
Saint John Parish
Saint Joseph Parish
Saint Mary Parish

MCAS Scores Progressing, Math Scores Need Work

By EMILY TAFT

MCAS scores are improving throughout the Quincy Public Schools with some work to do in the math sections, according to Assistant Superintendent of School Operations and Assessment Colleen Roberts and Career Assessment Specialist Mary Fredrickson.

During the Oct. 24th school committee meeting, Roberts and Fredrickson spoke of how QPS matches up with the state percent passing rates and initiatives that are being done to improve scores in each school.

"One of the things that I look at, and I have looked at over the years is the progress," said school committee member Dave McCarthy. "When you see the state comparison to Quincy you see the same issues, so it's not like we are on an island all by ourselves."

Last year, QPS had four schools classified as a level three school, which means they were the lowest performing 20 percent of schools including lowest performing subgroups.

"In Quincy we have 15 level one or two schools," said Roberts. "We have three Quincy schools that fall into level three schools, which is one less than we had last year. If the lowest level we have is three than our district is labeled as a level three district."

When a district is labeled as a level three district there is a need for special education technical assistance or intervention and are required to conduct a self-assessment process aligned with the district standard. The process is intended to inform the districts and school's strategies for improvement.

"As always all of our work in Quincy Public School is for the students. Students are at the center of our district improvement plan," said Roberts. "Our goal of having every student to reach proficiency begins in our full day kindergarten program as well as our pre-kindergarten program and it is first measured by MCAS in grade three."

This year, in the English language arts (ELA) section of the test, grades three and eight students matched the state percent passing, and in grade 10 they surpassed the state percent with 98 percent passing in QPS. In grades four, five, six, and seven the QPS students were lower than the state percent passing, the lowest percent being grade four with 84 percent.

In mathematics grade 10 surpassed the state percent passing with 94 percent QPS students passing, and grade five matched the state with 83 percent. Grades three, four, six, seven, and eight were all below the state in percent passing, with grade eight being the lowest at 77 percent compared to the state at 81 percent. Percent passing is the students who receive grades of needs improvement, proficient, or advanced.

"Quincy historically has matched the state or been near to the state," said Fredrickson. "The pattern of staying close to the state percent passing continues in mathematics and has for many years. I think it's important to understand especially when we are talking about middle school math, that percent proficient is important and that is being set by the state in terms of what we are expecting our students to be able to do and that kind of expectations for proficiency are very high in Massachusetts. To achieve proficient or advance in middle school is going to take some high achievement results."

This year, Roberts and Fredrickson also included the results of the science portion of the test. Grades five and 10 both surpassed the state percent, and grade eight was just slightly below the state percent.

"We are including science I think for one of the first time," said Fredrickson. "When we're looking at percent passing we are happy to see grade five science 88 percent passing, 79 percent in grade eight, and 95 percent in grade 10."

For the LEP and FLEP students the percent passing for all three sections of the test were significantly higher than the percent passing state wide.

"Our English Language Learners do very well in comparison to state English language learners," said Fredrickson. "We are very proud of all of the initiatives that resulted between the classroom teachers new initiatives with text that resulted the English Language Learners doing so well on the English Language Learners assessment."

In ELA the percent passing ranges from 72-93, the percent passing in mathematics ranges from 81-93, and in science 62-86.

Reports on the results of percent passing for Special Education students show a struggle in all three sections of the test, but in the mathematics portion in particular.

"In mathematics, which is something we struggled with, with students with disabilities, percent passing ranging 42 percent to begin in grade three up in grade four and then begins to drop in middle school grades to 35 percent in grade seven and 21 percent in grade eight, up high again at 69 percent passing in grade 10," said Fredrickson. "Quincy has been invited this year to participate in a state wide special education institute.

There are five of us that are going to meetings all year long to really look at our special education student achievement and growth."

Fredrickson said the main focus for improvement would not only be within special education students but with all middle school students.

"QPS has been selected and will be participating in a statewide collaboration of general educators and special educators, and working on an improvement plan for special education," said Fredrickson. "We have looked at data for students and targeting middle school math as the area that we need to spend much of our time for special education students and actually all of our students. That is where the decline happens in math, in particular grades seven and eight."

To help increase the percent passing Roberts said that they have teachers enrolled in a number of courses along with initiatives to help teachers and students reach the proficiency district wide.

"We have provided a Foundations of Mathematics for our pre-K to grade two teachers and we are going to continue to do that. We would like every single one of our pre-K to grade two teachers to have taken this course," said Roberts. "We are hearing loud and clear from teachers this is one of the best courses they have ever taken and that it has changed the face of how they teach math in their classroom, and it is totally aligned with our curriculum."

Many members of the school committee praised Roberts and Fredrickson along with their team on not only putting the presentation together but also working to improve on the low scoring areas in each school.

"I am always impressed with the Superintendent and the team on how you attack things. We don't sit back; we don't wait to see what others are doing," said Mayor Tom Koch. "This system is always at the forefront and you jump right in."

Special Ed Parents Meeting Nov. 8

The Quincy Parents Advisory Council to Special Education (QPAC) will meet Thursday, Nov. 8 at 7 p.m. at Quincy High School, 100 Coddington St.

This is an open, public meeting.

A QPAC volunteer will be available to parents and guardians at 6:30 p.m. to offer individualized assistance and support. For more information, call 617-653-7846.

KIP ORLANDO'S
men's hairstyling

"Come see Caline and Kip"

Men's Hairstyling in a Barbershop Atmosphere

Hours: Tues 9-6, Wed - Fri 9-8, Sat 9-6 • Appt. or walk-ins welcome
261 E. Squantum St., N. Quincy, MA 02171
617-786-8545 • www.kiporlando.com

Where Healing Begins

COMFORTABLE, COMPASSIONATE AND CREATIVE SERVICES

JOIN US to make a difference in the lives of others!

Please join the cause to provide warmth and comfort this year for those less fortunate. Coats will be distributed through 3 local organizations: Interfaith Social Services in Quincy; Weymouth Youth and Family Services in Weymouth; and Wellspring Multi-Service Center in Hull.

Supporters wishing to donate are asked to bring gently-used adult or children's coats to the lobby of the Keohane Funeral Home in Quincy at 785 Hancock Street.

The winter coat drive begins in October and continues through the end of November. Help us meet our goal to collect 250 coats this winter.

Sponsored by
Keohane
FUNERAL HOME

Quincy, MA
617-773-3551
www.keohane.com

Your knee has met its match.

ShapeMatch®. It's the newest technological advancement in knee replacement. And if you're interested in a faster recovery, increased mobility and better outcomes from your knee surgery, you owe it to yourself to learn about ShapeMatch.

Visit bidmilton.org/kneereplacement today.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

President, Senate Showdowns In Election Day Spotlight

Cont'd From Page 1

to the polls and helped elect then Illinois Sen. Barack Obama as the nation's 44th President and first African American to be elected to this nation's highest elective office. In Quincy four years ago, Obama won the city with 57.89 percent of the vote over Arizona Sen. John McCain who received 39.49 percent.

Shea is forecasting a slightly higher turnout this year – 72 percent or 41,480 registered voters – because of the intense interest in the Brown-Warren contest. Recent polls have shown the Republican Brown – who is vying for a full six-year term after winning the Senate seat long-held by the late Ted Kennedy in a special election in January 2010 – and Democrat Warren, a law professor at Harvard University – in a statistical dead-heat.

The Brown-Warren race may go down as the most expensive Senate race ever. The two candidates have raised more than $66 million while spending about $56 million to date. In their debates they have sparred over abortion rights, equal pay for women, immigration and taxes while putting forth their plans to create jobs.

Brown, at a recent campaign stop in Quincy, touted his bipartisan work with Democrats and Republicans since becoming the state's junior U.S. Senator. As the Bay State's only Republican in federal or state-wide office, he also said he would strive to bring balance to state and federal government. (Story on Page 31).

Warren, speaking at a different campaign stop here, emphasized her vision of having everyone pay their fair share and to provide future generations to grow up in a nation of expanding opportunity. (Story on Page 30.)

Brown, if re-elected, would be the first Republican in Massachusetts to win two successive Senate terms since Edward Brooke won election and re-election in 1966 and 1972.

Brown defeated Democrat and state Attorney General Martha Coakley in Quincy enroute to winning the Senate seat in 2010.

Both Brown and Warren have campaigned extensively in Quincy. The two candidates have been seen visiting businesses, attending civic events, touring project sites and stumping for votes at senior citizen housing facilities.

There is one other contested race on the ballot next Tuesday in Quincy. Cong. Stephen Lynch, a Democrat, and Boston businessman Joseph Selvaggi, a Republican, are running for Congress in the new 8th District that includes Quincy. (Candidate profiles on Pages 32, 33).

Lynch has represented the old 9th District since he was elected in a special election in October 2001 following the death of Cong. Joseph Moakley. The city's current Congressman, Bill Keating, is running for re-election in the new 9th District that stretches from Rockland to New Bedford to Cape Cod and the Islands.

There are uncontested contests for Governor's Councillor, state senator, state representative, Norfolk County Clerk of Courts, Register of Deeds and County Commissioner.

Another sign that the city's turnout will eclipse the 70 percent mark of 2008: the number of absentee ballots is running ahead of the pace from four years ago when 2,505 were cast.

In 2004, when turnout was 69.14 percent, some 2,115 absentee ballots were cast.

"We're very busy. The absentee ballots have been coming in very steady," Shea said. "I think the Senate race is busier than the President's race in this community."

There are also three questions or laws by initiative petition that appear on the ballot next Tuesday.

QUESTION 1 would prohibit any motor vehicle manufacturer, starting with model year 2015, from selling or leasing, either directly or through a dealer, a new motor vehicle without allowing the owner to have access to the same diagnostic and repair information made available to the manufacturer's dealers and in-state authorized repair facilities.

A Yes Vote would enact the proposed law. A No Vote would make no change in existing laws.

QUESTION 2 would allow a physician licensed in Massachusetts to prescribe medication, at a terminally ill patient's request, to end that patient's life. To qualify, a patient would have to be an adult resident who (1) is medically determined to be mentally capable of making and communicating health care decisions; (2) has been diagnosed by attending and consulting physicians as having an incurable, irreversible disease that will, within reasonable medical judgment, cause death within six months; and (3) voluntarily expresses a wish to die and has made an informed decision. The proposed law states that the patient would ingest the medicine in order to cause death in a humane and dignified manner.

A Yes Vote would enact the proposed law allowing a physician licensed in Massachusetts to prescribe medication, at the request of a terminally-ill patient meeting certain conditions, to end that person's life.

A No Vote would make no change in existing laws.

QUESTION 3 would eliminate state criminal and civil penalties for the medical use of marijuana by qualifying patients. To qualify, a patient must have been diagnosed with a debilitating medical condition, such as cancer, glaucoma, HIV-positive status or AIDS, hepatitis C, Crohn's disease, Parkinson's disease, ALS, or multiple sclerosis. The patient would also have to obtain a written certification, from a physician with whom the patient has a bona fide physician-patient relationship, that the patient has a specific debilitating medical condition and would likely obtain a net benefit from medical use of marijuana.

A Yes Vote would enact the proposed law eliminating state and criminal penalties related to the medical use of marijuana, allowing patients meeting certain conditions to obtain marijuana produced and distributed by new state-regulated centers or, in specific hardship cases, to grow marijuana for their own use.

A No Vote would make no changes to the law.

The complete text of all three ballot questions appear on Pages 20 and 21 of this issue of The Quincy Sun.

Shea said it would behoove voters to read the questions before the go to vote next Tuesday.

"Read the questions before you come to vote. There are three questions with lengthy explanations. The ballot is so lengthy that it required a second separate page. Voters should remember to fill out both sheets of the ballot," he said.

Shea also said he expects the polls will be very busy in the morning and then after 4 p.m. Polls open in Quincy at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Quincy's ballot is also bilingual. Besides English, the text is translated in Chinese. The city is one of 18 communities with a bilingual ballot this election but Quincy is the only English-Chinese ballot in the state. The other 17 ballots are all English-Spanish.

The state mandates bilingual election ballots in municipalities with non-English minorities of more than 22 percent of the population.

Since some of the city's polling precincts are located in Quincy schools, all public schools here are closed next Tuesday because of the election.

Shea is hopeful election results will be tallied by 11 p.m. Tuesday evening.

Here are the uncontested races and candidates – all Democrat incumbents – on next Tuesday's ballot"

• Governor's Councilor – Christopher Iannella, Jr., 263 Pond St., Boston.

• State Senator (Norfolk and Plymouth District) – John F. Keenan, 37 Hobomock Rd., Quincy, seeking second two-year term.

• Representative in General Court (First Norfolk District) – Rep. Bruce Ayers, 45 Williams St., seeking eighth two-year term.

• Representative in General Court (Second Norfolk District) – Tackey Chan, 66 Meadowbrook Rd., Quincy, seeking second two-year term.

• Representative in General Court (Third Norfolk District) – Ronald Mariano, 200 Falls Blvd., seeking 11th two-year term.

Voters in Ward 3 Precinct 3 in Quincy have been redistricted from the First Norfolk District to the 13th Suffolk District. Incumbent Martin J. Walsh, 12 Tuttle St., Boston, seeking 9th two-year term.

• Norfolk County Clerk of Courts – Walter F. Timilty, Jr., 90 Nancy Rd., Milton, seeking third sixth-year term.

• Norfolk County Register of Deeds – William P. O'Donnell, 55 Albermarle Rd., Norwood, seeking a second full six-year term. He was appointed Register of Deeds in 2002 after the death of Paul Harold.

• Norfolk County Commissioner (elect two) – John M. Gillis, 1000 Southern Artery, and Francis W. O'Brien, 100 Presidents Way, Dedham.

Gillis, longtime former city clerk, was elected commissioner in 1992 and is seeking a sixth four-year term.

O'Brien, elected commissioner in 2004, is seeking a third four-year term.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

Completely Prepared by
The Common Market

Small Turkey Dinner (feeds 8-10)

14-16 lb Fresh Whole Roasted Turkey
Pan Gravy (2 quarts)
Baked Herb Stuffing (1/2 pan)
Mashed Potatoes (1/2 pan)
Butternut Squash (1/2 pan)
Cranberry Sauce (1 quart)
Rustic Dinner Rolls (1 dozen)
1 Apple Pie & 1 Pumpkin Pie

$155.00 plus tax

Large Turkey Dinner (feeds 14-16)

14-16 lb Fresh Whole Roasted Turkey &
14 lb. Fresh Bone-In Roasted Turkey Breast
Pan Gravy (4 quarts)
Baked Herb Stuffing (1g full pan)
Mashed Potatoes (1g full pan)
Butternut Squash (1g full pan)
Cranberry Sauce (2 quarts)
Rustic Dinner Rolls (2 dozen)
2 Apple Pies & 1 Pumpkin Pie

$215.00 plus tax

 limited orders available **

Call 617-773-9532 to place your order

Thanksgiving orders must be placed no later than Friday, Nov 16th

Additional side dishes are also available

We will provide detailed re-heating instructions

www.commonmarketrestaurants.com

DENTISTRY for the 21st Century

by Steven A. Brustin, D.M.D.

IMPORTANT TEETHING ADVICE

Parents of teething children have been warned against using products containing benzocaine to help relieve the pain that comes with newly erupting first teeth. According to a new directive from the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, products such as Anbesol, Orajel, Baby Orajel, Orabase, and Hurricane should only be used under the advice and supervision of a health care professional. The reason behind this warning is that children under 2 years old who use benzocaine gels and liquids are at particular risk for a rare but potentially deadly condition called "methemoglobinemia." This potential consequence of benzocaine, which can occur within minutes of use, causes the amount of oxygen carried through the bloodstream to be greatly reduced.

The age at which the first tooth appears differs greatly from child to child. When was the last time you had a comprehensive dental examination? We make every effort to see you promptly and listen to your concerns and needs. We will let you know about new procedures and technologies and what they can do for you. For superior dental care, call 617-479-6220 to schedule an appointment. We're located at 44 Greenleaf Street. We offer the services of anesthesiology and a full trained and qualified anesthesiologist. Visit us on the web at www.quincydentist.com.

P.S. Symptoms of methemoglobinemia include pale, gray, or blood-colored skin, lips, and nail beds, shortness of breath, fatigue, confusion, headache, light-headedness, and rapid heart rate.

Maryrose Mirick To Represent American Heart Association, Go Red For Women Campaign

Quincy native Maryrose Mirick, who has been dealing with heart disease for more than 30 years, has been selected by The American Heart Association (AHA) and the Go Red For Women® campaign to represent the organization for the 2012-2013 year.

Mirick, who currently lives in Weymouth, was one of six local Massachusetts women selected at the annual Heart of our Mission Awards reception held recently at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Boston.

Go Red For Women is the American Heart Association's nationwide movement that celebrates the energy, passion, and power of women to band together and wipe out heart disease. The campaign aims to educate women that heart disease is their number-one killer.

Mirick has been dealing with heart disease since 1977 when she had her first cardiac catheterization and is presently on the list for a heart transplant. She is living a full, happy, healthy life with the instructions of her doctor.

In 1983, Mirick underwent a kidney transplant.

She explained that was when she truly knew that she had a debilitating disease that would attack the rest of her organs, and made the conscious decision to start fighting hard to keep her heart healthy. Mirick has surpassed any doctors' thoughts that she would survive this long without a heart transplant.

MARYROSE MIRICK

"Emotionally it's been hard and it's been a stressful journey for my family as well because they don't want to see me worried or getting upset. I try to stay relaxed and reduce stress by exercising and eating healthy," Mirick said. "Life is for living. Your heart is your engine and you have to take care of it. Feed it well, treat it well and it will do the same."

'Shopping Extravaganza' At The View Restaurant Set For Nov. 15

The View Restaurant and Tavern located at 357 West Squantum St., Quincy, will host a "Girls Night Out Shopping Extravaganza" Thursday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m.

Vendors will include: jewelry, handbags, photog-

The annual Heart of Our Mission reception is an event to commemorate key volunteers who have demonstrated passion and commitment for moving forward the AHA's mission of building healthier lives, free of cardiovascular diseases and stroke.

The Heart of Our Mission also served as the premiere of this year's local Go Red spokeswomen, including Mirick, who will serve as the face of the Go Red movement in Massachusetts. The Heart of Our Mission Award and Making the Stroke Connection Award recipients were also honored and presented during the stage program.

GoRedForWomen.org connects millions of women of all ages and gives them tangible resources to turn personal choices into life-saving actions.

For more information, visit GoRedForWomen.org or call 1-888-MY-HEART (1-888-694-3278).

raphy, sports memorabilia, wreaths, gingerbread houses, accessories and gifts.

Everyone is welcome. Admission is free and food and drinks will be available.

IN RECOGNITION of October as National Breast Cancer Awareness month, Atria Marina Place hosted a White Elephant Sale. With the help of residents and staff the two-day total amounted to $838. All proceeds benefited the American Cancer Society. Shown here are residents Lil DiPaolo and Bertha Chew.

A smarter way to target prostate cancer.

MEET ARTEMIS.

In the battle against prostate cancer, there's a new weapon: Artemis. It's the fusion of 3D imaging technologies that brings pinpoint accuracy to prostate biopsies, and brings you an enhanced level of confidence in your care.

HEAR WHAT ARTEMIS HAS TO SAY AT BIDMILTON.ORG/PROSTATEHEALTH.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

Best Western

The Adams Pub

29 Hancock Street at The Best Western Adams Inn

BOOK YOUR HOLIDAY PARTY!

The Pub is the perfect place for your office party. Private Room for 20-30 guests.

FOR LARGER EVENTS WE CAN ACCOMMODATE 30-200 IN OUR BALLROOM

CALL 617-745-5423 FOR MORE INFORMATION

This Week's

Blackboard Specials:

Adams Style Baked Meatloaf..... $14.50

Shrimp Scampi..... $14 served over linguine with garlic bread

Bacon Wrapped Scallops.... $9

Broiled Haddock Melt..... $9 with Havarti cheese and one side

Hancock Park Rehabilitation & Nursing Center & Allerton House Assisted Living Community
Invite you to Join Us!

Friday, November 9, 2012 • 10:00 am - 2:00 pm
Lobby Level of our community

— Visit Vendor Booths: —

Tuccelli Confections	Sports Apparel
Avon	Usbourne Books
Tastefully Simple	Born to be Worn
Thirty One Gifts	Party Lites

Enjoy baked goods, raffles and white elephant table!

617-471-2600

Allerton House
at Hancock Park
Assisted Living Community

Hancock Park
REHABILITATION & NURSING CENTER

Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group has been serving the housing, healthcare and rehabilitation needs of seniors for over 60 years.

City of Quincy Residential Street Listing

LEGAL NOTICE				LEGAL NOTICE				LEGAL NOTICE
Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip	Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip	Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip
Abbey Rd	2-1	2 to 23	02169	Bayview St	1-1	14 to 14	02169	Brook Rd	5-1	12 to 94	02169
Aberdeen Rd	6-5	3 to 102	02171	Bayview St	2-1	24 to 61	02169	Brook St	3-2	30 to 156	02170
Abigail Ave	2-5	11 to 25	02169	Beach St	5-2	10 to 58	02170	Brook St	3-5	49 to 147	02170
Acton St	3-2	3 to 41	02170	Beach St	5-5	68 to 303	02170	Brooks Ave	4-5	1 to 135	02169
Adams Cir	5-3	16 to 44	02169	Beacon St	2-1	1 to 41	02169	Brunswick St	6-5	3 to 72	02171
Adams Ct	5-1	2 to 2	02169	Beale St	3-2	125 to 347	02170	Bryant Ave	4-3	15 to 41	02169
Adams St	1-3	1 to 77	02169	Beale St	3-4	430 to 492	02169	Buckingham Rd	6-2	2 to 70	02170
Adams St	3-1	330 to 523	02169	Beale St	3-4	330 to 498	02170	Buckley St	4-4	3 to 66	02169
Adams St	3-4	565 to 707	02169	Beale St	5-2	23 to 72	02170	Bunker Hill Ln	4-1	8 to 166	02169
Adams St	4-2	550 to 626	02169	Becket St	3-3	2 to 46	02171	Bunker Hill Ln	4-3	11 to 55	02169
Adams St	5-3	140 to 311	02169	Bedford St	5-3	1 to 61	02169	Burns Ave	2-3	9 to 75	02169
Adele Rd	4-1	35 to 63	02169	Beebe Rd	1-2	10 to 52	02169	Butler Rd	1-3	41 to 170	02169
Adeline Pl	1-3	10 to 10	02169	Beechwood St	2-1	10 to 51	02169	Butler Rd	5-3	34 to 126	02169
Agawam Rd	1-4	5 to 35	02169	Bell St	1-5	7 to 38	02169	Cairn St	2-5	7 to 7	02169
Airport Rd	6-3	47 to 98	02171	Bellevue Rd	6-5	4 to 319	02171	Caledonia Ave	4-5	3 to 24	02169
Albany St	3-4	7 to 38	02170	Belmont St	3-2	251 to 416	02170	California Ave	4-3	19 to 109	02169
Albatross Rd	1-4	58 to 192	02169	Belmont St	3-3	7 to 15	02171	Calumet St	6-4	3 to 35	02170
Albertina St	4-1	11 to 79	02169	Belmont St	3-4	81 to 151	02170	Calvin Rd	1-1	9 to 47	02169
Albertina St	4-5	14 to 82	02169	Belmont St	3-4	19 to 59	02171	Camden St	1-4	78 to 78	02169
Albion Rd	6-2	2 to 74	02170	Belmont St	3-5	82 to 230	02170	Campbell St	4-2	6 to 103	02169
Alden St	2-4	5 to 30	02169	Belmont St	3-5	24 to 62	02171	Campbell St	4-3	11 to 41	02169
Algonquin Rd	1-4	9 to 50	02169	Bennington St	4-5	1 to 83	02169	Canton Rd	6-4	1 to 23	02171
Allerton St	1-4	7 to 80	02169	Bent Ter	1-1	7 to 25	02169	Captains Walk	1-2	8 to 72	02169
Alrick Rd	4-2	5 to 95	02169	Berkeley St	2-4	5 to 31	02169	Carle Rd	6-4	8 to 39	02170
Alstead St	6-3	68 to 105	02171	Berlin St	5-2	3 to 65	02170	Carlisle St	6-1	54 to 90	02171
Alton Rd	2-5	4 to 100	02169	Berry St	2-5	11 to 28	02169	Carlmark St	4-4	4 to 24	02169
Alvin Ave	3-4	6 to 110	02171	Bersani Cir	6-1	11 to 30	02171	Carlson St	3-1	1 to 44	02169
Ames St	4-1	11 to 100	02169	Bessie St	2-1	1 to 1	02169	Carrigg Rd	6-5	10 to 28	02171
Amesbury St	3-4	99 to 108	02170	Bethel Ter	1-2	11 to 11	02169	Carrolls Ln	3-1	11 to 29	02169
Amesbury St	3-4	30 to 76	02171	Beverly St	4-3	15 to 31	02169	Carruth St	5-3	9 to 44	02170
Amsterdam Ave	3-4	6 to 19	02171	Bicknell St	1-2	6 to 100	02169	Carter St	2-5	6 to 29	02169
Anderson Rd	5-3	5 to 24	02170	Bigelow St	2-4	12 to 40	02169	Casco St	1-5	9 to 30	02169
Andrews Rd	5-4	7 to 82	02170	Bigelow St	5-1	25 to 103	02169	Cedar Pl	1-3	15 to 15	02169
Angus St	3-4	4 to 25	02171	Billings Rd	5-5	273 to 372	02170	Cedar St	3-1	49 to 123	02170
Apex St	2-2	2 to 28	02169	Billings Rd	6-1	243 to 304	02171	Cedar St	5-3	58 to 126	02170
Appleton St	6-1	4 to 88	02171	Billings Rd	6-2	16 to 156	02171	Central Ave	1-5	9 to 19	02169
Appleton St	6-4	11 to 93	02171	Billings Rd	6-4	207 to 276	02170	Centre St	4-1	49 to 229	02169
Apthorp St	6-4	6 to 68	02170	Billings Rd	6-4	135 to 208	02171	Centre St	4-2	21 to 37	02169
Ardell St	3-3	6 to 89	02171	Billings St	6-1	4 to 303	02171	Centre St	4-4	14 to 186	02169
Argonne St	4-3	4 to 49	02169	Binnacle Ln	1-2	11 to 36	02169	Centre St	4-5	192 to 537	02169
Arlington St	3-2	243 to 249	02170	Birch St	6-2	6 to 43	02171	Channing St	6-4	4 to 66	02170
Arlington St	3-5	137 to 235	02170	Bird St	1-5	1 to 100	02169	Chapel St	1-5	19 to 21	02169
Armory St	5-4	6 to 55	02169	Bishop Rd	3-4	5 to 43	02170	Chapman St	5-2	8 to 82	02170
Arnold Rd	6-4	10 to 75	02171	Bittern Rd	1-4	1 to 50	02169	Charles St	1-5	10 to 134	02169
Arnold St	2-1	1 to 127	02169	Blackwell St	6-1	8 to 12	02171	Charlesmount Ave	2-3	5 to 58	02169
Arnold St	2-4	112 to 130	02169	Blake St	5-2	7 to 31	02170	Chase St	2-2	9 to 24	02169
Arthur Ave	4-4	11 to 14	02169	Bloomfield St	6-5	8 to 40	02171	Cheriton Rd	5-2	11 to 59	02170
Arthur St	4-4	8 to 83	02169	Booth St	4-4	34 to 34	02169	Cheriton Rd	6-2	14 to 64	02170
Ash St	3-3	9 to 13	02171	Booth St	5-1	6 to 6	02169	Cherry St	2-1	9 to 44	02169
Ashland St	4-3	7 to 45	02169	Border St	6-5	9 to 36	02171	Chesley Rd	1-2	6 to 13	02169
Ashworth Rd	6-5	3 to 93	02171	Botolph St	6-1	24 to 102	02171	Chester St	5-2	9 to 53	02170
Assabet Rd	1-1	65 to 107	02169	Botolph St	6-2	11 to 83	02171	Chick St	5-5	5 to 31	02170
Assabet Rd	1-4	47 to 53	02169	Bowdoin St	3-3	8 to 15	02171	Chickatabot Rd	1-1	51 to 79	02169
Atherton St	2-4	1 to 49	02169	Bowdoin St	3-4	31 to 111	02171	Chickatabot Rd	1-4	7 to 80	02169
Atlantic St	6-1	57 to 336	02171	Bower Rd	2-2	15 to 49	02169	Chubbuck St	2-2	43 to 131	02169
Audrey St	2-5	2 to 22	02169	Bower Rd	2-5	74 to 114	02169	Chubbuck St	2-3	12 to 48	02169
Avalon Ave	2-1	3 to 77	02169	Bower Rd Ext	2-5	110 to 116	02169	Churchill Rd	3-1	11 to 78	02169
Avon Way	5-1	4 to 34	02169	Bowes Ave	1-2	10 to 57	02169	Circuit Rd	2-2	28 to 75	02169
Avon Way	5-3	11 to 27	02169	Brackett St	1-1	45 to 99	02169	Cityview Ln	3-1	1 to 2	02169
Babcock St	1-4	1 to 120	02169	Brackett St	1-3	60 to 96	02169	Claremont Ave	2-2	9 to 36	02169
Babcock St	1-5	128 to 195	02169	Bradford St	2-5	1 to 43	02169	Clarendon St	2-4	10 to 37	02169
Bailey St	1-3	7 to 25	02169	Brae Rd	3-1	8 to 34	02169	Clark St	6-2	10 to 26	02171
Baker Ave	2-1	22 to 50	02169	Braintree Ave	1-1	11 to 61	02169	Clay St	5-2	80 to 163	02170
Ballou St	4-3	10 to 86	02169	Braintree Ave	1-4	10 to 76	02169	Cleaves St	5-5	11 to 53	02170
Barbour Ter	1-1	19 to 83	02169	Branch St	4-5	1 to 41	02169	Clement Ter	3-4	3 to 91	02171
Barham Ave	3-4	134 to 155	02170	Breck Pl	6-3	1 to 5	02171	Cleverly Ct	2-2	27 to 79	02169
Barham Ave	3-4	9 to 131	02171	Bridge St	1-3	28 to 28	02169	Cliff St	4-2	9 to 103	02169
Barry St	4-2	4 to 53	02169	Bridge St	5-3	23 to 33	02169	Clifton St	1-3	9 to 20	02169
Bartlett St	4-1	9 to 111	02169	Brigantine Ln	6-3	1 to 16	02171	Clive St	6-1	5 to 30	02171
Bass St	5-2	7 to 36	02170	Briggs St	5-4	4 to 36	02170	Coddington St	5-1	53 to 67	02169
Bates Ave	4-3	12 to 163	02169	Brighton St	1-5	28 to 36	02169	Colby Rd	6-4	10 to 126	02171
Baxter Ave	2-1	11 to 114	02169	Brinsley St	1-4	1 to 19	02169	Colonial Dr	5-3	15 to 193	02169
Baxter St	2-4	6 to 58	02169	Brinsley St	1-5	6 to 6	02169	Columbia St	4-5	41 to 105	02169
Bay Ct	1-2	9 to 9	02169	Broad St	1-3	38 to 39	02169	Comm. Shea Blvd	6-3	133 to 133	02171
Bay St	6-5	8 to 62	02171	Broadway	2-2	13 to 94	02169	Common St	3-1	12 to 82	02169
Bay State Rd	6-3	1 to 77	02171	Broadway	2-3	14 to 48	02169	Common St	4-2	5 to 299	02169
Bay View Ave	1-5	8 to 129	02169	Broady Ave	1-2	5 to 50	02169	Common St	4-4	138 to 308	02169
Bayberry Rd	6-5	5 to 52	02171	Brockton Ave	1-2	1 to 49	02169	Commonwealth Ave	2-1	2 to 59	02169
Bayfield Rd	6-4	9 to 96	02171	Bromfield St	5-5	2 to 160	02170	Commonwealth Ave	2-2	76 to 76	02169
Bayside Rd	6-5	3 to 163	02171	Brook Rd	4-4	85 to 95	02169	Conant Rd	6-1	9 to 75	02171
Bayswater Rd	1-5	9 to 18	02169	Brook Rd	4-5	110 to 156	02169	Conant Rd	6-5	12 to 72	02171

City of Quincy Residential Street Listing

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE

Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip	Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip	Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip
Cont'd. from Page 12				Edgeworth Rd	6-3	20 to 34	02171	Francis Ave	5-1	5 to 32	02169
Connell St	4-2	12 to 160	02169	Edgeworth Rd	6-5	7 to 39	02171	Franklin Ave	5-5	14 to 146	02170
Connell St	4-3	167 to 167	02169	Edinboro Rd	2-1	11 to 85	02169	Franklin Pl	5-1	6 to 28	02169
Conrad St	2-5	11 to 20	02169	Edinboro Rd	2-4	10 to 96	02169	Franklin St	2-5	124 to 368	02169
Copeland St	4-2	161 to 369	02169	Edison Park	1-1	9 to 85	02169	Franklin St	4-5	177 to 247	02169
Copeland St	4-4	10 to 148	02169	Edison St	1-1	16 to 80	02169	Franklin St	5-1	15 to 116	02169
Copley St	5-5	11 to 75	02170	Edison St	2-1	41 to 73	02169	Franklin Ter	5-5	6 to 6	02170
Cottage Ave	5-1	3 to 31	02169	Edwards Ln	1-2	4 to 21	02169	Freca Rd	1-5	9 to 9	02169
County Rd	4-2	5 to 30	02169	Edwards St	2-4	5 to 127	02169	Frederick St	4-1	4 to 22	02169
Cove Way	2-1	100 to 200	02169	Edwin St	6-2	1 to 30	02171	Freedom Way	3-4	114 to 118	02170
Crabtree Rd	6-5	3 to 164	02171	Edwin St	6-4	39 to 130	02171	Freeman St	6-4	7 to 95	02170
Craig Ave	2-3	11 to 20	02169	Elcott Rd	1-4	11 to 30	02169	French St	6-4	4 to 78	02171
Cranch St	3-1	7 to 120	02169	Ellerton Rd	2-4	1 to 62	02169	Furnace Ave	4-2	6 to 33	02169
Crane Rd	1-4	46 to 57	02169	Ellington Rd	5-2	5 to 64	02170	Furnace Brook Pky	1-3	80 to 204	02169
Crescent St	4-2	23 to 175	02169	Elliot Ave	3-4	38 to 268	02171	Furnace Brook Pky	1-4	10 to 66	02169
Crescent St	4-3	156 to 156	02169	Ellis St	4-3	2 to 34	02169	Furnace Brook Pky	3-1	704 to 880	02169
Crest St	2-5	1 to 22	02169	Elm Ave	5-2	12 to 84	02170	Furnace Brook Pky	4-2	902 to 1296	02169
Crosby St	1-5	1 to 70	02169	Elm Ave	5-4	5 to 117	02170	Furnace Brook Pky	4-3	1397 to 1501	02169
Cross St	4-2	9 to 117	02169	Elm Ave	5-5	92 to 124	02170	Furnace Brook Pky	5-3	409 to 690	02169
Cummings Ave	5-5	85 to 115	02170	Elm St	1-1	179 to 197	02169	Furnace Brook Pky	5-3	403 to 580	02170
Cummings Ave	6-4	13 to 61	02170	Elm St	2-4	79 to 160	02169	Furnace Brook Pky	5-4	242 to 310	02169
Curlew Rd	1-4	2 to 96	02169	Elm St	2-5	17 to 55	02169	Gannett Rd	1-4	3 to 56	02169
Curtis Ave	2-1	4 to 120	02169	Elm St	5-1	16 to 202	02169	Gardiner Rd	4-3	16 to 226	02169
Curtis St	3-1	6 to 61	02169	Elmwood Ave	3-2	161 to 245	02170	Garfield St	4-4	54 to 113	02169
Cushing St	5-2	1 to 60	02170	Elmwood Ave	3-4	260 to 375	02170	Garfield St	5-1	2 to 99	02169
Cutter Ln	6-3	1 to 19	02171	Elmwood Ave	3-5	9 to 149	02170	Garrett Dr	4-2	3 to 5	02169
Cyril St	2-4	7 to 23	02169	Elmwood Park	3-4	8 to 99	02170	Gay St	2-5	10 to 65	02169
Dahlgren St	3-4	9 to 18	02171	Emerald St	4-3	3 to 100	02169	George Rd	5-3	4 to 71	02170
Dale Ave	2-5	9 to 73	02169	Empire St	1-2	5 to 33	02169	Georgiana Rd	1-2	12 to 12	02169
Darrow St	1-5	3 to 164	02169	Empire St	1-4	10 to 52	02169	Germain Ave	2-1	20 to 74	02169
Dartmouth St	2-4	4 to 31	02169	Endicott St	2-5	2 to 78	02169	Germain Ave	2-2	41 to 85	02169
Davis St	5-5	1 to 192	02170	Ernest Ave	4-2	10 to 14	02169	Germain Ave	2-3	2 to 31	02169
Dayton St	4-2	3 to 100	02169	Essex St	6-5	7 to 185	02171	Gertrude Ave	1-2	1 to 10	02169
Dean Rd	6-5	11 to 26	02171	Estabrook Rd	5-4	10 to 57	02170	Gibbs St	2-1	10 to 10	02169
Dee Rd	2-1	13 to 48	02169	Euclid Ave	5-3	2 to 64	02169	Gilbert St	4-4	89 to 97	02169
Deerfield St	6-5	7 to 58	02171	Eustis St	5-5	2 to 52	02170	Gilbert St	4-5	65 to 102	02169
Delano Ave	1-4	19 to 64	02169	Evans St	3-3	92 to 128	02171	Gilmore St	5-3	8 to 45	02170
Deldorf St	3-1	12 to 50	02169	Evelyn Pl	3-4	21 to 25	02171	Gilson Rd	1-3	6 to 32	02169
Densmore St	3-3	31 to 31	02171	Everett St	3-2	44 to 260	02170	Gladstone St	6-5	3 to 70	02171
Des Moines Rd	2-2	15 to 50	02169	Exeter St	3-2	1 to 91	02170	Glendale Rd	5-3	15 to 192	02169
Des Moines Rd	2-3	12 to 16	02169	Fairmount Way	5-3	16 to 34	02169	Glenview Rd	2-2	10 to 29	02169
Dewson Rd	5-3	20 to 87	02169	Fairview Rd	3-1	11 to 38	02169	Glenwood Way	2-4	2 to 20	02169
Dickens St	5-4	8 to 85	02170	Fallon Ct	5-1	1 to 32	02169	Glover Ave	6-2	20 to 118	02171
Dickens St	5-5	91 to 91	02170	Falls Blvd	2-2	200 to 500	02169	Glynn Ter	1-1	1 to 24	02169
Dimmock St	5-3	43 to 126	02169	Falls Blvd	2-5	2001 to 2001	02169	Goddard St	4-5	19 to 107	02169
Ditmar St	6-3	11 to 19	02171	Farnum St	2-1	2 to 34	02169	Goddard St	5-1	4 to 26	02169
Ditmar St	6-5	8 to 8	02171	Farrell St	3-1	9 to 31	02169	Gordon St	6-4	2 to 44	02171
Division St	3-3	6 to 67	02171	Farrington St	3-2	308 to 324	02170	Gordon Ter	4-4	1 to 25	02169
Dixwell Ave	5-1	66 to 122	02169	Farrington St	3-5	37 to 291	02170	Gothland St	3-1	2 to 25	02169
Dixwell Ave	5-3	11 to 117	02169	Farrington St	3-5	25 to 76	02171	Gould St	5-5	7 to 66	02170
Doane St	1-2	6 to 130	02169	Faxon Ave	1-3	10 to 10	02169	Governors Rd	4-3	146 to 249	02169
Doble St	4-1	3 to 36	02169	Faxon Ln	2-5	29 to 114	02169	Grace Rd	1-2	3 to 36	02169
Dockray St	3-4	26 to 32	02169	Faxon Park Rd	2-5	15 to 127	02169	Grafton St	2-4	8 to 65	02169
Dorchester St	6-5	7 to 161	02171	Faxon Rd	6-2	3 to 113	02171	Graham St	1-1	31 to 47	02169
Douglas St	4-3	1 to 17	02169	Faxon Rd	6-4	4 to 138	02171	Graham St	2-1	30 to 80	02169
Douse Rd	5-3	3 to 18	02170	Fayette St	3-2	312 to 326	02170	Graham Ter	1-1	3 to 15	02169
Doyle Ter	1-2	7 to 30	02169	Fayette St	3-5	85 to 294	02170	Grand View Ave	3-2	1 to 164	02170
Dunbarton Rd	5-2	1 to 34	02170	Fayette St	3-5	95 to 95	02171	Grand View Ter	3-2	3 to 4	02170
Dundee Rd	6-5	15 to 108	02171	Federal Ave	4-5	52 to 225	02169	Granger St	3-2	9 to 91	02170
Dunmore St	4-2	16 to 26	02169	Federal Ave	5-1	6 to 34	02169	Granger St	3-4	108 to 160	02170
Dunns Ct	4-2	11 to 17	02169	Felton St	6-2	5 to 15	02171	Granite Rail Ct	4-3	2 to 8	02169
Dunns Hill Rd	4-2	1 to 19	02169	Fenno St	5-4	191 to 191	02169	Granite St	3-1	99 to 235	02169
Dunns Hill Rd	4-4	4 to 4	02169	Fenno St	5-4	20 to 370	02170	Granite St	4-4	318 to 458	02169
Dustin St	4-3	6 to 7	02169	Fenno St	5-5	404 to 404	02170	Granite St	5-1	154 to 313	02169
Dysart St	2-5	10 to 118	02169	Fensmere Ave	1-5	4 to 42	02169	Grant Pl	2-4	10 to 13	02169
Earle St	5-2	10 to 18	02170	Ferndale Rd	5-2	6 to 61	02170	Granville St	5-1	5 to 22	02169
East Elm Ave	5-4	23 to 23	02170	Ferriter St	4-3	4 to 27	02169	Greene St	5-4	11 to 140	02170
East Elm Ave	5-5	25 to 25	02169	Field St	1-3	22 to 42	02169	Greenleaf St	1-3	17 to 124	02169
East Elm Ave	5-5	12 to 172	02170	Fifth Ave	2-1	25 to 110	02169	Greenview St	3-4	1 to 38	02169
East Howard St	2-2	86 to 134	02169	Fifth Ave	2-3	115 to 115	02169	Greenwood Ave	5-2	8 to 32	02170
East Squantum St	6-1	190 to 292	02171	Figurehead Ln	1-2	4 to 34	02169	Grenwood Rd	5-3	1 to 71	02169
East Squantum St	6-2	128 to 128	02170	Filbert St	4-4	2 to 72	02169	Greystone St	4-1	8 to 36	02169
East Squantum St	6-2	25 to 170	02171	First St	1-1	11 to 28	02169	Gridley St	4-3	7 to 123	02169
East Squantum St	6-3	320 to 420	02171	Flagg St	5-4	2 to 20	02170	Grogan Ave	4-2	1 to 80	02169
East Squantum St	6-4	153 to 195	02171	Florence St	5-4	3 to 70	02170	Grossman St	4-4	9 to 47	02169
East Squantum St	6-5	285 to 950	02171	Flynt St	6-2	6 to 59	02171	Grove St	4-3	23 to 154	02169
Eaton Rd	1-1	2 to 28	02169	Follett St	2-1	101 to 105	02169	Guild St	5-1	11 to 22	02169
Ebbett Ave	5-4	1 to 32	02170	Forbes Hill Rd	3-4	10 to 115	02170	Hall Pl	4-2	1 to 142	02169
Eddie St	3-4	2 to 48	02169	Forbush Ave	1-2	6 to 17	02169	Hamden Cir	5-5	2 to 145	02170
Edgehill Rd	4-3	15 to 15	02169	Ford St	1-1	1 to 11	02169	Hamilton Ave	3-4	41 to 200	02171
Edgemere Rd	1-3	2 to 84	02169	Forest Ave	4-3	8 to 106	02169	Hamilton Ave	3-5	4 to 32	02171
Edgewater Dr	1-5	3 to 173	02169	Forum Rd	2-5	17 to 52	02169
Edgewood Cir	1-3	10 to 36	02169	Fowler St	2-4	9 to 21	02169

Cont'd. on Page 14

City of Quincy Residential Street Listing

LEGAL NOTICE				LEGAL NOTICE				LEGAL NOTICE
Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip	Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip	Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip
Cont'd. from Page 13				Hudson St	5-3	28 to 62	02169	Lurton St	4-5	6 to 66	02169
Hamilton St	5-5	4 to 102	02170	Hudson St	5-4	2 to 22	02169	Lyons St	4-1	8 to 54	02169
Hammond Ct	5-1	2 to 14	02169	Hughes St	4-5	1 to 72	02169	Lyons St	4-2	13 to 55	02169
Hancock St	1-3	1025 to 1205	02169	Hull St	1-5	6 to 30	02169	Macy St	1-5	4 to 125	02169
Hancock St	3-3	2 to 159	02171	Hummock Rd	6-5	14 to 40	02171	Madeleine St	1-4	15 to 28	02169
Hancock St	5-1	1363 to 1454	02169	Hunt St	6-2	18 to 54	02171	Madison Ave	2-5	4 to 169	02169
Hancock St	5-1	1431 to 1431	02171	Huntley Rd	1-3	30 to 62	02169	Main St	2-4	5 to 198	02169
Hancock St	5-2	503 to 757	02170	Huntress St	1-4	67 to 91	02169	Malden St	4-3	3 to 41	02169
Hancock St	5-2	457 to 511	02171	Hutchinson Ln	6-3	1 to 14	02171	Mallard Rd	1-4	12 to 55	02169
Hancock St	5-3	803 to 983	02170	Hyde St	2-5	10 to 42	02169	Malvern St	1-4	3 to 95	02169
Hancock St	5-4	738 to 968	02170	Hynes Ave	4-1	9 to 26	02169	Malvern St	1-5	32 to 32	02169
Hancock St	6-2	500 to 522	02170	Ida St	4-1	11 to 11	02169	Malvesti Way	4-3	10 to 53	02169
Hancock St	6-2	333 to 480	02171	Independence Ave	4-5	36 to 244	02169	Manet Ave	1-4	7 to 222	02169
Hancock Ter	5-2	7 to 18	02170	Independence Ave	5-1	19 to 19	02169	Manet Ave	1-5	155 to 384	02169
Hanna St	2-1	10 to 36	02169	Ingram St	1-4	9 to 9	02169	Marginal Rd	1-3	31 to 31	02169
Harbor View St	6-5	15 to 57	02171	Intervale St	4-5	3 to 155	02169	Marina Dr	6-3	100 to 2001	02171
Harbourside Rd	6-3	19 to 87	02171	Isabella St	4-1	18 to 22	02169	Marine St	1-5	10 to 59	02169
Hardwick Rd	2-5	7 to 40	02169	Isabella St	4-5	2 to 12	02169	Marion St	3-2	4 to 45	02170
Harkins St	2-4	10 to 14	02169	Island Ave	1-5	3 to 117	02169	Marlboro St	5-2	1 to 72	02170
Harriet Ave	3-3	18 to 181	02171	Jackson St	5-1	1 to 56	02169	Marlboro St	5-4	99 to 246	02170
Harrington Ave	2-4	11 to 64	02169	James St	2-4	4 to 29	02169	Marsh St	5-1	5 to 23	02169
Harris St	4-2	5 to 65	02169	Janet Rd	5-4	5 to 37	02170	Marshall St	6-4	33 to 66	02171
Harrison St	2-1	11 to 56	02169	Jenness St	4-2	14 to 71	02169	Martell Rd	4-2	3 to 34	02169
Harvard St	3-2	200 to 292	02170	Jewett St	1-4	11 to 20	02169	Martensen St	2-3	9 to 134	02169
Harvard St	3-3	8 to 16	02171	Joan Dr	3-1	11 to 70	02169	Mary St	2-3	51 to 67	02169
Harvard St	3-4	105 to 269	02170	John St	3-3	8 to 67	02171	Mascoma St	3-4	10 to 28	02170
Harvard St	3-4	15 to 98	02171	Johnson Ave	1-3	14 to 14	02169	Mason St	5-5	166 to 171	02170
Harvey Ln	1-5	8 to 8	02169	Jordan St	5-5	25 to 25	02170	Massachusetts Ave	2-4	9 to 62	02169
Hatherly Rd	3-4	6 to 50	02170	Joseph St	1-4	17 to 29	02169	Mattson St	3-1	26 to 34	02169
Haviland St	5-4	10 to 111	02170	Keating St	2-3	52 to 72	02169	Maxim Pl	1-5	8 to 32	02169
Hawthorne St	1-5	9 to 34	02169	Kemper St	5-2	10 to 34	02170	Mayflower Rd	6-5	1 to 125	02171
Hayden St	4-1	19 to 49	02169	Kemper St	5-4	61 to 156	02170	Maypole Rd	1-1	42 to 56	02169
Heath St	6-5	10 to 34	02171	Kendall St	6-1	16 to 74	02171	Maypole Rd	1-4	14 to 41	02169
Helene St	4-1	5 to 23	02169	Kendall St	6-2	37 to 71	02171	McDonald St	4-1	9 to 41	02169
Henry St	6-4	54 to 98	02171	Kendrick Ave	2-5	133 to 220	02169	Mead St	1-4	12 to 12	02169
Herbert Rd	6-4	3 to 30	02171	Kent St	4-4	4 to 75	02169	Meadow St	6-5	10 to 40	02171
Heritage Rd	5-3	5 to 54	02169	Ketch Ln	6-3	1 to 23	02171	Meadowbrook Rd	5-4	56 to 93	02170
Heron Rd	1-4	22 to 32	02169	Keyes St	2-4	2 to 45	02169	Mears Ave	1-5	8 to 92	02169
Hersey Pl	2-1	13 to 24	02169	Kidder St	4-4	43 to 55	02169	Mechanic St	5-1	8 to 31	02169
High Point Cir	3-1	8 to 10	02169	Kidder St	5-1	9 to 54	02169	Medway St	1-5	9 to 15	02169
High School Ave	2-5	12 to 30	02169	Kilby St	1-4	12 to 19	02169	Merrill Ave	5-2	1 to 21	02170
High St	2-5	6 to 108	02169	Kimball St	4-2	3 to 60	02169	Merrymount Ave	5-4	4 to 32	02170
High St	4-5	5 to 95	02169	Kimball St	4-3	53 to 53	02169	Merrymount Rd	1-3	18 to 208	02169
Highfield Rd	1-1	17 to 69	02169	Kittredge Ave	2-1	7 to 30	02169	Middlesex St	6-5	12 to 67	02171
Highfield Rd	1-3	7 to 22	02169	Knollwood Rd	6-5	10 to 100	02171	Miles Dr	3-1	5 to 52	02169
Highland Ave	3-2	265 to 265	02169	Labadine St	5-5	16 to 20	02170	Miles Dr	5-3	14 to 14	02169
Highland Ave	3-2	237 to 420	02170	Lafayette St	5-3	9 to 43	02169	Mill St	1-1	12 to 62	02169
Highland Ave	3-5	10 to 217	02170	Lafayette St	5-4	4 to 32	02169	Miller St	4-2	12 to 81	02169
Highpoint Cir	3-1	6 to 10	02169	Lakeside Ave	1-5	9 to 36	02169	Miller Stile Rd	2-4	30 to 32	02169
Hilda St	3-4	3 to 63	02169	Lancaster St	2-4	6 to 118	02169	Miller Stile Rd	5-1	8 to 51	02169
Hill St	4-1	9 to 22	02169	Landers Rd	5-5	4 to 19	02170	Milton Rd	6-4	2 to 45	02171
Hillcrest Rd	6-5	13 to 25	02171	Landgrane St	6-5	8 to 17	02171	Milton St	3-4	145 to 195	02170
Hillsboro St	2-5	3 to 79	02169	Langley Cir	5-4	7 to 30	02170	Minihans Ln	4-3	15 to 50	02169
Hillside Ave	3-2	10 to 72	02170	Lansdowne St	6-5	7 to 184	02171	Miriam St	1-2	15 to 28	02169
Hillside Ave	3-4	88 to 127	02170	Lark St	4-4	15 to 19	02169	Moffat Rd	1-1	7 to 77	02169
Hilltop St	4-2	7 to 56	02169	Larry Pl	4-3	1 to 40	02169	Monclair Ave	3-3	63 to 63	02171
Hilma St	3-4	10 to 102	02171	Larry St	4-1	20 to 30	02169	Monmouth St	6-5	12 to 54	02171
Hitchcock Ter	2-4	10 to 15	02169	Lawn Ave	2-1	1 to 90	02169	Monroe Rd	5-1	185 to 185	02169
Hobart St	3-4	193 to 259	02170	Lawrence St	2-2	7 to 34	02169	Monroe Rd	5-3	56 to 180	02169
Hobart St	3-5	42 to 134	02170	Lawry St	4-5	1 to 3	02169	Montclair Ave	3-3	2 to 124	02171
Hobomack Rd	1-4	10 to 57	02169	Lawton Rd	5-1	7 to 7	02169	Montilio St	4-1	3 to 18	02169
Hodges Ave	6-2	4 to 72	02171	Lebanon St	2-1	16 to 33	02169	Moody St	2-3	1 to 20	02169
Hodges Ct	6-2	7 to 16	02171	Lee St	1-4	7 to 12	02169	Moon Island Rd	6-5	1 to 47	02171
Hodgkinson St	1-2	12 to 72	02169	Lenox St	1-4	1 to 41	02169	Moore St	2-1	14 to 45	02169
Holbrook Rd	3-3	133 to 239	02171	Lenox St	1-5	46 to 126	02169	Moreland Rd	1-3	3 to 31	02169
Holbrook Rd	3-4	132 to 302	02171	Liberty St	4-5	53 to 291	02169	Morgan Rd	5-3	5 to 11	02169
Holbrook Rd	3-5	41 to 58	02170	Lillian Rd	5-3	3 to 18	02170	Morgan Rd	5-3	1 to 20	02170
Holbrook Rd	3-5	74 to 120	02171	Lincoln Ave	3-2	14 to 129	02170	Morley Rd	5-3	5 to 40	02170
Hollis Ave	6-2	9 to 116	02171	Lind St	1-2	53 to 71	02169	Morrison St	1-3	40 to 40	02169
Hollis Ave	6-4	136 to 245	02171	Lind St	1-4	14 to 80	02169	Morse St	5-5	4 to 29	02170
Holliston St	4-3	45 to 45	02169	Linden Ct	1-3	5 to 15	02169	Mortimer Ter	2-5	11 to 24	02169
Holmes St	6-2	5 to 120	02171	Linden St	5-2	12 to 22	02170	Morton St	4-4	9 to 45	02169
Holyoke St	6-1	9 to 72	02171	Littlefield St	1-5	3 to 76	02169	Moscow St	6-2	1 to 17	02171
Homer Rd	1-1	1 to 56	02169	Livesey Rd	6-5	12 to 24	02171	Mound St	2-1	8 to 23	02169
Homestead Ave	1-5	6 to 22	02169	Lois Ter	5-5	6 to 14	02170	Mount Ararat Rd	3-1	16 to 79	02169
Hood St	1-5	5 to 20	02169	London Ave	3-4	11 to 52	02171	Mount Vernon St	4-2	9 to 42	02169
Hooper St	1-4	30 to 60	02169	Longwood Rd	1-3	5 to 81	02169	Muirhead St	5-5	7 to 30	02170
Hoover Ave	2-5	11 to 29	02169	Loring St	4-1	28 to 62	02169	Mullin Ave	4-3	15 to 66	02169
Hopedale St	4-1	3 to 26	02169	Lowe St	2-4	12 to 36	02169	Murdock Ave	2-1	17 to 66	02169
Hovey St	6-1	3 to 64	02171	Lowell St	4-3	8 to 21	02169	Murdock Ave	2-4	2 to 12	02169
Howe St	1-2	2 to 65	02169	Ludlow Rd	6-3	1 to 19	02171
Huckins Ave	6-5	2 to 179	02171	Lunt St	6-2	3 to 66	02171

Cont'd. on Page 15

City of Quincy Residential Street Listing

LEGAL NOTICE

Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip
Cont'd. from Page 14
Myopia Rd	3-4	64 to 82	02169
Myopia Rd	3-4	14 to 61	02170
Myrtle St	3-3	8 to 89	02171
Narragansett Rd	1-1	65 to 121	02169
Narragansett Rd	1-4	2 to 57	02169
Naval Ter	6-3	3 to 109	02171
Nelson St	4-4	1 to 52	02169
Neponset Rd	1-1	36 to 57	02169
Neponset Rd	1-4	6 to 24	02169
Nevada Rd	2-1	10 to 19	02169
Newbury Ave	6-1	3 to 99	02171
Newbury Ave	6-2	110 to 267	02171
Newbury St	3-3	26 to 57	02171
Newcomb St	1-3	24 to 56	02169
Newcomb St	5-1	21 to 53	02169
Newfield St	3-4	11 to 39	02170
Newhall St	6-1	14 to 14	02171
Newport Ave	3-1	505 to 511	02170
Newport Ave	3-2	299 to 483	02170
Newport Ave	3-2	411 to 483	02171
Newport Ave	3-5	225 to 291	02170
Newport Ave	3-5	223 to 223	02171
Newport Ave	5-3	525 to 615	02170
Newport Ter	3-2	4 to 19	02170
Newton Ave	5-2	1 to 5	02170
Newton Ave	5-3	18 to 54	02170
Newton St	1-4	9 to 61	02169
Newton St	1-5	40 to 70	02169
Nicholl St	2-5	3 to 35	02169
Nightingale Ave	4-4	81 to 113	02169
Nightingale Ave	4-5	29 to 116	02169
Nilsen Ave	3-1	7 to 42	02169
Noanet St	1-4	9 to 16	02169
Norfolk St	3-2	85 to 238	02170
Norman Rd	2-5	4 to 58	02169
North Bayfield Rd	6-4	30 to 100	02171
North Central Ave	3-2	177 to 270	02170
North Central Ave	3-2	269 to 269	02171
North Central Ave	3-4	145 to 149	02170
North Central Ave	3-5	1 to 226	02170
North Payne St	5-1	7 to 50	02169
North St	6-1	34 to 48	02171
Northfield Ave	1-2	5 to 56	02169
Norton Rd	1-4	5 to 99	02169
Nut Island Ave	1-5	6 to 35	02169
Oak Ave	3-3	3 to 17	02171
Oak Grove Ter	4-5	11 to 11	02169
Oak St	2-4	1 to 10	02169
Oakland Ave	3-1	3 to 43	02170
Oakland Ave	5-3	2 to 95	02170
Oakridge Rd	3-3	1 to 13	02171
Oakwood Rd	1-2	4 to 26	02169
Ocean Ave	6-5	10 to 73	02171
Ocean St	6-5	3 to 79	02171
O'Connell Ave	4-3	12 to 45	02169
Odom St	2-1	1 to 3	02169
Old Coach Rd	3-1	18 to 33	02169
Old Colony Ave	5-2	2 to 100	02170
Old Colony Ave	5-3	118 to 165	02170
Oneida St	1-4	9 to 15	02169
Orchard St	6-5	3 to 24	02171
Orleans St	1-5	5 to 11	02169
Oval Rd	5-3	6 to 45	02170
Overlook Rd	1-1	18 to 36	02169
Overlook Rd	1-3	5 to 39	02169
Owens Pl	4-1	13 to 17	02169
Oxenbridge Rd	5-2	103 to 121	02170
Oxenbridge Rd	5-5	104 to 152	02170
Packards Ln	3-1	8 to 58	02169
Palmer St	1-2	39 to 445	02169
Palmer St	1-4	6 to 174	02169
Park St	3-2	8 to 43	02170
Parke Ave	6-5	2 to 217	02171
Parker St	3-1	13 to 74	02169
Parkhurst St	1-5	5 to 76	02169
Parkingway	5-1	164 to 164	02169
Parkman St	5-3	1 to 21	02170
Parmenter Pl	2-4	6 to 12	02169
Parsons St	4-5	11 to 17	02169
Patrick Rd	4-2	12 to 20	02169
Patten St	5-5	32 to 32	02170
Pawsey St	1-4	15 to 83	02169

LEGAL NOTICE

Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip
Payne St	2-5	10 to 76	02169
Payne St	5-1	1 to 73	02169
Payson St	4-4	5 to 5	02169
Payson St	5-1	2 to 12	02169
Pearl St	5-1	1 to 47	02169
Pelican Rd	1-4	5 to 87	02169
Pembroke St	4-5	10 to 51	02169
Penn St	4-5	15 to 100	02169
Penns Hill Rd	2-5	3 to 30	02169
Pequot Rd	1-4	7 to 22	02169
Perkins St	4-2	8 to 34	02169
Perley Pl	2-4	5 to 18	02169
Perry Rd	5-4	5 to 28	02170
Peterson Rd	1-4	5 to 39	02169
Petrel Rd	1-4	1 to 20	02169
Phillips St	5-2	1 to 65	02170
Phillips St	5-4	98 to 148	02170
Phillips St	5-5	6 to 72	02170
Phipps St	2-5	26 to 189	02169
Phipps St	5-1	9 to 85	02169
Pierce St	6-2	6 to 19	02171
Piermont St	3-4	3 to 132	02170
Pilgrim Rd	4-3	26 to 53	02169
Pine St	3-2	102 to 264	02170
Pine St	3-4	201 to 255	02170
Piper St	4-5	8 to 20	02169
Pitts Ave	5-2	1 to 1	02170
Plain St	4-5	7 to 35	02169
Pleasant St	5-1	15 to 100	02169
Plover Rd	1-4	1 to 51	02169
Plymouth Ave	4-3	122 to 225	02169
Plymouth St	4-5	8 to 88	02169
Pond St	1-1	9 to 81	02169
Pontiac Rd	1-1	4 to 109	02169
Pope St	3-3	2 to 80	02171
Poplar Rd	1-4	9 to 31	02169
Post Island Rd	1-4	5 to 99	02169
Pratt Ln	2-5	1 to 2	02169
Pratt Rd	6-5	1 to 79	02171
Pray St	2-1	15 to 21	02169
Prescott Ter	1-2	10 to 30	02169
Presidential Dr	2-2	10 to 95	02169
Presidents Ave	5-1	36 to 65	02169
Presidents Ln	5-1	176 to 251	02169
Presidents Ln	5-3	6 to 166	02169
Preston Sq	6-3	1 to 14	02171
Price St	6-2	4 to 22	02171
Primrose Cir	4-2	1 to 4	02169
Princess Eve Dr	5-5	9 to 87	02170
Priscilla Ln	3-1	5 to 42	02169
Prospect Ave	3-2	5 to 144	02170
Prospect Hill St	4-4	1 to 45	02169
Prospect St	3-2	18 to 18	02170
Prospect St	6-1	6 to 52	02171
Prout St	5-1	1 to 40	02169
Puritan Dr	3-1	14 to 174	02169
Puritan Dr	5-3	11 to 105	02169
Putnam St	1-3	72 to 175	02169
Putnam St	5-3	35 to 59	02169
Putnam St	5-4	7 to 38	02169
Quadrant Cir	1-2	9 to 35	02169
Quarry St	3-1	17 to 365	02169
Quarry St	4-2	326 to 581	02169
Quarry St	4-3	580 to 633	02169
Quarry St	4-4	150 to 318	02169
Quarry St	5-1	6 to 100	02169
Quarterdeck Rd	1-2	9 to 79	02169
Quentin St	1-4	12 to 12	02169
Quincy Ave	2-2	460 to 480	02169
Quincy Ave	2-3	140 to 366	02169
Quincy Ave	2-5	31 to 203	02169
Quincy Shore Dr	1-1	1330 to 1453	02169
Quincy Shore Dr	1-4	1304 to 1327	02169
Quincy Shore Dr	5-5	677 to 977	02170
Quincy Shore Dr	6-1	61 to 491	02171
Quincy Shore Dr	6-3	90 to 269	02171
Quincy Shore Dr	6-4	601 to 639	02170
Quincy Shore Dr	6-4	501 to 581	02171
Quincy Shore Dr	6-5	275 to 407	02171
Quincy St	4-5	115 to 168	02169
Quincy St	5-1	11 to 104	02169
Quincy Ter	2-3	17 to 17	02169
Randlett St	5-5	6 to 74	02170
Ratchford Cir	1-5	7 to 21	02169

LEGAL NOTICE

Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip
Ratchford St	1-5	15 to 73	02169
Rawson Rd	5-5	101 to 147	02170
Rawson Rd	6-4	6 to 82	02170
Raycroft St	2-2	59 to 83	02169
Read Ave	2-2	1 to 5	02169
Reardon St	4-2	6 to 36	02169
Remington Ct	2-5	10 to 20	02169
Reservoir Rd	3-1	80 to 150	02170
Reservoir Rd	3-4	77 to 163	02170
Revere Rd	5-1	31 to 69	02169
Rhoda St	1-4	90 to 235	02169
Rhude St	1-2	3 to 46	02169
Ricciuti Dr	4-1	2 to 2	02169
Ricciuti Dr	4-3	10 to 333	02169
Rice Rd	5-4	4 to 107	02170
Rice Rd	5-5	96 to 165	02170
Richard St	2-3	12 to 23	02169
Richfield St	6-5	2 to 40	02171
Richie Rd	2-5	4 to 40	02169
Ridgeway Dr	1-1	26 to 38	02169
Ridgeway Dr	1-3	15 to 51	02169
Ridgeway St	5-5	3 to 47	02170
Ridgewood Ln	4-3	15 to 39	02169
Ring Ave	2-1	4 to 22	02169
River St	1-1	14 to 28	02169
River St	2-1	11 to 64	02169
Riverbank Rd	1-2	1 to 55	02169
Riverside Ave	1-4	9 to 70	02169
Riverview St	1-5	4 to 14	02169
Roach St	1-2	11 to 23	02169
Roanoke St	1-4	9 to 11	02169
Roberta Ln	5-4	4 to 26	02170
Roberts St	4-4	7 to 79	02169
Roberts St	4-5	72 to 118	02169
Robertson St	4-2	100 to 126	02169
Robertson St	4-3	20 to 179	02169
Rock Island Rd	1-5	9 to 358	02169
Rockland St	1-4	8 to 138	02169
Rockland St	1-5	17 to 151	02169
Rockview Rd	3-1	1 to 25	02169
Rodman St	4-5	8 to 82	02169
Rogers Ln	1-5	5 to 29	02169
Rogers St	4-2	10 to 85	02169
Roosevelt Rd	3-1	19 to 36	02169
Roselin Ave	5-3	3 to 45	02169
Rosemary Ln	4-1	11 to 21	02169
Rowley St	3-1	1 to 17	02169
Royal St	6-4	6 to 74	02170
Ruggles St	2-1	3 to 108	02169
Russell Park	1-3	24 to 118	02169
Russell St	6-1	2 to 130	02171
Rustic Pl	4-2	10 to 24	02169
Ruthven St	3-3	8 to 42	02171
Ryden St	3-1	9 to 31	02169
Sachem Park	5-5	1 to 6	02170
Sachem St	5-5	11 to 117	02170
Safford St	3-2	295 to 314	02170
Safford St	3-5	31 to 270	02170
Safford St	3-5	8 to 31	02171
Sagamore Ave	3-3	3 to 92	02171
Sagamore St	6-1	72 to 141	02171
Saint Anns Rd	5-3	22 to 44	02170
Saint Germain St	1-2	2 to 53	02169
Salem St	4-1	10 to 44	02169
Salem St	4-3	25 to 45	02169
Samoset Ave	1-1	101 to 208	02169
Samoset Ave	1-3	3 to 86	02169
Sampo Pl	4-1	11 to 27	02169
Sampo Pl	4-5	10 to 10	02169
Saratoga St	6-3	66 to 70	02171
Sargent St	1-2	13 to 49	02169
Saville Ave	1-3	20 to 44	02169
Scammell St	2-3	51 to 77	02169
Scammell St	2-5	38 to 54	02169
Schlager Ave	4-1	9 to 35	02169
School St	2-5	7 to 65	02169
School St	5-1	122 to 208	02169
Schooner Ln	6-3	4 to 26	02171
Scotch Pond Pl	3-1	56 to 90	02169
Scotch Pond Rd	3-1	88 to 88	02169
Sea Ave	1-5	2 to 143	02169
Sea St	1-1	126 to 485	02169

Cont'd. on Page 16

City of Quincy Residential Street Listing

LEGAL NOTICE				LEGAL NOTICE				LEGAL NOTICE
Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip	Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip	Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip
Cont'd. from Page 15				Summit Ave	3-1	8 to 140	02170	Warren Ave	5-2	49 to 65	02170
Sea St	1-3	118 to 118	02169	Summit Ave	3-2	3 to 73	02170	Warren Ave	5-3	50 to 62	02170
Sea St	1-4	256 to 985	02169	Summit Ave	3-4	85 to 192	02170	Warren Ave Ext	5-3	36 to 36	02170
Sea St	1-5	912 to 1303	02169	Sumner St	2-4	9 to 171	02169	Warren Ter	3-2	4 to 8	02170
Seagull Rd	1-4	7 to 17	02169	Sunnyside Rd	4-3	12 to 50	02169	Warwick St	6-4	2 to 50	02170
Seal Rock Ln	6-5	1 to 20	02171	Sunrise Rd	6-5	15 to 49	02171	Washington Ct	2-1	14 to 64	02169
Sealund Rd	3-3	12 to 74	02171	Suomi Rd	4-4	10 to 166	02169	Washington St	1-1	178 to 410	02169
Seaport Dr	6-3	2 to 10	02171	Surfside Ln	6-5	10 to 54	02171	Washington St	2-1	421 to 692	02169
Seaway Rd	6-5	1 to 31	02171	Swan Rd	1-4	7 to 18	02169	Washington St	2-2	535 to 721	02169
Sewall St	5-5	2 to 45	02170	Sycamore Rd	6-5	11 to 49	02171	Washington St	2-4	139 to 403	02169
Sextant Cir	1-2	6 to 32	02169	Taber St	4-5	18 to 89	02169	Washington St	5-1	47 to 148	02169
Seymour St	4-3	1 to 19	02169	Taffrail Rd	1-2	4 to 224	02169	Water St	2-5	16 to 75	02169
Sharon Rd	6-4	8 to 108	02171	Taft St	2-4	8 to 32	02169	Water St	4-4	292 to 396	02169
Shaw St	2-1	3 to 38	02169	Taylor St	3-2	181 to 202	02170	Water St	4-5	246 to 284	02169
Shawmut Pl	4-3	2 to 2	02169	Taylor St	3-5	9 to 157	02170	Water St	5-1	83 to 277	02169
Shawmut St	4-3	4 to 111	02169	Terne Rd	1-4	14 to 73	02169	Waterston Ave	5-4	11 to 162	02170
Shea St	2-1	19 to 58	02169	Thatcher St	5-2	12 to 12	02170	Watkins St	5-5	10 to 76	02170
Shed St	1-2	5 to 103	02169	Thayer St	1-3	3 to 11	02169	Watson Rd	2-2	11 to 25	02169
Sheldon St	4-3	74 to 74	02169	The Strand	5-5	11 to 75	02170	Watson Rd	2-3	4 to 26	02169
Sheldon St	4-3	65 to 91	02169	Theresa Rd	3-4	15 to 41	02169	Watson Ter	2-2	16 to 28	02169
Shellton Rd	1-4	5 to 91	02169	Thomas Burgin Pky	5-1	179 to 215	02169	Waumbeck St	6-5	3 to 6	02171
Shennen St	1-5	8 to 70	02169	Thomas Burgin Pky	5-3	3 to 147	02169	Wayland St	5-2	7 to 54	02170
Shepard St	6-5	5 to 16	02171	Thomas J Mcgrath Hwy	1-3	88 to 110	02169	Webster St	6-1	1 to 94	02171
Sherburne Cir	2-2	11 to 16	02169	Thomas J Mcgrath Hwy	1-5	78 to 80	02169	Wedgewood St	6-5	10 to 61	02171
Sherman St	3-2	85 to 167	02170	Thomas J Mcgrath Hwy	5-1	1 to 80	02169	Weeden Pl	4-1	12 to 16	02169
Sherman St	3-4	3 to 172	02170	Thomas St	1-5	1 to 23	02169	Weeden Pl	4-5	7 to 17	02169
Shirley St	4-2	58 to 100	02169	Thompson St	2-1	1 to 29	02169	Welgate Cir	3-1	3 to 16	02170
Shirley St	4-3	10 to 93	02169	Thoreau Rd	6-2	60 to 66	02171	Wendell Ave	5-4	103 to 123	02170
Shore Ave	1-4	7 to 144	02169	Thornton St	5-4	1 to 100	02170	Wendell Ave	5-5	62 to 112	02170
Shoreham St	6-5	1 to 76	02171	Thurston Ave	4-1	5 to 5	02169	Wentworth Rd	5-2	25 to 33	02170
Shoreside Rd	1-4	10 to 22	02169	Tilden Cir	6-3	2 to 54	02171	Wesson Ave	4-1	12 to 111	02169
Silver St	2-1	7 to 60	02169	Tilden Commons Dr	6-3	3 to 52	02171	West Elm Ave	5-5	2 to 176	02170
Sims Rd	5-4	12 to 112	02170	Tinson Rd	4-4	8 to 55	02169	West Howard St	2-2	25 to 25	02169
Sixth Ave	2-2	8 to 80	02169	Tirrell St	6-1	5 to 74	02171	West Quantum St	3-3	95 to 300	02171
Sloop Ln	6-3	6 to 16	02171	Tirrell St	6-3	71 to 73	02171	West Quantum St	3-4	314 to 452	02171
Small St	3-5	3 to 24	02171	Totman St	4-5	18 to 34	02169	West Quantum St	3-5	100 to 160	02171
Smith St	4-4	17 to 75	02169	Town Hill St	4-4	2 to 119	02169	West Quantum St	6-2	10 to 22	02171
Smith St	5-1	20 to 62	02169	Trafford St	4-5	1 to 91	02169	West St	4-1	42 to 280	02169
Snug Harbor Ct	1-2	2 to 11	02169	Trask Ave	4-1	18 to 33	02169	West St	4-2	35 to 65	02169
Sonoma Rd	6-5	7 to 145	02171	Trescott St	2-5	10 to 29	02169	West St	4-4	2 to 18	02169
South Bayfield Rd	6-4	21 to 101	02171	Tresland Way	5-1	14 to 16	02169	Westford St	4-1	5 to 31	02169
South Central Ave	3-1	4 to 196	02170	Trevore St	6-5	1 to 63	02171	Weston Ave	5-2	10 to 10	02170
South Central Ave	3-2	3 to 274	02170	Truro St	1-4	9 to 12	02169	Weymouth St	1-5	27 to 51	02169
South Central Ter	3-2	2 to 15	02170	Turner St	1-5	9 to 130	02169	Whaler Ln	6-3	5 to 43	02171
South Junior Ter	4-4	8 to 27	02169	Turning Mill Ln	4-3	2 to 63	02169	White St	4-2	10 to 95	02169
South St	2-1	328 to 328	02169	Tyler St	6-2	65 to 95	02170	Whitman Rd	4-2	9 to 19	02169
South St	2-2	476 to 618	02169	Tyler St	6-2	9 to 53	02171	Whitney Rd	1-3	20 to 52	02169
South St	2-3	141 to 454	02169	Tyler St	6-4	58 to 98	02170	Whiton Ave	2-1	1 to 90	02169
South St	2-4	24 to 268	02169	Tyler St	6-4	12 to 54	02171	Whitwell St	3-1	89 to 305	02169
South St	2-5	33 to 115	02169	Union St	2-4	9 to 83	02169	Whitwell St	5-3	12 to 300	02169
South Walnut St	2-4	9 to 172	02169	Unity St	4-3	6 to 94	02169	Wickford Ln	4-1	6 to 18	02169
Southern Artery	1-3	236 to 367	02169	Unity St	4-3	34 to 34	02170	Wilgus Rd	1-2	11 to 18	02169
Southern Artery	2-1	743 to 975	02169	Upton St	4-3	21 to 101	02169	Willard St	4-1	416 to 836	02169
Southern Artery	2-2	1000 to 1000	02169	Utica St	1-1	78 to 152	02169	Willard St	4-1	50 to 50	02171
Southern Artery	2-3	934 to 1071	02169	Utica St	1-2	10 to 20	02169	Willard St	4-2	114 to 272	02169
Southern Artery	5-3	233 to 243	02169	Utica St	1-4	3 to 68	02169	Willard St	4-3	22 to 475	02169
Spaulding St	2-2	1 to 44	02169	Vane St	6-2	10 to 64	02171	Willet St	5-2	1 to 64	02170
Speakman St	5-4	10 to 10	02170	Vassall St	5-5	1 to 157	02170	Willet St	5-5	51 to 114	02170
Spear St	5-1	25 to 66	02169	Vassall St	6-4	28 to 182	02170	Williams St	6-5	2 to 73	02171
Spence Ave	2-3	11 to 23	02169	Verchild St	4-5	11 to 118	02169	Willow Ave	3-1	125 to 125	02170
Spring St	1-5	28 to 158	02169	Vernon St	4-5	17 to 19	02169	Willow Ave	5-3	10 to 116	02170
Springfield St	4-3	40 to 107	02169	Vershire St	3-3	17 to 65	02171	Willow St	5-4	97 to 152	02170
Spruce St	3-3	7 to 17	02171	Victoria Rd	1-1	39 to 70	02169	Willow St	5-5	3 to 74	02170
Squanto Rd	1-1	27 to 177	02169	Victoria Rd	1-4	8 to 26	02169	Wilson Ave	3-4	141 to 296	02170
Squanto Rd	1-4	6 to 180	02169	Victory Ave	3-4	9 to 25	02169	Wilson Ave	3-5	47 to 138	02170
Standish Ave	5-2	8 to 80	02170	Victory Rd	6-3	197 to 333	02171	Wilson Ct	6-2	10 to 10	02171
Standish Ave	5-3	89 to 117	02170	Viden Rd	2-5	2 to 95	02169	Windsor Rd	6-1	1 to 37	02171
Standish Rd	6-5	1 to 184	02171	Village Dr	4-1	1 to 100	02169	Windsor Rd	6-5	2 to 42	02171
Stanley Cir	2-5	5 to 27	02169	Vincent Pl	3-3	3 to 3	02171	Winslow Rd	6-5	1 to 50	02171
State St	1-4	237 to 284	02169	Vine Ave	1-1	1 to 32	02169	Winter St	2-2	10 to 64	02169
Station St	4-1	10 to 80	02169	Virginia Rd	1-1	45 to 90	02169	Winthrop Ave	3-2	6 to 144	02170
Stanton St	5-5	9 to 9	02170	Virginia Rd	1-4	10 to 44	02169	Winthrop Park	2-4	10 to 42	02169
Stedman St	4-3	20 to 100	02169	Waban Rd	1-3	11 to 43	02169	Winthrop Pl	1-5	2 to 12	02169
Sterling St	3-3	1 to 60	02171	Waban Rd	1-4	20 to 34	02169	Winthrop St	1-4	136 to 136	02169
Stevens St	5-1	12 to 28	02169	Wadsworth St	6-1	3 to 25	02171	Winthrop St	1-5	8 to 276	02169
Stewart St	1-1	22 to 73	02169	Walker St	6-1	4 to 103	02171	Wolcott Rd	4-1	15 to 21	02169
Stoney Brae Rd	3-4	5 to 46	02170	Wall St	1-5	1 to 64	02169	Wollaston Ave	5-4	9 to 41	02170
Stoughton St	1-4	15 to 118	02169	Wallace Rd	4-3	11 to 88	02169	Woodbine St	5-2	9 to 53	02170
Stoughton St	1-5	85 to 168	02169	Walnut St	2-4	102 to 130	02171	Woodbriar Rd	6-5	6 to 30	02171
Sturtevant Rd	5-3	10 to 55	02169	Walnut St	3-3	8 to 92	02171	Woodcliff Rd	4-1	11 to 87	02169
Sullivan Rd	4-1	11 to 39	02169	Walpole St	1-1	12 to 18	02169	Woodward Ave	1-3	9 to 68	02169
Sumac Rd	6-5	10 to 33	02171	Wampatuck Rd	1-4	1 to 34	02169	Wren Ter	4-3	10 to 98	02169
Summer St	2-5	3 to 57	02169	Warren Ave	3-2	98 to 201	02170	Yardarm Ln	1-2	1 to 65	02169
								Young St	6-1	15 to 79	02171

Registered Voters of Ward 5 Precinct 1

Your polling location has been changed from Bernazzani School to Quincy Career Center, 152 Parkway
(Mayor Walter J. Hannon Parkway)

Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip	Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip
Adams Ct	5-1	2 to 2	02169	Mechanic St	5-1	8 to 31	02169
Avon Way	5-1	4 to 34	02169	Miller Stile Rd	5-1	8 to 51	02169
Bigelow St	5-1	25 to 103	02169	Monroe Rd	5-1	185 to 185	02169
Booth St	5-1	6 to 6	02169	Newcomb St	5-1	21 to 53	02169
Brook Rd	5-1	12 to 94	02169	North Payne St	5-1	7 to 50	02169
Coddington St	5-1	53 to 67	02169	Parkway	5-1	164 to 164	02169
Cottage Ave	5-1	3 to 31	02169	Payne St	5-1	1 to 73	02169
Dixwell Ave	5-1	66 to 122	02169	Payson St	5-1	2 to 12	02169
Elm St	5-1	16 to 202	02169	Pearl St	5-1	1 to 47	02169
Fallon Ct	5-1	1 to 32	02169	Phipps St	5-1	9 to 85	02169
Federal Ave	5-1	6 to 34	02169	Pleasant St	5-1	15 to 100	02169
Francis Ave	5-1	5 to 32	02169	Presidents Ave	5-1	36 to 65	02169
Franklin Pl	5-1	6 to 28	02169	Presidents Ln	5-1	176 to 251	02169
Franklin St	5-1	15 to 116	02169	Prout St	5-1	1 to 40	02169
Garfield St	5-1	2 to 99	02169	Quarry St	5-1	6 to 100	02169
Goddard St	5-1	4 to 26	02169	Quincy St	5-1	11 to 104	02169
Granite St	5-1	154 to 313	02169	Revere Rd	5-1	31 to 69	02169
Granville St	5-1	5 to 22	02169	School St	5-1	122 to 208	02169
Guild St	5-1	11 to 22	02169	Smith St	5-1	20 to 62	02169
Hammond Ct	5-1	2 to 14	02169	Spear St	5-1	25 to 66	02169
Hancock St	5-1	1363 to 1454	02169	Stevens St	5-1	12 to 28	02169
Independence Ave	5-1	19 to 19	02169	Thomas Burgin Pky	5-1	179 to 215	02169
Jackson St	5-1	1 to 56	02169	Thomas J Mcgrath Hwy	5-1	1 to 80	02169
Kidder St	5-1	9 to 54	02169	Tresland Way	5-1	14 to 16	02169
Lawton Rd	5-1	7 to 7	02169	Washington St	5-1	47 to 148	02169
Marsh St	5-1	5 to 23	02169	Water St	5-1	83 to 277	02169

To verify your voter registration status,
please call your Board of Registrars:

William P. Draicchio
Thomas W. Carroll
John Carl Swanson
Joseph P. Shea, City Clerk
at (617) 376-1142

Registered Voters of Ward 5 Precinct 3

Your polling location has been changed from
Quincy Community United Methodist Church,
40 Beale Street to Adams Academy, 8 Adams Street
(Dimmock Street Entrance)

Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip	Street	Ward/Precinct	Range	Zip
Adams Cir	5-3	16 to 44	02169	Lafayette St	5-3	9 to 43	02169
Adams St	5-3	140 to 311	02169	Miles Dr	5-3	14 to 14	02169
Anderson Rd	5-3	5 to 24	02170	Monroe Rd	5-3	56 to 180	02169
Avon Way	5-3	11 to 27	02169	Morgan Rd	5-3	5 to 11	02169
Bedford St	5-3	1 to 61	02169	Morgan Rd	5-3	1 to 20	02170
Bridge St	5-3	23 to 33	02169	Morley Rd	5-3	5 to 40	02170
Butler Rd	5-3	34 to 126	02169	Newport Ave	5-3	525 to 615	02170
Carruth St	5-3	9 to 44	02170	Newton Ave	5-3	18 to 54	02170
Cedar St	5-3	58 to 126	02170	Oakland Ave	5-3	2 to 95	02170
Colonial Dr	5-3	15 to 193	02169	Old Colony Ave	5-3	118 to 165	02170
Dewson Rd	5-3	20 to 87	02169	Oval Rd	5-3	6 to 45	02170
Dimmock St	5-3	43 to 126	02169	Parkman St	5-3	1 to 21	02170
Dixwell Ave	5-3	11 to 117	02169	Presidents Ln	5-3	6 to 166	02169
Douse Rd	5-3	3 to 18	02170	Putnam St	5-3	35 to 59	02169
Euclid Ave	5-3	2 to 64	02169	Roselin Ave	5-3	3 to 45	02169
Fairmount Way	5-3	16 to 34	02169	Saint Anns Rd	5-3	22 to 44	02170
Furnace Brook Pky	5-3	409 to 690	02169	Southern Artery	5-3	233 to 243	02169
Furnace Brook Pky	5-3	403 to 580	02170	Standish Ave	5-3	89 to 117	02170
George Rd	5-3	4 to 71	02170	Sturtevant Rd	5-3	10 to 55	02169
Gilmore St	5-3	8 to 45	02170	Thomas Burgin Pky	5-3	3 to 147	02169
Glendale Rd	5-3	15 to 192	02169	Warren Ave	5-3	50 to 62	02170
Grenwold Rd	5-3	1 to 71	02169	Warren Ave Ext	5-3	36 to 36	02170
Hancock St	5-3	803 to 983	02170	Whitwell St	5-3	12 to 300	02169
Heritage Rd	5-3	5 to 54	02169	Willow Ave	5-3	10 to 116	02170
Hudson St	5-3	28 to 62	02169

To verify your voter registration status,
please call your Board of Registrars:

William P. Draicchio

Thomas W. Carroll

John Carl Swanson

Joseph P. Shea, City Clerk

at (617) 376-1142

CITY OF QUINCY - COMPOSITE BALLOT

STATE ELECTION - TUESDAY, NOV. 6

ELECTORS OF PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT 總統與副總統選舉人

Vote for ONE
選一人

JOHNSON and GRAY ++++++ +Libertarian / 自由黨 ☐

OBAMA and BIDEN ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

ROMNEY and RYAN ++++++ +Republican / 共和黨 ☐

STEIN and HONKALA +++ +Green-Rainbow / 綠黨-彩虹聯盟黨 ☐

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

SENATOR IN CONGRESS 國會參議員

Vote for ONE
選一人

SCOTT P. BROWN ++++++ +Republican / 共和黨 ☐

70 Hayden Woods, Wrentham Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

ELIZABETH A. WARREN ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

24 Linnaean St., Cambridge

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS 國會眾議員

Vote for ONE
選一人

STEPHEN F. LYNCH ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

55 G St., Boston Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

JOE SELVAGGI ++++++ +Republican / 共和黨 ☐

49 Beacon St., Boston

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

CLERK OF COURTS

法庭書記長
NORFOLK COUNTY
NORFOLK縣

WALTER F. TIMILTY, JR. ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

90 Nancy Rd., Milton Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

REGISTER OF DEEDS

契約登記官
NORFOLK DISTRICT
NORFOLK選區

WILLIAM P. O'DONNELL ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

55 Albemarle Rd., Norwood Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

COUNTY COMMISSIONER

國會參議員
NORFOLK COUNTY
NORFOLK縣

JOHN M. GILLIS ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

1000 Southern Artery, Quincy Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

FRANCIS W. O'BRIEN ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

1000 Presidents Way, Dedham Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

Three Ballot Questions

There are also three laws proposed by initiative petition on the Nov. 6 ballot. The full text of these questions appear on Pages 20 and 21 in this issue of The Quincy Sun.

REPRESENTATIVE IN GENERAL COURT

州議會眾議員
FIRST NORFOLK DISTRICT
第一-NORFOLK選區

BRUCE J. AYERS ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

45 Williams St., Quincy Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

REPRESENTATIVE IN GENERAL COURT

州議會眾議員
SECOND NORFOLK DISTRICT
第二-NORFOLK選區

TACKEY CHAN ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

66 Meadowbrook Rd., Quincy Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

REPRESENTATIVE IN GENERAL COURT

州議會眾議員
THIRD NORFOLK DISTRICT
第三-NORFOLK選區

RONALD MARIANO ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

200 Falls Blvd., Quincy Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

REPRESENTATIVE IN GENERAL COURT

州議會眾議員
THIRTEENTH SUFFOLK DISTRICT
第十三-SUFFOLK選區

MARTIN J. WALSH ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

12 Tuttle St., Boston Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MARKING BALLOT

TO VOTE,
FILL IN THE OVAL

USE BLACK PEN (Do not use RED PEN)

FOR WRITE-IN VOTES: Write-in candidate's name and fill in the oval next to the name

If you make a mistake, return your ballot to an election official and request a new ballot.

COUNCILLOR 州長顧問委員會委員

FOURTH DISTRICT
第四選區

CHRISTOPHER A. IANNELLA, JR. ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

263 Pond St., Boston Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

SENATOR IN GENERAL COURT 州議會參議員

NORFOLK & PLYMOUTH DISTRICT
NORFOLK與PLYMOUTH選區

JOHN F. KEENAN ++++++ +Democratic / 民主黨 ☐

37 Hobomack Rd., Quincy Candidate for Re-election / 競選連任候選人

DO NOT VOTE IN THIS SPACE.
USE BLANK LINE BELOW FOR
WRITE-IN. 切勿在此處填寫投票選擇。
請在下面的空白欄內填寫
自填候選人。

WRITE-IN SPACE ONLY 僅供填寫自填候選人

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

STATE ELECTION BALLOT QUESTIONS

Tuesday, November 6, 2012

QUESTION 1 / LAW PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION

Do you approve of a law summarized below, on which no vote was taken by the Senate or the House of Representatives on or before May 1, 2012?

SUMMARY

This proposed law would prohibit any motor vehicle manufacturer, starting with model year 2015, from selling or leasing, either directly or through a dealer, a new motor vehicle without allowing the owner to have access to the same diagnostic and repair information made available to the manufacturer's dealers and in-state authorized repair facilities.

The manufacturer would have to allow the owner, or the owner's designated in-state independent repair facility (one not affiliated with a manufacturer or its authorized dealers), to obtain diagnostic and repair information electronically, on an hourly, daily, monthly, or yearly subscription basis, for no more than fair market value and on terms that do not unfairly favor dealers and authorized repair facilities.

The manufacturer would have to provide access to the information through a non-proprietary vehicle interface, using a standard applied in federal emissions-control regulations. Such information would have to include the same content, and be in the same form and accessible in the same manner, as is provided to the manufacturer's dealers and authorized repair facilities.

For vehicles manufactured from 2002 through model year 2014, the proposed law would require a manufacturer of motor vehicles sold in Massachusetts to make available for purchase, by vehicle owners and in-state independent repair facilities, the same diagnostic and repair information that the manufacturer makes available through an electronic system to its dealers and in-state authorized repair facilities. Manufacturers would have to make such information available in the same form and manner, and to the same extent, as they do for dealers and authorized repair facilities. The information would be available for purchase on an hourly, daily, monthly, or yearly subscription basis, for no more than fair market value and on terms that do not unfairly favor dealers and authorized repair facilities.

For vehicles manufactured from 2002 through model year 2014, the proposed law would also require manufacturers to make available for purchase, by vehicle owners and in-state independent repair facilities, all diagnostic repair tools, incorporating the same diagnostic, repair and wireless capabilities as those available to dealers and authorized repair facilities. Such tools would have to be made available for no more than fair market value and on terms that do not unfairly favor dealers and authorized repair facilities.

For all years covered by the proposed law, the required diagnostic and repair information would not include the information necessary to reset a vehicle immobilizer, an anti-theft device that prevents a vehicle from being started unless the correct key code is present. Such information would have to be made available to dealers, repair facilities, and owners through a separate, secure data release system.

The proposed law would not require a manufacturer to reveal a trade secret and would not interfere with any agreement made by a manufacturer, dealer, or authorized repair facility that is in force on the effective date of the proposed law. Starting January 1, 2013, the proposed law would prohibit any agreement that waives or limits a manufacturer's compliance with the proposed law.

Any violation of the proposed law would be treated as a violation of existing state consumer protection and unfair trade-practices laws.

A YES VOTE would enact the proposed law requiring motor vehicle manufacturers to allow vehicle owners and independent repair facilities in Massachusetts to have access to the same vehicle diagnostic and repair information made available to the manufacturers' Massachusetts dealers and authorized repair facilities.

A NO VOTE would make no change in existing laws.

YES/贊成 ☐

NO/反對 ☐

動議聯名書提議之法律

您是否核准下文概述之法律？州參議院或眾議院於2012年5月1日當日或之前未就該法律投票。

概要

本擬議法律規定，從型號年份2015年開始，如果任何機動車輛製造商不允許車主獲得與提供製造商之經銷商和州內授權維修商相同的檢測和維修資訊，則不允許直接或透過經銷商銷售或出租新機動車輛。

製造商必須允許車主或車主指定的州內獨立維修商（與製造商或其授權經銷商沒有聯營關係）透過電子方式獲得檢測和維修資訊，可按小時、按日、按月或按年訂閱，其價格不得高於公平市價，並且不得採取對經銷商和授權維修商有利的不公平條款。

製造商必須使用聯邦廢棄排放控制法規所述標準，允許透過非專有車輛介面查閱資訊。此類資訊包含的內容，其形式及查閱方式必須與製造商提供經銷商及授權維修商之資訊相同。

對於在型號年份2002年至2014年期間製造的車輛，擬議法律將要求在Massachusetts州銷售之機動車輛的製造商，提供檢測和維修資訊供車主及州內獨立維修商購買，此類資訊必須與製造商透過電子系統提供其經銷商及州內授權維修商的資訊相同。製造商提供此類資訊的形式、方式及範圍必須與提供經銷商及授權維修商的資訊相同。資訊可按小時、按天、按月或按年訂閱，其價格不得高於公平市價，且不得採取對經銷商和授權維修商有利的不公平條款。

對於在型號年份2002年至2014年期間製造的車輛，擬議法律亦要求製造商提供所有檢測維修工具供車主及州內獨立維修商購買，此類工具包含的檢測、維修和無線功能必須與提供經銷商和授權維修商之工具相同。此類工具的價格不得高於公平市價，不得採取對經銷商和授權維修商有利的不公平條款。

對於擬議法律涉及的所有年份，規定的檢測和維修資訊不包括重設車輛防盜系統所需資訊，防盜系統指防止車輛啟動的防盜裝置，除非輸入正確的密碼。此類資訊必須透過單獨、安全的資料發佈系統提供經銷商、維修商和車主。

擬議法律不要求製造商披露商業秘密，並且不影響製造商、經銷商或授權維修商達成任何於本擬議法律生效日期已生效的協議。從2013年1月1日起，擬議法律將禁止任何放棄遵守本擬議法律或限制製造商遵守本擬議法律的協議。

任何違反擬議法律的行為將視為違反現行州消費者保護法律和不公平貿易行為法律論處。

贊成(YES)票表示同意頒佈擬議法律，要求機動車輛製造商允許Massachusetts州車主和獨立維修商獲得與提供製造商的Massachusetts州經銷商和授權維修商相同的車輛檢測和維修資訊。

反對(NO)票表示不修改現行法律。

Question 2 / 議題2 LAW PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION

Do you approve of a law summarized below, on which no vote was taken by the Senate or the House of Representatives on or before May 1, 2012?

SUMMARY

This proposed law would allow a physician licensed in Massachusetts to prescribe medication, at a terminally ill patient's request, to end that patient's life. To qualify, a patient would have to be an adult resident who (1) is medically determined to be mentally capable of making and communicating health care decisions; (2) has been diagnosed by attending and consulting physicians as having an incurable, irreversible disease that will, within reasonable medical judgment, cause death within six months; and (3) voluntarily expresses a wish to die and has made an informed decision. The proposed law states that the patient would ingest the medicine in order to cause death in a humane and dignified manner.

The proposed law would require the patient, directly or through a person familiar with the patient's manner of communicating, to orally communicate to a physician on two occasions, 15 days apart, the patient's request for the medication. At the time of the second request, the physician would have to offer the patient an opportunity to rescind the request. The patient would also have to sign a standard form, in the presence of two witnesses, one of whom is not a relative, a beneficiary of the patient's estate, or an owner, operator, or employee of a health care facility where the patient receives treatment or lives.

The proposed law would require the attending physician to: (1) determine if the patient is qualified; (2) inform the patient of his or her medical diagnosis and prognosis, the potential risks and probable result of ingesting the medication, and the feasible alternatives, including comfort care, hospice care and pain control; (3) refer the patient to a consulting physician for a diagnosis and prognosis regarding the patient's disease, and confirmation in writing that the patient is capable, acting voluntarily, and making an informed decision; (4) refer the patient for psychiatric or psychological consultation if the physician believes the patient may have a disorder causing impaired judgment; (5) recommend that the patient notify next of kin of the patient's intention; (6) recommend that the patient have another person present when the patient ingests the medicine and to not take it in a public place; (7) inform the patient that he or she may rescind the request at any time; (8) write the prescription when the requirements of the law are met, including verifying that the patient is making an informed decision; and (9) arrange for the medicine to be dispensed directly to the patient, or the patient's agent, but not by mail or courier.

The proposed law would make it punishable by imprisonment and/or fines, for anyone to (1) coerce a patient to request medication, (2) forge a request, or (3) conceal a rescission of a request. The proposed law would not authorize ending a patient's life by lethal injection, active euthanasia, or mercy killing. The death certificate would list the underlying terminal disease as the cause of death.

Participation under the proposed law would be voluntary. An unwilling health care provider could prohibit or sanction another health care provider for participating while on the premises of, or while acting as an employee of or contractor for, the unwilling provider.

The proposed law states that no person would be civilly or criminally liable or subject to professional discipline for actions that comply with the law, including actions taken in good faith that substantially comply. It also states that it should not be interpreted to lower the applicable standard of care for any health care provider.

A person's decision to make or rescind a request could not be restricted by will or contract made on or after January 1, 2013, and could not be considered in issuing, or setting the rates for, insurance policies or annuities. Also, the proposed law would require the attending physician to report each case in which life-ending medication is dispensed to the state Department of Public Health. The Department would provide public access to statistical data compiled from the reports.

The proposed law states that if any of its parts was held invalid, the other parts would stay in effect.

A YES VOTE would enact the proposed law allowing a physician licensed in Massachusetts to prescribe medication, at the request of a terminally-ill patient meeting certain conditions, to end that patient's life.

A NO VOTE would make no change in existing laws.

YES/贊成 ☐

NO/反對 ☐

STATE ELECTION BALLOT QUESTIONS TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2012

動議聯名書提議之法律

您是否核准下文概述之法律？州參議院或眾議院於2012年5月1日當日或之前未就該法律進行投票。

概要

本擬議法律允許Massachusetts州持照醫師應絕症患者之要求開具藥物，以結束該患者的生命。為了符合條件，患者必須是成年居民，並符合下列條件：(1)經醫學鑑定具備做出和說明醫療決定的精神能力；(2)經主診或備詢醫師診斷，患有無法治癒且不可逆轉的疾病，並據醫學合理判斷，會在六個月內死亡；及(3)自願表達死亡意願，並在瞭解情況之後做出決定。擬議法律規定，患者將口服藥物，以符合人道和以尊嚴的方式死亡。

擬議法律將要求患者直接或透過熟悉其溝通方式的人士以口頭方式分兩次向醫師說明患者索取藥物的請求，每次請求應間隔15天。在第二次提出請求時，醫師應提供患者撤銷請求的機會。患者還必須在兩位證人面前簽署一份標準表格，其中一位證人不得是親屬、患者遺產的受益人，或患者接受治療或居住所在醫療機構的擁有人、經營者或僱員。

擬議法律將要求主治醫師：(1)判斷患者是否符合條件；(2)向患者說明其醫學診斷和預後情況、口服藥物的潛在風險與可能結果，以及可行的替代方案，包括安寧護理、臨終護理和疼痛控制；(3)將患者轉介給備詢醫師，就患者的疾病進行診斷和預後判斷，並以書面形式確認患者能夠自願採取行為和在瞭解情況後做出決定；(4)如果醫師認為患者可能患有導致判斷障礙的失調症狀，則應轉介患者進行精神或心理會診；(5)建議患者向自己的近親說明自己的意願；(6)建議患者在服藥時安排他人在場，並且不要在公共場合服藥；(7)向患者說明其可以隨時撤銷請求；(8)在符合法律要求時開具處方，包括確認患者是在瞭解情況之後做出決定；及(9)安排將藥物直接交給患者或其代理人，但不能使用郵寄或快遞。

擬議法律規定，如果任何人(1)脅迫患者索取藥物；(2)偽造請求；或(3)隱瞞患者撤銷請求的要求，可處以入獄和/或罰金處罰。擬議法律未授權以注射致命藥物、主動安樂死或安死術方式結束患者生命。死亡證明將列出相關絕症作為死因。

是否參與擬議法律所述活動乃屬自願決定。如果願意參與擬議法律所述活動的醫護服務提供者是不願意參與擬議法律所述活動的醫護服務提供者，則不願意參與擬議法律所述活動的醫護服務提供者可禁止或處罰參與擬議法律所述活動的醫護服務提供者。

擬議法律規定，任何人士不會因為採取符合法律的行動，包括出於善意而採取的大體合法的行動而承擔民事或刑事責任，或受到職業處罰。擬議法律還規定，擬議法律不得解釋為降低任何醫護服務提供者的適用護理標準。

任何人士提出請求或撤銷請求的決定不受於2013年1月1日當日及之後達成的遺囑或合約限制，並且在核發理賠金或年金，或設定保單或年金費率時不予考慮。此外，擬議法律還要求主治醫師向州公共衛生部報告每宗發放結束生命的藥物的案例。衛生部將允許公眾查閱根據報告彙編的統計資料。

擬議法律規定，如果其任何內容被裁定為無效，其餘內容仍然有效。

贊成(YES)票表示同意頒佈擬議法律，允許Massachusetts州持照醫師應符合若干條件的絕症患者之要求開出藥物，以結束該人士之生命。

反對(NO)票表示不修改現行法律。

Question 3 / 議題3

LAW PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION

Do you approve of a law summarized below, on which no vote was taken by the Senate or the House of Representatives on or before May 1, 2012?

SUMMARY

This proposed law would eliminate state criminal and civil penalties for the medical use of marijuana by qualifying patients. To qualify, a patient must have been diagnosed with a debilitating medical condition, such as cancer, glaucoma, HIV-positive status or AIDS, hepatitis C, Crohn's disease, Parkinson's disease, ALS, or multiple sclerosis. The patient would also have to obtain a written certification, from a physician with whom the patient has a bona fide physician-patient relationship, that the patient has a specific debilitating medical condition and would likely obtain a net benefit from medical use of marijuana.

The proposed law would allow patients to possess up to a 60-day supply of marijuana for their personal medical use. The state Department of Public Health (DPH) would decide what amount would be a 60-day supply. A patient could designate a personal caregiver, at least 21 years old, who could assist with the patient's medical use of marijuana but would be prohibited from consuming that marijuana. Patients and caregivers would have to register with DPH by submitting the physician's certification.

The proposed law would allow for non-profit medical marijuana treatment centers to grow, process and provide marijuana to patients or their caregivers. A treatment center would have to apply for a DPH registration by (1) paying a fee to offset DPH's administrative costs; (2) identifying its location and one additional location, if any, where marijuana would be grown; and (3) submitting operating procedures, consistent with rules to be issued by DPH, including cultivation and storage of marijuana only in enclosed, locked facilities.

A treatment center's personnel would have to register with DPH before working or volunteering at the center, be at least 21 years old, and have no felony drug convictions. In 2013, there could be no more than 35 treatment centers, with at least one but not more than five centers in each county. In later years, DPH could modify the number of centers.

The proposed law would require DPH to issue a cultivation registration to a qualifying patient whose access to a treatment center is limited by financial hardship, physical inability to access reasonable transportation, or distance. This would allow the patient or caregiver to grow only enough plants, in a closed, locked facility, for a 60-day supply of marijuana for the patient's own use.

DPH could revoke any registration for a willful violation of the proposed law. Fraudulent use of a DPH registration could be punished by up to six months in a house of correction or a fine of up to $500, and fraudulent use of a registration for the sale, distribution, or trafficking of marijuana for non-medical use for profit could be punished by up to five years in state prison or by two and one-half years in a house of correction.

The proposed law would (1) not give immunity under federal law or obstruct federal enforcement of federal law; (2) not supersede Massachusetts laws prohibiting possession, cultivation, or sale of marijuana for nonmedical purposes; (3) not allow the operation of a motor vehicle, boat, or aircraft while under the influence of marijuana; (4) not require any health insurer or government entity to reimburse for the costs of the medical use of marijuana; (5) not require any health care professional to authorize the medical use of marijuana; (6) not require any accommodation of the medical use of marijuana in any workplace, school bus or grounds, youth center, or correctional facility; and (7) not require any accommodation of smoking marijuana in any public place.

The proposed law would take effect January 1, 2013, and states that if any of its parts were declared invalid, the other parts would stay in effect.

A YES VOTE would enact the proposed law eliminating state criminal and civil penalties related to the medical use of marijuana, allowing patients meeting certain conditions to obtain marijuana produced and distributed by new state-regulated centers or, in specific hardship cases, to grow marijuana for their own use.

A NO VOTE would make no change in existing laws.

YES/贊成 ☐NO/反對 ☐

動議聯名書提議之法律

您是否核准下文概述之法律？州參議院或眾議院於2012年5月1日當日或之前未就該法律投票。

概要

本擬議法律將取消本州對合格患者就醫療用途使用大麻的刑事和民事處罰。為了符合資格條件，患者必須被診斷患有衰弱性病，例如癌症、青光眼、HIV陽性狀態或愛滋病、C型肝炎、克隆氏症、帕金森症、肌肉萎縮症或多發性硬化症。患者還必須取得與其確實有醫患關係的醫師出具的書面證明，證明患者患有特定的衰弱性病，並且大麻醫療用途對其治療有益。

擬議法律將允許患者持有不超過60天用量的大麻，用於其個人醫療用途。州公共衛生部(DPH)將確定60天用量的劑量。患者可指定一位至少年滿21歲的個人護理者，協助患者將大麻用於醫療用途，但不得吸食大麻。患者和護理者均須提交醫師開具的證明，在公共衛生部登記。

擬議法律將允許非營利大麻治療中心種植、加工和提供患者或其護理者大麻。治療中心必須向公共衛生部申請登記，方法如下：(1)支付費用以支付公共衛生部的行政費用；(2)說明其地址，以及另一個種植大麻的地點（如有）；及(3)提交營運程序，該程序必須符合公共衛生部擬頒佈的規則，包括只能在土鎖封閉設施內栽培和儲存大麻。

治療中心的工作人員在為中心工作或在中心擔任義工之前必須在公共衛生部登記，此類工作人員必須至少年滿21歲，未被判以毒品重罪。於2013年，可能會有超過35個治療中心，每個縣至少有一個以上且五個以下中心。在此後年度，公共衛生部可修改中心數量。

擬議法律將要求公共衛生部向因財務困難、因身體殘障無法使用合理交通工具或因距離遙遠而無法前往治療中心接受治療的合格患者核發大麻種植登記證。這將允許患者或護理者在上鎖的封閉設施中，種植夠患者60天自用量的大麻。

如果故意違反擬議法律，公共衛生部可隨時撤銷登記證。如果以欺詐方式使用公共衛生部的登記證，處以在感化院服刑六個月以下或500美元以下罰款，並且以欺詐方式使用登記證，銷售、分銷或走私並非用於醫療用途的大麻以謀利，可處以在州監獄中服刑五年以下，或在感化院服刑兩年半以下。

擬議法律將(1)不豁免聯邦法律或妨礙執行聯邦法律；(2)不取代Massachusetts州禁止持有、栽培或銷售大麻用於非醫療用途的法律；(3)不允許在服用大麻後駕駛車輛、船舶或飛機；(4)不要求任何健康保險公司或政府機構補償大麻醫療用途的費用；(5)不要求任何醫護專家核准使用大麻醫療用途；(6)不要求就在任何工作場所、校車或操場、青少年中心或矯正機構將大麻用於醫療用途做出通融行為；及(7)不要求就在任何公共場所吸食大麻做出通融行為。

擬議法律將於2013年1月1日生效，並聲明如果其任何部分被宣佈無效，其餘部分仍然有效。

贊成(YES)票表示同意頒佈擬議法律，取消本州對於將大麻用於醫療用途的刑事和民事處罰，允許符合若干條件的患者取得由受本州監管的新中心生產和分配的大麻，或在特殊困難情況下，允許種植大麻自用。

反對(NO)票表示不修改現行法律。

Quincy Police Detective Patrick Glynn Receives White House Award

Quincy Police Lieutenant Detective Patrick Glynn has received the White House Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) 2012 'Advocate for Action' award. The award recognizes those who have made tremendous advances in reducing substance abuse across the Nation.

Lt. Det. Glynn has been a staunch advocate for wider adoption of Quincy's innovative Narcan program.

PATRICK GLYNN

In 2010, Quincy became the first city in the United States to train all of its police officers to utilize the life-saving nasal spray to reverse overdoses. Over 50 lives have been saved since the program's inception. The initiative was sponsored by Mayor Thomas P. Koch's Substance Abuse

Task Force, parent advocate groups and Impact Quincy, a program of Bay State Community Services.

"Because of Lt. Det. Glynn's leadership Quincy's Narcan program has become a model across the country. This program saves lives and gives people a second chance at changing their futures for the better," said Mayor Koch. "There is no better promoter of this program than Lt. Det. Patrick Glynn."

Quincy's Narcan program bridges gaps that have historically existed between law enforcement and the general public. Every police officer in Quincy is fully trained with Narcan. Officers are able to reverse the effects of an overdose and bring the person into a medical facility where he or she can receive substance abuse intervention services. Instead of an adversarial relationship existing between law enforcement and drug user, the program creates the possibility of getting the individual the treatment he or she needs.

In its award letter ONDCP lauded Lt. Det. Glynn's work as an 'example of how law enforcement and public health can partner to disrupt the cycle of drug abuse, crime and recidivism'.

Lt. Det. Glynn will be honored at a ceremony in Washington, D.C. during the spring of 2013.

For more information on the city's Narcan program, visit www.quincyoverdosehelp.org.

CITY OF QUINCY STATE ELECTION

City Clerk's Office

October 1, 2012

Notice is hereby given to the voters of the City of Quincy, to assemble at the voting places in their respective Wards and Precincts, as designated on

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2012

Then and there to give their votes for the nominating of candidates as follows:

President; Vice President; Senator in Congress
Representative in Congress - 8th Congressional District; Councillor - 4th Councillor District; Senator-Norfolk/Plymouth Senatorial District; Representative in General Court from 1st Norfolk District; Representative in General Court from 2nd Norfolk District; Representative in General Court from 3rd Norfolk District; Representative from Thirtieth
Suffolk District; County Commissioner, Norfolk County; (Vote for Two) Clerk of Courts, Norfolk County; Registrar of Deeds, Norfolk County

The polls are to be opened at seven o'clock in the morning and closed at eight o'clock in the evening.
Polling places have been designated as follows:

WARD 1, PRECINCT 1	— MERRYMOUNT SCHOOL, 4 AGAWAM ROAD
WARD 1, PRECINCT 2	— GERMANTOWN NEIGHBORHOOD CENTER, 366 PALMER STREET
WARD 1, PRECINCT 3	— THOMAS CRANE LIBRARY (MEETING ROOM), 40 WASHINGTON STREET
WARD 1, PRECINCT 4	— ADAMS SHORE LIBRARY, SEA STREET
WARD 1, PRECINCT 5	— SAINT THOMAS AQUINAS HALL, DARROW STREET
WARD 2, PRECINCT 1	— FORE RIVER CLUB HOUSE, 16 NEVADA STREET
WARD 2, PRECINCT 2	— SENIOR CITIZENS HOUSING, 1000 SOUTHERN ARTERY
WARD 2, PRECINCT 3	— MARTENSEN STREET HOUSING, 95 MARTENSEN STREET
WARD 2, PRECINCT 3A	— SENIOR CITIZEN'S HOUSING, 1000 SOUTHERN ARTERY (LIBRARY)
WARD 2, PRECINCT 4	— SAINT JOHN'S CHURCH, 44 SCHOOL STREET
WARD 2, PRECINCT 5	— SAINT JOHN'S CHURCH, 44 SCHOOL STREET
WARD 3, PRECINCT 1	— COVENANT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, 315 WHITWELL STREET
WARD 3, PRECINCT 2	— FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, 81 PROSPECT STREET
WARD 3, PRECINCT 3	— MONTCLAIR SCHOOL, 8 BELMONT STREET
WARD 3, PRECINCT 4	— WOLLASTON SCHOOL, 205 BEALE STREET
WARD 3, PRECINCT 5	— WOLLASTON SCHOOL, 205 BEALE STREET
WARD 4, PRECINCT 1	— LINCOLN-HANCOCK COMMUNITY SCHOOL, WATER STREET ENTRANCE
WARD 4, PRECINCT 2	— QUINCY LODGE OF ELKS, 254 QUARRY STREET
WARD 4, PRECINCT 3	— QUINCY LODGE OF ELKS, 254 QUARRY STREET
WARD 4, PRECINCT 4	— LINCOLN-HANCOCK COMMUNITY SCHOOL, WATER STREET
WARD 4, PRECINCT 5	— MORRISETTE POST, 81 LIBERTY STREET
WARD 5, PRECINCT 1	— QUINCY CAREER CTR., 152 PARKINGWAY (MAYOR WALTER J. HANNON PKWY)
WARD 5, PRECINCT 2	— QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, 40 BEALE STREET
WARD 5, PRECINCT 3	— ADAMS ACADEMY, 8 ADAMS STREET (DIMMOCK STREET ENTRANCE)
WARD 5, PRECINCT 4	— BEECHWOOD KNOLL SCHOOL, 225 FENNO STREET
WARD 5, PRECINCT 5	— BEECHWOOD KNOLL SCHOOL, 225 FENNO STREET
WARD 6, PRECINCT 1	— NORTH QUINCY HIGH SCHOOL, 318 HANCOCK STREET
WARD 6, PRECINCT 2	— KNIGHTS of COLUMBUS HALL, 5 HOLLIS AVENUE AT HANCOCK STREET
WARD 6, PRECINCT 3	— KENNEDY CENTER GYM, 440 EAST SQUANTUM STREET
WARD 6, PRECINCT 4	— ATLANTIC MIDDLE SCHOOL, 86 HOLLIS AVENUE
WARD 6, PRECINCT 5	— SQUANTUM SCHOOL, 50 HUCKINS AVENUE

POLLS OPEN AT 7:00 A.M.

POLLS CLOSE AT 8:00 P.M.

Attest: JOSEPH P. SHEA
City Clerk

ELEMENTARY LUNCH MENU

Monday, Nov. 5

WG pizza, carrot snack pack fresh fruit, 100% fruit juice, three bean salad.

Tuesday, Nov. 6

Presidential Election Day. All schools closed.

Wednesday, Nov. 7

Beef burger with cheese on a WG bun, carrots/cauliflower.

Thursday, Nov. 8

Chicken fajita, rice and beans, spinach, WG dinner roll.

Friday, Nov. 9

French toast sticks, maple syrup, sausage links, hash brown potato patty, applesauce cup.

SECONDARY LUNCH MENU

Monday, Nov. 5

Pizza sticks, marinara sauce, romaine tossed salad, baby carrot snack, choice of juice/100 percent juice, choice of milk.

Tuesday, Nov. 6

Presidential Election Day. All schools closed.

Wednesday, Nov. 7

Colby cheese omelet, Goldfish flatbread sandwich, spinach/strawberry salad, carrot fries, fruit, juice and milk choices.

Thursday, Nov. 8

Romaine Caesar salad, grilled chicken and roasted chickpeas, creamy dressing, WW tortilla, fruit, juice and milk choices.

Friday, Nov. 9

American chop suey, beef and tomato sauce, WW elbow macaroni, green beans, corn niblets, fruit, juice, and milk choices.

Celebrating, Reminiscing At Montclair School Centennial

By EMILY TAFT

The Montclair Elementary School celebrated its 100th birthday on Oct. 20th with a celebration fit for its centennial, with over 500 past and present students, administrators, and teachers in attendance.

"It was unbelievable and went very, very nicely," said Montclair Principal Renee Malvesti. "The word definitely got out there, we estimate that there was over 500 people in attendance."

The Montclair School opened its doors in 1912 to 251 students and was erected in part because of the population increase in the northwest section of Quincy.

The original structure was an eight-room building hosting grades 1-8 and in 1930 the West Squantum Street addition was added to solve overcrowding. The new addition included nine new rooms and an auditorium, but due to over crowding once again the school added another addition in 1952, known as the "new" wing.

Now 100 years later the school welcomed 390 students this school year, just a little fewer than 140 more then when the school first opened its doors.

During the centennial celebration attendees were able to walk through the school and reminisce with their old teachers and friends.

"People were so excited to see their old teachers," said Malvesti. "We had 50-somethings so excited to see a teacher they had when they were seven, it was exciting. There were a lot of stories about Montclair. We heard a lot about the May Festival."

The celebration started out in the school's gym where they received citations from the state and city and the fifth grade class presented a musical revue of Montclair throughout the years. Over 300 slides played pictures, report cards, diplomas, and newspaper articles showing the history of the school as the fifth graders spoke.

There were rooms throughout the school dedicated to different decades during the school's history which allowed those in attendance to reunite with former classmates and teachers. The rooms had slide shows playing for each decade, and Malvesti said that a lot of the rooms ended up looking like movie theaters.

"Some of the classrooms looked like movie theaters there were so many people just sitting and watch the slide show," said Malvesti. "It was fun to meet people from all different classes and hear the stories they had of the school and the times they had here."

"There were a couple of stories that caught my attention when speaking with former students. One gentleman spoke of how he has sold the most tickets to the May Festival, and I also met this group of eight women, three of which are cousins, and two of them I believe flew in from out of state for the event. They called themselves the 'Crazy Eight.'"

Malvesti said it wasn't unusual at the event to hear how someone had flown in from out-of-state to be there for the school's birthday and that everyone who attended

MONTCLAIR SCHOOL fifth grade students perform the finale of the "Centennial Revue" for a packed gymnasium at the school's 100th anniversary celebration Oct. 20.

Quincy Sun Photos/Lisa Aimola

SEAMUS CONNEELY, 5, reads his Mom a story in his kindergarten classroom after the Montclair School centennial event.

PRINCIPAL RENEE MALVESTI accepts a City Council commendation on behalf of the Montclair School from Ward 3 Councillor Kevin Coughlin.

was so proud to have been a part of the schools history.

"Everyone was so proud to have come here. The school is such a rich community, it is pretty special to be a part of," said Malvesti. "I feel like I was the lucky one to be able to represent the principals who came before me."

STUDENT PATRICK MARSHALL plays "air guitar" with a toy instrument during the student performances at the Montclair School's 100th anniversary celebration.

RECENT ALUMNI also attended the Montclair School's centennial celebration. Among them (from left) Anastasia Zygouras, Michelle Nguyen, Nicole Setow, Britney Bui Tran, John Liu, Sara Wong, Meghan O'Boyle, Jasmine Chan and Veronica Byrne.

Steward. The New Health Care.

I am a Steward.

Walter J. Lech, MD
 Thoracic Surgeon
 Steward Medical Group | Thoracic Surgery | Cancer Medicine | Cardiology
 111 Whittell Street, Quincy, MA 02269

Steward Medical Group is pleased to welcome Dr. Walter Lech to the Quincy Medical Center community. A graduate of Harvard Medical School, Dr. Lech completed his residency in general surgery and a fellowship in cardiothoracic surgery at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center in Boston. Dr. Lech also completed a fellowship in minimally invasive thoracic surgery at Brigham and Women's Hospital. His areas of special interest include a video assisted thoracic surgery approach to all traditional general thoracic surgeries. Dr. Lech welcomes new patients. Please call DoctorFinder™ at 1-800-488-5959 to make an appointment.

Quincy Medical Center
 A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

Call 800-488-5959 or visit steward.org/doctorfinder

BE A HERO – Bill and Muriel Elliott of the HERO campaign, at left, will join Norfolk County District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey (far right) at Patriot's Place Friday, Nov. 2, for an anti-drunk driving training for bar and restaurant owners. In addition to the training, the Elliotts will talk about the designated driver campaign named for their late son.

HERO Designated Driver Campaign Also Launches

DA Morrissey Offers Alcohol Service Training For Owners, Managers Friday

Norfolk District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey has put out a call to every licensed liquor establishment in his county asking their owners and managers to attend the Alcohol Service Training he is sponsoring Friday, Nov. 2.

Morrissey will also be joined by Bill and Muriel Elliott to talk the Ensign John R. Elliott HERO Campaign for designated drivers that is named for their son – a kind of one-two punch at the problem of drunk driving as the holidays approach.

"There were more than 60 impaired driving related deaths on Norfolk County roads last year. One is too many, and we saw more than one a week," District Attorney Morrissey said.

"If our training can supplement what bars and restaurants can provide to their front line servers, and keep a few patrons from having the one or two that makes them a dangerous driver, this will have served an important purpose."

The 90-minute training is a seminar for owners and managers. It will be held at Showcase Live at Patriot's Place, Foxborough, from 8:30 to 10 a.m.

Morrissey is also using the event to promote the HERO designated driver campaign that has had great success at Gillette stadium and in partnership with the Kraft organization and the Patriots. Ensign John Elliott, a graduate of the Naval Academy, was struck and killed by a drunken driver on his way home for his mother's birthday in 2000. The driver had been arrested on DUI charges and released only to get back in the car drunk, killing himself and John.

The name of the campaign derives from an honor John received at Annapolis, having been elected by his peers as a Human Education Resource Officer (HERO) to mentor other cadets – then being named the outstanding HERO in his graduating class.

The HERO Campaign, which has a partnership with the Kraft Group and the District Attorney, is dedicated to saving lives on the roads by soliciting patrons to "Be a HERO, be a designated driver," and working with restaurants and organizations to build that into the culture of their establishments.

Owners and managers willing to participate need to RSVP to the DA's Office at 781-830-4800. For more information on the HERO campaign, visit www.hero-campaign.org.

Halloween Is Fun At Any Age

The Quincy Council on Aging recently celebrated Halloween at the Kennedy Center with the help of Allerton House at Hancock Park in Quincy.

A big dose of fun kept the more than 100 seniors in good spirits. The Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group Assisted Living Community provided lunch and entertainment.

The Welch Group's Director of Community Relations Lynda Chuckran played the piano and handed out prizes to the winners of "Name that Song!"

Allerton House at Hancock Park in Quincy is an assisted living community offering a range of amenities, fine dining, social activities and numerous clubs. Short stays can be easily arranged in fully furnished apartments.

For more information visit online at: www.welchhrg.com

CHARLOTTE McNEIL'S shows her Halloween spirit wearing this festive sweater. Charlotte was one of over 100 guests at the annual Halloween Party at the Quincy Council on Aging. Allerton House at Hancock Park in Quincy has been hosting the event with the Council for more than five years.

GETTING INTO THE holiday mood are (from left to right) Lynda Chuckran, director of community relations, Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group; Linda Bowes, assistant to the director of the Quincy Council on Aging and Kelly Richards, marketing director, Allerton House at Hancock Park.

WEARING THE APPROPRIATE colors of the Halloween festivities at the Quincy Council on Aging annual Halloween Party are Caroline Connolly (left) and Mary Logan.

Photos Courtesy Welch Healthcare

JOAN'S OLYMPIC GYM GYMNASTICS & DANCE SCHOOL

WAS VOTED #1 ON THE SOUTH SHORE

Ages 2 – Adult

NOW ACCEPTING REGISTRATIONS!

781-843-9624

"An Excellent Education
Environment For Your Child"

197 Quincy Avenue, Braintree • www.joansolympicgym.com

DESIGNER HAIR COMPANY

SKIN & BODY CENTRE

1637 Hancock Street
Quincy, MA 0219

617-479-4247

REDKEN PROFESSIONAL SEBASTIAN.

GIRLS NIGHT OUT! Shopping Extravaganza

November 15th, 7:00 PM

The View Restaurant & Tavern

PRESIDENTS GOLF COURSE

357 West Squantum St., Quincy, MA 02171

617.770.2500

BOOK YOUR PARTY NOW!!

9th Grader Nancy Aimola Recognized By School Committee

NQHS Freshman Created Video Standing Up Against Cyber Bullying Of Deaf Students

By EMILY TAFT

The School Committee recognized North Quincy High School ninth grader Nancy Aimola for creating a video and standing up against the cyber bullying of students at the Horace Mann School for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing in Allston.

"We are tremendously fortunate to have so many students at North Quincy High School, and Quincy High School, and our middle schools and our elementary, that have big hearts, and that know what's right, and are fearless," said Superintendent Dr. Richard DeCristofaro.

"I just want to say how proud I am of you and your friends that really rose to the occasion, knew what injustice was and is, and were able to make sure that people understand that young people really care, and make a difference. We are just so very, very proud."

A contest put on by country music superstar Taylor Swift to have one school campus win a free music event by Swift. The school that received the most amount of votes through three different avenues won the concert.

During the voting process unidentified online hackers thought it would be a good prank to vote for the Horace Mann School for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing to win the live Taylor Swift concert, the prank received media attention, which is how Aimola learned about it.

NORTH QUINCY High School ninth grader Nancy Aimola with School Supt. Dr. Richard DeCristofaro.

"My mom watches Fox 25 every morning, so one morning I heard that Taylor Swift was on it, so I started watching it. It (the news segment) was about how these hackers hacked into Taylor Swift's contest and they made it so the deaf school would win," said Aimola.

"They thought it would be funny that they would win because they wouldn't be able to hear it, so it would be a joke that Taylor Swift would go there. We just thought that was wrong so we decided to make a video about it."

According to mom, Lisa Aimola, Nancy was irate about what was happening and felt it was not only unjust to the students of the Horace Mann School but also a family friend who is deaf and hears through cochlear implants. For Nancy creating the video meant defending her friend and standing up against those who she calls in the video 'cowardly, mean spirited, ignorant, and thoughtless' people.

"When she saw the segment on Fox 25 she was upset and didn't understand

NANCY AIMOLA (center holding certificate) was recently honored by the Quincy School Committee for creating a video that stood up against cyber bullying of deaf students at the Horace Mann School for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing in Allston. Nancy recruited the help of her friends (front row from left) Caroline Keenan, Hailey Houlihan, Kaycee O'Toole, Savannah Flynn and Rachel Gillespie. With them are members of the School Committee (back row from left) Mayor Thomas Koch, Paul Bregoli, Anne Mahoney, David McCarthy, Barbara Isola, Emily Lebo, School Supt. Dr. Richard DeCristofaro and Kathy Hubley. Lisa Aimola Photos

why people thought this would be funny," said Lisa. "She is a spirited young girl who always goes the extra mile. She is really all about the underdog, and it is something she wanted to do and I supported it."

Aimola recruited the help of her friends Rachel Gillespie, Kaycee O'Toole, Savannah Flynn, Hailey Houlihan, Caroline Keenan, Yasmine Sudhu, and Jaimie Lyons, to be in the video. The video has over 2,100 views on youtube along with a number of comments from anti-bullying organizations and families with children who are deaf praising Aimola on all that she has done.

"She has received so many positive comments about the video and what she has done," said Lisa. "She even received a nice note from a family in Tennessee, with young children who are deaf, thanking her for what she has done. She didn't even know these students at the school but she knew she had to stand up for them."

The Horace Mann School was disqualified from the contest but received $50,000 from Taylor Swift and her sponsors as well as tickets to a future Taylor Swift concert.

The school committee members presented Aimola with a certificate of recognition for leadership, increasing public awareness, creative use of social media, and turning a negative incident into a positive outcome for the students of the Boston Horace Mann School for the Deaf.

School Committee Vice Chairwomen Barbara Isola said she was impressed by the video and the courage the group had to make the video and stand up against bullying.

"Watching that video I was filling up," said Isola. "Just to think about how you and your friends put themselves out there. At your age to have the confidence to go forward and the courage is just amazing."

When It's Time To Talk To Your Parents...

Talk to us First – We're here to help!

Allerton House

Assisted Living Communities

Come for lunch & stay for a tour.

Call Today!

Duxbury
781-585-7136

Hingham
781-749-3322

Marshfield
Including Memory Care
866-939-1070

Quincy
617-471-2600

Weymouth
781-335-8666

A tradition of quality care from our family to yours

Welch
HEALTHCARE AND RETIREMENT GROUP

www.welchhrg.com

Derby Academy

Founded in 1784 ♦ PK-8 ♦ Coeducational ♦ Hingham, MA

Open House

Thursday, November 8 ♦ 9:00-11:00 am

Explore. Learn. Grow.

Discover our Early Learning Center and Tour the PK-3 Classrooms

Full Day Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten
Part-time Pre-Kindergarten Option
Wrap-around Care Available

781-749-0746 x46 ♦ admission@derbyacademy.org

www.derbyacademy.org

ROUGH SURF surrounds the Squantum Yacht Club (above) and the Wollaston Yacht Club (below) during the height of Hurricane Sandy Monday afternoon. Photos by Michael J. Worley

WAVES CRASH over the seawall on Quincy Shore Drive near Rice Road during the height of Hurricane Sandy Monday. At right, two storm spectators scale a small fence to stay above rushing water in the vicinity of Chick Street and Rice Road. Photos By Amy Kelly Photography

Superstorm Sandy Packs Coastal Punch Here

Cont'd From Page 1

ference for a lot of people in our neighborhoods," said Mayor Koch.

According to the Mayor's Office, emergency workers responded to more than 200 calls, the bulk of which related to fallen trees and large limbs, many of which took down power lines with them. At its peak, the storm knocked out power to about 7,500 customers in Quincy, and that number was expected to be almost entirely cleared by Wednesday, according to officials.

Coastal neighborhoods suffered relatively minor flooding during the storm's peak high tide at around noon on Monday, but fears of a second tidal surge early Tuesday morning did not materialize. The relative lack of rain also lessened the flooding impact, although intense rain bands did cause brief problems in some areas.

Park Department crews and contractors were set to patrol streets for remaining tree limbs throughout the week, and city officials reminded residents that the DPW yard at 55 Sea Street is open all week for the drop-off of branches and limbs that can be picked up and delivered. A number of homes did suffer serious damage from fallen uprooted trees, and it appears that the historic wall around Veterans Memorial Stadium will need to be repaired after it was struck by a tree, officials said.

"It was certainly no easy storm, but when you take step back and see the kind of devastation suffered in other parts of the country, I think we were fortunate," Koch said.

During a similar storm last year, Hurricane Irene, Mayor Koch led a chorus of public officials who were sharply critical of electricity provider National Grid and its handling of the storm, ultimately leading to changes in how the utility works with cities and towns during major storms. Koch said the response to Sandy was a marked difference from last year.

"There was without question improvement, and I'm grateful to the team at National Grid for working with us and making some changes. We still have areas where there can be improvement, and we'll be working on those with National Grid in the coming days," Mayor Koch said.

MARK DONAHUE of Quincy resembles a superhero with a cape as he enjoys the Monday high winds along Wollaston Beach. Parts of Quincy Shore Drive along Wollaston Beach were closed at high tide due to flooding. Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

Harry Shulman Recognized As A Community Hero

Safeco Insurance has named Harry Shulman, president and CEO, South Shore Mental Health a Community Hero for his work.

The organization will receive a $5,000 donation from Safeco on behalf of both Shulman and HUB International New England in Norwell.

Shulman was nominated for the Safeco® Community Hero award by John Zawilinski, chief operating officer of HUB International New England and member of the South Shore Mental Health Development Committee.

The Safeco Insurance® Agent Giving Program is designed to recognize 15 heroes and nonprofit organizations across the country that have a positive impact in education, health and safety, or civic engagement.

"Local heroes like Harry Shulman and the good work of South Shore Mental Health can inspire all of us to make a difference, and we thank HUB International New England for sharing their story with Safeco," said Brenda Mann Harrison, manager of the Agent Giving Program for Safeco.

For the last 30 years, Shulman has served as President and CEO of South

HARRY SHULMAN

Shore Mental Health. Having grown up in a family that was faced with the challenges of mental illness, he has dedicated his career to helping people in recovery from mental illness turn around their lives.

Throughout his tenure as President and CEO, Shulman has fostered the growth of South Shore Mental Health through the expansion of six outpatient clinics, residential programs for over 200 individuals, home and school-based services, childcare centers and other community settings.

"I am gratified to be recognized by Safeco Insurance and in knowing that the award will help to provide much needed behavioral health services to the residents of our area," Shulman said.

For more information about Harry Shulman, the contest and how your vote can help to support the work at South Shore Mental Health go to <http://promoshq.wildfireapp.com/web-site/6/contests/296757>

The hero with the most votes will win $10,000 from Safeco Insurance for his or her charity/organization and the runner-up will get $5,000.

South Shore Mental Health serves more than 17,000 clients in the areas of education, treatment and recovery with more than 325,000 client visits and 10,000 residential days provided each year.

Programs exist for people of all ages, including infants and children with developmental delays, children with behavioral issues, teens working through transitional stages and adults with severe and persistent mental illness.

CITY OF QUINCY

昆士市政府 - 麻州選舉通告

市府書記辦公室

2012 年 10 月 1 日

昆士市政府謹此通知昆士市所有選民，在你所屬的選區，及所指定的以下投票站於：

星期二，2012 年 11 月 6 日

請行使你的權力，為下列候選人作出投票：

總統；副總統；國會參議員：

國會眾議員 - 第八選區；州長顧問委員會委員 - 第四選區

州議會參議員 - 諾福郡/普令茅斯選區，州議會眾議員諾福克郡第一選區，州議會眾議員諾福克郡第二選區；州議會眾議員諾福克郡第三選區；州議會眾議員撒福郡第十三選區；諾福郡專員（兩席）；諾福郡地區法庭書記長；諾福郡契約登記官

投票服務由早上七點開始，直到晚上八點結束。投票站地點已指定如下：

- WARD 1 第一選區, PRECINCT 1 (第一投票站) - MERRYMOUNT 學校, 4 AGAWAM ROAD
- WARD 1 第一選區, PRECINCT 2 (第二投票站) - GERMANTOWN 鄰里中心, 366 PALMER STREET
- WARD 1 第一選區, PRECINCT 3 (第三投票站) - THOMAS CRANE 圖書館會議室, 40 WASHINGTON STREET
- WARD 1 第一選區, PRECINCT 4 (第四投票站) - ADAMS SHORE 圖書館, SEA STREET
- WARD 1 第一選區, PRECINCT 5 (第五投票站) - SAINT THOMAS AQUINAS HALL 禮堂, DARROW STREET
- WARD 2 第二選區, PRECINCT 1 (第一投票站) - FORE RIVER CLUB HOUSE 社區中心, 16 NEVADA STREET
- WARD 2 第二選區, PRECINCT 2 (第二投票站) - SENIOR CITIZENS HOUSING 老人屋, 1000 SOUTHERN ARTERY
- WARD 2 第二選區, PRECINCT 3 (第三投票站) - MARTENSEN STREET HOUSING 老人屋, 95 MARTENSEN STREET
- WARD 2 第二選區, PRECINCT 3A (第三A投票站) - SENIOR CITIZEN'S HOUSING 老人屋, 1000 SOUTHERN ARTERY (LIBRARY)
- WARD 2 第二選區, PRECINCT 4 (第四投票站) - SAINT JOHN'S CHURCH 教堂, 44 SCHOOL STREET
- WARD 2 第二選區, PRECINCT 5 (第五投票站) - SAINT JOHN'S CHURCH 教堂, 44 SCHOOL STREET
- WARD 3 第三選區, PRECINCT 1 (第一投票站) - COVENANT CONGREGATIONAL 教堂, 315 WHITWELL STREET
- WARD 3 第三選區, PRECINCT 2 (第二投票站) - FIRST BAPTIST 教堂, 81 PROSPECT STREET
- WARD 3 第三選區, PRECINCT 3 (第三投票站) - MONTCLAIR 學校, 8 BEALE STREET
- WARD 3 第三選區, PRECINCT 4 (第四投票站) - WOLLASTON 學校, 205 BEALE STREET
- WARD 3 第三選區, PRECINCT 5 (第五投票站) - WOLLASTON 學校, 205 BEALE STREET
- WARD 4 第四選區, PRECINCT 1 (第一投票站) - LINCOLN-HANCOCK COMMUNITY SCHOOL 學校, WATER STREET ENTRANCE
- WARD 4 第四選區, PRECINCT 2 (第二投票站) - QUINCY LODGE OF ELKS 鄰里會所, 254 QUARRY STREET
- WARD 4 第四選區, PRECINCT 3 (第三投票站) - QUINCY LODGE OF ELKS 鄰里會所, 254 QUARRY STREET
- WARD 4 第四選區, PRECINCT 4 (第四投票站) - LINCOLN-HANCOCK COMMUNITY 學校, WATER STREET
- WARD 4 第四選區, PRECINCT 5 (第五投票站) - MORRISETTE POST 會所, 81 LIBERTY STREET
- WARD 5 第五選區, PRECINCT 1 (第一投票站) - QUINCY CAREER CTR. 職業中心, 152 PARKINGWAY (MAYOR WALTER J. HANNON PKWY)
- WARD 5 第五選區, PRECINCT 2 (第二投票站) - QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH 教堂, 40 BEALE STREET
- WARD 5 第五選區, PRECINCT 3 (第三投票站) - ADAMS ACADEMY 學校, 8 ADAMS STREET (由 DIMMOCK STREET 進入)
- WARD 5 第五選區, PRECINCT 4 (第四投票站) - BEECHWOOD KNOLL SCHOOL 學校, 225 FENNO STREET
- WARD 5 第五選區, PRECINCT 5 (第五投票站) - BEECHWOOD KNOLL SCHOOL 學校, 225 FENNO STREET
- WARD 6 第六選區, PRECINCT 1 (第一投票站) - NORTH QUINCY HIGH SCHOOL 北高中, 318 HANCOCK STREET
- WARD 6 第六選區, PRECINCT 2 (第二投票站) - K OF C HALL 禮堂, 5 HOLLIS AVENUE AT HANCOCK STREET
- WARD 6 第六選區, PRECINCT 3 (第三投票站) - KENNEDY CENTER GYM 社區中心體育室, 440 EAST SQUANTUM STREET
- WARD 6 第六選區, PRECINCT 4 (第四投票站) - ATLANTIC MIDDLE SCHOOL 初中, 86 HOLLIS AVENUE
- WARD 6 第六選區, PRECINCT 5 (第五投票站) - SQUANTUM SCHOOL 學校, 50 HUCKINS AVENUE

投票站由早上七點開始，直到晚上八點結束。

City Clerk 市府書記 Attest - JOSEPH P. SHEA 監証

'Fall On The Salt Marsh' Walking Tour Sunday

The Park Department's Environmental Treasures program is offering a free tour entitled "Fall on the Salt Marsh" on Sunday, Nov. 4 at 10 a.m.

The tour will be led by UMass professor Anamarija Frankic and Sally Owen.

Participants should meet at the intersection of Fenno Street and Andrews Road.

Because there will be poison ivy along the route, participants are encouraged to wear long pants and socks.

For more information and rain date rescheduling, call 617-472-0799.

GRANITE LOCK CO

SERVICE MOBILE
AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS

- DEADBOLTS INSTALLED
- LOCKS REKEYED
- DOOR CLOSERS
- PANIC HARDWARE
- AUTO KEYS FITTED

VISIT OUR SHOWROOM!
755 SO. ARTERY, QUINCY
472-2177

Free Adult Basic Education/GED Prep Classes

Training Resources of America, Inc. (TRA) has recently been funded by the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education to bring a new evening Adult Basic Education (ABE) / GED Preparation program to the Quincy area.

The program is available at no charge to residents of the South Shore aged 16 and over who wish to increase their reading, writing, math, and work readiness skills and prepare for their GED. Staff will also help students transition to skills training, college and employment opportunities.

Classes run Tuesday and Thursdays from 5 to 8:30 p.m.

For more information, call Jim or Dianne at 617-773-1470 or visit Training Resources of America, Inc., 1458 Hancock St., Suite 304, Quincy, on Tuesday and Thursday nights from 5 to 7 p.m.

TRA-Quincy is also currently recruiting for the ACHIEVE! Youth Customer Service Program and the Young Parents Program. Both programs are available at no cost to area youth who meet eligibility requirements. Call for program specifics.

Training Resources of America Incorporated

(TRA) is a private, non-profit organization that provides education, employment, training and workforce development services for educationally and economically disadvantaged youth and adults. Founded in 1975 and headquartered in Worcester, Massachusetts, TRA has eight training sites throughout Massachusetts.

The Quincy site is located at 1458 Hancock Street, third floor, Quincy Center. TRA-Quincy also operates Young Parents, Young Parents Mentoring, ACHIEVE!

– Youth Customer Service, and YouthBuild/ AmeriCorps programs. TRA's website is www.tra-inc.org.

Computer Classes At The Kennedy Center

The following computer classes will be held at the Kennedy Center, 440 East Squantum St., Quincy, during November.

Thursday, Nov. 1, from 10 a.m. to noon, Media Rom, Kennedy Center.

Cost $5.

Internet Purchasing: Perfect for Christmas 2012

This class is designed to show people the best ways to purchase over the internet. It will take you through ordering, paying, tracking, receiving, returning.

The class will show first time or experienced internet shoppers how to safely order on the internet. We will demonstrate a number of internet sites (Amazon, Macy's, Sears) which do millions of dollars in sales per month. We will explain shopping bags/carts. Students should have basic computer knowledge.

Thursday, Nov. 8, 10 a.m. to noon, Media Center, Kennedy Center.

Cost $5.00.

New course - Smart Phones, Tablets, Kindle & Kindle Fire.

Holiday season is fast approaching. Family members want to give you a 'tablet'. What is the tablet or iPod, how does it work, will I like it, how much can I do with it?

Also, Smart Phones, what can they do, how do I use mine.

Additionally we will be discussing the Kindle and Nook and how to use them and get the most out of them including downloading books free of charge from the library.

Thursday, Nov. 29, 10 a.m. to noon, Media Center, Kennedy Center.

Cost $5.00.

New course: Cards, Letters and Holiday Greetings.

How do design simple cards, write holiday letters and general greetings using Microsoft Office. Include adding pictures into the greetings and how to go about printing envelopes and labels to demonstrate your computer knowledge. A perfect way to send out that greeting to your friends and loved ones to update them on your life and activities.

If you have a laptop computer, feel free to bring it to class. We will set you up on the internet if you have a wireless connector so you can follow along during class. You may also just come and watch. There are limited computers at the center which you can use on a first come, first serve basis.

CITY OF QUINCY

BẦU CỬ TIỂU BANG

Văn Phòng Thư Ký Thành Phố

Ngày 1 tháng 10, năm 2012

Thông báo này được trao cho các cử tri của thành phố Quincy, đến các địa điểm bỏ phiếu, chỉ định vào

THỨ BA, NGÀY 6 THÁNG 11, NĂM 2012

Cung cấp lá phiếu cho các ứng cử sau đây:

TỔNG THÔNG
PHÓ TỔNG THÔNG
THƯỢNG NGHỊ SĨ
ĐẠI BIỂU QUỐC HỘI – HUYỆN 8
ỦY VIÊN HỘI ĐỒNG CỦA THỐNG ĐỐC – HUYỆN 4
THƯỢNG NGHỊ SĨ TÒA SƠ THẨM – HUYỆN NORFOLK / PLYMOUTH
ĐẠI BIỂU TÒA SƠ THẨM – HUYỆN NORFOLK 1
ĐẠI BIỂU TÒA SƠ THẨM – HUYỆN NORFOLK 2
ĐẠI BIỂU TÒA SƠ THẨM – HUYỆN NORFOLK 3
ĐẠI BIỂU TÒA SƠ THẨM – HUYỆN SUFFOLK 13
ỦY VIÊN HẠT – QUẬN NORFOLK
THƯ KÝ TÒA ÁN (BỎ PHIẾU CHO 2 NGƯỜI) – QUẬN NORFOLK
PHÒNG ĐĂNG KÝ CHỨNG THƯ – HUYỆN NORFOLK

Thời gian bỏ phiếu bắt đầu lúc 7 giờ sáng và kết thúc lúc 8 giờ tối.

Địa điểm được chỉ định như sau:

WARD (PHƯỜNG) 1, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 1 – MERRYMOUNT SCHOOL, 4 AGAWAM ROAD
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 1, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 2 – GERMANTOWN NEIGHBORHOOD CENTER, 366 PALMER STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 1, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 3 – THOMAS CRANE LIBRARY (MEETING ROOM), 40 WASHINGTON ST
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 1, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 4 – ADAMS SHORE LIBRARY, SEA STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 1, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 5 – SAINT THOMAS AQUINAS HALL, DARROW STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 2, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 1 – FORE RIVER CLUB HOUSE, 16 NEVADA ROAD
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 2, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 2 – SENIOR CITIZENS HOUSING, 1000 SOUTHERN ARTERY
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 2, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 3 – MARTENSEN STREET HOUSING, 95 MARTENSEN STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 2, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 3A – SENIOR CITIZENS HOUSING, 1000 SOUTHERN ARTERY
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 2, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 4 – SAINT JOHN'S CHURCH, 44 SCHOOL STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 2, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 5 – SAINT JOHN'S CHURCH, 44 SCHOOL STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 3, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 1 – COVENANT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, 315 WHITWELL ST
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 3, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 2 – FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, 81 PROSPECT STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 3, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 3 – MONTCLAIR SCHOOL, 8 BELMONT STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 3, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 4 – WOLLASTON SCHOOL, 205 BEALE STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 3, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 5 – WOLLASTON SCHOOL, 205 BEALE STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 4, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 1 – LINCOLN-HANCOCK COMMUNITY SCHOOL, WATER STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 4, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 2 – QUINCY LODGE OF ELKS, 254 QUARRY STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 4, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 3 – QUINCY LODGE OF ELKS, 254 QUARRY STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 4, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 4 – LINCOLN-HANCOCK COMMUNITY SCHOOL, WATER STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 4, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 5 – MORRISSETTE POST, 81 LIBERTY STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 5, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 1 – QUINCY CAREER CENTER, 152 PARKINGWAY
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 5, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 2 – QUINCY COMM. UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, 40 BEALE STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 5, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 3 – ADAMS ACADEMY, 8 ADAMS STREET (DIMMOCK STREET)
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 5, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 4 – BEECHWOOD KNOLL SCHOOL, 225 FENNO STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 5, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 5 – BEECHWOOD KNOLL SCHOOL, 225 FENNO STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 6, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 1 – NORTH QUINCY HIGH SCHOOL, 318 HANCOCK STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 6, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 2 – KNIGHTS of COLUMBUS HALL, 5 HOLLIS AVENUE (HANCOCK ST)
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 6, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 3 – KENNEDY CENTER GYM, 440 EAST SQUANTUM STREET
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 6, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 4 – ATLANTIC MIDDLE SCHOOL, 86 HOLLIS AVENUE
WARD (PHƯỜNG) 6, PRECINCT (ĐƠN VỊ) 5 – SQUANTUM SCHOOL, 50 HUCKINS AVENUE

BỎ PHIẾU BẮT ĐẦU – 7:00 A.M.

BỎ PHIẾU KẾT THÚC – 8:00 P.M.

Attest (Chứng Nhận): JOSEPH P. SHEA

City Clerk (Thư Ký Thành Phố)

Elks, Panthers In QYFL Title Game Sunday

By SEAN HALPIN

The Quincy Youth Football League completed its "Super Saturday" of football this past weekend at Veterans Stadium.

Earlier in the day, the Freshman and Junior Varsity Jamborees were played and Fans saw some great football from the up and coming stars of the QYFL.

The Finale of the Day was the Varsity "Final-Four" Playoff games under the lights.

The first playoff game of the night featured the #1 Seed, Squantum Storm taking on the #3 Seed, West Quincy Elks. As New Englanders prepared for the impact of Hurricane Sandy, The West Quincy Elks were ready for a Storm of their own.

Davi Soares put the Elks on the scoreboard first with a 7-yard Touchdown run early in the second quarter. John Teixeira, filling in at QB for the injured Angelo DePaulo, rushed in for the conversion to take the lead 7-0.

On the next series, the Storm attempted a fake punt on their own 31-yard line and Elks DE Patrick O'Callaghan stopped RB Liam O'Connor short of the first down. Three plays later, Elks QB Teixeira rushed for a 32-yard TD and added the conversion to extend their lead, 14-0.

On the next series, The Storm was facing a 3rd and long situation. RB O'Connor threw a 41-yard Halfback pass to Max Storch putting the Storm in scoring range. Three plays later, Max Storch scored on a 12-yard TD run and O'Connor rushed for the conversion as the Storm closed the Elks lead to 14-7 at Halftime.

On the First play of the second half, Elks QB Teixeira raced down his Elks sideline for a 72-yard Touchdown. Davi Soares rushed in for the conversion and the Elks continued to lead, 21-7.

On the next series, The Storm mounted a 9 play, 48 yard drive down the Elks 14 yard line only to turn it over on downs. The Elks took possession on their own 14 yard line and 4 plays later, Teixeira ran for a 60-yard touchdown. Elks Fullback, Aaron Etienne's conversion attempt was stopped making the score 27-7 with 7:10 left in the game.

The Storm, whose roster is comprised mostly of 7th grade players with only Six 8th graders, would show maturity and character beyond their years in the 4th quarter.

Christian Connors made the first big play in The Storm comeback attempt, as he returned the kickoff back 38 yards to the Elks 19 yard line. Five plays later, RB Christian Connors capped off the drive with a 2-yard TD run. Liam O'Connor's conversion attempt was halted and the Storm closed the gap to 27-13.

On the ensuing kickoff, The Storm attempted an onside kick and it was recovered by Max Storch on the Elks 42-yard line. Three plays later, Storm RB O'Connor threw a 39-yard TD pass to Storch. The conversion attempt was stopped and the Storm continued to close the Elks lead down to 27-19 with 2:48 left to go in the game.

The Storm attempted another onside kick but the Elks recovered it on their own 48.

The Elks controlled the clock throughout the rest of the game with a strong running game.

Elks RB Teixeira scored his 4th Touchdown of the day when he capped off the drive with a 21-yard TD run as time expired. The Elks victory advances them to the QYFL Championship Game next Sunday at 2 p.m.

Elks Coach Justin Thorley got some fine performances from his entire team particularly his QYFL All-Stars: Teixeira (4 TD's, 2 PAT's), Aaron Etienne, Patrick O'Callaghan (7 tackles), Anthony Sances, Vagno Santos and Josh Rodriguez. Also playing well for the Elks were Ray Rodriguez, Jamal Williams, Shorn Hawthorne, Billy Brown, Davi Soares (4 carries, 42 yards, TD) and Santiago Zenteno.

Storm Head Coach, Mike Killilea was proud of the way his team fought until the very end. He had praise for his eighth grade players who suited up their last game for the Storm: Liam O'Connor, Brian Anton, Cullen Walsh, Tom Jaehnig, Christian Connors, Brad Ames, Zach Spencer, and Ryan Manning.

Also playing well for the Storm were Storch, Tim Layden, Luca Smith, Mark Monahan and Raphy Veras. This Team has a Strong core of player returning, Look out for The Storm of 2013!

The second game of the evening, to decide who faces the West Quincy Elks in the Title game, was between the #2 seed Quincy Point Panthers and the #4 Milton Mustangs. The Panthers entered the Game with the QYFL's Top scorer in RB Domenic Coleman. They would match up against the Milton defense which has been among the best in the League this season. The Mustang defense kept the potent Panthers offense from reaching the end zone through most of the first half.

Cont'd On Page 41

More Sports Pages 45-47

Saccoach Wins JV

North Girls' Cross Country Third In League Meet; Mullaney, Bryson Second

North's girls put together big performances when it counted putting three girls in the top 10 to secure third in the Patriot League Cross Country Championship meet.

North also avenged an earlier loss to Scituate whom it shares, along with Pembroke, the league Fisher Division dual meet crown. Emily Bryson closely trailed Whitman-Hanson's Gianna Cacciatore over the entire 3.1 mile Silver Lake course but couldn't catch her over the final 200 meters. Her time of 19:09 is one of the fastest ever by a North girl. Danielle Mullaney (8th), Julia Bryson (10th) Marguerite Belcher (30th) and Mary Zheng (31st) closed out the scoring. North had 81 points behind Whitman-Hanson (30) and Hingham (59).

"Our girls continue to pick off opponents who beat them earlier in the season. This is when we need to be running our best and we are," said Head Coach Geoff Hennessy.

In the JV girls race a trio of Quincy High freshman took places 3-4-5 in Anaya Paul, Victoria Deery and LaQueen Arias all finishing under 22:30. Another QHS freshman, Maura Crump, was 10th. In the boys Varsity race Mike Mullaney and Derick Noland of Silver Lake ran stride for stride through the bogland around the Kingston campus and Noland sprinted the final 100 meters for the win. Mullaney who ran 16:30 was second but more importantly turned in a fast time, which will place well at States in two weeks. Quincy's Brendan Cunningham was 13th. In boys JV Quincy freshman Peter Saccoach led wire to wire for the win despite running slightly extra due to a missing marker on the course. The teams will run 14 athletes at the MSTCA Coaches invitational next Saturday at Wrentham, the site of this year's MIAA Eastern Mass Divisionals. "Franklin Park is undergoing a multi-million dollar face lift and is shut down for the season", said Hennessy. "This project essentially cancelled meets like the Catholic Memorial Invitational, Boston Mayor's Cup and E-Mass meets, things we traditionally go to. Wrentham is relatively flat, but All States is at Mt. Northfield, which is anything but. The storm has cut us back a little with training but we'll be in full effect for the next 2-3 weeks. I hope we can keep improving and stay healthy. The kids are loving it."

SAL Veterans Day Observance Nov. 11

At Flags For Vets Island

The Sons of the American Legion Squadron 294, Cyril P. Morrisette Post, will hold a Veterans Day observance Sunday, Nov. 11 at 10 a.m. at the Flags for Veterans Island, located at the intersection of Pleasant and School Streets in Quincy.

There are over 100 flags on the island representing those who have served, are still serving and those who have paid their final call so America remains a free country.

For more information, call 617-472-5952 or 617-590-4082.

BellaDerma
Aesthetics-LLC

Owned and Operated by
Judith A. DiGravio RN, ADN
Gail S. Driscoll, RN, BSN
Medical Aestheticians

Looking forward to a wedding, class reunion or special occasion?
Look and feel better about yourself everyday!

VISIT OUR HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11TH
12-4 pm

Raffles, Promotions, Information & Light Refreshments

NOVEMBER SPECIALS

Laser Hair Removal

Bikini And Underarms Combination $250 Per Treatment

Lipo-Light Body Contouring - Target YOUR Problem Area
Series Of 8 Treatments $399

Microdermabrasion With Vitamin C Ultrasound Therapy $75
Environ Vitamin C Revitalizing Treatment $85
Environ Age Management & Resurfacing Treatment $100
Add a Microcurrent Eye Lift to any Facial Treatment $50

"How old you are is your business...
How old you look is ours!"™

501 John Mahar Highway, Braintree | 781-535-6886
www.belladermaskinclinic.com

RELIABLE DEPENDABLE AFFORDABLE
GARAGE DOORS AND OPERATORS

ISLAND OVERHEAD DOOR

SALES, SERVICE AND NEW INSTALLATIONS

CALL TODAY FOR A FREE ESTIMATE

OVER 30 YEARS EXPERIENCE

JIM BUCHAN

781-499-2113

★ DECISION 2012 – The Race For The U.S. Senate ★

Warren: ‘Everyone Should Pay Their Fair Share’

By EMILY TAFT

U.S. Sen. candidate Elizabeth Warren stopped by 1000 Southern Artery recently to speak and meet with senior residents about her vision for the country as well as her views on Medicare, small businesses, and the importance of supporting veterans.

“The vision I have is the same as President Obama. We ask everyone to pay their fair share, and then we make the investments,” said Warren, a Democrat. “We honor our promises and we invest in the future, in education, in infrastructure, roads and bridges, and basic research.

“The Republicans have a vision, cut taxes for the very wealthiest individuals and biggest corporations and let everyone else pick up the pieces. We are better people than that, and we can do better than that, we have done better than that in the past.”

Warren said the Senate race is about economics and values.

“I see this race as really a race about economics. It’s what I spent my life on. I’ve been out there fighting for working families pretty much my entire career. I’ve taught school, I’ve been a consumer advocate; I’ve worked with Senator Kennedy for 15 years on pension reform, on medical bankruptcy.

“I’ve written books, I’ve

“THE VISION I have is the same as President Obama. We ask everyone to pay their fair share, and then we make the investments,” U.S. Senate candidate Elizabeth Warren said at a recent campaign stop to 1000 Southern Artery in Quincy.

even gone to the United States Supreme Court. At the end of the day, I think what this race is about, is it’s about our values. It’s about what kind of people we are, and what kind of a country we are trying to build.”

Warren also shared stories about her three brothers, and how being a little sister to them, and watching what they have gone through in their lives, has helped to shape her into who she is today.

“I thought I might tell you something you might not know about me. I’m a little sister. I’m the baby in the family. I have three older brothers, much older brothers,” said Warren.

“I learned a lot from my three older brothers. All three of my brothers served in the military. My oldest brother, Don, was career military, 288 combat missions. I am very proud of him. I learned something from my oldest brother; I learned that we honor our promises to our vets.

ANNEMARIE HAUG, a resident at 1000 Southern Artery in Quincy, meets U.S. Senate candidate Elizabeth Warren at a recent campaign stop at the senior citizen housing complex.

Quincy Sun Photos/Emily Taft

“My second brother, is my brother John, when he got out of the military he worked construction, raised a family, three fine kids. I learned from my brother John the importance of supporting our working families. It’s a part of who we are and it’s a part of who America is.

“My third brother, David, he started a small business, and when it didn’t work out he started another small business. Now what he has left is his Social Security and his Medicare and that’s it for him. What I learned from my brother David is that we are our promises to our seniors, on Social Security, on Medicare, to all our people that are a part of the Affordable Care Act and we don’t back off on those things.”

Warren spoke briefly about her opponent Scott Brown and the number of women-based bills he voted against.

“I think these two different visions are what this race is all about, and we can break it down in lots of different ways. We can talk about how Senator Brown has voted, on a number of issues. I’ll read you just a couple,” said Warren.

“Senator Brown had one chance to vote for equal pay for equal work for women, he voted no. He had one chance to vote for insurance coverage for birth control, he voted no. He had one chance to vote for a pro-choice woman to go to the United States Supreme Court and he voted no. These are not good votes for women.

“I want to go to Washington to stand up for women, and I think it is important. This is not a fight I thought we would be having in 2012, I thought we had resolved this a long time ago, but evidently not and I think it’s an important issue. We’re going to have a lot of fights going on in the United States Senate, going forward.”

Warren told the crowd of over 50 residents of 1000 Southern Artery that the reason she was running for Senate was so her grandchildren can grow up in a country of expanding opportunity.

“I’m in this race in part to honor my mom and dad, who are long gone, but who knew they were raising four kids in an America of expanding opportunity,” said Warren. “I am in this race, in part, because I now have three grandchildren, and I want my three grandchildren to grow up in America of expanding opportunity.”

Free Transportation To Polls

State Rep. Bruce Ayers will be providing free transportation to the polls for disabled residents who wish to vote on election day, Tuesday, Nov. 6th

To schedule a ride in a handicap accessible van, call 617-328-0102.

ATTENTION Local Veterans

The doctors and staff of Oral Surgery South in cooperation with the City of Quincy Office of Veterans Services and in honor of Veterans Day would like to show gratitude to our local veterans by hosting a

Veterans Appreciation Day

Monday, November 12, 2012 from 10am to 3pm
24 Quincy Ave, Quincy

No charge examinations;
free cancer screenings; free radiographs;
and free minor procedures will be performed on veterans with proof of military service (DD214, discharge papers, VA ID)

is pleased to partner with Oral Surgery South by offering Complementary Diagnostic Services for all veterans

Complementary Refreshments thanks to the Coffee Break Cafe

Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

Please call Oral Surgery South - Quincy Office:
617-773-5656 to arrange an appointment time.
We will accommodate walk-ins also on a space available basis.

Robert E. Lincoln, D.M.D. • John C. Cataudella, D.M.D.
Joseph S. Leibovici, D.M.D. • Tony M. Rubeiz, D.M.D.

REGGIE'S OIL

CO., INC.
Heating & Air Conditioning Service

Joseph P. Reggiannini
92-94 (Rear) Franklin St.
Quincy, MA 02169

Office Hours:
M-F 7:30 am - 5:00 pm

(617) 471-2095
(24 Hour Emergency Service)
www.reggiesoil.com

We are a local, family-owned & operated oil company located right here in Quincy. We've been providing a quality product & superior service to our customers here in Quincy & throughout Southeastern MA for more than 50 years....and we always will!

Ask the GEMOLOGIST®

BY JEFFREY M. BERTMAN
GRADUATE GEMOLOGIST

THE HONEY-COLORED GEMSTONE

Aside from the fact that they are both regarded as birthstones for the month of November, citrine and topaz have much in common. Citrine has been alternately referred to as “gold topaz,” “Madeira,” or “Spanish topaz,” but it is actually a member of the quartz family. While its name is derived from the yellow color of lemon, citrine is actually a warmer honeyed color that evokes the feeling of the enduring glow of an autumn evening. Whereas other yellow gemstones may have tinges of green, citrine’s color can range from lemon yellow to a honeyed reddish brown. Apart from displaying colors that are very much in fashion, citrine is a durable gemstone that can withstand the knocks of everyday wear.

The fiery, yellow-orange of citrine gives jewelry a striking charm. Our store is located at 1402 Hancock Street, Quincy Center, where our professional staff will work with you to make sure you have the best buying experience possible. Contact our store at 617-773-3636. We are a full service jewelry store including custom orders. Our prices have always been more than competitive with no fake markups in order to offer huge discounts.

Don't Forget: We pay cash for Gold - Platinum - Diamonds... highest prices paid.

Rogers
Diamonds...Watches...Jewelry

www.rogersjewelry.com
BANK OF AMERICA BUILDING

THE ICE CREAMSMITH

Homemade Ice Cream & Yogurt

Ice Cream Cakes, Pies, and Pizzas

SPECIAL FLAVORS: •Egg Nog
•Pumpkin •Peppermint Stick

Closing for the Winter:

Thanksgiving Day at 2 p.m.
Re-Opening March 1st

Please order your ice cream cakes, pies, and pizzas well in advance; last day to special order:
Mon., Nov. 5th

2295 Dorchester Ave. Dorchester Lower Mills www.theicecreamsmith.com
Open Daily Noon - 10 pm 617-296-8567

★ DECISION 2012 – The Race For The U.S. Senate ★

Brown: 'I'm Out There Working With Both Sides'

By EMILY TAFT

U.S. Sen. Scott Brown stopped by the Fenno House recently to talk with residents about Medicare, gay marriage, jobs, and fixing the national debt.

"Bringing that balance back to state and federal government is critically important to our democracy," said Brown. "I'm 54 percent with my party, every other member of the delegation is 93 percent or above with their party. I'm out there working with both sides, like you sent me down there (to Washington). You sent me down there to be that independent guy, and I've done exactly what you wanted me to do."

Brown, a Republican, is seeking a full six-year term after being elected senator in a special election in January 2010. He told Fenno House residents that he is the second most bipartisan Senator in the U.S. Senate and has voted about 50/50 with each party.

"In the middle there is a block of about 15 or 20 of us who are trying to kind of push back against those extreme policies and find a way to get to 60 votes so we can actually be bipartisan and move something forward. I am one of those people in the middle. That group of moderate independents in the middle is getting smaller and smaller and smaller," said Brown.

"I'm out there battling each and every day trying to push against those extremes, trying to protect people's pocketbooks and wallets, and trying to have the government do it better. You deserve better."

'I'M OUT THERE working with both sides, like you sent me down there (to Washington). You sent me down there to be that independent guy, and I've done exactly what you wanted me to do," U.S. Sen. Scott Brown said at a recent campaign stop at Fenno House in Quincy.

Quincy Sun Photos/Emily Taft

Brown also spoke with residents about the impact of the $716 billion in Medicare cuts to current seniors.

"There has been a promise made, when you paid into Medicare all those years, there is a promise that says when you become the age that you need that, it will be there, and it won't be affected, and you won't be affected at all. Well guess what, because of the national healthcare bill it's about to click in, this provision, they are going to take $716 billion out of your Medicare, to pay for the Obamacare program," said Brown.

"So they are taking money that you paid in for Medicare, and shifting it to another government program that has nothing really to do with you. You can't cut three quarters of a trillion dollars and have yourselves still get the best care and coverage that you deserve, and that you earned, and that you bargained for."

Brown said that what Senate candidate and opponent Elizabeth Warren is saying about him voting against three job bills is untrue.

"I have supported jobs bills, my third vote was for the president's jobs bill, I think it was $19 billion, got it out there, didn't raise taxes, fully paid for. My 'Hire a Hero' veterans (job bill), to get our veterans employed, my bill, happy to do it, the President signed it into law," said Brown. "So I'm working on jobs, I'm trying to keep that level of regulatory and tax certainty so you and potentially your kids and grand kids can have the opportunity to make a living, come and visit mom and dad, take you out to dinner, send the kids to school, pay the mortgage."

BARBARA KELLEY, a resident at Fenno House in Quincy, meets U.S. Sen. Scott Brown, a candidate for re-election, at a recent campaign stop at the senior citizen housing complex.

Quincy Sun Photos/Emily Taft

Brown said that in order to fix the national debt there needs to be a balanced budget in the federal government.

"We have a balanced budget in our homes, we have a balanced budget in our businesses, and we have a balanced budget in our state government. We need to have a balanced budget in the federal government, because what will happen, and what has happened, their like pigs in a trough they just keep wanting more and more and more, of you and your kids and your grand kids money," said Brown.

"I'm not going to raise taxes, I'm not going to take more money out of your pocketbooks and wallets and give it to the federal government, and I'm not going to do it. We're Americans first and were in trouble, folks. We're borrowing 42 cents in every dollar; we're in a $16 trillion national debt. We have four years in a row where we've had trillion dollar deficits, we can't keep spending."

Brown also took a couple of questions from the residents in attendance. One man asked him what his stance on gay marriage is and how he would vote if a bill came to the Senate on the subject.

"I was one of the key votes to eliminate the 'Don't ask, Don't tell' policy, because I am in the military and have served with gay men and women and I have always said its really about how their service is. It's not whether they are gay or straight but how well they serve," said Brown. "One of the things I am wrestling with, is I feel that there are citizens, gay citizens, who are at a disadvantage when it comes to getting benefits that heterosexual couples get."

"I'm keeping an open mind; I'm trying to work through what we can do to provide those benefits similar to heterosexual couples. I also believe that states should play a role, and people should play a role making that determination, because when your all inclusive and your actually working together to solve that problem and everyone has input then you have a better result."

Sadie's
Designer Cakes
& Pastries

Catering available

419 Hancock St. Quincy
(617) 770-CAKE(2253)

www.sadiescakes.com

Celebrating our 3rd Anniversary weekly specials thru October

HOMEMADE STEAK & CHEESE EGG ROLL

BUY ONE GET ONE FREE!!!

WARNING: VERY ADDICTIVE!!

(this week special Thurs. Fri & Sat. only)

AVEDA

PAUL MITCHELL

MATRIX

BIOLOGAGE

Esthetica

Hair Salon

126 Franklin St., Quincy

617-786-8444

Find us on Facebook

Eastern Insurance

AUTO • HOME • LIFE & PENSION
MEDICAL • COMMERCIAL PACKAGE
WORKERS COMPENSATION • UMBRELLA
MARINE • BONDS • PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY

DONALD UVANITTE

Sr. Vice President,
CIC, ARM, AAI, AU, AIS, CRIS, LIA

(617) 328-8300

382 Quincy Ave.

Quincy, MA 02169

www.easterninsurance.com

★ DECISION 2012 – The Race For Congress, 8th District ★

Lynch: 'I'm Educated On The Issues For Quincy'

By SCOTT JACKSON

Before he began his career in politics, Rep. Stephen Lynch worked as a union ironworker at the Fore River Shipyard in Quincy Point. He worked there from 1974 to 1976, welding on LNG (liquid natural gas) tankers in an overnight shift six days a week. But times grew tough in the shipyard, so Lynch went to Gary, Indiana to work in steel mills, sending money home to support his five sisters and his father, also an ironworker.

"My dad was out of work collecting unemployment and I was able to send a big part of my check home, that helped the family through the rough times. That whole experience helps me relate to what families are going through right now where we have some high unemployment in different areas and people are struggling, doing two jobs to support a family," Lynch told the Sun in a recent interview. "I think that perspective is rare in Washington, you don't have a lot of folks who have struggled financially or strapped on a pair of work boots for 18 years as I have. Sometimes in the conversations I have with my colleagues I'm able to bring a different perspective."

Lynch would go on to attend Boston College Law School becoming a labor lawyer. He was then voted president of Ironworkers Local 7, headquartered in

CONG. STEPHEN LYNCH

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

South Boston where he was born and raised.

In 1994 he entered politics, winning a seat in the state Legislature. In 1996, he was elected to the state Senate in a special election. During his time in the state Senate he received a master's in public administration from the Harvard Kennedy School. In 2001, Lynch won another special election, this time to replace the late Joe Moakley as the representative for Massachusetts' 9th congressional district. Because of redistricting, he's running in the 8th district – which stretches from Boston's North End to Raynham and from Walpole to Scituate – in Tuesday's election.

Quincy is one of the new communities in the district. But Lynch said his learning curve isn't steep because of his close connections to his fellow Democrat Bill Delahunt, who represented Quincy in Congress until choosing not to run for re-election in 2010.

"I had a chance to work with Bill Delahunt, he was probably my closest friend in Congress the years he was there and he, obviously, whenever something came up for Quincy, he was very inclusive of me because I know Quincy, I have a lot of family here," Lynch said. "I was an easy vote for him. He would just come over, explain what he needed, then I would sign on and support him. In the process, he educated me on the issues for Quincy."

One issue facing Quincy is the replacement of the Quincy Center MBTA station. Over this summer, the station's parking garage was closed indefinitely. Lynch said he would support federal funding for a new station because such projects are difficult without federal funds. He said large-scale transportation projects funded by Congress are one of the best ways to create jobs.

"When you're talking about creating jobs, at least in Congress, one of the big ways that we have traditionally done that is through the transportation bill – typically what we do is pass a six-year bill," Lynch said. "Any of these big, big transportation projects, take the Quincy T station, just to do the environmental assessment takes a year and a half... then there's an engineering phase where you basically engineer the project."

"Then finally, probably at year three, you start to break ground and you get materials in there. A lot of these projects are multi-year projects so that's why we pass a six-year bill. It allows Governor Patrick or Mayor Koch to have a predictable window during which they can get some of these large construction projects done. It's a tremendous boost to the economy because it's hundreds of billions of dollars over a six-year period and it's for work that has to be done."

Lynch is also optimistic about the redevelopment of Quincy Center.

"The mayor's got a very ambitious redevelopment plan and I think he has it right. He's correctly identified an opportunity for Quincy to capture opportunity and growth and to maximize it's potential," Lynch said.

He pointed out several reasons why Quincy was a prime choice for redevelopment: it's proximity to Boston and to Logan Airport, the Red Line and Harbor Express ferry service, and diversity in the city itself.

In his 11 years in office, Lynch says he has achieved a lot. He points out that he helped save VA hospitals in Jamaica Plain, West Roxbury, and Brockton from closing. Additionally, he backed an expansion of the GI Bill so children and spouses of veterans and those still in the service can receive college credits.

Lynch was one of 34 Democrats in the House who voted against the Affordable Care Act (ACA), also known as Obamacare. He had supported an earlier version of the bill, but voted against the final version because of several changes made by the Senate. The initial House version removed the anti-trust exemption given to health insurance companies while the Senate version retained the exemption, for example.

"One of the big problems with the healthcare structure in this country is that we allow health insurance companies to have an anti-trust exemption. It allows them to operate as monopolies or as cartels. It allows a few companies to control the market and as a result they keep the prices artificially high," Lynch said. "There's only two industries that enjoy an anti-trust exemption in the United States. One is Major League Baseball which is why A-Rod (Alex Rodriguez) gets $20 million a year and bats .168."

Lynch also supported a public option in the House bill that would've allowed states to offer their own system in an attempt to rein in costs, but that too was removed by the Senate. In addition, Lynch was opposed to taxes in the Senate bill, including a tax on medical devices and another tax on insurance plans with high premiums that goes in effect in 2018 – the so-called 'Cadillac tax.'

"The problem is the rate at which health care costs are going up, everyone's going to be driving Cadillacs by 2018," Lynch said. "That's the real problem."

Lynch believes that Congress can still fix the ACA and has opposed Republican votes to repeal Obamacare.

The congressman also believes that the tax code needs to be rewritten both to raise taxes on the wealthiest Americans and to give breaks to companies who hire workers here and not send jobs overseas.

"We can look at the tax code, we can close some loopholes, we can look at ways to increase revenues and rebalance the tax burden across society and ask the very, very affluent to pay a little bit more just to get out of this mess," Lynch said. "You can also create incentives in the tax code. You give companies a break who hire more people."

"You give people a break who hire people in the United States as opposed to giving incentives to people to relocate offshore and to move their operations overseas. We've done this in the past where we've had tax incentives for companies that plants in equipment in this country. That's a good incentive – do those types of things that promote growth as opposed to what we've been doing recently."

Holiday Fair Nov. 14 At 1000 Southern Artery

The 46 annual Holiday Fair at 1000 Southern Artery will be held Wednesday, Nov. 14 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The Holiday Fair features hand sewn/quilted items, handmade beaded jewelry, woodshop creations, costume jewelry, homemade goodies, handmade calligraphy cards, white elephant, plants, floral silk arrangements, raffles, ceramics, and much more. A visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus is also planned.

The day concludes with a live/silent auction at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. Silent auction bids close at 7 p.m. All are welcome.

We Support our Veterans!

In honor of Veterans Day, we would like to give something back!

From November 5th to November 10th

We will be offering
*FREE NEW PATIENT EXAMS to all Veterans! Existing patients (that are Veterans) will receive a free adjustment!
Call the office for an appointment today!

Spots are filling up!
Family Practice of Chiropractic
Chiropractic Care for Children and Adults
112 McGrath Highway
Quincy, MA 02169
Call: (617)-472-4220
Click: freedmanchiro.com

*Includes One (1) New Patient Exam at no cost, 50% off x-rays, if necessary. Valid only for Veterans and immediate family.

See Your Future Clearly!

Everything from the simplest repair to the most advanced lenses and frames.

KING OPTICAL

20 School Street West • Braintree

(Off Washington Street)

(781) 843-2133

www.kingoptical.net

Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers

- Quality, Reliable Service
- Over 100 Years of Satisfied Customers
- Honest Values
- On-Premise Repairs

52 Billings Road North Quincy

★ DECISION 2012 – The Race For Congress, 8th District ★

Selvaggi: 'I Know Something About Creating Jobs'

By SCOTT JACKSON

Plaster Fun Time owner Joe Selvaggi is a relative newcomer to politics. The Beacon Hill Republican has been active in his party, but before enrolling in the Harvard Kennedy School's master's in public administration program two years ago he didn't contemplate running for office.

"One of the mantras of the Kennedy School, as far as public service goes, 'if not you then who? If not now then when?' And I believe after careful analysis of how bad things are, particularly at the federal level, I think I have to run now," Selvaggi told the Sun. "I don't have a choice."

The first-time candidate is now running against Democratic Rep. Stephen Lynch of South Boston to be Quincy's third congressman since 2010. Democrat William Delahunt served from 1997 to 2011, but chose not to run in 2010 and was succeeded by fellow Democrat Bill Keating. But redistricting forced Keating and Lynch into the same district for this year's elections, and Keating chose to move to Cape Cod and for Congress in that district.

So why did Selvaggi chose to take on Lynch, who has served in Congress since winning a 2001 special election and hasn't been reelected with less than 68 percent of the vote? Selvaggi could've sought a local office in the Legislature, but decided to run for federal office because he found those issues to be more pressing.

"The issues at the federal level are far more profound than at the local level," Selvaggi said. "What I like about the state level is two things. We've got a balanced budget, a mandate to balance our budget every year. And we have effectively a flat tax. That means if you want to raise taxes, you've got to persuade everybody that it's a good idea. You can't merely divide and conquer."

Selvaggi elaborated on his second point by saying that calls to make the wealthiest pay more in federal taxes than they already do amounts to class warfare.

JOSEPH SELVAGGI

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

"Unfortunately, what happens with the tax system we have now is we can use class warfare to persuade the majority of Americans to raise taxes on the minority of Americans," Selvaggi said. "That's always a bad idea."

Selvaggi's main focus in this election has been jobs and the economy. As a small business owner, he says he knows why the country's economy has grown so slowly over the past several years.

"I have nearly 60 employees here in Massachusetts – I think I know something about small business," Selvaggi said. "Small business creates two out of every three jobs in America. I think I understand why we're not growing. The three big areas that limit growth are health care costs, regulation, and our tax code."

If selected, Selvaggi would vote to repeal President Barack Obama's 2010 Affordable Care Act (ACA), also known as Obamacare. The candidate called it a flawed program that doesn't bring down costs.

"It's a mistake for a lot of reasons. The first is it doesn't address the primary challenge with health care, which is its cost. We spend more than any nation on Earth on health care and our results are not substantially better. What I would do is repeal Obamacare and replace it with market driven solutions to bring costs down," Selvaggi said.

Selvaggi went on to explain that taxes included in the ACA, particularly a tax on medical devices, could hurt Quincy residents. Several manufacturers of medical devices are located in the district.

"One of those very onerous taxes is the medical device tax. It's a 2.3 percent excise tax on medical device companies," Selvaggi said. "If we tax medical devices we'll have fewer medical device companies and fewer medical device jobs. These are good high-paying jobs."

"Haemonetics is in Braintree but many people who live Quincy will work at a company like that. They may lose their job. A tax like that will also mean that those devices that are still produced will be more expensive, so health care costs will go up not down."

Selvaggi has signed a pledge to not raise taxes. He would like to overhaul the tax code, bring down marginal tax rates and eliminate exemptions and loopholes. By bringing marginal tax rates, the tax paid on the next dollar earned, Selvaggi hopes to spawn economic growth and bring revenues back up.

"If we can reduce the marginal rates at the same rates we reduce the loopholes what will effectively happen is on day one, the taxes will remain the same," Selvaggi said. "But on day two, because our marginal tax rates are improved – lower – our growth will go up. So ultimately lower taxes will mean higher revenue."

Because of his focus on economic issues, Selvaggi would like to serve on the House Budget Committee if he's sent to Washington. He is concerned about the federal deficit, which for FY12 (October 2011 to September 2012) was $1.1 trillion according to the Congressional Budget Office, and wants to amend the Constitution to mandate a balanced budget. Selvaggi doesn't have a set list of programs he would cut, but would weigh the positive and negatives of each program.

"I don't have a grocery list of those I would defund – I don't have an axe to grind," Selvaggi said. "We have to decide on priorities...we can decide how we prioritize but at the end of the day we have to pay for what we spend."

Before opening Plaster Fun Time, Selvaggi served in the U.S. Navy during the Gulf War. Because of his experience serving overseas, Selvaggi said he'd be less willing to use the military for long-term nation building.

"I think when one has actually been in the service, one realizes the profound commitment it involves and how it feels to be so far from your home for so long," Selvaggi said. "I am not eager to participate in adventures overseas."

"If we talk about current events with a situation like Syria, the last thing I would want to do would be to have our military be involved in that situation. I think we need to use our Department of Defense for just that – defense of our national interests. As far as nation building, I think that's not the role of our military."

Republicans are in the majority in the House of Representatives and are likely to keep control of that chamber in Tuesday's election. Selvaggi, however, would be in the minority locally as all of Massachusetts' incumbent members of Congress are Democrats, except for Sen. Scott Brown, as are all of the Commonwealth's state officials. But Selvaggi said he would be willing to reach across the aisle and work with Democrats because he's used to being around them.

"I live in Boston among many, many Democrats. I went to graduate school in Cambridge. Half of the people who've supported me in this race, my contributors, are Democrats," Selvaggi said. "I think I understand their perspective because I live with Democrats, I work with Democrats, I go to school with Democrats."

Because of that experience, Selvaggi thinks he'd be the ideal person to break the gridlock on Capitol Hill.

"I'm a Massachusetts moderate," Selvaggi said. "I believe that if we send our moderates from Massachusetts, our Republicans, and perhaps Texas sends their Democrats, we actually might have something to talk about. If we keep sending our extremists, we're not going to have as much chance to meet in the middle."

258 Willard Street
Quincy, MA 02169

BLUE HILLS TOWING COMPANY
24 Hour Towing and Recovery

(617) 696-6450

Fax: (617) 479-5424

www.bluehillstowing.com

COPELAND PACKAGE STORE, INC.
BEER, WINES & LIQUORS

Dennis Carson
273 Copeland St.
Quincy, Ma 02169

(617) 471-5418 • (617) 472-7012

STOECKEL INSURANCE AGENCY, LLC

• stoeckelinsurance.com •

Professional Insurance Advice with a Personal Touch
for your AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS • FAMILY

128 McGrath Highway, Quincy, MA

617.786.7444

CARPET CLEANING

3 ROOMS $99.00
7' SOFA $75.00
Free pre-treat and deodorizer

BECKWITH PRO-CLEAN
222 Willard St. Quincy, MA
(617) 471-5000

Expires 12/31/12
*Up to 900 sq ft open area

Homemade Thanksgiving Pies

CRAIG'S CAFE
1354 HANCOCK ST., QUINCY
617-770-9271

• Apple
• Pumpkin
• Chocolate Cream
• Three Berry
• Pecan

ORDER BY MONDAY NOV. 19TH

THIS IS A HAMMER
By Samantha Mazzotta

Ceramic Tile Floor Marred By Scratches

Q: My kitchen has a ceramic tile floor, and several of the tiles have so many scratches that they look dull even after cleaning. Can I repair the scratches, or does the tile need to be replaced? -- Carol in Eau Claire, Wis.

A: Glazed ceramic tiles are tough and resistant to most of the wear and tear that happens in high-traffic areas, but they can still become scratched or dull over time. If the scratches are minor -- they mark the finish but don't go all the way through the color glaze -- it's possible to polish them out.

First, clean and mop the floor so that you have a clear, debris-free surface to work on. Next, starting with the first scratched tile, apply a small amount of brass cleaner/polish to the scratch with a lint-free cloth, rubbing in circles. Let the polish dry, then buff away. If you don't have brass cleaner, toothpaste or baking soda can be used.

To temporarily protect the tile surface, apply a bit of car wax -- a plain paste wax, not cleaner wax, which has an abrasive in it -- to the tile.

Tiles that have been scratched too deeply to buff out or that are cracked or broken should be replaced. Locate extra tiles, if you have them, or purchase matching replacement tile (you may need to take a piece of the damaged tile, once removed, to match the color).

Use a grout saw to carefully cut away the grout around the edges of the damaged tile. This creates a little wiggle room to loosen the tile without damaging surrounding tiles. Next, using a hammer and small chisel, gently tap the tile loose. (Place the chisel on or near the damage rather than at the edge of the tile where other tile might be damaged.) It's OK if the damaged tile chips or cracks -- save it to do your color match.

Once the tile is removed, brush or cut away debris or loose adhesive. Fit the new tile into the open space; if the tile fits correctly, apply a coat of tile adhesive to the back and fix it so that the spacing between the tile's edges and the edges of the other tiles is even. Let the adhesive dry completely, and then fill the edges with grout that matches the color of the surrounding grout.

HOME TIP: Scraps of carpet and extra tiles are important to keep around for small repair jobs. Store them in one designated place, like a box or on a shelf in the garage, until needed.

Send your questions or tips to ask@thisisahammer.com, or write This Is a Hammer, c/o King Features Weekly Service, P.O. Box 536475, Orlando, FL 32853-6475.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Real Estate

Too Overwhelmed To Move? Try These Tips

By: PEGGY PATENAUE

The simple word moving can strike fear in the hearts of the strongest of men and the most organized of women.

Just the simple thought of taking several years of collected memories and packing them into a box is enough to send your heart aflutter. Fear not, there are ways to make the process easier, and in the end, you will be thrilled to have a brand new, perhaps, smaller home.

Most of us, when we entertain the thought of moving, immediately look around our home in awe of all of the stuff we have acquired. We think about reducing our stuff by throwing things away, donating things or having a yard sale. None of us really stop to realize that the first place we should begin is with the end in mind.

Ask yourself these questions.

- What is my ultimate goal?
- How much room am I going to have in the new space?
- Do I really need to keep every Games Magazine from 1982?

Maybe the answer to the last question is yes, but you'll never know unless you have an outsider with some appraisal experience come in to aid with the moving process.

Step one; therefore, involve others-- particularly if you have been in your home for more than 20 years or you live with a pack rat that refuses to part with even the simplest pieces of paper let alone a large piece of furniture or an attic full of memorabilia.

Perhaps the first thing that needs to happen, is an appraiser needs to be brought in, or you need to go to the appraiser, to go through that enormous stack of old magazines and set your mind at ease over how much they are truly worth.

Appraisers can be found through a website called local.com that will list appraisers in your area. You can also go through places like Antiques Roadshow when they are in your hometown, or bring your pieces to a pawn shop. Places like this often have experts that can help you to understand if you are holding something worth actual cash or better off in the junk pile. If nothing else, the piece of mind may make letting go easier or send you singing to the bank.

Now, back to the task at hand; you've brought in an expert for those potentially life altering pieces, you've organized to some extent, you've thrown things away and now you are left staring at rooms full of massive pieces of furniture.

When you moved into this house, 25 years ago, with six less children, no animals and a whole lot less stuff, the brawny groomsmen did the trick, but now, you'll need a moving company.

This is not as daunting as it may seem as long as you prepare in advance. It's important to note that most moving companies will need a month's advance notice, possibly more in their peak summer season. You will also want to ask them if there is a minimum time commitment. In other words, do you need to commit to a minimum of two hours even if moving locally? Finally, you want to find out what types of packing materials the movers are going to use, and how much they will cost. The cost of the packing materials may well determine whether or not you choose to do some of the packing yourself.

With the clutter removed, the appraisals done, and the movers in hand, the task should feel less onerous. Now, the only question that remains is what type of home are you seeking and when do you hope to be living there full-time.

Answers to questions like these and many others you've yet to contemplate are an issue for another day. For now, let's focus on the fact that we're moving, we're organized and we're feeling good about our decision.

Quincy Planner On Two Advisory Groups

Quincy Planning Director Dennis Harrington announces Kara Chisholm, Assistant Planner for the City of Quincy, was recently invited to become a member of The Boston Harbor Association's (TBHA) Emerging Professionals Committee and the Metropolitan Area Planning Council's (MAPC) Regional Climate Change Adaptation Strategy Advisory Committee.

Chisholm's first meeting with TBHA took place in September at the group's Seaport District offices. The Emerging Professionals Committee produces innovative community, educational and career development events for Boston area young professionals. Councillor Doug Gutro is a trustee of TBHA.

Chisholm was also asked to sit on another group, The MAPC's Regional Climate Change Adaptation Strategy Advisory Committee. The MAPC will be developing the strategy over the next several months. The project's main objective is to recommend actions at local, regional, and state levels to reduce the region's susceptibility to climate change risks and impacts.

The organizations were interested in having Chisholm on their committees due to her experience coordinating May's Sea Level Rise presentation, held at the Crane Library, and her knowledge of the City's vulnerability to climate change impacts.

49 Beale St., Quincy, MA 02170
617-472-4330
www.c21annex.com

Over 70 Seller and Buyer Agents
specializing in Residential, Commercial
Real Estate, Bank Owned Properties,
Short Sales and Rentals

ANNEX REAL ESTATE SCHOOL
Offering Salesperson's, Broker's and Continuing Ed. classes
"STILL NUMBER ONE"

FLAVIN Insurance Agency

Complete Insurance Service Since 1925

OFFERING
FLOOD INSURANCE
Winter Rainy Season Can Increase Risk of Flooding

Call or drop in for Premium Quote

Flavin & Flavin
1085 Hancock St. Quincy Center
Visit: www.flavinsandflavin.com

617-479-1000

RE/MAX
Realty Pros

Buying, Selling or Investing?
Call Tom McFarland

For All Your
Real Estate Answers

QUINCY - (617) 328-3200

On the Web visit McFarlandproperties.com

Thinking of buying or selling?
Think of us...

Red Door
Real Estate
222 Sea Street - Quincy

(617) 553-1880

www.RedDoor-RE.com

QUINCY

WWW.

stamosandstamosrealtors

Stamos & Stamos Realtors

747 East Squantum St.
Squantum, MA 02171
617.328.9400

.com

Ceremony At United First Parish Church Postponed To Next Week Due To Hurricane Sandy

Presidential Wreath Nov. 8 To Honor John Adams Birthday

Because of Hurricane Sandy, the Presidential Wreath Laying Ceremony honoring John Adams, second president of the United States, has been postponed to Thursday, Nov. 8 at noon at the United First Parish Church in Quincy.

The ceremony – originally scheduled for Oct. 30 – is open to the public.

Commander Brock Miller, Commanding Officer from the Navy Operations Support Center Quincy, will present the wreath on behalf of President Barack Obama. Mayor Thomas Koch and other dignitaries will be speaking and the Quincy Choral Society will be performing during the ceremony.

The church is located at 1306 Hancock Street, across from Quincy City Hall.

The Presidential Wreath Laying Ceremony started during the administration of President Lyndon Johnson whereby a wreath of red, white and blue flowers are sent to the burial sites of all deceased presidents on the anniversary of their births.

For more information, call 617-773-0062 or email vistorsprogram@ufpc.org.

Quincy Real Estate Transactions Oct. 22 - Oct. 26

Seller	Buyer	Amount	Address
L&Y Realty LLC	Kristen J. Eng	$239,900.00	22 Price Street Unit 2
Luoma Investment Trust	Li Lang	$195,000.00	7 Quarry Street Unit 7
John M. Marrone	Niall Brennan	$161,000.00	205 Independence Avenue Unit 249
EMC Capital LLC	Spencer R. Henderson & Charisma J. Henderson	$311,000.00	25 Moffat Road
Walter P. Christian 2008 Revocable Trust	Paul Bi	$282,000.00	120 Holmes Street Unit 213E
Denis Shurtleff	Franklin F. Makan & Renee M. Makan	$288,000.00	120 Holmes Street Unit 315E
James J. Dentremont & Michele M. Dentremont	Jana Asadoorian & Ara G. Asadoorian	$380,000.00	24 Hilda Street
Caitlyn R. Tobin & Lauren Barker	Joseph Bragdon & Leigh A. Bragdon	$410,000.00	10-12 Alton Road
Annie Jiang & Wen Ye	Guoyong Zhu	$180,000.00	115 W. Squantum Street Unit 903
Leor Alcalay & Yu Zhang	Dawley M. Chadbourne	$185,000.00	8 Fensmere Avenue Unit C
Susan Noble 2008 Revocable Trust	Melanie Sullivan & Kristen Bowes	$368,000.00	84 Narragansett Road
Siu M. Yan & Xin R. Xie	Shu Zhen Liu	$247,000.00	45 Sterling Street
Kevin L. Ryan & Carol M. Ryan	Carol L. Mitchell	$510,000.00	7 Whaler Lane Unit 75
Ralph M. Voller	Darko Vrhovac & Aida Cajdric-Vrhovac	$228,000.00	1 Cityview Lane Unit 704
Heather Munnell & Jason Munnell	James Xueyuam & Ava Ninghua Chang	$161,500.00	1025 Hancock Street Unit 10K
Charles J. Smithers & Jessica L. Howell	Barbara Howell	$500,000.00	1 Brigatine Lane Unit 29
Bank Of America National Association	Grandview Realty Trust	$265,000.00	259 Billings Street
Jennifer L. Grossman	John Q. Liu	$228,500.00	1 Cityview Lane Unit 411
Marya J. Propis	Hillary A. Birch & Gail Birch	$215,000.00	66 Parke Avenue

Conway Realtors Participate In Walk To End Alzheimer's

A spitting rain and a brisk wind off the Plymouth waterfront didn't stop hundreds of people from turning out for the sixth-annual South Shore Walk to End Alzheimer's.

As in past years, a group of Jack Conway Realtors was among those who raised funds for Alzheimer's care, support and research by participating in the event. Conway walkers raised $3,483 for the cause with a matching donation coming from the Jack Conway Company.

"It was a great event as always with so much spirit, joy and tears," said Team Captain Dawn Stevens, director of Conway Relocation. "The weather was dreary but the atmosphere was not. Many of us walked for family members who have been affected by this horrible disease, and we knew that taking a walk in the rain was nothing compared to the challenges these people face on a daily basis."

Nancy Schiavone, development officer for the Alzheimer's Association MA/NH Chapter, recognized Jack Conway Realtor as one of the top fundraisers in the 2012 walk. "The Conway team steps up to the plate every year to help us with our cause," said Schiavone. "We are grateful to the walkers and to the company for its continued support."

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Dear Voter:

This year we are asked to decide whether physician assisted suicide should become law in Massachusetts.

Question 2, the so-called "Death with Dignity Act," is a poorly-written piece of legislation that cheapens human life.

Those seeking to end their lives need not be evaluated for psychological disorders like depression. They would be able to take the lethal dose of medication, a staggering 100 pills, without a witness being present. A scurrilous caretaker could sign off as the witness for the suicide.

I encourage you to join me and scores of medical professionals and legislative leaders in voting 'NO' on Question 2.

Mayor Thomas P. Koch

REALTY 7

617-472-7700

Tom McMahon

Working for you
7 days a week

realty7.biz
tom@realty7.biz

FLAVIN & FLAVIN REALTY

Buying? • Selling?

Don't be FRIGHTENED

Call
FLAVIN &
FLAVIN

We do a BOOtiful job
for Buyers & Sellers
It's no Trick, just a Treat!

Complete Real Estate Service Since 1925

Flavin & Flavin

1085 Hancock St. Quincy Center

Visit: www.flavinandflavin.com

617-479-1000

QUINCY POLICE HOT SPOTS

QUINCY POLICE STATISTICS: OCT. 19 - 26

ARRESTS: 26

TOTAL CALLS: 1,130

TOTAL STOLEN VEHICLES: 3

FRIDAY, OCT. 19

LARCENY, 3:13 a.m., Arthur Street and Nelson Street. Fare evasion. Gone on arrival. Original call was cab driver having trouble with fare. Upon arrival determined fare evasion had occurred, unable to locate suspect. Cab driver informed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 8:56 a.m., Homestead Avenue. Vehicle keyed. Party's vehicle was keyed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 10:03 a.m., Town Brook House, 45 Brackett St. Three tires slashed overnight, no suspects.

LARCENY, 10:36 a.m., Quincy Athletic Club, 100 Quincy Ave. Money. In QPD lobby.

LARCENY, 12:34 p.m., Seven Eleven Store, 363 Hancock St. Wallet. Customer's wallet taken.

LARCENY, 2:59 p.m., Mullin Avenue. Cell phone stolen. Phone taken from landscape truck. In QPD lobby.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 9:04 p.m., Clay St. Dwelling. Caller states she knows party that took belongings out of her apartment.

SATURDAY, OCT. 20

LARCENY, 9:02 a.m., Granite City Electric, 19 Quincy Ave. Larceny over $250. Unfounded.

LARCENY, 1:35 p.m., Quincy High School, 100 Codding St. Phone. In QPD lobby.

LARCENY, 3:36 p.m., Friendly's Restaurant, 699 Hancock St. Food/drink. White male wearing black baseball cap with grey bill and jeans holding CVS bag left without paying. Heading towards Papa Gino's on Hancock St. Found party at Hancock/Beale Streets. - issue resolved.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 5:25 p.m., Edgewater Dr. Green F150 pick-up truck heading towards Quincy Shore. Taken by relative.

SUNDAY, OCT. 21

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 1:22 a.m., Jackson Street. Hears noises on third floor; no one lives there.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 2:34 a.m., Copeland St. Punched in face. Reporting person was walking down street when a couple of black youths came up to him and sucker punched him in the face. They then went into house he will point out. Caller was unable to say what house suspects went into.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 2:35 p.m., Bloomfield Street. House egged. Only one in neighborhood, may be neighbor problem.

LARCENY, 2:41 p.m., American Car Care, Atlantic St. From car. Necklace was taken from her car.

MONDAY, OCT. 22

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 7:51 a.m., Japanese Motors, 97 Liberty St. Tagging. Building tagged sometime overnight.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 8:36 a.m., Summer St. Siphoned gas.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:46 a.m., Sullivan PV Supply Co., Inc., Liberty Street. Tagging.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 12:39 p.m., Presidential Millwork, Federal Ave. Tagging.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 3:34 p.m., SRC Roofing, 166 Brook Rd. Tagging to garage door.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 5:53 p.m., McIntyre Mall, 1305 Hancock St. Assault and battery on handicapped person. Arrest made. One arrest for a/b on disabled person. Additionally charged with possession class b & class e.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 6:33 p.m., Payne Street. Past. Both sides advised - mutual combatants. Neither side interested in pursuing charges.

TUESDAY, OCT. 23

ASSAULT AND BATTERY/PAST, 10:37 a.m., North Quincy High School, 318 Hancock St. Report to be filed.

LARCENY, 2:28 p.m., American Car Care, 235 Atlantic St. Past. See caller in police station lobby. Gold necklace taken from the glove box. Report filed larceny over.

LARCENY, 4:16 p.m., American Service Co., 35 Hanna St. See caller in police lobby. Complaint for larceny by scheme.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 6:35 p.m., Dave's Auto Service, 636 Hancock St. Vehicle missing from lot owner on location. Stolen MV report form filed.

LARCENY, 6:51 p.m., Ritz Apartments, 3 Cottage Ave. Lock box key.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 11:47 p.m., West Street. Past. Claims she witnessed neighbor scratch her motor vehicle. Complaint submitted.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 24

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 8:47 a.m., South Shore Check, 416 Hancock St. Business entered and ransacked, alarm ripped out. Report to be filed.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 10:18 a.m., Hamilton Avenue. Dwelling. Caller arrived home cellar door and garage door open. A break occurred, property was stolen.

LARCENY, 11:19 a.m., IHOP, 119 Parkway. Money taken from employee pocket book.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 4:08 p.m., Taffrail Road. Caller arrived home to find missing jewelry, PlayStation, etc. Possible suspect wearing baggy jeans, workboots and sweatshirt holding a small gray duffel bag.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 7:20 p.m., Vane Street. Side window of vehicle. Jeep Wrangler had side window smashed, nothing taken from MV.

LARCENY, 8:30 p.m., Kendrigan Place Management Off, 10 Winter St. See security, have suspect who stole a phone yesterday. Larceny over.

LARCENY, 10:13 p.m., Chubbuck Street and Sherburne Circle. Past incident.

THURSDAY, OCT. 25

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9 a.m., Miller St. Tires slashed. Caller requests officer. Two tires slashed on a "non-union" crane.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 10:35 a.m., Marlboro St. Already found. Stolen vehicle report signed and brought to station. MV was involved in an earlier hit & run crash.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 5:59 p.m., Wollaston Recreation Facility, 357 West Squantum St. By golf cart.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 6:19 p.m., Palmer St. Dwelling.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 6:29 p.m., Homestead Avenue. To motor vehicle. See caller in QPD lobby. Party known to him vandalized his 1999 Chevy Cavalier. Advised.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 8 p.m., Miller St. To screen. Possible attempted breaking and entering.

FRIDAY, OCT. 26

LARCENY, 12:35 a.m., Doane St. Past - cell phone.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 1:11 a.m., Hancock Parking Area, 50 Revere Rd. Suspect is a 5-foot female with olive skin last seen wearing red shirt with a black jacket. Occurred in parking lot, complaint submitted.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:30 a.m., 1515 Hancock St. To motor vehicle.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/DWELLING, 6:07 a.m., Whitwell Street. Gone on arrival. Person in a hat was at front door, tried handle, was locked. Went around and tried to get in a window. Headed towards Adams Street, no further description. Unable to locate suspect, report due.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:26 p.m., Linden St. To car.

□

STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLES: Edgewater Drive, 600 block of Hancock St., 100 block of Marlboro Street.

□

CAR BREAKS: Darrow Street, Madison Avenue, Conant Road, Main Street, Flagg Street, Waterston Avenue, Edwards Street, 400 block of Furnace Brook Parkway.

□

BREAKS AND ATTEMPTED BREAKS: Clay Street, 400 block of Hancock St., Hamilton Avenue, Taffrail Road.

If you have information on the above crimes, drug activity or any crime, please call the Quincy Police Detective Bureau at 617-745-5764 or log onto the following website: <http://tinyurl.com/ytf6td>.

To report suspicious drug activity, call the Drug Hot-Line at 617-745-5730. You will not be required to identify yourself, but it could help. To make an appointment to view the Registered Sex Offenders book, call Detective James Dentremon at 617-745-5755.

To contact the Crime Prevention Officer for tips or comments, my direct line is 617-745-5719. My e-mail address is dminton@ci.quincy.ma.us -- Lt. Dan Minton

A Job Well Done

By QUINCY POLICE LT. DAN MINTON

On Monday, Oct. 22, at approximately 5:55 p.m., Community Policing Officer Matt Miller was on patrol in the area of the Quincy Center train station when he observed a fight at McIntyre Mall (1305 Hancock Street).

LT. DAN MINTON

As Officer Miller walked down from the train station, he saw one male known to him from past incidents, throw punches at another male (victim). The victim had his back against a black wrought iron fence with his hands up in a defensive position trying to defend himself.

The suspect launched a volley of punches at the victim, with numerous blows from the suspect's right fist striking the left temple area of the victim. As the Officer got closer, he yelled at the suspect to stop, which caused the suspect to turn and look at the Officer.

The suspect did stop, then turned to the victim and threw another punch at the victim, again striking the male in the head. Officer Miller, who was closing in on the disturbance again advised the suspect to stop. The suspect quickly began to walk away towards Hancock Street.

Officer Miller told both men to stop and not move and although the victim complied, the suspect turned, looked at the Officer and then hopped the black rod iron fence and ran towards the Thomas Crane Public Library. The Officer informed dispatch of the incident and a description of the suspect and his direction of travel.

As Officer Miller interviewed the victim, he noticed that the victim had only one eye, with a fake eye on his left side. The victim complained of soreness around the left eyeless socket from the numerous punches. He confirmed that he knew the suspect and the punches followed a heated argument about who called who "a rat". The victim said that the suspect "sucker punched me" with his right hand.

Since the victim had no vision on the left side, he never saw the punch coming. As Officer Miller was interviewing the victim, Community Policing Officers Bill Mitchell and Roger White, on Police bicycles, informed dispatch that they apprehended the suspect behind the old Quincy College building on Faxon Lane.

Officer Miller told the Officers to arrest the suspect on the charge of "Assault and Battery on a Disabled Person." The victim was examined by Fallon Ambulance EMT's, but he denied treatment.

During the booking process, Officer Pat Watkins found five Adderall pills and two Viagra pills in the suspect's front left shirt pocket. The suspect, a 32 year-old Quincy resident, was also charged with "Possession of Class B and Class E drugs."

Nice Work!

A NEIGHBORHOOD MEETING held at the Bernazzani School two weeks ago about recent break-ins produced results.

Detective Tom Pepdjonovic used information and tips provided by local residents to make an arrest. Thanks to Ward 5 City Councillor Kirsten Hughes for her efforts in coordinating the meeting.

Reporting crime and suspicious activity makes a difference!

Dial 1-888-382-1222 For 'Do Not Call' Registry

To reduce the amount of junk telephone calls you receive, residents should enroll in the "Do Not Call" registry, sponsored by the federal government. For more information, go to www.donotcall.gov or call the registry's toll-free number (1-888-382-1222) and follow the prompts. For additional information, try <http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/edu/pubs/consumer/alerts/alt107.shtm>

The federal government does not call you to sign up for this program - this is another scam to get your personal information. - Lt. Minton

Entries in the Quincy Police Hot Spots are compiled and submitted by the Quincy Police Department.

They are published by The Quincy Sun as a public service to make local residents more aware of any crime activity in their neighborhood. Questions concerning the Hot Spots list should be directed to Crime Prevention Officer Lt. Dan Minton, 617-745-5719.

Business News

THE QUINCY 2000 Collaborative celebrated its 20th anniversary recently at Alba in Quincy Center. Past Presidents were honored with gifts of appreciation. From left are: Dean Rizzo, executive director of the Quincy Chamber of Commerce, Mayor Thomas Koch and past presidents Peter Racicot, Jim Mullaney, Sean Galvin, Ed Keohane, Tom Galvin and Don Uvanitte. Anthony Agnitti (not shown) was named the new President of Quincy 2000 Collaborative.

Photo Courtesy Quincy Chamber of Commerce

COMMIT 2B FIT Studio recently held a ribbon cutting ceremony at its new location, 46 Saint Ann's Rd., Quincy. From left are owner Katie McEvoy, Mayor Thomas Koch and Donna Mavromates, vice president, Quincy Chamber of Commerce. For more information on Commit 2B Fit, call (617) 584-0821 or kickbuttbootcamp@gmail.com

License Board Announces Holiday Hours For Package Stores

By EMILY TAFT

The Quincy License Board announced at its meeting last week holiday hours for retail wine and malt and all alcoholic package store licenses. The conditions are set by the ABCC.

Package stores may remain open until 11:30 p.m. on the day before Thanksgiving (Wednesday, Nov. 21), Christmas Eve (Monday, Dec. 24) and on New Year's Eve (Monday, Dec. 31).

On Thanksgiving, Nov. 22, and Christmas, Dec. 25, liquor stores will be closed, and on New Year's Day, Jan. 1, they can be open anytime during the day.

Shea also mentioned that bars and restaurants can be open during any of those days if they choose.

In other License Board news, commissioners granted the Quincy Salvation Army a permit to begin their annual Christmas Kettle Drive Thursday, Nov. 15.

The kettle drives will be held throughout the city at various locations, including at the Thanksgiving Football game at Veterans' Memorial Stadium, which is a new location for the drive. The drive, which will end on Dec. 31st, helps the Salvation Army to provide food, toys, and clothes along with other necessities throughout the holiday season and year-round to families in need.

The board also granted a garage repair license to J&J Auto Repair pending the submission of a drawing detailing a plan for parking at the 112 Copeland St. business by new owner Jia Jing Hu.

"During the last meeting we asked that you submit a plan before this meeting and I was wondering where you were with that plan," said board member and Director of Inspectional Services Jay D. "Just because it is such a tight lot I was hoping to have some kind of plan brought to us today for parking."

City Clerk and Chairman of the board Joe Shea said that the old license allowed for seven cars, which included the cars that could be inside the garage. After some discussion the board granted the license pending the plans for parking, and only allowing four cars on the property until that time.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

The board also granted a common Victualer license to Center Ice Café located at 60 Murphy Memorial Dr., also known as the Quincy Youth Hockey Arena. The café has yet to open pending inspections but hopes to be open within the next couple of weeks according to owner Peter Kalemkeridis.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Re-Elect

John F.

KEENAN

State Senator

Performance, Not Politics

Hard-Working and Effective

- Overcame special interest opposition to successfully champion a new, comprehensive prescription drug abuse prevention law that will save lives
- Met with more than 300 community groups, advocates and constituents, in addition to regular office hours in the district
- Never missed a vote
- Offered substantive amendments to major legislation that were adopted and included in the final laws

Fiscally Responsible

- Approved two state budgets that were balanced, responsible and sustainable, that increased state aid to our schools and communities, and that did not raise taxes

Integrity

- Pushed for tougher ethics rules and transparency standards in the new casino gambling law and in state departments
- Opposed reduced sentences for major drug dealers
- Supported common-sense EBT card reforms

"Thank you for the honor and privilege of serving as your State Senator. I respectfully ask for your vote on Tuesday, November 6th."

Norfolk and Plymouth District - Democrat

Committee to Elect John F. Keenan | P.O. Box 690168 | Quincy, Massachusetts 02269

OBITUARIES

Arthur W. Rochelle, 97

World War II Veteran, Worked For Lincoln Stores

A funeral service for Arthur W. Rochelle, 97, of Harwich and formerly of Quincy was held Oct. 27 at Doane, Beal & Ames Funeral Home in West Harwich.

Mr. Rochelle died Oct. 22.

Born on April 22, 1915 in Hardwick, VT, he was the son of the late Walter A. and Laura (Lameri) Rochelle. In 1935, he graduated from Quincy High School and later attended Boston University's School of Business Administration.

Mr. Rochelle played for the South Quincy Trojans Baseball team when they won the Quincy City League Championships in 1936 and 1937. Known for his love of baseball, he followed the Boston Red Sox with great enthusiasm.

He proudly served in the U.S. Navy during World War II in the Pacific Theater.

He worked for Lincoln stores for 29 years, serving in various capacities including Divisional Merchandise Manager, General Merchandise Manager and Director of Stores. He was Vice President of the Sheridan-Lincoln Corporation. Mr. Rochelle was a manager of three Howland's Department Stores in Massachusetts and Connecticut and was promoted to Vice President of Howland Stores, Elmsford, NY. He also served as president of the South Shore Plaza Association.

He was an avid golfer and was a former member of the Wollaston Golf Club and the Cranberry Valley Golf Club of Harwich. He was also a member of the New York Athletic Club, the Mid Cape Men's Club, the Harwich Men's Club and the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Chatham.

ARTHUR W. ROCHELLE

In addition to his parents, he was also predeceased by his son in law, Richard Volpe.

Loving husband of 72 years to Josephine (Sachetti) Rochelle of Harwich. Also survived by his son Arthur Rochelle and his wife, Diane of Dennis Port; his three daughters, Sandra Sarver and her husband, Leonard of Harwich, Cynthia Purpura and her husband, Frank of Sagamore Beach, Pamela Volpe of Braintree; eight grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren.

Interment will be at a later date in Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to The Family Pantry, 133 Queen Anne Road, Harwich, MA 02645 or the charity of choice.

Kenneth A. Balducci, 79

Former Restaurateur, Played Semi-Pro Football

A funeral Mass for Kenneth A. Balducci, 79, a lifelong Quincy resident and former restaurateur, was celebrated Monday in St. Ann's Church, Wollaston.

Mr. Balducci died in the early morning hours of Oct. 25 following complications from a stroke.

Born in Quincy, he was a former football player and Korean War veteran.

The son of the late John & Helen (Conroy) Balducci, he played football in high school and college, graduating from Quincy High School in 1951 and earning a degree in accounting in 1959 from American International College, in Springfield.

He later played semi-pro football and was inducted into Quincy High's Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

Mr. Balducci began his career in foodservice running the concession stand at the former Lincoln Lanes in Quincy Point. With his long-time friend Dick Mirra, he owned the former Big Daddy's.

In 1964, he established Balducci's Pizza & Subs in North Quincy, which he owned and operated, building it into a much-loved neighborhood institution by the time he retired in 1992. Even in retirement, Mr. Balducci continued to love working with people, keeping busy as a bartender at the Adams Inn and the Cyril P. Morrisette Post #294 of the American Legion, where he was also a long-time member.

KENNETH A. BALDUCCI

He was also a member of the Elks Lodge, Quincy, and former member of the Sons of Italy.

He was the loving companion of Rose Fougere of Quincy, and the devoted father of Joel Balducci and his wife Ann of Hanover, and Brandon Balducci and his fiancée Britany King of Quincy. Cherished grandfather of Bella & Kellan Balducci of Hanover. Dear brother of Theodore Balducci of Quincy, and the late Noel Balducci and Judith Balducci.

Interment was private.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Hamel, Wickens and Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams St., Quincy.

Gloria T. Fitzmaurice, 77

A funeral Mass for Gloria T. "Auntie" (Brignoli) Fitzmaurice, 77, of Quincy was celebrated Oct. 27 at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Fitzmaurice died Oct. 24.

She was born in Boston, raised and educated in South Boston schools and graduated from South Boston High School. In 1986, she moved to Quincy.

She was employed by the Department of Defense for many years and also volunteered for several years at St. John's. She enjoyed traveling and especially spending time with her family.

Beloved wife of the late Francis Fitzmaurice. Devoted sister of Ena M. Boire of South Boston and John T. Brignoli of Marshfield. Also survived by several nieces, nephews, and friends.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Saint John the Baptist Parish, 21 Gay St., Quincy, MA 02169.

Mark X. Ahern

Senior Vice President, Marine Corps Veteran

A funeral Mass for Mark X. Ahern of Marshfield, formerly of Quincy, a senior vice president at Morgan Stanley Smith & Barney, was celebrated Friday in St. Christine's Church, Marshfield.

Mr. Ahern died Oct. 21.

He grew up in Quincy before moving to Marshfield where he has lived for the past 19 years. He was a graduate of Archbishop Williams High School class of 1963, Northeastern University & Suffolk University.

Mr. Ahern was a proud USMC Vietnam Veteran, as were his brothers. He was a member of the Caddy Detachment League in Quincy, Toys for Tots with Marine Corps League and Semper Fidelis Society.

He was very active at his parish St. Christine's in Marshfield.

He worked for Morgan Stanley Smith & Barney in Norwell as a Senior Vice President and has been in the financial business helping people since 1971.

Beloved husband of Barbara (Benedini) Ahern of Marshfield. Loving father of Brian Paul Ahern and his wife Ondine of Sandwich,

MARK X. AHERN

Christianne Hendriksen and her husband Mark of Pembroke. Brother of Taylor and Dana Ahern both of Quincy, and the late Lance CPL Brian P. Ahern USMC. Cherished grandfather of Kelly, Sydney and Darcy Ahern, Michael, Jillian and Jenna Hendriksen.

He was a man who truly enjoyed his work and spending time with his family. He will be sadly missed by all who had the pleasure to have known him.

Burial with full Military Honors was in Couch Cemetery, Marshfield.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Toys for Tots, 18251 Quantico Gateway Drive, Triangle, VA 22172.

James P. McNulty

Founder McNulty Construction

A funeral Mass for James P. McNulty of Abington, formerly of Quincy, will be celebrated Friday at 10 a.m. in St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mr. McNulty died Oct. 27.

He was passionate about his work and his family was extremely proud of the business he built, McNulty Construction. He was up early with a smile and enjoyed every minute of the day.

His family gave him the most enjoyment, especially from his daughter Kristina.

An outdoorsman, Mr. McNulty loved photography and gardening.

He had a special group of friends that he remained close with. He was generous, caring, loved children

JAMES P. McNULTY and had a great sense of humor.

Beloved husband of Despina (Kyranis) McNulty of Abington.

Loving father of Kristina E. McNulty of Abington. Cherished son of Dennis J. McNulty and Susan (Friday) McNulty of Quincy. Brother of Paul R. McNulty and his wife Nancy of Quincy.

Son-in-law of Vasilios and Anthea Kyranis of Holbrook. Brother-in-law of Theodora Parsons of Weymouth and Evangelos Kyranis and his wife Jill of Quincy. Uncle of Nicole Parsons, Sophia & Zoe Kyranis, and Brian McNulty.

Also survived by many aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends.

Visiting hours are today (Thursday) from 4 to 8 p.m. in the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Dana Farber Cancer Institute, Melanoma Research, PO Box 849168, Boston, MA 02284-9168.

A Better Value
For Quincy Families

At Deware Funeral Home, we are proud to offer more value and superior service to Quincy families. A full service traditional funeral is $5,995* with no hidden costs. The price includes:

Funeral Ceremony • Visitation • Casket

At Deware Funeral Home, we put the needs of our customer first. We also offer a Simple Burial Plan for $3,395.

With Deware Funeral Home, you can trust us to provide the compassionate care you expect at an exceptional value, backed by a 100% service guarantee.

Exclusive provider of Dignity Memorial® benefits.

Deware Funeral Home

576 Hancock Street | Quincy, MA 02170 | 617-472-1137

For more information visit

www.dewarefuneralhome.com

*$5,995 plan includes basic services of funeral director and staff, embalming and preparation, visitation, funeral ceremony, transportation to place of disposition, 20 gauge metal casket, website announcement, and memorial stationary package (a register book, 100 thank you cards, 100 prayer cards).

A Service Family Affiliates of AFPS and Service Corporation International, 336 Winter Street, Fall River, MA 02720. (508) 676-2454.

*Over 60 Years
Of Personalized Service*

SWEENEY BROTHERS

Home for Funerals, Inc.

RICHARD T. SWEENEY, JR. • FRANCIS M. SWEENEY

1 INDEPENDENCE AVENUE
QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS 02169

(617) 472-6344

www.thesweeneybrothers.com

Ann M. Carroll Secretary For Quincy Public Schools

A funeral Mass for Ann M. "Nancy" (Folan) Carroll of Quincy was celebrated Oct. 26 at St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Carroll died Oct. 24.

Born and raised in County Galway, Ireland she came to the U.S. in 1951 and settled in Dorchester before moving to Quincy where she lived for the last 45 years. Mrs. Carroll worked for many years as a secretary for Quincy Public Schools.

She was an active member of the Friends of Boston Harbor Islands as well as the Olli Program at UMass Boston. She was a generous woman, volunteering for many hours at Marina Bay Nursing Home.

Mrs. Carroll had a very adventurous spirit and loved to travel to many places — she enjoyed every trip she took. She was a loving wife, mother, and friend who will be remembered as a kind, generous, and giving woman who was devoted to her family. She will be sadly missed by all those who knew her.

Beloved wife of the late ret. Quincy Police Officer

ANN M. CARROLL

Bernard F. Carroll. Cherished mother of Tracy Lefingwell and her husband Steve of MT and Quincy Firefighter Michael Carroll of Quincy. Daughter of the late Michael and Nora (Cooney) Folan. Devoted sister of Mary M. Folan of Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to American Cancer Society, 30 Speen St., Framingham, MA 01701 or to Multiple Sclerosis Society, 733 Third Ave., 3rd Floor, New York, NY 10017.

Luisa Vella, 97 Homemaker

A Prayer Service for Luisa (Garofalo) Vella, age 97, of Quincy, was conducted Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Mrs. Vella died peacefully Oct. 22 at the John Scott Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Braintree.

She was born in Petrella Tiferina, Campobasso, Italy, raised and educated there and immigrated to the United States in 1965. She had lived in Quincy for over 47 years.

Mrs. Vella was a homemaker. She enjoyed traveling, gardening, walking and she especially loved children.

Beloved wife of the late Rosario Vella and the late Francesco Razzante.

Devoted sister of the late Maria Cristina and the late Antonio Garofalo.

Loving aunt of Elvira DiStefano of Italy, Lina Avitabile of Hanson, Umberto Cristina of Sagamore Beach, Josephine Kotkowski of Hanson, Vittoria Cuomo of Hanson and Fernando Cristina of Middleboro.

LUISA VELLA

Also survived by many grandnieces, grandnephews, great grandnieces and great grandnephews.

Visiting hours were Wednesday from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy, prior to the prayer service.

Funeral and Entombment Services will be conducted in Italy at a later date.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, 30 Speen St., Framingham, MA 01701-1803 or to the American Diabetes Association, 10 Speen St., 2nd Floor, Framingham, MA 01701A.

Raymond D. Dunn, Jr., 68 Retired FAA Flight Service Specialist

A funeral Mass for Raymond D. Dunn, Jr., 68, of Fairhaven and formerly of Quincy was celebrated Oct. 26 at St. Joseph's Church, Quincy.

Mr. Dunn died Oct. 22.

He born in Quincy, raised and educated in the city's schools, graduating from Quincy High in 1962. He lived in Fairhaven for the last five years after living in CT for 18 years.

Mr. Dunn was a flight service specialist for the Federal Aviation Administration. He had 30 years of service and retired in 2007. During his career he worked in Boston Flight Service and Bridgeport, CT Flight Service.

He enjoyed sports and playing hockey. He was also an avid golfer, reader, and movie fan. Mr. Dunn enjoyed traveling and was proud to have visited all 50 states and all the Canadian provinces.

Beloved husband of 45 years of Jean E. (Burns) Dunn. Devoted father of Michelle E. Dunn of Osterville, Sandra J. Dunn of Shrewsbury, and Raymond

RAYMOND D. DUNN, JR. M. Dunn and his wife Amy R. Wynn of Watertown. Loving brother of Michael F. Dunn and his wife Nancy of Braintree and the late Theresa A. Nelson Georgi. Dear uncle of Joelle Innocenti, Gregory Dunn, and Nicolas Dunn.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to Amyloid Research Fund, c/o Boston University School of Medicine, 72 East Concord St., K 503, Boston, MA 02118.

Thomas J. Nee, Jr. Korean War Veteran, Retired Modern Electroplating Employee

A funeral Mass for Thomas J. "Junie" Nee Jr. of Quincy was celebrated Monday at Sacred Heart Church.

Mr. Nee died Oct. 23 in Quincy with his loving family by his side.

Born in Boston, he was raised in South Boston and educated in the Boston Schools. He was a retired employee of Modern Electroplating, Boston.

Mr. Nee was a resident of Quincy for over 40 years, a Korean War veteran, enjoyed traveling and spending time with his family.

Beloved husband for 55 yrs. of Roberta F. "Bobbi" (Haley). Devoted father of Thomas J. of Quincy, James J. and his wife, Mona of Plymouth and Kevin M. Nee and Christine Goodwin of Braintree, Patricia A. Kelly and her husband, Kevin of Quincy and Kathleen A. Flagg and her husband, Harold of Norwood.

Brother of Dorothy Miller of Weymouth, Catherine Coe, Bernard and John Nee all of So. Boston. Loving grandfather of Noelle, Kevin and Miranda Nee, Justin Goodwin, Shauna & Danielle Kelly, Alyssa and Jenna Flagg and Daphne and Samantha Hartley. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Funeral arrangements

THOMAS J. NEE, JR.

were made by the Alfred D. Thomas Funeral Home, 326 Granite Ave., Milton.

Memorial donations may be made to Hospice of the South Shore, 30 Reservoir Park Drive, Rockland 02370-1055.

Irene M. Kelly, 89

A funeral service for Irene M. "Vickie" (Gantz) Kelly, 89, of Wollaston was held Oct. 21 at Cartwright-Venuti Funeral Home, Braintree.

Mrs. Kelly died Oct. 24 after a long battle with Alzheimer's.

For many years, she was a Big Band singer in Miami as well as at Sherries Restaurant in Quincy. Mrs. Kelly will be greatly missed by all those who were blessed to have known her.

Former wife of the late Paul E. Kelly. Loving mother of Paula Mazzone of Rockland, Maureen Gantz of ME, Kathleen Kelly of NH, Michael Kelly of Norwell and the late Richard Kelly. She was also predeceased by a brother and two sisters. Also survived by eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made in her name to the Alzheimer's Association, 480 Pleasant St., Watertown, MA 02472.

Boys, Girls Clubs Accepting Donations Of Used Cars

The Boys and Girls Clubs are accepting donations of used cars.

People donating to the clubs will not only get rid of the unwanted car but will be contributing to the Clubs that help kids in most communities.

To donate a car or for more information, call 800-246-0493.

Obituaries Also Online at
thequincysun.com

HAMEL FUNERAL CARE & CREMATION SERVICES OF MASSACHUSETTS

Honored Providers of:

PHONE TOLL FREE
(800) 696-5887

26 Adams Street, Quincy, Ma 02169
www.HamelFuneralCare.com

DOLAN
FUNERAL SERVICES

"Caring for your life's journey"

- ◆ Funerals
- ◆ Cremations
- ◆ Pre-Arrangements

Service times and directions at:
www.dolanfuneral.com

THE DOLAN FAMILY
W. Craig
Paul F.
Frederick J.
Courtney

1140 WASHINGTON STREET
DORCHESTER, MA 02124
(617) 298-8011

460 GRANITE AVENUE
MILTON, MA 02186
(617) 698-6264

During a hard time, there's an easy decision.

Simple Cremation Package
$1,599.00

"Serving one family at a time"

Lydon Chapel for Funerals

644 Hancock Street, Quincy

(617) 472-7423

www.lydonchapel.funerals.com

Seniors Expo Connects Seniors To Services

On Saturday, Nov. 10 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Quincy Community United Methodist Church will host a free Seniors Expo targeting Quincy and surrounding communities.

The Expo will connect seniors and their families with many of the services and resources that are available to them on the South Shore.

Companies participating in the Expo will include retirement communities, home health care companies, assisted living facilities, nursing homes, real estate, financial planning, health and fitness, hospice, VNA, bill paying services, attorneys, and more.

The Expo will also include a series of free educational workshops on topics of interest to seniors including safety, nutrition, health and fitness, incontinence, charitable giving, end of life planning, VA benefits, diabetes, cardiac health, osteoporosis, medication management, health care proxy, and much more.

Participants can enjoy coffee and pastries, lunch, and activities including chair massages, reiki, aroma therapy, health screenings, and manicures – all free of charge.

"Quincy Community United Methodist Church is offering this program free of charge to seniors," explained Rev. Dr. Susan F. Jarek-Glidden, pastor of the church. "Mary Emsheimer, of QCUMC's parishioners, pointed out that the church does a lot of outreach to families, the homeless, and the needy around the world, but what about the seniors in our community?"

The church previously offered a workshop on "The What If Workbook," and hopes to expand to an ongoing series of topics important to seniors.

Quincy United Methodist Church is located at 40 Beale St., directly across from the Wollaston T stop. It is handicapped accessible through the front door nearest the flagpole.

For Quincy residents, van service will be available from the Kennedy Senior Center. Sign up at the senior center.

For more information, contact the church office at 617-773-3319.

RELIGION

Houghs Neck Congregational

Houghs Neck Congregational Church, 310 Manet Ave., Quincy, will Mark All Saints Sunday with a communion worship service this Sunday at 10 a.m.

All are welcome to attend.

Pastor John Castricum will preach the sermon "Transformed Lives."

Janice Hughes, Shirley Pearson, Joe Giggey and Robert Gordon will serve for the Diaconate, and a fellowship coffee hour will follow the service.

Bethany Church

Bethany Congregational Church, Quincy Center will have Sunday Worship Service with communion, All Saint's Day Service and Sunday School at 10 a.m.

The Rev. Gary W. Smothers will conduct the service and preach a sermon entitled "The Luminous Trail."

Fellowship with light refreshments will follow the worship service.

All are welcome to attend Bethany Church Worship Services and its numerous group activities. Bethany has a Youth Group, a Men's Group, an Outreach Mission Group doing various charity works and a Friday morning Bible Study Class.

The church office is open from 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Visit www.bethanycongregational-churchquincy.org for updates and activities.

Thanks to the Video Ministry, for those unable to attend worship service on Sundays, the Bethany Church Service is broadcast on Quincy Access Television at 6 p.m. on Thursday evenings on Channel 8.

Childcare will be available for infants and toddlers during worship service on Sundays. The church is wheelchair accessible.

A craft fair will be held at Bethany Church Saturday, Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. There will be homemade Christmas gifts as well as several food tables and a luncheon menu.

Wollaston First Baptist Church

All Saints - All Souls Sunday: Remembering the Years of Service of Deceased and Active 50-Year Members - will be observed on Sunday at the 10:30 a.m. Communion and Worship Service at the First Baptist Church of Wollaston, 81 Prospect Ave.

All are welcome.

Guest preacher will be American Baptist Church-USA Missionary, Debbie Kelsey. Ms. Kelsey has been a missionary in Italy where her focus has been on human trafficking.

Serving the church will be Pastor C. Michael Cunningham; greeters Elsie Whitman and Nancy McCue and Scripture Reader David Abbott.

Following the service, there will be a fellowship coffee hour in the Chapel.

Adult Bible Class meets each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. in the Chapel.

Holiday Fair Friday, Saturday At Houghs Neck Church

Hand-crafted items, homemade baked goods and a giant prize raffle will be just a few of the offerings at Hough's Neck Congregational Church's Holiday Fair set for Friday, Nov. 2 from 6 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, Nov. 3 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the church, 310 Manet Ave., Quincy.

The fair will begin at 6 p.m. tomorrow night (Friday) with a dinner featuring pasta, meatballs, salad, bread, dessert and beverage. The price for dinner is $8 adults, $3 kids 12 and under.

Holiday shopping tables will also open at 6 p.m. and be open the following day, Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

In addition to offering new gifts and crafts for holiday shoppers, the fair will feature hand-knitted and crocheted items, homemade jams and fudge, holiday wreaths and a resale shop featuring new and gently used items.

A giant prize raffle featuring cash prizes, gift certificates and more will also be held, and a snack bar will be open throughout the day.

For more information on the fair, call 617-479-2311 or e-mail hnc@comcast.net.

Quincy Religion Directory
SERVICES & ACTIVITIES
Catholic St. Mary's Church 95 Crescent St., Quincy • 617-773-0120 Masses Saturday, 4pm, Sunday 7, 9:30 & 11:30am, Weekdays 9am Handicapped Accessible New Members Welcome!	Catholic Sacred Heart Church "A Roman Catholic Community walking together in Faith, Worship, Education and Service" 386 Hancock St., North Quincy, MA 02171 (617) 328-8666 Sunday Masses 4pm (Sat.) 7:45am, 9am (Family Liturgy) 10:30am (with Choir) and 5pm Weekday Masses Mon.-Fri. 7am and 9am, Sat. 9am Handicapped Accessible Confessions Sat. 3-3:45pm in Saint Joseph Oratory	Congregational HOUGH'S NECK CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 310 Manet Avenue 617-479-8778 www.hncong.org All Saints Sunday and Communion Service at 10AM 'Transformed Lives' All are welcome to attend FELLOWSHIP COFFEE HOUR FOLLOWING SERVICE
ST. AGATHA CHURCH MILTON-QUINCY 432 Adams Street Milton, MA 02186 • 617-698-2439 Schedule of Masses: Saturday: 4:30PM Sunday: 7:30AM, 9:00AM (Family Mass), 10:30AM, 12 NOON, 5:00PM Weekday Masses: 7:00 & 9:00AM Reconciliation 3:45PM-4:15pm on Saturdays, other times by appointment Handicapped Accessible, handicapped parking, elevator to Upper/Lower Churches ~ Air-Conditioned	St. Joseph's Church 550 Washington Street Quincy, MA 02169 617-472-6321 SUNDAY MASSES: 4 p.m. (On Saturday) 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Weekday Masses 9am CONFESSIONS: Saturday, 3:00-3:30 pm Handicapped accessible & Handicapped parking, side entrance air conditioned	Congregational Wollaston Congregational Church United Church of Christ 48 Winthrop Avenue Quincy, Massachusetts Sunday Worship at 10 a.m. Rev. Dr. Mary Louise Gifford Office: 617-773-7499 www.wollycong.org UNION CONGREGATIONAL Beach St. & Rawson Rd., Wollaston (617) 479-6661 Rev. John Swanson, Pastor Sunday Worship Service 10 AM QUINCY POINT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 444 Washington St. • 617-773-6424 Worship and Church School 10 am Rev. Ann Suzedell, Pastor email: office@quincypointcong.org
St. John The Baptist ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH 44 School St., Quincy 617-773-1021 Weekend Mass Schedule Saturday, 4:00 PM Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 AM Sunday night 5:30 PM Weekday Masses Monday - Saturday 8:00 AM Latin Mass 1 st & 3 rd Wednesdays (Lower Chapel) 7:00 AM Confessions Wed. 8:30 - 9:30 AM Sat. 2:30 - 3:30 PM Handicapped Accessible	Saint Ann's Church 757 Hancock St., Wollaston 617-479-5400 Pastor: Rev. John J. Ronaghan Weekend Mass Schedule: Saturday 4:00 PM Sunday 7:00, 9:00, 11:30AM Daily Masses: 9:00 AM	BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH Spear & Coddington Streets Quincy Center, 617-479-7300 WWW.QUINCYBETHANYCHURCH.ORG Communion Sunday Nov. 4 All Saint's Day Service and Sunday School at 10AM. The Rev. Gary W. Smothers will preach the sermon "The Luminous Trail" Child Care Available ALL ARE WELCOME! Fellowship Time in Allen Parlor
Salvationist THE SALVATION ARMY 6 Baxter St., Quincy • 617-472-2345 9:45 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION 11AM WORSHIP SERVICE BRASS BAND MUSIC 7PM TUES WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP 6:45PM WEDS. BIBLE STUDY	Methodist QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH 40 Beale St., Wollaston 617-773-3319 10:30 AM Sunday Worship Rev. Dr. Susan Jarek-Glidden, Pastor	Christian Science First Church of Christ, Scientist 16 Beale Street, Quincy 617-472-0055 Sunday Services and Sunday School 10:30 a.m. Wednesday Evening Meetings - where testimonies of healing are shared 7:30 p.m. ALL ARE WELCOME!
Catholic Community Dignity BOSTON Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender CATHOLICS Our families, friends And allies Liturgy & social hour: Sundays, 5:30 PM St. John the Evangelist Church 35 Bowdoin St., Beacon Hill, Boston 617-421-1915 www.dignityboston.org
Nazarene Wollaston Church of the Nazarene Sunday Worship 8:30 AM Liturgical Worship 9:45 AM Sunday School 11:00 AM Celebration Worship Kevin C. Dunlop, Lead Pastor Phil Huse, Youth & Small Groups Pastor John Chastola, Music & Campus Pastor Bev Keuthner, Children's Pastor Don Reed, Volunteer Pastor 37 E. Elm Ave., Wollaston 617-472-5660 E-mail: office@wcnaz.org WWW.WCNAZ.ORG
To Advertise in this Directory, Call 617-471-3100
HOPE LOVE PEACE JOY

Elks, Panthers In QYFL Title Game Sunday

Cont'd From Page 29

The Quincy Point Defense was also strong throughout the first half lead by DB Brendan Jenner, Ronin Conteras Bryan Hanly and Kevin Phu. The Point Offense finally got on the scoreboard late in the first quarter when QB Brendan Jenner threw a 55-yard touchdown pass to WR Jayo DaRosa. Melvin Gonzales connected with Jayo DaRosa for the conversion as the Panthers took the lead 7-0 at halftime.

The Panthers received the ball to start the second half. Four plays later, RB Domenic Coleman scored on a 51-yard Touchdown run. The conversion attempt was stopped by the Mustangs but, the Panthers extended their lead, 13-0. The Panthers Defense forced the Mustangs to punt on the ensuing series. Brendan Jenner returned the Punt 56 yards for a TD. Melvin Gonzales booted the ball through the uprights for the 2-point conversion an extended the Panthers lead to 21-0.

The Mustangs drove the ball down deep into Quincy Point territory early in the forth quarter. Panther Safety, Brendan Jenner came out of nowhere and intercepted a Mustang pass on their own 7 yard line. Two plays later, Mustangs defensive End, Michael Corcoran sacked Brendan Jenner in the end zone for a safety. Later in the fourth quarter, The Mustangs drove the ball down into Panther territory with some strong running from Colin McSweeney. Mustang QB, Jeff Wolffe capped off the drive with a 12-yard TD pass to TE Owen Regan as time expired. The Panthers were victorious 21-8 over the Mustangs and advance to the QYFL Championship Game next Sunday at Veterans Stadium.

Panthers Head Coach, Noel DiBona got some fine performances from Jenner (2 Sacks, INT, TD & TD pass) Domenic Coleman, Kevin Phu, Kujuan Murphy, James Guilford, Nick Mayberry, Domenic Laptiste, Bryan Hanly, Robert Wilson, Ronin Conteras, Josh Coughlin, Jayo DaRosa, Jackson Quinn and Melvin Gonzales. The Panther players celebrated their victory by dumping the traditional Gatorade Jug over Coach DiBona.

QYFL CHAMPIONSHIP PREVIEW:

The 62nd Annual Quincy Youth Football League Championship will be played by the next Sunday, Nov. 4th at Veterans Stadium, kickoff will be at 2 p.m. The Quincy Point Panthers will host The West Quincy Elks and vie for QYFL's "Founder's Cup" Championship Trophy.

WEST QUINCY ELKS (6-1): Elks Head Coach, Justin Thorley, who is a former Quincy Point Panther player, is in his 6th season with the Elks. In the Past 7 years, dating back to 2006, the Elks have appeared in 6 QYFL Championship games. The Elks have won, back to back, QYFL Tiles in 2010 & 2011. The Elks feature a Dynamic Offense (140 points), led by the QYFL's leading Scorer in RB/LB John Teixiera. (13 TD's, 5 PAT's, 83 points). John is also one of the fiercest tacklers in the QYFL. The Elks hope to return Quarterback Angelo DePaulo, who has been out the past 2 game with an injury. The Elks also Feature Quincy Youth Football All-Stars: FB Aaron Etienne, OL/DL Anthony Sances Nose Tackle, Vagno Santos, LB/TE Josh Rodriguez and DE Patrick O'Callaghan. The West Quincy Elks have won 7 QYFL tiles throughout their 62-year history, Coach Thorley and his herd of Elk look to win their third straight Championship, this time against his childhood team the Quincy Point Panthers.

QUINCY POINT PANTHERS (5-1): Panthers Head Coach, Noel DiBona is in his second season with the team. Like his counterpart across the sideline, Noel was a former player for the Point Panthers from 1986-1988. Noel played under Legendary Panther Coaches Frank Brillo and Chubber Meyers. He returned to the Panthers last season and has made it his mission to return his team to former glory, when they won 19 QYFL Championships. The Panthers have appeared in many title games, most recently in 2008, but, have not won the championship since 1992. This Season, The Panthers feature a potent offensive attack (132 points) led by RB/LB Domenic Coleman (13 TD's, 2 PAT's, 82 points), QB Nick Mayberry, Linemen Josh Coughlin and Kevin Phu, QB/RB/DB Brendan Jenner whom many coaches regard as the Best Player on the Team. The Panthers also feature a strong supporting cast of Running Backs in Ronin Conteras, Domenic Laptiste and Melvin Gonzales. The Panther lost to the Elks, 20-18 in an earlier match-up this Season. Coach DiBona and his Pride of Panthers set their sites on The QYFL's "Founder's Cup" Trophy this weekend.

QYFL CHEERLEADING CHAMPIONSHIP

The Quincy Youth Football League will host its first ever Cheerleading Championship this Sunday, Nov. 4th at Veterans Stadium. The competition will begin at noon, just before the start of the Varsity Football Championship Game. The Junior Varsity Cheering Squads will compete first followed by the Varsity squads. Each Team in the League will be represented: Houghs Neck Manets, North Quincy Apaches, Quincy Point Panthers, Squantum Storm and West Quincy Elks. All participants in the competition will received awards for their efforts. The competition is being directed by QYFL Cheerleading Coordinator, Nancy Peduzzi-McNulty. Judges for the Competition will be members of the Quincy Militia Cheerleading Squad.

LEGAL NOTICE

CITY OF QUINCY IN COUNCIL

ORDER NO. 2012-192

ORDERED:

October 22, 2012

Be it ordained by the City Council, that the Quincy Municipal Code is hereby amended as follows:

In Title 10. Vehicles and Traffic. Chapter 10.20. Stopping, Standing and Parking. Section 10.20.40 Parking-Prohibited and Restricted where.

DELETE THE FOLLOWING

STREET	SIDE	FROM	TO	TYPE OF REGULATION
Moon Island Road	North	Dorchester Street	570' east of Dorchester St.	No Parking

A TRUE COPY.
ATTEST: Joseph P. Shea
Clerk of Council

11/01/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Community Preservation Committee of the City of Quincy will hold a Public Hearing on November 15, 2012 at 7:00 PM at the Kennedy Center, 440 East Squantum Street relative to the annual plan of the Community Preservation Committee. All city residents and interested parties are encouraged to attend this meeting.

Coleman Barry
Chairman, CPC

11/01/12, 11/08/12

LEGAL NOTICES

CITY OF QUINCY IN COUNCIL

ORDER NO. 2012-187

ORDERED:

October 22, 2012

Be it ordained by the City Council, that the Quincy Municipal Code is hereby amended as follows:

In Title 10. Vehicles and Traffic. Chapter 10.32. One-Way Streets. Section 10.32.010 One-way Streets - Designated.

ADD THE FOLLOWING

Street	From	To	Type of Regulation
Arlington Street	West Squantum Street	Newport Avenue	1-Way (South-bound)

A TRUE COPY.
ATTEST: Joseph P. Shea
Clerk of Council

11/01/12

CITY OF QUINCY IN COUNCIL

ORDER NO. 2012-188

ORDERED:

October 22, 2012

Be it ordained by the City Council, that the Quincy Municipal Code is hereby amended as follows:

In Title 10. Vehicles and Traffic. Chapter 10.20. Stopping, Standing and Parking. Section 10.20.050 Parking-Restrictions-Handicapped Spaces - Curb Access - Applicability - Penalties.

ADD THE FOLLOWING

STREET	SIDE	FROM	TO	TYPE OF REGULATION
Safford Street	@ 165 Safford Street			Handicapped Parking

A TRUE COPY.
ATTEST: Joseph P. Shea
Clerk of Council

11/01/12

CITY OF QUINCY IN COUNCIL

ORDER NO. 2012-189

ORDERED:

October 22, 2012

Be it ordained by the City Council, that the Quincy Municipal Code is hereby amended as follows:

In Title 10. Vehicles and Traffic. Chapter 10.20. Stopping, Standing and Parking. Section 10.20.40 Parking-Prohibited and Restricted where.

ADD THE FOLLOWING

STREET	SIDE	FROM	TO	TYPE OF REGULATION
Hancock Street	East	Furnace Brook Parkway	100' north of Furnace Brook Parkway	No Parking

A TRUE COPY.
ATTEST: Joseph P. Shea
Clerk of Council

11/01/12

CITY OF QUINCY IN COUNCIL

ORDER NO. 2012-190

ORDERED:

October 22, 2012

Be it ordained by the City Council, that the Quincy Municipal Code is hereby amended as follows:

In Title 10. Vehicles and Traffic. Chapter 10.20. Stopping, Standing and Parking. Section 10.20.40 Parking-Prohibited and Restricted where.

ADD THE FOLLOWING

STREET	SIDE	FROM	TO	TYPE OF REGULATION
Moon Island Road	North	Dorchester Street	570 ft. east of Dorchester St.	1 Hour Parking
Moon Island Road	South	570 ft. east of Dorchester St.	Guard Shack	1 Hour Parking

A TRUE COPY.
ATTEST: Joseph P. Shea
Clerk of Council

11/01/12

CITY OF QUINCY IN COUNCIL

ORDER NO. 2012-191

ORDERED:

October 22, 2012

Be it ordained by the City Council, that the Quincy Municipal Code is hereby amended as follows:

In Title 10. Vehicles and Traffic. Chapter 10.20. Stopping, Standing and Parking. Section 10.20.040 Parking-Prohibited and Restricted where.

DELETE THE FOLLOWING

STREET	SIDE	FROM	TO	TYPE OF REGULATION
Ellington Road	@ 21 Ellington Road			Handicapped Parking

A TRUE COPY.
ATTEST: Joseph P. Shea
Clerk of Council

11/01/12

CLASSIFIEDS

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION GIVING NOTICE OF PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF CONSERVATOR OR OTHER PROTECTIVE ORDER PURSUANT TO G.L. c. 190B, §5-304 & §5-405

Docket No. NO12P2441PM
Commonwealth of Massachusetts The Trial Court Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200
Estate of:
Rosemarie L. Carroll
Date of Death:
July 18, 2012

To all interested persons:
A petition has been filed by: Mary Elaine Woods of Hyde Park, MA and Kathleen M. Watts of Halifax, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Mary Elaine Woods of Hyde Park, MA and Kathleen M. Watts of Halifax, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 11/21/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration of the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: October 15, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

11/1/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION
Docket No. NO12P2361EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts The Trial Court Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200

Estate of:
Rosemarie L. Carroll
Date of Death:
July 18, 2012
To all interested persons:
A petition has been filed by: Mary Elaine Woods of Hyde Park, MA and Kathleen M. Watts of Halifax, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Mary Elaine Woods of Hyde Park, MA and Kathleen M. Watts of Halifax, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 11/21/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration of the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: October 16, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

11/01/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION
Docket No. NO12P2415EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts The Trial Court Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200

Estate of:
Vincent J. DeSantis
Date of Death:
July 21, 2012
To all interested persons:
A petition has been filed by: Melissa A. Roach of Rockland, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Melissa A. Roach of Rockland, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 11/14/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration of the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: October 12, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

11/01/12

LEGAL NOTICE

DIVORCE SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION AND MAILING
Docket No. NO12D1550DR
Commonwealth of Massachusetts The Trial Court Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200
Imieng Sit vs. Rong Chongtai
To the Defendant:

The Plaintiff has filed a Complaint for Divorce requesting that the Court grant a divorce for irretrievable breakdown.

The Complaint is on file at the Court.

An Automatic Restraining Order has been entered in this matter preventing you from taking any action which would negatively impact the current financial status of either party. SEE Supplemental Probate Court Rule 411.

You are hereby summoned and required to serve upon: Imieng Sit, 111 Robert St, Quincy, MA 02169 your answer, if any, on or before 01/03/2013. If you fail to do so, the court will proceed to the hearing and adjudication of this action. You are also required to file a copy of your answer, if any, in the office of the Register of this Court.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: October 3, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

11/1/12

MISCELLANEOUS

EDUCATION Medical Office Trainees NEEDED! Train to become a Medical Office Assistant! No Experience Needed! Job training & Local Placement assistance! HS Diploma/ GED & PC/Internet Needed 1-888-589-9680.

EMPLOYMENT BECOME A SURROGATE MOTHER! Help an infertile couple! Generous compensation! Non-smoker, 21-42 yrs old, must have given birth visit www.newlifesurrogacy.com or call 908-208-6333

HELP WANTED Class A CDL Drivers Needed Now! Terminal in Springfield, MA. Weekly home Time, new trucks, $.99 fuel for lease ops, practical mile pay. Hirschbach 888-474-0729.

CLASS A DRIVERS: SIGN ON BONUS. Paid Holidays, Vacation, & More. Weekly Pay. Direct Deposit. REGIONAL with Home Time. 2 Years T/T EXP. 800-524-5051. www.gomcivaine.com
DRIVER: CDL-A Van & Flatbed *New Pay Package! *Very New Trucks *Benefits After 30 Days *Great Miles, Pay *Dependable Hometime

PERSONAL

Happy Thanksgiving
Uncle Doug
Kevin, Brynn, Sydney Lena, Jack, Sophia, Jimmy, Peter Nathaniel and Jack Dog. 11/1

To Val, my Hairdresser. Yes, you ARE a Magician
♥♥♥♥♥ Libbie 11/1

HAPPY BIRTHDAY AND HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO EILEEN MENZ FROM THE GANG AT CARNEY HOSPITAL 11/1

HAPPY THANKSGIVING AND BEST WISHES FOR THE SEASON TO DOUG MENZ FROM MARGE AND RED LIND 11/1

YOGA

GENTLE TO MODERATE 6 WEEKS $60- BEGINS OCT. 15TH $12 WALK-IN UNION CONG CHURCH 136 RAWSON RD. CHRISTINE 617-472-7550 ONGOING SESSIONS 11/8

FOR LEASE

COMMERCIAL SPACE AVAILABLE 1800 sq. ft. Including Loading Dock & Conveyor Belt 330 Washington St. Quincy Please call Nancy 857-312-3653 11/8

DRIVERS WANTED

Drivers: Getting Home is Easier
Chromed out trucks w/APU's
Chromed out pay package!
90% Drop & Hook CDL-A, 6mos Exp.
(888)406-9046 11/8

MISCELLANEOUS

*Start Immediately! CDL Graduates Needed! 877-917-2266 drivewithwestern.com
Exp. Reefer Drivers: GREAT PAY/Freight Lanes from Presque Isle, ME. Boston-Lehigh, PA 800-277-0212 or primeinc.com

DRIVERS- CDL-A FEDEX GROUND. Small Fleet Owners with no-touch freight, hub-to-hub miles and excellent settlement potential. FedEx Ground offers the best opportunity for fleet owners to run a successful operation. *Hub-to-Hub Runs *Fuel Supplement Program *100% Drop & Hook *Safety Incentive *Outstanding Home Time & MORE! FedEx Ground will contract with entities that are established under state law as corporations. 866-832-6339 www.buildagroundbiz.com

HOME IMPROVEMENT HAS YOUR BUILDING SHIFTED OR SETTLED? Contact Woodford Brothers Inc, for straightening, leveling, foundation and wood frame repairs at 1-800-OLD-BARN. www.woodfordbrothers.com

HELP WANTED

BORN AGAIN INTERNATIONAL MINISTRIES
33 Newport Ave. in Quincy looking to hire a part-time host pastor, outreach pastor, and a Sunday school teacher. Volunteer positions are also available. Interested candidates should send a CD or DVD of your preaching to P.O. Box 190936 Roxbury MA 02118 11/29

SERVICES

DCS PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

One call does it ALL!!!

•Fall Clean ups
•Snow Plowing
•Snow Removal & more

FREE ESTIMATES 10% OFF FIRST SERVICE

Joe (857)939-3442 11/7

FOR SALE

Moving, 2 TRUCKS
2002 Silverado 4x4 139,000 mi. 71/2 Ft. PLOW Runs great $5,900.00
2002 Ford Ranger 103,000 mi. Runs excellent. Looks great $3,500.00
Call (617) 773-4761 11/1

Vacuum-cleaner & Furnitures and also Wedding dress Size 10 (one time use) good condition
Call 617-328-4171 11/1

OPEN UTILITY TRAILER

4FT X 6FT CUSTOM BUILT. NEW TIRES, PAINT AND WIRING. CASH OR BANK CHECK ONLY. $675
617-479-0296 11/1

Illuminated Tabletop Ceramic Christmas Tree
Dark Green. The tree is 20" tall with colorful lights. No-fuss. $30
Call Mary: 617-328-1325 11/1

CLEANING SERVICES

DASILVA CLEANING SERVICES
Home & Office Cleaning
Professional, Affordable
Reliable & Trustworthy
Weekly or Bi-Weekly References
CALL MEIRY 781-803-2922 12/27

SISTERS CLEANING

IF YOU NEED SOMEONE TO CLEAN YOUR HOUSE, WE DO HOUSES, APTS & OFFICES.
CALL NOW 978-587-2252 12/27

SKIN CARE

FREE FACIAL
individual or groups

MARY KAY
Celebrating 50 Years
Skincare for Women
Age 12 & Beyond
MICHELLE, Consultant
781-258-7564 TF

PLEASE RECYCLE THIS NEWSPAPER

QUINCY SUN NEWSCARRIERS WANTED

Here's a chance to earn extra money by building a Quincy Sun home delivery route.

Telephone
617-471-3100

CLASSIFIEDS

HALLS FOR RENT	SERVICES	SERVICES	SERVICES	WANTED	SERVICES
MORRISETTE LEGION POST 81-83 Liberty St., Quincy Function Hall Available Call for Details 617-770-4876 Internet Capable • Weddings • Showers • Christenings • Meetings After Funeral Gatherings TF	POWER PLUMBING Plumbing, Heating, Gas Fitting Repairs • New Installations Dave 617-328-3007 Emergencies 617-792-4054 Master Lic # 13749 TF	S.G. HAROLD PLUMBING, HEATING & AC Specializing in Viessman Boiler Unico Air Conditioning Home heating repairs & service Radiant Floor heating QUINCY 617-471-0914 Unprecedented Service Tailored to You MA Lic. #10589 TF	SAVE Budget Fuel Fuel Assistance Senior Discount Full Service 617-328-4063 TF	OLD HAND TOOLS & BOOKS WANTED Planes, chisels, adzes, shaves, machinist, and sheetmetal tools, calipers, clamps, anvils, vises. USEFUL TOOLS, ALL TRADES. New England history books Collections: old postcards, toys, military, hunting and fishing items. LIBERTY TOOL CO. 888-405-2007 Davistownmuseum.org e-Store & antique sale! TF	 Hancock T.V. & Appliance Sales, Service, Parts & Installation Since 1945 (617) 472-1710 115 Franklin Street, Quincy, MA hancockt vandappliance.com
CATERING SADIES' CAKES, PASTRIES AND CATERING 419 Hancock St., Quincy 617-770-2253 Affordable catering for all occasions Banquet, Ala Carte and Corporate. Call for Menu. 11/29	GUTTER CLEANING POWER-WASHING PAINTING & MORE... Contact Mike @ 617-770-4545/ 617-593-3889 11/1	PAINTING BY PROFESSIONAL Interior & Exterior Powerwashing & Carpentry All Types of House Repairs Reasonable Price Small Jobs Welcome TF Leave Message 617-773-4761	5 CLANCY BROTHERS PEST CONTROL You got 'em! We'll get 'em! (617)328-8387 11/15	MASONRY All Types New and Repair FREE ESTIMATES Call Ed 781-254-1648 10/25	THOMAS C. SWEENEY Smaller Jobs a Specialty 49 Years Experience Carpentry, Siding, Painting, Porches Vinyl/Windows, Doors Roofing, Decking, Steps License #1373 Free Estimates Reliable 617-825-1210 References 11/29
SEQUOIA LANDSCAPE Beautifully Done  Shrub Trimming Design Services Lawn Mowing Garden Walls Cleanups Walkways Mulching Plantings Seeding Patios 617-504-0944 11/22 www.sequoiandscape.biz We Have Been Providing Outstanding Personal Service To Our Clients Since 1993	Wet Rake 'Em & Take 'Em Gutter Cleaning FREE ESTIMATES FULLY INSURED IMAGE LANDSCAPING 617-471-0044 11/15	JUNK CARS WANTED JUNK CARS WANTED (617) 481-6699 (508) 577-0073 11/21	Campbell Electric Since 1982 24 HOUR Service Commercial/Residential Fire Alarms ~ Security Master Elec. Lic #A10237 781-848-9078 www.campbellectric.com 11/22	DG'S YARD MAINTENANCE LAWN MOWING SMALL TREE REMOVAL SERIOUS OVERSEEDING / SOD ABOUT SERVICE MULCHING, WEEDING REASONABLE RATES & EDGING FULLY INSURED HEDGE & SHRUB TRIMMING OR REMOVAL ROTOTILLING & DETHATCHING CLEAN-UPS 11/25 617-786-9558 FREE ESTIMATES	Russ DiBona & Son Landscaping, Inc. Russ DiBona President/CEO Lawn Installation/Reseeding • Mulch Bobcat Service • Walls • Walks • Patios Spring/Fall Clean-Ups • Shrub Pruning Snow Plowing, Sanding/Salting & Removal Cell 617-429-4813 • Work 617-774-0480 russdibona1.com russdibona@hotmail.com 11/15
McDONAGH ROOFING ALL TYPES OF ROOFING RUBBER ROOFING GUTTERS CLEANED & INSTALLED CHIMNEY FLASHING & POINTING VINYL SIDING VINYL REPLACEMENT WINDOWS RESIDENTIAL • COMMERCIAL 617-471-6960 Free Estimates Mass. Reg. #147733 & Lic. #99713 11/1	 PLEASE Recycle This Newspaper	 PLEASE Recycle This Newspaper	T & M Landscape Co. • Spring & Fall Cleanups • Power Washing • Lawn Mowing Services • Yard Mulching • Bushes & Trees Trimmed Free Estimates 617-733-4554 ~ AFFORDABLE RATES ~ 11/29	Riley Construction Commercial & Residential Roofing All Phases Windows and Gutters Quincy, MA 02169 Licensed & Fully Insured (617) 472-3335 Mass Reg #138824 rileyconstruction@live.com Free Estimates 11/1	JMM LANDSCAPING CALL JOHN 781-267-6827 Clean-ups Walkways Planting Patios Overseeding Retaining Walls New Lawns Fire Pits DRIVEWAY SEALCOATING Call Today 10% OFF 11/1

The Quincy Sun CLASSIFIED AD FORM

MAIL TO: THE QUINCY SUN, 1372 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169
 PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. Payment must accompany order.

INDEX

- ☐ Services
- ☐ For Sale
- ☐ Autos
- ☐ Boats
- ☐ For Rent
- ☐ Wanted
- ☐ Help Wanted
- ☐ Work Wanted
- ☐ Pets
- ☐ Lost & Found
- ☐ Real Estate
- ☐ Antiques
- ☐ Flea Markets
- ☐ Yard Sales
- ☐ Instruction
- ☐ Day Care
- ☐ Personal
- ☐ Miscellaneous

RATES

- 1 WEEK ☐ $8.00 for one insertion, up to 20 words, 10¢ for each additional word.
- 3-7 WEEKS ☐ $7.00 per insertion up to 20 words for 3-7 insertions of the same ad, 10¢ each additional word.
- 8-12 WEEKS ☐ $6.75 per insertion, up to 20 words, for 8-12 insertions of the same ad 10¢ for each additional word.
- 13 WEEKS OR MORE ☐ $6.50 per insertion, up to 20 words, for 13 or more insertions of the same ad 10¢ for each additional word.

☐ Enclosed is $_____ for the following ad to run _____ weeks in The Quincy Sun.

COPY: _____

NO REFUND WILL BE MADE AT THIS CONTRACT RATE IN THE EVENT OF CANCELLATION.
 DEADLINE: FRIDAY AT 4PM. PLEASE INCLUDE YOUR PHONE NUMBER IN AD.

BELL RINGERS NEEDED!
 The Salvation Army needs seasonal help.
 Call 617-472-2345

SUN FUN PAGE

King Crossword

ACROSS

- 1 One of the guys
- 4 Resort
- 7 Removes, as a hat
- 12 Remiss
- 13 Jungfrau, for one
- 14 Wear away
- 15 Recede
- 16 Site of the Caymans
- 18 Blood group letters
- 19 Prepared to propose
- 20 New Zealander
- 22 Curvy character
- 23 Equipment
- 27 Old hand
- 29 To-do list
- 31 Thespian
- 34 Firebug's crime
- 35 Half a legendary comedy team
- 37 Doctrine
- 38 Nervous
- 39 Charged bit

DOWN

- 41 Tart
- 45 More than enough
- 47 Sch. org.
- 48 Source of a pseudo-chocolate
- 52 "Monty Python" opener
- 53 Roam predatorily
- 54 Disencumber
- 55 Trawler need
- 56 Saunter
- 57 Billboards
- 58 Mound stat

DOWN

- 1 Dismal
- 2 Synagogue
- 3 U-shaped part of a yoke
- 4 Bag
- 5 Pluto, once
- 6 -ski
- 7 Credit user's problem
- 8 Sphere
- 9 Adversary
- 10 Rx watchdog
- 11 Sun Yat- -

DOWN

- 17 "Casablanca" heroine
- 21 Floating soap brand
- 23 Bacteria
- 24 Type measures
- 25 Commotion
- 26 Skedaddled
- 28 Before
- 30 Petrol
- 31 Milwaukee product
- 32 Scoundrel
- 33 Yank
- 36 Branch
- 37 Embedded
- 40 "Tosca" or "Turandot"
- 42 Put one's two cents in
- 43 Say
- 44 Selassie worshiper
- 45 Competent
- 46 Tackles' teammates
- 48 Bookkeeper Abbr.
- 49 Upper 36-Down
- 50 Plagiarize
- 51 Hooter

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

MAGIC MAZE • VIEWED THE FAR SIDE OF THE MOON

GWUSRPIMJHEYCZX
USQNRLLJRGECOZXV
TNANRECRWPNU LJH
ECLLLEHCTIMNAYW
VTDARMSTRONGRPN
LKRRINDROFFATSD
GEICABZXEX9WUESA
RPNMOPMLJDYIGBR
EDRBLLEVOLNLAYN
XOWUTSQHPONANLO
BKJHTTOCSNILLOC

Find the listed words in the diagram. They run in all directions - forward, backward, up, down and diagonally.

Anders
Armstrong
Bean
Borman
Cernan
Collins
Conrad
Irwin
Lovell
Mitchell
Scott
Shepard
Stafford
Young
Only 9 others

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

HOCUS-FOCUS

BY HENRY BOLTINOFF

CAN YOU TRUST YOUR EYES? There are at least six differences in drawing details between top and bottom panels. How quickly can you find them? Check answers with those below.
1. Arm is lower. 2. Stripes are missing. 3. Fingerprint is missing. 4. Arm is lower. 5. Stripes are missing. 6. Fingerprint is missing.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Trivia test by Fifi Rodriguez

1. LANGUAGE: What is the meaning of the Latin prefix "demi"?
2. HISTORY: Who wrote the political book "The Prince" during the Renaissance?
3. ASTRONOMY: What phase of the moon is opposite of crescent?
4. LITERATURE: What was the real name of the author who assumed the pen name of George Orwell?
5. ART: What are the three primary colors?
6. MUSIC: What is indicated by the musical notation "estinto"?
7. GEOGRAPHY: What state lies directly east of Utah?

8. GENERAL KNOWLEDGE: What is the traditional birthstone for June?
9. MEASUREMENTS: The watt, a unit of electrical power, was named for what famous inventor?
10. ETIQUETTE: Properly speaking, who should host a wedding shower for a bride?

Answers

1. Half
2. Niccolo Machiavelli
3. Gibbous
4. Eric Arthur Blair
5. Red, yellow and blue
6. So soft that it can hardly be heard
7. Colorado
8. Pearl
9. James Watt
10. A friend of the bride

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Wishing Well®

7 4 7 4 3 4 3 4 6 3 2 8 2
S H E A K P E P S E D M O
8 6 5 7 2 4 2 6 2 4 3 4 3
A P U E N Y O R T F P R P
8 5 6 5 7 6 3 6 5 4 6 4 3
K N E C K A R D A A S M O
2 5 8 4 6 5 2 6 7 5 8 6 8
H N E E M N E I A Y A L C
4 8 6 2 6 4 8 7 5 8 4 5 8
O H E S S F I D T L M I D
2 3 4 8 4 3 7 2 5 7 8 4 5
I M I H N I V T M I A D I
8 2 5 2 8 2 8 5 7 3 7 3 3
P A N T P E Y G C S E E S

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your work requires increased effort during the next few days. But it all will pay off down the line. Things ease up in time for weekend fun with family and/or friends.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your genuine concern for others could prompt you to promise more than you can deliver. It's best to modify your plans now, before you wind up overcommitted later.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A situation that seems simple at first glance needs a more thorough assessment before you give it your OK. Dig deeper for information that might be hidden from view.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Careful: Right now, things might not be quite what they appear. Even the intuitive Crab could misread the signs. Get some solid facts before you act on your suspicions.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your energy levels are high, allowing you to complete those unfinished tasks before you take on a new project. A social invitation could come from an unlikely source.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You might think you're helping, but unless you're asked for a critique, don't give it. If you are asked, watch what you say. Your words should be helpful, not hurtful.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your attempt at mediating disputes might meet some opposition at first.

But once you're shown to be fair and impartial, resistance soon gives way to cooperation.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Go ahead. Reward yourself for helping settle a disturbing workplace situation. On another note: A personal relationship might be moving to a higher level.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A sudden change of heart by a colleague might create some momentary uncertainty. But stay with your original decision and, if necessary, defend it.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Rely on a combination of your sharp instincts along with some really intense information-gathering to help you make a possibly life-changing decision.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Instead of worrying if that new person in your life will stay or leave, spend all that energy on strengthening your relationship so it becomes walk-out resistant.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A sudden financial dry spell could reduce your cash flow almost to a trickle. But by conserving more and spending less, you'll get through the crunch in good shape.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your ability to keep secrets makes you the perfect confidante for friends, family and co-workers.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

CryptoQuip

This is a simple substitution cipher in which each letter used stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Solution is accomplished by trial and error.

Clue: A equals F

MA EQBXUQVJ EKQFSV AOMTH

VFYMTW O ETQLEHQYB, M WFXEE

HKXJ LQFSV UX PTQGPXV QFH

GQSV.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

King Crossword

Answers

Solution time: 27 mins.

Magic Maze

ANSWERS:

— MASTER

Cryptoquip

ANSWER:

If somebody should faint during a snowstorm, I guess they would be knocked out cold.

Antoine Allen Scores 2 TDs, Reaches 1,000 Yards Red Raiders Battle Late, Beat Hanover, 30-21

By JEFF OHLSON

The Raiders needed a win Friday night and that's just what they got, coming back from 14-0 to beat Hanover 30-21.

Antoine Allen was the star for North Quincy with over 150 yards rushing and two touchdowns. He surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the season.

It wasn't an easy win for the Raiders, who outscored the Indians 30-7 after allowing two early Hanover touchdowns, but it was a win they needed.

Allen provided the early fireworks for the Raiders with a 50-yard touchdown run to bring North Quincy back to life and back in the game with 3:41 left in the 2nd quarter.

However, the Raiders' defense couldn't hold the Indians when they lined up for a field goal and faked it, ultimately throwing the ball to a wide-open receiver in the end zone. With the score 21-6 at halftime, it would have been easy for the Raiders to give up, but North Quincy head coach Jim Connor knows his team never quits on themselves.

"This kind of stuff, goes back to what we did in August. All the hard work, at halftime we just went into the locker room and made our adjustments.

"The kids executed and they woke up in the second half," Connor said.

"What we did in August is in our bank and all that was what we know was going to win us this game and get us back in it."

The first half was tough for North Quincy as Hanover came out strong, but the second-half of the game was all Raiders.

The Raiders' offense came out and drove the ball to mid-field and stalled on a third down but Hingham was called for a roughing the passer penalty, giving the Raiders the ball at the Indians 35 yard line and a fresh set of downs. North responded with an Andrew Minton touchdown throw to Cole Barrett to bring the score to 21-13, Hingham.

After the Raiders touchdown, Hanover looked poised to answer as their offense methodically drove down the field to the goal line. On third down, the Indians looked to the same play that scored them two touchdowns earlier in the game, a jump ball in the end zone to one of their tall receivers, and North was ready for it.

"That was just about dis-

Photo Highlights From Quincy, North Quincy Victories Page 47

cipline, just our kids staying in their zones and doing their parts," Connor said. "At the beginning of the game they just kept throwing it up to their tall receivers and it was working, but it was only a matter of time before one of our kids had a chance to make a play and he made it."

The plays result was an interception by Andrew MacPhail and a game changing play for the Raiders. After the interception the Raiders drive came to a fourth down but a Cole Barrett's 5-yard run kept the drive alive and another Barrett run got North down to the 1 yard line, where Andrew Minton punched it in on a sneak play to bring the score to 21-20 Hanover.

The Raiders then had a decision to kick for the tie or run a play for the lead, they chose to go for the lead. Andrew Minton dropped back and faked a hand off to Antoine Allen and looked to left to find Cole Barrett wide open in the end zone for the successful 2-point conversion putting the Raiders up 22-21 with 2:31 left in the fourth quarter.

On the ensuing kickoff Hanover returned the ball to the 40-yard line and fumbled giving North Quincy the ball back immediately.

The Raiders wasted little time turning the turnover into a bigger lead as three plays into their drive Antoine Allen busted out of the backfield and ran 30 yards for a touchdown putting North up 28-21.

Once again, North was faced with the option of kicking or going for two. If North kicked an extra point, they would be up by eight (which could be matched by one touchdown and 2-point conversion) or they could go for two which would put them ahead by nine (a 'two possession' lead) and coach Connors once again chose to go for two.

The Raiders handed it to Cole Barrett and he broke off to the left of the defense and squeezed into the end zone for the 2-point conversion and a 9-point lead for North, 30-21.

Hanover would try to put a drive together, but ultimately saw the clock run out with the score unchanged.

For the Raiders this win was the first win under the lights at Veterans' Memorial Stadium for this group of North Quincy seniors. The win is also huge for North as they build momentum for its traditional Thanksgiving Day game against rival Quincy who is also playing well.

"It's always a good game. Quincy is outstanding and they are playing the best football I've seen in ten years out of them. Our kids are working hard and our seniors are building something, that was their first win under the lights here at the stadium and their enjoying it," said Connor.

North Quincy's visits Whitman-Hanson tomorrow (Friday) at 7 p.m.

Presidents Sink Scituate, 34-25

Jalen Green Scores 3 TDs, Surpasses 1,000 Yards

By COLLEEN CASEY

When Jalen Green ran for a 72-yard touchdown for Quincy's first touchdown, it was clear he would have a big night. By the end of the game the senior running back had scored three times including another 73-yard run, and surpassed the 1,000 yard rushing mark for the season, en route to the Presidents 34-25 victory over Scituate.

Quincy coach Bill Reardon said he was feeling great after the game.

"I love the way the kids compete," said Reardon. "They never give up. A win is a win. I'm very proud of them."

Both teams took turns scoring in the first half, showcasing their offensive strengths. It was extremely close, with Quincy up 20-19 going into the break.

Scituate scored on their opening drive. Quarterback Mike Stewart finished an 8-play drive with a 3-yard scoring run. Francis Donovan's kick put the Sailors up 7-0.

The lead was short-lived. On Quincy's next play, Green (219 yards on 22 carries) broke a tackle and sprinted 72 yards to the end zone. Max Joseph rushed in for the conversion to give the Presidents a one-point advantage.

"We were seeing a couple of open holes through the middle and we decided to run it right down their throats on the run plays," said Green.

The Sailors responded with a 39-yard scoring drive. It was Stewart again with the keeper from 3-yards out, but Quincy's defense plowed through the line and managed to block the extra kick.

Joseph started the scoring in the second, capping a 59-yard march with a 3-yard run with 8:47 remaining in the half. The conversion failed, giving Quincy a 14-13 lead.

The Presidents' defense tried their best to stop Scituate's Dawayne Kirton (234 yards on 26 carries), but the junior running back kept finding the holes to move the chains. Kirton scored on an 18-yard run late in the second to give the Sailors the lead.

"(Kirton's) a good player," said Green. "I like him as a runner. He just keeps moving his feet and just keeps going."

Jaquan Harris responded with a 73-yard punt return, giving Quincy great field position. James Lam hit Alex Heffernan with an 11-yard touchdown pass to end the half. Quincy's defense prevailed in the second half.

"We made some adjustment at half time about how we wanted to defend some of their formations," said Reardon. "The kids picked it up right away and it was the difference. The second half was much better defensively."

The Sailors took a risk their opening drive of the third and were shut down. Scituate couldn't convert on fourth and one from their own 27, spectacular Presidents' defense forced a turnover.

Green took advantage and finished the 6-play drive with a 5-yard untouched dash into the left side of the end zone. The conversion failed but the Presidents took a 25-19 advantage.

"Jalen is a hell of a football player," said Reardon. "He's a great leader that works hard. He's a role model to the guys. He's the ultimate team player."

The defense forced a turnover again the following drive. Defensive back Kenny Garcia knocked down a pass to keep the Sailors from a first down and possible touchdown.

Riding that momentum, Green responded with his third score of the night, to surpass the 1000-yard rushing mark for the season. On fourth and one, the speedy running back found the holes and sprinted 73-yards effortlessly into the end zone.

Scituate scored once more in the fourth. Kirton managed a 17-yard run with 10:38 remaining in the game.

"Our team is working hard, we've been working hard all season," Green said. "We came into this game knowing they're a tough opponent. They have a lot of wins and we knew we had to work hard."

The Presidents travel to Hingham Saturday for a 1 p.m. game.

NEED A TUTOR?

- All Subjects • K-12
- One-on-One In Your Home
- SAT/ACT/SSAT/HSPT Prep
- Study/Organizational Skills
- Qualified Tutors
- Affordable Rates

Club Z! Z-Prep!

In-Home Tutoring Services

Test Preparation Services

Call for a FREE Consultation!

Phone: 781-849-0040 Fax: 781-849-0042 www.clubz.com/bostonsouthshore

Quincy Youth Hockey
Presents

"THE PENALTY BOX"
Biggest Dance In Quincy

A Dance Open To
6th, 7th, 8th Grade Children Only
"STRICTLY ENFORCED"

First Church Hall Of Squantum

$12 tickets sold at the door

Saturday, November 3rd

7:00pm - 10:00pm

For more details go to: www.QuincyYouthHockey.net

JV Football Players Prep Now, 'Big Contributions' Next Year

By COLLEEN CASEY

Every high school football player dreams of playing on Friday night, under the lights, in front of a roaring crowd of supporters. After a week of long practices, hours of weight lifting and reviewing film, players finally get to show what they're made of come Friday at 7 p.m.

But not every player gets to see action come Friday. Both Quincy and North Quincy have a junior varsity team, consisting of younger, less experienced players that dress for varsity games and typically do not play. That doesn't mean they're not ready to. A J.V. player can be called upon at any moment to take the field.

After the varsity game Friday, the J.V. typically practices on Saturday and plays their game on Monday. By Tuesday they're back at practice helping out the varsity.

"These kids work really hard. Most people don't understand this," said Quincy coach Mark Randall. "Our guys are back to work Tuesday afternoon. They don't get time off. It's part of the deal."

During the week the J.V. serves as the scout team for varsity. Quincy's J.V. has very limited practice time, usually an hour Saturday mornings.

Randall said his goal is to show the players the expectations of the program and prepare them for varsity.

"The job is to prepare these kids to play at the next level," said Randall. "It's like being the manager of the Portland Sea Dogs. To have one of our kids gets called up to varsity is like getting called up to the Red Sox."

Randall recalled when senior lineman Tim Nazzaro got his chance last season. Nazzaro was a starter on the J.V. offensive line and was called upon to play guard for the varsity for a game last year and been there ever since.

"It was a devastating loss to the J.V.," said Randall of Nazzaro's call-up. "But you feel fantastic for the kid. What high school kid doesn't want to be playing Friday night under the lights?"

Despite their lack of practice time, Quincy's J.V. has posted a perfect 7-0 mark. Their latest victory was a 22-8 triumph over powerhouse Duxbury. Randall did not want to single any player out for his team success.

"When you're 7-0 and play football, your team is 7-0," he said. "You're not like that because you have a tremendous quarterback or running back. You win because your team wins."

However he did say there are current J.V. players that will "definitely be making big contributions" to the varsity next season.

North Quincy does not have the depth that Quincy has. With 36 players on the roster, their junior varsity squad has played a crucial role this season.

Coach Mike Hanson's main mission is similar to Randall's: to prepare his players for varsity level football. But since the varsity team is so small, the J.V. is forced to practice with varsity and doesn't have time to focus on their team.

Like Quincy, North's J.V. serves as the scout team for varsity.

"The guys help the varsity get ready for their opponents and get beat up all week. We don't have the luxury to have designated practices for just us," said Hanson. "The fact that the numbers are so low has made the J.V.'s role even more important. Varsity comes first and it's their job to prepare them."

They're dedication shows in the records. Although J.V. is 1-5, they've helped the varsity to 2-4.

"Our other objective is to teach the players life lessons they can take with them outside of football, to be resilient, work as a team and be responsible and show up every day," said Hanson.

"Some will get to play a year or two on varsity but some might not, so it's important for them to take away from the experience."

Sophomores Zach Dangora and Andrew Kiley have been standouts for North's J.V. this season. If everything goes accordingly, the two will be players to keep an eye on at the varsity level next season.

"Zach is a model student athlete," said Hanson of Dangora. "He absorbs everything and is always looking to improve." Dangora is versatile and moves around a lot, but primarily plays tight end and line backer. He's seen some varsity action but not a complete game.

Kiley is the backup quarterback to senior Andrew Minton. He's seen some varsity time as a wide receiver or defensive back.

"Andrew's such a great athlete we're just trying to get him on the field," said

Hanson. "He'd be a varsity starter as a sophomore if Minton wasn't so talented. He could probably start as the QB for some other teams in the league."

J.V. players are in charge of the little things like carrying the equipment and filling up the water. They have to be ready to go in at the drop of a dime. Because of the lack of depth, if any varsity player is injured a J.V. player is in.

"They're becoming better football players though it's serving them well. Paying dues helps them build character," said Hanson.

He added, "They are the unsung heroes."

Men's Drop In Basketball Program Starts Nov. 5 At Atlantic Gym

The Quincy Recreation Department will supervise a Men's drop in basketball program at the Atlantic Middle School gymnasium on Monday evenings.

The program, which will begin on Nov. 5 runs from 6 p.m.- 8 p.m. every Monday throughout the winter with the exception of holidays. Each week pick-up teams will be formed from those who are in attendance and then games will be played. There is a $5.00 fee payable each week at the door. New participants are welcome. Locker room facilities are available.

Atlantic Middle School is located at 86 Hollis Ave. in North Quincy and the gym entrance is at the rear of the parking lot.

Additional information can be obtained by calling the Quincy Rec. Office at (617) 376- 1394 and on www.QuincyRec.com.

Coach Dave MacMillan Selected For Babe Ruth Hall Of Fame

Quincy Babe Ruth League Baseball Coach Dave MacMillan of Quincy has been selected to the Eastern Massachusetts Babe Ruth Hall of Fame.

MacMillan has been the coach of the Houghs Neck Legion Babe Ruth Baseball team for the last 49 years.

The presentation will be held Sunday, Nov. 4 at Louie's Restaurant, 1269 Sea St., Houghs Neck.

Social hour is 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. and the award will be presented around 2:30 p.m.

The ceremony is open to past players, parents and assistant coaches as well as the general public.

The award will be presented by Joe Brill.

Born in Houghs Neck, MacMillan has lived in the Neck for 73 years. He graduated from Atherton Hough School, Central Junior High School and Quincy High School.

His 49 years as coach of the Houghs Neck Legion Baseball team in the Quincy Babe Ruth League may be the longest number of years with the same team in Quincy, and maybe the longest in the National Babe Ruth program.

MacMillan has been involved in various other coaching and baseball duties throughout the years.

He assisted in putting a semi-pro team on the field in Quincy, the Quincy Bay Mariners.

He coached over 15 years at Quincy High School, two years at North Quincy High School, eight years at Quincy Legion and two years for Wollaston Legion.

For his career, he has coached over 1,500 games and coached over 1,200 players. He's won more than 500 games, 25 divisional titles and participated in 10 city championships.

He has also coached 40 state tournament games.

One of the coaches for the 15-year-old State Tournament team to win the state title in 1969, he was awarded the trophy on the field at Fenway Park prior to a Red Sox game.

Eight of the players he's coached signed professional baseball contracts: Paul Grasso, Steve Tomasetti, Tom Burke, Bob Brill, Jerry Bugden, Bob Lane, Preston Carroll and John Folino.

To Celebrate Our 80th Anniversary of football in Quincy High Schools, help support QHS Football

Purchase a Commemorative Box of Quincy Crunch Cereal with a photo of the Football team on the cover.
Just $5.00

Boxes available through the Booster Club President.

Send your request to QuincyFootball@aol.com or purchase a box at the concession stand at our next home game,
November 9th, Veteran's Stadium 7:00 PM

THE "POCKETBOOK EFFECT"

Many women are vulnerable to back pain and other ill health effects due to toting purses that are too heavy. When the oversized bags that many women carry press against muscles, tendons, nerves, and ligaments, the concentrated forces exerted by straps over shoulders and around necks can potentially lead to serious nerve damage and joint disease. To avoid such injuries, women are encouraged to limit the amount of weight they carry in their bags. Beyond that, it may help to switch from holding a bag in the crook of the elbow to alternating shoulders. Wearing a bag diagonally across the front of the body also distributes the load, so that the trunk bears more of the burden.

This week's column and helpful suggestions has been brought to you as a public service. Call

FAMILY PRACTICE OF CHIROPRACTIC at 617.472.4220 to schedule an appointment. We will only accept you as a patient if we feel we can help you. We stress preventive health care for the entire family. We're located at 112 McGrath Hwy., Quincy. Give chiropractic a try! We offer computerized spinal scans. We are able to adjust patients sitting, standing, or lying down to accommodate any level of discomfort. If your problem is a chiropractic condition we offer you exceptional service.

From 11/5/12-11/10/12 we are offering FREE new patient exams for veterans and their families in honor of Veteran's Day. Also existing patients that are Veterans can receive a free adjustment that week!! Call for more details and to book your appointment. 617-472-4220.

www.freedmanchiro.com

Presidents, Red Raiders Grind Out Big Football Wins

QUINCY'S DEFENSE makes a big play in the Presidents' 34-25 win over Scituate last Friday night in the first game of a football "doubleheader" at Veterans Memorial Stadium. Making the stop here against a Sailor ballcarrier are (from left) Peter Cedrone (48), Ali Al-Jubori (72) and Viet Doan (7).
Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

NORTH QUINCY'S defensive front (from left) Don Sharp (78), Matt Deagle (71), Shane Ceurvals (73) and Vinny Tran (63) shut down Hanover's offense in the second half enabling the Red Raiders to score a 30-21 come-from-behind victory over the Indians in the second half of a football "doubleheader" Friday at Veterans Memorial Stadium.

PRESIDENTS running back Jalen Green rushed for three touchdowns, including bursts of 72 and 73 yards, in Quincy's 34-21 win. Green surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the season.

QUINCY'S JAQUAN HARRIS also had a big game for the Presidents' offense, including a 73-yard punt return to set up another Quincy touchdown.

QUINCY'S MATT KOZLOWSKI sacks Scituate's quarterback stopping a Sailors' drive and giving the Presidents good field position.

RED RAIDER running back Antoine Allen also eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark as he ran for over 150 yards and two touchdowns in North Quincy's 30-21 win over Hanover at Veterans Memorial Stadium Friday night.

ANDREW MINTON fires a pass over a Hanover defender in North Quincy's 30-21 win.

NORTH'S KEVIN PAPPADOPOLOUS (42) sacks Hanover's quarterback in the Red Raiders' 30-21 come-from-behind win over the Indians.

DON'T FORGET TO VOTE

ON TUESDAY, NOV. 6TH

Polls open 7:00AM to 8:00PM

NEED A RIDE TO THE POLLS?

Call us at 617-834-0797

The Quincy Democratic City Committee

Proudly Endorses Our Democratic Nominees

PRESIDENT

Barack Obama

STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Ronald Mariano – 3rd Norfolk District

Bruce J. Ayers – 1st Norfolk District

VICE PRESIDENT

Joseph Biden

Tackey Chan – 2nd Norfolk District

Martin J. Walsh – 13th Suffolk District

CANDIDATE FOR U.S. SENATE

Elizabeth A. Warren

NORFOLK COUNTY

CLERK OF COURTS

Walter F. Timilty, Jr.

CONGRESSMAN

Stephen F. Lynch

NORFOLK COUNTY

REGISTER OF DEEDS

William P. O'Donnell

GOVERNORS COUNCIL

Christopher A. Iannella, Jr.

NORFOLK COUNTY

COMMISSIONER

STATE SENATOR

John F. Keenan

John M. Gillis

Francis W. O'Brien

Girls Volleyball Teams Advance

Page 20

North Girls, Quincy Boys Soccer Bow

Pages 18, 19, 31

69
THOMAS CRAN PUBLIC LIBRARY
PO BOX 699164
QUINCY MA 02269-9164

The Quincy Sun

Historic Quincy's Hometown Weekly Newspaper Since 1968

VOL. 45 No. 8

Thursday, November 8, 2012

75¢

Keenan Top Vote-Getter With 31,213 Votes • 70% Voter Turnout

Obama, Warren, Lynch Win

VOTERS LINE UP to vote in the basement of St. John the Baptist Church, polling precinct for Ward 2 Precinct 4 and Ward 2 Precinct 5, in Tuesday's state election. The voter turnout in Quincy was 70 percent.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Noble

Vietnam Veteran George Nicholson

Keynote Speaker At City Observance

Veterans' Day Parade Sunday Steps Off At 1 P.M.

By SCOTT JACKSON

In 1982, George F. Nicholson became the first Vietnam veteran to address Quincy during its Veterans Day observances. On Sunday he will mark the 30 anniversary of that occasion by serving once again as the guest speaker.

Before Nicholson speaks at the ceremonies, the Veterans Day Parade will take place. The parade steps off at 1 p.m. at the intersection of Quincy Avenue and Scammel Street and runs along Hancock Street until it reaches the Adams Academy.

The parade traditionally starts at 10:30 a.m. but was moved to accommodate church services because Veterans Day falls on a Sunday this year.

GEORGE NICHOLSON

The ceremony, including Nicholson's address, will be held at the academy. Other speakers at the ceremony include Mayor Tom Koch, City Council President Mike McFarland, and Quincy's Director of Veterans Services Thomas Stansbury. Stansbury is also parade chairman. John Raeke, chaplain for the Quincy Veterans' Council, will give the invocation. Council Assistant Chaplain Joseph Brooker will give the benediction.

Nicholson is a disabled Air Force veteran who served three tours of duty during the Vietnam War. A Jamaica Plain native, he attended Boston English and Boston Latin High Schools and enlisted in the Air Force in 1968 and was honorably

Cont'd On Page 3

Quincy was in step with the nation and Massachusetts Tuesday as voters here helped propel President Barack Obama to a second term and elect Elizabeth Warren as the first female U.S. Senator from the Bay State.

The other big winner on Tuesday's ballot here was Cong. Stephen Lynch. The South Boston Democrat, vying for a seventh term in the new 8th Congressional District, rolled to an impressive win over Republican challenger Joseph Selvaggi.

Some 40,464 of the city's 57,612 registered voters cast ballots Tuesday, a turnout of 70.2 percent of the city's active voters.

In Quincy, President Obama and Vice President Joseph Biden won by 9,898

(Cont'd On Page 4)

BARACK OBAMA

ELIZABETH WARREN

STEPHEN LYNCH

BALLOT QUESTIONS

- The Quincy Vote -

Question 1: Right To Auto Repair Law?

YES: 30,006 *

NO: 4,624

Question 2: Prescribing Medication to End Life?

NO: 20,177

YES: 17,102

(No 51% to Yes 49% at deadline statewide)

Question 3: Medical Use of Marijuana?

YES: 23,871 *

NO: 15,350

* State-wide winner

ATHERTON HOUGH Elementary student had their own Presidential Election Tuesday and President Barack Obama came out on top with 167 votes to Mitt Romney's 92 votes. Helping to get out the vote are students in Kathryn Pinch's fifth grade class. From left: Yasmin Amimer, Jenna Napolitan, Aidan Perry, Jocelyn Saldi, Vinny Joyce, Brianna Conley. Other photos on Page 17.

Quincy Sun Photo/Emily Taft

Paul E. Barry Memorial Square Dedication Sunday In Wollaston

The city will dedicate a square in Wollaston Center on Sunday, Veterans Day at 11:30 a.m. in honor of Paul E. Barry, who was known for many years as the "Mayor of the Wollaston."

Mr. Barry died earlier this year.

Mayor Thomas Koch and city officials will be joined by members of the Barry family to dedicate the square at the corner of Beale and Cushing streets in memory of Barry, who was known to countless residents and business owners over the years for his constant presence in the Wollaston Center neighborhood.

borhood.

He volunteered many hours for various groups over the years, and could often be found washing business windows in Wollaston Center, where he was fondly known as the "Mayor of Wollaston."

For more Quincy news, visit:

The Quincy Sun.com

Historic Building Damaged - Page 11 ♦ Real Estate Transactions - Page 23
Good Shepherd Church Welcomes Pastor Ryan Lun - Page 9

World War II Veteran Francis Trubiano On Honor Flight

LONG-TIME QUINCY resident Francis Trubiano recently joined 65 World War II veterans from around New England on an Honor Flight to Washington, DC. Honor Flight is a non-profit organization that honors veterans by providing them a trip to visit the World War II Memorial and other Washington sites. Trubiano served with the U.S. Marine Corps in the Pacific Theater during the War. He was one of five Trubiano brothers from Quincy who served overseas simultaneously during the War and the only one still alive. The 90-year-old Trubiano made the trip in honor of his brothers, none of whom ever had the opportunity to see the World War II Memorial.

Photo Courtesy Lou Trubiano

FRANCIS TRUBIANO, a longtime Quincy resident and World War II veteran, also visited the Iwo Jima Memorial in Washington, D.C. as part of trip to our nation's capital with Honor Flight. For Information on Honor Flight contact email Joe Byron honorflightnewengland@gmail.com or call 603-518-5368.

Photos Courtesy Lou Trubiano

WORLD WAR II Memorial at night in Washington, D.C.

Photo by Robert Bosworth

SAL Veterans Day Observance Sunday At Flags For Vets Island

The Sons of the American Legion Squadron 294, Cyril P. Morrisette Post, will hold a Veterans Day observance Sunday, Nov. 11 at 10 a.m. at the Flags for Veterans Island, located at the intersection of Pleasant and School Streets in Quincy.

There are over 100 flags on the island representing those who have served, are still serving and those who have paid their final call so America remains a free country.

For more information, call 617-472-5952 or 617-590-4082.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

Completely Prepared by
The Common Market

Small Turkey Dinner (feeds 8-10)

14-16 lb Fresh Whole Roasted Turkey
Pan Gravy (2 quarts)
Baked Herb Stuffing (1/2 pan)
Mashed Potatoes (1/2 pan)
Butternut Squash (1/2 pan)
Cranberry Sauce (1 quart)
Rustic Dinner Rolls (1 dozen)
1 Apple Pie & 1 Pumpkin Pie

$155.00 plus tax

Large Turkey Dinner (feeds 14-16)

14-16 lb Fresh Whole Roasted Turkey &
14 lb. Fresh Bone-In Roasted Turkey Breast
Pan Gravy (4 quarts)
Baked Herb Stuffing (1g full pan)
Mashed Potatoes (1g full pan)
Butternut Squash (1g full pan)
Cranberry Sauce (2 quarts)
Rustic Dinner Rolls (2 dozen)
2 Apple Pies & 1 Pumpkin Pie

$215.00 plus tax

* limited orders available ****

Call 617-773-9532 to place your order

Thanksgiving orders must be placed no later than Friday, Nov 16th

Additional side dishes are also available
We will provide detailed re-heating instructions

www.commonmarketrestaurants.com

ATTENTION Local Veterans

The doctors and staff of Oral Surgery South in cooperation with the City of Quincy Office of Veterans Services and in honor of Veterans Day would like to show gratitude to our local veterans by hosting a

Veterans Appreciation Day
Monday, November 12, 2012 from 10am to 3pm
24 Quincy Ave, Quincy

No charge examinations;
free cancer screenings; free radiographs;
and free minor procedures will be performed on veterans with proof of military service (DD214, discharge papers, VA ID)

is pleased to partner with Oral Surgery South by offering Complementary Diagnostic Services for all veterans

Complementary Refreshments thanks to the Coffee Break Cafe

Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

Please call Oral Surgery South - Quincy Office:
617-773-5656 to arrange an appointment time.
We will accommodate walk-ins also on a space available basis.

Robert E. Lincoln, D.M.D. • John C. Cataudella, D.M.D.
Joseph S. Leibovici, D.M.D. • Tony M. Rubeiz, D.M.D.

Veterans' Day Parade Steps Off At 1 PM Sunday

Cont'd From Page 1

discharged in 1972 with the rank of staff sergeant.

During the war he was awarded the Air Medal with Bronze Oak Leaf, Vietnam Service Medal with three Bronze Stars, Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross with Palm, Air Force Combat Action Medal, Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal, Air Force Outstanding Unit with "V" device, Presidential Unit Citation Medal, Air Force Good Conduct Medal, National Defense Service Medal, and Small Arms Expert Ribbon as well as five other medals.

After his discharge, Nicholson took night classes at Mass Bay Community College and Northeastern University, obtaining a degree in public administration. He also began his career with the Department of Massachusetts American Legion following a chance meeting with then-House Speaker Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill. Nicholson was one of the first Vietnam veterans hired in the country and worked at the Boston VA regional office as a department service officer.

Nicholson soon gained a reputation for being a staunch advocate for veterans and their families. He received letters of commendation from the VA's chairman of the Board of Veterans Appeals in Washington for the detail and technical quality of the appeals briefs he'd prepared. The chairman of the Army Traveling Discharge Review Board also commended him for the appeals he made before that board, citing the fact that he did not lose any of the more than 60 cases he argued before them.

During his time as a service officer Nicholson also served as the only non-medical professional on the Boston VA Outpatient Clinic's Human Studies Committee which was tasked with reviewing and establishing standards for informed patient consent to any research proposal involving patients or their records. As a result of that experience, Nicholson was chosen to serve Boston VA Regional Deans Committee. There he served alongside the deans of Harvard, Boston University, and Tufts Medical Schools.

Nicholson served for several years as the chairman of the then-Massachusetts Vietnam Veterans Civic Council which was comprised of a number of Vietnam veterans advocacy groups, college campus veterans representatives, and some state and federal representatives.

Since 1980, Nicholson has served as the Morrisette Legion Post's Vietnam veteran commander. He is also a past president of the post. In 1981, he was designated by the Mass.

Department of the American Legion as one of two outstanding Massachusetts Vietnam veteran Legionnaires and went to Washington for a special Legion ceremony honoring Vietnam veterans from around the country.

Starting in 1979 Nicholson worked as a counselor and claims examiner for the Boston VA regional office. In 1984 he was appointed to outbased counselor duties at the Brockton and West Roxbury Medical Centers, where he spent the next decade counseling and assisting veterans at their bedside. He enjoyed a good reputation for his knowledge and bedside manner.

In 1995, Nicholson was named field investigator for the regional office's fiduciary activities section. He eventually became the senior field investigator and would be named by the VA central office as one of just three subject matter experts in the area of guardianship/fiduciary activities.

In 2007 he retired after 35 years of service to veterans and their families. Nicholson remains involved in the community through his involvement with the Morrisette Post and as the adjutant, senior vice commander, and commander-elect of the Quincy Veterans Council.

Organizations participating in the parade include the William R. Caddy Detachment M.C.L., Robert I.

Cont'd On Page 14

HENRY (HANK) BRADLEY (left), retired director of Quincy Veterans' Services and longtime member of the American Legion, receives a mayoral commendation from Mayor Thomas Koch in recognition of Bradley's 20 years of service to Shriners Hospitals for Children. "Your selflessness and passion for this cause are an inspiration to our community. On behalf of a grateful city, I thank you for all that you have done to help young children going through a significant trauma in their lives," Koch said in making the presentation.

Photo Courtesy Mayor's Office

JOAN'S OLYMPIC GYM
GYMNASTICS & DANCE SCHOOL
 WAS VOTED #1 ON THE SOUTH SHORE
 Ages 2 - Adult
NOW ACCEPTING REGISTRATIONS!
781-843-9624
 "An Excellent Education Environment For Your Child"
 197 Quincy Avenue, Braintree • www.joansolympicgym.com

PAYING TOP DOLLAR
for your unwanted jewelry!

APPRAISING, BUYING & SELLING...

Del Greco Coins

399 WASHINGTON STREET ♦ ROUTE 53 ♦ WEYMOUTH
 LOCATED OFF RT. 3, EXIT 16A, TO RT. 53N
 ♦ 781.337.5069 ♦
 HOURS: MONDAY - FRIDAY 9-5 • SATURDAY 9:30-2

Colonial Federal Savings Bank and its employees invite you to join us in honoring America's veterans on November 11th.

"On that day let us solemnly remember the sacrifices of all those who fought so valiantly, on the seas, in the air, and on foreign shores, to preserve our heritage of freedom, and let us reconsecrate ourselves to the task of promoting an enduring peace so that their efforts shall not have been in vain."

Dwight D. Eisenhower

COLONIAL FEDERAL SAVINGS BANK

"Your neighborhood bank!"

QUINCY: 15 Beach Street 617-471-0750 • 1000 Southern Artery (Residents only) 617-479-1430
 HOLBROOK: 802 South Franklin Street 781-767-1776
 EAST WEYMOUTH: Middle & Washington Streets 781-331-1776 • www.colonialfed.com

Insured FDIC

Obama, Warren, Lynch Win

Cont'd From Page 1

votes over the Republican ticket of Mitt Romney and Paul Ryan. Obama-Biden polled 24,714 votes here while Romney, a former Massachusetts governor, and Ryan, a Congressman from Wisconsin, received 14,816 votes.

Obama and Biden – who won the state of Massachusetts and its 11 electoral votes – will be inaugurated into their second terms on Jan. 21 in Washington, D.C.

Obama was projected the winner around 11:20 p.m. after winning the battleground state of Ohio to give him the required 270 Electoral votes to win another term.

The popular vote was very close as well as Romney and Obama were separated by about a one percent margin with results still being counted in about a half dozen states.

In the closely watched and hotly contested U.S. Senate Race, Warren, a Harvard law professor, defeated the incumbent Brown by 2,903 votes here. She received 21,469 votes in Quincy while Brown polled 18,566 votes. Statewide, Warren bested Brown by a 53-47 percent margin.

Senator-elect Warren, a Democrat, will reclaim the Senate seat long held by the late Ted Kennedy. Brown, a Republican, had won the seat in a special election in January, 2010 and carried Quincy in his upset win nearly three years ago.

On Tuesday, Brown was trying to become the first Republican in Massachusetts to be re-elected to the U.S. Senate since Edward Brooke in 1972.

In the race for Congress in the new 8th district that includes Quincy, Lynch easily outdistanced Selvaggi, a Boston businessman, by about a 4-to-1 margin.

In Quincy, Lynch polled 30,286 votes while Selvaggi received 7,494 for a margin of 22,792 votes.

Former Quincy Congressman William Keating was also a big winner Tuesday as he won a second term and will now represent the new 9th district.

On the ballot questions, Quincy was also in step with the state on Questions 1 and 3 while Question 2 was too close to call at press time.

Here's how the city voted on the three laws proposed by initiative petition:

Question 1 - Availability of Motor Vehicle Repair Information. Quincy voted 30,006 YES and 4,624 NO. State-wide at press time, Question 1 appeared to be 85 percent YES and 15 percent NO.

Question 2 - Prescribing Medication to End Life. Quincy voted 17,102 YES and 20,177 NO. State-wide at press time, Question 2 was 51 percent NO and 49 percent YES.

Question 3 - Medical Use of Marijuana. Quincy voted 23,871 YES and 15,350 NO. State-wide at press time, Question 3 was 63 percent YES and 37 percent NO.

Ten Democrat incumbents who were unopposed on the ballot were also re-

GOING TO THE POLLS was also an opportunity for family time Tuesday. Michelle Holleman of Monroe Road (above) shows her seven-year-old daughter Paige how to enter a ballot into a voting machine at the Adams Academy, the polling location for Ward 5 Precinct 3. In the photo below Brian Golden marks his ballot while his sons Will, Max and Sam Golden look on at the Adams Academy.

Quincy Sun Photo/Emily Taft

Tara Golden Photography

elected Tuesday.

• Sen. John Keenan was the top vote getter on Tuesday's ballot with 31,213 votes. He was re-elected to a second two-year term.

• State Rep. Bruce Ayers secured an eighth two-year term in the First Norfolk District. Ayers, whose district includes 11 precincts in Quincy and two in Randolph, received 10,732 votes here.

• In the Second Norfolk District, state Rep. Tackey Chan was re-elected to a second two-year term. His district is comprised of 13 Quincy precincts. He received 13,928 votes in Quincy.

• In the Third Norfolk District, House Majority

Leader Ron Mariano won his 11th two-year term. Mariano's District comprises six precincts in Quincy (all five in Ward 2 and Ward 4 Precinct 5) as well as three in Holbrook and five in Weymouth. His Quincy vote was 5,695.

• Voters in Ward 3 Precinct 3 elected a new state representative. Because of redistricting, that precinct in Quincy is now part of the 13th Suffolk District. Incumbent Martin J. Walsh of Boston was re-elected to a ninth two-year term. He received 769 votes in his lone Quincy precinct.

• Former Quincy City Clerk John Gillis was re-elected to his sixth four-year term as a Norfolk County commissioner. Fellow commissioner Francis O'Brien of Dedham won his third four-year term. Gillis received 27,066 votes while O'Brien polled 13,361 votes in Quincy.

• Two other Democrat incumbents were re-elected to county posts.

• Norfolk County Clerk of Courts Walter Timilty of Milton was re-elected to a third sixth-year term while Norfolk Register of Deeds William O'Donnell of Norwood won a second six-year term. Timilty received 29,499 votes here while O'Donnell polled 29,570.

• Governor's Councillor Christopher Iannella of Boston: 29,700 votes here.

FinCom To Review Independent Auditor Letter

The City Council's Finance Committee will review a management letter from independent auditor Powers & Sullivan at a meeting Tuesday at 6 p.m.

According to Finance Chairman Joe Finn, the letter outlines any deficiencies in the city's accounting practices and someone from the firm will walk through the letter for the councillors. Each year Finn has been on the council, a similar review has taken place.

"The meeting is about providing the opportunity for the independent auditor to walk us through the letter," Finn told the Sun.

Finn said there are concerns in the letter, but it would be more suspicious if the letter didn't turn up any areas that needed to be addressed.

"I'd be more concerned if there weren't things in it," Finn said. "It outlines certain practices that need to be addressed."

The Quincy Sun

(USPS 453-060)
Published Weekly on Thursday by
The Quincy Sun Publishing Co., Inc.
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

Robert H. Bosworth
Publisher and Editor

Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.
Founder
1968 - 2009

75¢ per copy. $25.00 per year by mail in Quincy
$30.00 per year by mail outside Quincy - $38.00 out-of-state

Telephone: 617-471-3100 Fax: 617-472-3963

online at: www.thequincysun.com

email address: thequincysun@verizon.net

rbosworth@thequincysun.com

Periodicals postage paid at Boston, MA
Postmaster Send address change to:
The Quincy Sun, 1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

The Quincy Sun assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Nov. 24, 1849, John Froelich, the inventor of the first internal-combustion tractor, is born in Girard, Iowa. Froelich and investors formed the Waterloo Gasoline Traction Engine Company. The Waterloo Tractor Works, owned by John Deere since 1918, remains one of the largest tractor factories in the United States.

• On Nov. 22, 1900, the first car to be produced under the Mercedes name is taken for its inaugural drive in Cannstatt, Germany. The car was specially built for Emil Jellinek, a fan of fast, flashy cars. He bought 36 of them. In exchange, the company agreed to name the car after Jellinek's 11-year-old daughter, Mercedes.

• On Nov. 19, 1915, British airman Richard Bell Davies performs a daring rescue, swooping down in his plane to whisk a downed fellow pilot from behind the Turkish lines. The British government awarded him the Victoria Cross.

• On Nov. 21, 1934, teenager Ella Fitzgerald wins Amateur Night at Harlem's Apollo Theater. Putting her name in the hat on a bet, she'd originally planned a dance number. History was made when she changed her mind and sang "The Object of My Affection."

• On Nov. 20, 1945, a series of trials of accused Nazi war criminals, conducted by a U.S., French and Soviet military tribunal based in Nuremberg, Germany, begins. Twenty-four former Nazi officials were tried, and half would be sentenced to death by hanging.

• On Nov. 23, 1959, Robert Stroud, the famous "Birdman of Alcatraz," is released from solitary confinement for the first time since 1916. For 15 years, Stroud lived among canaries brought to him by visitors, and he became an expert in birds and ornithological diseases. In 1943, Stroud's Digest of the Diseases of Birds, a 500-page text that included his own illustrations, was published to general acclaim.

• On Nov. 25, 1963, President John F. Kennedy, who was assassinated three days earlier, is buried with full military honors at Arlington National Cemetery. An eternal flame was lit by his widow to forever mark the grave.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Scenes From Yesterday

THIS 1926 POSTCARD is a view of Hancock Street in Wollaston looking north from the end of Chapman Street. On the right was Yule's Garage now the site of Harry's Carpet One store. At the intersection of Beach and Beale Streets, there were three drug stores. On the near left corner was Klein's Drug Store, now home to Grandasia Bridal and Fashion Shop. Across on the far corner was the Beale Street Pharmacy, now home to Papa Gino's. On the left the near corner was Platner's Drug Store, now Tony's House of Pizza. A U.S. flag still flies from the top of the Klein Building on the left. All the large American Elm trees seen in this view have been replaced by fruitless Pear trees. To contact Tom Galvin, e-mail tmgalvin@verizon.net.

From the Collection of City Historian Tom Galvin

Quincy's Yesterdays

This Week
1968
44 Years Ago

Overflow Crowd At Grossman Funeral

Reuben Grossman, founder and chairman of the board of Grossman's Inc., was buried this week following a funeral at Aharath Achim Synagogue on School St.

An overflow crowd attended the service presided over by Rabbi David Jacobs of Temple Beth El and Rabbi Jacob Mann of Beth Israel Synagogue.

Six hundred employees attended a memorial service at the company's warehouse on Union St. in Braintree, with all 75 stores in the company's chain closed for a four-hour memorial.

Rev. Chester Porteus led a tribute at the Rotary Club.

WIDENING OF COPELAND STREET VOTED

The Planning Board voted to widen Copeland St. 16 feet from Furnace Brook Parkway to Cross St., necessitating land taking from the parcel being developed by School Committee member Dr. Charles Djerf, Louis Cassini, and others.

The vote came following a request by Ward 4 Councilor Albert Barilaro for a traffic study of the area because of planned developments in the area. A vote on Miller St. was tabled until an engineering study was prepared.

RETIRED TEACHERS ELECT OFFICERS

Katherine Horrigan, former head of the math department at North Quincy High School, was elected president of the Retired Teachers Association at its meeting at the Quincy Point Congregational Church. There were 125 in attendance.

Graton Howland, former business education teacher, was elected co-president. Others presiding were Catherine Black, secretary; Ruth Waring, co-secretary; Karl Briggs, treasurer, and Harold Kidder, co-treasurer.

QUINCY-ISMS

Robert Crown, age 82, was in his 20th year at "the official tabulation announcer" of election results for the city. He would read the results from the clerk's office to those crowded in the council chamber upstairs. He began at the request of City Clerk Donald Crane and had continued ever since... Upland Road would continue to be open to two-way traffic, despite the recent closing of the Adams St. bridge... QHS, with a 1-2-1-league record, was scheduled to face Chelsea. Steve McDevitt was starting quarterback... NQHS had won eight straight games over the past two years. Bobby Sleeth was starting quarterback in the game against Boston Tech... The N.Q. Improvement Office was scheduled to open at 24 Brooke St. The $2.8 million project covered 2,900 dwellings in Montclair and Wollaston and was headed by George Fleming... DPW Commissioner John Browne announce that the only bidder for the demolition of the former Army recruiting office at Coddington and Washington Streets was the Duane Company at $739... A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Harrington of Morrissey Blvd. at Quincy City Hospital... Marine Lance Corporal Joseph Pignato of Common St. was killed in Vietnam... Chief Francis Finn announced a complete reorganization of the police department with a change in command staff and transfer of men in all three shifts... David MacIntosh, Jr. was married to Jane Goldthwaite... Kathleen Connelly of Furnace Brook Pkwy. was engaged to Robert Lynch... Granatino and Pratt offered a two-family house in Quincy Point for $21,900... Wire Inspector William Pitts announced permits for the new Quincy Savings Bank branch on Franklin St. and the new branch on Southern Artery for South Shore National Bank... Quincy's last veteran of the Spanish War, John Husten, age 90, participated in the Veterans' Day parade... John Perkins of the American Friends Service Committee conducted a seminar at the Jewish Community Center on legal rights, obligations and alternatives to the draft laws... Cong. James Burke unveiled a Vietnam Memorial in ceremonies at Mount Wollaston Cemetery, assisted by Mayor James McIntyre and five Vietnam veterans: William Campitelli, Russell Grondin, Nick Caldwell, Joseph Colligan and Richard LaLond... A son was born at Quincy City Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. John Ricciuti of Stoney Brae Rd... Quincy Point Junior High School celebrated its 40th anniversary, headed by Ann Bass, president of the PTA, principal Theodore Silva and Peter Doucette, president of the student council. Acting Supt. Lawrence Creedon and Helen Pomarico, the second school principal, were speakers.

READERS FORUM

Peter Gleba Photos

Thanks For Height Warning Signs At Red Line Bridge

Thanks to Representative Tackey Chan and his staff assistant Brenda Ryan for contacting the MBTA regarding the Red Line bridge over the Furnace Brook

Parkway.

This resulted in the posting of height warning signs on both sides of the bridge. A number of trucks have become stuck under the bridge in the past. This resulted in traffic disruptions and potential structural damage to the bridge.

Now this part of Quincy has become safer for generations to come. One can only hope that truck drivers will heed these signs.

Peter Gleba
Hancock Street
Quincy

QHS Science Department Receives $6,000 Grant

The Quincy High School Science Department has received a $6,000 GEMS grant spanning a three-year period.

Leah Guinta, a Quincy High School parent initiated the application procedure with the help of Principal Frank Santoro, and Science Department Chairman Edward Smith.

The Gelfand Family Charitable Trust (GFCT), through the Gelfand Endeavor in Massachusetts Schools (GEMS), has teamed up with the Massachusetts Science & Engineering Fair (MSSEF), through the "Curious Minds Initiative" (CMI).

The collaborative goal is to help increase the number of Massachusetts schools and teachers that use the inquiry-based learning model for teaching science and engineering.

GEMS aims to inspire students through direct engagement in the discovery process and the excitement of science fair competition. Through a multi-year partnership with individual schools and mentor organizations working together, GEMS provides schools and science educators with the requisite training, resources and tools to integrate real-world, inquiry-based learning activities into their existing curricula, and to create school-based Science & Engineering Fair Initiatives (SEFI).

Quincy High School is planning guest speakers and after school workshops for students and teachers to work on projects and with equipment that time does not allow during the regular school day.

These workshops will also allow staff members, outside of the science department, to learn more about initiatives, projects, and planning for the annual science fair. This year's Science and Engineering Fair is scheduled for Feb. 13 and is expecting over 250 student participants.

Quincy High School is

Chess Club To Host Open House Nov. 14

South Shore Chess Club will host an Open House at its new meeting location at Wendy's Restaurant, 520 Southern Artery, Quincy, Wednesday, Nov. 14 from 7 to 10 p.m.

The event is free and open to everyone who is interested in chess (children under 14 must be accompanied by an adult.

actively recruiting volunteers, guest speakers, and judges for the 2012-2013 school year. For more information and to get involved with the Quincy High School Science Department, please contact Department Chairman, Edward Smith at 617-376-3366 or edwardsmith@quincypublicschools.com.

Activities include free small Frosty or free small coffee for all new players; a raffle to win a free US Chess Federation One-Year Membership, tournament chess games and casual chess games.

For more information, call Dan from the SSCC at 857-888-1531 or visit www.southshorechess.com

Arts & Entertainment

KATHY AND AL Cameron enjoy a dance at the Kennedy Center.

Christmas Fair Nov. 17 At Union Church

Union Congregational Church, 136 Rawson Rd., Wollaston, will sponsor its annual fair Saturday, Nov. 17 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the church's gymnasium.

The theme of this year's event is "Christmas by the Bay" and will feature homemade baked goodies, handcrafted gift items, raffles and seasonal decorations as well as a snack bar.

There will also be a silent auction. Items include a Hot Air Balloon adventure, signed Red Sox baseball, collectibles, antiques, local services, restaurants, and entertainment. There will also be raffle for a new Kindle Fire.

The fair has been a long-standing tradition in Union's history, and has become a holiday tradition for the Wollaston neighborhood.

332 Victory Road,
Marina Bay, MA 02171
617 471-3511

SUNDAY FOOTBALL
1 PM TIL CLOSE
PITCHER OF COORS LIGHT &
ORDER OF CHICKEN WINGS
(Double dipped, Buffalo, BBQ or Terriyaki)
$9.99
(minimum of 2 people to purchase)

1/2 Price Pizzas
Any Size. Any Topping

SUNDAY BRUNCH
10AM-2PM
$10.99
$5.99 12yrs and younger

DINNER FOR TWO
Sunday thru Thursday
$29.99
with a bottle of wine

Visit our website at captainfishbones.com for more details

Olde Kids Swing Bang At Kennedy Center Dec. 7

Dance Band Back By Popular Demand

Due to popular demand, the Olde Kids Swing Band is returning to the Kennedy Center Friday, Dec. 7th from 1 to 3:30 p.m.

The band has appeared at the Kennedy Center on several occasions this year, always to a full house.

The Olde Kids is a dance band in the style of the big bands of the 30's and 40's. The big band recreates the glamour and romance of an era that lasted 10 years.

Retired and semi-retired musicians are part of a resurgence of interests in live, glamorous and romantic music.

The band was formed in 1991 and consists of six saxes, four trombones, four trumpets, four on rhythm and a vocalist.

Tickets for their December appearance at the Kennedy Center are available at the Kennedy Center. For more information, call the Quincy Council on Aging at (617) 376-1506.

HANDING OUT refreshments at a recent Olde Kids Swing Band concert held at the Kennedy Center are (from left) Pat Siedel, Karen Black and Barbara McNamara of River Bay Club. The refreshments were provided by River Bay.

SHIRLEY AND FRANK Sweet dance to the music of the Olde Kids Swing Band at a recent concert at the Kennedy Center.

Photos Courtesy Quincy Council on Aging

Scandinavian Jul Bazaar At Viking Club Friday, Saturday

Scandinavian Jul Bazaar will be held Friday, Nov. 9 from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Saturday, Nov. 10 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the South Shore Viking Club, 410 Quincy Ave., Braintree.

The bazaar will feature an Import Table with Norwegian silver jewelry, linens, tompets, Dala Horses, and more.

There will also be tables with baked goods, candy, Christmas Boutique items, Attic treasures, knits, and Kaffe Stuga (coffee shop) with home cooked food.

For information call 781-337-0736.

Special Ed Parents Meet Tonight

The Quincy Parents Advisory Council to Special Education (QPAC) will meet Thursday, Nov. 8 at 7 p.m. at Quincy High School, 100 Coddington St.

This is an open, public meeting.

A QPAC volunteer will be available to parents and guardians at 6:30 p.m. to offer individualized assistance and support. For more information, call 617-653-7846.

Nov. 14 Event Celebrates Native American Heritage Of Squantum, Harbor Islands

The Squantum Community Association will host a program Wednesday, Nov. 14 at 7 p.m. focusing on the first people of Squantum and the Boston Harbor Islands discovered through story, study and song.

Archaeologist Ellen Berkland, of the Department of Conservation and Recreation, will shed light on the Native American heritage of the Squantum area discovered through explorations of the Boston Harbor Islands.

A member of the Massa-chuset tribe, the first people of Squantum and the tribe for which our state was named, will share stories of the people who first fished these waters and walked these shores.

Harry Young, "Gray Owl," Hawk Clan Chief of Algonquin Seneca Me'tis heritage, Canada, will share drumming and songs of the northern woodland native heritage. Young will explain the history and significance of these songs, and will appear in traditional regalia along with his wife and native shawl dancer, Deborah, "Gentle Doe Eyes," of Azorian Pokanoket Me'tis heritage.

The public is welcome to attend the free event at the First Church of Squantum, 164 Bellevue St., Squantum.

For more information, visit SquantumScoop.com.

*Puzzled about
your future?*

Let us help you put the pieces together.

Regina Russell's Tea Room

We have been in the Psychic business since 1973.
Walk-in service & private readings by appointment.
Psychics available for home and office parties.

Phone Readings Available: 888-655-3456

Open Monday thru Friday 10:30 am - 9:30 pm
Saturday & Sunday 10:30 am - 5:00 pm

40 Franklin Street - Quincy, MA - Phone: 617-472-9806
Free weekly horoscopes on our website: www.rtsaroom.com

COMEDY CABARET
SPOOFING THE BAY STATE!

Common Market
97 Willard, Quincy
Saturday Nov. 10
Call 617-773-9532
8:30 pm - $25 pp

Social

55 Kennedy Center Members Take Bus Trip To New York City

FIFTY-FIVE members of the Kennedy Center took a bus trip to New York City last week - just before Hurricane Sandy struck. The weather was beautiful the day they were there. They went to Ellis Island and the Statue of Liberty Museum followed by a tour of the 9/11 Memorial. The photo above the group with the Statue of Liberty in the background. At left are two Kennedy Center staff members who also went on the trip: Carolyn Joyce (left) and Kay MacPherson.

Beaches And Coastal Commission Program On 'Ghosts Of Boston' Nov. 13

The Quincy Beaches and Coastal Commission will host an evening with Journalist Sam Baltrus Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 6:30 p.m. at the Richard Koch Park and Recreation Building, 1 Merymount Parkway.

Baltrus is the author of "Ghosts of Boston, Haunts of the Hub." Copies of the book, which puts a different spin on some of Boston's most famous and not so known Ghost tales, will be available for sale from the author.

For more information, call 617-773-1534.

The program is sponsored by the City of Quincy, Mayor Thomas Koch and Quincy Beaches and Coastal Commission, Leo Kelly chairman.

Walk, Discussion On Civil War Saturday

The Park Department's Environmental Treasures program and the Quincy Historical Society are offering a free program Saturday, Nov. 10 at 10 a.m.

Following an illustrated presentation focusing on Quincy's role in the Civil War, Dr. Ed Fitzgerald, Executive Director of the Society, will lead participants on a brisk walk through Quincy Center highlighting places of significance during the war and its aftermath.

There will be a tour of Hancock Cemetery with a Civil War emphasis.

Tony Ricci of the Quincy Historical Commission will discuss the recently completed Conservation Management Study of the Cemetery. Following the tour, participants are invited to return to the Society to sample Civil War era refreshments and view the Society's excellent Civil War exhibit.

Participants should meet at Quincy Historical Society, 8 Adams St. (parking available in rear). For more information and inclement weather rescheduling, call 617/472-0799.

Snug Harbor School Winter Fest Dec. 8

The Snug Harbor School Winter Fest will be held Saturday, Dec. 8 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the school, 333

Palmer St., Quincy.

The event will feature crafts, face painting, raffles, games, food, pictures with Santa (he arrives at noon) and more.

Vendors and crafters are wanted. Contact PTO at snugharborpto@yahoo.com.

'Shopping Extravaganza' Nov. 15 At The View Restaurant

The View Restaurant and Tavern located at 357 West Squantum St., Quincy, will host a "Girls Night Out Shopping Extravaganza" Thursday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m.

Vendors will include: jewelry, handbags, photography, sports memorabilia, wreaths, gingerbread houses, accessories and gifts.

Everyone is welcome.

Admission is free and food and drinks will be available.

Drawing Classes Begin Nov. 13 At Kennedy Center

Drawing classes will be held at the Kennedy Center beginning Tuesday, Nov. 13.

The six-week program will be held on Tuesdays from 1 - 3 p.m. and the cost is $93.

This class is designed to develop drawing skills, learn about different drawing mediums, depth, shading and more. Instructor is Deni Sindel who has her BFA from Hartford Art School, University of Hartford.

To sign up, call the Quincy Council on Aging at (617) 376-1506.

Find us on Facebook
Highlights of Local Programming found on...

QATV

Quincy Access Television
88 Washington Street
Quincy, MA 02169
617-376-1440

Public Access Channel 8

Thursday, November 8th:
7:00pm: NQ vs. Pembroke Girls Soccer
10:30pm: Freddy K

Friday, November 9th:
11:30am: LIVE: Currently in Quincy
5:30pm: Sound Advice

Saturday, November 10th:
11:55am: The Music of the Beatles, Part 3
11:00pm: Penny Dreadful

Sunday, November 11th:
10:00am: Bethany Church
10:00pm: The Constitution: Then & Now

Monday, November 12th:
12:00pm: Veterans Day 2011
7:00pm: USS Quincy Remembrance

Tuesday, November 13th:
6:00pm: Eye on Quincy
8:00pm: Bringing History Home

Wednesday, November 14th:
8:00pm: LIVE: Whispers from the Other Side
9:00pm: Free Our Voices

Government Access Channel 11

Thursday, November 8th:
7:30pm: Media Advisory: Neponset Bridge
8:30pm: At the Library: November

Friday, November 9th:
6:00pm: City View with Mayor Koch
7:30pm: Quincy In Focus
8:00pm: In the Know: Influenza

Saturday/Sunday, November 10th/11th:
9:00am: City View with Mayor Koch
11:30am: At the Library
12:00pm: FYI:QHD Home Food Safety
1:00pm: Norfolk County Prevention Coalition
2:00pm: Update DPW: Fall Season
7:00pm: Media Advisory: Neponset Bridge

Monday, November 12th:
8:00pm: Bringing History Home

Tuesday, November 13th:
6:00pm: LIVE City Council Finance
7:30pm: LIVE City Council

Wednesday, November 14th:
7:00pm: City Council Finance 11/13
8:30pm: City Council 11/13

Programming is subject to change. For a complete list of programs, please consult our website at www.qatv.org

Mari's Place

35 Washington St., Quincy

617-471-1200

WWW.MARISPLACE.COM

SUNDAY - THURSDAY
4 p.m. to Close

21-TOPPING PIZZAS FOR $10

MONDAY
Wii Bowling
w/50¢ Wings
@ 8PM

WEDNESDAY
Karaoke 9PM

THURSDAY NIGHT
Open Mic

FRIDAY- Gourmet Night

THURSDAY THRU SUNDAY
Live Bands

FRI. & SAT. at 11PM
LOBSTER RAFFLE

MEAT RAFFLE
SUN., DEC. 2ND
2:00PM

All Raffles Benefit Free Spirit Fund

$10.00 EVERY DAY
32 oz. Pitcher Bud or Bud Light w/10 Buffalo Wings OR 1 Topping Pizza
$5.00 refills

HOME-MADE DAILY SPECIALS

FOUR STAR PAPER & PARTY OUTLET

THANKSGIVING ENTERTAINING

Tableware & Decorations

Candy, Cake & Pie Boxes

Disposable Pie Plates, Roasting Pans & Food Containers

SPECIAL: Dinner Napkins 100ct $1.60

84 Liberty St., Quincy

(617) 773-7773

Mon. - Fri. 8:30-5:00 Sat. 8:30-3:00

Marie's Kitchen

BY MARIE D'OLIMPIO

John's Roast Pork With Stuffing

When you're invited to my brother John and Anita's home, it goes without saying that the dinner will be gourmet style.

That's how it was last week when he served a moist delicious roast pork and when I asked him how he prepared it, he told me that instead of defrosting the meat which most of us do, he cooked it frozen with great results

ROAST PORK WITH STUFFING

4-5 pounds pork roast
3 white potatoes
2 sweet potatoes
1 medium onion (sliced)
salt and pepper
Stuffing

Cut the white and sweet potatoes in 2 inch or so squares. Season the potatoes and sprinkle a little oil over them. Place them on the bottom of a large roasting pan with about a half inch of water on the bottom. Place the seasoned frozen pork roast on top. Bake in a 350 -degree oven until the pork is done.

While that is cooking make a favorite stuffing. You can either follow the directions on a stuffing mix bag, or sauté celery, onion, and then add a stuffing mix. Cook until done and set aside.

When the pork is done, remove it and place aluminum foil over it until ready to slice.

Just before serving, place the cooked stuffing in the baking pan on top of the potatoes. Continue baking until stuffing is well blended. The liquid from the roast, plus the added water, made a delicious gravy. When ready to serve, slice the pork and then place it on top of the stuffing and potatoes.

What a presentation!

Jean's Delicious Milky Fish Chowder

While talking to my niece Jean on the phone, she told me she found a delicious recipe for fish chowder that she had just made for her dad and it sounded so good I asked her to mail it to me for today's recipe.

In this recipe it calls for two pounds of fish, but one pound can be used depending on the amount you want to make.

MILKY FISH CHOWDER

2 pounds skinless boneless haddock or cod
3 cups water
Salt and pepper to taste
6 slices bacon (chopped)
2 onions (chopped)
2 medium potatoes (cubed)
3 cups whole milk (she used skim)
4 tablespoons butter (she used Oliveo margarine)

2 cups chowder crackers (optional)

In a large pot, cook the fish and water along with a pinch of salt. Bring to a boil and then simmer for about 10 minutes or until the fish flakes easily with a fork. Flake the fish into pieces.

In a skillet over medium heat, cook the bacon until it starts to release some of the fat. Add the onions and cook until bacon is crisp.

Then add the bacon, onion and potatoes to the water and fish and simmer for about 15 minutes or until potatoes are tender.

Add the milk and butter and simmer for another 20 minutes. Add the pepper and more salt if you wish.

Serve hot with the crackers.

NQHS Class of 1972 Reunion Nov. 23

North Quincy High School Class of 1972 will hold its 40th year class reunion Friday, Nov. 23 at 7 p.m. at the Best Western Adams Inn, 29 Hancock St.,

North Quincy.

Cost is $35 per person.

Make checks payable to Linda Lannon/NQHS Class of 1972 and send payment no later than Nov. 12 to Linda (Vitagliano) Lannon, 33 Churchill St., Milton, MA 02186.

For more information, email nqhs72@gmail.com.

Steven Chung Inducted Into Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society

Steven Chung, a 2011 graduate of Quincy High, was recently inducted into Alpha Lambda Delta National Honor Society at a ceremony held at the University of Massachusetts.

Chung, a sophomore at UMass Boston, is majoring music with a minor concentration in communications and broadcasting.

Alpha Lambda Delta was founded at the University of Illinois in 1924 specifically to honor excellent academic achievement in higher education. The honor society extends membership to students that have maintained a GPA of 3.5 or higher throughout the first year of academic studies.

In addition to his induction in the national honor society, Chung was awarded the Susan Cunningham Campbell Endowed Scholarship from the Performing Arts Department at UMass Boston. The purpose of this substantial award is to promote and reward both academic and musical excellence at the university. Steven was selected for this award by a formal audition process accompanied by an application, transcript, and faculty letters of recommendation.

STEVEN J. CHUNG of Quincy with J. Keith Motley, PhD, chancellor of the University of Massachusetts/Boston. Chung was recently inducted into the Alpha Lambda Delta National Honor Society.

During his first year at UMass Boston, Chung was selected to represent the university as student ambassador at the Founder's Circle dinner event "Celebrating Inquiry, Creativity and Discovery," held on May 8. This event honors major benefactors to the university.

Chung was selected to speak once again at the Lampas Society annual luncheon with Chancellor J. Keith Motley, PhD., held at UMass Boston June 8. The Lampas Society recognizes alumni, faculty, and friends who support the university with a planned gift.

Chung spoke at these events about the importance of education, mentors, and having a nurturing teaching staff. He attributes his success and accomplishments to his family and the many mentors and teachers that he has encountered at UMass and throughout his years in the Quincy Public Schools.

Holiday Fair Nov. 14 At 1000 Southern Artery

The 46 annual Holiday Fair at 1000 Southern Artery will be held Wednesday, Nov. 14 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The Holiday Fair features hand sewn/quilted items, handmade beaded jewelry, woodshop creations, costume jewelry, homemade goodies, handmade calligraphy cards, white elephant, plants, floral silk arrangements, raffles, ceramics, and much more. A visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus is also planned.

The day concludes with a live/silent auction at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. Silent auction bids close at 7 p.m. All are welcome.

Free Movies At North Quincy Branch Library

Free movie matinees are set for Wednesdays this month at 2 p.m. at the North Quincy branch of the Thomas Crane Public Library, 381

Hancock St., Quincy.

November's movies, selected with older adults in mind, are four classic black-and-white feature films:

Nov. 7: The Big Sleep
Nov. 14: On the Waterfront
Nov. 21: Psycho
Nov. 28: Arsenic and Old Lace

Film screenings are sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

For more information, visit thomascranepubliclibrary.org or call 617-376-1320.

Fitness Unlimited BEYOND health club for women

A WORKOUT

It's the Fitness Unlimited experience.

You will feel it the first day you come in, more comfort and more enjoyment. This is what sets us apart from all the other clubs and it all translates to you achieving superior results! Experience it today.

Limited-time Introductory Offer:

8 weeks for $95

New members only.

• 80+ group classes per week • Personal Training • Yoga • Cardio • Strength • Fiteenz • Group Cycle
• Expert Weight Loss • Pilates Reformer Studio • Child Care • Walk-in Sauna and Steam Room

EAST MILTON • 364 Granite Avenue • 617-698-0260 • JOIN ONLINE TODAY @ www.fitnessunlimited.com

AGNITTI INSURANCE

HOME • AUTO • BUSINESS
LIFE • FINANCIAL

Anthony L. Agnitti, CIC, LIA
Certified Insurance Counselor
Licensed Insurance Advisor
CALL FOR A QUOTE ON PROPER INSURANCE
COVERAGE AT COMPETITIVE PRICES!
ASK ABOUT OUR AUTO AND
HOMEOWNER INSURANCE
DISCOUNT PROGRAMS
24-Hour Emergency Access

770-0123

21 FRANKLIN ST., QUINCY

Good Shepherd Church Welcomes Pastor Ryan Lun

A dinner party celebrating the arrival of the Rev. Ryan Lun was held Oct. 20 at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, 308 West Squantum St., North Quincy.

Pastor Lun is developing a new ministry with the Chinese community called Good Neighbor Lutheran Church. The Rev. Timothy Stein, Dean of the Boston Metro Conference, and pastor of Faith Lutheran Church, Cambridge led prayers of support and commissioning.

"The core value of the new ministry is tending to the needs of Chinese children, families and the elderly," said Pastor Lun. "The ministry is named Good Neighbor Lutheran Church because we seek to be a good neighbor in the community promoting holistic development of the body, mind and soul, in order to express God's love in Jesus Christ."

Pastor Lun moved to Quincy in May and immediately began to engage and participate in community activities. During the summer he taught magic classes for kids, began conversational English classes, and participated in the August Moon Festival. Currently, he is leading English classes on Friday & Sunday mornings and assists Pastor Piphon in worship and preaching at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. He is also recruiting volunteers to serve in the community and is working on a bi-lingual book project. He is enrolled as a friendly visitor of South Shore Elderly Services.

Pastor Lun is a native of Hong Kong. After graduating from Hong Kong Polytechnic University, he worked as a registered social worker at Lutheran Social Service of Hong Kong for nine years coordinating youth volunteer programs, leadership training and working with multicultural kids in the community. During that time he became active in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Hong Kong (ELCHK) and represented his church at the 2003 Lutheran World Federation Asian Lutheran church leaders' conference in Indonesia. He was also active in mission trips, traveling to Mongolia and to a Three-self Chinese Church in Hunan, China.

Pastor Lun earned his Master of Divinity degree at Wartburg Theological Seminary in Dubuque, Iowa in 2010. Previous ministry experiences include serving as a ministry assistant in the Office of Bishop of the REV. NATHAN PIPHON (right), pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, welcomes his new colleague, Rev. Ryan Lun (left) who is developing a new ministry with the Chinese community called Good Neighbor Lutheran Church.

Photos Courtesy Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

ELCHK, an internship at Alpine Lutheran Church in Rockford, Illinois, and as an evangelist at Life Lutheran Church in Hong Kong. In the spring of 2012 he received a call from the New England Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) to serve as a pastoral mission developer with the Chinese community in Quincy. He was ordained by Bishop Margaret Payne into Word & Sacrament ministry on June 10, 2012 in Springfield, Massachusetts.

Pastor Lun, is fluent in English, Cantonese, and Mandarin and is married to

REV. RYAN LUN (right) is also welcomed to Quincy by Rev. Timothy Stein, Dean of the Boston Metro Conference and pastor of Faith Lutheran Church.

PASTOR LUN explains his new ministry to dinner guests at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

Man Hei Yip-Lun, a PhD student at the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Philadelphia. Ryan and Man Hei live in Wollaston.

For more information about Pastor Lun's ministry visit the church website at: www.goodneighborlutheran.com. He can also be reached by calling 617-328-8348.

South Cove Community Health Center

The Premier Asian Community Health Center of Massachusetts

麻州首屈一指亞裔社區醫療中心

GREAT NEWS AT SOUTH COVE QUINCY!!

Effective October 15, 2012

Our Pediatrics Department, Dental Department, Optometry Department, Ob/Gyn Department, Behavioral Health Department and our Social Services Department are now ALL LOCATED at 88 Holmes Street - please come and see our new home!

In 2013

A newly expanded Adult Medicine Department and a 340B Pharmacy will open to better serve the needs of our patients at the 435 Hancock Street Clinic.

Hancock St. Clinic
漢考克街診所

435 Hancock St., Quincy
617-745-0280

成人科、340B 藥房
及社會服務部
Adult Medicine, 340B Pharmacy
and Social Services

Holmes St. Clinic
霍姆斯街診所

88 Holmes St., Quincy
617-318-3200

婦科、小兒科、牙科、眼科、心理科、
社會服務部及家庭計劃
OB/GYN, Pediatrics, Dentistry, Optometry,
Behavioral Health, Social Services
and Family Planning

WE ARE OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK

CALL TO SCHEDULE AN APPOINTMENT TODAY!

FREE PARKING AVAILABLE

We provide assistance with MassHealth, Commonwealth Care & Health Safety Net Applications 華人醫務中心為協助有需要人士申請醫療福利及麻州全民保險計劃

WWW.SCCHC.ORG

OVER 100 STUDENTS and adults along with family and friends recently participated in the Fontbonne Academy Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk. They far exceeded their fundraising goal of $4,000, raising well over $6,000 toward breast cancer research. Student leaders Emily Nagle (left) of South Boston and Kathleen Tansey of Quincy, both seniors, worked diligently to organize this important event. Photo Courtesy Fontbonne Academy

Author To Discuss Book On Boston Harbor Islands Nov. 14

Jim Green will discuss the islands off Quincy shores and his new work Tales of Boston Harbor at The Houghs Neck Community Center, 1193 Sea St., on Wednesday, November 14 at 6:30 p.m.

The work contains three stories: a bio on clamdigging in Quincy Bay during the 1940's and 1950's; a mystery dealing with the disappearance of a schooner off Houghs Neck during a hurricane; and a daydream of skipping rocks off of Thompson's Island.

The author grew up in the neighborhoods of Houghs Neck and Adams Shore in Quincy, Massachusetts. He received a B.A. from University of California (Berkeley) and a Ph.D. in international relations from American University in Washington, D.C. He has written articles on clamdigging and international marathons in which he competed. He represented the U.S. in marathons in South Korea, Argentina, Japan, and the Pan Ams, where he won the silver medal.

His working career has been divided between teaching and tech writing. In the former he was an instructor at Holy Cross College, Worcester, MA; North Shore Community College, Beverly, MA, and public schools. In the US Army he served as a Russian translator. Married with three children, he resides in Marblehead.

NQHS Class Of 1992 Reunion

North Quincy High School Class of 1992 will hold its 20th reunion Saturday, Nov. 24 from 7 p.m. to close at The Waterclub, Marina Bay, 319 Victory Rd.,

North Quincy.

There will be light appetizers, cocktails, music and a cash bar.

Cost is $20. Pay at the door.

Good Cafe & Gourmet Treats

GUNTHER TOOTIES
Freshly Baked

1253 Hancock St.
Quincy
(Right Outside Quincy Center
7 Minutes Next to City Hall)
617-471-1866

Open 7 Days
Quincy • Hanover • Pembroke • Duxbury
www.GuntherTooties.com

"BEST BAGELS IN TOWN"
Over 30 selections Homemade Bagels & Cream Cheese

FREE
Tub of Cream Cheese with purchase of Bakers Dozen of Bagels
1 coupon per visit
Quincy Only • Expires 11/30/12

FREE
Breakfast Sandwich with purchase of any Breakfast Sandwich
1 coupon per visit
Quincy Only • Expires 11/30/12

BATES & RIORDAN, LLP Personal Injury Law

Theodore Riordan, Esq.
2011 Super Lawyer, Boston Magazine
2009 Massachusetts Attorney of the Year

Deborah Bates Riordan, Esq.
Nurse-Attorney

BatesRiordan.com Free Consultations
645 Hancock Street, Wollaston • (617) 328-8080

Student Art Exhibit At Crane Library

The Woodward School will be exhibiting student artwork created in the School's art through Nov. 30 in the Coletti Reading Room of the Thomas Crane Public Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy.

An opening reception will be held tonight (Thursday) from 6 to 8 p.m. for students, families, and friends.

All are welcome to attend.

Art teacher Erin Massa instructs students in grades 6-12 through a strong art education curriculum and guides Woodward students individually, using directed and free creativity in the classroom so that students produce truly remarkable pieces.

Student talent is highlighted through unique pieces such as Nadia Zimo's '13 under the sea inspired self portrait. Nadia came up with this idea while trying to reuse items of the same thing to recreate a portrait in an unusual way.

Project themes focus on different ideas and creative impulses, such as Anh My Ngo's Fish painting or Zoe Shannon's cartoon inspired by Tim Burton.

Students are strongly encouraged to think "outside the lines" and to create their own artistic style. Students are asked to experiment with new materials and subject matter. By mixing traditional art instruction, such as realistic portrait drawing, with modern ideas, students create a variety of extraordinary and unusual projects.

For more information, visit thomascranelibrary.org or call 617-376-1316.

'Container Gardens' Topic For Wollaston Garden Club Nov. 15

The Wollaston Garden Club, invites and encourages members of the community to attend its monthly program Thursday, Nov. 15th at 7:30 p.m. on "Container Gardens" to be held at the Wollaston Congregational Church Social Hall, 48 Winthrop Ave., Wollaston.

Deb Trickett, owner of Captured Gardens in Milton, will demonstrate how to make unique containers, using unusual plants, and tips on how to plant extraordinary and beautiful "winter" containers.

Programs for the rest of the garden club season are always held on the third Thursday of the month. More information about each program can be found on the garden club's web site at www.wollastongardenclub.org.

- Jan. 17 (7:30 p.m.) "Butterfly Gardening"
- Feb. 21 (12:30 p.m.) "Hostas & Companion Plantings"
- March 21 (7:30 p.m.) "Gardening For the Spirit"

May 16 (12:30 p.m.) "Introduction To Bonsai Design."

Members of the garden club are preparing for the club's annual Holiday Greens Sale set for Saturday, Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to noon.

Featured again this year will be wonderful outdoor containers for the winter season, lovely holiday floral arrangements, beautifully decorated wreaths and swags, live plants for gift-giving, and bags of collected greens.

Colorectal Cancer Screening Seminar Nov. 14

Dr. Peter J. Senatore from Quincy Medical Center for a free presentation about the variety of colorectal cancer screening methods Wednesday, Nov. 14 at 10 a.m. at the Thomas Crane Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy.

Colorectal cancer—the third deadliest form of cancer in the U.S.—is both highly treatable and preventable when detected early.

This program will be presented in English with Chinese interpretation.

Sponsored by the Thomas Crane Public Library, Quincy Asian Resources, Inc., Quincy Medical Center, South Shore Elder Services, Greater Boston Chinese Golden Age Center and South Shore Visiting Nurse Association.

For more information, visit thomascranelibrary.org or call 617-376-1316.

NQHS Class Of 1982 Reunion

North Quincy High School Class of 1982 will hold a 30th reunion Friday, Nov. 23 from 7 to 11 p.m. at Port 305, Marina Bay, North Quincy.

Tickets are $50 in advance or $65 at the door.

To purchase tickets, mail a check payable to NQHS Class of 1982 to Caryn's Corner, 695 Adams St., Quincy, MA 02169.

For more information, call Caryn Smith at 617-770-0536.

TURKEYS!

Bongi's - A Thanksgiving Tradition

For over 75 years - 3 Generations - Bongi's has been serving the South Shore with the highest quality Turkeys available.

This year be sure to serve your family the Best Turkey. This Thanksgiving make sure it is a Bongi's Turkey!

Bongi's will also cook & prepare a Turkey for your table.

Now taking orders for Thanksgiving

Bongi's Turkey Roast

Order now for the holidays 781-585-3302
Made in Quincy, MA

Storm, Vandals Damage Historic Building

By SCOTT JACKSON

A historic compressor building near the Granite Railway took a one-two punch from Superstorm Sandy and vandals last week.

David Hodgdon, president of the Blue Hill Adventure & Quarry Museum, was inspecting the site Friday. The first thing he noticed were missing shingles on the east side of the 90-year-old building's roof.

"Last Friday I was down there and noticed that three rows of shingles were blown off," Hodgdon told the Sun.

He suspects tropical storm force winds from Sandy ripped the shingles off because the roof is too high up for anyone to reach it. More than just the east side could be damaged, but Hodgdon couldn't inspect the western side because surrounding trees block the view.

Upon closer inspection, Hodgdon saw that five double-paned windows and the door on the eastern side were smashed. He said that damage was caused by vandals because he saw rocks lying on the ground near the shattered glass. The damage to the windows most likely happened last Wednesday on Halloween and Hodgdon believes whoever destroyed the windows did so from both inside and outside the building.

Hodgdon sent a letter to the state Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR) requesting emergency repairs to the building. According to Hodgdon, DCR received $800,000 in fees when quarries in the area were filled and that money should be used for preservation of quarries and historic sites, like the compressor building.

The windows would cost between $300 and $400 a piece to replace, Hodgdon said. In addition to the five windows broken last week, other windows that broke over the years are also in need of repair. There was no immediate estimate for damage to the roof, but with winter around the corner replacing the roof is a pressing need.

"They need to do emergency covering of the roof where it's been exposed to the elements," Hodgdon said. "Otherwise water will pour in."

In addition to damage sustained last week, the building needs repairs caused by years of disrepair. Hodgdon said all the gutters have fallen off and rafters and sill work are exposed.

The building opened in 1922 when the Granite Railway Quarry switched from steam power to air power. It housed compressors used to power equipment used in the quarries. When the Granite Railway Quarry closed in 1942, compressors in the building were moved to Utah.

New Solar LED Lights At Adams Shore Library

A solar LED lighting project has been successfully installed at the Adams Shore Library.

The pilot project was funded with a $35,000 grant from the Department of Energy through the Energy Efficiency and Conservation Block Grant. Both the Trustees of the Thomas Crane Public Library and the Department of Planning and Community Development are eager to gauge the performance of the solar technology and identify other public spaces and buildings in Quincy that could benefit from solar LED lighting.

"The solar LED lighting project is a great example of how Quincy is planning for sustainable infrastructure that will reduce Quincy's dependence on traditional energy sources while yielding economic and environmental benefits," remarked Mayor Thomas P. Koch.

The advantages of solar LED powered lighting include less costly installation, annual energy savings and zero greenhouse gas emissions. The lights are designed for a shortest day, longest night exposure to sun and can operate effectively for up to eight days under cloudy skies. In addition, LED lights last approximately three times longer than a traditional fixture which translates into reduced maintenance and bulb replacement costs.

"On behalf of the Trustees and Library staff, I look forward to collaborating with the Planning Department on future projects and programs that provide community benefits," said Library Director Harry R. Williams III.

According to Dennis Harrington, Quincy's Director of Planning, "The prominent location of the solar LED lights at the Adams Shore Library should spark a conversation about energy use and the benefits of harnessing a zero-emission, renewable resource like the sun."

Planning Department staff are winding down the administration of an $881,200 award from the US Department of Energy. The grant funding, part of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, funded a variety of green infrastructure, recycling and energy efficiency projects in Quincy.

'Mass Murder' Slide Presentation At Library Nov. 13

Historian Christopher Daley will offer an entertaining and fascinating look at some of Massachusetts' most infamous murder cases, both solved and unsolved, Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 7 p.m. at the Thomas Crane Public Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy.

The presentation is fully illustrated with photographs and artwork culled from archival, microfilm and literary sources, plus photographs of many of the murder sites and historical locations that provide a sense of the modern day context of the crimes.

The presentation will feature insights on Jesse Pomeroy "Boy Fiend", the famous boy torturer turned murderer; "Angel of Death" Jane Toppan; the Case of Grayce Asquith aka "The Merry Widow"; the Boston Strangler, Lizzie Borden and more.

Daley teaches history in the Silver Lake Regional School System in Kingston. He has formerly served as a member of the Board of Executives and Chairman of the Educational Outreach Program at the John Alden Historic Site in Duxbury, and as the Chairman of the Pembroke Historical Commission and President of the Pembroke Historical Society.

Daley has written several articles on local history and has been lecturing on historical topics throughout New England for close to 20 years.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library. For more information, call 617-376-1316.

Holy Trinity Parish Fair Nov. 17

The Holy Trinity Parish of Quincy will host "A Fair for All Seasons" Saturday, Nov. 17 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at St. Thomas Aquinas Hall, Darrow Street, Quincy.

The fair will feature hand-made crafts by South Shore artisans, raffles, kitchen, baked goods, gourmet table, kids corner, knitted items and holiday gifts.

Admission is a non-peerishable food or toiletry item. For more information, call Eileen at 617-479-4107 or 617-481-9153.

STOECKEL INSURANCE AGENCY, LLC

• stoeckelinsurance.com •

Professional Insurance Advice with a Personal Touch
for your AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS • FAMILY

128 McGrath Highway
Quincy, MA 02169-4607

617.786.7444

Your knee
has met
its match.

ShapeMatch®. It's the new technology in knee replacement. If you're interested in learning how this advancement can often improve recovery, mobility and outcomes from your knee surgery, you owe it to yourself to learn about ShapeMatch.

Visit bidmilton.org/kneereplacement today.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

Best
Western

BOOK YOUR HOLIDAY PARTY!

The Pub is the perfect place for
your office party!
Private Room for 20-30 guests

FOR LARGER EVENTS WE CAN ACCOMMODATE 30-200 IN OUR
BALLROOM

CALL
617-745-5423 FOR
MORE INFORMATION

The Adams Pub

29 Hancock Street at The Best Western Adams Inn

This Week's

Blackboard Specials:

Roasted Pork Shoulder..... $14.50

Our slow roasted pork shoulder smothered in savory gravy, served with homemade apple stuffing, mashed potato, and green beans

Prime Rib Club..... $10

Tender, juicy, prime rib shaved thin and served with horseradish mayo and bacon

Bacon and Blue Sliders..... $9

Our delicious burger sliders with smoked bacon, melted gorgonzola and caramelized onions

Seafood Casserole.... $18

Featuring fresh local lobster, succulent shrimp and scallops and topped with our homemade crabmeat seafood stuffing

Each Best Western branded hotel is independently owned and operated.

ATTENTION QUINCY RESIDENTS
DUE TO THE VETERANS DAY HOLIDAY,
MONDAY, NOV. 12, 2012, TRASH
COLLECTION DELAYS ARE AS FOLLOWS:
PICKUPS WILL BE DELAYED BY ONE DAY.
Capitol Waste, Inc.

Social Security Helps Veterans And Active Duty Military Every Day

By KRISTEN ALBERINO

Social Security Public Affairs Specialist

November 11 is more than just a national holiday; Veterans Day is a time to honor the men and women who risk their lives to protect our freedom. We at Social Security ask you to join us in saluting the men and women of the armed forces. Be sure to say "thank you" to a veteran on this important day.

For those who return home with injuries, it will be our turn to help them. If you know any wounded veterans, please let them know about Social Security's Wounded Warriors website. You can find it at www.socialsecurity.gov/woundedwarriors.

The Wounded Warriors website answers a number of commonly asked questions, and shares other useful information about disability benefits, including how veterans can receive expedited processing of disability claims. It is important to note that benefits available through Social Security are different than those from the Department of Veterans Affairs and require a separate application.

The expedited process is used for military service members who become disabled while on active military service on or after October 1, 2001, regardless of where the disability occurs.

Even active duty military who continue to receive pay while in a hospital or on medical leave should consider applying for disability benefits if they are unable to work due to a disabling condition. Active duty status and receipt of military pay does not necessarily prevent payment of Social Security disability benefits. Receipt of military payments should never stop someone from applying for disability benefits from Social Security.

A person cannot receive Social Security disability benefits while engaging in substantial work for pay or profit. However, the work activity is the controlling factor and not the amount of pay the person receives or military duty status.

Learn more by visiting www.socialsecurity.gov/woundedwarriors.

We at Social Security thank all veterans and members of the armed services for all that they do — not only on Veterans Day, but every day of the year.

Social Security Online Services ★ Convenient ★ Secure ★
www.socialsecurity.gov

QUINCY SUN VISIT — The Tiger Den from Pack 6 Houghs Neck recently visited The Quincy Sun and toured the newspaper's editorial and production offices. The scouts are learning about forms of communication and were given an explanation of how a newspaper is created and what the role of the editor and publisher performs for the newspaper. Shown in the photo from left to right are Preston Cavin (Tiger), Frankie Walsh (Tiger), Lorcan Farrell (Wolf), Joe Lateo (Tiger), Quincy Sun Publisher Bob Bosworth, Alex Galligan-Kuntupis (Tiger) and Nick Gott (Tiger). Next month the scouts will be visiting Quincy Access Television.

Brian Laroche Photo

PV2 Derek Andrews Graduates Boot Camp

PV2 Derek W. Andrews recently graduated boot camp at Fort Benning, GA from the 2nd Battalion 58th Infantry Regiment.

A 2010 graduate of Quincy High School, he is now stationed in Vilsek, Germany with the second cavalry regiment. He is the son of Darryl and Tammy Andrews of Quincy.

DEREK ANDREWS

Caitlin Fitzgerald Passes Bar Exam

Caitlin Fitzgerald, a 2006 graduate of North Quincy High School, recently passed the bar exam and is working as an assistant district attorney for Suffolk County.

Fitzgerald graduated from honors from the New England School of Law in May after graduating with honors from Worcester State College in three years.

She is the daughter of Barbara and Jack Fitzgerald of Squantum.

NQ Catholic Women's Club Memorial Mass, Meeting Tonight

The Catholic Women's Club of North Quincy will be having a Mass for deceased members today (Thursday) at 6 p.m. in the Chapel of Sacred Heart Church.

A meeting will follow in the cafeteria of Quincy Catholic Academy.

Lynn Basile, president, will conduct the business meeting.

A representative of Mary Kay Cosmetics will demonstrate various products.

Ann Egan is chairlady for the evening.

New members are welcome.

QUINT'S House of Flowers

Family Owned & Operated Since 1919

761 Southern Artery QUINCY

617-773-7620

Little Richie's Antiques

SERVING THE ENTIRE SOUTH SHORE • SINGLE PIECE OR ENTIRE ESTATE

CASH PAID FOR SCRAP GOLD & SILVER

Toys • Tools • Glass • Books • Radios • Pottery • Clocks
Coins • Knives • Jewelry • Military • Records • Cameras
Furniture • Hummels • Lladros • Royal Doultons
Maps & Atlases • Trains • Swords • Police & Fire Badges

Musical Instruments • Scientific Instruments
Oil Paintings • Oriental Rugs • Gold & Silver
Advertising Signs • Coin Operated Machines
Anything Unusual & Weird

50 Hancock Street, Braintree

781-380-8165

WWW.LITTLERICHIESANTIQUES.COM

DIANE TARAZ, director of the Lexington Historical Society Colonial Singers, will perform at the Quincy Lions Club's Civil War-themed holiday program Dec. 5 at the Quincy Historical Society.

Lions Club Civil-War Themed Program, Wine Tasting Dec. 5

The Quincy Lions Club will present a special Civil War-themed holiday program and wine tasting Wednesday, Dec. 5 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Quincy Historical Society, 8 Adams St., Quincy.

The event will feature a performance by Diane Taraz, director of the Lexington Historical Society Colonial Singers. Dressed in 1850s clothing, Taraz will sing holiday music enjoyed during the Victorian era while providing insights into the songs' origins and how the joyful message of Christmas lightened the dark times of the Civil War.

The event will also feature a wine tasting, light refreshments and the chance to view the artifacts on display as part of the Quincy Historical Society's exhibit, Quincy and the Civil War.

Tickets are $25 per person and may be purchased online at www.quincylionsclub.org. Tickets will also be available at the door.

GIRLS NIGHT OUT! Shopping Extravaganza November 15th, 7:00 PM

The View Restaurant & Tavern
PRESIDENTS GOLF COURSE
357 West Squantum St., Quincy, MA 02171
617.770.2500
BOOK YOUR PARTY NOW!!

Grandasia Bridal & Fashion

663 Hancock Street (617) 328-6380
www.grandasia.com

- Bridal/Prom Gowns
- Bridesmaids/Mothers
- Flowergirls
- Tuxedos/Suits
- Communion Outfits
- Dance Shoes
- Accessories
- Wedding Photo/Video
- Wedding Invitations
- Licensed Hair/Makeup
- Alterations

Ask the GEMOLOGIST®

BY JEFFREY M. BERTMAN
GRADUATE GEMOLOGIST

FIT FOR A QUEEN

Lovers of topaz, November's traditional birthstone, often focus their attention on the rarest variety of their favorite gemstone. "Imperial Topaz," named in honor of the Russian monarchy that was so enamored of its color, comes in pale peach, pink, orange, or champagne hues. Primarily mined in the Ouro Preto mines of Minas Gerais, Brazil, this very rare collector's gem has also been found in Russia's Ural Mountains. The Ouro Preto mines are renowned for their orange to pinkish-purple topaz that is no longer confused with the more common citrine found nearby. Highly prized pink topaz looks its best when mounted in white gold or platinum rings, pendants, or pins, which are as unique as they are beautiful and valuable.

Topaz has a uniquely radiant color that helps make it a striking choice for jewelry. We have a great selection of stunning topaz jewelry at 1402 Hancock Street, Quincy Center. Call us at 617-773-3636 and treat yourself or the one you love to dazzling jewelry.

Don't Forget: We pay cash for Gold - Platinum - Diamonds... highest prices paid.

Rogers

Diamonds... Watches... Jewelry

www.rogersjewelry.com
BANK OF AMERICA BUILDING

Quincy Receiving $360,000 To Reduce Rx Drug Abuse

By SCOTT JACKSON

Quincy will be receiving $360,000 over the next three years to help fight prescription drug abuse amongst the city's young people.

Last week, the Patrick-Murray administration announced that the Obama administration awarded the Department of Public Health (DPH) $3.6 million to address prescription drug abuse, treatment and prevention. DPH will distribute the funds to eight high-need communities to reduce prescription drug abuse, specifically in youth ages 12 to 25.

"As we work to combat prescription drug abuse, this funding will support crucial prevention services in communities that are experiencing the greatest need," said Lt. Gov. Tim Murray, chair of the Interagency Council on Substance Abuse and Prevention. "By partnering with high-need communities on this initiative, we will help to prevent younger residents from developing prescription drug use and provide a lasting impact on many families and communities across the Commonwealth."

Quincy and seven other communities — Boston, Worcester, Springfield, New Bedford, Fall River, Brockton, and Lynn — were chosen because each had more than 300 fatal and non-fatal prescription drug overdoses between 2007 and 2009. Each city will receive $120,000 a year over three years.

Impact Quincy Program Director Alejandro Rivera welcomed the announcement. According to him, the funds mean the city can be proactive and not reactive to growing prescription drug abuse.

"This is very, very good news for the city," Rivera told the Sun. "The issue of prescription medication abuse is an issue not just for the city but for the whole country. Being proactive instead of reactive is a good thing."

DPH hasn't released a set of guidelines on how the funds will be used. But Rivera anticipates them being used to help educate parents and raise awareness of the problem.

"What we have seen through people in the community and across the country is that very often young people start to abuse prescription meds from their own home," Rivera said.

As an example, Rivera said a doctor or dentist might write a prescription for five pills of a painkiller. But a parent might only take one and stop using them, leaving the rest in the house. If a teenager finds those painkillers, they could start to experiment with them and develop an addiction.

Transportation Public Hearing Tonight At NQHS Auditorium

The Massachusetts Department of Transportation (MassDOT) is hosting a public hearing from 6-8 p.m. tonight (Thursday) in Quincy High School's auditorium.

The "Your Vision, Our Future Meeting" will continue a series of statewide public meetings Thursday, engaging with residents, community leaders, and business owners to discuss the future of transportation in the Commonwealth.

Legislation passed in August requires the department to host at least six public meetings in advance of developing a long-term financing plan for the state's transportation system next year. To ensure that all regions of the Commonwealth are represented, MassDOT will hold more than 15 meetings.

Representatives from each division of MassDOT — RMV, Highway, Aeronautics and MBTA/Rail and Transit — will be available to answer questions and provide information.

Information can be found online at <http://www.mass.gov/massdot/yourvision-ourfuture>

Those who are unable to attend the meetings but wish to submit comments can do so at yourvisionourfuture@dot.state.ma.us

Hancock Park Rehabilitation & Nursing Center & Allerton House Assisted Living Community
Invite you to Join Us!

Friday, November 9, 2012 • 10:00 am - 2:00 pm
Lobby Level of our community

— Visit Vendor Booths: —

Tuccelli Confections	Sports Apparel
Avon	Usbourne Books
Tastefully Simple	Born to be Worn
Thirty One Gifts	Party Lites

Enjoy baked goods, raffles and white elephant table!

617-471-2600

Allerton House
at Hancock Park
Assisted Living Community

Hancock Park
REHABILITATION & NURSING CENTER

Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group has been serving the housing, healthcare and rehabilitation needs of seniors for over 60 years.

Volunteers Needed For Quincy Crisis Center's 'Help For The Holidays'

The Quincy Crisis Center, a program partner of the Esther R. Sanger Center for Compassion, is preparing its "Help for the Holidays" Thanksgiving deliveries, which will be made on Saturday, Nov. 17, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Volunteers are needed to deliver bags of non-perishable food and a turkey to over 300 households throughout Quincy and the South Shore.

Families and youth groups are welcome to participate together.

Delivery help is also needed Nov. 19-21. Those interested in volunteering should call 617-847-6987 to schedule a delivery time.

In preparing for the holiday deliveries, the following food is especially needed: gravy, stuffing mix and desserts.

Donations are accepted at 282 Billings Rd., Quincy, Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Crane Library Closed Nov. 12, Nov. 22

The Thomas Crane Public Library will be closed on Monday, Nov. 12 to observe Veterans Day.

For Thanksgiving, the library will close at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 21 and will remain closed all day on Thursday, Nov. 22.

The Main Library will be open regular hours again beginning Friday, Nov. 23 and continuing through the Thanksgiving weekend.

A smarter way to target prostate cancer.

MEET ARTEMIS.

In the battle against prostate cancer, there's a new weapon: Artemis. It's the fusion of 3D imaging technologies that brings pinpoint accuracy to prostate biopsies, and brings you an enhanced level of confidence in your care.

HEAR WHAT ARTEMIS HAS TO SAY AT BIDMILTON.ORG/PROSTATEHEALTH.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

Want a hearing aid that fits just right?

Then have it custom built in Quincy Mass! Get 100% digital models with advanced noise reduction capability!

November and December specials!

Try our custom in-the-ear products at half of suggested retail price! full shell model, retail $2795.00.

Special $1395.00 each!

Includes a FREE hearing evaluation, consultation and a 60 day trial period. We service what we build "in house" and same day!

The Tobias family has been serving Boston and South Shore since 1959!

(must present ad with order) Steve

617 770-3395

Stephen P. Tobias B.C. HIS
MA Lic #59
B.S. Science UMass 1978

Tobias Hearing Aids, Inc. 382 Quincy Ave, Quincy near Roche Bros and Walmart. Where Eddies Diner was!

A Call To Veterans To Join A Veterans Organization

By GEORGE NICHOLSON

When our nation needed us, we answered the call.

We served with pride, protecting our Country and each other.

At the end of that service, we, now as veterans, slipped, as quietly as we could, back into civilian status to resume our personal lives, education, careers and to raise our families. That "quiet" status however is fast becoming detrimental to us.

While America proudly supports its men and women currently in uniform, we, as veterans, know, from much past experience, that American legislators have always balked at the fact that the cost of war lasts a lifetime. As the war in Southwest Asia winds down, our elected leaders will, invariably, again begin to be guided, in their deliberations about veterans' benefits, more by the dollar sign and less by a debt of gratitude or sense of obligation.

In 1944, it was a historical fact that Congress was opposed to the adoption of what we came to know as the GI Bill because they saw it as costing too much. It was only through the dogged determination, foresight, advocacy and political strength of the major Veterans Organizations that the GI Bill passed and would go on to be proven to be one of the most significant, beneficial and productive pieces of legislation that Congress has ever passed.

It was the Veterans Organizations that designed the GI Bill; proposed it to Congress; and saw it through to fruition. It is the Veterans Organizations today that continue to safeguard, monitor and advocate for ongoing updates and improvements to the veterans benefits we enjoy.

Congress and state legislatures now relay and depend upon the advice, advocacy and proven expertise of the Veterans Organizations for guidance in the deliberations on veterans benefits and matters of National Security. It has been and always will be this way because there are never enough veteran-representatives serving in these legislatures to have sufficient impact.

GEORGE NICHOLSON

When the Veterans Organizations sit before Congress, and have the undivided ear of the legislators, they do so because they, in fact, represent several million constituents. There is strength in numbers and strong numbers usually mean positive results.

Therein lies the problem.

The Veterans Organizations are losing that strength. This trend could not come at a more precipitous time. The Afghan War is winding down. With it, comes a set of issues which are unique to that conflict just as there were issues unique to all the other wars in our Nation's history. These issues also require extensive attention, intense advocacy and unwavering commitment on behalf of our newest generation of brother veterans.

That which is not seen, is seldom heard.

It was so instilled in each of us in the service to look out for brothers and to never leave one behind, that this philosophy remains permanently ingrained in all of us. In service, we were our buddies' strength, protection and support. In civilian life, we cannot leave that charge to others. So, where are we? Why are we not present in the numbers that our fathers and grandfathers themselves projected?

They understood and valued the need for strong veterans advocacy. They carried that torch and now it is time to pass that legacy on to this current generation of veterans. The startling question is "where are they?" To be sure, there are many of this newest generation of veterans whose time is understandably dedicated to getting an education; to getting a career on track and to raising a families.

However, there are many more of us for whom those commitments have been completed and who have the time. The current fact is that we are trending towards invisibility. We are not seen by the public. Our numbers in parades are few. Our active presence in our communities is almost gone. The Veteran Organization Posts in our communities are dwindling in number and the few local posts that remain are struggling to remain afloat and survive.

Those veterans who struggle to keep their Posts and organizations alive and visible are themselves getting too far along in years to sustain the burden. They are all asking why their fellow veterans are not joining or participating and nobody has a grip on the real answer(s). What makes this entire trend and scenario so unfathomable is a simple statement of fact, namely; that there is no shortage of veterans who could join the ranks of the Veterans Organizations.

There are presently about 430,000 veterans living in the State of Massachusetts. There is presently, in this Country, a population of veterans in excess of 23 million! There are 23 million veterans in this Country and the Veteran Organizations are dying for lack of support. That fact is the unbelievable equivalent of dying of thirst in the middle of a giant fresh water lake!

I know that there is something in these changing times that has many fraternal type organizations seeing a reduction in their memberships, so we are not alone in this problem. What makes it unique to me is a belief that veterans are a very special and treasured class of American citizen. They have given their fellow citizens the freedoms they currently enjoy and take for granted.

They have seen, in other parts of the world the kinds of unimaginable deprivation and diminished quality of living that cannot be fully described and which gives them a unique and singular appreciation for all the blessings we have here in America.

In serving America in uniform, they committed to giving their lives if need be in the name of Freedom. They took time out of their own lives, the most valuable and unrecoverable commodity in our existence, to defend freedom. They bring a perspective on and dedication to the American way of life that is both needed and priceless.

If you are reading this and you are a veteran, then the "they" I speak of is You! Many of your brother veterans...and who knows, someday it might include you, need help.

We cannot leave them behind. We cannot become invisible, for doing so is to the detriment of all that we are and have done.

I urge you to seek out and join a Veterans Organization. We need to be seen for the sake of our less fortunate brothers. We need to be visible so that our communities never forget that the price of their freedom was paid for by their fellow citizen veteran/neighbors. We need to show the pride in our service that we did in our uniforms.

We need to maintain, foster and assure the kind of national vigilance that will keep us free. We need to preserve and promote, by our own example, the quality of the American way of life in our communities, now and for the future. The future of our Veterans Organizations is in your hands. They will be what you choose to make them.

Don't wait to be asked.

The larger our ranks in numbers, the more secure and certain will be our objectives. Not everyone can be active and give time to the organization and its programs, but understand that being just a "card-carrying" member does just as much for your fellow veteran. For every soldier who fired a weapon, there were at least 10 soldiers behind him in direct support.

The same holds true in the Veterans Organizations. The most important thing is to be there among the counted. You and your fellow veterans can guide the futures of the local posts as you will.

One constant in life is that things will always change and to survive you must be able to adapt to change. It is equally true that there is strength in numbers and who better to understand that than a veteran. We need to have the strength in numbers in place for those unforeseen needs of ourselves, our brother veterans and our families.

We need to have the strength in numbers that will preserve, sustain and improve the benefits available and needed. You need the Veterans Organization as your strength and they need you as theirs.

Join one. Join many if you wish, but please join.

In doing so, you serve yourself, your brother veterans, your community and you also continue to serve and preserve the best interests of your Country.

From scouting, to youth sports, to community service to local and National Security, your Veterans Organization memberships do more for you and offer more for you than you can imagine or than you could accomplish on your own.

Being a veteran of service in the United States Armed Forces is a badge of honor and distinction that should be shown and shared, now and for future generations who will serve.

Be proud. Be visible. While things in life change, there is one human dynamic that does not. People just naturally like and prefer to be associated with large and successful entities.

If we can again make the Veterans Organizations large, attractive and growing; if we can again make the face s of these organizations visible and vibrant in our communities, then the status of the American Veteran and all the we hold dear and cherished about life in this Country, now and for the future will be enhanced and preserved.

It is time, my fellow veterans to come out of the shadows. We serve no useful purpose there. Let your families and communities be proud of your service. The effort to join a Veterans Organization is minimal.

The dedicated mission of these organizations is daunting. The net impact of your membership can be monumental. The choice is yours. Please make it the right one.

God Bless America and all who have served her, past and present.

George F. Nicholson, Adjutant and Commander-Elect Quincy Veterans Council

Veterans' Day Parade Sunday At 1 PM

Cont'd From Page 3

Nickerson Post 382 A.L.; George F. Bryan Post 613 V.F.W.; Quincy Post 95 A.L.; Cyril P. Morrisette Post 294 A.L. Ladies Auxiliary and S.A.L. Squadron 294; Wollaston Post 295 A.L.; Second Marine Division Association; Houghs Neck Post 360 A.L.; Jewish War Veterans Post 193 Quincy Cavanaugh Chapter 79 D.A.V.; Vietnam Combat Veterans Combined Armed Forces-Quincy Chapter; Quincy Police and Fire Honor Guards; the combined Quincy-North Quincy Band; and North Quincy High R.O.T.C.

Individuals in the parade include parade marshal Marc Connolly, the Commander of the Quincy Veterans' Council; Nicholson; Stansbury; Past Commanders of the Quincy Veterans' Council Leo Reardon, Henry Bradley, and Anthony Wolowicz; John Pickrell, commander of the Bryan Post; Heikki Pakkala, commander of the Morrisette Post; George Fred McCray, commander of the Quincy Post; Paul Shaw, commander of the Houghs Neck Post; James Doherty, commander of the Nickerson Post; Marthur Bumgardner, commander of the Wollaston Post; Robert Lafleur, commander of the Cavanaugh Chapter; Philip Singer, commander of Memorial Post 7 AmVets; Harvey Solomon, commander of the Jewish War Veterans Post; Lawrence Norton, president of the Quincy Chapter V.C.V.C.A.F.; and Vincent Dolan, president of the second Marine Division Association.

In case of inclement weather the ceremonies will take place at 1 p.m. in the gymnasium at Quincy High School.

Enjoy Your Fall At

VILLA ROSA

Restaurant & Lounge

Lounge Full Menu • Daily Specials

COME WATCH THE PATRIOTS

705 Adams St., Quincy

617-773-0095

www.villarosaquincy.com

EARLY BIRD SPECIALS

$9.99

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday
11AM - 6PM

YOUR CHOICE:
Chicken Cacciatore
Half-Roasted Chicken
Fresh Broiled Scrod

served with pasta or salad

and a beverage of coffee, tea or soda

*Offer not valid on holidays, take-out orders or with coupons

Homemade Thanksgiving Pies

CRAIG'S CAFE
1354 HANCOCK ST., QUINCY
617-770-9271

- Apple
- Pumpkin
- Chocolate Cream
- Three Berry
- Pecan

ORDER BY MONDAY NOV. 19TH

GOOD CAUSE FOR PAWS – The fourth annual Cause 4 Paws dog walk and 5K road race raised $20,000 for the Quincy Animal Shelter. Among those supporting the event were (from left) Mayor Tom Koch, Julianne Coleman Fonseca, Nancy Harris, Meg Nakahara, Sorboni Banerjee of Fox News, and Sorboni's dog Quincy. The Cause 4 Paws was sponsored by Quarry Hills Animal Hospital.

LORI HINDLE (left) placed first for the women in the Quincy Animal Shelter's recent "Cause 4 Paws" 5K race around Marina Bay and Squantum while Corey Hazekamp was the overall race winner.

'Cause 4 Paws' Walk, Run Raises $20,000 For Quincy Animal Shelter

Over 300 runners and walkers came to the DCR's Squantum Point Park in Marina Bay Oct. 21 for the fourth annual Cause 4 Paws Sponsored by Quarry Hills Animal Hospital to benefit the Quincy Animal Shelter.

The event raised $20,000 for the shelter.

Quincy resident and Fox News Anchor Sorboni Banerjee served as emcee for the day's activities. She was not only the emcee for this event, but she also ran the 5K Race, and did very well. She got Fox News to cover this event which is a big plus for a small Shelter like QAS.

"We were thrilled to have Sorboni participate in this event again in several different roles. She helped make the day a huge success," said Julianne Coleman Fonseca, Fundraising/Marketing Manager for the Animal Shelter.

"We were also thrilled to have Quarry Hills Animal Hospital as the major Sponsor again this year, as well as other sponsors. The Quincy Animal Shelter is a non-profit organization, as well as a no-kill Shelter, that is not funded by the city, state, or does not receive any federal funding so we have to raise every dollar that we need to continue caring for the many animals we serve."

Coleman Fonseca along with committee members Nancy Harris and Meg Nakahara, race organizer Ron Rumble, Shelter volunteers and members of the community, organized the event. "Running this event was a lot of work for everyone involved, but in the end we all agreed that it was all worth it," Coleman Fonseca said.

"Our goal was to double what was raised last year, and we succeeded. It's already time to start planning for next year!"

CHARLIE THE "PUMPKIN" laps up a hoodsie during the event.

Among the activities that were part of Cause 4 Paws was a 5K race through Marina Bay and Squantum area and a one mile dog walk around the DCR's Squantum Point Park, raffles, a DJ, an agility course and vendors. There was also a Dog Halloween Costume! The winner of the Dog Halloween Costume was a dog dressed as a dragon. There were so many awesome costumes; it was difficult to pick just one!

There was also a QAS' alum get together of dogs that have been adopted from QAS over the years. One of the QAS alumni named Dharma, a Pit mix was adopted 11.5 years ago, and is now 13 years old, came out to participate in the reunion, with her family.

Corey Hazekamp won first place in the men's division of the 5K race and Lori Hindle, of Quincy won first place in the women's division. Everyone that completed the race was a winner! There was even one runner that helped another runner cross the finish line!

Quincy Police Lt. Robert Gillan and his officers provided assistance during the road race followed by an exciting and very informative demonstration featuring the department's K9 division. A large crowd of people enjoyed watching Lt. Gillan and his team of officers and dogs demonstrate their abilities in detecting bombs, weapons and tracking fugitives.

"We hope to see everyone back next year, as well as many new faces, to make the Race and Walk even bigger" said Coleman Fonseca, "We'll start planning the 5th Annual Cause 4 Paws as soon as we all get a little rest!"

The Animal Shelter thanks the following sponsors and friends for helping to make this year's event a success:

Quarry Hills Animal Hospital, K9 Daycare, Weymouth, Dawgma Gallery, Anonymous, Superlative Printing, Red Dog Resort, Sandy's Pet Grooming, Brian's Kennels, Inc., Celebrities for Charities, Edible Arrangements, Quincy; Howard Kay, Kathleen Iacobacci, NCTMB, Oral Surgery South; Quincy Catholic Academy, Quincy Credit Union, Quincy Point Congregational Church, The Quincy Sun and Typhoon Asian Bistro, Boston.

CHRISTINE NEMIROVSKY participated in the 1 mile dog walk around Squantum Point Park with her pups Bella Mae and Benson.

Steward. The New Health Care.

Experience the New Health Care.

Knee or Hip Pain? Learn more about MAKOpasty®

at Quincy Medical Center. Quincy Medical Center is pleased to be the first in the area to offer MAKOpasty - robotic-arm guided partial knee resurfacing and total hip replacement. Our surgeons can now treat patients more precisely and less invasively using this exciting new technology. Learn more at our free seminar with our orthopedic surgeon.

Community Presentations on Knee and Hip Pain

6:00 to 7:00 pm

Thursday, November 15, 2012

Thursday, December 6, 2012

Quincy Medical Center

Wednesday, December 5, 2012

Milton Public Library

Quincy Medical Center

A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

Register to attend at 1-800-488-5959 or www.steward.org/MAKOplasty
Light refreshments and free parking provided.

QUINCY HIGH SCHOOL senior Nikoleta Kacano (left) makes a creation for the Bubble Parade on Quincy Shore Drive as freshman Austin Kimmell looks on.

QUINCY HIGH SCHOOL 11th graders Ya Chu Chang, Amy Chen and Melissa Zeng join Nikoleta Kacano and Dick Leonard in the parade preparations.

Green Apple Day Shoreline Bubble Parade A Success

A second rainy day didn't deter Teacher Dick Leonard and six Quincy High School students from presenting their Shoreline Bubble Parade on Quincy Shore Drive.

Originally scheduled for Friday, Sept. 28th, as part of the Center for Green Schools/U.S. Green Building Council's Green Apple Day of Service, the event was rescheduled due to rain, but this time the students pressed on and weathered the storm to complete their parade on Oct. 10.

The event was aimed at demonstrating the effects of sea level rise on the City's shoreline by marking the advancing sea with a spectacular bubble display.

Leonard and Quincy High School students Nikoleta Kacano (grade 12),

Kevin Fernandes (grade 11), Ya Chu Chang (grade 11), Amy Chen (grade 11), Melissa Zeng (grade 11), and Austin Kimmell (grade 9) gathered across from Wollaston Beach on the site of the projected shoreline in 2050, as identified by Dr. Ellen Douglas, UMass Boston's Professor of Hydrology.

Dr. Douglas and her colleague Chris Watson recently presented their findings at the Sea Level Rise forum hosted by the Department of Planning & Community Development earlier this year.

"We wanted to share this, to protect our property, ourselves, and our children," she said. "We wanted to make the community more aware," she told concerned residents, as she explained how reducing carbon emissions and practicing sustainability could significantly mitigate sea level rise.

KEVIN FERNANDES, a junior at Quincy High School, admires this giant bubble.

The Shoreline Bubble

Parade caught the attention of passersby who smiled as they inquired about the display and delighted drivers honked their horns in approval of the massive, colorful bubbles floating alongside the shoreline.

AUSTIN KIMMELL with his bubble creation.

Leonard has plans to duplicate his Shoreline Bubble Parade at key impacted shore lines like German-town, Houghs Neck, Adams Shore and Squantum as a first step in Quincy's collaborative efforts to address the City's carbon emissions. He and his students will be implementing the Eco Schools USA Cool School Challenge Energy Audit at Quincy High School late this year.

Sterling School Raises Over $3,500 For Cancer Society

Sterling Middle School students and staff recently held their first "Sterling Stands for a Cure" walk for Breast Cancer Research.

Sterling Middle School raised over $3,500 for the American Cancer Society. Students had family members and friends sponsor them in the walk.

Although the morning started off with drizzle and dark clouds, the students' mood was sunny as they walked lap after lap around the track behind the school. Most dressed in pink or white to bring attention to the cause.

At the end of each grade's walk, students formed a human breast cancer ribbon in the middle of the field. Staff from each grade level joined their students in walking and many students were sponsored by staff members as well. The Sterling Student Council sponsored the walk and sold buttons, bracelets, pencils and pens, all pink, with the proceeds going to the American Cancer Society. The two highest fundraisers for the event were 5th grader Tammy Pham and 8th grader Virianni Cardoso. Prizes for students who raised the most money include an iTunes gift card and Principal of Sterling Middle School for the day.

STERLING MIDDLE SCHOOL students showed their support for the American Cancer Society by forming a breast cancer ribbon (above) and participating in the school's first "Sterling Stands for a Cure" walk (below).

Photos Courtesy Sterling Middle School

Obama Wins Kids' Vote At The Atherton Hough School

ATHERTON HOUGH ELEMENTARY School fifth grader Sophia Mercurio helped organize a Kids Vote Presidential Election at the school Monday. She managed the ballot box as all students in kindergarten through grade five cast a ballot to be counted. The students voted by a large margin to re-elect President Barack Obama with 167 votes to 92 votes for Presidential challenger Mitt Romney.

Public Hearing Nov. 14 On 'Merchants Row' Proposal

The Quincy Planning Board will hold a public hearing Wednesday, Nov. 14 at 7:05 p.m. in the second floor conference room, Quincy City Hall Annex, 1305 Hancock St., regarding the proposed "Merchants Row" development as part of the Quincy Center District Urban Revitalization and Department Plan.

The proposal calls for a mixed-use project consisting of a five-story retail/residential building, a 15-story retail/residential building, a parking garage and related improvements, to be located at 1400-1466 Hancock St. within the Quincy Center Urban Revitalization District.

The development is proposed by Hancock Adams Associates, 1400 Hancock St., and legal owner of the land, HAA Property, 1400 LLC, c/o The Beal Company, Boston.

They are seeking a Certification of Consistency from the Planning Board which will decide whether the proposal is consistent with the goals, objectives and requirements set forth in the URDP.

The applicant's plans may be examined at the Quincy Planning Department, 1305 Hancock St., Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

FIFTH GRADER Abigail Hanly dressed up for the occasion at Monday's Kids Vote election at Atherton Hough Elementary School. Hanly said she voted for Obama to remain the President. Atherton Hough Principal Robin Moreira said that they decided to do the Kids Vote this year to show the importance of the election event. Moreira added that the students were so excited to see who won that they immediately wanted to count the votes after the last ballot was cast.

Quincy Sun Photos/Emily Taft

When It's Time To Talk
To Your Parents...

Talk to us First –
We're here to help!

Allerton House

Assisted Living Communities

Come for lunch &
stay for a tour.

Call
Today!

Duxbury
781-585-7136

Hingham
781-749-3322

Marshfield
Including Memory Care
866-939-1070

Quincy
617-471-2600

Weymouth
781-335-8666

A tradition of quality care from our family
to yours

Over 60 Years of
Quality Service
Welch
HEALTHCARE AND LIVING SERVICES

www.welchhrg.com

HARVESTING HOPE 2012

Gala & Fundraiser

Join Us

Friday, November 16, 2012

6:00pm-11:00pm

Quincy Marriott

1000 Marriott Drive, Quincy, MA

Reception, Silent Auction, Dinner, Live
Auction, and Pillar of Hope Awards

MC & Auctioneer: Susan Wornick

Live Entertainment: Java Jive

FOR TICKETS, SPONSORSHIP, AND OTHER INFORMATION,
VISIT

WWW.DOVEMA.ORG

OR CONTACT DOVE

AT

617-770-4065

Pillars of Hope Honorees

Mona Rosen

YouthSpeak Coordinator at Randolph High School

Judy Kiley

former Board Member & Founder of DOVE's Harvest Hope Gala

DOVE is committed to partnering with diverse communities, families, and individuals impacted by domestic violence. We promote hope, healing, safety, and social change by providing a broad range of preventive and responsive services.

Quincy Boys' Soccer Bows To Brockton In Tourney

HEADS UP – Quincy's Felix Nampanya battles a Brockton Boxer in the Presidents first-round tournament game last Friday night at Veterans' Memorial Stadium. The Presidents' dropped a 3-0 decision ending their postseason. Story On Page 19

QUINCY'S JAMES STRUGA uses his head to help the Presidents gain control of the soccer ball against Brockton while teammate Roy Bandar (No. 3) looks on.

JAMES O'SHEA gets a good look up field while keeping an eye on the soccer ball against Brockton.

CAIQUE REGINALDO (left) goes stride for stride with this Brockton defender in Quincy's first-round tournament game Friday night at Veterans' Memorial Stadium.

QUINCY'S KEVIN GOMES lines up a pass.

PROUD PRESIDENTS and their fans gather on the field to remember their late teammate, Lamar Thompson, who died in June in a tragic drowning accident. "LT" wore #13 for the soccer team. His number and initials appear on the Jamaican flag, his native country. Also in Quincy High's thoughts was another teammate, Bai Kanu, who was injured earlier this fall in a bicycling accident.

Quincy Sun Photos/
Robert Bosworth

GAELIN KURTZMAN dribbles down the sideline for the Presidents.

North Quincy Girls' Soccer Falls Short On Penalty Kicks

Red Raiders Tie School Mark For Wins

By COLLEEN CASEY

The North Quincy girls' soccer players gave it their all Sunday, but came up short, falling to Dartmouth 2-0, on penalty kicks in the first round of the Div. 1 South sectional tournament. Neither team managed to score in regulation time and the two sudden death overtime periods that followed.

"We shut them out for 100 minutes," said coach Paul Bregoli. "I hate the fact the game came down to PK's. That's not real. That's what the MIAA decides."

The teams went back in fourth for an exciting and nail-biting 100 minutes of soccer, but ultimately Dartmouth's defense prevailed to shut out the Red Raiders.

Courtney Campo took the first PK for North in front of a silent crowd at Veterans' Memorial Stadium and sent her shot off the right post. North keeper Liz Kelly then saved Dartmouth's first shot from Nicole Simas. Up next for the Red Raiders was sophomore forward Ciara Forde, who sent her shot into the hands of the Indians' diving keeper. Dartmouth's senior captain Korinna Tsonis responded with the Indians' first goal.

The third shooter for North, sophomore midfielder Sydney Chang, sent her shot to the left, into the hands of Dartmouth's keeper. Then Kelly stopped Dartmouth's third shot from Francis Pontes. Junior midfielder Delia Devane was unsuccessful, sending her shot at the diving goalie.

QHS Hockey Boosters

Trivia Night, Dance Nov. 17

Quincy High School Hockey Boosters will hold a Trivia Night and Dance fundraiser Saturday, Nov. 17 at 7 p.m. at the Quincy Sons of Italy Social Center, 120 Quarry St., Quincy. Admission is $20.

The evening will feature trivia, dj, raffles, food and more.

Proceeds will benefit Quincy High School Boys' Hockey.

Photos From Tourney Game

Page 31

Courtney Fox sealed the deal for the Indians, finding the top left of the net.

Dartmouth controlled play most of the first half. They came close to scoring nine minutes in, but freshman midfielder Molly Donahue made a spectacular play and saved a shot from crossing the goal line.

"She made a save within the first 10 minutes that was incredible," said Bregoli. "A freshman had the presence of mind and knew where's she's supposed to be and made the play."

The defensive wall of Haley McKay, Lauren Campo, Arianna Viscione and Jaclyn Scuzzarella stepped up their game to stop a barrage of shots from the Indians.

"They've played that way all year," said Bregoli of his defense. "We were focused on (Nicole Simas). We were told in a scouting report she had nine goals and seven assists. Haley McKay shut her down and Scuzzarella switched off on occasion."

Things got tough for the Raiders midway through the first when senior captain Shannon McCleary was taken out of the game with a knee injury. The bad luck continued early in the second, when senior captain Lauren Campo went down with another knee injury.

After seeing her older sister go down, Courtney Campo picked up her game. The younger Campo was relentless. She had an opportunity to score late in the second with the goalie down, but her direct from 19-yards out and hit the cross bar.

"I had so much adrenaline after (Lauren was taken out). It just hurt me," said Campo. "I know how much it means to her being a senior so its tough. It motivated me."

Bregoli said Courtney Campo played "tremendous" the second half, but the Raiders still came up short.

"Lauren Campo goes down in the second half. She's been starting since her freshman year and Shannon in the first. Those two kids are the heart and sole defensively and offensively. And we lose both of them. Yet we still have an opportunity to win the game with Courtney's shot."

Freshman forward Marissa McGue, who was also sidelined part of the game with an injury, gave a great offensive effort, along with Chang at midfield.

Although the end result is not what they wanted, the Red Raiders still won 14 games, and tied the school record for most wins in a season.

Bregoli added, "The worst part about losing a game like this is you lose a group of kids you come to love. They really become part of you. You see them grow from when they're freshman. This group of seniors was phenomenal."

Resilient Quincy Achieves Over Adversity

Proud Presidents Put Season In Perspective

By COLLEEN CASEY

The Quincy boys' soccer team's heart-rending season came to an end Friday night when the Presidents were eliminated from the Div. 1 South sectional tournament after falling to Brockton 3-0 in the preliminary round.

Following the final whistle, the team gathered in a circle for a moment of reflection to pay tribute to two players that weren't with them. Lamar Thompson, a Jamaican native, died in a tragic swimming accident in June. Senior midfielder Bai Kanu is recovering from a bicycle accident.

A wave of Quincy soccer supporters flooded the field after the team's reflection. Students, friends and family stood with the squad and coaches behind a Jamaican flag imprinted with the initials LT and No. 13 in honor of Thompson. The emotional soccer family spent a few minutes on the field, posed for photos and ended the night with a "one, two, three Quincy," cheer.

"I couldn't be any more proud of them," said Quincy coach Mark Spendlove of his players. "I said to the boys today at lunchtime there's many a good soccer player at Quincy High that's never been near the playoffs. These guys have been to back-to-back playoffs. That in itself is a great achievement."

During the past few difficult weeks, the Presidents went an impressive 6-0-2 before entering the tournament. They captured their 10th victory of the year, a 1-0 win over Hingham on Oct. 27 to reach their goal. Last year they finished with nine wins.

The Boxers controlled play the majority of the first half. Samuel Fonseca took a free kick from 30-yards out and instead of sending it on net, he sent it to a wide-open Arlindo Goncalves and Goncalves knocked it in.

The President's defense kept the game close led by Kevin Gomes. Gomes gave an outstanding effort and even saved a shot from crossing the goal line.

Brockton struck again with 19 minutes left in the first, taking advantage of a handball penalty inside the box. Edmar Viera launched a shot to the back right corner of the net from the top of the box to give Brockton a 2-0 advantage.

Quincy had two opportunities to score but the jumping keeper stopped James O'Shea's shot and Felix Nampanya's free kick went over the net.

Junior keeper Connor Dane had spectacular saves to start the second and did his best to stop a barrage of Brockton shots. The Boxer's added their third midway through the second. Dane made the initial save but Brockton forward Joel Lobo nailed in the rebound.

"We set out to try and do better than last year and we did that," said Spendlove. "And with everything they've been through, it's just awesome. We've done it with a small squad. I couldn't be anymore proud."

The Presidents finished 10-7-4.

NQHS Hockey Hall of Fame

Accepting Nominations

The North Quincy High School Hockey Hall of Fame is accepting nominations for its 2013 Hall of Fame induction ceremony.

Deadline to submit nominations is Saturday, Dec. 1.

To submit a nomination, send the players name and year of graduation to one of the three committee members:

Fred Cobban: fcobban@comcast.net

Al Grazioso: ajgmkn@yahoo.com

Bob Doyle: rpdoyle521@comcast.net

The Hall of Fame induction ceremony will be held Friday, Feb. 15 at the Quincy Neighborhood Club.

REAL BOSTON YOUTH ACADEMY PROGRAM

Winter soccer skills training and indoor league at Marina Bay Sportsplex for U7, U8 and U9.

Players will learn the fundamental skills of the game. Our program focuses on decision making, creativity and individual ball skills.

Our league will provide competitive games and will be a great deal of fun.

The program includes 2 training sessions each week and games on Saturday.

Training Schedule: Monday and Wednesday from 5:30-6:30pm.

Games Schedule: Saturdays between 12-3pm.

Season Duration: Begins January 7th (Monday) and ends March 9th (Saturday).

The Program: Our curriculum uses techniques proven to provide great results.

Coaching: The Academy coaches are uniquely selected for their enthusiasm, positive energy, focus on skill fundamentals, and ability to work with children.

Location: All training and games will take place at the Marina Bay Sportsplex featuring the finest turf fields available.

Price: The cost is only $150 for indoor league and skills training.

To Register: Go to realbostonusa.com and click "Register Now" on the left of the home page. Registration will close on December 1st so register early to reserve your spot.

Questions: Contact Derek McCleary at damccleary@verizon.net.

Deadline to register is December 1st!!

About Real Boston Soccer Academy (RBSA):

RBSA is a Quincy based not-for-profit entity (FKA Hancock Strikers) dedicated to teaching the game of soccer and building a strong soccer culture. The club offers a wide range of services and provides training from ages 2-18. RBSA has competitive teams starting at u10 through u18 for boys and girls. If interested in joining one of our teams you can contact us at doc@realbostonusa.com for a tryout.

VOICE FOR HEALTH

by Dr. Gabrielle Freedman
Chiropractor

HITTING THE SAC

Painful: inflammation of one of the more than 150 bursa sacs in the body is known as "bursitis." Bursae, which contain a lubricant known as synovial fluid, are found in parts of the body that are subject to friction. As they cushion the movements between the bones, tendons, and muscles near the joints, they may become irritated due to repetitive movements, which give rise to bursitis. Inflammation may also develop as a result of traumatic injury and arthritis. The most commonly affected area is the shoulders, but elbows, knees, hips, and toes may also be involved. Once diagnosed, bursitis may be relieved by chiropractic treatment that improves movement in the affected joints by relieving some of the pressure on them.

At FAMILY PRACTICE OF CHIROPRACTIC, we readily understand the problems that accompany bursitis. Our goal is to offer the highest quality chiropractic care to everyone who seeks our services. We want each and every person who comes to us to feel we have given our all toward getting maximum results. We believe everyone deserves an abundant and healthy life. Please call 617.472.4220 to schedule an appointment. We're located at 112 McGrath Hwy., Quincy. We offer computerized spinal scans. We are able to adjust patients sitting, standing, or lying down to accommodate any level of discomfort. If your problem is a chiropractic condition we offer you exceptional service.

From 11/5/12-11/10/12 we are offering FREE new patient exams for veterans and their families in honor of Veteran's Day. Also existing patients that are Veterans can receive a free adjustment that week!! Call for more details and to book your appointment. 617-472-4220.

www.freedmanchiro.com

GRANITE LOCK CO

SERVICE MOBILE

AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS

- DEADBOLTS INSTALLED
- LOCKS REKEYED
- DOOR CLOSERS
- PANIC HARDWARE
- AUTO KEYS FITTED

VISIT OUR SHOWROOM!

755 SO. ARTERY, QUINCY

472-2177

NORTH QUINCY High School junior Maya Umoren works the net during the Red Raiders' home victory Monday night against Madison Park in the Div. 1 Central East sectional quarter finals. The Red Raiders defeated the Cardinals to advance to the semi-finals Wednesday at Newton North.

North Quincy Volleyball Reaches Semi-Finals

By JEFF OHLSON

North Quincy (18-5) made the sectional quarter-final game against Madison Park (12-5) look like practice as the Red Raiders swept the Cardinals in three straight sets 25-12, 25-6 and 25-8.

In the first game, the Raiders came out strong, starting the game on a 6-2 run that started with consecutive aces for Maya Umoren. After the initial run, North Quincy never looked back and fed off of five straight points by Umoren to put the score at 20-8 and all but close out the Cardinals. Emily Luc' would put the finishing touch on the set with three straight aces to end the game, 25-12.

Coach Kerry Ginty said she was pleased with Umoren's performance.

"When she puts her mind to it, she's so dangerous. She really passed well and just played really well tonight," Ginty said.

Luc wasn't done after her barrage of aces in the first game as she started off the second game with six aces and a nice tip in to put the Raiders up 7-0 to start game 2. Once again, the Raiders didn't look back as they extended their lead as far as 11 points after a Rose Bennett spike put North Quincy up 15-4. North would go on an 8-0 run to finish out the game on a series of aces by Bennett and a monstrous spike by Carolyn Schwartz.

The third game was much of the same for North Quincy as they jumped out to a 10-2 lead on great serving by Emily Luc and strong play by Camille Mullaney. Maya Umoren closed out the last game fittingly with an ace.

"We played well. We served well after the first game and I think this was a good test for us. We live to play another day and that's what you want at the end of the day," Ginty said.

"All of our struggles have really been getting our hitters the ball and if we can do that successfully then we really have a chance against anyone. We did better with it tonight and its one of those things that's always up and down for us and hopefully we can do it again later this week."

The Red Raiders girls' volleyball team faced Newton North in the Div. 1 Central East semi-finals Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Newton.

Quincy Volleyball Also Advances In Tournament

By BILL GRIFFIN

There was an overpowering lift from a promising freshman in the first game, an exciting six-point run to win the second, and poise under pressure to capture the deciding points of the match for the Quincy High volleyball team in the opening round of the Division 1 Central-East Sectional Tournament against Brookline.

Junior Emma Kelly anchored it all with an intelligent, often acrobatic, game on defense and senior Alysha Dunbar drove home the winning point off a perfect setup from Courtney Ryan to carry the No. 3 seeded Presidents past No. 6 seed Brookline, 3-1 (25-16, 25-23, 20-25, 25-23).

"I thought we played pretty well," said Quincy coach Jacqui Niosi. "Our intensity was good and our defense was excellent. We made some unforced errors, but we played the big points well. We had a lot of close matches this season and I think that served us well."

In the opening game, Niosi inserted 6'4" freshman Nicole Jorgensen with Quincy holding a 5-4 lead. Jorgensen took over the net with two spikes and three blocks as Quincy went on a 20-12 blitz to win the game.

"Nicole has come so far this season," said Niosi. "She learns quickly and she is very coachable."

Along with Jorgensen, the aggressive Presidents' front line led by junior Gabby Zorkers and junior Rachel Papile consistently forced Brookline mistakes with hard drives and well-placed touch shots.

"Gabby is super-aggressive and Rachel has become more and more consistent. She does a great job mixing up her shots," said Niosi.

In the second game, the serving of Kelly, Papile, and Maryssa Dwyer gave Quincy an early lead, but Brookline rallied behind the brilliant play of captain Ali Brailey and ran out to a 23-19 lead when Niosi called timeout.

QUINCY HIGH Freshman #4 Nicole Jorgensen slams one past Brookline's #17 Jay Nolte in the Presidents' win over Brookline Monday to advance in the tournament semi-finals.

"We just talked about concentrating and playing one point at a time. We needed to cut down on mistakes," said Niosi. "When we serve well, we generally play well."

A spike by Zorkers, a tough serve from Michelle Connolly, a terrific save by Kelly and a decisive block by Zorkers gave the game to Quincy.

Brailey and Brookline won the third to fight back into the match. The fourth game was a crowd-pleasing, back-and-forth thriller brimming with ties and lead changes. Jorgensen and senior Laura Donahue were strong at net, Kelly controlled the backline, and the Presidents opened a 24-21 lead. Brookline saved two points, but Ryan lofted a floating setup and Dunbar smashed it home for the winner and the match.

"We stayed focused when the pressure was on," said Niosi.

Kelly was a treat to watch. She read plays and played her position with coolness and intelligence. She made countless saves and sent her team on the attack with feeds with just the right pace back to the front line.

"Emma has been solid all season. She is the smartest reader of a play that I have ever coached," said Niosi.

For Kelly, it is part knowing the play and part reacting to the shot which can come at any speed from any angle.

"Middle-backer is tough to play because you don't have a spot to go to," said Kelly. "You have to read what the play is and when the ball is hit, you just react. You don't have time to think. You just see the ball and go get it."

She skidded to the floor. She flashed back and forth, left and right. She covered the court and controlled the game for Quincy.

"You're standing up, you see the ball and the next thing you know, you're sliding on the floor, trying to save it," said Kelly.

Kelly had 19 digs in the win while Ryan had 29 assists as a setter up front. Zorkers and Dunbar each had seven kills while Papile added six. Donahue and Jorgensen each had five blocks for the Presidents.

Quincy will face winner of the Boston Latin Academy/King Philip game Thursday for the semi-final round.

Eastern Bank

Terry Bellotti-Palmieri - Branch Manager

Eastern Bank-Wollaston
731 Hancock Street Quincy, MA 02170
T: (617) 689-1723 E: tbellotti-palmieri@easternbank.com

Jimbo's Pizza

Subs & Seafood

NOW OPEN!!!

Come see "Jimbo"

the familiar face in Quincy 27 years!!

Large Cheese Pizza

$7.99 + tax

Inside Richards Market

243 Atlantic St., Quincy

(617)471-2222

RICHARD SOO HOO
INSURANCE AGENCY

HOME • AUTO • RESTAURANT • BUSINESS

Free parking on Fay St. first parking lot on the right.

國語·粵語·台山話

More Than Just Insurance.

Plymouth Rock
assurance.

1148 Washington St, Boston MA 02118 • 近 Ming's 超市 • (617) 338-8168 • soohooinsurance.com

OPTIMAL WEIGHT LOSS
WORKSHOP

Easy To Follow!

LOSE 3 to 7 Pounds
Per Week!!

TUESDAY, NOV. 13TH
7:00 PM

Dr. Steven Windwer
111 Willard Street
Suite 2A Quincy, MA

MUST RSVP
617.481.6851

Red Raiders Bow, 43-22

By JEFF OHLSON

North Quincy lost a close game Friday night in Whitman-Hanson, and may have lost a few players as well, as they fell to 5-3 losing 43-22.

The Raiders led 22-21 at halftime and saw four two-way players come down with injuries during a Panthers drive in the second quarter. Following the injuries for North Quincy was a 21-point run for W-H resulting in the final score. However, North Quincy coach Jim Connor didn't see the injuries as an excuse for his team.

"Losing those four players, seemingly all at once, definitely didn't help us. We had to bring in some young kids and it put us in a bad spot, but we're not making excuses. This is a game we could have won," Connor said.

North Quincy looked good early on as their defense was playing very well, making the Panthers work for every yard, and the Raiders offense was on a roll, scoring touchdowns on consecutive possessions. The first coming on a Kevin Papadopolous run and then before the end of the half Ed Guinto touchdown run with Antoine Allen scoring the 2-point conversion.

"We were right there with them. It was a real back and fourth game, we would have the lead, then they would have the lead. We were really going," Connor said.

After halftime, the game took a different turn for the Raiders as some mistakes by North Quincy and some big plays by Whitman-Hanson had the final say in the game's outcome. The Panthers took advantage of an interception by North Quincy at the Panther 5 yard line by instantly turning it into six points putting Whitman-Hanson up by 14 near the end of the third quarter.

"We were driving, ready to answer their last score and then the pick-six just killed us. At that point, now your down 14 as opposed to being tied if you score there, and we should have. I think the whole game changed on that play," Connor said.

Whitman-Hanson would add another touchdown in the fourth to bring the game to its final score of 43-22.

Although North Quincy lost the game, Connor said there were a lot of positives to take from the loss and really likes the way his team is playing heading towards the end of the season.

"I think we're getting it. I feel like all season we have played great as individuals, you know, one guy making a great block, another making a good catch or a good throw. That opposed to just the whole team playing together as a team, which is what we need" Connor said.

"I feel like we're going in a good direction though, and we're getting it together."

North visits Pembroke at 7 p.m. on Friday night.

Reardon, Connor Back New Football Playoff Proposal

By COLLEEN CASEY

A special statewide meeting was held Friday Oct. 26 at Assabet Valley Regional Vocational School for athletic directors and principals to vote on a proposal that would change the playoff structure for high school football in Massachusetts. With a vote of 161-131, the MIAA passed the proposal, which will bring major changes to football come next season.

Both Quincy coach Bill Reardon and North Quincy coach Jim Connor were in favor of the change.

"I'm excited it went through," said Reardon. "We were 100 percent for it."

The biggest alteration is the number of championships. Last year 19 different teams throughout the state won regional championships. Now with the new proposal there will be six state champions. Every championship game will be held at Gillette Stadium.

Connor said the change will heighten the competition in Mass. States like Texas, California and Florida all have state champions.

"This is a step towards what the elite states across the country do," he said. "Ultimately we'll be able to compete at the highest level of high school football."

One goal of the proposal was to increase post-season opportunities for student-athletes in football. With the system right now, only one team from each league earns a playoff berth. That means a team could finish 9-1, only lose one game and not be allowed to go to the post season. The new plan will allow leagues to admit two teams to the playoffs based on a power rating system.

If the system were in place this season, Quincy would have a decent shot at the playoffs. With their latest win, a 42-39 victory over Hingham (6-2, 2-2), the Presidents (5-4, 2-1) currently sit in second place in the Patriot League Keenan Division. They're second to Duxbury (9-0, 3-0), a team that's won 35 consecutive games.

"If it were this season we'd have a shot at the playoffs," said Reardon. "But it's definitely a good thing. Take Hingham for instance. They haven't had a losing season in seven years and yet they've been to the playoffs once in seven years."

The plan has some controversial parts to it, including different scheduling. In the new system, all league games must be played in the first seven weeks of the season. This means that Thanksgiving rivals who are in the same league must play a league game in the first seven weeks, and then play their traditional game on Thanksgiving. And, there is a possibility for them to meet again in the playoffs.

Some critics argue that playing their rivals before Thanksgiving will take away from the tradition. But, Connor said it might actually make it more exciting.

"I could see it heightening games," said Connor. "Since we'll be playing the league games first, if you get knocked out early everyone is going to be thinking about the big one on Thanksgiving."

Reardon said there'd be a slim chance Quincy would play North Quincy multiple times.

"I can tell you it's going to be rare. You have to understand it would happen if the teams were in the same league," said Reardon. "In terms of the playoffs they'll do their best not to schedule Thanksgiving rival in weeks eight and nine."

The plan will end the season on Thanksgiving, with only the six championship games left to be played the following Saturday. It eliminates the semi final games that are held on the Tuesday night in between. Teams will no longer have to play three games in nine days.

Connor said he was happy because "it's not safe for the kids to be playing back to back games like that."

The plan was written as a 2-year pilot and will allow for adjustments in remaining years of a 4-year cycle. It will commence in the 2013 season.

MOPS Fundraiser Saturday

Mothers of Preschoolers (MOPS) will host a fundraising sale Saturday, Nov. 10 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the all-purpose room at Fort Square Presbyterian Church,

Presidents Upset Hingham

By COLLEEN CASEY

The Quincy Presidents upset Hingham Saturday 42-39, in a dramatic, come-from-behind win to claim second place in the Patriot League Keenan Division.

The Presidents (5-4, 2-1) are second to Duxbury (9-0, 3-0), a team that's riding a 35-game winning streak. Hingham (6-2, 2-2) and Whitman-Hanson (6-3, 2-2) are tied for third.

"This one feels really good," said Quincy coach Bill Reardon. "This is an outstanding Hingham team. We spotted them a 14-point lead and somehow and somehow the kids found a way. They never quit. They keep fighting and make the plays. It feels really good."

Hingham's Ricky Sullivan started the high-scoring battle with a 75-yard opening kick off return. Junior quarterback Joe Spaziani (73 yards rushing on 11 carries, 5 of 15 128 yards passing) punched in a 1-yard score the following drive to give the Harbormen a 14-0 advantage.

The Harbormen were set to score again on their third possession but the Presidents' defense prevailed and forced a field goal that ultimately failed.

Quincy's offense then went to work, marching 80-yards up the field for their first score. Sophomore quarterback James Lam (6 of 13 155 yards passing) found a tightly guarded Alex Heffernan in the end zone for a 24-yard touchdown pass to put Quincy on the board. Lam ran in on the keeper to cut the lead 14-8 at the end of the first.

Jalen Green (233 yards on 31 carries) took control to start the second, moving the ball 33-yards on four carries to set up a score.

This time Lam hit Jaquan Harris with an 18-yard pass for Quincy's second touchdown. Green ran in for the conversion to give Quincy a 16-14 edge.

Hingham responded with a quick drive that resulted in a 28-yard field goal from junior kicker John Fisher.

On the ensuing kickoff, Harris broke two tackles and sprinted 90 yards up the sideline for a touch down. Green ran in for the conversion to give Quincy a 7-point cushion.

Quincy's defense rode the momentum. Senior captain Peter Cedrone plowed into Hingham receiver Tim Woods, who had just caught a pass from Spaziani, forced him to fumble and dove on the ball to return possession to Quincy.

"In certain games there are increased intensity," said Cedrone. "I'm just trying to play my hardest every game. My team needs the ball and everyone tries to go for the ball. I was just the lucky one to get it."

Hingham tied the game when Sullivan (54 yards on 9 carries) scored on a 4-yard run its following drive and Fisher's kick was good.

Quincy got the ball with 36 seconds remaining in the half and Lam took control. He threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to Heffernan with no time left on the clock to give the Presidents the lead going into the break.

The Harbormen scored on their first possession in the third. Spaziani ran in for his second TD, this time a 14 yard score. Sullivan's kick gave Hingham a 1-point advantage. Hingham came close to scoring again its next series but Cedrone came up big again. He recovered another fumble to give the Presidents the ball at their own 19-yard line.

"The defense stepped it up when they had to," said Reardon. "When our defense needed big plays we were able to come up with them. Peter is a captain for a reason. Today he stepped up and made plays when we needed."

Green capped the following 10-play drive with a 1-yard push into the end zone. The conversion failed, making the score 36-31 in favor of Quincy. The Harbormen weren't done yet however.

Spaziani connected with Stewart Fay for a first down and Sullivan with a 53-yard pass to put the Harbormen inside the five. Spaziani perfected the drive with a 3-yard sneak up the middle and then hit Fisher for the conversion. Quincy, now trailing 39-36, got the ball back with two minutes remaining in the game.

The Presidents made the most of those minutes. Green rushed 25-yards on a draw play to bring Quincy to Hingham's 38-yard line. Then Lam connected with Heffernan for a 34-yard pass to bring the Presidents inside the five. Green slammed through the line and reached the ball over the goal line to score with 20 seconds left. The conversion failed, making the score 42-39.

Quincy's defense stopped Hingham's two attempts to score with the clock winding down to seal the deal.

"Words can't describe how I feel right now," said Cedrone following the game. "Four years ago they killed us by 40 points. And its my senior year now and we came back to win. I can't describe how good it feels."

Quincy will face Silver Lake Friday at home at 7 p.m.

Quincy-North Quincy Football Hall Of Fame New Inductees

The Quincy/North Quincy Football Hall of Fame has chosen its 2012 inductees. The inductees will be honored on Nov. 20 at the Hall of Fame's Annual Seniors Banquet at the Sons of Italy in Quincy at 7 p.m.

The organization strives to recognize former players who, through their performance on and off the gridiron, impact today's Quincy and North Quincy football programs. The committee gives credence to candidates that strongly value preparation, determination, teamwork and dedication. The candidates selected demonstrated those values in the game of football and in life.

The inductees for Quincy are Ron Mobray, Dan Morrell, Mike Notarangelo, Ally Slieman and Mike Lorenzano. The special inductee is former city council member and former Norfolk County Dist. Atty. George Burke. The posthumous inductee is Kevin Moore.

Bernard Creedon, Dan Polvere, Neil Fisher, Joseph Mulvey, Keith Got and Frank McNamara are the inductees for North Quincy. Current Norfolk County Dist. Atty. Mike Morrissey is the special inductee and Justin Dilks is the posthumous inductee.

In honor of the 80th Thanksgiving Day Football game this year, both the Quincy and North Quincy teams will be wearing commemorative jerseys to commend the 80-year old rivalry.

The Quincy Presidents (5-4) will be sport white jerseys with blue numbers. The Red Raiders (3-5) will wear black jerseys with white numbers. The front the jerseys have a football with 80th Anniversary inside of it, with Thanksgiving Day Football 1932-2012 underneath.

Replica jerseys are on sale now. Adult sizes medium, large, X-Large and 2XL are available for $40.00 each. If you are interested mail a check payable to the Football Hall of Fame to Ron Ivil, 23 Grampian Way Weymouth, MA 02188. Or call 781-337-0062. Enclose your school preference, size and number desired.

QUINCY POLICE HOT SPOTS

QUINCY POLICE STATISTICS: OCT. 26 - NOV. 2

ARRESTS: 32

TOTAL CALLS: 1,355

TOTAL STOLEN VEHICLES: 6

FRIDAY, OCT. 26

LARCENY, 12:35 a.m., Doane St. Past - cell phone.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 1:11 a.m., 50 Revere Rd. Suspect is a 5-foot female with olive skin last seen wearing red shirt with a black jacket. Occurred in parking lot, complaint submitted.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:30 a.m., Hancock St. To motor vehicle.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 6:07 a.m., Whitwell St. Dwelling. Person in a hat was at front door, tried handle, was locked. Went around and tried to get in a window. Headed towards Adams Street. No further description.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 8:56 a.m., Homestead Avenue. Vehicle keyed. Party's vehicle was keyed.

LARCENY, 11:29 a.m., Hummock Road. Copper stolen from back yard.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 2:57 p.m., Independence Ave. Past disorder. Argument yesterday afternoon, over problem with young girl on school bus.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 5:50 p.m., Washington St. Dwelling. White male in the rear of the house. Father states his son called him and he can see someone trying to open the back door. Arrest made.

LARCENY, 7:12 p.m., Adams Street. Just happened. Red Explorer, loud exhaust, possible hood still open, no weapons shown. Took money from attendant's hand. Fled down White Street. Driver is a heavy set white female wearing blue shorts and white shirt. Male passenger.

SATURDAY, OCT. 27

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 12:20 a.m. Business. Office motion, break found upon arrival.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 12:29 a.m., Parkway. See caller at Quincy Medical Center ER. Caller was punched in face, has teeth missing. No suspect info. Detail T. Ford will submit report.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 3:22 a.m., Copeland St. Business. Owner on scene. Entry was gained, nothing taken. Occurred around 1 a.m. Baker was on scene and scared suspects away.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 3:23 a.m., Vane Street. With injury. X-ray on way. Reporting person says his friend was jumped and is injured. Injured party is very drunk. Told friend it happened at some house party. To hospital.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 6:08 a.m., Newbury Avenue. Business. Lights on inside building. Break found upon arrival. Caller originally stated the front door was smashed.

LARCENY, 6:42 a.m., Holmes Street. Handbag. Third hand caller said a woman wanted someone to call police as her handbag was stolen. Not sure how or when. No other details. Occurred at North Quincy MBTA, transit police were driving by, they will handle.

LARCENY, 8:47 a.m., Shaw Street. Prescription drugs. See caller in QPD lobby. Officer to file report.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:17 a.m., West Squantum Street. To fence. Damage to fence when there was a large party at Golf Course last night. Would like to see an officer. Damage to fourth green is in Milton. Some damage done to fence on Quincy side by tennis courts.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 1:03 p.m., Cranch Street. Dwelling. Entry through cellar door.

LARCENY, 1:46 p.m., East Howard Street. Party in the lobby states she had her debit card stolen from her purse.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 2:55 p.m., Newport Avenue. Reported motor vehicle accident. Delivery truck ramp struck vehicle in lot. No accident, walk ramp to the truck fell off the truck and struck a parked car. Parties to handle on their own.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 3:12 p.m., Euclid Avenue. Four slashed tires. Caller indicates someone slashed all four of his tires.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 3:54 p.m., Franklin Street. Two Obama stickers were scratched off.

LARCENY, 8:30 p.m., Presidents Avenue. Pocketbook. Caller reports known person stole pocketbook at a party. See her at above. Will not give address of incident.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 8:58 p.m., Billings Road. Broken window. Called in for neighbor of resident that lives at address above, that does not speak English very well about broken window. Caller does not believe that it is possible that someone broke in but resident came home to find window broken. Rock through window of storm door - no entry gained.

ARMED ROBBERY, 11:21 p.m., Parkway. With a knife. Caller walked home. Described white male, 6-feet tall, 180 pounds, blue sweater, black and blue hat pulled knife. Believed to be headed toward MBTA Quincy Center.

SUNDAY, OCT. 28

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 8:11 a.m., Doble Street. House spray painted. Latex paint.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 12:35 p.m., Marriott

Drive. Meet caller at the rear exit to the ballroom.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 4:29 p.m., Payne Street. Already recovered. Motor vehicle recovered before reported stolen. Owner claims she tried to report MV stolen on Friday, Oct. 26 but was told to come back with registration information. Weymouth recovered MV with heavy damage.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 4:51 p.m., Hancock Street. Door lock. Someone put glue in the caller's door.

LARCENY, 5:45 p.m., Hancock Street. Customer got $97 worth of gas and gave a bad credit card. Left in a Ford SUV. Arrest made - larceny, warrant, operating after suspension.

MONDAY, OCT. 29

LARCENY, 9:14 a.m., Keyes Street. Packages. See caller in the lobby of the station.

LARCENY, 11:21 a.m., Willard Street. Mausoleum door. Mausoleum door stolen sometime over the weekend.

ATTEMPTED RAPE, 11:42 a.m., Greenleaf Street. Possible kidnapping. Report to be filed. Report submitted on attempted rape.

TUESDAY, OCT. 30

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 7:2 a.m., East Squantum Street. Tires slashed.

UNARMED ROBBERY, 3:55 p.m., Franklin Street. Attempt. Female came into the bank and refused to take hood off. She has since left. Blue hood, green sweatshirt under. Arrest made.

UNARMED ROBBERY, 7:52 p.m., Elmwood Avenue. In progress. Suspect heavy set white male, red hat and jacket took cigarettes from victim and choked victim.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 31

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 7:16 a.m., Miller Street. Slashed tires. Caller indicates six tires were slashed on work vehicles. This location is the construction sight of the new Compass Medical Center.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 3:08 p.m., Nightingale Ave. Dwelling. Just came home, house ransacked. Jewelry taken.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 5:41 p.m., Newbury Avenue. Slashed tires.

LARCENY, 5:47 p.m., Winter Street. Caller had six people in her unit today and she wants to believe that male upstairs took her meds.

LARCENY, 6 p.m., Doble Street. See caller at back door.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:31 p.m., Granite Street. Paint ball gun. Youths in red older model pick-up truck struck several vehicles in parking lot with paint ball gun. Fled towards Quincy Center. Unable to find a caller or any damage.

THURSDAY, NOV. 1

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 6:23 a.m., Newport Avenue. Taken overnight. Reporting person's white, 1991 Honda Civic taken from driveway overnight. No record of any tow/recent queries. Plate is expired. MV since found in Newton.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 7:32 a.m., Connell Street. Paint balls. Caller wanted to report his house and motor vehicle were hit by paint balls overnight.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:22 a.m., Edwards Street. Motor vehicle damage. Hood, driver's side and passenger side keyed sometime overnight.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 4:36 p.m., Rock Island Road. To house and car. House and cars were egged last night. Will do investigation with Quincy High School.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 5:16 p.m., Arnold Road. Dwelling.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 7:07 p.m., Nevada Road. Past. See caller in the police lobby. Reports a father of a boy he plays football with pushed him. Report submitted on an A&B.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 8:12 p.m., Sealund Road. House egged.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 10:11 p.m., Glover Avenue. Lojack equipped. Stolen since 8:30 this evening. Vehicle involved in pursuit into Salem, N.H.

FRIDAY, NOV. 2

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:31 a.m., Hancock Street. Fight. Report submitted on wanton destruction to window at Dollar Fun, damaged during fight. Complaint applications submitted.

STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLES: Marriott Drive (2), Payne Street, 300 block of Water Street, 300 block of Newport Avenue, Glover Avenue.

CAR BREAKS: Glover Avenue, Furnace Avenue, 300 block of Copeland Street, Brook Road, 300 block of Water Street, 100 block of Elm Street, Harriet Avenue, 2 Hancock St., Newport Terrace, 300 block of Newport Avenue, Central Terrace.

BREAKS AND ATTEMPTED BREAKS: Whitwell Street, 500 block of Washington St., 100 block of Copeland Street, low numbers of Newbury Avenue, Cranch Street, Nightingale Avenue, Arnold Road.

A Job Well Done

By QUINCY POLICE LT. DAN MINTON

On Monday, Oct. 29 at approximately 6 p.m. Officers Mark Smith, Mark Patten, Jamie Karvelis, E.J. Hartnett, Roger Smith, Sean Glennon, and Sergeants Joe Lencki, Greg Goyette, and Patrick Faherty were dispatched to the Hofbrau on Sea Street for a report that a female had just pulled a handgun on someone in the bar.

LT. DAN MINTON

Officers Karvelis arrived on scene and notified responding units that that two female suspects fled the scene in a black pickup truck in the direction of Houghs Neck. Officers Karvelis and Patten remained on scene at the bar taking statements and gathering the victims' information while the search continued.

Officer Karvelis identified one of the suspects and then Communications was able to find a vehicle registered to her. The vehicle information was given out to all officers. Sgt. Lencki then radioed that he located the vehicle behind a nearby apartment complex, but it was unoccupied.

Officer Matt Smith then interviewed one of the victims, a female who stated that she was in the bar with her husband "minding our own business." She said she went outside to smoke a cigarette. At this time, the two female suspects came out of the bar. One of the females (suspect #1) began screaming at the female victim, then walked towards the victim, grabbed her and threw her into the outside door frame of the bar entrance.

The victim said that the suspect started wrestling with her. Her husband heard the commotion and went out to help her. The husband (victim #2) stated that he grabbed suspect #1 off of his wife and threw her to the side.

At this point, female suspect #2 quickly went to their vehicle and returned with a silver handgun and pointed it right at victim #2, who described the gun as being silver and possibly a "380." Victim #2 said that suspect #2 kept repeating "how do you like that?" as she kept the gun aimed at him.

At this time, Officer Patten stated over the radio that he was out with possible suspects on Braintree Avenue. Officer Mark Smith left the interviews and responded to Officer Patten's location, along with other officers. He separated the two females and then questioned them. The suspects' names matched those given by patrons of the bar.

Suspect #2 was given her Miranda rights, which she waived. She said that suspect #1 just left Braintree Avenue in a white SUV. Officer Matt Smith gave out the description over the radio and within minutes Officers Scott Smith and Glennon stated they had the vehicle in the Quincy Police Station parking lot. Suspect #1 was then placed into custody and walked into the station's booking area.

Officer Smith continued the interrogation of suspect #2 who confessed "I made a stupid mistake. It was me who pulled out a BB gun on (victim #2)." Officer Patten went back to the bar to pick up victim #2 to identify the suspect. Victim #2 confirmed the suspect as "100 percent sure" it was the female who pulled the gun on him. Suspect #2 was transported to the Quincy Police Station to be booked.

Officer Smith then proceeded to the location of the suspect's vehicle behind the apartment complex, where Officer White was starting their inventory of the motor vehicle. Officer White located the BB gun behind the back seat of the truck. This BB gun matched the description that the victim provided.

Suspect #1, a 43-year-old Quincy resident, was charged with "Assault and Battery and Accessory after the fact." Suspect #2, a 48-year-old Quincy resident, was charged with Assault and Battery with a Dangerous Weapon. Nice Work!

THE FBI REPORTS that crime is up in your neighborhood. Many residents have reported receiving a recorded telephone call that is intended to alarm the caller into thinking that this message is from the FBI. The message is actually from a national home security company attempting to panic residents into buying their products. If a company uses this tactic, it should raise some red flags.

If you have information on the above crimes, drug activity or any crime, please call the Quincy Police Detective Bureau at 617-745-5764 or log onto the following website: <http://tinyurl.com/ytf6td>.

To report suspicious drug activity, call the Drug Hotline at 617-745-5730. You will not be required to identify yourself, but it could help. To make an appointment to view the Registered Sex Offenders book, call Detective James Dentremon at 617-745-5755.

To contact the Crime Prevention Officer for tips or comments, my direct line is 617-745-5719. My e-mail address is dminton@ci.quincy.ma.us - Lt. Dan Minton

Real Estate

Quincy Real Estate Transactions Oct. 29 - Nov. 2

Seller	Buyer	Amount	Address
Paul A. Wilson & Catherine M. Wilson	RBS Citizens N.A.	$325,000.00	615 Newport Avenue
Margaret T. Shine	Theresa A. Barbadoro & Michael N. Barbadoro	$410,000.00	19 Prospect Avenue
Anne H. Cotter & Jane A. Doyle	Meryl E. Vella	$555,000.00	30 Beach Street
Hassan Trust	South Cove Manor Nursing & Rehabilitation Center QALICB Inc.	$1,975,000.00	284-288, 290, 300 Washington Street
304 Washington Street Realty Trust	South Cove Manor Nursing & Rehabilitation Center QALICB Inc.	$377,240.00	304 Washington Street
94 Greenleaf LLC	Brian F. Murphy & Joseph P. Dwyer	$465,000.00	94 Greenleaf Street
Mo P. Fu, Lisa Ton & Quoc C. Ton	Emily M. Deng	$420,000.00	96-98 Billings Street
Suomi Realty Trust	Geoffrey P. King	$249,900.00	79-81 Suomi Road Unit 81C
Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation	Jose A. Santos & Angela M. Santos	$240,500.00	297 Willard Street
Paul M. Ciavardini & Joanna Ciavardini	Herbert T. Murphy	$385,000.00	457 Quarry Street
Cheryl L. Parson, Marilyn J. Khouri & Patricia A. Reinstein	Timothy J. O'Toole & Kristen D. Lamarre	$290,000.00	75 Ames Street
Jane E. Belcher	15-17 Ward Street Realty Trust	$692,500.00	902 Furnace Brook Parkway
Anthony P. Damigella & Mary A. Damigella	Hao M. Cao	$425,000.00	239-241 Quincy Shore Drive
Jane E. Belcher	15-17 Ward Street Realty Trust	$692,500.00	5 Common Street
Kenneth & Rebecca Rhoads Family Trust	Da C. Zhen, Xue Y. Tan & Xueying Tan	$285,000.00	61 Franklin Avenue
Carla Trust	Minh V. Tran	$305,000.00	63 Arnold Street
60 McGrath Highway Realty Trust	Bank of Canton	$1,000,000.00	60 McGrath Highway
Sen L. Chen & Elaine Y. Cheung	Jonathan F. Keller & Heather Gratzmiller	$277,500.00	77 Adams Street Unit 1209
Federal National Mortgage Association	Phong T. Huynh & Chau D. Nguyen	$349,900.00	24 Larry Street
Sonja Majstorovich	Sean Doherty	$487,000.00	407 Quincy Shore Drive
Granite Realty Trust	BNW Realty LLC	$525,000.00	7 Evergreen Avenue
Federal National Mortgage Association	Lorraine Tse	$308,000.00	614 Willard Street
Corinne R. Stiles	Kay K. Barnes	$305,000.00	One Cityview Lane Unit 614
Parkingway Enterprises Limited Partnership	Parkingway Acquisitions LLC	$6,030,000.00	150-152 Parkingway Street ETC.

Flu Clinics At Kennedy Center Mondays, Wednesdays

The Quincy Health Department will hold flu clinics Monday and Wednesdays from 2 to 4 p.m. on a walk in basis at the Kennedy Senior Center, 440 East Squantum St. North Quincy, for those over the age of 18. There is no charge. The clinics will continue till well into the new year, with the exception of holidays and the Wednesday before Thanksgiving.

Sam Rounseville Joins Red Door Real Estate

Veteran real estate agent Sam Rounseville has joined Red Door Real Estate of Quincy.

Rounseville has been one of the top-producing real estate sales agents in the South Shore. During his previous association with Century 21, Rounseville was ranked in the top five percent of all Century 21 agents nationwide as well as number two in all of New England.

While with Century 21, Rounseville was awarded the prestigious Double Centurion award given to those real estate agents who close 120-179 units per year.

He has also been a consistent recipient of the Centurion Award, closing 60 to 119 units per year.

Rounseville has more than 18 years of real estate experience.

"Sam is one of the most recognized people in Quincy," said Broker/Owner Madelene Cheney.

"From his billboard on Newport Avenue to his charity affiliations, Sam is well known throughout the community."

Rounseville is active in the community and helps to raise money for charity through fundraising and his own donations.

SAM ROUNSEVILLE

"We are very excited to have Sam as part of our team," Cheney said. "He has always been a mentor of mine and I am honored to work with him again."

Red Door Real Estate, located at 222 Sea St., Quincy, is a family-owned, full service real estate brokerage. Rounseville can be reached at (617) 875-1776 or visit www.RedDoor-RE.com.

49 Beale St., Quincy, MA 02170
617-472-4330
www.c21annex.com

Over 70 Seller and Buyer Agents specializing in Residential, Commercial Real Estate, Bank Owned Properties, Short Sales and Rentals

ANNEX REAL ESTATE SCHOOL
Offering Salesperson's, Broker's and Continuing Ed. classes

"STILL NUMBER ONE"

Tina Belcher

For Personal Help with all of your Real Estate Needs
CALL FOR FREE HOME MARKET ANALYSIS
(781) 812-6497

Flavin & Flavin 1085 Hancock St. Quincy
Visit: www.tinabelcherhomes.com

Quincy Sun Featured Home of the Week

565 ADAMS STREET, QUINCY

Prime Adams Street location!! Wonderful 4 bedroom Colonial with In-Home Business/Office. Home boasts 4 large bedrooms, living room, dining room, family room, updated kitchen. There is a dental practice at this property currently. Parking off street for up to 6 cars. Brand new heating system, newer roof, newer windows. Full walk-up attic, 3-season porch and pretty landscaped yard with patio! Many possibilities in this great home! $459,900

Jayne Magown
Broker Owner
Licensed Real Estate Brokerage Instructor
CENTURY 21 Abigail Adams
LMS, CBR, REOS, Notary Public
Norwell, Quincy, Marshfield
Cell 617.448.7909
Fax 781.982.7545
email: jmagown@aol.com
www.c21abigailadams.com

SEE JAYNE TALK
WWW.C21ABIGAILADAMS.COM

ABIGAIL ADAMS AGENCY

617-471-7575

FLAVIN Insurance Agency

Complete Insurance Service Since 1925

Auto • Home • Condos • Apartments
Travel Trailers • Umbrellas • Flood • Business
Boats • Commercial Auto

Offering great rates and discounts

Call or drop in for Premium Quote

Flavin & Flavin
1085 Hancock St. Quincy Center
Visit: www.flavinandflavin.com

617-479-1000

Red Door Real Estate Welcomes...

Sam Rounseville

Looking to make a move?

(617) 553-1880

OBITUARIES

Floye L. MacDonald, 83
Homemaker, Home Health Aide

A memorial service for Floye L. (Schmitz) MacDonald, 83, of Quincy was held Nov. 2 at Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Mrs. MacDonald died Oct. 29.

She was born, raised, and educated in Quincy and was a lifelong resident and a Quincy High graduate. Mrs. MacDonald was a homemaker but also worked as a home health aide. She was an active volunteer for Quincy Interfaith Services and also enjoyed reading, cooking, and camping. She was devoted to her family and especially to her grandchildren.

Beloved wife of the late Edward S. MacDonald, Jr. Devoted mother of Catherine F. Callahan of Quincy, Edward W. MacDonald and his wife Denise of Weymouth, and Douglas

FLOYE L. MacDONALD

G. MacDonald and his wife Kerry of Attleboro. Loving grandmother of Edward J. "Ted" MacDonald, Cameron P. MacDonald, Christine A. Callahan, and Randy Bjorkman, Jr. Aunt of John W. Schmitz of Sandwich.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to the Huntington's Disease Society of America, 505 Eighth St., Suite 902, New York, NY 10018.

Marie I. Miller, 86

A funeral service for Marie I. (Galvin) Miller, 86, of Quincy was held Nov. 1 at Sullivan Funeral Home, Hanson.

Mrs. Miller died Oct. 26 at Bay Path Nursing Home, Duxbury.

She was born in Boston, and raised and educated in Dorchester. She worked as waitress and a home health aide.

Daughter of the late John and Pearl (Zetter) Galvin. Wife of the late Gordon

McGee and Wallace Miller. Mother of Marie Flynn of Pembroke, James McGee of Falmouth, Kathleen Gale of Rockland and the late Gloria Jean McGee and Carol McGee. Sister of Jeane McLaren of CA, Bernice Yerra of Marlboro, Jacqueline Avakian of CA, and Helen Blood of TN. Also survived by 14 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Interment will be at a later date.

Mary D. White
Customer Assistant For CVS

A funeral service for Mary Dorothy (Shea) White of Quincy and Jupiter, FL was held privately.

Mrs. White died Oct. 28.

She graduated from North Quincy High in 1949 and worked for many years as a customer assistant for CVS Pharmacy. She was also a member of the Saint Ann's Church Marriane's Club and enjoyed ceramics in her spare time. She loved spending time with family and will be remembered by family and friends for her smile and warm heart.

Beloved wife of 59 years to George F. White. Loving mother of Ronald J. White of Duxbury, Karen J. White of Quincy, Maureen E. Verity of FL, and the late Donna Bourikas. Step-sister of the late Ken Campbell and

MARY D. WHITE

Charles Campbell. Grandmother of Nathan White, Taylor Bourikas, and Tyler Verity. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to Alzheimer's Association, 480 Pleasant St., Watertown, MA 02472.

Joan E. Moscone

A funeral Mass for Joan E. (Sweeney) Moscone of Braintree and FL, formerly of Quincy, was celebrated Nov. 3 at Church of St. Clare, Braintree.

Mrs. Moscone died Oct. 30.

She was born, raised, and educated in Quincy Schools and was a graduate of Quincy High, class of 1950. She lived in Braintree for 42 years and was a resident of Hillsboro Beach, FL for 28 years.

She was a homemaker and was devoted to her family and especially to her nine grandchildren. She was a member of the Wollaston Golf Club and the Country Club of Coral Springs, FL.

Beloved wife of 56 of Donald S. Moscone. Devoted mother of Donald J.

Moscone and his wife Crieda of Holbrook, Joanne M. Vito Moscone of Pembroke, Nancy T. Dunn and her husband Stephen of Braintree, and the late Michael J. Moscone and his wife Lisa of Weymouth. Loving grandmother of Paige, Ashley, Michelle, Nicole, Donald Jr., Kellyanne, Matthew, Alyson, and Amanda. Sister of Mary Breen of Hull and Esther Parker of Braintree. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to the charity of choice.

James P. McNulty

A funeral Mass for James P. McNulty of Abington and formerly of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 2 at St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mr. McNulty died Oct. 27.

He was passionate about his work and his family was extremely proud of the business he built, McNulty Construction. HE was up early with a smile and enjoyed every minute of the day. His family gave him the most enjoyment, especially his daughter Kristina.

An outdoorsman, Mr. McNulty loved photography and gardening. He had a special group of close friends that he remained close with. He was generous, caring, loved children, and had a great sense of humor.

Beloved husband of Despina (Kyranis) McNulty of Abington. Loving father of Kristina E. McNulty of Abington. Cherished son of Dennis J. and Susan (Priday) McNulty of Quincy. Brother of Paul R. McNulty and his wife Nancy of Quincy. Son-in-law of Vasilios and Anthea Kyranis of Holbrook. Brother-in-law of Theodora Parsons of Weymouth and Evangelos Kyranis and his wife Jill of Quincy. Uncle of Nicole Parsons, Sophie and Zoe Kyranis, and Brian McNulty. Also survived by many aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Dana Farber Cancer Institute, Melanoma Research, P.O. Box 849168, Boston, MA 02284-9168.

Patrick H. O'Toole
Retired Boston Edison Employee

A funeral Mass for Patrick Henry O'Toole of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 2 at St. Ann Church, Quincy.

Mr. O'Toole died Oct. 29.

Born and raised in Boston, he graduated from Mission High School and lived in Quincy for nearly 50 years.

A World War II Marine Corps veteran, he was a retired employee of Boston Edison and a member of IBEW Local 369 and Quincy Council 2259 Knights of Columbus.

Beloved husband of the late Gertrude Frances (Curran) O'Toole. Devoted father of Maryellen Johnson of Cohasset, Patrick M. O'Toole and his wife Mary Rose of Canton, Nancy J. Garland and her husband Robert of Squantum, Janice Salive of Canton, Carolyn Hines of Quincy, and Michael O'Toole and his wife Patricia of Scituate. Survived by his loving sisters Kathleen Kelleher of Braintree and Nora Gorski of Dorchester, brother Edward O'Toole of Quincy. Grandfather of 16 cherished grandchildren. Father-in-law of the late Paul Johnson and brother of the late Nancy Green and Martin O'Toole.

PATRICK H. O'TOOLE

Funeral arrangements were made by Alfred D. Thomas Funeral Home, Milton.

Interment was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Epilepsy Foundation of MA, 540 Gallivan Blvd., #200, Boston, MA 02124.

John Martin Monti, 95
Airplane Mechanic During World War II

A graveside service for John Martin Monti, age 95, of Kingston and formerly of Quincy was held Nov. 1 at Evergreen Cemetery, Kingston.

Mr. Monti died Oct. 27 at his home.

He was born in Quincy and served faithfully for 20 years in the U.S. Navy as an airplane mechanic in WWII, the Korean War and the beginning of the Vietnam War. During this time none of the planes he worked on ever had a mechanical problem while flying missions. He then worked at Bethlehem Steel in Quincy.

He loved the outdoors and headed west to prospect for gold in Arizona. In his later years, he loved watching cowboy movies on television. He had an incredible mind and memory and could do just about anything and everything. He was self-taught in Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, French and the accordion. He was fortunate where he lived to have loving and caring neighbors.

Devoted and beloved son of Martin Monti and Ida (Carella) Monti. Loving husband of the late Veronica (Diamond) Monti. Brother of Caroline (Monti) Thompson and the late Eleanor (Monti) Gerstley and Giaconda Ida (Monti) Koren. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins, grand nieces, grand nephews and friends.

Funeral arrangements were made by Cartmell Funeral Home, Plymouth.

Memorial donations may be made to NVNA Works, 2048 Washington Street, Hanover, MA 02339 or Norwell Hospice, 120 Longwater Drive, Norwell, MA 02061.

Barbara M. Hayes, 92
Jordan Marsh Sales Auditor

An interment ceremony for Barbara M. (Koelsch) Hayes, 92, of Merrimack, NH and formerly of Quincy, was held privately.

Mrs. Hayes died Oct. 19.

She was born in Boston and graduated from Jamaica Plain High School. She worked as a sales auditor for Jordan Marsh Co. in Boston.

Daughter of the late Nicholas and Emma (Eskuchen) Koelsch. She was predeceased by Husband of the late John J. Hayes. Sister of the late two Joseph and Frank Koelsch, and, Elizabeth Day, Helen Murphy, and Frieda Albert. Mother John J. Hayes and his wife Susan of Easton and Marie Connerty of NH. Grandmother of Sara Davidson, Shea Connerty, Kathleen Hayes and John Hayes; great-grandmother of William Davidson and Carolyn Davidson. Also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Rivet Funeral Home, Merrimack, NH.

A Better Value
For Quincy Families

At Deware Funeral Home, we are proud to offer more value and superior service to Quincy families. A full service traditional funeral is $5,995* with no hidden costs. The price includes:

Funeral Ceremony • Visitation • Casket

At Deware Funeral Home, we put the needs of our customer first. We also offer a Simple Burial Plan for $3,395.

With Deware Funeral Home, you can trust us to provide the compassionate care you expect at an exceptional value, backed by a 100% service guarantee.

Exclusive provider of Dignity Memorial® benefits.

Deware Funeral Home

576 Hancock Street | Quincy, MA 02170 | 617-472-1137

For more information visit
www.dewarefuneralhome.com

*$5,995 plan includes basic services of funeral director and staff, embalming and preparation, visitation, funeral ceremony, transportation to place of disposition, 20-gauge metal casket, website announcement, and memorial stationery package (a register book, 100 thank you cards, 100 prayer cards).
A Service Family Affiliate of AFPS and Service Corporation International, 206 Winter Street, Fall River, MA 02720 (508) 676-2454

Mary P. McClelland, 89

Homemaker

A funeral Mass for Mary P. (Frisoli) McClelland, 89, of Quincy will be celebrated at 10 a.m. today (Thursday) at Holy Trinity Parish at the Most Blessed Sacrament Church, Quincy.

Mrs. McClelland died Nov. 2.

She was born in Cambridge, raised and educated in Cambridge and South Boston schools and graduated from South Boston High School. She had lived in Quincy for over 60 years.

She was a homemaker but had worked several years for the Federal Civil Service Board and for the Visiting Nurses of Boston. Mrs. McClelland enjoyed knitting and reading. She was devoted to her family, especially her 15 grandchildren.

Beloved wife of the late Robert W. McClelland. Devoted mother of Mary E. Orlando and her husband John of Quincy, Robert W. McClelland, Jr. and his wife Kim of Scituate, Anne M. Stromberg and her husband Edward of Weymouth, Barbara J. Stewart and her husband Alan of Braintree, and Joseph R. McClelland and his wife Nora of Braintree.

MARY P. MCCLELLAND

Loving grandmother of 15 grandchildren. She was predeceased by her seven brothers and is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Visiting hours were 4-8 p.m. Wednesday at Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy. A funeral will take place there at 9 a.m. today, prior to the Mass.

Interment will be in Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Sisters of the Divine Providence, 363 Bishops Highway, Kingston, MA 02364 or to Norwell Visiting Nurse Association and Hospice, 120 Longwater Drive, Norwell, MA 02061.

Margaret M. O'Hare, 88

A Mass of Christian Burial for Margaret M. (Dee) O'Hare, 88, of Quincy and Rutland was celebrated Monday at St. Patrick's Church, Rutland.

Mrs. O'Hare died Oct. 29.

She was born in Worcester and lived in Quincy for over 40 years. She received her nursing degree in 1945 from Children's Hospital in Boston where she continued to work as a pediatric nurse for many years. She was a former member of St. John the Baptist Church in Quincy. She was an avid gardener, who loved birds and taking care of children.

Wife of 50 years to the late James M. O'Hare. Survived by her sons of Joseph

D. O'Hare of Taunton, and Paul O'Hare of CA, her daughters Mary Margaret O'Sullivan of NH, Betsy A. O'Hare of CA, Rosanne G. O'Hare of Quincy, and Meg M. Starbuck of Rutland, and daughter-in-law Paula O'Hare of Milford. She is also survived by 12 grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and many nephews, nieces, and cousins.

Funeral arrangements were made by Miles Funeral Home, Holden.

Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to St. Vincent de Paul Society, c/o St. Patrick's Church, P.O. Box 939, Rutland, MA 01543.

Denise E. Walker, 55

A funeral Mass for Denise Ellen (Connors) Walker, 55, of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 2 at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Walker died Oct. 29.

A lifelong Quincy resident, she enjoyed shopping, dining out, and entertaining. Her true passion was her family, she adored them and they cherished her. She will be sadly missed by all those who knew her.

Beloved wife of Ronald Walker of Quincy. Cherished mother of Daniel, Christopher, and Katie Walker, all of Quincy. Daughter of the late James E. and Ellen L. (Walsh) Connors. Sister of William Connors and his fiancé Ruth Corcoran, all of Quincy, and the late James E. Connors III and Joseph Connors. Aunt of Kelli and James Connors and David and Timmy Cribbie.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Memorial donations may be made to Beth Israel Oncology Department, 330 Brookline Ave., Boston, MA 02215.

John H. Duff, 96

Worked For Bethlehem Steel

A Mass of Christian Burial for John H. Duff, 96, of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 3 at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mr. Duff died Oct. 29.

Born in Natick, he graduated from Natick High School in 1934 and lived in Quincy for the past 70 years. He worked for Bethlehem Steel at the former Fore River Shipyard and later worked for many years as a salesman for Kasanof's Bakery.

Mr. Duff was a sports enthusiast and active in youth baseball when his children were young. He was a lifelong fan of Natick High's teams and enjoyed fishing, morning outings with friends at the South Shore Plaza, and time with his family.

Beloved husband of Anne M. (D'Andrea) Duff and the late Claire (Tocchio) Duff. Loving son of the late Charles and Christine (Olson) Duff. Loving father of Elaine Allegrini and her husband Michael "Terry" of Plymouth, Gary and his wife

JOHN H. DUFF

Susan Ellis of AL, Jon and his wife Valentine of CA, and Paul and his wife Elizabeth of Carver. Cherished grandfather of 10 grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild. He was also the grandfather of the late Mark T. Allegrini.

Funeral arrangements were made by Bolea-Buonfiglio Funeral Home, 116 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment was in Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to St. John the Baptist Church, 44 School St., Quincy, MA 02169.

Domenico DiRamio, 89

A funeral Mass for Domenico DiRamio, 89, of Quincy was celebrated Oct. 29 at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Braintree.

Mr. DiRamio died Oct. 23.

Born in Prezza, Italy, he moved to Quincy in 1958 and worked for 22 years as a carpenter in the Quincy Highway Department.

Loving son of the late Sabatino and Maria Giuseppe (Pasquale) DiRamio. Beloved husband of Ersilia (Pasqualone) DiRamio for 65 years. Loving father of

Mary E. Williams, 98

A funeral Mass for Mary E. "Sis" (Roche) Williams, 98, of Quincy was celebrated Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Church, Milton.

Mrs. Williams died Oct. 31 at Hancock Park.

Her family is grateful for the loving care and kindness received from the nurses, CNAs, and Recreation Department on 3W and the nurses and CNAs on 4E.

Beloved wife of the late Alexander. Loving sister of Helen Maloney of Dorchester and the late Anna Sullivan, and James, Daniel, and Catherine Roche. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by John J. O'Connor and Son Funeral Home, Dorchester.

Interment was in St. Joseph Cemetery, West Roxbury.

Memorial donations may be made to Catholic Television, 34 Chestnut St., P.O. Box 9196, Watertown, MA 02471.

Miles Sander Nugent, 30

A memorial service for Miles Sander Nugent, 30, of Quincy was held Sunday at Hurley Funeral Home, Randolph.

Mr. Nugent died Oct. 30.

Born in Weymouth, he was raised and attended school in Duxbury. He attended Bentley University and the University of Maine. Mr. Nugent was proud of his work at Mass. General Hospital in the Psychiatric Neurodevelopment Genetics Unit.

He was an avid reader of poetry and biographies, lived to play the drums and enjoyed spending time with his friends and family.

Beloved son of Thomas E. Nugent of Randolph and Janet E. Sanders of WV. Devoted brother of Aimee Debaun of NY and Phoebe Nugent of Dorchester. Dear grandson of Margaret M. Nugent of Edgartown. Loving uncle of Perry Bauer. Survived by many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Antoinette Connolly

A funeral Mass for Antoinette (Pujalte) Connolly of North Quincy was celebrated Oct. 29 in Sacred Heart Church, North Quincy.

Mrs. Connolly died Oct. 22.

Beloved wife of Robert F. Connolly of North Quincy.

Loving mother of Mary-Claire Pavone and her husband John of Marshfield, Roberta Brennick of Quincy, and Richard Connolly of Duxbury.

Sister of the late Gabriel Pujalte. Cherished grandmother of Michael Pavone, Michele Storm, Colleen Russo, and Hayley Connolly.

ANTOINETTE CONNOLLY

Also survived by six great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to American Lung Association of MA, 460 Totten Pond Rd., Waltham, MA 02451.

Franklin E. MacKay

A funeral service for Franklin E. "Frank" MacKay of Quincy was held Nov. 2 at John J. O'Connor and Son Funeral Home, Dorchester.

Mr. MacKay died Oct. 30.

He was a WWII Army veteran, a retired Boston Firefighter, and a longtime Boston Red Sox employee. He was a member of the Local #718 AFL-CIO, Old Dorchester Post #65, and Braintree V.F.W. Post #1702.

Beloved husband of Louise (Rathburn). Loving father of Robert E. MacKay and his companion Faith Desmond of Boston and Mary Wells and her husband Robert of Weymouth. Devoted grandfather of Heather Finneran and Laura Wells, both of Whitman. Dear great-grandfather of Peter, Cara, and Matilda Finneran. Brother of the late John L. MacKay, Walter MacKay, and Anne Stafford. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Interment was in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Obituaries Also Online at
thequincysun.com

I don't want any big fuss...

We fully understand! A big fuss usually refers to things presumed, but not quite right for the people involved.

Dennis Keohane

At Keohane Funeral and Cremation Service we have everything you'll need, especially the right kind of heart and mind to help you do what you really want, in remembering someone you love.

785 Hancock Street
Quincy

333 Hancock Street
North Quincy

21 Emerald Street
Hingham

www.Keohane.com
1-800-KEOHANE

More Obituaries On Page 27

Comparing Hanukkah Story And Arab Spring Topic

Temple Shalom of Milton invites the community to an engaging discussion led by Rabbi Fred Benjamin on the historical and sociological factors that prompted the ancient Jewish Hanukkah rebellion, and its comparison to today's Arab Spring.

The event will be at the Milton Public Library, 476 Canton Ave., on Tuesday, Nov. 13th at 7:15 p.m. and is free to all.

The original Hanukkah story concerned the Hasmonean rebellion led by Judah Maccabee in 165 BCE against the Assyrian Greek forces that ruled the land at the time. The Hasmoneans were a priestly family of Jewish rulers and leaders in ancient Judea. If this rebellion can be compared to today's Arab Spring, what conclusions can be drawn?

Primary sources will be handed out and discussed, and refreshments will be served.

Wollaston First Baptist Church

"Bearing Fruit with Our Treasure" will be the subject of Pastor C. Michael Cunningham's sermon at the 10:30 a.m. worship service Sunday at the First Baptist Church of Wollaston, 81 Prospect Ave.

All are welcome.

Serving the church will be greeters Mitzpah Balton and Beverly Moulton and

Houghs Neck Congregational

Houghs Neck Congregational Church, 310 Manet Ave., Quincy, will hold Sunday worship at 10 a.m.

All are welcome to attend.

Pastor John Castricum

Scripture reader Concheta Tan. Infant and toddler care is available during the worship service.

Following the service, there will be a fellowship coffee hour in the Chapel.

Adult Bible Class meets each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. in the Chapel.

All areas of the church are handicap accessible.

will preach the sermon "There is No 'I' In Church."

Helen Miller and Christian Jacobs will serve for the Diaconate, and a fellowship coffee hour will follow the service.

RELIGION

First Church Of Christ Elects New Readers

At their recent quarterly business meeting, members elected Cara Cusack-Theodule and David Godfrey as their new Readers. In Christian Science churches, the Bible and Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy serve as the Pastor.

The Readers conduct the Sunday church services, and the First Reader hosts the Wednesday evening meetings, where after hearing topical readings from the Bible and "Science and Health," there's time for people to share healings and insights they've had as the result of their study of Christian Science.

Godfrey serves as a member of the church's executive board, and Cusack-Theodule is part of a team that brings Christian Science services to inmates at the MCI Norfolk prison and Bridgewater State hospital. They will begin their new duties in January.

Sale Of Fair Trade

Items Sunday

Veteran's Sunday worship is at 10 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 11 at Quincy Point Congregational Church, 444 Washington St.

Glenn McGhee will be deacon of the day.

The Rev. Ann G. Suzedell's sermon is titled, "Heart, Soul, Mind and Strength."

After worship the mission's committee is having a SERRV Sale in the social Hall following worship. All are welcome to come shop SERRV's unique and handcrafted fair trade items from around the world. Items include handmade dishware, handcrafted baskets, fair-trade jewelry, scarves, and bags. Fair trade gifts improve the lives of artisans and farmers worldwide.

All are also welcome to attend Fellowship hour in the Social hall at the same time as the sale, complete with coffee and light refreshments.

First Church Of Squantum

First Church of Squantum, 164 Bellevue Rd., Squantum, is accepting registrations for Sunday School.

Available free of charge for children age 3 and up, it is held every Sunday morning from 10 to 11 a.m. The program is faith based and non-denominational, teaching moral truths to children at their specific level of understanding. Registration forms are available at the church website: www.firstchurchsquantum.com.

The Saturday morning Men's Breakfast is held at 8 a.m. in the Church parlor.

Fiber Arts meets Tuesday mornings at 9:30 a.m. All are welcome.

On Wednesday, Nov. 14, at 7 p.m., the Squantum Community Association will be presenting Influence of Native Americans in Area as part of our Squantum Discussions lecture series at the First Church.

Refreshments will be available. Free of Charge and all are welcome.

The Book Club meets in the church parlor on the first Tuesday of each month at 7 pm to discuss a book that has been selected by the Book Club members. All are welcome to participate.

A Salvation Army donation bin is available for drop offs at the First Church for clothing donations.

Bethany Church

Bethany Congregational Church, Quincy Center will have Sunday Worship Service and Sunday School at 10 a.m.

The Rev. Gary W. Smothers will conduct the service and preach a sermon entitled "Golden Opportunity."

Fellowship with light refreshments will follow the worship service.

All are welcome to attend Bethany Church Worship

Services and its numerous group activities. Bethany has a Youth Group, a Men's Group, an Outreach Mission Group doing various charity works and a Friday morning Bible Study Class.

A craft fair will be held at Bethany Church Saturday, Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. There will be homemade Christmas gifts as well as several food tables and a luncheon menu.

Quincy Religion Directory SERVICES & ACTIVITIES
Catholic St. Mary's Church 95 Crescent St., Quincy • 617-773-0120 Masses Saturday, 4pm, Sunday 7, 9:30 & 11:30am, Weekdays 9am Handicapped Accessible New Members Welcome!	Catholic Sacred Heart Church "A Roman Catholic Community walking together in Faith, Worship, Education and Service" 386 Hancock St., North Quincy, MA 02171 (617) 328-8666 Sunday Masses 4pm (Sat.) 7:45am, 9am (Family Liturgy) 10:30am (with Choir) and 5pm Weekday Masses Mon.-Fri. 7am and 9am, Sat. 9am Handicapped Accessible Confessions Sat. 3-3:45pm in Saint Joseph Oratory	Congregational HOUGH'S NECK CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 310 Manet Avenue 617-479-8778 www.hncong.org Sunday Service at 10AM 'There Is No 'I' In Church' All are welcome to attend FELLOWSHIP COFFEE HOUR FOLLOWING SERVICE	Congregational Wollaston Congregational Church United Church of Christ 48 Winthrop Avenue Quincy, Massachusetts Sunday Worship at 10 a.m. Rev. Dr. Mary Louise Gifford Office: 617-773-7432 www.wollycong.org UNION CONGREGATIONAL Beach St. & Rawson Rd., Wollaston (617) 479-6661 Rev. John Swanson, Pastor Sunday Worship Service 10 AM QUINCY POINT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 444 Washington St. • 617-773-6424 Worship and Church School 10 am Rev. Ann Suzedell, Pastor email: office@quincypointcong.org
ST. AGATHA CHURCH MILTON-QUINCY 432 Adams Street Milton, MA 02186 • 617-698-2439 Schedule of Masses: Saturday: 4:30PM Sunday: 7:30AM, 9:00AM (Family Mass), 10:30AM, 12 NOON, 5:00PM Weekday Masses: 7:00 & 9:00AM Reconciliation 3:45PM-4:15pm on Saturdays, other times by appointment Handicapped Accessible, handicapped parking, elevator to Upper/Lower Churches ~ Air-Conditioned	St. Joseph's Church 550 Washington Street Quincy, MA 02169 617-472-6321 SUNDAY MASSES: 4 p.m. (On Saturday) 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Weekday Masses 9am CONFESSIONS: Saturday, 3:00-3:30 pm Handicapped accessible & Handicapped parking, side entrance air conditioned	BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH Spear & Coddington Streets Quincy Center, 617-479-7300 WWW.QUINCYBETHANYCHURCH.ORG Sunday Nov. 11 Worship Service and Sunday School at 10AM. The Rev. Gary W. Smothers will preach the sermon 'Golden Opportunity' Child Care Available ALL ARE WELCOME! Fellowship Time in Allen Parlor	Christian Science First Church of Christ, Scientist 16 Beale Street, Quincy 617-472-0055 Sunday Services and Sunday School 10:30 a.m. Wednesday Evening Meetings - where testimonies of healing are shared 7:30 p.m. ALL ARE WELCOME!
St. John The Baptist ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH 44 School St., Quincy 617-773-1021 Weekend Mass Schedule Saturday, 4:00 PM Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 AM Sunday night 5:30 PM Weekday Masses Monday - Saturday 8:00 AM Latin Mass 1 st & 3 rd Wednesdays (Lower Chapel) 7:00 AM Confessions Wed. 8:30 - 9:00 AM Sat. 2:30 - 3:30 PM Handicapped Accessible	Saint Ann's Church 757 Hancock St., Wollaston 617-479-5400 Pastor: Rev. John J. Ronaghan Weekend Mass Schedule: Saturday 4:00 PM Sunday 7:00, 9:00, 11:30AM Daily Masses: 9:00 AM	Wollaston Church of the Nazarene Sunday Worship 8:30 AM Liturgical Worship 9:45 AM Sunday School 11:00 AM Celebration Worship Kevin C. Dunlop, Lead Pastor Phil Noss, Youth & Small Groups Pastor Jake Chastain, Music & Campus Pastor Rev. Kenner, Children's Pastor Don Reed, Visitation Pastor 37 E. Elm Ave., Wollaston 617-472-5869 E-mail: office@wconaz.org www.wconaz.org
Salvationist THE SALVATION ARMY 6 Baxter St., Quincy • 617-472-2345 9:45 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION 11AM WORSHIP SERVICE BRASS BAND MUSIC 7PM TUES WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP 6:45PM WEDS. BIBLE STUDY	Methodist QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH 40 Beale St., Wollaston 617-773-3319 10:30 AM Sunday Worship Rev. Dr. Susan Jarek-Glidden, Pastor	To Advertise in this Directory, Call 617-471-3100

HOPE LOVE

PEACE JOY

Michael A. Caudell, 55

Union Ironworker, Veteran

A Prayer Service for Michael Alan Caudell, 55 of Quincy, a Union Ironworker, will be held today (Thursday) at 5:30 p.m. at the Hamel, Wickens & Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams St., Quincy.

Mr. Caudell died suddenly Oct. 30.

He was the loving husband of 10 years to Jo Ann (France) Caudell.

Born in Dayton, Ohio March 2, 1957, he was the son of Mary Ann (Ilo) and Binnie Leroy Caudell. He served his country honorably in the U.S. Navy during the Vietnam era.

Following his military service, Mr. Caudell worked as a Union Ironworker out of the Local 402 in West Palm Beach, Florida. He made his journey to the Boston Local 7 in 1999 to help work on the Big Dig Project. He asked his fellow Ironworkers where the best place to live would be — they all told him Quincy.

He was a great believer in family values, had a big heart and would do anything for anyone. Everyone loved "Florida Mike." His greatest hobby was to collect old

LEGAL NOTICE

INFORMAL PROBATE PUBLICATION NOTICE

Docket No. 12P2364EA

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Division
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200

Estate of:

Patrick Joseph Grealish

Date of Death:

August 23, 2012

To all persons interested in the above captioned estate, by Petition of:

Petitioner Patricia E. Williams of Quincy, MA.

Patricia E. Williams of Quincy, MA has been informally appointed as the Personal Representative of the estate to serve without surety on the bond.

The estate is being administered under informal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but interested parties are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration. Interested parties are entitled to petition the Court to institute formal proceedings and to obtain orders terminating or restricting the powers of Personal Representatives appointed under informal procedure. A copy of the Petition and Will, if any, can be obtained from the Petitioner.

11/08/12

MICHAEL A. CAUDELL

things and working in his garage to fix them.

Loving father of Travis L. Caudell of Quincy and Michelle Caudell of Daytona Beach, Florida and the late Taylor Jon Caudell. Dear brother of Susan Coppock and Karen Maar both of Daytona Beach Florida.

Visiting hours are today (Thursday) from 2 to 6 p.m. at the Hamel, Wickens & Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams St., Quincy Center.

Burial will be private.

William P. Sutterley, 91

Glass Glazer, Veteran

A Masonic service for William Patrick Sutterley, 91, of Quincy was celebrated at 7 p.m. yesterday (Wednesday) at the Weymouth United Masonic Lodge.

Mr. Sutterley died Nov. 2.

Born in New Hope, PA, he served his country honorably in the U.S. Navy during the World War II era. Mr. Sutterley was longtime member of the Weymouth United Masonic Lodge A.F. & A.M. He was also a member of the American Legion Post 95.

A glass glazer by trade, he worked for many years at Karsas & Karsas Glass. Mr. Sutterley always enjoyed fishing, hunting and square dancing.

Son of the late Lora (Kelly) and Charles Raymond Sutterley. Husband of the late Lillian (Ovaska)

Sutterley. Loving father of John Charles Sutterley of TX and his companion Jane Smith. Dear brother of Rita Scudder of VA. Cherished grandfather of William Kenneth Sutterley of KY and his wife Patricia and Steven Charles Sutterley of Stoughton. He is also survived by four great-granddaughters and was the longtime friend of Kathleen Newman.

Visiting hours were 4-8 p.m. Wednesday, at the Hamel, Wickens & Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams St., Quincy.

Interment will be private.

Memorial donations may be made to the Knights Templar Eye Foundation, c/o GrandYork Rite Office of Mass., 186 Tremont St., Room 405, Boston, MA 02111-1003.

LEGAL NOTICES

CITY OF QUINCY IN COUNCIL 2012-175

Currently pending in the Ordinance Committee of the Quincy City Council.
Be it ordained by the City Council that the Quincy Municipal Code is amended by striking from Section 2.04.050 — Branch of Public Safety, subsection (E) Traffic and Parking and by adding the following Provisions to section 2.04.070 — Branch of Public Works "(C) Traffic and Parking Department."

"to be acted upon at a later date by the City Council."

Joseph P. Shea
Clerk of the Council

11/08/12

CITY OF QUINCY IN COUNCIL 2012-176

Currently pending in the Ordinance Committee of the Quincy City Council.
Be it ordained by the City Council that the Quincy Municipal Code is amended by inserting in Section 2.04.040 City Branches, Departments and Divisions the following provision:

1. Public Building Department.

"to be acted upon at a later date by the City Council."

Joseph P. Shea
Clerk of the Council

11/08/12

INVITATION TO BID

INVITATION TO BID

CITY OF QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS
PURCHASING DEPARTMENT
1305 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169

The City of Quincy invites sealed bids/proposals for:
"PARK & RECREATION WORKSHOP AND GARAGE ROOF REPLACEMENT" BUILDING MAINTENANCE
NOVEMBER 27, 2012 @ 11:00a.m.

The City of Quincy is accepting bids for "Re-Roof existing flat roof of a one story building". The work under this project consists of, but is not limited to; removal of existing built-up roofing, repairs to wood roof deck, repair/replace deficient wood roof joists, re-roof entire building (approx. 13,500 sq.ft.), replace soffit and fascia boards, provide and install metal trim, clean-up and legal disposal of construction debris generated by this work.

Detailed specifications are available on-line at the City of Quincy's website, www.quincyma.gov and also available at the office of the Purchasing Agent, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, Massachusetts, 02169, between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. for a non-refundable printing charge of $50.00

A non-mandatory pre-bid walk thru will be held on November 14, 2012 at 9:00 a.m. at the Park & Recreation Building, 1 Merrymount Parkway, Quincy, MA 02170.

Bids/Proposals must be in a sealed envelope. The outside of the sealed envelope is to be clearly marked "BID ENCLOSED" with time/date of bid call.

The successful bidder will be required to conform to the payment of Prevailing Wage Rates, as determined by the Commissioner of Labor & Industries under the provision of M.G.L. Chapter 149, Section 26 to 27D as amended.

Firm bid prices will be given first consideration. Bids/Proposals will be received at the office of the Purchasing Agent until the time and date stated above, at which time and date they will be publicly opened and read. Late Bids/Proposals, delivered by mail or in person, will be rejected.

If applicable, bids shall be in accordance with M.G.L. Chapter 30B, Chapter 149 as amended, and Chapter 30, Sections 39A, 39B, and 39F-R.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids or to accept any part of a bid or the one deemed best for the City and waive any informalities in the bidding if it is in the best interest of the City to do so.

Thomas P. Koch, Mayor
Kathryn R. Hobin, Purchasing Agent

11/8/12

Stephanie S. Tully, 93

A funeral Mass for Stephanie S. (Kisiel) Tully, 93, of Quincy will be celebrated at 11 a.m. tomorrow (Friday) at Church of St. Thomas More, Braintree.

Mrs. Tully died Nov. 3 at the Atrium at Faxon Woods.

She was born in South Boston and graduated from South Boston High School with the Class of 1938. She subsequently graduated from Northeastern University, Boston. She was a U.S. Marine Corps veteran, having served as a sergeant during World War II.

She resided in Braintree for 50 years before moving to Quincy to the Riverbay Club 12 years ago.

Beloved wife of the late

Robert E. Tully. Devoted mother of Robert Steven Tully and his wife Katherine Tully of VA, Lisa Dibble and her husband Theodore Dibble of MO, and James Tully and his wife Joanne Tully of Whitman. Loving grandmother of Caitlin (Tully) Thompson of VA, John P. Tully of NH, Robert C. Tully, Ryan H. Tully and Alyson M. Tully, all of Whitman, and Ruby M. Dibble of MO. Great-grandmother of Arthur Rivers Thompson and Colin Leonard Tully.

Visiting hours will be 9-10:30 a.m. Friday at Peck Funeral Home, Braintree.

Interment will be in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION

Docket No. NO12P2550EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court

Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200

Estate of:

Thomas R Coffey

Date of Death:

September 22, 2012

To all interested persons:
A petition has been filed by: Dawn M Querns of Quincy, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Dawn M Querns of Quincy, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 11/28/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: October 24, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

11/8/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION

Docket No. NO12P2596EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court

Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200

Estate of:

Teresa Sprague

Date of Death:

September 14, 2012

To all interested persons:
A petition has been filed by: Joseph A Lee of Boston, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Joseph A Lee of Boston, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 12/05/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: October 29, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

11/8/12

CLASSIFIEDS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-092

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, November 27, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Jeffrey Hynes for an Appeal to appeal the determination of the Building Inspector for ZBA Case 11-048 in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 9.1.6 (appeals) on the premises numbered 205 ELM STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/8/12, 11/15/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-093

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, November 27, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Eric Robertson for a Variance to enclose the front entrance from the weather in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 4.0 (dimensional) on the premises numbered 21 WAMPATUCK ROAD, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/8/12, 11/15/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-094

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, November 27, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Gregory H. Seymourian for a Variance/Special permit Flood Plain to construct in a flood plain overlay district in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 4.0 (dimensional) and Chapter 8.1 (flood plain) on the premises numbered 154 RICE ROAD, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/8/12, 11/15/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-095

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, November 27, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Cabot, Cabot & Forbes of New England for a Variance/Flood Plain to construct a 10 unit, 6-story residential building with parking garage in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 8.4.2 (dimensional requirements for PUD), Chapter 8.4.3 (off street parking) and Chapter 8.1.9 (flood plain special permit) on the premises numbered PENN STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Community Preservation Committee of the City of Quincy will hold a Public Hearing on November 15, 2012 at 7:00 PM at the Kennedy Center, 440 East Squantum Street relative to the annual plan of the Community Preservation Committee. All city residents and interested parties are encouraged to attend this meeting.

Coleman Barry
Chairman, CPC

11/01/12, 11/08/12

LEGAL NOTICE

INFORMAL PROBATE PUBLICATION NOTICE

Docket No. NO12P1992EA

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court

Probate and Family Court

Norfolk Division

35 Shawmut Road

Canton, MA 02021

(781) 830-1200

Estate of:

Paul Vespaziani

Date of Death:

May 23, 2012

To all persons interested in the above captioned estate, by Petition of:

Petitioner Alexander A Vespaziani of Dedham, MA.

John L Vespaziani of Quincy, MA has been informally appointed as the Personal Representative of the estate to serve without surety on the bond.

The estate is being administered under informal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but interested parties are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration. Interested parties are entitled to petition the Court to institute formal proceedings and to obtain orders terminating or restricting the powers of Personal Representatives appointed under informal procedure. A copy of the Petition and Will, if any, can be obtained from the Petitioner.

11/08/12

LEGAL NOTICE

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court

Probate and Family Court

Norfolk Division

Docket No. 12P2000EA

MORTGAGE OF REAL ESTATE

To all persons interested in the estate of Lawrence J. Falvey, Jr late of Quincy, in said County of Norfolk.

A petition has been presented to said Court for authority to mortgage certain real estate of said Lawrence J. Falvey, Jr. If you desire to object thereto you or your attorney should file a written appearance in said court at Canton before ten o'clock in the forenoon on the 28th day of November, 2012, the return day of this citation.

Witness, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, Esquire, First Judge of said Court this 24th day of October, 2012.

PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

11/8/12

WANTED

OLD HAND TOOLS & BOOKS WANTED

Planes, chisels, adzes, shaves, machinist, and sheetmetal tools, calipers, clamps, anvils, vices.

USEFUL TOOLS, ALL TRADES.

New England history books
Collections: old postcards, toys, military, hunting and fishing items.

LIBERTY TOOL CO.

888-405-2007

Davistownmuseum.org

e-Store & antique sale! TF

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION

Docket No. NO12P2549EA

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court

Probate and Family Court

Norfolk Probate

and Family Court

35 Shawmut Road

Canton, MA 02021

(781) 830-1200

Estate of:

Ethan Jerome Coffey

Date of Death:

September 22, 2012

To all interested persons:
A petition has been filed by:

Dawn M Querns of Quincy, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Dawn M Querns of Quincy, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 11/28/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: October 24, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

11/8/12

PERSONAL

THANK YOU KATHI IN GRANBURY TEXAS AUNT JEANNE

11/8

CONGRATULATIONS CAIT!
WE ARE VERY PROUD OF YOU AND YOUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS.

LOVE, MOM, DAD,
JOHN & MARY

11/8

Nini & Papa
We will miss you in the "Hood".
Congrats on your move.

Love,
Alex & Mikayla

11/8

JOE IN TEXAS
HAPPY VETERANS DAY
FROM YOUR FRIENDS IN
QUINCY

11/8

Prayer to Blessed Virgin
"Oh, most beautiful, flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful vine, splendor of heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh, Star of the Sea, help me and show me, herein you are my Mother. Oh, Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth! I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in this necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mother, I place this cause in your hands (three times). Say this prayer 3 consecutive days, and then you must publish and it will be granted to you. Thanks to St. Anthony & St. Joseph. K.L.

11/8

Mite Box Thrift Shop

1 Linden Street, Wollaston
Will be open on Saturday,
Nov 10th from 9-3
for your Holiday Shopping

11/8

YOGA

GENTLE TO MODERATE
6 WEEKS $60- BEGINS OCT. 15TH
$12 WALK-IN
UNION CONG CHURCH
136 RAWSON RD.
CHRISTINE 617-472-7550
ONGOING SESSIONS

11/8

Gennaro's Eatery

SEEKING: experienced Italian-style PIZZA COOK
This position is for nights from 3 until close. Must work weekends. Must possess quickness & accuracy in the making of pizza & calzones. Must be able to multitask & help out in other areas. Clean up, prep, sanitation & organization routine.

SEEKING: extremely experienced SAUTE COOK/ Kitchen Mng w/ a strong Italian background

Speed, quality & consistency are a must. Candidates must have solid culinary background & would be on the saute line the majority of the time. Varied hours, weekends are a must. Other responsibilities include ordering product, watching labor costs, training, managing a small team of cooks, & inventory & sanitation. Must have food sanitation knowledge & Certification. Pay based on exp.

SEEKING: Bus Person/ Host Needed & Waitstaff Needed Exp. Only

Cleanliness, customer service skills needed, and Appearance.

These jobs are available now!
Must be able to lift up to 50 lbs.
Must have a valid Social Security number or Working Green Card.

To apply for either position, submit your resume to the email address provided below.

Email: jmarto@comcast.net

11/8

MISCELLANEOUS

EDUCATION

Medical Office Trainees NEEDED! Train to become a Medical Office Assistant! No Experience Needed! Job training & Local Placement assistance! HS Diploma/ GED & PC/Internet Needed 1-888-589-9680.

EMPLOYMENT

BECOME A SURROGATE MOTHER! Help an infertile couple! Generous compensation! Non-smoker, 21-42 yrs old, must have given birth visit www.newlifesurrogacy.com or call 908-208-6333

DRIVER: CDL-A Van & Flatbed *New Pay Package! *Very New Trucks *Benefits After 30 Days *Great Miles, Pay *Dependable Hometown *Start Immediately! CDL Graduates Needed! 877-917-2266 drivewithwestern.com

DRIVERS- CDL-A FEDEX GROUND. Small Fleet Owners with no-touch freight, hub-to-hub miles and excellent settlement potential. FedEx Ground offers the best opportunity for fleet owners to run a successful operation. *Hub-to-Hub Runs *Fuel Supplement Program *100% Drop & Hook *Safety Incentive *Outstanding Home Time & MORE! FedEx Ground will contract with entities that are established under state law as corporations. 866-832-6339 www.buildagroundbiz.com

HOME IMPROVEMENT HAS YOUR BUILDING SHIFTED OR SETTLED? Contact Woodford Brothers Inc. for straightening, leveling, foundation and wood frame repairs at 1-800-OLD-BARN. www.woodfordbrothers.com

THANK YOU Blessed Mother. Pray 9 Hail Marys for 9 days. Ask for 3 wishes, 1 involving Business and 2 impossible. On 9th day publish this article and your wishes will be answered, even though you may not believe it. B.A.R.

11/8

CLASSIFIEDS

HALLS FOR RENT	SERVICES	SERVICES	SERVICES	SERVICES	SERVICES
MORRISETTE LEGION POST 81-83 Liberty St., Quincy Function Hall Available Call for Details 617-770-4876 Internet Capable • Weddings • Showers • Christenings • Meetings After Funeral Gatherings TF	POWER PLUMBING Plumbing, Heating, Gas Fitting Repairs • New Installations Dave 617-328-3007 Emergencies 617-792-4054 Master Lic # 13749 TF	S.G. HAROLD PLUMBING, HEATING & AC Specializing in Viessman Boiler Unico Air Conditioning Home heating repairs & service Radiant Floor heating QUINCY 617-471-0914 Unprecedented Service Tailored to You MA Lic. #10589 TF	SAVE Budget Fuel Fuel Assistance Senior Discount Full Service 617-328-4063 TF	HAMMERHEAD GREEN CERTIFIED MASS HERS RATER. ASSIST BUILDERS IN MEETING STRETCH CODE COMPLIANCE. ASSIST HVAC CONTRACTORS IN TESTING DUCT INSTALLATION. OFFER ENERGY EFFICIENCY STRATEGIES, BLOWER DOOR & DUCT BLASTER TESTING FOR AIR LEAKAGE & THERMAL ENVELOPE TESTING. QUINCY BASED. CALL KURT AT HAMMERHEAD GREEN. 901-219-9652. 11/29	 Hancock T.V. & Appliance Sales, Service, Parts & Installation Since 1945 (617) 472-1710 115 Franklin Street, Quincy, MA hancocktvandappliance.com
CATERING SADIES'S CAKES, PASTRIES AND CATERING 419 Hancock St., Quincy 617-770-2253 Affordable catering for all occasions Banquet, Ala Carte and Corporate. Call for Menu. 11/29	Derrick's Painting Interior/Exterior, Commercial/ Residential, Gutter cleaning, House washing lic & ins. 30 years experience 617-851-1688 11/21	AFFORDABLE, HIGHEST QUALITY PAINTING AND HANDYMAN SERVICES. FREE Estimates • No Job Too Small • Insured • Quincy-Based CALL KURT AT HAMMERHEAD SERVICES, LLC 901-219-9652 11/29	5 CLANCY BROTHERS PEST CONTROL You got 'em! We'll get 'em! (617)328-8387 11/15	Campbell Electric 24 HOUR Service Commercial/Residential Fire Alarms ~Security Master Elec. Lic #A10237 781-848-9078 www.campbellelectric.com 11/29	THOMAS C. SWEENEY Smaller Jobs a Specialty 49 Years Experience Carpentry, Siding, Painting, Porches Vinyl/Windows, Doors Roofing, Decking, Steps License #1373 Free Estimates Reliable 617-825-1210 References 11/29
HELP WANTED BORN AGAIN INTERNATIONAL MINISTRIES 33 Newport Ave. in Quincy looking to hire a part-time host pastor, outreach pastor, and a sunday school teacher. Volunteer positions are also available. Interested candidates should send a CD or DVD of your preaching to P.O. Box 190936 Roxbury MA 02118 11/29	FOR HIRE Garages, Decks Torn Down, Rubbish Piles Removed BY ME WITH DUMP & LIFTGATE $50/HR. (617)479-5410 "Your Trash is my Ca$h" 11/29	FALL CLEAN-UPS  Gutter Cleaning FREE ESTIMATES FULLY INSURED IMAGE LANDSCAPING 617-471-0044 11/15	GUTTER CLEANING & REPAIRS PEST CONTROL Home Repairs I Answer My Phone! RICH 617-773-6432 12/27	DG'S YARD MAINTENANCE LAWN MOWING SMALL TREE REMOVAL SERIOUS ABOUT SERVICE OVERSEEDING / SOD REASONABLE RATES MULCHING, WEEDING FULLY INSURED & EDGING HEDGE & SHRUB TRIMMING OR REMOVAL ROTOTILLING & DETHATCHING CLEAN-UPS 11/23 617-786-9558 FREE ESTIMATES	DRIVERS WANTED Drivers: Getting Home is Easier Chromed out trucks w/APU's Chromed out pay package! 90% Drop & Hook CDL-A, 6mos Exp. (888)406-9046 11/8
CLEANING SERVICES DASILVA CLEANING SERVICES Home & Office Cleaning Professional, Affordable Reliable & Trustworthy Weekly or Bi-Weekly References CALL Meiry 781-803-2922 12/27	T & M Landscape Co. • Spring & Fall Cleanups • Power Washing • Lawn Mowing Services • Yard Mulching • Bushes & Trees Trimmed Free Estimates 617-733-4554 ~ AFFORDABLE RATES ~ 11/29	JUNK CARS WANTED JUNK CARS WANTED (617) 481-6699 (508) 577-0073 11/21	DCS PROPERTY MANAGEMENT One call does it ALL!!! • Fall Clean ups • Snow Plowing • Snow Removal & more FREE ESTIMATES 10% OFF FIRST SERVICE Joe (857)939-3442 11/17	Russ DiBona & Son Landscaping, Inc. Russ DiBona President/CEO Lawn Installation/Reseeding • Mulch Bobcat Service • Walls • Walks • Patios Spring/Fall Clean-Ups • Shrub Pruning Snow Plowing, Sanding/Salting & Removal Cell 617-429-4813 • Work 617-774-0480 russdibona1.com russdibona@hotmail.com 11/15	SISTERS CLEANING IF YOU NEED SOMEONE TO CLEAN YOUR HOUSE. WE DO HOUSES, APTS & OFFICES. CALL NOW 978-587-2252 12/27
SERVICES SEQUOIA LANDSCAPE Beautifully Done  Shrub Trimming Design Services Lawn Mowing Garden Walls Cleanups Walkways Mulching Plantings Seeding Patios 617-504-0944 11/22 www.sequoiandscape.biz We Have Been Providing Outstanding Personal Service To Our Clients Since 1993	SKIN CARE FREE FACIAL Individual or groups MARY KAY Celebrating 50 Years Skincare for Women Age 12 & Beyond MICHELLE, Consultant 781-258-7564 TF	FOR SALE 1993 Buick Le Sabre for sale 74,000 miles Ideal for new driver as first car $2000 or best offer 617-773-9092 11/8	FOR LEASE COMMERCIAL SPACE AVAILABLE 1800 sq. ft. Including Loading Dock & Conveyor Belt 330 Washington St. Quincy Please call Nancy 857-312-3653 11/8

FALL CLEANUPS

- Entire Property Cleanups
- Gutter Cleaning
- Shrub Pruning/Removal
- Walkways/Retaining Wall Installation

Call Chris 617-778-8775
www.cmcguelandscape.com

Free Estimates Fully Insured 12/6

The Quincy Sun

CLASSIFIED AD FORM

MAIL TO: THE QUINCY SUN, 1372 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169
 PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. Payment must accompany order.

INDEX

- ☐ Services
- ☐ For Sale
- ☐ Autos
- ☐ Boats
- ☐ For Rent
- ☐ Wanted
- ☐ Help Wanted
- ☐ Work Wanted
- ☐ Pets
- ☐ Lost & Found
- ☐ Real Estate
- ☐ Antiques
- ☐ Flea Markets
- ☐ Yard Sales
- ☐ Instruction
- ☐ Day Care
- ☐ Personal
- ☐ Miscellaneous

RATES

1 WEEK ☐ $8.00 for one insertion, up to 20 words, 10¢ for each additional word.

3-7 WEEKS ☐ $7.00 per insertion up to 20 words for 3-7 insertions of the same ad, 10¢ each additional word.

8-12 WEEKS ☐ $6.75 per insertion, up to 20 words, for 8-12 insertions of the same ad 10¢ for each additional word.

13 WEEKS OR MORE ☐ $6.50 per insertion, up to 20 words, for 13 or more insertions of the same ad 10¢ for each additional word.

☐ Enclosed is $ _____ for the following ad to run _____ weeks in The Quincy Sun.

COPY: _____

NO REFUND WILL BE MADE AT THIS CONTRACT RATE IN THE EVENT OF CANCELLATION.
 DEADLINE: FRIDAY AT 4PM. PLEASE INCLUDE YOUR PHONE NUMBER IN AD.

SUN FUN PAGE

King Crossword

- ACROSS
- That guy
 - Actor
 - Malcolm-Warner
 - Throng
 - Historic time
 - Give a speech
 - Lawyers' org.
 - Mexican street musicians
 - Deteriorate
 - "CSI" evidence
 - Easter bouquet
 - Insist on
 - Racetrack tipster
 - Greek H
 - Pick a target
 - Water nymph
 - The Red Planet
 - Curved line
 - Knob on a shield
 - Of a pelvic bone
 - Weep loudly
 - Right angle
 - Guitarist
 - Lofgren
- DOWN
- Height of fashion?
 - Gershwin brother
 - Scratch
 - "AbFab" actress
 - Region of simple, quiet pleasure
 - jongg
 - Cockeyed
 - Injury
 - Eastern Canadian provinces
 - Reed instrument
 - Dugout
 - Tidbit
 - Slanted typeface
 - choy
 - Wicked
 - Showy yellow flowers
 - Anger
 - Buckwheat pancakes
 - "Of course"
 - "Mayday!"
 - Marsh plant
 - Ram's mate
 - supply
 - Greek mountain
 - Waikiki wingding
 - Actress Moore
 - And others (Lat.)
 - Tenderizing sauces
 - "-"
 - Doubtfire
 - Competent
 - Barbie or Raggedy Ann
 - Take to the seas
 - Barbershop treatment
 - Goes up
 - Dance to rock music
 - Weighing device
 - Old theater letters
 - Wading bird
 - Poi base
 - Disencumber
 - Caustic solution
 - Morning moisture
 - Away from NNW

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Wishing Well®

3	7	6	3	2	4	2	4	8	2	6	5	3
L	Y	A	E	S	L	H	O	V	A	G	C	A
8	3	8	7	6	7	5	7	2	4	8	2	3
I	R	S	O	R	U	O	A	R	O	I	E	N
8	5	4	8	6	8	3	7	5	7	3	2	8
T	L	K	O	E	R	N	R	L	E	E	I	A
7	6	4	8	6	3	6	3	5	3	7	6	3
T	E	T	R	A	W	B	S	E	K	H	L	I
6	8	2	3	8	5	8	7	8	3	6	7	4
E	R	D	L	I	G	V	E	E	L	F	L	O
6	7	2	5	7	2	3	7	8	2	6	5	4
R	E	E	E	A	A	S	D	S	S	I	B	S
7	6	5	6	7	6	4	6	5	4	5	4	5
E	E	O	N	R	D	E	S	U	L	N	F	D

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

HOCUS-FOCUS

BY HENRY BOLTINOFF

FIND AT LEAST 6 DIFFERENCES BETWEEN PANELS.
Differences: 1. Picture is missing. 2. Spoon is missing. 3. Paper towels are missing. 4. Socks are shorter. 5. Handle is missing. 6. Box is different.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Trivia test by Fifi Rodriguez

- LANGUAGE: Variety magazine coined the term "oater" to describe what kind of entertainment?
- MATH: What is the Arabic equivalent of the Roman numeral LXXX?
- STYLE: What is the function of furniture called an etagere?
- FOOD: What is the chief ingredient in caponata?
- MEASUREMENTS: What did the Binet-Simon Scale measure?
- GEOGRAPHY: On which continent is the country of Paraguay located?
- MEDICINE: What is digitalis used to treat?
- ENTERTAINMENT:

Which humorist created the fictional town of Lake Wobegon?
9. GENERAL KNOWLEDGE: What is an aqueduct?
10. LITERATURE: Who wrote the novel "The Portrait of a Lady"?

Answers

- A Western film
- 80
- It's a stand with open shelves for display
- Eggplant
- Intelligence
- South America
- Congestive heart failure
- Garrison Keillor
- An artificial channel to bring water to a town
- Henry James

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

MAGIC MAZE • STANDARD

E L P A T S K C I T S D R A Y
U C O N V E N T I O N A L S Q
N L N J G E N X C S Z K X V T
R K P E N L J O O N S R H E C
A M O Y R W S V T D O A T R P
E N O O L E K T I S O M L G E
C G B D B Z F X O W H H M C U
S R U D E T P E C C A C T O P
O M L A J L X I R G K N U R C
E D B E G A R E V A A E Y O O
X R A L U G E R T W U B T S T

Find the listed words in the diagram. They run in all directions - forward, backward, up, down and diagonally.

Accepted	Common	Orthodox	Stock
Average	Conventional	Reference	Textbook
Benchmark	Gauge	Regular	Touchstone
Classic	Model	Staple

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Restless Rams and Ewes might want to let others finish a current project while they start something new. But if you do, you could risk losing out on a future opportunity.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) The Bovine's creative forces start revving up as you plan for the upcoming holidays. Some practical aspects also emerge, especially where money is involved.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Moments of doubt disrupt your otherwise clear sense of purpose. Don't ignore them. They could be telling you not to rush into anything until you know more about it.
CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A planned trip might have to be delayed. Plan to use this new free time to update your skills and your resume so you'll be ready when a new job opportunity opens.
LEO (July 23 to August 22) A flood of holiday party bids from business contacts allows you to mix work and pleasure. Your knowledge plus your Leonine charm wins you a new slew of admirers.
VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) An unexpected act by a colleague complicates an agreement, causing delays in implementing it. Check out the motive for this move: It's not what you might suspect.
LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You might want to cut ties with an ingrate who seems to have forgotten your past generosity. But there might be a reason for this behavior that you should know about. Ask.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Be careful not to set things in stone. Much could happen over the next several days that will make you rethink some decisions and maybe change them.
SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your plans to help provide holiday cheer for the less fortunate inspire others to follow your generous example. Expect welcome news by week's end.
CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You're in your glory as you start planning for the holiday season ahead. But leave time to deal with a problem that needs a quick and fair resolution.
AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) The upcoming holiday season provides a perfect setting for strengthening relationships with kin and others. A new contact has important information.
PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Instead of fretting over a cutting remark by a co-worker, chalk it up to an outburst of envy of your well-respected status among both your colleagues and superiors.
BORN THIS WEEK: You instinctively know when to be serious and when to be humorous -- attributes everyone finds endearing.

(c) 2012 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

CryptoQuip

This is a simple substitution cipher in which each letter used stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Solution is accomplished by trial and error.

Clue: Q equals P

ONUK XOR QURQSU IUX
YHBBUDC, D IJUGG TRJ YDINX
GHT XNUT UKXUB DKXR HK
HSXHBUC GXHXU.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

King Crossword

Answers

Solution time: 27 mins.

Magic Maze

ANSWERS:

MASTER

Cryptoquip

ANSWER:

When two people get married, I guess you might say they enter into an altered state.

NQ Girls' Soccer Loses Heartbreaker To Dartmouth

RED RAIDER freshman forward Hayley Houlihan beats out Dartmouth senior Morgan Gidley for the ball. North Quincy bowed to Dartmouth in the tournament, losing 2-0 on penalty kicks Sunday evening at Veterans Memorial Stadium.

NQHS Forward Ciara Forde fights for the ball against Dartmouth #6 Senior Morgan Gidley.

Quincy Sun Photos/Lisa Aimola

NORTH QUINCY Goalkeeper Christine Kelliher keeps a focused eye on the field during the game against Dartmouth.

NORTH QUINCY's Sydney Chang races for the ball against a Dartmouth opponent in the Red Raider's tournament game Sunday at Veterans Memorial Stadium.

NQHS Midfielder Abby Smith (left) goes up against Dartmouth senior Jackie Salvador.

NORTH QUINCY defends its goal as this Dartmouth shot goes high over the net.

Sadie's Designer Cakes & Pastries

Open Thanksgiving 8am-Noon

ORDERS DUE BEFORE
NOV. 16TH

419 Hancock St. Quincy
(617)770-CAKE(2253)
www.sadiescakes.com

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Order Pies, Bread & Rolls, Cookies,
Pumpkin Bread & Pastries.

COMPLETE TURKEY DINNER

WITH MASHED POTATOES, STUFFING,
PEAS, GRAVY, ROLLS & PIE.

FEEDS 10-12 $65.00 20-25 $125.00
INDIVIDUAL TURKEY DINNER $9.95

"WEEKLY SPECIAL"

Cannoli's 50¢

Pistachio, Chocolate or Pumpkin

(Special Thurs. Fri & Sat. only)

Caryn's Corner 25th Anniversary Celebration

You're invited to our 25th Anniversary party.
Monday, November 12, 2012
4pm - 7pm.

Refreshments will be served,
door prizes, and 25% off everything in the store except Pandora jewelry.

www.carynscornerquincy.com

Please join us for our silver anniversary celebration!

COMFORT TIME @ ALBA

4-6pm Every Day

All under $20.00

BUCATINI ALL' AMATRICIANA
FUSILLI BOLOGNESE
PEAR & MASCARPONE SACCHETTI
BAKED GNOCCHI AL FORNO
PENNE WITH CHICKEN & BROCCOLI
LINGUINE WITH MARINARA
CHICKEN MARSALA
BAKED STUFFED JUMBO SHRIMP
CHICKEN PARMESAN
GREMOLATA BAKED COD
SPICY SEAFOOD FRA DIAVOLO
ROASTED CHICKEN PICCATA
HADDOCK FRANCAISE
ROASTED 1/2 CHICKEN UNDER A BRICK
OVEN BAKED MEATLOAF
ROASTED WILD SALMON
SLICED BEEF TENDERLOIN

11 years voted Best Dining Excellence in Quincy

1486 Hancock St. Quincy • (617)376-2522
www.albaquincy.com

QHS Senior Amelia Wool Receives Peer Leadership Award

District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey recently presented Quincy High School Senior Amelia Wool with a Peer Leadership Award for 2012.

She was one of just 23 Norfolk County high school students to win the award this year.

"The strength and health of school communities is derived from the students and student leaders who lead by example," Morrissey said after presenting the award at his 2012 Peer Leadership Conference. "Good teachers and thoughtful administrators are important, but it is students like Amelia doing the work."

QHS principal Frank C. Santoro nominated Wool for the award, citing her work with the American Red Cross and Quincy Crisis Center food drives, her service at the QHS Leadership Camp, work founding QHS's Students Against Destructive Decisions Club, the Dance Committee, and an impressive list of volunteer activities in the Quincy community.

AMELIA WOOL, a senior at Quincy High School, receives congratulations from District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey, left, and Quincy High Principal Frank C. Santoro after receiving a 2012 Norfolk County Peer Leadership Award.

"Quincy High School and the entire Quincy community are fortunate to be the beneficiary of the many talents and dedication of Amelia Wool," Santoro wrote in his nomination.

The award presentations were made about half way through the five-hour Peer Leadership Conference, which supplied workshops and presentations on bullying prevention, dating violence, drug and alcohol use, mentoring and other subjects to more than 150 students hand-chosen to attend from across the county. "We worked to put together a program that might supply tools to the students who are shaping the attitudes and cultures within our schools," Morrissey said.

Living in Abundance

Come and explore how spirituality enriches your life with greater wisdom, happiness, and health.

International speaker, Evan Mehlenbacher, is a practitioner and teacher of Christian Science healing and a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

Sunday, November 18, 2012, at 3:00 P. M.
American Legion Post #294
80-83 Liberty Street, Quincy, 02169

A S S E M B L Y

NOW OPEN!!!

Serving Lunch 11:30-4:00 & Dinner 4:00-10:00

ENTERTAINMENT SATURDAYS

10pm-1am

11/10.... Bobbin Reggae

11/17.... Late Night Radio

11/24.... DJ Damien

Book your Holiday Party!

A S S E M B L Y

425 Hancock St. Quincy
(617)302-4696 • (617)302-4987

John Adams Honored On 277th Birthday Anniversary
Page 2

West Quincy Elks Win 3rd Straight Youth Football Title
Page 35

69
THOMAS CRAN PUBLIC LIBRARY
PO BOX 699164
QUINCY MA 02269-9164
CAR-RT LOT#B-099

The Quincy Sun

Historic Quincy's Hometown Weekly Newspaper Since 1968

VOL. 45 No. 9

Thursday, November 15, 2012

75¢

Thank You Veterans For Your Service

GOLD STAR MOTHER Angela Durkin pauses at two memorial wreaths placed at the World War I "Doughboy" Statue at the Adams Academy during Quincy's Veterans' Day observance Sunday. Durkin's daughter, Ciara, died Sept. 28 2007 while serving in Afghanistan. Saluting are Marc Connolly (second from right), commander of the Quincy Veterans Council; and George Nicholson, a disabled Vietnam veteran and the keynote speaker at the ceremony. Story on Page 9. Other Photos on Pages 18 and 19.

MORRISETTE AMERICAN LEGION Squadron 294, Sons of the American Legion Senior Vice Commander James Gill (left) and SAL Commander Paul Moody walk with a memorial wreath to be placed at the flag pole at Flags for Veterans Island in memory of all veterans who have served their country.

'OUR MEN AND WOMEN in the uniforms of the American Armed Forces know that they have your unwavering faith and support," Keynote Speaker and Vietnam Veteran George Nicholson (at podium) said in thanking the city of Quincy for its support of veterans. Elected officials looking on include (from left), City Council President Michael McFarland, Mayor Thomas Koch, Cong. Stephen Lynch and state Rep. Tackey Chan.

'VIETNAM VETERANS, more than any other veteran community, need to know we value their service and sacrifice," said guest speaker Larry Norton, commander of the Vietnam Combat Veterans, in his remarks at Sunday's Sons of the American Legion, Cyril P. Morrisette Post Squadron 294, Veterans Day Observance at Flags for Veterans Island at Fort Square.

ROBERT LaFLEUR, past commander Morrisette Legion Post/SAL 294 and Commander of the DAV 79, plays taps at the conclusion of the Sons of the American Legion, Squadron 294, Veterans Day Observance Sunday at Flags for Veterans Island, Fort Square in Quincy.

AMERICAN FLAGS, each representing a local veteran who served his or her country, decorate Flags for Veterans Island at Fort Square in Quincy.

Quincy Sun Photos/
Robert Bosworth

FR Bridge Project Begins - Page 3 ♦ Track Dedication Sunday - Page 11
Nominations Open For Henry Bosworth Memorial Award - Page 22

For more Quincy news, visit:
The Quincy Sun.com

John Adams: Advocate For Public Education, Strong Navy

By SCOTT JACKSON

At a Presidential wreath-laying ceremony last Thursday celebrating the 277th anniversary of John Adams' birth, the second president of the United States was honored for his belief in education for all.

Emily Rines, a member of the Woodward School's class of 2013, reminded the audience that Adams emphasized when he wrote Massachusetts' constitution with his cousin Samuel Adams and James Bowdoin in 1779.

"It was John Adams' belief in the idea of broad education for all Americans I'd like to speak about with sincere gratitude on behalf of all the students in this audience because we're all direct beneficiaries," Rines said. "Any history of John Adams tells us that he was a scholar. He loved books and took wisdom and comfort from reading literature."

"For students his greatest gift to us might be his contribution to our Massachusetts state constitution. In addition to articulating the structure of government, President Adams saw the education of citizens as necessary for the survival of democracy and this is written directly into our state's

Wreath-Laying Honors Second President On 277th Birthday Anniversary

MEMBERS OF THE Navy Operational Support Center Quincy PS1 Florrie Lambert (left) and HM2 Crystal Galvin (right), escort the Presidential Wreath in honor of President John Adams' 277th birthday anniversary down the aisle of United First Parish Church prior to its placement on the second President's tomb.

constitution as a duty of the legislature."

Rines also paid tribute to Adams' wife Abigail Adams, one of only two women in American history to be the wife of one president and the mother of another. Rines credited her with advancing the cause of women's education, adding that Abigail and John's relationship with Ebenezer and Mary Ann Woodward helped inspire the founding of the Woodward School.

"Abigail Adams is a powerful figure in her own right. A wonderful writer, she is an inspiration to a student like me who attends a girls' school," Rines said. "She wrote of the state of women's education in her time, 'I regret the trampling, narrow, contracted education of females in my own country. It is really mortifying when a woman possessed with a common share of understanding considers a difference in education between a male and female sex."

PRESIDENTIAL WREATH is placed on the tomb of President John Adams in the crypt at United First Parish Church. From left are: Historian Bill Westland, state Sen. John Keenan, Rev. Dave Johnson, Vice President of United First Parish Church H. Kirkland Switzer II, and Woodward School for Girls Senior Emily Rines.

"By founding my school that began to change. And we cannot help believe, especially because of their close association with the Woodwards, that John and Abigail Adams had much to do with the advancement of education for girls and women. Because of John Adams' great passion, intelligence, vision, and idealism and the shared goals and personal generosity of other Americans like him, the students sitting in this church today are the recipients of a promise and commitment John Adams was determined to put in the Massachusetts Constitution."

Rines wasn't the only one who commented on Adams' belief in public education. Two speakers - Adams National Historical Park Deputy Supt. Caroline Keinath and Quincy Historical Society Director Dr. Ed Fitzgerald - were asked to reflect on a quote John wrote to Abigail in 1780 while he was in Paris negotiating the treaty that ended the Revolutionary War.

"I must study politics and war that my sons may have liberty to study mathematics and philosophy. My sons ought to study mathematics and philosophy, geography, natural history, naval architecture, navigation, com-

Cont'd On Page 14

COMFORT TIME @ ALBA

4-6pm Every Day

All under $20.00

BUCATINI ALL' AMATRICIANA
FUSILLI BOLOGNESE
PEAR & MASCARPONE SACCHETTI
BAKED GNOCCHI AL FORNO
PENNE WITH CHICKEN & BROCCOLI
LINGUINE WITH MARINARA
CHICKEN MARSALA
BAKED STUFFED JUMBO SHRIMP
CHICKEN PARMESAN
GREMOLATA BAKED COD
SPICY SEAFOOD FRA DIAVOLO
ROASTED CHICKEN PICCATA
HADDOCK FRANCAISE
ROASTED 1/2 CHICKEN UNDER A BRICK
OVEN BAKED MEATLOAF
ROASTED WILD SALMON
SLICED BEEF TENDERLOIN

11 years voted Best Dining Excellence in Quincy

1486 Hancock St. Quincy • (617)376-2522

www.albaquincy.com

When It's Time To Talk
To Your Parents...

Talk to us First -
We're here to help!

Allerton House

Assisted Living Communities

Come for lunch &
stay for a tour.

www.welchhsg.com

Call
Today!

Duxbury
781-585-7136

Hingham
781-749-3322

Marshfield
Including Memory Care
866-939-1070

Quincy
617-471-2600

Weymouth
781-335-8666

A tradition of quality care from our family
to yours

Welch

Ground Broken For New $244M Fore River Bridge

Construction Of Vertical Lift Bridge Expected To Be Completed In 2015

By SCOTT JACKSON

At a groundbreaking ceremony for the new $244 million Fore River Bridge last Friday in North Weymouth, Gov. Deval Patrick called the project an opportunity for long-term growth along the South Shore.

"Investing in infrastructure is the unglamorous part of legislating but it supports everything else. It creates jobs right now but it's a platform for growth and for development over time," Patrick said. "The promise of this region is very, very high and very exciting."

The new bridge will have a 58.5-foot vertical clearance, compared to the 50-foot clearance the current temporary span has. At 250 feet, the shipping channel under the bridge will be 75 feet wider than it is now. Because of the widened channel, a vertical-lift bridge was chosen over a bascule design similar to the old Fore River Bridge that was built in 1936 and replaced by the temporary one in 2002.

"This bridge is going to be a great addition to the community. It's going to be higher and wider. Higher so there's more clearance and doesn't have to open as often and wider so that it can accommodate more of the traffic needs of the South Shore," Patrick said. "There will be opportunities for biking and for walking on the bridge as well."

"I know there's been some back and forth about the design but the design is thoughtful, sensible, attractive and it certainly beats the temporary bridge we have."

Sen. John Keenan echoed the governor's sentiments adding that communities throughout the South Shore, and not just the three cities near the bridge, would benefit from it.

"It's great to see DOT, to see the governor here in this area because it's such a vital area. This bridge, which is the good work of investment and infrastructure, will benefit not only Quincy, Braintree, and Weymouth — the communities that directly abut it — but also the entire region," Keenan said. "It's a vital link between the South Shore, the city of Boston, and the communities that lie in between. It's great to see the investment. It's exciting to see the work begin."

Sen. Bob Hedlund, a Weymouth Republican, credited former state Treasurer Tim Cahill for helping put together funding concepts for the new bridge while he was in office.

"This is something that really we've waited a long time for," Hedlund said. "I just want to mention also someone else who worked very closely with us on it, he's obviously not here today, but State Treasurer Tim Cahill came to us originally with some of the concept funding that we're utilizing today. We worked very closely with his office."

House Majority Leader Ron Mariano, who represents Quincy Point and parts of Weymouth, said the ground breaking came after years of work put in by himself and Hedlund on behalf of their constituents affected by the old bridge's frequent openings.

"This is the culmination of a long, long process that Bob and I began probably about 15 years ago. It all began because I had a gentleman who lived in Idlewell (a Weymouth neighborhood) and whenever the bridge would open it would aggravate him and he would call me up. So if it was 11 o'clock at night he'd call; if it was two in the morning he'd call," Mariano said. "I'm sad to report he's gone so he won't be able to see the beautiful new structure with a reduced number of openings."

LOCAL OFFICIALS joined Gov. Deval Patrick (third from right) at a ground-breaking ceremony Nov. 9 for the Fore River Bridge replacement project. From left are: State Sen. John Keenan, Councillor Douglas Gutro, Ward 1 Councillor Margaret Laforest, House Majority Leader Ron Mariano, Gov. Patrick, Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall and state Rep. Tackey Chan.

Quincy Sun Photo/Emily Taft

The Fore River Bridge project is part of the Patrick administration's $2 billion accelerated bridge program. The Fore River Bridge is the most expensive project in the program, which uses a design-build process to expedite the work. Mariano believes the replacement of the Fore River Bridge wouldn't be possible without the governor's initiative.

"I believe that this bridge wouldn't have happened if we didn't have an accelerated bridge program. We were struggling to cobble money together. We used to lobby anyone who would listen to us about the importance of this bridge as an economic connection to the lower part of the South Shore," Mariano said. "This is vital. If you've traveled it at rush hour you know how many people are struggling to get to Boston. It is the lifeline of the South Shore."

Cont'd On Page 20

Early Deadline For Next Week's Quincy Sun

Because of the Thanksgiving Day holiday, The Quincy Sun will be published a day earlier next week, necessitating an early news and advertising deadline. The paper will go to press Monday and be circulated on Tuesday.

News, socials, church and youth sports releases as well as retail, legal and classified advertising should be in the Sun office, 1372 Hancock St., Quincy Center, by noon tomorrow (Friday) for the Wednesday, Nov. 21 issue.

Thank you for your co-operation.

Jimbo's Pizza

Subs & Seafood

NOW OPEN!!!

Come see "Jimbo"

the familiar face in Quincy 27 years!!

Large Cheese Pizza

$7.99 + tax

Inside Richards Market
243 Atlantic St., Quincy

(617)471-2222

PAYING TOP DOLLAR
for your unwanted jewelry!

APPRAISING,
BUYING &
SELLING...

Del Greco Coins

399 WASHINGTON STREET ROUTE 53 WEYMOUTH
LOCATED OFF RT. 3, EXIT 16A, TO RT. 53N

781.337.5069

HOURS: MONDAY - FRIDAY 9-5 • SATURDAY 9:30-2

Refinance
your Jumbo
at an excellent rate!

3.29% APR

15-YEAR FIXED
NO POINTS!

COLONIAL FEDERAL SAVINGS BANK

"Your neighborhood bank!"

QUINCY: 15 Beach Street 617-471-0750 • 1000 Southern Artery (Residents only) 617-479-1430

HOLBROOK: 802 South Franklin Street 781-767-1776

EAST WEYMOUTH: Middle & Washington Streets 781-331-1776 • www.colonialfed.com

Insured FDIC

Some additional facts: Annual Percentage Rate (APR) effective as of 11/7/12 and may change. Applies to 1-2 family owner-occupied homes. Assumes a maximum 80% loan-to-value and first mortgage position. Subject to credit approval. A 15-Year Jumbo loan would be repaid in 180 equal monthly principal plus interest payments of $7.03 per $1000 borrowed, which do not include taxes or insurance premiums, if applicable. So your actual monthly payment will be greater. Must borrow at least $417,000 for this loan.

Rogers Jewelry: A Retail Mainstay In Quincy Center

Mark Bertman calls it a "great journey."

He also considers himself a retail survivor.

But he's much more than that.

Mark has become an iconic presence in Quincy as much as the family business, Rogers Jewelry, that first opened its doors at 1402 Hancock St. in 1960.

Today, 52 years later, Rogers Jewelry is the longest continuously operating retail establishment in Quincy Center. The glass and granite facade store is as much a mainstay of downtown Quincy as the Granite Trust Building where it is located.

Mark, who comes to work virtually every day the store is open, is the company treasurer. His wife, Isabel, also works at the store. Their son Jeffrey, one of the store's two graduate gemologists, is company president.

Over the last 52 years, Mark Bertman has seen virtually everything in the retail district of Quincy Center. That journey has seen the downtown's ups and downs.

Mark, an early business leader who's remained active in civic affairs for many years, had a front row seat to Quincy Center's hey-days as Shopperstown, U.S.A. That nickname surfaced in the 1950s while Quincy's downtown was a retail destination with dozens of storefronts. Those years lasted throughout the 1960s but began to fade in the early 1970s as some anchor stores like Sears migrated to the shopping malls.

Other stores closed for other reasons. Some lost customers with decreased foot traffic. Family businesses shuttered because there were no heirs to keep them going.

It wasn't only retail. The number of banks has dwindled. Bertman can count off seven banks in the downtown at one time. Today, only one remains: Bank of America.

If you think Mark Bertman is nostalgic for those Shopperstown days to return to Quincy, think again.

"Quincy was a shopping center and I still hear that and people still talk about it but there's no place in the country that is still what it was 40 years ago. It's not just here. Gimbel's is gone. Jordan Marsh is gone.

"It hasn't happened anywhere in the country. New York City has reinvented itself somewhat through smaller merchants but it's certainly not those huge stores and that type of operation of what it used to be. Plus, there's all new merchants. Everyone has changed the direction they are going into and the goods they are selling and what's going to attract customers."

With the construction phase of the first two buildings of the city's $1.6 billion downtown revitalization

Son Beams

By ROBERT BOSWORTH

ROGERS JEWELRY has been a family business at 1402 Hancock St. for more than 52 years. Mark Bertman (left) with his son, Jeff Bertman, a graduate gemologist.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

project scheduled to break ground early next year, there may be some citizens who think the center will return to its Shopperstown hey-days.

But that's not really the idea.

The downtown project has more to do with creating a new vibrant neighborhood with high-rise apartment and condo buildings, a hotel, movie theatre and new retail specialty shops. So while Thom McAnn, Remick's and Sawyer's are not coming back, new speciality stores will be the fabric of a new Quincy Center "retail quilt," officials say.

"I think we could use a nice gift shop, maybe a stationery store or a good card store," Bertman says. "There are people who are creative who will come in and sell things that we can't even think of. People always think of new things."

But to drive a new retail engine downtown, it's going to take people and foot traffic. That's why Bertman and others who support the project believe the most important component initially to the downtown plan is the residential aspect.

People living downtown will shop downtown.

One good indication that the center is on the upswing is its thriving restaurant climate.

"Look at how the restaurants are doing," Bertman says. "They're doing pretty well at night. People who are frequenting the restaurants are coming from out of town because the reputation is there is good food here."

"People are interested in coming here so when more and more people are living here, I would think 10 to 15 years from now stores like us will have to be open late at night again. It will be a throwback because there will be business at night."

"You stay open when there's business. You close when there's nothing. You don't want to disappoint people when you're not there but sometimes it doesn't make sense to stay open (at night)."

Bertman, who recently celebrated his 80th birthday, summed up Rogers' business success with "three" words:

"Service, service, service. That's how we've been able to stay with the coming in of other jewelers, all of the nail parlors, the lack of foot traffic. We've adopted a number of customer-friendly policies like return privileges, cash-back, and various things like that."

"We've been fortunate that children and grandchildren and so forth have continued to become customers. We become highly recommended."

Building relationships with suppliers, manufacturers and customers has been important as well as being active in civic affairs.

Mark is a longtime Quincy Rotarian, former Quincy College governor, and one of the original members of the Quincy Partnership. Comprised of active business and civic leaders, the Partnership has raised funds for city-wide improvements including new "Welcome to Quincy" signs, exterior lighting at several historical sites and the bronze Adams statues in Quincy Center.

Bertman has been at the forefront of business groups, including the former Quincy Center Business and Professional Association that he helped found in 1973. The organization advocated interests for the business community downtown and help run people-attracting promotions like the Sidewalk Bazaar.

Recalling the days that led to the group's founding, Bertman said, "For the first time we had a really active, business-orientated mayor in Walter Hannon who understood business and wanted the downtown to prosper but it was starting to fragment itself back in the 1970s. We just felt together we could succeed. One person couldn't make it on his own and no one person could ever really attract enough people to the downtown."

Among those who were also instrumental in launching the QCBPA were Win Sargent at South Shore National Bank and Bob Coleman, who owned Colman's Sporting Goods and served as the organizations' first president. Bertman was the first vice president and second president.

The QCBPA remained an active organization for many years. It merged several years ago with the new Quincy Chamber of Commerce.

While he's very optimistic about the downtown's future, Bertman has also real concerns about what construction will do to foot traffic in the area. The first phase - called Merchants Row - will take place near his storefront at the 1400 block of Hancock Street.

"I am frightened at the prospect of the construction being right in the middle of it. We have no choice but to stay because of our vaults and everything that's here. It would cost us a fortune to pick up and move for two years and then come back two years later."

"We will attempt to maintain a business presence and continue to attract people to our business. Frankly, there are not a lot of people downtown now that come in. Saturday has become one of the worst days of the week because there's no foot traffic outside. None of the other businesses are open. What's there to come down to except a nail or a hair appointment or something like that?"

He adds:

"We've been very lucky to build up our collateralized lending business and our purchase and resale of gold. We have put up a competitive website that features all recycled jewelry. Things that we've purchased from estates and have been fixed up and placed in stock at very competitive prices."

"People seem to go on the website and then come into the store to look at the item. I still think that in jewelry - unlike a lot of other things - people like to touch the item and see the item. They want to see the sparkle and talk about it."

"Between that and people coming in, we hope that will be enough to sustain this first phase of construction."

Bertman says he also concerned about parking and traffic flow after vehicular patterns change because of the Adams Green project near City Hall and United First Parish Church.

But he's also convinced Quincy Center's best days are ahead.

"I am unbelievably encouraged (about the new Quincy Center). This is a great opportunity. We could be the gem of the entire South Shore."

"When you think about how many schools are within 10 miles of Quincy and four subway stops in Quincy. That means people like to live here so that they can work in Boston and most of the apartments are all rented out. It's a lot cheaper living here than in Boston and I think this first concept which is mostly apartments and some retail stores will do very well."

"I think Quincy College moving back downtown will do very well, too."

"People," Bertman adds, "is what we live on."

The Quincy Sun

(USPS 453-060)
Published Weekly on Thursday by
The Quincy Sun Publishing Co., Inc.
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

Robert H. Bosworth
Publisher and Editor

Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.
Founder
1968 - 2009

75¢ per copy. $25.00 per year by mail in Quincy
$30.00 per year by mail outside Quincy - $38.00 out-of-state

Telephone: 617-471-3100 Fax: 617-472-3963

email address:
thequincysun@verizon.net

Periodicals postage paid at Boston, MA
Postmaster Send address change to:
The Quincy Sun, 1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

The Quincy Sun assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs.

Scenes From Yesterday

THIS IS A 1944 real photo postcard showing the Eastern Mass Street Railway's new Quincy Square all weather waiting station for Hough's Neck trolley passengers. It was located on a traffic island at the intersection of Washington Street, which crossed in the foreground, and Coddington Street, which begins here. The trolley-tracks went down Coddington Street on the left and continued on Sea Street to the end in Hough's Neck. The belfry of the Bethany Congregational Church can be seen over the trees in the center and the library is just over the auto on the right. When busses replaced the trolleys in 1949, this city-owned waiting room was closed. Bus passengers then used the Eastern Mass main waiting room next to Thompson's Lunch on Hancock Street. This isolated small building was a constant target for vandals and reportedly was being used for illegal number pools operators when the city closed it. Six years later, in 1955, the US Army moved its recruiting station from across the street into this building and for many years it served residents from Milton to Cohasset. Today, there is only a small pedestrian island located here. To contact Tom Galvin, e-mail tmgalvin@verizon.net.

From the Collection of City Historian Tom Galvin

READERS FORUM

Wants To Be Proud Of His Old Hometown

A year ago this month, I moved from Quincy to a much smaller city, in a different region, and the comparisons are sobering.

In Quincy, we went a decade without more than a few words with our neighbors.

Here, there is a wealth of community... and the neighbors bring snacks to share!

In Quincy, if you're cut off in a cross-walk, often the driver gives you the finger.

Here, the drivers frantically mouth apologies.

In Quincy, the UU church held free meals for the hungry, and city councillors weren't ashamed to say, "We have to get the poor out of the city center."

Here, the center church holds free meals for the hungry, and parishes, charities and businesses line up to help.

In Quincy, people practicing tai chi at the common were heckled and driven away.

Here, the meditation circle meeting on the common is treated with respect.

In Quincy, every proposed improvement attracts protests about clipping the taxpayers.

Here, the new school proposal passed overwhelmingly.

In Quincy, a disabled veteran spoke out about no heat in her public housing, and newspaper websites filled with vicious cracks about drones and leeches.

Here, such behavior towards a veteran would be unthinkable.

We tried to volunteer at a few places in Quincy, and each time were handed large applications more rigorous than employment checks.

Here, you're greeted cheerfully and invited to pitch right in.

There are many more examples.

I was born in Quincy; so were my parents and grandparents. Quincy means a good deal to me still.

Maybe people could be less "angry?" Less angry at people poorer than you, at those who supported the candidate you hate, at teenagers for congregating in public, at strange ethnic groups walking the streets or putting up businesses, at any use of tax dollars you don't think personally benefits you?

I'm proud of where I live.

I'd like to be proud again of where I used to live.

Robert Traynor
Once from Quincy

Two-Party System Needed To Get America Moving Again

Quincy has been called the "City of Presidents" since it is the birth place of Presidents John Adams and his son John Quincy Adams.

Like Boston across the Neponset River, Quincy is steeped in Revolutionary War history. When I think back to 1776 as a college history major, I know that America was considered a grand experiment in rule by the people. We chose a republican democracy where the governed elected their own leaders. We believed in liberty.

Over the last 20 years our democracy hasn't been working out that well as more and more power is taken by our government over us. This was not the intent of this nation's founders. Those men believed economic freedom and individual liberty. They believed in a limited government, one that was big enough not to fail but small enough to protect its citizens from the excesses of government.

On Nov. 6, the election results showed once again and quite clearly that we have become the Divided States of America. There are now two Americas. There is one America where government does all for us while suppressing our liberty. There is another America where the government is still of, for and by the people.

My Massachusetts is no longer the same Massachusetts I was born into and nor the same America most of us seek. In many ways, my Massachusetts have become a preview of what America is moving toward. Divide and conquer. Tax and spend.

When I visit family in Texas I see my America where individual freedom is still honored, where pride is still found and where our American values are upheld.

Today, America is divided between blue and red. We have not been so divided since the Civil War pitted the blue and grey against one another. One side gets 50 percent of the vote and 26 states and the other side gets 49 percent and 24 states. There is no middle ground to be found. It is them versus us, right versus wrong and good versus bad.

My Massachusetts has already moved into a one party state without any checks or balances from our governors. My America is moving in the same direction state by state. What does it take to get a Massachusetts Republican elected? We are now going back to an all-Democratic state delegation in Washington, D.C.

Will gridlock continue or will our political leaders regardless of party status sit down and attempt to end the gridlock and move America again? Or will partisan bickering become the new status quo?

This election didn't finish exactly as I expected. I expected better. I thought we were capable of better. The hollering on the campaign trail solved little.

Now that the election is over, it is time to listen and hear one another. We don't need two Americas. We don't need needless division. We need to work together for the common good of all. With two Americas, we could slide into being the next Greece where everything is souring for all.

America needs a strong two-party system in all 50 states so that real healing can begin and it probably should be starting here in the Cradle of Liberty.

Sal Giarratani
East Boston

Quincy's Yesterdays

This Week
1950
62 Years Ago

No Anthems At Home Games

James Carter, director of health education for the Quincy school department, defended the policy of not playing the national anthem before home football games.

His defense came following criticism by the American Legion of the Weymouth school department for their failure to play the anthem at a home game.

Carter said playing the anthem was suspended because "gate-breakers" took advantage of the situation. During the playing of the anthem, police at the stadium stood at attention, while "gate-breakers" jumped the wall to avoid paying admission.

'EXCELLENT SHIPYARD' TO BE REMEMBERED

In a letter to George Daley, Jr., chairman of the Quincy Shipbuilding Committee, Navy Secretary Francis Matthews said he'd remember the "excellent facilities" at the Fore River yard when awards were made for the new construction and conversion work.

BAY POLLUTION TO END IN FIVE YEARS

Clarence Sterling, state director of the division of sanitary engineering in the Department of Public Health, predicted that pollution in Quincy Bay would end in five years.

He noted that the newly built Nut Island treatment facility, along with the piping of Boston's waste water from Calf Pasture in Dorchester to Deer Island, would end the discharge of sewerage into the bay.

QUINCY-ISMS

Tests were underway to decide if "bay bottom" could be used as a source of sand and gravel to fill the Fenno St. school site... NQHS Principal James Collins was the principal speaker, earlier this week, at the rededication of the "Doughboy" statue in front of the Adams Academy. It was moved from its original site in front of the Coddington School. When it was first dedicated, it was unveiled by Mrs. Victoria Morrisette, mother of Cyril Morrisette, the first Quincy boy killed in World War I in France... Congressman John F. Kennedy was the speaker at the 15th annual meeting of the Quincy Taxpayers' Association, at the Woodward School. QTA honored state Sen. John MacKay, who was retiring that year... Sadie Papile, founder of the Ladies Torre dei Passeri, was chairman of the social at the Neighborhood Club... A Tom Thumb wedding was presented at the Jewish Community Center to raise funds for the hospital program for the auxiliary of the Quincy Jewish War Veterans. Mrs. Bernard Reisberg was the chairman... Councillor David Crowley prepared ordinance changes for submittal to the legislature to repeal the city's outdated Blue Laws that prohibited the servicing of an automobile and the sale of the groceries on Sundays... Forty-three new members of the auxiliary police were sworn in this week, brining the force to 80. Atty. George O'Brien administered the oath to the new members... The Quincy Federation Salvage Committee collected waste paper to raise funds for the auditorium I the new YMCA building... City Clerk Hattlemay Thomas announced that a correction of 500 votes in the recent state election returns showed Gov. Paul Dever losing Quincy to the Republican candidate Arthur Coolidge by 82 votes... There was an elevator shaft fire at the Sheridan department store... A daughter was born at Quincy City Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Thorner of Verchild St... Robert Fenby, Jr., was the "Cinderella Man" of 1950. The 135-pounder who came from nowhere was the South Shore's fifth highest scorer, with 55 points scored... Harold Mason was the outgoing commander of the Nickerson Post with Capt. Wallace Rockwell as incoming commander. The installation was at the Morrisette Post... The cornerstone was laid for the new addition to the Wollaston Lutheran Church... The city council appropriated $5,000 for the removal of unsightly barges in the Town River... Without additional state aid, city manager William Deegan said the liberalization of the old age assistance would add $7-8 on the tax rate... A 1937 used Chevrolet coupe at Granite Chevrolet on Washington St. was $125... St. John Deneen was chairman for the Police Relief Association's 45th annual concert and ball at the Masonic Temple. Chief Joseph Hughes was honorary chairman... Ken Balducci and Jim Griffen were "effective weapons" for QHA football... A 300-pound safe, containing as estimated $600, was stolen from Atlas Food Market.

Arts & Entertainment

BOOKS DONATION – Laureen Paulding (left) of the Quincy Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa, an International Honorary Organization for women educators, recently donated four copies of the book “The Bedraggled Dragon” authored by Diane Purdy Theriault (right). Accepting the donations is Julie Rines, head Children’s Library for the Thomas Crane Public Library. Purdy Theriault founded Diane Purdy’s Children’s Theater Workshop of Quincy. She developed a children’s book from one of the many plays she wrote over the years. The book donation was made in recognition of Alpha Delta Kappa that was founded in 1947.

‘Yes, Virginia, There Is A Santa Claus’ Nov. 16-17

Fontbonne Academy’s Good Fountain Players will perform the play, “Yes, Virginia, There is a Santa Claus” at 7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 16 and Saturday, Nov. 17 in the Fontbonne Auditorium, 930 Brook Road in Milton. Tickets are $10 each and can be purchased at the door prior to each performance. There will also be a matinee Sunday, Nov. 18 at 2 p.m.

Snug Harbor School Winter Fest Dec. 8

The Snug Harbor School Winter Fest will be held Saturday, Dec. 8 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the school, 333 Palmer St., Quincy. The event will feature vendors and crafters are wanted. Contact PTO at snugharborpto@yahoo.com. The event will feature crafts, face painting, raffles, games, food, pictures with Santa (he arrives at noon) and more.

‘Shopping Extravaganza’ Tonight At The View Restaurant

The View Restaurant and Tavern located at 357 West Squantum St., Quincy, will host a “Girls Night Out Shopping Extravaganza” Thursday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m. Vendors will include: jewelry, handbags, photography, sports memorabilia, wreaths, gingerbread houses, accessories and gifts. Everyone is welcome. Admission is free and food and drinks will be available.

THANKSGIVING CENTERPIECES
$25.00 & up
We Deliver!!
FABIANO FLORIST
29 Independence Ave. • 617-770-4307
www.fabianoflorist.com

Quincy College Common Reader Project Hosts Author Of ‘The Cheating Culture’

Quincy College recently hosted a presentation and book signing by Dr. David Callahan, author of The Cheating Culture: What More Americans are Doing Wrong to Get Ahead.

His book is the primary text of this year’s Quincy College Common Reader Project 2012-2013. The event was open to the public.

The Quincy College Common Reader Project 2012-2013 is a campus-wide initiative to choose one book each academic year that is read by the entire College-students, faculty, and staff included. In addition to the keynote presentation by the author, each semester there are events, such as brown-bag lunch discussions, and in-class assignments which further integrate the Common Reader Project into all facets of the College community. The purpose of which is to encourage academic discussion and intellectual engagement surrounding a specific topic each year. This year’s topic is integrity.

Dr. David Callahan (right) appeared at Quincy College’s Common Reader Project presentation. With him is Dr. Henry Rubin, Dean of Liberal Arts. Photo Courtesy Quincy College

“We are pleased to have David Callahan give the inaugural lecture for the Common Reader program. His book has helped our first year students and the entire college community to articulate what a culture of integrity, at Quincy and beyond, should look like,” said Dr. Henry Rubin, Dean of Liberal Arts at Quincy College.

Dr. Callahan is co-founder of Demos, a public policy institute based in New York City where he now serves as a Senior Fellow. He is author of The Cheating Culture: Why More Americans Are Doing Wrong to Get Ahead – the book that inspired the creation of CheatingCulture.com. Since publishing The Cheating Culture, Dr. Callahan has appeared at colleges and universities around the country to discuss issues of ethics and academic integrity.

He has also spoken to numerous business groups and appeared on dozens of television and radio programs to comment on high-profile scandals in sports, business, and academia.

In addition to The Cheating Culture, Dr. Callahan is the author of a number of other books, including The Moral Center, a look at values and politics, and Kindred Spirits, a history of the Harvard Business School Class of 1949.

He received his B.A. at Hampshire College and his PhD at Princeton University. Additional information about David and his work can be found at <http://www.cheatingculture.com>.

BEFORE ELVIS left the building, Mark Stanzler, an impersonator of the “King of Rock and Roll” chatted with Council of Aging Director Tom Clasby following a performance at the Kennedy Center. A crowd of about 175 vivacious seniors attended the performance.

Find us on Facebook
Highlights of Local Programming found on...

QATV

Quincy Access Television
88 Washington Street
Quincy, MA 02169
617-376-1440

Public Access Channel 8

Thursday, November 15th:
6:00pm: Bethany Church
7:00pm: Quincy Youth Football

Friday, November 16th:
11:30am: LIVE: Currently in Quincy
5:30pm: Sound Advice

Saturday, November 17th:
12:00pm: Quincy Youth Football
11:00pm: Penny Dreadful

Sunday, November 18th:
10:00am: Bethany Church
7:00pm: QHS vs. Silver Lake Football

Monday, November 19th:
11:30am: LIVE: Currently in Quincy
7:00pm: LIVE: Eye on Quincy

Tuesday, November 20th:
6:00pm: Eye on Quincy
8:00pm: Quincy in Focus

Wednesday, November 21st:
8:00pm: LIVE: Tarot by Lea Marie
9:00pm: Free Our Voices

Government Access Channel 11

Thursday, November 15th:
7:30pm: Media Advisory: Fore River Bridge
8:30pm: At the Library: November

Friday, November 16th:
6:00pm: City View with Mayor Koch
6:30pm: FYI:QHD Energy Drinks
9:30pm: Veterans Day Parade & Ceremony

Saturday/Sunday, November 17th/18th:
9:00am: City View with Mayor Koch
12:00pm: City Council Finance 11/13
1:30pm: City Council 11/13
4:30pm: Veterans Day Parade & Ceremony
7:00pm: City Council & Finance 11/13

Monday, November 19th:
6:30pm: FYI:QHD Energy Drinks
7:30pm: LIVE: City Council

Tuesday, November 20th:
12:00pm: City Council 11/19
4:00pm: LIVE: License Board
7:00pm: License Board replay

Wednesday, November 21st:
7:00pm: City Council 11/19

Programming is subject to change. For a complete list of programs, please consult our website at www.qatv.org

FOUR STAR PAPER & PARTY OUTLET

THANKSGIVING ENTERTAINING

Tableware & Decorations
Candy, Cake & Pie Boxes
Disposable Pie Plates, Roasting Pans & Food Containers

SPECIALS:
Half Steam Pans 39¢ ea.
2 hr Sterno 69¢ ea.

84 Liberty St., Quincy (617) 773-7773
Mon. - Fri. 8:30-5:00 Sat. 8:30-3:00

Noon To 3 P.M. At Christ Episcopal Church Fr. Bill's Thanksgiving Community Dinner Nov. 22

The Quincy Public Schools Career and Technical Education Culinary Arts Program will prepare, cook, and carve 65 turkeys in the state-of-the-art kitchens of Quincy High School to serve at the Thanksgiving community dinner hosted by Father Bill's & MainSpring (FBMS).

The dinner will be held Thursday, Nov. 22 from noon to 3 p.m. at Christ Episcopal Church, 12 Quincy Ave., Quincy.

For nearly 20 years, FBMS has hosted a Thanksgiving community dinner at the Christ Episcopal Church, Quincy, providing a complimentary meal to individuals and families in need. Coordinated by Father Bill's Place kitchen coordinator, Paul Anderson, FBMS accepts donations of turkeys and other food in bulk quantities to provide a traditional Thanksgiving dinner for up to 300 guests.

Quincy High School is a partner with FBMS for the third consecutive year to engage culinary students in learning valuable preparation, cooking and carving skills while supporting a local charity.

The program is led by Keith Segalla, Quincy Public Schools Executive Director of Career & Technical Education and Instructional Technology, and instructors Mark Kelly, Patrick Noe and William Gluvna.

Additionally, the culinary arts students will host a pie and calzone sale on Tuesday, Nov. 20th at Quincy High School in the Presidents Café from 8 a.m. to noon.

Orders of five or more pies can be made in advance by calling William Gluvna at 617-376-3328.

Proceeds of $1 from the sale of each pie will support programs at Father Bill's & MainSpring.

The café is open to the public for lunch Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

"Not only does this partnership provide our students with a wonderful learning opportunity to enhance and enrich their culinary skills," said Segalla, "it's a great lesson that teaches students about civic responsibility and community service.

"We are proud to be a part of Father Bill's & MainSpring's mission and help support those in need in the Quincy community and South Shore area."

Father Bill's & MainSpring President and CEO, John Yazwinski, added:

"This partnership speaks to the very nature of Thanksgiving and how a community can come together to help support their neighbors. Without the kitchen at Quincy High, we would not be able to provide as many meals as we do.

"On behalf of the hundreds of people we serve each year, I thank the Quincy Public Schools and its students, for their continued commitment to our mission."

Monetary donations can be made to Father Bill's & MainSpring Development Office, 422 Washington Street, Quincy, MA 02169. Add "Thanksgiving Community Meal" to the memo.

Additionally, donations of turkey and food in bulk sizes are being accepted at Father Bill's Place, 38 Broad St., Quincy, MA 02169.

Presidents Café Thanksgiving Pie Sale Nov. 20

The Presidents Café at Quincy High School will hold its annual Thanksgiving Pie Sale Tuesday, Nov. 20 from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Presidents Café in Quincy High School.

Items for sale include assorted pies (apple, blueberry, custard and pumpkin) for $7 each; calzones (spinach, sausage, Italian and buffalo chicken) for $8 each and fresh dinner rolls for $2 a dozen.

Items can be purchased the day of the sale or pre-ordered by today (Thursday) at the Presidents Café during regular restaurant hours; Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 11:30 a.m. until 1 p.m. Pre-orders must be made in person and payment in full

NQHS Class Of 1982 Reunion

North Quincy High School Class of 1982 will hold a 30th reunion Friday, Nov. 23 from 7 to 11 p.m. at Port 305, Marina Bay, North Quincy.

Tickets are $50 in advance or $65 at the door.

must accompany each order. Cash or checks payable to Quincy Public Schools will be accepted.

For further information, call Presidents Cafe' at 617-376-3349.

To purchase tickets, mail a check payable to NQHS Class of 1982 to Caryn's Corner, 695 Adams St., Quincy, MA 02169.

For more information, call Caryn Smith at 617-770-0536.

Social

EDWARD ROBERTS (third from right), a former Quincy resident who lived in the city for many years, recently celebrated his 90th birthday with family in Concord, N.H. The Roberts' family now extends to five generations. Ed lived in Quincy for many years and is a graduate of Montclair School, North Quincy High School, and Quincy Trade. He served in the Army during World War II and the Navy during Korea. Ed worked at the Boston Gear Works both before and after the wars. He was active in Quincy Civil Defense, the American Legion and Wollaston Lutheran Church. Ed went on to college and became a Boston school teacher working at Dorchester High School. He visits family in Quincy often. Photo Courtesy Robert Gibbons

Christmas Fair Nov. 17 At Union Church

Union Congregational Church, 136 Rawson Rd., Wollaston, will sponsor its annual fair Saturday, Nov. 17 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the church's gymnasium.

The theme of this year's event is "Christmas by the Bay" and will feature homemade baked goodies, hand-crafted gift items, raffles and seasonal decorations as well as a snack bar.

There will also be a side lent auction. Items include a Hot Air Balloon adventure, signed Red Sox baseball, collectibles, antiques, local services, restaurants, and entertainment. There will also be raffle for a new Kindle Fire.

Woodward School Craft Fair Dec. 1

The Woodward School for Girls, 1102 Hancock St., Quincy, will hold its fourth annual Holiday Craft Fair

Saturday, Dec. 1 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The fair will feature more than 40 crafters and vendors with food, bake sales and raffles.

Admission is $1 per person.

NQHS Class of 1972 Reunion Nov. 23

North Quincy High School Class of 1972 will hold its 40th year class reunion Friday, Nov. 23 at 7 p.m. at the Best Western Adams Inn, 29 Hancock St., North Quincy.

Cost is $35 per person.

Make checks payable to Linda Lannon/NQHS Class of 1972 and send payment no later than Nov. 12 to Linda (Vitagliano) Lannon, 33 Churchill St., Milton, MA 02186.

For more information, email nqhs72@gmail.com.

NQHS Class Of 1992 Reunion

North Quincy High School Class of 1992 will hold its 20th reunion Saturday, Nov. 24 from 7 p.m. to close at The Waterclub, Marina Bay, 319 Victory Rd.,

North Quincy. There will be light appetizers, cocktails, music and a cash bar.

Cost is $20. Pay at the door.

Look
Your BEST for the Holidays

at

HAIRPLACE ONE
85 QUINCY AVENUE

Call for Appt. 617-472-1060

PLENTY OF PARKING

www.hairplaceone.com

Puzzled about
your future?

Let us help you put the pieces together.

Regina Russell's Tea Room

We have been in the Psychic business since 1973.
Walk-in service & private readings by appointment.
Psychics available for home and office parties.

Phone Readings Available: 888-655-3456

Open Monday thru Friday 10:30 am - 9:30 pm
Saturday & Sunday 10:30 am - 5:00 pm

40 Franklin Street - Quincy, MA - Phone: 617-472-9606
Free weekly horoscopes on our website: www.rtsaroom.com

Author Ann Hood At Library Nov. 28

Bestselling author Ann Hood will visit Quincy to talk about her work, including The Knitting Circle and The Red Thread, on Wednesday, Nov. 28 at 7 p.m. at the Thomas Crane Public Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy.

Hood wrote The Knitting Circle while mourning the death of her young daughter to a virulent form of strep.

In this semiautobiographical novel, she reveals the searing pain, the upheaval, and the loss of self that accompany such a heartbreaking event.

Based on her experience adopting a child, Annabelle, from China, Hood's newest novel, The Red Thread, follows six couples on their journeys to adopt babies from China.

Hood is the author of eight other books, including the memoir, Comfort: A Journey Through Grief, which was named one of the top ten non-fiction books of 2008 by Entertainment Weekly, and was a New York Times Editor's Choice.

The event is sponsored by the friends of Geraldine Storella in her memory.

For more information, visit thomascranelibrary.org or call 617-376-1316.

Holy Trinity Parish Fair Saturday

The Holy Trinity Parish of Quincy will host "A Fair for All Seasons" Saturday, Nov. 17 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at St. Thomas Aquinas Hall, Darrow Street, Quincy.

The fair will feature handmade crafts by South Shore artisans, raffles, kitchen, baked goods, gourmet table, kids corner, knitted items and holiday gifts.

Admission is a non-peerishable food or toiletry item. For more information, call Eileen at 617-479-4107 or 617-481-9153.

Holiday Boutique To Benefit Bernazzani School

"A Night In the Neighborhood" for the Bernazzani Elementary School Holiday Boutique will be held Wednesday, Nov. 28 from 6 to 10 p.m. at the Neighborhood Club of Quincy, 27 Glendale Rd., Quincy.

Tickets are $10 at the door (includes one raffle ticket.)

The event will feature

vendors, raffles and musical entertainment.

All proceeds will benefit the Bernazzani PTO for student enrichment.

STOECKEL INSURANCE AGENCY, LLC

• stoeckelinsurance.com •

Professional Insurance Advice with a Personal Touch
for your AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS • FAMILY

128 McGrath Highway
Quincy, MA 02169-4607

617.786.7444

Thanksgiving Community Dinner

All are Welcome!

Thursday, November 22nd

12 - 3 PM

Christ Episcopal Church

12 Quincy Avenue

Quincy, MA

(across from Firestone Tire)

Additional information:

- To order a delivered meal in the Greater Quincy area, please call: 617-770-3314
- Lunch will not be served at Father Bill's Place
- Transportation from Father Bill's Place to Christ Episcopal Church is available

Father Bill's & MainSpring

NOBODY SHOULD BE HOMELESS

Monetary donations can be made to the Father Bill's & MainSpring Thanksgiving Community Dinner by sending a check to:
Father Bill's & MainSpring, Development Office, 422 Washington Street, Quincy, MA 02169. Additionally, donations of turkey and food in bulk sizes are being accepted at Father Bill's Place, 38 Broad Street, Quincy, MA 02169.

Marie's Kitchen

BY MARIE D'OLIMPIO

Turkey Stuffing

It was a Thanksgiving trial run as we all got together last Sunday for a turkey dinner. Since all of the family have 'in-law' commitments on holidays, we like to try to get together when we can.

In addition to it being my daughter Suzie's birthday, it felt also like Thanksgiving Day.

So while my daughter Rita whose home we were in was preparing the turkey, I was making the stuffing. I made a giblet stuffing while Rita made her bread stuffing.

I'm sure there are still a few of us left who enjoy a giblet stuffing.

TURKEY STUFFING

4 ounces ground meat (any favorite)

Optional

2 stalks celery (chopped)

1 small onion (chopped)

Livers from the turkey (cut up)

2 tablespoons Bell's seasoning

1/2 bag stuffing mix

1 cup seasoned breadcrumbs

1/4 cup Parmesan cheese (optional)

1/4 cup white wine

Sauté celery, onion. Add ground meat, livers and the wine. Cover and cook until blended. Add the stuffing mix (that you have soaked in water or stock.) Stir and cook covered, then add the seasoned breadcrumbs and the cheese and cook for another 10 minutes. If the mixture looks thin, add more breadcrumbs. If thick add a little water or stock. Set aside.

You can either cook the stuffing separately, or when cooled place stuffing in the turkey. Bake at a 350 degree oven 20 minutes to the pound.

Cranberry Sauce - Pumpkin Cheese Cake - Pumpkin Pecan Pie

Today's recipe is for three foods that we can enjoy for Thanksgiving Day. One is a homemade very simple cranberry sauce that my daughter Rita made and the other is a recipe for pumpkin cheese cake and pumpkin pecan pie, both without conventional crust, but instead with ginger snaps or graham crackers.

CRANBERRY SAUCE

1- cup cranberries

1/3- cup orange juice

1/3- cup sugar

2 tablespoons honey

1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Mix all of the ingredients together and then cook in a pan until the cranberries are all blended in the juices. It was so easy, and within a few minutes we had the most delicious cranberry sauce ever.

For the filling

PUMPKIN CHEESE CAKE

3 - eight ounce packages cream cheese (softened)

1-15 ounce can pumpkin mix (without sugar)

1- cup sugar

1- teaspoon vanilla

3 eggs

In a bowl, whip up the cream cheese, sugar and vanilla until smooth. Add the pumpkin mix and the beaten eggs. Mix until well blended.

For the crust

1 1/2 cups ginger snaps or graham crackers

5 tablespoons melted butter

Mix the two ingredients together and place on a greased pie plate pressing on the bottom and on the sides. Bake in a 325 degree oven for 8 minutes.

Remove from oven and place the filling and bake for 1 hour or until a toothpick comes out clean from the center.

PUMPKIN PECAN PIE

1-15 ounce pumpkin pie mix (without sugar)

5 ounces evaporated milk (or 2% milk)

1- cup sugar

1- teaspoon cinnamon

1/2 teaspoon nutmeg

1/2 teaspoon cloves

2 eggs (beaten)

1/4 cup chopped pecans (optional)

Mix the eggs, milk, sugar and spices until blended. Add the pumpkin mix and nuts and stir until smooth.

Use either of the crusts (I used ginger snaps) and bake the crust in a 400 degree oven for 8 minutes. Then add the filling and bake in a 425 degree oven for 15 minutes and then 350 degree for about an hour or until toothpick comes out clean in the center.

At times, I have purchased Libby's pumpkin mix that just needs milk and eggs.

SETTINGS AS UNIQUE AS YOUR WEDDING DAY. Unparalleled elegance in historic Quincy.

When you choose the Boston Marriott Quincy for your wedding day, you'll celebrate in style. The spectacular Grand Presidential Ballroom features high ceilings and stunning crystal chandeliers. The Dorothy Quincy Junior Ballroom offers a smaller, more intimate space overlooking a seasonal outdoor patio - perfect for cocktail receptions. Add fully customized wedding packages, creative personalized menus and luxurious accommodations and you've got all the makings of an extraordinary wedding.

For more information, call 617.774.2088 or visit QuincyMarriottWeddings.com.

BOSTON MARRIOTT QUINCY
1000 Marriott Drive, Quincy, MA 02169
Phone 617.472.1000, QuincyMarriott.com

Marriott
BOSTON QUINCY

Vietnam Air Force Veteran George Nicholson Keynote Speaker At Sunday's Veterans' Day Observance

'Thank You, Quincy, For Supporting Our Veterans'

By KRIS KALABOKAS

Hundreds of Quincy residents lined Hancock Street and Quincy Avenue to give thanks to local veterans at Sunday's Veterans Day parade — an annual tradition which concluded with a keynote address given by Vietnam Air Force veteran George Nicholson.

This is not the first time Nicholson, who served three tours of duty during the Vietnam War, has been given the honor of capping off the day's celebration as keynote speaker. He took to the podium 30 years ago as the first Vietnam veteran to speak at Quincy's 1982 ceremonial observance.

Nicholson, who addressed his fellow veterans, city officials, and spectators in front of Adams Academy, began by recognizing the apathetic attitude of Americans towards men returning home following the conclusion of the Vietnam and Korean Wars.

"When the Korean War erupted just five short years after the end of World War II, most of America, understandably, did not want to deal with war again," he said. "What Americans here back home actually did choose to do at that time was to actually ignore that war and the veterans who served in it."

"So successful were Americans in this pursuit that the Korean War would end up essentially erased from the American collective conscience, and eventually come to be known as 'The Forgotten War.'"

This intentional ignorance soon turned into resentment.

"Five years after [the Vietnam] war was officially ended, the Vietnam veteran was not 'forgotten' in the American psyche, but was instead, vilified, ostracized and victimized by the intense and acute anti-war labeling and protesting of the time."

Severe consequences of battling in war were also downplayed or completely

GEORGE NICHOLSON, a Vietnam veteran of the U.S. Air Force, was the keynote speaker at the city's Veterans Day observance Sunday.

Quincy Sun Photo/
Robert Bosworth

ignored by a vast majority of the population.

"Both of these wars produced their own unique residual issues for their veterans that Americans chose to ignore, to disbelieve, or failed to try to understand," he said. "From frostbite to jungle rot; from malaria to POW abuse; from Agent Orange to PTSD, Americans here at home were extremely slow to accept or understand the realities and residuals of war."

Nicholson not only worried about the treatment of his fellow veterans of war, but became concerned with upcoming generations, and their general attitudes towards enlisting.

Following both the Korean and Vietnam Wars, mandatory conscription and the draft had been eliminated, meaning the future of "our nation's defense would be in the hands of an all-volunteer force," Nicholson noted.

Frightened for the future of the Armed Forces, he has worked tirelessly for the past 30 years with several veterans advocacy groups "talking with veterans and their families at bedside in the hospitals, in their homes and in their communities," has seen a steady increase in positive attitudes regarding enlisting and serving, and feels Americans are now amongst the "staunchest and most steadfast advocates and supporters" of enlisted men and women.

Text Of Keynote Address - Pages 16, 17

He recognized the contributions made by the public in the form of care packages delivering simple things such as Christmas cards, to more valuable items such as cellular phones used to call home with.

"I have seen you provide so much support here at home for the families of those deployed and I have no problem telling you, with no small amount of pride, that I have shed many a tear at the sight of so many of you lined up to welcome our troops back from deployment, and when you have filled the churches and lined the roads in unbelievable flag-bearing numbers to pay a solemn and final tribute and farewell to a soldier who has made his or her ultimate sacrifice for our country."

Nicholson, who has been awarded numerous medals including the Air Force Combat Action Medal, the Presidential Unit Citation Medal, and the National Defense Service Medal, concluded his heartfelt speech by making a simple request:

"I would like for once, and I have waited eagerly for a number of years now to do it, to take this opportunity to reverse the focus of this observance and extend to each and every one of you, a deep, abiding, and heartfelt thank you from every veteran here for your support for us...from all of we veterans in the beautiful and historic city of Quincy, to all of our wonderful fellow citizens of Quincy, thank you so very much. God bless our city and God bless the United States of America."

The ceremony came to a close with the laying of a wreath in front of the Doughboy Statue, which was erected in honor of those who served during World War I between 1917 and 1918, the playing of Taps, and an inspiring vocal rendition of the national anthem.

WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET • LIQUOR OUTLET • WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET • LIQUOR OUTLET • WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET • LIQUOR OUTLET • WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET

OUTLET PRICES Supreme Liquors THANKSGIVING SALE

CLUB PRICES • WAREHOUSE PRICES
NO MEMBERSHIP REQUIRED! NO FEES!
Our Prices Can't Be BEAT!!!

WINE SPECIALS

Kendall Jackson Chardonnay	$10.99	Blackstone Merlot	$7.99	Latour Ardeche Chardonnay	$8.99
Mark West Pinot Noir	$8.99	Barefoot 1.5ltr	$10.99	Louis Jadot Macon Villages	$10.99
Columbia Crest Cabernet	$8.99	Woodbridge 1.5ltr	$10.99	Ecco Domani Pinot Grigio	$9.99
Apothic Red Blend	$8.99	Santa Margherita Pinot Grigio	$19.99	Davinci DOCG Chianti	$10.99
Simi Cabernet	$15.99	Campo Viejo Gran Reserva	$19.99	Gascon Malbec	$10.99
Clos Du Bois Chardonnay	$9.99	Mouton Cadet Red/White	$7.99	Cavit Pinot Grigio 1.5ltr	$11.99
Louis Martini Cabernet	$12.99	Oyster Bay Sauvignon Blanc	$8.99	Moet Imperial	$34.99
Angeline Pinot Noir	$8.99	Ed Hardy Sangria	$4.99	Korbel Champagne	$10.99
ClayHouse Cabernet	$9.99	Luna Di Luna Blue	$6.99	M&R Spumante	$10.99
Smoking Loon Cab/Chard/Merlot ..	$7.99	Layer Cake Malbec	$10.99	Lunetta Prosecco	$8.99
Bogle Merlot	$7.99	Louis Jadot Pouilly Fuisse	$18.99	Ruffino Prosecco	$9.99
Chat. St. Michelle Riesling	$7.99	Georges Duboeuf Beaujolais Villages	$7.99	Freixenet	$7.99
La Crema Chardonnay	$16.99	Root One Pinot Noir	$9.99
Menage A Trois	$8.99	Chat. LaRose Trintaudon	$13.99

SPIRITS SPECIALS

Bacardi Rum 1.75ltr	$21.99	Jack Daniels 1.75ltr	$39.99	Kahlua 1.75ltr	$34.99
Svedka Vodka 1.75ltr	$19.99	Beefeater Gin 1.75ltr	$29.99	Baileys 1.75ltr	$29.99
Old Thompson 1.75ltr	$12.99	Chivas Regal 1.75ltr	$57.99	Dr. McGillyuddy 1.75ltr	$24.99
Dewars White Label 1.75ltr	$34.99	Patron Silver 1.75ltr	$79.99	Amaretto di Saronno 750ml	$21.99
Jose Cuervo Gold 1.75ltr	$34.99	Seagrams Vodka 1.75ltr	$13.99	Jagermeister 750ml	$16.99
Seagrams VO 1.75ltr	$22.99	E&J Brandy 1.75ltr	$19.99	Johnnie Walker Red 1.75ltr	$29.99

BEER SPECIALS

Bud & Bud Light 30pk	$19.99	Harpoon 12pk	$12.99	Angry Orchid 12pk	$12.99
Coors Light 30pk	$19.99	Sierra Nevada 12pk	$12.99	Heineken Loose	$21.99
Miller Lite 30pk	$19.99	Wachusett 12pk	$12.99	Corona Loose	$22.99
Sam Adams 12pk	$12.99	Blue Moon 12pk	$12.99	Stella Artois Loose	$22.99
Long Trail 12pk	$12.99	NewCastle 12pk	$11.99	Becks Loose	$19.99
Magic Hat 12pk	$12.99	RedHook 12pk	$12.99	Heineken Light Loose	$26.99

"2013 World Whiskey of the Year"
Thomas H. Handy Rye $69.99
 Quantities Limited
 One Per Customer

Kegs Coors Light
$65.00

All Beer Plus Deposit

KEG'S & BEER BALLS IN STOCK EVERY DAY AT EVERYDAY LOW PRICES!

615 Hancock Street • QUINCY • 617-773-1332

LARGEST SELECTION OF CRAFT BEER IN QUINCY

DUE TO OUTLET PRICING WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO LIMIT QUANTITIES.
NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS.

Prices effective November 15 to November 22
All Beer + Deposit

WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET • LIQUOR OUTLET • WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET • LIQUOR OUTLET • WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET • LIQUOR OUTLET • WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET

EASTERN NAZARENE COLLEGE Choral Union will present two free performances of Handel's Messiah Saturday, Dec. 1 and Sunday, Dec. 2 at the Wollaston Church of the Nazarene.

ENC Choral Union To Perform Handel's Messiah

The Eastern Nazarene College Choral Union will present two free performances of Handel's Messiah next month.

Comprised of ENC students and members of the community, the 60-voice Choral Union will present the beloved oratorio Saturday, Dec. 1 at 7 p.m. and Sunday, Dec. 2 at 3 p.m. at the Wollaston Church of the Nazarene, located adjacent to the college's main campus at 23 E. Elm Ave., Quincy.

The performances will be conducted by John Schnelle and feature solos by several ENC students as well as professional vocalists, including baritone Ryan Mullaney and tenor Arthur Rishi. Members of the Choral Union will also be accompanied by the Quincy Bay Chamber Orchestra, a 25-member professional orchestra.

For more than 75 years, the Eastern Nazarene College Choral Union has performed two major masterworks of choral literature each concert season. Each fall, the Choral Union presents free performances of Handel's Messiah as a holiday gift to the city of Quincy. In the spring, the group performs a different piece each year, with previous concerts featuring works by Brahms, Bach, Mozart, Beethoven, Faure and more.

For directions or more information, call 617-745-3715.

'Moonrise Kingdom' Film Screening Tonight At Library

The acclaimed 2012 movie Moonrise Kingdom will be shown tonight (Thursday) at 7 p.m. at the Thomas Crane Public Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy.

Set on an island off the coast of New England in the summer of 1965, this film tells the story of two 12-year-olds who fall in love, make a secret pact, and run away together into the wilderness. As various authorities try to hunt them down, a violent storm is brewing off-shore -- and the peaceful island community is turned upside down in more ways than anyone can handle.

Directed by Wes Anderson, the film stars Bruce Willis, Edward Norton and Bill Murray.

The 94-minute movie is rated PG-13.

The screening is sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

For more information, visit thomascranepubliclibrary.org or call 617-376-1316.

QMC Presenting Free Seminars On Makoplasty

Quincy Medical Center is holding a series of free community seminars for individuals who would like to learn about the new minimally-invasive treatment option to relieve knee and hip pain called MAKoplasty®.

The free seminars are scheduled for:

- Today (Thursday) 6 to 7 p.m., Quincy Medical Center, B/C Conference Room, 114 Whitwell St., Quincy, with Leonid Dabuzhsky, MD.

- Wednesday, Dec. 5 from 6 to 7 p.m., Milton Public Library, Keys Community Room, 476 Canton Ave., Milton, with James McGlowan, MD.

- Thursday, Dec. 6 from 6 to 7 p.m., Quincy Medical Center, B/C Conference Room, 114 Whitwell St., Quincy, with Leonid Dabuzhsky, MD.

Orthopedic surgeons from Quincy Medical Center will explain how this innovative robotic-arm assisted technology can effectively and more precisely treat early- to mid-stage osteoarthritis of the knee and osteoarthritis of the hip.

Quincy Medical Center is the only hospital in the area offering MAKoplasty® robotic arm assisted technology for partial knee resurfacing and total hip replacement surgery.

The surgeons will explain the benefits of these procedures--which can include shorter hospital stays, more rapid recovery and smaller scars, who are appropriate candidates for the procedures, as well as other computer and robotically assisted procedures for total knee replacement surgery.

There will be time for questions and answers. Light refreshments will be served.

There is no charge to attend this program, but registration is required to ensure adequate seating. Call 1-800-488-5959 or www.steward.org/MAKoplasty to register.

St. Chrysostom Parish Holiday Fair Dec. 7-8

The Episcopal Parish of St. Chrysostom will hold its annual Holiday Fair Friday, Dec. 7 and Saturday, Dec. 8.

At 6 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 7, there will be a chowder supper. On Saturday, Dec. 8 the fair will be open with breakfast offerings.

Both days will feature crafts, a book sale, attic treasures, baked goods, a raffle table and more.

The Mite Box Thrift Shop will be open both days and hours of the fair.

Fair hours Friday, Dec. 7 are 6 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, Dec. 8 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

St. Chrysostom's is located on the corner of Hancock and Linden Streets. Extra parking is available on the south side of Hannaford's parking lot. For more information, call 617-472-0737.

Anderson BICYCLE

Continue "The Tradition" with a New "Anderson Bicycle" for Christmas

Save Shipping Costs
Hundreds of Gift Ideas
& Stocking Stuffers!!!

Bicycles for every age & ability
One stop shop for service, clothing & accessories

380 Washington St. • Quincy
(617) 769-9669 • www.andersonbicycle.com

Please, support your local small businesses this season

Sadie's Designer Cakes & Pastries

Open Thanksgiving 8am-Noon

ORDERS DUE BEFORE
NOV. 16TH

419 Hancock St. Quincy
(617) 770-CAKE(2253)
www.sadiescakes.com

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Order Pies, Bread & Rolls, Cookies, Pumpkin Bread & Pastries.

COMPLETE TURKEY DINNER

WITH MASHED POTATOES, STUFFING, PEAS, GRAVY, ROLLS & PIE.

FEEDS 10-12 $65.00 20-25 $125.00
INDIVIDUAL TURKEY DINNER $9.95

Earn rewards when you shop.

Carry the VISA® Classic Credit Card from QCU!

You'll enjoy:

- Low 9.90% APR* with auto pay. 10.90% APR without.
- Rewards Program with up to 1% cash back.
- No Annual Fee and Travel Benefits.

*APR= Annual Percentage Rate. Variable interest rate, may change after account is open. Rate, term and approval amount based on credit worthiness. Maximum Loan Amount for qualified applicants is $15,000. Speak to a Loan Representative for more information including fees associated with this account. To avoid paying interest on purchases, your due date is at least 25 days after the close of each billing cycle. We do not charge you interest on purchases if you pay your entire balance by the due date each month. To calculate your balance, we use a method called "average daily balance" (excluding new purchases). Minimum monthly payment amount 2% of balance (principal and interest). Foreign transaction fee of 1.00% of each multiple currency transaction in U.S. dollars, and 0.80% of each single currency transaction in U.S. dollars. Complete Rewards Program details available on loan application disclosure. Rewards subject to IRS regulations. VISA is a trademark of VISA International.

100 Quincy Ave. • Quincy, MA 02169
617.479.5558

Toll Free: (866) 479-5558 • www.qcu.org

519 Columbian St. • Weymouth, MA 02190
781.340.7117

Donating $30,000 For 60th Annual Event Nov. 25 Stop & Shop Sponsor Quincy Christmas Parade

Mayor Thomas Koch announced Tuesday that The Stop & Shop Supermarket Company LLC with New England Division headquarters in Quincy will donate $30,000 to the City's Christmas Parade and Festival, becoming the most significant corporate partner in the 60-year history of the nationally known Quincy tradition.

"Stop & Shop has long set the gold standard as a corporate citizen in its home city, and this unprecedented contribution to such a beloved community event is a great testament to its profound commitment to the City of Quincy," Mayor Koch said.

"I am grateful to Stop & Shop for this tremendously generous contribution, knowing it will help our 60th anniversary parade be the most memorable to date."

"We are proud to share in this great tradition with the City of Quincy and celebrate the holidays together," said Joe Kelley, president, Stop & Shop New England Division. "Stop & Shop associates work and live here, and we're pleased to give back to the city."

Festivities kick off the Friday following Thanksgiving, on Nov. 23 with the ceremonial turning on of the Christmas lights in Quincy Center at 6 p.m., with arts and crafts, strolling Victorian carolers, a Ginger Bread House decorating contest and other activities around City Hall beginning at 5 p.m.

Santa's Mailbox will be placed in front of the Granite Ball at City Hall on Friday as well, and will be open for kids to drop off their letters to Santa throughout the season.

On Saturday, Nov. 24,

Santa and his elves arrive via parachute at Pageant Field at around 12:30 p.m.

On Sunday, Nov. 25, the 60th annual Christmas Parade steps off at 12:30 p.m. at the intersection of Hancock Street and the Hannon Parkway in Quincy Center, and continues up Hancock Street to North Quincy High School.

The Stop & Shop Supermarket Company LLC employs approximately 62,000 associates and operates nearly 400 stores throughout Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, New York, and New Jersey.

Charity Drive Saturday To Aid Sandy Victims

Mayor Thomas Koch is encouraging residents to drop by the DPW on Saturday to donate canned goods and other items as part of a donation drive being led by a DPW worker to benefit the victims of Hurricane Sandy.

DPW worker Bill Foley has rented U-Haul trailers and plans to make the trip to New Jersey to donate needed items following the Saturday drive. He said items needed include canned food, cereal, diapers, cleaning supplies and new blankets.

The trailer will be available from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the DPW, 55 Sea Street.

NEW CITY TRACK will open Sunday at 1 p.m. with a "first lap" event. Residents are invited to attend and participate. Here, workers from Cape & Island Tennis and Track spray down the first coat of polyurethane mixed with red rubber granules onto the new track. The process was repeated and followed by marking the lanes.
Quincy Sun Photo/Emily Taft

Public Invited To Take 'First Lap' At Track Sunday

Mayor Thomas Koch Tuesday invited all Quincy residents to join in the "First Lap" on the City's new regulation track and field facility at Faxon Field at 1 p.m. on Sunday.

"This is a first-class facility that will be enjoyed by our young people and our entire community for many years, and we want all of our residents to join us for the first lap," Koch said. "It will be a fun event, so I'd encourage anyone who has some time on Sunday to join us."

The 400-meter, six-lane track is the first regulation track and field facility the City has ever had, completed on schedule after several months of construction. The final lane markings were painted over the course of the last week, and workers are now moving through minor punch-list issues.

The $1.1 million facility creates the most substantive use in many years of Faxon Field, which was donated by the Faxon family in 1919, and included a track facility as part of the original plans for the site.

"It's wonderful that we're able not only to create a state-of-the-art facility, but also one that lives up to the vision that the Faxon family envisioned for the site in its extraordinary generosity to the City almost a century ago," Koch said.

The "First Lap" ceremony will include brief remarks by officials, followed by a ribbon-cutting that will be the official start to the lap. There will be light refreshment as well, officials said.

The opening of the track continues a dramatic makeover of the Coddington Street corridor that includes the new Quincy High School, the track, a major drainage overhaul that is ongoing, and a new YMCA, for which construction is now in full swing.

"We're moving forward in so many ways, and what's happening on Coddington Street is kind of symbolic of the work going on citywide right now and the work that is upcoming," Koch said.

Wollaston Wines & Spirits

Happy Thanksgiving

Over 100 Wines From Around the World On Sale!

Open Wed., Nov. 21st 8AM - 11PM
CLOSED THANKSGIVING DAY

LIQUOR SPECIALS

Absolut 1.75 Ltr	$ 28.99
Stolichnaya 1.75 Ltr	$ 28.99
Belvedere Vodka 1.75 Ltr	$ 49.99
Belvedere Black Rasp. & Pink Grapefruit 750ML	$ 26.99
Chopin Vodka 750 ML	$ 23.99
Katel One Regular & Citron Vodka 1.75 Ltr	$ 36.99
Smirnoff Vodka and Flavors 1.75 Ltr	$ 19.99
Fris Vodka 1.75 Ltr	$ 17.99
Sky Vodka 1.75 Ltr	$ 19.99
Hendricks Gin 1.75 Ltr	$ 49.99
Tanqueray Gin 1.75 Ltr	$ 29.99
Bombay Sapphire 1.75 Ltr	$ 35.99
Don Q Rum Light & Dark 1.75 Ltr	$ 18.99
Admiral Nelson Spiced Rum 1.75 Ltr	$ 17.99
Mount Gay Rum 1.75 Ltr	$ 26.99
Bacardi Light & Dark 1.75 Ltr	$ 22.99
Captain Morgan 1.75 Ltr	$ 27.99
Bacardi Limon & Orange 750 ML	$ 14.99
Sauza Tequila Gold & Silver 1.75 ML	$ 25.99
Cuervo Gold Tequila 1.75 Ltr	$ 29.99
Seagram's 7 1.75 Ltr	$ 17.99
Canadian Club 1.75 Ltr	$ 19.99
Seagram's VO 1.75 Ltr	$ 20.99
Jim Beam 1.75 Ltr	$ 23.99
Jack Daniels 1.75 Ltr	$ 38.99
Knob Creek Bourbon 750 ML	$ 24.99
Early Times Bourbon 1.75 Ltr	$ 18.99
Woodford Reserve 750 ML	$ 27.99
Jameson Irish Whiskey 1.75 Ltr	$ 36.99
Bushmill's Irish Whiskey 1.75 Ltr	$ 37.99
Macallan 21 Year Old 750 ML	$ 179.00
Glenfiddich 12 Year Old 750 ML	$ 29.99
Glenmorangie 10 Year Old 750 ML	$ 29.99
Johnny Walker Red 1.75 Ltr	$ 29.99
Dewars 1.75 Ltr	$ 32.99
Chivas Regal 1.75 Ltr	$ 54.99
Balvenie 12 Yr 750 ML	$ 39.99
Johnnie Walker Black 1.75 Ltr	$ 59.99

Southern Comfort 1.75 Ltr	$ 26.99
Kahlua - All Types 750 ML	$ 16.99
Bailey's Irish Cream 1.75 Ltr	$ 29.99
Amaretto Di Saronno 750 ML	$ 20.99
Grand Marnier 750 ML	$ 27.99
Hennessy 1.75 Ltr	$ 59.99
Remy Martin VSOP 750ML	$ 36.99
Metaxa Brandy 7 Star 750 ML	$ 18.00

WINE SPECIALS

Mumm Cordon Rouge 750 ML	$ 29.00
Mumm Napa Brut Prestige 750 ML	$ 15.99
Perrier-Jouet Brut 750 ML	$ 29.99
Nicholas Feuillate Brut 750 ML	$ 26.99
Fraixenet Cordon Negro Brut 750ML	$ 7.99
Domaine Chandon Brut 750 ML	$ 14.99
Mionetto Prosecco Brut 750 ML	$ 9.99
Martini & Rossi Asti 750 ML	$ 11.99
Sterling Napa Cabernet 750 ML	$ 15.99
Dow's Late Bottled Port 2006 750 ML	$ 17.99
La Crema Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 15.99
Simi Napa Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 11.99
Masciarelli Montepulciano D' Abruzzo 1.5Ltr	$ 12.99
Bear Boat Pinot Noir 750 ML	$ 14.99
Clos Du Bois Marlstone 750 ML	$ 24.99
Sterling Napa Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 11.99
Kendall Jackson Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 10.99
Mark West Pinot Noir 750 ML	$ 8.99
Columbia Crest Grand Estates Cab/Merlot/Chard 750 ML	$ 8.99
Toasted Head Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 9.99
J Lohr Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 9.99
Estancia Chardonnay/Merlot 750 ML	$ 8.99
Oyster Bay Chard/Sauvignon Blanc 750 ML	$ 9.99
BY Coastal All Types 750 ML	$ 8.99
Sterling Vintners Collection (All Types) 750 ML	$ 8.99
Jaboulet Parallele 45 CDR 750 ML	$ 8.99
Chateau Ste Michelle Riesling 750 ML	$ 8.99
Blackstone Wines (All Types) 750 ML	$ 7.99
Brancott Sauvignon Blanc 750 ML	$ 8.99
Ravens Wood Vintners Blend Wines (All Types) 750 ML	$ 7.99
Beringer Founders' (All Types) 750 ML	$ 7.99

Cousino Macul Antiquas Cabernet 750 ML	$ 11.99
Kris Pinot Grigio 750 ML	$ 8.99
Clos du Bois Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 9.99
Cavit Pinot Grigio Cabernet & Merlot 1.5 Ltr	$ 11.99
C K Mondavi Cab/Chard/Merlot 1.5 Ltr	$ 9.99
Rex Goliath All Types 1.5 Ltr	$ 8.99
Beringer White Zinfandel 1.5 Ltr	$ 9.99
Sutter Home Cabernet/Chardonnay/Merlot 1.5 Ltr	$ 8.99
Black Box (All Types) 3 Ltr	$ 16.99
Gabbiano Pinot Grigio/Chianti 750 ML	2 for $ 14.00

BEER SPECIALS

Bud & Bud Light 30 Pack Cans	$19.99
Miller Light 30 Pack Cans	$19.99
Coors Light 30 Pack Cans	$19.99
Natural Light/Ice 30 Pack Cans	$14.99
Michelob Ultra 30 Pack Cans	$19.99
Bud, Bud Light, Miller Light, Coors Light 24-12 oz. Cans	$15.99
Corona & Corona Light Loose Bottle Case	$22.99
Heineken/Amstel Loose Bottle Case	$21.99
Sam Adams ALL TYPES Loose Case	$24.99
Harpoon IPA Case	$22.99
St. Pauli Girl 2/12 Pack Case	$22.99
Beck's Bottle Loose Case	$19.99
Stella Artois Bottle Loose Case	$23.99
Newcastle Bottles 2/12 Pack Case	$21.99
Bass Ale Bottles 2/12 Case	$21.99
Tsingtao 12 Pack Case	$21.99
Rolling Rock 18 Pack Bottles	$ 9.99
Miller High Life 18 Pack	$ 9.99
Busch 20 Pack Bottles	$ 9.99

12 PACKS & SEASONAL BEER

Red Hook 12 Pack	$12.99
Samuel Adams Mixed 12 Pack	$12.99
Guinness Pub Draft 12 Pack Bottles	$12.99
Blue Moon Winter 12 Pack Bottles	$11.99
Harpoon Winter Ale 12 Pack Bottles	$11.99
Samuel Adams Winter Lager 12 Pack Bottles	$12.99
Sierra Nevada Celebration Ale 12 Pack Bottles	$12.99
Wachusett Blueberry 12 Pack Bottles	$12.99
Magic Hat (All Types) 12 Pack Bottles	$12.99

58-60 Beale St., Quincy

Tel: 617-479-4433

Prices Effective Through
November 25th
Not responsible for typographical errors

Open Sundays 12-6

All beer plus deposit
All Major Credit Cards Accepted

QUINCY CATHOLIC ACADEMY students (from left) sixth grader Trevor Connor, sixth grader Jacob Spear, third grader Lily Spear, and fourth grader Jacklyn Connor with some of the candy donated by students and families for Operation Gratitude.

QCA Candy Drive For Operation Gratitude

Quincy Catholic Academy (QCA) recently sponsored a candy drive where students and families donated Halloween candy for Operation Gratitude, a non-profit, volunteer-based corporation who sends care packages to individual Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, and Marines deployed in harm's way.

Operation Gratitude annually sends 100,000 care packages filled with snacks, entertainment items and personal letters of appreciation addressed to individually named U.S. Service Members deployed in hostile regions, to their children left behind and to Wounded Warriors, Veterans and First Responders. Their mission is to lift morale, bring a smile to a service member's face and express to our Armed Forces the appreciation and support of the American people.

Each package contains donated product valued at $75-100 and costs the organization $15 to assemble and ship. For safety and security, assembling of packages occurs at the Army National Guard armory in Van Nuys, California. Since its inception in 2003, Operation Gratitude volunteers have shipped more than 815,000 packages to American Military members.

AWARD WINNER - Heidi Kost-Gross, president of the Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts (second from left) awards Pat Artis, former president, Jan Clifford, current president, and Colleen Lawler, 2nd vice president and awards chair of the Wollaston Garden Club, the Nancy H. Atwell regional award and trophy for the club's advocacy work on behalf of the National Garden Club goal of protecting an "aquatic ecosystems - the Town Brook."

Wollaston Garden Club Wins State, Regional Awards

The Wollaston Garden Club was presented awards for its work in civic beautification, conservation and education of the community at the recent fall meeting of the Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts.

The awards were presented at the Andover Country Club.

Jan Clifford, WGC president; Anita Fasano, 1st Vice President; Colleen Lawler; 2nd Vice President; and Pat Artis, former club president, received the awards on behalf of the club.

The first award received was a silver compote, The President's Bowl, awarded by the Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts, to the Wollaston Garden Club, "for beautifying the City of Quincy roadsides by planting many of the intersection planters located at different city gateways and busy traffic intersections in Quincy, with hardy perennials and shrubs."

Jo Costello, garden club civic beautification chair said, "The garden club has really appreciated the support we have received from Mayor Koch, the Quincy City Council, Kristen Powers of the Quincy Park Department, and all the Park Department employees helping with watering, and including city landscaper, Mike Burke. This would never happen without the many garden club volunteers who care so much and work so hard to keep the intersection planters looking good."

The second award, The Nancy H. Atwell Trophy, a New England Regional award is given annually to a club from one of the six member states for "the most outstanding publicity incorporating regional and national garden club objectives."

In 2008, the Wollaston Garden Club's Board decided to work on and advocate for the "new" national garden club goal of protecting "aquatic ecosystems." Work began then in collaboration with the Quincy Environmental Network, to educate the community and advocate for more day-lighting of the Town Brook.

Pat Artis, former club president said she is "proud of the club's continuing work and advocacy to protect aquatic ecosystems and educate the public on the importance of and historical significance of the Town Brook and the Town River to the City of Quincy. Special thanks to the Quincy Sun and its editor, Bob Bosworth for his commitment to Quincy and its citizens."

This year, the garden club is sponsoring both a high school essay contest and grades K-9 poetry contest (deadline Nov 15th) with themes based on "protecting aquatic ecosystems."

Last June, the garden club received the Mildred S. Parker Conservation Award from the Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts for the garden club's "commitment to educate the public regarding the need to daylight the Town Brook and to work to protect the fragile ecosystem."

Another regional award was recently by Wollaston Garden Club for its 2011 Press Book - a Third Place for large clubs, 100 members and over. The garden club, in its 85th year, is a member of The Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts, Inc. and the National Garden Club, Inc.

A sports injury brings you to us.

Meet Ben Thompson, MD. A fellowship-trained sports medicine physician, Dr. Thompson is part of our team of orthopaedic experts dedicated to getting you back in the game after a sports injury. From non-surgical and minimally invasive treatments to ACL reconstruction to arthroscopic rotator cuff repair, Dr. Thompson's expertise makes us proud he's part of our team. When a sports injury sidelines you, make him part of yours.

Stay in the Game! Avoiding Sports Injuries

Athletes are at risk for a number of common orthopaedic injuries, including shoulder and elbow ailments that can sideline you for weeks, or for good! Get some practical advice from BID-Milton Orthopaedic Surgeon Benjamin Thompson, MD, on preparing for the upcoming season or adjusting your routine to avoid serious injuries.

DATE: Thursday, November 29
TIME: 6:30 PM
PLACE: Nangeroni Education Center
COST: FREE, pre-registration required
CALL: 617-696-8810

Ben Thompson, MD
Orthopaedic Surgeon

Our expertise brings you back.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

199 Reedsdale Road (Route 28), Milton, MA 02186
(617) 696-4600 | www.bidmilton.org

REGGIE'S OIL

CO., INC.
Heating & Air Conditioning Service

Joseph P. Reggiannini
92-94 (Rear) Franklin St.
Quincy, MA 02169

Office Hours:
M-F 7:30 am - 5:00 pm

(617) 471-2095

(24 Hour Emergency Service)

www.reggiesoil.com

We are a local, family-owned & operated oil-company located right here in Quincy. We've been providing a quality product & superior service to our customers here in Quincy & throughout Southeastern MA for more than 50 years...and we always will!

New Tech For New Central

By EMILY TAFT

When the new Central Middle School opens its doors next year students will not only be walking into a brand new school but a 21st century state of the art high tech facility.

As of right now a technology team has been assembled, with members of the city and school working together on a monthly basis to come up with decisions on what types of products to bring into the new school.

"I am faced with the incredibly opportunity and challenge to choose some phenomenal technology for the new Central Middle School," said Central Middle School Principal Jennifer Fay-Beers during a presentation to the school committee. "We want it to be user friendly, we are looking for tools that are efficient, we want it to enhance teaching, and we want it to engage the learner."

Fay-Beers said that they have been training their teachers on how to use several different programs and materials that might be installed in the new middle school.

"Change brings a lot of excitement, but it also brings a lot of anxiety for people. We are very cognizant of that as we prepare to move an entire staff and all these families to a brand new state-of-the-art middle school," said Fay-Beers. "In anticipation of our transition to the new Central Middle School we have received five Eno boards. Eno boards are interactive whiteboards, three of which we purchased early because they will be portable for the new school, and the other two were given to us by Polyvision. We have six staff members who have been trained, they've had 12 hours of training, so they are doing a lot of the fumbling, opening, closing, checking, they are going to go through all of those frustrations, and then in January they start presenting at our professional development meetings. It's staff sharing with staff, that way it's much more of a real process for teachers to take in."

According to Fay-Beers there will be an Eno board and document camera in every classroom of the new school. In order to make the right decisions about which pieces of technology they decide to use at the new school Fay-Beers looked at what was being used around the city and throughout the school system.

The school will be participating in an iPad pilot program, and the hope is to use them for multiple purposes.

"We're also excited to pilot a 30 pack of iPads in the classroom," said Fay-Beers. "We didn't want to jump all in until we knew the iPads were really a way to go. If the 30-pack of chargeable iPads work we're thinking that they could become a portable tech lab versus having the desktops lined up, so we are really excited about that. There is a great possibility of getting an iPad in every classroom for the teachers to utilize, which will connect to our Eno boards."

QUINCY SALVATION ARMY'S holiday Kettle Drive begins this week at various locations in Quincy, Braintree, Weymouth and Hingham. Mayor Thomas Koch (second from left) gets the campaign rolling with a donation. From left are Don Uvanitte, chairman of the Quincy Salvation Army Advisory Board; Lt. Nicole Ross and husband Lt. Timothy Ross. Kettles will be located in Quincy at Roche Brothers, Stop & Shop, Wal-Mart and Star Market. There will also be a kettle located outside Veterans' Memorial Stadium before the Quincy-North Quincy Thanksgiving football game Thursday, Nov. 22. Advisory Board members are coordinating a "Community Leader Kettle," established many years ago by the late Henry Bosworth, founder of the Quincy Sun. Public officials will man the kettle outside City Hall on Thursday, Dec. 6 and Dec. 13 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and businessmen and women will ring the bell outside the Granite Trust Building on Wednesday, Dec. 12 and Friday, Dec. 14 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Donations can also be made by visiting www.onlineredkettle.org/Quincy

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

Christmas by the Bay

Christmas Fair

Saturday, Nov. 17th 9am-2pm

Silent Auction, Crafts, Homemade Goodies, Gifts & more...

Raffles Include: Kindle Fire HD Tablet
Hot Air Balloon Ride, Red Sox Baseball

Union Congregational Church • 136 Rawson Rd., Quincy

QUINT'S

House
of Flowers

Family Owned & Operated
Since 1919

761 Southern Artery
QUINCY

617-773-7620

GIRLS NIGHT OUT!

Shopping Extravaganza
November 15th, 7:00 PM

The View Restaurant & Tavern
PRESIDENTS GOLF COURSE
357 West Squantum St., Quincy, MA 02171
617.770.2500
BOOK YOUR PARTY NOW!!

Manet Community Health Center

We are a not-for-profit health and social services provider and we exist to be your partner for a healthier life.

Thank you for your patience as we upgrade our electronic health record system!

Hough's Neck
Phone: (617) 471 8683

Hull
Phone: (781) 925 4550

North Quincy
Phone: (617) 376 3000

Snug Harbor
Phone: (617) 471 4715

Quincy Medical Center
Phone: (857) 403 0820

Massachusetts League
of Community Health Centers

DEAP
DIABETES EDUCATION
ACCREDITATION PROGRAM
AADE American Association
of Diabetes Educators

Your knee has met its match.

ShapeMatch®. It's the new technology in knee replacement. If you're interested in learning how this advancement can often improve recovery, mobility and outcomes from your knee surgery, you owe it to yourself to learn about ShapeMatch.

Visit bidmilton.org/kneereplacement

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

ATTENTION QUINCY RESIDENTS
DUE TO THE THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY ON THURSDAY, NOV. 22, 2012, TRASH
COLLECTION DELAYS ARE AS FOLLOWS:
THURSDAY PICKUPS WILL BE ON FRIDAY &
FRIDAY PICKUPS WILL BE ON SATURDAY.
Capitol Waste, Inc.

John Adams: Advocate For Public Education, Strong Navy

Cont'd From Page 2

merce and agriculture, in order to give their children a right to study painting, poetry, music, architecture, statuary, tapestry and porcelain," Adams wrote to his wife.

Keinath focused on the context of that quote. She explained that Adams was impressed with the gardens of Louis XVI and an office of natural history he visited in France. Adams hoped that one day Americans could have a rich culture of their own.

"John Adams sacrificed almost half his marriage in his service to his country and as much time away from his children as well. In this one passage John Adams reveals his dream that one day his country would transform from the chaos of war to become...a refined America," Keinath said. "One in which his children and grandchildren would have the opportunity to study painting, tapestry, architecture, porcelain to be able to discover the value of our cultural resources."

EMILY RINES, senior, Woodward School for Girls: 'President Adams saw the education of citizens as necessary for the survival of democracy.' Quincy Sun Photos/Emily Taft Fitzgerald commented that Adams was referring to education that meant more than just learning skills.

"All the way through the list he expressed this duty that he has to do things for the good of the country - in some ways he has to do things that he doesn't necessarily feel he's all that naturally inclined to," Fitzgerald said. "The use of the word study here is also important here as he keeps using it through the quote because he's really talking about education in the widest and deepest sense.

DR. EDWARD FITZGERALD, director, Quincy Historical Society: 'John Adams believed that the commitment of Massachusetts to educate all of its children was essential to the growth of self-government here.'

"Not just learning skills, it's knowledge that is continual. It shapes your life; it shapes your values."

According to Fitzgerald, Adams also believed that the education system in Massachusetts helped set the stage for the revolution.

"He believed in the depth

COMMANDER BROCK MILLER, Navy Operational Support Center, Quincy: 'It was John Adams who drafted the first rules and regulations for the United States Navy. This was a point of pride for him as long as he lived.'

of his heart that the commitment of Massachusetts to educate all of its children was essential to the growth of self-government here and made it possible for there to be the revolution and the ideals expressed in the revolution," Fitzgerald said.

Commander Brock A. Miller of the Navy Operational Support Center (NOSC) Quincy represented President Barack Obama

CAROLINE KEINATH, Deputy Superintendent, Adams National Historical Park: 'John Adams sacrificed almost half his marriage in his service to his country and as much time away from his children as well.'

at the wreath-laying. Ever since President Lyndon B. Johnson started the wreath-laying ceremonies for all deceased presidents in 1966, a Navy officer has represented the commander-in-chief at ceremonies for John Adams.

"As early as autumn 1773, John Adams advocated the creation of the United States Navy or the Continental Navy as it was called during the war for independence. On October 13 of that year,

BILL WESTLAND, United First Parish Church member: 'Josiah Quincy said when he was a boy and John Adams came to church 'an air of respectful deference for John Adams seemed to pervade the building.'

Congress finally authorized the building of two small ships," Miller said. "It was John Adams who drafted the first rules and regulations for the United States Navy. This was a point of pride for him as long as he lived."

"In the 25 years that John Adams served this country, and especially as president, his advocacy of a strong navy was second to none."

Miller also reminded the gathered crowd that Adams

Cont'd On Page 15

If you're planning on a joint replacement, you'll find this information irreplaceable.

Is Your Joint Pain Slowing You Down?

Hip and knee pain as we age can seriously limit your physical activity. If pain is preventing you from keeping fit and active, it may be time to consider joint replacement surgery. Join Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital-Milton Orthopaedic Surgeon Michael Berry, MD, for a discussion of joint pain, its treatments, and clinical and surgical advancements that can get you home after surgery and back on your feet faster than ever.

JOIN OUR INFORMATION SESSION:

DATE: Wednesday, December 5

TIME: 6:30 PM

PLACE: Nangeroni Education Center at Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital-Milton, 199 Reedsdale Road (Route 28), Milton, MA

DIRECTIONS: www.bidmilton.org/directions

COST: FREE, registration required

CALL: 617-696-8810 to register

Michael Berry, MD
Orthopaedic Surgeon

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

199 Reedsdale Road (Route 28), Milton, MA 02186 (617) 696-4600 · www.bidmilton.org

Let's Do Lunch

All for $6.00

Roast Beef
fresh sliced, french dip on a warm bun*

Gobbler
roasted turkey, stuffing, cranberry sauce on a roll up*

Super Burger with cheese bacon and sauteed onions*

Clam Chowder
homemade, in a bread bowl, oyster crackers*

Tomato Soup & Grilled Cheese homemade, rustic bread*

Includes Drink, Potato Chips, Pickle and Dessert

Other items include hot dogs and hamburgers, sandwiches and grilled cheese, soda, coffee and hot chocolate, desserts

One-Day Only! Saturday, November 17th
11:30-1:30

Christmas by the Bay Christmas Fair
Union Congregational Church
136 Rawson Road, Quincy, MA 02170 www.Handymenz.com/food

Ask the GEMOLOGIST®

BY JEFFREY M. BERTMAN
GRADUATE GEMOLOGIST

READY TO UPLINK?

Classic gold-link chains will never go out of style. They have been worn since ancient times and continue to grace the necks of both sport- and fashion-minded women today. However, today's gold links have an updated look that pays homage to their earlier counterparts while still making contemporary statements. For instance, there are oval gold links with slightly irregular shapes and lightly hammered surfacing that suggests that they are modeled after the Etruscan gold-link necklaces uncovered in an ancient Italian ruin. Others are desert-inspired coiled gold links with roughly hammered flat surfacing that recalls North African origins. From funky to geometrics to classic elegance, gold-link necklaces have a place in every jewelry wardrobe. Their understated versatility is unmatched. You will find a wide selection of gold-link chains at Rogers Jewelry where you can shop by color, stone, or length to find just the chain you're looking for. Located at 1402 Hancock Street, Quincy Center this is the place to mark the meaningful moments of your life! Call us at 617-773-3636.

Don't Forget: We pay cash for Gold - Platinum - Diamonds... highest prices paid.

Rogers

Diamonds... Watches... Jewelry

www.rogersjewelry.com
BANK OF AMERICA BUILDING

John Adams Honored On 277th Birthday Anniversary

Cont'd From Page 14

feared that the country would one day be divided between two political parties.

"Two days ago Americans engaged in the ultimate expression of democracy in voting for the president of the United States," Miller said. "While serving as president, John Adams stated 'there is nothing I dread so much as a division of the republic into two great parties each arranged under its leader and converting measures in opposition to each other. This, in my humble apprehension, is to be dreaded as the greatest political evil of our constitution.'"

The wreath-laying had been scheduled for Oct. 30, which is Adams' birthday, but was delayed because of Superstorm Sandy. In his remarks, Mayor Tom Koch explained how Adams would have felt about both the delay and the presidential race that ended last week.

"When the event was postponed last week I couldn't help but think what John Adams would say - he'd probably call us a bunch of wimps," Koch said. "Look at what he went through in dealing with everyday life, never mind the horseback ride to Philadelphia through snowstorms."

"I also wondered what he would say about the election that was just held - I think we're all glad it's over. But he'd say back when it was on, based on all the advertisements and the negativity back and forth, he'd say 'it was nothing, when I ran against Jefferson it was a worse race than that one.'"

Because the ceremony was delayed, John Adams - a seventh-generation descendent of the second president - couldn't speak as originally planned. In his place, United First Parish Church member and tour guide Bill Westland spoke at the wreath-laying. He commented on Adams' actions after losing the 1800 presidential election that Koch referenced to Thomas Jefferson.

"The election of 1800 was a real nasty election. There was all sorts of libelous pamphlets written about John Adams," Westland said. "He was defeated and he was really bitter and he was mad. But an important thing, after he was defeated he went home. That helped to establish in the United States the peaceful transfer from one administration to another."

"He didn't try to undercut the Jefferson administration. He didn't try to start a revolution. That's something I think we've forgotten about John Adams."

Westland, who is considered the church's historian, also touched on Adams' relationship with the church.

"We're very proud that John Adams was a member here," Westland said. "Josiah Quincy, who was the mayor of Boston who built Quincy Market and later become one of the most re-

NAVY BAND NORTHEAST, Newport, R.I., performed a musical prelude at the Presidential Wreath-Laying Ceremony commemorating the 277th birthday anniversary of President John Adams Nov. 8 at United First Parish Church. The ceremony was postponed from its original date of Oct. 30 because of Hurricane Sandy. Quincy Sun Photo/Emily Taft vered presidents of Harvard, he was also a member of our church.

"He said when he was a boy and John Adams came to church 'an air of respectful deference for John Adams seemed to pervade the building. The ministers preached their best sermons and had a certain consciousness in their manner as if officiating before royalty. A medley of string and wind instruments in the gallery seemed to the imagination of a child to be making discord together in honor of the venerable chief who was the center of interest.'"

JOAN'S OLYMPIC GYM GYMNASTICS & DANCE SCHOOL

WAS VOTED #1 ON THE SOUTH SHORE

Ages 2 - Adult

NOW ACCEPTING
REGISTRATIONS!

781-843-9624

"An Excellent Education
Environment For Your Child"

197 Quincy Avenue, Braintree • www.joansolympicgym.com

A smarter way to target prostate cancer.

MEET ARTEMIS.

In the battle against prostate cancer, there's a new weapon: Artemis. It's the fusion of 3D imaging technologies that brings pinpoint accuracy to prostate biopsies, and brings you an enhanced level of confidence in your care.

HEAR WHAT ARTEMIS HAS TO SAY AT BIDMILTON.ORG/PROSTATEHEALTH.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

TURKEYS!

Bongi's - A Thanksgiving Tradition

For over 75 years - 3 Generations - Bongi's has been serving the South Shore with the highest quality Turkeys available.

This year be sure to serve your family the Best Turkey. This Thanksgiving make sure it is a Bongi's Turkey!

Bongi's will also cook & prepare a Turkey for your table.

Now taking orders for Thanksgiving

Bongi's Turkey Roost

www.bongis.com

Order now for the holidays 781-885-2392

Call us today - Now

Best
Western

BOOK YOUR HOLIDAY PARTY!

The Pub is the perfect place for
your office party!
Private Room for 20-30 guests

FOR LARGER EVENTS WE CAN ACCOMMODATE 30-200 IN OUR
BALLROOM

CALL
617-745-5423 FOR
MORE INFORMATION

The Adams Pub

29 Hancock Street at The Best Western Adams Inn

This Week's

Blackboard Specials:

Roast Turkey Dinner $14.50

Stuffing, mashed potato, squash and cranberry sauce

Veal Oscar $17

Tender veal cutlet topped with crabmeat, asparagus and finished with a rich hollandaise sauce

Lobster Stuffed Mushrooms $9

Fresh, local lobster meat, white cheddar cheese and seasoned stuffing, in a baked white mushroom

Chicken Parmesan Sandwich $9

Juicy chicken cutlet, fried golden brown with our homemade marinara sauce and provolone cheese, served on a toasted sub roll

Each Best Western branded hotel is independently owned and operated.

Text Of George Nicholson's Veterans' Day Address

By GEORGE NICHOLSON

Day November 11, 2012

On the 11th day of the 11th month, at the 11th Hour in 1918, the "War to End All Wars", as WWI would come to be known, ceased.

In America we set aside that date and called it "Armistice Day" as a date intended for National remembrance and reflection upon the horrors, the suffering and the carnage that modern warfare produced. We did that in the hope that the World would never again face such war.

Well, as history and our own lives have shown us, that hope would never be realized. WWII, The Korean War, The Vietnam War, The Gulf Wars in Iraq and Afghanistan and several smaller actions in between would make "hell on earth" way too much of a reality for way too many succeeding generations of men and women of America's Armed Forces.

Eventually, in 1954, Armistice Day was redesignated as Veterans Day. Many Americans died in battle and we honor their memories on Memorial Day, but many more came back home from these wars and Veterans Day was now intended, by our Nation, to acknowledge, with gratitude, every living man and woman who had worn or now wear the uniforms of America's Armed Forces.

For quite some time, among the years that have since passed, Veterans' Day continued to be celebrated with the usual and customary speeches, rituals and observances. The problem was that much of this commemoration was really little more than lip service for a lot of America. Truth can be a harsh master, but Truth cannot be denied.

When the Korean War erupted just five short years after the end of WWII, most of America, understandably, did not want to deal with war again. Americans really didn't want to acknowledge that Korean War and had General MacArthur not publicly advocated for "nuking" the Chinese back to their borders, most Americans would have chosen to bury their heads in the sand about it.

The Korean War also turned out to be a truly horrendous one; replete with terrible hardships and unimaginable suffering for those who took part in it. That war produced a killed, wounded or missing casualty total of more than 148,000 Americans in just two and a half years of fighting. The Vietnam War, by way of contrast, produced 363,000 American casualties in 10 years of fighting.

As stunning and horrific as the Korean casualty statistics were, what Americans here back home actually did choose to do at that time was to actually ignore that war and the veterans who served in it.

So successful were Americans in that choice that the Korean War would become forever known in the annals of American History as "The Forgotten War"! American citizens at that time were better versed about the "Spartans vs. the Persians" at the ancient Battle of Thermopylae or about the "Union vs The Confederates" at the Battle of Gettysburg than they were about the Pusan Perimeter, Inchon, Pork Chop Hill or the Cho'sen Reservoir battles of Korea.

When I stood at this podium 30 years ago (and then almost 30 years after the Cease Fire took hold in Korea) as a veteran of the Vietnam War, I found myself speaking, with much concern about the way the American People had been FIRING VOLLEY of 2nd Marines Div. Association at "Present Arms" at the conclusion of Sunday's Veterans' Day Ceremonies on the grounds of the Adams Academy.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Noble

treating the veterans of the Vietnam War.

Five years after that war was officially ended, the Vietnam veteran was not "forgotten" in the American psyche, but was instead, vilified, ostracized and victimized by the intense and acute anti-war labeling and protesting of the time. I pointed out that, here again, another generation was called upon by our Nation to fight for our cherished principal of belief in freedom for all and here again, the American people looked down and disparagingly upon this group of veterans as well!

Both of these wars produced their own unique residual issues for their veterans that Americans chose to ignore, to disbelieve or failed to try to understand. From frostbite to jungle rot; from malaria to P.O.W. abuse; from Agent Orange to PTSD, Americans here at home were extremely slow to accept or understand the realities and residuals of war.

By the time I gave that speech in 1982, I had already had many discussions in my career to that point about this issue with many of my fellow veterans from Vietnam, Korea, WWII and WWI. With all the opinions and perspectives that were shared among us in those many conversations about these issues, I found that two sentiments were universally present among all of us. The first was that, regardless of everything else, we each remained personally and intensely proud to have served our Country. The second and most significant to us, was a haunting concern over the future of our Country.

Our concern was universally based upon our reflections of the way the veterans of America's last two wars had been treated and the potential future impact that treatment could have on the new American Armed Forces now that mandatory conscription and the draft had ended and our Nation's defense would be in the hands of an all-volunteer force. How motivated could the next generation of potential defenders of American Freedom and democracy be

Cont'd On Page 17

south cove
community health center
華人醫務中心

South Cove Community Health Center

The Premier Asian Community Health Center of Massachusetts

麻州首屈一指亞裔社區醫療中心

GREAT NEWS AT SOUTH COVE QUINCY!!

Effective October 15, 2012

Our Pediatrics Department, Dental Department, Optometry Department, Ob/Gyn Department, Behavioral Health Department and our Social Services Department are now ALL LOCATED at 88 Holmes Street - please come and see or new home!

In 2013

A newly expanded Adult Medicine Department and a 340B Pharmacy will open to better serve the needs of our patients at the 435 Hancock Street Clinic.

Hancock St. Clinic
漢考克街診所

435 Hancock St., Quincy
617-745-0280

成人科、340B 藥房
及社會服務部
Adult Medicine, 340B Pharmacy
and Social Services

Holmes St. Clinic
霍姆斯街診所

88 Holmes St., Quincy
617-318-3200

婦科、小兒科、牙科、眼科、心理科、
社會服務部及家庭計劃
OB/GYN, Pediatrics, Dentistry, Optometry,
Behavioral Health, Social Services
and Family Planning

WE ARE OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK

CALL TO SCHEDULE AN APPOINTMENT TODAY!

FREE PARKING AVAILABLE

We provide assistance with MassHealth, Commonwealth Care & Health Safety Net Applications 華人醫務中心處心協助有需要人士申請醫療福利及麻州全民保險計劃

WWW.SCHC.ORG

Text Of George Nicholson's Veterans' Day Address

Cont'd From Page 16

in light of the treatment history experienced by their older brothers, sisters and fathers?

We all had that question and we all surely had that concern. What we did not have was the answer or even a possible solution. We could only pray, that with the passage of time and reflection and some enlightenment, a change in attitude among the American people might evolve and that once again, service in the Armed Forces of the United States would be held in the high, noble and honorable esteem that it deserves.

Over the last 30 years of my career with the Veterans Administration since the day of that speech, I was not sitting in some office processing paperwork, but was out in the field, almost every day, talking with veterans and their families at bedside in the hospitals, in their homes and in their communities. I therefore, had the opportunity to see, first hand, how the American attitude was indeed changing and influencing, favorably, their lives.

I am happy to report that I have seen a steady progression of improvement, prosperity and hope. I have seen, in fact, we here all have seen, a remarkable change in attitude towards our fellow veterans and our men and women in uniform by the American people.

Americans have acknowledged their shortsightedness of the past; taken stock and learned from that history. You have now come full circle into being our staunchest and most steadfast advocates and supporters.

I have seen your advocacy force the Bureaucracy at all federal and state levels to review their policies about veterans issues and concerns and address them fairly.

I have seen your advocacy force our legislatures to deliver a network of veterans benefits and services and the funding to support them that surpasses anything on record since the passage of the original GI Bill in 1944.

I have seen your advocacy focus on the current and future needs of our disabled veterans and their families. I have seen your advocacy and support for veterans and our men and women in uniform vigorously promoted in the media.

I - and when I say "I", I mean we veterans, have seen your support generate so many care packages of needed items to our deployed troops; so many pieces of communication to them from Christmas cards to cell phones.

I have seen you provide so much support here at home for the families of those deployed.

GEORGE NICHOLSON (center) was installed as the new commander of the Quincy Veterans Council Sunday evening after the city's Veterans' Day observance. With him are Larry Norton (left), past commander, Quincy Veterans Council and the installing officer; and Marc Connolly, immediate past commander, Quincy Veterans Council.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Noble

And I have no problem telling you, with no small amount of pride, that I have shed many a tear at the sight of so many of you lined up to welcome our troops back from deployment and when you have filled the churches and lined the roads in unbelievable flag-bearing numbers to pay a solemn and final tribute and farewell to a soldier who has made his or her ultimate sacrifice for our Country.

I know that this is Veterans Day and that here in Quincy, as you always have, our citizens gather before us to honor us as veterans.

However, I would like, for once (and I have waited eagerly for a number of years now to do it) to take this opportunity to REVERSE the focus of this observance and extend to each and every one of you, a deep, abiding and heartfelt THANK YOU from every veteran here for your support for us; for giving the Spirit of Patriotism a new vigor and vitality and for seeing to it that now, regardless of the politics of the conflict, that our men and women in the uniforms of the American Armed Forces know that they have your unwavering faith and support.

So from all of us veterans in the beautiful and historic City of Quincy, to all of our wonderful fellow citizens of Quincy, Thank YOU - so very much! God Bless our City and God Bless the United States of America!

TWO QUINCY VETERANS were among those attending a Veterans Appreciation Breakfast Sunday hosted by Cong. William Keating (center) at the Plymouth Council on Aging. With Keating are Frank Connolly (left), a Pearl Harbor survivor; and Robert Noble, a former World War II POW. A new video, "Bringing History Home," premiered at the breakfast. The video, featuring interviews from local World War II veterans, was designed for high school students and others to gain a better appreciation of history.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Noble

Sometimes it's Business...

- Business Checking & Savings Accounts
- Commercial Mortgages, Loans & Lines of Credit
- Merchant Card & Payroll Services
- Remote Deposit Capture
- Business Credit & Debit Cards
- Business Online Banking & Bill Payment

Sometimes it's Personal...

- Convenience Checking & Free Checking with Interest
- Savings & Money Market Deposit Accounts
- Residential Mortgage Loans
- Construction Loans
- Home Equity Loans & Lines of Credit
- Credit & Debit Cards
- Online Banking & Bill Payment

We're here to help you with both.

For more information on our products and services, stop by our Quincy branch and speak with Margaret Tung!

歡迎光臨

Margaret Tung
Business Development &
Customer Service Representative

60 McGrath Highway
Quincy, MA 02169
Phone: 781.828.1690 x6525
mtung@thebankofcanton.com
NMLS# 753065

Fluent in: Mandarin, Cantonese,
Taiwanese, and Burmese.

流利 普通話 粵語 緬語

800.018.1270 • 40 McGrath Highway Quincy, MA 02169 • Hours: Mon-Fri 9am-5pm, Sat 10am-4pm

Steward Medical Group is pleased to welcome Dr. Walter Lech to the Quincy Medical Center community. A graduate of Harvard Medical School, Dr. Lech completed his residency in general surgery and a fellowship in cardiothoracic surgery at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center in Boston. Dr. Lech also completed a fellowship in minimally invasive thoracic surgery at Brigham and Women's Hospital. His areas of special interest include a video assisted thoracic surgery approach to all traditional general thoracic surgeries. Dr. Lech welcomes new patients. Please call DoctorFinder™ at 1-800-488-5959 to make an appointment.

Quincy Medical Center
A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

Call 800-488-5959 or visit steward.org/doctorfinder

Parade, Observances Honor Ou

MARC CONNOLLY, commander of the Quincy Veterans Council, escorts Angela Durkin, a Quincy Gold Star mother, to the World War I 'Doughboy' Statue outside the Adams Academy where two wreaths were placed in honor of veterans at Sunday's Veterans' Day observance. At left carrying a Red, White and Blue memorial wreath is Vietnam veteran and keynote speaker George Nicholson.

LARRY NORTON, Commander of the Vietnam Combat Veterans, is a guest speaker at Sunday's Sons of the American Legion Squadro

QUINCY POLICE Color Guard marches down Hancock Street during Quincy's Veterans' Day Parade Sunday.

QUINCY FIRE DEPARTMENT Color Guard participated at the Sons of the American Legion's Veterans' Day Observance at Flags for Veterans Island Sunday.

MORRISETTE A

CUB SCOUTS (above) and Boy Scouts (below) from Pack 6 and Troop 6 respectively, Hough's Neck Congregational Church, carry their banners in Sunday's Veterans' Day Parade.

U.S. MARINES from the Caddy Detachment in Quincy march in Quincy's Veterans' Day Parade Sunday.

JUNIOR ROTC Colade.

For Veterans On Their Special Day

ans in Quincy, offers remarks at Flags for Veterans Island as the on 294's Veterans' Day Observance.

MEMORIAL WREATH is placed at the base of the main flag pole at Flags for Veterans Island by James Gill (left), senior vice commander, Sons of the American Legion Squadron 294, and Commander Paul Moody, SAL 294, at the Squadron's Veterans' Day Observance Sunday.

AMERICAN LEGION Post members march in Sunday's Veterans' Day Parade.

SGT.-AT-ARMS Tom Stansbury (left), Morrisette American Legion Post 294, and Robert LaFleur, PC Morrisette Post and SAL 294 and Commander DAV 79, salute after raising the American Flag at the main flag pole at Flags for Veterans Island.

or Guard comprised of local high school students march in Sunday's Veterans' Day Pa-

OTHER LOCAL CUB Scouts who also marched in the Veterans' Day Parade included scouts from Pack 21.

Ground Broken For New $244M Fore River Bridge

Cont'd From Page 3

Though he's wrapping up his first term in the Legislature, Rep. Tackey Chan said he was familiar with the bridge from his time working as an aide to former Sen. Michael Morrissey. Chan is excited to have a new bridge that doesn't look like an Erector Set, as many have called the temporary one.

"It's good to know we can actually reach our neighbors to the south now with something that's new and bright and shiny and won't fall down," Chan said. "This reminds me of the Erector Sets I used to do as I kid."

Site preparation is already underway. Construction of the new towers, approaches, spans, and the east side's fender and dolphin system will begin next year and last until about 2015. Lane restrictions are expected to take place from in 2015 June to November when the new bridge is connected to existing approaches. Weymouth Mayor Sue Kay said officials working on the project will keep those impacts to a minimum.

"Although an accelerated program is a wonderful thing because it takes less time and probably less money, it also creates some impacts — some negative impacts — in the neighborhoods, and we have neighborhoods on both sides," Kay said. "I have been assured that there will be the least amount of negative impacts and we're going to keep them to that."

By the fall of 2015 the new bridge will be fully opened to traffic. But construction will continue as sidewalks on the bridge are installed. Additionally, the temporary bridge will be torn down and dolphins and fenders will be built on the side of the bridge facing the river. All construction is scheduled to end by September 2016.

Mayor Tom Koch was unable to attend the groundbreaking. But in a statement issued by the governor's office he thanked the Patrick administration for their commitment to addressing transportation needs in the state.

"The new Fore River Bridge is an absolutely vital infrastructure asset for the city of Quincy and the entire South Shore region, and breaking ground on this important asset again shows the unprecedented commitment that Gov. Patrick and Lt. Gov. Murray have made to transportation needs across the Commonwealth," Koch said.

ARTIST RENDERING of the new $244 million Fore River replacement bridge connecting Quincy and Weymouth via Route 3A. This rendering shows the vertical lift bridge in the up position.

After the groundbreaking, Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall called the ceremony a key point that came about as the result of many people's hard work and determination.

"Today is symbolic of a lot of work from a lot of people — a lot of thoughts, a lot of ideas and ultimately now some action. This is a pivotal point in the overall project — the shovel in the ground," Croall told the Sun. "When you think about not only the bridge — which might be the obvious, putting in structure, it creates efficiency and is more effective than what's there — but also the improvements to the pedestrian friendliness and the ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) compliance and some of the improvements to the surrounding area abutting the bridge are all positives."

Croall added that he hopes to work with project managers and others to mitigate any impacts the project has on residents.

"I anticipate that there will be a extremely open dialogue between project managers, the state delegation, the mayor's administration, and myself to create the most resident friendly environment during a quarter billion dollar bridge project," Croall said.

VELOCITY DANCE COMPANY

Ballet • Tap • Jazz • HipHop • Modern Contemporary • Musical Theatre
Pre-School - Adults

37 Billings Rd. • N. Quincy 02171
phone: (617) 733-5793
e-mail: velocitydance@aol.com www.velocitydancecompany.com

Homemade Thanksgiving Pies

CRAIG'S CAFE
1354 HANCOCK ST., QUINCY
617-770-9271

- Apple
- Pumpkin
- Chocolate Cream
- Three Berry
- Pecan

ORDER BY MONDAY NOV. 19TH

CARPET CLEANING

3 ROOMS $99.00
7' SOFA $75.00
Free pre-treat and deodorizer

BECKWITH PRO-CLEAN
222 Willard St. Quincy, MA
(617) 471-5000

Expires 12/31/12

*Up to 900 sq ft open area

Dr. Ekbal Elkadry DMD.

DENTURES

If you are missing a few or all of your teeth, our office offers many options which can improve the look of your smile and quality of life which includes implants and dentures.

Now Offering:

- Free Denture Consultation
- 15% Senior Discount
- Flexible Payment Plan

All our doctors are caring and dedicated to give you the best results.

Dr. Ekbal Elkadry DMD.
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA • (617) 472-3919

Luxurious everyday customizable jewelry for moms who want to show off their family in style. Available in sterling, yellow or white gold and can be customized with a birthstone and personalized messages.

Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers
52 Billings Road North Quincy 617.328.0084

A S S E M B L Y

NOW OPEN!!!

Serving Lunch 11:30-4:00 & Dinner 4:00-10:00

ENTERTAINMENT SATURDAYS

10pm-1am

11/10.... Bobbin Reggae
11/17.... Late Night Radio
11/24.... DJ Damien

Book your Holiday Party!

A S S E M B L Y

425 Hancock St. Quincy
(617) 302-4696 • (617) 302-4987

Mike Healy Seeking Ward 4 Seat

Long time Quincy homeowner and former Ward 4 Community Center board member Mike Healy announces he is running for Ward 4 city councillor in next year's city election.

Healy and his wife Kim of Stedman Street have three children: Michael, Joseph, and Grace. They attend Quincy Public Schools.

Healy holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Northeastern University in Engineering Technology/Management Information Systems, along with an MBA (Master of Business Administration) in Technology Management.

Currently, Healy is working as a Project Manager in healthcare, where his responsibilities include managing multiple successful projects. He said his strengths are managing budgets, creating a team environment for his staff, and communicating results to multiple levels of leadership.

Healy says his private sector work along with community roles, not only at the Ward 4 community level, but various Quincy youth coaching positions, has prepared him to parlay his knowledge of what would best serve the people of Ward 4. He said his project management experience will allow him to work together with other councillors and create the best solutions for all Ward 4 residents.

MIKE HEALY

"Being active from the sidelines, I've always been concerned with some of the decisions that are made within local government. I'm running for Ward 4 city councillor for our ward residents who want oversight and protection in the decisions that are made across the city.

"The ward councillor's job is to protect the resident taxpayers' interests. Whether it's a road closure, flooding issues, or constituent services, all Ward 4 residents deserve the respect to be communicated to in an open and timely manner. I believe that whether the issue is good or bad, communication and discussion is key in solving problems.

"In my private sector experience, I have a strong track record of working with all levels within organizations to get the job done. My private sector work experience and my community involvement gives me the unique skill set to effectively manage Ward 4," Healy added.

Healy also said his hard work ethic is derived from his immigrant parents who came from County Sligo, Ireland. He is the oldest of nine children to Andy and Monica Healy. He said his parents instilled in him at an early age to work hard to achieve his goals while building lasting relationships along the way, because at the end of the day it's about working together for a common goal.

Healy says he will be out and about in the upcoming weeks, catching up with current Ward 4 residents and neighbors and looking forward to meeting all residents of the ward. He can be reached at email address: mikehealyward4@gmail.com or <http://www.mikehealyward4.com>

Palmucci: Review City Charter

Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci wants Quincy to take a look at its city charter and see if anything needs to be brought up to date.

Palmucci is pushing for the review because members of Chamber of Commerce are circulating a petition calling for a ballot question asking residents whether or not they'd want the mayor's term extended to four years instead of two. Palmucci didn't specify any proposed changes, but believes that a discussion on the charter as a whole should coincide with that petition.

"It's probably a good time when we're looking at that to look at the charter holistically," Palmucci told the Sun. "The charter hasn't been changed in quite some time, it's good to review it."

To that end, Palmucci introduced a resolve at Tuesday night's City Council meeting. It asks that Mayor Tom Koch and the council establish a commission to review the charter and submit any changes to the residents of Quincy for a vote. He said the council could recommend the changes to the Legislature on its own, but would prefer the public be involved.

"It should be a public process," Palmucci said.

A Social Security Card And Number Lesson

By KRISTEN ALBERINO
Social Security Public Affairs Specialist

Are you looking to replace your Social Security card just because you don't have it? Then rest assured: you really don't need to replace it. What's most important is that you remember your Social Security number.

Remember, during your formal education, when you used to memorize passages from a book, or answers for a test? In the same way, you should memorize your Social Security number. Knowing your Social Security number is important when it comes to work, taxes, banking, and other types of business. Treat your number as confidential information and keep it protected. Memorizing your number means you don't need to carry your Social Security card with you unless you need to show it to your employer. Keep it in a safe place with your other important papers.

If you really do need to get a replacement card, it's easy to apply for a new one. Simply complete an Application for a Social Security Card (Form SS-5) and show us original documents proving your U.S. citizenship or immigration status, age, and identity. The application includes examples of documents you may need; you can find the application at www.socialsecurity.gov/ss-number. Then, take or mail your completed application and documents to your local Social Security office. We will mail your Social Security card to you.

If your card is lost or stolen, you can apply for a replacement for free. However, with some exceptions, you are limited to three replacement cards in a year and 10 during your lifetime.

Cheryl Kunz-Brown Cancer Benefit

Saturday, November 17th
7:30-11:30 P.M.

D.A.V. Hall
71 Liberty St. Braintree, MA

Donation - $20 Music: Easy Access Band

Nicole's
STUDIO

261 Copeland St
Quincy, MA
617-934-5135

Nicole's Studio offers the very
Best in modern hair design

Ladies, Come into
Nicole's Studio
for a Cut & Color
Bring the guy of your choice,
he gets a "FREE CUT"
(He must be a first time client)

Always free parking
Call today for an appointment.
617-935-5135

Visit
www.nicolessalon.com
Like us on Facebook
www.facebook.com/nicolesstudio

COPELAND PACKAGE

273 Copeland Street, Quincy (617) 471-5418

THANKSGIVING SPECIALS

SALE NOV 18TH-21ST

Open 8am-11pm Wed. 11/21 CLOSED THANKSGIVING DAY

BUD & BUD LIGHT 24 Bottle Loose PLUS DEPOSIT	$17.79	BUD & BUD LIGHT 24 Cans Loose PLUS DEPOSIT	$17.79	BOLLA WINES 1.5 L	$10.99
MILLER LITE 30 Pack PLUS DEPOSIT	$19.99	COORS LIGHT 30 Pack PLUS DEPOSIT	$19.99	C.K MONDAVI 1.5 L	$8.99
CORONA EXTRA 24 Bottle Loose PLUS DEPOSIT	$22.99	NATURAL ICE & LIGHT 30 Pack PLUS DEPOSIT	$15.99	CHATEAU ST. MICHELLE CHARDONNAY 750 ML	$8.99
SAM ADAMS SEASONAL 12 PACK BOTTLES PLUS DEPOSIT	$12.99	SAM ADAMS HARVEST 12 PACK BOTTLES PLUS DEPOSIT	$12.99	ROSCATO 750 ML	$9.99
CAPT. MORGAN ORIGINAL 1.75 ML	$27.99	SMIRNOFF 80 PROOF 1.75 ML	$19.99	RELAX REISLING 750 M	$7.99
HENNESSY BLACK 750 ML	$33.99	MARK WEST PINOT NOIR 750 ML	$8.99	MARK WEST PINOT NOIR 750 ML	$8.99
HENNESSY V.S. 750 ML	$29.99	FOLONARI PINOT GRIGIO 1.5 L	$9.99	FOLONARI PINOT GRIGIO 1.5 L	$9.99
JOSE CUERVO GOLD 750 ML	$18.99	BAILEY'S ORIG. COFFEE & MINT CARMEL 750 ML	$24.99	CAVIT ALL 1.5 L	$11.99
JOHNNIE WALKER BLK 750 ML	$35.99	JOHNNIE WALKER RED 750 ML	$22.99	ZONIN PROSECCO 750 ML	$8.99
SMIRNOFF 80% FLAVORS Rasp, Straw.Li Apple, B.B. 750 ML	$13.99	PARROT BAY ALL FLAVORS 750 ML	$14.99	MEZZA CORONA PINOT GRIGIO 1.5 L	$11.99
KETEL ONE VODKA 1.75 ML	$39.99	KETEL ONE CITROEN 750 ML	$22.99	DESTINOS WHITE & RED 750 ML	$7.99
Assort Any 6 or More Bottles of Wine for 10% Off or Any Case for 15% Off *Excludes Sale Items

COME VISIT OUR TOTALLY NEW STORE • FIND US ON FACEBOOK FOR TASTINGS & MORE OVER 60 YEARS OF NEIGHBORS SERVING NEIGHBORS

Citizenship Award Presented By The Quincy Sun - Last Day To Submit Nominations Dec. 31

Nominations Open For Henry Bosworth Memorial Award

Nominations are now open for Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award presented by The Quincy Sun.

The award – formerly known as the Sun Citizen of the Year – was renamed in 2010 in memory of Mr. Bosworth, The Quincy Sun's founder and longtime publisher.

Last year, Ruth Elizabeth (Betty) DeCristofaro, a life-long Quincy Point resident, was honored for a lifetime of volunteerism and selfless dedication to her church, veterans, schools and many other neighbors in need.

She was selected for the award by a judging panel among 22 nominees submitted by Quincy Sun readers.

DeCristofaro is the second recipient of the Bosworth Award and the 29th individual overall to be recognized by The Sun for outstanding community service.

Former Quincy City Clerk and current Norfolk County Commissioner John M. Gillis was the first recipient of the Henry Bosworth Memorial Citizenship Award in 2010. He was recognized as a "champion of the little guy" during his public service career that has spanned more than 50 years.

The other 27 individuals were honored when the award was known as The Quincy Sun Citizen of the Year.

Established in 1985, the award recognizes an individual for outstanding community service or a special achievement.

Again this year, Sun readers may nominate the person they feel is most deserving of the award.

A nomination ballot to help the selection process appears below in this week's issue of The Quincy Sun.

Nominations will close Monday, Dec. 31. After nominations close, a judging panel will be selected to make the final choice from nominations submitted.

If you know someone you would like to see recognized with the 2012 Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award, fill out the ballot and mail it to:

The Quincy Sun
Attn: Bosworth Award
1372 Hancock St.
Quincy, MA 02169

Ballots can also be dropped off at The Sun office at the above address by Dec. 31.

Those submitting nominations should identify themselves. They can also attach to the ballot a letter detailing the reason for the their nomination.

Nominees can be someone in elective office, a member of an appointed board, a clergy member, a teacher or school administrator, a police or firefighter, someone in the business community, a sports figure or an "unsung" neighbor, friend or community activist who has given freely of his or her time to a worthy project or cause.

Those nominated in the past are eligible to be nominated again this year. Since this is not a popularity contest, each nominee has an equal chance of being selected regardless of the number of nominations received. Anyone nominated just once has the same chance of being the award recipient.

The name of the winner will be announced in The Quincy Sun in January or February.

DONATIONS TO PANTRY – Quincy Girl Scouts from Troop 74120 collected over 100 items for Helping Hands Essentials Pantry of Quincy. A dance for Quincy Girl Scouts was held and the girls collected the items at the door. Girl Scouts from left to right are: Michaela Pettinelli, Maggie and Alicia Murphy, and Amy Trillcott.
Photo Courtesy Lisa Patacchiola

Living in Abundance

Come and explore how spirituality enriches your life with greater wisdom, happiness, and health.

International speaker, Evan Mehlenbacher, is a practitioner and teacher of Christian Science healing and a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

Sunday, November 18, 2012, at 3:00 P. M.
American Legion Post #294
80-83 Liberty Street, Quincy, 02169

CHOOSE QUALITY

Successful Short-term Rehabilitation

- Comprehensive rehabilitation for joint replacement, stroke, cardiac conditions & diabetes
- Occupational, physical, & speech therapies
- Experienced & dedicated nursing staff
- Detailed discharge planning for a safe transition home

Regain strength, confidence & mobility

Hancock Park

REHABILITATION & NURSING CENTER

164 Parkway
Quincy, MA
617-773-4222

Call today
for a Free
Rehabilitation
Brochure & Tour!

Over 60 Years of
Quality Service
Welch
HEALTHCARE AND
RETIREMENT GROUP

The Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award

presented by

The Quincy Sun

I would like to nominate
(Please type or print neatly)

for

The Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award

I believe he/she deserves this award because:

Submitted by:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Tel. No. _____

Fill out form and mail (or bring) to:

The Quincy Sun

c/o The Henry W. Bosworth Memorial Citizenship Award
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

NOMINATION DEADLINE: Monday, Dec. 31

Real Estate

Quincy Real Estate Transactions Nov. 5 - Nov. 9

Seller	Buyer	Amount	Address
John M. Vlassakis, Paul D. Vlassakis & Lisa F. Bonome	Mostafa Oubtrou	$287,000.00	432 Sea Street
Siu Y. Lee, Jimmy K. Lee, Michael Y. Lee, Shue Lee & Nyryan Nolido	Ying F. Chen	$323,000.00	146 Pine Street
Maria E. Shea	Grae E. Arabasz & Kasey M. Arabasz	$340,000.00	179 Milton Street
Calvin La	Molly Reddington	$174,900.00	123 Elm Street Unit B10
Mary C. Calisto	Wei D. Wu, Peiling Wu & Ada Q. Mai	$330,000.00	61 Plymouth Street
Silvo Marinilli	Steven D. Marinilli & Natalie C. Marinilli	$280,000.00	182 Safford Street
469-473 Sea Street LLC	Lisa A. Bolwin	$180,000.00	469 Sea Street Unit 8
SPS Development LLC	Winthrop Lane Realty Trust II	$160,000.00	82 Palmer Street
Pascarelli Family Trust	Maureen A. Cooper & Brian T. Cooper	$190,000.00	31 Churchill Road
Catherine Lydon	Elizabeth Douglass	$212,000.00	17 Adams Street Unit 1201
Thomas W. Dedian	Scott MacDonald	$239,500.00	973 Sea Street
Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation	Yi Du	$235,000.00	1 Cityview Lane Unit 113

Deck The Halls For Sale – Reasons To Keep Homes On The Market

By JIM LOWENSTERN

Should you deck your halls with for sale signs or is it better to take your home off the market until spring?

No doubt many a seller is asking this question as we head into the holiday season. There are many reasons why you should keep your home on the market during this time.

Let's discuss a few of them.

First of all, the buyers actively seeking a home at this time of year are very serious. You usually don't find casual buyers hanging out in a real estate office in December. Usually, the people out looking at real estate during the holidays are relocating or trying to buy before the year's end for the tax break.

If they are relocating, they have no choice, they need to be in a house and settled at the completion of the holiday break so they can begin the new job, and the kids can get back to school.

Another great reason to keep your home on the market through the holidays is because it's very easy to make your home even more appealing to buyers by making it festive at this time of year. That having been said, be careful not to overdo the religious themed decorations.

Buyers are trying to visualize their things in your home and if they are not celebrating Chanukkah, a menorah may be a distraction. Likewise, the statues of Jesus, Mary and Joseph or the Christmas carols playing on your stereo may be a turn off.

Try to keep the decorations simple. A pinecone centerpiece or a simple garland over the front door will do just fine to give your home that warm holiday feel without turning anyone away.

This year's political elections may have kept many from buying a home for fear of what is ahead. Now that the election is over folks have an idea of where the markets are heading and they are much more likely to move forward with their home purchases.

Sellers that are actively in the game in November and December also lack the usual competition which gives them an edge. Buyers will have more time to look around and really determine why your house is the place they want to call home, and from the seller's vantage point, there are fewer homes on the market to compete with; leaving the seller in a good negotiating position.

Believe it or not, research suggests that buyers are more amenable during the holidays. They tend to be in better moods and more willing to negotiate.

Finally, the ultimate reward for stick-to-it-iveness is that your house will sell and you will have your pick of the plethora of homes that inevitably return to the market in January and beyond leaving you with a pocketful of cash, and lots of bargaining power to be assured of getting the home of your dreams.

So Deck the Halls with For Sale signs and Come all

Ye Faithful buyers, the season is a prime time to sell!

Quincy Sun Featured Home of the Week

158 PARKE AVENUE, SQUANTUM

FULL dormered Cape.
SPACIOUS 3 bedrooms, 2 full baths.
HEATED sun room, full basement.
GREAT living area (1295 s.f.) and lot (6400 s.f.)
UPDATING needed.
OUTSTANDING opportunity.

Offered at $338,000

Call to set up a private showing
Stamos & Stamos Realtor
 617-328-9400

www.stamosandstamosrealtors.com

FLAVIN Insurance Agency

Complete Insurance Service Since 1925

OFFERING FLOOD INSURANCE

Winter Rainy Season Can Increase Risk of Flooding

Call or drop in for Premium Quote

Flavin & Flavin

1085 Hancock St. Quincy Center
 Visit: www.flavinandflavin.com

617-479-1000

Thinking of buying or selling?
 Think of us...

Red Door
 Real Estate

222 Sea Street - Quincy

(617) 553-1880

www.RedDoor-RE.com

RE/MAX Realty Pros

Buying, Selling or Investing?
Call Tom McFarland

For All Your
 Real Estate Answers

QUINCY - (617) 328-3200

On the Web visit McFarlandproperties.com

49 Beale St., Quincy, MA 02170

617-472-4330

www.c21annex.com

Over 70 Seller and Buyer Agents
 specializing in Residential, Commercial
 Real Estate, Bank Owned Properties,
 Short Sales and Rentals

ANNEX REAL ESTATE SCHOOL

Offering Salesperson's, Broker's and Continuing Ed. classes

"STILL NUMBER ONE"

QUINCY

WWW.

stamosandstamosrealtors

Stamos & Stamos Realtors

747 East Squantum St.

Squantum, MA 02171

617.328.9400

.com

REALTY 7

617-472-7700

Working for you
 7 days a week

Tom McMahon

realty7.biz
tom@realty7.biz

On Monday, Nov. 5 members of the Quincy Police Drug Control Unit (Lt. Glynn, Detectives Keenan, Duran, Barkas, Powers, and O'Brien) set up surveillance at a Hough's Neck residence in anticipation of executing a search warrant.

During the month of October and into November, the Quincy Police Drug Control Unit conducted an investigation into the sale of heroin from this address. As a result of the investigation, a male and a female at this address were identified as suspects.

Detective Keenan applied for and was granted search warrants for the female suspect, the male suspect as well as their address in Hough's Neck. At approximately 3:40 p.m., surveillance observed the male suspect exit their residence and walk towards Sea Street. About a minute later, the female suspect exited their residence and walked onto Ratchford Street. At that time it was decided to execute the search warrants.

Detectives Powers and O'Brien encountered the female suspect on Ratchford Street, informing her they were, "Quincy Police" as they displayed their police badges. The female suspect immediately made a quick motion with her tongue and then attempted to swallow something. Based on their training and experience - that drug dealers and users often carry drugs in their mouths in order to quickly swallow the evidence when approached by the police, the detectives tried to stop her from swal-

LT. DAN MINTON

A Job Well Done

By QUINCY POLICE LT. DAN MINTON

lowing the drugs. This was for her safety as well as to prevent the destruction of evidence.

The female suspect complied and spit out one knotted plastic corner bag. Inside the bag were three smaller bags containing a brown powder believed to be heroin. The female suspect was then handcuffed and advised of her Miranda Rights to which she stated she understood. Detective O'Brien advised her that they had a search warrant for her person and residence. When asked what was in the plastic bag, the female suspect replied, "heroin."

The female suspect cooperated fully, stating that she had 3 Vicodin pills in her purse and one more baggie of heroin in her room. Detective Powers searched the female suspect's purse and located the drugs, along with $123 and a cell phone. The female suspect was then transported back to her home in order to execute the search warrant there.

While this was occurring, Detectives Keenan, Barkas and Lieutenant Glynn approached the male suspect as he was about to board an MBTA bus. Detective Keenan advised the suspect that there was a search warrant for his person and residence. Detective Keenan read the male suspect his Miranda Rights to which he stated he understood. The male suspect said he had no idea what was going on, does not use heroin, had no idea that the female suspect sold heroin or that there was heroin in the residence. Detectives knew this to be untrue because the male suspect had overdosed on opiates inside his residence on Oct. 20. Officer Sweeney responded to that call, administered NARCAN and saved the male suspect. The Detectives brought the male suspect back to his residence, where the female suspect was and they were shown the search warrants.

The female suspect then led Detectives Barkas and Duran to some of the heroin. Detective Duran then located one baggie of brown powder believed to be heroin inside a sweatshirt pocket hanging outside of the bedroom closet. This baggie was larger than the others found on the female suspect. This baggie of heroin appeared to be the supply bag of heroin in which heroin is taken out of and then packaged into bags for sale. Detectives also found a digital scale, a box of sandwich bags, scissors, a cell phone and several plastic sandwich bags with the corners cut off.

These items together are indicative of drug distribution. The scale is used to weigh the drugs, which are then placed into the corner of a sandwich bag. The corner of the sandwich bag is then cut off using scissors and tied shut. Usually each corner bag of heroin sells for between $30 and $50 dollars depending on the weight. As a result of the investigation and what was found during the search warrants, both suspects were placed under arrest for "Possession of a Class A Substance (heroin) and Conspiracy to Violate the Drug Laws."

The 24 year-old female suspect was also charged with "Possession of a Class C Substance (Hydrocodone)." Detective Duran field tested the brown powder found inside the residence, which was positive for the presumptive presence of heroin. Detective Duran then analyzed the substance using a TruNarc Raman Spectrometer. The substance was found to contain heroin. All contraband was seized, placed into evidence, and will be forwarded to the Mass. State Police Crime Lab. The $123.00 dollars and (2) cell phones were seized pending civil forfeiture. Nice Work!

QUINCY POLICE HOT SPOTS

QUINCY POLICE STATISTICS: NOV. 2 - NOV. 8

ARRESTS: 19

TOTAL CALLS: 1,024

TOTAL STOLEN VEHICLES: none

FRIDAY, NOV. 2

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:31 a.m., Hancock Street. Fight. Report submitted on wanton destruction to window at Dollar Fun, damaged during fight. Complaint applications submitted.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 8:16 a.m., Alton Road. Dwelling. Entry attempted through bulkhead, cellar door.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 8:52 a.m., Sacred Heart Church, 386 Hancock St. Happened overnight. Entrance gained, computer taken.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 11:18 a.m., 1250 Hancock St. Fight. Complaint for disorderly. Criminal complaints filed on three suspects, disorderly conduct.

LARCENY, 11:34 a.m., 219 Washington St. Business. Civil matter. Complaint for larceny.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 2:52 p.m., Quincy Shore Drive. To car. Right rear tire punctured.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 3:49 p.m., Squantum Yacht Club, 646 Quincy Shore Dr. Motor vehicle damage. Two tires punctured. Happened last night.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 6:31 p.m., 1250 Hancock St. Past. Restaurant.

LARCENY, 7:08 p.m., 1050 Hancock St. Sign taken.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, Dysart St. Past.

SATURDAY, NOV. 3

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 12:46 a.m., Washington St. Motor vehicle vandalized.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 7:04 a.m., 148 Granite St. To building - outside spraypainted overnight. Large amount of new graffiti.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 9:44 a.m., 80 Clay St. Jewelry.

LARCENY, 11:35 a.m., 8 Highpoint Cir. Package.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 12:32 p.m., Fore River Field, 16 Nevada Rd. Assaulted by another female known to her while at football game. Both parties advised.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:39 p.m., Whitney Road. Swastikas spray painted on vehicle.

LARCENY, 11:06 p.m., 79 Parkway. Pocketbook. Suspect fled in red pick-up truck. Caller called back; friend accidentally took pocketbook.

SUNDAY, NOV. 4

LARCENY, 9:01 a.m., Russell St. Past. Caller noticed jewelry missing. No sign of break-in.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:50 p.m., Lancaster St. Vehicle keyed.

LARCENY, 9:53 a.m., East Squantum St. Antique comic books taken by a known party.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 3:15 p.m., Hudson St. To cars. Three vehicles keyed.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST 8:53 p.m., Davis St.

MONDAY, NOV. 5

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 11 a.m., 1269 Sea St. Past incident. Caller was assaulted. Complaint for A&B.

LARCENY, 2:54 p.m., 29 Temple St. Someone took his cell phone.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 4:07 p.m., 45 Copeland St. Building was spraypainted.

LARCENY, 6:12 p.m., 12 Beale St.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 8:07 p.m., Taffrail Road. Front door found open - unlocked door. Nothing taken.

TUESDAY, NOV. 6

ARMED ROBBERY, 9:40 a.m., Barham Ave. Attempted. White male, 5'8", 156-170 pounds, green jacket or purse taken. Fled towards MBTA station. Blue jeans. Officer Carthas working detail on location with the 776 at West Squantum and Newport with suspect. Suspect has a green Adidas jacket and blue jeans on. Suspect stopped near MBTA, West Squantum St. $45 in cash. Possible drug deal gone bad. Persons involved allegedly attempted armed robbery by baseball bat; larceny less from purse in a vehicle and an A&B.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 9:45 p.m., Channing St. Entrance gained through basement window.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 7

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 11:15 a.m., Whiton Ave. Dwelling. White male, black hoodie, just fled in tan Corolla. Weymouth PD out with tan Toyota at Bridge and Standish - 783 doing a show up.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 6:41 p.m., Billings St. Dwelling. Caller from QPD lobby states he was not home over last couple of days while his newborn child was born. He returned home to address above to find back door open and cash and other items were taken.

THURSDAY, NOV. 8

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 2:25 a.m., Verchild St. Caller leaving father's house found her rear window broken. No break. Act of malicious damage.

LARCENY, 11:29 a.m., 1250 Hancock St. iPhone.

STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLES: None.

CAR BREAKS: 100 block of Water Street, Furnace Avenue, 900 block of Southern Artery.

BREAKS AND ATTEMPTED BREAKS: 100 block of Billings Street, 300 block of Hancock Street, Alton Road, Clay Street, Davis Street, Taffrail Road, Channing Street.

If you have information on the above crimes, drug activity or any crime, please call the Quincy Police Detective Bureau at 617-745-5764 or log onto the following website: <http://tinyurl.com/ytf6td>.

To report suspicious drug activity, call the Drug Hotline at 617-745-5730. You will not be required to identify yourself, but it could help. To make an appointment to view the Registered Sex Offenders book, call Detective James Dentremon at 617-745-5755.

To contact the Crime Prevention Officer for tips or comments, my direct line is 617-745-5719. My e-mail address is dminton@ci.quincy.ma.us - Lt. Dan Minton

PAUL'S AUTO BODY

384 Centre St., Quincy 617-471-6280

Open Mon-Fri 8AM - 5PM

(Walking distance from Quincy Adams T Station)

Expert Repairs on
All Makes & Models
Insurance Estimates
Auto Glass Installed
Complete Auto Detailing & Reconditioning

$25.00 OFF

ANY DETAILING
SERVICE OVER $100.00

Cannot be combined with other offers
One coupon per visit.

Expert Color Matching

Licensed Dealer
Pre-Owned Vehicles

Insurance Rentals Available

Entries in the Quincy Police Hot Spots are compiled and submitted by the Quincy Police Department.

They are published by The Quincy Sun as a public service to make local residents more aware of any crime activity in their neighborhood. Questions concerning the Hot Spots list should be directed to Crime Prevention Officer Lt. Dan Minton, 617-745-5719.

Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service Nov. 20 At First Baptist Church

The Inter-Church Council of Wollaston and North Quincy (ICC) announces First Baptist Church of Wollaston, 81 Prospect Ave., will host the annual Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service Tuesday, Nov. 20, beginning at 7 p.m.

The Rev. C. Michael Cunningham, pastor of First Baptist Church, will preach and area clergy will participate in the service. A time of fellowship and light refreshments will follow the service.

The public is invited to attend. All are asked to bring a donation of a canned good or non-perishable food item for donation to Interfaith Social Services.

Choir members from congregations of the Inter-Church Council will participate in the service. The offering collected will be donated to the Interfaith Social Services, the Quincy Crisis Center, Father Bill's Place, and D.O.V.E. (Domestic Violence Ended).

The purpose of the Inter-Church Council is to share Christ with one another and the community through worship, education, and service. The ICC also hosts community worship services celebrating Epiphany and Good Friday.

For more information, call 617-472-0824.

Craft Fair At Covenant Church

The Covenant Church of Quincy, 315 Whitwell St., will hold a Holiday Craft Fair Saturday, Nov. 24 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The fair will feature a selection of both international and local crafts including Christmas ornaments and cards, hand crafted jewelry and hand painted items.

There will also be purses made in Thailand, and silk scarves made in Laos by women who run their own microbusinesses which the church has helped to establish.

Table proceeds will help the church sponsor one child for one year through Covenant Kids Congo, a program of their denomination, The Evangelical Covenant Church. Call 617-479-5728 for more information.

RELIGION

Quincy Point Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service Nov. 20

The annual Quincy Point Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service will take place Tuesday, Nov. 20 at 7:30 p.m. at Quincy Point Congregational Church, 444 Washington St..

St. Joseph's Parish will co-host with QPCC and special music of the season will be sung by the choirs of both churches.

The homilist will be Rev. Ann Suzedell from QPCC. The collection taken will go to the Pantry Shelf, at Interfaith Social Services, and St. Joseph's Food Pantry, as they serve the needy of the Quincy Point area.

As is the tradition, a Community Service Award is presented to an individual who has been of great service to the community. This year's award will be presented posthumously to Robin DuBois for her dedication to the families of Quincy Point as both a sports coach and religious teacher.

Refreshments will be served in the church hall following the service. All are welcome to join us!

Bus service will be provided for residents of 1000 Southern Artery. Pick up at the East Wing at 6:50 p.m. and the North Wing at 7 p.m. Return bus at 9 p.m.

Wollaston Congregational Church Fall Fair Saturday

Wollaston Congregational Church, 48 Winthrop Ave., will hold its Annual Fall Fair Saturday, Nov. 17th from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the church.

Fair items include hand-crafted items featuring knitting, jewelry, baked goods, canning and photography. An attic treasure table will be good for holiday shopping.

The lunch cafe will be open from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. This event helps WCC run all the community programs and outreach as well as fund the church home.

Free Family Movie Night

The Quincy Pointers Youth Band will perform at Thanksgiving Sunday worship at 10 a.m. Nov. 18 at Quincy Point Congregational Church, 444 Washington St.

Edna Robie will be deacon of the day. The Rev. Ann G. Suzedell's sermon is titled, "Giving and Thanksgiving."

All are welcome to attend Fellowship hour in the Social hall, complete with coffee and light refreshments.

Church members are reminded to return Thanksgiving Ingathering bags of groceries to be sent to Interfaith Social Services Sunday. Tree of Joy Tags are also available Sunday. Come take a tag to help families in need at Interfaith Social Services and Project Access. Unwrapped purchased items are due back on Dec. 9th.

Bethany Church

Bethany Congregational Church, Quincy Center will have Sunday Worship Service, Thanksgiving Sunday and Sunday School at 10 a.m.

The Rev. Gary W. Smothers will conduct the service and preach a sermon entitled "A Most Unnatural Thing To Do."

Fellowship with light refreshments will follow the worship service.

All are welcome to attend

Bethany Church Worship Services and its numerous group activities. Bethany has a Youth Group, a Men's Group, an Outreach Mission Group doing various charity works and a Friday morning Bible Study Class.

A craft fair will be held at Bethany Church Saturday, Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. There will be homemade Christmas gifts as well as several food tables and a luncheon menu.

Houghs Neck Congregational

Houghs Neck Congregational Church, 310 Manet Ave., Quincy, will hold Sunday worship at 10 a.m.

All are welcome to attend.

Pastor John Castricum

will preach the sermon "Grateful Giving."

Martha Chase and Bryan Logue will serve for the Diaconate, and a fellowship coffee hour will follow the service.

Quincy Religion Directory SERVICES & ACTIVITIES

Catholic

St. Mary's Church

95 Crescent St., Quincy • 617-773-0120
Masses
Saturday, 4pm, Sunday 7, 9:30
& 11:30am; Weekdays 9am
Handicapped Accessible
New Members Welcome!

ST. AGATHA CHURCH MILTON-QUINCY

432 Adams Street
Milton, MA 02186 • 617-698-2439

Schedule of Masses:

Saturday: 4:30PM
Sunday: 7:30AM, 9:00AM (Family Mass), 10:30AM, 12 NOON, 5:00PM
Weekday Masses: 7:00 & 9:00AM
Reconciliation 3:45PM-4:15pm on Saturdays, other times
by appointment

Handicapped Accessible, handicapped parking, elevator to Upper/Lower Churches ~ Air-Conditioned

St. John The Baptist

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

44 School St., Quincy
617-773-1021

Weekend Mass Schedule

Saturday, 4:00 PM
Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 AM
Sunday night 5:30 PM

Weekday Masses

Monday - Saturday 8:00 AM

Latin Mass

1st & 3rd Wednesdays
(Lower Chapel) 7:00 AM

Confessions

Wed. 8:30 - 9:00 AM
Sat. 2:30 - 3:30 PM

Handicapped Accessible

Salvationist

THE SALVATION ARMY

6 Baxter St., Quincy • 617-472-2345
9:45 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION
11AM WORSHIP SERVICE
BRASS BAND MUSIC
7PM TUES WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP
6:45PM WEDS. BIBLE STUDY

Catholic

Sacred Heart Church

"A Roman Catholic Community walking together in Faith, Worship, Education and Service"
386 Hancock St., North Quincy, MA 02171
(617) 328-8666

Sunday Masses

4pm (Sat.) 7:45am, 9am (Family Liturgy)
10:30am (with Choir) and 5pm

Weekday Masses

Mon.-Fri. 7am and 9am, Sat. 9am
Handicapped Accessible

Confessions

Sat. 3-3:45pm in Saint Joseph Oratory

St. Joseph's Church

550 Washington Street
Quincy, MA 02169

617-472-6321

SUNDAY MASSES:

4 p.m. (On Saturday)
8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.
Weekday Masses 9am
CONFESSIONS: Saturday, 3:00-3:30 pm
Handicapped accessible &
Handicapped parking, side entrance
air conditioned

Saint Ann's Church

757 Hancock St., Wollaston
617-479-5400

Pastor: Rev. John J. Ronaghan

Weekend Mass Schedule:

Saturday 4:00 PM
Sunday 7:00, 9:00, 11:30AM
Daily Masses: 9:00 AM

Methodist

QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

40 Beale St., Wollaston
617-773-3319
10:30 AM Sunday Worship
Rev. Dr. Susan Jarek-Glidden, Pastor

Congregational

HOUGH'S NECK CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

310 Manet Avenue

617-479-8778

www.hncong.org

Sunday Service at 10AM

'Grateful Giving'

All are welcome to attend

FELLOWSHIP COFFEE HOUR

FOLLOWING SERVICE

BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Spear & Coddington Streets
Quincy Center, 617-479-7300
WWW.QUINCYBETHANYCHURCH.ORG

Sunday Nov. 18

Sunday Worship, Thanksgiving
Sunday, Sunday School at 10AM.

The Rev. Gary W. Smothers

will preach the sermon

'A Most Unnatural Thing To Do'

Child Care Available

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Fellowship Time in Allen Parlor

Congregational

Wollaston
Congregational Church
United Church of Christ
48 Winthrop Avenue
Quincy, Massachusetts

Sunday Worship

at 10 a.m.

Rev. Dr. Mary Louise Gifford

Office: 617-773-7432 www.wollycong.org

UNION CONGREGATIONAL

Beach St. & Rawson Rd., Wollaston
(617) 479-6661

Rev. John Swanson, Pastor
Sunday Worship Service 10 AM

QUINCY POINT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

444 Washington St. • 617-773-6424
Worship and Church School 10 am

Rev. Ann Suzedell, Pastor
email: office@quincypointcong.org

To Advertise

in this Directory,

Call

617-471-3100

Christian Science

First Church of Christ, Scientist
16 Beale Street, Quincy
617-472-0055

Sunday Services
and Sunday School
10:30 a.m.

Wednesday Evening
Meetings - where testimonies of healing
are shared 7:30 p.m.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Catholic Community

Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender

CATHOLICS

Our families, friends And allies

Liturgy & social hour: Sundays, 5:30 PM

St. John the Evangelist Church

35 Bowdoin St., Beacon Hill, Boston

617-421-1915

www.dignityboston.org

Nazarene

Wollaston

Church of the Nazarene

Sunday Worship

8:30 AM Liturgical Worship

9:45 AM Sunday School

11:00 AM Celebration Worship

Kevin C. Dunlop, Lead Pastor

Phil Hase, Youth & Small Groups Pastor

John Chastain, Music & Campus Pastor

Rev. Heather, Children's Pastor

Don Reed, Visitation Pastor

37 E. Elm Ave., Wollaston

617-472-5688

E-mail: office@wconaz.org

www.wconaz.org

HOPE LOVE

PEACE JOY

OBITUARIES

Mark K. Miner, Sr., 56
Mason

A memorial service for Mark K. Miner, Sr., 56, of Quincy, of Quincy, will be held today (Thursday) at 7 p.m. in the Deware Funeral Home, 576 Hancock St., Wollaston.

Mr. Miner died peacefully Nov. 6 at the Massachusetts General Hospital, surrounded by his family.

Born in New York (born a true Yankees fan, but also a true Patriots fan), he had lived in Quincy over 40 years.

He worked over 20 years as a Mason for Abbot Building Restoration Company, Inc. of Boston and had some great friendships with his co-workers.

He enjoyed music and playing his guitar, fishing, car racing, his love for guns, and airplanes, watching the History channel, but most of all taking long walks with his loving wife, Lorry his angel of 40 years.

Mr. Miner was the beloved husband of Lorraine S. (Kaplan) Miner and loving father of Mark K. Miner, Jr. of Braintree. Devoted grandfather of Makensie

MARK K. MINER, SR.

Crossman and Kyle Crossman both of Braintree. Loving son of Ruth J. (Guice) Grey-Owl of FL. and the late Rev. Kenneth L. Miner. Beloved brother to Paul K. Miner of Boston and Lisa B. Miner of Spring Hill, FL. Dear Son in law of Lorraine (Nicotera) Kaplan of Quincy and the late Alvin Kaplan.

Visitation will be held prior to tonight's memorial service at the funeral home from 6 to 7 p.m. Relatives and friend are invited.

Memorial onations may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital 501 St. Jude Place Memphis, TN 38105-1905.

Edward A. Allen, 89

A funeral Mass for Edward A. "Buddy" Allen, 89, of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 7 at St. Jerome Church, Weymouth.

Mr. Allen died Nov. 3.

Funeral arrangements were made by McDonald Funeral Home, Weymouth.

Interment was in Cedar Grove Cemetery, Dorchester.

Obituaries Also Online at
www.thequincysun.com

A Better Value For Quincy Families

At Deware Funeral Home, we are proud to offer more value and superior service to Quincy families. A full service traditional funeral is $5,995* with no hidden costs. The price includes:

Funeral Ceremony • Visitation • Casket

At Deware Funeral Home, we put the needs of our customer first. We also offer a Simple Burial Plan for $3,395.

With Deware Funeral Home, you can trust us to provide the compassionate care you expect at an exceptional value, backed by a 100% service guarantee.

Exclusive provider of Dignity Memorial® benefits.

Deware Funeral Home

576 Hancock Street | Quincy, MA 02170 | 617-472-1137

For more information visit
www.dewarefuneralhome.com

*$5,995 plan includes basic services of funeral director and staff, embalming and preparation, visitation, funeral ceremony, transportation to place of disposition, 20-gauge metal casket, website announcement, and memorial stationary package (a register book, 100 thank you cards, 100 prayer cards).

A Service Family Affiliate of AFS and Service Corporation International, 206 Winter Street, Fall River, MA 02720. (508) 676-2454.

Patricia C. Joyce
Retired QPS Lunch Mother

A funeral Mass for Patricia C. (McCaffrey) Joyce of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 9 at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Joyce died Nov. 5.

She was born and raised in Dorchester, graduating from Dorchester High School. She worked for Quincy Public Schools as a lunch mother for 30 years before retiring in 2001. She enjoyed gardening, knitting, reading, coffee at Friendly's with her friends, bowling, dancing, and the theater were among some of her favorite pastimes.

Mrs. Joyce was a devoted wife and mother who dedicated her life to her family making sure that their childhood was rich with family love and tradition which would later become the foundation of all that was truly important to her. She will be remembered as a loving and caring mother who valued honesty and doing good for others. She will be missed by all who had the pleasure to have known her.

Beloved wife of 54 years

PATRICIA C. JOYCE

of the late Joseph T. Joyce. Loving mother of Joseph T. Joyce, Jr. and his wife Jacqueline of Quincy, Brenda Sprague and her husband Patrick of Canton and Mark Joyce and his wife Patricia of Stoughton. Sister of the late John McCaffrey and Joan Bagley. Cherished grandmother of Samuel, Matthew, Kelli, and Ryan Joyce.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Alzheimer's Association, 480 Pleasant St., Watertown, MA 02472.

Frances J. Sorgi, 92

A funeral Mass for Frances J. (Griffin) Sorgi, 92, of Milton and formerly Quincy was celebrated Nov. 8 at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Griffin died Nov. 2.

Born in Boston, she grew up in Dorchester, resided in Milton for over 36 years, and had also lived in Yarmouthport and Quincy.

Mrs. Sorgi was a graduate of St. Gregory High School, Dorchester, and Boston Clerical School. She was a former employee of New England Tel. & Tel. and St. Margaret's Hospital, and a loving supportive wife and mother.

An avid reader, she loved music and was a lifelong choir member.

Beloved wife of the late Hugo W. Sorgi. Devoted mother of Kevin G. Sorgi and his wife Eileen of Milton, Mary Elizabeth Sorgi of Squantum, Paula M. Barron of FL, Judith M. Mirbegian and her husband Rouben of CA, Edward J. Sorgi and his wife Anne of UT, Timothy E. Sorgi and his wife Sheila and Robert A. Sorgi and his wife Nancy, all of Braintree, Christopher Bergin of Amesbury, and Deanne T. Adams of Hyannis. Loving brother of Richard L. Griffin and the late the late Catherine, George and Thomas Griffin. Cherished grandmother of 23 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were made by Alfred D. Thomas Funeral Home, Milton.

Interment was in Milton Cemetery.

Memorial donations may be made to Carroll Center for the Blind, 770 Centre St., Newton, MA 02458.

M. Alice Walsh, 91
Family Owned 'Walsh's Variety Store'

A funeral Mass for M. Alice (Sullivan) Walsh, 91, of Rockland and formerly Quincy was celebrated Nov. 8 at St. Bridget's Church, Abington.

Mrs. Walsh died Nov. 1.

She was a retired customer service agent for the Boston Gas Company. In the 1960s, she worked full time at the family owned business, "Walsh's Variety Store," at 205 West Squantum St., Quincy, now known as Mullaney's Variety.

After retirement, she enjoyed travel with family and friends to Europe, Guatemala and Hawaii. Her last trip to Ireland was enjoyed with her son Joseph, sister Ginger, and cousins Tim, Bunty and Rosemary Gilligan of London, England.

Both as a child and adult, she enjoyed spending time with her family during the summer months on Lake Winnepesaukee. For the past 30 years, Mrs. Walsh shared her love of the lake with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren at the big house in Birch Haven on Paus Bay.

Wife of the late Michael J. Walsh. Loving mother of Joseph F. of Rockland, Robert J. and his wife Gail of Braintree, James L. and his wife Cathleen of Easton, Richard J. and his wife MaryLou of Braintree, Gerard W. and his wife Christine of Hanson, Brian M. and his wife Laura of Milton and Dennis X. and his wife Kristi of FL. Daughter of the late William F. and Alice (Young) Sullivan. Sister of Grace (Travers) Dorsett of

Albert T. Collins

A funeral Mass for Albert T. "Buddy" Collins of Weymouth and formerly of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 9 at St. Francis Xavier Church, Weymouth.

Mr. Collins died Nov. 1 after a year and a half long battle with pancreatic cancer.

He was born in Boston, grew up in South Boston and lived in Quincy before moving to Weymouth 19 years ago. Mr. Collins worked

M. ALICE WALSH, 91

FL, Katherine Fennell of Weymouth, Andrew James Sullivan of FL, Ann Weaver of FL, Virginia Roberts of NH., Edward Sullivan of NH, and the late William F. Sullivan Jr., Sr. Rita Sullivan, M.M., Dorothy Cornelissen and Mildred Wheeler. Grandmother of Michael J., Richard J., Robert J., James L., Laurianne, Matthew M., Gerard W., Sean M., Corey P., Colleen E., Timothy J., Courtney A., Ryan P. and Brendan J. Walsh and Debra M. Lavoie, Christine E. Roderick, Kimberly A. Bohnenberger, Michele A. Casey, Shannon M. Hruzd, Caitlin M. Phillips; and special grandmother to Edgar G. Herrera, as well as Ben and Alex Perry.

She is also survived by 22 great-grandchildren and 58 nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Quealy and Son Funeral Home, Abington.

Memorial donations may be made to the Dominican Sisters' Monastery of the Mother of God, 1430 Riverdale St., West Springfield, MA 01089-4698, Attn. Sr. Mary St. John, O.P., or the Norwell VNA and Hospice, 120 Longwater Drive, Norwell, MA 02061.

for Quincy Public Schools for 25 years. He served his Country in the Navy during the Vietnam War and was a member of American Legion George R. Bean Post #79 in Weymouth.

Husband for 31 years to Grace (Dearden) Collins. Father of Ryan Collins of Rockland and Scott and Matthew Collins of Weymouth. Grandfather of Shane Collins of Rockland. Brother of Marie Coady and her husband Bill, Marcia Pratt and her husband Lenny, Kathleen Roque and her husband Tom, all of AZ, Keith Collins and his wife Dianne of FL, Frank Collins of RI and Claire White and her husband Steve of Hanover. Also survived by many nieces and nephews. Son of the late Claire and Francis Collins.

Interment was in the Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Memorial donations may be to Old Colony Hospice, 1 Credit Union Way, Randolph, MA 02368.

*Over 60 Years
Of Personalized Service*

SWEENEY BROTHERS

Home for Funerals, Inc.

RICHARD T. SWEENEY, JR. • FRANCIS M. SWEENEY

1 INDEPENDENCE AVENUE
QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS 02169

(617) 472-6344

www.thesweeneybrothers.com

Blanca Flora Figueroa, 72

Homemaker

A funeral Mass for Blanca Flora (Fernandez) Figueroa, 72, of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 10 at St. Mary's Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Figueroa died Nov. 7 at Massachusetts General Hospital.

She was born, raised, and educated in Antigua, Guatemala. She immigrated to the United States on September 15, 1965 and has lived in Quincy for most of her time here. She was a homemaker, who was especially devoted to her family. She also enjoyed cooking and her pets.

Beloved wife of the late Jose Luis Figueroa. Devoted mother of Claudia Ivone Hernandez of Quincy and Jose Luis Figueroa, Jr. and his wife Marie Therese of Boston.

Loving grandmother of Sebastian D. Figueroa. Dear sister of Adia De Cruz, Lola De Monroy, Elsa Fernandez, Alvaro Fernandez, all of

BLANCA F. FIGUEROA

Guatemala, Carlos Fernandez of Somerville, Angel A. Fernandez of Chelsea, Sylvia De Castellanos of Guatemala, and the late Roberto Fernandez. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the National Kidney Foundation, 88 Astor Avenue, Suite 2, Norwood, MA 02062.

Joseph P. Ciarcia, 80

Hospital Maintenance Fireman

A funeral Mass for Joseph P. Ciarcia, 80, of Quincy, formerly of Dorchester, was celebrated Tuesday in St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy Center.

Mr. Ciarcia died Nov. 8.

Born in East Boston where he was raised and educated, he had lived in Quincy for 18 years.

A Korean War veteran US Army, Mr. Ciarcia worked at St. Elizabeth's Hospital as a maintenance fireman for over 20 years.

He was a member of Club Logan in East Boston, loved spending time with his grandchildren, bowling, travelling, cruises and the Boston sports teams, especially the Boston College Eagles.

The beloved husband of Madeleine F. "Cookie" (Lawler) Ciarcia to whom

Marie E. Campbell, 45

A Prayer Service for Marie E. Campbell, 45, of Holbrook, formerly of Quincy, was held Sunday at the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Ms. Campbell died unexpectedly at home Nov. 4.

She was born in Boston, raised and educated in Brockton schools. She had lived in Quincy for many years before moving to Holbrook a year ago.

Beloved daughter of Helen M. (Manning) Dowd

he was married for 48 years, he was the loving father of Christopher J. Ciarcia and his wife Patricia of Medford, Michele Fowler and her husband Alwyn of Whitman, dear grandfather of Gabrielle, Matthew, David and Jacqueline Ciarcia and Lisa Marie and Laura Ann Fowler; beloved brother of Tina Leone of Burlington and the late Rose Crecenzi and Emanuel Ciarcia; and is also survived by many nieces and nephews and his dear friend Vincent Falzone.

Burial was at Cedar Grove Cemetery, Dorchester.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Dennis Sweeney Funeral Home 74 Elm St., Quincy Center.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, 30 Speen St. Framingham, MA 01701.

of Quincy and the late Lawrence C. Campbell.

Devoted sister of Gail D. Farland of New Bedford, Deborah A. Manning of Quincy, Josephine M. Campbell of Canton and Lorraine J. Polleys Dowd of Abington.

She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, 60 Walnut St., Wellesley Hills, MA 02481.

William J. MacDonald, 87

Retired N.E. Telephone Manager

A funeral Mass for William J. MacDonald, 87, of Weymouth and Largo, FL and formerly of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 10 at St. Mary's Church, Randolph.

Mr. MacDonald died Nov. 6.

He was born in Quincy, raised and educated in Quincy and Weymouth schools and was a graduate of the former Sacred Heart High School in Weymouth. He lived in Weymouth for 39 years and was a winter resident of Largo, FL for 20 years.

Mr. MacDonald was employed as a manager with the New England Telephone Company. He had 35 years of service and had been retired for many years.

He was a U.S. Marine Corps veteran of both World War II and the Korean War.

He enjoyed golfing and was a member of the Marshfield Country Club. He was a friend of Bill W.

Beloved husband of the late Mary C. (Manning) MacDonald. Devoted father of John P. "Jack" MacDonald of RI and the late Peter W. MacDonald and his wife Barbara of Randolph. Loving grandfather of Christopher MacDonald and his wife Maureen of Avon, Jason MacDonald and his wife Stephanie of Stoughton, Daniel MacDonald and his wife Justina of Randolph, Nicholas MacDonald and his fiancée Heather of Randolph, and the late Sean MacDonald. Cherished great-grandfather of Emma, Braydon, Cameron, Carli, and Kellan.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to Hospice of the South Shore, 30 Reservoir Park Drive, Rockland, MA 02370.

Rosemary E. Hanrahan

Retired Verizon Telephone Operator

A funeral Mass for Rosemary E. (Goode) Hanrahan of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 10 at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Hanrahan died Nov. 4.

Mrs. Hanrahan was born in Boston and was a resident of Quincy for the past 76 years. She was a graduate of North Quincy High School Class of 1941.

She worked for Verizon for 15 years as a Telephone Operator before retiring in 1989. She was a member of the Pioneers Club and was a parishioner of Star of the Sea Parish in Squantum for many years and more recently a parishioner of Sacred Heart Church in North Quincy.

She enjoyed traveling with her family and with her senior groups. Most of all Mrs. Hanrahan's family was her true passion; they were the cornerstone of her life. She will be missed by her family who loved her so much.

Beloved wife of the late Thomas B. Hanrahan. Loving mother of Thomas B. Hanrahan of CA, Mary A. Hanrahan and her husband Garrett Keenan of NH, Edward C. Hanrahan of Quincy, James C. Hanrahan of Mansfield, Janet M. Hanrahan of Weymouth and Rosemary Hanrahan of Boston. Sister of Barbara McLaughlin of Quincy, Edward Goode of Quincy, Gerald Goode of AX and the late Charles and Thomas Goode. Cherished grandmother of Zachary and Joseph Hanrahan, Christopher Page, Janine Hanrahan, James Hanrahan and Lacey Black.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to Carmelite Sisters for the Aged and Infirm at St. Theresa's Motherhouse, 600 Woods Road, Germantown, NY, 12526-5639 or Carmelite Monastery, 61 Mount Pleasant Avenue, Roxbury, MA 02119.

Janet T. McCann, 83

Retired Office Manager

A funeral Mass for Janet T. (Weeber) McCann, 83, a former long time resident of Hough's Neck, was celebrated Tuesday in Most Blessed Sacrament Church, Hough's Neck.

Mrs. McCann died Nov. 6 Wolfeboro, NH.

Born in Boston, she was raised and educated in Boston graduating from Roslindale High School in 1946. She had lived in the Hough's Neck section of Quincy since 1946 before moving to Wolfeboro to be close to her family.

She was a retired office manager for Riley and Reilly Insurance Co. in Quincy.

Mrs. McCann was awarded the Distinguished Senior Good Neighbor Award from the Hough's Neck Community Council. She volunteered during elections at the Atherton Hough Elementary School.

She was very involved at the most Blessed Sacrament Church including the Ladies Sodality, Catholic Daughters of America and the educational program there.

JANET T. MCCANN

She also volunteered at the South Shore Center for the Blind in Quincy.

Beloved wife of the late Harold J. McCann. Loving mother of Richard J. McCann and his wife Phyllis of Moultonboro, NH and Maureen C. McCann and her husband Stephen Marden of Wolfeboro. Proud grandmother Abigail McCann of Orlando and Catherine McCann of Moultonboro.

Interment was at Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the South Shore Center for the Blind, c/o Peg O'Connor, 146 Stoughton St, Quincy, MA 02169.

Judith A. Murphy

A funeral Mass for Judith A. "Judy" (Wallen) Murphy of Quincy was celebrated Tuesday in Sacred Heart Church, North Quincy.

Mrs. Murphy died peacefully at home Nov. 8 surrounded by her loving family.

She was born in Boston, raised and educated in South Boston schools and was a graduate of the former Saint Augustine's High School in South Boston. She had lived in Quincy for 34 years.

Mrs. Murphy was a homemaker and was especially devoted to her family.

Beloved wife for 41 years of Lawrence J. Murphy.

Devoted mother of Lawrence James Murphy and Monica Mathe of Las Vegas, NV and Patricia A. Murphy of Quincy.

Loving daughter of the late Joseph P. and Margaret V. (Quinn) Wallen.

Dear sister of the late Joseph Wallen.

Sister-in-law of Frances E. Murphy of Newport Beach, CA.

Interment was in New Calvary Cemetery, Boston.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Mass. General Hospital's Colon Cancer Research Fund, c/o MGH Development Office, 165 Cambridge St., Suite 600, Boston, MA 02114.

DOLAN
FUNERAL SERVICES

"Caring for your life's journey"

- ◆ Funerals
- ◆ Cremations
- ◆ Pre-Arrangements

Service times and directions at:
www.dolanfuneral.com

THE DOLAN FAMILY
W. Craig
Paul F.
Frederick J.
Courtney

1140 WASHINGTON STREET
DORCHESTER, MA 02124
(617) 298-8011

460 GRANITE AVENUE
MILTON, MA 02186
(617) 698-6264

HAMEL FUNERAL CARE & CREMATION SERVICES OF MASSACHUSETTS

Honored Providers of:

Veterans
Funeral Care

PHONE TOLL FREE
(800) 696-5887

26 Adams Street, Quincy, Ma 02169
www.HamelFuneralCare.com

Honor Your Loved One's
Memory
With Flowers

cliffords.com
1.800.441.8884

SUN FUN PAGE

King Crossword

- ACROSS
- 1 Spinning toys
5 -relief
8 Help with a crime
12 Beehive State
13 Every last bit
14 Crooner Jerry
15 Use a teaspoon
16 Spy-novel org.
17 "... and to - good-night!"
18 Alaskan brown bear
20 "GWTW" hero
22 To the - degree
23 Trail behind
24 Spoof
27 Locales for snuffing
32 Commotion
33 Gun lobby grp.
34 Wrestling surface
35 Confined
38 Moist in the morn
- 39 A billion years
40 Prepare Easter eggs
42 Surprise attack
45 Chocolate-coated treat
49 "Buenos -"
50 Playwright Levin
52 Corn territory
53 Lobs' paths
54 Book spine abbr.
55 Blueprint additions
56 Create
57 Conger, e.g.
58 T, in Morse code
- DOWN
- 1 Walrus feature
2 "Beetle Bailey" dog
3 Remunerated
4 Psychiatrist
5 Tennis stroke
6 "The Greatest"
7 Thick chunk
8 Computer user's icon
9 Situation
10 Model
- 11 Rend
19 What @ means
21 Last (Abbr.)
24 Jongg
25 Praise in verse
26 Retort
28 - Lanka
29 Court pastime
30 Deviate off course
31 Pigpen
36 Fluffy dessert
37 Type units
38 Just said no
41 Rocky's greeting
42 Leading man?
43 Actress Sorvino
44 Apiary home
46 Gaucho's weapon
47 Temple University team
48 Humorous poet gden
51 Fish eggs

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Wishing Well®

2 4 3 2 6 2 5 4 2 5 8 6 5
F A S R J I J N E O S O Y
4 2 8 7 4 8 4 8 5 6 5 2 7
E N W S W I F T F Y R D W
2 5 7 3 7 3 4 8 6 5 3 2 7
L O E O E L R C F M I Y T
2 6 4 5 3 2 3 2 4 8 2 8 3
C U I H T R U I E H T I D
8 4 8 2 7 2 7 4 8 3 6 8 7
N N G I S C U D S E L T C
2 6 8 3 8 3 6 2 5 2 5 8 6
I D R I A S A S U M M T Y
3 8 5 8 3 7 8 3 7 3 7 5 7
O E O G K C Y A E Y S R S

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved

HOCUS-FOCUS

BY HENRY BOLTINOFF

HOCUS-FOCUS

FIND AT LEAST 6 DIFFERENCES BETWEEN PANELS.
Differences: 1. Bead strand is missing. 2. Hair is shorter. 3. Sign is missing. 4. Bow is missing. 5. Cap is different. 6. Ornament is different.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Trivia test

by Fifi Rodriguez

- TELEVISION: In the "X-Files" TV drama series, what was the phrase on the UFO poster in Fox Mulder's office?
- MOVIES: What did Bruce Willis' character do for a living in "Die Hard"?
- BUSINESS: What is the name of Nike's logo that appears on its sports merchandise?
- U.S. GOVERNMENT: Where is the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention located?
- LANGUAGE: What is a fen?
- SCIENCE: What is the botanist Carolus Linnaeus famous for?
- HISTORY: What did the Edict of Nantes do for the

- French in 1598?
- GEOGRAPHY: Where is the island of Bonaire located?
 - ASTRONOMY: What are the Perseids?
 - PSYCHOLOGY: What kind of fear is represented in thanatophobia?

- Answers
- "I Want to Believe"
 - Police officer
 - Swoosh
 - Atlanta
 - Bog
 - Creating a classification system for plants
 - Promised French Protestants the same rights as French Catholics
 - The Caribbean, just north of Venezuela
 - A meteor shower most visible in August
 - Fear of death

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

ON THE EDGE

MAGIC MAZE

U Q M J F B Y U R O K H D A X
U Q N K H E B Y V S P M J H E
B Y V Y T Q O L I B G D B Y W
T R P M R K I F D O B B Y W U
H S Q O M E K I S U G F D B Z
E C X W U S H Q M N N O N L B
J R A M H F D P I D I B C O M
A Y O E W V E L I A C G R I T
S Q P H B R I N K R N D R U N
L K I H S A F E C Y E T B A C
Z Y W V R E G N I R F P I L M

Find the listed words in the diagram. They run in all directions - forward, backward, up, down and diagonally.

Beach	Bumpers	Lip	Rim
Border	Curb	Margins	Shore
Boundary	Fencing	Periphery	Trim
Brink	Fringe	Railing

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your work on a recent job assignment is impressive and is sure to be noticed. Meanwhile, expect to receive news about an upcoming holiday event you won't want to miss.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Saving the world one person at a time is what you were born to do. So accept it when people ask you for help, especially during the holiday season.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Now that you've resolved all doubts about an important decision, you can surprise a lot of people by defending your stand with your strong and well-reasoned arguments.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) The holiday mood stirs your need to nurture everyone from the family cat to great-grandma. But don't overdo it, especially with teens, who like to feel grown up.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Enjoy basking in the warm love of family and close friends. But don't fall into a prolonged catnap yet. There's still much to do before you can put up your paws and relax.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Avoid pushing others to work as hard as you do on a common project. Instead, encourage them to do their best, and they might well reward you with a pleasant surprise.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Like the sensible Libra you are, you no doubt started your holiday shopping already. But be careful to keep within your budget. Shop around for the best buys.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Love and friendship remain strong in your aspect over the next several days. This is a good time to develop new relationships and strengthen old ones.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A beloved family member has news that will brighten your holidays. Also expect to hear from friends who had long since moved out of your life.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Family and friends are in for a surprise when you accept the need to make a change without being talked into it. (Bet it surprised you, too -- didn't it?)

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Restoring an old friendship might not be as easy as you hoped. You might want to explore the reasons for your former buddy's reluctance to cooperate.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your party-going activities pick up as the holiday season takes off. Enjoy your plunge into the social swim as you make new friends and renew old friendships.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are caring and considerate -- two wonderful attributes that endear you to people of all ages.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

CryptoQuip

This is a simple substitution cipher in which each letter used stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Solution is accomplished by trial and error.

Clue: A equals D

TZ NLPHWLAX TN RHKYMTMO
SDH KYS LZ PLBMSKTM
IRTPWTMO, AL SDHX NSBAX
SDHTY IRTZZ MLSHN?

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

— King Crossword —
Answers
Solution time: 27 mins.

Magic Maze
ANSWERS:
— MASTER

Cryptoquip
ANSWER:
If somebody is learning the art of mountain climbing, do they study their cliff notes?

CLASSIFIEDS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-092
Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, November 27, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Jeffrey Hynes for an Appeal to appeal the determination of the Building Inspector for ZBA Case 11-048 in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 9.1.6 (appeals) on the premises numbered 205 ELM STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/8/12, 11/15/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-093
Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, November 27, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Eric Robertson for a Variance to enclose the front entrance from the weather in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 4.0 (dimensional) on the premises numbered 21 WAMPATUCK ROAD, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/8/12, 11/15/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-094
Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, November 27, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Gregory H. Seymourian for a Variance/Special permit Flood Plain to construct in a flood plain overlay district in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 4.0 (dimensional) and Chapter 8.1 (flood plain) on the premises numbered 154 RICE ROAD, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/8/12, 11/15/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-095
Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, November 27, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Cabot, Cabot & Forbes of New England for a Variance/Flood Plain to construct a 180 unit, 6-story residential building with parking garage in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 8.4.2 (dimensional requirements for PUD), Chapter 8.4.3 (off street parking) and Chapter 8.1.9 (flood plain special permit) on the premises numbered PENN STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/8/12, 11/15/12, 11/21/12

QUINCY SUN NEWSCARRIERS WANTED

Here's a chance to earn extra money by building a Quincy Sun home delivery route.

Telephone
617-471-3100

INVITATION TO BID

CITY OF QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS
Department of Public Works
Thomas P. Koch
Mayor
Dennis E. Harrington
Director of Planning

INVITATION TO BID

The Department of Planning in the City of Quincy, Massachusetts is seeking sealed bids for VERIZON DUCT BANK RELOCATION PROJECT UTILITY IMPROVEMENTS until 11:00 AM local time Thursday, November 29, 2012, in the offices of The Purchasing Agent, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, Massachusetts 02169, at which time and place all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud.

The project consists of the construction of public utility infrastructure improvements including storm drainage and water utilities as shown on the Project Site Drawings, including, but not limited to utility relocations and adjustments, the installation of a box culvert to be capped for future use, and test pits in areas where the existing depths of utilities are assumed based on record information provided by the City of Quincy.

All work under this contract shall be completed within Sixty (60) calendar days.

Detailed specifications are available on-line at the City of Quincy's website, www.quincyma.gov and also available at the Office of the Purchasing Agent, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, Massachusetts, 02169, between the hours of 8:30 AM and 4:30 PM for a non-refundable printing charge of $50.00. Specifications will be available November 14, 2012.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a bid security in the amount of five percent (5%) of the total value of the bid in the form of a bid bond or certified/treasurer's check.

The bidding and award of this contract shall be in full compliance with Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 30, Section 39M, as last revised. All Federal, State and City of Quincy regulations in relation to Minority Business Enterprise, Women's Business Enterprise, Minority Work Force, Equal Employment Opportunity, Employment of Quincy Residents and subject to the minimum wage rates set under the Massachusetts Prevailing Wage Law Chapter 149; §26 to 27H and/or any applicable federal rates. The City reserves the right to waive any informality in or to reject any or all bids when such an action is deemed in the best interests of the City.

Non-responsive and/or unbalanced bids may be rejected.

Thomas P. Koch
Mayor
Dennis E. Harrington
Director of Planning and Urban Development

11/15/12

QUINCY ANIMAL SHELTER

56 Broad Street, Quincy • 617-376-1349
quincyanimalshelter.org

IN-SHELTER ADOPTION HOURS

TUESDAY and THURSDAYS 6:00 to 8:00 pm
FRIDAYS 4 - 6 pm SATURDAYS 10 am - 4 pm

Adoption fees include initial vaccinations and Spay/Neuter as needed. 100% volunteer run, new volunteers always needed.

FOR LOST or FOUND ANIMALS call ANIMAL CONTROL at 617-376-1364.

AVAILABLE DOGS *

SMOKEY: Young male gray pitbull.

FRANKIE: 1, pit bull mix.

JOSIE: young Pit mix.

CASPER: male white pit mix.

AVAILABLE CATS

ZIPPY: 3, female, tabby.

PRISCILLA: 10, female, calico.

GRACIE: 1, female, gray tabby..

ROXY: 4, female, black & white.

PRETTY GIRL: 3, female, orange & white.

MISTY: 2, female, gray.

CHLOE: 10, all black female.

HALLE: 2, female, black..

CENA: 3, female, gray tabby.

DOLLY: 8, female, tabby.

BROOKE: 10, female, tortoiseshell.

LADY GRAY: 2, female, gray.

PEACHES: 2, female, orange & white.

VIOLET: 3, female, tabby.

DIGSBY: 9, male, orange.

MRS.: 4, female, tabby.

MR. GREY: 2, male, grey & white.

WE HAVE KITTENS!!!!!!

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION
Docket No. NO12P2603EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200

Estate of:

John J Hogan Jr.

Date of Death:

September 15, 2012

To all interested persons:
A petition has been filed by: Ann Marie Cannon of Quincy, MA and Kathleen T Beatrice of Weymouth, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Ann Marie Cannon of Quincy, MA and Kathleen T Beatrice of Weymouth, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 12/05/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: October 31, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

11/15/12

ACUPUNCTURE

Acupuncture relieves stress, anxiety, pain and enhances fertility. It is worth a try!
Jane Stevens R.N., Lic. Acup.
617-319-2653

11/15

PERSONAL

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

11/15

art & soul
handcrafted jewelry from the earth and sea 617-610-0692
fsantoro@verizon.net

11/15

WANTED

OLD HAND TOOLS & BOOKS WANTED

Planes, chisels, adzes, shaves, machinist, and sheetmetal tools, calipers, clamps, anvils, vises.

USEFUL TOOLS, ALL TRADES.

New England history books
Collections: old postcards, toys, military, hunting and fishing items.

LIBERTY TOOL CO.

888-405-2007

Davistownmuseum.org
e-Store & antique sale! TF

Join the American Legion
Cyril P. Morrisette Post
81-83 Liberty St. Quincy
Call Jake Comer 617-285-1174
Welcome Your Membership

11/15

FOR SALE

Fire department memorabilia, military trunks and memorabilia, sports cards, autographs and memorabilia, antique street sign and many more great items.

508-221-1064

11/15

9'-0" BRIG HARD
BOTTOM INFLATABLE W/ S.H.P. TOHATSU O.B. MOTOR 781-843-8601

11/15

CLEANING SERVICES

DASILVA CLEANING SERVICES
Home & Office Cleaning
Professional, Affordable
Reliable & Trustworthy
Weekly or Bi-Weekly References
CALL Meiry 781-803-2922

12/27

SISTERS CLEANING
IF YOU NEED SOMEONE TO CLEAN YOUR HOUSE. WE DO HOUSES, APTS & OFFICES.
CALL NOW 978-587-2252

12/27

MISCELLANEOUS

MISCELLANEOUS
AIRLINES ARE HIRING-Train for hands on Aviation Career. FAA approved program. Financial aid if qualified-Job placement assistance. Call Aviation Institute of Maintenance 877-202-0386
ATTEND COLLEGE ONLINE from home. *Medical, *Business, *Criminal Justice, *Hospitality. Job placement assistance. Computer available. Financial Aid if qualified. SCHEV certified. Call 888-216-1791 www.CenturaOnline.com
SAWMILLS from only $3997-MAKE/SAVE MONEY with your own bandmill-Cut lumber any dimension. In stock ready to ship. FREE Info / DVD: www.NorwoodSawmills.com 1-800-578-1363 Ext.300N

SERVICES

SERVICES

SKIN CARE
FREE
FACIAL
individual or groups

MARY KAY
Celebrating 50 Years
Skincare for Women
Age 12 & Beyond

MICHELLE, Consultant
781-258-7564 TR

JUNK CARS
WANTED
(617) 481-6699
(508) 577-0073
11/21

Looking for a Blower to blow out in ground pool lines
617-347-4362 11/15

CLEAN-UPS

Russ DiBona & Son Landscaping, Inc.

Russ DiBona
President/CEO

Lawn Installation/Reseeding • Mulch
Bobcat Service • Walls • Walks • Patios
Spring/Fall Clean-Ups • Shrub Pruning
Snow Plowing, Sanding/Salting & Removal

Cell 617-429-4813 • Work 617-774-0480 russdibona1.com russdibona@hotmail.com 11/15

Shrub Trimming
Lawn Mowing
Cleanups
Mulching Seeding

Design Services
Garden Walls
Walkways
Plantings
Patios

617-504-0944
www.sequoiandscape.biz

11/22

We Have Been Providing Outstanding Personal Service To Our Clients Since 1994

- Entire Property Cleanups
- Gutter Cleaning
- Shrub Pruning/Removal
- Walkways/Retaining Wall Installation

Call Chris 617-778-8775
www.cmcguelandscape.com

Free Estimates Fully Insured

NO REFUND WILL BE MADE AT THIS CONTRACT RATE IN THE EVENT OF CANCELLATION.
DEADLINE: FRIDAY AT 4PM. PLEASE INCLUDE YOUR PHONE NUMBER IN AD.

NORTH QUINCY High School Girls' Cross Country Team, co-champs of the Fisher Division. Front row (from left): Grace Anderson, Amelia Ho, Samantha Feeney, Emily Zheng. Back Row (L-R) Julia Bryson, Emily Bryson, Mary Zheng, Danielle Mullaney, Siobhan Flynn, Lia Bonoli, Briana Mullaney and Marguerite Belcher. missing from photo Amanda Yao.

Photo Courtesy/Geoff Hennessy

NORTH QUINCY boy's cross country team. Bottom row (from left) Tommy Zang, Declan McGaffigan, Danny Tran, Nathan Donahue, Zhenya Buckley. Top row (L-R) Benny Chen, Andy Pham, Mike Mullaney, Matt Enos, Brandon Zheng.

Photo courtesy Norm Reynolds/Victory Photo.

Cross Country 9 Medals, 2 Plaques At State Invitational

Mike Mullaney and Emily Bryson continue to garner hardware with top three performances at the recent State Coaches Invitational at Wrentham, the site of the MIAA Eastern Mass Championships.

Mullaney placed a close third clocking 16:38 for the 5K course in the Division I sophomore race, and Emily Bryson took 2nd in the girls race with a 19:15. Julia Bryson was 9th and Marguerite Belcher was 49th.

Eight other Quincy runners got into the awards act with medals, which were given to places 4 through 50 in each race. Top three finishers got plaques. On the day, 3000 runners competed. In Junior-Senior Boys, Quincy High's Brendan Cunningham placed 45th and in the girls, Danielle Mullaney was 11th. Peter Saccoach of QHS placed 9th in the freshman boys' race, and Victoria Deery (13th), Inaya Paul (15th), Maura Crump (24th) and LaQueen Arias (37th) all received prizes in freshman girls. All four girls are Quincy High students.

Two other athletes ran in their final meet of the season and turned in personal bests. Sam Feeney ran 25:06 in sophomore girls, and Matt Enos ran 13:33 in freshman boys.

"Sam and Matt are in the top seven kids on our squad for attendance. That's why they kept improving," said Coach Geoff Hennessy.

At last Saturday's MIAA Eastern Mass meet, Mike Mullaney, Peter Saccoach and Brendan Cunningham represented the boys. Emily and Julia Bryson, Danielle Mullaney, Victoria Deery, Maura Crump, Inaya Paul and LaQueen Arias represented the girls.

The top four teams in each division based on scoring of their top seven finishers, and the top ten finishers not on one of those four teams, advance to the All State Saturday at Mount Northfield.

Football Hall Of Fame Induction Banquet Nov. 20

The Quincy/North Quincy Football Hall of Fame will induct 15 new members at a banquet Tuesday, Nov. 20 at 7 p.m. at the Quincy Sons of Italy, Quarry Street.

The organization strives to recognize former players who, through their performance on and off the gridiron, impact today's Quincy and North Quincy football programs. The committee gives credence to candidates that strongly value preparation, determination, teamwork and dedication. The candidates selected demonstrated those values in the game of football and in life.

The inductees for Quincy are Rob Mowbray, Dan Morrell, Mike Notarangelo, Ally Slieman, and Mike Lorenzano. The special inductee is former city councillor and Norfolk County Dist. Atty. George Burke. The posthumous inductee is Kevin Moore.

Bernard Creedon, Dan Polvere, Neil Fisher, Joseph Mulvey, Keith Gott, and Frank McNamara are the inductees for North Quincy. Current Norfolk County Dist. Atty. Mike Morrissey is the special inductee and Justin Dilks the posthumous inductee.

In honor of the 80th Thanksgiving Day football game this year, both Quincy and North Quincy teams will be wearing commemorative jerseys to commend the 80-year-old rivalry.

The Presidents will sport white jerseys with blue numbers. The Red Raiders will wear black jerseys with white numbers. The front of the jerseys have a football with '80th Anniversary' inside it and 'Thanksgiving Day Football 1932-2012' underneath.

Replica jerseys are available for sale now. Jerseys are available in adult sizes from M to 2XL for $40 each. If you are interested, mail a check payable to Football Hall of Fame to Ron Ivil, 23 Grampian Way, Weymouth, MA 02188 or call 781-337-0062. Enclose your school preference, size, and desired number.

REAL BOSTON YOUTH ACADEMY PROGRAM

Winter soccer skills training and indoor league at Marina Bay Sportsplex for U7, U8 and U9s.

Players will learn the FUNdamental skills of the game. Our program focuses on decision making, creativity and individual ball skills.

Our league will provide competitive games and will be a great deal of fun.

The program includes 2 training sessions each week and games on Saturday.

Training Schedule: Monday and Wednesday from 5:30-6:30pm

Games Schedule: Saturdays between 12-3pm.

Season Duration: Begins January 7th (Monday) and ends March 9th (Saturday).

The Program: Our curriculum uses techniques proven to provide great results.

Coaching: The Academy coaches are uniquely selected for their enthusiasm, positive energy, focus on skill fundamentals, and ability to work with children.

Location: All training and games will take place at the new Marina Bay Sportsplex featuring the finest turf fields available.

Prior: The cost is only $150 for indoor league and skills training.

To Register: Go to realboston.com and click "Register Now" on the left of the home page. Registration will close on December 1st so register early to reserve your spot.

Questions: Contact Derek McCleary at dmcclary@verizon.net.

Deadline to register is December 1st!!

About Real Boston Youth Academy (RBSA):

RBSA is a Quincy based not-for-profit entity (FKA Hancock Strikers) dedicated to teaching the game of soccer and building a strong soccer culture. The club offers a wide range of services and provides training from ages 2-18. RBSA has competitive teams starting at u10 through u18 for boys and girls. If interested in joining one of our teams you can contact us at doc@realboston.com for a tryout.

DENTISTRY for the 21st Century

by Steven A. Brustin, D.M.D.

FACE-SAVING TREATMENT

There is nothing attractive about "bruxism" (tooth-grinding), beginning with the horrible noise it creates that resembles chewing on coconut shells. While this noise is usually more of a problem for people sharing sleeping quarters with tooth-grinders, the loss of enamel and damaged tooth structure that bruxism can cause are occurrences with which tooth-grinders should be concerned. In fact, unless the problem is halted with the use of a custom-made nightguard provided by the dentist, bruxism can lead to facial changes that make the face look older. As tooth surfaces wear down and teeth become shorter, the upper and lower jaws (as well as the nose and chin) draw nearer. As a result, the lower face seems to prematurely age.

Could you benefit by wearing a night guard? Regular dental checkups and periodontal examinations are very important for good dental health. Brush, clean between your teeth, eat a balanced diet, and schedule regular dental visits for a lifetime of healthy smiles. We are dedicated to preserving your teeth and offering you the best care with the least amount of risk to your health. If you have oral health questions for yourself or a family member, please call 617-479-6220 to schedule an appointment. We're located at 44 Greenleaf Street. We offer the services of anesthesiology and a full trained and qualified anesthesiologist. Visit us on the web at www.quincydentist.com.

P.S. Many tooth-grinders have notches in the outer surfaces of their upper and lower bicuspids at the gum line resulting from the strong side-to-side chewing motion characteristic of bruxism.

QUINCY GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL tied for first in the Patriot League with a record of 18-5. Front row (from left): Nicole Jorgensen, Joanne Ruan, Gabby Zorkers, Emma Kelly, Courtney Ryan, Caroline McBride, Taylor Parry, Taylor Pecoraro. Back row: Michelle Connolly, Laura Donahue, Alyssa Dwyer, Devin McMahon, Anxhela Kapaj, Alyssa Dunbar and Rachel Papile.

NORTH QUINCY GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL finished the season with an 18-6 record and third place in the Patriot League. Front row (from left): Maya Umoren, Natasha Sautter, Carolyn Schwartz, Camille Mullaney, Emily Luc, Lauren Magoon, Gabrielle Flarehty, Shannon Callaghan. Back row: Cindi Hazelton, Nancy Huang, Abby Mayo, Ivy Pham, Jane Minton, Lisa Wong, Elaine Chan, Angela Kou and Rose Bennett.

Quincy Sun Photos/Lisa Aimola

Bright Futures For Quincy, North Quincy Girls' Volleyball

Presidents Go Five Games Before Falling To KP

By BILL GRIFFIN

It is the cruelest part about life in the tournament. It is sports in the fast lane. A team is flying, the crowd is roaring, the adrenaline is pumping. The suddenly, in an instant, it is finished.

Quincy's volleyball team learned this hard truth last week. King Philip used an aggressive service game to overcome a brilliant performance from Quincy's Gabby Zorkers and edge the Presidents, 3-2 in a thrilling match in the semifinals of the Division 1 South-Central Tournament.

The scores of the games were 25-19, 17-25, 25-23, 17-25, and 15-10.

"It does end quickly, but that's what it is all about," said coach Jacqui Niosi. "I thought we played a great match, and when you can walk off the court knowing you played well with your full effort, it makes a difference. We didn't leave anything out there tonight."

Zorkers, a junior who excelled all over the floor, had 10 kills and four aces. She led a charge from the front line which rallied Quincy in games 2, 3, and 4. She showed power and touch at the net. She served hard line drives. She blocked, passed and covered the court with her hustle.

"Gabby was great," said Niosi. "She swung aggressively all night and when they went up to block her, she adjusted."

After King Philip's Miranda Murphy served out the final eight points to give her team the first set, Quincy looked to its front line and it brought the Presidents back in the match. Not only did the Presidents show strength at the net, they showed touch. Time and again Zorkers, Rachel Papile, Alysha Dunbar and freshman Nicole Jorgensen found the open space for well-placed soft shots. It was finesse as much as it was power.

"They were giving us the tips so we took them. In the third game, they adjusted and we went back to swinging hard," said Niosi.

Quincy rolled to an eight-point win in the second game and built a 23-19 lead in the third. The reason was the skill and teamwork up front. Dunbar had 11 kills while Papile had eight. Jorgensen had seven kills and nine blocks while junior setter

Courtney Ryan orchestrated it all with 38 assists. Senior Maryssa Dwyer added solid play from the backline with 10 digs and four aces.

"We did a good job being aggressive getting the ball to our front line and they brought us back in the match," said Niosi.

The Presidents led 23-19 in the third and were on the threshold of a 2-1 lead when Murphy once again took over the match with her serve and KP ran the last five points for a 25-23 decision.

"They are very aggressive with their serves and they don't make many errors. I saw them previously and I knew they would be tough," said Niosi.

A lesser team might have been finished here, but the Presidents roared back behind Zorkers and Dwyer for a 25-17 romp in the fourth

Cont'd On Page 34

Red Raiders Bow To Top-Seeded Newton North

By BILL GRIFFIN

It was a season which ended in the sectional semifinals, but it was one which carried on the proud tradition of North Quincy volleyball and offered the promise of a bright future.

"I can't say enough about the leadership of our seniors," said coach Kerry Ginty whose club finished the season with an 18-6 record and a third-place finish in the Patriot League. "They were great on the court, but also in practice and in the classroom as well. They were what North Quincy volleyball is all about."

The Red Raiders reached the sectional semifinals for the fifth straight year before falling to top-seeded Newton North. Senior captain Rose Bennett had a terrific game with 14 digs and two aces. Senior Emily Luc played well in the back row with six digs. Junior Carolyn Schwartz had two solo blocks and five assists. Junior Maya Umoren had two kills while Lauren Magoon used placement and cleverness to earn four kills against the tough Newton defense.

"Lauren just placed the ball in the perfect spots," said Ginty.

North loses five seniors from this year's team: Bennett, Luc, Shannon Callahan, Elaine Chan, and Lisa Wong. Bennett, a four-year starter, is a high jumper for the track team and an excellent athlete. She was an all-court standout for the Red Raiders with her hitting in the front row and solid defense which she turned into offense with accurate passing.

"She was all over the court for us," Ginty. "I can't

Cont'd On Page 34

Registration for the 2013 Season QUINCY LACROSSE Boys & Girls Registration Spring 2013 Season

Registration: Saturday, November 17, 2012

Time: 9 am - 12:30 pm

Where: Quincy Youth Arena, Upstairs

Murphy Memorial Drive (off Sea St)

Grades 1 & 2 - $75 - Instructional Friday Nights

Grades 3 & 4 - $150 - Sunday Games - mid week practice

Grades 5 & 6 - $200 - Sunday Games - mid week practice(s)

Grades 7 & 8 - $200 - Sunday Games - mid week practices(s)
$25 Sibling discount.

If you or anyone you know would be interested in coaching one of the teams, please contact us.

Please visit our website:

www.quincylax.com for further information.

Member of: Mass Bay Youth Lacrosse League
Mass Bay Girls Lacrosse League

DANCE DANCE DANCE

Quincy Youth Softball/Baseball
Presents
"THE BATTERS BOX"

A Dance For Up To 400
6th, 7th, 8th Grade Children

FIRST CHURCH OF SQUANTUM
164 Bellevue Road

$12 tickets sold at the door
Saturday, November 17th, 2012
7:00pm-10:00pm

GRANITE LOCK CO

SERVICE MOBILE
AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS

- DEADBOLTS INSTALLED
- LOCKS REKEYED
- DOOR CLOSERS
- PANIC HARDWARE
- AUTO KEYS FITTED

VISIT OUR SHOWROOM!
755 SO. ARTERY, QUINCY
472-2177

Quincy Downs S-L, 26-7

By BILL GRIFFIN

For more than two months, it was Quincy's offense which shook down the thunder from the skies, but Friday night against Silver Lake the defense and special teams made most of the noise.

Junior Meade and Jalen Green produced spectacular touchdowns on defense and special teams and Quincy broke open a close game with two late scores to stop Silver Lake, 26-7 in a Patriot League Keenan Division contest at Veterans Stadium.

"We came up big on defense and special teams," said Quincy coach Bill Reardon after his team upped its record to 6-4 and 3-1 in the Keenan Division, good enough to clinch second place behind unbeaten Duxbury. Quincy has now scored 276 points in 10 games good for a 27.6 average. The Presidents face North Quincy on Thanksgiving.

"We may give up yardage on defense," Reardon continued, "but we seem able to make the play when we need it, and that's what happened tonight."

Late in the first period with Silver Lake driving deep into Quincy territory, Meade, a senior linebacker, made a one-hand scoop of a fumble on the dead run at his 20, stepped out of a tackle at the 30 and outraced the Lakers' defense for an 80-yard score and a 6-0 lead.

"I'll have to watch the tape to see exactly what happened," said Reardon. "But he did outrun the entire team. He'll never let us hear the end of it."

On the second play of the second quarter, the electric Green took a punt at his own 30. He cruised through the middle, set up his blockers well, exploded through a tiny crease and flew in untouched for the touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

"He has an uncanny ability to hit a seam and accelerate immediately," said Reardon.

Silver Lake (0-9) drew within 14-7 before the half on a nine-yard run by Matthew Pinnetti, and it was very much a slim one-touchdown lead until midway through the fourth. The defense preserved it. The Presidents forced four turnovers. When the Lakers threatened in the second half, senior linebacker Peter Cedrone, who was terrific throughout the game, and senior defensive back Viet Doan made the plays which kept the lead.

"Cedrone was just fantastic. I don't know how many tackles he had, but it was a lot. Doan has a nose for the ball," said Reardon. Matt Hines, Matt Kozlowski, Gerson Lai, Tim Nazzaro and Meade all played strong defensive games for the Presidents.

Silver Lake punched it to the Quincy 15 on the opening possession of the second half, but Cedrone sacked quarterback Daniel Finn on second down and pressured him into a hasty incompletion on fourth to end the threat. Minutes later, the Lakers were back at the Quincy 27 when Doan picked off his second interception of the night at the 10 and returned it 47 yards to the Silver Lake 43.

"Those were two plays we needed on defense because Silver Lake played a great game," said Reardon.

The Presidents finally put it away in the fourth. After Green converted on a 10-yard draw play on fourth-and-four from the Silver Lake 40, sophomore quarterback James Lam (three carries, 46 yards in the fourth period) scrambled through a huge gap in the center of the field for a 25-yard scoring romp and a 20-7 lead.

"He did that on his own. It wasn't a called play," said Reardon.

Silver Lake did a decent job keying on Green through three periods, but Quincy's gifted back broke out for 73 yards on eight carries in the fourth good for 129 yards on 24 tries for the game which cracked the 1,400-yard mark for the season. He blasted in from 23 yards out in the final minute to give Quincy the 26-7 decision.

"All credit to Silver Lake. They got leverage and played great defense, but Jalen just needs a very little crack, and he's gone," said Reardon.

Dick Lombardi Inducted Into Eastern Mass. Babe Ruth Hall Of Fame

Former Quincy Babe Ruth President and Coach Dick Lombardi was recently inducted into the Eastern Mass. Babe Ruth Hall of Fame.

Eastern Mass. Commissioner Mark Matanes presented Lombardi with a plaque at the annual New England Regional Meeting held recently at the Embassy Suites in Marlboro.

Lombardi coached in Quincy Babe Ruth for 23 years and served as president for 18 years. During his tenure, Quincy hosted nine state tournaments, five regional tournaments and three World Series (2003, 2005 and 2008) where teams from all over the U.S. and Italy came to Quincy to participate.

"To all the people who volunteered to make these tournaments as successful as they were, I want to thank all of you," Lombardi said.

DICK LOMBARDI (left) receives his Hall of Fame Plaque from Babe Ruth Eastern Mass. Commissioner Mark Matanes.

Presidents Go Five Games Before Falling To KP

Cont'd From Page 33

game before KP took the first three points of the fifth off its serve en route to the decisive 15-10 victory.

"After the third set, we just talked about the basics. We talked about trusting ourselves, trusting each other, and just playing one point at a time," said Nioisi.

There were tears when it was over, but it had been a splendid season. Quincy finished at 18-5. There were two wins in the Holy War with North Quincy, quality victories over Duxbury and Brockton, and fine matches against powerful Pembroke. Looking back, the memories will be good ones.

"We tied for first in our league (Patriot) and I was very happy with the season. We had to blend in a lot of players who didn't have varsity experience and the young kids developed well," said Nioisi.

Dunbar (three-year starter), Laura Donahue (two-year starter) Michelle Connolly (a great night serving), Dwyer, Devin McMahon, and Anxhela Kapaj are graduating seniors. Nioisi is proud of their contributions.

"Their leadership was excellent especially with a younger team. They were role models," she said.

Papile, Ryan, Zorkers, Jorgensen, and sophomore Emma Kelly lead a strong cast which will return for the Presidents next year.

"We have talent coming back, so hopefully, the future will be bright for us," said Nioisi.

Red Raiders Bow To Top-Seeded Newton North

Cont'd From Page 33

say enough about Emily and Lisa. They play with a hustle and attitude you can't teach."

North only had two players this year who had previously played varsity, and the game experience the Red Raiders gained was invaluable.

"I thought we put it all together and played tremendous volleyball towards the end of the season. There's no substitute for experience on the varsity level," added Ginty.

The Red Raiders return a fistful of talent. Umoren, who will be a four-year starter, is a powerful force at the net and Magoon has shown fine touch up front. Abby Mayo is another effective hitter. Ivy Pham and Nancy Huang played solid defense. Schwartz returns on the front line. North also developed two excellent setters in Cindi Hazelton and Angela Kou. There is a solid core for the Red Raiders.

"The setters are very important because they quarterback your team. Cindi and Angela got experience and are two good ones," said Ginty. "We should have a good team, but it all depends on the off-season, how much volleyball the kids play and how hard they work."

There were fine moments for North. There was an excellent early win over Marshfield, two high-intensity showdowns with Quincy, and five-game decisions over two quality opponents, Duxbury and Fontbonne, late in the season.

"We finished well and next season depends on how much we can build off it," said Ginty.

THANK YOU 2012 STORM VOLUNTEERS

Storm Youth Football & Cheerleading, Inc. - www.thestorm.us

Board of Directors

Brandon Airosus, Fund Raising
Kathy Brodeur, Past Adult Cheer Leader
Marie Bronske, Treasurer & Canning
Jennifer Buckley, Adult Cheer Advisor
Debbie Dyer, Secretary, Adult Cheer Advisor
Michael Killilea, Head Football Coach
Nathan Knowles, Team Facebook Page
Cherie Manning, Vice President & Fund Raising
Bruce Marquis, President & Franchise Holder
Jim Mayo, Team Video
Tom Mayo, Recruitment
Diane O'Connor, Photography
Brendan Smith, Recruitment

Cheerleading

Adult Advisors: Debbie Dyer & Jen Buckley
Amanda Brodeur, Coach
Chealsie Brodeur, Coach
Bridget Campbell, Coach
Lily Keener, Coach
Emily McDonough, Coach
Erin McDonough, Coach

Football Coaching Staff

Michael Killilea, Head Coach
Steve Striffler, Assistant Head Coach
John McDonald, Conditioning & Speed Coach, Freshman Coach
George Klier, Varsity Assistant
Nathan Knowles, Varsity Assistant
Mike Foley, Freshman Head Coach
Dave Cramond, Freshman Assistant
Tom Duncan, Freshman Assistant

Flag Football

Bruce Marquis, Lead Coach
Cullen Quilty, Team Coach
Dennis Salfity, Team Coach
Joshua Dangora, Coach
Debbie Dyer, Parent Helper
Lisa Chin, Parent Helper
Elizabeth Salfity - Parent Helper

Other Volunteers

Annamarie Alvarado - Christine Carney - Lisa Chin - Michelle Corey - Mary Curran
Kim Dangora - Judy Downey - Colette Dumas - Scott Dyer - Michael Dyer
Eamonn Mayo - Ty Finn - Maureen Geary - Sandy Hovey - Andree Jaehrig
Kenny Manning - Liz Manning - Lucy Marquis - Ted Marquis - Maura Mayo
Sandra Mayo - Torie McKay - Suzanne Monahan - Barbara Moriarty - Kelly Norris
Rich O'Mahony - Mike O'Donovan - Nancy Salmanowich - Randy Salmanowich Peg Sands - Linda Smith - Linda Storch - Alison Striffler - Helen Veasey

Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers

- Quality, Reliable Service
- Over 100 Years of Satisfied Customers
- Honest Values
- On-Premise Repairs

52 Billings Road North Quincy

LEARN-TO-SKATE CLASSES

RECREATIONAL • FIGURE
HOCKEY SKATING SKILLS

BAY STATE SKATING SCHOOL

Non-Profit

CHILDREN (4 1/2 up) & ADULTS As Featured on "Chronicle"

NEW CLASSES START SOON!

QUINCY SHEA RINK

WEYMOUTH CONNELL RINK

Wed. 4PM Starts Nov. 21

Sun. 5PM Starts Dec. 2

Sun. 11 AM Starts Dec. 2

also at 10 other rink locations

781-890-8480

www.BayStateSkatingSchool.org

Elks Fight Off Panther Attack For 3rd Straight Title

Elks, Storm Girls Win Cheerleading Titles

By SEAN HALPIN

The Quincy Youth Football League closed the books on its 62nd Season Nov. 3 in grand fashion.

In the afternoon, the League hosted its first ever Cheerleading Competition in front of packed crowd. The competition featured cheerleading squads on every level from all teams of the QYFL.

The Quincy Point Panther Girls took home the title for the freshman level. The competition in this event was extremely close on all levels.

The Squantum Storm Cheerleaders won the Junior Varsity level of the competition and the West Quincy Elks took home 1st place for the Varsity level.

The cheerleading competition was a huge success and all teams did very well. The competition was planned by QYFL Cheerleading Coordinator Nancy Peduzzi-McNulty. Judges for the event were members of the Quincy Militia cheerleading squad.

The finale of the afternoon was the 62nd Annual Quincy Youth Football League Championship Game between the West Quincy Elks (6-1) and the Quincy Point Panthers (5-1). Both teams entered the game very evenly matched as they battled for the QYFL's "Founders Cup" Trophy.

The Panthers franchise entered the ball game having won 19 QYFL titles in their 62-year existence. The Elks entered the game looking to win their third consecutive championship.

The Panthers won the coin toss and received the ball to start the game. The Panthers' offense drove the ball deep into Elks' territory, but, a combination of penalties and strong defense from the Elks forced the Panthers to turn the ball over on downs. The Elks took over on their own 21 yard line and star RB John Teixeira raced down the sideline for a 79-yard TD run on their first play from scrimmage. Teixeira rushed around the end for the conversion and the lead, 7-0.

The Panthers' offense followed suit on the next series, as QB Nick Mayberry connected with WR Brendan Jenner for a 66-yard TD pass. Jenner connected with WR Melvin Gonzales for the conversion pass, as the Panthers tied the game, 7-7.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Panthers squib kicked the ball and Ollie Santorelli recovered the kick on the Elks 32-yard line. The Panthers capitalized as QB

PANTHERS' WIDE RECEIVER Brendan Jenner (#5) breaks tackles as he races for the endzone on a 66-yard TD reception

Mayberry passed to Jenner on a 26-yard pass down to the 6 yard line. On the next play RB Domenic Coleman plowed in for a 6-yard TD run. Jenner rushed in for the conversion as the Panthers took the lead, 14-7 at the end of the first quarter.

Both defenses strengthened throughout the second quarter. Late in the quarter, Elks cornerback Ray Rodriguez got his 2nd interception of the day as he picked off a Panther pass on his own 10 yard line. On the next play, Panthers DB Joey Spano recovered an Elks fumble on the 3 yard line. RB Coleman rushed it in for the score as the Panthers extended their lead 20-7 at Halftime.

The Elks received the ball to start the second half, trailing the Panthers by 13 points. With some inspiration and wisdom from Coach Justin Thorley at halftime, The Elks mounted a long drive deep into panther territory. RB Teixeira capped off the drive with a 9-yard TD run. Teixeira pounded it up the middle for the conversion as the Elks closed in on the Panthers, 20-14.

On the ensuing series, The Panthers drove the ball deep into Elks' territory, but, star RB Domenic Coleman left the game with an injury. On the next play, the Panthers drive was halted as Elks DB Ray Rodriguez intercepted his third Pass of the day in the end zone and ran it out to the 2 yard line.

As the fourth quarter began, Elks RB Teixeira rushed for an 85-yard TD run to tie the game 20-20. The Elks would take the lead with the conversion, but Teixeira was knocked out of bounds short of the pylon by Panthers DB Jayo DaRosa.

On The next series, the Panthers drove the Ball

ELKS RUNNING BACK John Teixeira (#4) Races down the sideline and Panther Domenic Coleman (#30) closes in for the tackle as Elks Coach Justin Thorley look on.

down deep in to Elks territory, but, Elks DE Pat O'Callaghan intercepted Jenner's Pass on their own 19 yard line with 2:11 left to go in the game.

The Elks managed the clock well and drove the ball 61 yards down to the Panthers 30 yard line. With 48 second left to go, Elks RB Teixeira threw a 30-yard TD pass to Fullback Aaron Etienne. Teixeira added the conversion and the Elks took the lead, 27-20 over the Panthers.

The Panthers clawed at the Elks to the very end. With 26 second left, the Panthers had one shot at the end zone. Panther Coach Noel DiBona decided to use the classic "Swinging Gate" play in effort to win the game.

Panthers QB Mayberry completed the screen pass to Jenner. Jenner, running behind his 8 blockers in the formation, managed to break free across the field headed for the end zone. The Panthers hopes at victory where stopped when Elks Defensive Tackle Anthony Sances came out of nowhere and made a shoe-string tackle on Jenner near the 20 yard line.

Time expired and the Elks won their third straight QYFL Title and just like last season, they won it in dramatic fashion.

Panthers Coach Noel DiBona had some fine performances all season long his QYFL All-Stars: Coleman, Kevin Phu, Jenner, Melvin Gonzales, Josh Coughlin and Bryan Hanly. Also playing well was DaRosa, Mayberry, Joe Spano, Santorelli, Ronin Conteras, Ku-

DOMENIC COLEMAN (#30) picks up some yardage for the Panthers as the Elks' Aaron Etienne (#48) closes in for the tackle.

Photos Courtesy Diane O'Connor

CHEERLEADER CHAMPS - The West Quincy Elks Cheerleaders won the varsity level in the Quincy Youth Football League cheerleading competition. Raising the trophy are (from left) co-captain Colleen O'Callaghan, co-captain Vanessa Landarerde and co-captain Camryn Pittman.

Photo Courtesy Kelly Stanton

starts and JV player moving up next season. Look for the Elks to make another title run next season.

"I am very pleased with this fine ending of another successful season of youth football in Quincy," said QYFL President Paul Doherty.

"From the Cheerleading Competition earlier in the afternoon, the QYFL All-Stars and Awards presentation before kickoff to the exciting Championship Game decided in the closing seconds.

"This was a great finale for the 2012 QYFL season. I thank all players, cheerleaders, coaches, managers, volunteers and fans that made it possible."

VOICE FOR HEALTH

by Dr. Gabrielle Freedman
Chiropractor

SNOWBOARDING CAUTION

Not only has snowboarding become an Olympic sport, it is also more likely to cause injury than the more traditional winter sport of skiing. So says a study from a winter ski resort, where snowboarders were found to become injured slightly more than skiers. Among both skiers and snowboarders, injuries were most likely to occur among the younger, less experienced winter enthusiasts. One in five of all snowboarding injuries in adults and nearly two in five in children were wrist sprains and breaks, which were generally the result of falling forward. Fractured collar bones and concussions each accounted for about 4% of the injuries in adult snowboarders and 5% of juvenile snowboarders. Skiers were more likely to injure knee ligaments.

Do you snowboard? Today's column has been brought to you by FAMILY PRACTICE OF CHIROPRACTIC. We focus on the important relationship between the spine and the millions of nerves contained in the spinal cord. We're located at 112 McGrath Hwy., Quincy, where a broad range of in-office equipment and services help us meet our patients' individual needs and bring them maximum relief from their discomfort. Please call 617.472.4220 to schedule an appointment. We offer computerized spinal scans. We are able to adjust patients sitting, standing, or lying down to accommodate any level of discomfort. If your problem is a chiropractic condition we offer you exceptional service. P.S. In the case of both skiing and snowboarding injuries, proper fit and use of equipment as well as good technique were cited as means of avoiding injury on the slopes.

www.freedmanchiro.com

2 LARGE CHEESE PIZZAS

TOPPINGS EXTRA

*Must present Coupon at time of Order
*Must Mention Coupon When Ordering

$15.99*

$2.00 OFF*

ANY ORDER OF $18 OR MORE CASH ONLY

*Cannot Be Combined With Any Other Coupon or Offer
*Must Mention Coupon When Ordering

OPEN: 7 Days
525 Sea St., Quincy
617-479-2300

MAYOR TOM KOCH speaks at the ribbon-cutting ceremony marking the official opening of the new playground at Quincy Catholic Academy. With him is QCA Principal Cameron.

QUINCY CATHOLIC ACADEMY Fourth Grader Matthew Dolbec assists in cutting the ribbon celebrating the school's new playground.
Photos Courtesy Quincy Catholic Academy

Quincy Catholic Academy Opens New Playground

Quincy Catholic Academy (QCA) recently held a ribbon-cutting ceremony to officially open its new playground.

Quincy Mayor Thomas Koch, QCA Board Members, and Quincy Parish Priests joined Principal Cathy Cameron and students to celebrate this momentous event.

QCA's new playground is designed to target specific muscle groups to improve physical fitness and balance. "This new playground helps us to develop in two ways: physically and socially, which is fundamental for our students," said Principal Cameron. "We are grateful to all who worked on and contributed to this important project." When asked what they thought of their new playground, students replied in unison, "It's awesome!"

Training Resources of America, Inc. (TRA) has recently been funded by the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education to bring a new evening Adult Basic Education (ABE) / GED

Established in 2010, Quincy Catholic Academy is a Roman Catholic School enrolling students in Pre-

Kindergarten (starting at age 3) through Grade Eight.

FREE Adult Basic Education / GED Prep Classes

Preparation program to the Quincy area.

The program is available at no charge to residents of the South Shore aged 16 and over who wish to increase their reading, writing, math, and work readiness skills and prepare for their GED. Staff will also help students transition to skills training, college and employment opportunities. Classes run Tuesday and Thursdays from 5 to 8:30 p.m.

For more information, call 617-773-1470 or visit Training Resources of America, Inc., 1458 Hancock Street, Suite 304, Quincy, on Tuesday and Thursday nights from 5 to 7 p.m.

The City of Quincy Presents....

Light up the Holidays in Quincy

Fun events to kick off the holiday season!

FREE FAMILY FUN!

Holiday Festivities & Tree Lighting

Friday, November 23, 2012 | 5pm-7:30pm

City Hall Plaza (Tents in front of City Hall) 1305 Hancock Street

Spend the evening getting in the holiday spirit!

Ongoing Activities from 5:00-6:30pm

- "Hands on" crafts/activities for the kids including ornament making and letter writing to Santa
- Strolling Victorian Carolers and Costumed Characters
- Ginger Betty's Bakery Gingerbread House Decorating Contest
- FREE Popcorn and Hot Chocolate

Scheduled Activities

5:15-5:45pm Donna Marie Children's Puppet Show
Costumed characters introduced with Special Guest!

6:00pm Mayor Thomas P. Koch turns on the lights followed by a performance from the Quincy Choral Society!

6:15-7:15pm Performances by Quincy's own dance studios: Center Stage, InSync, Lisa's Dance Studio and Velocity.

Friday Night Festivities
co-sponsored by:

www.thequincychamber.com

Don't forget to mail your letter to Santa

Santa's Mail Box

Letters to Santa can be placed in "Santa's Mail Box" in City Hall Plaza! Write your letter during the Holiday Festivities on Friday, Nov. 23 and drop it in the mailbox before the Tree Lighting!

Santa's Arrival by Parachute

Saturday, November 24, 2012 | 12:30pm

This event takes place at Pageant Field, One Merrymount Parkway, up the road from Adams Field.

60th Annual Christmas Parade

Sunday, November 25, 2012 | 12:30pm-3:00pm

The 60th Annual Quincy Christmas Parade will be held on Sunday, November 25th, 2012. The parade route begins at the intersection of Hancock Street and the Walter J. Hannon Parkway, continuing up Hancock Street to North Quincy. The rain date is scheduled for Sunday, December 2nd, 2012.

Sponsored by:

Stop & Shop

www.quincyma.gov

Santa's Parachute Arrival A Quincy Tradition

Page 36

'First Lap' Marks New Track Opening

Page 20

69
THOMAS CRAN PUBLIC LIBRARY
PO BOX 699164
QUINCY MA 02269-9164

The Quincy Sun

Historic Quincy's Hometown Weekly Newspaper Since 1968

VOL. 45 No. 10

Wednesday, November 21, 2012

75c

10 A.M. Kickoff At Veterans' Memorial Stadium

North, Quincy Set For THE GAME

Special Thanksgiving Pre-Game Section Pages 29 - 35

North Quincy High School Red Raiders

THE RED RAIDERS - Front row from left: Mekhi Pearson, Cole Barrett, Pat Gavin, Kevin Pappadopolous, Matt Deagle, Head Coach Jim Connor, Andrew Minton, Essien Benjamin, Shane Ceurvals, Zack McLaren. Second row: Tom Phu, Seamus Pound, Chris Clare, Antoine Allen, Eddie Guinto, Matt Donovan, Kelvin Barrows, Shawn Thomas, Kaylah Silva. Third row: Andrew Kiley, Vinny Tran, Don Sharp, Joe Gaglione, Nicholas Manning, Erick Cohane Jones, Erico Rosa. Fourth row: Fred Barsamian, Anthony Capone, Marcello Toscanini, Zack Dangora, Dayvon Jones, Sean Farnam and Pierre St. Marc. Back row: Clint Galac, Cornelius Koch, Will Bronski, Dominic DiPalmo and Freddie Flynn.

Quincy High School Presidents

THE PRESIDENTS (from left to right) front row: Matt Roach, Anthony McShane, Shane Nazzaro, Rich Turpin (Captain), Head Coach Bill Reardon, Mike Nurmi, Alex Heffernan, Tim Nazzaro, Chris Blom, and Katura Simmonds. Second row: Junior Meade, Gerson Lai, Ali Al-Jubori, Max Joseph, Jalen Green, Andrew Schaaf (Captain), Peter Cedrone (Captain), Viet Doan, Jackson Lam, Mark Solander, Cameron Willard, Paul Nigro. Third row: Andy Johnson, Andrew Cook, Gavin O'Hare, Tim McDonald, Conroy Hawthorne, Chris Bock, Reda Laftih, Lakuan Mason, John Crump. Fourth row: Mike Fitzpatrick, James Lam, Ryan Hughes, Matt Kozlowski, Jalen Chase, Matt Hines, James Askins. Fifth row: John Grasselli, Jake Bergonzi, Rob Munroe, Alex Alexandre, Stiven Kodra, Pat Sullivan. Sixth row: Jon Gallagher, Andy Lau, William Young, Steve Scolaro, Kenny Garcia, Nick Fahey, Abraham Hoti, Ryan Turpin. Back row: Coaches Mike Lorenzano, Chris Sullivan, Mark Randall, Dan Morrell, John Green and Kevin Carey.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

'Light Up The Holidays' Friday - Page 2 - 60th Christmas Parade Sunday - Page 3

LIGHT UP THE HOLIDAYS festivities Friday night will include dance performances by several local dance schools, including Center Stage shown here performing last year.

STROLLING VICTORIAN CAROLLERS will also be a part of the entertainment at the City of Quincy's "Light Up the Holidays" event Friday night outside at McIntyre Mall.

Turning On Lights, Puppet Show, Dance Performances, Gingerbread House Decorating, Caroling 'Light Up The Holidays' Friday Night At City Hall

The City of Quincy will sponsor "Light Up the Holidays" – a night of free family fun – Friday, Nov. 23rd from 5 to 7:30 p.m. at McIntyre Mall near City Hall.

Last year's event drew over 500 attendees and this year the festivities have moved outside to accommodate a larger crowd. There will be a large performance tent set up on McIntyre Mall and smaller tents will be located along the walkway for different activities.

In addition, strolling Victorian Carolers and Costumed Characters will be on hand to further enhance the festive atmosphere.

The main event is the turning on of the Christmas Tree and City Lights, which will occur earlier in the evening than in years past.

"Mayor Thomas Koch wanted the tree lit earlier so that families with young children could enjoy the evening and not be concerned about the time," said Chris Walker, spokesperson for the Mayor.

The festivities begin on Friday, Nov. 23 at 5:15 p.m. with the popular Donna Marie Children's Puppet Show, followed by the lighting of the tree at 6 p.m. and dance performances starting at 6:15 p.m.

From 5 to 6:30 p.m., free ongoing activities include:

- Ornament decorating and letter writing to Santa
- Strolling Victorian Carolers and Costumed Carolers
- Ginger Betty's Bakery Gingerbread House Decorating Contest

- Free popcorn and hot chocolate.

Scheduled Activities:

- 5:15 to 5:45 p.m.: Donna Marie Children's Puppet Show Program
- Costumed characters introduced with a special guest!
- 6 p.m. - Mayor Thomas P. Koch turns on the lights followed by a performance by the Quincy Choral Society.

• 6:15 to 7:15 p.m. - Local dance school performances (Center Stage Performing Arts Center, In Sync Center for the Arts, Lisa's Dance Studio, Velocity Dance.)

The Friday Night activities are co-sponsored by the Quincy Chamber of Commerce and Discover Quincy.

The City of Quincy Presents....

Light up the Holidays in Quincy

Fun events to kick off the holiday season!

FREE FAMILY FUN!

Holiday Festivities & Tree Lighting

Friday, November 23, 2012 | 5pm-7:30pm

City Hall Plaza (Tents in front of City Hall) 1305 Hancock Street

Spend the evening getting in the holiday spirit!

Ongoing Activities from 5:00-6:30pm

- "Hands on" crafts/activities for the kids including ornament making and letter writing to Santa
- Strolling Victorian Carolers and Costumed Characters
- Ginger Betty's Bakery Gingerbread House Decorating Contest
- FREE Popcorn and Hot Chocolate

Scheduled Activities

- 5:15-5:45pm Donna Marie Children's Puppet Show Costumed characters introduced with Special Guest!
- 6:00pm Mayor Thomas P. Koch turns on the lights followed by a performance from the Quincy Choral Society!
- 6:15-7:15pm Performances by Quincy's own dance studios: Center Stage, InSync, Lisa's Dance Studio and Velocity.

Friday Night Festivities co-sponsored by:

www.thequincychamber.com

Don't forget to mail your letter to Santa

Santa's Mail Box

Letters to Santa can be placed in "Santa's Mail Box" in City Hall Plaza! Write your letter during the Holiday Festivities on Friday, Nov. 23 and drop it in the mailbox before the Tree Lighting!

Santa's Arrival by Parachute

Saturday, November 24, 2012 | 12:30pm

This event takes place at Pageant Field, One Merrymount Parkway, up the road from Adams Field.

60th Annual Christmas Parade

Sunday, November 25, 2012 | 12:30pm-3:00pm

The 60th Annual Quincy Christmas Parade will be held on Sunday, November 25th, 2012. The parade route begins at the intersection of Hancock Street and the Walter J. Hannon Parkway, continuing up Hancock Street to North Quincy. The rain date is scheduled for Sunday, December 2nd, 2012.

Sponsored by:

www.quincyma.gov

SANTA CLAUS will again be one of the main attractions in Sunday's 60th annual Quincy Christmas Parade. Here Mr. Claus waves to parade goers on Hancock Street in Quincy Center from the back of a Quincy fire truck during last year's parade.

HALLAMORE CLYDESDALES — a perennial parade favorite — will be among the 100 units in Sunday's 60th annual Quincy Christmas Parade.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Noble

60th Annual Quincy Christmas Parade Sunday

The 60th annual Quincy Christmas Parade steps off Sunday at 12:30 p.m. featuring some 100 bands, speciality and floats decorated with the theme "My Favorite Christmas Movie."

"We are a community of great traditions, none more special than the Christmas Parade," said Mayor Thomas Koch.

"It is a truly wonderful weekend for the City and for all of our families. That we are celebrating our 60th anniversary is a great testament to all of the volunteers who have made it happen over the years and the special place the event holds for generations of Quincy families."

Stop & Shop Supermarket, its New England Division headquartered in Quincy, this year offered to become the event's major corporate sponsor, making the largest single contribution in the parade's history of $30,000.

Tens of thousands spectators are expected for the weekend full of events, which kick off the Friday following Thanksgiving, Nov. 23, with the ceremonial turning on of the Christmas lights in Quincy Center at 6 p.m., with arts and crafts, strolling Victorian carolers, a Ginger Bread House decorating contest and other activities around City Hall beginning at 5 p.m.

Santa's Mailbox will be placed in front of the Granite Ball at City Hall on Friday as well, and will be open for kids to drop off their letters to Santa throughout the season.

On Saturday, Nov. 24, Santa and his elves arrive via parachute at Pageant Field at around 12:30 p.m.

On Sunday, Nov. 25, the 60th annual Christmas Parade steps off at 12:30 p.m. at the intersection of Hancock Street and the Hannon Parkway in Quincy Center. Parade goers should note this is a new starting point and has been moved one block north from the intersection of Elm, School and Hancock Streets.

The rest of the route has not changed. It will continue up Hancock Street to North Quincy High School.

The theme of this year's parade is "My Favorite Christmas Movie." The

Cont'd On Page 12

Marines To Collect 'Toys For Tots' During Parade

U.S. Marines will continue the tradition of collecting "Toys for Tots" along the Quincy Christmas Parade route Sunday, Nov. 25 which begins at 12:30 p.m.

The custom of collecting the distributing toys for needy children began on a nation-wide basis 60 years ago.

On Sunday, local Marine reservists will walk along the approximate 3-mile parade route placing toys in the vehicles provided.

In the Quincy area, the Toys for Tots program is directed by the 1st Battalion, 25th Marines with the cooperation of civilians and former Marines.

To donate to the Toys for Tots program, the public is invited to bring new, unwrapped, non-violent toys to the parade where they will be picked up by the Marines and placed in trucks passing along the three-mile Hancock Street parade route.

The Quincy Christmas

Festival Committee members, organizers of the 60th Quincy Christmas Parade are hopeful this year's spectators will show the same "Semper Fidelis" spirit that they have shown in the past, playing a role to the continuing success of this Marine's Toys for Tots program.

JOAN'S OLYMPIC GYM GYMNASTICS & DANCE SCHOOL

AGES 2 - ADULT

NOW ACCEPTING
REGISTRATIONS!

781-843-9624

"An Excellent Education
Environment For Your Child"

197 Quincy Avenue, Braintree • www.joansolympicgym.com

PAYING TOP DOLLAR for your unwanted jewelry!

APPRAISING,
BUYING &
SELLING...

Del Greco Coins

399 WASHINGTON STREET • ROUTE 53 • WEYMOUTH
LOCATED OFF RT. 3, EXIT 16A, TO RT. 53N

781.337.5069

HOURS: MONDAY - FRIDAY 9-5 • SATURDAY 9:30-2

Refinance
your Jumbo
at an excellent rate!

3.29%
APR

15-YEAR FIXED
NO POINTS!

Here's your chance to lower the rate and shorten the term on your fixed-rate Jumbo mortgage ... or convert your adjustable-rate Jumbo to a fixed before rates start moving up. Right now, Colonial Federal has $10 million to lend in Jumbo mortgages at a very favorable fixed rate. If you're determined to pay off your mortgage as soon as possible, this loan will help you do that. Come see us or call Angela Blanchard, VP/Retail Lending, at 617-471-0750. Or apply online at colonialfed.com. Have another loan or term in mind? Call us. We may be able to help.

(Also available for new Jumbo loans.)

COLONIAL FEDERAL SAVINGS BANK

"Your neighborhood bank!"

QUINCY: 15 Beach Street 617-471-0750 • 1000 Southern Artery (Residents only) 617-479-1430

HOLBROOK: 802 South Franklin Street 781-767-1776

EAST WEYMOUTH: Middle & Washington Streets 781-331-1776 • www.colonialfed.com

Insured FDIC

Some additional facts: Annual Percentage Rate (APR) effective as of 11/7/12 and may change. Applies to 1-2 family owner-occupied homes. Assumes a maximum 80% loan-to-value and first mortgage position. Subject to credit approval. A 15-Year Jumbo loan would be repaid in 180 equal monthly principal plus interest payments of $7.03 per $1,000 borrowed, which do not include taxes or insurance premiums, if applicable. So your actual monthly payment will be greater. Must borrow at least $417,000 for this loan.

4-Year Mayor Term Binding Question Heading To Ballot

A binding citizens initiative petition that would change the term of mayor from two to four years appears headed for the ballot in next fall's city election.

The Quincy Chamber of Commerce, which has proposed the ballot question, is circulating a petition to place the question before voters in 2013.

If approved by a majority of voters, the term for the city's mayor would change from two to four years. No legislative approval would be required, says City Solicitor Jim Timmins who cited Massachusetts Law Chapter 43 Section 17C.

Attempts to amend the term of mayor from two to four years have been made in the past but this would be the first time for a binding initiative petition. Home rule petitions requiring City Council and Legislative approval previously have failed.

The question on the petition reads:

"Shall the term of office of the Mayor of Quincy be four years? - yes or no."

To be placed on the ballot, signatures from five percent of the city's registered voters at the time of the last city election would have to sign the petition. There were 54,624 registered voters for the November 2011 city election so some 2,731 registered voters from Quincy would have to sign the petition.

The Chamber says it has collected about 2,000 signatures to date.

The question, if approved, would take effect for the 2015 election (i.e., the person elected mayor in 2015 would serve the first four-year mayoral term.)

The last day to submit petition signatures to qualify for the November, 2013 city election ballot is July 15 next year.

In the past, The Quincy Sun has opposed doubling the mayor's term from two to four years for various reasons.

And we will address the issue again later.

But we also want to encourage public debate on this issue.

This week, we invited the Chamber to present their case for a four-year mayoral term.

According to its petition, the Chamber says a four-year mayoral term would:

- Establish a more stable and efficient government structure, providing continuity and predictable services and resources to the community.
- Allow the sitting Mayor to solely focus his/her energies on the needs of the community for a longer and more consistent period of time without being concerned with running again one year after being elected.

• Provide more consistent government leadership, creating a more predictable environment to foster and support economic growth and business development.

• Reduce the frequency of mayoral campaigns and fundraising, saving residents and the business community money, time and resources.

One reason opponents have not supported a four-year term is keeping the city's mayor accountable to voters after two years in office.

"There is a legitimate comment about accountability," says Edward Keohane, immediate past chairman of the Quincy Chamber Board of Directors, "but the other part of it is you're only getting truly 50 percent productivity out of a two-year term because they're always running (for re-election) the second year.

"There's fundraising going on, they're kissing the babies (campaigning), and it's not productive. It's a waste of time.

"If you go to a four-year term, you'll get three years of work and the fourth year you'll get the same thing (accountability). It's not going to go away."

Keohane says the $1.6 billion redevelopment of Quincy Center needs stable, steady leadership from the mayor's office.

"The use of a person's time in City Hall is critical. The Chamber believes that it's Quincy's turn to come up and there's going to be so much development in the city all over the place you need more stability in the mayor's office at this particular time and so many developers are saying 'who am I going to deal with if this changes all the time' and they've got a point on that."

Keohane, a longtime Quincy resident and local businessman, adds that the new Quincy Center project is not just about the downtown - it has city-wide implications.

"The downtown project as far as the city is concerned isn't just about the downtown. This is going to be the beginning of the new City of Quincy and I do envision this happening in every area of the city. This property is just too valuable to leave it the way it is.

"There will be massive changes that are going to occur in the city and we're an old city and we need to re-adjust this. We have an awful lot of tired neighborhoods that are going to change so you need somebody who's going to follow through with this type of thing rather than one individual every two years who may have a different opinion. To me, that's an issue.

"As a resident of Quincy as well as a business person in Quincy, I would go for a four-year term just for those reasons."

Dean Rizzo, the president of the Quincy Chamber of Commerce, said consistent leadership for four years in the mayor's office would also benefit residents.

"I would think from a residential standpoint you want more consistent leadership to run your city whether it's for economic development issues, social issues, or improvements to the neighborhoods.

"Everyone complains that city government runs slow and the public sector chugs along. If you want to improve that efficiency, one way to do it is to provide more stability in the mayor's office and leadership for a longer period of time. Then you could accomplish more because things do take time.

"Four years sounds like a long time, but it's not a long time," Rizzo said. "An individual that's elected mayor is highly unlikely he will screw things up in that four-year period."

Keohane also cites the high cost of running viable mayoral campaigns and resources like time and money

Son Beams

By ROBERT BOSWORTH

can be better spent elsewhere.

"Just look at the amount of money that was spent on the (Elizabeth Warren-Scott Brown) Senate campaign (one of the costliest in the nation.). That could have been used on other beneficial reasons.

"It's more productivity that the Chamber is looking at together with what's going on in the City of Quincy," Keohane continues. "It's critical that everyone is on the same page."

What could the public expect from a mayor serving for four years per term?

"I think there would be much more dedication towards the issues at hand rather than they're own running for office again - that's the biggest one," Keohane said. "I think you can ask other mayors and they would agree."

The petition, the Chamber leaders say, is not about keeping Tom Koch in office longer.

"The petition drive is not about Tom Koch or anybody. It's really about the office of the mayor itself. We're not supporting anyone at all. That is not the issue.

"The way the question is worded it is up to the registered voter to decide what they want. I think it's time for The Quincy Sun to give its statements and other people to give their statements and let the voting people say this is what we want to do."

Petition proponents fanned out across the city's polling precincts on Election Day Nov. 6 seeking signatures from registered voters.

What did some of those voters have to say about a four-year term?

"One comment we received was on term limits," Keohane said. "A lot of people said we should have term limits. Another comment was to have a six-year term and you can't serve after one term. There were probably more for 4-years than 2-years. There was a lot of talk about why do you want to do it, what is the benefit of a four-year term.

"It was pretty close to being split between two and four years. More leaning towards four years but it wasn't heavily that way."

Keohane also said petition signers had other thoughts on their minds.

"People also talked about the personalities of the mayors and whether he is doing a good job or a bad job. It seems some people do not like what Mr. Koch is doing and others are enraptured with him so that was all over the place too which it should be," Keohane said.

"There were very few people who would not sign (the petition). Almost everybody said 'Sure, I'll sign it' and I think it was because it was not political. We identified ourselves as being from the Quincy Chamber of Commerce and we were doing this to just put it on the ballot so either way, yes or no."

The Chamber also plans to collect signatures at other functions in the city. Some members carry a copy of the petition around while others have the petition available at their place of business.

Keohane believes the initiative petition, if placed on the ballot, would be approved.

"But if it doesn't, that's okay, too," he says. "I think it's a great exercise for people even to go make their mind up. I think it's a worthy exercise just to have it on the ballot."

Rizzo adds:

"It's been discussed for so long in the city about this option. We, the Chamber through the leadership of the board, felt as an organization should put it to the voters and let's decide as a community.

"It makes sense from the business standpoint - let's see if the community overall thinks it makes sense."

Thoughts anyone?

The Quincy Sun

(USPS 453-060)
Published Weekly on Thursday by
The Quincy Sun Publishing Co., Inc.
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

Robert H. Bosworth
Publisher and Editor

Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.
Founder
1968 - 2009

75¢ per copy. $25.00 per year by mail in Quincy
$30.00 per year by mail outside Quincy - $38.00 out-of-state

Telephone: 617-471-3100 Fax: 617-472-3963

email address:
thequincysun@verizon.net

Periodicals postage paid at Boston, MA
Postmaster Send address change to:
The Quincy Sun, 1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

The Quincy Sun assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs.

RIZZO

Scenes From Yesterday

THIS IS A 1948 view of the old Strand Theater at 13 Chestnut Street in Quincy Center. For almost 60 years, this theater with 1,609 seats including its balcony was the largest theater in the city. It opened showing silent movies in August 1926 and showed its first talkie at Christmas 1928. On the left in this view was Bill and Ella Estes' jewelry shop. On the right was a shop named Famise's that according to the sign on the window sold what were then called women's foundation garments, also known as girdles and corsets. The Strand Theater closed in July 1982 and after being purchased by the South Shore Bank, this building was demolished in December 1983. It has been a parking lot ever since and is now owned by Quincy Mutual Fire Insurance Company. To contact Tom Galvin, e-mail tmgalvin@verizon.net.

From the Collection of City Historian Tom Galvin

READERS FORUM

Reflections From A Voter Protection Advocate

On Nov. 6 I had the pleasure to work as a Voter Protection Advocate in Richmond, Virginia.

I served as one of over 30,000 lawyers nationwide recruited and trained to identify and prevent voter intimidation and suppression in the Presidential Election. In the two years leading up to this election there were more changes to voting laws than in the previous twenty.

Laws passed by state legislatures throughout the country made it more difficult and onerous for people to cast their vote. Take for example Pennsylvania, which enacted requirements that voters present a state issued identification card at the polls. At the time of the passage, millions of people who would otherwise have been eligible to vote, had no such identification.

The state agency responsible for processing requests for such identification announced that they were unable to meet the demand for IDs before election day, thus disenfranchising all those waiting for IDs. The Pennsylvania House's Majority Leader stated publicly that the ID law was passed to help Republicans win the Presidency. Such measures, specifically tailored to deny legal access to the polls is despicable.

I was stationed at the Montrose Elementary School in Henrico County

Virginia. Polls opened at 6 am, and when I arrived at 5:15 a.m. there were nearly 800 people in a line snaking around the building, in the dark in 30 degree temperatures.

The first woman in line indicated that she arrived at 3:30 a.m. to make sure she would not be turned away. The Montrose School has parking for only 40 vehicles at any one time, including 2 handicapped spaces. After the polls opened, the lines never dipped below 250 people and the total time it took to wait to cast a vote never dropped under 2 hours.

This predominantly African-American community withstood the lines, the cold, parking complications and other obstacles and turned out in record numbers. I was amazed at their resiliency and dedication to the process. When I asked some of those in line why they would wait over 2 hours to vote, I was pointed to African-American grandmothers and grandfathers who had to withstand a brutality far worse than long lines to gain access to the ballot box in times past.

Those my age and younger, felt a duty to generations past not leave the line, not to give up, not be denied their right to vote.

This experience has led me to reflect on how good we have it in Massachusetts when it comes to exercising one of our most basic rights as a citizen of this country, casting a vote.

I commend Mr. Joseph Shea, the City Clerk, and his crack staff of election workers, including Mrs. Nicole Crispo -whose tireless efforts helped ensure that in Quincy everyone who is legally permitted was able to cast a vote and have their ballot counted.

My experience has also led me to support several measures being proposed nationally. Those include, mandatory early voting periods, maximum per capita population per polling location, and minimum staffing requirements of election workers.

While not at issue here, these solutions would greatly enhance access to voting in more problematic states. Each of these solutions would have eased lines for voters at the Montrose, as well as across the country.

Brian Palmucci
Ward 4 City Councillor
Quincy

Quincy's Yesterdays

This Week
1967
45 Years Ago

Record 200,000 View Santa Parade

A record crowd of 200,000 viewed the city's Santa Parade from St. John's Church to Beale St.

Sixty units were entered by the following groups: Sacred Heart Catholic Youth Organization, Elks, Amvets, Koch Club, Camp Fire Girls, St. John's School, Curtain Call Theatre, N. Quincy Knights of Columbus, Wollaston Businessmen's Association, Mug 'N Muffin and the General Dynamics Athletic League. The reviewing stand was at St. Ann's Church.

NORTH DEFEATS QUINCY

North Quincy defeated Quincy 14-6 in the annual Thanksgiving Day game, before 1,300 fans at Veterans' Memorial Stadium.

It was not an easy game, made more difficult because of the quagmire like conditions of the field, caused by the unusually wet weather.

The first touchdown pass by North was by quarterback Bob Sleeth to Rick Trubiano. Despite an attempted grab by Quincy, the ball "slipped" into Trubiano's arms.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS

State Veterans' Commissioner Charles Collatos commended the city for "Operation Christmas," which provided cakes and greetings for the 169 Quincy residents serving in Vietnam.

The project, initiated by Mayor James McIntyre, raised $1,500 in contributions. City Veterans' Director William Villone and Graces Registrar Anthony Famigletti directed the work.

QUINCY-ISMS

As part of a proposed $2.7 million addition of a south building at 1000 Southern Artery, were plans for a walkway over South St. Rev. Bedros Beharian was in Washington this week for Housing and Urban Development approval. World War I veteran James Clark, Sr. of Plymouth St. died... The Granite Manufacturers' 89th annual meeting was held at Sherry's Restaurant. Edward Monti was honored as outgoing president... Edward Densmore, district Grand Exalted Ruler was welcomed to the Quincy Elks by Exalted Ruler Robert Densmore, his son... Roger Perfetti of Guild St., assistant treasurer at the Norfolk County Bank was named to the city retirement board... Cantor Jack Kessler son of Rabbi Martin Kessler, was at Adas Shalom... At Quincy Hospital a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nolan of Rice Rd. and to Mr. and Mrs. Glendon Faulkner of Sexton Cir... "In the Heat of the Night" with Sidney Poitier and Rod Steiger was at the Wollaston Theatre... Mrs. Julia (Carlucci) DeYulus died at age 101... The Dunkin Donuts warehouse in North Quincy was the first building razed for the new subway extension... Crout's Bike Shop offered Schwinn Sting-rays for $43.95... General Richard Quigley stepped down after five years as commander of the Yankee Division. He'd been a member for 33 years... Arthur DeAngelo of Sullivan Rd. was elected a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants... The Mass. Electric store on Hancock St. offered a Tappan range for $159... John J. Sullivan was the federal mediator for the strike by meatcutters at First National Stores... The death of Raymond Vespziani of Merrymount Rd. was reported... The $865,000 increase in the school budget was for salaries at the new Vocational Technical School, said Supt. Robert Pruitt. Maurice Daly, assistant superintendent of vocational programs noted that the state would fund the new vocational teaching positions at 100 percent the first year... School officials were concerned that with Quincy Junior College operating beyond its obligated community it may not be able to stay in the black. It was hoped tat the state would take over operation of the college... Some 1,000 students caused a melee at Howard Johnson's on the Southern Artery following rallies at Quincy High School and North Quincy High School for the Thanksgiving Day game. At one point all available police cruisers were called to the scene... Mrs. Paul Carosi headed the Women's Fellowship holiday boutique at the First Church of Squantum... Director Harlan Paine presented Mrs. Josephine DeCelle a certificate for 30 years as a baker at Quincy City Hospital... It was reported that Navy pilot Richard Stratton of North Quincy, a prisoner of war in North Vietnam, was not receiving family mail... Nicholas Barbadora of Harvard St. replaced Atty. Edward MacDonald on the Zoning Board of Appeals... The pay phone was stolen from Blessed Sacrament Parish Hall... Henry Leschernier of Edgeworth Rd. received the St. George Medal. He was associated with Boy Scout Troop at Sacred Heart for 14 years.

SUBSCRIPTION FORM

FILL OUT THIS SUBSCRIPTION BLANK AND MAIL TO

The Quincy Sun

1372 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169

NAME _____

STREET _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

CHECK ONE BOX IN EACH COLUMN

☐ 1 YEAR IN QUINCY $25.00
☐ 1 YEAR OUTSIDE QUINCY $30.00 ☐ CHECK ENCLOSED
☐ 1 YEAR OUT OF STATE $38.00

Arts & Entertainment

CENTER STAGE recently held a ribbon cutting to celebrate the move to their new location at 507 Furnace Brook Parkway in Quincy. From left are City Council President Michael McFarland, Paul Graf, owner Laurie Graf, Mayor Thomas Koch, Ward 5 Councillor Kirsten Hughes, state Rep. Bruce Ayers, former Mayor Walter Hannon and Dean Rizzo, president of the Quincy Chamber of Commerce. For more information, call (617) 328-8669.

Photo Courtesy Quincy Chamber of Commerce

'Night At The Oscars' Nov. 30 To Benefit YMCA Support Campaign

The South Shore YMCA will host its 12th annual Enchanted Evening, A Night at the Oscars, Nov. 30 from 6 to 11 p.m. at the Quincy Marriott Hotel to benefit the Y's Annual Support Campaign.

The campaign provides life-changing programs and services to thousands of children, families, adults and seniors in local communities.

"Campanelli is proud to give back to the community that has afforded our company so much. We have committed to supporting the SSYMCA because we know they make a powerful impact on the families and children in our neighborhoods," said Dan DeMarco, partner at Campanelli and chief volunteer officer of the SSYMCA Board of Directors.

More than 600 guests are expected to attend the event. Local celebrities including

Chef Paul Walhberg of Alma Nove in Hingham, Kiss 108 and TV Diner Host, Billy Costa, and North Shore Accapella will be a part of this special evening.

The evening's festivities will include silent and live auctions, raffles, awards, dinner and dancing. For ticket and other information, contact Mary Orne at 781-829-8585 ext. 306.

Alana McDermott Cast In Musical 'Annie'

Alana McDermott of Quincy is part of the cast in Riverside Theatre Works (RTW) and Chasing Dreams production of the family musical "Annie."

Alana, a fourth grader at the Bernazzani, is playing the role of Tessie, one of the orphans.

Show dates are: Friday, Nov. 30 at 8 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 1 at 8 p.m., Sunday, Dec. 2 at 3 p.m., Friday, Dec. 7 at 8 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 8 at 8 p.m. and Sunday, Dec. 9 at 3 p.m.

For tickets, visit www.rtwboston.org.

ALANA McDERMOTT

Riverside Theatre Works is located at 45 Fairmount Ave., Hyde Park.

Halvorson-Pavone Duo Performs Nov. 29 At Quincy Historical Society

As part of its American Music Series, Quincy Historical Society will present the cutting-edge duo of Mary Halvorson, guitar, and Jessica Pavone, viola, in a benefit performance, Thursday, Nov. 29, at 7:30 p.m., at the Adams Academy in Quincy Center.

Halvorson and Pavone have been described by Peter Margasak of The Chicago Reader as "two of the most exciting figures in New York's jazz and improvised-music community."

Their music blends elements of folk, jazz, free jazz, rock, and American classical music into a unique creation that Nate Chinen of the New York Times calls "distinct and beguiling." Their combination of accomplished musicianship and improvisation creates, according to Troy Collins of AllAboutJazz.com, "a level of interplay that borders on the clairvoyant."

Pavone and Halvorson

QUINCY HISTORICAL SOCIETY will present the duo of Jessica Pavone (left), viola, and Mary Halvorson, guitar, in a benefit performance Thursday, Nov. 29, at 7:30 p.m., at the Adams Academy in Quincy Center. Peter Gannushkin Photo have been performing together since 2002. In addition to their duo, each is a leader of her own ensemble groups. They have also played together as members of other jazz combos, most notably in the band of legendary saxophonist Anthony Braxton.

Proceeds from the evening will benefit the Historical Society.

Admission is $20; $10 for students with ID.

Germantown Tree Lighting Ceremony Dec. 6

The Germantown Annual Tree Lighting Ceremony will be held Thursday, Dec.

6 at 6 p.m. at the rotary on Palmer Street.

Following the event,

there will be refreshments served at the Germantown Neighborhood Center.

Woodward School Craft Fair Dec. 1

The Woodward School for Girls, 1102 Hancock St., Quincy, will hold its fourth annual Holiday Craft Fair

Saturday, Dec. 1 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The fair will feature more than 40 crafters and vendors

with food, bake sales and raffles.

Admission is $1 per person.

Holiday Boutique To Benefit Bernazzani School

"A Night In the Neighborhood" for the Bernazzani Elementary School Holiday Boutique will be held Wednesday, Nov. 28 from 6 to 10 p.m. at the Neighborhood Club of Quincy, 27 Glendale Rd., Quincy.

Tickets are $10 at the door (includes one raffle ticket.)

The event will feature

vendors, raffles and musical entertainment.

All proceeds will benefit the Bernazzani PTO for student enrichment.

Puzzled about
your future?

Let us help you put the pieces together.

Regina Russell's Tea Room

We have been in the Psychic business since 1973.
Walk-in service & private readings by appointment.
Psychics available for home and office parties.

Phone Readings Available: 888-655-3456

Open Monday thru Friday 10:30 am - 9:30 pm
Saturday & Sunday 10:30 am - 5:00 pm

40 Franklin Street - Quincy, MA - Phone: 617-472-9606
Free weekly horoscopes on our website: www.rtsroom.com

Find us on Facebook
Highlights of
Local Programming
found on...

QATV

Quincy Access Television
88 Washington Street
Quincy, MA 02169
617-376-1440

Public Access Channel 8

Thursday, November 22nd:
9:30am: LIVE Audio: Thanksgiving Football
8:00pm: Thanksgiving Football

Friday, November 23rd:
12:00pm: Thanksgiving Football
7:00pm: Thanksgiving Football

Saturday, November 24th:
12:00pm: Thanksgiving Football
10:00pm: Thanksgiving Football

Sunday, November 25th:
12:30pm: LIVE: Christmas Parade
6:00pm: Christmas Parade (replay)

Monday, November 26th:
11:30am: LIVE: Currently in Quincy
7:30pm: LIVE: Sports Night

Tuesday, November 27th:
6:00pm: Eye on Quincy
8:00pm: Quincy in Focus

Wednesday, November 28th:
8:00pm: LIVE: Whispers from the Other Side
9:00pm: Free Our Voices

Government Access Channel 11

Thursday, November 22nd:
12:00pm: City Council Ordinance 11/19
1:00pm: City Council 11/19
6:30pm: FYI:QHD Home Food Safety 2
7:30pm: In Your Neighborhood Ward 4

Friday, November 23rd:
12:00pm: Good Deeds: Norfolk Registry Ep. 6
7:00pm: License Board 11/20
10:00pm: Veterans Day Parade & Ceremony

Saturday/Sunday, November 24th/25th:
12:00pm: City Council Ordinance 11/19
1:00pm: City Council 11/19
4:00pm: License Board 11/20
7:00pm: City Council Ordinance 11/19
8:00pm: City Council 11/19
11:00pm: License Board 11/20

Monday, November 26th:
7:00pm: In Your Neighborhood Ward 4

Tuesday, November 27th:
4:00pm: LIVE: License Board

Wednesday, November 28th:
12:00pm: License Board 11/27

Programming is subject to change. For a complete list of programs, please consult our website at www.qatv.org

Social

QUINCY RETIRED TEACHERS Association (QRTA) recently welcomed new members at its fall luncheon at the Quincy Neighborhood Club. From left are: Wayne Mirick, Kate Sawkiewicz, Janice Erler, Kathy Meade, Al Moscaritolo and Ellen Costello.

OTHER NEW MEMBERS of the Quincy Retired Teachers Association (from left): Jessica Davis Myers, Linda Billikas, Edith Hughes, Nancy Brennan, Dottie Greene, Janice Walsh and Chris DeSaulniers.

Quincy Retired Teachers Hold Annual Fall Luncheon

The Quincy Retired Teachers Association (QRTA) recently held its annual Fall Luncheon at the Quincy Neighborhood Club.

Thirteen newly retired teachers were honored at the event.

"We were happy to have members of the QRTA Executive Board welcome them to our organization of active retirees," said Association President Kathleen Mitchell. "Arip Hovagimian was especially honored to introduce retiree Chris Desaulniers, whom she taught as a kindergarten student at the Willard School," Mitchell said.

The unique organization has over 400 members who are active in giving back to the community that they served as dedicated teachers. The QRTA is a member of the Quincy School's Community Partnership, provides volunteers to the Quincy Public Schools and provides scholarships to Quincy and North Quincy High School students.

ARPI HOVAGIMIAN introduces new retiree, Chris Desaulniers, who she taught as a kindergarten student at the Willard School.

WELCH HEALTHCARE & Retirement Group Vice President Paul Casale, Sr. (far left), congratulates the Walk team from Marshfield's Village at Proprietor's Green Memory Care Program. Second from left are: Bridget Bickford; Eileen Bickford; Robin Peters; Cara Kelly, Memory Care Program director; Jeanette Champagne; Barbara Cosgrove; Lynda Chuckran, community relations director for Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group; Joyce Watson-O'Neil, and Dyanna Lawler.

Welch Group Keeps Pace With 2012 Alzheimer's Memory Walk

Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group, a leading provider of Alzheimer's and memory care services on the Massachusetts South Shore, to date has raised more than $9,000 for The Alzheimer's Association's 2012 Memory Walk.

The South Shore Walk, held recently at Pilgrim Memorial State Park in Plymouth, is part of the nation's largest fundraising event to raise awareness and funds for Alzheimer's care, support and research. This year, Village at Proprietors Green in Marshfield, the South Shore's newest luxury rental community, with independent living, assisted living and assisted living-memory care, raised more than $2,200 of the Welch Group total.

State Senate President Therese Murray served as keynote speaker at the opening ceremony. Among those honored as an Alzheimer's advocate was Lynda Chuckran, director of community relations, Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group. Chuckran was singled out for her career working with older adults and for her advocacy on behalf of patients, families and caregivers.

Other notable Welch Group fundraisers include: John Scott House Rehabilitation & Nursing Center in Braintree, which has raised $1,405; Duxbury's Bay Path Rehabilitation & Nursing Center and Duxbury House

Alzheimer's Care Center who together raised $858; Hingham's Harbor House Rehabilitation & Nursing Center, which raised $763; Colonial Rehabilitation & Nursing Center in Weymouth, which raised over $500; Quincy's Hancock Park Rehabilitation & Nursing Center, which raised $425; and the corporate offices of Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group in Norwell, which has raised more than $400.

Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group is a family-owned company with more than 60 years of senior care services to the South Shore.

To learn more about Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group visit: www.welchhrg.com

Wollaston Garden Club Holiday Greens Sale Dec. 1

Members of the Wollaston Garden Club in Quincy are preparing for their Annual Holiday Greens Sale on Saturday, Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to noon at Wollaston Congregational Church at the corner of Lincoln and Winthrop Avenues, Wollaston.

Wreaths, small table arrangements, large outdoor containers designed for winter interest, packages of evergreens and holly, and other natural and floral gift items will be available.

Proceeds from the sale support the Wollaston Garden Club's work on civic beautification in Quincy and other community education and conservation projects.

HOLIDAY CATERING
FROM THE COMMON MARKET

Village Common Catering

Hors D'oeuvres ~ Hot & Cold Entrees
Sandwiches ~ Salads

Call 617-472-9464 & ask for Carol Callahan
Drop off or pick up

(serving staff available upon request)
www.commonmarketrestaurants.com

Adams Montessori School

OPEN HOUSE
Sunday, December 2 • 1-3 pm
(snow date • Dec. 9)

- Toddler, pre-school & elementary programs
- Morning or full day sessions
- Before and after school care

Call us at 617-773-8200
to schedule an appointment

Come visit us in the historic Adams district

310 Adams Street, Quincy
www.adamsmontessori.org

FOUR STAR PAPER & PARTY OUTLET

Holiday Entertaining Headquarters

Seasonal Plates, Napkins & Cups
Holiday Containers & Decorations

SPECIAL:
Red or Green Dinner Napkins
(50 ct) $2.79

84 Liberty St., Quincy
(617) 773-7773
Mon. - Fri. 8:30-5:00 Sat. 8:30-3:00

Marie's Kitchen

BY MARIE D'OLIMPIO

Rigatoni With Red Clam Sauce

When we think of clam sauce, we picture a plate of either linguini or spaghetti to go with it.

But one of my favorite pasta is rigatoni which I recently used on the red clam sauce which was very hearty and delicious.

RIGATONI WITH RED CLAM SAUCE

- 1 pound rigatoni
- 2 large containers minced clams (or cans) reserve liquid
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 2 garlic cloves

- 1 can crushed tomatoes (28 ounces) salt and pepper to taste
- 2 tablespoons fresh parsley
- ½ teaspoon red pepper flakes (optional)

Cook the pasta al dente because it will cook some more in the clam sauce.

Heat oil and add the garlic. Stir in the clam juice. Add the tomatoes, salt and pepper and cook for about 5 minutes. Add the clams and simmer for 5 minutes.

Stir in the cooked pasta and cook until heated through and pasta is well blended with the sauce.

Banana-Chocolate Chip Cake With Peanut Butter Frosting

One day while visiting my daughter Nancy, my granddaughters Sophia and Ellie who love to bake at such a young age, were looking for a different and fairly easy cake to bake.

We found a great recipe for chocolate chip banana cake with peanut butter frosting. I think it's a great cake for beginners to make and is so moist.

CHOCOLATE CHIP-BANANA CAKE

- 3 cups flour-
- 2 teaspoons soda
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1 ½ cups sugar
- 2 sticks unsalted butter
- ½ cup brown sugar
- 3 eggs
- 2 cups ripe bananas (mashed)
- 1 cup sour cream

1-10 ounce bag mini chocolate chips.

It is a double layer cake, so grease or use parchment paper in two 8x8x2" cake pans.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees.

Place flour, baking soda and salt in a bowl. In a large bowl, beat the sugar, butter, and brown sugar until light and fluffy. Add the eggs one at time, scraping the sides and bottom of the bowl. Beat in the vanilla.

Add the dry ingredients on low speed just to blend. Add the bananas and sour cream and then fold in the chips. Divide the batter evenly in the pans and bake for about 35 minutes or until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean. Let cool in pans for 10 minutes before placing them on a cake rack.

Each granddaughter took part in various stages of the cake and the frosting so it was a united effort and made the baking fun.

While the cake was baking the girls made the frosting.

PEANUT BUTTER FROSTING

- 2 cups peanut butter (creamy)
- 1 ½ cups powdered sugar
- 2 sticks unsalted butter
- 2 ½ teaspoons vanilla
- chocolate chips or Hershey kisses

Beat the first four ingredients in a medium bowl until fluffy frosting forms (2-3 minutes) Place one of the cakes on a platter and spread one and a quarter cups of the frosting over it and place the other cake on top. Cover the top and sides of the cake and garnish with the chips or kisses. Refrigerate for one hour before serving.

We had a hard time waiting a whole hour and just before the hour was up, we cut the cake and it was delicious!

QPAC To Host 'Avenues To Success' Dec. 3

Quincy Parent Advisory Council to Special Education (QPAC) will host Avenues to Success in Quincy Public Schools Monday, Dec. 3 at 6:30 p.m. in the QPAC Resource Center at Quincy High School, 100 Coddington St., Quincy.

During the presentation, Judy Todd, director of Special Education for Quincy Public Schools, and her staff will provide an overview of special education programs and classrooms available to students within the district. The discussion will include a review of the specialized curricula and services being utilized within each program.

Parents, teachers and others are welcome, and questions are encouraged.

Pre-registration for Avenues to Success is required. Registration may be completed online at www.quincypac.org/rsvp.html, or by contacting QPAC President Jill Gichuhi at 617-653-7846.

Common Market Restaurants 'Night Of Giving'

The Common Market Restaurants, 97 Willard St., Quincy, will hold its annual "Night of Giving" at their Cafe de Paris lounge from 6 to 11 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 12.

Free hors d'oeuvres are available to customers who bring a wrapped present for a boy or girl to the restaurant on the evening of Dec. 12.

The restaurant also makes a donation to the charity and the bartenders donate a portion of their night's gratuities to the charity.

The Common Market partners with "My Brother's Keeper," a local charity, to assist families in the area and provides presents for families at Christmas time.

Since the "Night of Giving" was started at The Common Market, customers have donated more than 1,500 Christmas presents.

Open Mike Night Monday At Library

An open mike night open to all ages and all acts (singing, playing, reciting, acting, joke-telling and more) is set for Monday, Nov. 26 at the Thomas Crane Public Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy.

Sign up in person between 6:15 and 6:30; perform from 6:30-8:30 p.m.

A sports injury brings you to us.

Meet Ben Thompson, MD. A fellowship-trained sports medicine physician, Dr. Thompson is part of our team of orthopaedic experts dedicated to getting you back in the game after a sports injury. From non-surgical and minimally invasive treatments to ACL reconstruction to arthroscopic rotator cuff repair, Dr. Thompson's expertise makes us proud he's part of our team. When a sports injury sidelines you, make him part of yours.

Stay in the Game! Avoiding Sports Injuries.

Athletes are at risk for a number of common orthopaedic injuries, including shoulder and elbow ailments that can sideline you for weeks, or for good! Get some practical advice from BID-Milton Orthopaedic Surgeon Benjamin Thompson, MD, on preparing for the upcoming season or adjusting your routine to avoid serious injuries.

DATE: Thursday, November 29
TIME: 6:30 PM
PLACE: Nangeroni Education Center
COST: FREE, pre-registration required
CALL: 617-696-8810

Ben Thompson, MD
Orthopaedic Surgeon

Our expertise brings you back.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

199 Reedsdale Road (Route 28), Milton, MA 02186
(617) 696-4600 | www.bidmilton.org

FREE BREAKFAST OR LUNCH ON YOUR BIRTHDAY

Daily Specials
NOW SERVING SUBS!!!

453 Hancock St., N. Quincy
Open Daily 5AM - 3PM
TAKE OUT AVAILABLE

Ask the GEMOLOGIST
BY JEFFREY M. BERTMAN
GRADUATE GEMOLOGIST

THE DIAMOND INSPIRED BY A KISS

To most people, the "marquise" is the most elegant of diamond cuts. To France's King Louis XV, it was the gemological representation of his mistress' perfectly shaped mouth. Hence, this diamond cut is named after Jeanna Antoinette Poisson, Marquise de Pompadour, who remained a chief member of the king's court until her death. Whether or not this romantic historical backdrop plays any role in the selection of a marquise-cut diamond, many simply find its long, narrow shape most attractive. From a more practical standpoint, the marquise cut quite simply represents great value because it possesses one of the largest crown surfaces of any diamond shape.

Thus, its perceived size is larger than the diamond actually is.

The Marquise diamond cut is a royal, elongated shape with tapering points at both ends. Its shape will flatter your finger, making it appear longer. Come into our store located at 1402 Hancock Street, Quincy Center or call us at 617-773-3636, and allow us to assist you. Our diamond collection contains virtually any shape and size imaginable. We maintain, along with 3 other jewelers, a permanent presence in the diamond centers of the world. This established relationship affords us the ability to bring you all the qualities, sizes, and shapes at value prices.

Don't Forget: We pay cash for Gold - Platinum - Diamonds... highest prices paid.

Rogers

Diamonds... Watches... Jewelry

www.rogersjewelry.com
BANK OF AMERICA BUILDING

New NQHS Principal Robert Shaw Back In A 'Great Place'

By EMILY TAFT

For Robert Shaw, the new principal of North Quincy High School, being asked to come back to a school he dedicated his entire teaching career to was something he never thought twice about.

"I am enjoying this more than I expected to," said Shaw. "After 13 years here I didn't have to spend time learning the place. I had an advantage to that extent that I could just jump in and go — there was no period of adjustment."

"It's an adjustment in terms of I'm back but in this entirely different role for people, and me, but I think it happened very quickly. This place (NQHS) is a great place. It always has been the entire time I have been here. The school is great, it's a strong school, and so many things go on here."

During a recent school committee meeting, Supt. Dr. Richard DeCristofaro announced Shaw had been selected to take over the role permanently after going through an interview process and working as the acting principal since late August. DeCristofaro said during a phone interview with The

ROBERT SHAW
NQHS Principal

Sun that Shaw was one of five candidates that applied for the position, but because of his leadership abilities and respect for Quincy he was chosen to take the permanent role as principal, replacing Earl Metzler who became a superintendent in a New Hampshire school district.

"Rob is a professional and someone who takes tremendous pride in everything he does. He loves the kids and respects all the families who send their kids to North Quincy High School," said DeCristofaro. "Earl had done an excellent job at NQHS and Sterling and anyone who has his job will certainly have his work cut out for him. Earl was a strong leader and Rob in his own right is a strong leader. Rob is very well respected and he will take North Quincy from where it is and gradually put his own imprint on leadership there."

Shaw had taken a leave of absence in June as the NQHS assistant principal to work at the Bridgewater-Raynham Regional School as an English teacher. He was there for only three weeks when he received a call from DeCristofaro asking if he would like to return as acting principal of NQHS.

"I said to myself you know what, this school is looking for a principal, I'm in a unique position of qualification. I've been everything here, I went here as a student, I taught English here, I was a department head, I was the assistant principal," said Shaw. "So I thought about it, and said 'alright I have friends there, I've got roots in the system, I grew up around there, I'm not going to turn my back on this place,' so here I am."

"When I left in June it was a move for myself, which was to do what I wanted to do, which was go back to teaching, it was for the very personal reason of doing what I thought was right for me. Coming back in September was more about, can I go back and be a part of taking it to a new level or making sure it remains great in all the ways that it is?"

Shaw is at an advantage, having spent 13 years already at NQHS. He knows what makes the school great and how to keep it remaining that way, but he also knows how to move things forward with new ideas and programs.

"There are a couple of things that are key for me. This school has done so much within the last couple of years with the Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD) group. It has been such a huge part for the culture and atmosphere of the building and I want to keep that up," said Shaw.

"Quincy Public Schools as a district, has a district plan that involves student wellness, so I sort of want to latch onto that as a school and do more of that stuff, building culture, building healthy social emotional lives and all of that for students."

"I'm an English teacher at heart, and I always want every kid to read more than they do, even the most avid reader among us. One of my big side projects is what we can do to promote and encourage kids to read more than they do, and make it cool. I want kids to pick up a Sports Illustrated off of a magazine rack and read that, The Quincy Sun and be informed about what's going on. I want kids to know that reading is not just your textbook, or whatever book your working on in English class."

"It's a life long skill, a necessity, and I'm always about providing more opportunities to do more reading, and to encourage it and promote it. That will be big for me as a cultural thing. The wellness piece and that literacy piece are my two big over arching goals for the building."

During his time as assistant principal and the short period of acting principal Shaw would make sure he stayed visible to the students by visiting classrooms, heading to the cafeteria during lunch time, and even on occasion teaching a class or two. Now as principal, Shaw hopes to continue those things because he believes it is important for the principal to remain seen, but also so he is able to enjoy the students like he did when he was a teacher.

"I love to walk through the cafeteria, remain out and about. Later in the afternoon, I'll pick a floor and just walk around, to see what's going on. It's important to do so otherwise you run the risk of being stuck in an office all day, and the last thing I want is to walk up to a random kid and they don't know who I am, I want them to know who I am and what my role is here," said Shaw.

"The kids are what I enjoy about this job. Kids in the classroom, kids just doing well, kids, everyone from the AP courses to the learning center downstairs. I enjoy watching them be successful whatever that means for each individual kid."

"When success happens to the extent that it does around here all the parts are working together from principal on down, and watching all that happen each day, that's the good stuff."

Senior Bullying Topic At Kennedy Center

Paula Banks of Two Lights Home Care will be at the Kennedy Center, 440 East Squantum St. Thursday, Dec. 6 at 1 p.m. to talk about senior bullying.

Bullying knows no age boundaries. Research shows that 10-20% of seniors across the US living in some form of senior housing experience bullying.

Banks will discuss why bullying happens and what can be done.

Registration is required for this event as space is limited. To register for this event, call the Quincy Council on Aging at (617) 376-1506.

Squantum Tree Lighting Sunday

The Seaside Gardeners of Squantum will sponsor a tree lighting ceremony Sunday, Nov. 25 at 4 p.m. at Gilbert Memorial Park, corner of Huckins Avenue and East Squantum Street.

Festivities will include hot cocoa and home baked cookies. There will also be a holiday sing-along while awaiting the arrival of Santa to light up the tree.

The Tree lighting occurs on the same day as the annual Quincy Christmas Parade.

If the parade is cancelled due to inclement weather, the Squantum Tree Lighting will also be cancelled.

Christ Church Fair

Christ Church of Quincy, 12 Quincy Ave., will hold its annual Church Fair Friday, Nov. 30 from 5 to 8 p.m. and Saturday, Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The fair will feature crafts, jewelry, "white elephant," knit goods, cookie walk, baskets, new items and a snack bar.

Injured in an accident?
Should you talk to a lawyer?

Absolutely yes!

After an accident, you may be in shock. You've been hurt. Chances are you've never had anything like this happen before. You aren't sure what to do next, or who you can trust. That's exactly why you should talk to us. At Bates & Riordan, we are experienced attorneys representing individuals and families on the South Shore. We specialize in putting the pieces together — protecting your interests and making sure you're treated fairly — after an accident. If you've been injured, call Deborah Bates Riordan or Theodore Riordan at 617-328-8080 to see how we can help you. (That conversation and your first meeting with us are absolutely free.)

BATES & RIORDAN, LLP

~ On your side ~

645 Hancock Street, Wollaston/Quincy • 617-328-8080 • BatesRiordan.com

Want a hearing aid that fits just right?

Then have it custom built in Quincy Mass! Get 100% digital models with advanced noise reduction capability!

November and December specials!

Try our custom in-the-ear products at half of suggested retail price! full shell model, retail $2795.00.

Special $1395.00 each!

Includes a FREE hearing evaluation, consultation and a 60 day trial period. We service what we build "in house" and same day!

The Tobias family has been serving Boston and South Shore since 1959!

(must present ad with order) Steve 617 770-3395

Stephen P. Tobias B.C. HIS
MA Lic #59
B.S. Science UMass 1978

Tobias Hearing Aids, Inc. 382 Quincy Ave, Quincy near Roche Bros and Walmart. Where Eddies Diner was!

Adams Heights Men's Club Still Strong After 56 Years

By EMILY TAFT

Fifty-six years ago, shortly after returning from World War II, Quincy native Bill MacDonald decided he wanted to open a men's club where he and his friends could meet and enjoy each other's company, so he took out a second mortgage on his house, and built the Adams Heights Men's Club on Bower Road in June of 1956.

"We would all be meeting at funerals and catch up then, so I thought to myself why can't we meet on happier times. There had to be a better way to catch up and chew the fat," said MacDonald. "So a couple of guys signed up to the idea, we had a few meetings, and a lot of help to build the club. We named the club in honor of John Adams and John Quincy Adams."

As you enter the front door of the club, the first thing you will notice is a mural featuring landmarks of Quincy and the club with a portrait of MacDonald overseeing the scene, which is something he continues to do 56 years later.

"I stop by a few times a week depending on how busy I am," MacDonald said. "There are only three original members remain-

'I AM SO proud of this club and the members, they are all great guys,' say Quincy Native Bill MacDonald, one of the founders of the Adams Heights Men's Club.

ing, myself included."

The club is a non-profit, self-supporting men's club with over 300 members, the youngest being 20 years old. MacDonald said that every month they seem to get two or three more members, most of whom hear about the club through word of mouth. The members pay a fee once a year and are provided with low-cost beverages, recreational opportunities and events such as shuffleboard, card games, steak bakes, and meat raffles. Members can attend monthly meetings when the board discusses upcoming events and to discuss different ideas they have for the club.

Throughout the years the club has had many functions where part of the profits were set aside for various charitable organizations throughout the city. They have also run numerous clothing and food drives, resulting in baskets of food and bundles of clothing that are distributed to those in need.

MacDonald said that the club rents out their function hall 20-30 times a year. At the beginning of this year, the roof of the club was repaired after it collapsed due to flooding.

"Fortunately when the roof collapsed many of the members pitched in and helped repair the damage," MacDonald said. "That's one thing I am proud of, they are always willing to help each other, and the club."

During the holiday season club members, along with the women in their lives, wrap and present gifts to the children at the Home for Little Wanderers. According to MacDonald, the women also get together to assemble care packages for the Armed Forces.

Recently, the club offered the use of their facilities to Habitat for Humanity to hold meetings to construct several homes creating a neighborhood just up the road from the club.

In the past the club has participated in making a float for the Quincy Christmas Parade, which they won first prize trophies for during the few years they took part in it. MacDonald said he hopes in the coming years they can start to participate in that again.

"I am so proud of this club and the members, they are all great guys," said MacDonald. "I've been blessed. I have been blessed with a nice club and great members."

David Hanna Completes Navy Basic Training

Navy Seaman Recruit David S. Hanna, a 2012 graduate of Quincy High School, recently completed U.S. Navy basic training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Ill.

During the eight-week program, Hanna completed a variety of training which included classroom study and practical instruction on naval customs, first aid, firefighting, water safety and survival, and shipboard and aircraft safety. An emphasis was also placed on physical fitness.

Auction, Dinner At Viking Club Dec. 2

The Viking Club will hold an Auction and Dinner Sunday, Dec. 2 at 1:30 p.m., 410 Quincy Ave. in Braintree near the Quincy line.

A meatloaf dinner with all the trimmings will be served.

Auction begins at 2:30 p.m.

Tickets are $8. For reservations call 781-843-4410.

COMFORT TIME @ ALBA

4-6pm Every Day

All under $20.00

BUCATINI ALL' AMATRICIANA
FUSILLI BOLOGNESE
PEAR & MASCARPONE SACCHETTI
BAKED GNOCCHI AL FORNO
PENNE WITH CHICKEN & BROCCOLI
LINGUINE WITH MARINARA
CHICKEN MARSALA
BAKED STUFFED JUMBO SHRIMP
CHICKEN PARMESAN
GREMOLATA BAKED COD
SPICY SEAFOOD FRA DIAVOLO
ROASTED CHICKEN PICCATA
HADDOCK FRANCAISE
ROASTED 1/2 CHICKEN UNDER A BRICK
OVEN BAKED MEATLOAF
ROASTED WILD SALMON
SLICED BEEF TENDERLOIN

11 years voted Best Dining Excellence in Quincy

1486 Hancock St. Quincy • (617)376-2522

www.albaquincy.com

STOECKEL INSURANCE AGENCY, LLC

• stoeckelinsurance.com •

Professional Insurance Advice with a Personal Touch
for your AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS • FAMILY

128 McGrath Highway
Quincy, MA 02169-4607

617.786.7444

Dr. Ekbal Elkadry DMD.

DENTURES

If you are missing a few or all of your teeth, our office offers many options which can improve the look of your smile and quality of life which includes implants and dentures.

Now Offering:

- Free Denture Consultation
- 15% Senior Discount
- Flexible Payment Plan

All our doctors are caring and dedicated to give you the best results.

Dr. Ekbal Elkadry DMD.

1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA • (617) 472-3919

'Merchants Row' Center Project Needs Refinement

By KRIS KALABOKAS

Quincy's downtown redevelopment project is progressing slowly but surely according to discussion at last Wednesday's meeting of the planning board.

The $1.6 billion project, headed by developers Beal Street-Works, is still under preliminary peer review, according to Planning Director Dennis Harrington.

Wessling Architects, the firm appointed by the city to conduct the peer review of the beginning stages of the project, which includes the construction of two apartment buildings to be located at 1400 Hancock St., declared further refinement was necessary from developers before the issuing of a certificate of consistency, a document which indicates that renovations fall in line with visual design standards put in place by the board.

Richard Heapes, co-founder and partner at Street-Works, told board members and the public, who filled Council Chambers, that Merchants Row, as the area will be called, will set the tone not only for Downtown Quincy, but also surrounding neighborhoods.

"We presume that what we propose on Hancock Street will be the standard for the future of Hancock Street," he said. "We will have every type of use, from office, to retail, to residential, including renovated historic and new construction."

He emphasized that all materials utilized, such as the fine-finish concrete to be used for the proposed 20-foot wide sidewalks, would be "high quality," and consistent with materials used in recently renovated, adjacent neighborhoods. Heapes cited the Quincy Mutual building's "traditional" and "heroic" facade as an example of the aesthetic which would be echoed throughout the area and surrounding structures.

A revision of the design of the taller, 15-story residential complex will be necessary according to planning board officials. To remain consistent with the height of neighboring buildings, the topmost floors must be "stepped back," pushing them farther back than the floors below.

"It's hard to do that in residential," said Heapes, who noted that the cost of engineering and constructing a "stepped back" apartment complex would be more expensive due to difficulties in incorporating heating systems and other utilities.

Adding a bit of whimsy to the area will be an outdoor fireplace etched with a diorama depicting the history of stone cutting in Quincy. "You can literally see the history of granite," said Heapes.

While no members of the public rose to speak in favor of the project, those who spoke in opposition voiced concerns over parking, traffic, and general disruption during construction. Harrington assured worried residents and local business owners that a planned, city-owned parking structure located at the center of the 1400 Hancock St. block, with an entrance on Cottage Street, would alleviate some parking issues. In total, residents should expect approximately 5,000 street level and garage parking spots after the project is wrapped up.

Traffic and the hassle of navigating through massive construction, on the other hand, will be harder to avoid.

"Six million dollars worth of construction usually involves some adjustment by people who walk or park depending on what they use, but you're in for a significant change," he said. "We guarantee you that in the spring of '13, this project will start. There will be some inconvenience, but it will start."

Quincy Fire Department officials were consulted and indicated a fire protection system would need to be conceived and implemented in the area. Concerns were also raised over fire truck accessibility on one of Merchants Row's narrower streets.

Harrington noted that a significant number of future meetings would be necessary before any construction would take place, and declared the approval process for the downtown redevelopment project to be an open and ongoing matter.

Free Prostate Screenings Nov. 27 At BID Hospital-Milton

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital-Milton will hold free prostate screenings Tuesday, Nov. 27 from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. in the hospital's second floor Brooks Wing, 199 Reedsdale Rd., Milton.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, prostate cancer in the United States is the most common cancer in men. In 2008 (the most recent year for which numbers are available), nearly one quarter of a million men in the United States were diagnosed and nearly 30,000 men in the United States died from prostate cancer.

Men interested in combating this preventable form of cancer are encouraged to attend a free prostate cancer screening at Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital-Milton.

The screening is free but pre-registration is required. Call 617-696-8810 to register.

Participants must have their blood drawn in advance of the screenings. Blood drawing may be completed on a walk-in basis at the BID-Milton laboratory, located on the first floor of the hospital, now through Nov. 26. No appointment is necessary for the laboratory. For more information, visit www.bidmilton.org.

Brewers Corner Parking, Traffic Issues Topic Nov. 29

Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci will host a community meeting to discuss parking and traffic issues in the Brewers Corner neighborhood Thursday, Nov. 29 at 6 p.m. in the City Council Chamber, 1305 Hancock St.

"As winter fast approaches and our streets become more congested due to snow, it is important to review current practices to explore potential ways in which we can improve conditions for residents," Palmucci said. "At this important community meeting we will review the city's winter parking rules, current traffic patterns, and parking ordinances in the neighborhood with the city's traffic engineer."

If you're planning on a joint replacement, you'll find this information irreplaceable.

Is Your Joint Pain Slowing You Down?

Hip and knee pain as we age can seriously limit your physical activity. If pain is preventing you from keeping fit and active, it may be time to consider joint replacement surgery. Join Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital-Milton Orthopaedic Surgeon Michael Berry, MD, for a discussion of joint pain, its treatments, and clinical and surgical advancements that can get you home after surgery and back on your feet faster than ever.

JOIN OUR INFORMATION SESSION:

DATE: Wednesday, December 5

TIME: 6:30 PM

PLACE: Nangeroni Education Center at Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital-Milton, 199 Reedsdale Road (Route 28), Milton, MA

DIRECTIONS: www.bidmilton.org/directions

COST: FREE, registration required

CALL: 617-696-8810 to register

Michael Berry, MD
Orthopaedic Surgeon

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

199 Reedsdale Road (Route 28), Milton, MA 02186 (617) 696-4600 www.bidmilton.org

BREAKFAST WITH SANTA
Saturday & Sunday
Starts December 1st

The View Restaurant & Tavern
PRESIDENTS GOLF COURSE
357 West Squantum St., Quincy, MA 02171
617.770.2500
CALL FOR RESERVATIONS!!

Nicole's
STUDIO

261 Copeland St
Quincy, MA
617-934-5135

Nicole's Studio offers the very Best in modern hair design

Ladies, Come into Nicole's Studio for a Cut & Color
Bring the guy of your choice, he gets a "FREE CUT"
(He must be a first time client)

Always free parking
Call today for an appointment.
617-935-5135

Visit
www.nicolessalon.com
Like us on Facebook
www.facebook.com/nicolesstudio

SW Quincy Neighborhood Meeting Nov. 27

South West Quincy Neighborhood Association will hold its fall meeting Tuesday, Nov. 27 at 7 p.m. at the Granite Street Cafe, 378 Granite St.

Due to recent re-districting, South West Quincy borders three wards: Wards 3, 4 and 5. Those living in South West Quincy or in these wards are invited to attend and bring forth issues they think need to be addressed.

Ward councillors have been invited along with the area Community Police to update the residents on issues regarding the neighborhood improvements..

Light refreshments. For additional information 617-479-1601 or 617-376-0746.

ShapeMatch®. It's the new technology in knee replacement. If you're interested in learning how this advancement can often improve recovery, mobility and outcomes from your knee surgery, you owe it to yourself to learn about ShapeMatch.

Visit bidmilton.org/kneereplacement

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital Milton

LEGAL NOTICE

QUINCY POLICE DEPARTMENT OFFICE OF THE CHIEF

PLACEMENT OF NO PARKING SIGNAGE FOR CHRISTMAS PARADE - 2012

In accordance with the Municipal Code, Title 1, Chapter 10.04.050, parking will be prohibited on the following street from 8:00 AM to 3:30 PM on Sunday, November 25, 2012 (rain date Sunday, December 2nd). During the time of the restriction, these streets will be regulated a "NO PARKING-TOW ZONE." Posting of the signs will be on the evening of Friday, November 23, 2012.

STREET	SIDE	FROM	TO
Hancock Street	Both	School Street	Kendall Street

In accordance with the Municipal Code, Title 1, Chapter 10.04.050, parking will be prohibited in the following parking lots from 8:00 AM to 3:30 PM on Sunday, November 25, 2012 (rain date Sunday, December 2nd). During the time of the restriction, designated areas of the parking lots will be regulated a "NO PARKING - TOW ZONE." Posting of the signs will be on the evening of Friday, November 23, 2012.

PARKING LOT

Hancock Lot (across from court house)
Ross Way Lot (paved area)

ROAD CLOSURES FOR CHRISTMAS PARADE 2012

Section 1: 8:00 AM (Floats)

Hancock Street from School Street to Hannon Parkway
Hancock Court to Hancock Street

Section 2: 11:00 AM (Marching Bands & Other Participants)

Hancock Street from Hannon Parkway to Granite Street
Hannon Parkway from the Parkingway to Hancock Street
Revere Road (Westbound) @ Dennis Ryan Parkway
Cottage Ave. from Chestnut Street to Hancock Street.
Ross Way
Clivden Street

Section 3: 12:00 PM

Granite Street @ Burgin Parkway
Chestnut Street @ Foster Street
Washington Street @ Temple Street
Coddington Street (Westbound) @ Newcomb Street
Hancock Street from Granite Street to Furnace Brook Parkway

Section 4: 12:30PM

Hancock Street from Furnace Brook Parkway to NQHS

Respectfully submitted,
Detective Sgt. Richard Tapper

11/21/12

Some 100 Units In 60th Annual Quincy Christmas Parade Sunday

Cont'd From Page 3

theme was submitted by Nancy Connolly of West Quincy and selected by the Quincy Christmas Festival Committee.

As the Festival theme contest winner, Connolly will ride the parade route in a convertible.

Winners of the Quincy Christmas Parade Poster Contest have also been invited to ride the parade route in convertibles.

The winners are:

Grades 1-3 category:

• First Place - Peter Boylan, Jr., grade 3, Clifford Marshall School.

• Second Place - Zachary Donaghue, grade 3, Quincy Catholic Academy.

• Third Place - Swetha Venkatesen, grade 3, Quincy Catholic Academy.

Winners in Grades 4 and 5 are:

• First place - Darby Boudreau, grade 4, Clifford Marshall School.

• Second place - Rochelle Barry, grade 5, Bernazzani

School.

• Third place - Kevin Gallagher, grade 5, Bernazzani School.

(Full story and photo of winners on Page 18 in this issue of The Quincy Sun.)

Here is a list of this year's Christmas Parade participants:

FLOATS

Non-commercial: Cochrane Memorial Road Race, Quincy Catholic Academy, St. Agatha School, Woodward School for Girls, Quincy After-School Child Care, Quincy Park Department, Union Congregational Church, Braintree Moose Family Center, Relay for Life (Quincy), Quincy Youth Football/Quincy Militia, Quincy Partnership, Skills for Living.

Commercial: Jack Conway Company, Quincy Medical Center, Quincy Chamber of Commerce.

BANDS

Joseph Case "Cardinals," Immaculate Heart of Mary, Douglas High School, Weymouth High School, David

Prouty High School, Somerset Berkley Regional High School, New Bedford High School, Acton-Boxborough Regional High School, Hanover High School, Combined Quincy-North Quincy High School, Waltham Legion Band, Local 103 IBEW Pipes & Drums and Boston Police Gaelic Column.

Due to the change in the starting point for the parade, the high school band competition judging has been moved to opposite City Hall.

OTHER UNITS

Silver Dolphin Drill Team, "Wally" the Green Monster Boston Red Sox mascot, Aleppo Shriners Clowns & Fire Brigade, McGruff the Crime Dog, Hallamore Clydesdales, approximately 35 antique cars and vehicles from the Shore Shore Corvette Club.

Also, Toys for Tots, Quincy and North Quincy High School's Homecoming Queens, color guards and honor guards and of course, Santa.

Good Cafe & Gourmet Treats

GUNTHER TOOTIES
Freshly Baked

1253 Hancock St.
Quincy
(Right Outside Quincy Center
7 Spaces Next to City Hall)
617-471-1866

Open 7 Days
Quincy • Hanover • Pembroke • Duxbury
www.GuntherTooties.com

"BEST BAGELS IN TOWN"
Over 30 selections Homemade Bagels & Cream Cheese

FREE
Tub of Cream
Cheese with purchase of Bakers
Dozen of Bagels
1 coupon per visit
Quincy Only • Expires 12/31/12

FREE
Breakfast Sandwich
with purchase of any
Breakfast Sandwich
1 coupon per visit
Quincy Only • Expires 12/31/12

Regain strength,
confidence & mobility

Hancock
Park

REHABILITATION &
NURSING CENTER

164 Parkingway
Quincy, MA

617-773-4222

CHOOSE QUALITY
Successful Short-term
Rehabilitation

- Comprehensive rehabilitation for joint replacement, stroke, cardiac conditions & diabetes
- Occupational, physical, & speech therapies
- Experienced & dedicated nursing staff
- Detailed discharge planning for a safe transition home

Call today
for a Free
Rehabilitation
Brochure & Tour!

Over 60 Years of
Quality Service
Welch
HEALTHCARE AND
RETIREMENT GROUP

CHARLES WALKER (left), Assistant Branch Manager of Bank of Canton's Quincy Branch, presents Dan Barter of Quincy with the Grand Prize of a Cruise to the Caribbean, celebrating the branch's move to a new location.

CAROLYN ARRIGAL (left) of Quincy won travel vouchers for a weekend getaway to Washington, D.C. from Bank of Canton's celebration of its new Quincy location. With her is Branch Manager Ken Anderson.

RICHARD FENNESSY (left) of Quincy won a $250 gift cheque to the Top of the Hub at the Prudential Center, Boston. With him is Branch Manager Ken Anderson.

Quincy Residents Awarded Prizes From Bank Of Canton

To celebrate its new location, Bank of Canton awarded major prizes to several Quincy residents who visited the new branch at 60 Mayor Thomas McGrath Highway throughout the month of October.

The month long celebration included a different prize drawing each week that tied back to various elements of the City of Quincy's history.

Dan Barter of Quincy, a Bank of Canton customer for 13 years, won the Grand Prize of a tropical cruise to the Caribbean in honor of Quincy's history as a ship-building center. Barter said he had been depositing his payroll check from Ayers Collision and Towing in Marina Bay, when he filled out an entry form.

Branch Manager Ken Anderson called him with the good news. Barter and his wife Cindy plan to take the cruise - their first - in May.

"This was just awesome," Barter said. "I love Bank of Canton. Everyone is always so polite and professional. I love doing business there. It's hard to believe we won the cruise."

Other winners were: Carolyn Arrigal of Quincy, who won travel vouchers for a weekend getaway to Washington, D.C. to commemorate Quincy being the hometown of Presidents John Adams and John Quincy Adams.

Richard Fennessy of Quincy won a $250 gift cheque to the Top of the Hub at the Prudential Center, Boston. In 1845, the Old Colony Railroad gave Quincy residents their first public transportation to Boston.

Julianna O'Brien of East Bridgewater and formerly of Quincy won a $100 American Express gift cheque; to commemorate Quincy being known as "Shoppertown USA" in the 1940s and 50s.

"We were very successful in getting the community excited about our new location and its expanded amenities and services," Anderson said. "Many residents from Quincy and surrounding towns dropped in and filled out entry forms to win one of our tremendous prizes, and learn more about the financial solutions Bank of Canton has to offer."

Moving from the former location on Quincy Avenue, the new Bank of Canton branch boasts a comfortable and spacious interior, a much larger parking area, safe deposit boxes, and a drive-up ATM. It also offers a wide array of consumer and business banking products and services, including: checking and savings accounts, residential mortgage loans, business accounts, remote deposit capture and commercial Loans.

Bank of Canton also offers Estate Planning and Asset Protection services through its wholly-owned subsidiary, B.O.C. Life Solutions, LLC. Bank of Canton also offers access to the "Expert On Call" service, where customers can either call or web conference directly with a specialist in their area of interest from the new branch.

South Cove Community Health Center

The Premier Asian Community Health Center of Massachusetts

麻州首屈一指亞裔社區醫療中心

GREAT NEWS AT SOUTH COVE QUINCY!!

Effective October 15, 2012

Our Pediatrics Department, Dental Department, Optometry Department, Ob/Gyn Department, Behavioral Health Department and our Social Services Department are now ALL LOCATED at 88 Holmes Street - please come and see or new home!

In 2013

A newly expanded Adult Medicine Department and a 340B Pharmacy will open to better serve the needs of our patients at the 435 Hancock Street Clinic.

Hancock St. Clinic
漢考克街診所

435 Hancock St., Quincy
617-745-0280

成人科、340B 藥房
及社會服務部
Adult Medicine, 340B Pharmacy
and Social Services

Holmes St. Clinic
霍姆斯街診所

88 Holmes St., Quincy
617-318-3200

婦科、小兒科、牙科、眼科、心理科、
社會服務部及家庭計劃
OB/GYN, Pediatrics, Dentistry, Optometry,
Behavioral Health, Social Services
and Family Planning

WE ARE OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK

CALL TO SCHEDULE AN APPOINTMENT TODAY!

FREE PARKING AVAILABLE

We provide assistance with MassHealth, Commonwealth Care & Health Safety Net Applications 華人醫務中心是協助有需要人士申請醫療福利及麻州全民保險計劃

WWW.SCHC.ORG

COPELAND PACKAGE STORE recently finished $240,000 in renovations to the inside and outside of the building located on 273 Copeland St. Owner Denis Carson (pictured) said that his favorite thing about the renovations was being able to move the bottle return outside. The new bottle return is leased by the business and has already turned a profit for Carson.

NEW RENOVATIONS included expanding the wine section of the store, according to owner Denis Carson (center) they now offer over 250 fine wines. For over 60 years the family owned package store has been serving local customers with fine wines, beer, liquor, and micro brews, along with everyday essential items and groceries. Renovations also included enlarging the refrigerator.

Quincy Sun Photos/Emily Taft

$240,000 In Renovations At Copeland Package Store

By EMILY TAFT

For over 60 years, Copeland Package Store has been serving local customers with a large variety of beer, liquor and wine at a low price, and now after over $240,000 in renovations they are able to broaden their options for customers even more.

"To be able to expand the variety of products that are needed to be a full service store is great," said Denis Carson. "It took about six months of very long days but the end result is wonderful."

The family owned business located at 273 Copeland St. takes pride in their customer service and knowledge of products throughout the entire store.

"We did not miss one hour of opening during construction. If we had to move things 10 times a day we moved it," said Carson. "It's not in my values to hike up the prices. We try to stay consistently fair, and if I save money the consumer saves money. That's why we've survived for over 60 years.

"We have people who have been coming here for 20-30 years and now even their kids, who we have seen grow up, are coming here. It's the customers, the people that I enjoy most about my job."

Over the years the package store has expanded in space from its original size of 800 square feet to the 3,400 square feet it is today. The building use to be more than just the package store, it was once home to a laundromat until Carson decided to buy the business out, gut the interior and expand the package store.

The new look includes a 20-door refrigerator, which cost around $60,000 and includes a four-door refrigerator that is used to chill wine. The 20-door fridge is a step up from the nine doors the package store had before the renovations.

Carson said that they also put in a new updated $22,000 computer system as a part of the renovations and remodeling.

"Everything is running better with the new computer system," said Carson. "We were able to hire two more full time people because of the renovations."

Carson also renovated the basement making room for more products and variety to be able to store and sell. He said his one new favorite thing is having the bottle collection and new bottle collection machine outside instead of taking up space inside the store. Carson rents the new machine located right outside the building's entrance. He said he has had the new machine for around three months and has already made a large profit on the returns.

"We are making a big profit from the new machine," said Carson. "Moving the bottle return outside also allowed us to gain a lot of the square footage back inside."

The store not only offers over 75 micro brews, over 150 regular beers, and around 280 new fine wines, along with a large assortment of different liquors, but also what Carson likes to call quick fix groceries such as snacks, milk, orange juice, eggs, cereal and toilet paper.

"With more selection the customers are happy," said Carson. "There is always something more we can do, renovation wise and selection wise."

Little Richie's Antiques

SERVING THE ENTIRE SOUTH SHORE • SINGLE PIECE OR ENTIRE ESTATE

CASH PAID FOR SCRAP GOLD & SILVER

Toys • Tools • Glass • Books • Radios • Pottery • Clocks
Coins • Knives • Jewelry • Military • Records • Cameras
Furniture • Hummels • Lladros • Royal Doultons
Maps & Atlases • Trains • Swords • Police & Fire Badges

Musical Instruments • Scientific Instruments
Oil Paintings • Oriental Rugs • Gold & Silver
Advertising Signs • Coin Operated Machines
Anything Unusual & Weird

50 Hancock Street, Braintree

781-380-8165

WWW.LITTLERICHIESANTIQUES.COM

RICHARD SOO HOO
INSURANCE AGENCY

HOME • AUTO • RESTAURANT • BUSINESS

Free parking on Fay St. first parking lot on the right.

國語·粵語·台山話

More Than Just Insurance.

Plymouth Rock
assurance.

1148 Washington St, Boston MA 02118 • 近 Ming's 超市 • (617) 338-8168 • soohooinsurance.com

A smarter way to target prostate cancer.

MEET ARTEMIS.

In the battle against prostate cancer, there's a new weapon: Artemis. It's the fusion of 3D imaging technologies that brings pinpoint accuracy to prostate biopsies, and brings you an enhanced level of confidence in your care.

HEAR WHAT ARTEMIS HAS TO SAY AT BIDMILTON.ORG/PROSTATEHEALTH.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

A S S E M B L Y

NOW OPEN!!!

Serving Lunch 11:30-4:00 & Dinner 4:00-10:00

Open Thanksgiving 8am-2pm & 7pm-close (kitchen closed)

ENTERTAINMENT SATURDAYS

10pm-1am

11/24.... DJ Damien

Book your Holiday Party!

A S S E M B L Y

425 Hancock St. Quincy

(617) 302-4696 • (617) 302-4987

Oral Surgery South Hosts Veterans Appreciation Day

ORAL SURGERY SOUTH doctors and staff, in cooperation with the City of Quincy Office of Veterans Services, recently hosted a Veterans Appreciation Day at its office located at 24 Quincy Ave., Quincy. From left are: Robert Lincoln, DMD; Joseph Leibovici, DMD; Carlos Salazar, Surgical Assistant; Lori Dube, Surgical Assistant; Tanios Rubeiz, DMD; Kerri O'Brien, Surgical Assistant; Stephanie Montikaitis, Surgical Assistant; Jan Taylor, Surgical Assistant; and John Cataudella, DMD.

VIETNAM ERA VETERAN Christopher Livsby of Quincy receives a free examination by Joseph Leibovici, DMD (left) and Carlos Salazar, Surgical Assistant at a recent Veterans Appreciation Day hosted by Oral Surgery South, 24 Quincy Ave., Quincy. The appreciation day featured no charge examinations, free cancer screenings, free radiographs and free minor procedures performed on veterans with proof of military service. Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Noble

Audit: City Facing Deficits In Police, Fire Detail Funds

By SCOTT JACKSON

Quincy's financial management came under scrutiny last week when CPA Jim Powers of Powers & Sullivan reviewed his firm's annual audit of the city.

The audit of the city's books from FY11 - July 1, 2010 to June 30, 2011 - was discussed at a City Council Finance Committee meeting last week. Powers told the committee the biggest issue facing the city was deficits in its police and fire detail funds.

"The biggest substantive point that we still have as a material weakness is the deficit in the police and fire details," Powers said.

"There's been a lot of progress made on putting systems in place to track what's happening now, but there's been a deficit that's been carried forward for years and years and years and years of hundreds of thousands of dollars that needs to be addressed and we have not seen any action by the city to fund that deficit."

At the end of FY11, the deficit for the police detail fund was $963,000 and the fire detail fund's deficit was $252,000. That hurts the city when its free cash is calculated, because the combined amount is deducted from free cash.

"When you do your free cash calculation, you get hit. Your free cash is reduced by that particular deficit," Powers said. "You don't get to use the money, so you might as well fund it."

The deficit is incurred when companies that need police or fire details don't pay. Powers said the city has made an effort to collect the money it's owed, but some of the debts go back more than a decade.

"The city is going through a process right now that they're going to get a little more aggressive at pursuing all the potential old receivables," Powers said. "But there's a lot of these that go back 10 or 15 years."

Powers suggested that the city should set a cutoff date for the fund, and reimburse the fund for any debts that exceed a certain age. That would reduce the deficit, and the city could still collect those debts at a later date. The only difference is that if they were paid off, those receipts would go into the general fund and not one of the detail accounts.

"You go through that process and you do a proper cutoff, you'd be able to come back and say your real deficit is $600,000 or so because you have to collect and be able to separate a lot of these things. And it doesn't prevent you from collecting subsequently, it

Cont'd On Page 17

QUINCY PRIMARY CARE & COUNSELING

Accepting new patients

We offer a variety of patient care under one roof including:

- Primary Care
- Psychiatric Management
- Individual Therapy.

In addition to general primary care, our team is ready to take those patients that are currently on or want to be enrolled in either Vivitrol or Suboxone sobriety management programs.

275 Hancock St. F12 • Quincy, MA 02171
To Make An Appointment Call: (617) 472-4800

Mari's Place

35 Washington St., Quincy

617-471-1200

WWW.MARISPLACE.COM

SUNDAY - THURSDAY

4 p.m. to Close

21-TOPPING

PIZZAS

FOR $10

MONDAY

Wii Bowling

w/50¢ Wings

@ 8PM

WEDNESDAY

Karaoke 9PM

THURSDAY NIGHT

Open Mic

FRIDAY- Gourmet Night

THURSDAY THRU SUNDAY

Live Bands

FRI. & SAT. at 11PM

LOBSTER RAFFLE

MEAT RAFFLE

SUN., DEC. 2ND

2:00PM

All Raffles Benefit

Free Spirit Fund

$10.00 EVERY

DAY

32 oz. Pitcher Bud or Bud

Light w/10 Buffalo Wings

OR 1 Topping Pizza

$5.00 refills

HOME-MADE DAILY SPECIALS

Enjoy Your Fall At

Restaurant & Lounge

Lounge Full Menu • Daily Specials

COME WATCH

THE PATRIOTS

705 Adams St., Quincy

617-773-0095

www.villarosaquincy.com

EARLY BIRD SPECIALS

$9.99

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday

11AM - 6PM

YOUR CHOICE:

Chicken Cacciatore

Half-Roasted Chicken

Fresh Broiled Scrod

served with pasta or salad

and a beverage of coffee, tea or soda

*Offer not valid on holidays, take-out orders or with coupons

HOLLINGSWORTH

DEVELOPMENT

Licensed & Insured

Quality Building and Remodeling for over 20 years.

• Additions

• Roofing

• Siding

• Replacemnet Windows

• New Windows

• Remodeling

10% Senior Citizen Discount

781 964-2737

hollingsworthdevelopment@gmail.com

Real Estate

Quincy Real Estate Transactions Nov. 13 - Nov. 16

Seller	Buyer	Amount	Address
Daniel R. Bertoldi & Michelle Bertoldi	Joseph C. O'Brien & Daniela I. O'Brien	$355,000.00	20 Hoover Avenue
Dana D. Ahern	Quincy Chestnut Street LLC	$525,000.00	30 Chestnut Street
Magee Irrevocable Home Trust	Kelly Wong, June P. Wong & Tse F. Wong	$235,000.00	58 Shirley Street
Judith A. McGoff Trust	Pauly Family Trust	$450,000.00	29 North Central Avenue
Edward R. Tusi & Kathleen V. Tusi	Jin X. Feng & Li G. Zheng	$298,000.00	18 Hill Street
Frank J. Sacco & Scott C. Sacco	Kyle C. Collins & Sara D. Collins	$416,000.00	16 Summit Avenue
Patricia M. Collins	Xiao Y. Deng	$260,000.00	101 Bowdoin Street
Frances M. Consalvi	Weihua Dong	$345,000.00	37 Deldorf Street
469-473 Sea Street LLC	Keith Mower	$150,000.00	469 Sea Street Unit 2
Reginald Linda	Michael J. Russell & Monica L. Russell	$365,000.00	55 Lyons Street Unit 1
Christine Donadio	Nilam L. Kotadia	$184,000.00	123 Elm Street Unit A9
Patrick Irwin & Shawna Irwin	Gregg Constantino & Scott W. Simmons	$309,000.00	33 Larry Place
Joseph A. O'Malley & Sheila E. O'Malley	Allison J. Jones	$392,000.00	29 Carruth Street
Howard T. Wong & Cheuk Y. Wong	Lydia Liu & Yung M. Ng	$218,000.00	10 Weston Avenue Unit 321
Ernst K. Faingersh & Rita R. Faingersh	Sirin Wongwittayavet	$365,000.00	100 Marina Drive Unit 513
Margaret J. McCormack & Paul F. McCormack	Michael P. Kelly	$398,000.00	11 Richfield Street
Riley Realty Trust	Qian Lizotte	$510,000.00	21 Harbourside Road Unit 26
Gregory J. Minassian & Meredith M. Craig	Gregory J. Minassian	$165,000.00	150 Phipps Street
Radu A. Giurca & Ileana Giurca	Haiying Liu & Wei Qiu	$369,000.00	45 Sewall Street
Anne M. Baxendale	John K. Dockrey	$177,000.00	271 Manet Avenue
Sean M. McGough	Endri Angjeli	$410,000.00	149 Beale Street

Koch Discusses Downtown Revitalization With Local Real Estate Agents

Mayor Tom Koch recently spoke to local real estate agents at Red Door Real Estate about the revitalization projects taking place in Quincy as well as the development of the New Quincy Center.

With so much attention on the redevelopment of downtown, Koch said it was important to also inform local real estate agents of additional projects helping to revitalize our city; like the new track at Faxon Field.

The event, a monthly broker tour for local real estate agents, was hosted by Red Door Real Estate and attended by over 25 agents.

Madelene Cheney, owner of Red Door Real Estate said, "Real estate agents are a key part of the task force promoting our city. Educating local real estate agents on the various projects currently taking place in our city will create an excitement that can be expressed to home buyers."

During his presentation, the mayor Mayor Koch said credited his predecessors for helping lay the ground work for the various revitalization projects taking place today. "Quincy has been a sleeping giant for a long time," Koch said. "It is now our time to shine."

Local agents were impressed by Koch's enthusiasm for our city and were able to take away a better understanding of all that our city has to offer. and additional photos from the event check out www.RedDoor-RE.com/blog

MAYOR TOM KOCH (center) with Real Estate Agent Sam Rounseville and Red Door Real Estate Broker/Owner Madelene Cheney

For more information

First-Time Homebuyer Workshop

Neighborhood Housing Services of the South Shore will offer a two-part workshop for first-time homebuyers Tuesday, Dec. 11 from 5 to 9 p.m. and Thursday, Dec. 13 at Citizens Bank, 1200 Hancock St., Quincy.

Real estate brokers, insurance agents, attorneys and loan originators will be present.

The cost of the workshop is $20 per person. To register, call (617) 770-2227.

Quincy Sun Featured Home of the Week

57 SPRING STREET, QUINCY

Picture yourself sitting down to dinner overlooking the ocean. Make your dream of living on the water come true. Direct waterfront home on Rock Island Cove. Panoramic ocean views from almost every room. Oversized deck. Private dock giving you direct access to the ocean from your home. Bright South facing home lets in plenty of sunshine. Gleaming hardwood floors. 4 spacious bedrooms with great closet space. 2 Full Baths. True coastal living. $379,900.

Red Door Madelene Cheney
Real Estate Broker/Owner
www.RedDoor-RE.com (617) 894-1124

SEE JAYNE TALK
WWW.C21ABIGAILADAMS.COM

Century 21
ABIGAIL ADAMS AGENCY
617-471-7575

FLAVIN Insurance Agency
Complete Insurance Service Since 1925
Auto • Home • Condos • Apartments
Travel Trailers • Umbrellas • Flood • Business
Boats • Commercial Auto

Offering great rates and discounts
Call or drop in for Premium Quote

Flavin & Flavin
1085 Hancock St. Quincy Center
Visit www.flavinandflavin.com 617-479-1000

For Personal Help with all of your Real Estate Needs
CALL FOR FREE HOME MARKET ANALYSIS
(781) 812-6497

Tina Belcher

Flavin & Flavin 1005 Hancock St. Quincy
Visit: www.tinabelcherhomes.com

Century 21 49 Beale St., Quincy, MA 02170
Annex Realty, Inc. 617-472-4330
www.c21annex.com

Over 70 Seller and Buyer Agents specializing in Residential, Commercial Real Estate, Bank Owned Properties, Short Sales and Rentals

ANNEX REAL ESTATE SCHOOL
Offering Salesperson's, Broker's and Continuing Ed. classes
"STILL NUMBER ONE"

Audit: City Facing Deficits In Police, Fire Detail Funds

Con't From Page 15

would just in effect go into the general fund because the general fund covered that particular deficit," Powers said.

The deficit in the police and fire detail accounts isn't a new problem for the city. Powers has been reviewing Quincy's books since 2008 and has included the deficit in his management letters each year. And it will be in the management letter for FY12 when that is released sometime early next year. The city has taken some steps to force companies to pay, but Powers said more could be done.

"You've implemented some procedures," Powers said. "Distributed [a list of companies that owe detail money], said you shouldn't get a permit if you're a contractor and you owe detail money...you shouldn't be able to get a license if you have a detail and you own a restaurant, etc. A lot of communities do that."

"I know you've been doing a lot that lately as part of a process of improving the last two or three years worth of activity so you don't have as many bad debts. For what you do there's always going to be a little bit of bad debt. Other ways to do it, and some communities do it, and the law allows you to, you could have people pay up front before you assign a detail. Especially if you're a new contractor or something like that that's in place that doesn't have an effective track record. That's what businesses do."

The management letter identified other areas Quincy needs to address. A lack of an internal control policies and procedures manual – essentially a guide documenting day-to-processing and controls – was cited in the FY11 letter and will also be included in the management letter for FY12 – July 1, 2011 to June 30 of this year.

"This is documenting your design and your operation of internal controls," Powers said. "You've got a lot of things coming down the pipe – Quincy's doing some things that a lot of places aren't doing. You want to be able to have a system of internal controls that if Mr. Cavanagh (Finance Director Mark Cavanagh) left, someone could be able to come in and read what needs to be done," Powers said. "That's going to stay as a significant deficiency coming in fiscal year 2012. That's something that really needs to be addressed."

Councillor Doug Gutro asked why the city wouldn't have such a document in place already because other municipalities likely have a controls and procedures manual.

"It seems to me that any municipal body probably benefits from having one of those and in all likelihood there's someone out there that's doing it well that you have as a client," Gutro said. "Have you suggested, and are we as city, pursuing taking some other model for that purpose and implementing it?"

In response, Powers said that he already planned to begin reviewing other municipalities' manuals with Quincy's finance director in the upcoming months.

"I've had a discussion with Mr. Cavanagh on this and over the winter we expect to work with him to use some of the templates from some other clients that already have that," Powers said. "That's something we expect to be worked on during fiscal year 2013. It might not all get done, but I think all the critical functions will be addressed over the winter."

The Powers & Sullivan letter also criticized the use of $191,000 in Honeywell escrow funds to pay costs associated with relocating City Hall offices after Old City Hall was closed. The letter calls the expenditure questionable and recommends the city investigate its legality and, if necessary, take action to charge it to a more appropriate source. When Gutro asked about the transaction, Powers explained that his firm still remains uncertain about it.

"The original Honeywell authorization, obviously, was for energy efficiency. There's a lot of things that fall under that umbrella. At that time when we were looking at it, we didn't have enough information available that was presented to us why this $191,000 was used," Powers said. "We didn't see that nexus between what happened – the move cost – and the original intent. It's still a little uncertain in our eyes right now."

That transaction will still be listed in the management letter for FY12. Powers said the situation could be resolved either by the administration explaining that the funds complied with their original use of energy efficiency. Alternatively, they could reimburse the escrow account for the expenditure.

Powers did say the city has rectified several other issues identified that were on the FY11 report. The report faulted the city for inadequate design of internal control over the preparation of financial statements. The audit found that in FY11, there was no documented process to convert budgetary ledgers to financial statements. But Powers explained that Cavanagh worked to resolve the issue over the course of fiscal 2012.

"In 2012 this is going away because Mr. Cavanagh took control and got all that information for me," Powers said. "It was still a significant deficiency for 2011 but in 2012 I'm going to have that as a resolved issue."

Powers also reported that Cavanagh had resolved an issue with the city's warrants that popped up in the FY11 letter. Additionally, he credited Treasurer/Collector Deb Coughlin for implementing procedures to reduce the number of outstanding uncashed checks written by the city to vendors.

Merrymount School Holiday Extravaganza Dec. 1

Merrymount School will host its annual Holiday Extravaganza on Saturday, Dec. 1 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Merrymount School, 4 Agawam Rd., Quincy.

The event will feature arts and crafts for children and the opportunity for a photo with Santa.

The Merrymount community is also collecting nutritious snacks, personal care items, and letters of well wishes and appreciation for its 4th Operation

Merrymount Care Package Drive for the Troops. Anyone interested in donating items may deliver them to the School during the Holiday Extravaganza.

The public is welcome to the event.

St. Chrysostom Parish Fair

The Episcopal Parish of St. Chrysostom, 1 Linden St. will hold its annual Holiday Fair Friday, Dec. 7 from 6 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, Dec. 8 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

There will be a chowder supper Friday at 6 p.m. On Saturday, the fair will be open with breakfast offerings. Both days will feature crafts, a book sale, attic treasures, baked goods, a raffle table and more.

The Mite Box Thrift Shop will be open both days and hours of the fair.

For more information, call 617-472-0737.

Sometimes it's Business...

- Business Checking & Savings Accounts
- Commercial Mortgages, Loans & Lines of Credit
- Merchant Card & Payroll Services
- Remote Deposit Capture
- Business Credit & Debit Cards
- Business Online Banking & Bill Payment

Sometimes it's Personal...

- Convenience Checking & Free Checking with Interest
- Savings & Money Market Deposit Accounts
- Residential Mortgage Loans
- Construction Loans
- Home Equity Loans & Lines of Credit
- Credit & Debit Cards
- Online Banking & Bill Payment

We're here to help you with both.

For more information on our products and services, stop by our Quincy branch and speak with Margaret Tung!

歡迎光臨

Margaret Tung
Business Development &
Customer Service Representative

60 McGrath Highway
Quincy, MA 02169
Phone: 781.828.1690 x6525
mtung@thebankofcanton.com
NMLS# 753065

Fluent in: Mandarin, Cantonese,
Taiwanese, and Burmese.

流利 普通話 粵語 緬語

BANK OF CANTON

888.828.1690 • 60 McGrath Highway, Quincy • www.bankofcanton.com • Member FDIC, Member NCUA

"Gobble-gobble"

There will be no curbside collection of trash, recycling or yardwaste on Thursday, November 22 in observance of the Thanksgiving Day holiday.

Collection for the rest of the week will be delayed by one day.

The DPW Administration building will be closed Thursday and Friday, November 22 and 23.

The DPW rear yard will be OPEN to the public on Friday and Saturday from 7:30 am to 2:30 pm, November 23 and 24, 2012.

Madelene Cheney

Sam Rounseville

Red Hilton

Jeanne King

*Happy Thanksgiving
from our Family to Yours!*

Sandra Fennelly

Michelle Mastrobattista

Mike Cheney

Sara Little

CHRISTMAS PARADE POSTER Contest winners (front row, from left): Grade 1-3 category - First Place Peter Boylan, Jr., grade 3, Clifford Marshall School; Third Place Swetha Venkatesen, grade 3, Quincy Catholic Academy; and Second Place Zachary Donaghue, grade 3, Quincy Catholic Academy. Back row (from left) Grade 4-5 category - First Place Darby Boudreau, grade 4, Clifford Marshall School; Third Place Kevin Gallagher, grade 5, Bernazzani School; and Second Place Rochelle Barry, grade 5, Bernazzani School. The winning posters are on display in the front window of The Quincy Sun, 1372 Hancock St., Quincy Center.

Photo Courtesy Quincy Access TV

On Display In Quincy Sun Front Window

Christmas Parade Poster Contest Winners Announced

Quincy Access TV, sponsor of the Quincy Christmas Parade Poster Contest in partnership with the Christmas Festival Committee, announces this year's contest winners.

More than 500 entries were submitted from elementary school students in Quincy.

The winners in Grades 1-3 are:

- First Place - Peter Boylan, Jr., grade 3, Clifford Marshall School.

- Second Place - Zachary

Donaghue, grade 3, Quincy Catholic Academy.

- Third Place - Swetha Venkatesen, grade 3, Quincy Catholic Academy.

Winners in Grades 4 and 5 are:

- First place - Darby Boudreau, grade 4, Clifford Marshall School.

- Second place - Rochelle Barry, grade 5, Bernazzani School.

- Third place - Kevin Gallagher, grade 5, Bernazzani School.

The winners in both categories received their awards on the "Christmas Festival" preview show that aired over the week. It will also be broadcast on Quincy Access TV several times throughout the holiday season.

The winners will also ride in a convertible in the 60th annual Christmas Parade Sunday, Nov. 25.

The winning posters are on display in the front window of The Quincy Sun, 1372 Hancock St., throughout the holiday season.

Holiday Gift Guide

The Four's Restaurant

FREE $20 GIFT CARD WHEN YOU PURCHASE $100 IN GIFT CARDS

HAVE A HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON

15 Cottage Avenue
Quincy • 617-471-4447

certificates available on-line
www.thefours.com

285 Washington Street
Norwell • 781-659-4414

166 Canal Street
Boston • 617-720-4455

Farm Direct Roses

(Assorted Colors while supplies last)

$19.99
per dozen

CLIFFORD'S FLOWERS

1229 Hancock St.

617-479-8884

CHRISTINE'S

DAY SPA & ELECTROLOGY

Gift Certificates

Available Online for

Men & Women

go to www.quincyspa.com

65 Willard St., Quincy • 617-786-1620

332 Victory Road,
Marina Bay, MA 02171
617 471-3511

FREE $25.00 GIFT CARD

for every $100.00 in gift cards purchased

(offer expires 12/25/12)

This year, Give Quincy
a Year Round Christmas Present!

A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION TO

The Quincy Sun

$25.00 in Quincy * $30.00 outside Quincy

$38.00 out of state

to order, call 617-471-3100

Anderson
BICYCLE

Continue "The Tradition"
with a New "Anderson Bicycle"

for Christmas

Save Shipping Costs
Hundreds of Gift Ideas
& Stocking Stuffers!!!

Bicycles for every age & ability

One stop shop for service, clothing & accessories

380 Washington St. • Quincy

(617) 769-9669 • www.andersonbicycle.com

Please, support your local small businesses this season

Holiday Gift Guide

Ginger Betty's Bakery - where you'll find the sweetest gifts this holiday season!

Ginger Betty's Bakery

Let the magic of Christmas come alive as you decorate your own gingerbread house or person while the aroma of gingerbread wafts through the bakery... just like grandma used to make!

Write a holiday letter to a soldier! f Facebook.com/GingerBettyBakery
Call today! 617-472-4729 | www.gingerbetty.com | 215 Somerset Ave. Quincy

Disney

CHAMILIA
YOUR LIFE. YOUR STYLE.

Our exclusive Disney® Collection features everyone's favorite cast of characters, perfect to mix with any Chamilia design.

Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers
52 Billings Road North Quincy 617-328-0084

Quincy's House of Flowers
FAMILY OWNED & OPERATED SINCE 1919
104 SOUTHAMPTON AVENUE • QUINCY, MASS. 02269
617-472-1928

Make Us a Part of Your Holiday Celebration Now & Throughout the Year!

Monthly Floral Arrangement Gift Packages for 2013:
THE PERFECT GIFT THIS HOLIDAY SEASON!
Call for Details

Thomas Kirkade's Winter Wonder

The Inn at Bay Pointe's Christmas Gift to you
Purchase a $50 Gift Card for $40
(20% discount)

Inn At Bay Pointe
64 Washington Court, QUINCY • 617-472-3200

Sign Up for FREE coupons, daily specials and more!

SHOP Local for the Holidays!

The Quincy Chamber of Commerce's Shop Local program is a great way to support the local economy and find savings at the same time this holiday season!

Visit TheQuincyChamber.com

- 1) Click on the Shop Local icon
- 2) Sign up to receive coupons and daily specials for everything from restaurants, to retail & speciality stores, salons & spas and more!

Quincy
Chamber of Commerce

Call us at 617-471-1700 for more information.

1400 Hancock Street Quincy, MA 02269 | TheQuincyChamber.com
Find us on Facebook facebook.com/thequincychamber

Quincy School - Community Partnership and State Street Corporation
present

'Tis the Season...
Symphony & Song!

Celebrate the sounds of the holiday season with the

Quincy Symphony Orchestra
Quincy Public Schools Combined High School Choral Group
and John Adams Orchestra

Tuesday, December 4, 2012
Quincy High School
Lloyd Hill Performing Arts Center
7:30 P.M.

General Admission: $20.00
Tickets may be purchased at both North Quincy High and Quincy High Schools.

Dinner, Show and VIP Seating: $35.00
A 3 course dinner buffet will be served at President's Cafe (located in Quincy High School) prior to the evening performance. Dinner seating will begin at 6:00 p.m. Dinner/Show tickets must be purchased at Quincy Public Schools, 150 Burgin Parkway, Quincy, MA 02269 by Tuesday, November 27, 2012. Seating is limited. For additional information please call (617) 984-8751.

'First Lap' Ceremony Celebrates New City Track Opening

ZACKARY CEDRONE, 7, runs a lap around the city's new $1.1 million regulation track and field facility at Faxon Field on the corner of Coddington Street and Southern Artery at Sunday's opening ceremony.
Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

SCHOOL COMMITTEE MEMBER Kathryn Hubley and her son Nathan Hubley, a student at Wollaston Elementary School, taking an opening lap around the track on opening day.
Photo Courtesy Walter Hubley

PAST AND PRESENT members of the Quincy Track Club gather around director Geoff Hennessy at the opening of the new track Sunday.
Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

SORCHA QUINN (left), age 10 and Daithi Quinn, 7, sport their Quincy Track Club jackets proudly as they listen to Mayor Thomas Koch at the opening of the city's new track Sunday.
Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

SCHOOL COMMITTEE AND CITY Councillors join Mayor Thomas Koch (center with scissors) in cutting the ribbon formally opening Quincy's new $1.1 million track and field facility.
Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

$250,000 is a lot...

But does your bank add a few more zeros?

Most banks insure their customers' deposits through the FDIC, but Bank of Canton knows how important it is to protect you and your money.

We are proud to have additional deposit insurance through the DIF that will protect all deposits above the FDIC insurance amount of $250,000.

Since 1934, no depositor has ever lost a penny in a bank insured by both the FDIC and DIF.

By combining FDIC insurance with DIF insurance, our customers can have peace of mind knowing their money is safe and secure.

When you bank with us, all of your deposits are fully insured and fully protected.

Each depositor is insured by the FDIC to at least $250,000. All deposits above the FDIC insurance amount are insured by the Depositors Insurance Fund (DIF).

888.218.1490 • 60 Pitts. Highway, Quincy • www.bankofcanton.com • Member FDIC Member DIF

NOW OPEN!!!
BROAD STREET
BOTTLES & CANS
24 BROAD ST., QUINCY
(OFF SOUTHERN ARTERY BEHIND POLICE STATION)

ATTENTION QUINCY RESIDENTS
DUE TO THE THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY ON THURSDAY, NOV. 22, 2012, TRASH COLLECTION DELAYS ARE AS FOLLOWS:
THURSDAY PICKUPS WILL BE ON FRIDAY & FRIDAY PICKUPS WILL BE ON SATURDAY.

Capitol Waste, Inc.

On Sunday, Nov. 11, at approximately 5:50 p.m. Officers' Lauren Lambert and Paul Murphy were dispatched to a West Quincy address on a report of domestic disturbance. While en route to the residence, Dispatcher Michael Bowes updated units that the "911" telephone line was still open and he could hear that the disorder was still in progress. The open line lasted approximately two and a half minutes.

Upon arrival, Officer Lambert observed a female wrapped in a blanket running toward her as she exited the cruiser. The female (victim) stated that her boyfriend just beat her up, tried to kill her, and was trashing the apartment. She said that she suffered an injury to her ear and neck as a result of his punches to her head and from a choke hold against her. She added that her boyfriend was still in the apartment. Officer Lambert requested an ambulance to evaluate her injuries. When asked if the boyfriend had a weapon, the victim stated that he had a knife. She said that no one else was in the apartment and that her roommate left earlier "because she is afraid of him."

Officer Lambert approached the front door of the apartment, which was left wide open as the victim fled for her safety. As Officer Lambert approached the interior, she observed the suspect run up the stairs. The officer ordered the suspect to come out of the apartment numerous times but there was no response. Officer Murphy arrived on scene and the two officers secured the perimeter, waiting for additional back-up officers.

Suddenly, there was a loud crash that came from the up-

LT. DAN MINTON

A Job Well Done

By QUINCY POLICE LT. DAN MINTON

stairs rooms, followed by the sound of what seemed like water running in the second floor bathroom. Officers' Bruce Tait, Matt Patten and Sergeant Goyette arrived on scene. The officers then cautiously proceeded into the apartment and systematically searched each room for the suspect. After clearing the second floor, the officers climbed the steps to a third floor bedroom and found a full size closet and two small closets.

Officer Murphy and Sergeant Goyette went to the last closet door, which was set in the far corner of the room in a very confined space. Officer Murphy attempted to open the door but couldn't. He could feel someone placing pressure on the other side in an attempt to keep it closed. Believing the suspect to be on the other side of the door, Sergeant Goyette ordered him to come out. The suspect angrily refused and said, "Go ahead shoot me."

The two officers urged the suspect to come out numerous times, then kicked at the door as the suspect attempted to keep the officers out. The officers were able to force their way into the closet, where the suspect was ordered to put his hands behind his back but refused. The two officers struggled with the suspect, who locked his arms under his body, refusing to be handcuffed. Due to the closets cramped space, the officers pulled the suspect into the hallway and handcuffed him. The suspect was transported to the police station for booking.

Officer Lambert interviewed the victim, who said that they had been dating for over a year and lived together for just a few months. The victim said that they spent yesterday afternoon with her family, but then after returning home, the suspect drank a bottle of Jack Daniels and began fighting. The victim told the officer the fight was over her infidelity while he was incarcerated over the summer for violating his probation on drug charges. The victim thought that they were beyond the incident in their relationship and moving forward, but the argument escalated when the suspect pushed her into the closet, causing her to suffer a cut to her left wrist.

Once out of the closet, the victim locked herself in the bedroom because he was drunk and she was afraid. She stated that the suspect kicked a hole in the bottom of her bedroom door in an attempt to gain entry. She added that she did not report the disorder to the Police because he threatened to call her employer and make allegations about her. Throughout the night, the suspect yelled at her and called her derogatory names.

She said he eventually passed out at 4 a.m., but started drinking again when he woke up and then took some pills. The victim stated, "He gets violent when he mixes benzos with alcohol." As the day progressed, the suspect constantly walked into walls, punched himself in the face as he yelled and swore at her. The victim said she packed a bag to stay at her mother's, took the car keys and purse and brought them into the bathroom to take a shower. The suspect knocked violently on the bathroom door demanding she open the door. Moments later, the suspect forced the door open causing damage to the door and the frame.

Once inside the bathroom, the suspect attacked the victim by pushing her backwards into the wall and pulling her by the hair, followed by numerous punches to her head. When the victim fell to the floor, the suspect began choking her. The victim thought she was going to die. She stated, "He never said he was going to kill me but he had this rage and this crazy look in his eyes—that I thought he

Cont'd On Page 25

QUINCY POLICE HOT SPOTS

QUINCY POLICE STATISTICS: NOV. 9 - NOV. 15

ARRESTS: 35

TOTAL CALLS: 1,149

TOTAL STOLEN VEHICLES: 1

FRIDAY, NOV. 9

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 8:32 p.m., Edison Park. Dwelling. Through the rear door. Possibly around 8 p.m. this evening.

SATURDAY, NOV. 10

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 8:52 a.m., Edgemere Road. Party does not want to pursue anything at this time, advised.

LARCENY, 10:31 a.m., South Street. Generator.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 1:44 p.m., Riverbank Road. Dwelling. Came home approximately a half hour ago to find back door and screen damaged. Inside does not look disturbed. Looks like an attempt.

LARCENY, 9:58 p.m., Edgewater Dr. Past. Spoke to caller; caller did not have all the proper information. Will call back.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 11:28 p.m., Granite Street. Dwelling. White male, 5'3", broke into the caller's apartment. Black gloves and black hat wearing dark clothes. Came in through the front door; caller yelled at him and chased him out of the apartment.

SUNDAY, NOV. 11

UNARMED ROBBERY, 12:24 a.m., Palmer Street. Past. Asian man calling on 911. Something about incident involving daughter that happened in G-Town at 8:30 p.m. Possibly a theft of cell phone. Could hardly understand what he is saying.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 12:57 a.m., Parkway. Two groups. Fight between two groups; x-ray notified; report filed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:20 a.m., Taffrail Road. Language barrier. Caller reports damage to motor vehicle by three unknown youths. Did not appear to any puncture marks in tire. Youths were gone on arrival.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 2:59 a.m., Lawrence Street. Dwelling. Caller observed three parties (1) black male taking things from a yellow house across from Lawrence Street. Check house for B&E. Subjects left in a black SUV.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 10:01 a.m., Willow Street. 2005 Subaru - entire motor vehicle was keyed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 8:31 p.m., Winter Street. Past. Door damaged. QFD assist able to secure door.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:01 p.m., Roberts Street. Window. Second time this has happened.

MONDAY, NOV. 12

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 7:29 a.m., Cottage Avenue. In progress. Caller report the cook is holding one suspect, two others fled in unknown direction. One in custody in the basement. Other two suspects white males, grey hoodies and baseball caps.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:53 p.m., Ricciuti Drive.

Motor vehicle. In first parking lot on right hand side up hill. Just occurred.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 4:06 p.m., Washington Street. Dwelling. Came home to find front door damaged, no one inside.

UNARMED ROBBERY, 5:05 p.m., Hancock Street. Someone grabbed the caller's iPad and ran. Tall black male wearing all black running towards the T Station.

LARCENY, 9:44 p.m., Hancock Street. Black female with a cane grabbed several bags of food and ran out the door. Ran towards Granite Street.

TUESDAY, NOV. 13

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 3:09 a.m., Copeland Street. Tagging. Possibly gang related.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 4:56 a.m., Hancock St. Business. Front door open for almost a minute. Open door, safety pin in door. Break-in through front door. Safe was entered, tray was taken.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:51 a.m., Quincy Shore Drive. UMSC flag vandalized. Flag replaced.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 11:08 a.m., Centre Street. Broken glass door - no suspects.

LARCENY, 12:07 p.m., Centre Street. Money/bank.

LARCENY, 12:35 p.m., Moscow Street. Cat.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 1:02 p.m., Quarry Street. Just occurred. Two black males, black jackets, 17-25 years old walking up hill.

LARCENY, 1:40 p.m., Newport Avenue. Pocketbook. Customer had pocketbook stolen approximately 10 minutes ago from store. Manager is checking camera now. Would like to see officer.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 2:24 p.m., Lawrence Street. Party in the lobby wants to add information to a report filed on Saturday. Parties advised.

LARCENY, 10:48 p.m., Madison Avenue. Of fare. Boston Cab out front. Fare evasion - suspect was gone on arrival.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 14

LARCENY/ATTEMPT, 12:10 a.m., Hancock Street. Detail requesting backup in parking lot. Three suspects given trespass notice. Suspect #1 arrested for uttering. Subject was trying to obtain food with a fraudulent gift card.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 10:58 a.m., Sea Street. Motor vehicle. Past vandalism - tire was slashed overnight. Two tires were slashed two days ago. Caller is in the rear parking lot of address.

UNARMED ROBBERY, 4:43 p.m., Seaport Drive. Elder abuse. See caller at above for report in bayside unit. Complaint for unarmed robbery.

LARCENY, 5 p.m., Newport Avenue. Pocketbook. Black leather pocketbook, light brown handle, wallet with cash, ATM card, license, happened today around 1:45 p.m. in afternoon.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 5:21 p.m., Dennis F. Ryan Parkway. Possibly stolen. Citizen cannot find his car - unknown if it was towed or stolen.

THURSDAY, NOV. 15

LARCENY, 8:32 a.m., Coddington Street. Cell phone.

LARCENY, 1:38 p.m., Bigelow Street. EBT card. Caller in police lobby claims Stop&Shop has a video. Believes his EBT card was stolen from mail. Between Sept. 18 and Sept. 19 $353.90 was charged to EBT card. Will return with proper statements.

LARCENY, 2:37 p.m., Newport Avenue. Employee. Manager caught employee taking product from restaurant.

LARCENY, 4:54 p.m., Arthur Avenue. Computer scam - eBay scam.

LARCENY, 5:38 p.m., Franklin Street. Two black males just left after flim flammings employee out of $50. One had jean jacket on, she thinks they left on foot, unknown direction.

□

STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLES: Ryan Parkway.

□

CAR BREAKS: Manet Avenue, Virginia Road, Joseph Street, 900 and 1000 block of Southern Artery, Narragansett Road, Hollis Avenue, Bellevue Road, Richard Street, Braintree Avenue, Pleasant Street, Parke Avenue.

□

BREAKS AND ATTEMPTED BREAKS: Edison Park, Riverbank Road, 175 Centre St., 300 block of Granite St., Lawrence Street, 200 block of Washington Street, Cottage Avenue.

If you have information on the above crimes, drug activity or any crime, please call the Quincy Police Detective Bureau at 617-745-5764 or log onto the following website: <http://tinyurl.com/ytf6td>.

To report suspicious drug activity, call the Drug Hotline at 617-745-5730. You will not be required to identify yourself, but it could help. To make an appointment to view the Registered Sex Offenders book, call Detective James Dentremon at 617-745-5755.

To contact the Crime Prevention Officer for tips or comments, my direct line is 617-745-5719. My e-mail address is dminton@ci.quincy.ma.us -- Lt. Dan Minton

Entries in the Quincy Police Hot Spots are compiled and submitted by the Quincy Police Department.

They are published by The Quincy Sun as a public service to make local residents more aware of any crime activity in their neighborhood. Questions concerning the Hot Spots list should be directed to Crime Prevention Officer Lt. Dan Minton, 617-745-5719.

OBITUARIES

Diane V. Hennessey, 72Retired Stop & Shop Executive Secretary

A funeral service for Diane V. (Stone) Hennessey, 72, of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 17 at Keohane Funeral Home, Quincy.

Mrs. Hennessey died Nov. 8.

Mrs. Hennessey worked for the Stop & Shop Company, retiring as an Executive Secretary. She was blessed to have had so many close friends at Hancock Court and took great pleasure in organizing social events to include their BINGO program.

Beloved wife of the late Owen Hennessey. Loving mother of Linda Shaughnessy of Dorchester and Bill Hennessey and his wife Debbie of Dorchester. Cherished grandmother of Keri Shaughnessy of Waltham, James Lunnin and Dan Hennessey, both of Dorchester.

DIANE V. HENNESSEY

Longtime best friend of Maureen Hart of Weymouth. Also survived by several brothers and sisters.

Visiting hours are 4-8 p.m. tomorrow (Friday) at the funeral home.

Memorial donations may be made to the Dana Farber Cancer Institute, P.O. Box 849168, Boston, MA 02284.

Vincent P. SullivanOwned Sullivan's Corner Antiques

A funeral Mass for Vincent Paul Sullivan of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 15 at St. Ann Church, Quincy.

Mr. Sullivan died Nov. 12.

He was a retired administrator in the Quincy Public Schools and former owner of Sullivan's Corner Antiques, Quincy.

Beloved husband of Jane (Shea) Sullivan. Loving father of Jennifer Sulewski and husband Steven of Newton and Maureen Sullivan of PA. Devoted grandfather of Anna Sulewski. Cherished brother of Marie Knudsen of FL, Mildred Bonnyman of Hingham, and the late Claire Roberge. Also survived by many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Lydon Chapel for Funerals, 644 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made in Vincent's memory to the Quincy Retired Teachers Scholarship Fund, 590 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02170.

John F. Regan, Sr.National Service Officer For DAV

A Mass of Christian Burial for John F. Regan, Sr. of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 13 at Sacred Heart Church.

Mr. Regan died Nov. 9.

He was a graduate of Boston College High School and Saint Bonaventure University. He served two tours in the Republic of Vietnam in the 4th Infantry Division in the Central Highlands, and later with the Riverine Patrol and the 9th Infantry Division in the Mekong Delta. His awards include the Bronze Star, with two Oak Leaf Clusters, as well as the Air Medal and Meritorious Service Medal.

Mr. Regan was a National Service Officer for the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) from 1973-1997, serving in the Washington DC Service Office and the Boston Regional Office. He also served as the DAV Massachusetts State Commander from 1997-1998. One of his many honors as a National Service Officer, he received the "Man of the Year" award from the Congressional Medal of Honor Society. Lastly, he was a life long Patriots fan and season ticket holder.

JOHN F. REGAN, SR.

Beloved husband of Mary Pat (Riseling) Regan. Devoted father of Tricia Regan Rullo and her husband Paul, Kathleen Regan, and John F. Regan, Jr. and his wife Catherine. Grandfather of Kelly and Mary Regan, and Patrick Ferris. Brother of James P. Regan and the late Daniel Regan. He is also survived by an abundance of nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Dolan Funeral Home, Dorchester.

Interment was in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Memorial donations may be made to a veterans organization of choice.

Virginia A. Connors, 89Worked For Boston Licensing Department

A funeral Mass for Virginia A. (Griffin) Connors, 89, of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 16 at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Connors died Nov. 12.

Born on Nov. 26, 1922 in Boston to Peter and Bridget (Clancy) Griffin. She graduated from St. Patrick's High School in Roxbury and worked for the City of Boston's Licensing Department from 1973 until she retired in 1988. She was a caring and devoted daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and dear friend. She was a source of support for those around her; a role model of faith and strength. She will be missed by all those who were blessed to have known her.

Wife of the late Paul C. Connors, BFD. Mother of Paula Cardinal and her husband Mike of Pembroke, Charles Connors and his wife Gini of Milton, Richard Connors and his wife Gina of Bridgewater, Janet Hines and her husband

VIRGINIA A. CONNORS

Steve of Marshfield and Tricia Vigeant and her late husband Ed of Whitman. Cherished grandmother of 15 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Sister of the late Dorothy Johanson, Irene Stevens, Marge Conlon and, Gerard and Robert Griffin.

Funeral arrangements made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

Memorial donations may be made to JDRF, 26 Broadway, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10004.

Phillip W. Nimeskern, 82Electronics Technician For FAA

A Mass of Christian Burial for Phillip William Nimeskern, 82, was celebrated Nov. 13 at St. Mary's Church, Quincy.

Mr. Nimeskern died Nov. 7.

The son of the late George and May Nimeskern, he was a lifelong resident of Quincy. During the Korean conflict, he served in the US Army. After leaving the Army, he worked as an electronics technician for the Federal Aviation Agency and was Sector Chief in charge of the Winthrop Radar Site.

After retirement, he taught avionics at Wentworth Institute of Technology for several years. He volunteered as a member of Project RE-SEED, mentoring science in the Quincy Public Schools. He was an avid fisherman who could fillet a minnow if a grandchild had caught it and a passionate reader interested in science and many other subjects.

He was an active member of St. Mary's Church, West Quincy. He was active as a Boy Scout leader and was Cub Master for Pack 30 and Scout Master for Troop 32. He was a member of the American Legion, Cyril P. Morrisette Post #294.

Husband of 60 years to Jeanne (Otis) Nimeskern. Also survived by his sister, Betty Nimeskern of

PHILLIP W. NIMESKERN

Springfield. His beloved children are Patricia and her husband Jerry Gager of MD, Phillip Nimeskern and his wife Lynn Noel of Waltham, Kathryn O'Neill and Tim Wong of Marlborough, Beth and her husband David Rossi of Pepperell, and Debra and her husband James Silva of Wareham. His beloved grandchildren are Michael Gager of MD, William and his wife Katherine Gager of MD, Jeanette and her husband Matthew Stair of MD, James Rossi of Allston, Patrick Rossi of ID and Kaitlyn Rossi of Pepperell. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Dolan Funeral Home, Milton.

Interment was in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Memorial donations may be made to St. Mary's Church, 95 Crescent St., Quincy, MA 02169.

Mary B. McCarthyRetired Assembler For Gillette

A funeral Mass for Mary B. (Brosnan) McCarthy of Braintree and formerly of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 17 at St. Ann Church, Quincy.

Mrs. McCarthy died Nov. 12.

Born in Rossanean, Currow, Killarney, County Kerry, Ireland, she had lived in Quincy for many years before moving to Braintree. She worked for 25 years as an assembler for Gillette Company. She enjoyed Irish Set dancing, her many trips to Ireland, and playing camogie.

She was a member of Ceol Traidisiunta na h-Eireann in Watertown. She loved being with her family and her grandchildren and will be sorely missed by all those who had the pleasure of knowing her.

Beloved wife of Timothy McCarthy. Loving mother of Paul McCarthy and his wife Janet of Hull, Maureen Ayers and her husband state Rep. Bruce Ayers of Quincy, and Tara Curry and her husband Sean of Milton. Special and most beloved sister of Bridget McCarthy and her husband Richard of Kingston, Thomas Brosnan of Ireland, and the late Edward and Eugene Brosnan. Grammy and Gee Gee to Jennifer, Erin, Katie, Casey, Brenda, Jessica, Bridget, Richard, Laura, and Kelly. Great-grandmother of Jayden, Mya, and Xavier. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

MARY B. MCCARTHY

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Milton Cemetery.

Memorial donations may be made to Dana Farber Cancer Institute, 44 Binney St., Boston, MA 02215.

A Better Value
For Quincy Families

At Deware Funeral Home, we are proud to offer more value and superior service to Quincy families. A full service traditional funeral is $5,995* with no hidden costs. The price includes:

Funeral Ceremony • Visitation • Casket

At Deware Funeral Home, we put the needs of our customer first. We also offer a Simple Burial Plan for $3,395.

With Deware Funeral Home, you can trust us to provide the compassionate care you expect at an exceptional value, backed by a 100% service guarantee.

Exclusive provider of Dignity Memorial® benefits.

Deware Funeral Home

576 Hancock Street | Quincy, MA 02170 | 617-472-1137

For more information visit
www.dewarefuneralhome.com

*$5,995 plan includes basic services of funeral director and staff, embalming and preparation, visitation, funeral ceremony, transportation to place of disposition, 20-gauge metal casket, website announcement, and memorial stationary package (a register book, 100 thank you cards, 100 prayer cards).
A Service Family Affiliate of AFPS and Service Corporation International, 206 Waver Street, Fall River, MA 02720. (508) 676-2454.

Honor Your Loved One's
Memory
With Flowers

cliffords.com
1.800.441.8884

Frances Kyller, 97

Worked At The Former Long Island Hospital

A funeral for Frances (Gould) Kyller, 97, of Quincy was held Nov. 16 at Hamel, Wickens & Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams St., Quincy.

Mrs. Kyller died Nov. 11 after a period of failing health.

Born in Sharon, she was a life-long Quincy resident. She retired from the City of Boston where she had worked at the former Long Island Hospital. She enjoyed reading and sports. She especially liked to travel and had taken many vacations and cruises over the years.

Wife of the late Wesley E. Kyller. Mother of James Kyller of Braintree, Lynda McNeill of Quincy, and Sandy Cimino and her husband Matt of Weymouth. Sister of Anne Campitelli of Quincy and Lillian Barrett of Kingston. Mother of the late Brenda Smith and sister of the late Thomas Gould. Also survived by nine grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, many nieces, nephews, and friends including Laura Fitzgerald.

FRANCES KYLLER

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to Pancreatic Cancer Action Network, 1500 Rosecrans Ave., Suite 200, Manhattan Beach, CA 90266 or online at pancan.org.

Scott E. Perakslis, 42

A funeral service for Scott E. Perakslis, 42, of Quincy was held Nov. 17 at Sullivan Funeral Home, Hanover.

Mr. Perakslis died Nov. 10.

Born in Weymouth he was the son of the late Stephen Perakslis and is survived by his mother Elaine (Frazier) Perakslis Wheaton and her husband Randy of SC. He was raised and educated in Pembroke, attended Eastern Nazarene College and was an administrator in the finance industry.

He enjoyed cooking, fishing, and laughing.

Loving father of Paul Perakslis of Halifax. Brother of Mark S. Perakslis and his wife Christine of Franklin.

SCOTT E. PERAKSLIS

Interment was in Central Cemetery, Halifax.

Donations may be made to Teen Challenge, 1315 Main St., Brockton, MA 02301.

Lucille G. George, 80

Bank Teller

A funeral service for Lucille G. (Moses) George, 80, of Quincy was held Nov. 15 at St. George Antiochian Orthodox Church, West Roxbury.

Mrs. George died Nov. 11 at Quincy Medical Center after a long illness.

Born on Feb. 22, 1932 in Boston's South End, she was the loving daughter of the late George and Clara (Farah) Moses. She graduated from Girls High School of Boston and worked as a bank teller in Boston's South End for over 13 years.

Residing in Quincy after her marriage, Mrs. George worked in food service for the City of Quincy for 32 years. The last 10 of those years she was cafeteria manager at North Quincy High; there she was revered by faculty, students, and many employees.

Beloved wife of the late Arthur K. George. Loving mother of Yvonne George of Quincy and Diane Sitkows-ki and her husband Dennis of Quincy. Dear sister of Effie Michael of Duxbury and the late Dorothy Joseph, Lily Mazares, George Moses, John Moses, and Nicholas Moses. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, great-great-nieces, and great-great-nephews.

LUCILLE G. GEORGE

Funeral arrangements were made by Bolea-Buonfiglio Funeral Home, 116 Franklin St., Quincy.

Interment was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Jean N. Smith, 85

Banquet Waitress For Local 26

A funeral Mass for Jean N. (Finch) Smith, 85, of Hingham and formerly Quincy was celebrated Nov. 14 at St. Albert the Great Church, Weymouth.

Mrs. Smith died Nov. 11.

She grew up in both Littleton and South Boston and later lived in Weymouth for 37 years before moving to Quincy. She worked as a banquet waitress for Local 26 for over 30 years. In the early 60s Jean was an active advocate for women's rights and union memberships, traveling to Washington D.C. to lobby for them. She was an avid reader and loved to travel and also loved to play scrabble and spend time with her family.

Beloved wife of the late George R. Smith. Devoted mother of John J. Smith and his wife Joanne of Weymouth, Alice H. Bos and her husband Alfred of Hingham, and Jean N. Menice and her husband Paul of ME. Loving sister of the late Gilbert Sonny Finch. Cherished grandmother of Jonathan, Joseph, and Victoria Smith and Molly, Joseph and Nicholas Menice.

JEAN N. SMITH

Funeral arrangements were made by McDonald Funeral Home, Weymouth.

Interment was in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Memorial donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Assn., MA Chapter, 480 Pleasant St., Watertown, MA 02472

Patrick M. Reagan, Esq., 55

Attorney, Law Partner At Boston Firm

A funeral Mass for Patrick M. Reagan, Esq., 55, of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 17 at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Braintree.

Mr. Reagan died Nov. 12.

He was born in Fall River, and raised and educated in Fall River Schools. He was a member of Durfee High School's class of 1975. He graduated from Harvard in 1979 and from Columbia University Law School in 1983.

He lived in Quincy for the past seven years after living in Braintree for 14 years.

Mr. Reagan was an attorney for over 25 years and began his career at the former Hale & Dorr firm in Boston. He later worked for the former Bank of New England and in the late 1990s became a partner at Looney, Cohen, Reagan & Aisenberg in Boston.

He enjoyed listening to music and was a devoted father.

Former husband of Kathleen A. (Crowley) Reagan

PATRICK M. REAGAN

of Braintree. Devoted father of Margaret Jane Reagan, Elizabeth Anne Reagan, and Mary Catherine Reagan, all of Braintree. Beloved son of the late Gerald and Delima (Cartin) Reagan. Brother of Jeffrey Reagan of Fall River and uncle of Katie Reagan.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment was private.

QCAP Receives Food Grant

Quincy Community Action Programs, Inc., has received a grant from Project Bread to assist its emergency food program.

QCAP was one of 430 food programs in 125 communities to share in Project Bread's $986,400 in grants.

The grants support food pantries, schools, farms, food banks, food salvage programs and community organizations providing innovative fresh and local forms of hunger relief.

In Loving Memory of Carl "Gus"
Soderstrom Jr.
2nd Anniversary

Nov. 18, 2010 - Nov. 18, 2012

You are gone but not forgotten. You will live in our hearts forever.

Sadly missed, Love,
Betty, Debbie, Robin, Holly,
Amy, Richie, Nicholas, Joey

Robert T. Smith, 77

Machinist

A funeral service for Robert Thomas Smith, 77, of North Attleboro and formerly Quincy was held Nov. 16 at Dyer-Lake Funeral Home, North Attleboro.

Mr. Smith died Nov. 11.

Born in Boston, Massachusetts on June 28, 1935, he was a son of the late Henry and Irene F. (Burke) McCarthy.

He resided in North Attleboro for the past 11 years having moved to the community from Quincy where he had resided his entire life.

Mr. Smith was employed as a machinist for various companies including Electrotrox in Plainville.

In earlier years he enjoyed candlepin bowling and camping with his family at places including Canoe River in Mansfield and the former KOA in Wrentham. Always the jokester, Mr. Smith enjoyed reading joke books, sharing jokes with others and making up his own jokes.

Loving father of Sandra H. Grace and her husband John H. Grace of North Attleboro, Beverly-Ann Gagliardi-Lowe of North Attleboro, and Vicki L. Smith of North Attleboro, and the late

ROBERT T. SMITH

Robert T. Smith, Jr. Grandfather of Renee Steinberg and her husband John Steinberg of Rockland, Kelly A. Grace of North Attleboro, Robert P. Gagliardi of Roslindale, Matthew J. Grace of North Attleboro, Andrea M. Smith of RI, Sarah M. Englehart of FL, Michael S. Englehart, Jr. of FL, and Robert T. Smith-Englehart of FL. Brother of Paul Smith and his wife Mary-Ann Smith of Quincy, Irene Keenan and her husband John Keenan of Quincy and the late James Smith, George Smith, John "Jack" Smith, Rita Frowley, and Dennis McCarthy. Also survived by several nieces, nephews and extended family members.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to the Community VNA, 10 Emory Street, Attleboro, MA 02703.

Other Obituaries on Page 25
and Online at
www.thequincysun.com

I just don't know what to do...

When a death happens,
nobody really does...
So one of the best things anybody can do is put some plans together ahead of time.

John Keohane

Some even set up a payment plan, too. At Keohane Funeral and Cremation Service we've helped countless people with it. Then they're not guessing anymore—they know what to do.

Keohane
FUNERAL & CREMATION SERVICE

785 Hancock Street
Quincy

333 Hancock Street
North Quincy

21 Emerald Street
Hingham

www.Keohane.com
1-800-KEOHANE

First Baptist Church

"Hanging of the Greens" will be the topic of Pastor C. Michael Cunningham's sermon at Sunday's 10:30 a.m. worship service, First Baptist Church of Wollaston, 81 Prospect Ave.

All are welcome.

Seasonal greens will be placed throughout the sanctuary during the reading of selected scripture passages.

Serving the church will be Greeters Elizabeth Eaton and Beverly Moulton and Scripture Reader Jan Burton.

Following the service, a fellowship coffee hour will be held in the chapel.

Adult Bible Class is held Sundays at 9:30 a.m. in the chapel.

The annual church fair - "Let It Snow" - will be held Friday, Dec. 7, 5 to 8 p.m. and Saturday, Dec. 8, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The church is handicapped accessible.

Craft Fair At Covenant Church

The Covenant Church of Quincy, 315 Whitwell St., will hold a Holiday Craft Fair Saturday, Nov. 24 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The fair will feature both international and local crafts including Christmas ornaments and cards, hand crafted jewelry and hand painted items. There will also be purses made in Thailand, and silk scarves made in Loas by women who run their own microbusinesses which the church has helped to establish.

Table proceeds will help the church sponsor one child for one year through Covenant Kids Congo, a program of their denomination, The Evangelical Covenant Church. Call 617-479-5728 for more information.

First Church Of Squantum

The Saturday morning Men's Breakfast at First Church of Squantum, 164 Bellevue Rd. is held at 8 a.m. in the church parlor.

Fiber Arts has resumed weekly meetings on Tuesday mornings at 9:30 a.m. All are welcome.

The Book Club meets in the church parlor on the first Tuesday of each month at 7 p.m. to discuss a book that has been selected by the Book Club members.

All are welcome to participate.

RELIGION

Living Nativity Dec. 2 At Houghs Neck Church

Local residents will have an opportunity to experience the Christmas story up close, when Houghs Neck Congregational Church presents a free Living Nativity program Sunday, Dec. 2 at 5:30 p.m.

To be held on the church grounds at 310 Manet Ave. immediately following the 5 p.m. Tree Lighting Ceremony at the Sea Street fire station, the Living Nativity will feature local residents, children and live animals in a series of tableaux depicting famous scenes from the story of Jesus' birth. Attendees will move from scene to scene, as narrators recount the Christmas story.

Following the program, refreshments will be served in the church's M. Alicia Corea Fellowship Hall.

Quincy Point Church

St. Andrew's Sunday will be celebrated Nov. 25th during 10 a.m. worship at Quincy Point Congregational Church, 444 Washington St. Chris Mendez will be deacon of the day.

The Rev. Ann G. Suzedell's sermon is titled, "Fisherman Saint."

All are welcome to attend Fellowship hour in the Social hall, complete with coffee and light refreshments.

Tree of Joy Tags are also available Sunday. Come take a tag to help families in need at Interfaith Social Services and Project Access. Unwrapped purchased items are due back on Dec. 9th.

Entertainment Books on sale again for $35 a piece. All proceeds will benefit the QPCC elevator fund.

There are many more ways to save now. Downloading the free entertainment membership coupon app on your mobile device, like on Facebook, follow on Twitter, or subscribe to RSS feeds for coupon updates.

Contact Betty DeCristofaro at 617-472-1265 or call the Church Office at 617-773-6424.

Bethany Church

Bethany Congregational Church, Quincy Center will have Sunday Worship Service (First Sunday of Advent) and Sunday School at 10 a.m.

The Rev. Gary W. Smothers will conduct the service and preach a sermon entitled "Hearts Touched By God."

Fellowship with light refreshments will follow the worship service. All are welcome to attend Bethany Church Worship Services and its numerous group activities. Bethany has a Youth Group, a Men's Group, an Outreach Mission Group doing various charity works and a Friday morning Bible Study Class.

A craft fair will be held at Bethany Church Saturday, Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. There will be homemade Christmas gifts as well as several food tables and a luncheon menu.

Yuletide Craft Fair Dec. 1 At Community United Methodist

Quincy Community United Methodist Church, 40 Beale St., Wollaston, will hold its annual Yuletide Craft Fair Saturday, Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Over 15 vendors will offer a variety of items, including jewelry, hand knitted and hand crocheted items, body scrubs and lotions, wreaths,

Christmas decorations, watercolors, and fused glass, plus much, much more. In addition, a homemade luncheon will be available.

The building is handicapped accessible at the front doors nearest the flagpole.

For more information call the church office at 617-773-3319.

Houghs Neck Congregational

Houghs Neck Congregational Church, 310 Manet Ave., Quincy, will hold Sunday worship at 10 a.m.

All are welcome to attend.

Pastor John Castricum

will preach the sermon "Conflict Management."

Martha Chase and Bryan Logue will serve for the Diaconate, and a fellowship coffee hour will follow the service.

Quincy Religion Directory

SERVICES & ACTIVITIES

Catholic

St. Mary's Church

95 Crescent St., Quincy • 617-773-0120
Masses
Saturday, 4pm, Sunday 7, 9:30 & 11:30am, Weekdays 9am
Handicapped Accessible
New Members Welcome!

ST. AGATHA CHURCH MILTON-QUINCY

432 Adams Street
Milton, MA 02186 • 617-698-2439

Schedule of Masses:

Saturday: 4:30PM
Sunday: 7:30AM, 9:00AM (Family Mass), 10:30AM, 12 NOON, 5:00PM
Weekday Masses: 7:00 & 9:00AM
Reconciliation 3:45PM-4:15pm on Saturdays, other times by appointment

Handicapped Accessible, handicapped parking, elevator to Upper/Lower Churches ~ Air-Conditioned

St. John The Baptist

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

44 School St., Quincy
617-773-1021

Weekend Mass Schedule

Saturday, 4:00 PM
Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 AM
Sunday night 5:30 PM

Weekday Masses

Monday - Saturday 8:00 AM

Latin Mass

1st & 3rd Wednesdays

(Lower Chapel) 7:00 AM

Confessions

Wed. 8:30 - 9:00 AM

Sat. 2:30 - 3:30 PM

Handicapped Accessible

Salvationist

THE SALVATION ARMY

6 Baxter St., Quincy • 617-472-2345
9:45 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION
11AM WORSHIP SERVICE
BRASS BAND MUSIC
7PM TUES WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP
6:45PM WEDS. BIBLE STUDY

Catholic

Sacred Heart Church

"A Roman Catholic Community walking together in Faith, Worship, Education and Service"
386 Hancock St., North Quincy, MA 02171
(617) 328-8666

Sunday Masses

4pm (Sat.) 7:45am, 9am (Family Liturgy)
10:30am (with Choir) and 5pm

Weekday Masses

Mon.-Fri. 7am and 9am, Sat. 9am
Handicapped Accessible

Confessions

Sat. 3-3:45pm in Saint Joseph Oratory

St. Joseph's Church

550 Washington Street
Quincy, MA 02169

617-472-6321

SUNDAY MASSES:

4 p.m. (On Saturday)
8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Weekday Masses 9am

CONFESSIONS: Saturday, 3:00-3:30 pm
Handicapped accessible & Handicapped parking, side entrance air conditioned

Saint Ann's Church

757 Hancock St., Wollaston
617-479-5400

Pastor: Rev. John J. Ronaghan

Weekend Mass Schedule:

Saturday 4:00 PM
Sunday 7:00, 9:00, 11:30AM
Daily Masses: 9:00 AM

Methodist

QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

40 Beale St., Wollaston
617-773-3319
10:30 AM Sunday Worship
Rev. Dr. Susan Jarek-Glidden, Pastor

Congregational

HOUGH'S NECK CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

310 Manet Avenue
617-479-8778

www.hncong.org

Sunday Service at 10AM

'Conflict Management'

All are welcome to attend

FELLOWSHIP COFFEE HOUR

FOLLOWING SERVICE

BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Spear & Coddington Streets
Quincy Center, 617-479-7300
WWW.QUINCYBETHANYCHURCH.ORG

Sunday Nov. 25

Sunday Worship First Sunday of Advent, Sunday School at 10AM.

The Rev. Gary W. Smothers will preach the sermon 'Hearts Touched By God' Child Care Available

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Fellowship Time in Allen Parlor

Congregational

Wollaston

Congregational Church
United Church of Christ
48 Winthrop Avenue
Quincy, Massachusetts

Sunday Worship

at 10 a.m.

Rev. Dr. Mary Louise Gifford

Office: 617-773-7432 www.wollycong.org

UNION CONGREGATIONAL

Beach St. & Rawson Rd., Wollaston
(617)479-6661

Rev. John Swanson, Pastor

Sunday Worship Service 10 AM

QUINCY POINT

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

444 Washington St. • 617-773-6424
Worship and Church School 10 am

Rev. Ann Suzedell, Pastor

email: office@quincypointcong.org

To Advertise in this Directory,

Call

617-471-3100

Christian Science

First Church of Christ, Scientist

16 Beale Street, Quincy
617-472-0055

Sunday Services and Sunday School
10:30 a.m.

Wednesday Evening Meetings - where testimonies of healing are shared 7:30 p.m.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Catholic Community

Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender

CATHOLICS

Our families, friends And allies

Liturgy & social hour: Sundays, 5:30 PM

St. John the Evangelist Church

35 Bowdoin St., Beacon Hill, Boston

617-421-1915

www.dignityboston.org

Nazarene

Wollaston Church of the Nazarene

Sunday Worship

8:30 AM Liturgical Worship

9:45 AM Sunday School

11:00 AM Celebration Worship

Kevin C. Dunlop, Lead Pastor

Phil Noss, Youth & Small Groups Pastor

Jake Gosteln, Music & Campus Pastor

Rev. Kenner, Children's Pastor

Don Reed, Visitation Pastor

37 E. Elm Ave., Wollaston

617-472-5609

E-mail: office@wconaz.org

www.wconaz.org

HOPE LOVE

PEACE JOY

Doris A. Randolph Lyon, 90

Retired South Shore Bank Employee

A funeral service for Doris A. (Barnwell) Randolph Lyon, 90, of Quincy, formerly of Braintree, a former employee at South Shore Bank and a veteran of the Canadian Army during WWII, will be held today (Wednesday) at 11:15 a.m. at the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Mrs. Randolph Lyon died Nov. 15.

She was the wife of the late John B. Randolph and the late William F. Lyon, Jr.

Loving mother of Susan E. Randolph-Frey and husband Dr. David J. Frey of Wakefield, Robert A. Randolph and wife Valerie of Lothian, MD, and Bradley Randolph and wife Cheryl of Randolph. Devoted grandmother of Christine Randolph of Newton, Julie Randolph and Emily Randolph both of Lothian, MD. Sister of George Barnwell and wife Lillian; Robert Barnwell and wife Barbara, all of Ontario, Canada, and the late Helen Pugh.

DORIS A. RANDOLPH LYON

She was a member of the AARP and the Antique Auto Club of America. She volunteered at the Braintree Council on Aging. She was an artist and an enthusiastic advocate for animals.

Visiting hours are today (Wednesday) from 10:30 to 11:15 a.m. prior to her funeral service.

Burial will be in Mount Wollaston Cemetery.

Memorial donations may be made to the Alzheimers Assn., MA Chapter, 311 Arsenal St., Watertown, MA 02472.

Marian J. Nartowt

A funeral Mass for Marian J. (Page) Nartowt of Weymouth, formerly of Quincy, was celebrated Monday in Sacred Heart Church.

Mrs. Nartowt died Nov. 15.

Loving mother of Melissa Nartowt of Whitman and Jason Nartowt of Weymouth.

Beloved daughter of Ruth (Shea) Page of Quincy and the late Frederick Page. Devoted sister of Nancy Cummings of Quincy, John Page of Medway, James Page of Quincy, Edward Page of Bridgewater and the late Robert Page.

Grandmother of Ashley and Scott Nartowt.

MARIAN J. NARTOWT

Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Dana Farber Cancer Institute, P.O. Box 849168, Boston, MA 02284.

Mary E. Alden

A funeral Mass for Mary E. (Reed) Alden of Quincy was celebrated Monday at St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Reed died Nov. 15.

Daughter of the late Charles and Louise Reed. Niece of Sr. James Messenger of Sisters of Charity in Wellesley. Loving sister of Sandra McCracken of Whitman, Bernice Mandaville of Westboro, Ronald Reed of Weymouth, Charles Reed and his wife Carol of NH Timothy Reed and his wife Jean of NH, William Reed of AZ, James Reed and Paul Reed both of Abington, Judith Reed of Brockton, Richard, Robert, and Donna Reed all of Quincy, Charlene Reed and her boyfriend, John Heinonen of Stoughton, and the late Peter Reed. Aunt and best friend to Paula Reed and Nana to Peter Reed. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

MARY E. ALDEN

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to Dana Farber Cancer Institute, 450 Brookline Avenue, Boston, MA 02215 or to Hospice of the North Shore and Greater Boston, 70 Walnut Street, Suite 301, Wellesley, MA 02481

John E. Battista, 94

Structural Engineer, World War II Veteran

A funeral Mass for John E. Battista, 94, of Plano, TX and formerly Quincy will be celebrated at 11:30 a.m. Nov. 29 at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mr. Battista died Nov. 16.

He was born in Quincy, raised and educated in Quincy schools and graduating from Quincy High School in 1935. He lived in Quincy for entire life before moving to Plano two years ago.

He was a World War II veteran having served as a Sergeant in the U.S. Army in the European African-Middle Eastern Campaign as a member of the Blue Devils 88th Infantry Division. After the war, he graduated from Northeastern University, Class of 1953.

Mr. Battista was a structural engineer for thirty years and retired in 1986. He worked twenty-five years with the Waghorne & Brown Company and also with the Campdresser & McGee Company and the Charles T. Main Company.

He enjoyed gardening and playing the bass fiddle and violin with various dance bands and orchestras.

Loving son of the late Ernest and Gaetana Caccia Battista. Beloved husband of 58 years of the late Lena K. (Grimm) Battista. Devoted father of his son Charles Battista and daughter in law, Gail Chilenski Battista of TX. Grandfather of, MUI Gregory Battista, USN, of MD and Christopher Battista of TX. Brother of Albert Battista and Maurice Battista both of Quincy, the late A. Harry Battista and the late Edward Battista.

JOHN E. BATTISTA

Visiting hours will be 10-11 a.m. Nov. 29 at Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy. A funeral will be held there at 11 a.m. prior to the Mass.

Interment with Military Honors will be at Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Kidney Fund, 11921 Rockville Pike, Suite 300, Rockville, MD 20852.

A Job Well Done

Cont'd From Page 21

thought he was going to kill me."

When the suspect eventually released his grip, she ran to her room, grabbed her cell phone and called "911." She stated that even when she was on the phone with the police he continued to assault her. She said that the suspect took the phone from her to prevent her from talking to the Police Dispatcher. At this time, she took the blanket off her bed because she was naked and ran down the stairs and then outside to await the arrival of the Police. As she ran down the stairs, the suspect picked up a large elephant statue and threw it down the stairs, narrowly missing her.

The victim was transported to Quincy Medical Center by Fallon Ambulance, where she was examined by a physician. It was determined that the victim suffered a puncture to her left ear drum as well as several bruises, scrapes and cuts. Photographs of the apartment damage and the injuries to the victim were taken for court purposes.

Officer Lambert interviewed the victim's roommate via telephone and she told the officer that the victim and suspect moved in a few months ago. She stated that she did not know either of them very well, but recognized there could be problems when she found several hypodermic needles in the apartment over the past two weeks. The roommate said she came home to find the suspect drunk and hostile, so she avoided him by going to her third floor bedroom. She concluded by saying that she left the house early in the morning because she was so afraid last night. She was unable to sleep and she feared for her and the victim's safety.

Officer Lambert assisted the victim in getting an emergency restraining order, which was served on the suspect in his jail cell. The suspect, a 39-year old Quincy resident, was charged with, "Assault with intent to murder, two counts of Domestic Assault and Battery, Intimidation of a Witness, Resisting Arrest and Malicious Destruction of real property over $250.

Nice Work!

Credit Card Telephone Solicitation: Beware of the recorded call that offers you the opportunity to reduce your interest rate on your credit card, asking you to push "1" to speak to a live operator. This is a form of "phishing" for personal information on your credit card. Although not recommended, if you engage in conversation, you will be asked many questions about your account. If these scammers get enough of your personal info, they may be able to take control of your credit card for their personal gain. For more information on this type of scam, go to <http://telemarket-spam.wordpress.com/>

Justin T. Giglio, 22

Electrical Apprentice

A funeral Mass for Justin T. Giglio, 22, of Quincy will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Saturday at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mr. Giglio died suddenly Nov. 17.

Born in Boston on April 28, 1990, he was a graduate of South Shore Vocational Technical High School in Hanover, where he was enrolled in the Electrical Program. He worked at the family-owned business, Parkway Automotive in Quincy, then as an Electrical Apprentice and for the past year worked at the DPW in Weymouth.

Loving son of Stephen L. and Claudia J. (Gaven) Giglio. Dear brother of Michael and Alex Giglio. He was the cherished grandson of Jean (Arienti) Giglio and the late Joseph Giglio and

JUSTIN T. GIGLIO

Rose (Aristide) Gaven and the late John Gavegnano. He is also survived by many loving aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Visiting hours are 4-8 p.m. Friday at Bolea-Buonfiglio Funeral Home, 116 Franklin Street, Quincy.

Interment will be in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to Development Office, Joslin Diabetes Center, One Joslin Place, Boston, MA 02215.

Rita M. Smith

Retired Librarian

A funeral service for Rita M. (Daly) Smith of Quincy, formerly Boston, will be held today (Wednesday) at noon at the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Mrs. Smith died Nov. 17 at the Marina Bay Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in North Quincy.

She worked for many years as a librarian for the Boston Redevelopment Authority and retired in 1987 at the age of 70.

Born in Boston on Aug. 7, 1917, she was the first born of nine children to the late Kathleen and William F. Daly.

Beloved wife of the late Richard Smith. Loving mother of Linda Densmore and her husband, Robert of East Dennis, Paula Barton and her husband, Brad of Hull, and William P. Smith and his wife, Jane C. Doyle of Attleboro. Sister of Helen Pollard of Brighton, Francis Daly of Canton, Kathleen Quinn of Brockton, Paul Daly of Abington, and the late William "Bud" Daly, Robert Daly, Jane Kern, and Lillian Daly.

Also survived by 9 grandchildren, and 15 great grandchildren.

Visiting hours are today (Wednesday) from 10 a.m. to noon at the funeral home.

Burial will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

Memorial donations may be made to Rosie's Place 899 Harrison Avenue, Boston, MA 02118.

Madeline Walsh

A Mass of Christian Burial for Madeline (Delahey) Walsh of North Quincy will be celebrated at 10 a.m. today (Wednesday) at Sacred Heart Church, North Quincy.

Mrs. Walsh died Nov. 17.

Loving husband to James Walsh. Survived by Lorraine Forrest of Norton and Elaine and her husband Christopher Scales of Jamaica Plain. Also leaving behind two loving grandchildren, Katherine Forrest and Evan Scales.

Visiting hours were 3-7 p.m. yesterday (Tuesday) at Lydon Chapel for Funerals, 644 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment will be in Mount Benedict Cemetery, West Roxbury.

Helen R. Nolan, 91

A funeral service for Helen R. Nolan, 91, of Quincy was held Monday at Alfred D. Thomas Funeral Home, Milton.

Ms. Nolan died Nov. 15.

A Quincy resident for most of her life, she was a retired Food Service Supervisor for John Hancock Insurance.

Beloved sister of the late Ruth A. Ogle and Hugh E. Nolan. Devoted aunt of William J. Ogle of Quincy, Ret. MPD Deputy Chief Paul T. Nolan of Milton, Donna M. Nolan of Quincy, Nancy Ogle and her late husband Frederick J. of Braintree and Colleen Ogle Squatrito of Pembroke. Also survived by her grandnephews & grandnieces: Patrick Ogle & his wife Caitlin, Katie Ogle, Jennifer & Mark Ogle, Sean & Ryan Nolan, Jessica Fleck, Justin Petkus and her great grandnieces; Addison DosSanto, Delia and Louise Fleck.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Milton.

Memorial donations may be made to MSPCA, Angell Memorial Hospital, Development Office, 350 So. Huntington Ave., Jamaica Plain, MA 02130

CLASSIFIEDS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-095

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, November 27, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Cabot, Cabot & Forbes of New England for a Variance/Flood Plain to construct a 180 unit, 6-story residential building with parking garage in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 8.4.2 (dimensional requirements for PUD), Chapter 8.4.3 (off street parking) and Chapter 8.1.9 (flood plain special permit) on the premises numbered PENN STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/15/12, 11/21/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-096

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, December 11, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Douglas Stefanov for a variance/Finding to construct an addition and two-car garage in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 4.1 (dimensional requirements) Chapter 4.2.4 (building bulk) and 4.3.2 (minimum requirements) on the premises numbered 44 GERMAIN AVENUE, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/21/12, 11/29/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-097

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, December 11, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Brett Burns for a Finding to construct a two-room addition and farmers porch in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.3 (alteration nonconforming) on the premises numbered 129 EDWIN STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/21/12, 11/29/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-098

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, December 11, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Sherry Ying Yi Huang for a Finding to change the occupancy from retail phone store to a massage therapy studio in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4 (nonconforming change of use) on the premises numbered 488-498 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/21/12, 11/29/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-099

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, December 11, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Zheng Cun Jun for a Variance to retain finished basement done without permits in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 4.0 (dimensional requirements) on the premises numbered 321 FARRINGTON STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/21/12, 11/29/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS MASSACHUSETTS DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION - HIGHWAY DIVISION NOTICE OF A PUBLIC HEARING Project File No. 607258

A Design Public Hearing will be held by MassDOT to discuss the proposed Intersection Improvements at Quincy Avenue & Howard Street in Quincy, MA.

WHERE: Quincy City Council Chambers
1305 Hancock Street, 2nd Floor,
City Hall Annex (glass building)
Quincy, MA 02169

WHEN: Monday, November 26, 2012 @ 7:00PM

PURPOSE: The purpose of this hearing is to provide the public with the opportunity to become fully acquainted with the proposed Intersection Improvements at Quincy Avenue & Howard Street project. All views and comments made at the hearing will be reviewed and considered to the maximum extent possible.

PROPOSAL: The proposed project consists of the reconstruction of Quincy Avenue (Route 53) at the East and West Howard Street intersection in Quincy, Massachusetts. The purpose of the project is to realign East Howard Street to remove the existing approximately 40 foot offset between the two halves of Howard Street, and adding auxiliary turning bays along East and West Howard Street. Additionally, the traffic signal equipment will be upgraded. The intersection is located approximately 200 feet northwest of an at-grade Fore River railway crossing and approximately 1,200 feet southeast of the nearest signalized intersection of Quincy Avenue at Southern Artery and the Wal-Mart driveway. Bicycle accommodations have been provided consisting of a usable shoulder which is in accordance with the 2012 AASHTO Guide for the development of Bicycle Facilities, the 2009 MUTCD and the 2006 Project & Development Design Guide requirements for bicycle accommodations.

A secure right-of-way is necessary for this project. Acquisitions in fee and permanent or temporary easements may be required. The city is responsible for acquiring all needed rights in private or public lands. MassDOT's policy concerning land acquisitions will be discussed at this hearing.

Written views received by MassDOT subsequent to the date of this notice and up to five (5) days prior to the date of the hearing shall be displayed for public inspection and copying at the time and date listed above. Plans will be on display one-half hour before the hearing begins, with an engineer in attendance to answer questions regarding this project. A project handout will be made available on the MassDOT website listed below.

Written statements and other exhibits in place of, or in addition to, oral statements made at the Public Hearing regarding the proposed undertaking are to be submitted to Thomas F. Broderick, P.E., Chief Engineer, MassDOT, 10 Park Plaza, Boston, MA 02116, Attention: Project Management, Project File No. 607258. Such submissions will also be accepted at the hearing. Mailed statements and exhibits intended for inclusion in the public hearing transcript must be postmarked within ten (10) business days of this Public Hearing. Project inquiries may be emailed to dot.feedback.highway@state.ma.us

This location is accessible to people with disabilities. MassDOT provides reasonable accommodations and/or language assistance free of charge upon request (including but not limited to interpreters in American Sign Language and languages other than English, open or closed captioning for videos, assistive listening devices and alternate material formats, such as audio tapes, Braille and large print), as available. For accommodation or language assistance, please contact MassDOT's Chief Diversity and Civil Rights Officer by phone (617 973-7171), TTD/TTY (617-973-7715), fax (617-973-7311) or by email (MassDOT.CivilRights@dot.state.ma.us). Requests should be made as soon as possible prior to the meeting, and for more difficult to arrange services including sign-language, CART or language translation or interpretation, requests should be made at least ten (10) business days before the meeting.

In case of inclement weather, hearing cancellation announcements will be posted on the internet at <http://www.massdot.state.ma.us/Highway/>

FRANCIS A. DEPAOLA, P.E.
THOMAS F. BRODERICK, P.E.
HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATOR
CHIEF ENGINEER

11/15, 11/21/12

CLEANING SERVICES

DASILVA CLEANING SERVICES
Home & Office Cleaning
Professional, Affordable
Reliable & Trustworthy
Weekly or Bi-Weekly References
CALL Meiry 781-803-2922

12/27

SISTERS CLEANING
IF YOU NEED
SOMEONE TO CLEAN
YOUR HOUSE. WE DO HOUSES, APTS &
OFFICES.
CALL NOW 978-587-2252

12/27

LOST

Late Husband Gold Wedding Band
Engraving inside: LB + TD 9-25-99
Lost last Tues. Nov 6th 2012
617-471-8230

11/21

MISCELLANEOUS

FAMILY BIBLE-
Seeking Welsh bible for THOMAS family-possibly given to Masonic/Rural Lodge in Quincy/Wollaston in 1930's.
Please contact 412-841-7531
(Pittsburgh, PA)

11/21

CERAMICS

Made to Order Finished
Ceramic Christmas
Trees and Gifts.
Replacement Lights
Stars & Wiring
Ceramic Supplies &
Classes
E & T Ceramics & Printing
367 Billings Rd - Wollaston
617-479-4107

12/20

PERSONAL

JOE IN TEXAS
WISHING YOU A VERY NICE THANKSGIVING
YOUR FRIENDS IN QUINCY

11/21

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK! I AM PROUD OF
YOU 3! CK, GK, CK
1-4-3 Mom

11/21

IN MEMORY

WILLIAM MARSTON, RICHARD MILLER,
MATTHEW TOBIN, TIMOTHY TOBIN
25TH ANNIVERSARY MASS,
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 25TH,
ST. JOHN'S 9:00 A.M.

11/21

Happy Holidays
to all my customers from Nick of Nick's Barber Shop

11/21

To Scott-Rusty-John Whitney
Although we are far apart -
You are always close to our hearts.
Love,
Your Family

11/21

Remembering our Vets

Joseph Menz, John Menz,
Vincent Menz, John Menz
Jr., George Menz, Matt
Menz, Dave Becker, Bobby
McMaster, Dick Walter, Bob
Gibbons, Jim Gibbons.

11/21

Please recycle this newspaper

Prayer to Blessed Virgin

"Oh, most beautiful, flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful vine, splendor of heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh, Star of the Sea, help me and show me, herein you are my Mother. Oh, Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth! I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in this necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mother, I place this cause in your hands (three times). Say this prayer 3 consecutive days, and then you must publish and it will be granted to you. Thanks to St. Anthony & St. Joseph. B.A.R.

11/21

Prayer to Blessed Virgin

"Oh, most beautiful, flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful vine, splendor of heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh, Star of the Sea, help me and show me, herein you are my Mother. Oh, Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth! I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in this necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mother, I place this cause in your hands (three times). Say this prayer 3 consecutive days, and then you must publish and it will be granted to you. Thanks to St. Anthony & St. Joseph. F.D.

11/21

SERVICES

SERVICES

781-258-7564 TF

11/21

Cell(617)594-3344
Fax(617)774-1810 11/21

17-786-9558

FREE ESTIMATES

Free Estimates Fully Insured

NO REFUND WILL BE MADE AT THIS CONTRACT RATE IN THE EVENT OF CANCELLATION. DEADLINE: FRIDAY AT 4PM. PLEASE INCLUDE YOUR PHONE NUMBER IN AD.

SUN FUN PAGE

King Crossword

- ACROSS
- 1 Wrigley product
4 Cleopatra's snake
7 Highway
11 From the start
13 Zero
14 Loosen
15 Peru's capital
16 Genetic evidence
17 Gas in signs
18 Coral ring
20 Potter's oven
22 Youngster
24 Rid of frost
28 Custodian
32 Battery terminal
33 Prayer ending
34 Card player's call
36 Stefani Germanotta, a.k.a. Lady
37 Neighbor of Leo and
- Libra
39 Klutz
41 Makes sense
43 Chinese "way"
44 Jog
46 Peppermint
50 Bamako's country
53 Knight's address
55 Comical Caroline
56 Grand story
57 Anger
58 Sketch
59 Tech whiz
60 Danson or Nugent
61 Coffee vessel
- DOWN
- 1 Big party
2 Troop group
3 Note
4 Moreover
5 Go under
6 Tartan pattern
7 Feature near the door of a really old car
- 8 Indivisible
9 Commotion
10 Get dressed in 12 Cane
19 Torched
21 Meadow
23 Pooch
25 Furnace fuel
26 Rim
27 Darling
28 Coffee, slangily
29 Surrounded by
30 Uncool sort
31 Cage component
35 Pecan or almond
38 "— Town"
40 Atlas page
42 Suggest
45 Grow weary
47 By way of, for short
48 Rip
49 Show boredom
50 "Family Guy" daughter
51 Gorilla
52 Whopper
54 Crimson

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

MAGIC MAZE • PIANO —

S P L I E A X T Q N J G C Z W
T Q N J G K R D A X U R O L J
G D A X V E S P E N W K I F C
A X V S K Y Q T O L I J H E C
A X M A N B R V T R R L R P N
L J M H T O F E D B E S Y X V
T R P O F A I S H S P Y M K I
G E D B Z R N T S C M E A X W
U T N O I D R O C C A K R L Q
O N L J I A N O S A D E G F P
D C A Y B X W L R E N U T V T

Find the listed words in the diagram. They run in all directions - forward, backward, up, down and diagonally.

Accordion Forte Maker Teacher
Action Keyboard Man Tuner
Bar Keys Player Wire
Damper Lesson Sonata

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

HOCUS-FOCUS

BY HENRY BOLTINOFF

FIND AT LEAST 6 DIFFERENCES BETWEEN PANELS.
Differences: 1. Bird feeder is missing. 2. Plant is missing. 3. Hat is different. 4. Hair is different. 5. Number is missing. 6. Belt is missing.

Trivia test by Fifi Rodriguez

1. ENTERTAINERS: Which actor's birth name was Ramon Estevez?
2. MUSIC: What was the name of Smokey Robinson's group?
3. INVENTIONS: Who is credited with inventing bifocal lenses?
4. PSYCHOLOGY: What irrational fear is manifested in peniaphobia?
5. LITERATURE: In which of Shakespeare's plays does the character Shylock appear?
6. GENERAL KNOWLEDGE: During which war did Harry Truman fire Gen. Douglas MacArthur?
7. HISTORY: When did Australia become a commonwealth nation, largely gaining independence from - Britain?

8. ANATOMY: About how long are the intestines in an adult male?
9. FAMOUS QUOTES: What American psychologist/philosopher once said: "Act as if what you do makes a difference. It does."
10. MEASUREMENTS: Which month is named for the Roman festival of ritual purification?

Answers

1. Martin Sheen
2. The Miracles
3. Ben Franklin
4. A fear of poverty
5. "The Merchant of Venice"
6. Korean
7. 1901
8. About 28 feet
9. William James
10. February (Februa)

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Wishing Well®

2 6 5 4 5 8 6 5 3 2 3 6 8
S R A C H M E A F U A J A
4 5 8 4 5 4 3 4 2 4 3 2 3
O P K M P F M O D R I D L
7 3 2 5 7 6 8 6 5 8 4 7 2
A Y E Y N E E C M A T E N
7 2 4 8 5 4 5 4 6 8 7 2 8
W T A M A S R S T E L R N
4 6 3 5 2 5 4 6 5 6 4 2 7
U T V R A I R E A M E N E
8 2 6 5 7 5 4 6 7 3 2 7 2
D S P G A E D T D I F E E
8 7 2 6 3 6 3 6 3 6 3 6 6
S R R A S T I I T O S N S

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You've let yourself be distracted from what's really important. But love finally gets your attention this week. However, it comes with a challenge that could create a problem.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Be careful not to bully others into following your lead. Best advice: Persuade, don't push, and you'll get the cooperation you need to move forward with your plans.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Resist the urge to gloat now that you've proved your detractors wrong. Instead, charm them back into your circle. Remember: A former foe can become your best ally.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You might want to claim all the credit for making this holiday season special. But is it worth producing a lot of hurt feelings by rejecting offers of help? Think about it.
LEO (July 23 to August 22) Ignore a co-worker's questionable behavior. Instead, put your energy into making your own project special. Then sit back and purr over your well-deserved applause.
VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You might not want to accept those suggested changes in your workplace. But don't chuck them out before you check them out. You could be happily surprised.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your holiday planning might have to take a back seat for a bit so that you can handle a problem with a friend or family member. Your schedule resumes by the 8th.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Relationships in general benefit during the early part of the week, including in the workplace. Also expect some overdue changes in a personal situation.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) "Prudence" should be your watchword this week. Best not to be too open about some of the things that are currently happening in your life.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Money is on your mind, so you'd best mind how you're spending it. Take another look at that holiday budget and see where you can make adjustments.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Resolving to revive an old friendship could open some old wounds. Are you sure you want to risk that? Think this through before making a commitment.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your need to know more about a new friend could lead to some startling revelations. Best advice: Keep an open mind about what you learn until all the facts are in.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your loyalty to friends makes you a very special person to those whose lives you've touched.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

CryptoQuip

This is a simple substitution cipher in which each letter used stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Solution is accomplished by trial and error.

Clue: W equals Y

BJGL WKX BQDHG U MRUPP

LKHUHDKL DL HJG RUQCDL, UQG

WKX CGHHDLC U BKQE DL

GECGBDMG?

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

King Crossword —

Answers

Solution time: 21 mins.

Magic Maze

ANSWERS:

— MASTER

Cryptoquip

ANSWER:

When you write a small notation in the margin, are you getting a word in edgewise?

80TH CITY FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

North Quincy Red Raiders vs. Quincy Presidents

80th Thanksgiving Game Will Be A Festive Occasion

By JEFF OHLSON

The annual Thanksgiving Day football game, where the North Quincy Red Raiders and the Quincy Presidents face off, has always been something that is important to both players and spectators alike.

Tomorrow's (Thursday) game will mark the 80th time that both teams have gone head-to-head for the city's football championship.

The 80th Thanksgiving Day game will bring past players and present players together to celebrate the game and the history of the game. Ron Ivil, the president of the Quincy-North Quincy Football Hall of Fame, is charged with planning the celebration of high school football history in Quincy and has some nice things for football fans set up for pregame and post-game celebration.

The 80th festivities will include players from teams in the 40's, 50's and 60's out in the middle of the field at coin toss, with who tosses the coin up to the head coaches of each respective team.

Quincy and North Quincy will also be wearing commemorative jerseys during the game to pay respect to the previous teams and at halftime both schools' principals will be presented with a plaque honoring the 80th game that will include the rosters from each team participating in the event.

There will also be a tent set up by the Hall of Fame Memorial inside Veterans' Memorial Stadium where fans can meet and talk to past players to discuss Turkey Day memories or pick up a copy of the anniversary book, which will cover the history of the game from 1932 on, which Ivil and the Hall of Fame Committee made for the game.

For the coin toss, Ivil plans on having as many of the game's past players as he can out on the field and in the middle of the celebration. Ivil said he expects some players from as far back as the 1940's to be a part of the anniversary and at mid-field when the coin toss happens.

"For people who play in this game, it sometimes becomes a big event. The people who played in the game are the game's biggest supporters and we wanted to get them out there and really make them a part of the celebration," said Ivil. There are even plans for on-field seats for the former players as well as parking for those who need it.

At halftime both schools will receive a large plaque commemorating the 80th anniversary. The plaque will feature both North Quincy and Quincy's varsity rosters. The plaque pays respect to the past as well as the players playing in the game on Thanksgiving.

"These kids are playing a special game, I mean 80 years...who knows if the game will make 90, this could be the last celebration of this type for the Turkey Day game and the kids playing in this game will look back and realize how big of a game it was and we just wanted to give each school a way of remembering the 80th game," said Ivil.

From the coin toss to the end of the game, there will be a tent set up by the Hall of Fame memorial that will have past players in it for people to greet and talk to, giving everyone in attendance the opportunity to rehash moments they remember from different Turkey Day games.

"Everyone has their own memory of the games they saw or played in. We want to give people the opportunity to meet some of these guys and talk to them about the game" said Ivil.

While talking to older players, fans can pick up a copy of the 80th anniversary book that the Hall of Fame Committee made that features history from the first Thanksgiving Day game on. Ivil says that the book will be available for only a few dollars and will have listing of coaches, Hall of Fame players and other information about the games past.

"It's just a book featuring some of the history of the game and we really wanted people to be able to take home something like that to remember it all," said Ivil.

Commemorative jerseys for the players are white with a blue "80th" logo on the front for Quincy and a black jersey with white "80th" logo for North Quincy.

"We fought for the inclusion of the jerseys and we're pleased with the inclusion of them. It makes it more fun for the players and everyone involved. It just adds to it," said Ivil.

Ivil has put countless hours into the preparation for the 80th anniversary and is always trying to do more for the football programs at both schools.

"This game has always been important to me. Football was everything. You eat, sleep, and one day, look, like a football," said Ivil, who graduated in 1957 and remembers a time when as many as 15,000 fans would come out to watch the Thanksgiving Day game.

"It meant a lot to everyone. The whole city came out to support the team," said Ivil. "Every year, that's all you want to see, is people out there and supporting the players, supporting the game and keeping things like this going."

North Quincy, Quincy Team
Previews Start On Page 30

TO COMMEMORATE THE 80th anniversary of the Quincy-North Quincy Thanksgiving Football game, players from the two teams will be wearing special jerseys. Quincy - the away team - will wear white jerseys with blue letters. North - the home team - is wearing black jerseys with white numbers. Members of the Quincy-North Quincy Football Hall of Fame hold samples of the jerseys and also presented two special jerseys to Mayor Thomas Koch and School Supt. Dr. Richard DeCristofaro. The mayor's jersey has North Quincy on the front and Quincy on the back. The superintendent's jersey is white on the front and black on the back. From left are: Hall of Fame Vice President Dick Lombardi (QHS, Class of 1962), Mayor Koch (NQ Class of 1981), Hall of Fame President Ron Ivil (QHS, Class of 1957), Dr. DeCristofaro (QHS, Class of 1970) and Hall of Fame Vice President Joe Minukas (NQ Class of 1967).

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

Game Tickets $5 In Advance, $8 At The Gate

Tickets for the 80th annual football game between the North Quincy Red Raiders and the Quincy Presidents will cost $8 for students, adults and senior citizens at the Veterans' Memorial Stadium gate tomorrow (Thursday) morning. Kickoff is scheduled for 10 a.m.

Tickets purchased in advance are $5. They are available at both high schools, all middle schools and two elementary schools (Merrymount and Beechwood).

Advanced tickets can also be purchased at the Quincy Public Schools Athletic Office located in Quincy High School, 100 Coddington St.

VOICE FOR HEALTH

by Dr. Gabrielle Freedman
Chiropractor

PAINFUL SPASM, TO SAY THE LEAST

Considered to be among the most painful conditions affecting humans, "trigeminal neuralgia" (also known as "tic douloureux," French for "painful spasm") is characterized by shooting, stabbing pain on one side of the face. Attacks tend to be cyclic and are linked with the trigeminal nerve (the fifth cranial nerve), whose three branches supply the face. Usually afflicting those older than 50, trigeminal neuralgia, although debilitating, is not life-threatening. The condition affects more women than men, with twinges of spontaneous pain developing into episodes that feel like electric shocks. Chiropractic may help by relieving the pressure of the artery or vein pressing on the trigeminal nerve at the base of the brain.

Chiropractic focuses on disorders of the muscular, skeletal and nervous systems and their effect on your health. We are glad you have chosen FAMILY PRACTICE OF CHIROPRACTIC for your chiropractic care. We also want to thank you for entrusting us with your health needs. We can provide you with maximum health, comfort, and function in your activities of daily living, with a minimum of stress, discomfort, and expense. Our goal is to provide you and your entire family with quality chiropractic healthcare. We're located at 112 McGrath Hwy., Quincy. Please call 617.472.4220 to schedule an appointment and let us help you. We offer computerized spinal scans. We are able to adjust patients sitting, standing, or lying down to accommodate any level of discomfort. If your problem is a chiropractic condition we offer you exceptional service.

P.S. Some evidence suggests that trigeminal neuralgia is an inherited condition.

www.freedmanchiro.com

REAL BOSTON YOUTH ACADEMY PROGRAM

Winter soccer skills training and indoor league at Marina Bay Sportsplex for U7, U8 and U9s.

Players will learn the FUNDamental skills of the game. Our program focuses on decision making, creativity and individual ball skills.

Our league will provide competitive games and will be a great deal of fun.

The program includes 2 training sessions each week and games on Saturday.

Training Schedule: Monday and Wednesday from 5:30-6:30pm

Games Schedule: Saturdays between 12-3pm.

Season Duration: Begins January 7th (Monday) and ends March 9th (Saturday).

The Program: Our curriculum uses techniques proven to provide great results.

Coaching: The Academy coaches are uniquely selected for their enthusiasm, positive energy, focus on skill fundamentals, and ability to work with children.

Location: All training and games will take place at the new Marina Bay Sportsplex featuring the finest turf fields available.

Price: The cost is only $150 for indoor league and skills training.

To Register: Go to realboston.com and click "Register Now" on the left of the home page. Registration will close on December 1st so register early to reserve your spot.

Questions: Contact Derek McCleary at dammccleary@verizon.net.

Deadline to register is December 1st!!

About Real Boston Soccer Academy (RBSA):

RBSA is a Quincy based not-for profit entity (FKA Hancock Strikers) dedicated to teaching the game of soccer and building a strong soccer culture. The club offers a wide range of services and provides training from ages 2-18. RBSA has competitive teams starting at u10 through u18 for boys and girls. If interested in joining one of our teams you can contact us at doc@realboston.com for a tryout.

80TH CITY FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

North Quincy Red Raiders vs. Quincy Presidents

Red Raiders Seek Fourth Straight Thanksgiving Win

By BILL GRIFFIN

Jim Connor knows well the theme of streaks which has dominated the Holy War between Quincy and North Quincy in recent years.

Connor coached the 2009 North Quincy team which ended Quincy's 10-year winning run and he and the Red Raiders will be looking for their fourth straight victory over the Presidents in the 80th renewal of the ancient rivalry Thanksgiving morning at Veterans Stadium at 10 a.m.

"When you lose 10 in a row, you're nervous. You don't want to make a mistake. When you win one, you can relax a little," said Connor. "But the pressure is on both sides. If you're winning, you don't want to be the class that loses the streak. If you're losing, you don't want to be the class that keeps the bad times going."

North Quincy (3-6) will face a daunting task trying for four straight against a Quincy team which went 6-4 in the large-school division of the Patriot League and showcased one of the most explosive offenses on the South Shore, good for 276 points in 10 games.

"This is the best Quincy team I've seen in my nine years as an assistant and head coach at North," said Connor. "They run and pass well, they're deep, they come at you in many different ways. It will be a tough, tough game for us."

The challenge starts with Quincy halfback Jalen Green. Avoiding Green on the football field is like avoiding air. He is everywhere. He runs the ball, he catches the ball, he throws the ball, he punts, he kicks field goals. He receives punts and kickoffs. As Silver Lake and Duxbury will testify, he loves to run the fake punt. He is a threat from minute one to minute 44 in a football game.

"He's one of the best players in the state," said Connor. "The problem is you can play good defense on Jalen for 47 of 50 plays, and that means he can still score 21 points on you."

He is one of many weapons the Red Raiders will face. Sophomore quarterback James Lam has run and thrown well, Jaquan Harris is a home-run threat from any spot on the field and wide receiver Alex Hefernan has speed, hands and jumping ability.

NORTH QUINCY'S big offensive weapon is running back Antoine Allen who has rushed for more than 1,200 yards and scored 11 touchdowns this season.

"The key for us is to stay sound and disciplined on defense," said Connor. "We don't want to overplay any one player and make a mistake. We have to be aware of the situation, down and distance, and be steady."

Silver Lake had some success against Quincy for three quarters by taking away Green and forcing other players to beat them. Still, Green rushed for 129 yards and Quincy scored four touchdowns. You need talent to handle the Presidents. North has three fine players in lineman Vinny Tran, linebacker Kevin Pappadopolous, and defensive back Matthew MacPhail (seven interceptions) to lead the defense against Quincy's attack.

"Kevin is just a tough, tough kid. He's our leading tackler. Matthew has an eye for the ball," said Connor.

North Quincy's best weapon against the Quincy offense is its own ground attack. The Red Raiders have a strong running game and have quietly averaged nearly three touchdowns a game. In last year's 27-17 win, North did not attempt a pass and put the game away with a clock-killing drive which wasted nearly eight minutes off the clock in the second half. The best way to handle Quincy's offense is to keep the ball away from the Presidents. That was the plan last year, and the Red Raiders hope it will work this year.

"The part of our game that has pleased me the most is our running game," said Connor. "We've run the ball well in every game we've played. That's important against Quincy because if you're running the ball, it keeps their offense off the field. I do know in the years I've been here the team that has run the ball better has been the team who has won."

"Ball control is important to us. With their big-play people, the less they have the ball the better," said senior quarterback Andrew Minton.

North's big weapon is junior halfback Antoine Allen who has rushed for over 1,200 yards and scored 11 touchdowns. He has scored 76 points good for first in the small-school division of the Patriot League and third behind Green in the overall league chase. Allen runs inside and out, he can break the big play or grind out a first down, and has the ability to cut on a dime, change direction and accelerate.

"He's matured a lot as a runner," said Connor. "He knows the difference between a short-yardage situation when we need a yard and when he can be creative and look for the big play. His cutting ability is excellent."

Junior fullback Eddie Guinto, who is recovering from a concussion, is the perfect partner for Allen. He is quick, he runs like a locomotive, and frequently gains yardage because he simply refuses to go down. Minton

RED RAIDERS' defensive back Matthew McPhail is among North Quincy's leaders on other other side of the ball.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

2012 NORTH QUINCY RECORD 3-6

9/7	BOSTON LATIN	28-14 (W)
9/14	OLIVER AMES	42-22 (L)
9/22	@ Sharon High	34-22 (L)
9/28	@ Arlington High	28-20 (W)
10/12	MIDDLEBORO	10-0 (L)
10/19	@ Scituate	34-22 (L)
10/26	HANOVER	30-21 (W)
11/2	@ Whitman-Hanson	46-22 (L)
11/9	@ Pembroke	43-14 (L)
11/22	QUINCY (Veterans' Stadium, 10 a.m.)

has matured at quarterback into a solid passing threat. Mekhi Pearson and Matt Deagle have had excellent seasons clearing the way up front.

"Eddie put a lot of work in the gym in the off-season and it shows," Connor said. "Andrew makes defenses respect the pass. He's thrown for touchdowns and conversions and built up his confidence."

"I'll be a lot less nervous than I was last year. I couldn't sleep the night before," Minton said. "I know what to expect with the big crowd and the excitement."

The one thing the Red Raiders must avoid which has haunted them all year is turnovers. The mistakes have consistently stopped the offense and put the defense in difficult situations.

"We keep shooting ourselves in the foot," said Connor. "We earn those three touchdowns per game, but we've been giving away 7 or 14 points with turnovers and we can't do that against Quincy."

"We have to be smart. I can't throw the ball into tight spaces and when we're going down, we have to make sure we have a grip on the ball," said Minton.

Injuries are a concern for the Red Raiders whose roster depth is only in the 30s. Four-two way players were hurt against Whitman-Hanson, and eight starters went out against Pembroke. Guinto, Tran, Cole Barrett, and Don Sharp are among the key players who are hurting.

"With our small roster, the injuries really hurt. Still, we have two weeks off to get ready and hopefully, we'll be all right," said Connor.

More than all the matchups, strategy and stars, it is Quincy against North Quincy. It is the game everyone remembers. North plays two seasons. In the first, the Red Raiders went 3-6. In the second, they are 0-0 going into Thanksgiving.

"It's one of the oldest continuing rivalries in the state," said Connor. "There are ex-players, old students, 5000 people in the stands. With the exception of Quincy's 10-game streak, I think it's pretty even (Quincy leads overall 43-31-5). The games are well-played, tough football games. How could you ask for more?"

"I'm a senior, it's the 80th game, and we have a chance to leave a legacy of four straight. That would be something for us to leave behind as a memory," said Minton.

Ayers

Collision Center

35 Years of Expert Service

Call Us First!

Paperwork Start to Finish

$200 OFF

*All Qualifying Auto Body Repairs

*contact us for details

Cannot be combined with other offers

Limit one coupon per visit

- State of the Art Auto Body Facility
- Insurance Company Coordination
- Experienced Insurance Estimators
- FREE Estimating
- 24 Hour Towing
- Car Rentals Available

(617)328-0056

440B E.Squantum St., Quincy

80TH CITY FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

North Quincy Red Raiders vs. Quincy Presidents

North Quincy Red Raiders - Some Season Highlights

COLE BARRETT heads up field for the Red Raiders after catching a punt against Boston Latin.

SENIOR DEFENSIVE BACK Essien Benjamin tangles with a Boston Latin opponent in the Red Raiders' victory over Boston Latin.

QUARTERBACK ANDREW MINTON looks downfield for a receiver in North Quincy's 28-14 victory over Boston Latin in the season opener.

CELEBRATING ONE OF four North Quincy touchdowns against Boston Latin are Red Raiders (from left) Vinny Tran (No. 63), Essien Benjamin (No. 17), Cole Barrett (No. 3), Shawn Thomas (No. 81) and Eddie Guinto (No. 32).

NORTH QUINCY'S defensive front (from left) Don Sharp (78), Matt Deagle (71), Shane Ceurvals (73) and Vinny Tran (63) shut down Hanover's offense in the second half enabling the Red Raiders to score a 30-21 come-from-behind victory over the Indians Oct. 26 at Veterans' Memorial Stadium.

VINNY TRAN (No. 63) eyes Boston Latin ball carrier in the Red Raiders' win over Boston Latin.

Quincy Sun Photos/
Robert Bosworth

NORTH QUINCY'S Mekhi Pearson (No. 59) tackles a Boston Latin ballcarrier with teammates Kevin Pappadopolous (No. 42) and Shane Ceurvals (No. 73) also in pursuit.

KEVIN PAPPADOPOLOUS head up field for a North Quincy gain against Oliver Ames.

EDDIE GUINTO finds daylight as he races 55 yards to set up a Red Raider touchdown against Oliver Ames Sept. 14 at Veterans' Memorial Stadium.

80TH CITY FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

North Quincy Red Raiders vs. Quincy Presidents

Presidents Hope Season Ends On Winning Note

By BILL GRIFFIN

It has been a wonderful story which only lacks a final chapter to be a best-selling book.

Quincy has forged a partnership of an explosive offense and an opportunistic defense to author a season marked with unforgettable memories which has guaranteed them a winning record. There is only one challenge remaining and it is a considerable one.

North Quincy.

Quincy will try to break a three-year losing streak against the Red Raiders in the 80th renewal of the Holy War at Veterans Stadium on Thanksgiving at 10:00. All that has gone before this season is just fine, but the game which will be long remembered has yet to be played.

"I'm happy with our season. I think we proved ourselves fighters who met a lot of challenges," said Quincy coach Bill Reardon. "We've been in a lot of tight situations which I think can help us against North. If a big play comes up, we've been there before."

Much was made of Quincy's entrance into the large-school division of the Patriot League. There were questions about whether Quincy (6-4) could play with the Duxburys and Hingham of the football world, but not only have the Presidents showed they belonged, they flourished finishing second behind Duxbury.

"We've been a resilient, positive team," said Reardon. "Our kids looked forward to playing the big teams like Duxbury and Hingham which has been rewarding."

The Presidents will have moments to remember. There was the stunning overtime win over Plymouth South and the miracle comeback against Hingham. The 6-4 record could easily be better. Quincy lost four games by an average of six points. The only loss by more than a touchdown came in a 37-28 defeat to unbeaten Duxbury and Quincy was within three midway through the fourth.

"We were in every game and I think that helps our confidence," said Reardon.

The trump card Quincy brings to Thanksgiving is its multi-threat offense which can score from anywhere on the field and has put up 276 points in 10 games. The Presidents have scored more than 30 five times. The leader is senior running back Jalen Green who had 1452 rushing yards and 15 touchdowns. It is impossible to overstate his impact on a game. He runs, catches, throws, punts, placekicks, and receives punts and kickoffs. He led the Patriot League in scoring. He is tough, has good balance, but what separates him is his instant acceleration.

"He has great vision and when the tiniest crack opens, he hits it and he is gone. He has unbelievable acceleration," said Reardon.

Green's 70-yard punt return for a TD against Silver Lake is an example. He sailed through a gap in the middle, let a crack open and he was gone, literally leaving tacklers 20 yards in the background.

"It just happens in an instant," said Reardon.

And it is much more than Green. Alex Heffernan (21 catches, 566 yards, 10 TDs) and Jaquan Harris (15 catches, 321 yards, 4 TDs) are dangerous threats on the outside. Harris has big-play speed. Heffernan catches anything thrown within five yards of him. Sophomore quarterback James Lam (54-128, 1111 yards, 15 TDs) has done a good job throwing and can run (five rushing TDs) as shown in his game-

QUINCY'S EXPLOSIVE OFFENSIVE has several threats including Jalen Green (left) who has rushed for 1,452 yards and 15 touchdowns and Jaquan Harris (right) who has 15 receptions for 321 yards and four touchdowns.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

clinching 25-yard scamper against Silver Lake.

"Alex and Jaquan are both difficult to cover one-on-one," said Reardon. "But if you double-team, that leaves our running game open. We have more than one player who can hurt you."

It all begins with the offensive line which has protected Lamb and given Green room to run. Captain Rich Turpin calls the assignments at center. Junior Meade, Matt Kozlowski, Jackson Lam, and Paul Nigro have anchored the Presidents' attack.

"They are 100 per cent, the biggest reason why our offense has been effective," said Reardon. "They're the most solid group I've had, the biggest and strongest in five years. They did their work in the weight room and they know who and when to block. They're outstanding."

"Honestly, the key is the line on Thanksgiving. If they open the holes, we'll be good," said Green.

North will counter with a solid group led by Vinny Tran up front and Matthew MacPhail in the secondary.

"Tran's been playing since he was a freshman, so we have to block him. MacPhail stands back there trying to bait you into throwing the ball near him," said Reardon.

Reardon is aware of the challenge North brings to the game. North can run. Junior Antoine Allen (1200 yards, 11 TDs, 76 points) is a brilliant back Eddie Guinto is a rugged inside runner. Quarterback Andrew Minton is a solid two-way threat and the Red Raiders have an offensive line which has ruled the line of scrimmage in several games despite their 3-6 record.

"Allen is a talent. He's extremely dangerous, he can score on any play," said Reardon. "Guinto is a good runner and I love their offensive line. They create holes and that's something we can't let them do."

North can control the ball and that is Quincy's biggest challenge. The best way to stop Quincy's offense is not to not give it the ball. North and Marquis Chase

2012 QUINCY RECORD 6-4
9/7	@ Cohasset	28-22 (L)
9/14	CANTON	21-12 (L)
9/21	PLYMOUTH SOUTH	34-32 (W)
9/28	DURFEE HIGH	34-6 (W)
10/5	@ Malden Catholic	15-12 (L)
10/13/11	@Whitman-Hanson	32-6 (W)
10/19	DUXBURY	37-28 (L)
10/26	SCITUATE	34-28 (W)
11/3	@ Hingham	42-39 (W)
11/9	@ Silver Lake	26-7 (W)
11/22	@ North Quincy (Veterans Stadium, 10 a.m.)

controlled the clock and the running game in last year's 27-17 win, and Reardon knows Quincy must stop the run on Thanksgiving.

"They've controlled the line of scrimmage against us the last three years and that's something we can't let happen," said Reardon.

The inside work of Lam, Kozlowski, Meade, Katura Simmons, and Ali Al-Jubori is important to Quincy, but what has served the Presidents well all year is their ability to make the big play. They give up yards, but they make the play which stops drives and turns around games. There was an 80-yard TD interception return by Harris against Duxbury, Lam's fumble recovery in the final minute which forced OT against Plymouth South, Kozlowski's game-winning stop in OT, Viet Doan's two interceptions which saved the Silver Lake game, and countless pressures and big hits from captain Peter Cedrone.

"We have to be aware of where Allen is at all times and we can't let Minton stand back there with time to throw," said Reardon.

The three-year drought is a motivating factor in Quincy's preparation. Quincy's seniors have never beaten North on Thanksgiving. This is their last chance.

"I don't know if it's added pressure, but we've been using it as: three years is long enough, it's time to step up," said Reardon.

"I can't tell you how much I want to win this game," said Green. "I remember all the hard work we've put in getting ready the last three years and all the pain we felt afterwards. This year, I want that pain to go away."

It is Quincy-North on Thanksgiving. It is something players have been dreaming since they were eight will talk about until they are 80.

"I always call Quincy the biggest small town in America. Everybody knows everybody," said Reardon. "The kids know each other. They're close-knit. They've been battling on the football field since they were kids. They're friends. They know each other before the game and they'll know each other after the game. It's something that they will always talk about."

SUBSCRIPTION FORM

FILL OUT THIS SUBSCRIPTION BLANK AND MAIL TO

The Quincy Sun

1372 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169

NAME _____

STREET _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

CHECK ONE BOX IN EACH COLUMN

☐ 1 YEAR IN QUINCY $25.00

☐ 1 YEAR OUTSIDE QUINCY $30.00 ☐ CHECK ENCLOSED

☐ 1 YEAR OUT OF STATE $38.00

QUINT'S House of Flowers

Family Owned & Operated
Since 1919

761 Southern Artery
QUINCY

617-773-7620

80TH CITY FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

North Quincy Red Raiders vs. Quincy Presidents Quincy Presidents - Some Season Highlights

WIDE RECEIVER Alex Hefferman has put up some great numbers catching the ball for the Presidents: 21 receptions for 566 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

QUARTERBACK James Lam delivers a pass for the Presidents under heavy pressure from a Canton defender.

MAX JOSEPH (No. 44) lead blocks for Jalen Green in the Presidents' win against Hanover.

QUINCY'S DEFENSE makes a big play in the Presidents' 34-28 win over Scituate Oct. 26 at Veterans Memorial Stadium. Making the stop here against a Sailor ballcarrier are (from left) Peter Cedrone (48), Ali Al-Jubori (72) and Viet Doan (7).

QUINCY'S VIET DOAN (left, No. 7) and Jackson Lam (right, No. 55) wrap up a Canton Bulldog in early season action.

QUINCY'S MATT KOZLOWSKI sacks Scituate's quarterback stopping a Sailors' drive and giving the Presidents good field position in their win Oct. 26.

QUINCY PRESIDENTS Peter Cedrone (left, No. 48) and Viet Doan (No. 7) pursue Canton Bulldogs ball carrier at Quincy's home opener Sept. 14 at Veterans Memorial Stadium.

SENIOR CAPTAIN Rich Turpin (no. 54) calls the assignments at center for the Presidents.

QUINCY'S DEFENSE has made big plays all season long, including this fumble recovery by Matt Hines (No. 80) against Canton with help from Gerson Lai (23) and James Askins (No. 76).

80TH CITY FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

North Quincy Red Raiders vs. Quincy Presidents

Football Coaches Recall First Victories In Storied Series

By BILL GRIFFIN

If you coach football at Quincy or North Quincy, you are measured by your success on Thanksgiving. The rest of the games are important, but Thanksgiving is 5,000 friends and family in the bleachers and a game which will be the talk of the town for decades.

A coach's first victory is a landmark in his career. For Quincy's Bill Reardon, the first win was the final chapter in a 10-year streak which dominated the rivalry. For North's Jim Connor, it was the victory of deliverance which broke the streak and breathed life into the Red Raiders who have now won three straight against Quincy entering this Thanksgiving showdown at Veterans Stadium at 10:00.

Reardon's maiden win against North came in 2008. The Presidents had rolled to nine straight over North under Bob Noble and Reardon did not want to break the pattern on his first Thanksgiving.

"I thought: If I lose this one, how is that going to look," said Reardon.

Reardon had a big, bruising running back in Tim Lewis and a talented quarterback in Lance Peterson, but as usual, nothing came easy on Thanksgiving.

"I think we were down at the half and rallied for the win (27-17)," said Reardon.

When it was over, there was satisfaction, relief and

BILL REARDON
Head Coach
Quincy Presidents

a sense of accomplishment. Reardon would like to relive this Thursday.

"It was fantastic. It meant a lot for the kids to be part of a win streak like that," he said.

Connor lost his first three

JIM CONNOR
Head Coach
North Quincy Red Raiders

against Quincy and won his first in 2009, one year after Reardon's win. It ended 10 years of losing football and stale turkey dinners for North on Thanksgiving.

"It was the best win of my career," said Connor who is 3-3 against Quincy. "It lifted a 10-year weight off our shoulders."

Despite the pressure, Connors tried to follow the same routine in his game preparation.

"We tried to set up a plan and stay with it," said Connors.

Of course, after the game started, the plan changed completely.

"It was typical North-Quincy football with inside kicks, blocked punts and all kinds of crazy plays," said Connor.

North won, 21-6. Terence Staley had three touchdowns and Mike Stanton, who is currently shattering records at Mass Maritime, had a standout game at quarterback.

"We had a defensive end, Trevor Richardson, who played the game of his life for us," said Connor.

When it was over, Connor remembers the walk back to North.

"There were people cheering and horns beeping for us," he said. "It felt great. Our kids deserved it and it built back up the rivalry between the two schools."

The Series Record:

Quincy 43, North 31, 5 Ties In 79 Games

The 80th annual football game between the North Quincy Red Raiders and the Quincy Presidents will be broadcasted live online on at www.mwlsports.com.

Charlie Bergeron will be doing the play-by-play and Brian Buckley will handle the color commentary.

The live-streaming broadcast will begin at 9:55 a.m. and a live web feed can be heard at www.mwlsports.com.

Entering tomorrow's 80th annual football game between the Quincy Presidents and the North Quincy Red Raiders, Quincy High School holds the edge with a 43-31-5 series record.

The contests in 1934, 1937, 1940 and 1983 were scoreless affairs, while the 55th meeting in 1987 ended in a 14-14 stalemate.

The series was last deadlocked at 7-7-3 going into the 1950 game.

The Red Raiders have won a three straight Thanksgiving Day games following a 10-year run by the Presidents (1999-2008). Quincy will be trying to rebound from last year's 27-17 defeat.

The series history:

1933: North 6, Quincy 0
1934: North 0, Quincy 0
1935: North 14, Quincy 6
1936: North 6, Quincy 0
1937: North 0, Quincy 0
1938: Quincy 19, North 0
1939: North 6, Quincy 0
1940: North 0, Quincy 0
1941: Quincy 34, North 0
1942: Quincy 27, North 0
1943: Quincy 12, North 7

1944: North 6, Quincy 0
1945: North 7, Quincy 0
1946: Quincy 31, North 6
1947: Quincy 19, North 6
1948: North 8, Quincy 6
1949: Quincy 25, North 0
1950: Quincy 20, North 0
1951: Quincy 21, North 0
1952: Quincy 32, North 19
1953: North 20, Quincy 7
1954: Quincy 18, North 0
1955: Quincy 44, North 20
1956: Quincy 19, North 13
1957: Quincy 18, North 7
1958: Quincy 25, North 16
1959: North 18, Quincy 14
1960: North 28, Quincy 20
1961: Quincy 10, North 0
1962: North 18, Quincy 0
1963: North 14, Quincy 10
1964: Quincy 12, North 8
1965: Quincy 20, North 16
1966: North 8, Quincy 0
1967: North 14, Quincy 6
1968: Quincy 21, North 8
1969: Quincy 53, North 0
1970: Quincy 16, North 6
1971: North 30, Quincy 12
1972: North 24, Quincy 8
1973: North 20, Quincy 10
1974: Quincy 14, North 13
1975: North 15, Quincy 8 (OT)
1976: North 24, Quincy 0
1977: Quincy 34, North 8

1978: Quincy 13, North 7
1979: Quincy 34, North 3
1980: North 27, Quincy 20
1981: North 7, Quincy 0
1982: Quincy 26, North 3
1983: Quincy 0, North 0
1984: Quincy 14, North 12
1985: North 7, Quincy 6
1986: North 24, Quincy 7
1987: North 14, Quincy 14
1988: Quincy 29, North 21
1989: North 27, Quincy 26
1990: Quincy 23, North 17
1991: North 7, Quincy 0
1992: North 20, Quincy 0
1993: North 14, Quincy 7
1994: Quincy 21, North 14
1995: Quincy 9, North 7
1996: Quincy 12, North 7
1997: Quincy 7, North 0
1998: North 21, Quincy 6
1999: Quincy 21, North 13
2000: Quincy 28, North 13
2001: Quincy 12, North 7
2002: Quincy 12, North 7
2003: Quincy 20, North 7
2004: Quincy 27, North 0
2005: Quincy 14, North 0
2006: Quincy 10, North 0
2007: Quincy 28, North 7
2008: Quincy 27, North 17
2009: North 21, Quincy 6
2010: North 13, Quincy 6
2011: North 27, Quincy 17

North Quincy Perfect In 1966, 1992

North Quincy has twice entered the Thanksgiving Day game with a perfect season on the line: 1966 and 1992.

Ken McPhee, present assistant coach for the Red Raiders, has a role in both. On the 1966 squad, he was a starting guard. He was the head coach of the 1992 team.

The 1966 team, coached by Carl Leone, had a 9-0 record, won the Greater Boston League title, shared the Class A crown with Arlington and shut out Quincy, 8-0.

1970 Quincy Team Undefeated

Quincy's 1970 team, coached by Hank Conroy, had a spotless 9-0 record.

The Presidents defeated

The 1992 team had an 11-0 record, won the Old Colony League title, beat Arlington in the Div. 1B Super Bowl and shut out Quincy, 20-0.

North Quincy that year, 16-6, and won the Greater Boston League title.

GOOD LUCK TO THE PLAYERS AND COACHES
OF QUINCY AND
NORTH QUINCY HIGH SCHOOLS AS YOU PLAY
IN THE 80TH ANNUAL THANKSGIVING DAY
SHOWDOWN.
- MAYOR TOM KOCH

Coverage Of The Rivalry Over The Years
Visit The Sun's Archives: www.thequincysun.com

80TH CITY FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

North Quincy Red Raiders vs. Quincy Presidents

North Quincy High School Cheerleaders

LET'S GO RED RAIDERS! – North Quincy High School cheerleaders are ready to lead the cheers for the Red Raiders at Thursday's Thanksgiving Day game against Quincy. Front row (from left) Antonnia Kelly, Lily Reid, Captain Jessie Thuma, Captain Brittany Meehan, Captain Jackie Merchant, Karina Lozano and Victoria Samsel. Back row: McKenzie Balzarini, Selena Natale, Lily Keener, Kristina Vey, Theresa Riordan, Erin McDonough, Erica Sacchetti, Lexi Maragioglio, Alex Scanlan.

Quincy High School Presidents Cheerleaders

LET'S GO PRESIDENTS! – Quincy High School cheerleaders are ready to lead the cheers for the Presidents at Thursday's Thanksgiving Day game against North Quincy. Front row (left to right): Alex Baylis, Cristina Tinney, Khiana Davis, Captain Mallory McKinnon, Captain Mackenzie Jefferson, Captain Mollie Oldham, Marianne Reardon, Tina Su. Middle row: Alex McMahon, Kelly O'Connor, Aimee Tinney, Catherine Sullivan, Cortnee Brown, Rachel Roach, Valerie Chen, Casey Perry, Morgan Perry, Marlena Forrester, Kelsey Tucker, Olivia Salvucci, Madison Kirby. Back row (from left to right): Brooke McCarthy, Kiley Hewer, Tatiana Silveira, Sarah Clancy, Jackie Blake, Chrissy Norton, Cassidy Toldness, Marie Lavigne, Lexi Richards.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

Santa's Arrival By Parachute A Quincy Tradition

SKYDIVER GERALD SPRAGUE has been helping Santa and his Elves arrive by parachute for Quincy's Christmas festivities for 35 years. Photo Courtesy Gerald Sprague

By EMILY TAFT

For 35 years Santa and his elves have arrived for Quincy's Christmas festivities by parachute to a crowd of smiling children and their families.

The aerial spectacle was a crowd pleaser for many years for spectators who lined Faxon Field before the location was moved to Pageant Field at Merrymount Park. The parachute jump that continues this Saturday could be considered one of the longest running public skydiving demo jumps in the country.

"This may be the longest continued demo jump, and as long as we are still breathing we will be doing this," said Head Elf Gerald Sprague.

After dropping in by parachutes, Santa and his elves will take part in the 60th Quincy Christmas Festival Parade on Sunday. It has become a holiday tradition in Quincy that Santa and his Elves parachute into the city.

"This is how Santa Claus gets to town," said Sprague. "The jump has to be done on Saturday because the parade happens Sunday and Santa has to be there."

Sprague along with Santa and the rest of the elves were asked to make the jump for the first time in 1977, but they never knew it would continue on for many years to come.

"When they asked us to jump we never thought that there would be a second and a third year, and now here we are 35 years later," said Sprague. "The first few years we landed in Faxon Field, now we land in Merrymount Park (Pageant Field) and it is always on a Saturday at around 12:30 p.m."

Over the years Sprague said that they have only had to cancel the jump once or twice because of weather conditions.

"If there is high winds, or to high of a cloud ceiling we have to cancel," said Sprague. "We've only had one or two weather cancellations."

Last year an estimated 2,000 people of all ages attended the arrival of Santa and his elves, the crowd was among the largest in the history of the event. For Sprague it's the crowd of young children and their parents that make the jump and journey worthwhile.

"My favorite thing would have to be the kids, seeing the kid's smiling faces and their parents who were there as kids 35 years ago. I love walking around from one end of the line of smiling kids to the other; the crowd always being five rows deep," said Sprague. "It's always about the kid's faces, it's real, and I have always enjoyed that, it will never lose that feeling. Flying in and over looking into the area, and looking over Quincy is an exciting part of the jump as well."

Standing Out at Allerton House at Hancock Park in Quincy

THE ALLERTON WAY

Allerton House at Hancock Park Assisted Living, Quincy, MA
by Kelly Richards

You won't have much trouble picking Anna Keaney out of a crowd at Allerton House at Hancock Park at Quincy. You see, Keaney has a talent for coordinating her clothing and accessories from head to toe. She says, "People often comment on how 'put together' I am and ask how I do it. I just seem to know what goes with what."

Keaney was a life-long Dorchester resident until an unexpected medical event about two years ago led to her decision to move to Allerton House in Quincy. She says, "It took a long time to recover. My family lives on the west coast, and I wouldn't be safe living in my house alone. I have a good friend who lives right down the street from Allerton House. She helped me while I was getting better, and suggested that I move here."

Although the decision to sell her home was difficult, Keaney is happy that she can maintain her independence while taking advantage of all of the benefits of assisted living. She says, "There are plenty of things to do here, social things like Bingo Blitz, foliage rides and shopping trips. I'm a big bargain hunter, so I like to help other people find the best deals when we shop—especially on senior discount days."

Keaney retired from a long and successful career in accounting and bookkeeping. She stays in touch with her former

Anna Keaney is a resident of Allerton House at Hancock Park in Quincy.

"It's a pleasure to be around the people at Allerton House."
Anna Keaney

Twenty years later, I met him again when he was on the same cruise my sister and I were on."

What strikes Keaney the most about living at Allerton House are the people who live and work there. She says, "The care here is very good, and everyone is so nice and considerate. It's a pleasure to be around the people at Allerton House."

Kelly Richards is the Marketing Director for Allerton House at Hancock Park in Quincy. The 42-apartment assisted living residence is owned and managed by Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group, which is celebrating more than 60 years of service to seniors. Contact Kelly at: 339-788-2979 or via email at: krichards@welchhrg.com Visit online at: www.welchhrg.com colleagues, who recently came to Allerton House to celebrate her birthday. She has also travelled the world, visiting places like Italy, Cuba, Ireland, Germany and Switzerland. During her travels, she often visited places of religious significance including the Knock Shrine in County Mayo Ireland. Keaney relays a special devotion to St. Anthony, and did charity work with the YMCA and the League of Catholic Women. "I like to help people," she says. Another event of note was the time Keaney won a WBZ Radio contest. She says, "I won a car and met Dave Maynard.

AGNITTI INSURANCE

HOME • AUTO • BUSINESS
LIFE • FINANCIAL

Anthony L. Agnitti, CIC, LIA
Certified Insurance Counselor
Licensed Insurance Advisor
CALL FOR A QUOTE ON PROPER INSURANCE
COVERAGE AT COMPETITIVE PRICES
ASK ABOUT OUR AUTO AND
HOMEOWNER INSURANCE
DISCOUNT PROGRAMS
24-Hour Emergency Access
770-0123
21 FRANKLIN ST., QUINCY

GRANITE LOCK CO

SERVICE MOBILE

AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS

- DEADBOLTS INSTALLED
- LOCKS REKEYED
- DOOR CLOSERS
- PANIC HARDWARE
- AUTO KEYS FITTED

VISIT OUR SHOWROOM!
755 SO. ARTERY, QUINCY
472-2177

Jimbo's Pizza

Subs & Seafood

NOW OPEN!!!

Come see "Jimbo"

the familiar face in Quincy 27 years!!

Large Cheese Pizza

$7.99 + tax

Inside Richards Market
243 Atlantic St., Quincy

(617)471-2222

Volunteers Needed

If you think two hours a week at the gym is good for your heart, volunteer to play with children living in family homeless shelters and make a real difference.

A commitment of two hours per week for at least six months is required.

The next training will be held:
December 8, 2012 from 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
Boston, MA

To apply or find out more, call 617-653-5488
or go to horizonchildren.org

HORIZONS
HOMELESS CHILDREN

Quincy Wins 80th City Football Championship
 Photos, Game Coverage Pages 20, 24-26
 Students Sign Ceremonial Central Beam
 Page 3

63
 THOMAS CRAN PUBLIC LIBRARY
 PO BOX 699164
 QUINCY MA 02269-9164

The Quincy Sun

Historic Quincy's Hometown Weekly Newspaper Since 1968

VOL. 45 No. 11

Thursday, November 29, 2012

75¢

A Super 60th Parade

MERRY CHRISTMAS, QUINCY! Santa waves from the back of a Quincy firetruck as Fire-fighter Mike Casey smiles at the conclusion of Sunday's 60th Quincy Christmas Parade.
Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

HALLAMORE CLYDESDALE HORSES receive a huge cheer from the crowd at Sunday's 60th annual Quincy Christmas Parade.
Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

QUINCY AFTER SCHOOL CHILDCARE'S "Elf" float entry received the Father Thomas Tierney Trophy as the best overall float in Sunday's 60th annual Quincy Christmas Parade. Story on Page 2, other photos also on Page 36.
Photo Courtesy Quincy Access Television

New Downtown Project Construction To Start In February

By SCOTT JACKSON

At a City Council meeting last week, developers and city officials provided a construction timeline for Merchants Row and other early parts of Quincy Center redevelopment.

The $120 million Merchants Row, also known as Block 4, is the first project Beal/Street-Works will undertake in the downtown.

Related Story On Page 11

It calls for the construction of two new buildings in the vicinity of the Granite Trust Building that will house 306 residential units and 30,000 square feet of retail space.

Street-Works Director of Construction Services Steve Chrusciel said that before work begins in February, the 76-car parking lot on the corner of Cottage Avenue and Chestnut Street will be closed. About half the cars that park in the lot will be moved to the Quincy Mutual lot and the rest to the Hancock Lot.

After that, a building on Hancock Street next to the Granite Trust Building will be torn down. The ATM

Cont'd On Page 13

Quincy Avenue Fire Ruled Arson

By EMILY TAFT

The state fire marshal believes someone intentionally set a three-alarm fire that tore through a Quincy Avenue building Tuesday morning.

The fire started before 2 a.m. Tuesday morning in an interior stairwell of the vacant building. The fire took several hours to put out, and by Tuesday afternoon investigators had ruled out any unintentional sources of ignition.

A joint criminal investigation by Quincy's Fire

Cont'd On Page 9

A THREE-ALARM fire in a vacant building at 488 Quincy Ave. Tuesday morning has been ruled as arson by the state fire marshal. Here firefighters from Engine 5 and Engine 4 advancing lines into the third floor.
Photo By Michael J. Worley

Wollaston Economic Planning Meeting Tonight

Mayor Thomas Koch and Ward 5 City Councillor Kirsten Hughes announced Tuesday that work aimed at potential economic development in Wollaston Center is moving forward with a community planning session to solicit the public's ideas at 6:30 p.m. tonight (Thursday) in the third-floor conference room of Eastern Nazarene College's building at 180 Old Colony Avenue.

"Wollaston Center holds a critical place in our City's future, and Councillor Hughes and our Administration are both committed to doing everything possible to maximize its potential for economic growth. That starts with thoughtful, collaborative planning," said Mayor Koch.

Added Councillor Hughes:

"Listening to residents, business owners and all stakeholders share their ideas is one of the most important parts of this planning process, and this session will be a great jumping-off point as we work together to secure Wollaston Center's future."

The planning session, known as a "charette," will be coordinated by the City's Department of Planning and

Cont'd On Page 9

For more Quincy news, visit:

The Quincy Sun.com

Holiday Lighting Ceremony - Page 35 ♦ Tax Bills Up Average $110 - Page 9
 10 New Solar-Powered Trash Compactors For Downtown - Page 3

Quincy Rings In Holiday Season With 60th Christmas Parade

By KRIS KALABOKAS

Chilly temperatures and brisk winds didn't stop thousands of spectators from attending Sunday's 60th annual Christmas parade.

"We've got gloves, scarves, and hats. We're all set," said Jeanne Sullivan, who traveled from Scituate with her husband, daughter, and nephew to enjoy the day's festivities. "We come every year. It's a good time."

Thousands of people lined the three-mile parade route which began at the intersection of Hancock Street and Hannon Parkway and ended at North Quincy High School to view floats — 15 in total — based on this year's theme, "My Favorite Christmas Movie." Films represented included "Elf," "How the Grinch Stole Christmas," "A Christmas Story," and "The Polar Express."

Of course the floats weren't the only attraction. Wally the Green Monster partook in the celebration, along with McGruff the Crime Dog, and the Aleppo Shriners Circus clowns of Wilmington. Clydesdales noisily clip-clopped along while pulling a horse-drawn carriage, eliciting excited squeals from children. Old fashioned cars and bagpipers delighted adults.

NANCY CONNOLLY, who submitted this year's winning Quincy Christmas Parade theme "My Favorite Christmas Movie," rides along the parade route in a convertible with her great-niece, Caroline Reed.

Other Photos Page 36

The Quincy and North Quincy High School combined band spread holiday cheer along with high school bands from Somerset/Berkley, Weymouth, Spencer, New Bedford, and Douglas. Color guard groups performed their routines alongside flautists, trumpeters, clarinetists, and drummers, which caught the eye of Sullivan's daughter, Jill.

"When I get older, I'm going to be a flag twirler," said the fifth-grader who, along with her younger cousin Evan Schindler, sat on blankets spread on the street, securing themselves a front row view and prime picture-taking real estate.

In keeping with the tradition of giving to the less fortunate during the season, members of the U. S. Marine Corps collected new, unwrapped toys for needy kids; a fruitful endeavor considering Quincy hosts the Commonwealth's largest yearly Christmas parade, drawing scores of bystanders from all over Massachusetts. Ronald McDonald also made a cameo appearance and waved from atop a vehicle promoting the Ronald McDonald House Charities, an organization which provides comfortable housing to families with critically ill children seeking treatment far from their home towns and cities.

"HOW THE GRINCH Stole Christmas" was the theme of the Quincy Chamber of Commerce float entry in Sunday's 60th annual Quincy Christmas Parade. From left are Sean Ormond, Chamber Vice President Donna Mavromates, Max Ormond, Julia Ormond, Annabella Glennon and Stacy Myers, the chamber's Membership Development associate. The float received the Mayor's Trophy as the Best Quincy Float.

Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

Youngsters bundled up under layers of winter gear and fleece throws excitedly welcomed Santa Claus, who parachuted onto Pageant Field the previous day with elves and his signature sack of gifts in tow to give to boys and girls who stayed off of the naughty list.

In the float competition, the Best Overall Float and winner of the Father Thomas Tierney Trophy went to Quincy After School Child-care for its entry "Elf."

The Mayor's Trophy for Best Quincy Float was presented to the Quincy Chamber of Commerce for its "How The Grinch Stole Christmas" entry.

Quincy Medical Center was judged the best commercial float winner for "Elf" and Jack Conway received Best Specialty float for "Whoville."

In the non-commercial float competition, first place went to Cochrane Memorial Road Race for "A Christmas Story."

Second was Relay for Life Quincy for "It's A Wonderful Life" and third place went to the Woodward School for Girls' "Polar Express."

In the band competition, Acton-Boxboro Regional High School received the George White Trophy as the best overall unit.

There was a tie for second place overall between Somerset/Berkley High School and New Bedford High School.

North Quincy-Quincy marching band received third place in the Division III category.

Awards were also presented to three color guards: Marine Corps Color guard was first; Quincy Police Department second and Plymouth American Legion #40 third.

Stop & Shop Supermarket Company LLC., with headquarters in Quincy Center, donated $30,000 to this year's Christmas parade making them the event's most generous corporate sponsor to date.

Steward. The New Health Care.

Experience the New Health Care.

Knee or Hip Pain? Learn more about MAKOpasty® at Quincy Medical Center. Quincy Medical Center is pleased to be the first in the area to offer MAKOpasty - robotic-arm guided partial knee resurfacing and total hip replacement. Our surgeons can now treat patients more precisely and less invasively using this exciting new technology. Learn more at our free seminar with our orthopedic surgeon.

Community Presentations on Knee and Hip Pain
6:00 to 7:00 pm
Wednesday, December 5, 2012
Milton Public Library
Thursday, December 6, 2012
Quincy Medical Center

Quincy Medical Center
A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

Register to attend at 1-800-488-5959 or www.steward.org/MAKOpasty
Light refreshments and free parking provided.

When It's Time To Talk To Your Parents...
Talk to us First – We're here to help!

Assisted Living Communities

Come for lunch & stay for a tour.

www.welchhrg.com

Call Today!

Duxbury
781-585-7136

Hingham
781-749-3322

Marshfield
Including Memory Care
866-939-1070

Quincy
617-471-2600

Weymouth
781-335-8666

A tradition of quality care from our family to yours

Over 60 Years of Quality Service
Welch
HEALTHCARE AND RETIREMENT SERVICES

Stop & Shop Donates 10 Solar-Powered Trash Compactors

Mayor Thomas Koch and Stop & Shop New England Division President Joe Kelley announced Tuesday a new partnership to replace garbage barrels with 10 new solar-powered trash compactors on Hancock Street in Quincy Center.

The compactors are made possible through a $50,000 grant from Stop & Shop. The units will be placed in front of Stop & Shop's New England Division Headquarters and at several spots along Hancock Street in Quincy Center.

"Stop & Shop has been an unmatched community partner in so many ways for so many years, and with this contribution has once again stepped up in a way that is going to have long-term positive benefits for the City of Quincy," said Mayor Koch. "We are tremendously grateful for the continuing growth of our City's partnership with Stop & Shop."

"We're committed to being a sustainable company and continually look for ways to lower our impact in each of our markets. It makes sense to extend that commitment through our partnership with the City of Quincy," said Joe Kelley, president, Stop & Shop New England Division. "Stop & Shop associates work here, live here, and we're glad to give back."

The 10 Big Belly Solar compactors hold up to 150 gallons of trash, substantially more than regular City barrels. The fully enclosed compactors — powered by solar battery — are also less susceptible to weather conditions and overflow litter.

DPW Commissioner Daniel Raymondi, who with Waste and Energy Manager John Sullivan, worked with the Stop & Shop to create the partnership, said the new compactors will save man-hours and money, with the DPW crews having to spend less time picking up downtown barrels and litter caused by overflow barrels.

Commission On Disabilities Public Forum Dec. 10

The Quincy Commission on Disabilities is hosting a public forum Monday, Dec. 10 from 6 to 8:30 p.m. in the Thomas Crane Public Library Community Room, 40 Washington St., Quincy Center.

CEREMONIAL BEAM SIGNING — As part of the construction of the new Central Middle School, Mayor Thomas Koch asked current Central students to sign one of the steel beams that will become part of the new building's frame. The beam, with the signatures of about 600 students, was erected in place earlier this week and can be seen by motorists driving by the site — it's on the building section facing Hancock Street on the top level. From left to right: Central Assistant Principal Richard DeCristofaro, Jr., Central Middle School Student Deputy Mayor Maura McDonald, Student Mayor Owen Doherty, Student Secretary Charles O'Brien, Mayor Koch, School Superintendent Richard DeCristofaro, Central Principal Jennifer Fay-Beers; and Assistant Superintendent Colleen Roberts.

Photo Courtesy Office Of Mayor Thomas Koch

Traffic Department Moves To DPW

By SCOTT JACKSON

In a unanimous vote last week, the City Council approved moving the city's Traffic and Parking Department to the Public Works Department.

The council's ordinance committee vetted and approved the change before the full council meeting. Public Works Commissioner Dan Raymondi told the committee that the move was part of Mayor Tom Koch's plan to improve the efficiency of city departments.

"A number of months ago the mayor asked me to assume a greater degree of management over Traffic and Parking and we have done that both from a management of operations standpoint as well as some of the personnel procedures," Raymondi said. "Mayor Koch, as you know, is the chief executive officer within the city. He's always interested in greater efficiencies among departments and between departments — always trying to improve the service we provide to your constituents. This is one of those attempts."

Raymondi added that his department already handled Traffic and Parking's payroll and administration.

"Traffic and Parking is a relatively small department. At one point it was part of the Police Department and at another point in time it was part of Public Works. For the last number of [budget] cycles it has been a separate department. Public Works continues to do its payroll. We continue to do its accounts payable. It does not have any clerical support or computerization support," Raymondi said.

At the meeting, Councilor Doug Gutro asked how transferring Traffic and Parking would help reduce the number pedestrian accidents in the city.

"In the context of the extraordinary number of pedestrian accidents, I trust that you've given that some thought and consideration of how merging this department with yours will allow you — through striping, signalization, engineering — to tackle that," Gutro said. "I understand the Police Department is stepping up enforcement and doing a public information campaign but how does this provide

Cont'd On Page 9

REGGIE'S OIL

CO., INC.

Heating & Air Conditioning Service

Joseph P. Reggiannini
92-94 (Rear) Franklin St.
Quincy, MA 02169

Office Hours:
M-F 7:30 am - 5:00 pm

(617) 471-2095

(24 Hour Emergency Service)

www.reggiesoil.com

We are a local, family-owned & operated oil company located right here in Quincy. We've been providing a quality product & superior service to our customers here in Quincy & throughout Southeastern MA for more than 50 years....and we always will!

PAYING TOP DOLLAR
for your unwanted jewelry!

APPRAISING,
BUYING &
SELLING...

Del Greco Coins

399 WASHINGTON STREET • ROUTE 53 • WEYMOUTH
LOCATED OFF RT. 3, EXIT 16A, TO RT. 53N

781.337.5069

HOURS: MONDAY - FRIDAY 9-5 • SATURDAY 9:30-2

Refinance
your Jumbo
at an excellent rate!

3.05%
APR

10-YEAR FIXED
NO POINTS!

Here's your chance to lower the rate and shorten the term on your fixed-rate Jumbo mortgage... or convert your adjustable-rate Jumbo to a fixed before rates start moving up. Right now, Colonial Federal has $10 million to lend in Jumbo mortgages at a very favorable fixed rate. If you're determined to pay off your mortgage as soon as possible, this loan will help you do that. Come see us or call Angela Blanchard, VP/Retail Lending, at 617-471-0750. Or apply online at colonialfed.com. Have another loan or term in mind? Call us. We may be able to help.

(Also available for new Jumbo loans.)

COLONIAL FEDERAL SAVINGS BANK

"Your neighborhood bank!"

QUINCY: 15 Beach Street 617-471-0750 • 1000 Southern Artery (Residents only) 617-479-1430

HOLBROOK: 802 South Franklin Street 781-767-1776

EAST WEYMOUTH: Middle & Washington Streets 781-331-1776 • www.colonialfed.com

Insured FDIC

Some additional facts: Annual Percentage Rate (APR) effective as of 11/7/12 and may change. Applies to 1-2 family owner-occupied homes. Assumes a maximum 80% loan-to-value and first mortgage position. Subject to credit approval. A 10-Year Jumbo loan would be repaid in 120 equal monthly principal plus interest payments of $9.65 per $1000 borrowed, which do not include taxes or insurance premiums, if applicable. So your actual monthly payment will be greater. Must borrow at least $417,000 for this loan.

The Quincy Sun

(USPS 453-060)
Published Weekly on Thursday by
The Quincy Sun Publishing Co., Inc.
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

Robert H. Bosworth
Publisher and Editor

Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.
Founder
1968 - 2009

75¢ per copy. $25.00 per year by mail in Quincy
$30.00 per year by mail outside Quincy - $38.00 out-of-state

Telephone: 617-471-3100 Fax: 617-472-3963

email address:
thequincysun@verizon.net

Periodicals postage paid at Boston, MA
Postmaster Send address change to:
The Quincy Sun, 1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

The Quincy Sun assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL.

• On Dec. 13, 1621, under the care of Robert Cushman, the first American furs to be exported from the continent leave for England aboard the Fortune. During the crossing, the Fortune was captured by the French, and its valuable cargo of furs was taken. Cushman was detained on the Ile d'Dieu before being returned to England.

• On Dec. 14, 1799, George Washington, the first U.S. president, dies at age 67. Two days earlier, he rode out into a freezing sleet to survey business affairs on his estate. He returned home late for a dinner engagement and refused to take the time to change out of his wet clothes. The next day, Washington developed a severe respiratory infection and died the following day. His last words were "Tis well."

• On Dec. 16, 1811, the greatest series of earthquakes in U.S. history begins in the Mississippi River Valley near New Madrid, Mo., when a quake of an estimated 8.6 magnitude slams the region. The earthquake raised and lowered parts of the Mississippi Valley by as much as 15 feet and changed the course of the Mississippi River.

• On Dec. 10, 1915, the one-millionth Ford car rolls off the assembly line at the River Rouge plant in Detroit. Between 1908 and 1927, Ford sold more than 15 million Model Ts in all; they initially cost $850 (about $20,000 in today's dollars).

• On Dec. 11, 1946, the United Nations votes to establish the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF) to provide relief and support to children. Only two countries have failed to ratify the treaty -- Somalia and the United States.

• On Dec. 15, 1973, Sandy Hawley becomes the first jockey to win 500 races in a single year. Hawley achieved his historic win aboard Charlie Jr., in the third race at Maryland's Laurel Park race track.

• On Dec. 12, 1989, hotel magnate Leona Helmsley receives a four-year prison sentence, 750 hours of community service and a $7.1 million tax fraud fine in New York. Helmsley became the object of loathing and disgust when she quipped that "only the little people pay taxes."

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

HN Parks Walking Tour Dec. 8

The Park Department's Environmental Treasures program is offering a free tour Saturday, Dec. 8 at 1 p.m.

Entitled "Preparing for Winter," participants will stroll through parks in Houghs Neck learning how nature adapts to winter, taking inspiration from nature to conserve energy and water in their own homes. The tour will visit two interesting homes that have implemented a variety of measures to conserve water and energy through the efforts of Quincy's Home Energy Eficiency Team, saving money and reducing their carbon footprint.

Prizes will be provided for participants who arrange for a free energy assessment during the tour.

Patti Keville, Chair of the newly established Quincy Climate Action Network, will describe the exciting projects the group is undertaking.

The tour will begin on Rockland Street at the intersection of Spring Street in Houghs Neck.

For more information, call 617/472-0799.

Son Beams

By ROBERT BOSWORTH

Memories From THE GAME

The stands are empty now.

The stadium silent.

The celebration over.

The 80th city football championship between Quincy and North Quincy High Schools is in the books. The final score: Quincy Presidents 30, North Quincy Red Raiders 14.

The game is over but anyone familiar with this storied Thanksgiving Day rivalry knows THE GAME is much more than that.

The tradition creates memories that last a lifetime.

Just ask Linda Sullivan, a 1959 graduate of Quincy High and wife of the late Bill Sullivan, the legendary football and baseball coach for the Presidents.

Mr. Sullivan was a teacher for 45 years and was the head football coach for Quincy from 1952 to 1960. He succeeded another legend - Munroe MacLean - whom he served as a line coach for many years.

"Thanksgiving Day to Bill was the biggest day of the year," Mrs. Sullivan says about an hour before kick-off last Thursday. "He loved coaching, he loved his teams, he loved everything about it."

The game has also created fond memories for Linda as she recalled some of them as a bright, mid-morning November sun began shining brightly over Veterans Stadium.

"It was important to come to the football game back in those days," she says, wearing a Presidents blue sweater and white turtle neck and a gold football charm necklace.

"The Thanksgiving game was very, very important and as I grew up and after I got married to Bill (in 1992) it became even more so. It's a wonderful tradition, between the Hall of Fame Banquet and the game. It gets all wrapped up like a nice package."

"It's a real gift to the city."

Linda says some of her fondest high school memories stem from the football games.

"I was a member of the pep club, my best friend was the head majorette. We went to the football games and it was also important to go to the rallies. We had a lot of fun."

Before the big game her senior year, she and her friends tried to provide the Presidents with some added inspiration.

"We sneaked into the stadium and a whole bunch of us painted this goal post blue and white (Quincy's colors)," she says, pointing to the upright nearest Southern Artery.

"The police got notice and we took off," she says with a wide smile.

Over the years, the game has also brought some indelibly heart-warming moments for the Sullivan family.

In 2001, the Quincy-North Quincy Football Hall of Fame Committee led by President Ron Ivil arranged a limousine to bring Bill Sullivan and Pete Zoia - a North Quincy football legend - to the Thanksgiving Day game.

"They had a limo pick us up and Pete along with some of his daughters whom I've become friendly with and myself and they had us out on the field and they also rode around a bit in a golf cart. It was just a wonderful day for the two of them," Linda says.

At half-time, the two football legends were presented time clock plaques from the Hall of Fame Committee. Sullivan was a two-time all-scholastic fullback and as head coach, won five straight Thanksgiving Day games for the Presidents (at the time a record).

Zoia was equally the legend for Red Raider black and red. He played for North from 1930 to 1932 and was a two-time all scholastic fullback. He also later coached at North Quincy and served as an assistant for 20 years while inspiring generations of Red Raiders.

Quincy went on to the win that game 11 years ago and Presidents' head football coach Bob Noble presented Bill - who had been diagnosed with pancreatic cancer about six months earlier - with the game ball.

"Bob Noble spoke beautiful words of kindness about Bill. I was just so thrilled and my husband was almost in tears. It was just wonderful."

Noble, after presenting the ball to Mr. Sullivan, said he had always admired him. The feeling was mutual. It was Mr. Sullivan who mailed Noble a letter of support after he was named head football coach.

Mr. Sullivan also told Noble that someday he would break his record of five-straight Thanksgiving Day games and it would be an honor if he did.

And that's just what happened. Noble and his Presidents reeled off a record nine straight Thanksgiving Day wins from 1999 to 2007.

LINDA SULLIVAN, wife of the late Bill Sullivan, legendary Quincy High Football coach, points to Mr. Sullivan's name as a member of the Quincy-North Quincy Football Hall of Fame. Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

The game ball gesture was one of those moments that the Sullivans would never forget.

The ball also offered comfort to the Sullivan family during some difficult days.

"We moved from the Cape to live with my sister the last two months of Bill's life so I brought all his things to make it seem like home. That game ball was on the mantle and as the days were getting tougher, I put the ball at the end of his bed. I mean that game ball meant the world to Bill."

After Bill passed away in March of 2003, Linda cradled the ball and carried it into the church for his funeral. Her brother-in-law, Brian Bearde, held it while she gave the eulogy.

Linda says Bill's spirit is always with her, but his presence is especially felt every year at Veterans' Memorial Stadium on Thanksgiving Day. Before she arrives at the gate, she stops at Bill's grave at Mount Wollaston Cemetery and places a little football at his final resting spot.

"I know Bill's spirit is here and I know what he would be saying. He'd be thrilled with today - the 80th anniversary of this game."

Bill Sullivan lived out a dream on the sidelines. He had wanted to be a football coach since he was 12.

"Bill was a good man. He was very cool and reserved but he was a good, good man. He was generous and he had fierce feelings about what was good and what was right. He just loved football."

As kick-off approaches, the players for Quincy and North Quincy continue to go through their drills. It's the biggest stage most of these players will ever experience.

"It gives me faith when I see the young kids who still love to play football for the game of football," Linda says looking out on to the field. "My husband was a true believer in what you learned on the field playing football: integrity, honesty, camaraderie, commitment, dedication. He'd say 'play fair, play well, shake your opponent's hand, get dressed and act like a gentleman."

"That was my husband's motto and he believed it."

The game.

It's more than football.

It's memories.

And for some, a part of life.

BEFORE KICK-OFF last Thursday, the Salvation Army placed two kettles in front of one of the gates at Veterans' Memorial Stadium to help launch this year's holiday kettle campaign.

A red kettle representing North Quincy High School was manned by Chris Koch, a NQHS graduate and wife of Mayor Thomas Koch. A blue kettle representing Quincy High was manned by Don Uvanitte, a Quincy High graduate and chairman of the Quincy Salvation Army Advisory Board.

The red kettle out-fundraised the blue kettle but the real winner was the Salvation Army.

Scenes From Yesterday

THIS IS A 1926 real photo postcard reproduction showing Beach Street in Wollaston looking towards Wollaston Beach. Before this section of Wollaston was developed into house lots in the 1890's this was the only public access through the Quincy family property to a small beach that was near today's Wollaston Yacht Club. Henry Frink, a Quincy photographer, took dozens of pictures of streets and scenes all over Quincy that he made into postcards and sold in his shop. Today, postcards like this one are hard to find, but his negatives have been preserved. To contact Tom Galvin, e-mail tmgalvin@verizon.net.

From the Collection of City Historian Tom Galvin

Quincy's Yesterdays

This Week
1961
51 Years Ago

Retail Building Planned For Capitol Site

Robert M. Faxon announced plans to construct a retail building on the site of the closed Capitol Theater on Hancock St. he said that Sears Roebuck, which was next to the site, was in negotiations to expand into the new building.

The famous city landmark was built by Sen. Henry Kincaide and was the first moving picture theater in the city. Known as the Kincaide Theater, its name was changed in 1926 to the Quincy Theater and in 1944 to the Capitol.

Hollywood comedian Billy DeWolfe became interested in show business when he was an usher at the theater. It became famous when Eugene O'Neill's banned in Boston play, "Strange Interlude" showed there.

In announcing the plans for the new building, Faxon said that Sears management had confidence in the future of Quincy as a retail center and wanted to expand, nearly doubling the size of its present store.

RECORD CROWD SEES CHRISTMAS PARADE

A crowd estimated at 150,000, the largest ever, viewed the annual Christmas parade along Hancock St.

Included in the march were 20 bands, 12 drum and bugle corps and eight floats. Quincy Police Capt. Walter Kemp was grand marshal with Rev. Thomas Tierney, formerly of St. John's, as parade director.

SUB CONTRACT BEGINS NEW SHIPYARD ERA

With the announcement of a $25 million contract to build a nuclear-powered attack submarine, shipyard officials said the Quincy yard was beginning a new era. While the new work wouldn't increase the number of workers it would prevent the layoff of the current force of 7,500.

William O'Connell, chairman of the Quincy Shipbuilding Committee, said that the new contract would be "a great boost to the business climate in the area." In addition to Quincy the Navy awarded sub contracts to Electric Boat in Gorton, Conn. and Ingalls in Pascagoula, Miss.

QUINCY-ISMS

Mayor Amelio Della Chiesa sent an order to the city council asking for funds to build a new Atlantic fire station. The current 30-year-old building was gradually settling, creating a dangerous condition. Plans were for the new building to be built on piles at the current site... Edward Kennedy the brother of the President was the orator at the Elks memorial program, honoring members who had died during the year. Russell Hally was chairman. Some 200 attended the services. Included in the names of the deceased were three past Exalted Rulers: Clifton Canniff, John Barry and Edwin LaCroix... Fifty members attended the family reunion at the Montillio St. home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Malvesta... Robert Blair, vice president at South Shore National Bank, was confirmed as a member of the Quincy Housing Authority board... A letter was sent to the city council asking that Park Ave. in Squantum be changed to Purcell Rd., honoring the late civic leader and school committee member Esther Purcell... The mayor asked the city council for funds to build a North Quincy branch for the Thomas Crane Library. He said the estimated cost for land opposite Sacred Heart was $54,000 for a total cost of $150,000. Councillor George Burke, a long-time supporter of a branch in the north end of the city, moved the bond issue at the council meeting... Mrs. Antonio Svizzero was chairman for the Democratic Women's Christmas party scheduled for the Torre Dei Passeri... City Clerk John Gillis swore in policemen to their new positions. Sgt. William Daley was promoted to lieutenant and patrolmen Edward Immar, Francis Norton, Jr., and Roy Cavicchi to sergeants... Chief of Detectives William McIntyre presented service revolvers to new policemen William Donnelly, Frederick Fuller, Walter Frazer, Alfred Radley, Ronald St. Angelo and Thomas Nigro... The North Quincy K of C held a Norman Basius appreciation night for all his civic works. He was founder of the Sea Scout Ship 29. Grand Knight John Sullivan was presented a plaque on behalf of the council... Morrissey Club Steelers' players were honored at a banquet. John "Butch" Mahoney, team and conference high scorer was given the John Wallace Memorial Trophy. Don Aikens was MVP.

READERS FORUM

Happy To Be Back In Quincy

After reading the Readers Forum I really feel an obligation to write.

Mr. Traynor seems very happy in his new home state, so that's good. I experienced out-of-state living for a few years and to be honest I was so very pleased to be back home again to Quincy. Although the circumstances, for me, were very sad.

We may throw the famous finger to one another but Mr. Giarratani, we don't mind helping out the 47 percent of our fellow human beings. Personally I wish - pray - that the special group at the top would help row the boat or at the very best take the anchor out of the water, we are always better at this.

On a happier note, have any of you seen the beautiful island at the "heart" end of Billings Street? One of our proud citizens has done that. Thank you so much, it brings a smile and a nice ride home for the rest of us proud Quincy citizens.

Happy Holidays.

Mrs. Gertrude Knowles
Naval Terrace
Quincy

Opposes Doubling Number Of Liquor Licenses

(A copy of the following letter was submitted to The Quincy Sun for publication.)

Dear Councillor Hughes and Councillor Gutro:

I can't believe what I just heard announced on QATV this morning by Joe Catalano!

It said Mayor Koch is asking the City Council to double the present number of liquor licenses from 27 to 54, for the "new downtown"! It says, the mayor and the developers think the present number of liquor licenses is not enough!

Are you, as members of the City Council, elected by your Quincy constituents, ready to do this? Is Councillor Gutro as chairman of the Downtown Committee, and his committee members also in agreement?

Is our mayor trying to create Quincy's version of Boston's "Combat Zone" maybe more politically correct, "Quincy's Adult Entertainment Zone" in the Downtown? Now with the passage of the state's new "medical marijuana" law that will affect Quincy, you also have this new request by our mayor before you have time to establish boundaries for marijuana dispensaries in Quincy.

Is our present police department and liquor officer equipped to take on twice as much work with double the number of liquor establishments, in addition to the new marijuana passage?

What will this do to the present business owners of liquor licenses who try very hard to keep up their facilities and work within the law?

I find this request ridiculous and ill-timed. We don't have one new building or hotel or restaurant yet and the mayor wants new liquor licenses right now? The news item said each liquor license costs $5000. Do you now have 27 new applicants waiting in the wings?

Will each fee go towards policing these new establishments, if even a few are allowed?

How would each of you like to have double the number of liquor establishments within your own neighborhoods or wards?

Do you think they would affect the quality of life near your family's residences? Would the mayor and developers propose this near their own homes?

I hope that each councillor will take lots of time and give lots of attention to this matter that is supposed to be brought up tonight.

Arline Goodman
Revere Road

Other Letters On Page 10

SUBSCRIPTION FORM

FILL OUT THIS SUBSCRIPTION BLANK AND MAIL TO

The Quincy Sun

1372 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169

NAME _____

STREET _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

CHECK ONE BOX IN EACH COLUMN

☐ 1 YEAR IN QUINCY $25.00

☐ 1 YEAR OUTSIDE QUINCY $30.00

☐ 1 YEAR OUT OF STATE $38.00

☐ CHECK ENCLOSED

Woodward School Craft Fair Saturday

The Woodward School for Girls, 1102 Hancock St., Quincy, will hold its fourth annual Holiday Craft Fair Saturday, Dec. 1 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The fair will feature more than 40 crafters and vendors with food, bake sales and raffles.

Admission is $1 per person.

Arts & Entertainment

Sisters Caroline, Caitlin Connelly Cast In SSBT's 'Nutcracker'

South Shore Ballet Theatre's 5th annual Nutcracker with feature two dancers from Quincy who are sisters.

Caroline Connelly, age 10 and her 16-year-old sister Caitlin, are among the 90 South Shore dancers who are cast in the holiday favorite.

Caroline is a Soldier in the battle scene and a Polichinelle in Act II. Caitlin is in the party scene as a Soldier Doll and in Spanish in Act II.

The four performances of The Nutcracker are Saturday, Dec. 8 at 2 and 6 p.m. and Sunday, Dec. 9 at 2 and 6 p.m. Performances will be at Derby Academy in Hingham.

Tickets are on sale for $15 and all seats are reserved. Tickets can be purchased at the South Shore

QUINCY SISTERS Caroline (left) and Caitlin Connelly will perform in the South Shore Ballet Theatre's performance of "The Nutcracker" Dec. 8 and Dec. 9 at Derby Academy, Hingham.

Photo Courtesy South Shore Ballet Theatre

Ballet Theatre, 24 Rockland St., Hanover or call 781-312-7224.

For more information, visit the website www.southshoreballettheatre.com.

WINNERS CIRCLE of the recent 'Dancing with the Fontbonne Stars.' From left to right: Lilia Wood, professional dancer and owner of Ballroom in Boston (located in Newton), Marta Fasano Googins '61, Tim McDonald P'13, professional dancer Vlad Derisier, Corine McGarty '09, professional dancer Christopher Muise, Janine Bernier Winters '00, professional dancer Wayne Ong, professional dancer Sara Zirolla, and Paul Piotrowicz P'92, P'95, and the Fontbonne soccer coach. Marta Fasano Googins is this year's Grand Champion.

Second Annual Event Raises $40,000

Fontbonne Academy Hosts 'Dancing With The Fontbonne Stars'

Fontbonne Academy recently hosted its second annual "Dancing with the Fontbonne Stars."

The gymnasium was transformed into a grand ballroom and guests were mesmerized by the exquisite dancing, costumes, and drama of the event.

Professional dancers were paired with members of the Fontbonne community and competed in the hustle, cha-cha, lindy hop, swing, salsa, tango and group tango.

Emcees were Fontbonne parents Bill Callahan of Bridgewater and Rita Senier of Quincy.

Participating dancers were Marta Fasano Googins '61 of Braintree, Corine McGarty '09 of Quincy, Tim McDonald P'13 of Quincy, Fontbonne's soccer coach

Paul Piotrowicz of Holbrook and Janine Bernier Winters of North Attleboro.

After an exciting evening filled with dancing, including student performances, and professional ballroom pairs, the Grand Champion, Marta Fasano Googins, was announced.

The individual winners were Signature Move: Corine McGarty; Most Enthusiastic: Marta Fasano Googins; Most Likely To Dance Professionally: Janine Bernier Winters; Instructors' Choice: Paul Piotrowicz; and Most Creative: Tim McDonald.

The spirited event raised over $40,000 for the school.

FOUR STAR PAPER & PARTY OUTLET

Holiday Entertaining Headquarters

Seasonal Plates, Napkins & Cups
Holiday Containers & Decorations

SPECIAL:
9 & 10 oz Swirl Holiday Plastic Cups $2.79
9 & 10 oz Red Plastic Cups $2.49

84 Liberty St., Quincy
(617) 773-7773
Mon. - Fri. 8:30-5:00 Sat. 8:30-3:00

HOLIDAY CATERING
FROM THE COMMON MARKET

Village Common Catering

Hors D'oeuvres ~ Hot & Cold Entrees
Sandwiches ~ Salads

Call 617-472-9464 & ask for Carol Callahan
Drop off or pick up
(serving staff available upon request)
www.commonmarketrestaurants.com

Find us on Facebook

Highlights of Local Programming found on...

Quincy Access Television
88 Washington Street
Quincy, MA 02169
617-376-1440

Public Access Channel 8

Thursday, November 29th:
7:00pm: QYFL Championship
10:30pm: Freddy K

Friday, November 30th:
11:30am: LIVE: Currently in Quincy
11:00pm: Lemmingvision 2000

Saturday, December 1st:
2:00pm: Thanksgiving Football
6:30pm: Veterans Day Ceremonies

Sunday, December 2nd:
12:00pm: Christmas Parade & Awards
10:00pm: The Constitution: Then & Now

Monday, December 3rd:
11:30am: LIVE: Currently in Quincy
7:00pm: LIVE: Eye on Quincy

Tuesday, December 4th:
6:00pm: Eye on Quincy (replay)
8:00pm: Quincy in Focus

Wednesday, December 5th:
8:00pm: LIVE: Tarot by Lea Marie
9:00pm: Free Our Voices

Government Access Channel 11

Thursday, November 29th:
6:00pm: Update DPW Fall Season
7:30pm: In Your Neighborhood Ward 4

Friday, November 30th:
6:00pm: City View with Mayor Koch
7:00pm: License Board 11/27

Saturday/Sunday, December 1st/2nd:
9:00am: City View with Mayor Koch
11:30am: At the Library: December
2:00pm: Christmas Parade & Awards
4:00pm: License Board 11/27
11:00pm: License Board 11/27

Monday, December 3rd:
5:30pm: Quincy in Focus
7:30pm: LIVE: City Council

Tuesday, December 4th:
12:00pm: City Council 12/3
6:30pm: FYI: QHD Energy Drinks
7:00pm: In Your Neighborhood Ward 4

Wednesday, December 5th:
6:00pm: In the Know: Influenza
7:00pm: City Council 12/3

Programming is subject to change. For a complete list of programs, please consult our website at www.qatv.org

Puzzled about your future?

Let us help you put the pieces together.

Regina Russell's Tea Room

We have been in the Psychic business since 1973.
Walk-in service & private readings by appointment.
Psychics available for home and office parties.

Phone Readings Available: 888-655-3456

Open Monday thru Friday 10:30 am - 9:30 pm
Saturday & Sunday 10:30 am - 5:00 pm

40 Franklin Street - Quincy, MA - Phone: 617-472-8806
Free weekly horoscopes on our website: www.rtrsaeroom.com

Social

Paula Lombardo To Receive ISS Community Hero Of The Year Award

Paula Lombardo, Chief Administrative Officer of The Lombardo Companies, will receive Interfaith Social Services' 2012 Community Hero of the Year award at their 65th Anniversary Gala on December 6th. Lombardo has been helping Interfaith meet the needs of the families and individuals they serve for more than a decade.

"Paula is always donating time, business services and personal resources to help us serve the South Shore," said Rick Doane, Executive Director of Interfaith Social Services. "Whether it's through her past role as a Feed the Hungry Gala co-chair, host or sponsor, her support has been consistent over the years, always finding ways to be extremely involved in Interfaith's mission of helping our neighbors in need."

"One of my personal joys in working with Interfaith Social Services is hearing the personal stories of service recipients who are able to make it through the rough times and build a better life for themselves and their families due to the help and services Interfaith provides. It's truly heart-warming," Lombardo said.

Each Thanksgiving, Lombardo's hosts its Giving Thanks Celebration, where the family opens the doors of Lombardo's Function Facility to senior citizens, veterans and people who do not have family to celebrate with at Thanksgiving, welcoming them into their "home" for a free, sit-down, family style Thanksgiving dinner. This event, which has been a family tradition for more than 40 years, serves approximately 900 people annually, with the help of 125 volunteers.

PAULA LOMBARDO

The Lombardo family also hosts an annual Vincent's Nightclub Anniversary Celebration, a black-tie fundraising event benefitting three different local charities chosen by the Lombardo family each year. All proceeds of the evening are given to the three charities as the Lombardo family pays 100 percent of the evening's expenses, leaving all ticket sales and funds raised as a source for donation to the designated charities. Since its inception, this event has raised almost one million dollars for charities throughout the South Shore (including Interfaith Social Services, which has been a benefactor of this event in the past).

Lombardo's goodwill also extends to the Long Island Shelter, where she recruits friends, family and employees to donate time to serve meals every third Tuesday of the month, sponsoring the "Serving Ourselves" program. Paula is credited with initiating her family's involvement in the shelter after she first heard about it through the Massachusetts Restaurant Association more than 25 years ago.

Interfaith Social Services' Feed the Hungry Gala & 65th Anniversary Celebration will be held Thursday, Dec. 6th from 6:30 to 10:30 p.m. at the Granite Links Golf Club in Quincy. Governor Deval L. Patrick is Honorary Chairperson of this year's event, recognizing Interfaith's 65 years of compassionate service and emergency assistance for South Shore families in need.

Tickets are $75 per person and a group of 10 tickets are available for $600. Event tickets and 50/50 raffle tickets can be purchased online at www.InterfaithSocialServices.org or by check made payable and sent to: Interfaith Social Services, 105 Adams St., Quincy, MA 02169 Attn: FTH Gala.

Raffle and silent auction items are still being accepted. The money raised by ticket sales, corporate donations and raffle tickets will help Interfaith meet the needs of the growing number of families they serve.

Santa Visits The View Restaurant For Breakfast Saturdays, Sundays

Santa Claus will be visiting The View Restaurant, 357 West Squantum St.,

Quincy, every Saturday and Sunday in December from 9:30 a.m. to noon.

Those who will be having breakfast at The View during those hours can bring their camera and take photos with Santa. Call 617-770-2500 to make a reservation.

Christmas Joy Fair Dec. 15 At O'Brien Towers

Christmas Joy Fair will be held Saturday, Dec. 15 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at O'Brien Towers, 73 Bicknell St., Quincy.

The fair will feature tables with crafts, gifts and food.

Lunch will be available (meatball sub, hot dog, cheeseburger, French fries and drinks.)

QUINT'S
House
of Flowers
Family Owned & Operated
Since 1919
761 Southern Artery
QUINCY
617-773-7620

Adams Montessori School

OPEN HOUSE
Sunday, December 2 • 1-3 pm
(snow date • Dec. 9)

- Toddler, pre-school & elementary programs
- Morning or full day sessions
- Before and after school care

Call us at 617-773-8200
to schedule an appointment

Come visit us in the historic Adams district

310 Adams Street, Quincy
www.adamsmontessori.org

SHAYLA GOBA receives a new bicycle and State House commendation from state Rep. Bruce Ayers (right) as a top reader at the Squantum Elementary School. Looking on is Principal Stephen Sylvia.

Squantum Third Grader Shayla Goba Receives New Bike As A Top Book Reader

State Rep. Bruce Ayers recently visited Squantum Elementary School to deliver a new bike to third grade student Shayla Goba as part of an annual literacy contest at the school.

Shayla was one of many students who participated in the third annual Race to Read Summer Reading Contest encouraging students to read during the summer months. Squantum students were asked to track the number of books they read over the summer as part of the school's summer open library program. The books were then tallied at the start of the school year and a winner was drawn from a pool of all the top readers.

Ayers donates a bike every year as the top prize and incentive for students to read over the summer.

"We are very fortunate to have Representative Ayers supporting this program and literacy at our school," said Principal Stephen Sylvia. "I am so proud of all our students participating in this program and more importantly reading over the summer."

Holiday Craft Fair

Saturday December 1st
9am-3pm
Bethany Church
18 Speer St., Quincy
Luncheon available

Look
Your BEST for the Holidays

at HAIRPLACE ONE
85 QUINCY AVENUE
Call for Appt. 617-472-1060
PLENTY OF PARKING
www.hairplaceone.com

Marie's Kitchen

BY MARIE D'OLIMPIO

Double-Crust Apple-Apricot Pie

I guess I have baked apple pies forever not only for the family, but friends and relatives as well.

But while flipping through a magazine, I found an apple pie made with apricots and it was very delicious and easy, because the only thing different was the addition of the apricots which gave it a wonderful flavor.

I use a store bought pie -crust, but if you prefer to make your own crust that's fine.

DOUBLE CRUSTED APPLE-APRICOT PIE

- 5 large apples (I use green and red apples (peeled, cored and thickly sliced))
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup dried apricots
- 1 teaspoon finely grated orange zest (optional)
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon salt

- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 egg white (beaten) for brushing bottom and top crust
- 2 tablespoons flour or tapioca (for thickening)

Place the apples in a large bowl. Add the lemon juice and blend. Add the flour, sugar, cinnamon, nutmeg, salt, apricots and mix well until all the apples as well covered.

Place half the dough on a 9 -inch pie plate. Brush the bottom with egg whites for a crispier crust. Place the apple mixture on top and then the top crust. Brush with egg whites and cut slashes on the top with a fork or sharp pointed knife to vent steam.

Place on a cookie sheet and bake in a 425 degree oven for 15 minutes and then a 350 degree oven for at least an hour or until top is golden brown.

Raisin, Cranberry, Nut Spice Cake

Today's recipe for a spice cake is one in which I make regularly. Not only is it easy but it has no eggs or milk-good for those who are allergic to eggs.

It usually is made with raisins, but I have added other ingredients to it to make it even more delicious.

RAISIN, CRANBERRY, NUT SPICE CAKE

- 1/2 cup raisins
- 1/2 cup dried cranberries
- 4 tablespoons chopped walnuts or pecans
- 2 cups water
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 stick unsalted butter (or margarine)
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 teaspoon salt

- 1 3/4 cups flour
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon ginger
- 1/2 teaspoon cloves

Preheat oven to 350- degrees.

Boil the water and the raisins and cranberries for 5 minutes. Add the butter and let cool for a few minutes.

While that is cooling, in a bowl, add all the other ingredients and mix well. Pour the raisin mixture into the bowl and mix until well blended.

Grease either a loaf pan or any type pan preferred. Bake for 30-35 minutes or until a toothpick inserted comes out clean.

It can be served with cream cheese.

P.S If you just want to use the raisins, then add a cup instead of a half cup.

Rotary Club Hosts Veterans' Luncheon

QUINCY ROTARY CLUB recently held a Veterans Appreciation Luncheon at the Quincy Neighborhood Club. Among those attending were (front row from left) Elizabeth McDevitt, U.S. Army Nurse Corps, World War II; Russell Erikson, U.S. Army Air Corps, World War II; Daniel Colletti, U.S. Army, World War II; (standing) Walter White, vice president, Quincy Rotary Club; Robert Noble, former P.O.W., World War II; and Rotary Club President Marianne Peak.

67 Quincy Students On B.C. High Honor Roll

Sixty seven students from Quincy are on the honor roll for the first quarter at Boston College High School.

They are:

HIGH HONORS

Seniors: Zachary Chen, David Coletti, Daniel Cueva, Conor Doyle, Peter Jensen, Michael Lethin, Evan Mai, Garrison Norton.

Juniors: Matthew Baldwin, Michael Coffey, Ryan Hatfield, Alexander Loughnane, A.J. Maloney, Aaron Tran, Ryan Vu.

Sophomores: Eric Casinelli, Jake Dockrey, Mark Gillespie, Terence

Lau, Nicholas Pham, Jonathan Toomey.

Freshmen: Corwin Haug, James Hussey and James MacDonald.

HONORS

Seniors: Madison Barnwell, David Brink, Michael Brooks, Michael Ciardelli, John Frazer, Benjamin Griffin, Tucker Hughes, Timothy Keenan, Matthew Levine, John McDonald, Daniel McLoughney, Brendan Murray, Zachary Walsh.

Juniors: Zachary Bailey, Joseph Critelli, Andrew Jaehnig, Connor McGonagle, Matthew Pham, Christopher Poles, David Sumner, Harry Verenis.

Sophomores: Joao Carlos Barbosa, Brian Collins, Brian Djerf, Sean Dooling, Timothy Durgin, John Kennedy, Michael McDevitt, Martin McGlone, Eric McLoughney, Gregory Miller, Patrick Pitts, Grendan Prendeville, Ethan Yau, Devon Yu.

Freshmen: Joseph Faracane, John Foley, John Loughnane, Adam McCormack, Justin McGaffigan, Karl Preza, Joshua Quinlan and Gregg Selbert.

Regain strength, confidence & mobility

Hancock Park

REHABILITATION & NURSING CENTER

164 Parkingway
Quincy, MA
617-773-4222

CHOOSE QUALITY

Successful Short-term Rehabilitation

- Comprehensive rehabilitation for joint replacement, stroke, cardiac conditions & diabetes
- Occupational, physical, & speech therapies
- Experienced & dedicated nursing staff
- Detailed discharge planning for a safe transition home

Call today
for a Free
Rehabilitation
Brochure & Tour!

Over 60 Years of
Quality Service
Welch
HEALTHCARE AND
RETIREMENT GROUP

Injured in an accident? Should you talk to a lawyer? Absolutely yes!

After an accident, you may be in shock. You've been hurt. Chances are you've never had anything like this happen before. You aren't sure what to do next, or who you can trust. That's exactly why you should talk to us. At Bates & Riordan, we are experienced attorneys representing individuals and families on the South Shore. We specialize in putting the pieces together - protecting your interests and making sure you're treated fairly - after an accident. If you've been injured, call Deborah Bates Riordan or Theodore Riordan at 617-328-8080 to see how we can help you. (That conversation and your first meeting with us are absolutely free.)

BATES & RIORDAN, LLP
~ On your side ~

645 Hancock Street, Wollaston/Quincy • 617-328-8080 • BatesRiordan.com

Wollaston Meeting Tonight

Cont'd From Page 1

Community Development and the Metropolitan Area Planning Council, which awarded the City a planning grant that includes a study analyzing development opportunities to creating transit-oriented development in the area.

MAPC will assist the City in the identification of short-term and long-term changes to catalyze future revitalization activities around the Wollaston MBTA Station. The Wollaston Center T station is highly utilized, and has both pedestrian and vehicle traffic that could help support revitalization activities in proximity of the station.

Wollaston Center has a high potential for revitalization, and the City—building from prior planning efforts in the neighborhood—will work with MAPC during this study to develop a vision, review zoning needed to implement the vision.

"We intend to have this community visioning process help set the stage for any future revitalization activities in the Wollaston Center neighborhood," said Planning Director Dennis E. Harrington.

Traffic Dept. Moves To DPW

Cont'd From Page 3

a level of comfort to pedestrians in the City of Quincy and motorists?"

Raymondi explained that he made sure the city's crosswalks were all repainted earlier this year.

"What we decided to do as far as a major initiative would be to paint every crosswalk in the city prior to July 4. We were a little shy of that goal, but pretty much by the early summer of 2012 every single crosswalk in the city that we knew of was able to be repainted," Raymondi said. "In addition to that those straight lines, both the double yellows and the straight lines along the side of the roadway – if we haven't completed that work we're in the final few hours of doing that, only the weather has impeded that work. That tends to be done at nighttime when cars are off the road."

Raymondi added:

"If you look around the city, for the first time in a long time we have freshly painted arrows, yellow lines, straight lines. So those are things that we can do to make motorists more aware, have it more obvious where they're supposed to be traveling. And alert pedestrians as to crosswalks where they need to be walking."

Ward 3 Councillor Kevin Coughlin, chairman of the ordinance committee, told the commissioner he should look into using new, reflective paint on crosswalks that could help make drivers more aware of them at night.

"I saw something just recently on a particular type of reflective paint they're using now on crosswalks that actually has a three-dimensional effect if you come upon it at night. I don't know if you've seen it, it's really intriguing to see. It really pays much more attention to the crosswalk," Coughlin said. "Anything you can do to enhance pedestrian safety might be worth taking a look at."

Robotics Competition Saturday At NQHS

The Quincy Public Schools HYPERS Robotics team will host the Eastern Massachusetts LEGO qualifier Saturday, Dec. 1 at North Quincy High School from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Forty-eight middle school teams, including five from Quincy, will compete in the robotics event entitled "Senior Solutions."

Average Tax Bill Up $110

As the City prepares to set annual property tax rates next week, Mayor Thomas Koch said Tuesday that Quincy will continue its trend of limiting property tax increases for homeowners to well below statewide averages.

"Our team has worked tremendously hard over the last several years to limit the property tax burden on our residents through efficient spending and creative cost-savings, and the result has been increases that in many cases are hundreds of dollars lower than most cities and towns and total tax savings that are in the millions of dollars," Koch said.

The Mayor's financial team will formally present the tax rate information to the City Council on Monday, where councillors will make the annual determination on how tax rates are split between commercial and residential properties.

The numbers are still being finalized, but he said the tax bills for the average single-family home will see an about a $110 increase for the entire year – the number projected during the City's budget deliberations during the spring.

That final number will be several hundred dollars less than what's allowed under state law, and keep the City's total amount of property taxes left on the table – called excess levy capacity – at among the highest in Massachusetts.

Quincy Ave. Fire Ruled Arson

Cont'd From Page 1

and Police Departments and State Police assigned to the fire marshal's office is now underway. State Fire Marshal Stephen D. Coan said it's too early to know if the fire is linked to a string of arsons in the southeastern part of the state.

"There is obviously great concern that this fire may be connected to the recent arson fires that have occurred in southeastern Massachusetts, but at this time it is too early in the investigation to rule that in or out," Coan said.

Fire Chief Joseph Barron said the crews that arrived on scene at 488 Quincy Ave.

encountered heavy fire at the building's rear. Firefighters initially made an interior attack on the building but after discovering the stairwell in the rear – the building's only stairwell – was compromised they called in a third alarm and changed to a defensive strategy.

"We pulled every firefighter out of the building once we realized the back stairwell was compromised," Barron said. "Due to the fact that we had to change from an offensive to a defensive attack on the fire it became an all-night affair. Everyone did a very good job."

Quincy Avenue and nearby East Howard Street were both blocked off as crews battled the blaze. Both reopened around 6:30 a.m. for the morning commute.

Seven of Quincy's engine companies and all three ladders were on scene along with the Rescue Company and Braintree Engine 3, which was first on scene. Crews from surrounding communities staffed Quincy's stations during the fire.

There were no injuries and the extent of the damage was unknown Tuesday afternoon as the Sun went to press.

Other photos of the fire are on the Sun's website at www.thequincysun.com

CARPET CLEANING

3 ROOMS $99.00
7' SOFA $75.00

Free pre-treat and deodorizer

BECKWITH PRO-CLEAN
222 Willard St. Quincy, MA
(617) 471-5000

Expires 12/31/12

*Up to 900 sq ft open area

STOECKEL INSURANCE AGENCY, LLC

• stoeckelinsurance.com •

Professional Insurance Advice with a Personal Touch
for your AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS • FAMILY

128 McGrath Highway
Quincy, MA 02169-4607

617.786.7444

Now Open at Marina Bay on the Boardwalk
Elegant accents for the home, jewelry, accessories & more...

~Complimentary Gift Wrap~

Open Thurs.-Sat. 10am-5pm Sun. Noon-5pm
304 Victory Rd. Quincy, MA

Earn rewards when you shop.

Carry the VISA® Classic Credit Card from QCU!

You'll enjoy:

- Low 9.90% APR* with auto pay. 10.90% APR without.
- Rewards Program with up to 1% cash back.
- No Annual Fee.

*APR= Annual Percentage Rate. Variable interest rate, may change after account is open. Rate, term and approval amount based on credit worthiness. Maximum Loan Amount for qualified applicants is $15,000. Speak to a Loan Representative for more information including fees associated with this account. To avoid paying interest on purchases, your due date is at least 25 days after the close of each billing cycle. We do not charge you interest on purchases if you pay your entire balance by the due date each month. To calculate your balance, we use a method called "average daily balance" (excluding new purchases). Minimum monthly payment amount 2% of balance (principal and interest). Foreign transaction fee of 1.00% of each multiple currency transaction in U.S. dollars, and 0.80% of each single currency transaction in U.S. dollars. Complete Rewards Program details available on loan application disclosure. Rewards subject to IRS regulations. VISA is a trademark of VISA International.

100 Quincy Ave. • Quincy, MA 02169
617.479.5558

Toll Free: (866) 479-5558 • www.qcu.org

519 Columbian St. • Weymouth, MA 02190
781.340.7117

Manet Health CEO Henry Tuttle Receives Eastern Bank Award

Henry N. Tuttle has been honored with Eastern Bank's 2012 Community Advocacy Award, which recognizes people who have given their time and talent to address a vital need in their community.

Tuttle, CEO of Manet Community Health Center, Inc., was recognized for his ongoing efforts to provide quality health care to more people along the South Shore.

"Eastern Bank is proud to honor Henry N. Tuttle with the 2012 Community Advocacy Award," said Bob Rivers, president and Chief Operating Officer of Eastern Bank. "The South Shore has many worthy candidates for this honor, but Henry stood out for his recent efforts to expand primary care to seniors and the medically underserved."

Under Tuttle's leadership, the Manet Community Health Center in May secured two major grants totaling $5,500,000 from the Affordable Care Act to expand its facilities in North Quincy for seniors, and residents of public housing and for seniors in Hull.

"Simply treating a cold or a sore throat over-andover doesn't begin to address the burdens and consequences of our patients' health inequality. We give our patients the tools they require to achieve a healthy future—in many cases a future out of poverty," Tuttle said.

HENRY N. TUTTLE (left), chief executive officer of Manet Community Health Center, Inc. in Quincy, receives Eastern Bank's 2012 Community Advocacy Award from East Bank President and COO Bob Rivers.

"We view the delivery of health care in the context of greater socioeconomic circumstances, including employment, housing, literacy, insurance, and nutrition while remaining focused on prevention, parity and patient education. We are committed to being central to that solution."

The 2012 Community Advocacy Award is decided by a select group of Eastern Bank executives.

Germantown Tree Lighting Ceremony Dec. 6

The Germantown Annual Tree Lighting Ceremony will be held Thursday, Dec.

6 at 6 p.m. at the rotary on Palmer Street.

Following the event,

there will be refreshments served at the Germantown Neighborhood Center.

Senior Bullying Topic At Kennedy Center

Paula Banks of Two Lights Home Care will be at the Kennedy Center, 440 East Squantum St. Thursday, Dec. 6 at 1 p.m. to talk about senior bullying.

Bullying knows no age boundaries. Research shows that 10-20% of seniors across the US living in some form of senior housing experience bullying.

Banks will discuss why bullying happens and what can be done.

Registration is required for this event as space is limited. To register for this event, call the Quincy Council on Aging at (617) 376-1506.

QUINCY PRIMARY CARE & COUNSELING

Accepting new patients

We offer a variety of patient care under one roof including:

- Primary Care
- Psychiatric Management
- Individual Therapy.

In addition to general primary care, our team is ready to take those patients that are currently on or want to be enrolled in either Vivitrol or Suboxone sobriety management programs.

275 Hancock St. F12 • Quincy, MA 02171
To Make An Appointment Call: (617) 472-4800

2 LARGE $15.99*
CHEESE PIZZAS
TOPPINGS EXTRA
*Must present Coupon at time of Order
*Must Mention Coupon When Ordering

$2.00 OFF*
ANY ORDER OF $18
OR MORE CASH ONLY
*Cannot Be Combined With Any Other Coupon or Offer
*Must Mention Coupon When Ordering

OPEN: 7 Days
525 Sea St., Quincy
617-479-2300

Volunteers Needed

If you think two hours a week at the gym is good for your heart, volunteer to play with children living in family, homeless shelters and make a real difference.

A commitment of two hours per week for at least six months is required.

The next training will be held:

December 8, 2012 from 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
Boston, MA

To apply or find out more, call 617.553.5488
or go to horizonschildren.org.

HORIZONS FOR HOMELESS CHILDREN

READERS FORUM

New Track, New Beginning

On Sunday, Nov. 18, Quincy held its ribbon cutting ceremony for the new track on Faxon Field.

This is a new beginning for the track and field community as well as for the neighborhood surrounding the track. The ceremony symbolizes a win for many groups in our city.

It's a win for the children and the community that has gone without a track for years; it's a win for this administration, having the track in the location they pushed for, and it's a win for a neighborhood that has been plagued with flooding issues and whose issues have been ignored for far too many years.

Though not all flooding issues have been addressed, some important ones have been. Time alone will prove whether the plans the administration implemented will be successful.

Peter Chrisom Family Grateful For Support

It was a pleasure to have a great turnout and to receive so much support for the Peter J. Chrisom Golf Tournament Oct. 15 at Presidents Golf Course. The field of golfers enjoyed a seasonable fall day at Presidents with a delicious dinner and auction following a great outing.

Congratulations to our winners. Longest drive, Women's, Jody Gallery. First place men's, Al Grazioso, Tom Kelly, Jake Doyle, and Brian Radell. Closet to the pin, P.F. Greeley. Longest Drive, Men's, Matthew Gibbons.

We are grateful for the support of local businesses and friends: Richard and Mary Peshek Family; IPS of Boston; the DeCristofaro family; Steven V. Barrett Family; the Chrisom Family; North Quincy High

Most importantly, however, is my true and firm belief that this ceremony is symbolic of what private citizens can accomplish working together.

We, as citizens, have a duty to hold our elected officials and our government accountable for their actions, no matter what those actions might be. Our government and elected officials should not be allowed to violate state laws or the city charter.

Here a group of citizens united to enforce state laws and the city charter, specifically as it relates to Faxon Field and the School Committee. Our citizens group gave the power back to the school committee that this administration had usurped. This enabled our group to address flooding issues through the school committee, which has had and still does have legal control over Faxon Field.

We were able to compel this administration to adhere to state law and the city charter, and thus this administration was required to address our neighborhood's flooding issues, something it had previously been unwilling to do, a huge but time consuming win.

For the past four years, the track issue has been tumultuous. However, people on both sides wanted to see a track built, and here it is. There are so many positives that have come out of this experience for our citizens group.

We look forward to seeing the children and the community using and enjoying this new track facility, a track that we can ALL call our own.

Chris Chetwynd
Southern Artery

School; Terry Bellotti-Palmieri, Eastern Bank Wollaston; Sheila and Steven Calabro; Lou Ioanilli and Ken McPhee; Joan Marie Berry, Liberty Mutual; Michael McFarland, NQHS Career and Tech Ed. Dept. and friends; the Phillips Family; Family of J. Scott Kenney; Martin, Noreen, Keira, and Marty Earner; Paul Bregoli; Jay Holmes Prime Lending; the Flynn family; Malachy's Salon; the Guelfi Family; Geoff Hennessy; Marion and Jay Duffy; Joseph Harrington Law Office; Michael Dever; Bire Pub; Banshee Pub; Castaways Restaurant; Patrick Flaherty (Hoppa); Rep. Walter F. Timilty; Tom Carter, Granite Group Realtors; Robert Doyle; Milton Firefighters; Kevin Anderson; Stephen Affanato; Allan and Arthur Yacubian; Darryl Baker; Affanato Family; Jim Rendle, athletic director for Quincy

Public Schools; Traverse Insurance; Sean Fallon & Associates Attorney at Law; Michael Reddington, Providence Mortgage; James Mullen; National Engineering; Mayor Tom Koch; Nine Thirty Four, Inc.

Special thanks to: Burkes Sea Food; Fashion Cleaners; Prevites Marketplace; The Chantry; Waterclub; Captain Fishbones; Panera Bread; Babycakes; Applebees; Fruit Center; Sports Authority; Common Market; John Donovan; John Walsh; Fat Cat Restaurant; North Quincy High School Store; Brax Restaurant; Mr. Chan Restaurant; Coops Restaurant; Mackies Barbershop; Milton Cleaner; Schoolhouse Pizza; Commonwealth Restaurant; Dunkin Donuts; Castaways; Quincy Prints; Dana Smith, golf pro at Presidents Golf Course.

Thank you,
The Chrisom Family

Ask the
GEMOLOGIST®
BY JEFFREY M. BERTMAN
GRADUATE GEMOLOGIST

FEEL THE TENSION?

Jewelry designers have made the widespread use of pronged settings, which firmly hold diamond solitaires in place with four to six slender metal clasps.

This most popularly used setting for engagement rings allows the gemstone to bathe in sunlight and sparkle. There is another type of setting, known as the "tension" setting, which utilizes even less metal to hold the diamond in place. In effect, the tension-set ring acts as a spring that holds the gemstone securely at only two points without any metal bridging the gap where the diamond is held. As a result, the gemstone seems to hang in midair. Because light enters the diamond from all angles, the gemstone sparkles more than a pronged setting would allow. Shop a widespread assortment of tension set rings at Rogers Jewelry to find the perfect modern ring for you! We have an array of settings to choose from at 1402 Hancock Street, Quincy Center. One of which will match your style to perfection. Whichever you choose, your ring will be a beautiful reflection of you. Contact our store at 617-773-3636 for more information about ring settings.

Don't Forget: We pay cash for Gold - Platinum - Diamonds... highest prices paid.

Rogers

Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry

www.rogersjewelry.com
BANK OF AMERICA BUILDING

Street-Works Defends Communication With Merchants

By SCOTT JACKSON

Street-Works co-founder Richard Heapes defended his company's communications with to Quincy Center businesses after city councillors faulted the developer for not reaching out enough.

At the meeting, Councillors Doug Gutro and Brian Palmucci both said that Beal/Street-Works had done a good job working with merchants who would be immediately impacted but said other businesses felt left out of the process. But Heapes told the Sun he doesn't believe it's a problem.

"I don't think that's a problem," Heapes said in a phone interview Tuesday. "We have spoken privately to Mr. Gutro and we've spoken to many business owners."

Heapes explained that his company prefers to do one-on-one meetings with individual merchants. Prior open forums haven't been successful because of low attendance and participation; there's also some hesitation about meeting with tenants and their landlords at the same time. So starting after the holiday season, Beal/Street-Works intends to start a new round of discussions.

"After the holidays we're going to reach out on a one-on-one basis," Heapes said.

Despite those reservations about past forums, Heapes said his company would participate fully in a possible open forum in January that Gutro asked for.

He added that some individuals who have contacted members of the City Council do so after multiple meetings with Beal/Street-Works representatives.

"There are a number of merchants we speak to time and time again and they still speak to councillors," Heapes said.

He further explained that any business owner who feels left out could meet personally with Tiffany Williams at Street-Works' office in the Granite Trust Building or could talk to Sean Kenaley at Key Realty. They've also worked with the Quincy Chamber of Commerce to provide email updates to those in the area.

"We've been working through the Chamber on that because they have such a great database," Heapes said.

Heapes added that some people have misconceptions about the current plan.

"Some people presume we have this grand plan that we're not sharing with anyone - that's not the case," Heapes said. "We're out there seeing what the market demands."

During the City Council meeting last week Gutro, chairman of the downtown committee, asked for a public meeting for all area tenants he and Ward 5 Councillor Hughes would help coordinate.

"I think it would be extraordinarily helpful as the chair of the downtown committee and in concert with the Ward 5 councillor if you would commit to a preconstruction meeting so that we can get all the neighbors and tenants either at the high school or at the library to really have an opportunity to come up to the podium and ask questions about what it means to them," Gutro said.

"It's absolutely critical for the folks that are going to be impacted by this throughout the duration of the project when it will take place."

Palmucci, who has a law office on Mechanic Street in Quincy Center, said he hasn't been receiving updates on the development. Nor had other downtown business owners that reached out to him.

"I'm a merchant downtown. I own and operate a business downtown. I'm a member of the Chamber of Commerce," Palmucci said. "I haven't gotten an email relative to stuff going on. This is why I'm asking - it's not for my own personal [gain] but business owners have contacted me. I'm in the downtown quite a bit every day and folks have a lot of questions. I don't have answers for them as to what your plans are with particular buildings, with particular time frames."

Palmucci said he understood that the plans are still in flux, but emphasized that Beal/Street-Works could do a better job letting merchants know what's going on, even if their property wouldn't be affected.

"I think a better job could be done - more communication - even if it's just by email so folks at least know that nothing's changed, rather than communicating with folks when something does change," Palmucci said. "Some sort of regular communication. Whether that's a listserve or whatever, I leave it to you as far as the public info campaign you put out there."

"But I have heard many concerns raised. Folks who are unsure as to whether or not to make capital expenditures in their own business. Whether or not to do another round of a marketing campaign because they're just not sure about the return on their investment they're going to get or how long they're going to be there. Whether or not their landlord is going to renew a lease that's coming up. Whether they should start looking for new locations because their lease is up in two years - when does that fit in your timeframe and at that point are you going to execute an option you have on their building."

Gutro echoed his colleague's sentiments. He commended the Heapes and his company for reaching out to those directly impacted, but said other business owners had received less information than desired.

"Everything Councillor Palmucci indicated is what I'm hearing," Gutro said. "A couple months back, I had an opportunity to sit with Richard and a number of folks and they walked me through methodically with those that are impacted directly, those that will be displaced in the process. I think you've done a laudable job when it comes to communicating with those."

"I think some of the buzz we hear is from those that have not heard directly from you who have a business downtown that it's a little bit murky how they'll be impacted. They're rightfully concerned about the secondary impacts of the construction and how that will impact their business."

Wollaston Hill
MONTESSORI SCHOOL

Now Enrolling for Fall 2013
Strong Academics, Yoga, Spanish
Serving Children from 2.9 to 6 years
48 Winthrop Ave., Quincy, 02170 www.wollastonhillmontessori.com

Open House

Saturday
Dec 1
and Jan 12
at 10:00 am
617-237-0722

DENTISTRY
for the 21st Century

by Steven A. Brustin, D.M.D.

IMPLANT ADVANTAGES

If you are considering whether a dental implant is worth the increased cost over a bridge or dentures, consider the advantages that implants have over the other two tooth-replacement procedures. In order to secure a bridge properly, it is necessary to file down two adjoining teeth, which serve as abutments. In addition, dentures do not have the natural feel and function of implants. The placement of an implant involves the insertion of a titanium screw that, in time, fully integrates with the jaw bone. Once it does, a prosthetic tooth is attached to it to create a man-made crown and root. Because a dental implant so closely approximates a real tooth in its design, it feels and looks natural.

Implant dentistry is the modern method of replacing missing teeth. From a single missing tooth to an entire set of teeth, dental implants can provide a permanent alternative to many dental problems. Dental implants can last a lifetime and are an excellent investment in oral health. You can expect us to give you gentle, comforting care, using the most up-to-date dental techniques and equipment. We're located at 44 Greenleaf Street, where we offer almost any type of dental treatment you might need. Please call 617-479-6220 to schedule an appointment. We offer the services of anesthesiology and a full trained and qualified anesthesiologist. Visit us on the web at www.quincy-dentist.com.

P.S. After a dental implant has been set in place, it is covered with a crown approximately six to twelve weeks later.

A sports injury brings you to us.

Meet Ben Thompson, MD. A fellowship-trained sports medicine physician, Dr. Thompson is part of our team of orthopaedic experts dedicated to getting you back in the game after a sports injury. From non-surgical and minimally invasive treatments to ACL reconstruction to arthroscopic rotator cuff repair, Dr. Thompson's expertise makes us proud he's part of our team. When a sports injury sidelines you, make him part of yours.

Stay in the Game! Avoiding Sports Injuries

Athletes are at risk for a number of common orthopaedic injuries, including shoulder and elbow ailments that can sideline you for weeks, or for good! Get some practical advice from BID-Milton Orthopaedic Surgeon Benjamin Thompson, MD, on preparing for the upcoming season or adjusting your routine to avoid serious injuries.

DATE: Thursday, November 29
TIME: 6:30 PM
PLACE: Nangeroni Education Center
COST: FREE, pre-registration required
CALL: 617-696-8810

Ben Thompson, MD
Orthopaedic Surgeon

Our expertise brings you back.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

199 Reedsdale Road (Route 28), Milton, MA 02186
(617) 696-4600 | www.bidmilton.org

Merrymount Students Plant Journey North Garden

MERRYMOUNT SCHOOL fourth grade teacher Lorie Hammerstrom with fourth graders Ellie Anderson and Emily Kraunelis at the Journey North Garden that was recently planted by first and fourth graders with the help of Anita Fasano of the Wollaston Garden Club and Maura O'Gara of the Merrymount PTO. Students report on line when and where they plant their garden in the fall and then when the bulbs begin to grow in the spring they report again. Journey North gardens are being planted and logged all over the northern hemisphere. For more information visit <http://www.learner.org/jnorth/tulip/index.html>

RAYNE O'GARA-PRATT, a fourth grade student at the Merrymount School helps plant the Journey North Garden at the school with the help of PTO member Maura O'Gara.

WOLLASTON GARDEN CLUB member Anita Fasano and Merrymount School first grader Eliana Fasano plant bulbs at the school's Journey North Garden.

Photos Courtesy Lorie Hammerstrom

Impact Quincy To Present Community Heroes Awards Dec. 12

Impact Quincy will hold the 2012 Community Heroes Awards ceremony Wednesday, Dec. 12 from noon to 2 p.m. at the Thomas Crane Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy, in the lower level conference room.

Mayor Thomas Koch will provide opening remarks.

Impact Quincy, a program of Bay State Community Services, is a community based coalition working to prevent substance abuse in Quincy and surrounding communities.

The coalition sponsors the Community Heroes Award event to recognize individuals who have been strong advocates for the prevention of substance abuse and their contribution to making the City of Quincy and nearby communities healthier places to live and work.

This year's recipients include:

- State Sen. John F. Keenan for his work as Chairman of the Joint Committee on Mental Health and Substance Abuse.
- Dist. Atty. Michael McLessey for his work in Norfolk County.
- COVANTA Energy Corporation, represented by Margretta E. Morris, vice president Material Management for their Rx4 Safety Program which provides free substance destruction for Prescription and Over-the-Counter Take Back Days

• Lt. Patrick Glynn, Quincy Police Drug Unit for the Naloxone Program

• Lt. Timothy Sorgi and the Quincy Police Department Community Unit for their outstanding performance

• The Weymouth Youth Coalition for their exceptional work in Weymouth community

• Nicholas Martel, WETC Weymouth Cable, for the writing, producing, and editing of the documentary, "Narcotic Misperceptions," which tells the story of substance addiction and its impact on the Weymouth community.

Also, the following Quincy pharmacies which collaborate with the coalition for Prescription and Over-the-Counter Take Back Days

- Baxter Pharmacy
- CVS (three locations)
- Rite Aid (two locations)
- Stop and Shop Pharmacy (two locations)
- Walgreen's (three locations.)

Wollaston Garden Club Holiday Greens Sale Dec. 1

The Wollaston Garden Club in Quincy will hold its Annual Holiday Greens Sale Saturday, Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to noon at Wollaston Congregational Church at the corner of Lincoln and Winthrop Avenues, Wollaston.

Wreaths, small table arrangements, large outdoor containers designed for winter interest, packages of evergreens and holly, and other natural and floral gift items will be available.

Proceeds from the sale support the Wollaston Garden Club's work on civic beautification in Quincy and other community education and conservation projects.

JOAN'S OLYMPIC GYM
GYMNASTICS & DANCE SCHOOL
WAS VOTED #1 ON THE SOUTH SHORE

Ages 2 - Adult
NOW ACCEPTING REGISTRATIONS!

781-843-9624
"An Excellent Education Environment For Your Child"

197 Quincy Avenue, Braintree • www.joansolympicgym.com

BREAKFAST WITH SANTA
Saturday & Sunday
Starts December 1st

The View Restaurant & Tavern
PRESIDENTS GOLF COURSE
357 West Squantum St., Quincy, MA 02171
617.770.2500
CALL FOR RESERVATIONS!!

Your knee has met its match.

ShapeMatch®. It's the new technology in knee replacement. If you're interested in learning how this advancement can often improve recovery, mobility and outcomes from your knee surgery, you owe it to yourself to learn about ShapeMatch.

Visit bidmilton.org/kneereplacement

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital Milton

Dr. Ekbal Elkadry DMD.
DENTURES

If you are missing a few or all of your teeth, our office offers many options which can improve the look of your smile and quality of life which includes implants and dentures.

Now Offering:

- Free Denture Consultation
- 15% Senior Discount
- Flexible Payment Plan

All our doctors are caring and dedicated to give you the best results.

Dr. Ekbal Elkadry DMD.
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA • (617) 472-3919

New Downtown Project To Start In February

Cont'd From Page 1

drive-through and other non-original features in back of the Granite Trust Building are also slated for demolition, but the building itself will be preserved. It will take about two months for all demolition to take place.

Once demolition is complete, work will shift to digging foundations for the two buildings. By next August, the foundation for the five-story Granite Trust Lofts on Hancock Street will be complete. The building's steel skeleton would be in place by New Year's Day 2014.

"This is a five-story building so this is going to jump up relatively quickly," Chrusciel said.

It will take a couple months extra for the 15-story Kilroy's foundation to be poured. An underground parking area for 186 vehicles would also be created during the early phases of work on the Kilroy; construction workers would be able to use it later on during construction.

Granite Trust lofts could be open as soon as mid-March 2014, according to Chrusciel, and both buildings would open by September of that year; the Granite Trust Building will also be renovated as part of the Merchants Row project. Additionally, the sidewalks on the block will be widened and will mimic the look of Adams Green, which will be finished around the same time.

"All the way down Chestnut, all the way down Cottage, and back up Hancock on our side of the street, the sidewalks will be widened," Street-Works co-founder Richard Heapes said. "New lights, new street trees, new curbing. All of that is being coordinated and matched with Adams Green material."

The streets surrounding the block will also get a new layer of asphalt as part of the project.

"We're going to put a quick little new layer of asphalt on the street but no major construction on the street so that there won't be a large amount of disruption," Heapes said.

Seven businesses on Hancock Street will be affected by the work. Of those businesses only Rogers Jewelers will remain on the block.

"There are seven tenants that will be displaced, excluding the Police Department, that we have all notified," Heapes said. "Rogers will be staying, but out of the six remaining tenants two of them will move or are moved. The rest of them we're working with our broker at Key Realty to relocate them and find equivalent and other spaces in downtown. That's well on its way to allow construction."

The submittal of a certificate of consistency for the rest of step one will likely take place in January. On Tuesday, Heapes told the Sun that his company, Mayor Tom Koch, and Planning Director Dennis Harrington all agreed to delay the submittal for about a month so they could maintain focus on the Planning Board review of Merchants Row.

"We're going to submit it after the first of the year," Heapes said. "In talking with the mayor and the director of planning we realized that it doesn't make sense to do it with Block 4 still out there."

The rest of step one will take place in the area of the Ross Garage. Heapes said Beal/Street-Works still plan on closing on the garage next September as originally planned. But they don't want to create confusion for any tenants in the area as the holiday season approaches.

"There are a lot of tenants in the area. That's just going to cause tremendous confusion," Heapes said.

In addition to the update on Beal/Street-Works' construction, city officials working on three core infrastructure improvements gave councillors information on those projects. Frank Tramontozzi, the city's engineering manager, said the last of 18 pre-cast tunnel segments under Hancock Street were installed in October. The focus of the work has shifted to Mechanic Street.

"We're working on completing the box culvert down to Mechanic Street where we're doing some extensive utility relocation work. We'll probably have another four weeks of sewer relocation then electrical work after that," Tramontozzi said.

After all the pre-cast sections are in place, workers will start connecting the new upstream culvert to the existing downstream one. But Tramontozzi said the city wouldn't issue an order to proceed until the contractor comes up with proposals to deal with unforeseen soil and utility issues.

"We already know that there were some unforeseen site conditions with the soils and some utilities which we're working through now," Tramontozzi said. "We're waiting for a proposal from the contractor so we can negotiate some of those extras and to maintain the leverage we have said we want to review those proposals before we issue a notice to proceed on the connection between the downstream and upstream portions."

Once that work begins, it will need to take another break from March 1 to May 31 of next year so fish spawning isn't affected. But by next September the entire brook relocation, including creation of pocket parks along the brook, is expected to be complete.

"This winter we will design the pocket parks adjacent to the open channels. We'll advertise and procure bids for the construction of the parks. Next summer we will actually provide the construction of the parks - the landscaping, the lighting, the irrigation systems. We anticipate final construction of Town Brook by September of 2013," Tramontozzi said.

The project is being funded by a $10.1 million Mass-Works grant and is projected to remain under budget.

"Of the $10.1 million we have from the state, I will say we will try and use up every penny," Tramontozzi said. "But it doesn't look like we're going to go anywhere near over that."

The second core improvement is a new bridge connecting Burgin Parkway to Cliveden Street. The city is awaiting approval from

Cont'd On Page 15

Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers

- Quality, Reliable Service
- Over 100 Years of Satisfied Customers
- Honest Values
- On-Premise Repairs

52 Billings Road North Quincy

Nicole's
STUDIO

261 Copeland St
Quincy, MA
617-934-5135

Nicole's Studio offers the very
Best in modern hair design

Ladies, Come into Nicole's Studio
for a Cut & Color
Bring the guy of your choice,
he gets a "FREE CUT"
(He must be a first time client)

Always free parking
Call today for an appointment.
617-935-5135

Visit
www.nicolessalon.com
Like us on Facebook
www.facebook.com/nicolesstudio

If you're planning on a joint replacement, you'll find this information irreplaceable.

Is Your Joint Pain Slowing You Down?

Hip and knee pain as we age can seriously limit your physical activity. If pain is preventing you from keeping fit and active, it may be time to consider joint replacement surgery. Join Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital-Milton Orthopaedic Surgeon Michael Berry, MD, for a discussion of joint pain, its treatments, and clinical and surgical advancements that can get you home after surgery and back on your feet faster than ever.

JOIN OUR INFORMATION SESSION:

DATE: Wednesday, December 5

TIME: 6:30 PM

PLACE: Nangeroni Education Center
at Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital-Milton,
199 Reedsdale Road (Route 28), Milton, MA

DIRECTIONS: www.bidmilton.org/directions

COST: FREE, registration required

CALL: 617-696-8810 to register

Michael Berry, MD
Orthopaedic Surgeon

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

199 Reedsdale Road (Route 28), Milton, MA 02186 (617) 696-4600 www.bidmilton.org

Quincy Chamber Encourages 'Shop Local' With New Promotion

The Quincy Chamber of Commerce kicked off its 2012 Shop Local Campaign with the sound of bells!

Quincy Chamber members are displaying special "Shop Local" door bell hangers in an effort to remind consumers to shop locally this holiday season.

"The Small Business Saturday effort has definitely heightened awareness about the importance of shopping locally, but we want to remind everyone that it's not just a one-day event," said Quincy Chamber of Commerce Vice President Donna Mavromates.

"The Quincy Chamber's Shop Local campaign began last year and residents and consumers can visit TheQuincyChamber.com to sign up to receive coupons and specials from Quincy Chamber members all year long."

Stacy Myers and Erin Glennon of the Quincy Chamber came up with the idea of hanging bells on the doors of local merchants as a visual reminder to people that when they purchase from a small business they are also helping the local economy. "Our members love the idea and have been very receptive about displaying the bells," said Myers.

QUINCY CHAMBER OF Commerce staff Stacy Myers (left) and Erin Glennon display "Shop Local" door bell hangers.

The bells will be on display throughout the holiday season.

Supervised Recreation Programs At School Gyms Start Saturday

The Quincy Recreation Department will conduct supervised recreation programs in nine school gymnasiums on Saturday throughout the winter beginning Dec. 1.

Saturday gym programs are free and open to boys and girls age 8 through high school. The time varies according to age groups. All programs have walk in registration at each location and are open only to Quincy residents. Participants may attend the location of their choice, not just their neighborhood gymnasium.

Assorted gym activities such as floor hockey, tag football, basketball and gym games will be conducted under the supervision of the Quincy Recreation Department Staff. The core schedule is from 9 to 10:30 a.m. for elementary youth age 8 through grade 5; 10:30 a.m. to noon for middle school/high school. Some adjustments in this time schedule may be made at different locations to accommodate difference in attendance by age groups.

The Saturday schedule is offered at the following schools: Atherton Hough, Atlantic, Beechwood Knoll, Bernazzani, Merrymount, Montclair, Snug Harbor, Squantum, and Point Webster.

For more information, call the Quincy Recreation Department at 617-376-1394 or visit the website www.QuincyRec.com.

Fundraiser Dec. 8 At Nickerson Post To Benefit Italian Home For Children

A fundraiser to benefit the Italian Home for Children will be held Saturday, Dec. 8 at 6:30 p.m. at the Nickerson Post in Squantum.

The Home is a residential treatment facility for abused and neglected children from throughout Massachusetts.

Bring an unwrapped gift and receive 3 free raffle tickets and $3 off admission. Suggested items include pillow pets, action figures, dolls, sports equipment, therapeutic and educational toys, legos, arts and crafts, Old Navy gift cards (and other clothing store gift cards), play dough play sets, Video and DS games rated "E", DVDs rated PG, Barbies, and Matchbox car sets.

Sheriff Michael Bellotti will be emceeing the event, with guest speaker Mayor Tom Koch, and entertainment provided by comedian Steve Sweeney.

The evening is sponsored by long-time Italian Home for children supporter Francis X. Bellotti and Arbella Insurance Charitable Trust, Michelle Lydon of Lydon Chapel, Mayor Tom Koch, Attorney George Burke, Commonwealth Restaurant, Sue Canavan of Aura Salon, Tedeschi's Food Mart of Squantum, Roche Brothers Supermarket, Joan's Olympic Gym, Representative Bruce Ayers and Sheriff Michael Bellotti.

Buffet, cash bar and music provided by dj Bill Harris of Squantum.

There will also be many raffles and silent and live auctions.

Prizes include a one Night stay with breakfast at Attitash Resort, Overnight in New York City with VIP Tickets to ABC's The View and 2 VIP tickets to view airing of The Joy Behar Show with and a Meet and Greet with Joy, and 2 Luxury-Box Celtics Tickets valued at $400 ea includes food and drink donated by Sean Toland.

For a complete list of auction items, visit The Quincy Sun's website at www.thequincysun.com (under events tab.)

The first 100 guests will receive a 'goody bag.' Tickets will be sold at the door and are $20 each. For advance ticket sales, call 857-939-8841 or murtaghlady@comcast.net.

Lions Club Wine Tasting Dec. 5

The Quincy Lions Club will present a special Civil War-themed holiday program and wine tasting Wednesday, Dec. 5 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Quincy Historical Society, 8 Adams St., Quincy.

The event will feature a performance by Diane Taraz, director of the Lexington Historical Society

Colonial Singers.

Tickets are $25 per person and may be purchased online at www.quincylionsclub.org. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Quincy Youth Soccer Registration Open for Spring 2013

The In-House soccer program is a recreational league open to Quincy youth born between August 1, 1997 and December 31, 2007. Prior soccer experience is not required. There are no try-outs. All players who register are assigned to a team according to age, and are guaranteed playing time in each game. The fee for our Under 6 program is $50. For other age groups, the fee is $75 for new players.

TOPSoccer is a program with the goal to enrich the lives of athletes with disabilities through the game of soccer. There is no fee.

U6 Instructional Program (children born in 2007) plays on Saturday mornings

U7, U8, U10 & U12 games are on Sunday afternoons

U15 games are on Saturday afternoons

Players who are new to Quincy Youth Soccer must register in person and bring a copy of birth certificate on

Saturday, December 8th
10am - 12 noon

Koch Recreation Bldg at One Merrymount Pkwy

Players who have previously participated in Quincy Youth Soccer may register on-line at www.quincyyouthsoccer.com.

LEARN-TO-SKATE CLASSES

RECREATIONAL • FIGURE
HOCKEY SKATING SKILLS

BAY STATE SKATING SCHOOL

Non-Profit

CHILDREN (4 1/2 up) & ADULTS As Featured on "Chronicle"
GIFT CERTIFICATES AVAILABLE!

QUINCY SHEA RINK

WEYMOUTH CONNELL RINK

Wed. 4PM Start Dec. 5

Sun. 5PM Starts Dec. 2

Sun. 11 AM Starts Dec. 2

781-890-8480

www.BayStateSkatingSchool.org

A smarter way to target prostate cancer.

MEET ARTEMIS.

In the battle against prostate cancer, there's a new weapon: Artemis. It's the fusion of 3D imaging technologies that brings pinpoint accuracy to prostate biopsies, and brings you an enhanced level of confidence in your care.

HEAR WHAT ARTEMIS HAS TO SAY AT BIDMILTON.ORG/PROSTATEHEALTH.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

New Downtown Project To Start In February

Cont'd From Page 13

the Department of Public Utilities (DPU) before beginning its final design; a DPU hearing was held on Wednesday.

"We are currently in the preliminary design stage," Tramontozzi said. We have approval from MassDOT, we have approval from the MBTA and we are seeking approval from the Department of Public Utilities for a 16-foot, 8-inch clearance, which is the same height clearance that currently exists at the Paul Harold Bridge.

"The final design will begin after the DPU public hearing and approval of the vertical clearance. It is being designed such that the bridge will be built off to the side and it will be lifted in place over a weekend so as not to disrupt the MBTA service."

The bridge is expected to look like the Paul Harold Bridge when it's completed. The final design is expected to take a year.

"We would anticipate about a one-year design process. MassDOT would advertise for construction - it will go out to bid and MassDOT will actually build it, Tramontozzi said. "We would like to have the bridge opened up when the Street-Works development is actually completed. We're talking another couple more years."

Kristina Johnson, Quincy's director of transportation planning provided an update on Adams Green, the third core infrastructure improvement. She said the project is being handled in two distinct phases. In the first phase, infrastructure improvements around Quincy Center will take place. In the second, a park would be built connecting City Hall with United First Parish Church.

Johnson and the design team are putting together finalized plans for the infrastructure improvements, which will be submitted to MassDOT in a matter of weeks. The state will oversee the project because the city received federal money for the project.

"We anticipate MassDOT advertising for construction in February of 2013," Johnson said. "We will be submitting our 100 percent design plans to MassDOT hopefully in mid-December. But again the substance of the improvements you've seen before in presentations has not changed. We're just making minor tweaks in ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) compliance, coordinating with all the utility companies. That is what's going on right now."

As part of the infrastructure improvements, the Hancock Street entrance to the Quincy Center MBTA station will get a traffic signal. Because of the entranceway's proximity to an existing signal at Hancock's intersection with Dimmock and Adams Streets, it will operate on the same control.

"We are working with the MBTA to signalize the Hancock Street busway entrance into the station," Johnson said. "They are very receptive to these improvements being implemented as part of the Adams Green project. Not only will it benefit the city but it will benefit the MBTA so their busses can safely egress out of the station."

Mayoral chief of staff Jim Fatseas added that the administration has had preliminary talks with the MBTA about replacing the Quincy Center station and putting the new station's busway on Burgin Parkway and not Hancock Street.

"There is also discussion with the redesign of the MBTA station that would switch bus traffic to the other side of the T station away from the Hancock Street side," Fatseas said. "That is part of the preliminary conversations we're having with the MBTA."

Halvorson Design is responsible for planning the new park. Johnson said their designs for Adams Green were at about the 75 percent mark. Specific features of the park aren't yet known, except for a 20-foot wide right-of-way that will be kept for recreational purposes.

27 New Downtown Liquor Licenses Proposed

A home-rule petition being considered by the City Council's Ordinance Committee would allow 27 new liquor licenses in Quincy Center.

The state awards licenses based on population, and Quincy currently has 98 businesses with liquor licenses - a figure which doesn't include national organizations like the American Legion - according to City Clerk Joe Shea. Under state law, municipalities have the right to petition the Legislature for additional licenses.

The home rule petition proposed would allow Quincy's License Board to grant 23 all-alcohol licenses for bars and restaurants, another two all-alcohol licenses for hotels, one license for the sale of beer and wine for a bar or restaurant, and one for retail sales.

All of the new licenses would be issued to businesses inside the Urban Revitalization Area of Quincy Center. That area stretches along Hancock Street from the Monroe Building to School Street and from Burgin Parkway to roughly the Dennis Ryan Parkway and includes the area where Beal/Street-Works will undertake $1.6 in redevelopment. Shea said there are 23 businesses with liquor licenses in that zone; there are another three in Quincy Center that fall outside its boundaries.

Licenses granted as a result of the petition would be specifically marked as such and would be non-transferable to any business outside the zone. The licenses would also have a $5,000 premium application fee on top of the $2,000 fee that's currently charged by the city.

Quincy wouldn't be the first city to receive additional liquor licenses for a specific development. Patriot Place in Foxborough, Legacy Place in Dedham, and the Shipyard in Hingham all have similar licenses granted under home rule petitions.

Approval from both the City Council and mayor is needed before the petition heads to the Legislature. Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci asked Street-Works co-founder Richard Heapes why the proposal called for 27 new licenses.

"As it relates to the home rule petition that was brought in tonight for the liquor licenses, I would ask that you submit all of the data upon which you have relied on to make the assessment that that's the number," Palmucci said.

In response, Heapes said the number was based on his company's experience with developments elsewhere.

"It is the fundamental basis for most active, 24-7 urban areas like the North End in Boston that create the kind of character it has been," Heapes said. "The program we've done in all of these other streets, whether the number's 24.5, 26, 27 I can't really say, but we have essentially merchandized the street, located key restaurants at key activation points, and I'll be happy to write a summary of that."

Croall To Host Coffee Hour Saturday

Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall will host a coffee hour Saturday at McKay's

Breakfast, 144 Franklin St., from 9 to 10 a.m.

All Ward 2 residents and/or business owners are welcome to stop in and discuss issues and share ideas.

$CASH PAID$
MASS DEPOSIT
BOTTLES & CANS
24 BROAD ST., QUINCY
(OFF SOUTHERN ARTERY BEHIND POLICE STATION)

LEGAL NOTICE

CITY OF QUINCY
IN COUNCIL

ORDERED:
ORDER NO. 2012-194

October 22, 2012

Be it ordered that the following section be added as Section 8.4.13 to the existing City of Quincy Zoning Ordinance Title 17.

8.4.13 ZONING JURISDICTION. Any proposed project which is subject to permitting on land that shares jurisdiction with another municipality other than Quincy, must proceed through the same approval process in Quincy under this code, as if the entire proposed project was to be permitted in Quincy, regardless of whether construction is to take place on the Quincy portion of said parcel.

(Solicitor recommends further study and will reach out to other Planning Departments.)

PENDING IN ORDINANCE COMMITTEE

11/29/12

COMFORT TIME @ ALBA

4-6pm Every Day

All under $20.00

BUCATINI ALL' AMATRICIANA
FUSILLI BOLOGNESE
PEAR & MASCARPONE SACCHETTI
BAKED GNOCCHI AL FORNO
PENNE WITH CHICKEN & BROCCOLI
LINGUINE WITH MARINARA
CHICKEN MARSALA
BAKED STUFFED JUMBO SHRIMP
CHICKEN PARMESAN
GREMOLATA BAKED COD
SPICY SEAFOOD FRA DIAVOLO
ROASTED CHICKEN PICCATA
HADDOCK FRANCAISE
ROASTED 1/2 CHICKEN UNDER A BRICK
OVEN BAKED MEATLOAF
ROASTED WILD SALMON
SLICED BEEF TENDERLOIN

11 years voted Best Dining Excellence in Quincy

1486 Hancock St. Quincy • (617)376-2522

www.albaquincy.com

Real Estate

Quincy Real Estate Transactions Nov. 19 - Nov. 23

Seller	Buyer	Amount	Address
Elaine P. Zaloga	Fatjon Loloci & Shpresa Loloci	$520,250.00	139 Kendrick Ave.
Rick Evans	Patricia M. Collins	$174,000.00	10 Weston Ave.
AJB Realty Trust	Christopher P. Hesen & John W. Bethard	$450,000.00	120 Lenox St.
Theresa Cooper	Dennis A. Wong	$255,000.00	46 Tinson Rd. Unit 46-2-A
Richard F. Donovan	Francis J. McPartlin & Marlene M. McPartlin	$200,000.00	91 Island Ave.
Claire M. Graham	Ying Chen	$245,000.00	175 Quincy Shore Dr. Unit B-66
Mary Hayes & Marion V. Hoxsie	Rhandy Villa & Jocelyn S. Ampong-Villa	$245,000.00	287 Sea St.
Alice B. Wan & Tiffany Wan	38 Grossman St. Realty Trust	$450,000.00	38-40 Grossman St.
Xia S. Liu & Xin J. Liu	Yu Y Lin	$385,000.00	93 Kemper St.
Dove Palm Holdings' LLC	Jennifer Maiona	$249,000.00	108 Turner St.
Virginia G. Holdstock Est. & George G. Burke Exr.	Tzo Zou & Jie Zhang	$340,000.00	33 Dunbarton Rd.
James R. Wilkin & Jaya K. Wilkin	Julieann Kurtzman	$315,000.00	107 Assabet Rd.
Vicki M. Crowningshield & Jesse Pugh	Joshua M. Gresham Conner & Joshua M. Conner & Rosaleah Gresham	$476,000.00	27 Cross St.
Petro Realty Corp.	R&J Petroleum LLC	$800,000.00	293-311 Quincy Shore Dr., 360-370 E. Squantum St.
Paul J. Andrews, Mark F. Andrews and Julie Andrews	Elida Fejzaj & Luan Fejzaj	$151,000.00	307 Copeland St. Unit 4
Daren Chen & Lili Chen	Meichan Li & Emir Chen	$252,000.00	45 Ellerton Rd.
Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corp.	Zhe An & Wei Pan	$234,000.00	165 Quincy Shore Dr.
Tsok W. Lo & Melinda C. Lo	Melissa Lo	$240,000.00	1 Moody St. Unit 7

Minor Gutter Repairs

THIS IS A HAMMER

By Samantha Mazzotta

Q: Your reply to the homeowner with storm damage to his roof a couple weeks ago was good, but I have a much smaller problem. Cleaning leaves out of my gutters this weekend, I saw leaks underneath the gutters. Leaves also piled up at bends and drains and were hard to clean out. Any suggestions on how to fix the leaks and prevent buildup? -- Rick in Pittsburgh

A: Small holes that are less than a half inch in diameter should be patched as quickly as possible so that they don't get bigger. It's important to do it correctly so that the patch material doesn't sit too high and cause a new rough patch for debris to jam up on.

A safety note: Work from a ladder, rather than from the roof, when fixing gutters, and always have a helper to steady the ladder and hand up tools as needed.

If you have metal gutters, buy a small tube of roofing cement and more than enough metal repair patches that are the same type of metal as your gutters. For example, if your gutters are aluminum, buy aluminum patches; if they're steel, buy steel. For fiberglass gutters, use fiberglass patching material and gutter repair cement or caulk. Using two different metals could cause corrosion between them.

Scrub the area around the spot to be patched with a wire brush. Any rust around the leak should be cut away with metal or aviation snips. Glue the metal patch in place by dabbing roofing cement around the bottom and pressing firmly over the leaky area, then coat the edges of the patch with cement and smooth so the cement feathers out into the gutter area.

If leaks are occurring around the joints, check to make sure the gutter isn't loose or uneven at the joint. If it is you'll probably need to adjust the nearest hanger(s) or, if these components are damaged or rusted, replace them. Once the gutters on each side are secure, then pipe roofing cement along the joint and smooth down.

To prevent buildup of leaves and debris in the gutters, consider investing in gutter screens. These are placed over the top of the gutter runs and discourage larger debris from getting in. Gutter guards should be installed along the entire run. Prices vary depending on how much you need and the type or brand you need to buy, and of course, whether you install them yourself or hire a contractor to do it.

HOME TIP: Gutters should be cleaned and inspected twice a year to make sure they're free of debris and to locate any damage or deterioration.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Quincy Sun Featured Home of the Week

1304 QUINCY SHORE DRIVE

Flavin and Flavin Realty would like to introduce this Classic Merrymount Colonial overlooking Quincy Bay. Spacious rooms with front to back living room and master bedroom. Half bath off eat in kitchen, large breezeway, French doors, natural woodwork, hardwood floors, beamed ceilings and 2 car garage. Enjoy the beautiful views from this distinctive house! Front and side entrances are on Shore Ave. at the corner of Quincy Shore Drive. $495,000.

Flavin and Flavin Realty
617-479-1000

FLAVIN Insurance Agency

Complete Insurance Service Since 1925

OFFERING FLOOD INSURANCE

Winter Rainy Season Can Increase Risk of Flooding

Call or drop in for Premium Quote

Flavin & Flavin

1085 Hancock St. Quincy Center
Visit: www.flavinandflavin.com

617-479-1000

Thinking of buying or selling?
Think of us...

Red Door
Real Estate
222 Sea Street - Quincy

(617) 553-1880

www.RedDoor-RE.com

49 Beale St., Quincy, MA 02170

617-472-4330

www.c21annex.com

Over 70 Seller and Buyer Agents
specializing in Residential, Commercial
Real Estate, Bank Owned Properties,
Short Sales and Rentals

ANNEX REAL ESTATE SCHOOL

Offering Salesperson's, Broker's and Continuing Ed. classes

"STILL NUMBER ONE"

RE/MAX
Realty Pros

Buying, Selling or Investing?

Call Tom McFarland

For All Your
Real Estate Answers

QUINCY - (617) 328-3200

On the Web visit McFarlandproperties.com

REALTY 7

617-472-7700

Working for you
7 days a week

Tom McMahon

realty7.biz
tom@realty7.biz

QUINCY

www.

stamosandstamosrealtors

Stamos & Stamos Realtors

747 East Squantum St.

Squantum, MA 02171

617.328.9400

.com

HALF-TIME CEREMONY at the Quincy-North Quincy Football Game on Thanksgiving Day commemorated the 80th anniversary of the storied rivalry. Members of the Quincy-North Quincy Football Hall of Fame presented plaques to the two high schools. The handsome plaques featured the names of this year's football players and coaches and color photos of the respective teams. From left are Athletic Director Jim Rendle, Quincy High School Principal Frank Santoro, Quincy-North Quincy Football Hall of Fame officers Dick Lombardi, Ron Ivil and Joe Minukas; North Quincy High School Principal Robert Shaw and School Supt. Dr. Richard DeCristofaro.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

Thanksgiving Day Game Is All About Tradition

By JEFF OHLSON

Sometimes a game can have a lasting impression on those who play in it and those who watch it.

The Thanksgiving Day game that North Quincy and Quincy play in every year can be one of those games, as the game often has a lasting effect on all those involved, creating memories.

How much does the game mean to everyone and what are some favorite memories? The answer is different every time.

"It means an awful lot, it's always good to get together and great to see the guys. The game really brings the community together," said Ron Ivil, the president of the Quincy-North Quincy Hall of Fame Committee and has his own share of memories.

"When we beat North three years in a row we had those guys beat, each win was great and all three of them are the best memory," said Ivil.

Bob Dixon and Ralph Frazier both were offensive linemen for North Quincy back in 1957 and both found themselves catching up at the 80th Thanksgiving Day and talking about back when they played.

"We lost three to Quincy, so with that it's difficult to talk about a memorable moment but what I got is we were up 14-6 at halftime one year and I remember that we ended up losing the game 19-14 but even though we lost we felt like we had it," said Dixon.

Frazier, who coached at North Quincy and taught at the school, has too many memories to really name just one.

"I played, taught at the school, and coached... There's just too many memories to really pick one. The tradition of the game is great and really that's the best memory is just the overall experience of coming out here every year. I left North Quincy to become an athletic director but I love coming back every year and taking it all in," said Frazier.

Both Dixon and Frazier agreed that the Thanksgiving Day game is all about the tradition and know how important the game is.

"Nostalgia really, the memories that come with the game and just meeting old friends and making new ones. There's just something about being here every year and enjoying the city come

Con't On Page 26

Montclair/Wollaston Neighborhood Meeting Dec. 6

Ward 3 Councillor Kevin Coughlin will be the guest speaker at the Montclair/Wollaston Neighborhood Association meeting Thursday, Dec. 6 at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting will be held at The Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, Harvard and West Squantum Streets. Coughlin will update the membership on the Work,

Inc. site and other concerns. Jim Salenius will also share his musical talent and provide some relaxing background music at the meeting.

Start your new year at our new campus.
quincycollege.edu/spring-2013

QUINCY COLLEGE

OPEN HOUSE

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8TH, 10AM - 1PM

PRESIDENTS PLACE | 1250 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY CENTER, MA 02169

Take the Red Line to Quincy Center | info@www.quincycollege.edu

Steward. The New Health Care.

I am a Steward.

Barry R. Miller, MD
Internal Medicine
Hematology/Oncology
Steward Medical Group Crown Internal Medicine
500 Congress Street, Suite 2G, Quincy

As a long member of the Quincy Medical Center community, Steward Medical Group is pleased to welcome Dr. Barry Miller as a member of our team. Dr. Miller is board certified in hematology as well as medical oncology. A graduate of the University of Edinburgh, Faculty of Medicine, Dr. Miller completed his residency in oncology at Boston University Medical Center. In addition to general internal medicine, his areas of special interest include blood diseases and cancer diagnosis and treatment. Dr. Miller also speaks French, Hebrew and Spanish. Please call DoctorFinder™ at 1-800-488-5959 to make an appointment.

Quincy Medical Center

A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

Steward MEDICAL GROUP

Call 800-488-5959 or visit steward.org/doctorfinder

Sometimes it's Business...

- Business Checking & Savings Accounts
- Commercial Mortgages, Loans & Lines of Credit
- Merchant Card & Payroll Services
- Remote Deposit Capture
- Business Credit & Debit Cards
- Business Online Banking & Bill Payment

Sometimes it's Personal...

- Convenience Checking & Free Checking with Interest
- Savings & Money Market Deposit Accounts
- Residential Mortgage Loans
- Construction Loans
- Home Equity Loans & Lines of Credit
- Credit & Debit Cards
- Online Banking & Bill Payment

We're here to help you with both.

For more information on our products and services, stop by our Quincy branch and speak with Margaret Tung!

歡迎光臨

Margaret Tung

Business Development &
Customer Service Representative

69 McGrath Highway
Quincy, MA 02169

Phone: 781.828.1690 x6525

mtung@thebankofcanton.com

NMLS# 253065

Fluent in: Mandarin, Cantonese,
Taiwanese, and Burmese.

流利 普通話 粵語 緬語

BANK OF CANTON

888.828.1690 • 69 McGrath Highway, Quincy • www.bankofcanton.com • Member FDIC Member DIF

Holiday Gift Guide

The Inn at Bay Pointe's Christmas Gift to you
Purchase a $50 Gift Card for $40
 (20% discount)

Inn At Bay Pointe

64 Washington Court, QUINCY • 617-472-3200

FREE $10 GIFT CARD
 when you purchase
$50 worth of GIFT CARDS
 (until Dec. 31, 2012)

VILLA Rosa
 Restaurant & Lounge
 FINE ITALIAN FOOD

'Party Platters for celebrating the Holidays'
 go to villarosaquincy.com

705 Adams St., Quincy • Free Parking • 617-773-0095
 Hours: Sun, Noon - 1am / Mon-Sat, 11-1am
 Like us on Facebook

Ginger Betty's Bakery-where you'll find the sweetest gifts this holiday season!

Ginger Betty's Bakery

Let the magic of Christmas come alive as you decorate your own gingerbread house or person while the aroma of gingerbread wafts through the bakery... just like grandma used to make!

Write a holiday letter to a soldier! Facebook.com/GingerBettyBakery
 Call today! 617-472-4729 | www.gingerbettys.com | 215 Samoset Ave. Quincy

 CHAMILIA
 YOUR LIFE. YOUR STYLE.

Our exclusive Disney® Collection features everyone's favorite cast of characters, perfect to mix with any Chamilia design.

Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers
 52 Billings Road North Quincy 617-328-0084

Quincy School - Community Partnership and State Street Corporation
 present

*'Tis the Season...
 Symphony & Song!*

Celebrate the sounds of the holiday season with the
 Quincy Symphony Orchestra
 Quincy Public Schools Combined High School Choral Group
 and John Adams Orchestra

Tuesday, December 4, 2012
 Quincy High School
 Lloyd Hill Performing Arts Center
 7:30 P.M.

General Admission: $20.00
 Tickets may be purchased at both North Quincy High and Quincy High Schools.

Dinner Show and VIP Seating: $35.00
 A 3 course dinner buffet will be served at President's Cafe (located in Quincy High School) prior to the evening performance. Dinner seating will begin at 6:00 p.m. Dinner Show tickets must be purchased at Quincy Public Schools, 159 Burgin Parloway, Quincy, MA 02169 by Tuesday, November 27, 2012. Seating is limited. For additional information please call (617) 984-8731.

Sign Up for FREE coupons, daily specials and more!

SHOP Local
 for the Holidays!

The Quincy Chamber of Commerce's Shop Local program is a great way to support the local economy and find savings at the same time this holiday season!

Visit TheQuincyChamber.com

- 1) Click on the Shop-Local icon
- 2) Sign up to receive coupons and daily specials for everything from restaurants, to retail & specialty stores, salons & spas and more!

 Call us at 617-471-1700 for more information.

1400 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169 | TheQuincyChamber.com
 Find us on facebook.com/thequincychamber

Holiday Gift Guide

QUINCYOPOLY

A UNIQUE AND FUN BOARD GAME
WITH A LOCAL FLAIR!

OWN A PIECE OF QUINCY
HISTORY FOR JUST $25!

Great Holiday Gift!

Games available at:

Training Resources of America

1458 Hancock Street, Suite 304, Quincy, MA

For more information call: 617-773-1470

We'll deliver in the local Quincy area!

All proceeds benefit Quincy YouthBuild operated by Training Resources of America

SAVE $5 WITH THIS AD & GET YOUR GAME FOR ONLY $20*

*This offer is valid through 12/31/12
(Cash or Check Only)

Farm Direct Roses

(Assorted Colors while supplies last)

$19.99
per dozen

CLIFFORD'S FLOWERS

1229 Hancock St.

617-479-8884

CHRISTINE'S DAY SPA & ELECTROLOGY

Gift Certificates

Available Online for

Men & Women

go to www.quincyspa.com

65 Willard St., Quincy • 617-786-1620

332 Victory Road,
Marina Bay, MA 02171
617 471-3511

FREE $25.00 GIFT CARD

for every $100.00 in gift cards purchased

(offer expires 12/25/12)

The Gift Garden

Tis the season to shop!

Come explore our great selection of gifts including stylish scarves and handbags handcrafted jewelry and fragrances
Carolers, musicals and fabulous ornaments

Gifts for the holidays and all occasions

Visit us at the second level of the Milton Marketplace
Convenient parking and complimentary gift packaging
617-696-6644

Anderson
BICYCLE

Continue "The Tradition"
with a New "Anderson Bicycle"

for Christmas

Save Shipping Costs
Hundreds of Gift Ideas
& Stocking Stuffers!!!

Bicycles for every age & ability

One stop shop for service, clothing & accessories

380 Washington St. • Quincy

(617) 769-9669 • www.andersonbicycle.com

Please, support your local small businesses this season

This year, Give Quincy
a Year Round Christmas Present!

A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION TO

The Quincy Sun

$25.00 in Quincy * $30.00 outside Quincy

$38.00 out of state

to order, call 617-471-3100

The Four's Restaurant

FREE $20 GIFT CARD WHEN YOU
PURCHASE $100 IN GIFT CARDS

HAVE A HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON

15 Cottage Avenue
Quincy • 617-471-4447

certificates available on-line
www.the4ours.com

285 Washington Street
Norwell • 781-659-4414

166 Canal Street
Boston • 617-720-4455

Quincy 30 - North Quincy 14 In 80th City Championship

Stories, Other Photos Pages 24-26

QUINCY RUNNING BACK Jaquan Harris heads down the sideline for a big gain against North Quincy in the Presidents' 30-14 win over the Red Raiders in the 80th city football championship on Thanksgiving Day.

SENIOR HALFBACK JALEN GREEN had a game for the ages as he powered the Presidents' offense with 224 rushing yards on 31 carries and scored two touchdowns for Quincy.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

ANTOINE ALLEN had a strong two-way game for the Red Raiders with one interception and four receptions for 111 yards, including a 75-yard scoring catch.

JUNIOR FULLBACK EDDIE GUINTO grinds out some of his 33 yards for North Quincy as two Presidents including Matt Kozlowski (No. 57) look to make a stop.

QUARTERBACK JAMES LAM (No. 5) follows running back and lead blocker Max Joseph for some yardage. Lam, a sophomore, scored on a quarterback keeper in third quarter.

KEVIN PAPPADOLOLOUS (No. 42), a senior defensive lineman for North Quincy, applies pressure as Quincy quarterback James Lam throws a pass down field.

SENIOR CAPTAIN PETER CEDRONE (right) and teammate Jaquan Harris (No. 3) embrace in celebration after the Presidents defeated the Red Raiders 30-14 in the 80th Thanksgiving Day game between the two high schools.

Sterling School Remembers 'The Forgotten War'

Korean War Focus At Middle School's Annual Veterans Day Ceremony

Reay E. Sterling Middle School recently held its annual Veterans Day ceremony in the George DePaulo Auditorium.

The ceremony began with Sterling's "Glee" chorus performing the National Anthem.

The following Sterling eighth graders: Gabrielle Amador, Virianni Cardoso, Dajah Dupree, Janice Farrell, Ryan Foy, Shelley Frade, Paige Houle, Nashalee Lopez, Minhthu Nguyen, John Teixeira and Andy Zhen read poems and essays about what Veterans and Veterans Day meant to them.

This year's emphasis was the Korean War and how "it is not forgotten." The audience was shown a video highlighting the National Korean War Memorial as well as power point tour of Quincy's own Korean War Memorial.

Sterling also highlighted one of the servicemen listed on the wall who was a South Jr. High School graduate named Private Lloyd S. MacLeod.

The keynote speaker this year was John "Butch" Mahoney, a Korean War veteran and a member of the committee that made the Korean Memorial a reality.

STERLING MIDDLE SCHOOL'S "Glee" Chorus sings the National Anthem at the school's recent Veterans Day ceremony.

GABRIELLE AMADOR presents Morrisette American Legion Post Commander Fred White with a research book on the Quincy Korean War Memorial.

QUINCY VETERANS SERVICES Director Thomas Stansbury speaks to faculty, staff, students, families and community members of Sterling Middle School at their Annual Veterans Day Assembly. Photos Courtesy/Christine Barrett

STERLING EIGHTH GRADER John Teixeira tells veterans they are our heroes in his Veterans Day essay.

EIGHTH GRADER Shelley Frade read her Veterans Day Essay on what Veterans Day Means.

The Bedraggled Dragon!
by
Diane Purdy
Illustrations by Eric Sawler

A Perfect Gift!
Darook the Dragon broke a promise to Frunchilda the Faerie and is now bedraggled. Will her magical powers, be able to bring him back to the famous... Dragon to end all Dragons?

Call Diane Purdy at 617-472-7959 dianepurdy@playsplus.com
10 Moody St. Quincy 02169
Signed & Mailed copy for $15

TOYS FOR TOTS
Holiday Shopping

Saturday December 1st
1pm - 4 pm

(Donate an unwrapped toy!)

SANTA WILL BE HERE!!

1 FREE CLASS PASS TO ALL!!

Many Vendors, Raffles, Door Prizes, Refreshments

Live Entertainment!

Studio Z & Fitness
92 Franklin St., Quincy
(617)774-1919

TEMPLE SHALOM OF MILTON
Invites you to a
FAMILY CHANUKAH CELEBRATION & FUNDRAISER
at Pierce Middle School
451 Central Ave. (cnr. Brook Rd.)
Sunday Dec.9, 10:30 a.m.-12:15
★Talent Show ★Latke Tasting (many kinds)
★Book Swap ★Raffles ★Chanukah songs
★Activities & Fun for Children of All Ages
Admission $5/pp; $3 under 13; 3 & under Free Family max: $12 Open to All! Call 617-698-3394 or visit TempleShalomOnline.org

Nominations Coming In For Henry Bosworth Memorial Citizen Award

Nominations are coming in for Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award presented by The Quincy Sun.

The award – formerly known as the Sun Citizen of the Year – was renamed in 2010 in memory of Mr. Bosworth, The Quincy Sun's founder and longtime publisher.

Last year, Ruth Elizabeth (Betty) DeCristofaro, a lifelong Quincy Point resident, was honored for a lifetime of volunteerism and selfless dedication to her church, veterans, schools and many other neighbors in need.

She was selected for the award by a judging panel among 22 nominees submitted by Quincy Sun readers.

DeCristofaro is the second recipient of the Bosworth Award and the 29th individual overall to be recognized by The Sun for outstanding community service.

The other 27 individuals were honored when the award was known as The Quincy Sun Citizen of the Year.

Established in 1985, the award recognizes an individual for outstanding community service or a special achievement.

Again this year, Sun readers may nominate the person they feel is most deserving of the award.

A nomination ballot to help the selection process appears below in this week's issue of The Quincy Sun.

Nominations will close Monday, Dec. 31. After nominations close, a judging panel will be selected to make the final choice from nominations submitted.

If you know someone you would like to see recognized with the 2012 Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award, fill out the ballot and mail it to:

The Quincy Sun
Attn: Bosworth Award
1372 Hancock St.
Quincy, MA 02169

Ballots can also be dropped off at The Sun office at the above address by Dec. 31.

Those submitting nominations should identify themselves. They can also attach to the ballot a letter detailing the reason for their nomination.

Nominees can be someone in elective office, a member of an appointed board, a clergy member, a teacher or school administrator, a police or firefighter, someone in the business community, a sports figure or an "unsung" neighbor, friend or community activist who has given freely of his or her time to a worthy project or cause.

Those nominated in the past are eligible to be nominated again this year. Since this is not a popularity contest, each nominee has an equal chance of being selected regardless of the number of nominations received. Anyone nominated just once has the same chance of being the award recipient.

The name of the winner will be announced in The Quincy Sun in January or February.

NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSING SERVICES Executive Director Robert Corley (center) displays his "Rising Star Award" from the Massachusetts Association of Community Development Corporations. Congratulating Corley are Neighborhood Housing's Board Chairman David Kilnapp (left) and President Normand Grenier (right).

NHS Executive Director Robert Corley Receives MACDC 'Rising Star Award'

Robert Corley, executive director of Neighborhood Housing Services of the South Shore, received the "Rising Star Award" from the Massachusetts Association of Community Development Corporations recently.

Corley was one of six recipients selected to receive the honor at MACDC's 30th anniversary celebration, held November 16 at the State Room in Boston. The award recognized Corley's leadership of Neighborhood Housing Services (NHS), one of the state's leading non-profit affordable housing agencies and a part of the national NeighborWorks America network.

Originally founded in 1981 as a public-private partnership to revitalize low- and moderate-income neighborhoods in the City of Quincy, NHS has since expanded to provide services in 25 cities and towns across southern Massachusetts.

In addition to building and managing more than 170 units of affordable housing, NHS offers a wide range of affordable housing services, including free foreclosure prevention counseling, home rehabilitation loans and grants, and first-time homebuyer education workshops.

"This year alone, nearly

1,000 people have participated in Neighborhood Housing's first-time homebuyer workshops – that's the highest number in the northeast among NeighborWorks America affiliates and ranks in the top 10 in the country," said Corley, a West Roxbury resident. "We also provided home renovation loans and grants to 100 homeowners, counseled hundreds of families facing foreclosure, and were one of the few agencies selected by the Attorney General's office to receive two highly competitive grants to continue helping struggling families stay in their homes."

In October, NHS held a ribbon cutting ceremony for an affordable housing project: Winter Gardens, a new construction LEED certifiable 24-unit apartment building in Quincy. The agency also recently renovated two foreclosed homes in Quincy and Weymouth, transforming them from blighted neighborhood properties into handicapped-accessible single-family homes for returning veterans and their families.

NQHS Photo Fundraiser Dec. 6 To Benefit Children's Hospital

North Quincy High School/Boston Children's Hospital Photo Fundraiser will be held Thursday, Dec. 6 from 5:30 to 9 p.m. at North Quincy High School atrium.

The fundraiser features the work of photo students. They spend several weeks selecting, printing and framing the very best of their work.

Original framed works of art will be for sale. All proceeds donated to Boston Children's Hospital.

There will be free food and drinks.

For more information, contact michaelhanson@quincypublicschools.com.

SECONDARY LUNCH MENU

Monday, Dec. 3

WG pizza sticks, marinara sauce, tossed salad, choice of fruit/100% juice, choice of milk.

Tuesday, Dec. 4

School-made lasagna with beef and cheese, green peas, tossed salad, fruit, juice and milk choices.

Wednesday, Dec. 5

Colby cheese omelet, goldfish flatbread sandwich, spinach/strawberry salad, carrot fries, fruit, juice, and milk choices.

Thursday, Dec. 6

Romaine Caesar salad, grilled chicken and roasted chickpeas, creamy dressing, WW tortilla, fruit, juice, and milk choices.

Friday, Dec. 7

Fish tacos with WW pita bread, shredded lettuce, tomato, cowboy salsa, fruit, juice, and milk choices.

ELEMENTARY LUNCH MENU

Monday, Dec. 3

WG pizza, carrot snack pack, fresh fruit, 100% fruit juice, three bean salad.

Tuesday, Dec. 4

Early Release Day. No lunch served.

Wednesday, Dec. 5

Charbroiled beef burger with cheese on a WG bun, green beans.

Thursday, Dec. 6

Chicken fajitas, rice and beans, spinach 1/2 WW tortilla.

Friday, Dec. 7

(3) French toast sticks, maple syrup, (2) turkey sausage links, hash brown patty, applesauce cup.

The Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award

presented by

The Quincy Sun

I would like to nominate
(Please type or print neatly)

for

The Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award

I believe he/she deserves this award because:

Submitted by:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Tel. No. _____

Fill out form and mail (or bring) to:

The Quincy Sun

c/o The Henry W. Bosworth Memorial Citizenship Award
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

NOMINATION DEADLINE: Monday, Dec. 31

GRANITE LOCK CO

SERVICE  MOBILE
AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS

• DEADBOLTS INSTALLED
• LOCKS REKEYED
• DOOR CLOSERS
• PANIC HARDWARE
• AUTO KEYS FITTED

VISIT OUR SHOWROOM!
755 SO. ARTERY, QUINCY
472-2177

On Tuesday, Nov. 20, at approximately 10:30 a.m., Officers Steve DesRoche, Kristen Bowes, James Menz, Paul Jackson, and Sergeant Steve Igo were dispatched to Buckingham Rd. for a report of a "Breaking and Entering in progress." Dispatch stated that the caller reported that three males just went into a neighbor's house through a rear door.

As Officer DesRoche pulled up to the home in question, he noticed Sergeant Igo was looking down the driveway, then broke into a sprint to the rear of the house. Sergeant Igo radioed that he had three youths running from the rear of the residents and were now jumping the fences from yard to yard, headed towards Tyler St.

At this time, Officer DesRoche got back into his cruiser and observed the males heading towards Albion Rd. Officer DesRoche exited his cruiser at the intersection of Tyler St. and Albion Rd. to head off the suspects.

The officer then got ahead of the suspects and approached them as they walked out a driveway to the street. Officer DesRoche ordered the suspects to "stop" but they

LT. DAN MINTON

A Job Well Done

By QUINCY POLICE LT. DAN MINTON

disregarded his command and fled. As they ran off, each suspect at one point turned to look at the officer, who was able to get a good look at them. Officer DesRoche continued the pursuit as he radioed his location, heading down Albion Rd. to Flynt St.

The suspects ran through a yard to Tyler St., into officers who were hidden. These officers radioed that they had two suspects in custody. As Officer DesRoche continued looking for the other suspect, a resident told him that he saw a "young male" next to a garage in the rear of his house. The officer went to the garage area and after a brief search, he found a large blue tarp covering firewood. Upon closer examination, he saw that the tarp was moving slightly, so he called for assistance on his radio. Officers Menz and Jackson arrived and then uncovered the tarp, revealing another suspect. After a brief struggle, the suspect was taken down and handcuffed.

With three suspects in custody, Sergeant Igo checked the house where the break in occurred and confirmed that a break did in fact occur on Buckingham Rd. Detectives Pacino and MacIsaac arrived at the home to collect evidence. They found pry marks on a window screen in the rear of the house and to an exterior door. A door to the detached garage appeared to have been kicked open.

Officer DesRoche interviewed the caller, who said that she observed three suspects in the driveway and rear yard of her neighbor's house. She saw them go inside an enclosed porch with a "tool" trying to open the interior door leading to the main house. She stated that after a brief period of time, the suspects exited the porch and went to the window next to the stairs "poking at the screen." She saw one male lift up another male as he tried to lift the window up. She added that there was a fourth male standing in the front of the house on the phone. She said that she called another neighbor asking what she should do.

Officer DesRoche interviewed that neighbor, who said that as soon as he heard the account from his neighbor, he immediately called, "911." He added that prior to the call, he had seen the same four males walking nearby "looking around at houses." When he returned home, he said his wife was about to take the trash out but he advised her not to since he did not know what the suspects were up to.

A search for the fourth suspect -- the lookout, was unsuccessful. The three suspects, ages 15, 16, and 17, all from Dorchester, were charged with, "Breaking and Entering in the Daytime, Intent to Commit a Felony and Resisting Arrest."

Nice Work!

QUINCY POLICE HOT SPOTS

QUINCY POLICE STATISTICS: NOV. 16 - NOV. 23

ARRESTS: 31

TOTAL CALLS: 1,123

TOTAL STOLEN VEHICLES: 5

FRIDAY, NOV. 16

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 8:30 a.m., 158 Washington St. Report to be filed.

LARCENY, 10:44 a.m., Quincy High School, 100 Codrington St. Stole child's phone.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 12:13 p.m., 1250 Hancock St. Since found.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:31 p.m., 54 Knollwood Rd. Window broken.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 2:36 p.m., 26 James St. Vehicle keyed on door, hood, trunk.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 5:53 p.m., Ross Parking Area, 96 Parkway. 2011 black Honda, Rhode Island registration, stolen sometime Nov. 15. Found some personal belongings on the ground where motor vehicle was parked. MV has Lojack.

SATURDAY, NOV. 17

LARCENY, 8:22 a.m., 1 St. Ann's Rd. Would like to see officer to report stolen copper overnight at Central Middle School construction site.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 11:24 a.m., Gannett Road. Just pushed and shoved reporting person. Suspects are two females, approximately 35 and 45. Short, brunettes, heavyset, one wearing beige jacket, other wearing black, fled in small tan SUV towards Sea Street. Also damaged some of reporting person's property.

LARCENY, 12:33 p.m., Stop & Shop Supermarket, 65 Newport Ave. In progress. Shoplift to larceny. Charged will be filed.

LARCENY, 1:18 p.m., Stop & Shop Supermarket, 65 Newport Ave. Wallet found and turned in.

LARCENY, 1:53 p.m., Sextant Cir. Fare evasion. Drunk male went into house, didn't come back out. Cab driver was paid.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 9:29 p.m., 14 Eustis St. Possible. Sometime overnight.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 9:35 p.m., Varsity Club, 33 Independence Ave. Jacket stolen from Varsity Club. Motor vehicle missing from outside. Keys were in jacket. Could have occurred in past three hours. Stolen vehicle: Grey 2006 Cadillac DTS M/R.

LARCENY, 11:03 p.m., 53 Copeland St. South on Copeland toward Quincy Square. Heavy set black woman, 5'5", wearing all black, rough look hair, low 40s. Victim reports wallet missing.

SUNDAY, NOV. 18

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:56 a.m., 10 Stevens St. Shaving cream will be washed off, school prank.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 11:53 a.m., 48 Jackson St. Damage and stolen property. Stolen copper stolen.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT (possible B&E), 12:35 p.m., 273 Water St. Caller states male party at the back door. Also trespassed by landlord.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 1:21 p.m., 36 Palmer St.

LARCENY, 1:23 p.m., 53 Copeland St. Past. See caller regarding past larceny of wallet yesterday evening.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 1:51 p.m., 35 Roselin Ave. Residence/past.

LARCENY, 5:02 p.m., 54 Water St. Left without paying.

MONDAY, NOV. 19

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 8:27 a.m., Quincy Rehab Nursing Center, 11 McGrath Highway. Office entered, safe broken into.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 1:08 p.m., Quincy District Court, 1 Dennis F. Ryan Parkway. Since found. Car found on Dysart Street by owner.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 2:34 p.m., 67 Germain Ave. Past/residence. Occurred about 3-4 a.m. today. Party advised.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 3:10 p.m., 100 block of Baxter St. Dwelling. House entered and ransacked.

TUESDAY, NOV. 20

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:13 a.m., 52 Nelson St. Motor vehicle scratched.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 9:43 a.m., Doble and West Streets. Just occurred. Male was getting into motor vehicle and suspect blocked victim in. Suspect got into victim's motor vehicle and punched victim in face and then drove off. Victim doesn't want to pursue matter.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 10:30 a.m., 46 Buckingham Rd. Arrest made. Four males went into house through front door. One party is a black male. Two parties detained on Tyler. Three parties under arrest. Last suspect is a black male teens, dreadlocks, gray hoodie. Area cabs notified.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 10:45 p.m., Wollaston Recreational Facility, 357 West Squantum St. Business. First floor hallway, kitchen and rear hall motion. Break found upon arrival.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 21

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 4:18 a.m., Alba Deli Express, 1089 Hancock St. Front door glass broken, unsure what happened. Boston Globe delivery reported, wanted to make PD aware. After units watched the business video they observed a white male dressed in all black.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 8:48 a.m., Town House Apartments, 151 Sea St. 1999 Honda CRV black taken overnight.

Entries in the Quincy Police Hot Spots are compiled and submitted by the Quincy Police Department.

They are published by The Quincy Sun as a public service to make local residents more aware of any crime activity in their neighborhood. Questions concerning the Hot Spots list should be directed to Crime Prevention Officer Lt. Dan Minton, 617-745-5719.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 3:55 p.m., Pierce St. Dwelling. Came home and found back door forced in, no one in house. Caller called back to say entry was gained through rear window (possible prints).

ARMED ROBBERY, 7:27 p.m., Rite Aid, 132 Granite St. With taser. Black male, 30's, left on Granite Street, 1992 Honda Accord green, taking right on Granite Street. Male had a taser. Female was trying to shoplift. Plate lists out of Dorchester.

THURSDAY, NOV. 22

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 11:34 a.m., South Shore Mental Health Home, Dysart St. Just occurred. States he was assaulted by another resident who is still on scene. Attempted to contact staff member. No one was there. Apparently unsupervised residence. Alleged suspect now calling 911 requesting ambulance. Severe chest pains, call transferred to Fallon. One of the parties involved was taken to hospital for chest pains. Incident may have occurred because of the medical emergency. Both parties are separated and staff of home will be notified of incident.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 7:37 p.m., Quincy International Food, 529 Washington St. Front window.

FRIDAY, NOV. 23

LARCENY, 3:56 a.m., 199 Commander Shea Blvd. Past. Black Jeep Cherokee was seen at Fallon's gas pumps at above stealing gas cut lock off.

If anyone has more information about any of the aforementioned incidents or would like more information, contact Crime Prevention Lieutenant Dan Minton at 617 745 5719

STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLES: 1250 Hancock St., 96 Parkway, 151 Sea St., Ryan Parkway, Independence Avenue.

CAR BREAKS: Adams Street/Victory Avenue.

BREAKS AND ATTEMPTED BREAKS: 1089 Hancock St., Eustis Street, Jackson Street, 200 block of Water Street, Roselin Avenue, low numbers of Palmer Street, low numbers of McGrath Highway, Germain Avenue, Baxter Street, Buckingham Road.

If you have information on the above crimes, drug activity or any crime, please call the Quincy Police Detective Bureau at 617-745-5764 or log onto the following website: <http://tinyurl.com/ytf6td>.

To report suspicious drug activity, call the Drug Hot-Line at 617-745-5730. You will not be required to identify yourself, but it could help. To make an appointment to view the Registered Sex Offenders book, call Detective James Dentremon at 617-745-5755.

To contact the Crime Prevention Officer for tips or comments, my direct line is 617-745-5719. My e-mail address is dminton@ci.quincy.ma.us
— Lt. Dan Minton

Green Lights It Up For Quincy, 30-14

North Quincy Battles To The End But Presidents Prevail In 80th Football Showdown

By BILL GRIFFIN

Thanksgiving is a day for seniors.

This year, the seniors from Quincy celebrated. It began with a small knot of players carrying a golden trophy into the distant end zone under a cloudless November sky. Gradually the circle grew wider and wider reaching out past the 30 yard line, a sea of blue and white players, coaches, families, and fans savoring Quincy's victory.

The Presidents won the battle of scrimmage they had lost the past three years and senior halfback Jalen Green played a game for the ages to carry Quincy past North Quincy, 30-14 in the 80th renewal of the storied rivalry before an estimated crowd of 4,000 at Veterans' Memorial Stadium on Thanksgiving morning.

The win broke North's three-year win streak on Thanksgiving and gave Quincy's 27 seniors their first victory over the Red Raiders in the game they will always remember. The Presidents hold a 44-31-5 overall lead in the series. Quincy finishes the season at 7-4, the first time the Presidents have posted seven wins in a season since 2002.

"Win number seven is definitely the biggest," smiled Quincy coach Bill Reardon. "We talked to the seniors and told them we didn't want any 'buts' on our season. We didn't want: They beat Hingham and Scituate, BUT they lost to North Quincy. No buts."

"It's Thanksgiving, it's my senior year, we won, and I have never felt better," said Green after he rushed for 224 yards on 31 carries and scored two touchdowns. "I've been dressing for Thanksgiving since I was a sophomore, I've seen seniors cry after a loss, and that just makes it great to be out here today."

The game was decided on the line of scrimmage which is where North won it for three years. Quincy's offensive and defensive lines dominated as the Presidents carved out an 18-9 edge in first downs, outrushed the Red Raiders, 289-44, and held a North offense, which had rushed for over 2,000 yards in nine games, without a first down until there was 2:33 left in the first half.

"Absolutely, the game was decided up front," said Reardon.

"Take your hat off to Quincy," said North's Jim Connor. "The team that runs the ball wins in this series, and Quincy ran the ball today. Their linemen and line-

QUINCY PRESIDENTS football team celebrates with the city football championship after defeating intracity rival North

Quincy 30-14 in the 80th football game between the two high schools on Thanksgiving Day at Veterans' Memorial Stadium.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

backers pushed us back all day."

Defensively, the Presidents front tied up North's blockers and kept linebackers Jackson Lam, Peter Cedrone, Matt Kozlowski and Matt Hines clean to make big plays and big hits. Offensively, center Rich Turpin, Junior Meade, Kozlowski, Lam and Paul Nigro opened up cracks and gaps for Quincy's gifted skill players.

"On defense, our front of Meade, Ali Al-Jubori, and Katura Simmons kept our linebackers free and they made the plays for us," said Reardon.

With room to run, Quincy's talented playmakers exploded. Green had 146 yards of his yards in the second half. He had a two-play spree to begin the third period, a 39-yard kickoff return and a 26-yard scoring bolt, which broke open a two-point game. Sophomore quarterback James Lam (59-135, 1,160 passing yards, 15 TDs for the season) fired blue darts to open receivers for a 5-7, 49-yard first half. Senior Jaquan Harris played a terrific all-around game with three runs for 33 yards, five receptions for 47 yards, and put Quincy in motion with a TD off a fourth-down double reverse in the second quarter.

"They were playing Jaquan one-and-one early, and he got us going," said Reardon.

North played a proud, tough game. Senior quarterback Andrew Minton was brilliant, going 10-19 for 208 yards and touchdown with pinpoint passing. He had his team within 22-14 with 5:00 left in the fourth. Antoine Allen had an interception, four catches for 111 yards and a 75-yard scoring hookup with Minton. Matthew MacPhail caught two balls for 61 yards, grabbed his eighth interception of the year, and played excellent man coverage on Quincy's dangerous receivers all morning. Junior linemen Vinny Tran recovered a fumble and played a strong two-way game. Kevin Pappadopolous hit and plugged holes like a giant at middle linebacker. Eddie Guinto ran hard for 33 yards.

SENIOR MARK SOLANDER (No. 61) and the scoreboard show this year's Quincy-North Quincy football game belongs to the Presidents. Senior Ali Al-Jubori (No. 72) and other Quincy players enjoy the endzone celebration at the conclusion of the 80th football championship on Thanksgiving Day at Veterans' Memorial Stadium.

"I couldn't be more proud of the way we played," said Connor. "The kids gave everything. Quincy had 70 kids to our 30. We have to work to grow our numbers. We used 13 kids for most of the game, played hard and we stayed with them."

The game turned in the first minute of the third period. Despite a wide territorial edge, Quincy held a slim 8-6 lead at the half. North, who kicked off to begin the second half, had been using short, squib kickoffs to keep the ball away from Green. The Presidents responded by tucking Green into a circle of players at their 30. Green took the bouncing kick and flew up the middle for 39 yards to the North 26. On the next play he hit the middle, swerved right, accelerated from 0-to-60 in an instant and raced in for a 14-6 Quincy lead.

"I think the coaches might have been trying to hide me in a pack," smiled Green. "I thought Peter (Cedrone) was going to touch it, but it came to me. I just picked it up, saw the open space and went."

After a Tim McDonald deflection stopped a North drive at the 31, Quincy upped the lead to 22-6 with a 69-yard, 12-play march which not only produced a score, but killed the clock for the rest of the third period. Green (1,676 yards, 17 touchdowns for the season) carried nine times for 55 yards and Lam snuck in from the one for the TD. Green rushed for the conversion and a 16-point lead.

The Red Raiders did not go quietly. On the sixth play of the fourth period from his 25, Minton caught Allen in stride with a perfect pass up the left sideline. Allen stepped out of the tackle, broke clear to the middle and took it home for a 75-yard touchdown. Guinto rushed for the points and the Red Raiders were right there, trailing by just eight.

An Allen interception gave North a chance at their 13, but a great stop by Jackson Lam on third down forced a punt and Quincy put it away with a six-play, 68-yard drive. Green, who was playing in his own world at this point, accounted for 63 of yards on five carries, including a 36-yard journey through the middle on which he changed speeds, cut, broke tackles, and had the big crowd roaring and on its feet. Green scored from the eight and Harris (20 catches, 368 yards, six TDs for the year) rushed for the points and the 30-14 final.

"Jalen is always there on game day. He is a warrior," said Reardon.

In the first period, Pappadopolous made two key defensive plays to stop a Quincy drive at the North 19. The Presidents then opened the scoring in the second with a nine-play, 51-yard march. On fourth down from the three, Lam handed to Green who started to sweep right. He flipped ball to Harris on the double reverse and Harris ran in untouched. Max Joseph's conversion rush put Quincy up, 8-0.

"That was a play we practiced," said Reardon. "It worked because they were overplaying Jalen to the right. Paul Nigro had the block which opened up the play."

The Red Raiders drew close with a 51-yard, eight-play march. The big play was a 39-yard pass from Minton to MacPhail who found a huge hole in the Quincy secondary with an excellent move and Guinto went in from the one to cut the lead to 8-6 with 29 seconds left in the half.

"Andrew threw a great ball all day. He was right on the money," said Connor.

This set it all up for Green and his second half which will forever make the 80th renewal of this Holy War a fine memory.

The Quincy Sun's 'Bright Stars' Of THE GAME

QUINCY PRESIDENTS

NORTH QUINCY RED RAIDERS

JALEN GREEN – The senior tailback had 224 yards in 31 carries and two touchdowns which are certainly worthy of note, but Green's importance to his team is even more striking. In the second half, Quincy had 234 yards total offense. Green had 185 of them. Enough said.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

JACKSON LAM – This star probably should go to the entire Quincy defense, but Lam gets the vote for two-way excellence on offense and at linebacker. He had an interception and made Quincy's most important defensive play of the game, a third down sack of the smoking-hot Andrew Minton with the Presidents nursing an eight-point lead late in the fourth period. Lam made 11 tackles in the game.

ANDREW MINTON – The senior quarterback was 10-19 for 208 yards and a 75-yard scoring strike. His accuracy was uncanny in the face of a fierce Quincy rush for most of the game. He took hits to deliver the ball at the right moment and was a calm presence in the pocket for the Red Raiders who played from behind all day.

"He's an all-league quarterback who doesn't have all-league stats because we don't throw the ball that much. His accuracy and escapability are outstanding," said North coach Jim Connor.

MATTHEW MacPHAIL – He had his eighth interception of the year and two catches for 62 yards, including a 39-yarder which set up North's first score. He has an uncanny knack for finding the ball in the secondary and had an excellent day against a talented corps of Quincy receivers.

"He's an all-league free safety and on offense, he catches everything thrown at him," said Connor. "He has great instincts and also plays good man-to-man coverage."

By BILL GRIFFIN

Perfect Ending For The Persevering Andrew Schaaf

QUINCY'S Andrew Schaaf – who overcame two injuries – was already a winner before his Presidents defeated North Quincy in the Thanksgiving Day Game.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

By BILL GRIFFIN

Sometimes things work out just right.

With 48 seconds left in the fourth period and Quincy leading North Quincy, 30-14, senior quarterback Andrew Schaaf put the exclamation point on a remarkable comeback story by stepping under center for the first time in almost three months.

The ball was on his own two. He took the snap and drove through the middle for an eight-yard gain. The run covered eight yards, but the road back for the senior must have seemed like eight miles.

"What was I thinking? Don't fumble," he smiled after he and his senior mates celebrated their first win over North in the city's 80th football rivalry game.

Schaaf's story is one for those who believe sports can teach more than just games and that the spirit of Thanksgiving is more than just who scores the most touchdowns.

"Andrew Schaaf is the epitome of what a high school athlete should be," said Quincy coach Bill Reardon.

The story began in his junior year against Scituate. He was the starting quarterback. He was playing well. The North game was just two weeks away. Quincy's high-powered offense which ran through the Patriot League for 306 points this season was just starting to click into gear. All was right with the world.

Schaaf broke his collarbone. There would be no more football and all he could do was watch as North beat Quincy for the third straight year, 27-17.

"It was horrible standing on the sidelines watching my team struggle, and there was nothing I could do about it. After the game, the seniors were crying. I'll always remember that," said Schaaf.

Still, he had his senior season, the best season of all. It would be a wonderful year. He would start at quarterback. The offensive line was good. He had weapons like Jalen Green, Jaquan Harris, and Alex Heffernan. He had the experience and the arm. There would be great victories, fistfuls of touchdown passes, and redemption against North.

When Quincy elected its tri-captains, Schaaf received the most votes on the team. Ahead, the road rose up to meet him, the wind was at his back, and the sky was bright blue. Let the games begin. Life was good. Then in an instant, his world changed.

In a scrimmage against Dover-Sherborn, Schaaf fractured his knee and tore his meniscus ligament. It was a far more serious injury than the collarbone and when the doctors first looked at it, the message was clear. Football was finished.

"They said I might be

Cont'd On Page 26

VOICE FOR HEALTH
by Dr. Gabrielle Freedman
Chiropractor

ELECTRICAL BLACKOUT

If you have ever lost electricity in your home, you know that every important home appliance and fixture depends on the ability of wires to carry the electrical energy that makes it function properly. With this in mind, it is important to understand that the body works in much the same way. Various organs and systems rely on electrical impulses traveling through nerves to work properly. If one of the important nerves encased in the spinal cord becomes pinched or irritated, the organ or system it services cannot function up to its expected ability. To carry this analogy to its logical conclusion, the chiropractor acts somewhat like an electrician to remove obstructions that impede the flow of electrical energy.

The basic premise of Chiropractic medicine is twofold; (1) to be as minimally invasive to the body as possible and (2) to potentiate the body's ability to heal itself. At FAMILY PRACTICE OF CHIROPRACTIC

TIC, we are on the leading edge of today's chiropractic technology. We would appreciate your selecting our office for your chiropractic needs. We're located at 112 McGrath Hwy., Quincy. If we can assist you, call us at 617.472.4220 to schedule an appointment. We will only accept you as a patient if we sincerely feel we can help you. We offer computerized spinal scans. We are able to adjust patients sitting, standing, or lying down to accommodate any level of discomfort. If your problem is a chiropractic condition we offer you exceptional service.

P.S. When spinal bones (vertebrae) fall out of alignment, they can press against nerves exiting between them to cause problems elsewhere in the body. Putting these bones back into proper alignment restores nerves' transmitting ability.

Check us out on facebook:

<http://www.facebook.com/familypracticeofchiropractic>

www.freedmanchiro.com

DANCE
DANCE
DANCE

Quincy Youth Hockey
Presents

"THE PENALTY BOX"
Biggest Dance In Quincy

A Dance Open To
6th, 7th, 8th Grade Children Only
"STRICTLY ENFORCED"

First Church Hall Of Squantum

$12 tickets sold at the door

Saturday, December 1st

7:00pm – 10:00pm

For more details go to: www.QuincyYouthHockey.net

Jalen Green: A Complete Back With Great Instincts

By BILL GRIFFIN

If Jalen Green were five inches taller and 40 pounds heavier, scouts from the big leagues, the bowl leagues, the television leagues like the ACC or the Big 10 would have been swarming over the bleachers at Veterans' Memorial Stadium on Thanksgiving to have a look at Quincy's remarkable senior tailback.

He is that good. He is a big-time back, a see-me-on-the-highlights back, a once-in-a-decade back. Anyone who saw the second half of his statement game, a 30-14 victory against North Quincy knew well they were watching something they may not soon see again.

"He is a Division 1 talent, no doubt about it," said North coach Jim Connor.

"Two things set him apart," added Quincy coach Bill Reardon. "First, he has the quickest acceleration of any back I've coached. Second, even if there is an initial stop on a play, he finds a way to make it go. He sees openings."

Green has the obvious talents of a running back. He's quick off the spot, fast in the open spaces, deceptively strong, and he runs with a passion. However, what sets him apart are instincts you can't teach. A back has them or he doesn't. As Reardon said, Green sees things. He knows when to cruise and let his blockers set up, he knows when to make a slight sidestep or a sharp cut across the field, and he knows when he changes speeds into fast lane, he is gone.

"On a lot of our plays, the coaches don't tell me where to run," said Green who had 224 yards (146 in the second half) and two touchdowns against the Red Raiders. "They tell me to see the seam and just go. A lot of it just instinct."

"He doesn't need much," said Reardon.

At times, it's almost like watching a skateboarder.

JALEN GREEN capped off a stellar high school football career with 1,676 rushing yards this season for the Presidents. He plans to take his skills to the collegiate level next fall.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

He slides and glides from side to side avoiding all obstacles, he slows to let the big jump set up, and when it is time for the downhill run, he accelerates into his own private gear.

"You didn't see the 80-yard, watch-my-speed Jalen today," said Connor. "What you saw was a complete back who has an instinct for the holes and an ability to make people miss. He is so elusive."

Green operates at about 5'7" and 155 pounds and is certainly a college prospect. Coaches have called and there will be visits to places like Bryant, URI, UMass, Maine, and Curry. Somewhere, he will be running the football next fall. "I'm going to look at a number of places before making up my mind," said Green who finished the season with 1,676 yards and 17 touchdowns.

He prepared for North with hard work.

"In our last game against Silver Lake, we were terrible," said Green who did have 129 yards rushing in a terrible game. "We just practiced and practiced for a week and half. We went over everything North Quincy did."

His celebration involved a turkey dinner that would finally taste delicious and then more work.

"I am going to eat some turkey," he said with a wide grin. "Then I'm going to get ready for my 12:00 a.m. shift on Black Friday at Macy's at the plaza."

As the post-game interviews droned on, Green looked longingly over his shoulder at the Quincy celebration in the far end zone. It was a time to be with friends and savor the moment. "Those are my teammates and our trophy over there," said Green.

He runs with something else you can't teach. He runs with heart. He hurt his ankle in the fourth period and missed exactly one play. He carried the ball 31 times. On the final touchdown, an eight-yard run late in the fourth, he broke three tackles and half-cartwheeled, half-somersaulted into the end zone. He simply would not go down.

"Where does it come from? Right here," he said as he touched his chest on the left side right below his shoulder pads.

With that, there was a final smile and he was off to join the party in the end zone. Enjoy.

Perfect Ending For The Persevering Andrew Schaaf

Cont'd From Page 33

ready for another sport, maybe baseball," said Schaff.

Amazingly, he was at practice the next day. He was watching and he was helping.

"I couldn't believe it when I saw him," said Reardon. "Before surgery, before rehab, he was with us the next day."

"We have 27 seniors who have been together since we were freshman. They've supported me so many times. I just wanted them to see it goes both ways," said Schaff.

He had surgery and daily sessions of rehab. At times, football seemed like a distant hope, but he stayed with his team, and did more than watch. He worked with sophomore James Lam and helped the young QB develop into an effective varsity quarterback.

"I helped him with reading coverages and game situations. He obviously had the arm and the mechanics already," said Schaff. "I had my doubts I could come back, but I just stayed with the rehab and worked hard, one day at a time."

The watching wasn't as difficult as it was in his junior year, because Schaff thinks of his team before he thinks of himself.

"It wasn't as hard watching this year because we played so well," said Schaff. "We had some unbelievable wins and James really stepped up at quarterback."

Steadily, the knee felt better. The crutches went away.

He took snaps and threw to teammates before games. He was coming back. Barely two months had passed since the serious injury. He would be ready long before baseball. He would be ready for football. In the tenth week of the season against Silver Lake, Schaaf played and played well on defense at cornerback.

"I was so pumped when coach told me I was going to play against Silver Lake," said Schaff.

Then, there was Thanksgiving, and Andrew Schaff started at cornerback against North.

"I looked at all the people in the stands, and I had goosebumps," he said. "It was unbelievable, hard to describe. I have dressed for North since I was a freshman. To see our seniors today, we're so close but we had never beaten them. To finally win is something I'll never forget."

As the game moved along, the sun grew brighter in the sky and Quincy opened up a lead. The Presidents would win. The turkey would taste good. There was just one thing left. Schaff playing quarterback would make the ending perfect. Just perfect.

"When coach put me at quarterback at the end, I was nervous. I hadn't been back there in a long time," said Schaff. "It was a great feeling, and I think because I went through some hard times, it made it even sweeter."

Things had turned out just right.

Thanksgiving Game Tradition

Cont'd From Page 17

together," said Dixon.

"The game is a tremendous thing that this city has, and really North Quincy has always done a great job and so has Quincy. It's always a good game and it's always enjoyable to come out and watch" said Frazier

For some people that go to the game every year, what they take out of it goes further than just the game, like Quincy High principle Frank Santoro.

"Fifty-two years and every year its exciting to see a city with two high schools go through a city wide experience that really promotes pride in themselves, in their city and in their school," said Santoro, whose favorite memory of the game wasn't too long ago.

"Opening kick, a few years back, one of Quincy's kids, Frank McMurrough, was hit really hard and he went down, was down for a little bit, and then walked off the field on his own power. It turned out that Frankie had a broken back, and for him to walk off the field with that kind of injury just showed the pride and strength that not only Frankie had but the strength and pride that all the kids playing in this game and in this city have" said Santoro.

No matter how people feel about the Thanksgiving Day game or which memories they have from past games, there is no doubt that over the course of 80 years, it's as much a part of the city of Quincy as the players and fans are.

Dec. 7 Last Day To Order Special 80th Game Jerseys

It's not too late to order a commemorative 80th Thanksgiving Day game jersey - but you need to act fast.

The jerseys - the same worn by members of the Quincy and North Quincy football teams to mark the 80th anniversary Thanksgiving Day football game - can be ordered until Friday, Dec. 7.

Quincy's jerseys are white with blue numbers.

North Quincy's jerseys are black with white numbers.

The front of the jerseys have a football with '80th Anniversary' inside it and 'Thanksgiving Day Football 1932-2012' underneath.

Jerseys are available in adult sizes from M to 2XL for $40 each. To order a jersey, mail a check payable to Football Hall of Fame to Ron Ivil, 23 Grampian Way, Weymouth, MA 02188 or call 781-337-0062.

Enclose your school preference, size, and desired jersey number.

Win a Snow Blower!

Be ready for the winter weather, courtesy of Bank of Canton!

As our way of saying thanks this holiday season, Bank of Canton invites you to enter our Good Cheerlings Sweepstakes for your chance to win a snow blower!

To enter, simply fill out the Cheerlings Sweepstakes entry form and either drop it off at a Bank of Canton branch near you or mail it to:

Cheerlings Sweepstakes
490 Turnpike Street
Canton, MA 02021

Enter to Win!

Cheerlings Sweepstakes Entry Forms

Name: _____

Street: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Telephone: (____) _____

No purchase or transaction necessary to enter. Limit one entry per person through the end of the promotion. Must be 18 years or older and a resident of MA to enter. Employees of the Bank of Canton, their subsidiaries and affiliates, their vendors, and immediate family members are not eligible to win. Odds of winning depend on the number of entries. Entry form may not be reproduced and is the property of Bank of Canton. Winners will be contacted by telephone after the promotion and need not be present to win. Sweepstakes ends December 22, 2012.

Free Gifts and Refreshments!

Be sure to stop by any of our convenient branch locations from December 17-21 to receive a free gift and enjoy complimentary refreshments.

Member FDIC,
Member DIF.

BANK OF CANTON
We're like family.

888.828.1690

Canton • Quincy • Randolph • Brookline

www.bankcanton.com

Rabbi Benjamin To Discuss Earliest Christians Dec. 7

Rabbi Alfred Benjamin of Temple Shalom of Milton will lead a discussion on the topic "Who were the Earliest Christians and Why?" at a pre-Hanukkah Pot Luck Dinner and Shabbat Service Friday, Dec. 7.

The event is hosted by Paul and Sue Etkind at the Great Hall of the First Congregational Church, 495 Canton Ave., Milton.

The discussion at about 8:30 p.m. is open to the community, followed by dessert. It will be preceded by the Shabbat service at 6:45 and the dinner at 7:30 p.m.

For more information, or to participate in the pot-luck dinner, call 617-698-3394.

Community United Methodist

On Sunday, Dec. 2nd, at the 10:30 a.m. worship service, Quincy Community United Methodist Church, 40 Beale St., Wollaston will hold its annual Hanging of the Greens.

Before the service begins, everyone is invited to help decorate the sanctuary with greenery. Then, at a certain point in the ceremony, these volunteers are asked to carry out their part of the decorating.

Towards the end of the service, the church Christmas tree is lit for the first time.

The public is invited to participate.

For more information, call the church office at 617-793-3319.

Yuletide Craft Fair Saturday

Quincy Community United Methodist Church, 40 Beale St., Wollaston, will hold its annual Yuletide Craft Fair Saturday, Dec. 1 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Over 15 vendors will offer a variety of items, including jewelry, hand knitted and hand crocheted items, body scrubs and lotions, wreaths,

Christmas decorations, watercolors, and fused glass, plus much, much more. In addition, a homemade luncheon will be available.

The building is handicapped accessible at the front doors nearest the flagpole.

For more information call 617-773-3319.

RELIGION

Quincy Point Church

The First Sunday of Advent and Communion Sunday will be celebrated at the 10 a.m. worship at Quincy Point Congregational Church, 444 Washington St. Lois MacDonald will be deacon of the day.

"Redemption is Drawing Near" is the title of the Rev. Ann G. Suzedell's sermon. Poinsettia orders in memory or in honor of loved ones are due back today.

All are welcome to attend Fellowship hour in the Social hall, complete with coffee and light refreshments.

Tree of Joy Tags are also available Sunday. Come take a tag to help families in need at Interfaith Social Services and Project Access. Unwrapped purchased items are due back on Dec. 9th.

The Christian Education Committee will host a free family movie night showing "The Polar Express" Saturday, Dec. 8 at 6 p.m.

Pajama's welcome attire. Free popcorn, candy and drinks. All families are welcome to enjoy the film.

Entertainment Books on sale again for $35 a piece. All proceeds will benefit the QPCC elevator fund.

Contact Betty DeCristofaro at 617-472-1265 or call the Church Office at 617-773-6424.

Bethany Church

Bethany Congregational Church, Quincy Center will have Sunday Worship Service with communion, food pantry collection, and Sunday School at 10 a.m.

The Rev. William Harding will conduct the service and preach a sermon entitled "Delighted To Welcome You."

Fellowship with light refreshments will follow the worship service.

All are welcome to attend Bethany Church Worship Services and its numerous group activities. Bethany has a Youth Group, a Men's Group, an Outreach Mission Group doing various charity works and a Friday morning Bible Study Class.

The church office is open from 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.

Living Nativity Sunday

Houghs Neck Congregational Church will present a free Living Nativity program Sunday, Dec. 2 at 5:30 p.m.

To be held on the church grounds at 310 Manet Ave. immediately following the 5 p.m. Tree Lighting Ceremony at the Sea Street fire station, the Living Nativity will feature local residents, children and live animals in a series of tableaux depicting famous scenes from the story of Jesus' birth. Attendees will move from scene to scene, as narrators recount the Christmas story.

Following the program, refreshments will be served in the church's M. Alicia Corea Fellowship Hall.

Christ Church Christmas Fair

Christ Church Quincy, 12 Quincy Ave. in Quincy Center will hold its annual Christmas Fair Friday, Nov. 30 and Saturday, Dec. 1.

The fair will be open Friday from 5 to 8 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The fair will feature local handmade crafts, clothing, including Christmas ornaments and cards, jewelry, handpainted items, quilting and knits, glassware, furniture, toys, games, books, videos, clothing, and much, much more.

There will also be an opportunity to take a break from shopping with sit-down, delicious home-cooked meals, snacks and desserts available for purchase.

Proceeds will support individual ministries within the Christ Church community as well as city-wide.

For more information or directions, contact 617-773-0310.

Houghs Neck Congregational

Houghs Neck Congregational Church, 310 Manet Ave., Quincy, will mark the first Sunday in Advent at its Sunday worship service at 10 a.m.

All are welcome to attend.

Pastor John Castricum will preach the sermon "He's Doing What?"

June Paul and Joe Giggey will serve for the Diaconate, and a fellowship coffee hour will follow the service.

Quincy Religion Directory SERVICES & ACTIVITIES
Catholic	Congregational	Congregational	Christian Science
St. Mary's Church 95 Crescent St., Quincy • 617-773-0120 Masses Saturday, 4pm, Sunday 7, 9:30 & 11:30am, Weekdays 9am Handicapped Accessible New Members Welcome!	Sacred Heart Church "A Roman Catholic Community walking together in Faith, Worship, Education and Service" 386 Hancock St., North Quincy, MA 02171 (617) 328-8666 Sunday Masses 4pm (Sat.) 7:45am, 9am (Family Liturgy) 10:30am (with Choir) and 5pm Weekday Masses Mon.-Fri. 7am and 9am, Sat. 9am Handicapped Accessible Confessions Sat. 3-3:45pm in Saint Joseph Oratory	HOUGH'S NECK CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 310 Manet Avenue 617-479-8778 www.hncong.org First Sunday of Advent Service at 10AM 'He's Doing What?' All are welcome to attend FELLOWSHIP COFFEE HOUR FOLLOWING SERVICE	First Church of Christ, Scientist 16 Beale Street, Quincy 617-472-0055 Sunday Services and Sunday School 10:30 a.m. Wednesday Evening Meetings - where testimonies of healing are shared 7:30 p.m. ALL ARE WELCOME!
ST. AGATHA CHURCH MILTON-QUINCY 432 Adams Street Milton, MA 02186 • 617-698-2439 Schedule of Masses: Saturday: 4:30PM Sunday: 7:30AM, 9:00AM (Family Mass), 10:30AM, 12 NOON, 5:00PM Weekday Masses: 7:00 & 9:00AM Reconciliation 3:45PM-4:15pm on Saturdays, other times by appointment Handicapped Accessible, handicapped parking, elevator to Upper/Lower Churches ~ Air-Conditioned	St. Joseph's Church 550 Washington Street Quincy, MA 02169 617-472-6321 SUNDAY MASSES: 4 p.m. (On Saturday) 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Weekday Masses 9am CONFESIONS: Saturday, 3:00-3:30 pm Handicapped accessible & Handicapped parking, side entrance air conditioned	Wollaston Congregational Church United Church of Christ 48 Winthrop Avenue Quincy, Massachusetts Sunday Worship at 10 a.m. Rev. Dr. Mary Louise Gifford Office: 617-773-7452 www.wollycong.org 	Catholic Community  Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender CATHOLICS Our families, friends And allies Liturgy & social hour: Sundays, 5:30 PM St. John the Evangelist Church 35 Bowdoin St., Beacon Hill, Boston 617-421-1915 www.dignityboston.org
St. John The Baptist ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH 44 School St., Quincy 617-773-1021 Weekend Mass Schedule Saturday, 4:00 PM Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 AM Sunday night 5:30 PM Weekday Masses Monday - Saturday 8:00 AM Latin Mass 1st & 3rd Wednesdays (Lower Chapel) 7:00 AM Confessions Wed. 8:30 - 9:00 AM Sat. 2:30 - 3:30 PM Handicapped Accessible	Saint Ann's Church 757 Hancock St., Wollaston 617-479-5400 Pastor: Rev. John J. Ronaghan Weekend Mass Schedule: Saturday 4:00 PM Sunday 7:00, 9:00, 11:30AM Daily Masses: 9:00 AM	BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH Spear & Coddington Streets Quincy Center, 617-479-7300 WWW.QUINCYBETHANYCHURCH.ORG Sunday Dec. 2 Sunday Worship, Communion, Food Pantry Collection, Sunday School at 10AM. The Rev. William Harding will preach the sermon 'Delighted To Welcome You' Child Care Available ALL ARE WELCOME! Fellowship Time in Allen Parlor	UNION CONGREGATIONAL Beach St. & Rawson Rd., Wollaston (617) 479-6661 Rev. John Swanson, Pastor Sunday Worship Service 10 AM
THE SALVATION ARMY 6 Baxter St., Quincy • 617-472-2345 9:45 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION 11AM WORSHIP SERVICE BRASS BAND MUSIC 7PM TUES WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP 6:45PM WEDS. BIBLE STUDY	QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH 40 Beale St., Wollaston 617-773-3319 10:30 AM Sunday Worship Rev. Dr. Susan Jarek-Glidden, Pastor	QUINCY POINT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 444 Washington St. • 617-773-6424 Worship and Church School 10 am Rev. Ann Suzedell, Pastor email: office@quincypointcong.org	Nazarene  Wollaston Church of the Nazarene Sunday Worship 8:30 AM Liturgical Worship 9:45 AM Sunday School 11:00 AM Celebration Worship Kevin C. Dunlop, Lead Pastor Phil Noss, Youth & Small Groups Pastor John Chisholm, Music & Congreg. Pastor Rev. Kinsler, Children's Pastor Don Reed, Visitation Pastor 37 E. Elm Ave., Wollaston 617-472-5669 Email: office@nazarene.org WWW.WCONEZ.ORG

To Advertise
in this Directory,
Call
617-471-3100

HOPE LOVE

PEACE JOY

Brenda D. Villa

Teacher

A funeral Mass for Brenda D. (Welch) Villa, a lifelong resident of North Quincy, was celebrated Monday in Sacred Heart Church, North Quincy.

Mrs. Villa died Nov. 19 peacefully surrounded by her family and friends.

She started her career as a teacher, but her true passion was art and her family. She was a wonderful friend and lover of life. Everyone who met her was touched by her humor and kindness.

She was always full of life and a joy to be around. She has left the world a better place.

Beloved wife of Robert L. Villa. Devoted mother of Erin Frances and Jillian Patrice Flaherty and Cassie Nina Villa all of Quincy. Loving daughter of Patricia C. (Doherty) of Quincy and the late William J. Welch. She is survived by her siblings; Danette Bray of RI, Maura Guedouar of NY, Vance Welch of Hull and

BRENDA D. VILLA

Drew Welch of Millis. She was a wonderful aunt to Jessica, Alex, Jake, Sara, Shannon, Michael, Ella, Bridget and Grace and a great aunt to Gavin.

She is also survived by her brothers-in-law; Jim and Sam, her sisters-in-law; Brenda and Kathleen and the Villa family who she loved deeply.

Interment was private.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Alfred D. Thomas Funeral Home, 326 Granite Ave., Milton.

Memorial donations may be made to American Cancer Society, 30 Speen St., Framingham 01701-1800.

Virginia Polvere

A private funeral service was held for Virginia "V" Polvere of Quincy.

Mrs. Polvere died Nov. 24.

Her family was everything to her and she did everything for them. She was an amazing cook and Sunday dinners with her whole family were her specialty. Her meatballs, and lasagna have never been duplicated.

Cherished wife of 70 years to the late Damiano T. Polvere who predeceased her by three days. Beloved mother of Virginia Simmons of NH, Daniel Polvere (QFD) of Duxbury, the late Thomas Polvere of Braintree and the Michael Polvere of Quincy. Loving mother-in-law of Richard Simmons of NH, Jayne Polvere of Duxbury, Theresa Polvere of Braintree and Helen Polvere of Quincy. Sister-in-law of Olga A. Desario of Norwood. Also survived by nine beautiful grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Memorial donations may be made to Floating Hospital for Children, Tufts Medical Center Trust 800 Washington Street, Box #231 Boston, MA 02111.

A Better Value For Quincy Families

At Deware Funeral Home, we are proud to offer more value and superior service to Quincy families. A full service traditional funeral is $5,995* with no hidden costs. The price includes:

Funeral Ceremony • Visitation • Casket

At Deware Funeral Home, we put the needs of our customer first. We also offer a Simple Burial Plan for $3,395.

With Deware Funeral Home, you can trust us to provide the compassionate care you expect at an exceptional value, backed by a 100% service guarantee.

Exclusive provider of Dignity Memorial® benefits.

Deware Funeral Home

576 Hancock Street | Quincy, MA 02170 | 617-472-1137

For more information visit
www.dewarefuneralhome.com

*$5,995 plan includes basic services of funeral director and staff, embalming and preparation, visitation, funeral ceremony, transportation to place of disposition, 20-gauge metal casket, website announcement, and memorial stationary package (a register book, 100 thank you cards, 100 prayer cards).

A Service Family Affiliate of AFFS and Service Corporation International, 206 Winter Street, Fall River, MA 02720. (508) 678-2434.

OBITUARIES

Mildred L. Starr, 85

Worked For South Shore Bank, Probation Department Volunteer

Funeral services for Mildred L. (Rand) Starr, age 85, of Abington, formerly of Quincy, were held Nov. 24 at the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Avenue, Quincy.

Chaplain Scott St. Louis of the Care Alternatives Hospice, Marlborough, officiated.

Mrs. Starr died Nov. 19 at the Weymouth Healthcare Center, surrounded by her loving family.

She was born in Boston, raised and educated in Quincy schools and was a graduate of Quincy High School. She has lived in Abington for two years, previously in Quincy for most of her life.

Following the untimely death of her late husband in 1962, Mrs. Starr worked and proudly raised her four children as a single mother. She was employed many years by the former South Shore National Bank where she worked in custodial services, retiring in 1998.

She was also a volunteer for several years with the Probation Department at the Quincy District Court.

She enjoyed jigsaw puzzles, knitting and scratch tickets.

She was devoted to her family and especially her five grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Beloved wife of the late Herbert J. Starr.

MILDRED L. STARR

Devoted mother of Jeffrey H. Starr, Deputy Chief, Q.F.D. and his wife Paula of Abington, Jacquelyn Higgins and her husband George of Abington, Herbert J. Starr and his wife Diane of Duxbury, FL and Michael W. Starr of Quincy.

Loving grandmother of Jeffrey P. Starr, Jillian Starr Higgins, Michael A. Starr, Paula A. Starr and Haley R. Starr. Cherished great grandmother of George, Ellie, Ava and Patrick.

She was predeceased by her siblings: Emily Ahola, Emma Venhaus, Marion Rand, Allen Rand, Robert Rand, Margaret Duffy, Cynthia Thalín, and George Rand.

Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Interment was in Woodside Cemetery, Cohasset.

Memorial donations may be made to Shepherds Center Foundation, 2020 Peachtree Road NW, Atlanta, GA 30309.

Damiano T. Polvere

A private funeral service was held for Damiano T. Polvere of Quincy.

Mr. Polvere died suddenly Nov. 21.

He was a kind and loving husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He worked for Standard Uniform and was a teamster for Local 25 before retiring in 1980.

Cherished husband of 70 years of Virginia (DeSario) who died Nov. 24. Beloved father of Virginia Simmons of NH, Daniel Polvere (QFD) of Duxbury, the late Thomas Polvere of Duxbury, Theresa Polvere of Braintree, and Helen Polvere of Quincy. Brother of Theresa Tempesta of Randolph, Annie DePinto of Stoneham, and Viola Orlando of Quincy. Also survived by nine beautiful grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were made by Lydon Chapel for Funerals, 644 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Floating Hospital for Children, Tufts Medical Center Trust, 800 Washington St., Box #231, Boston, MA 02111.

John J. 'Jack' Colligan, 89

Retired Quincy Firefighter

A funeral Mass for John J. "Jack" Colligan, 89, of Quincy, a retired Quincy Firefighter, was celebrated Tuesday in Sacred Heart Church, North Quincy.

Mr. Colligan died Nov. 20.

He was a lifelong Quincy resident. He proudly served in the United States Army during World War II. He spent 33 months in the Pacific Theater as Fire Chief in charge of crew operations. There he received a good conduct and victory medal as well as the Asiatic Pacific Theater Campaign Ribbon.

After his military service, Mr. Colligan had the honor of serving as a Quincy Firefighter for more than 30 years. During his career, he received two vaious public service honors.

He was a past member of the North Quincy Knights of Columbus. After retiring from the City of Quincy Fire Department, he started Colligan Painting which he ran for 40 years.

He will be remembered for his great sense of humor and his generous nature. He will be sadly missed by all those who knew him.

The devoted husband of 63 years to the late Edna B. (Bendall) Colligan. Loving father of Joanne Turner and her husband David of North Attleboro and the late Michael Colligan. Grandfather of Tina Delorey and her companion Eric Romsey of Franklin and Tara Comier and her husband Bryan of Cumberland, RI. Great Grandfather of Nicholas and Ray Comier.

JOHN J. COLLIGAN

ther of Tina Delorey and her companion Eric Romsey of Franklin and Tara Comier and her husband Bryan of Cumberland, RI. Great Grandfather of Nicholas and Ray Comier.

Brother of Catherine Wilcox of MD and Joan Muldoon and her husband Chris of ME and the late Anita Reilly, James, Robert, Thomas and Jeanne Colligan. Dear Uncle of Joan and Dennis Muldoon, Eileen Perry and Pam Reilly.

He is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Burial was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Hospice of the South Shore, 30 Reservoir Park Dr., Rockland, MA 02370, or to Alzheimers Disease Assoc., 311 Arsenal St. #4, Watertown, MA 02472.

Robert J. Bowes, Jr.

Retired Boston Police Officer

A funeral Mass for Robert J. Bowes, Jr., of Quincy, a retired Boston Police Officer, was celebrated Wednesday in St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mr. Bowes died Nov. 22.

He grew up in Dorchester and was proud to be a third generation Boston Police Officer. He loved the job and took any additional work he could to help support his family. His favorite was working the police detail at Fenway Park during the Red Sox games, something he did for many years.

He was most proud of the accomplishments of his four sons.

Mr. Bowes enjoyed reading, history, music and walks along Wollaston Beach.

A member of the Boston Police Detective's Benevolent Society, he was honored to serve the City of Boston for so many years. He will be remembered for his sense of humor, his charm and his love of storytelling.

Loving father of Robert W. Bowes and his wife Elise of Weymouth, Kevin M. Bowes and his wife Laura of Canton, Brendan T. Bowes and his wife Lauren of Canton, and Sean P. Bowes of Wollaston. Former husband of Maureen (Cox) Bowes. Brother of Nancy Bowes of NH, Janice MacPherson, Marybeth Bowes, Lisa Bowes; all of Quincy, and the late Thomas Bowes. Cherished grandfather of R.J., Thomas, and soon to be born Luke Bowes. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to American Heart Association, 20 Speen St., Framingham, MA 01701.

Over 60 Years
Of Personalized Service

SWEENEY BROTHERS

Home for Funerals, Inc.

RICHARD T. SWEENEY, JR. • FRANCIS M. SWEENEY

1 INDEPENDENCE AVENUE
QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS 02169

(617) 472-6344

www.thesweeneybrothers.com

Stephen C. Ricciardi, 68

Economics Teacher, Business Founder, Developer, Civic Leader

A memorial service for Stephen Charles Ricciardi, 68, of Quincy will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday at First Baptist Church of Wollaston.

Mr. Ricciardi died Nov. 12 at Quincy Medical Center following a brief illness.

Mr. Ricciardi's professional history includes teaching economics at the graduate level, masonry cleaning and restoration, and real estate development including new construction and adaptive re-use of historic buildings, most recently in New Bedford.

"Steve didn't change the landscape of New Bedford," said Scott Lang, former city mayor. "He set a great example for all entrepreneurs and those who don't shy away from challenges."

Mr. Ricciardi's soft-spoken, modest manner could not conceal his strength of character and intellect.

Born in Quincy, he graduated from North Quincy High in 1962 and went on to enroll as an undergraduate at Boston University. There he was elected Treasurer of his class and later class President, President of Scarlet Key and Vice President of the Delta Honor Society. He was active in sports: the wrestling team and the crew team where he rowed from the anchor position.

After graduating Boston University with a BA in Economics in 1966, Mr. Ricciardi earned a master's degree in England at the London School of Economics.

While completing coursework as a doctoral candidate at the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Finance, he taught mathematical statistics and econometrics, and simultaneously taught economics at LaSalle College. At Penn he met Dana Dauterman, who became his wife of 43 years. The birth of their daughter Lygeia prompted Mr. Ricciardi to think about the opportunities open to the mute businessmen he was teaching at the Wharton School. He had already paid his own way through college and graduate school and broadened his business perspective during the summers by making milkshakes at McDonald's, going door-to-door as a Fuller Brush salesman, interning in Washington, DC at the Labor Department, and working in his father's businesses - Ricciardi Granite Company and the Quincy Memorial Company of West Quincy.

In 1972 he left academia to join forces with his father, helping to steer the granite and monument company in the direction of masonry restoration. The firm became the largest masonry cleaning

STEPHEN C. RICCIARDI and restoration company in Massachusetts, and restored numerous historically significant buildings including the Quincy Market buildings, the Mercantile and Union Wharf buildings in Boston, and many others throughout New England.

Mr. Ricciardi later shifted the focus to developing and constructing buildings with his father Paul and brother Paul Jr. Through the 1980s and early '90s, the company built more than 20.5 million square feet throughout eastern Massachusetts, including several projects in Quincy.

In the 1990s he founded Acorn Management Company. With Acorn Management, in the early 2000s, Mr. Ricciardi turned his attention to New Bedford and the adaptive reuse of historic mills, building on a lifelong passion for history. The first and most ambitious project converted the Wamsutta Mills into residential units and commercial space. The 500,000 square foot mill, now listed on the National Register of Historic Places, was originally home of the company that manufactured world famous percale sheets supplying the world's finest hotels and passenger ships. This project earned him the New Bedford Area Chamber of Commerce Economic Impact Award and the Sarah R. Delano Preservation Award, among others.

He then undertook the conversion of the former Whitman Mill. Built in 1896 for William Whitman, the mill was designed by Charles Makepeace, an internationally known architect. This building is also now on the National Register of Historic Places. For the "magnificent rehabilitation of Victoria Riverside Town House Lofts as loft apartments," he was again awarded the Sarah R. Delano Preservation Award and the New Bedford Preservation Society Elm Award.

Many of his friends and business associates remember him as a long-time member of the Quincy Rotary Club, where he served as President. He was Vice President of the South Shore Chamber of Commerce, and a member of Quincy's Planning Board. He served on the Board of Managers of Quincy City Hospital (now Quincy Medical Center), Quincy Historical Society, and the Salvation Army.

While Ricciardi's intense focus and unflinching determination informed his public face, at his core was an unwavering commitment to people, especially his family. He would do anything for his beloved wife Dana and his children - daughter Lygeia and son Quentin - and many others in his extended family. As a young child he took under his wing his sister Gloria, who was afflicted with Down Syndrome, and protected her from the unkindness and insensitivity of others. He genuinely enjoyed helping people, especially those who had experienced a hard knock or two. He had an uncanny ability to connect with people and make them feel at home, charming them with an apt remark, a smile, or a joke. He enjoyed his work, family gatherings, and travel in Italy. At a recent high school reunion, he described himself as "happy, with few regrets."

Loving husband of Dana Dauterman Ricciardi.

Devoted father of Lygeia Marie Ricciardi and her husband Eric Eversmann of DC and Stephen Paul Quentin Ricciardi of Quincy. Grandfather of Leela Marie and Ada Rose Eversmann.

Beloved son of the late Paul and Rose (Youdis) Ricciardi.

Survived by his brothers Robert P. Ricciardi, Ph.D., and his wife Susan of PA and Paul F. Ricciardi and his wife Laurie of Norwell. Also survived by many members of his extended family.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

A celebration of his life will be held Dec. 7 at Victoria Riverside, New Bedford.

Memorial donations may be made to Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation, 230 East Ohio St., Suite 304, Chicago, IL 60611 or to the Friends of Boston University Men's Crew by contacting the funeral home at 617-472-6344.

HAMEL FUNERAL CARE & CREMATION SERVICES OF MASSACHUSETTS

Honored Providers of:

PHONE TOLL FREE
(800) 696-5887

26 Adams Street, Quincy, Ma 02169
www.HamelFuneralCare.com

Lorraine G. Irvine, 71

Homemaker

LORRAINE G. IRVINE

for 35 years and fiancé of Thomas M. Campbell. Devoted Mother of Lisa A. Geary and her husband Patrick J. of Dorchester. Loving grandmother of Erin

A funeral Mass for Lorraine G. (Madden) Irvine, 71, of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 24 at St. Joseph's Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Irvine died Nov. 18.

She was born, raised, and educated in South Boston. She had lived in Quincy for 35 years after living in Dorchester.

Mrs. Irvine was a homemaker and devoted to her family, especially her granddaughter. She treasured spending vacation on Cape Cod and in Maine and also enjoyed nature, reading, walking, and dining at restaurants.

Beloved companion

L. Geary. Daughter of the late Edward S. Madden, Sr. and Gertrude C. (Norton) Madden. Sister of Claire M. Powers of AZ, Anne M. Travers of Quincy, Edward S. Madden, Jr. of Weymouth, Regina M. Rosher of South Boston, Mary A. Madden of Weymouth, and the Jane F. and John V. Madden. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to a charity of choice.

Grace E. Younie, 88

A memorial Mass for Grace E. (Cullivan) Younie, 88, of Marshfield and formerly Quincy was celebrated Nov. 19 at Sacred Heart Church, Weymouth.

Mrs. Younie died Nov. 14.

She participated with energy and enthusiasm in church, sports and community activities; she was a lifetime learner. Mrs. Younie was the owner of Bra-

Wey Florist in Weymouth Landing for 25 years.

Beloved wife of 59 years to the late Walter S. Younie, Jr. Daughter of Alice and Charles "Bucky" Cullivan of Weymouth. Devoted mother of Gail Lonergan of Plymouth, Jayne Burgess of Whitman and Linda Younie and Nancy Worthington, both of Marshfield. Grandmother of eight grandchilddren and 11 great-grandchildren. She is survived by her sister Alice Cullivan Nelson of Weymouth.

Funeral arrangements were made by MacDonald Funeral Home, Marshfield.

Memorial donations may be made to the Cranberry Hospice affiliated with Jordan Hospital, 36 Cordage Park Circle, Suite 326, Plymouth, MA 02360.

Norma J. Leonard

A funeral service for Norma J. (Snow) Leonard of Quincy was held Monday at Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Mrs. Leonard died Nov. 18.

She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. She will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing her.

Daughter of the late William F. and Gertrude (Fuller) Snow. Devoted wife of John S. Leonard of Quincy. Loving mother of John S. and his wife Tracy of Braintree, Laurence E. and his wife Julie of GA, Karen L. Palumbo and her husband John of NY, and Thomas M. and his wife Michelle of Quincy. Sister of Edward Snow of Quincy and the late Frederick and James Snow and Phyllis Lowry. Cherished "Nana" of John S. Matthew T., Patrick E., and Elizabeth M. Leonard and Harrison

J., Sean R., Isabella R., and Addison S. Palumbo. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Interment was in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Memorial donations may be made to Autism Speaks, 5455 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 2250, Los Angeles, CA 90036 or online at www.autismspeaks.org/site.

Honor Your Loved One's
Memory
With Flowers

cliffords.com
1.800.441.8884

DOLAN
FUNERAL SERVICES

"Caring for your life's journey"

- ◆ Funerals
- ◆ Cremations
- ◆ Pre-Arrangements

Service times and directions at:
www.dolanfuneral.com

THE DOLAN FAMILY
W. Craig
Paul F.
Frederick J.
Courtney

1140 WASHINGTON STREET
DORCHESTER, MA 02124
(617) 298-8011

460 GRANITE AVENUE
MILTON, MA 02186
(617) 698-6264

Mary E. McDonald Montani, 89

Navy Ensign, Registered Nurse

A funeral Mass for Mary E. (St. John) McDonald Montani, age 89, of Dennis, formerly of Quincy, was celebrated Wednesday in St. Agatha's Church Milton.

Mrs. McDonald Montani died peacefully Nov. 19 at the Bay Path Rehabilitation and Nursing Center in Duxbury. Her last moments were filled with the love and company of family.

She was born Mary Elizabeth St. John, May 27, 1923, in Cranston, RI to the late Arthur and Florence (Lipshultz) St. John. She was educated in Quincy schools and was a graduate of North Quincy High School. She was also a graduate of the former Quincy City Hospital School of Nursing and was a registered nurse.

During World War II, she served in the U. S. Navy as an Ensign and was stationed at Charlestown Naval Hospital where she met her first husband, Walter Joseph McDonald, a Marine wounded in action. They were married in Sacred Heart Church, North Quincy and lived together in Virginia, Maryland, and Florida, where Walter died in 1991. Mary and Walter raised six children together and saw the country motor coaching with her sisters Rita, Ruth, and Edna.

She met her second husband, David G. Montani, a father of ten, at a Christmas Party in 1993. They were married in St. Agatha's Church, Milton in 1994 with all combined 16 children present. David and Mary spent their time between Florida (later South Carolina) and Cape Cod. They traveled together to Italy, Alaska, and across the United States, but their best memories are of birthdays and holidays with family on Cape Cod.

As a registered nurse, she had an extensive career in healthcare and was the owner and operator of the Diet Center in Annapolis, MD for ten years. Previously, she was the director of the Woodburn Mental Health Center for six years in Fairfax, VA and the former owner and operator of the Marshall Roads Nursing Home in Vienna, VA for ten years.

Mrs. McDonald Montani was a faithful parishioner at Saint Pius X Parish in South Yarmouth for many years and a former member of the Odd Fellows in VA. She enjoyed woodcarving, cooking and was an accomplished artist.

She was also a talented seamstress and made costumes, dresses and gowns for her family.

Beloved wife of David G. Montani and the late Walter J. McDonald.

She was the mother of Kathleen McDonald of West Yarmouth, Diane Johnston and her husband Mark of

MARY E. McDONALD MONTANI

West River, MD, W. Kevin McDonald and his wife Joan of Haymarket, VA, Susan McDonald Osborn and her husband Paul of Herdon, VA, Sean McDonald and his wife Jaci of Annapolis, MD, William McDonald and his wife Teri of Riverside, CA.

She was also the stepmother of David Montani, Jr. of Quincy, Frank Montani of So. Yarmouth, Mary Jo Montani of Dorchester, Loretta Porter and her husband Tim of Stoughton, Larry Montani and his wife Mary of Lewiston, NY, Daniel Montani and his wife Patty of Raynham, Christopher Montani of Dorchester, Theresa Montani, Braintree F.D. of Weymouth, Anthony Montani and his wife Diane of Milford and the late Michael Montani.

She is survived by 37 grandchildren, four great grandchildren and was the grandmother of the late Stephen Fielder.

Sister of Marion St. John Foy of Braintree and Rita St. John Welch of Duxbury and pre-deceased by her sisters, Edna Logan and Ruth St. John and her brothers Arthur and Freddie St. John. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Interment with Military Honors will be held at Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia at a later date.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Avenue, Quincy.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF PATTY E. SHEA

NOV., 25, 1991-APR., 24, 2007

On your 21st Birthday

You are gone but not forgotten. You will live in our hearts forever.

Sadly missed, Love, Nana, Mom, Robin, Holly, Amy, Richie, Nicholas, and Joey

Santino F. 'Sonny' Nicastro, 88

Retired Master Pipefitter, QHA Worker

A funeral Mass for Santino F. "Sonny" Nicastro, 88, of Abington, formerly of Quincy, will be celebrated today (Thursday) at 9 a.m. in Saint John the Baptist Church, 44 School St., Quincy Center.

Mr. Nicastro died peacefully Nov. 22 surrounded by his loving family.

He was born in Quincy, raised and educated in Quincy schools and was a graduate of Quincy High School. He had lived in Abington for four years, previously in Braintree for 42 years.

He was a master pipefitter at the former Fore River Shipyard in Quincy. He had over 20 years of service with both the Bethlehem Steel Company and General Dynamics. He later worked in the maintenance department for the Quincy Housing Authority for over 20 years and has been retired many years.

A longtime member of the Braintree Knights of Columbus, he was a Fourth Degree Knight, Cardinal Cushing Assembly and Past Faithful Navigator. He was also a member of the Quincy Sons of Italy.

Mr. Nicastro was devoted to his family and especially to his six cherished grandchildren.

Beloved husband for forty-six years of Margaret

SANTINO F. NICASTRO

A. "Peggy" (Donovan) Nicastro.

Devoted father of Mary M. O'Keefe and her husband Edward of Brockton, Patricia A. Grady and her husband Leo of Abington, Joseph L. Nicastro and his wife Renee of Pembroke.

Loving grandfather of Ryan, Jack, Sean, Maggie, Melissa and Anthony.

Son of the late Giuseppe and Maria (Galuzzo) Nicastro.

Brother of Joseph Nicastro of Quincy, the late Salvatore Nicastro, the late Antonio Nicastro, the late John Nicastro, the late Susan Gioncardi, and the late Lena Morreale.

Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Visiting hours were Wednesday from 4 to 8 p.m. at the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment will be in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

John Higgins

A funeral service John Higgins of Quincy was held Nov. 24 at Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Mr. Higgins died Nov. 14.

He lived in Quincy for most of his life and served in the Army in Korea. In his later years, he could be heard playing the squeeze-box at Squantum Gardens. Mr. Higgins was a lifetime friend of the O'Mally family.

Son of the late Thomas and Mary (Drew) Higgins. Brother of Thomas Higgins and his Wife Alice and Joseph Higgins, all of Quincy. He is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Interment will be at a later date in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourn.

Memorial donations may be made to Father Bill's Place, 38 Broad Street, Quincy, MA 02169.

Marion E. McPhee

A funeral Mass for Marion E. (Driscoll) McPhee of Weymouth, formerly of Marshfield and Quincy, was celebrated Tuesday in St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mrs. McPhee died Nov. 23.

She graduated from Trinity High School in Boston and worked as an elevator operator for R.H. Stearns. Her husband died at a young age and Marion raised her family of five children. She later became a Nursing Assistant working for the City of Boston at Long Island Hospital.

She was very social and enjoyed attending the local senior citizen activities. Her family was the focal point of her life and she will be remembered for her quiet nature and strong work ethic.

Beloved wife of the late Michael D. McPhee. Loving mother of Richard D. McPhee of Rockland, Marilyn Driscoll of Pembroke, Barbara Richardson of Mansfield, Kathryn Lowe of Weymouth. Sister of Francis Driscoll of CT.

Also survived by 16 grandchildren, a late grandchild David Levangie, and 27 great grandchildren.

Burial was in Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Other Obituaries Online
at www.thequincysun.com

A Tribute to Lou Coulacos

In a private graveside ceremony with military Honor Guards standing guard over an American flag draped coffin and with the calm, solemn sound of Taps echoing throughout Forest Hills Cemetery in Boston, Louis Coulacos of Quincy was laid to rest as close family members saluted.

The very Reverend Doctor Cleopas Strongylis, Cathedral Dean, of the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Cathedral of New England honorably performed the ceremony.

Lou, 82, passed away unexpectedly on October 25. He was a graduate of North Quincy High School where he was a member of the football, baseball and track teams. He also played American Legion baseball. He started his work career as a Patriot Ledger home delivery carrier. He worked at Keystone Manufacturing Company and spent many years at Fore River Shipyard as a carpenter. He was one of the select few honored to work as an expert carpenter on the restoration of the ship, the United States Constitution, popularly known as "Old Ironsides", the oldest commissioned ship in the United States Navy. Lou was also an expert amateur artist, which was his favorite hobby.

Lou was a Korean War veteran serving with the First Cavalry, 224th Infantry Regiment. He fought in the thickest of battles. He received the United Nations Service Medal and three Bronze Service Stars. As a Private First Class and later Corporal, he served as a squad leader, a position normally held by a sergeant. He later served as a non-commissioned officer. In a Letter of Commendation it was noted that Lou left behind "an outstanding record" and was commended for his "Diligence and Devotion to Duty." Though injured by shrapnel fire, Lou refused to be considered for the Purple Heart because he considered his injuries "scratches". Like his father Anthony who served in WWI, his older brother Bill who served in WWII, and younger brother Spero who served during peacetime, Lou was very proud of his service to his country.

When Lou returned home from the battlefields of Korea to civilian life he continued his leadership in the form of compassion and giving of himself. He was devoted to his family and to his nieces Melissa and Vanessa, his brother Spero's daughters, and to Cathy, his brother Bill's daughter. And equally so to a host of both brother's grandchildren. He diligently cared around the clock to his bedridden mother for six years. In short, Lou was always there to help anyone at a moment's notice.

Lou was a daily companion of the Bible. He was what he called himself "A practicing Christian." He believed deeds, not talk, best defined a Christian.

He was the loving son of Anthony and Stella Coulacos, as well as the younger brother of William, and also brother-in-law of Mary Coulacos, all of whom predeceased him. He was the beloved brother of Ann, Betsie and Spero Coulacos of Quincy. He was the devoted uncle of Melissa Tolmie of Niantic, Ct., Vanessa Holm of Pepperell, Ma., and Cathy Prato of W. Boylston, Ma. He leaves behind a sister-in-law, Diane Villagomez of Florida. He also leaves behind three nephews; Matthew, Connor and Christopher, as well as four nieces; Allison, Emily, Olivia and Meredith. He is also survived by many loving relatives and friends, including Anthony Holm and Nick Prato.

Lou's family is appreciative of Deware Funeral Home of Quincy whose professional and kind services were carried out with the utmost respect.

LEGAL NOTICE

CITY OF QUINCY.
IN COUNCIL

Order No: 2012-216

November 19, 2012

Be it hereby ORDAINED

by the City Council of the City of Quincy that the City hereby petitions the General Court to enact a special law pursuant to the provisions of clause 1 of section 8 of Article II, as amended, of the Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in substantially the following form, which special law shall allow the City of Quincy, acting through the Board of License Commissioners, to issue liquor licenses in addition to those provided for by Chapter 138 of the General laws.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

CITY OF QUINCY ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

An Act Increasing the Number of Licenses for the Sale of Alcoholic Beverages in the City of Quincy

Section 1.

Notwithstanding the statutory formula for the number of licenses contained in section 17 of Chapter 138 of the General Laws, and in addition to the number of licenses allowed by said section 17, the licensing Authority of the City of Quincy may grant 23 additional licenses for the sale of all alcoholic beverages to be drunk on the premises and 2 additional licenses for the sale of all alcoholic beverages to innholders duly licensed under Chapter 140 to conduct a hotel, and 1 additional license for the sale of wines and malt beverages to be drunk on the premises, pursuant to section 12 of Chapter 138, and 1 additional license for the sale of all alcoholic beverages not to be drunk on the premises, pursuant to section 15 of Chapter 138, to establishments located in the downtown area of the City of Quincy encompassed by that certain urban renewal plan known as the Quincy Center District Urban Revitalization and Development Plan ("Urban Revitalization Area"), dated May 7, 2007, as amended from time to time, and as described in Chapter 32 of the Acts of 2011.

LEGAL NOTICE

Once issued to a licensee in the Urban Revitalization Area, the licensing authority of the City of Quincy shall not approve the transfer of that license to a location outside of the Urban Revitalization Area. A license granted pursuant to this act shall be nontransferable to any person, partnership, corporation, LLC, organization or any other entity outside of the Urban Revitalization Area and shall be clearly marked "nontransferable" on the face of the license. All licenses issued pursuant to the authority of this act shall also be clearly marked on its face "Urban Renewal Area License Only."

Section 2.

A license issued under this act, if revoked or no longer in use, shall be returned physically, with all of the legal rights and privileges thereto, to the licensing authority of the City of Quincy which may grant any such returned license to a new applicant consistent with the criteria set forth in this act. No license shall be re-issued for use in the same location within six (6) months from the date that the prior license was revoked or terminated, unless the applicant therefore files a letter in writing from the Department of Revenue with the licensing authority of the City of Quincy indicating that the license is in good standing with the Department of Revenue and that all applicable taxes have been paid. The license shall be subject to all of Chapter 138 excepting only the statutory limitation contained in said section 17.

Section 3.

The additional licenses authorized by this act shall be subject to an original application fee of $5,000 more than the annual fee for then existing licenses for all alcoholic beverages to be drunk on the premises; existing licenses for the sale of all alcoholic beverages to innholders; existing licenses for the sale of wines and malt beverages to be drunk on the premises; and existing licenses for the sale of all alcoholic beverages not to be drunk on the premises, as applicable, in the City of Quincy. The additional $5,000 fee shall be deposited into the general fund of the City of Quincy.

Section 4.

This act shall take effect upon passage.

PENDING IN ORDINANCE COMMITTEE

11/29/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITY OF QUINCY
IN COUNCIL

Order No: 2012-197

November 13, 2012

Ordered

Chapter 2.152 Quincy Youth Council

2.152.010 Establishment

A Quincy Youth Council is hereby established and shall be referred to as "Quincy Youth Council".

2.152.020 Purpose

The Youth Council shall study, investigate, plan, implement and advise the City on all matters related to youth. In particular, the Youth Council is charged with developing and promulgating policies, programs and services that empower, support, and inform youth; and that enables and encourages youth to be productive members of the community. The Youth Council shall serve as an advisory body to the City on all matters dealing with the youth of Quincy.

The City Council and the Office of the Mayor shall communicate upcoming issues to the Youth Council so they may respond accordingly. In addition, the Council and the Office of the Mayor shall maintain a responsibility to educate the Youth Council on how the city government operates. To facilitate communication with the Youth Council, the City Council shall appoint a City Council member as a liaison to the Youth Council. Similarly, the Mayor shall assign a member of his/her staff as a liaison to the Youth Council to assist in the Council's fulfilling its mission.

2.152.030 Representation

- 1.) The Youth council shall seek membership based on geographic area.
- 2.) Private school, public school, and homeschooled students are to be represented on the council.

- 3.) No more than sixteen members are to serve on the council.

Twelve members are to be selected based on ward boundaries with 2 coming from each ward. Four additional at-large members shall also serve. From the body of 16 members there shall be the offices of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

2.152.040 Qualifications

- 1.) High School Students (grades 9 - 12)
- 2.) GPA of 2.8 or higher
- 3.) A resident of Quincy

2.152.050 Term of Service

Once appointed, members will serve on the Youth Council until they resign, move out of Quincy, or graduate from high school. In the ordinary course of business appointments shall be made so as to commence from September 1st.

2.152.060 Attendance

- 1.) Attendance at regular Youth Council meetings is expected from all members.
- 2.) Anyone unable to attend a meeting must contract an officer in order for his/her absences to be deemed excused.
- 3.) Three unexcused absences in one year by a council member will result in dismissal from the Youth Council.

2.152.070 Conduct

- 1.) Each member of the Quincy Youth Council must conduct himself or herself in a positive, friendly, and law-abiding manner at all times.
- 2.) No smoking, drinking alcoholic beverages, or using illegal drugs by any member of the Youth Council is permitted. Any prohibited behavior is grounds for dismissal from the Youth Council.

2.152.080 Application Process

- 1.) Members of the Youth Council shall be chosen through an application process.
- 2.) Interested parties shall complete a single application form.
- 3.) A designated interview committee established of equal composition of members chosen by the Mayor and City Council President, who will follow membership guidelines, shall select members of the Quincy Youth Council.

2.152.090 Officers

- 1.) The officers of the Youth Council shall be: President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.
- 2.) The officers will be chosen annually by the members of the Youth Council at an Organizational meeting.

2.152.100 Officer Duties

1.) President

- a.) The President Shall be charged with the administration of the affairs of the Youth Council with the assistance from an, Mayor's office liaison, City Council member liaison, or adult advisor.

- b.) The President shall preside over all meetings of the Youth Council.

LEGAL NOTICE

- c.) The President shall appoint committees when necessary to research issues.

2.) Vice-President

- a.) The Vice-President shall assume the duties of the President during the President's absence.

- b.) The Vice-President shall assist the President in the performance of the President's duties.

- c.) The Vice-President shall prepare an annual report with the assistance of the Mayor's office Liaison, City Council member Liaison, or an adult advisor, summarizing the activities of the Youth Council.

3.) Secretary

- a.) The Secretary shall record and maintain the minutes of all Youth Council meetings.

- b.) The Secretary shall prepare and receive correspondence for the Youth Council and maintain proper files.

- c.) The Secretary shall perform other duties as ordinarily pertain to the office.

4.) Treasurer

- a.) The Treasurer is in charge of overseeing all the fundraising of the Youth Council.

- b.) The Treasurer shall assume the duties of the Secretary during the Secretary's absence.

2.152.110 Meetings

- 1.) The Annual Organizational Meeting shall be held the first Thursday of October at 5:00 pm and the goals for the council for that year must be accepted by the membership.

- 2.) The order of the annual meeting shall include reading of the roll call, minutes of the previous meeting, officer's reports, establishment of the time and frequency of regular meetings. Regular meetings will be held a minimum of once a month.

- 3.) The Council President may call special meetings of the Youth Council with 48 hours notice.

2.152.120 General Rules

- 1.) The presence of a majority of the voting members shall constitute a quorum. A quorum is necessary to transact official business at any meeting.

- 2.) All recommendations to the City Council must be approved by a two-thirds majority of the voting members present at any properly called meeting.

- 3.) All voting matters for transmittal to the City Council shall be by a roll call vote.

- 4.) The Youth Council may initiate or carry out activities addressing community concerns they deem relevant.

- 5.) Additions to the agenda may be made by a majority vote of the Youth Council at any meeting.

2.152.130 Order of Business

- 1.) The President of the Youth Council shall, when present, call the members of the Youth Council to order.

- 2.) Before proceeding to business, the roll of the members shall be called and the names of those present or absent recorded.

- 3.) If a quorum is present, the order shall be

- a.) Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag
- b.) Approval of the minutes of the previous meeting
- c.) Unfinished business
- d.) Matters for consideration
- e.) Announcements
- F.) Adjournment

2.152.140 Conduct During Meetings

The business of the Youth Council will be conducted in accordance with Parliamentary Procedure as set forth in "Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised" 11th Edition (or any subsequent official edition) except when in conflict with any provision of this ordinance which provision shall supersede said Rules."

2.152.150 Reports to the City Council

The President or his or her designee shall make a report to the City Council of the activities and business of the Youth Council at least once a calendar year.

2.152.160 Bylaws and Amendments

- 1.) The bylaws of the Youth Council shall be reviewed at least once each year.

- 2.) If "proper need" is found then the bylaws may be amended, but only if:

- a.) There is a unanimous vote.
- b.) There are no absentees on the day that the Youth Council votes to amend the bylaws

- 3.) After the Youth Council has made a change or amendment then it must be approved by the City Council in order to take effect.

PENDING IN ORDINANCE COMMITTEE

11/29/29

CLASSIFIEDS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-096
Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, December 11, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Douglas Stefanov for a variance/Finding to construct an addition and two-car garage in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 4.1 (dimensional requirements) Chapter 4.2.4 (building bulk) and 4.3.2 (minimum requirements) on the premises numbered 44 GERMAIN AVENUE, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/21/12, 11/29/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-097
Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, December 11, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Brett Burns for a Finding to construct a two-room addition and farmers porch in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.3 (alteration nonconforming) on the premises numbered 129 EDWIN STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/21/12, 11/29/12

INVITATION TO BID

INVITATION TO BID
CITY OF QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS
PURCHASING DEPARTMENT
1305 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169

The City of Quincy invites sealed bids/proposals for:

"BID FOR MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OF TRAFFIC CONTROL SIGNALS" TRAFFIC DEPARTMENT DECEMBER 13, 2012 @ 11:00A.M

The City of Quincy, acting through its Purchasing Department, hereby solicits bids for maintenance and repairs of the City's Traffic Control Signals on various streets and at various intersection locations throughout the City of Quincy as determined necessary and as directed by the Director of Traffic Division

Detailed specifications are available on-line at the City of Quincy's website, www.quincyma.gov and also available at the office of the Purchasing Agent, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, Massachusetts, 02169, between the hours of 8:30 AM and 4:30 PM for a non-refundable printing charge of $25.00.

All questions regarding this bid should be directed to Kathryn R. Hobin, Purchasing Agent through fax: 617-376-1074 and email: khobin@quincyma.gov and cc: to kimtrillcott@quincyma.gov Questions will be accepted until December 6, 2012 @ 4:00 p.m.

Bids/Proposals must be in a sealed envelope. The outside of the sealed envelope is to be clearly marked "BID ENCLOSED" with time/date of bid call.

The successful bidder will be required to conform to the payment of Prevailing Wage Rates, as determined by the Commissioner of Labor & Industries under the provision of M.G.L. Chapter 149, Section 26 to 27D as amended. All bids must be accompanied by a returnable bid deposit in an amount that is five percent (5%) of the value of the bid.

Bids/Proposals will be received at the office of the Purchasing Agent until the time and date stated above, at which time and date they will be publicly opened and read. Late Bids/Proposals, delivered by mail or in person, will be rejected.

If applicable, bids shall be in accordance with M.G.L. Chapter 30B, Chapter 149 as amended, and Chapter 30, Sections 39A, 39B and 39F-R.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids or to accept any part of a bid or the one deemed best for the City and waive any informality in the bidding if it is in the best interest of the City to do so.

Thomas P. Koch, MAYOR
Kathryn R. Hobin, PURCHASING AGENT

11/29/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-098
Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, December 11, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Sherry Ying Yi Huang for a Finding to change the occupancy from retail phone store to a massage therapy studio in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4 (nonconforming change of use) on the premises numbered 488-498 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/21/12, 11/29/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-099
Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, December 11, 2012 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Zheng Cun Jun for a Variance to retain finished basement done without permits in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 4.0 (dimensional requirements) on the premises numbered 321 FARRINGTON STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

11/21/12, 11/29/12

LEGAL NOTICE

INFORMAL PROBATE PUBLICATION NOTICE
Docket No. NO12P2511EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Division
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200
Estate of:
Lois E. Crosby
Date of Death:
October 3, 2012

To all persons interested in the above captioned estate, by Petition of:

Petitioner Richard B Lane of Braintree, MA. A Will has been admitted to informal probate.

Richard B Lane of Braintree, MA has been informally appointed as the Personal Representative of the estate to serve without surety on the bond.

The estate is being administered under informal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but interested parties are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration. Interested parties are entitled to petition the Court to institute formal proceedings and to obtain orders terminating or restricting the powers of Personal Representatives appointed under informal procedure. A copy of the Petition and Will, if any, can be obtained from the Petitioner.

11/29/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION
Docket No. NO12P2754EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200
Estate of:
Nancy S Zielinski
Date of Death:
February 3, 2009

To all interested persons: A petition has been filed by: Clement A Zielinski of Plymouth, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Clement A Zielinski of Plymouth, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 12/12/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: November 16, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

11/29/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION
Docket No. NO12P2679EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200
Estate of:
Marnold Tagrin
Date of Death:
June 13, 2012

To all interested persons: A petition has been filed by: Janice Tagrin of Quincy, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Janice Tagrin of Quincy, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 12/12/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: November 7, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

11/29/12

QUINCY SUN NEWSCARRIERS WANTED

Here's a chance to earn extra money by building a Quincy Sun home delivery route.

Telephone
617-471-3100

CLASSIFIEDS

PERSONAL	WANTED	HALLS FOR RENT	SERVICES	CLEANING SERVICES	SERVICES
Boo, I miss you and you will always be in my heart and part of my soul. Forever ME. xoxo 11/29	OLD HAND TOOLS & BOOKS WANTED Planes, chisels, adzes, shaves, machinist, and sheetmetal tools, calipers, clamps, anvils, vises. USEFUL TOOLS, ALL TRADES. New England history books Collections: old postcards, toys, military, hunting and fishing items. LIBERTY TOOL CO. 888-405-2007 Davistownmuseum.org e-Store & antique sale! TF	MORRISETTE LEGION POST 81-83 Liberty St., Quincy Function Hall Available Call for Details 617-770-4876 Internet Capable • Weddings • Showers • Christenings • Meetings After Funeral Gatherings TF	S.G. HAROLD PLUMBING, HEATING & AC Specializing in Viessman Boiler Unico Air Conditioning Home heating repairs & service Radiant Floor heating QUINCY 617-471-0914 Unprecedented Service Tailored to You MA Lic. #10589 TF	DASILVA CLEANING SERVICES Home & Office Cleaning Professional, Affordable Reliable & Trustworthy Weekly or Bi-Weekly References CALL MEIRY 781-803-2922 12/27	 Hancock T.V. & Appliance Sales, Service, Parts & Installation Since 1945 (617) 472-1710 115 Franklin Street, Quincy, MA hancocktvandappliance.com
CONGRATULATIONS TO CARRIE AND JASON LOISELLE ON THE BIRTH OF LUCAS RICHARD LOISELLE, 7LBS 10oz 11/20/12 11/29	SKIN CARE FREE FACIAL Individual or groups MARY KAY Celebrating 50 Years Skincare for Women Age 12 & Beyond MICHELLE, Consultant 781-258-7564 TF	CATERING SADIES'S CAKES, PASTRIES AND CATERING 419 Hancock St., Quincy 617-770-2253 Affordable catering for all occasions Banquet, Ala Carte and Corporate. Call for Menu. 11/29	AFFORDABLE, HIGHEST QUALITY PAINTING AND HANDYMAN SERVICES. FREE Estimates • No Job Too Small • Insured • Quincy-Based CALL KURT AT HAMMERHEAD SERVICES, LLC 901-219-9652 11/29	SISTERS CLEANING IF YOU NEED SOMEONE TO CLEAN YOUR HOUSE. WE DO HOUSES, APTS & OFFICES. CALL NOW 978-587-2252 12/27	THOMAS C. SWEENEY Smaller Jobs a Specialty 49 Years Experience Carpentry, Siding, Painting, Porches Vinyl/Windows, Doors Roofing, Decking, Steps License #1373 Free Estimates Reliable 617-825-1210 References 11/29
Welcome baby Brendan! 11-14-12 Love, Mary & Ken Jordan 11/29	SAVE BUDGET FUEL Fuel Assistance Senior Discount Full Service 617-328-4063 TF	T & M Landscape Co. • Spring & Fall Cleanups • Power Washing • Lawn Mowing Services • Yard Mulching • Bushes & Trees Trimmed Free Estimates 617-733-4554 ~ AFFORDABLE RATES ~ 11/29	LOCAL PAINTER CLIP & SAVE Average Room - walls $150 Ceilings $75. Also windows, doors, trim, etc. Inside or out. Prompt, clean service. Kevin 617-302-5136 Cell 617-774-7479 11/29	PERSONAL CARE Personal Care Attendant to Care for Elderly Woman & her Special Needs Adult Daughter Neponset Area Morning/Afternoon/Evening 781-308-9000 12/13 Experience & References Required	HELP WANTED BORN AGAIN INTERNATIONAL MINISTRIES 33 Newport Ave. in Quincy looking to hire a part-time host pastor, outreach pastor, and a Sunday school teacher. Volunteer positions are also available. Interested candidates should send a CD or DVD of your preaching to P.O. Box 190936 Roxbury MA 02118 11/29
CERAMICS Made to Order Finished Ceramic Christmas Trees and Gifts. Replacement Lights Stars & Wiring Ceramic Supplies & Classes E & T Ceramics & Printing 367 Billings Rd - Wollaston 617-479-4107 12/20	INVITATION TO BID INVESTMENT TO BID CITY OF QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS PURCHASING DEPARTMENT 1305 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169 The City of Quincy invites sealed bids/proposals for furnishing and delivering to the City of Quincy: PARK DEPARTMENT HAZARD TREE REMOVAL PROJECT DECEMBER 13, 2012 @ 11:30 A.M. Detailed specifications are available on-line at the City of Quincy's website, www.quincyma.gov and also available at the office of the Purchasing Agent, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, Massachusetts, 02169, between the hours of 8:30 AM and 4:30 PM for a non-refundable printing charge of $25.00 The intent of this project is to remove approximately 70 trees in an effort to minimize storm damage and reduce liability in problem areas. Each Contractor's crew shall have an ISA or Massachusetts Certified Arborist present at all times. This person will be responsible for identifying the hazard trees or branches and completing and signing a Tree Report for each take down or limb removal. All questions regarding this bid should be directed to Kathryn R. Hobin, Purchasing Agent through fax: 617-376-1074 and email: khobin@quincyma.gov and cc: to kimtrillcott@quincyma.gov Questions will be accepted until December 6, 2012 @ 4:00 p.m. Bids must state exceptions, if any, the delivery date and any allowable discounts. Bids/Proposals must be in a sealed envelope. The outside of the sealed envelope is to be clearly marked "BID ENCLOSED" with time/date of bid call. Firm bid prices will be given first consideration. Bids/Proposals will be received at the office of the Purchasing Agent until the time and date stated above, at which time and date they will be publicly opened and read. Late Bids/Proposals, delivered by mail or in person, will be rejected. If applicable, bids shall be in accordance with M.G.L. Chapter 30B, Chapter 149 as amended, and Chapter 30, Sections 39A, 39B and 39F-R. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids or to accept any part of a bid or the one deemed best for the City and waive any informalities in the bidding if it is in the best interest of the City to do so. Thomas P. Koch, MAYOR Kathryn R. Hobin, Purchasing AGENT	DCS PROPERTY MANAGEMENT One call does it ALL!!! • Fall Clean ups • Snow Plowing • Snow Removal & more FREE ESTIMATES 10% OFF FIRST SERVICE Joe (857)939-3442 11/17	DRIVERS: Home Weekends. 44 cpm NE Dedicated. Chromed out trucks w/APU's 70% Drop & Hook CDL-A, 6mos Exp. (888) 247-4037 11/29	CHURCH FAIR ST. CHRYSOSTOM'S HOLIDAY FAIR - FRIDAY DEC 7TH - 6PM TO 9 PM AND SATURDAY DEC 8TH - 9AM AM TO 3PM FOOD, CRAFTS AND MORE 1 LINDEN ST. QUINCY 12/6 Christ Church Fair, 12 Quincy Ave. Nov 30th 5-8 & Dec 1st 9-3 Crafts, Jewelry, White Elephant, Knit Goods, Cookie Walk, Baskets, New Items Snack Bar 11/29
		RENT-A-SANTA CALL JON (617)230-7393 (857)526-1258 11/29	POWER PLUMBING Plumbing, Heating, Gas Fitting Repairs • New Installations Dave 617-328-3007 Emergencies 617-792-4054 Master Lic # 13749 TF	Campbell Electric 24 HOUR Service Commercial/Residential Fire Alarms ~Security Master Elec. Lic #A10237 781-848-9078 www.campbellectric.com 11/29	FOR SALE For Sale: Pool Table. Olhausen 9', all accessories included. $700. Call Michelle: 781-812-9260 11/29
			FOR HIRE Garages, Decks Torn Down, Rubbish Piles Removed OR ME WITH DUMP & LIFTGATE $50/HR. (617)479-5410 "Your Trash is my Ca$h" 11/29	Save Gas & Money, Shop Locally	FALL CLEANUPS • Entire Property Cleanups • Gutter Cleaning • Shrub Pruning/Removal • Walkways/Retaining Wall Installation Call Chris 617-778-8775 www.cmcguellandscape.com 12/6 Free Estimates Fully Insured
			GUTTER CLEANING & REPAIRS PEST CONTROL Home Repairs I Answer My Phone! RICH 617-773-6432 12/27	DG'S YARD MAINTENANCE LAWN MOWING SERIOUS ABOUT SERVICE REASONABLE RATES FULLY INSURED SMALL TREE REMOVAL OVERSEEDING / SOD MULCHING, WEEDING & EDGING HEDGE & SHRUB TRIMMING OR REMOVAL ROTOTILLING & DETHATCHING CLEAN-UPS 617-786-9558 12/13 FREE ESTIMATES

SUN FUN PAGE

King Crossword

- ACROSS
- 1 Antiaircraft fire
 - 5 Total
 - 8 "That's a relief!"
 - 12 Volcanic outflow
 - 13 CAT scan alternative
 - 14 Exceptional
 - 15 Type of tennis stroke
 - 17 Paquin or Faris
 - 18 Allow
 - 19 Brooklyn center fielder Duke
 - 21 Pismire
 - 22 Novice
 - 23 Blond shade
 - 26 Earl Grey, e.g.
 - 28 Honda model
 - 31 Bartlett or Bosc
 - 33 Carpet
 - 35 Congers, e.g.
 - 36 Discussion group
 - 38 Decker in the ring
 - 40 Marseilles monarch
 - 41 Turns to the right
 - 43 Lawn glistener
 - 45 Loss' oppo site
 - 47 About three miles
 - 51 Adore
 - 52 Eave
 - 54 Addict
 - 55 Existed
 - 56 Hodgepodge
 - 57 Red Planet
 - 58 Type measures
 - 59 Feedbag contents
 - 11 Have on
 - 16 Clue
 - 20 Big Apple letters
 - 23 iPhone download
 - 24 Vast expanse
 - 25 Morning-after woe
 - 27 Diving bird
 - 29 UN workers' grp.
 - 30 Vegas-based crime series
 - 32 Close-fitting jackets
 - 34 Atheistic
 - 37 Island souvenir
 - 39 Antelope's playmate
 - 42 "Uncle Tom's Cabin" author
 - 44 "Yippee!"
 - 45 Potential prune
 - 46 Santa —, Calif.
 - 48 Festive
 - 49 One
 - 50 Ids' counter-parts
 - 53 Moving truck
- DOWN
- 1 Showbiz failure
 - 2 Wash
 - 3 State with certainty
 - 4 Destiny
 - 5 Slight amount
 - 6 Grecian vessel
 - 7 Interior
 - 8 Grassland
 - 9 Relinquish
 - 10 Sea eagle

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

WORDS THAT MAGIC MAZE • TAKE A HIT

MVTQOLIGSDBYWTR
SPMKIRFDSBYWWUS
HITTEREQEOHMKIF
HITACHIILIDHBEZ
XWUIREKATTIHWLA
GRAPHITEITIHATS
EKIHHCTIHQIOITN
LJHFDHNEHTCHAIY
WVTSQIRONCCPWHN
LKIHFTEERIRCBWZ
YWVUOSYSWBRAQPN

Find the listed words in the diagram. They run in all directions — forward, backward, up, down and diagonally.

Architect
Bronchitis
Chits
Graphite
Hitachi
Hitchhike
Hitherto
Hitless
Hitter
Tahiti
White
Whitney
Whittaker
Whittier
Wichita

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

HOCUS-FOCUS

BY HENRY BOLTINOFF

FIND AT LEAST 6 DIFFERENCES BETWEEN PANELS.
Differences: 1. Bow is smaller. 2. Menu holder is missing. 3. Glass is missing. 4. Cap is different. 5. Light is missing. 6. Arm patch is missing.

Trivia test by Fifi Rodriguez

1. TELEVISION: What famous politician did Alex P. Keaton idolize on the show "Family Ties"?
2. MUSIC: Which 1970s song featured the line, "Jeremiah was a bullfrog"?
3. LITERATURE: What literary figure had a loyal companion named Sancho Panza?
4. GEOGRAPHY: What is the capital of Iowa?
5. ANIMAL KINGDOM: What are omnivores?
6. LANGUAGE: How many letters are in the Greek alphabet?
7. ANATOMY: How many pairs of ribs does a human body normally have?

8. HISTORY: In which year did the U.S. space shuttle first fly into orbit?
9. FOOD: What kind of food is mortadella?
11. GAMES: What is the movable device used in the game Ouija to spell out messages?

Answers

1. Richard Nixon
2. "Joy to the World," by Three Dog Night
3. Don Quixote
4. Des Moines
5. Animals that eat meat and vegetables
6. 24
7. 12
8. 1981
9. Italian sausage
10. A planchette

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Wishing Well®

6	8	6	3	2	7	3	4	7	3	4	3	8
O	S	N	A	A	B	C	L	E	C	A	O	T
6	3	8	5	3	2	3	6	3	2	5	7	4
C	R	A	N	D	P	W	O	I	A	E	U	S
3	4	3	2	6	2	8	3	6	8	3	7	6
T	T	H	R	U	T	Y	F	R	I	R	N	S
5	8	5	6	4	3	7	8	2	3	6	2	7
W	N	F	E	I	I	D	T	Y	E	A	F	E
6	3	6	4	5	7	6	8	5	3	4	5	7
G	N	A	N	O	R	I	O	U	D	G	N	S
5	7	5	4	3	4	7	5	6	2	8	7	2
D	T	F	L	S	O	A	A	N	O	U	N	R
7	4	2	5	7	4	7	8	5	2	7	8	2
D	V	Y	M	I	E	N	C	E	O	G	H	U

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Start preparing now to make sure you get the credit you're due for all that effort you put in to get that project off the ground. A new challenge emerges after the 15th. TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You're still charging full steam ahead on the job — and that's fine. But take time to share the joy of preparing for the upcoming holidays with folks you love. GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A former detractor resists joining your ranks just yet. Give him or her time to learn more about what you're doing. Meanwhile, devote more time to friends and family. CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Be careful not to be goaded into a tiff by someone who might be looking for a fight. Remain cool as you make your exit. Be assured that others will rally to your support. LEO (July 23 to August 22) Kudos on getting the well-deserved Lion's share of the rewards for a job well-done. Now you can take a breather from your workday duties and spend time with your family. VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You enjoy a quick spurt of renewed energy just in time to meet that upcoming deadline. A potentially romantic situation looms. How it develops will be up to you. LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Watch out for distractions that could cause delays and leave you running twice as fast to finish your work by the 15th. Then go ahead and have fun. SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You might prefer to work on current tasks on your own. But be open to a potentially useful suggestion from someone who admires you and wants to help. SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Avoid rushing full gallop into that volunteer project without knowing what's expected of you. Take things a step at a time as you begin to find your way. CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Good news: You should begin to feel more comfortable expressing your emotions. This will go a long way in helping you with that personal situation. AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) An old friend gives confusing signals. Best advice: Don't assume that things will necessarily work themselves out. Ask questions and demand straight answers. PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A new relationship needs time to develop. Be careful not to let your emotions flood your natural sense of caution. Meanwhile, check out that new job offer. BORN THIS WEEK: Your sense of right and wrong sometimes causes you to come into conflict with others. But you invariably come out ahead. (c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

CryptoQuip

This is a simple substitution cipher in which each letter used stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Solution is accomplished by trial and error.

Clue: V equals O

RS W UZAUPD FWC UV CV TVJD
ADSZDPRHN, R TZOOVTD FD
JRNFU TUVO WU W TFDPP
TUWURVH.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

King Crossword — Answers

Solution time: 25 mins.

Magic Maze ANSWERS: — MASTER

Cryptoquip ANSWER:

station might stop at a shell refueling. I suppose he if a turtle had to do some

Lighting Ceremony Welcomes The Holiday Season

COSTUMED CHARACTERS including Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer and Frosty the Snowman greet children at the city's "Light Up the Holidays" ceremony last Friday at City Hall and McIntyre Mall. Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING was among the "highlights" at last Friday's "Light up the Holidays" ceremony.

EVEN JOHN ADAMS cast a holiday glow as a Santa hat and lights decorated the statue of the Second President outside City Hall.

STROLLING VICTORIAN CAROLERS (from left) Antanas Meilus, Dave Carney, Hollyann Marshall and Carole Shannon entertained at the "Lighting Up The Holidays" event.

ALSO SINGING songs of the season were members of the Quincy Choral Society.

LOCAL YOUNGSTERS decked out in holiday accessories like Santa and reindeer hats dance as Donna Marie (center) performs a puppet show.

60th Annual Quincy Christmas Parade Scenes

COCHRANE MEMORIAL ROAD RACE float entitled "A Christmas Story" received first place in the non-commercial float category in Sunday's 60th annual Quincy Christmas Parade. Photo Courtesy Quincy Access Television

WOODWARD SCHOOL float decorated with the theme "The Polar Express" received third place in the non-commercial float competition in Sunday's 60th Christmas Parade.

Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

QUINCY-NORTH QUINCY combined High School band performs for judges in front of City Hall at Sunday's 60th annual Quincy Christmas Parade. Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

ENJOYING THE 60TH annual Quincy Christmas Parade Sunday from their seats in Quincy Center are (from left) Brianna Burrell, 7, Arianna O'Connor, 8 and Abigail Burrell, 4, of Quincy. Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

11th Annual Safford Park Tree Lighting Ceremony Friday Night

The 11th annual tree lighting ceremony at Safford Park, Beale Street will take place Friday, Nov. 30th at 6:30 p.m.

The ceremony - hosted by Ward 3 Councillor Kevin Coughlin who initiated the event in 2002 - continues this year with the support of Mayor Koch, and the assistance of Kristen Powers, director of the Park and Forestry Department, her staff, the Quincy Police and Fire Departments.

Safford Park, located on Beale Street between Prospect and Winthrop Ave., was the site of the first Wollaston School built in 1873 and demolished in 1912.

Members of the Combined Quincy/North Quincy

Chorus will perform holiday musical selections along with a visit from Santa Claus. A reception will follow at the Wollaston School gym with refreshments provided by the Wollaston School PTO.

Baked goods for the reception are welcome and residents are invited to attend.

4th Annual Woodward School Holiday Craft Fair Sat, Dec 1st

Hand Painted Wine glasses & Christmas Items
Barbecue dry rub
Arbonne Silpala Mary Kay Scentsy

1102 Hancock St, Quincy

10am - 3pm Admission - $1 Per Person

Avon Tupperware Thirty One Gifts
Barefoot Books & puppets
Kids Crafts & Toys

Fabulous Crafters and Venders
"Party of Gold" will buy your gold!
Bake Sale & Raffle Table
Cash Calendars & more

Come get a start on your holiday shopping!

Hair Accessories & Sun catchers
Delicious Chocolates & Homemade Soap
Photographs Art & Nautical Frames

$250,000 is a lot...

But does your bank add a few more zeros?

Most banks insure their customers' deposits through the FDIC, but Bank of Canton knows how important it is to protect you and your money.

We are proud to have additional deposit insurance through the DIF that will protect all deposits above the FDIC insurance amount of $250,000.

Since 1934, no depositor has ever lost a penny in a bank insured by both the FDIC and DIF.

By combining FDIC insurance with DIF insurance, our customers can have peace of mind knowing their money is safe and secure.

When you bank with us, all of your deposits are fully insured and fully protected.

Each depositor is insured by the FDIC to at least $250,000. All deposits above the FDIC insurance amount are insured by the Depositors Insurance Fund (DIF).

Cross-Country Athletes Honored
 Page 26
QYFL Hosts First Cheerleading Competition
 Story Page 23, Team Photos Page 35

69 CAR-RT LOT#B-099
 THOMAS CRAN PUBLIC LIBRARY
 PO BOX 699164
 QUINCY MA 02269-9164

The Quincy Sun

Historic Quincy's Hometown Weekly Newspaper Since 1968

VOL. 45 No. 12

Thursday, December 6, 2012

75c

ESTHER R. SANGER Center for Compassion with the help of the National Guard provided 75 meals to 60 needy families last Saturday. About 20 soldiers from Golf Company, 186th Brigade Support Battalion, Army National Guard based in Quincy picked up shopping bags full of food and household necessities at the Sanger Center and delivered the bags to local families. From left are Rev. David Wooster, executive director of the Sanger Center; Program Assistant Mary Jordan and volunteer Kelly Luo, a student at North Quincy High School. Story on Page 16.
Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

Local Charities Appeal For Food, Clothing, Toys, Other Services

Demand Up For Holiday Assistance

By EMILY TAFT
 and SCOTT JACKSON

For many, December is a time to celebrate and spend time with family. But it's also a time to give back to those in need – especially with today's down economy.

Quincy's charities expect to help more needy individuals this holiday season than in years past. They assist individuals and families in a myriad of ways, providing food, clothing, toys, shelter, and other services. Those organizations are in need of help through monetary or in-kind donations. Many of them also rely on volunteers and need extra help this time of year.

Here's a list of some local organizations, what they need, and how the public can get involved and help out neighbors in need.

Cont'd On Page 9

Spike In Pedestrian Accidents Concerns Officials

Councillors Say Crosswalk Violations Not Enough

By SCOTT JACKSON

Police have cited more than 330 drivers for crosswalk violations since May after a spike in pedestrian accidents in the city, but city councillors believe more is needed to stop residents from being hit.

"In May of this year we received a grant for $5,000 for pedestrian, bicycle, and moped safety enforcement. The Quincy Police Department used this funding on enforcement and education targeting pedestrian safety," Jim Fatseas, the mayor's chief of staff, told the City Council Monday night. "We specifically targeted high volume pedestrian areas throughout the city.

"The grant ended on Sept. 30 and in the end 242 motorists were stopped and 181 citations were issued. Since Oct. 1, an additional

Con't On Page 3

Property Taxes Up Average $110

The average single-family homeowner will see a $110 increase on their property tax bill next year, the largest increase in four years.

The City Council approved Mayor Tom Koch's proposed tax rates for next year in a unanimous vote Monday night. The residential rate was set at $14.50 per $1,000 of valuation, up from the 2012 rate of $13.42. The tax bill for an average single-family home, valued at $315,800, will be $4,579. In 2012, the average single-family home was valued at $325,000 and that tax bill was $4,469. The $110 increase is the largest since 2009 when the rate increased by $1.77 and the average tax bill went up by $530.

Even with the largest increase

Cont'd On Page 2

100 Local Leaders To Ring Bell For Salvation Army

Outside City Hall Today, Dec. 13; Granite Trust Building Dec. 12, 14

Nearly 100 community leaders – including elected officials, businessmen and women, and directors of social service organizations and educational institutions – will band together as volunteers to ring the bell for the Salvation Army in Quincy Center starting today (Thursday).

Two separate kettles will be manned: one outside City Hall at 1305 Hancock St. and the other outside the Granite Trust Building (Bank of America), 1400 Hancock St..

The kettle will be set up at City Hall today (Thursday) and next Thursday, Dec. 13 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The kettle at the Granite Trust Building will be manned Wednesday, Dec. 12 and Friday, Dec. 14.

This is the 16th annual community leader kettle that was established by the late Henry Bosworth, the founder of The Quincy Sun and longtime member of the Salvation Army Advisory Board.

Mr. Bosworth first initiated the community leader kettle in 1997 and coordinated the assistance program for 12 years. In the early years, the kettle was manned by volunteers outside the former Ryder's Curtain and Drapery Store in Quincy Center. The downtown location was later moved to in front of City Hall.

Because of the high demand for holiday assistance, Board members last year decided to expand the kettle to a second location in Quincy Center to boost the kettle campaign which is the Salvation Army's main fundraiser.

Money collected by the red kettles helps fund holiday assistance initiatives including toys and clothing for children and food vouchers for families. The money is also used year-round to help those who need help with food, utilities, heat and other necessities.

The Quincy Salvation Army helps thousands of individuals and families in

Cont'd On Page 4

Basketball Previews - Pages 24, 25 ♦ RE Transactions - Page 21
 South Cove Manor Breaks Ground For New Facility - Page 3
 Rev. Dave Johnson Interim Minister At United First Parish - Page 14

For more Quincy news, visit:
TheQuincySun.com

$14.50 Tax Rate Set; Property Taxes Up Average $110

Cont'd From Page 1

in four years, the increase in the average residential tax bill from 2010 to 2013 is significantly less than the statewide average. Since 2010, the average tax bill statewide increased $591 but Quincy's only increased $205, according to Finance Director Mark Cavanagh. Quincy's excess levy capacity, the amount the city could take in taxes without seeking a Proposition 2 1/2 override, is about $15.865 million for next year, far higher than the statewide average.

"The state average for communities in Massachusetts is about three-quarters of a million dollars," Cavanagh said. "At $15.8 million Quincy is doing very well and has a great deal of flexibility in the tax structure."

The tax rate for commercial, industrial, and personal property (CIPP) was set at $30.61 per $1,000 of valuation, up from $28.66. The city uses a 175 percent classification to shift the tax burden from residential property owners to commercial ones. With no classification, the residential rate for 2013 would've been $17.49, for example. At a public hearing on the rate before the council vote, Quincy Chamber of Commerce President Dean Rizzo said the city should use a lower classification, like 169 percent, in future years to provide relief for business owners.

"The rate has been 175 for the past five years. We realize that there won't be a change this year," Rizzo said. "We hope in future years we can maybe see that shift come down, about six or seven years ago it was down to 169, maybe we can get down to that point again."

"As the city continues to grow, as we see the downtown redevelopment take center stage in the next few years we're going to have more economic investment and more commercial cash revenues come into the community. As well, we see it coming throughout the City of Quincy. But times are still challenging and I know you hear it from the residential tax payers all the time, we hear it from the commercial tax payers how expensive it is."

In addition to setting the tax rates, the council also unanimously green-lighted a series of appropriations Cavanagh said would increase the city's long-term financial stability. The first approved spending $947,000 from FY13 revenue to close out the deficits in the police and fire detail accounts. As previously reported, the deficit in the accounts was identified by outside auditor Powers & Sullivan as the lone material weakness in the city's books. The city can still collect the money it's owed, but that would go into the general fund, instead.

"This is not a new problem, in fact it dates back as early as 1998 and has been continually raised by the independent auditors," Cavanagh said. "This appropriation will eliminate this deficit in its entirety and eliminate it as material weakness in the audit report once and for all."

Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee welcomed the fact that the administration chose to address the deficit. But he wanted to know how the city would work to prevent future six-figure deficits in the detail accounts.

"Obviously there was a failure here to collect these and it comes down to managerial oversight," McNamee said. "I hope there's been some changes. These are contractors that didn't pay us for these details. Somebody has got to be managing the receivables from these contractors so that we don't let this get out of control again."

Cavanagh explained that the city is taking a two-pronged approach. They're working with a collections firm to track down companies that owe the city for details. Additionally, they are reviewing other communities' practices with Powers & Sullivan to decide the best approach to stop future deficits from occurring. He said the city was looking into making contractors pay a deposit before work begins or withholding final payments to contractors at the end of projects. A final decision on that is expected

Cont'd On Page 13

Standing Out at Allerton House at Hancock Park in Quincy

THE ALLERTON WAY

Allerton House at Hancock Park Assisted Living, Quincy, MA
by Kelly Richards

You won't have much trouble picking Anna Keaney out of a crowd at Allerton House at Hancock Park at Quincy. You see, Keaney has a talent for coordinating her clothing and accessories from head to toe. She says, "People often comment on how 'put together' I am and ask how I do it. I just seem to know what goes with what."

Keaney was a life-long Dorchester resident until an unexpected medical event about two years ago led to her decision to move to Allerton House in Quincy. She says, "It took a long time to recover. My family lives on the west coast, and I wouldn't be safe living in my house alone. I have a good friend who lives right down the street from Allerton House. She helped me while I was getting better, and suggested that I move here."

Although the decision to sell her home was difficult, Keaney is happy that she can maintain her independence while taking advantage of all of the benefits of assisted living. She says, "There are plenty of things to do here, social things like Bingo Blitz, foliage rides and shopping trips. I'm a big bargain hunter, so I like to help other people find the best deals when we shop—especially on senior discount days."

Keaney retired from a long and successful career in accounting and bookkeeping. She stays in touch with her former

Anna Keaney is a resident of Allerton House at Hancock Park in Quincy.

"It's a pleasure to be around the people at Allerton House."
Anna Keaney

Twenty years later, I met him again when he was on the same cruise my sister and I were on."

What strikes Keaney the most about living at Allerton House are the people who live and work there. She says, "The care here is very good, and everyone is so nice and considerate. It's a pleasure to be around the people at Allerton House."

Kelly Richards is the Marketing Director for Allerton House at Hancock Park in Quincy. The 42-apartment assisted living residence is owned and managed by Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group, which is celebrating more than 60 years of service to seniors. Contact Kelly at: 339-788-2979 or via email at: krichards@welchhrg.com Visit online at: www.welchhrg.com colleagues, who recently came to Allerton House to celebrate her birthday. She has also travelled the world, visiting places like Italy, Cuba, Ireland, Germany and Switzerland. During her travels, she often visited places of religious significance including the Knock Shrine in County Mayo Ireland. Keaney relays a special devotion to St. Anthony, and did charity work with the YMCA and the League of Catholic Women. "I like to help people," she says. Another event of note was the time Keaney won a WBZ Radio contest. She says, "I won a car and met Dave Maynard."

AGNITTI INSURANCE

HOME • AUTO • BUSINESS
LIFE • FINANCIAL

Anthony L. Agnitti, CIC, LIA
Certified Insurance Counselor
Licensed Insurance Advisor
CALL FOR A QUOTE ON PROPER INSURANCE
COVERAGE AT COMPETITIVE PRICES
ASK ABOUT OUR AUTO AND HOMEBOWNER INSURANCE
DISCOUNT PROGRAMS
24-Hour Emergency Access
770-0123
21 FRANKLIN ST., QUINCY

QUINT'S House of Flowers

Family Owned & Operated
Since 1919

761 Southern Artery
QUINCY

617-773-7620

QUINCY PRIMARY CARE & COUNSELING

Accepting new patients

We offer a variety of patient care under one roof including:

- Primary Care
- Psychiatric Management
- Individual Therapy

In addition to general primary care, our team is ready to take those patients that are currently on or want to be enrolled in either Vivitrol or Suboxone sobriety management programs.

275 Hancock St. F12 • Quincy, MA 02171
To Make An Appointment Call: (617) 472-4800

Spike In Pedestrian Accidents Concerns Officials

Con't From Page 1

150 citations were issued."

Fatseas gave those numbers after Councillors Brian Palmucci and Doug Gutro introduced a resolve asking for police reports on all pedestrian accidents since 2010. Palmucci, chairman of the council's public safety committee, said that citing drivers hasn't worked.

"Before we pat ourselves on the back and say we've issued 300 citations there are still people getting hit," Palmucci said. "That only tells me that the problem is far worse than we can get our hands around at this point if we are issuing an extra 300 citations. That tells me that's not the solution because this is still happening. We need to take a giant step back, look at this problem from every angle, every statistic, every bit of data we can get. We need to come up with ideas that will solve this problem."

Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee said that in many accidents, pedestrians have been outside of crosswalks and the driver wasn't at fault.

"Most of these accidents occur outside of crosswalks - I actually think that very few drivers have been cited and I want them to prove me wrong on that or right on that," McNamee said. "A lot of the pedestrian, motor vehicle accidents have occurred in jaywalking situations and the drivers have not been cited in a vast majority of them."

Ward 3 Councillor Kevin Coughlin, who like McNamee represents portions of North Quincy, said jaywalking is an issue near North Quincy High.

"I rely on the boots on the street. I've had a number of conversations with Community Policing Officer Sean Glennon and his observations have been, as Councillor McNamee pointed out, that there's a high percentage of jaywalking. I see it especially in the intersection where North Quincy High School is," Coughlin said. "Most people do not walk in the crosswalk."

Gutro was hesitant to put all the blame on pedestrians for the accidents. He said he wants to start a dialogue on steps currently being taken, such as education campaigns and painting crosswalks. He also underscored the need to reach out to non-English speakers.

"Frankly I'm hopeful, and it may well be happening, that we're reaching out to some of the various cultures - some of the non-

English speakers in the City of Quincy - in respect to an educational campaign as well," Gutro said. "I have noticed some of the Asian surnames that have been victims as well as drivers in some of the cases and I think we have an obligation to reach out to the Asian community and help them be safer as well."

Council President Mike McFarland said one of his employees at Colonial Federal was hit while crossing a street in a crosswalk two weeks ago. He wants the city to make pedestrian safety a top priority going forward.

"She was in the crosswalk and she got her pelvis broken in three places. She's in surgery, she's in rehab, she's going to be fine," McFarland said. "This is a mother with children that has a family to raise. If we can't keep our people safe, then we shouldn't be building our new buildings. We have to take care of what we have first."

Gutro asked that the requested information be provided within 45 days. Palmucci said he would hold a public safety committee meeting as soon as possible once that information is provided.

ARTIST RENDERING of South Cove Manor's new state-of-the-art skilled nursing facility to be constructed at 290 Washington St., Quincy.

South Cove Manor Breaks Ground For New Facility

South Cove Manor Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, a skilled nursing facility focused on serving Asian elders and their families, broke ground recently on a new state-of-the-art facility that represents a major expansion to meet increases in demand and services.

The expansion will move the 27-year old organization from its current location in Boston to a new site in Quincy at 290 Washington St.

The new facility will feature 141 beds clustered in small resident communities, gracious common areas, expanded rehabilitation space, and attractive streetscape and gardens, as well as parking.

"South Cove Manor has built an unparalleled reputation for care and service, and we are proud that it sought Quincy for its new state-of-the-art home," Mayor Thomas Koch said at the ground-breaking.

"Projects like this that create construction jobs, permanent jobs, and improve neighborhoods are happening across our city and we will continue to do everything in our power to help make them reality."

Since its founding in 1985, South Cove Manor has averaged over 99% occupancy, and has received the highest (Five-Star) quality rating from the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid and 17 out of 19 deficiency-free ratings from the Massachusetts Department of Public Health.

"Our mission and commitment to providing elders with the highest possible quality of care necessitates a larger, state-of-the-art building that can house more residents and also accommodate a wider range of rehabilitation services and activities," said South Cove CEO, Richard Wong. "We're very excited about the plans for the new facility, which will offer enhanced amenities such as more single rooms, pleasant common areas, and indoor courtyards for dining, gathering and relaxing."

Quincy's accessibility, shops and amenities for staff and families, available space suitable for building, and growing Asian population made the city attractive to the project organizers.

With this move, approximately 200 permanent jobs will be newly located in Quincy. In addition, some 225 construction and related jobs will be generated during the construction phase.

Financing for the project is being provided through a $19 million bond from MassDevelopment, the state's economic development finance agency, as well as financing from Cambridge Savings, US Bancorp and the Massachusetts Housing Investment Corporation. Suffolk Construction has been named to guild the new facility.

The project is expected to be completed in early 2014.

Dina's Hair & Nail Unisex Salon

5 School St., Quincy
617.479.1797

Adult Cuts	$9 ⁰⁰
Color	$30 ⁰⁰
Hair Cut & Blowdry	$25 ⁰⁰
Matrix Perm	$40 ⁰⁰
Wax, Lip & Eyebrows	$6 ⁰⁰

Includes wash, cut & style

WE ALSO DO EXTENSIONS
1st time clients only

PAYING TOP DOLLAR for your unwanted jewelry!

APPRAISING,
BUYING &
SELLING...

Del Greco Coins

399 WASHINGTON STREET • ROUTE 53 • WEYMOUTH
LOCATED OFF RT. 3, EXIT 16A, TO RT. 53N

781.337.5069

HOURS: MONDAY - FRIDAY 9-5 • SATURDAY 9:30-2

Refinance your Jumbo at an excellent rate!

3.05% APR

10-YEAR FIXED
NO POINTS!

COLONIAL FEDERAL SAVINGS BANK

"Your neighborhood bank!"

QUINCY: 15 Beach Street 617-471-0750 • 1000 Southern Artery (Residents only) 617-479-1430
HOLBROOK: 802 South Franklin Street 781-767-1776
EAST WEYMOUTH: Middle & Washington Streets 781-331-1776 • www.colonialfed.com

Insured FDIC

Here's your chance to lower the rate and shorten the term on your fixed-rate Jumbo mortgage ... or convert your adjustable-rate Jumbo to a fixed before rates start moving up. Right now, Colonial Federal has $10 million to lend in Jumbo mortgages at a very favorable fixed rate. If you're determined to pay off your mortgage as soon as possible, this loan will help you do that. Come see us or call Angela Blanchard, VP/Retail Lending, at 617-471-0750. Or apply online at colonialfed.com. Have another loan or term in mind? Call us. We may be able to help. (Also available for new Jumbo loans.)

Some additional facts: Annual Percentage Rate (APR) effective as of 11/7/12 and may change. Applies to 1-2 family owner-occupied homes. Assumes a maximum 80% loan-to-value and first mortgage position. Subject to credit approval. A 10-Year Jumbo loan would be repaid in 120 equal monthly principal plus interest payments of $9.65 per $1000 borrowed, which do not include taxes or insurance premiums, if applicable. So your actual monthly payment will be greater. Must borrow at least $417,000 for this loan.

100 Local Leaders To Ring Bell For Salvation Army

Cont'd From Page 1

need annually.

Here's the line up of community bell ringers:

TODAY (Thursday)

10 a.m. — Mayor Tom Koch, City Council President Mike McFarland and Norfolk County Sheriff Michael Bellotti.

11 a.m. — Ward 1 Councillor Margaret Laforest, state Sen. John Keenan, House Majority Leader and state Rep. Ron Mariano.

Noon — Ward 5 Councillor Kirsten Hughes, School Supt. Dr. Richard DeCristofaro and School Committeewoman Emily Lebo.

1 p.m. — Councillor Joseph Finn, former Norfolk County Dist. Atty. George Burke and School Committeeman Paul Bregoli.

2 p.m. — Police Chief Paul Keenan, Fire Chief Joseph Barron, School Committeewoman Barbara Isola and Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall.

3 p.m. — Quincy Access TV Director Bette Campbell, QATV Government Access Coordinator Mark Crosby, Councillor Doug Gutro and Joe Reardon, president, Manet Community Health Center Board of Directors.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 12

10 a.m. — Bruce Wood,

Wood Commercial Painting; Frank Trainor, Commonwealth Builders; Steve DesRoche, Neponset Valley Surveyors; Sean Curry, Curry Ace Hardware; Anthony Agnitti, Agnitti Insurance and Richard Heapes, Street-Works.

11 a.m. — Patricia Ryan, Salem Radio Group; Joe Catalano, QATV; Chazy Dowaliby, The Patriot Ledger; Robert Bosworth, publisher The Quincy Sun and member of Salvation Army Advisory Board; Beth Ann Strollo, Quincy Community Action Programs; and Donna Mavromates, vice president, Quincy Chamber of Commerce.

Noon — David Dennis, Dennis and Associates; Sean Kenealy, Key Realty; Joe Hajjar, Boston's Best Cruises; Ryan Barrett, EL Barrett Company; and Dr. Abe Abdul, Lux Dental.

1 p.m. — Sean Galvin, Galvin Construction; Michael Kiley, Heritage Companies; Phyllis Godwin, Granite Electric; Wendy Simmons, Prism Energy Services; and Isobel Bertman, Rogers Jewelry and member Salvation Army Advisory Board.

2 p.m. — Tony Ricci, Quincy Historical Commission; Steve Wessling, Wessling Architects; Jim Edwards, Holmes & Edwards; and Steve Weiser, Weiser Architects.

3 p.m. — Dr. Peter Tsafaras, president Quincy College; Sarah Morrison, director of Q Care; Keith Segalla, director Career and Technical Education Quincy Public Schools; Carol Andrews, principal Woodward School; and Catherine Cameron, principal Quincy Catholic Academy.

THURSDAY, DEC. 13

10 a.m. — Norfolk County Dist. Atty. Michael Morrissey, Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci and School Committeeman David McCarthy.

11 a.m. — State Rep. Tackey Chan, state Rep. Bruce Ayers, Norfolk County Register of Probate Patrick McDermott and John Yazwinski, president and CEO, Father Bill's & Mainspring.

Noon — School Committeewoman Anne Mahoney and former Mayor Francis McCauley.

1 p.m. — School Committeewoman Kathy Hubley, Quincy Lions Club President Chuck Phelan (IT director for the City of Quincy); and Quincy Kiwanis Club President Fran Wright (Human Resources director, Eastern Nazarene College.)

2 p.m. City Clerk Joseph Shea and Norfolk County Commissioner John Gillis.

3 p.m. — Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee and Edward Fitzgerald, executive director, Quincy Historical Society.

FRIDAY, DEC. 14

10 a.m. — Dolly DiPesa, DiPesa & Company; Uncle Sam Rounseville, Red Door Real Estate; Peter Bellotti, Bellotti Law Group; Edward Keohane, Keohane Funeral Homes; and Terri Bellotti-Palmieri, vice president Eastern Bank.

11 a.m. — Janet Joyce,

DECEMBER HAS BEEN proclaimed as Salvation Army Month in the City of Quincy by Mayor Thomas Koch (second from left) who recently helped kick off the Salvation Army's holiday assistance kettle campaign with a donation. Kettles have been set up at various locations in Quincy, Braintree, Weymouth and Hingham. Looking on are (from left) Don Uvanitte, chairman of the Quincy Salvation Army Advisory Board; Lt. Nicole Ross and husband Lt. Timothy Ross. Kettles are located in Quincy at Roche Brothers, Stop & Shop, Wal-Mart and Star Market. A "Community Leader" Kettle, established in 1997 by the late Henry Bosworth, founder of The Quincy Sun, continues this holiday season. Leaders will man a kettle outside City Hall today (Thursday) and Dec. 13 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and outside the Granite Trust Building on Wednesday, Dec. 12 and Friday, Dec. 14 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Donations can also be made by visiting www.onlineredkettle.org/Quincy and by visiting thequincysun.com.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

S Bank; John McCarthy, vice president, The Bank of Canton; Richard Gormley, vice president, Sovereign Bank; Anthony Drew, South Coastal Bank; and Clemens Young, Rockland Savings Bank.

Noon — Peter Racicot, Sr., vice president, Fallon Ambulance; Daniel Knell, CEO, Quincy Medical Center; Henry Tuttle, president and CEO, Manet Health; Paul Gorman, president, South Shore YMCA; and Don Uvanitte, Sr., vice president, Eastern Insurance and member Salvation Army Advisory Board.

1 p.m. — Dr. Harry Chung, Adams Family Dental; Dr. Robert Clark, Clark Chiropractic; Donald McCarthy, Deware Funeral Home; Steve Tobias, Tobias Hearing Center; and Maralin Manning, Quincy Chamber of Commerce and Salvation Army Advisory Board member.

2 p.m. — Rick Doane, Interfaith Social Services; Lola Tom, Multicultural Home Care; Donna Kelble, Eastern Bank; and Patrick Garvey, South Shore Savings Bank.

3 p.m. — Beth Veneto, Ginger Betty's; Tom Galvin, Best Western Adams Inn and Pub; Leo Keka, Alba's; Kristie Henriksen, Siro's; and Jimmy Liang, Fugi, Bistro Chi, Café Beni and Shabu.

4 p.m. — Marty McGovern, Neighborhood Club of Quincy and Jenn Ormond, Coffee Break Café.

The Salvation Army is grateful to the community leaders for helping to man the kettles. The volunteers are asking friends to stop by and "help fill the kettle" to help the many who are in need.

Those wishing to donate to the Salvation Army may also visit The Quincy Sun's website where there is a link to a "virtual kettle." The Sun's website can be found at www.thequincysun.com.

• On Dec. 18, 1777, the new United States celebrates its first national day of thanksgiving, commemorating the American victory at the Battle of Saratoga after the surrender of Gen. John Burgoyne and 5,000 British troops that October.

• On Dec. 22, 1808, Beethoven's Fifth Symphony has its world premiere in Vienna. The concert venue was freezing cold and the orchestra played poorly enough to force the nearly deaf composer — also acting as conductor and pianist — to stop the ensemble partway into one passage and start again from the very beginning.

• On Dec. 17, 1903, near Kitty Hawk, N.C., Orville and Wilbur Wright make the first successful flight of a self-propelled aircraft. Orville piloted the gasoline-powered, propeller-driven biplane, which stayed aloft for 12 seconds and covered 120 feet on its inaugural flight.

• On Dec. 19, 1917, four teams of the National Hockey League play the league's first two games. At the time of its inception, the NHL was made up of the Canadiens and the Wanderers (both of Montreal), the Ottawa Senators, the Quebec Bulldogs and the Toronto Arenas.

• On Dec. 23, 1968, the crew and captain of the U.S. intelligence gathering ship Pueblo are released after 11 months imprisonment by the government of North Korea. The ship, and its 83-man crew, was seized by warships on Jan. 23 and charged with intruding into North Korean waters.

• On Dec. 21, 1970, rock star Elvis Presley pays a surprise visit to President Richard Nixon at the White House to discuss the war on drugs. Presley apparently was not searched before being granted admission: Upon meeting Nixon, he presented the president with a gift — a World War II-era Colt .45 pistol.

• On Dec. 20, 1989, "Roger & Me," a documentary by Michael Moore about his quest to interview Roger Smith, then chairman and chief executive officer of General Motors, opens in theaters. The film examines the devastating impact on the people of Moore's hometown of Flint, Mich., following the closing of several General Motors auto plants in the area.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

WINNER — The U.S. Department of Agriculture Forest Service and the National Garden Clubs, Inc. sponsored a 2012 poster contest for children from 1st to 5th grade. The contest required children to draw a poster of Woodsy Owl, America's icon for the conservation of the environment. The Wollaston Garden Club Youth Committee sponsored the event at Lincoln Hancock School. Under the direction of art teacher Nicole Oliver, two students from Lincoln Hancock won awards at the State level; Susan Hoare won 2nd place for 3rd grade and Anya Brenner won 3rd place for 1st grade. Pictured are Susan Hoare and Principal Ruth Witmer.

Rogers Jewelry Donates Battery Sales, Wristband Adjustments To The Salvation Army

Need a new watch battery or a watchband adjustment? These help benefit the Salvation Army, too.

Rogers Jewelry, 1402 Hancock St., Quincy, donates all the proceeds from battery sales and wristband adjustments now through New Year's to the Quincy Salvation Army.

Last year, over $3,000 was raised for the Salvation Army.

The Quincy Sun

(USPS 453-060)

Published Weekly on Thursday by
The Quincy Sun Publishing Co., Inc.
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

Robert H. Bosworth
Publisher and Editor

Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.
Founder
1968 - 2009

75¢ per copy. $25.00 per year by mail in Quincy
$30.00 per year by mail outside Quincy - $38.00 out-of-state

Telephone: 617-471-3100 Fax: 617-472-3963

email address:
thequincysun@verizon.net

Periodicals postage paid at Boston, MA
Postmaster Send address change to:
The Quincy Sun, 1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

The Quincy Sun assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs.

Scenes From Yesterday

THIS IS A 1940 view of the Morrisette Legion Post 294's old home on the corner of Miller Street and Furnace Brook Parkway in West Quincy. This Legion Post was named in honor of Cyril P. Morrisette, the first Quincy serviceman killed in World War I. In 1940, the Post along with Quincy Post 95 and Wollaston Post 295 hosted the National Convention of the American Legion here in Quincy. The building as shown here was decorated with bunting for the convention. In later years a function room was added to this building and it became a popular site for weddings and other local occasions. The Morrisette Post reluctantly sold this site several years ago to a Saturn automobile dealership which tore it down and now, after the dealership has closed, the site has been sold again and a medical building is being built here. The Legion Post has found a new home in a smaller building on Liberty Street in Southwest Quincy. To contact Tom Galvin, e-mail tmgalvin@verizon.net.

From the Collection of City Historian Tom Galvin

'As McCauley Sees It'

Republicans 'Wait Till 2016'

This is my fourth and final article on the 2012 Presidential Election. The Republican party is getting to emulate the Boston Red Sox's failing to win the "big ones."

My first article which appeared in the Jan. 12, 2012 edition of The Quincy Sun, had the headline "Will the Republicans Snatch Defeat From the Jaws of Victory Again?" Answer: "Yes."

The Pre-Primary Debates were so bruising to the Republican Party nominee that his fellow candidates did a lot of the dirty work for his opponent, Barack Obama. Indeed, one could almost think that the election was decided before the main event.

The other Republican contenders seem to forget who the real opponent of the party really was. Recent statistics have shown that a lot of the "good" Republicans stayed home instead of going out to vote for their party's candidate.

"Sour grapes?" I'd hate to think it but it could be true.

The Democratic Party had its standard bearer President Barack Obama. Early on, Obama framed the debate with the statement:

"When you have a candidate without a credible record of achievement on which to run, demonize your opponent!" This he did with earlier help from Mitt's Republican opponents. He had much help from the liberal media who conveniently idolized Obama and trashed Romney any chance they could.

FRANK MCCAULEY

The tragic incident that occurred in the Libyan port city of Benghazi brought memories of that city's involvement in World War II. The city changed hands five times during the war in North Africa (June 1940-May 1943). It has been said that the owner of the largest hotel in Benghazi had two portraits: one of Winston Churchill, and one of Adolph Hitler and displayed either portrait and flew either of two flags, the British Union Jack and the Nazi Swastika, depending upon who was in control of Benghazi at the time.

The Obama Administration's handling of this incident brings back memories of the 1950's black and white movie featuring Alec Guinness as the leader of a gang of bumbling robbers. The title of the movie, "The Gang That Couldn't Shoot Straight," is an appellation that could be applied to Obama Administration's involvement in the tragedy.

Several years ago, a movement that grew out of rank and file citizens came to the forefront.

The Democratic Party, aware of the future involvement of this group, immediately started to demonize what became known as the "Tea Party" movement. Who would have thought that the Tea Parties would pull the Democratic chestnuts out of the fire in both the 2010 and 2012 elections.

They handed five Senate seats to the Democratic Party by nominating candidates with extreme views, well out of the mainstream. Candidates with Tea Party connections failed to win the final Senate seats in Colorado, Nevada and Delaware in 2010 and the Senate seats in Indiana and Missouri in 2012.

What's ahead for the country now that we have four more years of President Obama? A line from the 1950 movie "All About Eve" spoken by actress Bette Davis, comes to mind.

"Fasten your seat belts everyone, we're all in for a bumpy ride."

Frank McCauley

Former Mayor of Quincy

Quincy's Yesterdays

This Week
1959
53 Years Ago

Della Chiesa, McIntyre Campaign Most Expensive

Campaign reports for last month's mayoral campaign between Amelio Della Chiesa and James McIntyre were filed in the city clerk's office this week, showing combined expenses close to $25,000. This was the highest amount spent to date for campaigns in the city.

The winner, Della Chiesa, expanded $10,993.04, with a deficit of $3. McIntyre, according to his treasurer Francis Casey, spent $13,752.87, with a balance remaining of $6.

CHRISTMAS MAIL UP 5-7 PERCENT

Quincy Post Office Superintendent Frank Anselmo anticipated an increase in Christmas mail of 5-7 percent over last year. He said it reflected the region's greater prosperity.

While he was confident the post office could meet the demand, he said it was, "A battle between space and time."

He planned to expand staff from 250 to 700, with the takeover of the Marine recruiting office in the basement of the post office.

CITY HALL CAT MISSING

Honey, the ginger-colored male cat brought to city hall six months ago to rid the building of rats, was reported missing this week.

He was brought to city hall by Mrs. Elsie Eisner who worked in the auditor's office.

A spokesman for the mayor denied rumors that the cat was let go because he was a McIntyre supporter.

QUINCY-ISMS

According to an estimate by police Captian Walter Kemp, a record 100,000 viewed the annual Christmas parade. Chief marshals were congressman James Burke and John Brownell. For the eighth year in a row, Fr. Thomas Tierney of St. John's was parade chairman... To meet a growing demand, a new telephone exchange was established in the city. Granite 1 joined the other three exchanges; GR 2, GR 9, and PR 3... Mr. and Mrs. William Duane of Utica St. celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary... A daughter was born at Quincy City Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Morse of Hollis Ave... Some 500 people attended the testimonial at the armory for the new Norfolk County Sheriff Peter McCormack of Brookline. Dennis Ryan was dinner chairman... Mayor Della Chiesa asked purchasing agent Thomas Morrissey the cost of a plaque to honor former Mayor Thomas McGrath, with naming of the "highway" between Washington St. and Southern Artery... The mayor noted that his two-year "no hire no fire policy" had reduced personnel in the DPW and sanitation departments from 244 to 202... North Quincy High School coach Ken Rickson said that the varsity basketball team would kickoff the 1959-60 season with an exhibition game against the alumni. Returning starters were Paul LaBrequette, Jim Painten, Dick Holmberg and Richard Bryan. The fifth spot was a toss-up between Paul Sadlier and Jerry Bradley. Other on the varsity were footballers Walter Bryan, Billy Tedrow, George Ruggiero, Ted Martin, Ralph "Gus" Andrews and Ron Fletcher... Clarence Lewis of Clive St. was installed for the 39th year as Tyler at the Rural Masonic Lodge... Four hundred people attended the testimonial at Broad Meadows Junior High School for Edna Austin, the only woman to serve on the city council... Teachers Arthur Foster and Frank Langton headed up the work on the Daniel Webster School's float in the Christmas parade... Retiring firefighters were John Martell Jr., Theodore Rouillard of Common St. and Lt. Charles Mullaney of Spear St... Mrs. Robert Tweedy was chairman for the Democratic Women's Club's Christmas party at the K of C on Foster St... Mrs. William Jenness chaired the GOP Women's Evening Club party at the YMCA... Teachers retiring at Quincy High School were Miss Eileen McCarthy, Miss Margaret Tuthill and Miss Mildred Ordway... Firefighter Lawrence Perette was promoted to lieutenant... William Ellis and Leo Antonelli were co-chairmen for the Elk's memorial program.

SUBSCRIPTION FORM

FILL OUT THIS SUBSCRIPTION BLANK AND MAIL TO

The Quincy Sun

1372 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169

NAME _____

STREET _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

CHECK ONE BOX IN EACH COLUMN

☐ 1 YEAR IN QUINCY $25.00

☐ 1 YEAR OUTSIDE QUINCY $30.00 ☐ CHECK ENCLOSED

☐ 1 YEAR OUT OF STATE $38.00

AVA LYONS, granddaughter of Kathryn McElroy of Squantum, is making her theatrical debut in the musical "Annie." This is Ava's first mainstage production in her role as "Vivi" The Fancy Orphan who fell on hard times. Ava has a positive spunky attitude, and she truly believes that "You're Never Fully Dressed Without A Smile." The show runs through Dec. 9 at The Riverside Theatre in Hyde Park. Tickets may be purchased online or by calling 866-811-4111.

Christmas Joy Fair Dec. 15 At O'Brien Towers

Christmas Joy Fair will be held Saturday, Dec. 15 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at O'Brien Towers, 73 Bicknell St., Quincy. The fair will feature tables with crafts, gifts and food. Lunch will be available (meatball sub, hot dog, cheeseburger, French fries and drinks.)

Sunday through Thursday • Noon to Closing • Limited Offer!

The Double Trio

2 Drinks, 2 Dinners & 2 Desserts

Choose any 2 dinners from the list below, any 2 beverages (house cocktail, house wine, beer or non-alcoholic) and 2 petite sweet desserts

- Hot Roast Beef Sandwich
- All Natural Beef Chili & Salad
- Yankee Pot Roast • Chicken Parmesan
- Broiled Scrod • Country Fried Chicken
- Hot Turkey Sandwich • Fish & Chips
- Baked Mac 'n Cheese • Fried Clam Strips
- Linguini & Meatballs • Liver & Onions

all for only $29.99

GIFT CARDS make great Gifts!
Use at our restaurants, hotels & spas!

Hearth 'n Kettle
RESTAURANTS • Est. 1973

WEYMOUTH: 151 Main Street (Rte 18)
(781)331-7007 • www.HearthnKettle.com

Arts & Entertainment

Local Dancers In Holiday Performances

QUINCY COUSINS Eileen Durgin (left) and Grace Hickey (right) are both performing in the Boston Ballet's production of The Nutcracker at the Boston Opera House. Durgin plays the role of Page in Act 2, while Hickey is cast as a baby mouse in the battle scene. This will be the second year nine-year-old Durgin is participating in the ballet. The role of the Page, which is a royal guard and staff with various rankings and duties, will have Durgin on stage more during the second act and more visible to the audience than when she played a doll in last year's production. Eight-year-old Hickey joins a long line of family members who have performed in the ballet over the years. Both Durgin and Hickey are a part of cast B (there are three different casts) and will perform in approximately 14 shows this season. Performances began Nov. 25 and continue through Dec. 30.

Photos Courtesy of Photographer Kim Kenny

Children's Programs At Crane Library This Month

By JULIE RINES

The Thomas Crane Public Library will host the following children's programs in December.

Saturday Fun for Little Ones with Elaine Kessler

On Saturday, Dec. 8th at 10 a.m. join the Snow Princess Elaine Kessler as we get ready to welcome winter with a program full of stories, songs and activities to celebrate the cold and snow.

This program is for children ages 0-4 accompanied by an adult. No registration is required.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

Mad Science - Mad Messages

In this Mad Science of Greater Boston workshop for children ages 4-8 secret messages and special codes will be the means of communication. The children will learn how to send messages to their friends using special codes, and they'll become detectives by using their Mad Science observational skills to solve the mystery of some cool messages and formulas.

Each child will bring home their own secret code wheels to code and decode their own mad messages!

The workshop will be held Saturday, Dec. 15th at 10 a.m. at the Main Library. Registration is required. Register online, in person or by calling 617-376-2411.

Due to space limitations, this program is limited to Quincy residents. Sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

Book Clubs for Kids

Do you like to read? Would you like to talk to others about books? Then you will like our book discussion groups.

Join us each month to discuss all kinds of books.

The Night Owls Book Club for children in grades 3-4 meets on the second Monday of each month. We will meet on Monday, Dec. 10th at 7 p.m. This month we will be discussing the Invention of Hugo Cabret by Brian Selznick.

Stop by the main library children's room to pick up a copy of the book to read before the meeting.

The Phoenix Book Club for children in grades 5-8 meets on the second Tuesday of each month to discuss a variety of books.

The Club will meet Tuesday, Dec. 11th at 7 p.m. at the Main Library.

This month: Comic books, manga, graphic novels - the only requirement for December is that the story be told in comic format.

Pick fantasy, realistic fiction, sci-fi, biography or anything else from our graphic novel shelves. And it doesn't have to be from our shelves. Pick from another library or your own shelves at home, so long as it's a comic, it counts.

Snowflake Crafts

Children ages 8 and older are invited to join us on Saturday, Dec. 22nd at 10 a.m. to create a blizzard of snowflake crafts.

Using beads, glitter, paint and other supplies we'll make a variety of snowflake ornaments and other decorations.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

Find us on Facebook

Highlights of Local Programming found on QATV

Quincy Access Television
88 Washington Street
Quincy, MA 02169
617-376-1440

Public Access Channel 8	Government Access Channel 11
Thursday, December 6th: 7:00pm: High School Sports Plus 10:05pm: Freddy K Friday, December 7th: 11:30am: LIVE: Currently in Quincy 5:30pm: Sound Advice Saturday, December 8th: 2:00pm: NQ vs. Dartmouth Girls Soccer 5:30pm: Real Estate Focus Sunday, December 9th: 6:30pm: At the Library 10:00pm: The Constitution: Then & Now Monday, December 10th: 11:30am: LIVE: Currently in Quincy 7:30pm: LIVE: Sports Night Tuesday, December 11th: 6:00pm: Eye on Quincy 7:30pm: Quincy in Focus Wednesday, December 12th: 8:00pm: LIVE: Whispers from the Other Side 9:00pm: Free Our Voices	Thursday, December 6th: 7:00pm: In Your Neighborhood: Ward 4 8:30pm: At the Library: December Friday, December 7th: 6:00pm: City View with Mayor Koch 7:00pm: License Board 12/4 8:30pm: Crime Watch: 911/Pedestrian Safety Saturday/Sunday, December 8th/9th: 9:00am: City View with Mayor Koch 11:00am: Crime Watch: 911/Pedestrian Safety 11:30am: At the Library: December 12:00pm: City Council 12/3 4:00pm: License Board 12/4 7:00pm: City Council 12/3 11:00pm: License Board 12/4 Monday, December 10th: 6:00pm: Crime Watch: 911/Pedestrian Safety 6:30pm: LIVE: City Council Ordinance Tuesday, December 11th: 12:00pm: City Council Ordinance 12/10 Wednesday, December 12th: 7:00pm: City Council Ordinance 12/10

Programming is subject to change. For a complete list of programs, please consult our website at www.qatv.org

Seaside Gardeners Of Squantum Holiday Doorway Contest

The Seaside Gardeners of Squantum is sponsoring a Holiday Doorway Contest.

The seasonal decoration contest is open to all Squantum/Marina Bay residents and businesses.

Those who wish to participate are invited to use any medium of fresh, silk or synthetic material.

Decorations should be completed by Sunday, Dec.

9. The will be photographed Dec. 10 or Dec. 11.

Judging will take place Thursday, Dec. 13. Winners will be notified by phone or email.

Awards for first, second and third prizes will be presented to winners.

Proceeds will benefit Seaside Gardeners of Squantum Civic Beautification, Jr. Gardeners of Squantum School and the Scholarship Fund.

Entry fee is $15 and the deadline to enter is Saturday, Dec. 8.

Checks should be made payable to Seaside Gardeners of Squantum and mailed or delivered to Patricia McGilvray, 828 East Squantum St., Squantum, MA 02171.

An entry form appears below.

Seaside Gardeners Of Squantum Holiday Doorway Contest

DEADLINE FOR ENTRY: SATURDAY DEC. 8TH, 2012
ENTRY FEE: $15.00

Make check payable to: Seaside Gardeners of Squantum.

Mail or Deliver to:

Patricia McGilvray 828 East Squantum St, Squantum, MA 02171

NAME: _____ EMAIL/PHONE _____

Street address _____

Squantum _____ Marina Bay _____

Residence _____ Business _____

Thank you for entering,
Door decorating committee:

Pat McGilvray, Deni Sindel, Gerry Daily

Chess Club Meets At River Bay Club

The South Shore Chess Club meets Wednesdays from 7 to 10 p.m. at River Bay Club, 99 Brackett St.,

Room 222, Quincy, MA.

The South Shore Chess Club is free and open to everyone. Newcomers to chess always welcome.

For more information, visit www.southshorechess.com or call 857-888-1531.

Daniel MacAuley Graduates Fire Academy

Daniel MacAuley of North Quincy was honorably discharged from the United States Coast Guard after completing four years of service in August of 2012.

MacAuley also graduated from the Boston Fire Academy last month. He will be stationed in the Ashmont section of Dorchester.

He is a second generation Boston Fire Fighter.

He is the son of Rosaleen MacAuley of North Quincy and Patrick MacAuley of West Bridgewater.

Houghs Neck Parks Walking Tour Saturday

The Park Department's Environmental Treasures program is offering a free tour Saturday, Dec. 8 at 1 p.m.

Entitled "Preparing for Winter," participants will stroll through parks in Houghs Neck learning how nature adapts to winter, taking inspiration from nature to conserve energy and water in their own homes. The tour will visit two interesting homes that have implemented a variety of measures to conserve water and energy through the efforts of Quincy's Home Energy Efficiency Team, saving money and reducing their carbon footprint.

Prizes will be provided for participants who arrange for a free energy assessment during the tour.

Patti Keville, Chair of the newly established Quincy

Climate Action Network, will describe the exciting projects the group is undertaking.

The tour will begin on Rockland Street at the intersection of Spring Street in Houghs Neck.

For more information, call 617/472-0799.

Holiday Faire, Bake Sale Friday At John Adams Health Care

John Adams Health Care, 211 Franklin St., Quincy, will hold a Holiday Faire and Bake Sale Friday, Dec. 7 from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The fair and bake sale will feature raffles, homemade soup, potpourri and baked goods.

All proceeds will benefit the Resident Council Fund.

PAPER & PARTY OUTLET

*Holiday Entertaining
Headquarters*

Seasonal Plates, Napkins & Cups
Holiday Containers & Decorations

SPECIAL:
9" Plastic Plates 125ct $13.59

84 Liberty St., Quincy
(617) 773-7773

Mon. - Fri. 8:30-5:00 Sat. 8:30-3:00

Social

Brett Oster And Tayla Harvey Engaged At Patriots' Home Game

By EMILY TAFT

Quincy native Brett Oster, an Airman A1C in the U.S. Air Force, made sure to make his trip home on leave a memorable one.

On Nov. 18th during a New England Patriots' home game in Foxborough, with the help of family, Oster proposed to Tayla Harvey of Weymouth, his girlfriend of two years.

The couple met through a friend two years ago right before Oster left to join the Air Force. On Nov. 24th Oster returned to where he is stationed in Wyoming, and then in June he leaves for a year-long deployment to Korea.

Harvey, 20, had bought the tickets to the game as a surprise early Christmas gift for Oster, 19. That allowed her boyfriend to set the stage for the proposal. At the beginning of the third quarter the message "Tayla will you marry me, love you Brett," appeared on the Jumbotron at Gillette Stadium.

"It took Tayla a minute then she looked at Brett and said; 'I spell my name like that" and then he proposed with a beautiful ring," said Oster's mom Ann Oster Holden. "I am just so proud of him, and she is just a love. She comes from a wonderful family and we wish the kids nothing but the best of luck."

QUINCY NATIVE Brett Oster "popped the question" to his girlfriend Tayla Harvey at a recent New England Patriots' game while the Air Force airman was home on leave.

Holden said that Oster sat her and her husband down and told them beforehand that he would be popping the question.

The couple plans to marry after Oster returns from his deployment to Korea.

"For the Harvey and Oster families it's the beginning of a new friendship and something wonderful to look forward to," said Holden. "You never know when love will find you."

Quincy GOP Holiday Reception Dec. 11

The Quincy Republican City Committee will host a holiday reception Tuesday, Dec. 11 from 6 to 10 p.m. at the Best Western Adams Inn, 29 Hancock St., Quincy.

The event will feature hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar. Tickets are $25 per person and may be purchased online at www.quincymass-gop.com. Tickets will also be available at the door.

For more information, contact City Committee

Chairman Christine Cedrone or visit www.quincymass-clogan@cedronelaw.com gop.com.

Holiday Fair & Bake Sale

Friday Dec. 7th

10am-2:30pm

Raffles, Homemade Soap,
Potpourri & Baked Goods

John Adams
Health Care Center

211 Franklin St. Quincy

Proceeds benefit the Resident Council Fund

Puzzled about your future?

Let us help you put the pieces together.

Regina Russell's Tea Room

We have been in the Psychic business since 1973.
Walk-in service & private readings by appointment.
Psychics available for home and office parties.

Phone Readings Available: 888-655-3456

Open Monday thru Friday 10:30 am - 9:30 pm
Saturday & Sunday 10:30 am - 5:00 pm

40 Franklin Street - Quincy, MA - Phone: 617-472-8806
Free weekly horoscopes on our website: www.rtsroom.com

Marie's Kitchen

BY MARIE D'OLIMPIO

Phil's Beef Brisket With Cranberry Sauce-Eye Of Round Roast

One of my daughter Nancy's customers at her barber shop is Phil Devane, a wonderful cook who sometimes either brings this delicious food for another barber Lenny or to my daughter and her husband Jed and the family.

One day she called me and invited me over to eat dinner with them and told me that Phil had made a delicious beef brisket. After we all enjoyed this brisket, made with cranberry sauce, I took down the recipe and hope you all will enjoy it as well. Another day we enjoyed his eye of the round roast. Here are both of those recipes.

BEEF BRISKET (ANY SIZE)

- 2 cans jellied cranberry sauce
- 1 pouch Lipton onion soup mix
- 4 ounces Guinness beer (optional)

Whisk together the ingredients in a bowl. If you don't want to use the beer, then use ¼ cup water instead.

Place brisket in roasting pan and pour mixture over the beef. Wrap tightly with heavy-duty aluminum foil. Bake in a 300 degree oven for three hours. Remove brisket and place on cutting board to rest for 10 minutes. Serve with the sauce. We placed it over whipped potatoes and what a treat it was.

EYE OF THE ROUND ROAST

- 7 pound roast
- 1 teaspoon Gravy Master
- 2 tablespoons garlic powder
- 1 tablespoon fresh parsley (finely chopped)
- 3 carrots (cut in pieces)
- 1 onion (cut)

Trim off excess fat. Brush the roast with the gravy and then mix the garlic powder and the parsley together and sprinkle over the roast. Put the carrots and onion on the bottom of a well greased roasting pan. Place the roast beef on top Roast in a 400 degree oven for 25 minutes. Then in a 350 degree oven for one hour and 15 minutes. If using a thermometer, the inside temperature should read 130 degrees.

Let rest for 10-12 minutes before carving.

Peppers, Zucchini Over Brown Rice

One of the family's favorite is peppers and zucchini over pasta or rice. It's a great side dish without the pasta or rice, but this time I used brown rice which came out great, and pretty healthy too.

ZUCCHINI, PEPPER SAUTÉ

- 3 medium sized zucchini (cut in ¼ inch slices)
- 2 green peppers (sliced)
- 1 red pepper (sliced)
- 1 medium onion (chopped)
- 2 garlic cloves (chopped)
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 3 tablespoons olive oil

1 cup brown rice

Cook the rice according to directions, and set aside.

In the hot oil, sauté the garlic, onion and then add the peppers and cook for about five minutes or so. Add the zucchini and cook uncovered turning occasionally.

When the vegetables are almost done, cover and cook on warm until all vegetables have a golden hue and are tender.

I found that covering it, the juices from the vegetables absorb and goes well especially if you plan to place over pasta or rice.

Add grated cheese if desired.

YOUNGSTERS ENJOY family fun night at In Sync Center of the Arts, 550 Adams St., Quincy.

In Sync Center Of The Arts Expanding At Adams Street Plaza

In Sync Center of the Arts announces it is expanding to occupy the former Curves space in the Adams Street Plaza in addition to their current space.

The new space will allow for an additional Music Lesson room, bringing the total to four music lesson rooms, as well as a new movement studio. In Sync is planning on adding more Musical Theater, Music Ensemble Classes, Interactive Toddler Play Space, Acro Tumbling, Contemporary Dance, Yoga, Zumba, ZumbaTonic and even some private educational tutoring classes into the newly renovated space.

In Sync is in its 17th season and currently teaches over 1,000 students in their dance classes, private music lessons, group music lessons, tumbling classes, art classes, toddler programs and Lego club. Annually, In Sync produces a classical ballet and multiple music recitals as well as seven dance recitals.

This year, In Sync will be presenting a ballet production of Willy Wonka on Feb. 10th at Milton High School.

Music students will perform on Dec. 16th at their Jingle Jam music recitals and on the weekend of June 23rd Milton High School will be busy with seven In Sync dance productions.

In Sync also performs at community events including

Celebrate Milton, Quincy Harvest Festival, Quincy Holiday Shopping Expo and the Quincy Tree Lighting. The studio is always buzzing with special events, vacation programs, costume parties, family fun nights, drop and shop days, summer camps and birthday parties.

Advanced dancers in the In Sync Dance Company recently traveled to New York City to participate in the Rockette Experience. After seeing the famous Radio City Spectacular performance and getting a backstage tour, dancers took part in a workshop with the Rockettes.

Dancers also performed in the open classes at Broadway Dance Center while they were in Manhattan.

"This is such a great opportunity for our students," said In Sync teacher Suzie Allard. "It is important for them to understand that there is life outside of the studio for dancers."

"Bringing them to the Rockette Experience and Broadway Dance Center shows them the process of walking into a professional studio and dancing among some of the best Broadway choreographers and dancers in New York."

This holiday season, In Sync is collecting stuffed stockings to share with the senior residents of Unquity

House in Milton.

"Each year we organize a special charity project for the students to participate in. It is not always something children think of on their own, so we need to help them broaden their thoughts at this time of year," said In Sync Owner Teri Mangiaratti.

"Last year, we made blankets together at a blanket making party resulting in over 100 blankets donated to various hospitals in the area. This year, we will focus on the seniors in our community who may be celebrating the holidays without family. We will be delivering personally stuffed stockings to over 100 people at Unquity House this season."

In Sync is also collecting stuffed stockings from the community.

"If you would like to do something special with your own children, take them to stuff a stocking for someone who might be a grandma living far away from their grandchildren and then drop it off at In Sync Center of the Arts at 550 Adams St., Quincy. These opportunities are part of what makes In Sync a special place to be," Mangiaratti added.

For more information and to take a survey about new programs, visit:

www.insyncarts.com or call 617-328-5678.

Want a hearing aid that fits just right?

Then have it custom built in Quincy Mass! Get 100% digital models with advanced noise reduction capability!

November and December specials!

Try our custom in-the-ear products at half of suggested retail price! full shell model, retail $2795.00.

Special $1395.00 each!

Includes a FREE hearing evaluation, consultation and a 60 day trial period. We service what we build "in house" and same day!

The Tobias family has been serving Boston and South Shore since 1959!

(must present ad with order) Steve

617 770-3395

Stephen P. Tobias B.C. HIS MA Lic #59
B.S. Science UMass 1978

Tobias Hearing Aids, Inc. 382 Quincy Ave, Quincy near Roche Bros and Walmart. Where Eddies Diner was!

Volunteers Needed

If you think two hours a week at the gym is good for your heart, volunteer to play with children living in family homeless shelters and make a real difference.

A commitment of two hours per week for at least six months is required.

The next training will be held:

December 8, 2012 from 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
Boston, MA

To apply or find out more, call 617-553-5488 or go to horizonschildren.org

HORIZONS FOR HOMELESS CHILDREN

GRANITE LOCK CO

SERVICE MOBILE

AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS

- DEADBOLTS INSTALLED
- LOCKS REKEYED
- DOOR CLOSERS
- PANIC HARDWARE
- AUTO KEYS FITTED

VISIT OUR SHOWROOM!
755 SO. ARTERY, QUINCY

472-2177

Local Charities: Demand Up For Holiday Assistance

Cont'd From Page 1

Father Bill's and MainSpring
38 Broad St.
1-855-HELPPFBM
(1-855-435-7326)

Each night Father Bill's assists about 130 adults. Their shelter might have just 95 beds, but no one gets turned away.

"We're experiencing tremendous overflow of people," said President and CEO John Yazwinski. "Everybody gets indoors that is in need."

In recent years, the shelter has seen an increase in 18 to 21 year olds as well as more people over 60. Overall, there's been an increase in women and veterans who need assistance. About 80 percent of residents leave in less than 30 days. The shelter also tries to return people to their hometowns within three days if they're not from the South Shore.

Because they accommodate so many people, Father Bill's is in need of toiletries such as toothbrushes, soap, shampoo, razors, and towels according to Yazwinski. For the holiday season, they're in need of about 150 $20 gift cards so their can purchase basic necessities for themselves.

"We give gift cards to CVS and Walmart or something like that so they can go out on their own," Yazwinski said.

During the winter Father Bill's also distributes items needed to keep warm including socks, gloves, and hats.

"New socks, new hats, and new gloves are always big for us if people are doing gift drives," Yazwinski said.

The shelter is also in need of volunteers who help by preparing food or working with guests. They also accept food donations 24/7, according to Yazwinski.

"Getting in-kind donations like food or like volunteers is a big help," Yazwinski said.

Father Bill's and MainSpring also provides housing for 82 families across the South Shore. During December they team up with local companies to provide toys for children. Yazwinski said Granite Telecommunications and the Jack Conway Company are two of the bigger donors.

More information on Father Bill's and MainSpring, including a full wish list and donation information, is available online at helpfbms.org. They can also be contacted toll free at 1-855-HELPPFBM (1-855-435-7326) or in person at their 38 Broad St. office.

Interfaith Social Services
105 Adams St.
(617) 773-6203

"Our goal is to strengthen family life and help anyone in need," Executive Director Rick Doane said.

Throughout the past year, Interfaith Social Services has helped 25,000 people in 10 South Shore communities in various ways. The charity, which celebrated its 65th anniversary this year, runs a pantry that distributed a half-million pounds of food this year alone, a thrift shop, counseling center, homelessness prevention services, and a career closet program which gives low-income individuals clothes for interviews. For those wishing to assist ISS, Doane said it's best to give cash.

"We have a lot of people who need help," Doane said. "We sincerely appreciate donations of clothes, donations of food, and donations of toys, but money goes further."

ISS is also in need of volunteers, both during the holiday season and year-round. Volunteers perform many important tasks for the organization, from serving at the front desk, answering phones, helping clients, and running the thrift shop.

"We are a very grassroots organization," Doane said. "Our volunteers donated 22,000 hours of their time last year. We have 100 people scheduled for weekly assignments."

The charity is especially busy during the holiday season. This year, they provided Thanksgiving Day dinners for 800 families, in 2011 they served 650 families. They also organize a gift wish list program. The program allows givers to sponsor a family and provide gifts for the children. Last year, 500 children received gifts through the program, and Doane anticipates having about 600 children on the wish list this year.

December is a good time for residents to drop off dry-cleaned business attire - dress shirts, ties, suits, shoes, blouses, skirts, pantsuits, etc. - that no longer fits or doesn't get worn enough for the career closet program. ISS provides low-income individuals with the business clothes so they can land a job. Additionally, Quincy's Allure Spa provides free haircuts and styling to ISS clients who receive four or five suits through the program.

More information on ISS is available online at interfaithsocialservices.org, on the phone at (617) 773-6203, or in person at their office at 105 Adams St.

Quincy Crisis Center 282 Billings Rd.
(617) 847-6967

Each year the Quincy Crisis Center, a part of the Esther R. Sanger Center for Compassion, provides holiday meals for Quincy residents in need.

"We provide food assistance for Thanksgiving and for Christmas we do the same thing. We give families four grocery bags of food plus a turkey, chicken, or ham," Executive Director Rev. David Wooster said. "We try to make it last a couple of days because it can be kind of hard for families when kids aren't fed at school."

This year, they expect to feed between 280 and 300 families for Christmas. Plus, QCC also provides gifts to children 16 and under. Each child receives a new book, some toys, clothing, and winter apparel like hats and gloves. This year, they'll provide gifts for about 230 kids either through individuals sponsoring them or through donations QCC receives directly.

Year-round, QCC hosts a meals program on weekdays at the Church of the Presidents. They also operate a crisis hotline, assist homeless individuals in hotels in neighboring communities, and operate a food pantry. The pantry is the only one on the South Shore that is delivery only; it primarily serves seniors and individuals who can't leave their house temporarily because of injuries.

"We deliver 40 to 50 deliveries a week to homebound families and seniors," Wooster said.

QCC is in need of volunteers for the month. They rely on volunteers to deliver meals, cook food, assist with the pantry, among other tasks. Wooster said a wide range of people, from Cub Scouts to retirees, volunteer. They're in need of extra volunteers around the holidays because of an increased need and since many student volunteers are leaving during the month.

"We've seen a big turnover. Most of the colleges finish up and high school students finish their community service hours - and December is our biggest time of the year," Wooster said. "People can help once a month, once a week. We have some people who volunteer three or four times a week. We're pretty flexible."

Donations of food and household items can be dropped during normal business hours at their headquarters at 282 Billings Rd. More information, and a link to make monetary contributions, can be found online at sangercenter.org. They can be reached via telephone at (617) 847-6967.

DOVE

(617) 770-4065

For the holidays, DOVE (Domestic Violence Ended) organizes an adopt-a-family program. The program provides families in DOVE's emergency program or community based programs with items on their wish list. Each wish list contains household necessities and fun items like toys.

Last year, about 125 families were accommodated through the adopt-a-family program. DOVE Executive Director Sue Chandler anticipates having more families participate this year.

Cont'd On Page 11

MEET PEOPLE. MAKE FRIENDS.

Making new friends is one of life's greatest pleasures. Residents of River Bay Club often become energized with a whole new zest for life as they interact with people their own age, people they can relate to.

At River Bay Club, our residents:

- Meet new friends yet still enjoy privacy
- Indulge in fine cuisine & enhance their well being
- Pursue life long interests with renewed vigor or take up a new hobby.

Join us on December 10 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. for our Life Line Screening event.
RSVP to 1-888-653-6441 by December 7.

RIVER BAY CLUB
QUINCY
BROOKDALE SENIOR LIVING
Your story continues here...

Independent Living
Personalized Assisted Living
99 Brackett Street
Quincy, Massachusetts 02169
www.brookdaleliving.com

12th Annual Quincy Holiday Toy Drive!

To benefit Germantown Neighborhood Center

Drop off new, unwrapped toys to any of our Quincy locations at:

- 543 Southern Artery
- 1250 Hancock Street
- 825 Southern Artery
- 366 Centre Street
- 100 Granite Street

For Information Call: Sarah Grill (781)559-0441

ABIGAIL MASFERRER of Milton recently visited Santa at the View Restaurant and Tavern at Presidents Golf Course in Quincy. Santa stops by to meet youngsters during breakfast on Saturdays and Sundays at The View Restaurant this month.

NFPA Craft Fair Friday At One Batterymarch Park

The National Fire Protection Association will hold its annual Craft Fair Friday, Dec. 7 from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. at One Batterymarch Park, Quincy.

Thirty tables of holiday gift items, crafts, and homemade goods will be displayed. There is a bake sale and a raffle.

Proceeds from the event will be donated to Cradles to Crayons, an organization that strives to provide children from infant to age 12 living in homeless and low-income situations with the essentials they need to feel safe, warm, ready to learn and valued.

North Quincy Catholic Club Christmas Party Dec. 13

The North Quincy Catholic Club will hold a Christmas Party Thursday, Dec. 13 at 7 p.m. in the School Hall of Quincy Catholic Academy.

Lynn Basile will conduct a short business. Socorro Talamera is chairlady for the evening. The next meeting will be March 14.

History Of Boston Mobs Topic At Historical Society

The complex history of organized crime in Boston will be discussed by authors Beverly Ford and Stephanie Schorow Wednesday, Dec. 12 at 7:30 p.m. at Quincy Historical Society, the Adams Academy, 8 Adams St., Quincy Center.

Going beyond contemporary headlines, Ford and Schorow will look back to the era of Prohibition and recount the stories of half-forgotten but key figures in the story of Boston crime. They will also trace the evolution of Boston's mob gangs through the twentieth century. Their talk is illustrated with a number of rarely seen photos.

Ford and Schorow, veteran Boston-area journalists, are the authors of the recently published Boston Mob Guide.

Ford has written for the Boston Herald, the New York Daily News and Bloomberg News and is currently a freelance investigative journalist for the New England Center for Investigative Reporting.

Schorow has been a reporter for the Boston Herald and the Associated Press and is the author of books on the Coconut Grove Fire and the Brinks Robbery.

The public is welcome. There is no charge for admission.

The authors will do a book signing for The Boston Mob Guide following their presentation.

'Heart To Heart' Tree At United Methodist Church

Quincy Community United Methodist Church, 40 Beale St. in Wollaston announces its "Heart to Heart" ornament tree.

A spun glass heart ornament is available as a token of love and appreciation to loved ones.

"Originally, the heart ornaments were meant to be given to people who are experiencing a difficult holiday season, as a way of letting them know someone cares," said Rev. Dr. Susan F. Jarek-Glidden, pastor of the church, who invented the concept of the "Heart to Heart Tree."

The idea, however, grew from that original concept.

"Although most of the hearts are still given to people who are hurting, some individuals have given them to people who have made a difference in their lives, such as mentors, friends, family members, and neighbors," said Rev. Dr. Jarek-Glidden. "It's a way of expressing feelings, and a way of saying 'Thank you' as well as 'I care'."

Everyone is welcome to participate in the "Heart to Heart Tree." The "Heart to Heart Tree" can be found on the second floor of the church outside the sanctuary, through Dec. 24th.

A donation of $2 per heart ornament is requested.

For more information, call the church office at 617-773-3319.

42 Quincy Students On Woodward School Honor Roll

Forty-two Quincy students are on the honor roll for the first quarter at the Woodward School.

They are:

HIGH HONORS

Grade 6: Leila Dumas-Hovey, Tiffany Law, Maeve Walsh.

Grade 7: Brooke Adamson, Marissa Viens.

Grade 8: Chidera Onwunaka.

Grade 9: Rachael McIver, Michelle Ramiz.

Grade 10: Nagisa Ishihata, Uchechukwu Onwunaka, Emma Will.

Grade 11: Micaela Maloof, Maura McDonough.

Grade 12: Caitlin Sullivan, Kasamon Toruen.

HONORS

Grade 6: Xinyi Chen, Kelsey Coughlin, Ajijolaoluwa Laguda, Claudia Mirshak, Rebekah Peel, Yasmin Wagner.

Grade 7: Jasmin Bean, Julia Geary, Jane Guay, Maura Hegarty, Zoe Strassell, Samantha Striffler.

Grade 8: Lindsay Downey.

Grade 9: Alexandra Graf, Victoria Hubley, Danielle Maloney, My Pham, Abby Rose Plourde, Rahel Sirack.

Grade 10: Rachel Hoban, Jean Rivka Louis, Joanna O'Brien.

Grade 11: Bailey Brait, Olivia Brooks, Xinyan.

Grade 12: Emily Rines, Sofia Warsame.

BREAKFAST WITH SANTA Saturday & Sunday

The View Restaurant & Tavern
PRESIDENTS GOLF COURSE
357 West Squantum St., Quincy, MA 02171
617.770.2500
CALL FOR RESERVATIONS!!

FREE BREAKFAST OR LUNCH ON YOUR BIRTHDAY
Daily Specials
NOW SERVING SUBS!!!

453 Hancock St., N. Quincy
Open Daily 5AM - 3PM
TAKE OUT AVAILABLE

JOAN'S OLYMPIC GYM GYMNASTICS & DANCE SCHOOL

WAS VOTED #1 ON THE SOUTH SHORE

Ages 2 - Adult

NOW ACCEPTING REGISTRATIONS!

781-843-9624

"An Excellent Education Environment For Your Child"

197 Quincy Avenue, Braintree • www.joansolympicgym.com

RICHARD SOO HOO INSURANCE AGENCY
HOME • AUTO • RESTAURANT • BUSINESS

Free parking on Fay St. first parking lot on the right.

國語·粵語·台山話

More Than Just Insurance.

Plymouth Rock assurance.

1148 Washington St, Boston MA 02118 • 近 Ming's 超市 • (617) 338-8168 • soohooinsurance.com

DESIGNER HAIR COMPANY
SKIN & BODY CENTRE

1637 Hancock Street
Quincy, MA 0219

617-479-4247

REDKEN PROFESSIONAL SEBASTIAN.

Ask the GEMOLOGIST

BY JEFFREY M. BERTMAN
GRADUATE GEMOLOGIST

AS BEGUILING AS ELIZABETH TAYLOR'S EYES

Iconic Hollywood movie star and actress Elizabeth Taylor was famously known to love diamonds, but another gemstone may more fully capture the true color and beauty of her eyes. Tanzanite, named after the African country that is the only place in the world known to produce the fabulous gemstone, is rich bluish-violet with hints of purple. Tanzanite, the birthstone for December, is actually a blue variety of the gemstone zoisite. Due to its rarity and unparalleled beauty, it is one of the most coveted gemstones in the world. Upon its relatively recent discovery in 1967, tanzanite was celebrated by knowledgeable specialists as the "gemstone of the 20th century." The gemstone's elevated status has not changed since then. Named the new birthstone of December, tanzanite jewelry is an elegant and chic choice for a gift. Whether it's a ring, earrings, or pendant, you can't go wrong with Tanzanite. This fiery, blue-violet gem can be found at 1402 Hancock Street, Quincy. Call us at 617-773-3636, and allow us to assist you.

Don't Forget: We pay cash for Gold - Platinum - Diamonds... highest prices paid.

Rogers
Diamonds... Watches... Jewelry

www.rogersjewelry.com
BANK OF AMERICA BUILDING

Local Charities: Demand Up For Holiday Assistance

Cont'd From Page 9

Anyone wishing to participate by donating is asked to email dove.elfteam@gmail.com for more information. Chandler said the deadline to drop off the gifts is Friday, Dec. 14.

There are other ways to help DOVE besides the adopt-a-family program. DOVE's shelter, for example, is always in need of new bedding and other items for incoming residents.

"When people arrive we give them a new laundry basket, sheets, towels," Chandler said. "They often come in with nothing and we let them keep them when they leave."

Chandler suggested gift cards, like ones for retail stores or gas, as another way to help. While a donor may find giving a gift card to be impersonal, Chandler said they're greatly appreciated.

"These gift cards are very, very helpful," Chandler said. "It doesn't seem very personal but it allows a parent to go out and buy what their children want."

Chandler added that DOVE could always use diapers, especially ones sizes three and up.

DOVE does need volunteers as well. They help put on events, like a scheduled dance coming up in the spring, work at the shelter, and assist the board of directors.

Additional information on DOVE, including ways to donate, are available online at dovema.org or by contacting their development office at (617) 770-4065.

Quincy Community

Action Program (QCAP) (617) 479-8181

With a 10 percent increase in clients at the food center, QCAP is looking for donations and volunteers to help the hundreds they serve each holiday season.

"We have had a 10 percent increase in clients for the food center," said QCAP's Executive Director Beth Ann Strollo. "We are almost back up to where we were a couple of years ago in 2008 when the recession first started. We are not at the highest point as we were but we are close."

Strollo said that they are seeing many people who are still struggling trying to find a job, and because they are struggling to find employment they are looking to QCAP for help during the holiday season.

"We continue to see many people coming to us looking for help who are still unemployed and who are the last people to be hired," said Strollo. "People are looking to us for help especially during the holidays, there is a steady demand for service right now."

Strollo said that their Emergency Food Center is in need of volunteers, food, and gifts for kids of all ages.

"We are desperately in need of volunteers at the food center right now," said Strollo. "For the gifts we try to link the toys up so that they fit the age of the child. It's really hard to get something for the teenagers; it's very tricky buying for them. Usually we suggest gift cards, clothes, and hooded sweatshirts."

QCAP is the leading private nonprofit organization in the Greater Quincy area dedicated to reducing poverty and helping low-income people achieve self-sufficiency. They serve 18,000 people annually, with a service area that includes Quincy, Weymouth, Braintree, Milton, Hull and surrounding Norfolk County and South Shore Communities.

To volunteer at the food center, or donate toys contact the Emergency Food Center Coordinator Melinda Alexander at (617) 471-0796 or the Director of Development and Marketing Susan Harrington at (617) 657-5308 or visit the website www.qcap.org/home for more information.

QCAP has three locations in Quincy; 1509 Hancock St., (617) 479-8181; 1 Copeland St., (617) 471-0796 and 9 Bicknell St., (617) 773-1222.

Towers Toy Drive Schlager's Auto Body Repair Inc.

299 Centre St., Quincy
Schlager's Auto Body Repair Inc. is looking for toy donations that will benefit the victims of Super Storm Sandy in New Jersey.

"We are always looking to help out," said Owner Jim Schlager. "What's Christmas all about than to give back?"

Schlager is collecting the toys as a part of the Towers Toy Drive held by the Conference of Northeast Towing Associations (CNTA) and the Garden State Towman's Association of NJ.

The drive is asking for new unwrapped toys for boys or girls between the ages of infant and 16.

Schlager's is one of the many drop off stations for the Towers Toy Drive, but according to Schlager they have yet to receive any donations. All toy donations must be in before Wednesday Dec. 12 and can be dropped off at the shop during business hours, which are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday, if you can only drop off on Sunday call ahead before stopping at the shop.

For more information contact Schlager's Auto Body Repair Inc., at (617) 328-3033.

Quincy Animal Shelter 56 Broad St., Quincy (617) 376-1349

The volunteer staff at the Quincy Animal Shelter is gearing up for the holiday season, decorating the shelter and reminding us to remember our furry friends during this time of year.

"The volunteers decorate the shelter for the holidays," said Julianne Coleman Fonseca the Fundraising and Marketing Manager at QAS. "They have stockings made for each dog in the building, they make festive cut outs of all the cat's names and mini bios, and we usually have a holiday open house with a raffle and bake sale."

For the first time QAS had to send out letters to residents asking for donations this year.

"I have sent out a year-end appeal letter to some Quincy residents hoping to get some new donors, as cash is the most need we have," said Fonseca. "The appeal letter will also go in our Winter Newsletter and was sent out in an email blast. This was the first appeal QAS has done asking for donations."

Along with sending letters the shelter will also hold a number of different fundraisers throughout the holiday season such as their Santa Paws event where pets can get a photo with Santa Paws by paying a $15 cash donation. The event, held at Pet Supplies "Plus", will be on Dec. 9th from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The first Santa Paws event happened this past Sunday, Dec. 2nd.

The shelter will also be raffling off an Apple IPAD 3 with 16 GB and Wi-Fi, a value of over $500. Tickets can be purchased at the shelter, on the QAS website, at 501 Hair & Company, 216

Quincy Ave. Braintree, or at Pick of the Litter on 393 Hancock St., Quincy, for $5 each or $20 for five.

The shelter will be receiving a donation from The Water Buffalo Tailgating Club, after their Toys for Tots fundraiser at the Commonwealth Restaurant and Loge. The club is donating all of the proceeds from their 50/50 raffle to the shelter. The Toys for Tots Christmas Celebration will be held this Saturday, Dec. 8th, from 6:30-10:30 p.m. wristbands are $15 and guests are asked to bring an unwrapped, non-violent, boys or girls toy.

According to Fonseca the shelter is also in urgent need of new or used cat carriers, paper towels, bleach and laundry detergent, dishwashing detergent, and any brand of dry cat food for their feral pantry (open bags are okay). The shelter also needs "Yesterday's News" cat litter, Fancy Feast kitten food and Friskies wet food, and bedding (no pillows, comforters, or anything bigger than a twin size).

Fonseca added that the shelter is also in need of foster families, especially during the holiday season.

For more information, www.quincyanimalshelter.org

Con't On Page 13

Add a Little Sparkle to Your Holiday!

Face Framing Foils
$25.00

Esthetica
Hair Salon

126 Franklin St., Quincy
617-786-8444

*Select Stylists
expires 12/29/12

Injured in an accident? Should you talk to a lawyer?

Absolutely yes!

After an accident, you may be in shock. You've been hurt. Chances are you've never had anything like this happen before. You aren't sure what to do next, or who you can trust. That's exactly why you should talk to us. At Bates & Riordan, we are experienced attorneys representing individuals and families on the South Shore. We specialize in putting the pieces together - protecting your interests and making sure you're treated fairly - after an accident. If you've been injured, call Deborah Bates Riordan or Theodore Riordan at 617-328-8080 to see how we can help you. (That conversation and your first meeting with us are absolutely free.)

BATES & RIORDAN, LLP

~ On your side ~

645 Hancock Street, Wollaston/Quincy • 617-328-8080 • BatesRiordan.com

A S S E M B L Y

NOW OPEN!!!

Serving Lunch 11:30-4:00 & Dinner 4:00-10:00

ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAYS & SATURDAYS

10pm-1am

Dec. 7th.... DJ Damien

Dec. 8th.... Nighttime Radio

Dec. 14th.... Cherry Orchard

Dec. 15th.... Nighttime Radio

Book your Holiday Party!

A S S E M B L Y

425 Hancock St. Quincy

(617)302-4696 • (617)302-4987

Patrick 'Padraic' Walsh, 71

Carpenter, Member Wollaston Yacht Club

A funeral Mass for Patrick 'Padraic' Walsh, 71, of Squantum, formerly of Ballinrobe, Mayo, Ireland, a carpenter, was celebrated Wednesday in St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mr. Walsh died suddenly Nov. 29.

He was a devoted husband, father and grandfather who cherished his family.

Mr. Walsh worked as a skilled carpenter for Local 67 for many years. His life was focused on taking care of his family, whether it was helping his daughter at her Brady Academy of Irish Dance or baby sitting for his grandchildren, he was always willing to lend a helping hand.

Mr. Walsh loved the water, he truly enjoyed fishing and was a lifelong member of the Wollaston Yacht Club. He will be remembered as a gentleman with a great smile who loved to socialize. He will be sadly missed by all those who knew him.

The beloved husband of the late Claire (Mannion) Walsh. Loving father of Brian Walsh and his wife Joanne, Brendan Walsh and his wife Julia, Julie Brady and her husband Brendan, Claire Kelly and her husband Patrick and Cindy Kerins, QPD and her husband Brian all of Squantum. Brother of John Walsh of England, Michael Walsh of Ireland, Brother Thomas Walsh, C.Ss.R. of Belfast, Ireland, Mary Hamrouge of England, Marcella Cheater of England, Breeda O'Malley of Ireland and Eileen McGuinness of England. Cherished Granddad of Erica, Brendan, Julia, Sinead, Deirdre, Mairead, Ronan, Niamh, Finn, Aideen, Sorcha, Cullen, Ainsley, Elias, Conor, Quinn, Maeve, Jack and Claire.

PATRICK WALSH

Burial was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to The NephCure Foundation, 15 Waterloo Avenue, Suite 200, Berwyn, PA 19312.

John E. Burke, Jr., 60

Norfolk County Corrections Officer

A funeral Mass for John E. "Jack" Burke, Jr., 60, of Medway and formerly Quincy was celebrated Wednesday at St. Agatha's Church, Milton.

Mr. Burke died Nov. 29.

Born September 18, 1952 in Boston, Massachusetts he was the only son born to the late Rita G. (Welch) and John E. Burke Sr. He attended Thayer Academy and was a 1970 graduate of North Quincy High School. He also attended Quincy Junior College. He was also a current union member of the CCOA.

Mr. Burke was employed as a Corrections Officer by the Norfolk County Sheriff's Office in Dedham for over 26 years. After being promoted to Sergeant in 1990, he served in various leadership positions, including: Community Outreach Counselor, Classification Officer, Director of Classification, ADS of Security and Project Supervisor of the EIP Program. He was most recently a Corrections Office Supervisor and was also a Transportation Officer earlier in his career. He was the recipient of numerous letters of commendation from Norfolk County residents, community members and ranking officers at the NCSO.

JOHN E. BURKE, JR.

His hobbies included trip to Harwich on Cape Cod, boating outings to Spectacle Island and cruising Boston Harbor with his sister Denise and her husband Richard. He also loved to enjoy an occasional scratch ticket or two. He was a proud member of the K of C in North Quincy. He will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him, especially his nephew Richard M. Doyle of Quincy with whom he had a special bond with.

Devoted father of Dylan J. Burke, Dayna C. Burke, and David J. Burke, all of Medway. Dear brother of Gail A. Haslam and her husband Edwin of NC and FL, Janice B. Christen and her husband Paul of Sagamore Beach and Denise C. Doyle and her husband Richard of Quincy. Former husband of Kelly (Pavlosky) Burke of Medway. Also survived by his aunt Mary A. Burke of Dorchester, several nieces, nephews, cousins, and his many friends and co-workers at the Norfolk County House of Correction and Jail in Dedham.

The Burke family would like to acknowledge and thank William LeBlanc and his daughter Jeanette for their dedicated care and support during Mr. Burke's final days.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sheehan Funeral Home, Stoughton.

Interment was in Milton Cemetery.

Memorial donations may be made to a charity of choice.

Mabel M. McGee, 92

A Mass of Christian Burial for Mabel M. (Lindsay) McGee, 92, of Weymouth and formerly Quincy was celebrated Monday at St. Agatha's Church, Milton.

Mrs. McGee died Nov. 28.

Born in Milton she was the daughter of the late Alexander and Ann (Caswell) Lindsay. Playing bingo and knitting were her favorite pastimes.

Beloved wife of the late James H. McGee, Jr. Devoted mother of James H. McGee III and his wife Donna of Westminster and Paul F. McGee of Weymouth. Survived by six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Sister of the late Alexander Lindsay and Eleanor Seavor.

MABEL M. MCGEE

Interment was in Cedar Grove Cemetery, Dorchester.

Corinne LeBlanc Smith, 87

A memorial service for Corinne LeBlanc Smith, 87, of Stuart, FL and formerly Quincy will be held Feb. 3, 2013 at 1 p.m. at Sea Watch restaurant in Ft. Lauderdale, FL.

Mrs. Smith died Nov. 15.

Born in Quincy, she graduated from North Quincy High School and married her high school sweetheart Arthur W. Smith in 1947. They resided in Wollaston and later, because of her love of antiquities, purchased a 200-year-old house in Scituate which she and Arthur lovingly restored. They relocated the family to Broward County, FL in 1964 to start a restaurant in Pompano Beach. She ran the Burger Castle until her retirement after which she aptly managed the family property interests.

Mrs. Smith came from a long line of accomplished sailors. In her youth, she raced her personal sailboat - Yahoootee - from Squantum Yacht Club in Wollaston and enjoyed sailing and fishing on family boats throughout her life. She was also an accomplished golfer, tennis player and bowler. She loved swimming and the sea. As a young wife and mother, she learned contract bridge and enjoyed the game throughout her life earning master points as a duplicate player. During quiet moments,

CORINN
LEBLANC SMITH

she always enjoyed a good book. She was also a huge Miami Dolphins fan.

She moved to Montego Cove in Stuart, FL in December of 2007. Mrs. Smith took great pride in her family. She was a lady of great humor and dignity whose smile could light up a room. She was dearly loved and will be sorely missed by family and friends.

Devoted mother of Richard J. Smith, Diane Smith Prouty and Corinne E. Smith. Mother-in-law of Patsy Hunt Smith and Edward R. Philipp, Jr. Grandmother of Paul Prouty II, Richard J. Smith Jr., Chamonix Smith Robinson, Brittany Smith and Cameron Prouty. Great-grandmother of Brandon and Austin Prouty, Kenlyn Robinson and Ashlyn Agee. Survived by her sister Violet Doherty of Quincy and numerous nieces in nephews. She also delighted in her canine grandchildren, Daisy, Cassie and Mollie.

Good Cafe & Gourmet Treats

GUNTHER TOOTIES
Freshly Baked

1253 Hancock St.
Quincy
(Right Outside Quincy Center
T-Square Next to City Hall)
617-471-1866

Open 7 Days
Quincy • Hanover • Pembroke • Duxbury
www.GuntherTooties.com

"BEST BAGELS IN TOWN"
Over 30 selections Homemade Bagels & Cream Cheese

• Chai Lattes
• Frozen Drinks
• Sandwichs
• Breakfast
• Catering
• Appointments

FREE
Tub of Cream
Cheese with purchase of Bakers
Dozen of Bagels
1 coupon per visit
Quincy Only • Expires 12/31/12

FREE
Breakfast Sandwich
with purchase of any
Breakfast Sandwich
1 coupon per visit
Quincy Only • Expires 12/31/12

KIP ORLANDO'S
men's hairstyling

"Look your Best
for the Holidays"

Men's Hairstyling in a Barbershop Atmosphere

Hours: Tues 9-6, Wed - Fri 9-8, Sat 9-6 • Appt. or walk-ins welcome
261 E. Squantum St., N. Quincy, MA 02171
617-786-8545 • www.kiporlando.com

Earn rewards when you shop.

Carry the VISA® Classic Credit Card from QCU!

You'll enjoy:

- Low 9.90% APR* with auto pay. 10.90% APR without.
- Rewards Program with up to 1% cash back.
- No Annual Fee.

*APR= Annual Percentage Rate. Variable interest rate, may change after account is open. Rate, term and approval amount based on credit worthiness. Maximum Loan Amount for qualified applicants is $15,000. Speak to a loan Representative for more information including fees associated with this account. To avoid paying interest on purchases, your due date is at least 25 days after the close of each billing cycle. We do not charge you interest on purchases if you pay your entire balance by the due date each month. To calculate your balance, we use a method called "average daily balance" (excluding new purchases). Minimum monthly payment amount 2% of balance (principal and interest). Foreign transaction fee of 1.00% of each multiple currency transaction in U.S. dollars, and 0.80% of each single currency transaction in U.S. dollars. Complete Rewards Program details available on loan application disclosure. Rewards subject to IRS regulations. VISA is a trademark of VISA International.

100 Quincy Ave. • Quincy, MA 02169
617.479.5558

Toll Free: (866) 479-5558 • www.qcu.org

519 Columbian St. • Weymouth, MA 02190
781.340.7117

Apply online at www.qcu.org

Local Charities: Demand Up For Holiday Assistance

Cont'd From Page 11

contact information, or to donate, visit the QAS website, www.quincyanimalshelter.org or call the main number (617) 376-1349. For anyone with questions about donating contact Julianne Fonseca at fundraising@quincyanimalshelter.org.

Salvation Army
6 Baxter St.
(617) 472-2345

The two new Lieutenants at the Quincy Salvation Army are expecting the numbers for their food vouchers, children and families in need of assistance to grow significantly within the next few weeks leading up to Christmas.

"We have two weeks left till Christmas and we expect that the numbers will grow," said Lt. Tim Ross. "We are still getting calls from people asking for help, and we are continuing to accept applications for assistance."

Ross said they began accepting applications for assistance at the beginning of November and on Wednesday they accepted even more applications.

"As long as we are getting applications we will help," said Ross. "As long as the need is there we will provide what we can for them."

One of the ways the Salvation Army helps children in need is by setting up the Angel tree each year. Last year the tree allowed for over 300 children to receive toys, and this year it will help even more with already 322 children signed up to receive help. Those wishing to help this year can pick up a tag with a wish list at the Salvation Army headquarters on 6 Baxter St.

Ross said that the hardest wishes to fill continues to be children ages 10-12; the Angel tree helps children from ages 0-12.

One item that seems to be in high demand this year, and will likely surpass the numbers of last year, are the food vouchers that are handed out to families in need. Ross said that they have given out 389 food vouchers and he expects them to hand out many more surpassing last years 400 vouchers that were distributed.

Ross added that the major challenge they are facing right now is keeping their food pantry stocked.

"The major challenge right now for The Salvation Army is our food pantry and keeping it stocked," said Ross. "We are going more often right now because people are in more need of it, the number of people seeking assistance of the food pantry has increased. We use to go once a month and now we are going there every three weeks, it's the biggest things right now for us."

The biggest fundraiser for the Salvation Army, which helps provide assistance not only during the holidays but year round, is the Kettle and Bell fundraiser that is happening right now. As of Dec. 4th collections were down $5,000 but Ross said that he believes they will most likely match last years total collection of $144,000.

The Salvation Army is also in need of toys, hats, gloves, scarves, and food, along with monetary donations.

Those looking to donate or volunteer can visit the Salvation Army website or the Quincy Headquarters at 6 Baxter St. from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday or call for more information (617) 472-2345.

Germantown
Neighborhood Center
366 Palmer St.
(617) 376-1384

The Germantown Neighborhood Center is teaming up with the South Shore YMCA to hold a holiday gift-giving program to help children in need. They have partnered with local area schools, health centers and caseworkers to identify those children who are in danger of going without this holiday season.

The center is asking those looking to participate in the Holiday Child Gift Giving program to select an ornament off the tree and purchase the gift described on the ornament. Participating local businesses are the South Shore YMCA in Quincy, Fratellis Bakery, Superfitness, Cucia Mia, Dunkin Donuts in Presidents Plaza, Southern Artery, and Washington St., 1604 Salon on Hancock St., and Quincy Credit Union. Once you select an ornament and buy a gift return the unwrapped gift to the box by Dec. 16th.

Since 1982, the Germantown Neighborhood Center has made it its mission to fill the bag of so many families in the City of Quincy, so that every person can stand upright. At no time is this more important than the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons. In a time of year that should be filled with laughter, joy, and thanks, many people struggle to find anything to be thankful for, much less a reason for laughter. Joy is a foreign word to many families who, without the German Neighborhood Center, would be unable to have a big family dinner, or provide gifts for their children.

In order to fill those bags this holiday season the German Neighborhood Center is reaching out to their friends to help end the cycle of poverty by making a donations to the center's holiday program. The holiday assistance program benefits everyone involved, from parents to youth to the volunteers who experience making an impact. The program exemplifies and magnifies what the holiday season is about. Any donation would help, whether it is through the pantry or holiday program.

General gift donations are also appreciated. The Germantown Neighborhood Center is accepting toys, gift certificates, and monetary donations. Gifts for teens are greatly needed.

For more information call the German Neighborhood Center at (617) 376-1384.

$14.50 Tax Rate Set; Property Taxes Up Average $110

Cont'd From Page 2

within 45 days.

A second appropriation used 20 percent of the city's free cash, $420,000, to establish a new inclement weather reserve. The account is intended to offset costs from severe weather like hurricanes or tornadoes. Classified as a stabilization account, expenditures from it would require a two-thirds vote from the council.

"The idea was if the city faced an emergency - hurricane, flooding, something non-snow or ice related - we would have the resources to act immediately. Some of that could be reimbursable by MEMA or FEMA but we would have the where-withal without disrupting other budgets to handle something," Cavanagh said. "If that fund builds up, the council on a two-thirds vote could vote to use the money differently."

A separate ordinance establishing the fund wasn't needed before the appropriation, according to city Auditor Susan O'Connor. But Councillor Doug Gutro said he would like to see an ordinance outlining the fund's purpose at a future meeting.

"Right now all we know is it's an inclement weather reserve fund and the next administration could come in and say they bought 5,000 umbrellas and claim that that's consistent with the inclement weather reserve fund and we as a council won't have anything in writing that says there are certain parameters for what you can use this money," Gutro said.

An additional $496,000 from free cash went into the city's stabilization fund; that fund now has a total of $5 million in it. Separate votes established an OPEB (other post-employment benefits) trust fund and appropriated $210,000 from free cash to the new fund.

The last appropriation moved $250,000 from free cash to the city leave buy-back account. That money is used to reimburse retiring employees for unused sick or vacation days. The FY13 budget already had $350,000 for that line item, but it was nearly exhausted because of unanticipated retirements.

By SCOTT JACKSON

Ordinance Seeks Local Jurisdiction Over Projects Split Between City, Another Community

A zoning ordinance proposed by Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci would give Quincy jurisdiction over proposed projects on any lot split between Quincy and another community, even if no work were to take place on the Quincy side.

Palmucci's proposal is in response to a possible development on the Braintree-Quincy line that many of his constituents are against. But Quincy currently has no jurisdiction over it because construction will only take place on the Braintree side.

The proposed ordinance will remain in committee pending further study by City Solicitor Jim Timmins. He said he was uncomfortable with some wording in the proposal because it could clash with state law that gives municipalities power over zoning projects. The Planning Board was also asked to comment on the proposed change.

COPELAND PACKAGE STORE, INC.

BEER, WINES & LIQUORS

Dennis Carson
273 Copeland St.
Quincy, Ma 02169
(617) 471-5418 • (617) 472-7012

Little Richie's Antiques

SERVING THE ENTIRE SOUTH SHORE • SINGLE PIECE OR ENTIRE ESTATE

CASH PAID FOR SCRAP GOLD & SILVER

Toys • Tools • Glass • Books • Radios • Pottery • Clocks
Coins • Knives • Jewelry • Military • Records • Cameras
Furniture • Hummels • Lladros • Royal Doultons
Maps & Atlases • Trains • Swords • Police & Fire Badges

Musical Instruments • Scientific Instruments
Oil Paintings • Oriental Rugs • Gold & Silver
Advertising Signs • Coin Operated Machines
Anything Unusual & Weird

50 Hancock Street, Braintree

781-380-8165

www.LITTLERICHIESANTIQUES.COM

Nicole's
STUDIO

261 Copeland St
Quincy, MA
617-934-5135

Nicole's Studio offers the very Best in modern hair design

Ladies, Come into Nicole's Studio for a Cut & Color
Bring the guy of your choice, he gets a "FREE CUT"
(He must be a first time client)

Always free parking
Call today for an appointment.
617-935-5135

Visit
www.nicolessalon.com
Like us on Facebook
www.facebook.com/nicolesstudio

CELEBRATE WITH SEAFOOD THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

Featuring all your Holiday Favorites

SHRIMP COCKTAIL
FRESH LOBSTER MEAT
SCALLOPS WRAPPED IN BACON
WARM CRABMEAT DIP
HOMEMADE CRABCAKES (LARGE & BITE SIZE)
BAKED STUFFED LOBSTERS
OUR FAMOUS CHOWDERS
LOBSTER MAC & CHEESE BY THE TRAY
ALL YOUR FRESH FISH & SHELLFISH NEEDS

PLACE YOUR ORDERS EARLY!

★ Special Holiday Hours ★
Sun 12/23 9am-6pm
Mon 12/24 9am-5pm

VISIT WWW.BURKESSEAFOOD.COM
OR CALL FOR MORE HOLIDAY IDEAS

61 BILLINGS RD. NO. QUINCY
617-328-9765 • 617-479-1540

Rev. Dave Johnson Interim Minister At United First Parish

'There Is A Spirit Here That Is Really Life Sustaining And Vital'

By EMILY TAFT

For the next two years, the members of the Church of the Presidents (United First Parish Church) will have the help of their interim minister Rev. Dave Johnson to find a new permanent minister for the congregation.

As the interim minister for the church it is Johnson's job to keep the members on track, help them come to a decision as to what they want in their next minister, and at the end of two years be able to leave knowing he did what he was sent there to do.

"I get to help push them, right now I'm pushing them to make sure they get into the search process to the point where they need to," Rev. Johnson said recently. "My job is partly just making sure things start to move and that they move well, and that the decisions are made the way they should be made."

"The selection of the search committee really has to go to the congregation. The reality is that my job is to make sure the search process goes well, but I have to keep my hands off. The only thing I can do is call the two or three ministers who I think ought to apply and tell them to get their name on the list, that's all I can do."

Johnson was a settled minister at four different churches, and has been an interim minister at six. He made the decision to become a minister in his 20's after running a chapel program in college.

With 48 years of experi-

REV. DAVE JOHNSON, interim minister at United First Parish Church in Quincy Center, says his role in selecting a permanent minister is to make sure the process goes well.

Quincy Sun Photo/Emily Taft

ence, Johnson said that he believes the church won't have a problem finding a new minister, but finding the right one to fit what the members want and who is willing to take on a church with such history might be the challenge.

"I don't know how many applicants we will get. Because of the unique complexity and the very deep history, the candidates have to think about if they want to take that on," said Johnson.

"They have to think about do I want to help make all these connections with all the community work. It's impossible for me to try and guess this one, but I think they will have enough candidates (that apply for the position); there is enough to draw them here. They have to think about the challenges and the opportunities. Every challenge is also an opportunity to do some unique and beautiful new things."

Johnson, who has served a total of 10 churches, said that before the congregation can select a new minister they have to decide what direction they want to go in with the programs and history of the church.

"Churches get into patterns, habit patterns and behavior patterns and just ways of doing things. They need to stop and look at the patterns and think about what they might want to do differently. You want to get them thinking about new ways of moving and doing things that they might not have thought of during the long settled ministry," said Johnson.

"This church has an unusual amount of complex connections to the community because of the former ministers deep involvement in just about anything and everything that was moving and changing and serving people in this city. This church sustains a whole bunch of connections in terms of the homeless feeding program, the prison book program.

"There is a bunch of other things here like that and they need to think about if these are all important things, do they want to keep all the connections. I want to see, and I think any new minister would want to see, who are they now what are their major interests (as a congregation)."

In order for the congregation to determine what path they want to go down Johnson said they will distribute a survey covering every aspect of the church and its programs to get the members opinions.

After the survey is completed a search committee of 5-7 members will be organized to start interviewing and looking into candidates who apply for the new minister position.

"Our process is an open one, it's a mutual choice, so that the church, after it goes through this process they say yes or no to the potential candidate and the candidate might say yes or no to the church," said Johnson.

"If the search committee, which is appointed essential by the congregations, if they are well balanced, in terms of the needs of different people and the interest of different members, they rarely make a bad mistake."

Johnson said he expects the committee will make their choice by early 2014, which will mean he will then have to move on to the next church.

"I always move reluctantly. I love being in places like this but I also love the challenge of a new church. They are always different and there is always something very special about them and there sure is here, and I'm really enjoying it."

"There is a spirit here that is really life sustaining and vital," said Johnson. "This is a very committed church, it's not a big church, but they're so committed it's amazing to watch them to carry these projects on one after another in such a beautiful and sustaining way."

"It's amazing to me. I've known very few churches like this one and I like that."

John Frazer Helps The Hungry Enjoy Thanksgiving

John Frazer of Quincy, a senior at Boston College High School, helped Boston Housing Authority employees feed poor families this past Thanksgiving.

Frazer is a member of "The Model of Leadersip" class at the school which started a school-wide two-week food and money drive in early November. On Nov.

JOHN FRAZER

19, the young men held a collection ceremony in the BC High gym where all the money and food were gathered from the various classrooms.

Frazer with the Models of Leadership class then went to the BHA and helped sort the food and learned about the BHA and section 8 housing.

Commission On Disabilities Public Forum Dec. 10

The Quincy Commission on Disabilities is hosting a public forum Monday, Dec. 10 from 6 to 8:30 p.m. in the Thomas Crane Public Library Community Room, 40 Washington St., Quincy Center.

The Commission invites citizens with a disability to share their experience living or visiting Quincy as a disabled person.

The Commission will also share ways in which

Quincy is becoming more accessible.

For ADA accommodation, call Chris Cassani in the Mayor's Office of Constituent Services at 617-376-1500 by Dec. 5.

CHOOSE QUALITY

Successful Short-term Rehabilitation

- Comprehensive rehabilitation for joint replacement, stroke, cardiac conditions & diabetes
- Occupational, physical, & speech therapies
- Experienced & dedicated nursing staff
- Detailed discharge planning for a safe transition home

Regain strength, confidence & mobility

Hancock Park

REHABILITATION & NURSING CENTER

164 Parkway
Quincy, MA
617-773-4222

Call today
for a Free
Rehabilitation
Brochure & Tour!

Over 60 Years of
Quality Service
Welch
HEALTHCARE AND
RETIREMENT GROUP

Visit one of our branches to enter to win our holiday prize, and open one of our convenient accounts today!

Win a Snow Blower!

Be ready for the winter weather, courtesy of Bank of Canton!

As our way of saying thanks this holiday season, Bank of Canton invites you to enter our Good Cheerlings Sweepstakes for your chance to win a snow blower!

To enter, simply fill out the Cheerlings Sweepstakes entry form and either drop it off at a Bank of Canton branch near you or mail it to:

Cheerlings Sweepstakes
490 Turnpike Street
Canton, MA 02021

Five Lucky Winners!

Free Gifts and Refreshments!
Be sure to stop by any of our convenient branch locations from December 17-21 to receive a free gift and enjoy complimentary refreshments.

Member FDIC. Member DIF.

BANK OF CANTON
We're Here For You

888.828.1690 Canton • Quincy • Randolph • Brookline www.bankcanton.com

Cheerlings Sweepstakes Entry Forms

Name: _____

Street: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Telephone: (____) _____

No purchase or transaction necessary to enter. Limit one entry per person through the end of the promotion. Must be 18 years or older and a resident of MA to enter. Employees of the Bank of Canton, their subsidiaries and affiliates, their vendors, and immediate family members are not eligible to win. Odds of winning depend on the number of entries. Entry form may not be reproduced and is the property of Bank of Canton. Winners will be contacted by telephone after the promotion and need not be present to win. Sweepstakes ends December 22, 2012.

QUINCY FIREFIGHTERS teamed up with the local "Quincy C Cups" team to raise money for breast cancer. The $2,500 the firefighters helped raise will help Kacy Dotoli and Brilene Faherty (center) participate in the Susan G. Komen three-day walk for a cure in Chicago next year. From left: Firefighter Thomas Gannon, Firefighter Paul Moody, Firefighter and Local 792 President Ernie Arienti, Roche Bros. Manager Steve Hohmann, Kacy Dotoli, Firefighter Patrick O'Donnell, Brilene Faherty, Lt. Michael Palaza and Chief Joseph Barron.

Photo Courtesy Michael J. Worley

Quincy Firefighters Help Raise Money For Breast Cancer Walk

By EMILY TAFT

The Quincy Firefighters Local 792 teamed up with the local group "Quincy C Cups" to raise money for Breast Cancer this past month, donating $2,500 to the organization.

"Last year we raised money for the Susan G. Komen," said Lt. Michael Palaza of the Quincy Fire Department. "This year we decided we wanted to keep the charities we donated to local, and in the Quincy community. We decided to donate all the money to the Quincy C Cups because they are local, original Quincy girls."

This was the third time Quincy firefighters donated to the Quincy C Cups, but at much larger level than previous years.

"A few weeks ago, Joe Barron, the Quincy Fire Chief called me and told me the firefighters had approached him about donating to us again this year but at a much higher level," said Quincy C Cup member Kacy Dotoli. "We were all touched that they had thought of us and wanted to help our team achieve our fundraising goal for another year. They truly are a wonderful group of men who inspire me just as much as the survivors I see on our walk!"

The group formed after Dotoli and her friend of over 20 years, Brilene Faherty, both of Quincy, decided they wanted to help those who were struggling with breast cancer.

"In 2010 we decided we wanted to do something together for people who were less fortunate than us. We chose to help those struggling with breast cancer by walking in the Susan G. Komen 3 day for the cure," said Dotoli. "Although neither of us have been affected by breast cancer ourselves or within our family, we are women and know breast cancer has been on the rise. So we said we would walk 'just because'. Raising the money that year was tough, but we had a lot of support with friends and family and were able to complete our goal with an amazing fundraiser we had. Our biggest donation came from the Quincy Firefighters who donated $500 to team Quincy C Cups."

Last year the pair traveled to Atlanta Georgia to participate in the walk, and the team grew to four, and included another Quincy native Erin O'Day, and again the Quincy Firefighters donated $500 to the team. In August 2013 the team will be walking again but this time in Chicago and with $2,500 to start their fundraising.

"After our trip to Atlanta, we knew we wanted to continue completing this journey together in other cities. So we agreed on Chicago for the walk in August 2013," said Dotoli. "Brilene, Erin and I will be traveling to Chicago in August of 2013 to complete another 60 miles, with the hopes that our fundraising will help to cure this horrific disease one day. Along with the very generous donation from the firefighters, we will also be having our fundraiser in the spring at the Beachcomber on Wollaston Beach."

For more information on the Quincy C Cups or to donate to their cause email Kacy Dotoli at kdoli@gmail.com or Brilene Faherty at Brilenefaherty@gmail.com.

Joseph Morrissey Stepping Down Dec. 31; Doris Sinkevich Appointed Interim President

Beth Israel Deaconess-Milton Announces Leadership Transition

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital-Milton President Joseph V. Morrissey will step down Dec. 31 and be succeeded on an interim basis by Doris Sinkevich, the hospital's chief operating officer and chief nursing officer.

Morrissey served as Milton Hospital's vice president of financial services from 1988 until 2003, when he was named president.

A 20-year employee of the hospital, Morrissey was responsible for guiding BID-Milton through a successful affiliation with Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, which was formalized in January, 2012. In addition, he presided over a significant improvement in BID-Milton's quality and patient satisfaction scores, and led the hospital through a well-received renovation and expansion of its facilities.

"Mr. Morrissey has been an excellent steward of BID-Milton during his tenure as president, skillfully guiding us through our affiliation in a way that allowed us to continue to keep our autonomy and focus on providing excellent care in our community," said Michael Brady, chairman of the BID-Milton Board of Directors. "With this transition complete, BID-Milton has entered a new phase of operations, which we both agree requires a different kind of leadership."

DORIS SINKEVICH

"The Board is extremely grateful to Mr. Morrissey for his guidance through this process and for his fine work through more than two decades of service to this institution."

Sinkevich joined BID-Milton as the vice president of Patient Care and Quality/Chief Nursing Officer in early 2009, after serving in an interim role at the hospital as the chief nursing officer. This past April she was appointed to the position of chief operating officer.

Sinkevich has worked as a CNO and COO in various acute care and behavioral health organizations in Massachusetts for over 25 years.

She served in several positions at Quincy Hospital from 1981 to 1998 including vice president of Patient Services and chief nursing officer.

In addition, Sinkevich has worked as a consultant and interim executive in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Vermont.

The BID-Milton Board of Directors has appointed a search committee, headed by board member Tony Cichello, and will immediately embark on a national search.

"In this rapidly changing environment, we are committed to finding a leader who has expertise in community relations, physician recruitment, and is absolutely committed to community-based care," Brady said. "BID-Milton occupies a unique place in the market, providing affordable, high-quality care in the community, and we believe that this strength will allow us to not only survive, but thrive, in today's shifting healthcare landscape."

STOECKEL INSURANCE AGENCY, LLC

• stoeckelinsurance.com •

Professional Insurance Advice with a Personal Touch
for your AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS • FAMILY

128 McGrath Highway, Quincy, MA

617.786.7444

A smarter way to target prostate cancer.

MEET ARTEMIS.

In the battle against prostate cancer, there's a new weapon: Artemis. It's the fusion of 3D imaging technologies that brings pinpoint accuracy to prostate biopsies, and brings you an enhanced level of confidence in your care.

HEAR WHAT ARTEMIS HAS TO SAY AT BIDMILTON.ORG/PROSTATEHEALTH.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

$CASH PAID$ MASS DEPOSIT BOTTLES & CANS

24 BROAD ST., QUINCY
(OFF SOUTHERN ARTERY BEHIND POLICE STATION)

SOLDIERS FROM Golf Company, 186th Brigade Support Battalion, Army National Guard based in Quincy help fill shopping bags full of food for needy families before making deliveries from the Esther R. Sanger Center for Compassion last Saturday.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

Sanger Center Food Mission Gets Big Boost From Guard

By ROBERT BOSWORTH

The Quincy-based Esther R. Sanger for Compassion is known for its good will missions of helping the less fortunate especially during the holiday season.

Last Saturday, the Sanger Center got a big boost for its food assistance mission from Golf Company, 186th Brigade Support Battalion, Army National Guard based at the Quincy Armory, 1000 Hancock St.

About 20 soldiers from the 186th BSB wearing winter fatigues stopped by the Sanger Center at 282 Billings Road to pick up food and other household necessities like laundry detergent. They then fanned out across the city making those deliveries to needy folks in humvees.

Some 60 deliveries were made. The food provided about 75 meals.

Before the guardsmen arrived, shopping bags full of food were set up on a long table. Coordinating the delivery were David Wooster, executive director of the Sanger Center; Program Assistant Mary Jordan; and volunteer Kelly Luo, a student at North Quincy High School.

Helping out the Sanger Center is all about helping the community, said Specialist John Keenan, age 30, of Quincy.

"This makes us feel really good," said Keenan, who served a year in Iraq as a mechanic in 2004.

"We're here to help the community. That's what I love the most about the National Guard. I've been in the Guard for six years and I spent six years in the Army Reserves. This is the start of my 13th year and I'm happy to be a part of the National Guard."

While this is the first time the unit has helped the Sanger Center for Compassion, they have assisted local residents before.

The unit was activated to help during Hurricane Irene last year and Hurricane Sandy in late October.

"We look forward to helping the Quincy Crisis Center again," Spc. Keenan said before he and his fellow National Guardsmen loaded up their humvees and made their deliveries while light snow fell.

Dunkin' Donuts Toy Drive Underway

DUNKIN' DONUTS franchisee Victor Carvalho joined members of the Quincy Licensing Board to promote the 12th Annual Dunkin' Donuts Holiday Toy Drive in Quincy. The toy drive is underway through Dec. 15 at five Dunkin' Donuts restaurants in Quincy: 543 Southern Artery, 1250 Hancock St., 825 Southern Artery, 366 Centre St., and 100 Granite St. Guests are encouraged to donate new, unwrapped toys for children in need. From left to right: Joe the Dunkin' Donuts Cup; Director of Inspectional Services Jay Duca, Commissioner of Public Health Drew Scheele, Police Chief Paul Keenan, City Clerk and License Board Chairman Joseph Shea; Fire Chief Joseph Barron, Dunkin' Donuts General Manager Fabio DeSousa, and Dunkin' Donuts Franchisee Victor Carvalho.

Quincy Medical Center Awarded An 'A' For Patient Safety

Quincy Medical Center has been honored with an "A" Hospital Safety Score by The Leapfrog Group, an independent national non-profit run by employers and other large purchasers of health benefits.

The A score is the highest national distinction for excellence awarded by the Leapfrog Group.

The latest update to the Hospital Safety ScoreSM was released last week. A, B, C, D or F scores are assigned to U.S. hospitals based on preventable medical errors, injuries accidents, and infections. The Hospital Safety Score was compiled under the guidance of the nation's leading experts on patient safety and is designed to give the public information they can use to protect themselves and their families.

"Patient safety is our number one priority at Quincy Medical Center and the Leapfrog award is one of many distinctions we have received from nationally recognized quality experts for our exceptional care," said Daniel Knell, president of Quincy Medical Center. "I am extremely proud of our highly skilled and committed staff and of the exceptional care our team provides to our patients."

"Hospitals like this that earn an A have demonstrated their commitment to their patients and their community," said Leah Binder, president and CEO of The Leapfrog Group. "I congratulate Quincy Medical Center for its safety excellence, and look forward to the day when all hospitals will match this standard."

To see Quincy Medical Center's scores as they compare nationally and locally, visit the Hospital Safety Score website at www.hospitalsafetyscore.org.

which also provides information on how the public can protect themselves and loved ones during a hospital stay. People can also check their local hospital's score on the free mobile app, available at www.hospitalsafetyscore.org.

Calculated under the guidance of The Leapfrog Group's nine-member Blue Ribbon Expert Panel, the Hospital Safety Score uses 26 measures of publicly available hospital safety data — such as rate of pressure ulcers, nursing workforce staffing, and rate that surgery patients who received appropriate treatment to prevent blood clots at the right time — to produce a single score representing a hospital's overall capacity to keep patients safe from infections, injuries, and medical and medication errors.

The Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award

presented by

The Quincy Sun

I would like to nominate

(Please type or print neatly)

for

The Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.

Memorial Citizenship Award

I believe he/she deserves this award because:

Submitted by:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Tel. No. _____

Fill out form and mail (or bring) to:

The Quincy Sun

c/o The Henry W. Bosworth Memorial Citizenship Award

1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

NOMINATION DEADLINE: Monday, Dec. 31

1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

27 locations

Eastern Insurance

AUTO • HOME • LIFE & PENSION
MEDICAL • COMMERCIAL PACKAGE
WORKERS COMPENSATION • UMBRELLA
MARINE • BONDS • PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY

DONALD UVANITTE

Sr. Vice President,
CIC, ARM, AAI, AU, AIS, CRIS, LIA

(617) 328-8300

382 Quincy Ave.

Quincy, MA 02169

www.easterninsurance.com

27 locations

AMONG THOSE ATTENDING the unveiling of the newly restored cupola atop the Quincy Medical Center's Administration Building were (from left) QMC President Daniel Knell, Mayor Koch, Ward 5 Councillor Kirsten Hughes, state Rep. Bruce Ayers and QMC Board member Don Uvanitte. At right, the restored cupola.

(Quincy Sun Photo by Robert Bosworth.)

QMC Unveils Restored Administration Building Cupola

Scores of people gathered on the front lawn of Quincy Medical Center (QMC) last Wednesday to witness the unveiling of a newly restored cupola atop the hospital's Administration Building.

Built in 1936 and designed by architects Paul and Carroll Coletti, the Administration Building's cupola had fallen into disrepair with broken windows, deteriorated wood trim and cracked and peeling paint.

"We originally had planned to just paint the cupola when we painted the rest of the Administration Building," said QMC President Daniel Knell. "But once we took a closer look, it became apparent that a total rehab was needed. Now it has been restored to the original grand Classical Revival Style the Coletti brothers designed back in 1936.

This restoration project is more than just a cosmetic improvement — albeit a face-lift was certainly needed. It signifies the host of improvements that have taken place throughout the entire facility since becoming a Steward Family Hospital in October of 2011 and the many more that are still to come."

Mayor Thomas Koch and state Rep. Bruce Ayers joined Knell in addressing the crowd, expressing their excitement for the progress being made at QMC. Also in attendance were QMC board members, medical staff, employees, members of the City Council, as well as patients and visitors.

Mari's Place

35 Washington St., Quincy

617-471-1200

WWW.MARISPLACE.COM

SUNDAY - THURSDAY
4 p.m. to Close

21-TOPPING
PIZZAS
FOR $10

MONDAY

Wii Bowling

w/50¢ Wings

@ 8PM

WEDNESDAY

Karaoke 9PM

THURSDAY NIGHT

Open Mic

FRIDAY- Gourmet Night

THURSDAY THRU SUNDAY

Live Bands

FRI. & SAT. at 11PM

LOBSTER RAFFLE

MEAT RAFFLE

SUN., JAN. 6TH

2:00PM

All Raffles Benefit

Hurricane Sandy Relief

$10.00 EVERY DAY

32 oz. Pitcher Bud or Bud

Light w/10 Buffalo Wings

OR 1-Topping Pizza

$5.00 refills

HOME-MADE DAILY SPECIALS

I am a Steward.

Brian A. Kenny, MD
Internal Medicine
Steward Medical Group Furnace Brook Internal Medicine,
1261 Furnace Brook Parkway, Suite 22, Quincy, accepting new patients

Steward Medical Group is pleased to welcome Dr. Brian Kenny to the Quincy Medical Center community. A graduate of the University of Navarra Faculty of Medicine, Pamplona, Spain, Dr. Kenny completed his residency at Carney Hospital in Boston. With a focus on primary care and internal medicine, he also has an interest in geriatric medicine. In addition to English, Dr. Kenny speaks Spanish. Please call DoctorFinder™ at 1-800-488-5959 to make an appointment.

Quincy Medical Center

A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

Call 800-488-5959 or visit steward.org/doctorfinder

KING OPTICAL

Transitions®

Healthy sight in every light™

(781) 843-2133

20 School Street West • Braintree

(Off Washington Street) • WWW.KINGOPTICAL.NET

Holiday Gift Guide

Elegant accents for the home, jewelry, accessories & more...

Complimentary ~Gift Wrap~

Open
Thurs.-Sat.
10am-5pm
Sun.
Noon-5pm

304 Victory Rd., Marina Bay on the Boardwalk

The Four's Restaurant

FREE $20 GIFT CARD WHEN YOU PURCHASE $100 IN GIFT CARDS

HAVE A HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON

15 Cottage Avenue
Quincy • 617-471-4447

certificates available on-line
www.thefours.com

285 Washington Street
Norwell • 781-659-4414

166 Canal Street
Boston • 617-720-4455

Anderson BICYCLE

Continue "The Tradition" with a New "Anderson Bicycle"

for Christmas
Save Shipping Costs
Hundreds of Gift Ideas
& Stocking Stuffers!!!

Bicycles for every age & ability
One stop shop for service, clothing & accessories

380 Washington St. • Quincy
(617) 769-9669 • www.andersonbicycle.com

Please, support your local small businesses this season

332 Victory Road,
Marina Bay, MA 02171
617 471-3511

FREE $25.00 GIFT CARD

for every $100.00 in gift cards purchased

(offer expires 12/25/12)

The Gift Garden

Tis the season to shop!

Come explore our great selection of gifts including stylish scarves and handbags handcrafted jewelry and fragrances Carolers, musicals and fabulous ornaments

Gifts for the holidays and all occasions

Visit us at the second level of the Milton Marketplace
Convenient parking and complimentary gift packaging
617.696.6644

CHRISTINE'S
DAY SPA & ELECTROLOGY

Gift Certificates Available Online for Men & Women

go to www.quincyspa.com

65 Willard St., Quincy • 617-786-1620

This year, Give Quincy a Year Round Christmas Present!

A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION TO

The Quincy Sun

$25.00 in Quincy * $30.00 outside Quincy

$38.00 out of state

to order, call 617-471-3100

THE POTTING BENCH

FLORIST & GARDEN CENTER
139 Howard St.
Braintree (off Quincy Ave.)
781-843-7111
www.thepottingbench.net

Open 7 Days

Daily Delivery

10% OFF Any Purchase

(with Coupon • expires 12/31/12)

Holiday Centerpieces
Fresh & Silk Wreaths
Swags, Roping
Tabletop Trees
Kissing Balls
Boxwood Trees
Gifts & Greens

Special Orders, Call Early

Holiday Gift Guide

FREE $10
GIFT CARD

when you purchase
$50 worth of GIFT CARDS
(until Dec. 31, 2012)

VILLA
Rosa
Restaurant & Lounge
FINE ITALIAN FOOD

Party Platters for celebrating the Holidays'
go to villarosaquincy.com

705 Adams St., Quincy • Free Parking • 617-773-0095
Hours: Sun, Noon - 1am / Mon-Sat, 11-1am

Like us on Facebook

Make This Christmas A Classic!

Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers

52 Billings Rd. No. Quincy 617-328-0084

*The Inn at Bay Pointe's
Christmas Gift to you*
Purchase a $50 Gift Card for $40
(20% discount)

64 Washington Court, QUINCY • 617-472-3200

Ginger Betty's Bakery—where you'll find the sweetest gifts this holiday season!

Let the magic of Christmas come alive as you decorate your own gingerbread house or person while the aroma of gingerbread wafts through the bakery... just like grandma used to make!

Write a holiday letter to a soldier! Facebook.com/GingerBettyBakery
Call today! 617-472-4729 | www.gingerbettys.com | 215 Somerset Ave. Quincy

Sign Up for FREE coupons, daily specials and more!

SHOP Local
for the Holidays!

The Quincy Chamber of Commerce's Shop Local program is a great way to support the local economy and find savings at the same time this holiday season!

Visit TheQuincyChamber.com

- 1) Click on the Shop Local icon
- 2) Sign up to receive coupons and daily specials for everything from restaurants, to retail & speciality stores, salons & spas and more!

Call us at 617-471-1700 for more information.

1400 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169 | TheQuincyChamber.com
Find us on facebook.com/thequincychamber

Farm Direct Roses

(Assorted Colors while supplies last)

$19.99
per dozen

CLIFFORD'S FLOWERS

1229 Hancock St.

617-479-8884

QUINCYOPOLY

A UNIQUE AND FUN BOARD GAME
WITH A LOCAL FLAIR!

Great Holiday Gift!

Games available at:
Training Resources of America
1458 Hancock Street, Suite 304, Quincy, MA
For more information call: 617-773-1470
We'll deliver in the local Quincy area!

All proceeds benefit Quincy YouthBuild operated by Training Resources of America

Deborah "Gentle Doe Eyes" and Harry "Gray Owl" Young stand with the communal drum, a center piece of Native American gatherings.

HARRY WEARS a traditional capote, a coat made by Native Americans from blankets given to them in exchange for furs.

DEBORAH "GENTLE DOE EYES" and Harry "Gray Owl" Young shared the significance of their Native American regalia, including Deborah's medicine pouch worn around her neck, containing herbs picked up along one's journey to treat ailments.
Photos Courtesy Monica Lee

Drumming, Song Celebrate Native American Heritage In Squantum

The Squantum Community Association recently hosted a lecture exploring the Native American heritage of Squantum and the Boston Harbor Islands at the First Church of Squantum.

Archaeologist Ellen Berkland, of the Department of Conservation and Recreation, shed light on the Native American way of life in the Squantum area discovered through explorations of the Boston Harbor Islands.

Beginning many centuries ago, native people came to Squantum and the harbor islands during warmer weather to fish and hunt. Evidence of their inventive methods to harvest food have been discovered through archaeological digs.

Berkland shared several examples including the use of fish weirs – a web of sticks driven into the mud at low tide designed to catch fish that pass over it at high tide and then get caught as the tide recedes.

Harry Young, "Gray Owl," Hawk Clan Chief of

Algonquin Seneca Me'tis heritage, Canada, captivated the audience as he sang and drummed songs of the northern woodland native heritage. Young explained the history and significance of the songs, and demonstrated a variety of instruments, including several drums. He was accompanied by his wife and native shawl dancer, Deborah, "Gentle Doe Eyes", of Azorian Pokanoket Me'tis heritage.

The SCA shared that the next event will feature stories told by long time residents of Squantum. Visit SquantumScoop.com for more details.

The Squantum Community Association provides programming that fosters conversation and community with a focus on topics of interest to the Squantum and Quincy communities, highlighting local talent and history. To subscribe to event notifications email SCASquantumEvents@gmail.com or visit <http://SquantumScoop.com>.

HARRY YOUNG demonstrates drumming techniques.

MAUREEN MAZRIMAS and Sandi Meskimen chat with Deborah and Harry following the lecture.

ARCHAEOLOGIST ELLEN BERKLAND examines a small rattle instrument made of tree bark, with Anamarija Frankic and Deborah Young.

EVENT ORGANIZER Karen Kinnealey enjoys refreshments with Leslie Dennis and Dolly Nogler.

SQUANTUM RESIDENTS Faye Anderson and Susan Mitchell (middle) review Native American artifacts displayed courtesy of John (left) and Helen (right) Salkowski.

Real Estate

Quincy Real Estate Transactions Nov. 26 - Nov. 30

Seller	Buyer	Amount	Address
Haewook Han & Jiwon Han	Cevat Can Piyale & Ayla Guzin Piyale	$1,187,500.00	1 Preston Sq.
Katie A. McDonald, Katie A. Creedon & Patrick Creedon	Alexey Tonyushkin	$185,000.00	90 Quincy Shore Dr. Unit 315
Thomas W. Lentine	Haewook Han	$458,500.00	285 Victory Rd.
710 Furnace Brook Pkwy Realty Trust	Justin M. Kusy & Lorraine Kusy	$377,500.00	710 Furnace Brook Pkwy.
Robert Reiser & Co. Inc.	David L. Castiglioni & Jane M. Castiglioni	$305,000.00	100 Marina Dr.
Rita M. Anderson	Stephen Yee	$325,000.00	2 Shawmut Pl.
Marc P. Poulin	Jie Ren & Ping C. Cai	$176,625.00	90 Quincy Shore Dr. Unit 723
Dawley M. Chadbourne &	Lynne J. Connor	$218,000.00	110 Spring St.
Thomas F. Keady & Phyllis M. Keady	Alexander Pearson & Catherine M. Pearson	$326,000.00	154 Parke Ave.
Max W. King & Brigid King	Shu Qian	$405,000.00	45 Waterston Ave.
E.R. Realty Trust	Xuandeng Liu	$70,000.00	45 Oval Rd. Unit 6
Christopher J. Corradetti, Elena S. Corradetti & Elena P. Sarikelle	Yong K. Zheng	$269,000.00	144 Quincy Shore Dr. #130
Rita Gallo Family Trust	Justin Mai & May L. Mai	$430,000.00	42 Brooks Ave.
469-473 Sea St. LLC	George G. Burke TR & CBC Realty Trust	$170,000.00	469 Sea St. Unit 7
John L. Burns EXR & Elsie D. Gwynn EST	J&E Property Management LLC	$135,000.00	105 South Bayfield Rd.
Wong Family Trust II	52 Florence St. Trust	$273,000.00	52 Florence St.
2931 Richie Rd. Trust	Daniel S. Brennan & Kathryn M. Brennan	$489,000.00	29 Richie Rd.
Federal National Mortgage Assoc. & Fannie Mae	You-Jia Sheehan	$337,500.00	64 Sea Ave.
Mark Fairweather, Erika L. Fairweather, K Harald Kamp and Carol L. Kamp	Matthew Watkins and Rebecca G. Watkins	$250,000.00	43 Kidder St.
Austin T. Nguyen & Rosemary D. Dang	Zheng Liao	$512,000.00	33-35 High St.
Raymond Stebbins & Raymond Stebbins	Nissi Cui & Yinglin Li	$398,000.00	310 Water St.
Martin Hickey & Karen Blomquist	Kevin H. Nguyen & Quyen T. Tran	$465,000.00	100-102 Botolph St.
Elizabeth L. Keating	Shun Y. Tsui & Laurie Tsui	$352,000.00	156 Crescent St.
Earl F. Metzler and Elizabeth E. Metzler	Scott T. Walker & Meaghan Walker	$520,000.00	6 Squanto Rd.
Margaret McMillen	Tieying Chen & Zhengtian Ye	$375,000.00	189 Norfolk St.
Rose M. West & Kevin W. Gedutis	Meghan K. Coughlin	$237,500.00	35 Garfield St.
Rodney W. Hintz & Kalina I. Hintz	Eric Schweitzer & Karoline M. Schweitzer	$295,000.00	28 Allerton St.
Nancy E. Chapman Irrevocable Trust	Luca McNeill	$220,000.00	20 Shennen St.
Margaret M. O'Shea	C&B Investments	$174,500.00	218 South St.
John P. Hunt & Lorraine C. Hunt	Wilson C. Low & Cathy S.L. Low	$345,000.00	470 Adams St. Unit 4
Dwain E. Thompson	Jia Q. Chen & Angela Ma	$180,000.00	70 Town Hill St.
Janice M. Ginty, Robert Doyle & Linda Leonard	Sean Ginty	$275,000.00	16 Barham Ave.
Kelly A. Smith & Kelly A. Osgood	Paul Wise	$189,000.00	20 Chapman St.
Mary A. Callahan & Leo F. Callahan	Christine Shah	$320,000.00	108 High St.
Robert K. Corrieri & Kerrin M. Corrieri	Alvarina Cardoso & Alain B. Cortez	$300,000.00	53 Cleverly Ct.
Cantelmi Realty Trust	Khanh Du & Phuong Ho	$315,000.00	96 Common St.
Hua Hou & Luqin Sun	Zi Fann	$190,000.00	115 West Squantum St. Unit 314

Essential Gifts For Do-It-Yourselfers

This Is A Hammer
By SAMANTHA MAZZOTTA

It's that time of year again, when you've got to think of gifts for friends and family that will be appreciated. Luckily, it's easy to pick out gifts for the do-it-yourselfers. Most DIYers will outright tell you what they need, or you can casually survey their workspace to see what is not there.

If you're a DIYer who really wants something, here are a few things you can drop a hint about:

• Power tools: The key word with handheld power tools is "rechargeable."

While corded power tools provide a consistent flow of electricity and reliable power, cordless drills are DIYers' go-to standard because they can simply pull them off the charger and use them anywhere, no need to look for an outlet or extension cord. Prices: $40 to $249.

• Portability: Most DIYers have more than one toolbox and, as their tool collection grows, they're always on the lookout for one that meets their carry-around needs. Consider tucking a spare tool belt and some basic staples like a tape measure and screwdriver set into a durable toolbox. Prices: $8 to $90.

• Spare parts: While it's impossible to have an extra of everything, extra screws, nuts, bolts, nails and other hardware are essential to have around. Look for combination kits like picture hanger assortments, specialty nail and screw sizes, and cabinet and drawer hardware like handles and hinges for emergency repairs.

• Cleanup: A wet/dry vacuum is an important and versatile part of any workshop. If your DIYer doesn't have one of these yet, there are affordable models available. Prices: $49 to $400.

HOME TIP: "I never ask my husband directly what tools or items he wants for Christmas. Instead, I ask him about the project he's working on. There's always some tool or part he's missing; I just note it down and buy it for him." -- Tara L., Richmond, VA.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

PASS Members Host Legislative Social Here

Members of the Plymouth and South Shore Association of REALTORS® (PASS) gathered at the Fox & Hound Restaurant in Quincy recently for an informal networking event designed to bring PASS members and local legislators together.

PASS members work to build understanding and support of home ownership issues affecting constituents in communities from Quincy to Plymouth with local legislators.

Massachusetts Association of REALTORS® (MAR) General Counsel, Michael McDonagh, updated those present on 2012 REALTOR® Legislative issues and accomplishments. REALTORS® have been working with legislators on numerous issues including increasing the number of educational hours for real estate practitioners; preventing transfer taxes in South Shore communities and developing a copper pipe theft prevention/abandoned property registry.

STATE SENATOR John Keenan (center) with PASS REALTOR® Members: Sonya Hardiman, Carolyn Glynn, Jennifer Kern and John Heaney at PASS Legislative Social at Fox & Hound Restaurant in Quincy.

Vacant houses are an increasing concern in many communities. Many fall into disrepair, attract crime and create safety issues in neighborhoods.

Transfer taxes pose an unfair tax burden on home buyers and sellers, and an increase in real estate educational hours will help ensure better representation for home buyers and sellers.

REALTORS® (members of the National Association of REALTORS®) adhere to higher standards than currently mandated by law, but not all real estate agents are REALTORS®. Legislators and REALTORS® working together have a profound positive impact on the South Shore.

For more information, visit www.PassRealtors.com or contact 781-826-5139.

Tina Belcher

For Personal Help with all of your Real Estate Needs
CALL FOR FREE HOME MARKET ANALYSIS
(781)812-6497

Flavin & Flavin 1005 Hancock St. Quincy
Visit: www.tinabelcherhomes.com

SEE JAYNE TALK
WWW.C21ABIGAILADAMS.COM

Century 21
ABIGAIL ADAMS AGENCY

617-471-7575

FLAVIN Insurance Agency

Complete Insurance Service Since 1925

Auto • Home • Condos • Apartments
Travel Trailers • Umbrellas • Flood • Business
Boats • Commercial Auto

Offering great rates and discounts

Call or drop in for Premium Quote

Flavin & Flavin
1085 Hancock St. Quincy Center
Visit: www.flavinandflavin.com 617-479-1000

Century 21
Annex Realty, Inc.

49 Beale St., Quincy, MA 02170
617-472-4330
www.c21annex.com

Over 70 Seller and Buyer Agents
specializing in Residential, Commercial
Real Estate, Bank Owned Properties,
Short Sales and Rentals

ANNEX REAL ESTATE SCHOOL
Offering Salesperson's, Broker's and Continuing Ed. classes

"STILL NUMBER ONE"

On Friday, Nov. 24 at approximately 11:35 p.m. Officers Bill O'Neil and Dave Zupkofska were dispatched to Edinboro Road on a report of three suspicious males walking around a house. The caller, who is the owner of the house, was not home at the time but received a call from one of his neighbors who was watching the suspects.

Upon arrival, Officer Zupkofska walked the perimeter of the two-family but did not locate anyone. The home appeared secure, so the Officer went to the front of the home where Officer O'Neill was located. At this time, a male approached the Officers, identified himself as a neighbor (different than the one who called) and told them that his girlfriend and three of her male friends came for a visit and the three males suddenly left. He said that his girlfriend noticed that her iPhone was missing and after a thorough search began to consider that one of the three males may have taken the phone.

The boyfriend then called one of the three suspects and

LT. DAN MINTON

A Job Well Done

By QUINCY POLICE LT. DAN MINTON

asked if they had the phone, which they all denied. The boyfriend then activated the GPS software for her phone and the screen showed it to be in the area of River Street. As he exited his home to drive to the area, he saw the police cruisers outside. He approached the Officers and told them about the missing phone.

The Officers took the boyfriend with them as they followed the signal, which led them to Southern Artery between Cove Way and Pond Street. The Officers observed three males walking in the parking area of a local business on Southern Artery, so they stopped them.

Officer Zupkofska asked the three men if they just left a friend's house and accidentally took an iPhone. They acknowledged they left a friend's house but all three denied having a phone that was not theirs. When asked all three males produced cell phones. One was an iPhone but the male suspect claimed it was his.

The Officer advised the suspects that the owner just wanted the phone back and would waive any criminal charges. One of the males volunteered to be searched and raised his arms. As Officer Zupkofska began to pat the suspect down, one of the other suspects, who were standing approximately 3-4 feet away, threw an object backwards over his head onto the roof of a nearby building, causing a thud from the impact of the object on the roof.

Although the Officers were confident that the missing iPhone was tossed upon the roof, Officer Zupkofska questioned the suspect about what he threw and the suspect responded that he threw his bag of pot. Officer Zupkofska took hold of the suspect's right arm and advised him that he was going to be detained. This suspect then began to resist, but with help from Officer O'Neill, the suspect was guided to the ground. During the scuffle Officer O'Neill injured his left elbow when it hit the pavement hard bringing the suspect to a prone position.

Officer O'Neill requested the Quincy Fire Department respond to the crime scene to get onto the roof to retrieve what the suspect had thrown. While waiting for the Fire Department, Officer Zupkofska searched the suspect and found a bag of marijuana and glass pot pipe in his clothing. Once the Fire Department arrived, the number of the missing cell phone was called, which assisted the Firefighter to the phone on the roof.

The phone was handed to the Officers and then Officer O'Neill transported the suspect, a 20-year-old Quincy

Cont'd On Page 26

QUINCY POLICE HOT SPOTS

QUINCY POLICE STATISTICS: NOV. 23 - NOV. 29

ARRESTS: 27

TOTAL CALLS: 1,007

TOTAL STOLEN VEHICLES: none

FRIDAY, NOV. 23

LARCENY, 3:56 a.m., 199 Commander Shea Blvd. Black Jeep Cherokee was seen at Fallon's gas bumps at above stealing gas; cut lock off.

LARCENY, 7:44 a.m., 89 Manet Ave. Serviced. Report filed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 12:10 p.m., 70 Presidential Dr. To car. Vehicle keyed down length of driver's side.

LARCENY, 12:27 p.m., 45 Brackett St. Computer.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 2:21 p.m., 58 Belmont St. Dwelling. House ransacked.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 3:20 p.m., 10 Arnold Rd. Past.

SATURDAY, NOV. 24

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 4:09 a.m., Sea Street Getty, 346 Sea St. Outside glass break. Glass was broken, entry was not able to be gained.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 9:15 a.m., 27 Lawrence St. Believes someone may have broken into house overnight.

LARCENY, 9:41 a.m., CVS Pharmacy/24 Hour, 42 Beale St. In progress. Arrest made. Party is shoplifting, stuff lotions in his jacket. Inbound with one arrest.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 10:48 a.m., 24 Wren Ter. Reporting person states suspect has past malicious damage to property and domestic violence charges, as well as drugs.

LARCENY, 11:35 a.m., Stop & Shop Supermarket, 65 Newport Ave. Wallet.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 1:01 p.m., 71 Fenno St. Dwelling.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 1:04 p.m., 237 Granite St. Man crawling through window. Parties check out.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 2:15 p.m., 121 Main St. Heard banging on door last night. Came out to seem door looked jimmied. Possible B&E attempt, nothing appears to be missing.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 2:31 p.m., O'Rourke Playground, 503 Quarry St. Blue Honda, older model, four-door sedan, right onto Furnace Brook toward Copeland. Three white males, approximately 17 years old, one wearing blue Champion hoodie, one black hoodie, other gray hoodie. Two wearing jeans, one wearing sweatpants. Went back to O'Rourke and threw sneakers out the window at victim.

LARCENY, 6:37 p.m., Stop & Shop Supermarket, 65 Newport Ave. Purse. Arrest made. Security is holding one. Larceny from a person (pocketbook). Also two counts assault and battery on employee.

LARCENY, 11:43 p.m., 67 Edinboro Rd. Arrest made. Three youths stolen an iPhone - they were located at 637 Southern Artery. QFD notified for a ladder. They believe the youths threw the iPhone onto the roof. Arrest for larceny over and possible Class D. Civil citation issued. iPhone was retrieved from the roof and returned to the owner.

SUNDAY, NOV. 25

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 9:48 a.m., 8 Snug Harbor Ct. EMS notified. QMC. Report to be filed.

LARCENY, 1:30 p.m., Blue Hill Gas, 552 Willard St.

State inspection stickers. Report to be filed.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 8:47 p.m., 24 Hamden Cir. Language barrier. Claims male stole credit cards and information. Report to be filed.

MONDAY, NOV. 26

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:57 a.m., 164 Quincy Shore Dr. Motor vehicle was egged and keyed left side front to rear quarter panel. Happened sometime overnight.

LARCENY, 1:51 p.m., 132 Brook Rd. Past package. Package was delivered Nov. 16. Package contained a remote control $104.96. Report to be filed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 2:41 p.m., 953 Southern Artery. Past motor vehicle. Tailgate was keyed.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 2:51 p.m., 7 Canton Rd. Dwelling.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 4:07 p.m., 76 Amesbury St. Report to be filed.

LARCENY, 4:32 p.m., Hancock Court and 25 School St. Pocketbook. Happened today. Navy blue pocketbook, wallet, driver's license, credit cards, car info. Also checkbook and cash.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 6:07 p.m., 185 Hamilton Ave. Dwelling. Caller cleaned up glass did not realize house was broken into until she saw bureau draws were opened.

LARCENY, 6:21 p.m., 2 Hancock St. Caller states bag taken from common area of building Nov. 23. Security reviewed tape and may have suspect information. Report filed.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 6:50 p.m., 99 Fayette St. Reports neighbor's house has been vacant, he now can see lights on inside. Window also broken. Entry made. Report to be filed.

TUESDAY, NOV. 27

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 10:02 a.m., 98 South St. Claims tenant's apartment was broken into. Tenant not home. Wants officer for damage to front door. No break.

LARCENY, 3:45 p.m., 1550 Hancock St. See caller in lobby, had iPhone stolen from above. Party now tracking phone it is moving down Hancock Street northbound towards Adams Street.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 28

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 7:53 a.m., 40 Nelson St. Past. Caller states she was attacked at 40 Nelson St. by a known female. Second party from 40 Nelson St. also called. Related to ongoing investigation. Detective notified. Advised.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 12:11 p.m., 52 Nelson St. Three-inch scratch on right side of front bumper.

LARCENY, 2:14 p.m., 95 West Squantum St. Mail room entered. Numerous packages taken, as well as office keys. Happened overnight.

LARCENY, 2:17 p.m., 706 Adams St. Past. VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 4:36 p.m., 71 Spring St. Window to house broken.

LARCENY, 5:02 p.m., Quincy Rehabilitation Nursing Center, 11 McGrath Highway. Purse had her green card, Social Security card and driver's license. Report filed.

LARCENY, 6:53 p.m., Burger King, 670 Adams St. Caller from QPD lobby states that he parked his vehicle at the Burger King at address above and his lawn mower was taken sometime while he was at the restaurant.

LARCENY, 10:21 p.m., Faxon Commons, 1015 Southern Artery. Cell phone package was taken. Stolen from lobby of building, no specific apartment.

THURSDAY, NOV. 29

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 8:57 a.m., 25 Bowes Ave. Arrest made. Light-skinned black male just broke into house, now running toward Germantown. Arrest made at 100 Coddington St. for breaking and entering daytime.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 2:04 p.m., 18 First St. Suspect broke into house, stole a computer, fleeing scene. Two detained on Pond Street. Two under arrest for breaking and entering daytime. Second party also had active default warrant. Both charged with B&E daytime, larceny over. #2 additionally charged with larceny of controlled substance and the warrant which was not located.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 4:16 p.m., 34 Union St. Scratch on car. Caller in QPD lobby states car was parked at address and someone had scratched the vehicle. The letters "VIM" where also scratched into the back side of motor vehicle.

LARCENY, 9:30 p.m., YMCA, 79 Coddington St. Caller states phone was stolen overnight at YMCA. He has reviewed the security footage and can see suspects and requests to speak with an officer for report. Report filed.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 10:13 p.m., 313 Copeland St. Female banging on the door and walked in on caller. Breaking and entering night-time, threats to kill.

LARCENY, 11:58 p.m., Acapulco's, 1388 Hancock St. See caller in police lobby about stolen items while she was at work.

If anyone has more information about any of the aforementioned incidents or would like more information, contact Crime Prevention Lieutenant Dan Minton at 617-745-5719

STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLES: none.

CAR BREAKS: low numbers of Adams Street, High-point Circle.

BREAKS AND ATTEMPTED BREAKS: Belmont Street, 300 block of Sea Street, Lawrence Street, Wren Terrace, low numbers of Fenno Street, Main Street, Snug Harbor Court, Town Hill Street, Hamden Circle, Canton Road, Amesbury Street, Hamilton Avenue, Fayette Street, Bowes Avenue, First Street, 300 block of Copeland Street.

If you have information on the above crimes, drug activity or any crime, please call the Quincy Police Detective Bureau at 617-745-5764 or log onto the following website: <http://tinyurl.com/ytf6td>.

To report suspicious drug activity, call the Drug Hot-Line at 617-745-5730. You will not be required to identify yourself, but it could help. To make an appointment to view the Registered Sex Offenders book, call Detective James Dentrement at 617-745-5755.

To contact the Crime Prevention Officer for tips or comments, my direct line is 617-745-5719. My e-mail address is dminton@ci.quincy.ma.us

- Lt. Dan Minton

Entries in the Quincy Police Hot Spots are compiled and submitted by the Quincy Police Department.

They are published by The Quincy Sun as a public service to make local residents more aware of any crime activity in their neighborhood. Questions concerning the Hot Spots list should be directed to Crime Prevention Officer Lt. Dan Minton, 617-745-5719.

QUINCY RESIDENTS recently competed for the Southfield School of Brookline in the New England Prep School Soccer championships. The Southfield girls varsity soccer team capped off a fantastic 15-3-3 season with a New England Championship by defeating The Montrose School 3-0 in Pomfret, CT Nov. 18. The Championship was the third straight for the Southfield girls. Quincy girls (QCP) from left are Jordan Bailey, Stephanie Dipietro, Meredith Durham, Sophie Kelly, Alana Bulger and Emily Tabek.

Photo Courtesy Teresa Kelly

QUINCY YOUTH FOOTBALL League recently hosted its first ever cheerleading competition at the Veterans' Memorial Stadium. Serving as judges were (from left) Hannah Meghan Chan, Valentina E. Espinola Peralta, Christina Sawyer, Tia Woods and QYFL Board Member/Cheer Coordinator Nancy McNulty.

QYFL Hosts First Cheerleading Competition

Photos Of Varsity, JV Cheerleading Teams Page 35

Quincy Youth Football League hosted its first ever Cheerleading Competition recently at the Veterans' Memorial Stadium. The competition featured cheerleading squads on all levels from all teams in the League.

On the Varsity level, the scores were extremely close separated only by a few points. The West Quincy Elks took home first place with an exciting routine made up of confetti and signs. Second place went to The Storm who performed an energizing routine. A great performance was demonstrated for the third and fourth awards to the Quincy Point Panthers and North Quincy Apaches.

On the Junior Varsity level, first place went to The Storm Cheerleaders who were very energetic. Second place went to the North Quincy Apaches who demonstrated outstanding power. The third and fourth awards went to the West Quincy Elks and the Quincy Point Panthers whose performances were awesome.

The Quincy Point Panthers freshman squad participated by performing a fantastic dance and cheer routine. Missing from this year's competition were the Houghs Neck Manets.

The Cheerleading competition was a huge success and all teams did very well. The Competition was planned by QYFL Board Member/Cheerleading Coordinator, Nancy Peduzzi-McNulty. Judges for the event were members of the Quincy Militia (Semi Pro Football) Cheerleading Squad.

For more information on Quincy Youth Football Cheerleading, visit www.quincyfootball.com.

AFC U14/U17s Players Make ODP And U10 Girls Get Promoted

Two Quincy players from the America FC U17 boys MAPLE team and another local player from the America FC U14 boys MASC team have made the ODP (Olympic Development Program) team for their respective ages.

These players tried out and were selected as one of the 24 members of the Massachusetts boys U17/U14 teams. The teams will train in the winter, spring and will play in a regional tournament during the summer.

The ODP program gives players exposure to collegiate, professional, Regional and National team programs.

The America FC United U10 girls earned a promotion to Division 1 of the Massachusetts Soccer Conference (MASC) midway through their fall season.

The girls went 3-0-1, scoring 13 while not conceding a goal.

"The girls are getting better every game, and its really encouraging to see them learning and then using their moves and feints in the games", said Coach Tyler Martin.

For more information or to join America FC United go to www.americafcunited.com or email AmericaFCinfo@gmail.com.

Off-season soccer skills training program

AFC WINTER SKILLS CLINIC

Serious about soccer — then get serious about training

The clinic provides players with intensive individual skills development. Skills developed include fast foot work, feign development, general ball work, passing and receiving, movement off the ball, shooting and finishing, and individual defending.

To enroll, look to the chart below, locate your age and gender group, then go online to our website (americafcunited.com) and sign up. All training sessions are run out of local Quincy schools.

Skills Training Sessions $160

Training Group	Grade
U10 Girls	3,4
U10 Boys	3,4
U12 Girls (J)	5,6
U12 Girls (B)	5,6
U12 Boys	5,6
U14 Girls	7,8
U14 Boys	7,8
HS Girls	9-12
U16 Boys	9-10
U17 Boys	11
HS Boys	9-12

Training Starts on January 7th

Each week there are two 1 hour training sessions per team. See website for additional details.

To enroll online Click the soccer ball on the AFC website and follow directions.

For additional information Go to the AFC homepage: www.americafcunited.com

Have questions E-mail, AmericaFCinfo@gmail.com

Partial list of the AFC Winter Skills training staff

Under 8 Soccer Skills Program (Ages 6-8)

U8 PROGRAM

Program emphasizes the core youth soccer skills: Ball-control, dribbling and feign skills; provides players with the skills needed to prepare for organized play at U10.

CHECK OUT QUINCY'S FIRST U8 SKILLS PROGRAM

Give your young player a head start in soccer by letting us develop their foundation soccer skills in our U8 Winter Skills Program. We teach first and second grade players the "foundation" technical skills they need to play the game well while making their first experiences and learning fun. Includes two 1-hour trainings and 1 hour of Indoor Soccer (Futsal) per week for 8 weeks.

Trainers: Sarah Martin

Game experience: Organized Futsal every Sunday included

Program length: 9-weeks; Starts Monday, January 7

Skills training: Two one-hour training sessions per week held at local elementary schools.

$99 per player. For new players, price includes AFC training tee and a ball.

To Register:

Online at our website www.americafcunited.com, click the yellow soccer ball and follow directions.

To inquire about joining an AFC United team please email AmericaFC08@gmail.com

AFC, More than a club. Experience it!

Established in Fall 2008

America FC is a Quincy-based non-profit organization dedicated to teaching young athletes the skills they need to play soccer effectively. The U8 Programs and the Winter Skills programs are run through the AFC Academy, our skills development program.

Girls' Basketball

Quincy Looks To Build On Last Year's Success

By BILL GRIFFIN

It was a storybook season, one of the proudest chapters in Quincy girls' basketball history. The task this winter for the Presidents is to build on those memories and make firm the foundation of a strong, consistent program.

Quincy was 19-5 last year and finished second in the Fisher Division of the Patriot League behind unbeaten state finalist Scituate. The Presidents earned impressive tourney wins over Wellesley and Durfee before falling to top-seeded Franklin by two points in the sectional semifinals.

Four league all-stars, Juli Tomer, Caitlyn Lowry, Nicole Lamie and Kiley McDonald graduated from that team, but there is proven talent returning. And perhaps more importantly, there are players who buy into Quincy's tradition of a scrappy, lockdown defense which will be the core for the Presidents as they try to continue their success this winter.

"I think our strength is we are strong defensively," said coach Jeff Bretsch. "We're quick and the kids have embraced the scrappy way we play defense. That will be our strong point early, and I think the rest of our game will improve as the season goes on."

The area where Bretsch hopes to see the most improvement is the offense. The four stars who graduated left behind a lot of points that need to be replaced.

"Right now our big question is where our offense is going to come from," said Bretsch. "I think we have players with talent who will grow into those roles and we'll get better as they gain more experience."

The Presidents have two gifted starters returning. One is junior point guard Alyssa Lydon. Point guard is the one position you would pick to have experienced talent and the Presidents have it. Lydon ran the team for the entire season last year. She distributes the ball where it needs to go, hits three-pointers and her free throws, and is a consistent, calm presence which will serve Quincy well, especially early in the season.

"She held the reins on a lot of talented horses as a sophomore and that built her confidence," said Bretsch. "She's talented, she can handle pressure, and she grew by leaps and bounds last year."

Junior Kayla McArdle brings a strong defensive presence to the small forward slot. She runs the floor well and had 12 big points in the tourney against Wellesley, but her calling card is defense.

"She's ferocious, one of the best defenders I've ever coached," said Bretsch. "She guarded three consecutive all stars in the Durfee, Wellesley and Franklin games. She held them to 6.6, and 12 points. She can just remove a top scorer from the game."

Quincy has three dependable senior leaders. Senior captain Alysha Dunbar is a strong rebounder and a dependable shooter at one forward slot. Samantha McArdle shoots the jumper well at power forward and Maryssa Dwyer brings energy and hustle to the backcourt.

"Alysha surprises people with her athletic ability," said Bretsch. "Samantha is a good leader and rebounder and Maryssa plays hard for us in the backcourt."

Freshman Nicole Jorgensen (6'4") has worked hard and has great potential inside for the Presidents. Juniors Colleen Andrews, Caroline McBride, Leann McColgan, Courtney Ryan, Taylor Parry, and Madeline Kamb provide quality depth for Quincy.

"We have a lot of potential, but we are young. It may take some time for us to find ourselves, especially on offense," said Bretsch. "Our tradition is that we are much stronger in February than in December and that should hold true this year."

Quincy moves to the Keenan Division in the Patriot League where Duxbury with 6'2" Michela North will be powerful. In the league, Bretsch likes Scituate and North Quincy.

"Duxbury is terrific. They have three six-footers," said Bretsch. "Scituate graduated a lot, but they have Kelly Martin back at point guard and I think she's the best player in the league. I also think North Quincy will be greatly improved."

Quincy opens at Bridge-water-Raynham on Dec. 11 and faces North Quincy on Dec. 14.

SECONDARY LUNCH MENU

Monday, Dec. 10

Sal's North End style pizza, romaine tossed salad, baby carrot snack, choice of fruit, 100% juice, choice of milk.

Tuesday, Dec. 11

Beef burger on a WG bun, seasoned potato wedges, lettuce and tomato, blueberries with yogurt, fruit, juice and milk choices. Early release middle and high schools.

Wednesday, Dec. 12

Beef and cheese taco, WW flour tortilla, refried beans, carrot raisin salad, salsa, fruit, juice and milk choices.

Thursday, Dec. 13

Ham and cheese on a WW croissant, broccoli salad, cup of vegetable soup with kidney beans, fruit, juice, and milk choices.

Friday, Dec. 14

American chop suey, beef and tomato sauce, WW elbow macaroni, green beans, carrot and celery sticks, fruit, juice and milk choices.

North Quincy Quick, Good Senior Leadership

By BILL GRIFFIN

They have quickness, they play tough defense and there is good senior leadership. The question North Quincy's girls' basketball team must answer to make a run in the Fisher Division of the Patriot League is rebounding.

"We don't have a lot of height, so we have to play big and rebound as a team," said second-year coach Jessica Worden. "We have quick, competitive players, so we should move to the ball well. It's the key for us this year."

North's speed should allow the Red Raiders, who lost eight seniors from last year's 8-12 team, to run. There is proven talent in the backcourt and if the Red Raiders can rebound the ball, they can do damage in the open floor on the fast break.

"Quickness on defense is definitely our strength," said Worden. "We have six seniors and a strong junior class. A lot of them played fall sports, so they're in good shape to play the running game."

Junior Jane Minton and senior Caitlyn Bulger are standouts in the backcourt. Minton is a point guard who ran the team well as a sophomore. Bulger also started last year and features an excellent three-point shot.

"Jane is an impact player," said Worden. "She knows the game, she's an excellent passer, and she can hit the open shot. Caitlyn is quick and is a strong defender."

Senior Cristyn Mark, senior Annie Dow, junior Tristine Thon, and junior Haley McKay provide depth and should see minutes in the backcourt for North.

"Annie hustles all the time and plays good defense," said Worden. "Haley and Cristyn also give us depth at guard. They all are sound on defense."

Junior Maya Umoren, who was a dominant player on North's volleyball team, leads a strong cast of post players. Umoren at 5'9" rebounds bigger than her height, catches any pass thrown near her and finishes well at the basket.

"Maya started for us last year, so she gives us experience as well as size and ability. She's a great athlete. She plays more like a 6-footer than 5'9".

Junior Natasha Sautter plays a strong game around the hoop and shoots well from the outside. Seniors Samantha McNally, Christine Kelliher, and Theresa Riordan are important leaders and will see action up front for North. Sophomores Camille Mullaney and Hannah Donovan will also work with the varsity.

"Samantha played a lot of minutes for us last year and the sophomores have the potential to see varsity time as well," said Worden.

Scituate, who went to the state finals last season, returns brilliant point guard Kelly Martin and will be a force in the Fisher Division. Overall in the league, Duxbury and 6'2" Michela North are a power.

"Scituate will be tough and Quincy is always a good," said Worden. "I think we have the ability to contend in our division and qualify for the state tourney."

And it all begins with rebounding. If the Red Raiders can get the ball out to their talented guards, they can run and score.

"It starts with boxing out and rebounding for us. If we do, we can set up our fast break," said Worden. "I like our senior leadership and our attitude. This is my second year as a coach, and I think the players know better what I expect from them. We finished strong last year and that will help."

North opens Dec. 11 at Plymouth North and meets Quincy Dec. 14.

Quincy's Matt Pepdjonovic Joins 1,000 Point/1,000 Rebound Club

Suffolk University Men's Basketball senior Matt Pepdjonovic of Quincy made history recently as he became just the second player in program history to record 1,000 career rebounds along with 1,000 career points.

The Rams fell in the championship game of the Courtyard by Marriott Tip-

MATT PEPDJONOVIC
Off Tournament to host Roger Williams University, 69-52.

Pepdjonovic finished the game with eight points and 13 rebounds, as he entered the contest 11-shy of the 1,000 career total. He recorded the milestone with a defensive grab at the 10:46 mark in the second half joining Christos Tsiotos ('77) as the only other Suffolk player to record quadruple digits in both points and rebounds.

NQHS Photo Fundraiser Tonight

North Quincy High School/Boston Children's Hospital Photo Fundraiser will be held Thursday, Dec. 6 from 5:30 to 9 p.m. at North Quincy High School atrium.

The fundraiser features the work of photo students.

The senior forward recorded his 1,000th career point last season on Jan. 17 in a game against Tufts University. With his 33 points in this season's opening tournament, Pepdjonovic now moves into 14th place all-time at Suffolk University with 1,224 career points.

Pepdjonovic finished the weekend with 1,002 career boards, 14 shy of Tsiotos' program record of 1,016.

He becomes just the third player in Great Northeast Athletic Conference (GNAC) history to record 1,000 career rebounds joining Raymond Askew ('12) of Albertus Magnus College and Jeff Carpenter ('08) of Rivier College. All three players have collected 1,000 career points, while Askew leads GNAC rebounders with 1,192 career boards.

They spend several weeks selecting, printing and framing the very best of their work.

Original framed works of art will be for sale. All proceeds donated to Boston Children's Hospital.

VOICE FOR HEALTH

by Dr. Gabrielle Freedman
Chiropractor

DEAL WITH IT!

While joint replacement surgery is certainly an effective solution for many people with painfully arthritic joints, it should not necessarily be viewed as a first-line treatment. After all, any surgery carries risks, so anyone considering it may want to look into less invasive measures first. A very good place to start is weight loss since carrying extra pounds places added stress on joints, particularly the hips and knees. Also, by simply standing up straight instead of slouching, individuals can protect the joints in their neck, knees, and hips. In addition, poor posture and improper motions and techniques can place more unnecessary stress on already damaged joints. Lifting or carrying heavy items incorrectly can also wreak havoc on joints.

At FAMILY PRACTICE OF CHIROPRACTIC, located at 112 McGrath HWY., Quincy, we have complete facilities and equipment available to determine if your condition may be helped through chiropractic. Call us at 617.472.4220 to schedule an appointment. With chiropractic care you have nothing to lose and everything to gain, especially your health. If your problem is a chiropractic condition we offer you exceptional service. P.S. The chiropractor can assess posture and provide corrective treatment that helps individuals with chronic joint pain exercise, strengthen muscles, lose weight, and remove stress from painful joints.

Check us out on facebook:
<http://www.facebook.com/familypracticeofchiropractic>

www.freedmanchiro.com

Boys' Basketball

Presidents Hope To Blend Quickness, Athleticism

By BILL GRIFFIN

Quincy has this fascinating blend of contrasts entering its basketball season.

The Presidents have four returning starters and several varsity veterans. Many are multi-sport players with quickness and athleticism. Quincy also has a pack of promising sophomores off last year's 21-1 freshman team. Several of the sophomores are pure basketball players. It is their only sport and they play it winter, spring, summer, and fall.

How quickly all this fits together will be interesting to watch as the Presidents try to improve on last year's 10-10 record.

"Our veterans are great athletes and we need their speed," said coach Dave Parry. "The sophomores are basketball players. It is the sport they play. I've always thought that you need to blend in pure basketball players to advance far in the tourney."

Quincy's strength is speed. The Presidents can fly. They will press full and half court, and they will pressure the ball for four quarters. They want to force turnovers and push the ball on the break for offensive looks before the defense can set up.

"We have great quickness," said Parry. "We want to use and it on defense and create chances before the opposition can set up their big players to bang us around."

Unfortunately, the weakness is equally clear. The Presidents have no height. No player cracks six feet which means challenges defending the basket and rebounding. If you can't get the ball, you can't run.

"Peter (Cedrone) is an excellent post defender, and he can guard the other team's best inside scorer," said Parry. "Everybody else has to go to the ball. We have use our quickness and athleticism to make up for our lack of height. If we can rebound, we'll be in good shape."

Quincy returns senior

Tino Goncalves at point guard. He's quick, handles the ball well and can nail the three-pointer. He is an experienced quarterback of the offense which is a priceless asset. Senior Jaquan Harris brings speed to the shooting guard slot. He gets to the basket and he draws fouls. He shot 114 free throws last season.

"Tino is also an excellent on-the-ball defender," said Parry. "Jaquan has unbelievable athletic ability. He either finishes for a layup or he gets to the line."

Junior captain Brendan Cunningham is an excellent shooter at one forward spot. He's also a strong post player who picks up offense close to the basket. Sophomore J.T. Bain saw plenty of action as a freshman and has inside moves to the bucket that you just can't teach.

"Brendan has gotten a lot stronger and I think that will show in his rebounding and defense," said Parry. "Bain has those instinctive inside moves, and he just finds a way to the basket."

Cedrone and Jalen Green, both seniors, will play key roles for the Presidents. Cedrone is the defensive force inside and Green brings the vision and acceleration which made him a great tailback to the basketball floor.

"I'm confident with Peter against a big scorer and Jalen does things athletically that are hard to believe," said Parry.

Guards Colin Evans, Tyler Beach, Drew Myers, and forward James Lam lead the talented sophomore class. "They'll see varsity time as the year goes on," added

Parry.

Several key players were on the football team. Cedrone, Green, Harris and Lam played for the Presidents this fall. It usually takes a few weeks for football legs to become basketball legs. However, they bring a winning touch from their 7-4 season and Thanksgiving victory over North.

"They have a winning attitude and that's something you can't teach," said Parry. "They know what to do and they know how to win. You can see it by the way they committed to working hard from the first day of practice."

Quincy will move to the Keenan Division of the Patriot League. The Presidents finished second three straight years in the Fisher Division. If they had won their final game last season, they would have finished first. North won the Keenan Division which would have meant both division titles staying in the city. Quincy then went to the first round of the tourney and lost to Randolph.

"I think the league will be very strong this year. Whitman-Hanson and Silver Lake should be excellent," said Parry. "In the other division, I really like North. They have the Goulds (Pat and Dan) back and they have a deep team."

"Our goals are to get better every day, challenge for the title in the league, and make the tourney."

The Presidents open December 11 against Bridgewater-Raynham and face North Quincy on Dec. 14 in an early-season match-up.

Red Raiders Returning Talent, Experience

By BILL GRIFFIN

North Quincy used a formula grounded in firm fundamentals last year, and the Red Raiders hope it serves them well again this winter.

North advanced to the first round of the state tourney with a 17-3 record. The Red Raiders were 11-2 in the Patriot League, good for the Keenan Division championship and the best overall record in the conference. The Red Raiders had plenty of offensive firepower, but what made them a special team was they were willing to do the hard work — play tough defense and rebound the basketball.

"I think our offense will be fine, but there are nights when the ball doesn't go in. It's the nature of the game," said coach Kevin Barrett. "The keys for us are to play defense and limit the other team to one shot. We set a goal of 48 for every game, keeping our opponent under 48 points. We don't have a lot of size, so everyone has to rebound. Everybody has to go for the ball. We call it gang rebounding."

The core of the team will be three returning three-year senior starters. The Gould Brothers, Pat and Dan, form one of the best backcourts on the South Shore and Marquis McClendon is a dynamic presence at small forward.

"We're blessed to have talent and experience coming back," said Barrett.

Dan Gould is A Shooter. He has outrageous range, can shoot off the dribble or off the catch, and uses his picks beautifully. He is capable of streaks when he simply doesn't miss, but more importantly, he has improved his all-around offensive game each year. This year, Barrett expects to see the whole package.

"He works all year and every season, he adds something to his game," said Barrett. "He started out as a spot-up shooter and every year has expanded his game. This year, I think you'll see him shoot, drive and finish at the rim."

Pat Gould is the prototype pass-first, score-second point guard. He gets his team into its offense, runs both the break and set offense well, and makes good decisions. He could score more, but does what helps his team most which is to move the ball around to the right players in the right spots.

"He could get 15 a night because he can really shoot," said Barrett. "But he's an unselfish player who initiates our offense. He's an intelligent player and he plays great defense."

McClendon is a presence in the open floor or off the dribble because of his quickness. However, Barrett values his small forward most for his defense. If you're looking for McClendon, look for the other team's leading scorer. McClendon will be guarding him.

"I think he's the best defensive player in the league," said Barrett. "He's invaluable on defense, a player who can lock down the opposing team's best scorer."

The Red Raiders lose Paul Cuniff and Tim Liuzzo from last year's title team. Cuniff was a solid all-around player. Liuzzo was the foundation of the team. The 6'3" center was an extremely smart player who had the ability to give North (scoring, rebounding,

Cont'd On Page 26

Quincy Youth Soccer Registration Open for Spring 2013

The In-House soccer program is a recreational league open to Quincy youth born between August 1, 1997 and December 31, 2007. Prior soccer experience is not required. There are no try-outs. All players who register are assigned to a team according to age, and are guaranteed playing time in each game. The fee for our Under 6 program is $50. For other age groups, the fee is $75 for new players.

TOPSoccer is a program with the goal to enrich the lives of athletes with disabilities through the game of soccer. There is no fee.

U6 Instructional Program (children born in 2007) plays on Saturday mornings

U7, U8, U10 & U12 games are on Sunday afternoons

U15 games are on Saturday afternoons

Players who are new to Quincy Youth Soccer must register in person and bring a copy of birth certificate on

Saturday, December 8th
10am – 12 noon

Koch Recreation Bldg at One Merrymount Pkwy

Players who have previously participated in Quincy Youth Soccer may register on-line at www.quincyyouthsoccer.com.

258 Willard Street
Quincy, MA 02169

BLUE HILLS TOWING COMPANY
24 Hour Towing and Recovery

(617) 696-6450

Fax: (617) 479-5424

www.bluehillstowing.com

Voted Best of the Best
8 Times!

35 Billings Road., N. Quincy
617-328-0448 • 617-328-9842
www.Balduccis-Online.com

DOUBLE
DEAL
2 Lg. Cheese Pizzas
$13.95 +tax
(toppings extra • Expires 12/31/12)
$3.00 OFF
Order of $20.00 or more
(Expires 12/31/12)
WE DELIVER (limited area)

ANNUAL QUINCY/NORTH QUINCY Cross Country banquet was recently held at Coach Lauren Brook's house in Squantum. Thirty-five athletes, parents and coaches attended. Awards were presented to both Quincy High and North Quincy High athletes. Head Coach of NQHS Geoff Hennessy presented the Unsung Hero awards to Julia Bryson and Nathan Donahue, the Coaches Awards to Danielle Mullaney and Danny Tran and MVPs to Emily Bryson and Mike Mullaney. Quincy

Head Coach Jim Hogan presented unsung hero awards to Cody Ma and Katy Deng, Coaches Awards to LaQueen Arias and Peter Saccoach and MVPs to Brendan Cunningham and Victoria Deery. Front row (from left) Danielle Mullaney, Victoria Deery, LaQueen Arias, Emily Bryson, Julia Bryson, Katy Deng. Back (from left) Peter Saccoach, Danny Tran, Nathan Donahue and Mike Mullaney. Photo Courtesy Geoff Hennessy

Bryson, Mullaney In Top 50 At Mt. Northfield

The Allstate was run in near perfect weather conditions. Temperatures approached 50 and there wasn't a puff of wind as hundreds converged on Mt. Northfield, the site of this year's MIAA Allstates Cross Country Championship.

Boys and girls ran in two divisions. Division one was compiled from Eastern Mass Divisions 1, 2 and 3 plus Central Mass. Division 1 and the top two biggest schools from Western Mass. What that meant was 200 athletes ran for the Division 1 championship including North Quincy's Emily Bryson and Danielle Mullaney. Both encountered some problems at the start but both ran fantastic races to finish 33rd (Bryson) and 41st (Mullaney).

"The course begins with 800 meters nearly straight uphill, and then a gradual down hill for two miles. The final 800 has some quick ups and downs then a long flat quarter mile," said Coach Geoff Hennessy. "Emily got hammered early. She's not a big kid and there was lots of jostling. Mullaney didn't know where she was in the race until she passed her at the two mile mark."

Bryson finished strong passing runners at will for the last mile and a half. Her time of 20:11 was a minute slower than Wrentham, but considering the difficulty of the course, a minute off was average for most runners.

Mullaney's time of 20:20 was only 45 seconds slower which proves she improved every race from the Patriot League championship to now.

"As a senior who's looking at colleges to run for, and they looking at her, she performed well," Hennessy said.

This concludes the season. Both Brysons, both Mullaney's (Mike and Danielle) and Brendan Cunningham (Quincy) were selected to the All-star team for the Patriot League.

In earlier action, North Quincy and Quincy combined for 7th place in the girls Eastern Mass Division 1 race and Emily Bryson, Danielle Mullaney and Mike Mullaney all advanced to the Allstates at Northfield Mountain.

"We didn't figure on advancing as a team, but we were closer than expected thanks to fearless running from four Quincy High freshmen," Hennessy said.

Victoria Deery, Inaya Paul, Maura Crump and LaQueen Arias all ran outstanding races to secure 177 points for North. The team runs in MIAA state events as a cooperative team but competes in the Patriot League as separate schools.

"We didn't dwell on the magnitude of it being a state championship. I just told them to have fun and that they did the right training so things would handle themselves," Hennessy said. "They are so raw that they don't know what they don't know so they just ran. And things worked out.

"Deery and Paul ran personal bests. Maura Crump asked of she'd come in last. I told her she'd beat 100 kids at least, kidding around - she beat 50 and was in control of herself the entire race."

As usual Emily and Julia Bryson and Danielle Mullaney ran predictably with Emily finishing 9th in 19:11 and Danielle Mullaney ran a huge personal best of 19:35 coming in 16th and Julia finished 33rd in 20:11 missing the cut off for individuals not on advancing team by three spots. "Julia ran what Emily ran last year, so the improvement is still happening. Danielle ran 20:00 last week, now she runs 25 seconds better - huge! I'm just so proud of them.

"Some credit has to go to Quincy Coach Jim Hogan and my assistant Lauren Brooks who kept it fun and allowed the kids to silently develop. The four freshmen, indeed all the runners, are products of the middle school program where they all did well. Coaches like Ricardo Cordero (Central) and Ron Adams (Broadmeadows) run fantastic programs. If kids want running as their high school sport or a way to college, we'll take kids to lofty heights."

In the boys' race, Mike Mullaney worked his way from 33rd to 20th to 14th and then finished strong in 13th with a personal best time of 16:23. Brendan Cunningham, a Quincy High junior, ran 17:28.

Red Raiders Return Talent, Experience

Cont'd From Page 25

passing, defense) precisely what the Red Raiders needed in big moments.

"Tim was a rock. Both players will be hard to replace. We'll try to do it with numbers," said Barrett.

Junior Ethan Butka (6'3") gained varsity experience last year and can deliver defense and rebounding. Junior Greg Clark (6'1") is a tough player who works well in the paint. Junior Anthony Green (6'7") has great potential and has made significant improvement in his game. And he is 6'7". You can't teach height.

"He's done some things in practice that I didn't think he could do. His progress is remarkable. The sky is the limit for what he can do," said Barrett.

Junior Kyle Richardson was a significant contributor last year in the backcourt. He supplies energy off the bench and the endline-to-endline defense which Barrett loves.

"He presses all over the court. He's an important player for us," said Barrett.

Senior Aaron Anderson, sophomore Matt Gerakis, sophomore Solomon Ymoren, junior Vinny Tran and senior Kevin Pillone supply depth for the Red Raiders who have the same goals as a year ago.

"Every year our goal is to win the Patriot League and qualify for the state tournament," said Barrett.

North has moved from the Keenan to the Fisher Division in the league. Scituate looks to be a strong threat in the division.

"They're strong. A lot of people are picking them," said Barrett. "We may have snuck up on some people especially early last year. This year we're going to see everybody's best. It's a clean slate. Last year is over, and we have to be ready."

North opens at Brockton December 7. The Red Raiders host Wareham Dec. 11 and face Quincy in an early-season intra-city showdown Dec. 14.

Ski, Snowboard Instruction Registration Underway

Registration is underway for the Quincy Recreation Department's ski and snowboard instruction program.

Instruction is conducted at the Blue Hill Ski Area and registration can be done online at QuincyRec.com.

The program is open to Quincy youngsters age 8 through high school and features a 90-minute lesson for beginners to advanced, use of ski tow, supervision, and transportation to and from the ski area.

Recreation Department staff supervises the transportation. Lesson instruction is provided by certified instructors from the Blue Hill Ski School.

The program is conducted on Tuesdays, beginning Jan. 8, and will continue for five weekly lessons. Cost is $185 and is payable at the time of registration.

Rental equipment is available at the Blue Hill Ski Area for an additional cost. Arrangements for rental equipment can be done by the Recreation Department at the time of registration.

Five-week rental of skis (with boots and poles) or a snowboard (with boots) is $80. Helmets are required and can also be rented for $25 for the five-week program.

The program leaves from the office of the Quincy Recreation Department, 1 Merrymount Parkway, at 3:15 p.m. and returns at 7 p.m.

Registration will continue as long as openings exist. There is limited enrollment available for this activity.

For more information, call 617-376-1394 or online at QuincyRec.com.

Stroke, Osteoporosis Screenings

Life Line Screening will hold stroke and osteoporosis screenings Monday, Dec. 10 at the River Bay Club, 99 Brackett St., Quincy.

Stroke is the third leading cause of death and a leading cause of permanent disability. Eighty percent of stroke victims had no apparent warning signs prior to their stroke.

Preventive ultrasound screenings can help avoid a stroke.

Screenings are fast, non-invasive, painless and convenient.

Screenings identify potential cardiovascular conditions such as blocked arteries and irregular heart rhythm, abdominal aortic aneurysms, and hardening of the arteries in the legs, which is a strong predictor of heart disease. A bone density screening to assess osteoporosis risk is also offered and is appropriate for both men and women.

For more information, including the cost of the screenings, call 1-877-237-1287. Pre-registration is required.

A Job Well Done

Cont'd From Page 22

resident, to the station for booking, where he was charged with "Larceny over $250 and Possession of Class D, Marijuana."

Although the dialing was convincing evidence that the phone was the victim's, the phone was brought to her and she confirmed that it was hers, noting that the plastic protective case was now broken. In addition to the criminal charges, the Quincy Police Department is looking into seeking the expenses for the use of a Quincy Fire Department ladder truck to assist in the recovery of the stolen property.

Nice Work!

ATM Safety

With the need for extra cash during the holidays, it is always best to pre-plan when to go to the ATM. The best plan generally is to go to an ATM inside an active building, such as a supermarket or bank. If you are using an exterior ATM, going during the day when there are more people around and better visibility will reduce the chance of victimization. Sometimes there is a sudden need for cash and there may not be the optimum settings so here are a few suggestions:

Select an ATM with good lighting and with pedestrian/vehicular traffic.

Have someone accompany you as you perform your transaction.

If you see someone loitering around the ATM, do not use the machine, instead call the Police to protect yourself and others.

Have your card ready, know your PIN, and have a cell phone at the ready.

The safest ATM location: Open 7 days a week, 24 hours a day in a climate controlled safe environment - the lobby of the Quincy Police Station.

□

Leaving home for the holiday?

Don't tell everyone via social networks. If you have young children, be sure to pass this on to them. Although it may be exciting to tell everyone the news, burglars are also interested in a vacant home.

Baby It's Cold Outside!
NEW HOT YOGA
NEW STUDENT SPECIAL
 6 Classes $33^{Orig.} $65 8 Classes $43^{Orig.} $80
FREE DROP-IN Real Life Yoga
 101 Adams St., Quincy
 Dee Lyon (617)285-5219
 www.reallifeyoga.com

Menorah Lighting Monday Celebrates Chanukah

The Hingham-Quincy Chabad will light a public eight-foot Menorah erected at Quincy City Hall Monday, Dec. 10 at 6 p.m. as part of a community-wide celebration on the third night of Chanukah. Following the menorah lighting ceremony, there will be Chanukah treats, hot latkes and Chanukah Gelt, and hot apple cider.

The Menorah lighting is open to the public and free of charge.

Chanukah, the Festival of Lights, recalls the victory more than 2,100 years ago of a military weak but spiritually strong Jewish people who defeated a ruthless enemy that had overrun ancient Israel and sought to impose restrictions on the Jewish way of life, prohibit religious freedom and force the Jewish people to accept a foreign religion.

During the occupation of Jerusalem and the Temple, the Syrian Greeks desecrated and defiled the oils prepared for the lighting of the Menorah, which was part of the daily service in the temple. Upon recapturing the Temple from the Syrian Greeks, the Jewish people found only one jar of undefiled oil, enough to burn only one day, but it lasted miraculously for eight days until new, pure olive oil was produced.

In commemoration of this event, the Jewish people celebrate Chanukah for eight days by lighting an eight-branched candelabra known as a Menorah. The Menorah is placed in highly-visible place to publicize the miracle, with its message of hope and religious freedom, to all.

Today, people of all faiths consider the Chanukah holiday as a symbol and message of the triumph of freedom over oppression, of spirit over matter, of light over darkness.

"The Menorah serves as a symbol of our dedication to preserve and encourage the right and liberty of all its citizens to worship God freely, openly, and with pride," said Chabad Rabbi Shmulie Bronstein.

The Hingham-Quincy Chabad will also host a Menorah lighting Wednesday, Dec. 12 at 6 p.m. at the Hingham Shipyard by the mini golf course.

RELIGION

Faith Lutheran Church

Faith Lutheran Church, 201 Granite St., Quincy is celebrating Advent at its 10 a.m. Sunday worship service.

The Church Choir will present its annual Christmas Cantata Dec. 16 and the Sunday School pageant is

Quincy Point Congregational

The Second Sunday of Advent and Poinsettia Sunday will be celebrated during 10 a.m. worship at Quincy Point Congregational Church, 444 Washington St.

Sheena Delmonte will be deacon of the day and Edna Robie will be the lay reader. "Prepare the Way of the Lord", is the title of The Rev. Ann G. Suzedell's sermon.

All are welcome to attend Fellowship hour in the So-

Bethany Church

Bethany Congregational Church, Quincy Center will have Sunday Worship Service and Sunday School at 10 a.m.

Fellowship with light refreshments will follow the worship service.

All are welcome to attend Bethany Church Worship Services and its numerous group activities. Bethany has a Youth Group, a Men's Group, an Outreach Mission Group doing various charity works and a Friday morning Bible Study Class.

The church office is open from 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.

Chanukah Celebration At Temple Shalom Sunday

Temple Shalom of Milton will celebrate the Jewish holiday of Chanukah with a Community-wide Family Celebration and Fundraiser Sunday, Dec. 9, from 10:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. at Pierce Middle School, 451 Central Ave., Milton.

This family Chanukah event will be under the direction of Education Director Nancy Mollitor and Rabbi Alfred Benjamin.

The celebration, sponsored by the Temple's Rabbi

Jerome Weistrop Religious School, will include a talent show, latke tasting, menorah lighting, book swap, raffles, Chanukah songs, and traditional snacks of latkes and sufganiyot (donuts).

The event is open to the entire community. Admission is $5 per person, $3 under 13 and free for children 3 and under, with a family maximum of $12.

For further information, call the temple office at 617-698-3394 or visit TempleShalomOnline.org.

Houghs Neck Congregational

Houghs Neck Congregational Church, 310 Manet Ave., Quincy, will mark the Second Sunday in Advent at its Sunday worship service at 10 a.m.

All are welcome to attend.

Union Congregational Church

Union Congregational Church, 136 Rawson Rd., Wollaston, will show the 1953 Pearl Harbor drama, "From Here to Eternity" tonight (Thursday).

The screening is part of the church's Senior Coffee Shop that meets at 10 a.m.

Pastor John Castricum will preach the sermon "The Wilderness Voice"

Nancy Jacobs and Robert Gordon will serve for the Diaconate, and a fellowship coffee hour will follow the service.

Thursday in fellowship hall. It is open to all senior citizens.

Coffee and a light lunch are served a free will offering is taken.

For more information, call 617-479-6661.

Quincy Religion Directory SERVICES & ACTIVITIES
Catholic	Catholic	Congregational	Congregational
St. Mary's Church 95 Crescent St., Quincy • 617-773-0120 Masses Saturday, 4pm, Sunday 7, 9:30 & 11:30am, Weekdays 9am Handicapped Accessible New Members Welcome!	Sacred Heart Church "A Roman Catholic Community walking together in Faith, Worship, Education and Service" 386 Hancock St., North Quincy, MA 02171 (617) 328-8666 Sunday Masses 4pm (Sat.) 7:45am, 9am (Family Liturgy) 10:30am (with Choir) and 5pm Weekday Masses Mon.-Fri. 7am and 9am, Sat. 9am Handicapped Accessible Confessions Sat. 3-3:45pm in Saint Joseph Oratory	HOUGH'S NECK CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 310 Manet Avenue 617-479-8778 www.hncong.org Second Sunday of Advent Service at 10AM 'The Wilderness Voice' All are welcome to attend FELLOWSHIP COFFEE HOUR FOLLOWING SERVICE	Wollaston Congregational Church United Church of Christ 48 Winthrop Avenue Quincy, Massachusetts Sunday Worship at 10 a.m. Rev. Dr. Mary Louise Gifford Office: 617-773-7432 www.wollycong.org UNION CONGREGATIONAL Beach St. & Rawson Rd., Wollaston (617) 479-6661 Rev. John Swanson, Pastor Sunday Worship Service 10 AM QUINCY POINT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 444 Washington St. • 617-773-6424 Worship and Church School 10 am Rev. Ann Suzedell, Pastor email: office@quincypointcong.org
ST. AGATHA CHURCH MILTON-QUINCY 432 Adams Street Milton, MA 02186 • 617-698-2439 Schedule of Masses: Saturday: 4:30PM Sunday: 7:30AM, 9:00AM (Family Mass), 10:30AM, 12 NOON, 5:00PM Weekday Masses: 7:00 & 9:00AM Reconciliation 3:45PM-4:15pm on Saturdays, other times by appointment Handicapped Accessible, handicapped parking, elevator to Upper/Lower Churches ~ Air-Conditioned	St. Joseph's Church 550 Washington Street Quincy, MA 02169 617-472-6321 SUNDAY MASSES: 4 p.m. (On Saturday) 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Weekday Masses 9am CONFESSIONS: Saturday, 3:00-3:30 pm Handicapped accessible & Handicapped parking, side entrance air conditioned	BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH Spear & Coddington Streets Quincy Center, 617-479-7300 WWW.QUINCYBETHANYCHURCH.ORG Sunday, Dec. 9 Sunday Worship Sunday School at 10AM. The Rev. William Harding 'Season Of Preparation' Child Care Available ALL ARE WELCOME! Fellowship Time in Allen Parlor	St. John The Baptist ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH 44 School St., Quincy 617-773-1021 Weekend Mass Schedule Saturday, 4:00 PM Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 AM Sunday night 5:30 PM Weekday Masses Monday - Saturday 8:00 AM Latin Mass 1st & 3rd Wednesdays (Lower Chapel) 7:00 AM Confessions Wed. 8:30 - 9:00 AM Sat. 2:30 - 3:30 PM Handicapped Accessible
St. John The Baptist ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH 44 School St., Quincy 617-773-1021 Weekend Mass Schedule Saturday, 4:00 PM Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 AM Sunday night 5:30 PM Weekday Masses Monday - Saturday 8:00 AM Latin Mass 1st & 3rd Wednesdays (Lower Chapel) 7:00 AM Confessions Wed. 8:30 - 9:00 AM Sat. 2:30 - 3:30 PM Handicapped Accessible	Saint Ann's Church 757 Hancock St., Wollaston 617-479-5400 Pastor: Rev. John J. Ronaghan Weekend Mass Schedule: Saturday 4:00 PM Sunday 7:00, 9:00, 11:30AM Daily Masses: 9:00 AM	Wollaston Church of the Nazarene Sunday Worship 8:30 AM Liturgical Worship 9:45 AM Sunday School 11:00 AM Celebration Worship Kevin C. Dunlap, Lead Pastor Phil Nuss, Youth & Small Groups Pastor John Chestnut, Music & Congreg. Pastor Rev. Kautner, Children's Pastor Don Reed, Visitation Pastor 17 E. Elm Ave., Wollaston 617-472-5669 E-mail: office@wconaz.org WWW.WCONAZ.ORG	Christian Science First Church of Christ, Scientist 16 Beale Street, Quincy 617-472-0055 Sunday Services and Sunday School 10:30 a.m. Wednesday Evening Meetings - where testimonies of healing are shared 7:30 p.m. ALL ARE WELCOME! Catholic Community Dignity BOSTON Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender CATHOLICS Our families, friends And allies Liturgy & social hour: Sundays, 5:30 PM St. John the Evangelist Church 35 Bowdoin St., Beacon Hill, Boston 617-421-1915 www.dignityboston.org Nazarene Wollaston Church of the Nazarene Sunday Worship 8:30 AM Liturgical Worship 9:45 AM Sunday School 11:00 AM Celebration Worship Kevin C. Dunlap, Lead Pastor Phil Nuss, Youth & Small Groups Pastor John Chestnut, Music & Congreg. Pastor Rev. Kautner, Children's Pastor Don Reed, Visitation Pastor 17 E. Elm Ave., Wollaston 617-472-5669 E-mail: office@wconaz.org WWW.WCONAZ.ORG
Salvationist THE SALVATION ARMY 6 Baxter St., Quincy • 617-472-2345 9:45 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION 11AM WORSHIP SERVICE BRASS BAND MUSIC 7PM TUES WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP 6:45PM WEDS. BIBLE STUDY	Methodist QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH 40 Beale St., Wollaston 617-773-3319 10:30 AM Sunday Worship Rev. Dr. Susan Jarek-Glidden, Pastor	To Advertise in this Directory, Call 617-471-3100 HOPE LOVE PEACE JOY

OBITUARIES

Dorothy C. Teehan

Owned Glenwood Sheet Metal, Veteran

A Mass of Christian Burial for Dorothy C. (Clarkson) "Sis" Teehan of Braintree and formerly Quincy was celebrated Nov. 29 at St. Agatha Church, Milton.

Mrs. Teehan died Nov. 25.

Beloved wife of the late John F. Teehan. Loving mother of Imelda E. Roche and her husband Paul D. of Plymouth, Jane C. Teehan and Michael J. Barber of Sandwich, John G. Teehan and his wife Mandy B. of Onset, Dorothy V. Keady and her husband Thomas J., Jr., of West Roxbury, Mary T. Smith and her husband Jerome D. of Braintree, Ellen A. Teehan of Braintree, Richard J. Teehan of Plymouth, Peter C. Teehan of Quincy, Timothy X. Teehan and his wife Angela M. of Peabody, and Amy M. Teehan of Quincy. "Munna" to 25 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. Cherished sister of the late Mary E. "Betty" Sullivan, Imelda

DOROTHY C. TEEHAN

C. Driscoll, Ellen C. Mackey and Susan C. Walker. Sister-in-law of Richard M. Mackey, Jr., Paul F. Walker and the late James J. Sullivan and James G. Driscoll.

Funeral arrangements were made by Dolan Funeral Home, Milton.

Interment was in New Calvary Cemetery, Boston.

Memorial donations may be made to the Dorothy C. and John F. Teehan Scholarship Fund, c/o St. Agatha School, 440 Adams Street, Milton, MA 02186.

Peter L. Salvaggio, 83

Owned Glenwood Sheet Metal, Veteran

A funeral service for Peter L. Salvaggio, 83, of Norwell and formerly Quincy was held Nov. 30 at Sullivan Funeral Home, Rockland.

Mr. Salvaggio died Nov. 26.

He was born, raised and educated in Quincy and was the son of the late Salvatore and Lucia (Poliatti) Salvaggio. He was a 50 year resident of Norwell where he raised his family.

He was the owner and operator of Glenwood Sheet Metal in Quincy for over 30 years. He loved to travel and enjoyed ballroom dancing with his wife, Esther. Mr. Salvaggio proudly served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War.

He is survived by his loving wife Esther (Blanchard) Salvaggio and was predeceased by his first wife Vincenza (Maltese) Salvaggio. Loving father of Lucia Snow and her husband Glenn of Marshfield and Joyce Arnold of Hanover and stepfather of Stephen

PETER L. SALVAGGIO

Lally of Marshfield, Vincent Lally of Brockton and Kenneth Lally of Lakeville. Grandfather of David and Scott Snow of Marshfield and Alicia Durfee and her husband Jay of Hanover and Rachel Arnold of CA. Also survived by his brother Anthony of Braintree, John of Braintree, Robert of Rockland and his sister Grace Calvi of Stoughton and was predeceased by his brother Richard.

Interment was in Washington Street Cemetery, Norwell.

Virginia R. Welch, 92

A funeral Mass for Virginia R. (Dauphinee) Welch, 92, of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 28 at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Welch died Nov. 23.

She was born and raised in Dorchester and was a proud member of the first graduating class of Jeremiah E. Burke High School in 1937. Mrs. Welch and her husband Charlie moved to Quincy in 1953 where they raised their family. Her life was devoted to her beloved husband and raising the "Welch kids" in a home filled with much love, laughter, and faith. All remember her as an incredibly kind woman, with a wonderful sense of humor who truly loved life.

Her Catholic faith was of utmost importance to her and it guided her in how she lived each and every day of her life. Although she will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved her, she is now happily reunited in Heaven with her husband and late son Billy.

Beloved wife of the late Charles J. Welch. Cherished mother of Joan Sachetti of

VIRGINIA R. WELCH

Harwich, Elaine Buonvino and her husband Richard of Duxbury, Virginia Connerly of Raynham, Robert C. Welch of Quincy, Marie Stewart and her husband Paul of Quincy, and the late William J. Welch. Also survived by 13 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren, as well as many nieces and nephews. Predeceased by her six brothers and sisters.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in New Calvary Cemetery, Boston.

Memorial donations may be made to Father Bill's Place, 38 Broad St., Quincy, MA 02169.

Susie G. Lynch, 101

A funeral service for Susie G. Lynch, 101, of Quincy was held Dec. 1 at St. Chrysostom Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Lynch died Nov. 26.

She worked for many years in the retail business and was a devoted member of St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Dorchester.

Beloved wife of the late John W. Lynch. Loving mother of Patricia Lynch of Quincy and John Lynch of

New York. Also survived by her sister Mary Follett of Canada, granddaughter Jacqueline Lynch of NY, and grandson Andrew Lynch of Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were by Dolan Funeral Home, Milton.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to St. Chrysostom Church, 1 Linden St., Quincy, MA 02170.

Annie R. Heeps, 95

A funeral service for Annie R. (DelMonico) Heeps, 95, of Quincy was held Nov. 30 at Bolea-Buonfiglio Funeral Home, 116 Franklin St., Quincy.

Mrs. Heeps died Nov. 26 at the Lifecare Center in West Bridgewater.

Born in Quincy on November 6, 1917, she was the loving daughter of the late Paul and Rita (DeRusso) DelMonico. Mrs. Heeps worked for Pyrotec Corp., formerly of Hingham, where she retired in 1983 after 10 years of service. She also worked for Basile Catering of Braintree for 18 years. She was a former member of both St. Mary's and St. John's Senior Citizens Groups.

Beloved wife of the late David J. Heeps. Loving mother of the late David Heeps and Mother-in-Law of Deborah Heeps of E. Bridgewater. She was the cherished grandmother of Valerie Seney, Dawn Williams, Sarah Lermond, David Heeps and great-grandmother of four.

Interment was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Santina P. Bonaffini, 93

A funeral Mass for Santina P. (Ferrera) Bonaffini, 93, of Marshfield and formerly Quincy was celebrated Nov. 29 at St. Ann by the Sea Church, Marshfield.

Mrs. Bonaffini died Nov. 25.

She was born and raised in South Boston and lived in Marshfield for the past 10 years.

Beloved wife of the late Vincent M. Bonaffini. Loving mother of Josephine Bonaffini of Marshfield, Phyllis Corbitt of South

Boston, Vincent Bonaffini of Marlborough and Diane Bonaffini of Abington. Also survived by two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Sister of the late Charles Ferrera, Sally Celeste, James Ferrera and Patty Savi. Daughter of the late Domenico and Filippa (Gangitano) Ferrera.

Funeral arrangements were made by MacDonald Funeral Home, Marshfield.

Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

A Better Value For Quincy Families

At Deware Funeral Home, we are proud to offer more value and superior service to Quincy families. A full service traditional funeral is $5,995* with no hidden costs. The price includes:

Funeral Ceremony • Visitation • Casket

At Deware Funeral Home, we put the needs of our customer first. We also offer a Simple Burial Plan for $3,395.

With Deware Funeral Home, you can trust us to provide the compassionate care you expect at an exceptional value, backed by a 100% service guarantee.

Exclusive provider of Dignity Memorial® benefits.

Deware Funeral Home

576 Hancock Street | Quincy, MA 02170 | 617-472-1137

For more information visit
www.dewarefuneralhome.com

*$5,995 plan includes basic services of funeral director and staff, embalming and preparation, visitation, funeral ceremony, transportation to place of disposition, 20 gauge metal casket, casket arrangement, and beautiful stationary package to register book. 100 thank you cards. 100 prayer cards.
A Service Family Owned and Operated Since 1945 and Service Corporation International, 205 Winter Street, Fullerton, MA 02720 (908) 270-2882

Honor Your Loved One's Memory With Flowers

cliffords.com
1.800.441.8884

Patricia Thom

Visiting hours for Patricia (O'Connor) Thom, 66, of Plymouth and formerly Quincy were held Nov. 30 at Shepherd Funeral Home, Carver.

Mrs. Thom died Nov. 22.

She worked at the Radisson Hotel on Plymouth Harbor for many years and leaves many friends there as well. She will be missed by all that were blessed to know her. She was a lifelong friend of Bill W. She was also the biggest little Patriots fan out there.

Daughter of the late Ethel (Ballou) Gallegos of Plymouth. Loving sister of Ronald Gallegos and his wife Carole of CA, Glenn Gallegos and Jessica Bulley of Quincy, and the late Lawrence Merritt of CA. Proud mother of her daughter Lisa (Thom) Sylva of Carver and lovingly devoted grandmother of Kayleigh Sylva of Carver.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Heart Association.

Dr. Kathleen M. Bennett, 56

Chief Medical Officer At SeniorWholeHealth

A funeral Mass for Dr. Kathleen M. Bennett, MD, 56, of Boston and formerly Quincy was celebrated Dec. 1 at Holy Trinity Parish, Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, Quincy.

Dr. Bennett died Nov. 23 after a battle with metastatic breast cancer.

She was born and raised in Quincy where she developed an enduring love of the ocean. She spent many happy hours swimming, catching minnows and crabs and sailing in the family MiniFish.

Dr. Bennett graduated from McGill University in 1978. She took a year off while deciding whether to go to veterinarian school or medical school. After working at a vet's for a year she finally decided on medical school.

She graduated from Boston University School of Medicine in 1984 and completed an internship in Family Medicine at Cook County Hospital in Chicago followed by three years of Internal Medicine at Boston City Hospital, and a year as Chief Resident.

After completing her training, she served as a residency program director and community health physician and later as a leader in health care administration at Neighborhood Health Plan, Boston Medical Center HealthNet Plan, and most recently as Chief Medical Officer at SeniorWholeHealth.

Dr. Bennett inspired and mentored peers and trainees. She was respected by everyone she touched for her generosity of spirit, her strong sense of justice, her brilliant mind, her tremendous clinical skills, her keen moral compass, and her commanding presence as she safely steered patients, trainees, colleagues, and programs to the best possible interpretation of health care.

The family wants to thank Dr. Eric Winer, Jen McKenna RN, NP and the entire care team at Dana Farber for the exceptional care and devotion they gave Dr. Bennett throughout the years.

They also want to thank Erica Bernstein for all the loving care she gave Dr. Bennett. Erica was there many days and nights and would always come over when Dr. Bennett needed her. Sharon and the family will always be grateful.

For Dr. Bennett's
Complete Obituary
And Other
Obituaries
Visit The Sun's
Website:
thequincysun.com

DR. KATHLEEN
M. BENNETT

Beloved and devoted life partner of Sharon Hanson. Cherished daughter of Mary (Dooley) Bennett of Quincy and the late Edward Bennett. Beloved sister of Pauline Bennett and her husband Ken Gibson of Marshfield, Edward Bennett of Quincy, and Michael Bennett and his wife Noreen MacLean of Weymouth. Beloved aunt of Jessica Gibson of Marshfield and Samantha and Ryan Bennett of Weymouth. Also survived by many other devoted family members: Sybilian Shackleford of Jamaica and her ex-husband Usign Gilpin and his wife Pearlita of Dorchester, Courtney and ex-wife Beverly Gilpin of Andover, US Army Brigade CSM Chris Gilpin and his wife Lorraine of GA, Joan Gilpin and Andreen Gilpin, both of Boston, and Nicolas, Chrisaine, Christophe, Kaleel and Samantha M.

Funeral arrangements were by Dennis Sweeney Funeral Home, 74 Elm St., Quincy.

Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

Memorial donations may be made to Bird St. Community Center, 500 Columbia Rd. Boston, MA 02125 Attn: Andrea Kaiser or online at birdstreet.org/donate. They may also be made to Dana Farber Cancer Institute PO Box 849168, Boston, MA 02284-9168 or online at dana-farber.org.

Joseph W. Sheehan, 93

Boston Gear Works Electrician, Engineer

A funeral Mass for Joseph W. Sheehan, 93, of Quincy was celebrated Nov. 30 at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mr. Sheehan died Nov. 25 at Boston Medical Center.

He was born in Quincy, raised and educated in Quincy schools and was a graduate of Quincy Trade School, Class of 1937. He also attended Lowell Technical Institute at MIT. He has lived in Quincy for the last five years, previously in Braintree for over forty years.

He worked for forty-six years at Boston Gear Works as an electrician and later as a plan engineer, retiring in 1985. Mr. Sheehan was a longtime member of St. Thomas More Church in Braintree. He enjoyed oil painting, dancing, and traveling. He was handy and liked to work around his home.

Beloved husband of the late Merlyn E. (Orcutt) Sheehan. Devoted father of Joseph J. Sheehan of Quincy, Robert E. Sheehan and his wife Diep C. of

JOSEPH W. SHEEHAN

Natick, and John F. Sheehan of Quincy. Father-in-law of You-jia Chen Sheehan of Quincy. Brother of Anna Tingley of Braintree, Elizabeth Caron of Quincy, and James Sheehan of Braintree. Dear friend of Eleanor Murphy of Hingham. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to the charity of choice.

Eda A. Barese

A funeral Mass for Eda A. (Pisido) Barese, 85, of Hanover and formerly Quincy was celebrated Nov. 30 at St. Mary of the Sacred Heart Church, Hanover.

Mrs. Barese died Nov. 26 after a brief illness.

She was born, raised, and educated in Orsogna, Italy. She was a dietary aide for many years at the Milton Hospital where she was also a volunteer after retirement. She enjoyed crocheting, cooking, was an active member with the Hanover Council on Aging, Sons of Italy, and a communicant of St. Mary of the Sacred Heart Church.

Daughter of the late Giuseppe and Angela (Rizacasa) Pisido. Devoted wife of the late Dominic Barese. Loving mother of Christine C. Barese of Hanover, Luann Long and her husband Robert of Hanover, Anthony J. Barese and his wife Coreen of Rockland and Dominic Eddie Barese and his wife Joanne of Dedham. She was special grandmother of nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren and has many nieces and nephews both in the US and Italy. Sister of Guido Pisido of NY and the late Alfredo and Frank Pisido, Antonietta Bracalante, and Minuccia Pace.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sullivan Funeral Home, Hanover.

Interment was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, 311 Arsenal St., Watertown, MA 02472.

Mary Jane Daly

Started Massasoit Nursing Program

A funeral Mass for Mary Jane (DeCoste) Daly, 82, of Marshfield and formerly Quincy was celebrated Nov. 28 at St. Ann by the Sea Church, Marshfield.

Mrs. Daly died Nov. 22.

She was born and raised in Quincy and graduated from St. Gregory's High School in Dorchester. She graduated from St. Elizabeth's Nursing School and received her master's degree from Boston College.

She started the nursing program at Massasoit Community College, where she also taught. She loved teaching.

Beloved wife of the late

John L. Daly. Dear sister of the late Paul DeCoste, Gerard DeCoste, Joseph DeCoste, and Ann Larson. Daughter of the late Joseph T. and Leonore (Corcoran) DeCoste. Survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by MacDonald Funeral Home, Marshfield.

Interment was in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Memorial donations may be made to Norwell VNA and Hospice, 120 Longwater Drive, Norwell, MA 02061 or to Marshfield Food Pantry, P.O. Box 1097, Marshfield, MA 02050.

Edith M. Hayes, 92

Retired N.E. Telephone Co. Employee

A funeral Mass for Edith M. (Gardiner) Hayes, 92, a 70-year resident of Quincy and a retired employee of the New England Telephone Company, was celebrated Dec. 1 at St. Agatha Church, Milton.

Mrs. Hayes died unexpectedly at Quincy Medical Center Nov. 24.

Born in Boston and she was raised in Quincy where she graduated from North Quincy High School in 1939.

The beloved wife of the late Thomas J. Hayes, Edith was the beloved mother of Janet T. Hayes of Milton and Kathleen H. Murphy and her husband James of Quincy,

"Mimi" to Jacqueline, Patrick, Thomas and Colleen Murphy all of Quincy, the daughter of the late Carmi P. and Sarah G. (Martin) Gardiner and the sister of the late Gertrude Thorne, Ruth Sharkey, Theodore Gardiner, Frederick Gardiner, Kenneth Gardiner and Dorothea Ronayne.

Interment was in Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the Make A Wish Foundation 1 Bulfinch Place #201 Boston, MA 02114.

I just need your help...

We do hear this, and in lots of ways. Often it's a combination: weariness, anxiety, not really knowing what to do.

Dennis Keohane

At Keohane Funeral and Cremation Service the first thing we'll do is take care of you. Then we'll help you arrive at what you feel is right, in remembering someone you love.

785 Hancock Street
Quincy
333 Hancock Street
North Quincy
21 Emerald Street
Hingham

www.Keohane.com
1-800-KEOHANE

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year

"Serving one family at a time"

Lydon Chapel for Funerals

644 Hancock Street, Quincy

(617) 472-7423

www.lydonchapelforfunerals.com

Thomas P. McDonald

Businessman, Founded Insurance Agency

A Mass of Christian Burial for Thomas P. McDonald of Quincy was celebrated Monday at St. Mary's Church, Quincy.

Mr. McDonald died Nov. 28 at Massachusetts General Hospital after a long illness.

Born and raised in Quincy, he was a graduate of Saint Mary's School, West Quincy, the first graduating class of Archbishop Williams High School, Braintree, in 1953 and The Great Class of 1957 at Boston College.

He entered Officer Candidate School for the United States Navy in Newport, RI, was commissioned in 1957 and honorably discharged in 1963.

He suffered a diving accident that resulted in quadriplegia in 1966. His injury did not prevent him from being an active husband, father, friend, businessman and member of many local organizations.

Mr. McDonald was involved with the Holy Cross Father's Retreat House in Easton, an original board member of Fr. Bill's Place, Quincy and a member of the Development Board of My Brother's Keeper.

In 1975 he established the Thomas P. McDonald Insurance Agency of West Quincy.

THOMAS P. McDONALD

Beloved husband of Bernice A. "Bernie" (Tirrell). Loving father of Michael D. McDonald and his wife Dinah and Judi M. Pekkinen and her husband David, all of Quincy. Devoted grandfather of Thomas P. McDonald II, Brendan D. McDonald, Connor M. McDonald, Brian D. Pekkinen, Sean M. Pekkinen, Jason T. Pekkinen and Kara E. Pekkinen. Brother of J. Richard "Dick" McDonald of CT, James G. McDonald and his wife Pauline of Hingham, Noreen Curtis of Braintree, Ann Erickson and her husband John of Quincy, John M. "Jack" McDonald and his wife Ann of Braintree and the late George B. McDonald.

Funeral arrangements were made by Dolan Funeral Home, Milton.

Memorial donations may be made to My Brother's Keeper, P.O. Box 338, Easton, MA 02356-0388.

Claire E. Bouton, 88

Eucharistic Minister, Coast Guard Veteran

A funeral Mass for Claire E. Bouton, 88, of North Quincy, a Eucharistic Minister, was celebrated Monday in Sacred Heart Church, North Quincy.

Mrs. Bouton died peacefully Nov. 28 after a long period of declining health.

Beloved wife of the late Elden W. Bouton. Cherished mother of Paul E. Bouton and his wife Gail of Sharon, Rev. Thomas F. Bouton of St. Ambrose Parish, Dorchester, Jean M. Bouton of Quincy, and the late Robert H. Bouton. Loving grandmother of Martha Bouton of Sharon and Emily Bouton of Brighton.

Daughter of the late Clarence and Mary Theall, she was born and educated in Boston. She was a graduate of St. Catherine's School in Charlestown, Mount St. Joseph Academy in Brighton, and Simmons College in Boston.

A devout Catholic, Mrs. Bouton was an active member of Sacred Heart Church in North Quincy where she was a Eucharistic Minister. She was a faithful member of the Third Order of Mary of St. Clare's Church in Braintree.

Throughout her life and as the devoted mother of Robert, her son who had Down Syndrome, she was involved significantly in the support and advancement of children and adults with developmental disabilities. She enjoyed traveling and spending summers in Marshfield with her family.

CLAIRE E. BOUTON

Mrs. Bouton was a veteran of the United States Coast Guard during World War II. Her daily example to family and friends exemplified the values of faith, courage, and grace. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Sacred Heart Church, 385 Hancock St., North Quincy, MA 02071 or Boston Catholic TV, P.O. Box 9196, 34 Chestnut Street, Watertown, MA 02471.

Anthony P. Damigella

Retired Painter For Boston Housing Authority

A funeral Mass for Anthony P. Damigella of Quincy was celebrated Monday at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mr. Damigella died Nov. 28.

He was born and spent his early years in Holliston. He was a lifelong resident of South Boston and Quincy. He worked as a painter for the Boston Housing Authority for 45 years before retiring in 1991. Mr. Damigella was devoted to his wife and family who will miss him dearly.

Beloved husband of MaryAnn (Mazur) Damigella of Quincy. Loving father of Anthony S. Damigella and his wife Rosemary. Brother of Paul Damigella and his wife Paula of Quincy and the late Emily DiCarlo and Harry Damigella.

ANTHONY P. DAMIGELLA

Brother-in-law of Rev. Ronald Mazur of Florida. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Christian Appalachian Project, 6550 South KY Rt. 321, PO Box 459, Hagerhill, Kentucky, 41222.

Sheila M. Sullivan, 53

Retired AT & T Employee

A funeral service for Sheila M. Sullivan, 53, of Weymouth and formerly Quincy was held Dec. 1 at Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Ms. Sullivan died Nov. 28 unexpectedly.

She was born in Boston, raised in Milton and graduated from Saint Agatha's Elementary School and Milton High School, class of 1977. She has lived in Weymouth for over twelve years, previously in Quincy and Milton.

She was a longtime employee at AT&T in Boston and has been retired many years. Currently she was involved in child and home health care.

She was a dear friend of many and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

SHEILA M. SULLIVAN

Beloved daughter of the late Paul L. and Doris E. (Murphy) Sullivan. Devoted sister of Paula Foley of Falmouth, Mark Sullivan and his wife Ann of Cambridge and Maura Sullivan of Falmouth. Loving aunt of Brendan Foley of Orleans, Patrick Foley of South Boston, Catherine Sullivan of Somerville and Theresa Sullivan of NY.

Interment was private.

Margaret A. 'Peg' Caldwell, 78

Insurance Agent, Interviewer

A memorial service for Margaret Anne "Peg" Caldwell, 78, of Quincy, was held Dec. 1 at the Hamel, Wickens and Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams St., Quincy.

The Rev. John Casticum, Pastor of Houghs Neck Congregational Church, officiated.

Mrs. Caldwell died peacefully Nov. 23 following a brief illness.

She was the beloved wife of the late Bernard Caldwell, whom she married on Aug. 28, 1952.

Born Nov. 26, 1933 and raised in Quincy, she was the daughter of Anne F. Muir and the late William Walker Muir.

She worked as an insurance agent and interviewer for both the Flynn Insurance Agency and the Twinbrook Agency.

She enjoyed the beaches of Quincy and Cape Cod, loved to travel and was an avid seeker of unusual antiques at yard sales and thrift shops.

She leaves her daughter, Marcia King of Richmond, ME. She was the cherished grandmother of Joshua King, Robert King and Michael King and the dear sister of James Muir and his wife Carol of Kingston, MA. and the late Richard Muir and his wife Virginia of Salem, NH.

As a mother, grandmother and friend, her love and friendship was a comfort to all who knew her. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations can be made to MSPCA/Angell Animal Medical Center, 350 South Huntington Ave, Boston, MA 02130.

Robert S. Connolly, 73

Retired Service Manager, Veteran

Funeral services for Robert S. Connolly, 73, of Centerville, formerly of Quincy, were conducted Monday at the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, Quincy.

The Rev. Eduardo Andrade, pastor of the Good Shepherd Church in South Easton, officiated.

Mr. Connolly died Nov. 29 at Cape Cod Hospital after a brief illness.

He was born in Boston, raised and educated in Boston schools and was a graduate of Hyde Park High School. He also attended Dale Carnegie courses.

He has lived in Centerville for 14 years, previously in Quincy. He was also a winter resident of Venice, Florida for several years.

Mr. Connolly was employed as service manager for the George T. Wilkinson Heating Company in Weymouth for 15 years and has been retired several years.

He served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1957 through 1959.

He enjoyed woodworking and fishing. He was devoted to his family and especially to his three cherished grandchildren.

Beloved husband for 55

ROBERT S. CONNOLLY years of Shirley A. (Sage) Connolly.

Devoted father of Brian R. Connolly and his wife Lourdes of Easton, Christine Connolly of Centerville, Thomas M. Connolly and his wife Annie of Tampa, Florida.

Loving grandfather of Thomas, Michael and Joshua.

Dear brother of Kenneth A. Connolly and his wife Patricia of Rockland. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Interment with Military Honors at Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to the Dana Farber Cancer Institute, P.O. Box 849168, Boston, MA 02284-9168.

Pauline Angelini, 82

Assistant Braintree Town Accountant

A funeral Mass for Pauline (Saluti) Angelini, 82, of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 1 at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Braintree.

Mrs. Angelini died Nov. 28.

She was a graduate of Quincy High School, class of 1947, and worked as an Assistant Town Accountant for the Town of Braintree for many years. She was a member of both St. John's and St. Mary's Senior Citizens groups and enjoyed dancing, cooking and spending time with her family.

Beloved wife of the late Nicholas Angelini. Loving mother of Cynthia Basile and her husband Paul of Weymouth and Dr. Domenic N. Angelini and his wife Cheryl of Plymouth. Cherished grandmother of Nicole Burr of Braintree, Michael Basile of North Attleborough, Jaclyn Angelini of Quincy, Nicholas Angelini Braintree and great-grandmother of Gianna Burr of Braintree. Loving daughter of the late Julius and Alphonzina (Falcione) Saluti. Dear sister of the late Frank and Alfred Saluti.

Funeral arrangements were made by Bolea-Buonfiglio Funeral Home, 116 Franklin Street, Quincy.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Catherine Marie O'Brien, 88

Stitcher, Sample Maker; Hairdresser

A funeral Mass for Catherine "Kay" Marie (Bongiovanni) O'Brien, 88, of Braintree and formerly Quincy was celebrated Monday at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mrs. O'Brien died Nov. 29 at Pope Nursing Home in Weymouth after a brief illness.

She worked as a Burner at the Hingham Shipyard during WWII, as a Stitcher & Sample Maker in the Boston Garment District and as a Hairdresser in Quincy for many years. She enjoyed cooking, shopping, and especially enjoyed visits from her grandchildren.

Beloved wife of the late Francis H. O'Brien. Loving mother of Paul O'Brien and his wife Fran of ME and Kenneth O'Brien and his wife Mary of Braintree. Cherished grandmother of Jeffrey O'Brien of ME, Patricia O'Brien of NC, Jacqueline, Kate and Alison O'Brien of Braintree and great-grandson Finnegan. Loving daughter of Domenic and Catherine (Insana) Bongiovanni. Dear sister of Domenic Bongiovanni and his wife Helen of Braintree.

Funeral arrangements were made by Bolea-Buonfiglio Funeral Home, 116 Franklin St., Quincy.

Interment was in Braintree Cemetery.

Alexander T. Jarvie

Retired Supervisor

A funeral Mass for Alexander T. Jarvie of Quincy, a retired U.S. Post Service supervisor, was celebrated Tuesday in St. John's Church, Quincy.

Mr. Jarvie died Nov. 28. Born in Somerville and grew up in Everett. He lived in Charlestown for most of his life before moving to Quincy 13 years ago.

He worked for the United States Post Service as a supervisor for 20 years before retiring in 1981. In his earlier years Mr. Jarvie worked for Eastern Gas and Fuel.

He enjoyed music of the 30s and 40s and was a staunch Democrat who enjoyed politics. He was an avid stamp and postcard collector with an extensive collection. Most of all he dedicated his life to his family, they will miss him dearly.

Beloved husband of the late Dorothy C. (Feeney)

ALEXANDER T. JARVIE

Jarvie. Loving father of Paul A. Jarvie and his wife Sharon Provost Jarvie of Quincy. Brother of the late Rita Jarvie, Donald Jarvie and Eileen Bacon. Cherished grandfather of Alex Jarvie of Braintree, Carolyn P. and Michael Jarvie both of Quincy.

Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Stephen W. Buccella, Jr.

Owned T & S Auto

A funeral service for Stephen W. Buccella, Jr. of Quincy was held Wednesday in the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Mr. Buccella died Nov. 30.

He owned and operated T & S Auto in South Boston for 25 years and then worked for many years at L Street Auto in South Boston. He was also a Korean war veteran serving with the United States Army.

Mr. Buccella was a graduate of Brighton High School, a member of the John P. McKeon Amvets Post # 146 in Dorchester and was also an avid sports fan.

Beloved husband of the late Lola P. (Johnson). Loving father of Patricia A. Cipolla and her husband, Michael, of Attleboro. Cherished grandfather of Michael STEPHEN BUCCELLA, JR. and Ryan Cipolla. Brother of Margaret Burdick and her husband, Walter, of Florida, Louie Buccella and his wife, Sandy, of Plymouth, and the late Ann Minchall, Richard and Mary Buccella. Brother-in-law of Janice Buccella of Holbrook.

Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Burial was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to American Diabetes Assoc., 10 Speen St., 2nd Floor, Framingham, MA 01701A.

Charles C. Varraso, 87

A funeral Mass for Charles C. "Charlie" Varraso, 87, of Braintree and formerly Quincy was celebrated Wednesday at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Braintree.

Mr. Varraso died Nov. 30.

He was born in Quincy where he grew up and graduated from Quincy High School, Class of 1942. Retired produce manager for Purity Supreme Super Market where he had worked for over 30 years. He was a US Navy Veteran who served during WWII.

He enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and watching their various activities. He was also an avid Red Sox Fan and could be seen driving around Braintree in his red Toyota pickup truck and taking care of his dog, Zeplin.

Beloved husband of the late Elizabeth Betty (Tricomi) Varraso. Loving father of Chuck Varraso and his wife Tina and Diane Barese and her husband Al, all of Braintree. Devoted brother of Albert Varraso and his wife Margaret of Braintree, and the late Nicholas, William and Julia Varraso. Dear grandfather of Jamie Varraso, Joseph Varraso, Michael Varraso, Kristen Varraso, Anthony and Nicholas Barese. Also survived by his great-grandchildren Ava and Tyler and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Cartwright-Venuti Funeral Home, Braintree.

Interment was in St. Mary Cemetery, Randolph.

Mary Fantasia, 100

Worked At Dependable Cleaners

A funeral Mass for Mary (Piazza) Fantasia, age 100, a lifelong Quincy resident, will be celebrated today (Thursday) at 10 a.m. in St. John the Baptist Church, 44 School St., Quincy.

Mrs. Fantasia died peacefully Nov. 29 at the Kindred Transitional Care and Rehabilitation Quincy, surrounded by her loving family.

She was born in Malfa, Sicily and immigrated to the United States as an infant. She was raised and educated in Quincy.

Mrs. Fantasia worked for Dependable Cleaners at the Adams Street location in Quincy for many years. She was also a devoted homemaker.

She enjoyed knitting and especially loved music.

Beloved wife of the late Nicholas F. Fantasia.

Devoted mother of Brenda M. Brown and her husband Jack of Quincy, Barbara Crimi of Hanson and her late husband Vincent, Robert Fantasia and his wife Cynthia of Lexington, Linda Roche and her husband Ed of Revere, and the late

MARY FANTASIA

Nicholas J. Fantasia, Jr.

Loving grandmother of 16 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren.

She was one of nine children.

Sister-in-law of Rose D'Olimpio of Quincy.

Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Visiting hours were 4 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment will be at Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, 480 Pleasant Street, Watertown, MA 02472.

Louis Coulacos, 82

Decorated Korean War Veteran, Expert Carpenter Worked On 'Old Ironsides'

A private graveside ceremony with military honors was held for Louis "Lou" Coulacos, 82, of Quincy.

Mr. Coulacos died Oct. 25.

A Korean War veteran with notable commendations, he was graduate of North Quincy High School where he was a member of the football, baseball, and track teams.

He worked at Keystone Manufacturing Company and spent many years at Fore River Shipyard as a carpenter. He was one of the select few honored to work as an expert carpenter on the restoration of the ship, the United States Constitution, popularly known as "Old Ironsides", the oldest commissioned ship in the United States Navy. Mr. Coulacos was also an expert amateur artist, which was his favorite hobby.

The Rev. Cleopas Strongylis, Cathedral Dean of the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Cathedral of New England, honorably performed the memorial ceremony. Military Honor Guards stood guard over an American flag-draped coffin and with the calm, solemn sound of Taps echoing throughout the cemetery Mr. Coulacos was laid to rest as close family members saluted.

Loving son of the late Anthony and Stella Coulacos. Beloved brother of Ann, Betsie and Spero Coulacos of Quincy and the late William. Devoted uncle of Melissa Tolmie of CT, Vanessa Holm of Pepperell, and Cathy Prato of West Boylston. Brother-in-law of Diane Villagomez of FL and the late Mary Coulacos. Survived by his nephews Matthew, Connor and Christopher as well as nieces Allison, Emily, Olivia and Meredith. He is also survived by many loving relatives and friends, including Anthony Holm and Nick Prato.

Funeral arrangements were made by Deware Funeral Home, 576 Hancock St., Quincy.

REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS AND STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS

REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS AND STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS

CITY OF QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS
PURCHASING DEPARTMENT
1305 HANCOCK ST., QUINCY, MA 02169

Invites sealed bids/proposals for furnishing and delivering to the City of Quincy:

PUBLIC BUILDINGS PUBLIC BUILDINGS

THE RESTORATION OF CODDINGTON HALL RFQ for "FILED SUB CONTRACTORS" RFQ for "GENERAL CONTRACTORS"

DECEMBER 20, 2012 @ 11:00 A.M.
DECEMBER 20, 2012 @ 2:00 P.M.

The City of Quincy hereby requests qualifications to prequalify "General Contractors" and "Filed Sub Contractors." The Coddington Hall Renovation, 24 Coddington St. Quincy, MA 02169, will provide space for a number of City of Quincy department offices and includes the restoration of the exterior masonry, new slate roof and copper gutters, new galvanized metal fascia, soffit and dentils, new windows, abatement of asbestos containing materials, demolition of interior finishes, new interior office space and finishes, new mechanical, electrical, plumbing, fire protection and fire alarm systems, new utility services to the building, new landscaping, site paving and exterior lighting. The estimated construction duration will be for 12 months. The estimated construction cost construction is $7,777,000.00

Trade Categories

1. Roofing/Flashing
3. Lath/Plastering
5. Glass/Glazing
7. Electrical
9. Metal Windows
11. Acoustical Tile
13. Resilient Floors
15. HVAC
17. Fire Protection

Est. Constr. Cost

- $750,000.00
- $ 36,000.00
- $ 25,000.00
- $622,000.00
- $464,000.00
- $103,000.00
- $ 22,000.00
- $1,870,000.00
- $219,000.00

Trade Categories

2. Waterproof/caulking
4. Marble
6. Plumbing
8. Elevators
10. Misc. & Orn. Iron
12. Tile
14. Painting
16. Masonry

Est. Constr. Cost

- $ 35,000.00
- $ 25,000.00
- $154,000.00
- $ 25,000.00
- $127,000.00
- $ 70,000.00
- $110,000.00
- $580,000.00

The anticipated completion date for prequalification evaluations is January 15, 2013. The Project Team includes the City of Quincy (Awarding Authority) and Wessling Architects, Designer.

Detailed specifications are available on-line at the City of Quincy's website, www.quincyma.gov and also available at the office of the Purchasing Agent, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, Massachusetts, 02169, between the hours of 8:30 AM and 4:30 PM for a non-refundable printing charge of $25.00

RFQ/SOQ's will be received at the office of the Purchasing Agent until the time and date stated above, at which time and date they will be opened and registered. Late Bids/Proposals, delivered by mail or in person, will be rejected.

All questions regarding this bid should be directed to Kathryn R. Hobin, Purchasing Agent through fax: 617-376-1074 and email: khobin@quincyma.gov and cc: to kimtrillcott@quincyma.gov Questions will be accepted until December 14, 2012 at 4:00 p.m.

Proposals must be in a sealed envelope/box (5 copies/1original requested). Submittals must be properly identified on the outer envelope: "REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS-GENERAL CONTRACT or FILED SUB CONTRACTOR "(AND WHICH CATEGORY).

Interested parties are welcome to visit the site. There will be no mandatory site visit.

If applicable, Bids/RFQ's shall be in accordance with Chapter 149 of the M.G.L. as amended. M.G.L. Chapter 39, § 39A, 39B and 39F-R. M.G.L. Chapter 149, § 26, 27, 29, 35 and 44A-44M. and 810 CMR 9.00 & CMR 10.00, Chapter 7 §38A1/2 - O. Interested General and Trade Contractors must provide a currently valid Certificate of Eligibility issued by DCAM pursuant to M.G.L. c. 149 § 44D

The right is reserved to reject any or all RFQ's or to accept any part of an RFQ or the one deemed best for the City, and waive any informalities in the bidding, if it is in the best interest of the City to do so.

Thomas P. Koch, Mayor
Kathryn R. Hobin, C.P.O.

CLASSIFIEDS

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION
 Docket No. NO12P0735EA

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
 The Trial Court
 Probate and Family Court
 Norfolk Probate and Family Court
 35 Shawmut Road
 Canton, MA 02021
 (781) 830-1200

Estate of:
 Henry Adler
 Date of Death:
 January 30, 2012

To all interested persons:

A petition has been filed by: Denise Meehan of North Weymouth, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Denise Meehan of North Weymouth, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve With Personal Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 12/19/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: November 14, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
 Register of Probate

12/6/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION
 Docket No. NO12P2739EA

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
 The Trial Court
 Probate and Family Court
 Norfolk Probate and Family Court
 35 Shawmut Road
 Canton, MA 02021
 (781) 830-1200

Estate of:
 Mark Jason Wasserstein
 Date of Death:
 June 6, 2011

To all interested persons:

A petition has been filed by: Amy Weintraub of North Easton, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Amy Weintraub of North Easton, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 12/19/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: November 15, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
 Register of Probate

12/6/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION
 Docket No. NO12P2738EA

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
 The Trial Court
 Probate and Family Court
 Norfolk Probate and Family Court
 35 Shawmut Road
 Canton, MA 02021
 (781) 830-1200

Estate of:
 Wilfred Henry Buckley
 Date of Death:
 August 29, 2010

To all interested persons:

A petition has been filed by: Kevin F Buckley of Braintree, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Kevin F Buckley of Braintree, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 12/19/2012. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: November 15, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
 Register of Probate

12/6/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITY OF QUINCY IN COUNCIL

ORDER NO. 2012-208

ORDERED:

November 13, 2012

Be it ordained by the City Council, that the Quincy Municipal Code is hereby amended as follows:

In Title 10. Vehicles and Traffic. Chapter 10.12. Signs, Signals and Markers Section 10.12.040 Stop Signs Authorized where.

ADD THE FOLLOWING

Street	Intersecting with	Type of Regulation
Arlington Street (behind 99 Restaurant)		Stop Sign Southbound at Parking Lot

A true copy.
 Attest:

Joseph P. Shea
 City Clerk

12/6/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITY OF QUINCY IN COUNCIL

ORDER NO. 2012-209

ORDERED:

November 13, 2012

Be it ordained by the City Council, that the Quincy Municipal Code is hereby amended as follows:

In Title 10. Vehicles and Traffic. Chapter 10.20. Stopping Standing and Parking. Section 10.20.40 Parking-Prohibited and Restricted where.

ADD THE FOLLOWING

Street	Side	From	To	Type of Regulation
Safford Street	East	Holbrook Road	100' south of Holbrook Rd.	No Parking
Safford Street	East	100' south of Holbrook Rd	20' north of Wilson Ave	No Parking

A true copy.
 Attest:

Joseph P. Shea
 City Clerk

12/6/12

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF PETITION FOR CHANGE OF NAME

Docket No. NO12C0245CA

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
 The Trial Court
 Probate and Family Court
 Norfolk Probate and Family Court
 35 Shawmut Road
 Canton, MA 02021
 (781) 830-1200

In the matter of:

Tina Marie Giambro of Quincy, MA

To all persons interested in petition described:

A petition has been presented by Tina Marie Giambro requesting that Tina Marie Giambro be allowed to change his/her/their name as follows: Anunzia C Dell'Orfano.

IF YOU DESIRE TO OBJECT THERETO, YOU OR YOUR ATTORNEY MUST FILE A WRITTEN APPEARANCE IN SAID COURT AT: Canton ON OR BEFORE TEN O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING (10:00 AM) ON: 12/19/2012.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: November 15, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
 Register of Probate

12/6/12

CHURCH FAIR

ST. CHRYSOSTOM'S HOLIDAY FAIR -

FRIDAY DEC 7TH - 6PM TO 9 PM AND SATURDAY DEC 8TH - 9AM AM TO 3PM
 FOOD, CRAFTS AND MORE
 1 LINDEN ST. QUINCY 12/6

Save Gas & Money, Shop Locally

Want to pick up a copy of The Quincy Sun?

Here are stores in Quincy that sell it on their newsstands:

QUINCY MARKET Corner of Temple & Washington St.	ARTERY GROCERY 1000 Southern Artery	7-11 721 Hancock St.
GOODIE'S STORE 1250 Hancock St., Presidents Place	DAIRY FARM 330 Washington St.	BEALE ST. SMOKE SHOP 17 Beale St.
NEW STORE ON THE BLOCK 1183 Hancock St., Quincy Ctr. T Station	TEDESCHI'S 230 Washington St.	CVS 42 Beale St.
BRENNANS 1442 Hancock St.	STOP & SHOP Southern Artery	COFFEE BREAK CAFE 12 Old Colony Ave.
HANCOCK TOBACCO 1500 Hancock St.	CVS Southern Artery	SUPREME LIQUORS 615 Hancock St.
MIGNOSA'S FRUIT BASKET 138 Granite St.	BAXTER'S PHARMACY 385 Washington St.	S & A CONVENIENCE STORE 498 Hancock St.
RITE-AID 132 Granite St.	WALGREENS 550 Adams St.	HANNAFORD BROTHERS 475 Hancock St.
COFFEE BREAK CAFE 77 Parkingway	TEDESCHI'S 650 Adams St.	MULLANEY'S VARIETY 205 W. Squantum St.
HANCOCK PARK LOBBY SHOP 164 Parkingway	7-11 Adams St.	STOP & SHOP 65 Newport Ave.
FRANKLIN ST. BP 60 Franklin St.	VILLAGE COMM. MARKET 100 Willard St.	7-11 363 Hancock St.
7-11 78 Franklin St.	COPELAND LIQUORS 273 Copeland St.	RED APPLE FOOD SHOP 48 Billings Rd.
CVS Independence Ave.	GRANITE MART 308 Willard St.	SAM'S VARIETY 125 Billings Rd.
SHOP N SAVE LIQUORS 20 Independence Ave.	7-11 Copeland St.	T & T LIQUORS & VARIETY 66 Newbury Ave.
DONUT + DONUTS 33 Scamell St.	JOE'S PLACE 260 Centre St.	RICHARD'S MARKET 247 Atlantic Ave.
PRESIDENTIAL LIQUORS Scamell St.	ALBA DELI 1089 Hancock St.	CARMINE'S CAFE 69 Huckins Ave.
TEDESCHI'S 85 Quincy Ave.	CORNER FOOD MARKET 1060 Hancock St.	TEDESCHI'S 751 E. Squantum St.
DAILY MART 291 Quincy Ave.	DAIRY MART 200 Sea St.	W. ELM VARIETY 139 West Elm Ave.
ROCHE BROTHERS The Falls	ADAMS SHORE SUPERMARKET 494 Sea St.	LUCKY SHAMROCK 265 Beale St.
WALGREENS 418 Quincy Ave.	PALMER STREET MARKET 231 Palmer St.	ANDRE'S STORE 20 Brook St.
	BERNIE'S GENERAL STORE 1147 Sea St.

LEGAL NOTICE

CITY OF QUINCY IN COUNCIL

ORDER NO. 2012-207

ORDERED:

November 13, 2012

Be it ordained by the City Council, that the Quincy Municipal Code is hereby amended as follows:

In Title 10. Vehicles and Traffic. Chapter 10.12. Signs, Signals and Markers Section 10.12.040 Stop Signs Authorized where.

ADD THE FOLLOWING

Street	Intersecting with	Type of Regulation
Hall Place	Copeland Street	Stop Sign Southbound

A true copy.
 Attest:

Joseph P. Shea
 City Clerk

12/6/12

CLASSIFIEDS

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION GIVING NOTICE OF PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN FOR INCAPACITATED PERSON PURSUANT TO G.L. c. 190B, §5-304 Commonwealth of Massachusetts The Trial Court Probate and Family Court Norfolk Probate and Family Court 35 Shawmut Road Canton, MA 02021 Docket No. NO12P2715GD In the matter of: John Williams Of: Quincy, MA RESPONDENT Alleged Incapacitated Person

To the named Respondent and all other interested persons, a petition has been filed by Quincy Medical Center of Quincy, MA in the above captioned matter alleging that John Williams is in need of a Guardian and requesting that Malinda Halely of Mansfield, MA (or some other suitable person) be appointed as Guardian to serve Without Surety on the bond.

The petition asks the court to determine that the Respondent is incapacitated, that the appointment of a Guardian is necessary, and that the proposed Guardian is appropriate. The petition is on file with this court and may contain a request for certain specific authority.

You have the right to object to this proceeding. If you wish to do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance at this court on or before 10:00 A.M. on the return date of 12/19/2012. This day is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline date by which you have to file the written appearance if you object to the petition. If you fail to file the written appearance by the return date, action may be taken in this matter without further notice to you. In addition to filing the written appearance, you or your attorney must file a written affidavit stating the specific facts and grounds of your objection within 30 days after the return date.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The outcome of this proceeding may limit or completely take away the above-named person's right to make decisions about personal affairs or financial affairs or both. The above-named person has the right to ask for a lawyer. Anyone may make this request on behalf of the above-named person. If the above-named person cannot afford a lawyer, one may be appointed at State expense.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: November 13, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

12/6/12

PERSONAL

Prayer Through Application To The Holy Spirit
Holy Spirit: You who solve all problems, light all roads so I can attain my goals; You who give me the Divine Gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances in my life You are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank You for all things as You confirm once again that I never want to be separated from You, even in spite of all material allusions. I wish to be with You in eternal glory. Thank You for your mercy toward me and mine. The person must say this prayer for 3 consecutive days. After 3 days, the favor requested will be granted. Even if it may appear difficult, this prayer must be published immediately without mentioning the favor. Only your initials should appear at the bottom. N.S. 12/6

Alex, Mikayla, Sue and Scott. We will miss you very much. Thank you for being great neighbors! Love, Papa & Nini 12/6

LEGAL NOTICE

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS THE TRIAL COURT THE PROBATE AND FAMILY COURT DEPARTMENT Norfolk Division
Docket No. 12E0087
To Pauline Tom, co-trustee of the Tom Family Trust UDT DTD 11-2-05 and Nancy Tom, co-trustee of the Tom Family Trust UDT DTD 11-2-05 and to all other persons interested.

A petition has been presented to said Court by Nancy Tom of 10 Weston St. #322, Quincy in the County, Norfolk representing that she holds as tenant in common an undivided 50% part or share of certain land lying in Quincy in said County of Norfolk and briefly described as follows: 23 Joan Dr., Quincy, MA as described in exhibit "A" attached to said petition.

Setting forth that she desires that - all - the following described part - of said land may be sold at private sale for not less than $355,600.00 dollars and praying that partition may be made of all the land aforesaid according to law, and to that end that a commissioner be appointed to make such partition and be ordered to make sale and conveyance of all, or any part of said land which the Court finds cannot be advantageously divided, either at private sale or public auction, and be ordered to distribute the net proceeds thereof.

If you desire to object thereto, you or your attorney should file a written appearance in said Court at Canton before ten o'clock in the forenoon on the 28th day of Dec 2012, the return day of this citation.

Witness, Angela M. Ordoñez, Esquire, First Justice of said Court, this 8th day of Nov, 2012.

PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

12/6, 12/13, 12/20/12

PERSONAL

THANK YOU Blessed Mother. Pray 9 Hail Marys for 9 days. Ask for 3 wishes, 1 involving Business and 2 impossible. On 9th day publish this article and your wishes will be answered, even though you may not believe it. M.F. 12/6

FOR SALE

Floating Lobster Tote $25.00
2 pieces 3/4 inch line,
1 piece 100' & 1 piece 120'
$50.00 for both
(617)590-7992 12/6

OLD SOAPSTONE SINK SIGNED "ABERDEEN" $300.00/B.O.
OLD DOORS WITH HARDWARE & BAY WINDOW WITH CRANK OUT SIDES - MAKE OFFER 781-910-9948 12/6

Blizzard Snow Plow 8 ft. Never Used $2500.00
Call (774)545-0844 12/6

LEGAL NOTICE

INFORMAL PROBATE PUBLICATION NOTICE
Docket No. NO12P2673EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts The Trial Court Probate and Family Court Norfolk Division 35 Shawmut Road Canton, MA 02021 (781) 830-1200

Estate of: Lamar Mario Thompson Date of Death: July 1, 2012
To all persons interested in the above captioned estate, by Petition of: Petitioner Mark Thompson of Quincy, MA. Mark Thompson of Quincy, MA has been informally appointed as the Personal Representative of the estate to serve with surety on the bond.

The estate is being administered under informal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but interested parties are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration. Interested parties are entitled to petition the Court to institute formal proceedings and to obtain orders terminating or restricting the powers of Personal Representatives appointed under informal procedure. A copy of the Petition and Will, if any, can be obtained from the Petitioner.

12/6/12

HALLS FOR RENT

MORRISETTE LEGION POST
81-83 Liberty St., Quincy
Function Hall Available
Call for Details 617-770-4876
Internet Capable • Weddings • Showers • Christenings • Meetings After Funeral Gatherings TF

WANTED

OLD HAND TOOLS & BOOKS WANTED

Planes, chisels, adzes, shaves, machinist, and sheetmetal tools, calipers, clamps, anvils, vices. USEFUL TOOLS, ALL TRADES.

New England history books Collections: old postcards, toys, military, hunting and fishing items. LIBERTY TOOL CO. 888-405-2007 Davistownmuseum.org e-Store & antique sale! TF

SKIN CARE

FREE FACIAL
Individual or groups

MARY KAY Celebrating 50 Years Skincare for Women Age 12 & Beyond
MICHELLE, Consultant 781-258-7564 TF

PERSONAL CARE
Personal Care Attendant to Care for Elderly Woman & her Special Needs Adult Daughter Neponset Area Morning/Afternoon/Evening 781-308-9000 12/13 "Experience & References Required"

CLEANING SERVICES
DASILVA CLEANING SERVICES
Home & Office Cleaning Professional, Affordable Reliable & Trustworthy Weekly or Bi-Weekly References CALL Meiry 781-803-2922 12/27

SISTERS CLEANING IF YOU NEED SOMEONE TO CLEAN YOUR HOUSE. WE DO HOUSES, APTS & OFFICES. CALL NOW 978-587-2252 12/27

SERVICES

AFFORDABLE, HIGHEST QUALITY PAINTING AND HANDYMAN SERVICES.
FREE Estimates • No Job Too Small • Insured • Quincy-Based
CALL KURT AT HAMMERHEAD SERVICES, LLC 901-219-9652 12/27

SERVICES

SAVE Budget Fuel

Fuel Assistance Senior Discount Full Service 617-328-4063 TF

Gutter Cleaning
Avoid Costly Repairs Later
Prices Start at $95 Insured
Call John at 617-775-4601 12/13

SERVICES

LOCAL PAINTER CLIP & SAVE
Average Room - walls $150 Ceilings $75. Also windows, doors, trim, etc. Inside or out. Prompt, clean service. Kevin 617-302-5136 Cell 617-774-7479 1/3

DCS PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

One call does it ALL!!!
• Fall Clean ups
• Snow Plowing
• Snow Removal & more
FREE ESTIMATES 10% OFF FIRST SERVICE
Joe (857)939-3442 1/17

POWER PLUMBING

Plumbing, Heating, Gas Fitting
Repairs • New Installations
Dave 617-328-3007 Emergencies 617-792-4054
Master Lic # 13749 TF

S.G. HAROLD PLUMBING, HEATING & AC
Specializing in Viessman Boiler Unico Air Conditioning Home heating repairs & service Radiant Floor heating
QUINCY 617-471-0914
Unprecedented Service Tailored to You MA Lic. #10589 TF

GUTTER CLEANING & REPAIRS PEST CONTROL
Home Repairs
I Answer My Phone! RICH 617-773-6432 12/27

FALL CLEANUPS

• Entire Property Cleanups
• Gutter Cleaning
• Shrub Pruning/Removal
• Walkways/Retaining Wall Installation
Call Chris 617-778-8775 www.cmcguelandscape.com 12/6
Free Estimates Fully Insured

DG'S YARD MAINTENANCE

LAWN MOWING
SERIOUS ABOUT SERVICE
REASONABLE RATES FULLY INSURED
SMALL TREE REMOVAL OVERSEEDING • SOD MULCHING, WEEDING & EDGING HEDGE & SHRUB TRIMMING OR REMOVAL
ROTOTILLING & DETHATCHING

CLEAN-UPS
617-786-9558 FREE ESTIMATES

SERVICES

HTA Hancock T.V. & Appliance
Sales, Service, Parts & Installation Since 1945
(617) 472-1710
115 Franklin Street, Quincy, MA
hancocktvandappliance.com

CERAMICS

Made to Order Finished Ceramic Christmas Trees and Gifts.
Replacement Lights Stars & Wiring
Ceramic Supplies & Classes
E & T Ceramics & Printing 367 Billings Rd - Wollaston 617-479-4107 12/20

HELP WANTED

DRIVERS:
Home Weekends. 44 cpm NE Dedicated. Chromed out trucks w/APU's 70% Drop & Hook CDL-A, 6mos Exp.
(888) 406-9046 12/13

SERVICES

5 CLANCY BROTHERS PEST CONTROL
You got 'em! We'll get 'em!
(617)328-8387 1/17

Russ DiBona & Son Landscaping Inc.
Fall Cleanups, Commercial Snow Plowing, Removal, Sanding
Call 617-429-4813 russdibona1.com 12/6

MASONRY All Types
New and Repair
FREE ESTIMATES Call Ed 781-254-1648 2/28

SUN FUN PAGE

King Crossword

ACROSS

- 1 "Bam!"
- 4 Altar affirmative
- 7 Consequently
- 8 Dodge
- 10 Decorate
- 11 Eateries
- 13 Good thing with a bad element
- 16 Pigpen
- 17 Beethoven's "Für —"
- 18 Slithery squeezer
- 19 Chow
- 20 Galley supply
- 21 Nervous
- 23 Move laterally
- 25 Humdinger
- 26 Finished
- 27 — Baba
- 28 Accumulate
- 30 Witticism
- 33 Ambivalence of a sort

- 36 Sir Isaac who developed a short hand method
- 37 Finish
- 38 Archaeologists' meccas
- 39 Best pocket pair
- 40 "Monty Python" opener
- 41 Beavers' creation

DOWN

- 1 Substitute
- 2 Shrek is one
- 3 Is curious (about)
- 4 Wall-climbing plants
- 5 Thickly populated
- 6 Mined-over matters
- 7 Rewrite, maybe
- 8 Forgo the

- cue cards
- 9 — Council ("Survivor" meeting)
- 10 Mornings (Abbr.)
- 12 Sleep soundly?
- 14 Sad
- 15 Petrol
- 19 Wildebeest
- 20 Praise in verse
- 21 Dutch flower
- 22 Panacea
- 23 Mediocre
- 24 As an alternative
- 25 Felon's flight
- 26 Curses
- 28 Fess up
- 29 Wherewithal
- 30 Web surfer's need
- 31 Responsibility
- 32 Recipe meas.
- 34 Needle case
- 35 Bygone Peruvian

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

MAGIC MAZE

MOUNTAINS MORE THAN 25,000 FEET IN ELEVATION

CTRPMKIFDTKBYWU
SQOMKIFDEABZXWU
SQONLRJMELEHFRDU
CAYRAKAPOSHIALE
WVTSQKDSUPMOSSV
JNLKAAIYAAHATFE
ASIOLOGOHCNPUSR
NEURCOBIZAUYYJWE
NVBUHSRRMNQTNPS
UNMCLIVEDADNANT
JIHFTERIGOQ2KBD

Find the listed words in the diagram. They run in all directions — forward, backward, up, down and diagonally.

Batura Sar
Broad Peak
Cho Oyu
Chogolisa
Jannu
K2 Qogir
Kamet
Kanjut Sar
Lhotse
Makalu
Manaslu
Nanda Devi
Nuptse
Rakaposhi
Tirich Mir

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

HOCUS-FOCUS

BY HENRY BOLTINOFF

FIND AT LEAST 6 DIFFERENCES BETWEEN PANELS.
Differences: 1. Poster is missing. 2. Sleeve is missing. 3. Handle is smaller. 4. Wall is shorter. 5. Locker is missing. 6. Stacks are shorter.

Trivia test

1. GENERAL KNOWLEDGE: What is a philologist?
2. TELEVISION: Which actor played the character of "Fonzie" on "Happy Days"?
3. LITERATURE: Who wrote the children's book "Matilda"?
4. GEOGRAPHY: What tiny principality lies between Spain and France?
5. MYTHOLOGY: In Greek mythology, what was the Hydra?
6. FOOD & DRINK: What is muesli?
7. ART: Where is the Uffizi museum?
8. MEASUREMENTS:

What does a kelvin measure?
9. MOVIES: What spell is used to disarm opponents in the "Harry Potter" movies?
10. ANATOMY: Where is the latissimus dorsi muscle located on the human body?

Answers

1. Someone who collects autographs
2. Henry Winkler
3. Roald Dahl
4. Andorra
5. A many-headed monster whose heads could grow back if they were cut off
6. Breakfast cereal with fruit and nuts
7. Florence, Italy
8. Temperature
9. "Expelliarmus!"
10. Back

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Wishing Well®

6 8 6 4 2 3 4 2 7 6 7 2 3
B M E B B C E E D F E F O
7 4 2 3 2 8 6 4 2 4 6 3 6
V A L N E A R L X E I T E
2 5 6 3 8 7 5 6 3 7 6 8 5
I F N R R O U D O T A I T
3 8 2 6 4 8 2 4 6 3 4 2 4
L T B S A A L D T B E E R
8 6 7 3 7 6 3 8 5 3 5 7 5
L R I U O A D B U G R N E
6 7 6 3 7 8 7 6 3 6 5 7 5
N T G E O L F E T R I A S
8 5 8 5 7 5 8 7 5 7 5 7 5
I B S R M I S I G L H Y T

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Make a start on that new workplace challenge. But get more information before you find yourself too deeply involved without knowing in which direction you should go.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You might find things becoming tedious as your schedule slows down for the holidays. Use this time to get information about a possible post-New Year job change.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) The creative Twin finds outlets for her or his ideas in the early part of the week. The practical Twin takes it a step further and rallies support to turn the ideas into reality.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) It's time to stop being intimidated by someone's negative behavior. Start taking positive steps on your own to help strengthen your position down the line.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Look closely at that so-called golden opportunity. Best to be a cautious Cat who approaches things slowly, than one who pounces without knowing where you'll land.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Your apology can resolve that personal situation before it overshadows the holidays. You'll feel better, even if you're only partly to blame for what happened.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Avoid overtaxing yourself, even if your energy levels are high and you feel that you can do it all. Best to pace yourself so you won't run yourself down before the holidays.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your sense of humor helps get you through a stressful period. Some of your quick quips can take the edge off any remaining negativity being aimed at you.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your artistic talents not only help you express yourself these days, but they also set up a line of communication between you and someone very special.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) It's fine to appreciate the importance of "proper form" for doing things. But relax a bit in order to allow newcomers on the project to feel less intimidated by you.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Use your boundless reserve of optimism to persuade others to work with you to resolve a difficult workplace problem before it can ruin your holiday fun.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You brim over with self-confidence as you begin to tackle a new challenge. And, before you know it, you're not alone: Others have taken the plunge with you.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a highly defined sense of commitment to others. You would make a fine social worker.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

CryptoQuip

This is a simple substitution cipher in which each letter used stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Solution is accomplished by trial and error.

Clue: L equals A

QAJMYV LWYCJ L BLXI EZY

MYVVCSEFQ EAJZ FBVQ, VLGBFQ

LSX WAPMZFO:

"JPFF'Q MYVGLSI."

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

King Crossword

Answers

Solution time: 25 mins.

Magic Maze

ANSWERS:

— MASTER

Cryptoquip

ANSWER:

"Tree's Company" and birches: commens with elms, maples Sitcom about a lady who

2012 Quincy Youth Football League Varsity And Junior Varsity Cheerleaders

SQUANTUM STORM VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

NORTH QUINCY APACHES VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

WEST QUINCY ELKS VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

QUINCY POINT PANTHERS VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

QUINCY POINT PANTHERS JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

WEST QUINCY ELKS JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

NORTH QUINCY APACHES JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

SQUANTUM STORM JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Never Too Old To Carry The Torah

QUINCY RESIDENTS Helen Warshauer (left) and Arline Goodman celebrated their Bat Mitzvahs Nov. 10 at Temple B'Nai Shalom in Braintree. Both of these ladies began their Hebrew education a year ago with their teacher, Solomon Borocov, and their tutor, Cantor Seth Grossman. Warshauer is 83 and Goodman is 72. Years ago, girls did not celebrate a Bat Mitzvah. But these two ladies were determined and on Nov. 10, over 100 family and friends witnessed a beautiful celebration and reading of the Torah. Services were offered by Rabbi Van Lanckton.

Photo Courtesy Marilyn Reisberg

BEALE STREET News And Tobacco

19 Beale St., Quincy
617-471-9811

* 99¢ Greeting Cards * Cigars & cigarette accessories

Fine selection of roll your own cigarette tobacco

* Featuring GREEN MOUNTAIN COFFEE

"Sit and Relax at our New Keno Table"

Start your new year at our new campus.
quincycollge.edu/spring-2013

QUINCY COLLEGE

DECEMBER

S	M	T	W	Th	F	S
						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
30	31

QUINCY COLLEGE

OPEN HOUSE

QUINCY CAMPUS: SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8TH, 10AM-1PM
PRESIDENTS PLACE | 1250 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY CENTER, MA 02169

PLYMOUTH CAMPUS: THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13TH, 5PM-7PM
36 CORDAGE PARK CIRCLE, PLYMOUTH, MA 02360

QUINCY COLLEGE IMPORTANT DATES

December 6 - Faculty & staff will be in the building from 10am-5pm for the start of the new year. Please bring your new year's resolutions and a list of things you would like to see in the new year. Meet with your advisor.

December 26 - Winter break begins. Last day of classes is December 26th.

January 16 - Spring semester begins. First day of classes is January 16th.

Plymouth: 508-747-0400 Quincy: 800-698-1700 | Online: www.quincycollge.edu | Email: info@quincycollge.edu

AISLING MANNION, a Junior Girl Scout with Troop 74125 and a fifth grade student at Beechwood Knoll Elementary School, is ready to sell Girl Scout cookies. Orders begin Friday, Dec. 7. Girl Scout cookies are $4 a box. To find out where to buy cookies in the Quincy area, visit www.hergirlscouts.org and click on the "cookie locator" and enter a ZIP code.

Rotarians To Serve Pasta Dinner At Kennedy Center

Quincy Rotary will prepare and serve a pasta lunch to members of the Kennedy Senior Center Tuesday, Jan. 8th at noon at the Kennedy Center.

There will be bingo and door prizes.

This is an annual event for the Rotarians as one of their many community service projects.

To attend this event, call the Kennedy Senior Center at (617) 376-1506.

Reservations are required as space is limited.

BellaDerma
Aesthetics-LLC

Owned and Operated by
Judith A. DiGravio RN, ADN
Gail S. Driscoll, RN, BSN
Medical Aestheticians

DECEMBER SPECIALS

Gift Certificates

The Perfect Holiday Gift And Our Gift To You With Purchase

$50 Gift Certificate & Receive $5 Bella Bucks
$100 Gift Certificate & Receive $15 Bella Bucks

Bella Bucks expire 2/28/2013 / have no cash value

Bella Diva Club NEW Amazing Holiday Gift

Designed to allow you flexibility while looking and feeling your best!

Choose From Our Diva Club Menu

4 Month Diva Club $210 - 3 Treatments
7 month Diva Club $375 - 6 Treatments

Complimentary Eyebrow Waxing at each scheduled appointment

10% Off All Product During Your Membership

Lipo-Light Body Contouring

Target YOUR Problem Area: Waist, Hips, or Thighs
Series Of 8 Treatments $399 / Series of 12 $599

"How old you are is your business...
How old you look is ours!"™

501 John Mahar Highway, Braintree | 781-535-6886
www.belladermaskinclinic.com

Tom &
All the Staff

Wish You Happy Holidays!

BAXTER PHARMACY

PRESCRIPTIONS

BAXTER PHARMACY AND MEDICAL SUPPLIES
DEDICATED TO OLD FASHIONED SERVICE

464 Washington Street, Quincy, MA
LOCAL DELIVERY AVAILABLE 617-773-7733 www.baxterpharmacy.com

High School Hockey Teams Back On Ice

Pages 21, 22, 23

Remembering Pearl Harbor

Page 14

69 CAR-RT LOT#B-099
THOMAS CRAN PUBLIC LIBRARY
PO BOX 699164
QUINCY MA 02269-9164

The Quincy Sun

Historic Quincy's Hometown Weekly Newspaper Since 1968

VOL. 45 No. 13

Thursday, December 13, 2012

75¢

Happy Chanukah

MENORAH LIGHTING was among the highlights of a community-wide celebration of Chanukah Monday evening at City Hall. The celebration was coordinated by the Hingham-Quincy Chabad and also featured Chanukah treats, hot latkes and hot apple cider. Standing at the Menorah as a light rain fell are Chabad Rabbi Shmulie Bronstein and his sons, Eli (left), age 6; and Shalom Douber, age 4. People of all faiths consider the Chanukah holiday as a symbol and message of triumph of freedom over oppression, of spirit over matter, of light over darkness. The eight-day celebration began Saturday and continues for eight days until Sunday, Dec. 16.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

Koch: Sterling To Be Renovated Or Replaced

By SCOTT JACKSON

Plans are now being made to replace or renovate Sterling Middle School, 85 years after it first opened its doors to students.

Principal Christine Barrett led state Treasurer Steve Grossman, Mayor Tom Koch, and Supt. Dr. Richard DeCristofaro on a tour of the school Friday. Also present were Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci, Director of Public Buildings Gary Cunniff, Massachusetts School Building Authority (MSBA) Executive Director Jack McCarthy and other

Cont'd On Page 11

STATE TREASURER Steve Grossman speaks with Sterling Middle School Principal Christine Barrett during a tour of the middle school last Friday. Plans to renovate the 85-year-old middle school – or build a new one – will be discussed with school committee members, Mayor Thomas Koch said.

Quincy Sun Photo/Emily Taft

Top Aide Acquitted, Cahill Case Enters 7th Day Of Deliberations

A Suffolk County jury entered a seventh day of deliberations Wednesday in the public corruption case involving former state Treasurer Timothy Cahill and acquitted one of his top aides of conspiracy charges Tuesday afternoon.

Shortly after noon on Tuesday, jurors filed into the ninth-floor courtroom and announced they found Scott Campbell, a Quincy resident and Cahill's chief of staff at the Treasury and campaign manager, not guilty on one count each of conspiracy to gain unwarranted privilege and conspiracy to commit

Cont'd On Page 13

Quincy Police Pedestrian Safety Bulletin

The number of accidents involving pedestrians this year has reached 92 as of Monday, an increase of 21 over last year when there were 71 accidents in 2011.

Of those 92 accidents, two have been fatal, according to Quincy Police.

In light of that surge in accidents, Quincy Police Chief Paul Keenan has issued a safety bulletin in an effort to educate both pedestrians and motorists in an effort to reduce the number of accidents.

Here is the bulletin:

Recently, there has been an increase in pedestrian accidents in Quincy. These accidents have involved pedestrians in crosswalks as well as those randomly crossing the street.

• For pedestrians in crosswalks without traffic lights, state law requires motorists to stop and allow for pedestrians to safely cross the street. You can still be a victim if the driver fails to yield.

As you cross the street, attempt to make eye contact with the driver. This extra step will let you know that the driver is aware that you are in the crosswalk.

• For crosswalks with traffic lights, pedestrians should hit the light button to activate the "walk" sign to cross. At this time, drivers are required to stop for their red light. With the "walk" sign on, there is no right turn on red.

• When crossing the street without a crosswalk, keep in mind that drivers may not expect someone to step off the curb to cross the street. Pedestrians do not have the right of way to cross the street.

• Texting while driving is against the law and jeopardizes your safety.

Texting, crossing the street with headphones on, among other distractions, leaves pedestrians at risk. At this time of year, early morning and late afternoon sun angles create a danger for those even in crosswalks. The glare, especially looking through a dirty windshield, can be blinding. In foul weather, it takes longer for vehicles to stop on wet roadways.

A pedestrian accident is a "life altering" experience for the pedestrian, the driver and their families, often for many years after the accident.

The Quincy Police Department has stepped up enforcement at various crosswalks.

Together, let's reduce the all accidents.

Chief Paul Keenan
Quincy Police Dept.

Council Wants State To Delay Medical Marijuana Law - Page 3

Merchants Row Project Nears Planning Board Approval - Page 9

Salvation Army Community Leader Kettle Continues Downtown - Page 2

For more Quincy news, visit:

The Quincy Sun.com

SAFE AND SOUND – The baby Jesus figurine and crib taken from the city's Nativity scene at Hancock Cemetery last week was returned to his familiar spot over the weekend. The 20-inch statue was reported missing last Wednesday. It was found in Mount Wollaston Cemetery by an off-duty Quincy police officer Thursday. The figurine is the centerpiece in a manger scene that includes Mary, Joseph, the three Magi and animal figures. The theft is believed to have been caused by pranksters. It was the second time in eight years that the baby Jesus statue was taken from the scene. In 2004, the statue was stolen and later found in the Town River. The $30,000 nativity set was donated by the city's Catholic parishes and rededicated in memory of the late Rev. Cornelius J. Heery, longtime pastor of Sacred Heart Church. The baby Jesus figurine cost about $1,500. Before it was returned to the manger, the statue underwent some cosmetic restoration. The crib and statue have also been reinforced to the wooden floor in an effort to prevent another theft.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

Salvation Army Community Leader Kettle Continues Wednesday-Friday

The Community Leader kettle to benefit the Quincy Salvation Army continued Wednesday in Quincy Center and will also be manned by volunteers today (Thursday) and Friday.

In all, nearly 100 community leaders – including elected officials, businessmen and women, and directors of social service organizations and educational institutions – are teaming up to ring the bell for the Salvation Army in downtown Quincy.

The effort began last Thursday outside City Hall when about 20 public officials joined together to kick off the 16th annual community leader kettle that was established in 1997 by the late Henry Bosworth, founder of The Quincy Sun.

The community leader kettle continued Wednesday outside the Granite Trust Building (Bank of America), 1400 Hancock St. The kettle will also be manned at that location Friday, Dec. 14.

In between those two dates, the kettle will be set up outside City Hall, 1305 Hancock St., today (Thursday).

Money collected by the red kettles helps fund holiday assistance initiatives including toys and clothing for children and food vouchers for families. The money is also used year-round to help those who need help with food, utilities, heat and other necessities.

The Quincy Salvation Army helps thousands of individuals and families in need annually.

Here's the line up of community bell ringers:

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 12
1400 Hancock St.

10 a.m. – Bruce Wood, Wood Commercial Painting; Frank Trainor, Commonwealth Builders; Steve DesRoche, Neponset Valley Surveyors; Sean Curry, Curry Ace Hardware; Anthony Agnitti, Agnitti Insurance and Richard Heapes, Street-Works.

11 a.m. – Patricia Ryan, Salem Radio Group; Joe Catalano, QATV; Chazy Dowaliby, The Patriot Ledger; Robert Bosworth, publisher The Quincy Sun and member of Salvation Army Advisory Board; Beth Ann Strollo, Quincy Community Action Programs; and Donna Mavromates, vice president, Quincy Chamber of Commerce.

Noon – David Dennis, Dennis and Associates; Sean Kenealy, Key Realty; Joe Hajjar, Boston's Best Cruises; Ryan Barrett, EL Barrett Company; and Dr. Abe Abdul, Lux Dental.

1 p.m. – Sean Galvin, Galvin Construction; Michael Kiley, Heritage Companies; Phyllis Godwin, Granite Electric; Wendy Simmons, Prism Energy Services; and Isobel Bertman, Rogers Jewelry and member Salvation Army Advisory Board.

2 p.m. – Tony Ricci, Quincy Historical Commission; Steve Wessling, Wessling Architects; Jim Edwards, Holmes & Edwards; and Steve Weiser, Weiser Architects.

3 p.m. – Dr. Peter Tsafaras, president Quincy

College; Sarah Morrison, director of Q Care; Keith Segalla, director Career and Technical Education Quincy Public Schools; Carol Andrews, principal Woodward School; and Catherine Cameron, principal Quincy Catholic Academy.

THURSDAY, DEC. 13
City Hall
1305 Hancock St.

10 a.m. – Norfolk County Dist. Atty. Michael Morrissey, Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci and School Committeeman David McCarthy.

11 a.m. – State Rep. Tackey Chan, state Rep. Bruce Ayers, Norfolk County Register of Probate Patrick McDermott and John Yazwinski, president and CEO, Father Bill's & Mainspring.

Noon – School Committeewoman Anne Mahoney and former Mayor Francis McCauley.

1 p.m. – School Committeewoman Kathy Hubley, Quincy Lions Club President Chuck Phelan (IT director for the City of Quincy); Quincy Kiwanis Club President Fran Wright (Human Resources director,

Cont'd On Page 35

Steward. The New Health Care.

Experience the New Health Care.

Best wishes for a happy and healthy holiday season from the doctors and staff at Quincy Medical Center.

We're committed to keeping you healthy, and that means providing you with world class health care when you need it, right in your neighborhood. Quincy Medical Center provides access to some of the South Shore's most respected physicians and advanced treatments for a full-range of medical specialties including community-based primary care and family medicine.

L to R (back row) Christopher Wenger, MD, Thomas O'Keefe, MD, Thomas Fitzgerald, MD, John Cooney, MD, Tomas Divinagrada, MD, Kevin McCusker, MD, Anthony Dragone, MD, Robert Dart, MD, Michael Snyder, MD, Bruno West, MD, Aniket Chakrabarti, MD, George Qiao, MD, Alfredo Martija, MD, (front row) Leonid Dabuzhsky, MD, Peter Ambrus, MD, Geetanjali Kulkarni, MD, Nissage Cadet, MD, Antonietta Mauri, MD, Eric Cohen, MD.

Quincy Medical Center

A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

To find a physician affiliated with Quincy Medical Center, contact us at Doctor Finder at 1-800-488-5959 or www.steward.org/doctorfinder. Most major insurance plans accepted. For more information, visit steward.org/quincy

Few Attend Hearing On Proposal Regulating Dispensaries In Quincy

Council Wants State To Delay Implementing Medical Marijuana Law

By SCOTT JACKSON

The City Council Monday night approved a motion asking Beacon Hill to delay implementation of the state's new medical marijuana law by nine months.

Sen. John Keenan told the council the first few months after the law takes effect on Jan. 1 would be chaotic because the Department of Public Health (DPH) has up to 120 days to approve regulations for dispensaries and a full year to accept registrations for them. Before dispensaries open up, anyone obtaining a note from a doctor would be able to grow marijuana on their own. During the first 120 days DPH also has to define what constitutes a 60-day supply, the maximum amount someone could possess or grow for themselves under the approved referendum.

"For the first 120 days essentially you're looking at a situation where it's the Wild Wild West," Keenan said. "People can get these certifications with very little effort — have them faxed, emailed, whatever the case may be — and use them basically as a document that entitles them to grow and possess marijuana. The amount of marijuana is not clear or expressed in the legislation."

Because of those concerns, Keenan said his colleagues at the State House are working on enacting a stay. But that could be tricky, both because 63 percent of voters backed the medical marijuana referendum and because the Legislature is in informal session for the remainder of the year and any votes it takes must be unanimous.

In light of that, Councillor Doug Gutro proposed a motion asking for a six-month stay, noting the Massachusetts Municipal Association was in favor of one because it would allow communities to set local regulations for

Cont'd On Page 12

Volunteers Needed For Quincy Crisis Center's 'Help For The Holidays'

The Quincy Crisis Center, a program partner of the Esther R. Sanger Center for Compassion, is preparing for its "Help for the Holidays" Christmas deliveries, which will be made Thursday, Dec. 20; Friday, Dec. 21 and Saturday, Dec. 22.

Volunteers are needed to deliver non-perishable food and Christmas gifts to households in Quincy and surrounding South Shore towns. This is an opportunity for families, friends, church and youth groups and others to participate together.

Anyone interested in volunteering should call 617-847-6967 to schedule a time.

The Sanger Center still needs sponsors to "adopt" children of families requesting helping with Christmas gifts. Call 617-847-6967 for more information or to assist this program.

Donations of new toys, gifts for teenagers, and new clothing (especially toddler and teen sizes) are also needed for Christmas distribution and can be dropped off at 282 Billings Rd., Quincy, Monday through Friday, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

AMERICAN LEGION volunteers (from left to right) Ken Menz of Quincy, Frank MacDonald of Sandwich and Jake Comer of Quincy ring the bell for the Quincy Salvation Army at the South Shore Plaza in Braintree. The state department of the American Legion starts off each year with $300 worth of donations. This is the 10th year anniversary ringing bells for the Salvation Army. Each year, 15 volunteers from the American Legion man the kettle. To date, $10,000 has been raised for the Salvation Army.

QPS College Financing Seminar Jan. 7

Quincy Public Schools will host a college financing seminar by the Massachusetts Education Financing Authority Monday, Jan. 7 at 6:30 p.m.

in the North Quincy High School auditorium.

The event is sponsored by the school counselors of both North Quincy High School and Quincy High School and is open to the public.

For more information, call the Guidance Office at 617-984-8747.

Colonial Federal has mortgage money to lend...

In today's market, we are able to especially help...

- ▶ First-time homebuyers who want a loan they can live with
- ▶ Current homeowners who want to refinance at today's low rates
- ▶ Current homeowners who have a lender they're not happy with

At Colonial Federal, we never got involved with sub-prime lending, so we have plenty of mortgage money to lend to responsible homebuyers. Our loan officers are not on commission; their only goal is to help you get the loan that's best for you. We treat people right. And if you have questions after your loan closes, you can call us directly — we actually answer our phones — or you can come in and talk. Sound good? Come see us or call Angela Blanchard, VP/Retail Lending, at 617-471-0750. Or apply online at colonialfed.com. Have another loan or term in mind? Call us. We may be able to help.

(Also available for new Jumbo loans.)

COLONIAL FEDERAL SAVINGS BANK

"Your neighborhood bank!"

QUINCY: 15 Beach Street 617-471-0750 • 1000 Southern Artery (Residents only) 617-479-1430
HOLBROOK: 802 South Franklin Street 781-767-1776

EAST WEYMOUTH: Middle & Washington Streets 781-331-1776 • www.colonialfed.com

Insured FDIC

PAYING TOP DOLLAR for your unwanted jewelry!

APPRAISING,
BUYING &
SELLING...

Del Greco Coins

399 WASHINGTON STREET • ROUTE 53 • WEYMOUTH
LOCATED OFF RT. 3, EXIT 16A, TO RT. 53N

781.337.5069

HOURS: MONDAY • FRIDAY 9-5 • SATURDAY 9:30-2

Some additional facts: Annual Percentage Rates (APRs) effective as of 12/05/12 and may change. Applies to 1-2 family owner-occupied homes. Assumes a maximum 80% loan-to-value and first mortgage position. A 15-Year non-jumbo Loan would be repaid in 180 equal monthly payments of $6.90 per $1000 borrowed. A 15-Year Jumbo Loan would be repaid in 180 equal monthly payments of $7.03 per $1000 borrowed, which do not include taxes or insurance premiums, if applicable. So your actual monthly payment will be greater.

The Quincy Sun

(USPS 453-060)
Published Weekly on Thursday by
The Quincy Sun Publishing Co., Inc.
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

Robert H. Bosworth
Publisher and Editor

Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.
Founder
1968 - 2009

75¢ per copy. $25.00 per year by mail in Quincy
$30.00 per year by mail outside Quincy - $38.00 out-of-state

Telephone: 617-471-3100 Fax: 617-472-3963

email address:
thequincysun@verizon.net

Periodicals postage paid at Boston, MA
Postmaster Send address change to:
The Quincy Sun, 1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

The Quincy Sun assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs.

Moments
in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Dec. 30, 1853, the United States acquires 30,000 square miles of land in what is now southern New Mexico and Arizona for $15 million. The purchase settled the dispute over the location of the Mexican border west of El Paso, Texas, and established the final boundaries of the southern United States.

• On Dec. 28, 1869, the Knights of Labor, a labor union of tailors in Philadelphia, holds the first Labor Day ceremonies in American history. In 1894, Congress designated the first Monday in September a legal holiday for all federal employees and the residents of the District of Columbia.

• On Dec. 29, 1878, the first game is played between two teams of the first professional baseball league in Cuba. Baseball was introduced in Cuba around 1864, when some students returned home from studying in the United States and introduced their fellow islanders to the bat and ball.

• On Dec. 25, 1880, Layne Hall is born in Mississippi. When he died in 1990, Hall was the oldest licensed driver in the United States. In his nearly 75 years on the road, Hall never got a speeding ticket or citation of any kind.

• On Dec. 26, 1917, during World War I, President Woodrow Wilson announces the nationalization of many of the country's railroads. The Railroad Control Act stated that within 21 months of a peace treaty, the railroads would be returned to their owners. In March 1920, the railroads became private property once again.

• On Dec. 27, 1932, at the height of the Great Depression, thousands of people turn out for the opening of Radio City Music Hall in New York City. Radio City Music Hall was designed as a palace for the people -- a place of beauty where ordinary folks could see high-quality entertainment. It remains the largest indoor theater in the world.

• On Dec. 24, 1979, the Soviet Union invades Afghanistan under the pretext of upholding the Soviet-Afghan Friendship Treaty of 1978. Within days, the Soviets had secured the capital of Kabul after overcoming fierce but brief resistance from the Afghan army.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Airman Bryan Wright Graduates Basic Training

Air Force Airman Bryan E. Wright recently graduated from basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

The airman completed an intensive, eight-week program that included training in military discipline and studies, Air Force core values, physical fitness, and basic warfare principles and skills.

Airmen who complete basic training earn four credits toward an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Wright is the son of Ron-

BRYAN WRIGHT

ald and Francine Wright of Faxon Park Road, Quincy.

A 2005 graduate of Bridgewater-Raynham Regional High School, he earned a bachelor's degree in 2011 from Eastern Nazarene College.

Son Beams

By ROBERT BOSWORTH

Eyeing The 2013 City Election

The calendar still reads 2012 but politically speaking 2013 is already here.

Several city officials have already held fundraisers and at least one challenger has emerged for one ward city council seat.

But it's too early to tell if next fall's city election will be a blockbuster or lackluster.

This is what we know so far:

Mayor Thomas Koch will seek a fourth two-year term. Koch unseated incumbent William Phelan in 2007 and defeated Phelan in a rematch two years later. In 2011, Koch won his third term with a victory over School Committeewoman Anne Mahoney who made a bid for the city's highest elective office while at the mid-point of her second school committee term.

KOCH

MAHONEY

Koch's three victories -- while not carbon-copies -- have strong similarities.

In each of his three wins, the city's 33rd mayor has won by nearly or just over 2,000 votes.

Against Phelan in 2007, Koch collected 12,672 votes and won by a margin of 2,051.

In an historical rematch two years later, Koch received 13,230 votes and won by a margin of 1,955 votes.

In 2011, Koch polled 10,510 votes and won by a margin of 2,170 votes. Mahoney received 8,340 votes but Koch won 27 out of 30 precincts.

Mahoney appears to be undecided about her political plans as of this writing. Or if she has decided, she isn't saying publicly.

A mayoral run in 2013 -- unlike two years ago -- comes with some political risk for Mahoney. She is up for re-election for her school committee seat next fall. So if she chose another bid for mayor it would open up her school committee seat.

Some political observers believe Koch is in the strongest position for another term since he first campaigned for mayor in 2007. And he could go unchallenged for his fourth term.

At the moment, anyway, there doesn't appear to be any burning issues that may generate a hotly-contested mayor's race. One issue that received considerable play during the 2011 election was the plan to redevelop Quincy Center.

Today, the first project downtown is expected to go from drawing board to steel and concrete early next year.

Granted, there are many months to go before voters go to the polls next November. And we all know how things -- especially politics -- can change overnight. Money issues are always a concern to voters so it will be interesting to see how the city copes in the event there is another recession next year.

No incumbent will win over everybody during their time in office. But it's safe to say -- and the last three elections bear this out -- Koch's supporters outnumber his detractors.

At the council level, there may be an open seat or two and that could generate some interest.

In Ward 4, Michael Healy, one of Mahoney's campaign supporters in 2011, has already declared his candidacy for the seat presently held by Brian Palmucci.

And that Ward 4 seat could be an open seat this fall. Palmucci, who was first elected in 2009, is weighing his options, one of which is running for one of the three council at-large seats. Expect a decision sometime after the holidays.

Two of the three councillors at-large -- Michael McFarland and Doug Gutro -- will seek re-election next fall. The third incumbent -- Councillor Joe Finn -- says he has not made up his mind about running for a seventh term but will do so later this winter or in March.

Another possible councillor at-large candidate is School Committeeman David McCarthy. McCarthy -- who was re-elected to his third term in 2011 -- says he is "leaning" at running for one of the council at-large seats.

McCarthy, who lives in Ward 1, could also challenge incumbent Ward 1 Councillor Margaret Laforest who will seek her third term next fall. McCarthy can run for a council seat -- ward or at-large -- without risking his school seat since his term does not expire until 2015.

LAFOREST

MC CARTHY

McCarthy has indicated his current school term will probably be his last. He plans to meet with supporters and make a decision about running for the city council by the end of January.

Another potential ward council race could be shaping up in Ward 2 where a rematch of the 2011 contest looms between incumbent Brad Croall and challenger Steve Perdios.

CROALL

PERDIOS

In the tightest race of the 2011 city election, Croall defeated Perdios by only 56 votes in the race to succeed former councillor Daniel Raymond who stepped down from the seat before he was appointed the city's Public Works commissioner.

Croall is definitely seeking a second term next fall. As for Perdios's political plans next year, he told the Sun: "It's something I have been thinking about but I have not made a decision about running for Ward 2 city council yet. I'll be discussing this subject with supporters in the coming weeks and hope to make a decision shortly after the holidays."

The city's other incumbents are all expected to campaign for re-election. They are: Ward 3 Councillor Kevin Coughlin, Ward 5 Councillor Kirsten Hughes, Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee and School Committee members Emily Lebo and Barbara Isola.

Hughes may be wearing a second political hat as she campaigns for re-election next fall. She has decided to run for chairman of the state Republican Party. Hughes, an attorney, served as Sen. Scott Brown's deputy finance director. Brown is backing Hughes for the chairmanship and the election will be held in January.

Win or lose her bid for state GOP chairwoman, Hughes said she will still seek re-election to her Ward 5 council seat next fall.

HUGHES

SPEAKING OF HUGHES, the City Council presented the mother-to-be and her husband Phil with a new car seat for their baby who is due to be born Friday.

The car seat was a gift from her council colleagues, City Clerk Joseph Shea, Executive Secretary Jim Fatseas, Auditor Susan O'Connor and Clerk of Committees Jeanne Reardon.

"Congratulations and we're all very excited for you and your colleagues here on the council all chipped in and purchased one of the items on your registry," Margaret Laforest said.

Gutro noted Hughes has the distinction of being Quincy's first sitting councillor to have a baby while serving on the council.

"Twelve months ago Kirsten made history in the City of Quincy by being elected -- the only time a City Council had two women on the council at the same time," Gutro said. "You're making history once again by being the first councillor to give birth while serving on the council."

"I was shocked and so grateful to my colleagues on the council and the staff for such a generous gift," said Kirsten.

□

IN CASE you're wondering:

If Mayor Thomas Koch runs unopposed, he would become the fifth mayor to be re-elected without opposition and the first since former Mayor William Phelan was unchallenged when he won a third term in 2005.

The other three other mayors who have been re-elected without opposition: Tom Burgin in 1940, Frank McCauley in 1983 and Jim Sheets in 1991, 1993 and 1997.

FINN

Scenes From Yesterday

THIS IS A late 1930's real photo postcard reproduction showing an Eastern Mass Street Railway trolley on Sea Street at the Bit in Hough's Neck. Just ahead at the V in the road the trolleys veered left onto Babcock Street at the Willows. The original Manet Street Railway trolley line used a single-track from Quincy Square to Hough's Neck running the length of Sea Street except for a half-mile diversion onto Babcock Street to Manet Avenue where it rejoined Sea Street. This brought the trolleys within a short walk to the summer home of George Morton, the founder and president of the Manet Railway Co. His main home was on the Spear Street side of the Bethany Congregational Church in Quincy Square. When busses replaced the trolleys in 1946, the route was changed to keep them on Sea Street. Some of the cottages on the left are gone, but the house visible between the auto and trolley is still extant. It's just beyond the new larger boulder with the inscription: Welcome to Hough's Neck. To contact Tom Galvin, e-mail tmgalvin@verizon.net.

From the Collection of City Historian Tom Galvin

READERS FORUM

The New Track And 'Misrepresentation'

This is in response to Christopher Chetwynd's letter in the Nov. 29 issue.

Chicago journalist Sydney J. Harris once said, "If you're not part of the solution, you're part of the problem." He evidently never met Mr. Chetwynd, who apparently believes one can be both. He congratulates himself as the former while having spent much time for three years as the latter.

In order to advance their personal cause of having drainage systems improved in their neighborhood, Mr.

Chetwynd's group attempted to link track construction to an area flooding issue that far predated the track and even the building of the new Quincy High School.

I recall my car stalling out in total darkness on Southern Artery along Faxon Field after a heavy rainstorm one night in autumn 1997. Standing water flooded by electrical system through the car's grille.

That was two mayoral administrations ago. Where was Mr. Chetwynd's private citizens group and their holding our government accountable then and the following 10 years?

Now Mr. Chetwynd, let me see if I have this right. Your group resorted to legal gymnastics befitting the Flying Wallendas to wrestle away from City Hall and to the School Committee authority to build a track, and in essence denying our school kids for three years a track that you now say you wanted built anyway? How terribly convenient.

Mr. Chetwynd's right in that there were so many positives that came out of this for his citizens group. But not many for the rest of us, and certainly not for our kids. Nor our high school track athletes, who spent three years without a decent running surface or a respectable place to call home for their meets.

Yes, Mr. Chetwynd, you and your group and your kids are welcome to enjoy the new track. Just don't go misrepresenting yourselves as having helped make it happen.

Thomas C. O'Brien
West Elm Avenue
Quincy

The Bigger The City, The Bigger The Problems

It does not take a rocket scientist to know why Quincy is on a fast track to become another big city infested with crime and uncontrollable traffic.

Do you really think adding another 26,000 car trips a day to a city already in a daily gridlock is going to work?

I don't think so.

The Red Line into Quincy Center was the start of the rise in the crime rate. Inviting hundreds of pot heads, alcoholics, and pedophiles into Quincy every night to stay at Father Bill's is the main rise in the crime rate, like it or not. They can only handle so many people.

The rest are sent out to wander the streets of Quincy.

I would like to tell the people running the city to stop acting like they don't know what is going on. The bigger the city gets, the bigger the problem is going to get so stop crying and do what it takes to keep it under control.

John Isaac
Shaw Street
Quincy

More Letters On Page 10

SUBSCRIPTION FORM

FILL OUT THIS SUBSCRIPTION BLANK AND MAIL TO

The Quincy Sun

1372 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169

NAME _____

STREET _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

CHECK ONE BOX IN EACH COLUMN

☐ 1 YEAR IN QUINCY $25.00

☐ 1 YEAR OUTSIDE QUINCY $30.00

☐ 1 YEAR OUT OF STATE $38.00

☐ CHECK ENCLOSED

Quincy's Yesterdays

This Week
1960
52 Years Ago

Montilio To Bake President Kennedy's Inaugural Cake

Ernest Montilio, owner of Montilio's Bakery on Chestnut St., was selected by President Kennedy's inaugural committee to bake the cake for the inaugural ball.

Montilio said that he would bake the cake in Quincy and decorate it in Washington, with a team of three bakers and decorators. He said he would leave on the Monday before the ball for Washington to have sufficient time for decorating of a cake large enough for the 10,000 people who would be in attendance at the ball. It would cost an estimated $10,000.

REMICK'S WINDOWS UNVEILED

The Christmas windows of Remick's department store in downtown were unveiled this week to the delight of hundreds of youngsters. The annual displays were traditionally the highlight of the holiday season.

The first group to view the six panels depicting angels were students from the Atherton Hough School. Before the end of the month, Remick's had arranged for all 1,500 first graders here to be bused downtown to see the display.

SNOW STORM PARALYZES THE CITY

A near blizzard, with winds reaching 50 mph, hit the city paralyzing transportation by bus and automobile. Thirty-five Eastern Mass. buses were "stuck" with 400-500 cars towed from all points in the city.

New England Telephone lines were overloaded and customers were urged to only use their phones for emergencies. Meanwhile, DPW Commissioner Charles Herbert said that the $10,700 in snow fighting equipment had not yet been delivered and was unavailable to help dig the city out from the impact of the worst storm in recent history.

QUINCY-ISMS

Quincy's Dick Donovan was expected to be traded by the Chicago White Sox to either Washington or Los Angeles...Post Office Supt. Frank Anselmo reported the Quincy facility was geared up to handle 700,000 pieces of mail a day between Dec. 18-21. He increased staffing by 450, with an additional 32 trucks added to the regular fleet...A past presidents' supper was held at Salem Lutheran Church. Those attending included Arthur Anderson, Harold Hidstrom, Elmer Peterson, John Johnson, George Cedarstrom, and Alan Kyller, all past presidents...Mrs. Stella DeMatteo died this week. She was the widow of Martino Dematteo, founder of the North Quincy construction company...Some 200 attended the retirement party at the Morrisette Post for four firefighters: Ralph Bamford, Joseph Ciardi, Ernest Bertrand, and Lt. John Rizzi...Boston Mayor John Collins was the speaker at the Quincy-South Shore Chamber of Commerce. He was the first Boston mayor to speak before the chamber...Peter Settimelli was treasurer of the Granite Manufacturer's Association...Carl Leone, 30, former QHS and Brown football star, was unanimously picked to replace Jack Donahue as NQHS football coach. "I've been waiting forward to this since I was in junior high school," Leone said...The Quincy K of C held its children's Christmas Party at the Fore River Clubhouse. Alfred Saluti was chairman...Mrs. Robert Cherubini was chairman for the St. John's Girl Scout and Brownie Christmas bazaar. Mrs. Russell DiMattio and Mrs. Daniel Shea were also on the committee...A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caporale of Moore St...Bill Hutchinson's Presidents hockey team downed NQHS 6-1 at Boston Arena...Abdo Hassan was outgoing president of South Shore Auto Dealers...Richard Crespi of Murdock Ave. was at Fort Dix...Rep. James McIntyre filed legislation to provide tenure for assistant City Clerk Thomas Burke...Rep. Joseph Brett said he would file for an all alcohol sales license when the city's increased population would allow for an additional license. Although it was expected one of the large supermarkets would also apply for it, Brett was confident he would be granted it, since he had first applied for it in 1933. At the package store he operated on West Squantum St., he had only a beer and wine license...Grace Giunchiglia was president of Quincy-South Shore Chapter of the National Secretaries Association.

Arts & Entertainment

THE QUINCY SCHOOL - COMMUNITY Partnership and State Street Corporation recently presented "Tis the Season . . . Symphony & Song" at the Quincy High School Lloyd Hill Performing Arts Center. The performance featured the Quincy Symphony Orchestra led by Yoichi

Udagawa, the Quincy Public Schools Combined High School Choral Group and the John Adams Orchestra. Some 750 guests attended the evening of holiday music and song.

CAITLIN LEACH, 13, plays the violin.
Quincy Sun Photos/Lisa Aimola

JANET LITTLE and Eric Lee, 13, both of Quincy, warm up with the Quincy Symphony Orchestra

Luke Molloy, 12, of Quincy and Brian Leach, 13, of Braintree, play the cellos as part of the evening's performances.

'Tis The Season' Celebrates With Symphony And Song

Assorted Fruit Baskets
Poinsettia Plants
Holiday Arrangements

FABIANO FLORIST

29 Independence Ave. • 617-770-4307
www.fabianoflorist.com

The Quincy School ~ Community Partnership's 10th annual 'Tis the Season...Symphony and Song' concert was held Dec. 4 at the Lloyd Hill Auditorium at Quincy High School.

The event is sponsored by State Street Corporation. Over 300 elementary school students and their parents attended as a result of the contributions by the following QSCP Platinum Sponsors:

Quincy Education Association, Arbella Insurance Group, Quincy MedicalCenter-Steward Health Care, NAGE (National Association of Government Employees), Quincy Mutual Fire Insurance, Quincy Credit Union, Street-Works, Wessling Architects, Cerebral Palsy of Massachusetts, Quirk Auto Dealers, Harvard Pilgrim Health, and Bluefin Robotics.

The evening was highlighted by the performance of the Quincy Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Yoichi Udagawa along with the QPS John Adams Orchestra and the Combined High School Choral Group.

In total, an audience of 750 guests were treated to a delightful evening of holiday music and song.

*Puzzled about
your future?*

Let us help you put the pieces together.

Regina Russell's Tea Room

*We have been in the Psychic business since 1973.
Walk-in service & private readings by appointment.
Psychics available for home and office parties.*

Phone Readings Available: 888-655-3456

Open Monday thru Friday 10:30 am - 9:30 pm
Saturday & Sunday 10:30 am - 5:00 pm

40 Franklin Street - Quincy, MA - Phone: 617-472-9806
Free weekly horoscopes on our website: www.rtrtearoom.com

Find us on Facebook
Highlights of Local Programming
found on . . .

QATV

Quincy Access Television
88 Washington Street
Quincy, MA 02169
617-376-1440

Public Access Channel 8

Thursday, December 13th:
6:00pm: Bethany Church
7:00pm: Christmas Parade & Awards

Friday, December 14th:
11:30am: LIVE: Currently in Quincy
5:30pm: Sound Advice

Saturday, December 15th:
2:00pm: NQHS vs. Brockton Boys Basketball
5:30pm: Real Estate Focus

Sunday, December 16th:
6:30pm: At the Library
10:00pm: The Constitution: Then & Now

Monday, December 17th:
11:30am: LIVE: Currently in Quincy
7:00pm: LIVE: Eye on Quincy

Tuesday, December 18th:
6:00pm: Eye on Quincy (replay)
7:30pm: Quincy in Focus

Wednesday, December 19th:
8:00pm: LIVE: Tarot by Lea Marie
9:00pm: Free Our Voices

Government Access Channel 11

Thursday, December 13th:
12:00pm: City Council Ordinance 12/10
7:00pm: In Your Neighborhood Ward 5

Friday, December 14th:
5:30pm: Quincy in Focus
6:00pm: City View with Mayor Koch
7:00pm: Pearl Harbor Remembrance
8:00pm: Crime Watch: Pedestrian/911

Saturday/Sunday, December 15th/16th:
9:00am: City View with Mayor Koch
12:00pm: City Council Ordinance 12/10
1:30pm: Pearl Harbor Remembrance
7:00pm: City Council Ordinance 12/10

Monday, December 17th:
5:00pm: Currently in Quincy
6:00pm: LIVE: City Council Ordinance

Tuesday, December 18th:
12:00pm: City Council Ordinance 12/17
7:00pm: In Your Neighborhood Ward 5

Wednesday, December 19th:
6:30pm: FYI: QHD Holiday Blues
7:00pm: City Council Ordinance 12/17

Programming is subject to change. For a complete list of programs, please consult our website at www.qatv.org

Social

RUTH CLARK of Quincy recently celebrated her 99th birthday at the 99 Restaurant in Hingham. Many family and friends attended the milestone occasion, including her son George Clark (left).

Ruth Clark Celebrates No. 99 At The 99

Ruth Clark of Quincy recently celebrated her 99th birthday at the 99 Restaurant in Hingham.

Many family and friends attended the momentous occasion. Her great grandchildren decorated the room with homemade birthday cards and helped blow out candles granting her birthday wishes.

Her son, George, attributes her long, healthy life to being involved with people of all ages; never saying no to an invitation and enjoying a few cocktails or glass of red wine.

Ruth has had many trips and vacations over the years and is now looking forward to spending time this winter with her two daughters: Nancy Rouse of Florida and Ellen Etzel of Arizona.

Life has been good to her and her birthday wish is for all to be so blessed, George says.

BIRTHDAY CAKE from the 99 Restaurant in Hingham wishes Ruth Clark a happy 99th birthday.

Solstice Sunset Stroll Along Black's Creek Dec. 21

The Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation will host a Solstice Sunset Stroll along Black's Creek Friday, Dec. 21 from 3 to 4:30 p.m.

Participants should meet at the kiosk at DCR Caddy Memorial Park on Quincy Shore Drive.

The Quincy Shores Reservation Interpretive Program celebrates the winter solstice. Participants will take a 1.5 mile walk led by a DCR ranger along the marshes of Black's Creek. Winter wisdom will be shared while watching the sun set on the shortest day of the year.

For more information, visit www.mass.gov/dcr.

COLBY MORRISSEY and JOHN TILLEY
Ruby Shoes Photography

Colby Morrissey Engaged To John Tilley

Norfolk County District Attorney Michael Morrissey and his wife Joanne (Ross) Morrissey of Quincy announce the engagement of their daughter Colby Morrissey to John Tilley, son of Michael and Debra Tilley of Marshfield.

The bride is a graduate of Villanova University and New England School of Law.

The groom is a graduate of Bryant University and New England School of Law. Both are associates at a law firm in Boston.

A December wedding is planned.

Friends Of Wollaston Beach Party, Toy Drive Dec. 19

The Friends of Wollaston Beach will hold its annual Holiday Party and Toy Drive to benefit Toys for Tots Wednesday, Dec. 19 at 7:30 p.m. at the Beachcomber, Quincy Shore Drive.

FWB is partnering with the Ward 5 Community Association to have an even larger impact for families in need.

To make a donation to the toy drive, bring a new unwrapped toy(s) to the holiday party.

The event will also include complimentary pizza and appetizers, a cash bar, DJ and karaoke.

Literacy Volunteers Needed

Literacy Volunteers-Quincy needs volunteer tutors for one-on-one instruction to adults in basic reading and writing.

Call Mary for more information at 617-376-1314 or visit the website www.thomascranellibrary.org/read.

50 Students On Quincy Catholic Academy Honor Roll

Quincy Catholic Academy lists 50 students on its first term honor roll.

They are:

HIGH HONORS

Grade 6: Matthew Brandi, Ronald Cheung, Trevor Connor, Katherine Dam, Samuel Danby, Chloe Ho, John Joyce, and Marri-lynn Tseng.

Grade 7: Samuel Jarpe, Angela Louie, Steven Ngo, Warringa Njorge, and Joe-Yee Yip.

Grade 8: Michelle Mark, Anne Pham, and Thomas Tran.

HONORS

Grade 6: Eric Billard, Kevin Chau, Carrie Chan,

Nicole Farrell, Madison Gil-ian, Serena Greaves, Chris-tian Ho, Matthew Joyce, Ashley Medeiros, Michaela Monahan, Kyle Mullen-Lopez, Aja Pedroza, Ella Pi-rola, Brittany Raphino, Sean Scanlan, Michael Song, Lisa Tran, and Silvianna Zhao.

Grade 7: Jacqueline Car-roll, Meghan Foley, Joseph Henry, Anthony Rizzitano, and Sharon Zhang.

Grade 8: Karthik Arum-agum, Kimberly Bradley, Alexis Brickhouse-Amisial, Allison Diep, Anthony Lee, Thomas Maranian, Andrew McGuinness, Kishan Patel, Kevin Pedro, Samantha Tran, and Madelyn Steven-son.

FOUR STAR PAPER & PARTY & OUTLET

Holiday Entertaining Headquarters

Seasonal Plates, Napkins & Cups
Holiday Containers & Decorations

RED & GREEN SPECIALS:

7" Round Paper Plates 20ct $1.49
9" Round Paper Plates 20ct $2.49

84 Liberty St., Quincy

(617) 773-7773

Mon. - Fri. 8:30-5:00 Sat. 8:30-3:00

332 Victory Road,
Marina Bay, MA 02171
617 471-3511

Celebrating New Years Eve Masquerade Party
Be who ever you want to be!!

Monday, December 31 @ 8:00 PM

$29.99 per person

DJ Hammer 9PM-2AM

Includes 4 Course Dinner

Champagne Toast @ Midnight

Breakfast Sandwiches, Cheese Pizza

& Coffee @ 1 AM

Make Your Reservations Now!!

Cover Charge After 10:30 PM $10.00

Go to website for Dinner Specials!
www.captainfishbones.com

$100.00 GIFT CARD PRIZE FOR BEST MASK

QUINT'S
House of Flowers
Family Owned & Operated Since 1919
761 Southern Artery
QUINCY
617-773-7620

Look Your BEST for the Holidays

at HAIRPLACE ONE
85 QUINCY AVENUE

Call for Appt. 617-472-1060

PLENTY OF PARKING

www.hairplaceone.com

Marie's Kitchen

BY MARIE D'OLIMPIO

Rice Balls With Roasted Pork Chops & Vegetables

It's very rare to find rice balls on a restaurant menu, but recently I found a nice recipe for them.

I used left over brown rice, but the rice can also be prepared when you are ready to make them.

I served it with roasted pork chops, also today's recipe,

RICE BALLS

2 cups cooked brown or white rice
2 eggs (beaten)
½ cup seasoned breadcrumbs
½ cup Parmesan cheese
Bread crumbs or corn flake crumbs for rolling
Vegetable oil for frying

In a bowl, place the rice and add the beaten eggs and mix. Add the breadcrumbs and the cheese and mix until well blended.

Form into balls the size of a small meatball and roll in the breadcrumbs. (I used corn flake crumbs, a favorite).

In the hot oil, sauté the rice balls turning until golden brown on all sides. Drain on paper towel.

If made ahead, heat in a warming oven until ready to serve.

ROASTED PORK CHOPS WITH VEGETABLES

4 pork chops
6 medium potatoes (cut in quarters (3 cups))
4 ounces mushrooms (cut in half)
1 green pepper (sliced)
1 medium onion (cut into wedges)
1 can of artichoke hearts (or frozen)
½ teaspoon thyme
2 teaspoons parsley flakes
Salt and pepper to taste

Heat oven to 425 degrees. Mix the herbs and the salt and pepper and place in corners of the slightly greased pan.

Place the potatoes, mushrooms, sliced pepper and onion in bowl. Mix with some olive oil. Salt and pepper and then spread evenly in the center of the pan between the pork chops.

Bake uncovered for 45 minutes. Turn the chops and stir the vegetables.

Now place the artichoke hearts over the vegetables. Bake another 10-15 minutes uncovered. If using frozen artichoke hearts, defrost before placing them over the vegetables.

Oatmeal, Raisin Spice Cake

I have made spice cake for years, and recently because my daughter Suzie can't tolerate white flour, I experimented it with oatmeal. She enjoyed it so much, I made it for her again. It was a moister cake, but equally tasteful.

OATMEAL RAISIN SPICE CAKE

1 ½ cups oatmeal (small flakes)
1- cup raisins
1- teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
2 cups water
1- teaspoon cinnamon

½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon cloves
½ teaspoon ginger
1 stick unsalted butter

Boil the water with the raisins for 5 minutes. Let cool and add the butter.

Add all of the other ingredients and stir until well mixed. Pour either in a greased loaf pan or any cake pan you prefer.

Bake in a 350-degree oven for 30 minutes or until toothpick comes out clean in the center. I left it in the oven after I turned it off for 5 more minutes

Let cool for 10 minutes before cutting.

Author Stephen Puleo To Discuss New Book Tonight

Early in the afternoon of May 22, 1856, ardent pro-slavery Congressman Preston S. Brooks of South Carolina strode into the United States Senate Chamber in Washington, D.C., and began beating renowned anti-slavery Senator Charles Sumner with a gold-topped walking cane.

Brooks struck more than 30 times—until his cane splintered into pieces and the helpless Massachusetts senator lay unconscious and covered in blood. It was a retaliatory attack that convinced North and South that the gulf between them was unbridgeable and that they could no longer discuss their vast differences of opinion on slavery.

Find out about one of the most shocking and provocative events in American history at a free talk by author Stephen Puleo tonight (Thursday) at 7 p.m. at the Thomas Crane Public Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy.

STEPHEN PULEO

Puleo's latest book is entitled The Caning: The Assault That Drove America to Civil War. Copies of The Caning will be available for sale.

Puleo is also the author of A City So Grand, Boston Globe bestseller The Boston Italians; the critically-acclaimed World War II story, Due to Enemy Action; and the Boston-area bestseller and book club favorite, Dark Tide: The Great Boston Molasses Flood of 1919. A former award-winning newspaper reporter and contributor to American History magazine, he holds a master's degree in history, teaches at Suffolk University, and is a corporate communications professional.

Puleo's talk is sponsored by the Thomas Crane Public Library and Quincy College.

For more information, visit thomascranelibrary.org or call 617-376-1316.

Cuba: 50 Years After The Revolution Topic Photo Exhibit, Slide Presentation

Kerri Schmidt traveled to Cuba in April 2011 on an eight-day educator's tour in order to obtain a better understanding of the country's global reputation for achievements in education, environmental stewardship and universal health care.

After visiting educational, medical, cultural and social institutions, she learned how the Cuban people have struggled and succeeded under a repressive regime and severe U.S. sanctions over the past 54 years.

Kerri will share her enlightening and educational journey at a free slide presentation featuring photographs and news from modern Cuba Tuesday, Dec. 18 at 7 p.m. at the Thomas Crane Public Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy.

Discover this fascinating country, its people, and their history. A selection of Kerri's photographs will also be on display at the library throughout the month of December.

Schmidt is a Boston-based, multi-media artist whose works are inspired by small moments, joyous discoveries, and the wonders of life.

The photo exhibit and slide presentation are sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

Free Movies Wednesdays At North Quincy Branch Of Crane Library

The North Quincy branch of the Thomas Crane Public Library, 381 Hancock St., announces three free movie matinees on Wednesdays during December.

The movie will start at 2 p.m.

Movies are selected with older adults in mind.

Here's what's showing this month:

Dec. 12: Snow White and the Huntsman (2012)

Dec. 19: Moonrise Kingdom (2012)

Dec. 26: Sense and Sensibility (1996)

The free movie screenings are sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

For more information, visit thomascranelibrary.org or call 617-376-1320.

Visit one of our branches to enter to win our holiday prize, and open one of our convenient accounts today!

Win a Snow Blower!

Be ready for the winter weather, courtesy of Bank of Canton!

As our way of saying thanks this holiday season, Bank of Canton invites you to enter our Good Cheerlings Sweepstakes for your chance to win a snow blower!

To enter, simply fill out the Cheerlings Sweepstakes entry form and either drop it off at a Bank of Canton branch near you or mail it to:

Cheerlings Sweepstakes
490 Turnpike Street
Canton, MA 02021

Five Lucky Winners!

TORO

Cheerlings Sweepstakes Entry Forms

Name: _____
Street: _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____
Telephone: (____) _____

No purchase or transaction necessary to enter. Limit one entry per person through the end of the promotion. Must be 18 years or older and a resident of MA to enter. Employees of the Bank of Canton, their subsidiaries and affiliates, their vendors, and immediate family members are not eligible to win. Odds of winning depend on the number of entries. Entry form may not be reproduced and is the property of Bank of Canton. Winners will be contacted by telephone after the promotion and need not be present to win. Sweepstakes ends December 22, 2012.

Free Gifts and Refreshments!

Be sure to stop by any of our convenient branch locations from December 17-21 to receive a free gift and enjoy complimentary refreshments.

Member FDIC. Member DIF.

BANK OF CANTON
We're like family.

888.828.1690 Canton • Quincy • Randolph • Brookline www.ibankcanton.com

ALL-YOU-CAN-EAT PRIME RIB SPECIAL.

Available Friday – Saturday
Starting at 6:00 PM
$18.95 per person

Hancock's
STEAK & SEAFOOD

Kilroy's
STEAK HOUSE

Adams LOUNGE

Located in the
Boston Marriott Quincy
617.774.2077 | 617.774.2078

Merchants Row Project Nears Planning Board OK

Floor-To-Floor Height Of Loft-Style Apartments Reduced By One Foot; Overall Height Of 15-Story High-Rise Lowered 17 Feet

By KRIS KALABOKAS

The $120 million Merchants Row project proposal, an integral part of the Quincy Center Urban Revitalization and Development Plan, has gone through scrupulous peer review and is approaching completion according to testimony at last Wednesday's meeting of the Quincy Planning Board.

Richard Heapes, co-founder and partner of developers Street-Works, gave a brief presentation which touched on several areas of concern noted by peer reviewers Wessling Architects, who requested further information be provided regarding wind studies, utilities, foundation design, and the geotechnical aspects of the project, which will be located between 1400 and 1466 Hancock St.

"We still have some serious work on the layout and the techniques of the structure, foundation, etc., to submit to the city," he said.

According to Heapes, the proposed city-owned parking structure to be located at the center of the 1400 Hancock Street block, will no longer be constructed using a precast t-system, but will instead utilize a flat slab system, which requires less floor to floor height.

Due to a $250,000 price tag and estimated three to four month waiting period, Beale/Street-Works has requested an exemption regarding wind studies.

"Our opinion was between the time, the cost... and the relative unpredictability of the data in terms of affecting the building, we're asking that it subsequently be not a requirement of this submission," said Heapes. "We just felt it wasn't the most efficient thing."

The loft-style apartments of the Kilroy Building, a mixed-use, high-rise, will see a reduction in floor to floor height from 12 to 11 feet, lowering the total height of the 15-story building by 17 feet.

At the request of board members, clarification was given in relation to the number of elevators to be located within the Kilroy Building. Heapes elucidated that one set of elevators would be accessible to the public, allowing them to easily exit the subterranean, 186-space parking garage located underneath the structure onto the street above, while another would be accessible only to residents of the building.

The elevator to be used by the tenants of the Kilroy, in order to be in full compliance with fire safety regulations, will service all 15 stories and provide a clear, efficient, and safe route for emergency respondents during an emergency.

Heapes ascertained that architects had met with the Quincy Fire Department the previous day to discuss further safety measures to be taken; however, the results of that meeting had yet to be made public.

To make Quincy a more "pet friendly" city, a proposal has been made to include a dog wash station in the courtyard of the Kilroy building.

"That would be a whole part of Downtown Quincy that maybe isn't there today," said Heapes, who noted the Kilroy would be an animal friendly complex.

Once all materials have been submitted and approved, a Certificate of Consistency will be issued, declaring all aspects of the project to be in compliance with regulations set in place by the planning board in 2007.

Construction of Merchants Row is slated to begin in February.

PHYSICAL THERAPIST Debbie Barnett of Rehabilitation Specialists of Quincy recently donated a full muscular/skeletal physical fitness machine to the Quincy Fire Department. The machine exercises specific muscle groups that normal exercise machines cannot achieve. Barnett has treated numerous firefighters who have suffered injuries from injured knees to torn rotator cuffs, and is doing something to reduce the number of injuries Quincy Firefighters incur. The machine which costs upwards of $4,000 will be housed at Engine 3, the Quincy Point Fire Station on Washington Street, but will be available for all Quincy Firefighters to use. "These dedicated men of the Quincy Fire Department sacrifice their body and their lives to keep us safe on a daily basis" Barnett said. "If this gift to these brave men helps to stave off just one injury it will be a success." With Barnett are Quincy firefighters Matt Ryan (left) and Lt. Tim Price.

COPELAND PACKAGE STORE

273 Copeland Street - Quincy 617-471-5418

CHRISTMAS and NEW YEAR'S SPECIALS

Bud Light		Budweiser		Michelob
BUD & BUD LIGHT	$17.79	BUD & BUD LIGHT	$17.79	NATURAL ICE & LIGHT	$15.99
24 Bottle Loose	PLUS DEPOSIT	24 Cans Loose	PLUS DEPOSIT	30 Pack	PLUS DEPOSIT
MILLER LITE	$19.99	COORS LIGHT	$19.99	CORONA EXTRA	$22.99
30 Pack	PLUS DEPOSIT	30 Pack	PLUS DEPOSIT	24 Bottle Loose	PLUS DEPOSIT
CAPT. MORGAN ORIGINAL	$27.99	SMIRNOFF 80 PROOF	$19.99	SOUTHERN COMFORT	$25.99
1.75 ML		1.75 ML		1.75 ML
HENNESSY BLACK	$33.99	HENNESSY V.S.	$29.99	BAILEY'S ORIG. COFFEE & MINT Caramel	$24.99
750 ML		750 ML		750 ML
CROWN ROYAL	$26.99	KETEL ONE VODKA	$39.99	KETEL ONE CITROEN	$39.99
750 ML		1.75 ML		1.75 ML
JOHNNIE WALKER BLK	$35.99	JOHNNIE WALKER RED	$22.99	KETEL ONE CITROEN	$22.99
750 ML		750 ML		750 ML
SMIRNOFF 80% FLAVORS Rasp, Straw, Lime	$13.99	PARROT BAY ALL FLAVORS	$14.99	KETEL ONE CITROEN & ORANGE	$22.99
Apple, B.B. 750 ML		750 ML		750 ML
BOLLA WINES	$10.99	C.K. MONDAVI	$8.99	CHATEAU ST. MICHELLE CHARDONNAY	$8.99
1.5 L		1.5 L		750 ML
ROSCATO WINES	$9.99	MARK WEST PINOT NOIR	$8.99	FOLONARI PINOT GRIGIO	$9.99
750 ML		750 ML		1.5 ML
CAVIT WINES ALL	$11.99	ROBERT MONDAVI WOODBRIDGE	$12.99	MEZZA CORONA PINOT GRIGIO	$11.99
1.5 L		750 ML 2 for		1.5 ML

SALE RUNS DECEMBER 20th to JANUARY 1st

Closed Christmas & New Year's Days 12/25 & 1/1/2013

Open 8am-6pm Christmas Eve 12/24/2012

Open 8am-11pm New Year's Eve 12/31/2012

COME VISIT OUR TOTALLY NEW STORE

Find Us On Facebook For Tastings, New Products, And More.

Over 60 years of Neighbors Serving Neighbors

LOOKING TO MAKE A MOVE?

Sam's New Office Is...

Red Door
— Real Estate —
222 Sea Street - Quincy

Call
(617) 875-1776
SAM ROUNSEVILLE
email: ussam76@gmail.com

South West Quincy Neighborhood Association Fall Meeting Update

By ANNELI JOHNSON and MARYANN MORTON
Co-Chairpersons
South West Quincy Neighborhood Association

The newly organized South West Quincy Neighborhood Association met recently at the Granite Street Café, in Brewers' Corner, hosted by its chef owner, Arben Berbery, member of the Association.

Residents heard updates from Councillors Brian Palmucci and Doug Gutro on several issues councilors are currently working.

Quincy Police Lt. Tim Sorgi introduced newly appointed Community Police Officer, James Silcox.

Presently, Officer Silcox is making his presence known, particularly in the parks and playgrounds. He encourage people to call the police and assured no problem is too small for a call.

"Local residents are valuable resource and are extremely helpful in assisting police resolve neighborhood problems," Officer Silcox said.

Steven Hawko, president of the Ward 4 Neighborhood Association, brought updates of their Association's work among the area children in the Della Chiesa School in South Quincy.

Councillor Palmucci addressed issues affecting the area quality of life, such as absentee landlords and associated frequent police details to these residences and the cost associated to tax payers. As a result, he has drafted new a City Ordinance to address these issues. He also stated that the Court ordered drug testing facility, presently housed in the residential building in Brewers' Corner would be better served if located in the District Court House or a health related facility.

Similar questions were raised regarding the medical marijuana dispensing "drug" stores' and he is examining the current zoning ordinances to prevent potential proliferation of these dispensaries in the neighborhoods. This area is particularly vulnerable as two schools are in the neighborhood.

Councillor Gutro, chairman of the City Council Downtown and Economic Growth Committee, spoke of the downtown redevelopment project and its positive impact beyond the downtown.

Patrick Corcoran, president of Patriot Plumbing and member of the Board of Directors to South/West Business District Business Partnership, asked how will the Downtown re-development benefits this neighborhood? Councillor Gutro responded by explaining the Quincy's

Ten Million Gate Way Program, independent of the Downtown plan and can be used to improve entrances to the city. He encouraged the Association to be on the lookout of this program as it evolves.

Councillor Gutro also graciously congratulated the folks forming a neighborhood association and its important connection to the Councillors and handed the Association much appreciated start up check from his own committee.

Gutro continued to state that Quincy's down revitalization project is presently the largest one, not only in Massachusetts but in United States. It is carefully watched as a model for other older cities similar to Quincy to follow and seeing Quincy's success and innovations on private public partnership and the special tax structure, which doesn't burden the residential taxpayers.

The Association is also working with the Quincy Public Schools' Traffic Director to alleviate the traffic tie-ups on Granite Street, the snow emergency artery leading to Quincy Medical and City Center.

The key, according to the Association members is follow up on issues, such as traffic, parking, street and side walk repairs, parking violations and vacant blighted properties.

For more information on South West Quincy Neighborhood Association meetings refer to The Quincy Sun for further notices of meetings or call 617-479-1601 or 617-376-0746 to place items on future agendas.

READERS FORUM

We're All In The Same Boat

I was happy to read that Gertrude Knowles is "Happy to be back in Quincy" but I am not too sure why she decided to throw me under the bus while talking about the views of another letter writer.

I am not now nor never will be a member of the infamous 1 or 2 percent that President Obama keeps raging about. If I criticize those who belong to the "47 Percent" who live off the government, it is because government should be in the business of empowering folks – not turning them into helpless dependents. Responsibility for one's life is from within.

My father struggled his entire life for his family. He worked hard and never took anything for nothing. He wanted to be a survivor not a victim of life's misery. I have struggled my entire life too from the example my father gave me as the only way to live.

Government is neither the enemy nor my free lunch. When the makers get outnumbered by the takers, we all end up with a wagon too heavy to pull. In the end, no one wins because the wagon has stopped moving.

Back in 1964, liberal Democrats announced the "War on Poverty." That war has quietly ended with more living in hopeless poverty than ever before. Giving people free stuff makes people feel entitled to it. They give up striving for anymore than another check in the mail or more cash on their EBT cards.

Also, there are two kinds of poverty. One is a lack of funds to buy things. The other is a lack of hope from one's self. When more people stop getting hungry about improving their lives, their lives only get worse and infectious as these hopelessness becomes a generation thing passed on to their children and grandchild.

I believe that we as a society should help one another. I believe government has a role to play in this often passion play. However, I think society struggles forward by working together for each other without government handouts.

I see nothing wrong in tweaking tax breaks, loopholes and deductions for the more wealthy but government should not be in the business of creating class warfare because it would cause more harm than good and prove just as bad that Johnsonian war on poverty which increased poverty rates. Our country is in trouble and we are all on the same boat which has sprung several leaks.

My hope for Christmas is that everyone has a great Christmas with family and friends. I also hope our government leaders – both Republican and Democrats – can come together for the common good.

Compromise is not a four-letter word. It is not giving someone the finger. Government is neither the Grinch who Stole Christmas nor Santa Claus. It has a role to play in uplifting society with hope and positive action.

In the end the best Christmas America can give to each other is to remember what Jefferson, Franklin and the rest believed. Government is our business. It will be as good as we want it or as bad as we allow it. Either we run it or it runs us.

Merry Christmas to all whether liberal or conservative, Democrat or Republican. America is a family that works best when it works together. Oh yes, Happy New Year, too. May 2013 be better than 2012. Long live Quincy, the City of Presidents.

Sal Giarratani
East Boston

Fundraiser Saturday For Fr. Bill's Place

Fifth grade students at Holy Trinity Parish will hold a fundraiser to benefit Father Bill's & Mainspring Saturday, Dec. 15 from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. in front of Most Blessed Sacrament Church, 40 Darrow St., Quincy.

As a way to raise awareness about homelessness, the grade 5 students of Holy Trinity Parish will have a cardboard box city outside the Most Blessed Sacrament Church Saturday for three hours (4:30 to 7:30 p.m.)

Organizers of the awareness event will be collecting donations for Father Bill's.

To make a donation to Fr. Bill's Place, checks can be made payable to Fr. Bill's Place and mailed at Holy Trinity Parish, 227 Sea St., Quincy, MA 02169.

The Department of Elementary and Secondary Education estimates that nearly 6,000 high school students are homeless and alone.

60 Quincy Students On AWHs Honor Roll

Sixty Quincy students are on the honor roll at Archbishop Williams High School for the first term.

They are:

PRINCIPAL'S LIST

Grade 9: Sarah Golden, Jaclyn Shuttleworth.

Grade 10: Katelyn Muscato, Aine Varden.

Grade 11: Kerry Hanlon, Heiu Nguyen.

Grade 12: Richard Chaudhary, Victoria Galvin.

FIRST HONORS

Grade 9: Bryan McMahon, Casey McPartlin, Lauren Murphy.

Grade 10: Callie Baker.

Grade 11: Julie Bloomer, Steven Gilbert, Erin Koehler, Jessica Muscato, Renee Patten.

Grade 12: Jennifer Dunphy, Helen Murphy, Sarah Saccoach.

SECOND HONORS

Grade 9: Kailin Bell,

Caroline Donnelly, Christina Forde, Anna Kiley, Katherine McCormack, Ciaran O'Connor, Richard Ryan, Casey Stevenson, Yasmine Sudhu, Kaylee Tobin, Katelyna Veasey.

Grade 10: Mikayla Bohane, Lauren Carter, Dylan Dunn, David Free, Margaret Garvey, Monica Gentile, Nkechi Kamalu, Maria Kerchner, Molly Mahoney.

Grade 11: Julie Connell, Kali Cormican, Shannon Devin, John Dunford, Nicholas Guidry, Kennedy Hanlon, Meghan MacDonald, Bryan McCormack, Sinead McGrath, Jenna Tobin.

Grade 12: Thammatida Dandhanin, Michael D'Andrea, Julianne Downey, Kayla Free, Kayla Holbrook, Jared Lyons, Abigail O'Connell, Jesse Palmer, Jason Pekkinen, Sara Ryan.

BREAKFAST WITH SANTA
Saturday & Sunday

The View Restaurant & Tavern
PRESIDENTS GOLF COURSE
357 West Squantum St., Quincy, MA 02171
617.770.2500
CALL FOR RESERVATIONS!!

~ ~ REJOICE ~ ~
Christ is Born!

Bethany Congregational church
(UNITED CHURCH CHRIST)
18 Spear Street, Quincy Center, 02169
617-479-7300

Children's Pageant
Sunday, December 16th, 10am
Singspiration @ 6pm
Rev. William C. Harding

Christmas Sunday Service
Sunday December 23rd, 10am
Rev. William C. Harding "A Humble Manger"

Christmas Eve - Candlelight Service
Monday, December 24th, 7pm
"Bring Bells for Ringing"
Rev. William C. Harding
"The Promised Messiah"

"All are welcome to all events"

DENTISTRY
for the 21st Century

by Steven A. Brustin, D.M.D.

DIRTY DENTURE DANGER

Denture wearers have long been advised to take equally good care of their replacement teeth as they do their natural teeth. Now, a recent study underscores the importance of doing so. Researchers have found that dentures are coated with a sticky layer of bacteria known as "biofilm." The potential danger in this coating of bacteria is that it may consist of drug-resistant staphylococcus aureus bacteria (MRSA), which can be breathed into the lungs to cause hard-to-treat infections. This finding is one of many recent studies that have found links between poor oral health and systemic disease. The take-away advice for denture wearers continues to be regularly clean their dentures according to their dentists' recommendations.

Tooth brushing plays an important everyday role for personal oral hygiene and effective plaque removal. We believe in preventive dentistry. Oral health is a long-term commitment we share with each patient. Your teeth – with proper care – should last a lifetime. We're located at 44 Greenleaf Street, where we are sensitive to the needs of all age groups, giving everyone the patience and empathy they require. For superior quality dental care, call 617-479-6220 to schedule an appointment. We offer the services of anesthesiology and a full trained and qualified anesthesiologist. Visit us on the web at www.quincydentist.com.

P.S. Patients with colds or the flu are advised to replace their bacteria-laden toothbrushes as soon as they return to good health.

DURING A TOUR of Sterling Middle School last Friday, state Treasurer Steve Grossman stopped to take a science lesson from some of the students at Sterling, as Principal Christine Barrett looks on. The metal sphere that Grossman is holding the soda can up to produces static electricity.
Quincy Sun Photos/Emily Taft

STATE AND CITY officials who toured the Sterling Middle School last Friday included (from left) Jack McDonald, director of the Massachusetts School Building Authority; Sterling Middle School Principal Christine Barrett; Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci; state Treasurer Steve Grossman; Mayor Tom Koch, and School Supt. Dr. Richard DeCristofaro.

Koch: Sterling To Be Renovated Or Replaced

Cont'd From Page 1

Treasury officials including former Ward 2 Councillor Francis Orlando, a Sterling graduate.

The tour began on the first floor in the school's auditorium and the gym. Officials next made their way to the third floor, where Grossman watched, and then took part in, an electrical experiment in a science lab. The group then made their way to the second floor media center before finishing in the cafeteria back on the first floor. The mayor and treasurer also visited the site of the new Central Middle School, as well — the MSBA is paying for 80 percent of that project.

After the tour Grossman, who as treasurer is chairman of the MSBA, said Sterling has major issues that need to be addressed.

"There's clearly some significant needs and you don't necessarily understand those needs until you see them first-hand," Grossman said. "Whether it's the teachers we got to talk to or the administrators or the kids themselves as you saw with the electrons, the energy in the classrooms here you can feel it."

"You can touch it and you imagine... what it would mean to them to have a 21st century learning environment which is the whole goal and raison d'être for the school building authority."

The mayor said he intends to press the issue at upcoming School Committee and City Council meetings.

"I want to thank the treasurer for visiting the city today, first of all up at Central to view the progress that's being made," Koch said.

"As we all know that's an 80 percent reimbursement project for the city and we're setting our eyes now on Sterling. We'll be filing the necessary paperwork in the coming weeks once we go to School Committee and the City Council to get their support."

"I want to acknowledge Jack McCarthy who works for the treasurer as head of the Mass. School Building Authority for their guidance, their help. Hopefully in the coming weeks and months we'll be having a new plan for dealing with this part of the city."

No concrete plans have been made; Koch said it was too early to know whether the school would be rebuilt or renovated.

"A final decision hasn't been made. I don't want to say too much officially until we engage the School Committee with a statement of interest. We'll discuss those matters with the body at that time," Koch said.

The period for school districts to notify the state of intended school projects runs from January to April. Once the city submits initial filings to the state, both sides would work together to come up with a new plan.

"The district will identify the problem and we'll work together, we partner and collaborate, and we come up together with what is the best solution whether it will be a renovation, addition, or brand new building," McCarthy said.

Carthy said. "We're a ways away from what would happen."

"The statement of interest period will open January 9 and will close April 10. During that time period, as the mayor said, he'll get votes from the City Council and from the School Committee. They'll put in all their paperwork describing the problem and then we'll start getting to work on the solution."

Even though it has received state money for both the new Quincy High and the new Central, Quincy remains eligible to be reimbursed for Sterling.

"We try and be fair and equitable to communities all over the Commonwealth. We don't do lot's of schools simultaneously but the high school is a project that's done," Grossman said. "I've been in that high school multiple times, it's an amazing building and I think when you see what goes on in that building every time I've been there it just validates just how successful the planning and execution process was."

"Central will be done; kids are going to be in Central in September. The statement interest process will move forward, we have a multi-step process but there are no rules that you that just because you've done a high school and done Central that somehow this project can't be done. It will be judged on what the needs are but as I've said Quincy's been a great partner... when you've got great partners it incentivizes you to try to move ahead for every neighborhood in the city."

The treasurer added that the goal of the MSBA is to make sure every student is able to have a modern learning experience.

"Everybody needs to be brought into this 21st century learning environment and philosophy. We saw firsthand today, right here in Sterling just how important it is for those young people, those 352 young people and growing each year, to have that 21st century learning environment," Grossman said. "That's the goal, that's what we do, and that's why this has been a very meaningful visit."

The superintendent explained that the current building is lacking modern technologies such as state-of-the-art electrical and HVAC systems. It also lacks an elevator and isn't handicapped accessible.

"I think the problem is that, when they talk about 21st century learning and all the things that students need today, some of them are missing here," DeCristofaro said. "A new electric system, a new heating system, getting an elevator, handicapped accessibility. All those things, when this was built a long time ago, no one considered."

Quincy does have older school buildings; the Montclair School turned 100 this year, for example. But DeCristofaro said Sterling is the building in need of the most attention.

"This would probably be our most significant building that we want to get done sooner, much sooner, rather than later," DeCristofaro said. "Other schools are different. This is a middle school, first of all. It was built at a different time. The others are pretty much as old, within a span of years, but I think it's the whole learning that's changed so much that we want to make available to our kids."

More and more students have enrolled at Sterling each year of late; for the last four years fifth graders have attended the school.

"Every classroom is utilized, whether it be for computer labs or actual classrooms," Barrett said. "Enrollment is increasing every year."

Barrett, who was named the school's assistant principal in 2006 and promoted to principal one year later, said she was excited about the prospect of the new school.

"It's been a longtime coming," Barrett said. "It's exciting to have people in the building who want a 21st century learning experience."

Palmucci was optimistic the city and state would move quickly to address what he considers a major need for the South and West Quincy neighborhoods it serves.

"We have quality teachers, we have kids who have a willingness to learn and then we put them in a building that doesn't reflect our values of holding education as being important," Palmucci said. "The building shows its age and I think putting kids in an environment, in a physical structure, that encourages their learning is the way we should be moving forward."

"I think that's what we're doing in the city today with the new high school and a Central Middle School and hopefully with a new Sterling. I'm cautiously optimistic that this will move forward in a quick, expedited fashion. It sends the message to not just the community but also the kids we're trying to educate that we value their education."

FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT® FOR HEALTHY LIVING
FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

RING IN THE HOLIDAYS WITH US!

Join the SOUTH SHORE YMCA
No Joiner's Fee

December 15, 2012 – January 31, 2013
Bring this coupon to redeem this offer!

NO JOINER'S FEE

December 15, 2012 – January 31, 2013!

Hanover and Quincy • ssymca.org

Code: PJ0113

STOECKEL INSURANCE AGENCY, LLC

• stoeckelinsurance.com •

Professional Insurance Advice with a Personal Touch
for your AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS • FAMILY

128 McGrath Highway, Quincy, MA

617.786.7444

Council: Delay Implementing Medical Marijuana Law

Cont'd From Page 3

placement of dispensaries. At the request of Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci, who proposed a set of zoning regulations for dispensaries, the motion was amended to a nine-month stay so communities that use a town meeting form of government would have more time to grapple with the law.

In addition to the stay, Keenan is also working on an overhaul of the law. It would allow only doctors specializing in a patient's debilitating condition to give permission for medicinal marijuana use; a cancer patient, for example, could only receive approval from an oncologist. Those doctors would also need to be licensed in Massachusetts. Neither requirement was included in the voter-approved law.

Keenan's proposal would help communities by cutting the number of dispensaries in the state from 35 to somewhere between three and 10. Patients in need of medical marijuana would have their supply delivered to them via a courier and not in person.

"That would take away the issue of these medical marijuana treatment centers in our communities," Keenan said. "They would be licensed dispensaries, not allowed to advertise, not allowed to do retail sales. What they would do is fill a prescription, much like Express Scripts and things like that that are out there now."

Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee asked Keenan whether the state could simply refuse to enact the law because marijuana is not a Food and Drug Administration (FDA) approved drug. Under the federal Controlled Substances Act marijuana is a Schedule I drug, the same classification given to heroin and LSD, meaning it has no approved medical use or a high potential for abuse.

"The FDA does not approve of cannabis; it's not an FDA approved drug," McNamee said. "Yet you're going to dispense it by prescription like any other drug. Why can't the state say that you cannot dispense by prescription any drug that doesn't have FDA approval?"

Keenan said other states have shied away from allowing marijuana dispensaries because of the conflict with federal law.

"The state could come in and rule the ballot question, because it's in conflict with federal law, cannot be implemented," Keenan said. "Many states have backed off from allowing dispensaries and medical marijuana treatment centers because of that very issue. That's the conflict between state rights and federal rights, and federal law in this area takes precedent."

Gutro suggested the city

enact its own ban on dispensaries because it is illegal under federal law. He said Wakefield's town meeting issued a similar ban recently by a 143-9 margin, despite the fact that voters in that town approved the referendum by an eight-point margin. But Gutro was concerned that a court could overturn a ban, and dispensaries would be allowed to open anywhere in the city.

"This is illegal at the federal level, both medical and recreational use is illegal," Gutro said. "My inclination would be to ban it, but I don't want to put the city in any kind of legal bind in respect to if it's overturned, would the Wild Wild West be there where they could come into any zoning district."

Keenan believed such a ban would be allowed because it wouldn't infringe on any First Amendment rights, unlike a ban on adult entertainment or tattoo parlors, and it wouldn't hurt a protected class. But the senator suggested the city enact zoning regulations as proposed by Palmucci before banning dispensaries, to cover themselves in case a ban was overturned.

The council held a public hearing on Palmucci's proposed regulations before hearing from Keenan. Among other things, the proposal would prohibit dispensaries from opening within 1,500 feet of a residential neighborhood, school, bar, or other dispensary.

At the hearing, School Committee Vice Chairwoman

Barbara Isola said she supported keeping medical marijuana dispensaries away from schools.

"I really appreciate that we're looking to place these dispensaries, if we're going to place them anywhere in the City of Quincy, far away from our children and from residential areas - I hope that would be the result," Isola said.

Isola, who works as a prosecutor, added that she thinks some people who obtain medical marijuana will do so only to resell it on the streets. Similar issues with prescription painkillers exist in Florida.

"While there may be some people who have a medical condition who truly need to have marijuana I don't know there is that large amount of people," Isola said. "I think we're going to be seeing abuse. We're going to see people come in and obtain marijuana and resell it."

"I know there's been a problem in Florida - they're trying to clean it up - with so-called pain clinics and that's where people could obtain oxycodone and various things. In my job as an assistant DA I've seen multiple cases where people would go to Florida because the rules were lax and then ship the pills up here."

Kathy Deady, a West Quincy resident and member of End Drug Abuse Now (EDAN), said dispensaries in other states cause blights on surrounding neighborhoods.

"In Colorado and every other state that has the dispensaries, there was a blight in every single area after the dispensaries opened - it took about six months," Deady said. "The people who would go in there would get their product, come out, sit outside, smoke their stuff and all the businesses would close.

"We're going to have a new downtown. That doesn't bode well for our downtown if we let them open a bunch of dispensaries."

Deady suggested that Crown Colony would be good place to locate dispensaries because they already have medical facilities and it's located by I-93.

"Over Crown Colony, there's medical buildings over there, the highways over there," Deady said. "They won't be hanging around the downtown where we already have a problem."

Deady also expressed disbelief that so few people attended the public hearing.

"It's so stupid. I just can't believe that people aren't more interested in protecting their children," Deady said.

Palmucci said he invited representatives from organizations who backed the ballot question to attend, but they did not. Nor did anyone from DPH, though Palmucci invited them as well.

After the hearing Palmucci proposed a finding of fact that included six points. The findings were that dispensaries cause blight in some instances, dispensaries may decrease property values, dispensaries are believed to cause an increase in crime, dispensaries have adverse impacts on public health, dispensaries in Quincy Center would harm business, and dispensaries could impact residents' quality of life.

That finding of fact was passed by an 8-1 vote, with Councillor Joe Finn opposed. Finn said he supported regulation but wasn't willing to accept all claims as fact. Gutro's motion in support of the stay was approved by voice vote.

SECONDARY LUNCH MENU

Monday, Dec. 17

Turkey barbecue on a WG roll, potato wedges, Romaine mixed salad, choice of fruit, 100% juice, choice of milk.

Tuesday, Dec. 18

Beef meatball in tomato sauce on a WG French roll, green beans and chick peas, fruit, juice and milk choices. Early release middle schools.

Wednesday, Dec. 19

WG macaroni and cheese, chicken tender, steamed broccoli, three bean salad, fruit, juice and milk choices.

Thursday, Dec. 20

Chicken fajita with Spanish rice and beans, steamed carrots, WW tortilla, fruit, juice, and milk choices.

Friday, Dec. 21

Manager's Special.

ELEMENTARY LUNCH MENU

Monday, Dec. 17

WG pizza, carrot snack pack, fresh fruit, 100% fruit juice, three bean salad.

Tuesday, Dec. 18

Early Release Day. No lunch served.

Wednesday, Dec. 19

Turkey taco with shredded cheese and red kidney beans, baked tortilla chips, peas and carrots.

Thursday, Dec. 20

Chicken with gravy, mashed potatoes, green beans, WG dinner roll.

Friday, Dec. 21

Snowman soft pretzel, cheddar cheese sauce cup, fresh broccoli florets, local apple cider.

Nicole's Studio

261 Copeland St
Quincy, MA
617-934-5135

Nicole's Studio offers the very Best in modern hair design

Ladies, Come into Nicole's Studio for a Cut & Color
Bring the guy of your choice, he gets a "FREE CUT"
(He must be a first time client)

Always free parking
Call today for an appointment.
617-935-5135

Visit
www.nicolessalon.com
Like us on Facebook
www.facebook.com/nicolesstudio

DISCOVER FRESHNESS
Burke's Seafood
Established 1979

CELEBRATE WITH SEAFOOD THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

Featuring all your Holiday Favorites

SHRIMP COCKTAIL
FRESH LOBSTER MEAT
SCALLOPS WRAPPED IN BACON
WARM CRABMEAT DIP
HOMEMADE CRABCAKES (LARGE & BITE SIZE)
BAKED STUFFED LOBSTERS
OUR FAMOUS CHOWDERS
LOBSTER MAC & CHEESE BY THE TRAY
ALL YOUR FRESH FISH & SHELLFISH NEEDS

PLACE YOUR ORDERS EARLY!

★ Special Holiday Hours ★

Sun 12/23 9am-6pm
Mon 12/24 9am-5pm

VISIT WWW.BURKESSEAFOOD.COM
OR CALL FOR MORE HOLIDAY IDEAS

61 BILLINGS RD. NO. QUINCY
617-328-9765 • 617-479-1540

Ask the
GEMOLOGIST®
BY JEFFREY M. BERTMAN
GRADUATE GEMOLOGIST

IT'S A JUNGLE OUT THERE

Women's continued attraction to leopard spot print fabrics selected as jeweled icons, shows just how fascinating they find jungle creatures to be. Also dragonflies, dolphins, horses, frogs, and bears following in no specific order.

Do you love animals? It's time for some jewelry in the shape of your favorite animal. Our store is located at 1402 Hancock Street, Quincy Center where you will find a cute little owl for around your neck or an elephant around your wrist. This is the place to mark the meaningful moments of your life! Call us at 617-773-3636, and allow us to assist you.

Don't Forget: We pay cash for Gold - Platinum - Diamonds... highest prices paid.

Rogers

Diamonds... Watches... Jewelry

www.rogersjewelry.com
BANK OF AMERICA BUILDING

City, Laborers Reach Contract Agreement

Mayor Thomas Koch and the City's public works and park laborers have agreed on a new three-year contract that includes conservative salary increases and creates new savings by limiting pay incentives and reducing sick time for new employees.

The contract with Laborers Local 1139 provides raises of 1 percent, 2 percent and 2 percent over its three-year term that starts retroactively on July 1. The contract also reduces the number of allowed sick days from 15 to 13 for new employees and reduces sick leave incentives for new employees.

Mayor Koch cited the contract as another product of an ongoing cooperative effort between the Administration and the City's nearly 2,000 employees, who agreed to major contract changes and a total overhaul of health care plans in the last several years that saved millions of dollars and scores of jobs amid an historic economic crisis.

"We have a tremendously dedicated group of workers who work hard every day on behalf of our City, and I am proud that we have once again come together on a contract that is fair to the workers and fair to our taxpayers," said Mayor Koch. "Our workers have been with us every step of the way through these historically challenging times, and I am grateful for all of their efforts."

In addition to salary increases, the contract includes a modest increase in clothing allowance for workers and replaces longevity pay, an auto allowance and a number vaguely worded existing stipends with $1,000 added to the base of employees.

It also deletes language for so-called "heat days," which provided full pay for days when work is called off early because of heat, an exceedingly rare occurrence, according to officials.

The administration's negotiating team has completed a similar negotiation with the Police Patrolmen's union and is continuing to work with other unions on new contracts. The City budget approved in June for the current fiscal years includes a set aside for anticipated salary increases.

13 Residents Graduate Emmanuel College

Thirteen Quincy residents recently graduated from Emmanuel College.

Cara R. Della Barba, Master of Science in management; Kerri A. Duggan, Bachelor of Science in nursing; Rebecca A. Stanton, Bachelor of Science in biology-health science; Courtney A. Tandy, Master of Science in management; May ThandaTin, Bachelor of Arts in English-communication, media and cultural studies; Melissa Charles, Master of Science in management; Elizabeth S. Gruchy, Bachelor of Arts in English-communication, media and cultural studies; Mary E. Hanlon, Bachelor of Science in nursing; Karen Ann Hanrahan, Bachelor of Science in nursing; Stephanie A. Mariano, Bachelor of Arts in history; Alison Marie McCarthy, Bachelor of Science in nursing; Melanie J. Smith, Bachelor of Science in nursing; and Maureen E. Tapper, Bachelor of Science in nursing.

Top Aide Acquitted, Cahill Case Enters 7th Day Of Deliberations

Cont'd From Page 1

purchasing fraud. Campbell then hugged Cahill before leaving the ninth-floor courtroom in Boston's Suffolk County Superior Court-house.

"I'm very happy. I'm very relieved. I'm ready to move on," Campbell told reporters outside the courtroom. "I'm thankful for the jurors and I'm relieved that the case is over."

Judge Christine Roach had given further instructions to the jury after acquitting Campbell, urging them to come to a unanimous decision on conspiracy charges against Cahill, but that was to no avail as the jury left the courthouse Tuesday night without reaching a verdict for the former treasurer, a Quincy resident and former city councillor.

Prosecutors from the attorney general's office allege Cahill improperly used state funds for Lottery ads to prop up his ultimately unsuccessful 2010 gubernatorial campaign. He is facing one count each of conspiracy to gain unwarranted privilege and conspiracy to commit purchasing fraud and could face up to five years in prison if convicted.

Since being indicted in April, the former treasurer has maintained that the ads were necessary to defend the Lottery against attack ads from the Republican Governors Association attack ads. Cahill's likeness and voice were not in the ads, nor was he mentioned by name.

Opening arguments in the trial began Nov. 5, and the jury began deliberations on the afternoon of Dec. 4. Monday, shortly after 11 a.m. the jurors asked Roach a question. Lawyers huddled together for a sidebar that lasted more than a half-hour before Roach wrote an answer and handed to court officers to deliver in a sealed envelope. Lawyers were instructed not to comment on the question.

The jurors asked a second question Tuesday morning, and shortly after receiving an answer they acquitted Campbell. Later on Tuesday afternoon they again asked a question, but this one didn't result in a verdict for Cahill. Like Monday's question, both Tuesday questions were kept private.

Campbell is still awaiting trial on charges related to an ongoing Beacon Hill probation department scandal. Campbell has pleaded not guilty to conspiracy and campaign finance violation charges related to that case.

Joseph P. Reggiannini
92-94 (Rear) Franklin St.
Quincy, MA 02169

Office Hours:
M-F 7:30 am - 5:00 pm

(617) 471-2095
(24 Hour Emergency Service)
www.reggiesoil.com

CO., INC.
Heating & Air Conditioning Service

We are a local, family-owned & operated oil company located right here in Quincy. We've been providing a quality product & superior service to our customers here in Quincy & throughout Southeastern MA for more than 50 years....and we always will!

Sadie's
Designer Cakes
& Pastries

Open 8am-4pm 12/24

419 Hancock St. Quincy
(617)770-CAKE(2253)
www.sadiescakes.com

HAPPY HOLIDAYS
ORDER TODAY!!

Complete Dinners Small or Large

Boneless Turkey Dinner
Spiral Ham Dinner
Old Fashioned Carving
Ham Dinner

Gingerbread Houses
Edible Centerpieces

A smarter way to target prostate cancer.

MEET ARTEMIS.

In the battle against prostate cancer, there's a new weapon: Artemis. It's the fusion of 3D imaging technologies that brings pinpoint accuracy to prostate biopsies, and brings you an enhanced level of confidence in your care.

HEAR WHAT ARTEMIS HAS TO SAY AT BIDMILTON.ORG/PROSTATEHEALTH.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

KIP ORLANDO'S
men's hairstyling

"Look your Best
for the Holidays"

Men's Hairstyling in a Barbershop Atmosphere

Hours: Tues 9-6, Wed - Fri 9-8, Sat 9-6 • Appt. or walk-ins welcome
261 E. Squantum St., N. Quincy, MA 02171
617-786-8545 • www.kiporlando.com

A S S E M B L Y
NOW OPEN!!!

Serving Lunch 11:30-4:00 & Dinner 4:00-10:00
ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAYS & SATURDAYS

10pm-1am

Dec. 14th.... Cherry Orchard

Dec. 15th.... Nighttime Radio

Dec. 22nd.... Bobbin Reggae

Book your Holiday Party!

A S S E M B L Y

425 Hancock St. Quincy
(617)302-4696 • (617)302-4987

PEARL HARBOR SURVIVOR Francis Connolly, a U.S. Navy veteran, speaks to the crowd surrounding the World War II Memorial at Mount Wollaston Cemetery during the Dec. 7th wreath laying ceremony to commemorate the 71st anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor.

QUINCY VETERANS COUNCIL Commander Marc T. Connolly salutes after placing the wreath in front of the World War II memorial at Mount Wollaston Cemetery. This is the 12th year in a row the city and council has held the ceremony to remember those who were killed during the Japanese sneak attack on Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941 and those who sacrificed their lives during World War II.

Quincy Sun Photos/Emily Taft

Wreath Commemorates 71st Anniversary Of Pearl Harbor

By EMILY TAFT

The Quincy Veterans' Council held a wreath laying ceremony Friday, Dec. 7 commemorating the 71st anniversary of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

This was the 12th straight year the council has held a ceremony in honor of those who gave their lives on that day and the days that followed. There were 39 young men from Massachusetts killed at Pearl Harbor, and 241 men from Quincy who died during World War II.

"This is a day to remember and learn from," said Senator John Keenan. "May we always remember those who paid the ultimate sacrifice."

The ceremony was held at Mount Wollaston Cemetery at the World War II Memorial, and featured a reenactment of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's "Day of Infamy Speech" from Quincy High School sophomore Christopher Golden.

Pearl Harbor Survivor Francis M. Connolly, a U.S. Navy veteran and retired Boston Police Officer, attended the ceremony and spoke briefly about that day. Connolly is the last remaining Quincy Pearl Harbor survivor.

Connolly was on the deck of the USS St. Louis in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii the morning of Dec. 7, 1941, getting ready to take liberty when he saw a group of planes approaching.

"I had a breakfast date with a nurse that morning. I watched all the planes come in, and swoop down and start dropping torpedoes on us," said Connolly as he recalled the morning hours. "It was a hectic day."

RAISING THE FLAG to half-staff in observance of National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day Dec. 7 are Marc Connolly (left), commander of the Quincy Veterans and Charlie Hurley, Senior Vice Commander of the Morrisette American Legion Post.

The USS St. Louis spent the days after the attack unsuccessfully searching for the Japanese fleet.

After the attack, Connolly said that he was assigned to a boat to pick up bodies. Connolly also served on the USS Essex and the USS YMS 422 and achieved the highest rank of Gunners Mate First Class. He served in the Navy from Sept. 3, 1940 until November, 1946.

QUINCY HIGH SCHOOL sophomore Christopher Golden reenacted President Franklin D. Roosevelt's "Day of Infamy Speech" during the wreath laying ceremony.

The ceremony included the laying of the wreath, which was donated by veteran and former POW Robert Noble, and the playing of TAPS with the flag flown at half-staff.

SUPER BINGO at Quincy Catholic Academy Monday, December 31st

Start the New Year with a fun-filled evening of Super Bingo.

A new parking lot next to the school has been built, so parking will not be a problem.

Our location is at 370 Hancock St., Quincy the former Sacred Heart School

Doors open at 3:00

Admission sales at 5:00

after 5:30 only a paid admission card saves a seat

Games start at 6:30

A handicap ramp is available for easy access

free coffee, tea, and snacks

All of our(38) games will be worth at least $200-

Thanks for supporting the Quincy Catholic Academy

Eastern Bank

Terry Bellotti-Palmieri - Branch Manager

Eastern Bank-Wollaston
731 Hancock Street Quincy, MA 02170
T: (617) 689-1723 E: tbellotti-palmieri@easternbank.com

JOAN'S OLYMPIC GYM GYMNASTICS & DANCE SCHOOL

WAS VOTED #1 ON THE SOUTH SHORE

Ages 2 - Adult

NOW ACCEPTING REGISTRATIONS!

781-843-9624

"An Excellent Education Environment For Your Child"

197 Quincy Avenue, Braintree • www.joansolympicgym.com

Grandasia Bridal & Fashion

663 Hancock Street (617) 328-6380
www.grandasia.com

- Bridal/Prom Gowns
- Bridesmaids/Mothers
- Flowergirls
- Tuxedos/Suits
- Communion Outfits
- Dance Shoes
- Accessories
- Wedding Photo/Video
- Wedding Invitations
- Licensed Hair/Makeup
- Alterations

Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers

- Quality, Reliable Service
- Over 100 Years of Satisfied Customers
- Honest Values
- On-Premise Repairs

52 Billings Road North Quincy

Citizenship Award Presented By The Quincy Sun Nominations Coming In For Henry Bosworth Award

Nominations are coming in for Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award presented by The Quincy Sun.

The award – formerly known as the Sun Citizen of the Year – was renamed in 2010 in memory of Mr. Bosworth, The Quincy Sun's founder and longtime publisher.

Last year, Ruth Elizabeth (Betty) DeCristofaro, a lifelong Quincy Point resident, was honored for a lifetime of volunteerism and selfless dedication to her church, veterans, schools and many other neighbors in need.

She was selected for the award by a judging panel among 22 nominees submitted by Quincy Sun readers.

DeCristofaro is the second recipient of the Bosworth Award and the 29th individual overall to be recognized by The Sun for outstanding community service.

Former Quincy City Clerk and current Norfolk County Commissioner John M. Gillis was the first recipient of the Henry Bosworth Memorial Citizenship Award in 2010. He was recognized as a "champion of the little guy" during his public service career that has spanned more than 50 years.

The other 27 individuals were honored when the award was known as The Quincy Sun Citizen of the Year.

Established in 1985, the award recognizes an individual for outstanding community service or a special achievement.

Again this year, Sun readers may nominate the person they feel is most deserving of the award.

A nomination ballot to help the selection process appears below in this week's issue of The Quincy Sun.

Nominations will close Monday, Dec. 31. After nominations close, a judging panel will be selected to make the final choice from nominations submitted.

If you know someone you would like to see recognized with the 2012 Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award, fill out the ballot and mail it to:

The Quincy Sun
Attn: Bosworth Award
1372 Hancock St.
Quincy, MA 02169
Ballots can also be dropped off at The Sun office at the above address by Dec. 31.

Those submitting nominations should identify themselves. They can also attach to the ballot a letter detailing the reason for the their nomination.

Nominees can be someone in elective office, a member of an appointed board, a clergy member, a teacher or school administrator, a police or firefighter, someone in the business community, a sports figure or an "unsung" neighbor, friend or community activist who has given freely of his or her time to a worthy project or cause.

Those nominated in the past are eligible to be nominated again this year. Since this is not a popularity contest, each nominee has an equal chance of being selected regardless of the number of nominations received. Anyone nominated just once has the same chance of being the award recipient.

The name of the winner will be announced in The Quincy Sun in January or February.

SIGN OF WINTER – Jim McCormick of the Quincy Water and Sewer Department retrieves the seasonal water fountain at Sailors Home Pond for winter storage. The fountain provides oxygen and motion to the pond promoting healthy environs in the water and its surrounds.

Photo Courtesy Quincy DPW

Law Firm Relocating To Quincy

Baker, Braverman and Barbadoro, P.C., formerly located in Braintree, has relocated its offices to 300 Crown Colony Drive in Quincy as of Dec. 1.

Baker, Braverman and Barbadoro, P.C. is a full service law firm with 14 lawyers practicing in all areas of business and personal representation.

Several of the firm's lawyers have roots in Quincy going back over 25 years. Partners Warren Baker and Jonathan Braverman practice in Quincy with former state representative Bill Golden, who is counsel to the firm.

Paul N. Barbadoro, another partner, practiced in Quincy for over 10 years before joining the firm and is a former Assistant City Solicitor under Mayor Francis McCauley. Attorneys Larry DiNardo and Douglas Purdy practiced in Quincy for over 30 years with Serafini, DiNardo, Purdy and Wells before joining Baker, Braverman & Barbadoro in 2008.

"We are excited to come back to Quincy," said Barbadoro, who is also a member of the Board of Governors at Quincy College. "Considering the plans for the new downtown development and the business it will attract, we believe Quincy is the place to be."

"We look forward to contributing to the community," he added.

The Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award presented by

The Quincy Sun

I would like to nominate
(Please type or print neatly)

for

The Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.
Memorial Citizenship Award

I believe he/she deserves this award because:

Submitted by:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Tel. No. _____

Fill out form and mail (or bring) to:

The Quincy Sun

c/o The Henry W. Bosworth Memorial Citizenship Award
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

NOMINATION DEADLINE: Monday, Dec. 31

$CASH PAID$
MASS DEPOSIT
BOTTLES & CANS
24 BROAD ST., QUINCY
(OFF SOUTHERN ARTERY BEHIND POLICE STATION)

SETTINGS AS UNIQUE AS YOUR WEDDING DAY.
Unparalleled elegance in historic Quincy.

When you choose the Boston Marriott Quincy for your wedding day, you'll celebrate in style. The spectacular Grand Presidential Ballroom features high ceilings and stunning crystal chandeliers. The Dorothy Quincy Junior Ballroom offers a smaller, more intimate space overlooking a seasonal outdoor patio – perfect for cocktail receptions. Add fully customized wedding packages, creative personalized menus and luxurious accommodations and you've got all the makings of an extraordinary wedding.

For more information, call 617.774.2088 or visit QuincyMarriottWeddings.com.

BOSTON MARRIOTT QUINCY
1000 Marriott Drive, Quincy, MA 02169
Phone 617.472.1000, QuincyMarriott.com

Marriott
BOSTON QUINCY

Social Security Statement: A Gift To Yourself

By KRISTEN ALBERINO

Social Security Public Affairs Specialist

It's very likely that during the holiday season you've been spending a bit of time and money getting gifts for everyone on your shopping list. Why not take a moment and give yourself a holiday gift? We have a suggestion, and while it won't cost you a penny, it could be one of the best (and easiest) financial steps you ever take for your future.

Give yourself the gift of your own Social Security Statement. You can get yours online at www.socialsecurity.gov/mystatement.

The online Social Security Statement is simple, easy to use, and provides estimates you can use to plan for your retirement. It also provides estimates for disability and survivors benefits, making the Statement an important financial planning tool.

Your Statement also allows you to determine whether your earnings are accurately posted to your Social Security records. This feature is important because Social Security benefits are based on average earnings over your lifetime.

To get a personalized online Statement, you must be age 18 or older and must be able to provide information about yourself that matches information already on file with Social Security. In addition, Social Security uses Experian, an external authentication service provider, for further verification. You must provide identifying information and answer security questions in order to pass this verification. Social Security will not share your Social Security number with Experian, but the identity check is an important part of this new, thorough verification process.

When your identity is verified, you can create a "My Social Security" account with a unique user name and password to access your online Statement. In addition, your online Statement includes links to information about other online Social Security services, such as applications for retirement, disability, and Medicare.

This holiday season, it's likely you'll be hearing some of your friends and family saying "you shouldn't have" as they receive their gifts from you. That's something to look forward to. But be sure that you don't find yourself saying "I should have" when it comes to planning your own financial future. Get your online Social Security Statement and look it over. Do it again next year. It may be the best gift you can give to yourself in the long run.

Your free gift is waiting at www.socialsecurity.gov/mystatement.

Social Security Online Services
★ Convenient ★ Secure ★
www.socialsecurity.gov

Richard Chaudhary, Yingzhe Zhao Score Perfect On SAT

Archbishop Williams High School (AWHS) recently added Richard Chaudhary of Quincy, MA and Yingzhe (Jason) Zhao of Qinhuangdao, China to the AWHS "800 Club"—special recognition for students who earn a perfect score of 800 in any of the three sections on the SATs. Chaudhary and Zhao both earned 800s on the mathematics section.

Each year, nearly three million juniors and seniors from high schools all over the world take the Scholastic Aptitude Tests, otherwise known as the SATs. In 2012, less than one percent (.69%) of the students who took the exam earned a maximum score of 800 in the mathematics portion (collegboard.org).

"Eight hundreds are very rare, and symbolize absolute excellence and perfection," said Principal Dr. Carmen Mariano. "For a school of our size to have one student earn a perfect score would merit congratulations. To have two is a cause for celebration!"

"The SAT is such an important test and is a crucial part of a college application," said Chaudhary, who spent his summer weekends completing preparation work for the exam. "It's really the only way that you're measured equally against every other applicant."

ARCHBISHOP WILLIAMS High School students Yingzhe (Jason) Zhao and Richard Chaudhary of Quincy recently scored a perfect 800 on the mathematics section of the SAT.

Zhao, an exchange student from China who lives in Quincy couldn't wait to tell his parents about his score.

"I couldn't wait to tell them that they made the right decision to send me here." He said English was a problem for him when he first came to America, but believes his shortcoming in English made him stronger and work even harder. "All the handicaps I went through in these past two years finally paid off."

Zhao hopes to study aerospace engineering at Georgia Institute of Technology.

"If I could give one piece of advice to everyone taking the SAT," said Chaudhary, "I would say that hard work and preparation really does pay off. I couldn't have done it without the motivation and support from my amazing teachers and mentors at Archbishop Williams." He hopes to study biomedical engineering and pre-med at either the University of Pennsylvania or Harvard University.

"Richard and Jason are model students and magnificent young men," said Dr. Mariano. "I could not be prouder to see them join our '800 Club,' which has grown by six students in the past three years!"

A Message From The Massachusetts Chiropractic Society

Tips To Relieve Stress And Strain This Holiday Season

It's a busy time of year with the holidays approaching, and with the weather creating havoc, stress is hanging over everyone's heads.

Whether it's the clean up after a storm or a simple pleasure of holiday shopping or wrapping, doing it the incorrect way can cause back, neck and other musculoskeletal pain.

The Massachusetts Chiropractic Society, Inc. offers the following tips to manage pain and stress and how to avoid back, neck and other musculoskeletal pain during this busy time of year.

• Don't ignore symptoms of stress and anxiety - seek help.

• Take frequent breaks and drink plenty of water when rushing around this season.

• If cooking or baking watch your posture and take plenty of breaks.

• Slow down and reflect on what the season is all about.

• Treat holiday shopping as an athletic event to ward off the stress and strain that often accompanies this otherwise joyous season.

• Stretch before and after a long day of shopping.

• Carrying packages all day can wreak havoc on your shoulder and back and it can certainly cause headaches, muscle and back pain.

• Make sure your clothing is as comfortable as possible. It's a good idea to wear layers, because you could be going from a cold environment (outdoors) to a warm environment (indoors).

• Leave your purse at home to avoid adding extra weight on your shoulders and pack only items you really need, or downsize the heavy purse which can contribute to shoulder pain and numbness.

Also, as many will be wrapping presents (some longer than others), there are ways to make it less stressful on your body:

• Since there is no "ideal" position for wrapping gifts, the most important thing to remember is to take breaks often. Get up and stretch.

• Do not wrap packages while sitting on a hard floor. This can wreak havoc on your posture.

• Always stretch before and after wrapping gifts.

Take certain safety measures when shoveling snow or after a storm clean-up:

• If you must shovel snow, be careful. Listen to weather forecasts so you can rise early and have time to shovel before work.

• Layer clothing to keep your muscles warm and flexible.

• When you do shovel, push the snow straight ahead. Don't try to throw it. Walk it to the snow bank. Avoid sudden twisting and turning motions.

• Bend your knees to lift when shoveling. Let the muscles of your legs and arms do the work, not your back.

• Take frequent rest breaks to take the strain off your muscles. A fatigued body asks for injury.

• Stop if you feel chest pain, or get really tired or have shortness of breath. You may need immediate assistance.

For more information log onto <http://www.masschiro.org>.

Register O'Donnell To Speak At NARFE Meeting Jan. 14

Norfolk County Register of Deeds William P. O'Donnell will be the guest speaker at the National Active and Retired Federal Employees (NARFE) meeting on Monday, Jan. 14 at 1:30 p.m.

The meeting will take place at the Morrisette American Legion Post 294 located at 81-83 Liberty St. in Quincy.

O'Donnell will discuss the historical nature of the Registry and his ongoing efforts to modernize and computerize the vast number of Norfolk County real estate records. He will also address the Massachusetts Homestead Act and answer any questions members may have.

The Norfolk County Registry of Deeds, located at 649 High St., Dedham, is the principal office for real property in Norfolk County. The Registry is a resource for homeowners, title examiners, mortgage lenders, municipalities and others with a need for secure, accurate, accessible land record information.

Residents in need of assistance can contact the Registry of Deeds Customer Service Department via telephone at (781) 461-6101, or email us at registerodonnell@norfolkdeeds.org.

Pvt. Michael Riley Graduates Basic Training

Marine Corps Pvt. Michael E. Riley, a 2011 graduate of North Quincy High School, earned the title of United States Marine after graduating from recruit training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S. C.

For 13 weeks, Riley stayed committed during some of the world's most demanding entry-level military training in order to be transformed from civilian to Marine instilled with pride, discipline and the core values of honor, courage and commitment.

Training subjects included close-order drill, marksmanship with an M-16A4 rifle, physical fitness, martial arts, swimming, military history, customs and courtesies.

One week prior to graduation, Riley endured The Crucible, a 54-hour final test of recruits' minds and bodies.

Upon completion, recruits are presented the Marine Corps emblem and called Marines for the first time.

GRANITE LOCK CO

SERVICE MOBILE
AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS

- DEADBOLTS INSTALLED
- LOCKS REKEYED
- DOOR CLOSERS
- PANIC HARDWARE
- AUTO KEYS FITTED

VISIT OUR SHOWROOM!
755 SO. ARTERY, QUINCY
472-2177

LEARN-TO-SKATE CLASSES

RECREATIONAL • FIGURE
HOCKEY SKATING SKILLS

BAY STATE SKATING SCHOOL

Non-Profit

CHILDREN (4 1/2 up) & ADULTS As Featured on "Chronicle"

GIFT CERTIFICATES AVAILABLE!

QUINCY SHEA RINK

WEYMOUTH CONNELL RINK

Wed. 4PM Start Dec. 19

Sun. 5PM Start Dec. 16

Sun. 11 AM Start Dec. 16

781-890-8480

www.BayStateSkatingSchool.org

Sign Up
Now

Over
40 Years!

Fundraiser Saturday For Squantum Resident Joining WorldTeach Colombia

Diana Comerford-Mota of Squantum will host a fundraiser Saturday, Dec. 15 from 6 to 8 p.m. at The Chantey, Marina Bay, to help raise funds for WorldTeach

Colombia.

Comerford-Mota, who will graduate from Springfield College this month, will become a volunteer teacher with WorldTeach, an organization similar to the Peace Corps. World Teach is a non-profit organization that places teachers in developing countries like Colombia.

A 2008 graduate of the Woodward School for Girls, Comerford-Mota will teach in Colombia for one year. She will be among a group of volunteers who teach English to Colombian students. During her stay, she will receive a small living allowance from the in-country school, which is enough to cover basic expenses.

Saturday's fundraiser is to help defray other costs associated with volunteering for a year, including travel, training and field support.

Central Middle School To Present Rudyard Kipling's 'The Jungle Book'

Central Middle School will present Rudyard Kipling's "The Jungle Book" today (Thursday) and Friday, Dec. 14 at 7 p.m.

Director Jim Phelan and students have been rehearsing "The Jungle Book" musical since September. The production consists of over 30 students who will pay homage to the CMS heritage of producing a musical ensemble. This will be the last performance of what will soon be known as the old Central Middle School.

Admission is open to the public. Tickets are $5 and can be bought at the main office or at the door.

FAMILY MILESTONE - On Dec. 1st, 18-month-old William Oster (center) was the fifth generation in his family to get his hair cut by Joe Boncaldo (second from left), owner of Boncaldo's Barber Shop on Beale St. The day was also a big day for William's uncle Jordan Oster (far left) who recieved a hot shave before getting married later that day. Jordan along with his brother Christian (second from right) have been coming to the barbershop since they were little with their father and third generation Gus Oster IV (far right). Gus's father and grandfather also went to Joe to get their hair cut. Boncaldo's has been in business for 53 years and has served many generations of families throughout the city.

Quincy Sun Photo/ Emily Taft

Steward. The New Health Care.

I am a Steward.

Charles M. Rippberger, MD CMD
Internal Medicine
Steward Medical Group Quincy Geriatrics, 114 Whitwell Street, Suite 417, Quincy, accepting new patients.

Steward Medical Group is pleased to welcome Dr. Charles Rippberger to the Quincy Medical Center community. Dr. Rippberger is board certified in internal medicine with a subspecialty in geriatrics. A graduate of the University of New Mexico School of Medicine, Dr. Rippberger completed his residency in internal medicine at Rochester General Hospital and a fellowship in primary care at Massachusetts General Hospital. Dr. Rippberger's areas of special interest include treating patients in sub-acute and long term care. Please call DoctorFinder™ at 1-800-488-5959 to make an appointment.

Call 800-488-5959 or visit steward.org/doctorfinder

The Welch Group congratulates the staff of Hancock Park Rehabilitation & Nursing Center for their dedicated service to our residents and for earning a perfect survey.

Congratulations

A PERFECT
SURVEY SCORE

2012
DEFICIENCY FREE
SURVEY for the 3rd year in a row

Hancock
Park
REHABILITATION &
NURSING CENTER

164 Parkway • Quincy, MA
617-773-4222

www.welchhrg.com

*Rehabilitation and Nursing Centers are assessed by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health. For more information visit: www.mass.gov

Welch HEALTHCARE & RETIREMENT GROUP
Trusted family name in senior services for over 60 years

Baker, Braverman & Barbadoro, P.C.

"South Shore's Full Service Law Firm"

Announces the Relocation of its offices

to:

300 Crown Colony Drive
Suite 500
Quincy, MA 02169

Baker, Braverman & Barbadoro, P.C.

Tel: 781-848-9610

Fax: 781-848-9790

www.bbb-lawfirm.com

Holiday Gift Guide

QUINCYOPOLY

A UNIQUE AND FUN BOARD GAME WITH A LOCAL FLAIR!

Great Holiday Gift!

Games available at:

Training Resources of America

1458 Hancock Street, Suite 304, Quincy, MA

For more information call: 617-773-1470

We'll deliver in the local Quincy area!

All proceeds benefit Quincy YouthBuild operated by Training Resources of America

SAVE $5 WITH THIS AD & GET YOUR GAME FOR ONLY $20

*This offer is valid through 12/31/12 (Cash or Check Only)

Ginger Betty's Bakery-where you'll find the sweetest gifts this holiday season!

Ginger Betty's Bakery

Let the magic of Christmas come alive as you decorate your own gingerbread house or person while the aroma of gingerbread wafts through the bakery... just like grandma used to make!

Write a holiday letter to a soldier! f Facebook.com/GingerBettyBakery

Call today! 617-472-4729 | www.gingerbettys.com | 215 Samoset Ave. Quincy

*The Inn at Bay Pointe's
Christmas Gift to you
Purchase a $50 Gift Card for $40
(20% discount)*

Inn At Bay Pointe

64 Washington Court, QUINCY • 617-472-3200

Quincy's House of Flowers
FAMILY OWNED & OPERATED SINCE 1971
704 SOUTHERN AVENUE • QUINCY, MASS. 02169
(617) 773-0638

Thomas Kinkadee's Winter Wonder

*Make Us a Part of Your Holiday Celebration Now &
Throughout the Year!*

Monthly Floral Arrangement
Gift Packages for 2013:
THE PERFECT GIFT THIS
HOLIDAY SEASON!
Call for Details

Sign Up for FREE coupons, daily specials and more!

SHOP
Local
for the Holidays!

The Quincy Chamber of Commerce's Shop Local program is a great way to support the local economy and find savings at the same time this holiday season!

Visit TheQuincyChamber.com

- 1) Click on the Shop Local icon
- 2) Sign up to receive coupons and daily specials for everything from restaurants, to retail & speciality stores, salons & spas and more!

Call us at 617-471-1700 for more information.

1400 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169 | TheQuincyChamber.com
Find us on facebook facebook.com/thequincychamber

FREE $10
GIFT CARD

when you purchase

$50 worth of GIFT CARDS

(until Dec. 31, 2012)

VILIA
Rosa

Restaurant & Lounge
FINE ITALIAN FOOD

'Party Platters for celebrating the Holidays'

go to villarosaquincy.com

705 Adams St., Quincy • Free Parking • 617-773-0095

Hours: Sun, Noon - 1am / Mon-Sat, 11-1am

Like us on Facebook

*A Christmas Twinkler That
Will Last for Years!*

Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers

52 Billings Rd. No. Quincy 617-328-0084

Holiday Gift Guide

The Gift Garden

Tis the season to shop!

Come explore our great selection of gifts including stylish scarves and handbags handcrafted jewelry and fragrances Carolers, musicals and fabulous ornaments

Gifts for the holidays and all occasions

Visit us at the second level of the Milton Marketplace
Convenient parking and complimentary gift packaging
617.696.6644

Farm Direct Roses

(Assorted Colors while supplies last)

$19.99
per dozen

CLIFFORD'S FLOWERS

1229 Hancock St.

617-479-8884

CHRISTINE'S DAY SPA & ELECTROLOGY

Gift Certificates
Available Online for Men & Women

go to www.quincyspa.com

65 Willard St., Quincy • 617-786-1620

332 Victory Road,
Marina Bay, MA 02171
617 471-3511

FREE $25.00 GIFT CARD

for every $100.00 in gift cards purchased

(offer expires 12/25/12)

Holiday Table Linens
Scented Candles
Cashmere Wraps
Leather Totes
& iPad Cases
Haute Fashion
Jewelry and so much more...

Complimentary ~Gift Wrap~

304 Victory Rd., Marina Bay on the Boardwalk

THE POTTING BENCH

FLORIST & GARDEN CENTER

139 Howard St.
Braintree (off Quincy Ave.)

781-843-7111

www.thepottingbench.net

Open 7 Days

Daily Delivery

10% OFF
Any Purchase

(with Coupon • expires 12/31/12)

Holiday Centerpieces
Fresh & Silk Wreaths

Swags, Roping

Tabletop Trees

Kissing Balls

Boxwood Trees

Gifts & Greens

Special Orders, Call Early

The Four's Restaurant

FREE $20 GIFT CARD WHEN YOU
PURCHASE $100 IN GIFT CARDS

HAVE A HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON

15 Cottage Avenue
Quincy • 617-471-4447

certificates available on-line
www.the4ours.com

285 Washington Street
Norwell • 781-659-4414

166 Canal Street
Boston • 617-720-4455

Happy Holidays from the Fowler House

Restaurant & Pub

617-773-9000

www.fowlerhousecafe.com

1049 Hancock St., Quincy, MA

FREE $10.00 Gift Card
with every $50.00
gift card purchase

FREE $20.00 Gift Card
with every $100.00
gift card purchase

offer expires 12/31/12

Santa Schedules A Stop At Hancock Park

Santa was full of mischief and merriment on a recent visit to Hancock Park Rehabilitation & Nursing Center to check on the holiday wishes of residents.

The Quincy Welch

Healthcare & Retirement Group continuum of care includes the short-term rehabilitation and long-term care center; a specialized Alzheimer's Care center, and an intimate 42-apartment assisted living residence within one building.

This gathering for residents and families is just one of the many social activities planned throughout the month of December.

SANTA CLAUS shares the Christmas Spirit with Hancock Park resident Anna Sullivan at the nursing center's recent Holiday Christmas Celebration.

A DELIGHTED Hancock Park Rehabilitation & Nursing Center resident Marjorie Lawler shares a moment with Santa Claus at the community's holiday celebration.

HANCOCK PARK resident Jean Campo (left) is all smiles during the holiday celebration with her daughter Nanette Campo.

2-for-1
Assisted Living
Short Stay
*Stay for 2 Weeks,
pay for Only
1 Week!

Over 60 Years of Quality Service
Welch
HEALTHCARE AND
RETIREMENT GROUP

A tradition of quality care
from our family to yours

Allerton House

Assisted Living Community
at Hancock Park

Enjoy our:

- Caring, personal approach
- Genuine interest in your family
- Fully furnished apartments
- Excellent dining options
- Fun holiday activities

Reserve your apartment today.

Call Kelly at: 339-788-2979

164 Parkway • Quincy, MA 02169

www.welchhrg.com

THE HOLIDAYS are a family affair for the Reardons. Featured here (L to R) in the front row are: Maggie Reardon, 12, granddaughter of Hancock Park resident Janet Barry and her grandson Jack Reardon, 7. In the back row are Ms. Barry's daughter, and her husband, Jeannine and Joe Reardon.

HANCOCK PARK RESIDENT Marjorie Lawler and her son, Bob Lawler, enjoy the Quincy rehabilitation and nursing center's recent Holiday Christmas Celebration.

NORTH QUINCY Goalie Nolan Greene watches the puck during a recent scrimmage against Milton High School at Quincy Youth Arena. The junior was the starting goalie for the Quincy 16-and-Under team that won the state title this fall. Quincy Sun Photos/Lisa Aimola

CAPTAIN SEAN GRADY (right) led the Red Raiders in scoring last year and figures to be one of North Quincy's offensive bright spots this season. Here he looks to make a pass behind the Milton High School net in a recent scrimmage. Story on Page 22.

Red Raiders Shooting For Big Prize - A State Title

By BILL GRIFFIN

North Quincy has made hockey history the past two years.

The Red Raiders have taken home consecutive league championships for the first time in school history, they have earned a place in the conversation of the elite with the Duxburys, Pembroke and Scituate of the hockey world, and they have proved they can play and play well in the stern test of the state tourney.

This winter, North would like to take the history a step further. The Red Raiders want to make the budding tradition richer and move deeper into the tournament towards the ultimate prize which is the....

"State title," smiled coach Matt Gibbons. "Why not shoot for the big prize? First there is the league. We'd like to be the first North team to win three straight, we want to qualify for the tourney, and go deep into the tourney if we get there. We're excited about the team"

North was 13-6-3 last year. The Red Raiders tied with Duxbury for first place in the Patriot League. North beat Coyle-Cassidy and Canton (in an unforgettable shootout) before losing to Mansfield in the semifinals of the Division 2 South sectionals. It was a great ride and North wants to be playing hockey in March again this season.

"We have motivated kids and so far in the practices and scrimmages, we have looked pretty good. It's a long road though and the league comes first," said Gibbons.

North's scouting report is the exact opposite of what it was a year ago. Last season, the Red Raiders were backboned by two-time league All Star goalie James Dunn and five solid veteran defensemen. They could certainly defend, but could they score? This year Dunn and four of the defensemen are gone, but there is proven firepower up front. North will surely score, but can the Red Raiders play the strong, consistent defense tournament teams must play?

"It's completely different than it was a year ago," said Gibbons. "Last year our offense was the question. This year we have the ability to score a ton of goals, but we have to prove ourselves on defense."

North's top four scorers and five of its top six forwards return. The first line is dynamite. Center Sean Grady led the Red Raiders with 33 points last year, was a league all star, and can set up and score in bunches. Junior Andrew Currie is on one wing. He scored 10 goals in North's last 12 games, eight of which tied or gave the Red Raiders the lead. Senior captain Nick McGaughey was the second on the team with 25 points and is the perfect complement on the other wing. He is tough. He hands out big hits, screens in front and wins the one-on-one battles along the boards.

"Sean is the player other teams have to focus on," said Gibbons. "Andrew has a natural scoring touch and Nick is one the toughest kids in the league. He rarely loses any one-on-one battles."

There is speed on the second line. Center Pat Verhault can fly. Freshman Timmy Glynn is an impressive freshman who brings speed and skill to one wing and Robbie Cameron, who was the team's fourth leading scorer despite playing just 12 games a year ago, is a solid checker on the other side.

"Pat is very fast," said Gibbons. "Robbie is another tough kid who can score and Glynn has a lot of potential as a young player."

There is a battle for spots on the third line. Junior James Doherty, Bobby Harding, John McEvilly, Sean Farnham, Brendan Cox, sophomore Mike Finn and Andrew Kiley give the Red Raiders depth and competition for playing time. They can all play and it's surely better to have too many than too few.

"It's very good problem to have. All of them are in the mix for us," said Gibbons.

The defense begins with the goal tending and Gibbons likes junior Nolan Greene. He's tall, moves well side-to-side, and can make both the routine and exceptional save. He was the starting goalie for the Quincy 16-and-under team which won the state title this fall.

"He's is the same position James (Dunn) was in," said Gibbons. "He's a junior and he's being asked to play varsity with very little experience. I'll think he'll be fine. Nobody works harder than he does and he gained a lot of experience this fall. Senior Matt Capabianco will push Nolan and Matt will play for us this year."

Senior Rudy Tryon is the one proven veteran defenseman who returns for North. He will anchor the defense and he will play many minutes. He has a great shot, he's strong in front of the net, moves the puck well out of his zone, and will play on the power-play and penalty-killing units.

"He was one of only two Division 2 kids to make the Team Massachusetts squad. The rest were from the Catholic Conference," said Gibbons. "He the strongest kid in our league. I trust him in both the offensive and defensive zones. He keeps everything clear in front of the net. He'll probably see more ice time than anyone on the team."

Seniors Brendan Brady, Rory O'Connor, Ryan Mock, Ryan Martin, Josh Hayward and sophomore Matt Monahan will all see action on defense.

"Monahan and Martin

THE SPEEDY Pat Verhault, one of North Quincy's captains, carries the puck during a scrimmage against Milton.

had some experience last year. The other players are up from the JV and should help," said Gibbons.

The key to the season is clearly how quickly the defense develops. Gibbons made it clear that it is a team issue, not one confined to defensemen and goalies. It starts with the forwards and it starts with forechecking.

"Our forechecking has to be good. We have to stop teams before they get started," said Gibbons. "The forwards also have to skate their lanes and get back on defense. It is a team thing and it is huge for us."

Gibbons sees a strong league with Duxbury, Scituate, and Pembroke as talented contenders.

"I think Hanover will be better and Whitman-Hanson is strong. Quincy has good young talent," said Gibbons.

North opens its season Saturday, Dec. 15 at home against Canton (don't forget that tourney thriller from last season) at 8:15 p.m.

VOICE FOR HEALTH

by Dr. Gabrielle Freedman
Chiropractor

HIGH-TECH POSTURING

Chiropractors promote good posture as a means of keeping the bones and joints in correct alignment, reducing stress on ligaments that hold spinal joints together, allowing muscles to work most efficiently, and preventing muscle strain and overuse disorders. It is therefore both somewhat validating and very interesting that two Swiss designers have developed a high-tech way to promote correct posture. Their design is a net-like vest that places sensors at various positions against the wearer's body. The sensors vibrate, much like a mobile phone does, to give wearers feedback about their posture. Aside from encouraging people to hold their bodies in the preferred postures, the wearable sensors may also have applications for athletes and autistic individuals.

Today's informative column on high-tech advances has been brought to you as a public service. Research supports chiropractic. It works - it's safe - it saves time and money. We believe chiropractic is an effective alternative treatment for a number of conditions such as lower back pain, herniated disk, sciatica, neck pain, and headaches. At FAMILY PRACTICE OF CHIROPRACTIC, we address the cause, not just the symptoms. Please call 617.472.4220 to schedule an appointment. We're located at 112 McGrath Hwy., Quincy. We offer computerized spinal scans. With chiropractic care you have nothing to lose and everything to gain, especially your health. If your problem is a chiropractic condition we offer you exceptional service.

P.S. Chiropractic treatment helps patients overcome joint problems that have arisen out of long- and short-term postural problems.

Check us out on facebook:
<http://www.facebook.com/familypracticeofchiropractic>
www.freedmanchiro.com

SENIOR CAPTAIN Chris Andrews centers Quincy's first line with wingers Patrick Donovan and Sophomore Brian O'Callaghan. Here Andrews battles for the puck with a Norwell forward.

QUINCY DEFENSEMAN Matt Kozlowski (No. 11) and goalie Ryan Higgins protect the Presidents' net in a scrimmage against Norwell.

Improving Presidents Show Depth, Teamwork

By BILL GRIFFIN

Last season Quincy was a young, inexperienced hockey team which won two games. This year the young part is still accurate, but not so much the inexperienced.

The Presidents gained priceless seasoning playing at varsity speed a year ago and coach Tim Lewis hopes that it translates into victories this winter.

"I could see the improvement in leaps and bounds by the end of last year," said Lewis. "We're still young. We only have two seniors, but last year was a baptism of fire on the varsity level and it helped the kids get better. They got used to the speed and physicality of varsity hockey and that will help us. We'll be better."

The strong points for Quincy are depth and teamwork which can only grow from playing together on the varsity. The Presidents will skate three lines and six defensemen. Many of the combinations will flourish from the unspoken, almost unseen, connection which develops between players who know each other because they have played varsity hockey with each other.

"Most teams struggle to put together a third line. We're confident in ours," said Lewis. "We also have kids who played hockey together and they know each other. That only comes from experience."

It always begins with goal tending and Lewis is pleased with sophomore Ryan Higgins who has good size, knows the angles and plays a solid positional game. Senior Anthony Totomaro is a solid backup.

"Ryan could be a real strength for us," said Lewis. "He moves the puck well and communicates with the defense."

Senior captain Chris Andrews centers junior Patrick Donovan and sophomore Brian O'Callaghan on the first line. The unit is fast, disciplined and has developed a good chemistry which should mean more goals.

"I'm very comfortable with them as our first line," said Lewis. "I think they can score and the potential for some real firepower is there."

Junior Mike Pugsley is a smart playmaker who centers the second line. Sophomore Patrick Freeman and promising freshman Jake Hallisey are on the wings.

"Pugsley is an intelligent player who can pass the puck," said Lewis. "Both wingers can score and Hallisey has big-time potential. He wins the one-on-one battles and plays well away from the puck."

Sophomore Aidan Pugsley centers junior Mike Gendreau and Ryan Harty on the third line.

"They're very consistent and they play with intensity. They can match up well with any team's third line," said Lewis.

Sean Brennick and Jo Jo McArdle will also see action up front.

On defense, juniors Matt Kozlowski and Matt Davis are talented players and a perfect example of what only experience can bring. They are three-year varsity players and they know each other. Kozlowski is a strong, physical player and Davis is a fine skater. The skills and the players fit as a unit.

"They click well together because they know what each other is going to do," said Lewis. "Kozlowski is strong in front of the net and Davis moves the puck well."

Assistant captain Jim Brennick and sophomore Stephen Ross form Quincy's second unit on defense.

"Brennick is a smart player, a leader for us," said Lewis. "Ross is one of the best skaters on the team and handles the puck well."

SOPHOMORE FORWARD Ryan Harty heads up for Quincy in a recent scrimmage against Norwell at the Quincy Youth Arena. Story below.

Sophomore Brandon Beal and John Quirk form an effective pair to give the Presidents enviable depth on defense.

"We feel we have six quality defensemen," said Lewis.

The Presidents are obviously aiming for more wins, but the focus is still on development and improvement.

"Our goals will be to get ready for the next opponent and improve every game. I've seen some good leadership skills for our players in practice, so I think we'll stay focused," said Lewis.

There will be rough patches along the way and how well the Presidents deal with them will be one of the keys to a successful season.

"We are going to have some tough spots, and it's how we handle the adversity that matters," said Lewis.

"Everything is not going to go our way, but if we can just concentrate on our next game and get ready, I think we'll be fine."

Quincy opens with three straight road games against Everett (Dec. 12), Oliver Ames (Dec. 15), and Whitman Hanson (Dec. 19) before coming home to meet North Quincy is the first round of the Christmas Tourney on Dec. 26. One of the Quincy's wins last year came in a memorable upset of North in the Christmas Tourney.

Some Positives From Quincy, NQ Scrimmages

Each coach saw something he liked in a pair of scrimmages at the Quincy Youth Hockey Arena last week.

Quincy coach Tim Lewis saw the resilience he hopes his club will show all season. The Presidents rallied from one-goal deficits three times before falling to Norwell, 4-3 on a score with less than two minutes left in the game.

North Quincy coach Matt Gibbons saw the forechecking and goaltending his team will need to support its strong offense. Nolan Green and Mike Capabianco each played well in net before Milton scored a pair of late goals for 5-2 decision.

"I thought we showed the ability to come back which is important for us this year," said Lewis.

"Both goalies were good. We forechecked well and forced chances for the first two periods," said Gibbons.

After Norwell went up 1-0 on a rebound early in the first, freshman Jake Hallisey deflected home a wrist shot from the point by Brian O'Callaghan.

Norwell went up 2-1 in the second, but O'Callaghan tied it at 2-2 early in the third by finishing a great feed from Chris Andrews.

After Norwell took a 3-2 lead, Quincy came back one more time with just over 2:00 left when Hallisey finished a perfect pass from Patrick Freeman.

Norwell scored the winner just 30 seconds later. Freeman, Hallisey, and Steve Ross stormed the net and hit a post in the final seconds but could not get the equalizer.

"We came back and played a strong third period," said Lewis.

Ryan Higgins played a solid game in goal for the Presidents. Norwell scored on three rebounds and a perfect 2-on-1 break. The Presidents also showed excellent penalty killing, especially in the first period when they played two men short for over a minute and did not give up a good scoring chance.

"Higgins played well. His job is to stop the first shot, not worry about the rebounds," said Lewis.

North took a 1-0 lead when defenseman Ryan Martin grabbed a loose puck and drove a hard shot into the top corner 19 seconds into the game. After Milton tied it 1-1, Nick McGaughey connected on a hard shot from the slot after a fine rush by Sean Grady for a 2-1 lead late in the first.

Milton, who went to the Division I state finals a year ago, scored twice in the second and twice in the third.

Green was especially sharp in the second with stops on two point-blank shot and two breakaways. Capabianco was steady in third for the Red Raiders.

"Mike played well. One of the goals against him was a fluke and the other was on a breakdown on our part," said Gibbons. "We still have to get used to playing hockey with each other before we'll be sharp."

By BILL GRIFFIN

2 LARGE $15.99*

CHEESE PIZZAS

TOPPINGS EXTRA

*Must present Coupon at time of Order

*Must Mention Coupon When Ordering

$2.00 OFF*

ANY ORDER OF $18

OR MORE CASH ONLY

*Cannot Be Combined With Any Other Coupon or Offer

*Must Mention Coupon When Ordering

OPEN: 7 Days

525 Sea St., Quincy

617-479-2300

Boys' BasketballRed Raiders Give Brockton All It Can HandleBy BILL GRIFFIN

In most cases a coach learns little about his ball club in the season's opener. This year, North Quincy's basketball team is the exception to the rule.

"I learned about our perseverance and our ability to compete on the road against a high-caliber team," said North coach Kevin Barrett about his club's 53-52 loss last week to Brockton who made the Division 1 State Finals last winter.

This was no fluke. North was there the entire game. The Red Raiders led for most of the first half. They were up by seven with just over 3 minutes left, by 3 with 30 seconds remaining, and by one in the final seven seconds. They had their best shooter with a clean look as the buzzer sounded and the shot went deep into the rim and spun out. They were that close to a stunning win over a team which has been an eternal force in the state tourney.

"I liked our composure and toughness as well," said Barrett. "Brockton is a perennial power. The atmosphere was more like what you would see in February or March and it says something that we can play well in a hostile environment."

Much of the drama was packed into the last four minutes. North upped the intensity of its trademark defensive intensity to fuel an 8-0 run which produced a seven-point lead.

"We went to a three-quarter trap and it sped them up and forced turnovers," said Barrett.

Meanwhile, the Red Raiders were frantically engaging in makeshift medical care and a wardrobe change. Senior guard Dan Gould suffered a bloody nose. Obviously, a player who is bleeding cannot play. However, the rules also state that a player can't play if there is blood on his uniform.

"Dan got whacked on the nose and we just couldn't get it to stop bleeding," said Barrett. "I burnt a timeout to give him time, but it kept bleeding. When it finally stopped there was blood on his uniform, so we had to find a JV jersey for him. He missed about three possessions."

North carried the lead into the final minute when an improbable four-point play put Brockton up, 51-50 with 30 seconds left. Seconds later junior Kyle Richardson stepped to the line and, with whole world crashing down around him, calmly knocked down two free throws for a one-point North lead.

"And it's not like that was all he did. He played a lot of minutes," said Barrett. "We put him on Brockton's best player (Jaylen Blakely), and Kyle held him scoreless in the second half."

During a timeout with 12 seconds left, Barrett told his team if Brockton scored, push the ball quickly upcourt and look for the open man. The Boxers scored with seven seconds left. Marquis McClendon drove the ball up the right side and found Gould open for a jumper on the left wing. Gould, one of the best shooters on the South Shore, had a great look and release. It went in and rimmed out. It was that close.

"Danny had a great look. He makes that shot seven times out of ten," said Barrett.

One of Barrett's pre-season concerns was rebounding because of inexperience up front. Efthim Butka was a steady inside presence with 10 points and eight rebounds, but what powered North's effort off the boards was Barrett's philosophy of gang rebounding. Everybody went after the basketball. The guards, the forwards, and the center rebounded. McClendon stood out with 18 points and seven rebounds, but he had plenty of help from his friends.

"Kyle, Danny and Pat Gould all had six or seven rebounds. We have to rebound as a team," said Barrett.

There are always things that show in the opener which can be improved. The Red Raiders went to the bucket hard enough to earn 25 free throws. However, they only made 16. Barrett would like to see more accuracy.

"Our goal is to shoot 70 per cent from the line, so we can improve there. We also had some turnovers, but I thought we cleaned them up in the second half," he said.

Still, despite the defeat, the opener showed how good North can be.

"We can use it as measuring stick as to how well we can play, but we have to do hard work and improve every game," he said.

Quincy-North Quincy Goal: State TournamentBy JEFF OHLSON

With the winter sports season beginning, the Quincy-North Quincy girls' hockey team is ready for the upcoming season. This will be the team's first season under new coach Stephen Burgio and he believes the sky is the limit for his team.

"We want to get into the tournament, which is basically 500 or 10 wins. We can do it, I believe we have the talent needed to meet that goal and succeed it," said Burgio.

The team that Coach Burgio is taking over has talent and leadership, but hasn't seen it come together in recent years as they missed the tournament each of the last two seasons. Coach Burgio thinks his senior players can make sure that everyone comes together to achieve a winning season.

"Leah Ryan, Kennedy Harding, Briana Mullaney, and Katie White are my four captains and they are all hard workers," said Burgio. "I really need the leadership out of them on and off the ice to show the other girls what it's like to play stand up hockey, try hard all the time and maximize your efforts."

Coming into their first game against Dennis Yarmouth Saturday, Q-NQ rose to the level of their competition in the first two periods but fell behind late in the game and couldn't recover, losing 6-2. Although it was a tough loss for the girls, Coach Burgio took a lot from the defeat.

"There is a lot of positives to take from this. We got a lot of seniors working hard and teaching our younger players the next level of hockey and that's great because we got a lot of young talent coming up behind the seniors and next year we will be even younger," said Burgio.

Girls' Ice Hockey

"These kids haven't had a whole lot of experience together. We haven't had a ton of practice time and there were no scrimmages so we were shaking some rust off tonight and playing well I thought. We just fell short at the end. I'm not disappointed; the girls did the best they could."

Not lost in the defeat was the performance of goalie Erin McGinnis, who played very well all the way through the game making a series of unbelievable saves in the first period to keep the game tied at 1-1.

"She stood on her head and kept us in it as best she could, they just spent a lot of time in our zone and even when they were there getting a lot of shots, Erin was making all the saves and giving us a chance to get the puck out. I mean it was 2-2 late into the game so she definitely gave us a chance to win it," said Burgio.

Q-NQ's first goal came from one of their seniors as Briana Mullany notched her first goal of the season on a rebound to tie the game at 1-1 in the first and almost had two more goals later in the game. As good as Mullany was in the teams first game, Coach Burgio sees more pieces stepping up going forward.

"Offensively, we have a few key players. Julia Donovan with Kennedy Harding is going to be a strong first line and they have a chance to really do damage all season long. In the second line, we have Leah Ryan at center and Madison Hally at forward, which is another tandem that should cause issues for any team we face," said Burgio.

Dennis-Yarmouth scored three of its goals in the final two minutes of the game to put away Quincy and as a result the game looks a lot less competitive than it really was.

"We were in it all night. They just happened to pull away at the very end there. We feel like that's one that we ultimately could have had," said Burgio.

Coach Burgio knows the type of team he wants to build and where his team will need to improve as the season continues.

"I want my team playing smart hockey. Limiting mistakes and learning to adapt on the fly and cover all the zones, and I want my players to be fluid and play where I need them," said Burgio.

Although starting off 0-1 wasn't part of the plan, Coach Burgio sees his team heading in a good direction.

"We're getting them almost to where we want them. I really think it will all come together. I feel that we have a strong team and that we can compete with anyone" said Burgio. "We just need to get where we need to be in a few areas and we will be good."

Quincy-North Quincy girls' hockey visited Whitman-Hanson Wednesday for an away game at 5 p.m. and hosts Hanover Saturday at 6:40 p.m. at Quincy Youth Arena.

Quincy Youth Basketball Highlights

Here are some of the highlights from Quincy Youth Basketball games for games played Dec. 2.

Boys, Grades 6-8

Tied at the half at 24 and at the end of regulation at 50, Falco & Associates triumphed over Christ Church Quincy 58-50. Top scorers for Falco & Associates were Ryan Ahola with a game high 23 and Angelo DePaulo with 16. Conor Ainsley and Ben Gaudiano played well. Scoring for Christ Church Quincy were Kyle Boudreau with 17 and Aidan Golden with 12.

Damyan Markov poured in 17 points as George Trigger Burke conquered Covais Law 42-27. Also scoring for George Trigger Burke were Taren Chen with 10 points followed by Sean Griffin with 9. Ty Finn and Nolan Curran contributed to the win. Albi Biba, Luke Molloy and John Kamb each scored four points for Covais Law.

Nicholas Maberry's 16 points helped Everett Square Sporting Goods edge past Roche Bros. 42-37. Also scoring for Everett Square Sporting Goods was Domenic Coleman with 10 points and Damon "DJ" Dubose with nine. Scoring for Roche Bros. were Stephen Cobble with 10 points and Dillon Richardson and Ryan Manning with nine each.

Four three-pointers by Frankie Nunziato were not enough as Joe Finn Club topped Westfield Capital Management 53-37. Kwame Awudo, Jr. scored a team high 16 points for Joe Finn Club. Also scoring were Kyle Cabezas with 11 and Remy Chebbo with nine. In addition to Frankie Nunziato, scorers for Westfield Capital Management included Sammy Cordahi, Michael Dockrey and Owen Carberry.

Colonial Federal fell to Katz, Rudnick & Sullivan 47-32. Jake Latini scored 11 points, Tommy Kelly scored nine and Jacob Bianculi scored eight for Katz, Rudnick & Sullivan. Stephen Andrews scored 10 points and Mark Malloy scored nine for Colonial Federal.

Boys, Grades 3-5

Mariano A.C. edged out Chetwynd Club 33-20. Scoring for Mariano A.C. were Peyton McGaffigan with 16 and Tyler Le with seven. Kellen Kopo, Kyle Murphy, Justin Pires and Matthew McGourty played well for Mariano A.C. Scoring 10 points for Chetwynd Club was Jared Szeto along with Michael Chambers and Matthew McCratic, each scoring four points. Jacob Howe, Jacob Lustig, William MacDonald, Ryan Chetwynd and Bryson Dunbar played well for Chetwynd Club.

Torre Dei Passeri Social Club flew past the Falcons 18-7. Gent Haviari scored eight points for Torre Dei Passeri and Benny Nguyen added six points and Adam Higgins and Eric Mayo each contributed two. Paul Dumont, Sam Wong and Ben Fehan played well. Ethan Pham scored four points for the Falcons and Jake Burke and Solomon Bonilla also scored. Scotty Gutro, Brandon Lin, Patrick Bates, Brian Gutro, José Betancourt and

Cont'd On Page 24

George Burke Attends Record69th Quincy-North Quincy Football Game

Quincy attorney George Burke attended his 69th consecutive Quincy-North Quincy football game on Thanksgiving Day, which is a record.

The holder of the most games attended is the late Elmer "Mike" Fagerlund who was a Quincy assessor. He holds the record for most games attended in the storied rivalry that reached 80 games this year but Fagerlund's streak of attended games was interrupted by World War II while he served his country.

Burke was also among the inductees in the Quincy Football Hall of Fame this year. He is a member of the Quincy High School Basketball Hall of Fame and the Quincy High School Baseball Hall of Fame.

Burke is also a member of the Thayer Academy Hall of Fame and the University of Massachusetts Hall of Fame and the New England Basketball Hall of Fame. His #32 is retired at the University of Massachusetts and the UMass Hall of Fame is named after him.

Quincy Youth Hoop Highlights

Cont'd From Page 23

Vineeth Chandrapu played well for the Falcons.

Powered by Aaron O'Toole's 23 points, Harvard Pilgrim sneaked past the Pumas 37-34 despite Thomas Arrigal's 20 points for the Pumas. Sean O'Toole and Matt Kelly scored eight and six points, respectively, and Teodor Janiga, Joe Schepis, Brandon Pham, Charlie Codner, James Devarie and Aldo Elizi played well for Harvard Pilgrim. Also scoring for the Pumas were Owen Coppola with six points and Ryan Naili and Joseph Russell with four points apiece. Nezar Baghough, Joe Connor, Steven Nguyen, Adnan Baghough and Andrew Feterowski played well for the Pumas.

Dennis Sweeney Funeral Home conquered Healy Family 21-14. Steve Dall scored 13 points, Kevin Ferent scored six points and Jackson Murphy added two. Grant Murphy, Jonathan Bina, Ty Eaton, Iain Gillespie, Andrew Kabilian, Stanley Chen and Jake Zhu played well for Dennis Sweeney Funeral Home. Scoring the only points for Healy Family were Ben Blow (11 points), Emmett Bandzak (2 points) and Adam Manter (1 point). Clayton Corley, Ethan Gao, Quangvinh Tran, Joshua Alves, Jake Galligan and Eric Manter played well for Healy Family.

Girls, Grades 3-5

Doggie Style Salon edged out Quincy Sun 26-21. Caitlin Ainsley and Ashelyn Moniz each scored eight points followed by Melissa Ainsley with eight points and Makayla Carini and Jennifer Segale with two points each. Julia O'Leary, Shea Pascarelli, Disha Shetty, Hailey Smith and Julianna Beane played well for Doggie Style Salon. Kayla Larkin-Goldman scored a game high 12 points for Quincy Sun, Adriana Moosick added three points and Lauren Medeiros, Emma O'Neil and Samantha Brown each added two points. Playing well for Quincy Sun were Jessica Lustig, Jamie McAleavey, and Kristin Shalvey.

Girls, Grades 6-8

Quincy Credit Union toppled Rep. Bruce Ayers 25-19. Among the scorers for Quincy Credit Union were Joanna Rafti (8), Mary Kate McAleavey (7), and Madelyn Gill (4). Lindsay Sheridan, Anna Scolaro and Ashley Totten each added two points. Journey Strouble played well defensively. The sole scorers for Rep. Bruce Ayers were Emily Butruccio with 10 points and Megan Lyons with nine points. Eve Anderson, Laura Butruccio, Julianne Gazzola, Mariam Hassan, Rachel Higgins, Emily Al-Khatib, Dana Alrifai, Wendy Vasquez and Brigitte Vasquez played well.

Elks Free Throw Contest Begins Saturday

The Quincy Recreation Department and the Quincy Lodge of Elks will again co-sponsor the Elks' National 'Hoop Shoot' Free Throw Contest.

The Quincy competition is the first step in a national contest for Boys and Girls age 8-13. Contestants are assigned to three separate categories in both boys and girls divisions. Age groups are 8-9, 10-11, and 12-13. The contestant's age is determined by April 1, 2013.

Recreation Department Learn To Ice Skate Program

The Quincy Recreation Department will conduct an eight-week program of Ice Skating Lessons with two classes on Wednesday afternoons at the Quincy Youth Arena.

The Learn to Skate program offers boys and girls age 6-14 the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of skating.

Registration begins today (Thursday). Walk-in registration will take place at the main office at the Quincy Recreation Department located at One Merrymount Parkway from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays as long as openings exist.

Online registration can be done on the Department website, www.QuincyRec.com.

The program will have two separate classes beginning at 3:10 and 4:05 p.m. on Wednesdays starting Jan. 9. Both classes offer the same levels of instruction and run for eight weeks.

The cost of the program is $68 for the eight-week session, which includes instruction and ice time.

Participants need to provide their own skates, which may be figure, or hockey skates with a single blade.

For more information, call the Quincy Recreation Department at 617-376-1394, or online at QuincyRec.com.

A funeral Mass for Geraldine R. Walsh, 84, of Cambridge, formerly of Quincy, will be celebrated Friday at 11 a.m. in Saint John the Baptist Church, 44 School St., Quincy.

Ms. Walsh died peacefully Sunday at the Cambridge Rehabilitation and Nursing Center.

Born and raised in Boston, she was educated in Boston schools and had lived in Cambridge for many years, previously in Quincy.

She was a former waitress. She enjoyed music and drawing.

Paul E. Grady, 69 Vietnam Veteran, Painting Contractor

A prayer service for Paul Edward Grady, 69, of Mission Hill, was held Tuesday at the Hamel, Wickens and Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams St., Quincy.

Mr. Grady died Dec. 7.

Born in Boston, he was the son of the late John R. and Edna (Lucey) Grady.

Mr. Grady served his Country honorably in the U.S. Air Force during the Vietnam War. He owned his own painting company and worked as a painting contractor.

Devoted mother of James J. DiStefano and his wife Susan of East Meadow, NY, John G. DeStefano and his wife Peggy of CA.

Also survived by several grandchildren, great grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

She was the last of seven siblings.

Visiting hours are Friday from 10 to 11 a.m. at the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment will be in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

More Obituaries
On Pages 28-31
and Online at
www.thequincysun.com

Each participant is awarded points for successful free throws. The boys and girls in age group 8-9 will shoot from a line four feet in front of the regulation foul line.

The program will be supervised in neighbor gymnasiums by their Quincy Recreation Leaders assigned to their regular recreation programs in the area.

The program is free and contestants may participate even if not previously enrolled in the Recreation Program. Participants may choose any of the various times or sites to compete; however they may only compete in Quincy qualifier. ram for the benefit of our participants.

Recreation Director Barry Welch noted this is the 40th year of the program.

"Many Quincy residents in the past have enjoyed the benefits of this activity at the local, regional and state level as well as the national championship. In 2010, two Quincy residents were crowned state champions.

"The Elks devote a great deal of attention to youth programs. Their commitment to our children help make Quincy a better place to live. Last year over 50,000 children took part nationwide.

The Quincy Lodge Hoop Shoot Chairman is Ed Miller, retired the Athletic Director of Quincy Public Schools.

The first round of the Quincy Contest will be offered at the following Gymnasiums at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Dec. 15

Atherton Hough, Atlantic Middle, Bernazzani, Beechwood Knoll, Merrymount, Montclair, Point Webster, Snug Harbor and Squantum.

The program will be conducted at 3 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 19th at the Marshall School; Wednesday, Dec. 19th at 3 p.m. at the Parker School; and Friday, Dec. 21st at 3 p.m. at the Lincoln Hancock School.

For additional information, call the Quincy Recreation Department at 617-376-1394.

Toufic 'John' Hajjar, 85 Founder Hajjar's Big & Tall Clothing

Funeral services for Toufic "John" Hajjar, 85, of Quincy, founder of Hajjar's Big & Tall Men's Clothing, was held Wednesday in Annunciation Melkite Cathedral, 7 VFW Parkway, West Roxbury.

Mr. Hajjar died at home Dec. 8 while surrounded by his loving family.

Born on Oct. 27, 1927 in Kaitouly, Lebanon, he immigrated to the U.S. and settled in Quincy where he raised his five children alongside his loving wife of 64 years, Linda.

He was passionate about his charitable endeavors including the Foundation Fighting Blindness, St. Jude, Father Bill's Place, the World Lebanese Cultural Union Boston chapter and Our Lady of the Annunciation Church.

From the time he arrived in the United States, Mr. Hajjar was an entrepreneur. He began his first business selling fruits and vegetables to the local community. He segued into the clothing industry when he began selling clothes to the workers at the Quincy Point shipyard. He got to know his customers personally and enjoyed the everyday interaction with the people he met.

In 1950, he founded Hajjar's Big & Tall Men's Clothing. What began as a single store in Quincy grew to five retail stores.

For years beyond his official retirement, Mr. Hajjar was actively involved in the day-to-day operations of the company and enjoyed serving his customers, many of whom he knew by name. He passed the lead role in the company on to his son, Steven, who carries on the great work his father began. Several other family members, spanning three generations, have also been employed at Hajjar's Big and Tall.

In 2011, Mr. Hajjar was honored by the City of Quincy for his decades of outstanding citizenship, and generosity to the city he called home for 64 years.

He leaves behind a legacy of generosity, kindness and love for family. There is no better example of the TOUFIC 'JOHN' HAJJAR, success of the American Dream. He will be forever missed.

Mr. Hajjar is remembered not only by his beloved wife Linda, but also by his five children: Louise and her husband David Densmore, of Braintree; Michael and his wife Asma of Quincy; Susan of Hingham; Steven and his wife Jean of Cohasset; and Marianne of Quincy.

He will be deeply missed by his six grandchildren, Michelle Densmore, Jessica Densmore, Michael Hajjar, Danielle Hajjar, Elias Dagher and Nicole Hajjar. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews both in the U.S. and Lebanon.

He was the brother of the late Najib Hajjar and sister-in-law Antoinette, and is also survived by his five sisters, all of Lebanon: Marie and her husband Emile Hajjar; Milia and her late husband Ibrahim Hajjar; Alice and her late husband George Hajjar; Souad and her husband Joseph Youakim; Jamal and her late husband John Youakim.

He is survived by his wife Linda's siblings: Julia of Quincy; Mabel and her late husband Ferris of Quincy; and Sidney and his wife Evalynne of Milton.

Burial was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Foundation Fighting Blindness, PO Box 17279, Baltimore, MD 21297-0495 or Deaf Blind Contact Center, 215 Brighton Avenue, Allston, MA 02134.

Quincy After School Child Care Ribbon Cutting Monday

Quincy After School Child Care will host a ribbon cutting ceremony and holiday open house Monday, Dec. 17 from 3:30 to 5 p.m. at 162 Old Colony Ave., second floor, Quincy.

The ribbon cutting will begin at 3:30 p.m. outside with Mayor Thomas Koch followed by refreshments and holiday cheer in the child care facility's new main office space.

Real Estate

Quincy Real Estate Transactions Dec. 3 - Dec. 7

Seller	Buyer	Amount	Address
Donald W. Kogler	Miao W. Wu & Hai G. Chan	$245,000.00	8 Crest Street
MKM Realty Trust II	Amir Shahbazian & Shahrzad Shahbazian	$310,000.00	300 Congress Street Unit 306
Joseph M. Masciovecchio & Dorothy I. Masciovecchio	BMAT LLC	$112,000.00	51 Randlett Street
40 Larry Place Realty Trust	Barry S. DeFranco & Mary B. DeFranco	$243,500.00	40 Larry Place
Kathryn J. Emerson	Fa Y Zheng	$356,500.00	99 Elmwood Avenue
Willie J. Mandrell & Elena A. Vincent	Besmir Ramaj	$340,000.00	159-161 Independence Avenue
Ekram Hanna & Nancy Hanna	Da Zhang	$225,000.00	200 Cove Way Unit 402-II
Groom Family Trust	Lisa Stewart	$258,000.00	19 Cherry Street
Constance Mele Revocable Trust	Kory Sanstedt & Kristin Gajda	$333,000.00	45 Samoset Avenue
James E. Whitehouse, Sandra J. McGunigle & Susan A. Greene	Fengyan Li & Baoqing	$390,000.00	21 Ellington Road
Ryan N. Stoeckel	Valentina T. Atanassova	$205,000.00	94 Newbury Avenue Unit 315
TR Presidents Place Corp	Quincy Property Owner I LLC	$44,500,000.00	1250 Hancock Street
June M. Daiber	Kin C. Chow	$213,000.00	77 Admas Street Unit 1010
Brian F. Gates, Kelli Gates	Amy Y. Wong	$401,500.00	110 Wilson Avenue
J.A.K. Realty Trust	Zhong Q. Lin & James A. Keller	$462,000.00	9-11 Chester Street
Lacey K. Bowman	Matthew B. Bourque	$284,000.00	10 Seaport Drive Unit 2210
Birchcroft Road Realty Trust	SKEAF Bridge Realty Trust	$730,000.00	30 Parker Street
Henry Wan & Jenny Wan	Allen G. Chin	$145,000.00	200 Newbury Avenue Unit 1
Matthew Soucy & Lauren Soucy	John J. McGlone & Celeste B. McGlone	$305,000.00	45 Hancock Street Unit 202
Nathaniel G. Egan	Jie R. Shen	$380,000.00	51 Edison Street
Lawrence M. Clancy & Bertha T. Clancy	Tong Huang & Jocelyn H. Li	$380,000.00	11 Ring Avenue
Isabella T. Oliveri	James Lerner & Lori Lerner	$314,000.00	68 Upton Street
William J. Colantuone	Hien L. Phan	$351,625.00	26 Harrison Street
Bank of New York Mellon	Gadles Development LLC	$276,799.00	109 Colonial Drive
Keenan Bynum	Michelle L. DiChiara	$354,000.00	750 Williard Street Unit 6A
Charlotte Havle & Karel Havle	Wai M. Fong	$410,500.00	231 Harvard Street
15-21 School Street Realty Trust	Sau H. Cai & Linda L. Nguyen	$700,000.00	15-21A School Street
Teresa Collins & Michael Collins	John G. LeBlanc & Maureen A. Kelly	$489,800.00	22 Churchill Road
81 Dundee Road LLC	Brian Gates & Kelli Gates	$615,000.00	81 Dundee Road
Martin Walsh & Eileen Walsh	Sang A. Che & Hong K. Che	$539,900.00	341 Highland Avenue
Joan M. Gould	Matthew Tinlin & Jean Tinlin	$299,900.00	39 Forbes Hill Road
Sami Mullahi & Mereme Mullahi	Hai Ying Zhang & Hai Ji Luo	$355,000.00	153 South Walnut Street
Maria B. Sivella	Ryan C. Kanzler & Nicole E. Kanzler	$307,000.00	32 Richfield Street
Gail A. Napolitano	Gayle M. Cameron Living Trust & Judith L. Shaw Living Trust	$465,000.00	2001 Marina Drive Unit 409W

Pakistani Dignitaries Visit O'Donnell At Norfolk Registry Of Deeds

Norfolk County Registry of Deeds Bill O'Donnell recently met with Pakistani dignitaries Mujeeb-ur-Rehman and Muhammad Farooq who were touring the United States.

Rehman and Farooq are part of the U.S. - Pakistani Professional Partnership Program for Public Administrators.

The program allows participants from Pakistan the chance to study U.S. public administration and aims to establish structured interaction and develop professional ties between government professionals in both countries.

During their time studying local government in Norwood they stopped by the Norfolk County Registry of Deeds to have a look at some of the ways that county government functions in the U.S.

"I really enjoyed meeting Mr. Rehman and Mr. Farooq during their visit to the Registry," said O'Donnell. "It was a great opportunity to meet with government professionals from another country and to learn about their perspectives on public administration."

The Norfolk County Registry of Deeds, located at 649 High St., Dedham, is the principal office for real property in Norfolk County.

NORFOLK COUNTY REGISTRY of Deeds Bill O'Donnell (right) recently met with dignitaries from Pakistan who were touring the United States to learn about U.S. public administration.

FLAVIN Insurance Agency

Complete Insurance Service Since 1925

OFFERING FLOOD INSURANCE

Winter Rainy Season Can Increase Risk of Flooding

Call or drop in for Premium Quote

Flavin & Flavin

1085 Hancock St. Quincy Center
Visit: www.flavmandflavin.com

617-479-1000

Thinking of buying or selling?
Think of us...

Red Door
Real Estate

222 Sea Street - Quincy

(617) 553-1880

www.RedDoor-RE.com

49 Beale St., Quincy, MA 02170

617-472-4330

www.c21annex.com

Over 70 Seller and Buyer Agents
specializing in Residential, Commercial
Real Estate, Bank Owned Properties,
Short Sales and Rentals

ANNEX REAL ESTATE SCHOOL

Offering Salesperson's, Broker's and Continuing Ed. classes

"STILL NUMBER ONE"

RE/MAX
Realty Pros

Buying, Selling or Investing?
Call Tom McFarland

For All Your
Real Estate Answers

QUINCY - (617) 328-3200

On the Web visit McFarlandproperties.com

QUINCY

WWW.

stamosandstamosrealtors

Stamos & Stamos Realtors

747 East Squantum St.

Squantum, MA 02171

617.328.9400

.com

REALTY 7

617-472-7700

Working for you
7 days a week

Tom McMahon

realty7.biz
tom@realty7.biz

On Monday, Dec. 3, at approximately 1:00 P.M., Officer James Cassidy was on routine patrol traveling west on Pleasant Street when he observed a vehicle stop in front of a nearby address.

Using his onboard computer, Officer Cassidy ran a check of the registration, which revealed that the vehicle did not have a valid inspection sticker. The Officer drove up to the vehicle and observed a female get in the back seat. There were two males sitting in the front seat.

As the vehicle began to drive away, Officer Cassidy, who was parked down the street, stepped out of his cruiser and indicated to the driver to stop as the vehicle approached. The driver stopped and immediately placed his hands between his legs, then looked up at the Officer, asking what the problem was.

Officer Cassidy looked down to where the driver's hands were and observed a plastic knotted bag containing a brown substance between the suspect's legs. A quick scan of the other occupants showed the front passenger with a belt tied around his left arm. The Officer knew from training and experience that belts are often used by intravenous drug users as a tourniquet, which assists the user while injecting illegal narcotics into their blood stream.

Sitting in the center console was a metal measuring

LT. DAN MINTON

A Job Well Done

By QUINCY POLICE LT. DAN MINTON

cup with brown residue inside, which drug users have to cook illegal drugs prior to injecting them. Officer Cassidy ordered the driver to place his hands where the Officer could see them and to step out of the vehicle. The driver/suspect #1 complied initially but quickly placed his hands into his pockets. At this point, for his safety, Officer Cassidy removed the suspect's hands from his pockets and used his (the Officer's) body weight as leverage to pin him the suspect up against the side of his car.

The Officer then radioed communications and requested assistance. As the Officer called communications, the suspect again placed both his hands in his pants pockets, then removed his left hand quickly and brought it to his mouth, followed by a swallowing motion. At the same time, the suspect, using his right hand, threw a small clear plastic bag, similar to the one observed on his seat, under the rear of the vehicle. Suspect #1 was then placed in handcuffs and handed over to Officer Mike Brandolini, who had just arrived on scene.

Officer Cassidy retrieved the bag of heroin from under the rear of the vehicle, then walked over to the window of the front passenger and observed the belt that he had around his arm on the floor at his feet. There was also a hypodermic syringe on the inside of his seat. This suspect, #2, was removed from the vehicle and searched. The Officer found an un-knotted bag of heroin in one of suspect #2's pockets, which led Officer Cassidy to believe that suspect #2 didn't get the chance to shoot up.

Suspect #1, a 25 year-old Hull resident and suspect #2, a 28 year-old Braintree resident were both charged with "Possession of a Class A Drug, to wit, heroin." Once the suspects were transported to the station for booking, Officer Cassidy questioned the female.

She said that suspect #1 called her to see if she wanted a ride to the store to cash out scratch tickets. She said suspect #1 is her ex-boyfriend and that they broke up six months ago. She added that they both used heroin when they were dating but she has been clean for some time now.

The female, suspect #3, admitted to having a small bag of marijuana in her purse, which she handed over to the Officer. The marijuana was marked for destruction and placed into the drug evidence locker. She was sent on her way. Officer Cassidy then searched the vehicle, finding a lighter and Q-tip where suspect #2 was sitting. The Q-tip is used by intravenous drug users to filter heroin after it is cooked and prior to injecting it. Inside a 1/8th metal measuring cup was cotton that was dark in color, which is believed to be residue from prior preparation of heroin.

Another hypodermic syringe was recovered from the center console under the radio. At the tip of this syringe was blood which indicated that this particular syringe had already been used to inject a substance into a person's blood stream. A black Velcro tourniquet was located between the passenger seat and the center console.

Nice Work!

RULES OF THE ROAD: When pedestrian lights are on at a crosswalk at an intersection, it is a violation if the driver makes a right turn on red. The driver must wait until the "Walk" sign or symbol, usually white in color, turns off.

QUINCY POLICE HOT SPOTS

QUINCY POLICE STATISTICS: NOV. 30 - DEC. 6

ARRESTS: 29

TOTAL CALLS: 1,071

TOTAL STOLEN VEHICLES: 3

FRIDAY, NOV. 30

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 4:19 p.m., 28 Hilda St. Dwelling. Rooms ransacked. Report filed.

LARCENY, 6:55 p.m., Tedeschis Food Shop, 230 Washington St. Lottery ticket. Caller indicates he hit the lottery in exact order and cashier gave him only $53. It paid well over $600 and cashier will not give him the ticket back. Advised.

SATURDAY, DEC. 1

LARCENY, 4:29 p.m., 1060 Furnace Brook Parkway. Package. Someone stole a package off the porch. Report filed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 5:22 p.m., 33 Yardarm Ln. Door/window. Caller states the window of door was kicked in while she was home.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 7:11 p.m., 63 Arthur St. Caller states storage areas seem have been broken into. Report filed.

LARCENY, 9:48 p.m., Wash&Dry, 26 Hobart St. Curtains. Caller reports female took six curtains from the dryer and fled. Report filed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 10:07 p.m., 58 Campbell St. House egged. Caller's house was egged by unknown youths.

SUNDAY, DEC. 2

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 11:46 a.m., 95 West Squantum St. Past. See caller attempt occurred sometime overnight. Report filed.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 7:18 p.m., 12 Avon Way. Stolen within the last two hours - Dodge Intrepid, N.H. registration.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 7:48 p.m., 112 Greenleaf St. Past. Serviced. Heard someone with a key try to enter. Checked - did not see anyone.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 2:21 p.m., 87 Nightingale Ave. Past incidents of owner's vehicle being spray painted and tonight house was egged.

MONDAY, DEC. 3

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 9:58 p.m., 38 Grossman St. Dwelling. Nothing taken. Report to be filed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 10:51 a.m., 86 Main St. Motor vehicle damage Rear window smashed; happened overnight.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 10:58 a.m., 25 West Howard St. Dwelling. Report to be filed.

LARCENY, 11:17 a.m., Stop & Shop Offices, 1385 Hancock St. Wallet.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 1:01 p.m., 200 West St. 2009 Nissan Altima stolen overnight. Signed theft report shows keys were left in vehicle. Registration is revoked for an insurance cancellation.

LARCENY, 4:59 p.m., Nichol St. Past. Male took paycheck.

TUESDAY, DEC. 4

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 12:16 a.m., 122 Charles St. See caller in the police lobby about past larceny of MV plate and attempted theft of motor vehicle. Also possible MV vandalism.

LARCENY, 12:24 p.m., Lincoln-Hancock School, 300 Granite St. Past.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 5

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 6:26 a.m., 73 Bicknell St. Dwelling. Possible theft of money. Report submitted on unarmed burglary.

LARCENY, 12:31 p.m., Hancock Cemetery, 1305 Hancock St. Determined that statue of baby Jesus was stolen from Nativity scene at Hancock Cemetery.

LARCENY, 2:49 p.m., Lincoln-Hancock School, 300 Granite St. Pocketbook. White male, gray hair, gray/black jacket zippered up, no facial hair or glasses took a large pocketbook. Charge cards have already been used at 1250 Hancock St. Report to be filed.

LARCENY, 3:50 p.m., 27 Oval Rd. Wallet. Caller in lobby reports wallet stolen while at friend's house. Occurred on Monday, Dec. 3. Wallet contained MA driver's license, approximately $40 cash, three payroll checks, Social Security card, ATM/Debit card, two medical cards that have Social Security number on them. Report filed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 5:19 p.m., Brewer's Corner, 1 Copeland St. Broken side mirror. Caller states while driving through area of Brewer's Corner a white male approximately 17 years of age was yelling walking down middle of street. As caller was driving the company vehicle for oil company, the youth hit the mirror as he drove by with something that shattered it.

THURSDAY, DEC. 6

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 12:03 p.m., 20

Entries in the Quincy Police Hot Spots are compiled and submitted by the Quincy Police Department.

They are published by The Quincy Sun as a public service to make local residents more aware of any crime activity in their neighborhood. Questions concerning the Hot Spots list should be directed to Crime Prevention Officer Lt. Dan Minton, 617-745-5719.

Curlew Rd. Parked vehicle last night, came out to find it missing.

LARCENY, 12:43 p.m., 40 Greenleaf St. $5,000 hearing aids stolen yesterday.

LARCENY, 2:19 p.m., 116 Spring St. Siding material. Caller says he heard at 1:30 a.m. noise outside house. Went back to check, didn't see anyone. Reporting this now.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 3:26 p.m., 30 French St. Past assault. Building manager will meet officer out front. Suspect is in his apartment now. Does not want EMS. Boston Health Street gang members have been operating a black BMW X5. They have been fighting with several other gangs resulting in shootings. One to QMC.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 6:22 p.m., 117 Barham Ave. To car.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 9:22 p.m., 55 Trafford St. Dwelling.

LARCENY, 10:15 p.m., 75 Faxon Lane. Fare evasion. Cabbie took two males from Boston financial district to above. One was sick in cab and they exited. Went inside house and didn't come out to pay for fare or for clean up. Fare was paid.

If anyone has more information about any of the aforementioned incidents or would like more information, contact Crime Prevention Lieutenant Dan Minton at 617 745 5719

STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLES: Avon Way, 200 block of West Street, Curlew Road.

CAR BREAKS: Cheriton Road, Chester Street, Linden Street, 100 Granite St., 100 block of Quincy Shore Dr., 96 Parkway.

BREAKS AND ATTEMPTED BREAKS: Arthur Street, 95 West Squantum St., Trafford Street, Greenleaf Street, Grossman Street, 25 West Howard Street, Bicknell Street.

If you have information on the above crimes, drug activity or any crime, please call the Quincy Police Detective Bureau at 617-745-5764 or log onto the following website: <http://tinyurl.com/yttf6td>.

To report suspicious drug activity, call the Drug Hot-Line at 617-745-5730. You will not be required to identify yourself, but it could help. To make an appointment to view the Registered Sex Offenders book, call Detective James Dentrement at 617-745-5755.

To contact the Crime Prevention Officer for tips or comments, my direct line is 617-745-5719. My e-mail address is dminton@ci.quincy.ma.us

-- Lt. Dan Minton

St. Chrysostom's Church

The Episcopal Parish of St. Chrysostom's announces its Christmas Schedule.

On Friday, Dec. 14th at 6:30 p.m. there will be a traditional Carol Sing under the leadership of Musical Director Dr. Delvyn Case. It will be followed by light refreshments.

On Thursday, Dec. 18th there will be the weekly

Evensong Service at 8 p.m.

On Sunday, Dec. 23rd the 10 a.m. service will include the Children's Christmas Pageant.

Christmas Eve Service on Monday, Dec. 24 will begin at 7 p.m.

Christmas Day Service on Tuesday, Dec. 25th will be at 10 a.m. followed by light refreshments.

United First Parish

United First Parish's Church's (Unitarian) Religious Education program will present a traditional Christmas Tableau during Worship service Sunday, Dec. 16 at 10:30 a.m.

Wearing detailed period costumes, the younger children preform the timeless story of Christ's birth, accompanied by the Youth Group's readings and poetry.

Traditional Christmas Carols are performed

Houghs Neck Congregational

Houghs Neck Congregational Church, 310 Manet Ave., Quincy, will mark the Third Sunday in Advent at its Sunday worship service at 10 a.m.

All are welcome to attend.

throughout. This is an event for all ages and all are welcome.

United First Parish Church (Unitarian) is a theologically liberal congregation, encouraging people to seek their own spiritual path.

The church is located at 1306 Hancock St. in Quincy Center, across from Quincy City Hall.

For more information, visit www.ufpc.org.

RELIGION

Bethany Church

Bethany Congregational Church, Quincy Center will have Sunday Worship Service and a Children's Pageant at 10 a.m.

The Rev. William C. Harding will conduct the service.

Fellowship with light refreshments will follow the

worship service.

The annual Singspiration will be held Sunday night at 6 p.m. Bring your bells for ringing.

All are welcome to attend Bethany Church Worship Services and its numerous group activities. The church is wheelchair accessible.

Quincy Point Congregational

The children of the congregation will present its pageant entitled "A Christmas Rose, A Gift of the Heart" during the 10 a.m. worship service this third Sunday of Advent, Dec. 16, at Quincy Point Congregational Church, 444 Washington St.

Deanna Vanshagen will be deacon of the day.

All are welcome to attend

Fellowship hour in the Social hall, complete with coffee and light refreshments following worship.

The church is selling Entertainment Books for $35 each. All proceeds benefit the QPCC elevator fund.

For more information or to purchase a book, call Betty DeCristofaro at 617-472-1265 or contact the church office at 617-773-6424.

Faith Lutheran Church

Faith Lutheran Church, 201 Granite St., Quincy is celebrating Advent at its 10 a.m. Sunday worship service.

The Church Choir will present its annual Christmas Cantata Dec. 16 and the Sunday School pageant is

Dec. 23.

The church holds two Christmas Eve services, a family program at 6 p.m. and a service at 11 p.m. which concludes with the singing of "Silent Night" under candlelight.

First Baptist Church

The Sunday School children will present their Christmas program, "It Wouldn't Be Christmas Without?" at the Third Sunday of Advent worship service at 10:30 a.m. at First Baptist Church, 81 Prospect Ave.

A birthday party for Jesus will follow the service in Fellowship Hall.

Serving the Church will be Rev. C. Michael Cunningham, greeters Ellen Canty and Blanche Rossi and scripture reader Vicki Saunders.

The Church "Angel Tree" will benefit two local families this year. Written on each Angel on the tree is something from the wishlists of those children and adults.

Their gifts are to be wrapped and tagged with the name of the recipient and brought to church on Sunday to be collected by the Sunday School Children as part of their pageant.

The Church is handicap accessible and all are welcome.

Quincy Community United Methodist Church

Quincy Community United Methodist Church, 40 Beale St., Wollaston, will host a "Service of the Longest Night" Thursday, Dec. 20 at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel.

The service is for all who are struggling, all who are dealing with a loss of any kind.

"The service is so named because it is held on the Winter Solstice - the longest night of the year," said Rev. Dr. Susan F. Jarek-Glidden, church pastor. "It is very simple, and consists of music, Scripture lessons, prayer, and quiet reflection. The purpose is to try and provide a safe place for people who are dealing with grief and loss - whether that grief and loss is recent or decades old."

The public is invited to attend.

Quincy Community United Methodist Church also announced it will hold a Christmas Eve service with carols, candles and Holy Communion Monday, Dec. 24 at 11 p.m.

For more information, call the church office at 617-773-3319.

Catholic

St. Mary's Church

95 Crescent St., Quincy • 617-773-0120
Masses
Saturday, 4pm, Sunday 7, 9:30 & 11:30am, Weekdays 9am
Handicapped Accessible
New Members Welcome!

ST. AGATHA CHURCH MILTON-QUINCY

432 Adams Street
Milton, MA 02186 • 617-698-2439

Schedule of Masses:

Saturday: 4:30PM
Sunday: 7:30AM, 9:00AM (Family Mass), 10:30AM, 12 NOON, 5:00PM
Weekday Masses: 7:00 & 9:00AM
Reconciliation 3:45PM-4:15pm on Saturdays, other times by appointment

Handicapped Accessible, handicapped parking, elevator to Upper/Lower Churches ~ Air-Conditioned

St. John The Baptist

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH
44 School St., Quincy
617-773-1021

Weekend Mass Schedule

Saturday, 4:00 PM
Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 AM
Sunday night 5:30 PM

Weekday Masses

Monday - Saturday 8:00 AM

Latin Mass

1st & 3rd Wednesdays
(Lower Chapel) 7:00 AM

Confessions

Wed. 8:30 - 9:00 AM
Sat. 2:30 - 3:30 PM
Handicapped Accessible

Salvationist

THE SALVATION ARMY

6 Baxter St., Quincy • 617-472-2345
9:45 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION
11AM WORSHIP SERVICE
BRASS BAND MUSIC
7PM TUES WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP
6:45PM WEDS. BIBLE STUDY

Quincy Religion Directory

SERVICES & ACTIVITIES

Catholic

Sacred Heart Church

"A Roman Catholic Community walking together in Faith, Worship, Education and Service"

386 Hancock St., North Quincy, MA 02171

Sunday Masses

4pm (Sat.) 7:45am, 9am (Family Liturgy)

10:30am (with Choir) and 5pm

Weekday Masses

Mon.-Fri. 7am and 9am, Sat. 9am

Handicapped Accessible

Confessions

Sat. 3-3:45pm in Saint Joseph Oratory

St. Joseph's Church

550 Washington Street

Quincy, MA 02169

617-472-6321

SUNDAY MASSES:

4 p.m. (On Saturday)

8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Weekday Masses 9am

CONFESSIONS: Saturday, 3:00-3:30 pm

Handicapped accessible &

Handicapped parking, side entrance

air conditioned

Saint Ann's Church

757 Hancock St., Wollaston

617-479-5400

Pastor: Rev. John J. Ronaghan

Weekend Mass Schedule:

Saturday 4:00 PM

Sunday 7:00, 9:00, 11:30AM

Daily Masses: 9:00 AM

Methodist

QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

40 Beale St., Wollaston

617-773-3319

10:30 AM Sunday Worship

Rev. Dr. Susan Jarek-Glidden, Pastor

Congregational

HOUGH'S NECK CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

310 Manet Avenue

617-479-8778

www.hncong.org

Third Sunday of Advent

Service at 10AM

'Rejoice!'

All are welcome to attend

FELLOWSHIP COFFEE HOUR

FOLLOWING SERVICE

BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Spear & Coddington Streets

Quincy Center, 617-479-7300

WWW.QUINCYBETHANYCHURCH.ORG

Sunday, Dec. 16

Sunday Worship and

Children's Pageant at 10AM.

The Rev. William Harding

Annual Singspiration

Sunday Night at 6 PM

Child Care Available

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Fellowship Time in Allen Parlor

Congregational

Wollaston

Congregational Church

United Church of Christ

48 Winthrop Avenue

Quincy, Massachusetts

Sunday Worship

at 10 a.m.

Rev. Dr. Mary Louise Gifford

Office: 617-773-7432 www.wollycong.org

UNION CONGREGATIONAL

Beach St. & Rawson Rd., Wollaston

(617)479-6661

Rev. John Swanson, Pastor

Sunday Worship Service 10 AM

QUINCY POINT

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

444 Washington St. • 617-773-6424

Worship and Church School 10 am

Rev. Ann Suzedell, Pastor

email: office@quincypointcong.org

Unitarian Universalist

United First Parish Church

A theologically liberal congregation, encouraging people to seek their own spiritual path. All are welcome.

Worship Service, Church School and Childcare Sundays at 10:30 AM

Followed by Fellowship & Refreshments

Rev. Dave Johnson

1306 Hancock St., Quincy

www.ufpc.org

Christian Science

First Church of Christ, Scientist

16 Beale Street, Quincy

617-472-0055

Sunday Services

and Sunday School

10:30 a.m.

Wednesday Evening

Meetings - where testimonies of healing

are shared 7:30 p.m.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Catholic Community

Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender

CATHOLICS

Our families, friends And allies

Liturgy & social hour: Sundays, 5:30 PM

St. John the Evangelist Church

35 Bowdoin St., Beacon Hill, Boston

617-421-1915

www.dignityboston.org

Nazarene

Wollaston

Church of the Nazarene

Sunday Worship

8:30 AM Liturgical Worship

9:45 AM Sunday School

11:00 AM Celebration Worship

Kevin C. Dunlap, Lead Pastor

Phil Nason, Youth & Small Groups Pastor

John Chavira, Music & Congregational Pastor

Rev. Kenneth, Children's Pastor

Don Reed, Visitation Pastor

37 E. Elm Ave., Wollaston

617.472.5669

E-mail: office@wcnaz.org

www.wcnaz.org

HOPE
LOVE

To Advertise
in this Directory,
Call 617-471-3100

PEACE

JOY

OBITUARIES

Davenport Jackson Marine Corps Veteran

A Life Tribute Memorial Service for Davenport "Laddie" Jackson of Quincy was held Sunday at United First Parish Church, Quincy.

Mr. Jackson died Dec. 2.

He was a USMC Veteran of the Korean Conflict. His family are descendants of the Mayflower. Mr. Jackson was a lifelong Quincy resident; his three grandsons are fifth generation Quincy residents. He had a passion for running in marathons and was a mountain climber.

Cherished husband of Virginia "Ginger" (Murray). Beloved father of Catherine Nazzaro and her husband Thomas, Mark Jackson and his wife Mary Ellen all of Quincy. Brother of Jane Jackson of NH and Carol Trefry of Lynnfield. Grandfather of Daniel, Adam and

DAVENPORT JACKSON

Patrick.

Funeral arrangements were made by Lydon Chapel for Funerals, 644 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Wounded Warriors, 1120 G St. NW, Suite 700, Washington, DC, 20005 or the Quincy Animal Shelter, 56 Broad St., Quincy, MA 02169.

Michael D. Maguire

A funeral Mass for Michael D. Maguire of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 6 at St. Agatha's Church, Milton.

Mr. Maguire died Dec. 1.

Mr. Maguire was born in Greenfield and was raised and educated in Brighton. A longtime Milton resident, he worked as a repairman for the M.B.T.A. and was a member of Local 589. He also worked as a toll collector for the Turnpike Authority.

Mr. Maguire was a New England Patriots season ticket holder for many years, an avid golfer, a youth baseball coach and a founding member of Milton Pop Warner football.

Beloved husband of Marie (Morris) Maguire. Loving father of Kristin O'Brien and her husband Mark of Milton, Peggy Maguire of Quincy, Michael Maguire and his wife Ann Marie of Billerica and Danielle Maguire and her husband Matthew Seadale of Boston. Also survived by his brother, James Maguire of New Jersey, five grandchildren, and nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Alfred D. Thomas Funeral Home, Milton.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to Old Colony Hospice, 247 North Main St., Randolph, MA 02368.

Mary Conroy Retired Sales Associate

A funeral Mass for Mary (Casali) Conroy of Quincy, a retired sales associate, was celebrated Monday in St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Conroy died Dec. 4.

She worked for TJ Maxx Company in Quincy as a sales associate for 15 years. She enjoyed gardening, walking the beach, playing bocce, and was an avid reader.

Mrs. Conroy was a member of the St. Ann Mari- anne's. She remained close throughout her life to her group of girlfriends that were affectionately known as "The Gabby Daffies."

Most importantly, she loved her family as they were the cornerstone of her life. She will be missed by all who had the pleasure to have known her.

Beloved wife of the late Michael Conroy. Loving mother of Michael Conroy Jr and his wife Rose of Stoughton, Kathleen Stachowski and her husband Robert of Braintree, Terese O'Connor and her husband Patrick of Auburn, and Mary Meany and her husband Kevin of Marlborough. Sister of Mario "Mike" Casali and his wife Norma of Braintree.

Cherished grandmother of 16 grandchildren and their spouses: Jessica Conroy, Michael Conroy, Amy and Tim Bulger, Tom Stachowski, Marylynn and Ben Sours, Joy and Colin Miller,

MARY CONROY

Katie, Jimmy, Jennie, John, Abbie, Sarah, Paul, Peter, and Anna O'Connor, Andrew Meany, and was anticipating the arrival of her first great-grandchild.

She is also survived by her dear friends Marilyn and Frank Masciulli of Quincy, Ann and Joe Meany of Marlborough, and Rosa and Tony Cappuccio of Malden. Mary's family and devoted friends Ronnie Cannon and Dee Condon made it possible for her to remain in her Wollaston home of 83 years.

Burial was in Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Marine Toys for Tots, Foundation, Gift Processing Administrator, 18251 Quantico Gatewah Dr., Trangle, VA 22172 or Globe Santa Fund C/O Citizens Bank, P.O. Box 845059, Boston, MA 02284-5059.

Anna Corvi, 80

A celebration of life service for Anna (Parziale) Corvi, 88, of Lehigh Acres, FL and formerly Quincy will be held at a later date in Lehigh Acres.

Mrs. Corvi died Nov. 30.

Beloved wife of the late James Corvi. Devoted mother of Janice Brown and her husband Joel, Joanne Leedecke and her husband Steve, Sandra Lawyer and her husband Ray, Ellen MacLean, and John Corvi. Dear brother of John Parziale. Also survived by six grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, her friend Skeeter Lawyer, and many other friends and relatives.

Virginia M. Welch

Worked For First National Bank Of Boston

A funeral Mass for Virginia M. (Canney) Welch of Bridgewater and formerly West Quincy was celebrated Dec. 8 at St. Ann's Church, West Bridgewater.

Mrs. Welch died Dec. 3 at South Shore Hospital.

She was born in Boston, daughter of the late Anna (Kennedy) and John J. Canney. Mrs. Welch was raised and educated in West Quincy, graduated from Quincy High School and had moved to Bridgewater 13 years ago. Before raising her family, she worked for the First National Bank of Boston.

Beloved wife of John E. Welch of Bridgewater. Loving mother of Paul J. Welch and his wife Maureen of NH, Janice M. Lively and her husband James C. of Bridgewater, Patricia A. Gramm and her husband James of Bridgewater, Christine M. Pulsinelli of Raynham, Annmarie Farrell and her husband Paul B. of Raynham. Dear sister of Dr.

VIRGINIA M. WELCH

Paul C. Canney of Hingham, Thomas Canney of Hanson and the late John and James Canney. Also survived by 11 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Prohett-Chapman Cole & Gleason Funeral Home, Bridgewater.

Interment was in Pine Hill Cemetery, West Bridgewater.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, 5 Manley St., West Bridgewater, MA 02379.

F. Wendell Boyden, Jr., 72 Ham Radio Operator

A private funeral service was held for F. Wendell "K1LWI" Boyden, Jr., 72, of Hull and formerly Quincy.

Mr. Boyden died Dec. 1.

He grew up and resided in Quincy for almost 60 years and was most recently a resident of Hull. He had many passions, but his greatest of all was being a ham radio operator. He was a giant in the ham radio world and was widely known by his call sign K1LWI and the voice of Quincy for over 50 years.

He was an avid freelance motorsport photographer and a motorcycle enthusiast. He was also a highly accomplished sharp shooter and at one time the world's fastest Morse Code operator.

Beloved son of the late Martha (Birchby) Boyden and F. Wendell Boyden. Loving longtime companion of Nancy O'Keeffe. Dear brother Diane (Boyden) Pessio of Boston and the late Deborah Boyden. He considered Nancy's children his own and is lovingly remembered by Patricia Byrnes of Hull, Anthony Cuddahy and his wife, Caroline, of Hingham, Michael O'Keeffe and his wife, Patricia, of Brockton, Kathy Gaddis, Kelly O'Keeffe and David O'Keeffe and his wife, Barbara, all of Quincy. Also survived by three nieces, four great-nieces and nephews, as well as Nancy's many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Interment was private.

Sandra M. Reilly, 49

A funeral service for Sandra M. Reilly, 49, of Salem City, NJ and formerly Quincy was held privately.

Ms. Reilly died Nov. 18.

Born in Quincy where she was raised and educated, she lived in New Jersey for 10 years. She graduated from Quincy High and Quincy Junior College and worked as a nurse.

Beloved daughter of David J. "Joe" Reilly of Quincy and the late Ruth M. (Kusser) Reilly. Survived by her sister Lynn M. Menconi and her brother-in-law Mike Menconi of Hingham, her nephew of Michael J. Menconi, Jr. and her niece, Meredith L. Menconi.

Funeral arrangements were made by Dennis Sweeney Funeral Home, 74 Elm St., Quincy.

A Better Value For Quincy Families

At Deware Funeral Home, we are proud to offer more value and superior service to Quincy families. A full service traditional funeral is $5,995* with no hidden costs. The price includes:

Funeral Ceremony • Visitation • Casket

At Deware Funeral Home, we put the needs of our customer first. We also offer a Simple Burial Plan for $3,395.

With Deware Funeral Home, you can trust us to provide the compassionate care you expect at an exceptional value, backed by a 100% service guarantee.

Exclusive provider of Dignity Memorial® benefits.

Deware Funeral Home

576 Hancock Street | Quincy, MA 02170 | 617-472-1137

For more information visit
www.dewarefuneralhome.com

*$5,995 plan includes basic services of funeral director and staff, embalming and preparation, visitation, funeral ceremony, transportation to place of disposition, 20-gauge metal casket, website announcement, and memorial stationary package (a register book, 100 thank you cards, 100 prayer cards).

A Service Family Affiliate of AFPS and Service Corporation International, 206 Winter Street, Fall River, MA 02720. (508) 676-2454.

Other Obituaries
On Pages 29-31 and Online
at www.thequincysun.com

*Over 60 Years
Of Personalized Service*

SWEENEY BROTHERS

Home for Funerals, Inc.

RICHARD T. SWEENEY, JR. • FRANCIS M. SWEENEY

1 INDEPENDENCE AVENUE
QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS 02169

(617) 472-6344

www.thesweeneybrothers.com

James E. Gibbons, 70

Ironworker

A private funeral service for James E. Gibbons, 70, of Quincy was held at Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Mr. Gibbons died Nov. 23.

He was born in Boston, raised and educated in Quincy schools and was a graduate of Quincy High School, Class of 1961. He lived in Quincy for the past ten years, previously living in Boston's Beacon Hill during his working years where he made many friends.

He was employed as an ironworker with Local 7 for thirty years and worked on several downtown office s and other high-rise buildings. He had been retired many years.

Mr. Gibbons loved to read, especially political books, and enjoyed intense and passionate discussions about the books he read. He also enjoyed fishing off the pier in Houghs Neck.

He had a quick wit and a great sense of humor; The "Gibber" will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

Devoted father of James

JAMES E. GIBBONS

E. Gibbons, Jr. of ME. Beloved son of Eleanor C. (Hagan) Flibotte of Quincy, the late John B. Gibbons and the late John F. Flibotte. Dear brother of Bernard J. Gibbons of Quincy, Susan C. Haley of Scituate, Pamela R. Mulcahy of Braintree, John C. Flibotte of Kingston, Joseph E. Flibotte, Julianne Flibotte both of Quincy, Robert G. Flibotte of Hingham, Mark T. Flibotte of Cohasset and the late Michael Flibotte. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Heart Association, 20 Speen St., Framingham, MA 01701-4688.

Americo Vardaro, 90

Retired U.S. Postal Service Mail Handler, Navy Veteran Of World War II, Korea

A funeral Mass for Americo Vardaro, 90, of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 7 at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mr. Vardaro died Dec. 4 at Radius Specialty Hospital at Quincy Medical Center.

He was born in Mansfield, raised and educated in Hyde Park schools and was a graduate of Newbury Junior College. He lived in Quincy for over five years and previously in South Boston for over forty years.

Mr. Vardaro was a long-time mail handler with the U.S. Postal Service at the South Boston Postal Annex and had been retired many years.

He was a World War II and Korean War veteran having served in the U.S. Navy. He received the Asiatic Pacific Theater Medal and the Philippine Liberation Medal.

He loved sports. He was devoted to his family, especially his two grandchildren and his great grandson.

Beloved husband for sixty-four years of Marilyn T. (Stewart) Vardaro. Devoted father of Maureen S. Jones and her husband Terrance of Braintree and South Boston. Loving grandfather of Jennifer Lyn Jones and Christopher Ryan Jones both of South Boston. Great-grandfather of Tyler Christopher. Brother of Patrick Vardaro of Quincy, Anthony Vardaro of Walpole, Regina Conti of Hyde Park, the late Louie Vardaro, the late Lena Santucci, the late Henry Vardaro, the late Mary Shea, the late Angie Vardaro, and the late Susie Signorello. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment with Military Honors was at Cedar Grove Cemetery, Dorchester.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, 30 Speen Street, Framingham, MA 01701-1803.

Sean A. Repetto, 25

Rap Music Artist

A memorial service for Sean Anthony Repetto, 25, of Quincy was held Monday at St. Joseph's Church, Quincy.

Mr. Repetto died Dec. 2.

Born and raised in Allston and Quincy, he attended Quincy High School. He loved making rap music and was well known locally as the artist "Shizz B". His passion and talent for performing led him to start a promising career as a rap artist in the Greater Boston area, where he performed both solo and as a member of various groups. He had a great appreciation for all forms of Art.

Mr. Repetto cherished his family, and drew much strength from them over his life, especially in the years following a serious car accident in 2006.

Beloved son of Jennifer E. Cugini and Charles F. Repetto, Jr. Dear brother of Brian T. Repetto of Quincy, and nephew of Tom Troy and his wife Barbara of Wilmington, Nancy Troy of Weston, and Anthony Repetto of Brookline. Cousin to Glen, Ashley, Andrea and Shannon.

SEAN A. REPETTO

Funeral arrangements were made by Hamel, Wickens & Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams Street, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Louis D. Brown Peace Institute, 1452 Dorchester Ave., Boston, MA 02122.

Mary M. Nolan

Secretary At Boston City Hall

A funeral Mass for Mary M. (Murray) Nolan of Quincy was celebrated Monday at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Nolan died Dec. 4.

She worked at Boston City Hall as a secretary prior to raising her family and retired from Quincy Public Schools in 2002. She started as a lunch mother and completed her work as a secretary in the office at Montclair School.

Her family was the centerpiece of her life and she enjoyed having everyone around for dinner, holidays and family activities. A selfless lady, she always put other people's needs ahead of her own. She took pride in being able to care for her aging parents. She will be remembered for her friendship, loving nature, and caring ways.

Beloved wife of the late Paul V. Nolan. Loving mother of Paul J. Nolan and his wife Michelle of Weymouth, Peg A. Oliver and her husband John of Gloucester, Eileen Gibson and her husband Richard of Whitman, and Jeanne Jamgochian and her husband Charles of Arlington. Daughter of the late Declan Murray and Margaret (Fitzgerald) Murray. Sister of Sr. Rita Murray, O.F.S., of Chestnut Hill, and the late James F. Murray, and Rev. S. John Murray, S.M.A. Nana to Christopher, John, Katelyn, Jessica, Matthew, Nicole, Patrick, Robert, Jeffrey and Dianna. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

MARY M. NOLAN

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the Shriners Burns Institute, 51 Blossom St., Boston, MA 02114.

Mary A. Curran Deely

Retired Postal Service Worker

A funeral Mass for Mary A. "Marie" (Byrnes) Curran Deely of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 7 at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Curran Deely died Nov. 29.

She was born in New York City and grew up in Quincy. She worked for the United States Postal Service in Boston for 20 years before retiring in 1985. She was a member of the Castle Island Association and the Mothers Club of South Boston.

He passion was traveling; she traveled extensively around the world. She enjoyed trips to the beach, especially Nantasket. She was also an avid reader and bridge player. Her family remembers her as a woman who was always putting family and friends first. She will be missed by all who had the pleasure to have known her.

Beloved wife of the late Walter J. Curran and longtime companion of George L. Bullis of FL. Loving mother of Marsha Curran and Diane Curran, both of Quincy, Denise McDonough and her husband Bill "Mac" of Milton and FL, Joseph Curran and his wife Margaret of East Bridgewater, John Curran and his wife

MARY A. CURRAN DEELY

Pamela of Milton and Susan Curran Ford of Milton. Mother in law of the late David Ford. Sister of Rev. John Byrnes, O.A.S., of PA, Susan Strazzula of Squantum, Paul Byrnes of CA and the late Claire Fahy and Thomas N. Byrnes, Jr. Esq. Cherished grandmother of 11 grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Dear friend to Mary Hansen and Gertrude Cain Lawless, both of South Boston.

Funeral arrangements were made Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Mount Hope Cemetery, Boston.

Memorial donations may be made to Quincy Crisis Center, checks payable to Esther R. Sanger Center for Compassion, P.O. Box 31, Quincy, MA 02170

Mary V. Ronan

A Mass of Christian Burial for Mary V. Ronan of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 7 at St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Ms. Ronan died Dec. 2.

Sister of the late Leo, David, Rita, and Edmund Ronan, Eileen Hillner, and Frances McGrath. Cherished aunt of Stephen McGrath of Quincy and his wife Jane, Patricia McGrath of NH and her partner Penny, David M. McGrath of CT, Barbara Ragsdale of VA, Nancy Stuart of Canada, Patrick Ronan of Rockland, Dennis Ronan of Westwood, Michael Ronan of Sharon, Brian Ronan of Quincy, Leo Ronan of Braintree, and the late Paul Hillner. Beloved sister-in-law of Patricia Ronan of Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by Lydon Chapel for Funeral, 644 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

DOLAN
FUNERAL SERVICES

"Caring for your life's journey"

- ◆ Funerals
- ◆ Cremations
- ◆ Pre-Arrangements

Service times and directions at:
www.dolanfuneral.com

THE DOLAN FAMILY
W. Craig
Paul F.
Frederick J.
Courtney

1140 WASHINGTON STREET
DORCHESTER, MA 02124
(617) 298-8011

460 GRANITE AVENUE
MILTON, MA 02186
(617) 698-6264

HAMEL FUNERAL CARE & CREMATION SERVICES OF MASSACHUSETTS

Honored Providers of:

PHONE TOLL FREE
(800) 696-5887

26 Adams Street, Quincy, Ma 02169
www.HamelFuneralCare.com

Honor Your Loved One's
Memory
With Flowers

cliffords.com
1.800.441.8884

Ruth Ann Anderson, 71

Retired Hasbro Employee

A memorial service for Ruth Ann (Barwell) Anderson, 71, of Asheville, NC and formerly Quincy was held Dec. 8 at Hope Congregational Church, Providence, RI.

Mrs. Anderson died Nov. 26.

A native of Quincy, she was the daughter of the late William and Kathryn Barwell. She was happily married to Rev. Dr. Richard Anderson for 45 years until his death in May of 2008. After a 20-year career at Hasbro, Inc., she retired in 2005 and moved to Asheville.

Mrs. Anderson loved to sing and was an active choir member at the First Presbyterian Church of Asheville, the Solace Center Singers at CarePartner Hospice, and the Reuter Center Singers. Her faith was very important to her and she recently became a deacon in the church.

She will be dearly missed by all of her extended family members and friends.

RUTH ANN ANDERSON

Beloved wife of the late Rev. Dr. Richard Anderson. Devoted mother of Robin Campbell and her husband Dan of NJ and Brenda Raposo and her husband Tony of RI. Cherished grandmother of Ryan Raposo and Sara and Brian Campbell. Also survived by her sisters, Barbara Younie of Billerica, Joan Witham and her husband Jim of Plymouth, and Arlene Lyons and her husband Bill of Marshfield, and her brother David Barwell of Brockton.

Memorial donations may be made to Heifer International or a charity of choice.

Marjorie Elizabeth Clark, 85

A private funeral service for Marjorie Elizabeth (Johnson) Clark, 85, of Plymouth and formerly Quincy was held Nov. 24.

Mrs. Clark died Nov. 22 at Newfield House in Plymouth.

She was born Feb. 19, 1927, in Quincy where she graduated Quincy High School, attended Katherine Gibbs School and after her marriage to W. Gordon Clark was a stay at home mom in Quincy where his family business, The Vulcan Company, was.

They moved to Marshfield Hills in 1966 to a home they built and resided several years before moving to Scituate. Her great joy was time spent in their Quechee, VT home where she enjoyed cross country skiing, water aerobics, knitting, exploring the countryside and overnights in B&B's. Fifty summers were spent at their home at Little Harbor Beach, Wareham, where she relished her time at the beach and time spent with her grandchildren. Her passion was cooking and the enjoyment she knew it brought family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark traveled extensively both in this country and around the world. Just prior to his death they announced they had seen everything on their bucket list. After Gordon's passing, she moved to The Village at Duxbury where she resided eight years before moving to Newfield House as her health declined. She had been lovingly cared for the past four years there.

Beloved wife of the late W. Gordon Clark, whom she was married to for 54 years. Daughter of the late Eliot C. and Elizabeth Johnson and brother of the late Eliot C. Johnson, Jr. Loving mother of Alexander G. Clark and his wife Anne Davis (Lord) of Norwell and Nancy Elizabeth (Clark) Edwards and her husband Lawrence of Wareham. Grandmother of Alexander G. Clark, Jr. of Kingston, Elizabeth Lord (Clark) Cook and her husband Brad of TX, Megan Elizabeth (Edwards) Yelton and her husband Jerett of CT, Sarah Clark Edwards and her finance Cord Kenyon of CT. Also survived by three great grandchildren who gave her such joy when they visited the last year of her life - John Alexander (Jack) and Davis William Cook of TX, and Madelyn (Maddy) Elizabeth Yelton of CT.

MARJORIE E. CLARK

Funeral arrangements were made by Hamel, Wickens & Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams St., Quincy.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to South Shore YMCA, Camp Gordon Clark Scholarship Fund, 79 Coddington Street, Quincy, MA 02169, or to the Gleason Family YMCA, Scholarship Fund attention JoAnn Watson, 33 Charge Pond Road, Wareham, MA 02571.

Mary E. Pusateri, 82

Retired Secretary

A funeral Mass for Mary E. (Sullivan) Pusateri, 82, of Brockton and formerly Quincy was celebrated Dec. 7 at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Pusateri died Dec. 3.

Raised and educated in Dorchester, she graduated from Jeremiah E. Burke High School and Boston Clerical School. A Quincy resident for 35 years, she lived in Brockton since 1995 and worked for 20 years as a secretary at PK Contractor in Randolph.

Beloved wife of the late Anthony J. Pusateri, Sr. Loving mother of Anthony J. Pusateri, Jr. and his wife Joan of Abington, John M. Pusateri and his wife Debbie of Hanover, Donna Bertrand and her husband Anthony of Quincy, Mary MacTaggart and her boyfriend Igor Vorona of Brockton and Paul E. Pusateri and his wife Kelli of Braintree. Dear Nana of Michelle, Gina, Lisa, Adrienne, Michael, Robbie, Marc, Kristin, Anthony III,

MARY E. PUSATERI

Brian, Lynne, Joseph and Julia. Great-grandmother of Madelyn, AJ, Sara, Giovanna and Lily. Sister of the late John Sullivan. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Dennis Sweeney Funeral Home, 74 Elm St., Quincy.

Interment was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Heart Assoc., 20 Speen St., Framingham, MA 01701 or online at americanheart.org.

Mary Theresa Shields

A Mass of Christian Burial for Mary Theresa (Keane) Shields of Quincy was celebrated Tuesday at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Shields died Dec. 5.

She lived a long and full life and was always an advocate for God and caring for others. She loved life, dressed impeccably, celebrated her heritage, and loved a good Manhattan while discussing politics. Mostly, she cared for those she loved focusing on them often to the exclusion of herself.

Mrs. Shields had several careers in her lifetime from the early years as a legal secretary to her true love as a real estate appraiser. She loved real estate, assessing value and doing what was right no matter how difficult. Mrs. Shields was well respected in her profession, traveled frequently, and enjoyed her years of retirement.

Her zest for life, sharp mind, quick wit, and sage advice (lectures to loved ones) will be sorely missed. Her courage in adversity and her perseverance have been rarely equaled in this world.

Beloved wife of the late Francis Bennet Shields. Beloved mother of Mary Paula, Diane and Dennis. Grandmother of Eric and Ian Shields.

Funeral arrangements were made by Dolan Funeral Home, Dorchester.

Interment was in Center Cemetery, Hanover.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Lung Association of New England, 460 Totten Pond, Ste. 400, Waltham, MA 02451.

Joseph T. Mackin

Private funeral services were held for Joseph T. Mackin, 59, of Quincy.

Mr. Mackin died Dec. 5 at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Brookline.

Born in Weymouth, he had lived in Quincy for the past eight years.

Mr. Mackin was a registered nurse and had worked at Central Boston Elder Services.

He loved spending time with family and enjoyed watching football and baseball games.

He is survived by his wife, Juanita (Ferreire) Mackin; his son, Luke Mackin; his stepson, Rodrigo Freitas, both of Quincy; his two brothers, Richard W. Mackin and his wife Claudia of Newton, William H. Mackin of Quincy and Patricia Rockwood and her husband Edward of Quincy.

He is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Mr. Mackin was the son of the late William H. and Dorothy L. (Mielbye) Mackin.

Funeral arrangements were by the C.C. Shepherd Funeral Home, 134 Pleasant St., South Weymouth.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Diabetes Assn., 330 Congress St., 5th floor, Boston, MA 02110.

Dr. James Will, 89

Retired Dentist, Teacher, Veteran

A memorial service for Dr. James Will, 89, of Weymouth and formerly Squantum was held Dec. 8 at Old South Union Church, Weymouth.

Dr. Will died Nov. 29.

He was a yachtsman, a veteran, a teacher and the beloved husband of Eleanor L. Will. Yet, he will always be remembered for his lifelong practice as a dentist in Quincy Center.

Born January 27, 1923 in Quincy, Dr. Will was educated in the Quincy Public Schools. A 1941 graduate and Class President of North Quincy High School, he enlisted in the Navy during World War II where he served as an instructor in antiaircraft gunnery. After the war, he went on to earn his undergraduate degree at Northeastern and his D.M.D. at Tufts University School of Dentistry in 1953.

Dr. Will practiced general dentistry in Quincy for 44 years. Of all his accomplishments, he said that he loved to teach the most. He helped establish and became head of the Dental Assistant / Laboratory Technology Program at Quincy Vocational School. In 1966, he founded the not-for-profit Serposs Dental Clinic for the residents of Houghs Neck, and served as Clinical Director until 2009.

In addition to his business practice, he was an active participant and Moderator at the Old South Union Church (S. Weymouth), the Quincy Lions Club as King Lion and the Massachusetts and American Dental Association. He was also the recipient of the Melvin Jones Fellow humanitarian award.

DR. JAMES WILL

He was an accomplished sailor; a passion that evolved from racing in Quincy Bay as a young boy. He went on to design and build his own 30 sailboat Whipowill, aboard which he and his wife Eleanor spent many a vacation, cruising the New England coast. Even in retirement he remained very active - traveling the country with his wife in their motor home. He also enjoyed reading, gardening, woodworking, and photography.

Beloved husband of Eleanor L. Will. Devoted father of Marianne Garvey of NV, Peter Will of Squantum, and Mark Will of SC and his step-children Linda Morris Healy of Weymouth and James Morris of TX. He is also survived by eleven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral arrangements were made by Hamel, Wickens & Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams Street, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Interfaith Social Services, 105 Adams St., Quincy, MA 02169 or to Old South Union Church, 25 Columbian St., Weymouth, MA 02190.

Mary D. Gillis, 86

Assistant Editor At Banker & Tradesman

A funeral Mass for Mary D. (DelGallo) Gillis, 86, of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 7 at Sacred Heart Church, Weymouth.

Mrs. Gillis died Dec. 4.

She worked at Banker & Tradesman Publishing, currently Warren Publishing, as the assistant to the editor for 41 years, retiring in 2001. She was a longtime parishioner at Sacred Heart Parish taking an active role in many committees and functions including the Sodality Club. She was an avid Red Sox and Patriots fan. She will be remembered as a kind and friendly woman of strong faith who was devoted to her family.

Devoted mother of Nancy Doyle and her companion Ed O'Connor of Braintree and Jeff Gillis and his wife Mary of Abington. Cherished grandmother of Sean Doyle, Kristen Etkin and Lauren Gillis; great-grandchildren Kyle Doyle and Abigail Etkin and great-great-grandson Kyle Doyle, Jr. Loving sister of Alphonse DelGallo of CA, Joseph DelGallo of Weymouth and the late Vincent, Felix and Anthony DelGallo. Also survived by many nieces and nephews. Former wife of the late Robert W. Gillis.

MARY D. GILLIS

Funeral arrangements were made by McDonald Funeral Home, Weymouth.

Interment was at Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to the William B. Rice Eventide Home, Activities Fund, 215 Adams Street, Quincy, MA 02169.

Margaret C. Slathe

Retired Teacher At St. Ann's School

A funeral Mass for Margaret C. (Hanrahan) Slathe of Quincy was celebrated Monday at St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Slathe died Dec. 4. Raised in South Boston, her passions in life were her family and education. She was a graduate of The Gate of Heaven High School in South Boston and Teacher's College at Boston State. She began her teaching career in the Boston Public School System and retired in 1990 from St. Ann's School in Quincy after 25 dedicated years.

She enjoyed traveling to Italy, Barbados and the Caribbean with her husband Robert and her brother. She took great pride in her family, children and grandchildren and was most pleased with the fine young men that her grandsons have become. Her family remembers her strength of character, perseverance, grace and dignity. She was kind, loving and nurturing and will be missed deeply by her loving family.

MARGARET C. SLATHE

Beloved wife of the late Robert B. Slathe. Loving mother of Elaine M. Joyce of Quincy, and the late Robert E. "Bob" Slathe. Sister of William Hanrahan of South Boston, and Edward Hanrahan of Plymouth. Cherished grandmother of Brian and David Joyce of Quincy. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Kephane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Memorial donations may be made to Quincy Catholic Academy, 370 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02171.

Augustino 'Gus' Purpura, 87

Retired Quincy City Hospital Employee

A funeral Mass for Augustino "Gus" Purpura, 87, a lifelong Quincy resident and a retired Quincy City Hospital employee, will be celebrated today (Thursday) at 9 a.m. in Saint John the Baptist Church, 44 School St., Quincy.

Mr. Purpura died Sunday at the John Adams Health-Care Center in Quincy.

He was born, raised, educated in Quincy and was a graduate of Quincy High School.

Mr. Purpura worked as a dietary receiver at the former Quincy City Hospital for twenty years, retiring in 1990. He previously was employed at the former Waldecker's Florist in Braintree for many years.

He was a member of the Quincy Sons of Italy where he was well known for playing Santa Claus for the Sons of Italy Children's Christmas Party.

Beloved son of the late James and Mary (Ruggiano) Purpura.

Devoted brother of Frank Purpura and his late wife Mary of Weymouth, John Purpura and his wife Shirley of Quincy, Mary T. Rossi and her late husband John of Quincy, the late Joseph Purpura and his late wife Anna, the late James Purpura and his late wife Filomena and the late Salvatore Purpura and his late wife Rose.

AUGUSTINO PURPURA

Also survived by many nieces, nephews, grandnieces, and grandnephews.

Visiting hours were 4 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment will be in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, 30 Speen St., Framingham, MA 01701-1803.

Frederick E. Costello

Member Sheet Metal Workers Union

Private family services will be held at a later date for Frederick E. Costello of Quincy. Mr. Costello died Dec. 2.

Retired, he was a member of Sheet Metal Workers Union, Boston.

Husband of the late Marion V. (McGann) Costello, he was the father of Marion T. Odell of Rockland, Frederick J. Costello and his wife, Janice of Quincy and Paul J. Costello and his wife Joanne.

He is also survived by six grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

He was the brother of the late Frank Costello, John Costello and Joe Costello.

Funeral arrangements were by Dolan Funeral and Cremation Services, East Milton.

Anthony R. 'Tony' Tiro, Sr., 72

Owned Paddock Café

A funeral Mass for Anthony R. "Tony" Tiro, Sr., 72, of East Bridgewater, formerly of Weymouth and Quincy, was celebrated Wednesday in Saint John the Baptist Church, 44 School St., Quincy.

Mr. Tiro died Dec. 6 at the Kindred Nursing and Rehabilitation Goddard in Stoughton, surrounded by his loving family.

He was born in Quincy, raised and educated in Braintree and Quincy schools and was a graduate of Quincy High School, Class of 1958. He has lived in East Bridgewater for six years, previously in Weymouth.

Mr. Tiro was the owner and operator of the former Paddock Café in Quincy for 30 years.

He served in the U.S. Army as a Military Policeman during the Vietnam era from 1962 to 1965 and was stationed in Germany.

He enjoyed movies, playing cards and sports. He also enjoyed travelling, especially trips to Aruba.

He was a member of the Eagles Club in Weymouth.

Beloved husband of Deborah M. (Williams) Cirelli-Tiro.

Devoted father of Anthony R. Tiro, Jr. and his wife Raffaella of Quincy, Michael J. Tiro and his wife

ANTHONY R. TIRO, SR.

Julie of East Bridgewater and Jason P. Ekholm of Taunton.

Loving grandfather of Nathan, Candace, Morgan, Ashlyn and Adam.

Dear brother of Carol A. Coughlin and her husband Joseph of MD, Richard A. Tiro and his wife Elizabeth of Framingham, Joyce E. DiPacio and her husband Ronald of FL.

Also survived by many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Interment with Military Honors was at Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the Dana Farber Cancer Institute, P. O. Box 849168, Boston, MA 02284-9168.

Josephine Inferrera, 86

A funeral Mass for Josephine (Pepe) Inferrera, 86, of Quincy, will be celebrated today (Thursday) at 10 a.m. in St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Inferrera died Dec. 8.

Mrs. Inferrera grew up in the North End of Boston and she moved to Quincy many years ago.

She loved to travel with her husband. Unfortunately, her husband Ray died suddenly at a very young age and she was left alone to raise her two sons.

Mrs. Inferrera was a very strong and independent woman who took great care of not only her sons but her sisters and brothers as well. She faithfully visited her sisters whom were in various nursing homes, waiting hours for public transportation.

She never complained about the trials in her life. She remained independent right up to the very end.

She was a devout Catholic and a daily communicant at St. Ann's Church.

She will be remembered as a caring and loving woman who will be sadly missed.

JOSEPHINE INFERRERA

an who will be sadly missed. May she rest in peace.

The beloved wife of the late Orazio "Ray" Inferrera. Cherished mother of Paul Inferrera of Bonita Springs, FL and John Inferrera of Manhattan Beach, CA. Sister of the late Dolores McNamara, Antoinette Sheehan, Nicholas, Salvatore & Pasquale Pepe. Devoted grandmother to Paul Inferrera, Jr., Emily, Stephen, Elise and Oriana Inferrera. She is also survived by her great grandson Ethan.

Visiting hours were Wednesday from 4 to 8 p.m. in the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Burial will be in St. Michael's Cemetery, Boston.

Alexander P. Farquhar, 87

World War II Navy Veteran Participated In D-Day Invasion

A funeral Mass for Alexander P. "Sandy" Farquhar, 87, of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 7 at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mr. Farquhar died Dec. 3 at Quincy Medical Center.

He was born in Boston and was raised in Codman Square. He had lived in Quincy since 1976, first on Hospital Hill for many years and recently at the Allerton House in Quincy.

He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II as a pharmacist's mate and participated in the D-Day invasion on an LST transport. After the war, he courted and married Catherine Bourke. They lived on Richfield Street on Meeting House Hill in Dorchester, where they raised their son, Stephen John Farquhar. They were members of St. Peter's Parish and were active in the St. Peter's CYO Band.

He was employed as district sales manager for the drug manufacturer, A. H. Robbins, where he worked until his retirement. In retirement, Mr. Farquhar served on the City of Quincy's Council on Aging. He was also an active member of Saint John the Baptist Church in Quincy and the South Shore YMCA.

Beloved husband of Catherine "Kay" (Bourke) Farquhar. Devoted father of Stephen John Farquhar and his wife Elizabeth of AZ. Loving grandfather of Stephen John Farquhar Jr. of CA, Alison Lee Farquhar of Quincy and Andrew Alexander Farquhar of AZ.

Brother-in-law of Theresa Lane and her husband Paul of Milton. Uncle of Virginia Flannery of CT, Paul Farquhar of Quincy, William Farquhar of CT, Peter Farquhar of CA, Paul Lane of Wellesley, Gregory Lane of Milton and David Gilligan of Boston.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment with Military Honors will be held at a cemetery to be announced.

Memorial donations may be made to the South Shore YMCA, 79 Coddington Street, Quincy, MA 02169.

Kevin Kelley

Merchant Seaman

A funeral Mass for Kevin Kelley of Quincy, formerly of Dorchester, was celebrated Wednesday in Sacred Heart Church, North Quincy.

Mr. Kelley died Dec. 5.

Beloved son of the late Thomas J. and Theresa (Kabasinski) Kelley.

Loving brother of Stephen Kelley and his wife Therese of Norwood, Thomas Kelley and his wife Anita of Quincy, Patricia Spring and her husband Roger of Hanover, Theresa Kelley of Quincy, Daniel Kelley and his wife Shirley of Hanson, Maureen Reed and her husband Paul of Halifax, Debra Gaudette and her husband

Ronald of Attleboro, and Darlene Kelley and her companion Charles Newton of NH.

Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Mr. Kelley's passion was working and living on the ocean. He sailed the world for over 25 years as a merchant seaman.

His family remembers him as fun-loving, happy and always willing to lend a helping hand.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Joslin Diabetes Center, 1 Joslin Place, Boston, MA 02215.

Helen C. Flynn

Retired United Way Employee

A funeral Mass for Helen C. (Long) Flynn of Milton was celebrated Monday at St. Agatha Church, Milton.

Mrs. Flynn died Dec. 5 after a long struggle with Alzheimer's Disease.

Born in Boston, she grew up in Jamaica Plain and lived in Brockton and Sandwich before moving to Milton seven years ago. She had resided at Hancock Park, Quincy for the past three years.

Mrs. Flynn was a former employee of The United Way at The Neighborhood House, Jamaica Plain.

The beloved wife of the late Daniel B. Flynn, she is survived by her devoted children; Arthur L. and his wife Jeanne of Bourne, Edward G. and his wife Susan of Sandwich, Clifford C. and his wife MaryBeth of Milton, Paulette M. of Quincy, her daughter-in-law, Virginia Flynn of Milton, nine cherished grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

She was the mother of the late Daniel B. Flynn, Jr.

Funeral arrangements were by the Alfred D. Thomas Funeral Home, 326 Granite Ave., Milton.

Memorial donations may be made Hancock Park Rehabilitation & Nursing Center, Activities Fund, 164 Parkway, Quincy, MA 02169.

For Other Obituaries
Visit The Quincy Sun's Website:
www.thequincysun.com

CLASSIFIEDS

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION GIVING NOTICE OF PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN FOR INCAPACITATED PERSON PURSUANT TO G.L. c. 190B, §5-304 Commonwealth of Massachusetts The Trial Court Probate and Family Court Norfolk Probate and Family Court 35 Shawmut Road Canton, MA 02021 Docket No. NO12P1643GD

In the matter of: Mei Hing Guan Of: Braintree, MA RESPONDENT

Alleged Incapacitated Person

To the named Respondent and all other interested persons, a petition has been filed by Kindred Nursing and Rehabilitation of Braintree, MA in the above captioned matter alleging that Mei Hing Guan is in need of a Guardian and requesting that Xiao Ning Guan of Quincy, MA (or some other suitable person) be appointed as Guardian to serve Without Surety on the bond.

The petition asks the court to determine that the Respondent is incapacitated, that the appointment of a Guardian is necessary, and that the proposed Guardian is appropriate. The petition is on file with this court and may contain a request for certain specific authority.

You have the right to object to this proceeding. If you wish to do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance at this court on or before 10:00 A.M. on the return date of 01/02/2013. This day is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline date by which you have to file the written appearance if you object to the petition. If you fail to file the written appearance by the return date, action may be taken in this matter without further notice to you. In addition to filing the written appearance, you or your attorney must file a written affidavit stating the specific facts and grounds of your objection within 30 days after the return date.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The outcome of this proceeding may limit or completely take away the above-named person's right to make decisions about personal affairs or financial affairs or both. The above-named person has the right to ask for a lawyer. Anyone may make this request on behalf of the above-named person. If the above-named person cannot afford a lawyer, one may be appointed at State expense.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: November 26, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

12/13/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION
Docket No. NO12P2841EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200

Estate of:
Stephen Charles Ricciardi
Date of Death:
November 12, 2012
To all interested persons:
A petition has been filed by: Dana D Ricciardi of Quincy, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Dana D Ricciardi of Quincy, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 01/02/2013. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: November 29, 2012
PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

12/13/12

LEGAL NOTICE

ORDER FOR SERVICE BY PUBLICATION AND MAILING
Docket No. SU12D2440DR
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Suffolk Probate and Family Court
24 New Chardon Street
PO Box 9667
Boston, MA 02114
(617)788-8300
Cassandra Watson vs. Felix Colon

Upon motion of plaintiff for an order directing the defendant, to appear, plead, or answer, in accordance with Mass.R.Civ.P./Mass.R.Dom. Rel.P.Rule 4, it appearing to the court that is an action for Divorce 1B.

Pursuant to Supplemental Probate Court Rule 411, an Automatic Restraining Order has been entered against the above named parties. Defendant cannot be found within the Commonwealth and his/her present whereabouts are unknown. Personal service on defendant is therefore not practicable, and defendant has not voluntarily appeared in this action.

It is Ordered that defendant is directed to appear, plead, answer, or otherwise move with respect to the complaint herein on or before January 10, 2013. If you fail to do so this Court will proceed to a hearing and adjudication of this matter.

It is further Ordered that the accompanying summons be published once in the Quincy Sun, a newspaper published in: 1372 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169 Ph.#617-471-3100, the publication to be 20 days at least before said return day. It is further Ordered that a copy of the summons be mailed to the defendant at his/her last known address by registered or certified mail.

Date: November 7, 2012
Elaine M. Moriarty
Justice of Probate and Family Court
by Kathleen Karey
AJCM

12/13/12

PERSONAL CARE

Personal Care Attendant to Care for Elderly Woman & her Special Needs Adult Daughter Neponset Area
Morning/Afternoon/Evening
781-308-9000
"Experience & References Required"

LEGAL NOTICE

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS THE TRIAL COURT THE PROBATE AND FAMILY COURT DEPARTMENT
Norfolk Division
Docket No. 12E0087

To Pauline Tom, co-trustee of the Tom Family Trust UDT DTD 11-2-05 and Nancy Tom, co-trustee of the TOM Family Trust UDT DTD 11-2-05 and to all other persons interested.

A petition has been presented to said Court by Nancy Tom of 10 Weston St. #322, Quincy in the County, Norfolk representing that she holds as tenant in common an undivided 50% part or share of certain land lying in Quincy in said County of Norfolk and briefly described as follows: 23 Joan Dr., Quincy, MA as described in exhibit "A" attached to said petition.

Setting for that she desires that - all - the following described part - of said land may be sold at private sale for not less than $355,600.00 dollars and praying that partition may be made of all the land aforesaid according to law, and to that end that a commissioner be appointed to make such partition and be ordered to make sale and conveyance of all, or any part of said land which the Court finds cannot be advantageously divided, either at private sale or public auction, and be ordered to distribute the net proceeds thereof.

If you desire to object thereto, you or your attorney should file a written appearance in said Court at Canton before ten o'clock in the forenoon on the 28th day of Dec 2012, the return day of this citation.

Witness, Angela M. Ordoñez, Esquire, First Justice of said Court, this 8th day of Nov, 2012.

PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

12/6, 12/13, 12/20/12

REPORT POTHOLES

Potholes are a year-round problem and should be reported to the Department of Public Works.

CLEANING SERVICES

DASILVA CLEANING SERVICES
Home & Office Cleaning
Professional, Affordable
Reliable & Trustworthy
Weekly or Bi-Weekly References
CALL Meiry 781-803-2922
12/27

SISTERS CLEANING
IF YOU NEED SOMEONE TO CLEAN YOUR HOUSE. WE DO HOUSES, APTS & OFFICES.
CALL NOW 978-587-2252
12/27

LEGAL NOTICE

SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION
Docket No. 04D0181-DV1
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Department
Norfolk Division
Mu Jie Chen, Plaintiff
V.

Sze Dak Seto, Defendant
To the above named Defendant:

A Complaint has been presented to this Court by the Plaintiff, MU JIE CHEN, seeking MODIFICATION.

You are required to serve upon MU JIE CHEN, whose address is 181 Liberty Street, Quincy, Ma.02169, your answer on or before the 14th day of February 2013. If you fail to do so, the Court will proceed to the hearing and adjudication of this action. You are also required to file a copy of your answer in the office of the Register of this court at CANTON.

Witness, Angela Ordonez, Esquire, First Justice of said Court at CANTON, this 29th day of November 2012.

PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate Court

12/13/12

SKIN CARE

FREE FACIAL
individual or groups
MARY KAY
Celebrating 50 Years
Skincare for Women
Age 12 & Beyond
MICHELLE, Consultant
781-258-7564 TF

FOR SALE

1998 Ford Explorer Sport, 2 door, Green 100,000K
Parked at 340 Adams St., Quincy
Calls Only 617-877-6653
$3000 or B/O 12/13

FOUND

In West Quincy
Found an Engraved
Pair of Rosary Beads
Call Grace:
617-653-6724 12/13

MISCELLANEOUS

Medical Office Trainees NEEDED!
Train to become a Medical Office Assistant! No Experience Needed! Job training & Local Placement assistance! HS Diploma/GED & PC/Internet Needed 1-888-589-9680.

BECOME A SURROGATE MOTHER! Help an infertile couple! Generous compensation! Non-smoker, 21-42 yrs old, must have given birth visit www.newlifesurrogacy.com or call 908-208-6333

AIRLINES ARE HIRING! Train for hands on Aviation Career. FAA approved program. Financial aid if qualified-Job placement assistance. Call Aviation Institute of Maintenance 877-202-0386

ATTEND COLLEGE ONLINE from home. *Medical, *Business, *Criminal Justice, *Hospitality. Job placement assistance. Computer available. Financial Aid if qualified. SCHEV certified. Call 888-216-1791 www.CenturaOnline.com

CERAMICS

Made to Order Finished Ceramic Christmas Trees and Gifts.
Replacement Lights Stars & Wiring
Ceramic Supplies & Classes
E & T Ceramics & Printing
367 Billings Rd - Wollaston
617-479-4107 12/20

QUINCY ANIMAL SHELTER

56 Broad Street, Quincy • 617-376-1349
quincyanimalshelter.org

IN-SHELTER ADOPTION HOURS

TUESDAY and THURSDAYS 6:00 to 8:00 pm
FRIDAYS 4 - 6 pm SATURDAYS 10 am - 4 pm
Adoption fees include initial vaccinations and Spay/Neuter as needed. 100% volunteer run, new volunteers always needed.
FOR LOST or FOUND ANIMALS call ANIMAL CONTROL at 617-376-1364.
AVAILABLE DOGS *

FRANKIE: 1, pit bull blend.
JOSIE: young Pit blend.
JOSE: male, Mini Pinscher.

AVAILABLE CATS

PRISCILLA: 10, female, calico.
BUDDY: 10, male, gray & white.
CUDDLES: 12, male, all black.
ROBIN: 1, male, orange & white.
ZOE: 2, female, black.
DIGSBY: 9, male, orange.
JOSHUA: 11, male, gray tabby.
CHILCHI: 10, female, gray & white.
KITTY: 7, female, black & white.
ROBERT: 4, male, gray tabby.
PRETTY GIRL: 3, female, orange & white.
DINA: 8, female, black & white.

WE HAVE KITTENS!!!!!!

QUINCY SUN NEWSCARRIERS WANTED

Here's a chance to earn extra money by building a Quincy Sun home delivery route.

Telephone
617-471-3100

NO REFUND WILL BE MADE AT THIS CONTRACT RATE IN THE EVENT OF CANCELLATION.
DEADLINE: FRIDAY
AT 4PM. PLEASE INCLUDE YOUR PHONE NUMBER IN AD.

SUN FUN PAGE

King Crossword

ACROSS

- 1 Soft muddy stuff
5 Swabbie's tool
8 Cinderella's horses, really
12 Apiary structure
13 Anger
14 Out of control
15 Iowa city
16 Slapstick missile
18 Joan of Arc, for instance
20 Slanders in print
21 Cambodia neighbor
23 "Le Coq —"
24 "Old soldiers —"
28 Use a strainer
31 Opposite of
24 -Down
32 "No man is an island" poet
34 Lincoln, to pals
- 35 Safecracker
37 Be dishonest
39 Historic time
41 Thin streak of smoke
42 Thespians
45 Concealed
49 Formal attire
51 Architect
52 Tardy
53 Grecian vessel
54 Pet shop enclosure
55 Basin accessory
56 — relief
57 Grandson of Eve
- 8 Ballroom dances
9 Royal
10 Spring shape
11 — out (supplements)
17 Help
19 Three feet
22 Muscle connector
24 Opposite of
31 -Across
25 Storm center
26 Produce plants
27 Peps up
29 Justice
30 Golf ball holder
33 Otherwise
36 Food merchant
38 Each
40 Noah's boat
42 Competent
43 Talon
44 Half a ticket
46 Slender
47 Therefore 48 Accomplishes
50 Playwright Levin

DOWN

- 1 Fraud
2 Peru's capital
3 Finished
4 Mortar's partner
5 Teeny-tiny photo reproduction
6 Bobby of hockey lore
7 Rind

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

MAGIC MAZE

LET THEM EAT CAKE

G G E C Z X V T R P D N L J H
E K A C P U C E N C O D C A E
Y K W H V T R P O N O L A K K
I G A O E C B Z F O F X R W A
E K A C T I U R F L L U R S C
R P O O A U P S I D E D O W N
M L J L I E L G H E G N T D A
D B A A Y I T X C W N U N N P
T S Q T V E K A C P A L F U P
O M A E R C N O T S O B N O F
L T D N U B K J H E G N O P S

Find the listed words in the diagram. They run in all directions — forward, backward, up, down and diagonally.

Angel food
Boston cream
Bundt
Chiffon
Chocolate
Cupcake
Devil's-food
Flapcake
Fruitcake
Funnel
Pancake
Pound
Sponge
Teacake
Upside-down

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

HOCUS-FOCUS

BY HENRY BOLTINOFF

FIND AT LEAST 6 DIFFERENCES BETWEEN PANELS.

Differences: 1. Window is shorter. 2. Tassel is shorter. 3. Pocket is missing. 4. Scarf is shorter. 5. Temperature is lower. 6. Sled is missing.

Trivia test

by Fifi Rodriguez

1. PSYCHOLOGY: If you had choreophobia, what would you be afraid of?
2. COMICS: What comic hero has a nemesis named Ming the Merciless?
3. TELEVISION: Where were the characters of "Laverne and Shirley" employed in Milwaukee?
4. ARCHITECTURE: Who invented the geodesic dome?
5. LITERATURE: What were the names of "The Three Musketeers" by Alexandre Dumas?
6. MOVIES: What male actor starred in the 1981 film "Arthur," and who was his leading lady?
7. GEOGRAPHY: Where is the island country of Sri Lanka located?

8. CHEMISTRY: What is the Periodic Table symbol for zinc?
9. GENERAL KNOWLEDGE: What nickname did author Tom Wolfe give the 1970s?
10. LANGUAGE: What are corsairs?

Answers

1. Dancing
2. Flash Gordon
3. Shotz Brewery
4. Richard Buckminster Fuller
5. Aramis, Athos and Porthos
6. Dudley Moore and Liza Minelli
7. Off the coast of India
8. Zn
9. The "Me" Decade
10. Privately owned warships

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Wishing Well®

8	6	7	6	4	6	5	4	6	8	5	6	4
E	A	A	S	A	W	U	L	I	N	N	T	O
7	5	7	4	3	8	7	4	7	5	6	3	2
L	S	O	V	V	J	V	E	E	E	C	I	E
4	2	7	6	4	5	6	2	3	4	8	5	2
T	X	A	H	O	L	T	P	S	R	O	F	E
4	7	3	2	6	4	6	2	3	4	3	5	2
E	F	I	C	O	M	S	T	T	E	N	I	C
7	5	4	5	6	7	3	6	3	4	3	2	4
F	S	M	H	U	A	E	C	W	B	P	H	E
6	4	6	8	5	2	6	7	2	5	3	7	5
C	R	E	Y	A	A	S	I	N	I	L	R	D
6	3	8	2	3	2	8	3	8	2	8	3	8
S	A	H	G	C	E	U	E	M	S	O	S	R

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) An old adversary wants to make amends over the holidays. The decision is yours. But wouldn't it be nice to share the upcoming new year with another friend?

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) As news of your work gets around, expect to receive a special holiday "gift" from influential contacts who could help you launch your new projects in the new year.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Instead of fussing over what you didn't do to prepare for the holidays, relax and enjoy the kudos for a job truly well done. A happy surprise awaits you early next year.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) The best way to shake off lingering holiday blues is to join loved ones in the fun and festivities of this special time. A confusing situation starts to make sense in upcoming weeks.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Special emotional rewards mark this holiday time for Leos and Leonas who are able to open up to new relationships and the possibilities they offer in the upcoming year.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Your efforts to make the holidays especially memorable for some people will be rewarded in some unexpected (but very welcome) ways in the upcoming year.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Be assured that your efforts to make this holiday special for everyone won't go unnoticed by those who could make some important changes in your life.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Lots of folks want you to light up their holiday parties. But try to take some quiet time 'twix those glittering galas to spend with some very special people.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) While the current round of holiday revels has your social life on the fast track, someone special might want to keep pace with you next year, as well.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Enjoy all the fun you deserve at this holiday time. However, don't lose sight of the need to check out some of the changes the new year is expected to bring.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) What happens during this holiday time can help clear up some of the confusion jeopardizing a once-stable relationship. Follow your instincts on what to do next.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your holidays are brightened by new friends eager to become part of your life. But don't forget to spend time with that one special person. (You know who!)

BORN THIS WEEK: You have the ability to encourage people to reach their potential by setting an example with your own efforts.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

CryptoQuip

This is a simple substitution cipher in which each letter used stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Solution is accomplished by trial and error.

Clue: E equals F

YE R MJHZRYV OJVZRK

GHWOXMZ AJHJ ARB

XVOJHGHYMO, YZ AWXKO

GHWSRSKB SJ R EKWTT KJROJH.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

King Crossword

Answers

Solution time: 25 mins.

Magic Maze

ANSWERS:

— MASTER

Cryptoquip

ANSWER:

probably be a floss leader.
underpinned, it would product were way
If a certain dental

Community Leaders Ring The Bell For The Salvation Army

COMMUNITY LEADER kettle for the Salvation Army kicked off last Thursday outside Quincy City hall. From left are Mayor Thomas Koch, Lt. Nicole Ross and her husband Lt. Timothy Ross and City Council President Michael McFarland. Local leaders will man the City Hall Kettle again today (Thursday) from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. There is also a business leader kettle located in front of the Granite Trust Building Wednesday (Dec. 12) and Friday, Dec. 14.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

RINGING THE BELL for the Salvation Army are House Majority Leader and Quincy state Rep. Ron Mariano (left), Ward 1 Councillor Margaret Laforest and state Sen. John Keenan.

WARD 5 City Councillor Kirsten Hughes (left), School Committeewoman Emily Lebo and School Supt. Dr. Richard DeCristofaro enjoy their shift manning the Community Leader Salvation Army Kettle outside Quincy City Hall.

COUNCILLOR JOE FINN (left), School Committeeman Paul Bregoli (center) and former Norfolk County Dist. Atty. George Burke ring the bell for the Salvation Army.

POLICE CHIEF Paul Keenan (left), School Committeewoman Emily Lebo and Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall also volunteered at the Community Leader Salvation Army Kettle at City Hall.

ANOTHER SHIFT at the Salvation Army Community Leader kettle was manned by (from left) Joe Reardon, president of the Manet Community Health Center Board of Directors; Councillor Doug Gutro; Quincy Access TV Director Bette Campbell and QATV's Government Access Coordinator Mark Crosby.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

Community Leader Kettle Continues Wednesday-Friday

Cont'd From Page 2

Eastern Nazarene College,) and Quincy Rotary Club President Marianne Peak (superintendent, Adams National Historical Park.)

2 p.m. — Fire Chief Joseph Barron, Norfolk County Commissioner John Gillis and Ron Ivil and Dick Lombardi of the Quincy-North Quincy Football Hall of Fame.

3 p.m. — Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee; Edward Fitzgerald, executive director, Quincy Historical Society and Harry Williams, director, Thomas Crane Public Library.

FRIDAY, DEC. 14
1400 Hancock St.

10 a.m. — Dolly DiPesa, DiPesa & Company; Uncle Sam Rounseville, Red Door Real Estate; Peter Bellotti, Bellotti Law Group; Edward Keohane, Keohane Funeral Homes; and Terri Bellotti-Palmieri, vice president Eastern Bank.

11 a.m. — Janet Joyce, S Bank; John McCarty, vice president, The Bank of Canton; Richard Gormley, Sovereign Bank; Anthony Drew, South Coastal Bank; and Clemens Young, Rockland Savings Bank.

Noon — Peter Racicot, Sr., vice president, Fallon Ambulance; Daniel Knell, CEO, Quincy Medical Center; Henry Tuttle, president and CEO, Manet Health; Paul Gorman, president, South Shore YMCA; and Don Uvanitte, Sr., vice president, Eastern Insurance and member Salvation Army Advisory Board.

1 p.m. — Dr. Harry Chung, Adams Family Dental; Dr. Robert Clark, Clark Chiropractic; Donald McCarthy, Deware Funeral Home; Steve Tobias, Tobias Hearing Center; and Maralin Manning, Quincy Chamber of Commerce and Salvation Army Advisory Board member.

2 p.m. — Rick Doane, Interfaith Social Services; Lola Tom, Multicultural Home Care; Donna Kelble, Eastern Bank; and Patrick Garvey, South Shore Savings Bank.

3 p.m. — Beth Veneto, Ginger Betty's; Tom Galvin, Best Western Adams Inn and Pub; Leo Keka, Alba's; Kristie Henriksen, Siro's; and Jimmy Liang, Fugi, Bistro Chi, Café Beni and Shabu.

4 p.m. — Marty McGovern, Neighborhood Club of Quincy and Jenn Ormond, Coffee Break Café.

Mr. Bosworth established the "community leader" kettle in 1997. The kettle was manned by volunteers at several locations including outside the former Ryder's Curtain and Drapery Store in Quincy Center and later in front of City Hall.

The Salvation Army is grateful to the community leaders for helping to man the kettles. The volunteers are asking friends to stop by and "help fill the kettle" to help the many who are in need.

Those wishing to donate to the Salvation Army may also visit The Quincy Sun's website where there is a link to a "virtual kettle." The Sun's website can be found at www.thequincysun.com.

HELPING HANDS – Members of the Point Webster Middle School Student Council and Advisor Jacqueline Principi with food drive items collected for the Germantown Neighborhood Center. Photo Courtesy Point Webster Middle School

Christmas Joy Fair Saturday

Christmas Joy Fair will be held Saturday, Dec. 15 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at O'Brien Towers, 73 Bicknell St., Quincy. The fair will feature tables with crafts, gifts and food. Lunch will be available (meatball sub, hot dog, cheeseburger, French fries and drinks.)

Catholic Club Christmas Party

The North Quincy Catholic Club will hold a Christmas Party Thursday, Dec. 13 at 7 p.m. in the School Hall of Quincy Catholic Academy. Lynn Basile will conduct a short business. Socorro Talamera is chairlady for the evening. The next meeting will be March 14.

Four Residents Graduate Mass. College Of Art, Design

Four Quincy residents recently graduated from the Massachusetts College of Art and Design in Boston. They are: Victoria Wu with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in art and design, Jasmine K. Fanning with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in art education, Iok Min Wong with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in architecture, and Zheyu Zhou with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in painting.

Visit Santa at Cliffords

Bring your camera!!!

Saturday 12/15
11AM-1PM

A SURPRISE
FOR EACH CHILD!

1229 Hancock Street, Quincy

This year, Give Quincy a Year-Round Christmas Present!

A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION TO

The Quincy Sun

$25.00 in Quincy * $30.00 outside Quincy
$38.00 out of state

to order, call 617-471-3100

MARINA BAY
Nursing & Rehabilitation Center

Wave of the Future

www.marinabaynursing.com

For a tour please call
617-769-5100 (x 115)

5 Star Customer Service

Specializing in Short Term Recovery

Orthopedic Care

- Hips
- Knees

Cardiac Care Stroke

BANECARE
A Matter of Trust

Impact Quincy Honors Community Heroes
Page 2
NQ Boys, Quincy Girls Win Hoop Showdowns
Pages 24, 25

69 CAR-RT LOT#B-099
 THOMAS CRAN PUBLIC LIBRARY
 PO BOX 699164
 QUINCY MA 02269-9164

The Quincy Sun

VOL. 45 No. 14

Thursday, December 20, 2012

75¢

DEAR SANTA CLAUS - Quincy sisters (from left) Nia, Alison and Anna Cahill mail Santa a few gift suggestions at his mailbox outside City Hall.
Quincy Sun Photo Robert Bosworth

QHA Director Denies Slow Turnover Rates

For Unoccupied Units

By KRIS KALABOKAS

Quincy Housing Authority Executive Director Joseph MacRitchie said he is "personally offended for the staff, for the agency, and for the board," according to testimony he gave at a Dec. 12 public meeting, where he countered the findings of a July 1, 2008 to Nov. 30, 2010 state audit which has accused the authority of slow turnover rates for unoccupied units.

MacRitchie fervently denied any delay and claimed that the average time a unit went unoccupied was 18 days, meeting the Department of Housing and Community Development's (DHCD) 21 day requirement.

"Quite frankly, I'm very proud with what we've done with the vacancies," he said, before offering

Cont'd On Page 13

Council Remembers Victims Of Connecticut Tragedy

The City Council dedicated its Monday night meeting to the 26 children and adults killed in Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, CT. A single candle was lit at the start of the meeting and placed in front of Council President Michael McFarland's podium.

"We focus tonight not on the darkness of the evil that was visited upon that community, but on the light cast by the lives of those whose names we will read here tonight," Ward 3 Councillor Kevin Coughlin said. "As fellow Americans and brothers and sisters in a common humanity we join in spirit with residents of Newtown in their time of sorrow by dedicating our gathering tonight to them."

Coughlin then read the names of the 20 children and six educators killed in the shooting. A moment of silence followed.

Toy Drive Saturday To Benefit Newtown Children

By EMILY TAFT

This Saturday, Dec. 22, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., local Quincy families will be holding a toy drive at Pageant Field to benefit the families of Sandy Hook Elementary School.

"This is a tragedy that has affected the whole country and world, and it makes you wonder what can you do to help these families," said toy drive organizer Ryan Craig. "These families, these kids, are not going to have much of a Christmas, so we decided to do something for them. We just want to put a smile on their faces and if that is something we can do just for a couple minute, an hour, two hours, or the whole day, than we hopefully have helped them in some small way to get them through this tough time."

Craig, along with his wife Meredith decided to have the toy drive after talking with families in the Beechwood Knoll area of Quincy. After making numerous phone calls and finally finding a contact within the Connecticut Social Service Department, the pair was able to start organizing what they hope to be a successful toy drive.

"We are hoping enough people will turn out and we will get enough toys to fill one truck, if not a second truck," said Craig. "We are not looking for cash donations, just toys. This isn't just one section of Quincy coming together this is coming from the entire Quincy community."

According to Craig every toy donated will benefit the families of Sandy Hook Elementary School directly. On Sunday the Craig's along with other Quincy residents will make the trip to Connecticut to drop off the toys so the children

Cont'd On Page 13

FLAGS WERE LOWERED to half-staff throughout Quincy including these in front of the Stop and Shop Headquarters in Quincy Center in remembrance of the 26 shooting victims at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Conn. last Friday. Moments of silence were also observed at school sporting events over the weekend and at Monday night's City Council meeting. Related stories on Page 9.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

Early Deadline Next Week

Because of the Christmas Day holiday, there is an early news and advertising deadline for next week's Quincy Sun.

News, church, organizations and youth sports releases, retail and classified advertising and legal notices should be in The Sun office, 1372 Hancock St., by noon tomorrow (Friday) to assure publication in the Dec. 27 issue.

The issue will go to press next Monday, Dec. 24 and be circulated next Wednesday, Dec. 26.

Former Prosecutors: Don't Retry Cahill - Page 3
Quincy Real Estate Transactions Dec. 10-14 - Page 21
Fifth Graders: 'If I Could Give One Gift...' - Pages 28-44

For more Quincy news, visit:
TheQuincySun.com

Impact Quincy Honors Community Heroes

By SCOTT JACKSON

Quincy's state senator, Norfolk County's top prosecutor, and two Quincy Police lieutenants were among the recipients of Impact Quincy's 2012 Community Hero Awards for their efforts in fighting drug abuse and for making a difference in the city.

Sen. John Keenan received the award for his legislation aimed at cracking down on prescription drug abuse. The legislation, signed into law over the summer, requires doctors who prescribe certain painkillers to enroll in a state-wide monitoring system. The system already existed before Keenan's bill, but it was only voluntary. That legislation was one of many accomplishments Keenan has had during his career in public service, according to

NORFOLK COUNTY Dist. Atty. Michael Morrissey (right) received his Impact Quincy 2012 Community Heroes award for installing medication drop-off kiosks countywide. Presenting the award is Bay State Community Services' Bill Spinks.

Quincy Sun Photos/Scott Jackson

Bay State Community Services President and CEO Kenneth Tarabelli.

"We could be up here giving him an award for many, many different things. We could be talking about our cities and towns and what he's done for local aid. Or about the environment - what he's done to secure open space - or what he's done around pension reform," Tarabelli said. "We're here today because of the work he's done as chairman of the committee on mental health and substance abuse. In particular the legislation he authored on the prescription drug epidemic."

IMPACT QUINCY honored Quincy Police Lt. Det. Patrick Glynn (left) for administering the department's Narcan program and Lt. Timothy Sorgi (right) for the community policing program. Sen. John Keenan was honored for his prescription drug abuse legislation.

When he accepted the award, Keenan said he wants to make sure those who are struggling with substance abuse issues are able to realize their full potential.

"We all have family members and friends who deal with the issue of substance abuse - for many it's very personal," Keenan said. "I think the tide is turning. People are starting to recognize that people with substance abuse issues are mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, children. They live lives in so many ways with great dignity. It's up to us to recognize that dignity and do what we can do to make sure they fulfill their full promise and potential."

He conceded that substance abuse is not yet on the decline, but told the audience gathered at the Thomas Crane Library for the ceremony that their efforts would help make a difference in the end.

"The challenges that we face here in the City of Quincy and in cities and towns all across the state, they don't seem to be waning but I'm confident that because people like you are involved in the effort that we will stem the tide," Keenan said. "We'll turn the corner and we'll all be better for it."

Norfolk County Dist. Atty. Michael Morrissey, Keenan's predecessor in the State Senate, was honored

Cont'd On Page 16

QUINCYOPOLY

A UNIQUE AND FUN BOARD GAME WITH A LOCAL FLAIR!

Great Holiday Gift!

Games available at:

Training Resources of America

1458 Hancock Street, Suite 304, Quincy, MA

For more information call: 617-773-1470

We'll deliver in the local Quincy area!

All proceeds benefit Quincy YouthBuild operated by Training Resources of America

SAVE $5 WITH THIS AD & GET YOUR GAME FOR ONLY $20*

*This offer is valid through 12/31/12 (Cash or Check Only)

Spend the Holidays with Us!

*2-for-1
Assisted Living
Short Stay
*Stay for 2 Weeks,
pay for Only
1 Week!

A tradition of quality care from our family to yours

164 Parkway • Quincy, MA 02169

www.welchhrg.com

Allerton House

Assisted Living Community
at Hancock Park

Enjoy our:

- Caring, personal approach
- Genuine interest in your family
- Fully furnished apartments
- Excellent dining options
- Fun holiday activities

Reserve your apartment today.

Call Kelly at: 339-788-2979

I am a Steward.

Barry R. Miller, MD
Internal Medicine
Hematology/Oncology
Steward Medical Group Crown Internal Medicine,
500 Congress Street, Suite 2G, Quincy

As a long time member of the Quincy Medical Center community, Steward Medical Group is pleased to welcome Dr. Barry Miller as a member of our team. Dr. Miller is board certified in hematology as well as medical oncology. A graduate of the University of Edinburgh Faculty of Medicine, Dr. Miller completed his residency in oncology at Boston University Medical Center. In addition to general internal medicine, his areas of special interest include blood diseases and cancer diagnosis and treatment. Dr. Miller also speaks French, Hebrew and Spanish. Please call DoctorFinder™ at 1-800-488-5959 to make an appointment.

Quincy Medical Center
A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

Call 800-488-5959 or visit steward.org/doctorfinder

Some Call First Trial 'Waste Of Time, Money'

Former Prosecutors

Bellotti, Burke:

Don't Retry Cahill

By SCOTT JACKSON

Former state Attorney General Frank Bellotti believes former Treasurer Tim Cahill should not be retried on public corruption charges after a hung jury led to a mistrial.

Bellotti, a Quincy resident who served as attorney general from 1975 to 1987, said he followed the month-long trial and hoped Cahill would be acquitted. Bellotti does not think Cahill, a Quincy resident and former city councillor, should have to go through another trial after the jury failed to reach a verdict on two conspiracy charges following seven days of deliberations.

"We know Timmy and he's a very nice person," Bellotti said. "I wouldn't want to go through a second trial, but that's not my call."

The former attorney general believes that Attorney General Martha Coakley should not seek a new trial because the end result will not be any different.

"I think that Martha took her shot and she didn't make it. I wouldn't try that case a second time," Bellotti said. "I don't think you'll get a different result with a second jury."

FRANK BELLOTTI

Bellotti doubts that the mistrial on charges against Cahill and the acquittal of co-defendant Scott Campbell — a Quincy resident and Cahill's chief of staff at the Treasury — will hurt Coakley's political career. Coakley has been mentioned as a possible candidate for governor in 2014 and could run for Senate again if a special election happens next year.

"Sometimes things stick with you," Bellotti said, "but I don't think it has a long-term effect for her."

Cahill was accused of using state money to air Lottery ads to boost his ultimately unsuccessful 2010 gubernatorial campaign; Cahill was registered Democrat prior to that race but left from the party and ran as an independent. Bellotti said a guilty verdict would have a 'chilling effect' on politicians who run similar ads.

GEORGE BURKE

"If he'd been found guilty it would have a chilling effect on anyone who does public service ads," Bellotti said.

Former Norfolk County District Attorney George Burke said a new trial would be a waste.

"I don't think he should be retried. It's a waste of time and money," Burke said.

Burke, who said he reviewed all cases before sending them to a grand jury for an indictment, added that he would not have even indicted Cahill in the first place.

"I ran into Tim Cahill at

Cont'd On Page 12

Colonial Federal Savings Bank

Supports Globe Santa

CUSTOMERS AND EMPLOYEES of Colonial Federal Savings Bank are supporting Globe Santa's "Give A Little, Help A Lot" holiday assistance program. Globe Santa has been providing holiday assistance since 1956 with 100 percent of all donations going to children in need. Colonial Federal will match the first $1,000 collected in the donation receptacles located at each of its offices: 15 Beach St., Wollaston; 1000 Southern Artery, East Wing (for residents only); 802 South Franklin St., Holbrook and 708 Middle St., Weymouth. Here Colonial Federal Savings Bank employees Pauline Palardy and Noreen McEachern make donations at the Wollaston branch.

Lisa Aimola Photo

SPREAD HOLIDAY HAPPINESS...FREE!

Who says you have to spend money to have a memorable holiday? Give these a try — they're fun... and free!

Mend a quarrel. Keep a promise.
Gladden the heart of a child. Listen.
Seek out a long-lost friend. Give a soft answer.
Do a good deed anonymously.
Think before you speak. Apologize if you were wrong.
Share a treasure. Try to understand.
Let someone else go first. Welcome a stranger.
Appreciate the beauty and wonder of the earth.
And, while there's time, let people know
you're glad they're in your life.
That's the greatest gift of all.

Here's where we take our own advice:

To all our Colonial Federal customers & friends, thank you! We appreciate you more than you will ever know. From each and every one of us, happy holidays and a healthy, prosperous New Year to you and yours.

COLONIAL FEDERAL SAVINGS BANK

"Your neighborhood bank!"

QUINCY: 15 Beach Street 617-471-0750 • 1000 Southern Artery (Residents only) 617-479-1430
HOLBROOK: 802 South Franklin Street 781-767-1776
EAST WEYMOUTH: Middle & Washington Streets 781-331-1776 • www.colonialfed.com

Insured FDIC

FREE BREAKFAST OR LUNCH ON YOUR BIRTHDAY

Daily Specials
NOW SERVING SUBS!!!
453 Hancock St., N. Quincy
Open Daily 5AM - 3PM
TAKE OUT AVAILABLE

PAYING TOP DOLLAR for your unwanted jewelry!

APPRAISING,
BUYING &
SELLING...

Del Greco Coins

399 WASHINGTON STREET • ROUTE 53 • WEYMOUTH
LOCATED OFF RT. 3, EXIT 16A, TO RT. 53N
781.337.5069

HOURS: MONDAY • FRIDAY 9 - 5 • SATURDAY 9:30 - 2

Mari's Place

35 Washington St., Quincy
617-471-1200

WWW.MARISPLACE.COM
SUNDAY - THURSDAY
4 p.m. to Close
21-TOPPING PIZZAS FOR $10

MONDAY
Wii Bowling
w/50¢ Wings
@ 8PM

WEDNESDAY
Karaoke 9PM
THURSDAY NIGHT
Open Mic

FRIDAY- Gourmet Night
THURSDAY THRU SUNDAY
Live Bands

FRI. & SAT. at 11PM
LOBSTER RAFFLE

MEAT RAFFLE
SUN., JAN. 6TH
2:00PM

All Raffles Benefit
Hurricane Sandy Relief

$10.00 EVERY DAY
32 oz. Pitcher Bud or Bud
Light w/10 Buffalo Wings
OR 1 Topping Pizza
$5.00 refills

HOME-MADE DAILY SPECIALS

The Quincy Sun

(USPS 453-060)
Published Weekly on Thursday by
The Quincy Sun Publishing Co., Inc.
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

Robert H. Bosworth
Publisher and Editor

Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.
Founder
1968 - 2009

75¢ per copy. $25.00 per year by mail in Quincy
$30.00 per year by mail outside Quincy - $38.00 out-of-state

Telephone: 617-471-3100 Fax: 617-472-3963

online at: www.thequincysun.com

email address: thequincysun@verizon.net

rbosworth@thequincysun.com

Periodicals postage paid at Boston, MA
Postmaster Send address change to:
The Quincy Sun, 1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

The Quincy Sun assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Jan. 6, 1759, a 26-year-old George Washington marries Martha Dandridge Custis. Historical documents have revealed that Martha may not have been the great love of Washington's life. He wrote cryptic yet passionate love letters to Sally Fairfax, the wife of his friend George Fairfax.

• On Jan. 1, 1863, a farmer named Daniel Freeman submits the first claim under the new Homestead Act for a property near Beatrice, Neb. By the 1890s, many homesteaders found that farming 160 acres of such dry land was nearly impossible. At least half of the original homesteaders abandoned their claims.

• On Jan. 3, 1924, British archaeologist Howard Carter and his workers discover the solid-gold coffin holding the mummy of the boy-king Pharaoh Tutankhamen, preserved for more than 3,000 years.

• On Jan. 5, 1945, Japanese pilots receive the first order to become kamikaze, meaning "divine wind" in Japanese. Most of Japan's top pilots were dead, but youngsters needed little training to take planes full of explosives and crash them into ships. At Okinawa, they sank 30 ships and killed almost 5,000 Americans.

• On Jan. 4, 1965, in his State of the Union address, President Lyndon Johnson lays out for Congress a list of legislation needed to achieve his plan for a Great Society. His list included the creation of Medicare/Medicaid, Head Start, the Voting Rights Act and the Civil Rights Act.

• On Dec. 31, 1972, Roberto Clemente, future Hall of Fame baseball player, is killed along with four others when the cargo plane in which he is traveling crashes off the coast of Puerto Rico. At the end of September, Clemente had gotten his 3,000th hit in the final game of the season for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

• On Jan. 2, 1980, in response to the December 1979 Soviet invasion of Afghanistan, President Jimmy Carter asks the Senate to postpone action on the SALT II nuclear weapons treaty. Carter feared that the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan could lead to the USSR gaining control over much of the world's oil supplies.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

High School Choirs Free Concerts At Library

Celebrate the season with two free choral performances at the Thomas Crane Public Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy.

Today (Thursday) at 3:30 p.m., the Quincy High School choir will present a casual concert of holiday selections such as "African Noel," "Hanerot Halalu," and "We Need a Little Christmas," along with various carols.

Tomorrow (Friday) at 3:30 p.m., the North Quincy High School choir will sing the holiday selections "Coventry Carol," "Ding Dong Merrily On High," and "O Nata Lux," along with various carols.

Both choirs, whose members range from grade 9 through grade 12, are under the direction of Quincy Public Schools music teacher Timothy Carew.

For more information, call 617-376-1316.

Son Beams

By ROBERT BOSWORTH

A Wish List

SANTA

Dear Santa:

Well, it's that time of year again, isn't it?

And it's hard to believe that 2012 is just about over and 2013 is almost here.

One thing is for sure: it's been a busy year in Quincy.

And I apologize for submitting this wish list so late.

But before you pack up your sleigh Christmas Eve, here are a few gift suggestions for some of the folks here in the City of Presidents.

Some are serious while others should be taken with a humorous tone.

We know you'll give each one careful consideration.

To Mayor THOMAS KOCH: a larger than expected amount of local aid from the State Legislature to help the city deliver key services while keeping the tax burden down for residential and business property owners. His Honor could also use the maximum reimbursement from the state School Building Authority to build (or renovate) a new Sterling Middle School. The 85-year-old school is really showing its age, Santa. . .

Cong. STEPHEN LYNCH - a grand opening for a Quincy-based constituent services office. He may also need a local campaign headquarters if he decides to run for the U.S. Senate seat if John Kerry is confirmed as President Obama's Secretary of State. . . City Clerk JOSEPH SHEA - 100 percent response from the city census. Santa, this was also on the list last year but some naughty residents failed to return the city census.

The form is important to fill out and return; failure can lead to names being deleted from the voter registration lists. . . State Rep. TACKEY CHAN who recently returned home to Quincy after a trip to Hong Kong - first class airline tickets for his next trip there. It's a very long flight, Santa, and it would be nice to travel first class. . . State Rep. BRUCE AYERS: some golfing lessons. You might want to bring some sod for the "lawn" at Bruce's cottage on the Cape. I hear the neighbors are complaining about the landscaping. . . State Sen. JOHN KEENAN - nomination papers in the event there is a special election for Congress in the 8th District. A few dominoes have to fall for this scenario to play out, Santa, but if Steve Lynch runs in a special election for U.S. Senate and is elected to fill out John Kerry's term, then the Lynch congressional seat would open up. . . Former Mayor FRANK McCAULEY - a consulting position with the National Republican Committee for the 2016 Presidential Campaign and a guest appearance on the Fox News Channel. Frank, a loyal Republican, has strong opinions about the GOP. . . District Attorney MICHAEL MORRISSEY - complete healing from a rib fracture sustained in a recent motor vehicle accident. He's doing well, Santa, but maybe you can help expedite the healing process so that he's pain free walking his daughter down the aisle at her wedding later this month. . . ED KEOHANE and DEAN RIZZO of the Quincy Chamber of Commerce: enough signatures to put an initiative petition calling for a four-year mayoral term on the ballot next fall. Then the voters can decide whether they want the term to remain at 2 years or doubled to 4 years. . .

KEN McPHEE, retiring assistant football coach for the North Quincy Red Raiders - a permanent sideline pass so he's close to the action at Veterans' Memorial Stadium. Santa, you may want to slip one of those sideline passes in the stocking of Quincy High School Principal FRANK SANTORO. He's pretty much at every game pulling for his Presidents. . . DONNA MAVOROMATES, Quincy Chamber of Commerce - a new Nikon camera and the field guide to go with it. She's a good photographer, Santa, and very helpful sending us photos from Chamber events but I think she wants an upgrade. . .

MARALIN MANNING, also of the Quincy Chamber of Commerce - a Vespa scooter to get around town and to all those meetings she attends while being active in many local organizations. . . Police Chief PAUL KEENAN - a year without any pedestrian accidents in Quincy. The city's had way too many this year, Santa. Slowing down and paying attention on the roads will go a long way toward reducing accidents. And it wouldn't hurt to stop multi-tasking with cell phones and other mobile devices and instead concentrate on our surroundings - that's for pedestrians and motorists, too. . . . Chief Keenan, Fire Chief JOSEPH BARRON and all our police and firefighters: safe shifts while serving and protecting the public. . . Dr. PETER TSAFFARAS, president of Quincy College - continued success at the college's new downtown Quincy location and peak enrollment for all the college's semesters. . . The families of Ward 4 Councillor BRIAN PALMUCCI and Ward 5 Councillor KIRSTEN HUGHES - healthy bundles of joy. Both will become parents for the first time and we wish them all health and happiness as they bring new little constituents into the world. . . The best year ever in donation receipts for all of the city's charities and social service organizations including the SALVATION ARMY, FATHER BILL'S PLACE, INTERFAITH SOCIAL SERVICES, QUINCY COMMUNITY ACTION PROGRAMS, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ENDED, QUINCY CRISIS CENTER, GERMANTOWN NEIGHBORHOOD and many others. Keep these folks in mind, too, after Christmas. Assistance is needed all year round. . . PAUL MOODY, commander of the Sons of the American Legion Squadron 294: more flags to decorate Flags for Veterans Island at Fort Square. Santa, Paul and his wife Karen have done a tremendous job with this project starting with just a handful of flags and now there's more than 100. But there's still plenty of room for other folks to purchase flags in memory or in honor of a veteran. . . Playoff berths for Quincy High School head football coach BILL REARDON and North Quincy head coach JIM CONNOR. . . North Quincy High School girls' soccer coach PAUL BREGOLI - 15 victories next season to set a new record at the school. . . Quincy historian TOM GALVIN - many more postcards depicting old scenes from Quincy and perfect weather for his Mount Wollaston Cemetery historical walks next year. . . To the families of TIM CAHILL, SCOTT CAMPBELL and AL GRAZIOSO: good luck and happiness in 2013. Throw in a nice vacation for them too, Santa.

Santa, we also hope you'll take a look at the list of gifts that all the city's fifth graders would like to give this year (special section starts on Page 28.) We have some very creative, thoughtful and inspiring young minds in Quincy and we think you and our readers will enjoy this year's holiday wishes.

To everyone: peace, prosperity and good health now and throughout 2013.

We'd also like to extend the happiest of holidays to all of our loyal advertisers, dedicated newscasters, good friends and faithful subscribers for continuing to support The Quincy Sun as their weekly community newspaper.

Merry Christmas, Happy Chanukah and a very Happy and Healthy New Year from all of us at The Quincy Sun.

Scenes From Yesterday

Quincy's Yesterdays

This Week
1963
49 Years Ago

Official JFK Mourning Period Over, Christmas Mail Down

The official mourning period following President Kennedy's assassination ended this week, but postal officials speculated that the president's death had reduced holiday mail. Nationally, mail was down 2.5 percent.

Quincy post office Supt. Frank Anselmo said that the national trend was reflected in Quincy and the Boston area. During peak days last year the Quincy post office was handling more than one million pieces of mail a day. With just a few days left before Christmas, the mail had yet to reach the one million piece level.

NASH TO HEAD DISTRICT COURTS

Judge Kenneth Nash, presiding justice at Quincy District Court, was nominated by Gov. Endicott Peabody to the new post of Chief Justice for the district courts.

Nash, age 75, was first appointed a special justice by Gov. Samuel McCall to the part-time Quincy court. When the Quincy court was made full-time, Gov. Joseph Ely named Nash presiding justice.

Prior to his judicial appointment, Nash served as Weymouth's state representative, state senator, and town counsel for 20 years.

He played major league baseball for the Cleveland Indians and the St. Louis Cardinals and was baseball coach at Tufts College for 20 years.

FIRST BASKETBALL CLINIC AT QHS

Quincy High School basketball coach Marty Finnegan announced that in conjunction with the annual alumni game, the school would sponsor its first basketball clinic.

The purpose of the clinic was to show parents and fans how the team operated offense and defense in a game. The receipts from the evening's events would help fund the "Q" Club's scholarships.

Among those expected to play on the alumni team were Tom DiTullio, Ken DiBona, Frank Driscoll, and George Burke.

QUINCY-ISMS

An estimated 400 attended the funeral at St. Mary's for John "Jack" Joyce of California Ave. At age 80 he was the oldest member of the Quincy Elks...Rep. James McIntyre called this week's snow plowing a "disgrace." He said it was the worst in memory with side streets not even touched...An electrical fire shut down one of the Christmas display windows at Remick's...Quincy Hospital Director Harlan Paine said the city was losing $50,000 a year because welfare department was not fully reimbursing the hospital for the 7,500 patient days. Welfare paid $39.09 a day with the actual costs at $36.03 a day...Members of the North Quincy High School Spanish classes were raising money for a trip to Mexico. Mabel Pratt was faculty advisor...Building Inspector Alrick Weidman stopped construction on the apartment house at 494 Willard St. until he met with the builder and the architect...George Bonsall, an officer at the Quincy Savings Bank, was honored for his service on the city's retirement board...Three outgoing councillors were honored at their last council meeting. Council President Charles Shea didn't run for re-election, but was an unsuccessful candidate for mayor. Carl Anderson was not re-elected, ending 20 years on the council, the longest record in the city's history. James McCormack didn't seek re-election. He wanted to devote more time to his duties as state senator...Speaker John Thompson appointed Rep. Joseph Brett to the commission studying the state's participation in the 1964-65 New York World's Fair...William Kelly, president of the Quincy City Employees Group, called for a 10 percent pay raise...Councillors George Burke and Richard Barry announced the opening of their offices at 270 Hancock St...Chester Weeden and Mrs. Frederick Costanza resigned from the library board of trustees...the 30-foot fir tree at Wigglesworth Circle was donated by the Losordo brothers for the city's holiday display. It was planted by Henry Faxon 50 years ago and originally stood on the Faxon estate...George Thomas of Washington St., founder of the Syrian Baker, died this week.

MERRY CHRISTMAS from QUINCY, MASS.

Largest Christmas Tree in United States.
85 feet high contributed by Retail Merchants.

CONTINUING WITH A Christmas tradition in The Quincy Sun, this is the 18th year that we have featured this postcard that was published 78 years ago in 1934. This 85-foot fabricated Christmas tree was decorated with 600 lights and two stars on top that blinked alternatively. The Merchants Division of the Quincy Chamber of Commerce erected the tree in front of what was then the Granite Trust Building's main bank building in Quincy Square. Now owned by Street-Works, the banking hall is a branch of the Bank of America. Other tenants in the building include the new Quincy Chamber of Commerce and Rogers Jewelry Store. Merry Christmas. To contact Tom Galvin, e-mail tmgalvin@verizon.net.

From the Collection of City Historian Tom Galvin

QUINCY'S EMMA McDONALD (right) was among the students at Archbishop Williams High School who took part in the school's production of "Home Front." With her are fellow cast members Periklis Sarakiniotis (left) and Erin Crowley.

Nine Quincy Students Take Part In AWHs's 'Home Front'

Nine students from Quincy recently took part in Archbishop Williams High School's Theatre Ensemble production of "Home Front."

"Home Front" offered a heartfelt insight into the lives and families of American soldiers deployed to Iraq and Afghanistan. The play featured actual letters home from men and women serving overseas and was brought to life by a cast of 30 students and another 10 working backstage or in audio and video.

Quincy students participating in the production were:

Sophomore Lauren Carter, freshman Sarah Golden, junior Erin Koehler, junior Emma McDonnell, senior Abby O'Connell, senior Stephanie Stinfort; junior John Dunford who was an assistant lighting engineer; and spotlight engineers Ker-ry Hanlon, a junior and Bryan McMahon, a freshman.

STEPHANIE STINFORT of Quincy, a senior at Archbishop Williams High School; was among local students who were cast in the school's production of "Home Front."

Susan Picillo, director of Drama at AWHs, directed the production, which she says was inspired by her desire to honor those men and women who dedicate themselves to our protection.

"I chose to use my voice, my voice of freedom to be an advocate for these extraordinary men and women," said

Picillo. "I wanted to be certain that those voices of both the soldiers and their families who wait for their safe return were heard, and what better place to tell that story and bring truth and authenticity to light—the stage!"

"Home Front" took six weeks of preparation, including the help of 40 students building the set during the weekends. To show its appreciation for armed forces, the AWHs Theatre Ensemble collected items and donations for soldiers during each performance.

"Every night after the show, people would come up to me and say that they were crying by the end and they were incredibly moved," said junior Emily Tully of Weymouth who played Val, a soldier in Iraq. "It was amazing to see the effect of our performance and to know we sent a message to our audience."

Arts & Entertainment

Radio Icon Ron Della Chiesa Visits Village at Proprietors Green

Quincy native Ron Della Chiesa recently entertained a crowd at Marshfield's Village at Proprietors Green.

Della Chiesa, the radio icon and voice of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, presented an enchanting combination of songs and storytelling to more than 60 seniors. The host of WPLM-FM's "Strictly Sinatra," radio program, Della Chiesa delighted area residents with anecdotes and historical facts about the music of Frank Sinatra and Tony Bennett. Residents from towns around the South Shore swayed to the music of Sinatra's, "All or Nothing at All", and Bennett's "Because of You."

Trivia contest winners received a copy of Della Chiesa's book, "Radio My Way."

Della Chiesa, who will

RADIO LEGEND Ron Della Chiesa and Village at Proprietors Green Sales Director Colleen Carlson moments before the Quincy native's program at the Marshfield senior living community.

turn 75 in February, is celebrating more than 50 years in radio. He began his career as a youngster, making an appearance on a children's program at Quincy radio station, WJDA-AM.

School Vacation Week Activities For Children

The Thomas Crane Public Library announces the following children's programs at its main branch, 40 Washington St., during school vacation week.

Meet Author Carla Marrero

On Thursday, Dec. 27th at 10:30 a.m. meet children's book author Carla Marrero. She will read aloud her story "Mimsie's Mousie" after the reading she will answer questions about writing books and teach you how to draw Mimsie. This program is for children age 3 and older.

Movie: Brave

On Friday, Dec. 28th at 10 a.m. attend a showing of Brave, the story of fearless Princess Merida. This film follows the heroic journey of Merida, a skilled archer and headstrong daughter of King Fergus and Queen Elinor. Determined to carve her own path in life, Merida defies an age-old custom sacred to the unruly and uproarious lords of the land. Merida's actions inadvertently unleash chaos and fury in the kingdom, and when she turns to an eccentric Witch for help, she is granted an ill-fated wish. The ensuing peril forces Merida to harness all of her skills and resources – including her clever and mischievous triplet brothers – to undo a beastly curse before it's too late, discovering the meaning of true bravery.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library. Rated PG Run Time 100 minutes.

Magic with Pink Blogger, The Purple Mermaid

On Saturday, Dec. 29th at 10 a.m. join the local mother and daughter magic team of the Pink Blogger and the Purple Mermaid for a special magic show, "Wynter Wonderland: A Magical New Year."

The show will feature illusions, disappearing-reappearing acts and card magic as The Pink Blogger, The Purple Mermaid and DJ Hunid Racks offer a whimsical, musical journey into the New Year.

This program is for children ages 5 and older and their families.

*Puzzled about
your future?*

Let us help you put the pieces together.

Regina Russell's Tea Room

*We have been in the Psychic business since 1973.
Walk-in service & private readings by appointment.
Psychics available for home and office parties.*

Phone Readings Available: 888-655-3456

Open Monday thru Friday 10:30 am - 9:30 pm
Saturday & Sunday 10:30 am - 5:00 pm

40 Franklin Street - Quincy, MA - Phone: 617-472-9806
Free weekly horoscopes on our website: www.rtsaroom.com

Find us on Facebook
Highlights of Local Programming found on

QATV

Quincy Access Television
88 Washington Street
Quincy, MA 02169
617-376-1440

Public Access Channel 8

Thursday, December 20th:
7:00pm: NQHS vs. Brockton Boys Basketball
10:00pm: Freddy K

Friday, December 21st:
11:30am: LIVE: Currently in Quincy
5:30pm: Sound Advice

Saturday, December 22nd:
2:00pm: QHS vs. NQHS Girls Basketball
6:30pm: At the Library

Sunday, December 23rd:
7:00pm: QHS vs. NQHS Boys Basketball
10:00pm: The Constitution: Then & Now

Monday, December 24th:
2:00pm: Elder Update
6:00pm: Christmas Programming Begins

Tuesday, December 25th:
Christmas Programming All Day

Wednesday, December 26th:
Christmas Programming All Day

Government Access Channel 11

Thursday, December 20th:
12:00pm: City Council/Ordinance 12/17
7:30pm: Quincy In Focus

Friday, December 21st:
6:00pm: City View with Mayor Koch
6:30pm: FYI:QHD Costochondritis
7:00pm: License Board 12/18

Saturday/Sunday, December 22nd/23rd:
9:00am: City View with Mayor Koch
12:00pm: City Council/Ordinance 12/17
4:00pm: License Board 12/18
7:00pm: City Council/Ordinance 12/17
11:00pm: License Board 12/18

Monday, December 24th:
6:00pm: Crime Watch: Scams Revisited
6:30pm: FYI:QHD Holiday Blues
7:00pm: 'Twas the Night Before Christmas

Tuesday, December 25th:
Christmas Programming All Day

Wednesday, December 26th:
Christmas Programming All Day

Programming is subject to change. For a complete list of programs, please consult our website at www.qatv.org

Social

Caroline Ann Gillis Engaged To Robert Gardner

Tim and Carolyn Gillis of Wollaston announce the engagement of their daughter, Caroline Ann, to Robert Gardner, son of Bill and Alicia Gardner of Squantum.

Caroline is a graduate of Wheelock College and Harvard University and is employed as a Director for Bright Horizons Family Solutions.

Robert is a graduate of Curry College and is employed as a Reporting Analyst for the State Treasurer's Office.

An August 2013 wedding is planned.

ROBERT GARDNER and CAROLINE ANN GILLIS

Holiday Buffet Friday At Presidents Cafe

A Holiday Buffet will be hosted by the Presidents Cafe Friday, Dec. 21.

The buffet will be served from 11:45 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Cafe which is located in Quincy High School.

The buffet will feature various culinary delights prepared by Quincy High School's Culinary Arts students.

The cost of the buffet is $7 and includes assorted holiday desserts including a traditional Yule Log.

The Culinary Arts students will also be selling festively packaged, assorted holiday cookies on Friday as well. Stop by our Hallway Cafe located outside the Presidents Cafe to purchase some delicious cookies.

12 Residents Graduate Wentworth Institute

Twelve Quincy residents recently graduated from Wentworth Institute of Technology.

They are:

Kevin Liang, Bachelor of Science in computer engineering technology; Gary Chen, Bachelor of Science in computer networking; Alyssa Stevens, Bachelor of Science in management; Sean Owens, Associate in Applied Science in construction management; Stephane Pierre-Louis, Bachelor of Science in architecture; Bethany Keenan, Bachelor of Science in computer networking; Denise Hall, Bachelor of Science in construction management; Madison King, Bachelor of Science electronic engineering technology; James Yu, Bachelor of Science in electronic engineering technology; Lilian Sticco, Bachelor of Science in interior design; James Flaherty, Bachelor of Science in mechanical engineering technology; and Ian Campbell, Bachelor of Science in construction management.

Bo Levine Receives High Honors At Landmark High School

Bo Levine, a Quincy Public School student who attends Landmark High School in Beverly, has received high honors for the first term at the high school.

Bo graduated from the Landmark Middle School last year and received The Director's Award, the highest award at graduation.

He attended the Beechwood Knoll Elementary School before being accepted into Landmark.

He is the son of Sara Regan Levine and David Levine of Quincy.

NORTH QUINCY HIGH School students recently participated in a photo exhibit. Proceeds from photo purchases benefitted Boston Children's Hospital. From left: From left (back row) Photography teacher Michael Hanson, Evan Aimola, 15, Sam Grossfeld, 15, Gayelle Ghossoub, 16, Emma Murphy, 17, Rose Bennett, 17. Front row from left: Amy Yu, 18, Mallory Devoe, 18, Lauren Campo, 17, Brenda Nguyen, 16, Agnes Setow, 16. The exhibit fundraiser raised more than $900 for Boston Children's Hospital. Photo By Lisa Aimola TOYS FOR TOTS - Commit 2B Fit Studio, 46 St. Ann Rd., Quincy, recently held a complimentary 'Katie's Kickbutt Cardio Kick Class' for those who brought an unwrapped toy for the Toys for Tots Foundation. "The energy in the studio was amazing and I thank everyone who came out to support this great cause!" said Katie McEvoy, Commit 2B Fit Studio owner and operator. From left to right are: Caiti Brillo, Courtney Tatem, Shawna Auger Flynn, Julie Maleck, Taylor Hall, Lauren Stants, Victoria Wolfe, Melanie Connell, Katie McEvoy, Melissa O'Donnell, Amanda Makosky, Mollie Murphy Antonelli, Mary Holmes, Jacqui Simas Murphy, Joan McDevitt, Kim Healy and Christina Poplasky Murray.

SUPER BINGO at Quincy Catholic Academy Monday, December 31st

Start the New Year with a fun-filled evening of Super Bingo.

A new parking lot next to the school has been built, so parking will not be a problem.

Our location is at 370 Hancock St., Quincy the former Sacred Heart School

Doors open at 3:00

Admission sales at 5:00

after 5:30 only a paid admission card saves a seat

Games start at 6:30

A handicap ramp is available for easy access

free coffee, tea, and snacks

All of our(38) games will be worth at least $200-

Thanks for supporting the Quincy Catholic Academy

Assorted Fruit Baskets Poinsettia Plants Holiday Arrangements

FABIANO FLORIST

29 Independence Ave. • 617-770-4307
www.fabianoflorist.com

FOUR STAR PAPER & PARTY OUTLET

Holiday Entertaining Headquarters

Seasonal Plates, Napkins & Cups Holiday Containers & Decorations

SPECIALS:

Red or Green Bev Naps 50ct $1.19
Red or Green 12oz Cups 50ct $4.29
New Year's Products Available

84 Liberty St., Quincy

(617) 773-7773

Mon. - Fri. 8:30-5:00 Sat. 8:30-3:00

332 Victory Road,
Marina Bay, MA 02171
617 471-3511

Celebrations New Years Eve Masquerade Party

Be who ever you want to be!!

Monday, December 31 @ 8:00 PM

$29.99 per person

DJ Hammer 9PM-2AM

Includes 4 Course Dinner

Champagne Toast @ Midnight

Breakfast Sandwiches, Cheese Pizza

& Coffee @ 1 AM

Make Your Reservations
Now!!

Cover Charge After
10:30 PM $10.00

Go to website for Dinner Specials!
www.captainfishbones.com

Marie's Kitchen

BY MARIE D'OLIMPIO

Stuffed Calamari: A Christmas Eve Tradition

On Christmas Eve some families still follow the tradition of serving seven kinds of fish. But with everyone having such a busy schedule our family still gets together but with just couple of entrees. When served with appetizers and an antipasto, we enjoy it as well.

My contribution this year is making the stuffed calamari (squid) with pasta, a family favorite. Of course they are several ways to prepare squid including cutting them in slices, coating them and then sautéing them. Most restaurants have them on the appetizer menu. However, I have never found stuffed calamari in any of the restaurants that I have been to.

STUFFED CALAMARI (SQUID)
6-8 large squid (3 to 4 inches long) the smaller ones are harder to stuff.
1 ½ cups seasoned bread crumbs (or six slices of bread soaked)
1 teaspoon basil
1 teaspoon parsley

½ cup grated Romano cheese
3 tablespoon tomato sauce

Try to buy the squid already cleaned. Mix the breadcrumbs, basil, parsley grated cheese and the tomato sauce. If moisture is too dry, add a bit of stock or water until the stuffing can be handled easily to stuff.

Stuff each calamari until it is ¾ full and place a toothpick on the top. This will give the calamari a chance to expand without breakage.

If you don't have any leftover tomato sauce, then make a quick marinara sauce. In a skillet, add olive oil and garlic and a can of crushed tomatoes. Add basil, parsley or any favorite herb, and cook for about 15 minutes.

Place the calamari in slowly and cook on low heat for about 15-20 minutes. The calamari will turn a white color.

Pour over a favorite pasta (usually linguine or spaghetti), and serve with grated cheese. Each person must remove the toothpick and will enjoy this delicacy.

ATLANTIC MIDDLE SCHOOL eighth grade students Aine Curran and Vanessa Landaverde recently received Norfolk County Peer Leadership Awards from Norfolk District Attorney – and Atlantic alum – Michael W. Morrissey (far left). The girls were joined by a large group of their parents and grandparents for the presentation.

DA Morrissey Honors Atlantic School Eighth Graders Aine Curran, Vanessa Landaverde Receive Peer Leadership Awards

Aine Curran and Vanessa Landaverde were called in front of an 8th grade assembly at Atlantic Middle School recently and presented with 2012 Norfolk County Peer Leadership Awards from Norfolk District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey – himself an Atlantic alum.

The eighth graders were nominated by Rose Bowman and Lauren Riggs in the guidance department, who wrote “Both Vanessa and Aine have been actively involved with many activities and projects at Atlantic, while maintaining high grades and excellent performance.”

The guidance counselors said they were chosen by their teachers to participate in a day-long training provided through the Rachel's Challenge organization. Based on that training, they undertook implementing several initiatives to strengthen the climate at Atlantic.

“Some of these included research and development of presentations that were provided to the 6th grade students in each classroom, to promote a positive and accepting school environment, with an outcome of reducing bullying,” the nomination letter reads.

Morrissey said he was pleased to see the work being done at Atlantic.

“School communities are largely defined by how students treat one another, and that depends on students who lead by example,” Morrissey. “Good teachers and administrators are important, but it is students like these who are doing much of the work.”

Riggs and Bowman said “The girls have become leaders by showing the importance of helping others, showing kindness, and showing people how to learn to accept and not be judgmental of other students.”

RICHARD SOO HOO
INSURANCE AGENCY

HOME • AUTO • RESTAURANT • BUSINESS

Free parking on Fay St. first parking lot on the right.

國語·粵語·台山話

More Than Just Insurance.

Plymouth Rock
assurance.

1148 Washington St, Boston MA 02118 • 近 Ming's 超市 • (617) 338-8168 • soohooinsurance.com

PAUL'S AUTO BODY

384 Centre St., Quincy 617-471-6280

Open Mon-Fri 8AM - 5PM

(Walking distance from Quincy Adams T Station)

Expert Repairs on
All Makes & Models

Insurance Estimates

Auto Glass Installed

Complete Auto Detailing & Reconditioning

$25.00 OFF

ANY DETAILING
SERVICE OVER $100.00

Cannot be combined with other offers
One coupon per visit

Expert Color Matching

Licensed Dealer
Pre-Owned Vehicles

Insurance Rentals Available

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

FROM THE ADMINISTRATION, FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENTS OF

QUINCY COLLEGE

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

WILLIAM S. GRINDLAY, CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

MARY JO BROGNA, FIRST VICE CHAIRPERSON

MAUREEN GLYNN CARROLL, SECOND VICE CHAIRPERSON

PAUL BARBADORO

CHRISTOPHER J. BELL

WILLIAM BOOZANG

BARBARA CLARKE

THOMAS G. FEENAN

THOMAS FITZGERALD

GREGORY HANLEY

REVEREND JAMES F. HAWKER

CAROLYN O'TOOLE

JOSEPH P. SHEA

Home for the Holidays?

It's not too late to take classes during
our Winter Session
(Dec. 26th - Jan. 15th)
Or register today for the Spring Semester!

PETER H. TSAFFARAS,
PRESIDENT OF QUINCY COLLEGE

FOCUSED ON TEACHING & LEARNING, ONE STUDENT AT A TIME.

PLYMOUTH, QUINCY & ONLINE

QUINCYCOLLEGE.EDU | 800-698-1700

WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET • LIQUOR OUTLET • WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET • LIQUOR OUTLET • WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET • LIQUOR OUTLET • WINE OUTLET • BEER OUTLET

READERS FORUM

Letter Writer Chetwynd Responds To Letter Writer O'Brien

In the spirit of moving forward and being positive, I wrote a letter to The Sun. However, one reader, Thomas O'Brien, doubts my sincerity, suggesting I misrepresented myself and our citizens group. Mr. O'Brien implied that we were part of a "problem."

Mr. O'Brien failed to disclose in his letter that he, the Ward 5 representative on the Park and Recreation Board, was one of the defendants in our citizens group's successful lawsuit. The defendants were the City, the Park and Recreation Board, and the Park and Forestry Department, all of whom had violated Massachusetts laws and the City Charter.

The Park and Recreation Board had illegally voted on Sept. 9th, 2008 approving design plans to build a track on Faxon Field in violation of the School Committee's vote of July 14th, 2008. Mr. O'Brien, rather than acknowledging his own wrongdoing, tries to point the finger of blame at others. His claims that our group held up the track project for three years is intentionally false, a prime example of the attitude and actions we were up against.

As a member of the Park and Recreation Board, Mr.

O'Brien knows: We were not responsible for removing the track from Veterans Stadium. We were not the ones who violated the orders of the Quincy Conservation Commission and the Department of Environmental Protection, both of whom stated that the drainage issues must be remedied in order for a track to successfully be built upon Faxon Field. Both groups identified specific actions requiring the city's compliance. The city violated those orders. Now the City is being fined by the DEP for violations of those orders.

Mr. O'Brien knows: We did not violate Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 40 section 33 and Quincy's City Charter. The Mayor violated those laws that specifically and with detail state that the School Committee has legal control and authority over all school buildings and the grounds connected therewith. This includes any parcel of land identified as "for school purposes."

Mr. O'Brien knows: Until the spring of 2011, Faxon Field was being used as a staging area for the new Quincy High School and would not be available before that time to build a track. We filed Our Superior Court case in the spring of 2011. Our case was resolved in September 2011, where the judge held the Mayor to the letter and intent of the law, that land acquired or transferred for school purposes is under the control of the School Committee and that Mayor Koch must abide by their vote.

We take credit for holding the Mayor accountable for his actions, when neither the Parks and Recreation Board nor the City Council would do so. It is not OK to allow our elected officials to violate state law or our city charter. The judicial system is part of our country's checks and balances. It allows citizens a way to correct abuse of power and misconduct of our government.

I would be pleased to share my research on Faxon Field with anyone. Citizens should be engaged with their government. We are not powerless to change things. The Real problem is people who fail to act, who mislead, intentionally ignoring the wrongdoings of our elected officials and then criticizing those of us who try to hold them accountable.

Christopher Chetwynd
Southern Artery

A Response To Mayor McCauley's 2012 Election Analysis

In response to Mayor McCauley's analysis of the 2012 election in your Dec. 6 issue, I have a few thoughts:

Hasn't the myth of the "liberal media" been thoroughly debunked by now? This line has been repeated so many times over the years that at this point, many believe it to actually be true. That the news media challenged Gov. Romney's proposals and talking points hardly means that they "trashed" him - in fact, the news media performs an essential public function by asking hard questions of candidates' positions, actions, and statements. Gov. Romney trashed himself when he stated that 47% of Americans refuse to take responsibility for their lives.

I disagree with the characterization of the Tea Party as a group of "rank and file citizens." While I appreciate the concern of citizens that we are already taxed too much, the Tea Party has never been a movement of some sort of silent majority. Like the Mayor states, in the 2010 and 2012 Senate elections, where Tea Party candidates that basically handed five Senate seats to the Democrats, the Tea Party proved itself to be a very vocal yet small minority.

Finally, Mayor McCauley noted that "Recent statistics have shown that a lot of the 'good' Republicans stayed at home instead of going out to vote for their party's candidate." Not only are such people not good Republicans, they're not even very good citizens if a series of negative ads keeps them from voting. People in other parts of the country, who waited hours to cast a ballot, would be incredulous if they knew that citizens here, who had minimal waiting times because of well-run polling stations, decided not to make the short trip to the polls because of some mudslinging.

As a Democratic voter, I do want to thank the Mayor for doing what The Quincy Sun failed to do after the elections a few weeks ago. When "Democrat" is used as an adjective, it is "Democratic." I appreciate the respect the Mayor showed to the "Democratic Party" and not the "Democrat Party", as the Sun likes to call it.

Jeffrey Earnest
Manet Avenue

Exploring Miss Quincy Beauty Pageant

I would like to inform readers of The Quincy Sun of the formation of an Exploratory Committee for a Miss Quincy beauty pageant.

I have been interested in beauty pageants for some time, having met former Miss Universe and Miss World (both from India), Miss Teen USA and Miss Greek-MA over the years. Recently I had the privilege of attending a Miss Boston pageant and in speaking with the organizer of Miss MA there, realized that no one represented the beauty and grace of Quincy in any of these pageants. So I decided I would like to do something about it.

Once formed, Miss Quincy will have one spot reserved for a domestic violence survivor, as a participant so they can 'feel beautiful' again and bolster their self confidence. I have been helping victims of domestic violence in Boston metro area for over eight years (as a volunteer) and feel that a chance to be part of "Miss Quincy" is a small way to help a survivor in her journey to recovery from such an heinous crime.

The Miss Quincy exploratory committee will look into two possible tracks for Miss Quincy - either Miss Universe or Miss America, which have different requirements, once the winner makes it to Miss MA.

Helping me on this committee, in an advisory capacity is Krystyne Cheever of Quincy, who is a past talent winner of the Miss Maine Scholarship Pageant.

Potential contestants, future sponsors and anyone who would like to help with the pageant, visit www.missquincy-ma.com for information and contact kumu@missquincy-ma.com.

Kumu Gupta
Miss Quincy
Beauty Pageant

A smarter way to target prostate cancer.

MEET ARTEMIS.

In the battle against prostate cancer, there's a new weapon: Artemis. It's the fusion of 3D imaging technologies that brings pinpoint accuracy to prostate biopsies, and brings you an enhanced level of confidence in your care.

HEAR WHAT ARTEMIS HAS TO SAY AT BIDMILTON.ORG/PROSTATEHEALTH.

Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital
Milton

ATTENTION QUINCY RESIDENTS
DUE TO THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY,
TUESDAY, DEC. 25, 2012, TRASH
PICKUP WILL BE DELAYED BY ONE
DAY BEGINNING ON TUESDAY.

Capitol Waste, Inc.

CHOOSE QUALITY

Successful Short-term Rehabilitation

- Comprehensive rehabilitation for joint replacement, stroke, cardiac conditions & diabetes
- Occupational, physical, & speech therapies
- Experienced & dedicated nursing staff
- Detailed discharge planning for a safe transition home

Regain strength,
confidence & mobility

Hancock Park

REHABILITATION &
NURSING CENTER

164 Parkingway
Quincy, MA
617-773-4222

Call today
for a Free
Rehabilitation
Brochure & Tour!

Over 60 Years of
Quality Service

Welch
HEALTHCARE AND
RETIREMENT GROUP

Downtown Liquor Licenses

Cont'd From Page 1

"For the most part their concepts are food first concepts, but of course they're objective is to maximize sales, and liquor licenses — allowing them to sell wine, beer, liquor, etc. — allows them to do that," Grossman said.

Heapes cited the number of alcohol licenses in areas similar in size to the new Quincy Center. He said Harvard Square in Cambridge has 62 liquor licenses and Boston's North End has 91.

Other Street-Works developments have proportionate numbers of liquor licenses to the new Quincy Center — a 3.5 million square foot development — according to Heapes. Bethesda Row in Maryland, a 700,000 square foot district, has 22 licenses. California's Santana Row has 26 licenses for a 1.8 million square foot area, and a development in West Hartford, CT has 31 licenses for 1.1 million square feet.

Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee took issues with those comparisons, calling them invalid. He asked Heapes to provide a more in-depth breakdown of how much space would be dedicated to restaurants or other businesses seeking a liquor license.

"Richard you're a great salesman, but Bethesda has the Navy. Harvard has Harvard. Boston has international touristy and all of the conventions businesses," McNamee said. "When you start rolling these out for comparison purposes, they fall on their face. What we really need to do is get down to the brass tax of this. If you're going to give us a number for your request, what's the square footage breakout? What's the composition?"

McNamee added that input from residents and businesses of the city as a whole should be able to weigh in on the proposal before the council sends it to the Legislature for approval.

"I can't think of a subject that strikes at a more fundamental quality of life issue for a city than the number of liquor licenses in the city. I think somewhere along this road we really need to hear from the public. And part of that public is also the business stakeholders in the current downtown as well as elsewhere in the city — Marina Bay — how do they feel about it," McNamee said. "We cannot get there without receiving their input. I don't think I can get there without hearing their concerns."

The proposal before the council would disallow the new licenses from being transferred outside Quincy Center. But Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci voiced concern over oversaturating the downtown with liquor licenses, which could prompt existing license holders to move elsewhere.

"My fear is that these licenses that are currently downtown — the 25 that are currently downtown — will then, because the market is oversaturated with licenses that can't move, the 25 that are currently downtown have no legal restrictions that they couldn't move," Palmucci said. "They would then move to other parts of the city like West Quincy, which I represent."

The new liquor licenses would carry a $5,000 fee; regular liquor licenses have a $2,000 fee. Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall suggested the fees generated by the new licenses go toward public safety to help deal with any issues caused by having more alcohol served.

"The $5,000 premium associated with these liquor licenses. Quick math, that's about $135,000. With an increase in alcohol volume, it's probably safe to say there will be an increased need for police presence," Croall said. "Instead of going directly to the general fund, would it make sense to earmark a portion of that towards public safety?"

Assistant City Solicitor Paul Hines said Croall's suggestion was welcome but added that under the city's agreement with Beal/Street-Works it will already provide an increased police presence in the new Quincy Center.

PEDESTRIAN SAFETY — The Quincy Police Department's Crime Prevention Unit recently presented a seminar on pedestrian safety at the North Quincy Community Center. Hosted by Director Steve Buckley, the group learned about measures walkers can take to prevent being struck by a motor vehicle. The discussion covered various crossings, such as streets without crosswalks, crosswalks without traffic lights and crosswalks with pedestrian lights. The main points of the seminar were to make eye contact with the driver approaching and secondly, on four lane roadways, be sure that all lanes of traffic come to a stop before entering the next lane. From left to right, Betty Yau, Constituent Services/Mayor's Office, Police Lt. Dan Minton, Steve Buckley, Director of North Quincy Community Center and Community Police Officer Greg Mar.

Photo Courtesy Quincy Police Department

Final Public Meeting On Merchants Row Tonight

By SCOTT JACKSON

Quincy's Planning Board will hold its final public meeting on the proposed $120 million Merchants Row project tonight (Thursday) at 7 p.m. in the temporary City Council chambers.

The meeting was scheduled after the Massachusetts Environmental Protection Agency (MEPA) issued a certificate stating that the entire $1.6 redevelopment of Quincy Center complied with environmental regulations. Under the city's agreement with the developer, no project could be approved without the MEPA certificate.

"The City of Quincy needed permission from the Commonwealth for the 55-acre development in Downtown Quincy," Planning Director Dennis Harrington told the City Council Monday night. "It was always conditioned upon MEPA approval. In fact the City of Quincy has no permit from the Commonwealth to move forward with downtown revitalization except for the segregated permit for Adams Green for traffic and the brook. This letter from the secretary clears our entire right to go forward."

In addition to the MEPA certificate, Harrington said the city has received all necessary permits for the $10 million relocation of Town Brook. Construction can no go forward in full, until taking a break in March to allow fish to spawn freely.

"The Town Brook relocation and enhancement is completely approved. We're able today give the approval

Cont'd On Page 13

STOECKEL INSURANCE AGENCY, LLC

• stoeckelinsurance.com •

Professional Insurance Advice with a Personal Touch
for your AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS • FAMILY

128 McGrath Highway
Quincy, MA 02169-4607

617.786.7444

A S S E M B L Y
NOW OPEN!!!

Serving Lunch 11:30-4:00 & Dinner 4:00-10:00

ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAYS & SATURDAYS

10pm-1am

Dec. 21st.... DJ Damien

Dec. 22nd.... Bobbin Reggae

CLOSED CHRISTMAS DAY

Book your Holiday Party!

A S S E M B L Y

425 Hancock St. Quincy

(617)302-4696 • (617)302-4987

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Join us New Years Day for breakfast or lunch and help us celebrate our 25th year in business.

I would like to thank the visitors and citizens of Quincy for their loyal patronage over the years.
Bring this coupon during the month of January for a

FREE EARLY BIRD SPECIAL

7AM - 2PM Monday-Friday

2 eggs, homefries, bacon, sausage or ham toast & coffee or juice

Early American Restaurant Est. 1988

Breakfast & Lunch
Best Burgers in Town

expires 1/31/13

1054 Hancock Street • 617-328-8225

Thanks again.
Sincerely,
Jeff Barcelo

Former Prosecutors Bellotti, Burke: Don't Retry Cahill

Cont'd From Page 3

a Dunkin' Donuts and I told him if that case came before me with the evidence that they had I never would have indicted him," Burke said.

He emphasized that the ads in question did not include Cahill's likeness or voice and the treasurer was not mentioned by name.

"His name wasn't on the ads. His pictures weren't in them. It promoted the Lottery and it's a bit of a stretch to say they benefited him," Burke said.

During the trial, Cahill and his attorneys maintained that the advertisements were needed to defend the Lottery's integrity after the Republican Governor's Association ran attack ads claiming Cahill mishandled the Lottery, among other things. According to Burke, it was incumbent upon Cahill to defend the Lottery.

"He ran them to promote the Lottery. There's no question Republicans attacked him for it. I think he had to respond to those ads because it (the Lottery) makes money for the Commonwealth - it's one of the few things that does," Burke said.

Former Mayor Frank McCauley, a Republican,

I THOUGHT THE trial was a waste of time and money and I don't think he (Cahill) did anything wrong,' said former Mayor Frank McCauley (left), whose tenure as mayor overlapped two years while Tim Cahill (right) was on the City Council in 1988 and 1989.

echoed Burke's sentiments calling the trial a waste of time and money.

"I thought the trial was a waste of time and money. I don't think he did anything wrong," McCauley said. "I hope they make the decision not to retry him."

McCauley served his final term as mayor from 1988 to 1990, the first two years Cahill spent on the City Council. He said Cahill was a popular candidate and a good councillor during his time in City Hall.

"He's very popular in Quincy. He was elected eight times councillor-at-large and topped the list three times," McCauley said. "He was a popular vote getter and I consider him a good city councillor."

The former mayor expressed disdain over the RGA's attack ads, some of which criticized Cahill's tenure on the council.

"There were so many false statements," McCauley said of the ads. "One said during his time on the City Council he doubled the budget. He couldn't do that if he wanted to with our strong mayor form of government."

Opening arguments in the trial against Cahill and Campbell began on Nov. 5, and the jury began deliberations on Dec. 4. Campbell was acquitted on Dec. 11. On Wednesday, Dec.

12, Judge Christine Roach Declared a mistrial after the jury reported they were deadlocked. She asked that attorneys from both sides meet with her Jan. 4. After the mistrial was declared, Cahill said he felt vindicated.

"The government had a job to do and they spent two years doing it and they spared no expense, and that was to find me guilty, which they did not do - I feel it was total vindication," Cahill told reporters outside the Suffolk County courtroom. "I could certainly understand if there was some jurors in there sticking to their guns; as someone who always stuck to his guns I can respect that and I have nothing but good things to say about the jury, the judge, my lawyers, and the way we conducted ourselves. I'm fine with this."

Cahill's wife Tina, who with other family members sat by the former treasurer for the duration of the month-long trial, called the mistrial a victory.

"Having it be a mistrial to me is a victory because with all the effort and the resources used to prosecute Tim and for them not to make their case feels good for us," she said.

Brad Bailey, one of Cahill's attorneys and a former Middlesex County sheriff, added that Cahill was pleased the jury found Campbell not guilty.

"Our client was extremely happy for him," Bailey said. "We were not surprised because we thought it was a very weak case against them."

Cahill's trial was the first tried under new laws passed in 2009 after then-House Speaker Sal DiMasi resigned in the midst of a federal investigation; he was eventually convicted and sentence to eight years in prison. Bailey said jurors might have felt prosecutors were stretching that law to apply it to Cahill.

"In my opinion, this was the first time these charges have been prosecuted and the jury might have felt they were trying to fit square pegs in a round hole," Bailey said.

Bailey added that he does not know whether prosecutors will go forward with a new trial, but hopes they drop the charges and refer it to the state's ethics commission instead.

At a press conference shortly after the mistrial was declared, Coakley stood by her decision to try the case. She said her office would review the case before deciding whether or not to re-try Cahill.

Mayor Tom Koch and House Majority Leader Ron Mariano, a Quincy Democrat, both said in statements that they were happy the trial was over for Cahill and Campbell and their families.

"Scott and Tim are two people that I know care deeply about their families, their neighbors and their community, and I am very happy that this incredibly difficult ordeal is over for themselves and their loved ones. Like so many people in this city, I will always be proud to call them friends," Koch said.

"I am happy for Tim Cahill, Scott Campbell, and their families that this lengthy process is now completed and they are free to celebrate the holiday season with their families," Mariano said.

'Dark Knight Rises' Film Screening Tonight

"The Dark Knight Rises," the conclusion of the Batman trilogy, will be shown tonight (Thursday) at 6 p.m. at the Thomas Crane Public Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy.

Directed by Christopher

Nolan, the 165-minute film stars Christian Bale, Joseph Gordon-Levitt, Anne Hathaway and Gary Oldman. It is rated PG-13.

The screening is sponsored by the Friends of the Crane Public Library.

Good Cafe & Gourmet Treats

GUNTHER TOOTIES
Freshly Baked

1253 Hancock St.
Quincy
(Right Outside Quincy Center
T Station Next to City Hall)
617-471-1866

Open 7 Days
Quincy • Hanover • Pembroke • Duxbury
www.GuntherTooties.com

"BEST BAGELS IN TOWN"
Over 30 selections Homemade Bagels & Cream Cheese

FREE
Tub of Cream
Cheese with purchase of Bakers
Dozen of Bagels
1 coupon per visit
Quincy Only • Expires 1/31/13

FREE
Breakfast Sandwich
with purchase of any
Breakfast Sandwich
1 coupon per visit
Quincy Only • Expires 1/31/13

Injured in an accident? Should you talk to a lawyer? Absolutely yes!

After an accident, you may be in shock. You've been hurt. Chances are you've never had anything like this happen before. You aren't sure what to do next, or who you can trust. That's exactly why you should talk to us. At Bates & Riordan, we are experienced attorneys representing individuals and families on the South Shore. We specialize in putting the pieces together - protecting your interests and making sure you're treated fairly - after an accident. If you've been injured, call Deborah Bates Riordan or Theodore Riordan at 617-328-8080 to see how we can help you. (That conversation and your first meeting with us are absolutely free.)

BATES & RIORDAN, LLP
~ On your side ~

645 Hancock Street, Wollaston/Quincy • 617-328-8080 • BatesRiordan.com

If You
See This Clown,
Wish Him
A Happy
50th Birthday.

QHA Director Denies Slow Turnover Rates Of Unoccupied Units

Cont'd From Page 1

a comparison of vacancy numbers since he first took on the role of director in May 2005. "We're housing 35 to 40 more families or elders than we were eight years ago."

According to reports, the authority had 55 vacancies in 2005. That number has been reduced to 16 as of last week. That increase in occupancy has resulted in a rise of monthly rent collection by almost $90,000, or almost one million dollars annually.

"We're collecting a higher percentage of rent, we're collecting more dollars of rent, we're having less unpaid rent, and we're occupying more units," he said. "I think we're doing a very good job."

MacRitchie noted that any units falling outside of the 21-day limit did so due to extenuating circumstances, such as necessary handicapped accessibility renovations in two units, the oil-to-gas heat conversion of a single family complex, bathroom reconstruction, and tenants - unexpectedly and without warning - moving out.

Currently, bathrooms must be renovated in four units, at a cost of $7,000 per unit, and will take close to 60 days to complete; the limit set in place by DHCD to finish repairs and fill vacancies. The board is currently in the process of requesting an extension from the DHCD in case the new tubs, sinks, and fixtures cannot be installed within that time frame.

The director took aim at other housing authorities investigated by the audit, which has been reported by several local news outlets. "We seemed to be the headline, and we seemed to be the punching bag, and I've been going wild in the last week or so on this," he said.

According to the audit, the Natick Housing Authority, one of the 22 housing authorities under scrutiny, currently has a 6.6 percent - or 28 of 422 units - vacancy rate, whereas the Quincy Housing Authority boasts a one percent rate.

"We hover around one percent vacancy rate and we're the poster child and splashed across the front page of the newspaper," he said. "If the Quincy Housing Authority had a vacancy rate of one percent units over 60 days (unoccupied), that would be over 100 units."

While discussion revolving around the audit engaged board members for the majority of the evening, several other topics were briefly touched upon, including an update on the search for a new director, the acquisition of new service vehicles, and plans to overhaul fire alarm systems in two QHA owned properties.

Chairman Deacon John Menz said that he is pleased with the campaign recently launched advertising for the position of executive director, and has seen an increase in resume submissions. "About ten resumes have come in but we do expect more," he said. "I think all of our advertisement went very well."

All applications must be in by Jan. 4. The process will come to fruition in the near future, with the appointment of a new executive director who must be approved by DHCD before assuming his new position.

Menz gave a rough estimation as to when a candidate would be chosen. "Realistically, we have to consider another eight or nine weeks," he said.

The board unanimously agreed to extend lease agreements with South Shore Mental Health, Inc., for the rental of two properties, one at 77R South St. and the other at 268 Water St., for the housing of low income individuals from the Department of Mental Health. Monthly rental fees are set at $1,927 and $2,805, respectively.

Also approved was the purchase of two, 2013 Ford Transit Connects at a cost of $42,584 from Interstate Ford Truck Sales, Inc., of Hartford, CT., and two, 2012 Ford F-250 4x4 pickup trucks with plows from Quirk Ford at a cost of $53,900, to be used by the maintenance department. Old vehicles being replaced will be donated to a yet to be determined charity.

Additionally, the authority agreed to enter into a contract with Nangle Engineering, Inc., for the design of upgraded fire alarms, and associated apparatuses such as magnetized fire-safety doors, in Tobin Towers and Sawyer Towers, in the amount of $93,000 dollars.

Toy Drive To Benefit Newtown Children who have been affected will have them in time for Christmas.

Cont'd From Page 1

Craig said that they are looking for toys that will benefit kids in kindergarten to fifth grade; they have to be unwrapped and brand new toys. He added that if anyone would like to drop off cards or notes to bring to the families they would also drop those off on Sunday as well.

To drop off a toy before Saturday, contact Ryan Craig at (617) 910-7844. Craig said they would accept toys up until 9 p.m. Saturday if people were unable to drop off a toy within the 8-5 hours of the toy drive.

"People are rallying together because everybody is heartbroken by this," said Craig. "Quincy is a community that has pulled together through tough times, and we will pull together for the families of Newtown, Connecticut through this."

Merchants Row Meeting Tonight

Cont'd From Page 11

to the contractor to the last alternatives and to allow the contractor to move forward to attempt to complete all necessary construction by March 1," Harrington said. "March 1 we run into a 90-day period of issues related to smelt habitat and construction will suspend for that time period. But we are fully permitted; the appeals are over."

Harrington was proud the Planning Department, Assistant City Solicitor Paul Hines, and engineer Frank Tramontozzi were able to design and permit the project in less than two years, and secured state financing to pay for it.

"As a team we have finished this in 22 months start to finish. We've received all permits necessary to move this brook and $10 million worth of state money to pay for the relocation," Harrington said. "The City of Quincy should be satisfied that my department, as well as the Law Department and Mr. Tramontozzi on behalf of the mayor have served the public well."

The city also submitted its final plans for the Adams Green transportation improvement project to the Department of Transportation. That review process should take about 60 days.

"It will be under review at MassDOT over the next 60 days. We expect that we may be fortunate enough to have a late February advertisement date for the contract specifications and we're looking contracts and bid approvals and construction [in] fall of '13," Harrington said. "We've been on an aggressive schedule, I think we'll maintain that schedule."

Wollaston Wines & Spirits

Shop Online at www.wollastonwines.com

Season's Greetings

CLOSED CHRISTMAS DAY

LIQUOR SPECIALS

Absolut 1.75 Ltr	$ 28.99
Stolichnaya 1.75 Ltr	$ 28.99
Belvedere Vodka 1.75 Ltr	$ 49.99
Chopin Vodka 750 ML	$ 23.99
Ketel One Regular & Citron Vodka 1.75 Ltr	$ 36.99
Smirnoff Vodka and Flavors 1.75 Ltr	($19.99 - $5.00 M.I.R.) $ 14.99
Fris Vodka 1.75 Ltr	$ 17.99
Sky Vodka 1.75 Ltr	$ 19.99
Hendricks Gin 1.75 Ltr	$ 49.99
Tanqueray Gin 1.75 Ltr	$ 29.99
Bombay Sapphire 1.75 Ltr	$ 35.99
Don Q Rum Light & Dark 1.75 Ltr	$ 18.99
Admiral Nelson Spiced Rum 1.75 Ltr	$ 17.99
Mount Gay Rum 1.75 Ltr	$ 26.99
Bacardi Light & Dark 1.75 Ltr	$ 22.99
Captain Morgan 1.75 Ltr	($27.99 - $5.00 M.I.R.) $ 22.99
Sauza Tequila Gold & Silver 1.75 ML	$ 25.99
1800 Reposado & Silver Tequila 1.75 Ltr	$ 33.99
Seagram's 7 1.75 Ltr	$ 17.99
Canadian Club 1.75 Ltr	$ 17.99
Seagram's VO 1.75 Ltr	$ 20.99
Jin Beam 1.75 Ltr	$ 23.99
Jack Daniels 1.75 Ltr	$ 38.99
Evan Williams Single Barrel Bourbon 750 ML	$ 28.99
Knob Creek Bourbon 750 ML	$ 24.99
Early Times Bourbon 1.75 Ltr	$ 18.99
Jameson Irish Whiskey 1.75 Ltr	$ 36.99
Bushmill's Irish Whiskey 1.75 Ltr	$ 37.99
Glenfiddich 12 Year Old 750 ML	$ 29.99
Glenmorangie 10 Year Old 750 ML	$ 29.99
Johnnie Walker Red 1.75 Ltr	$ 29.99
Dewars 1.75 Ltr	$ 32.99
Chivas Regal 1.75 Ltr	$ 54.99
Balvenie 12 Yr 750 ML	$ 39.99
Johnnie Walker Black 1.75 Ltr	$ 59.99
Southern Comfort 1.75 Ltr	$ 26.99
Kahlua - All Types 750 ML	$ 16.99
Bailey's Irish Cream 1.75 Ltr	($29.99 - $10.00 M.I.R.) $ 19.99
Amaretto Di Saronno 750 ML	$ 20.99

Grand Marnier 750 ML	$ 27.99
Hennessy 1.75 Ltr	$ 59.99
Remy Martin VSOP 750ML	$ 36.99
Metaxa Brandy 7 Star 750 ML	$ 18.99
Wolfe It Tastes..... Samuel Adams Utopia is available - Quantities Limited
WINE SPECIALS
Perrier Jout (Flower Bottle) 750 ML	$ 99.00
Mumm Cordon Rouge 750 ML	$ 29.00
Perrier-Jout Brut 750 ML	$ 29.99
Nicholas Feuillate Brut 750 ML	$ 26.99
Domaine Chandon Brut 750 ML	$ 14.99
Freixenet Cordon Negro Brut 750ML	$ 7.99
Zonin Prosecco Brut 750 ML	$ 8.99
Keenan Napa Cabernet 2008 750 ML	$ 44.99
Pine Ridge Napa Cabernet 2009 750 ML	$ 39.99
Estancia Meritage 2009 750 ML	$ 19.99
Sterling Napa Cabernet 750 ML	$ 15.99
Ruffino Ten Label Chianti 2008 750 ML	(M.I.R. - $24.00 per case) $ 15.99
Catena Malbec 2009 750 ML	$ 15.99
Dow's Late Bottled Port 2006 750 ML	$ 17.99
La Crema Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 15.99
Simi Napa Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 11.99
Masciarelli Montepulciano D' Abruzzo 1.5Ltr	$ 12.99
Bear Boat Pinot Noir 750 ML	$ 14.99
Sterling Napa Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 11.99
Kendall Jackson Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 10.99
Mark West Pinot Noir 750 ML	$ 8.99
Columbia Crest Grand Estates Cab/Merlot/Chard 750 ML	$ 8.99
Toasted Head Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 9.99
J Lohr Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 9.99
Estancia Chardonnay/Merlot 750 ML	$ 8.99
Oyster Bay Chard/Sauvignon Blanc 750 ML	$ 9.99
BY Coastal All Types 750 ML	$ 8.99
Sterling Vintners Collection (All Types) 750 ML	$ 8.99
Jaboulet Parallele 45 CDR 750 ML	$ 8.99
Chateau Ste Michelle Riesling 750 ML	$ 8.99
Blackstone Wines (All Types) 750 ML	$ 7.99
Brancott Sauvignon Blanc 750 ML	$ 8.99
Beringer Founders' (All Types) 750 ML	$ 7.99
Kris Pinot Grigio 750 ML	$ 8.99

Clos du Bois Chardonnay 750 ML	$ 9.99
Cavit Pinot Grigio Cabernet & Merlot 1.5 Ltr	$ 11.99
Mezzacorona Pinot Grigio 1.5 Ltr	$ 10.99
C K Mondavi Cab/Chard/Merlot 1.5 Ltr	$ 9.99
Rex Goliath All Types 1.5 Ltr	$ 8.99
Beringer White Zinfandel 1.5 Ltr	$ 9.99
Wolf Bass (All Types) 750 ML	3 for $ 20.99
Black Box (All Types) 3 Ltr	$ 16.99
Gabbiano Pinot Grigio/Chianti 750 ML	2 for $ 14.00

BEER SPECIALS

Bud & Bud Light 30 Pack Cans	$19.99
Miller Light 30 Pack Cans	$19.99
Coors Light 30 Pack Cans	$19.99
Natural Light/Ice 30 Pack Cans	$14.99
Michelob Ultra 30 Pack Cans	$19.99
Bud, Bud Light, Miller Light, Coors Light 24-12 oz. Cans	$16.99
Corona & Corona Light Loose Bottle Case	$22.99
Heineken/Amstel Loose Bottle Case	$22.99
Sam Adams ALL TYPES Loose Case	$24.99
Harpoon IPA Case	$22.99
St. Pauli Girl 2/12 Pack Case	$22.99
Back's Bottle Loose Case	$19.99
Stella Artois Bottle Loose Case	$23.99
Newcastle Bottles 2/12 Pack Case	$21.99
Bass Ale Bottles 2/12 Case	$21.99
Tsingtao 12 Pack Case	$21.99
Rolling Rock 18 Pack Bottles	$ 9.99
Miller High Life 18 Pack	$ 9.99
Busch 20 Pack Bottles	$ 9.99

12 PACKS & SEASONAL BEER

Manager's Cider 6 Pack	$7.49
Red Hook 12 Pack	$12.99
Samuel Adams Mixed 12 Pack	$12.99
Guinness Pub Draft 12 Pack Bottles	$12.99
Blue Moon Winter 12 Pack Bottles	$11.99
Harpoon Winter Ale 12 Pack Bottles	$11.99
Samuel Adams Winter Lager 12 Pack Bottles	$12.99
Sierra Nevada Celebration Ale 12 Pack Bottles	$12.99
Wechssett Blueberry 12 Pack Bottles	$12.99
Magic Hat (All Types) 12 Pack Bottles	$12.99

58-60 Beale St., Quincy

Tel: 617-479-4433

Prices Effective Through December 26th
Not responsible for typographical errors

Open Sundays 12-6

All beer plus deposit
All Major Credit Cards Accepted

OBITUARIES

Lester Orrin Andre, 92WW II Veteran, Retired Pennzoil Worker

A funeral service for Lester Orrin Andre, 92, of Quincy was held Dec. 15 at Deware Funeral Home, 576 Hancock St., Quincy.

Mr. Andre died Dec. 10.

He was born in Bruin, PA and spent most of his life in the Oil City, PA area where he worked for the Pennzoil Company until his retirement in 1985. Mr. Andre and his wife, Lois moved to the Quincy area shortly after retirement to be near their daughter, Sue, and grandchildren and to work for Eastern Nazarene College.

Mr. Andre served in World War II with the 421st "Nightfighter" Squadron in the Pacific. He was awarded six Bronze stars and other medals for various campaigns throughout the South Pacific.

Mr. Andre was a faithful and loving man for whom family and service to country meant a great deal. He will be greatly missed.

Beloved husband of 66 years of Lois V. (Kugler)

LESTER ORRIN ANDRE

Andre. Loving father of Sue A. (Andre) Hersey and her husband Clifford B. Hersey of Quincy. Devoted grandfather of Janelle (Hersey) Amadon and husband Peter of Salem and Joshua B. Hersey of Wenham, great-grandfather of Myles Amadon and Madelyn Amadon, who was born the same hour of Lester's death.

Interment will be at a later date at Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Memorial donations may be made to Eastern Nazarene College Class of 1976 Fund, 23 East Elm Ave., Quincy, MA 02170.

Joan M. FitzgeraldRegistered Nurse At Quincy Hospital

A funeral Mass for Joan M. (Gilbody) Fitzgerald of Weymouth and formerly Wollaston was celebrated Tuesday at Sacred Heart Church, Weymouth.

Mrs. Fitzgerald died Dec. 12.

She worked as a registered nurse at Quincy Hospital. She enjoyed playing tennis and was a member at the Weymouth Tennis Club. She was a very creative person and enjoyed writing, oil and watercolor painting and sewing.

Beloved wife of Robert Fitzgerald. Loving mother of Maureen Fitzgerald of Weymouth, Anne Gage of Plymouth, Joan Holmes of Plymouth, Robert Fitzgerald, Jr. of Weymouth, Patricia O'Neil of IN, Joseph Fitzgerald of Cohasset, and Kathleen Geary of Pembroke. Loving sister of Frances Haavisto of Weymouth, Marie Williams of Weymouth, Lucille Smith of Weymouth, Esther Cox of CT, RoseAnn LaVacca of FL, Edward Gilbody of Weymouth, and the late Robert Gilbody, Margaret Rinella, Ruth Larkin, William Gilbody and John Gilbody. Also survived by 22 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

JOAN M. FITZGERALD

Funeral arrangements were made by McDonald Funeral Home, Weymouth.

Interment was in St. Paul's Cemetery, Hingham.

Memorial donations may be made to Sacred Heart Church, 55 Commercial St., Weymouth, MA 02188.

Leo Niemi, 93World War II Navy Veteran, Retired General Dynamics Worker

A graveside service for Leo Niemi, 93, of Marietta, GA and formerly Quincy will be held at 11:30 a.m. June 12, 2013 at Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Mr. Niemi died Dec. 4.

He was born to the late Lydia and Alfred Niemi on Feb. 7, 1919 in Quincy. After graduating from Quincy High School, he served a four-year apprenticeship with Four River Shipyard. He then joined the United States Navy and served honorably during WWII. When he came home he lived in Braintree, MA and enjoyed a career with General Dynamics in the ship building industry.

After retirement, Leo moved to Venice, FL. He was a friendly and warm man. Mr. Niemi always had a joke to tell and had a gentle spirit. He was a dedicated and loving father and grandfather.

Beloved husband of the

LEO NIEMI

late Anne Niemi. Devoted father of Leo T. Niemi, Pat Schmidt, and Mary Farrell and her husband Bill. Grandfather of Thomas, Jeffrey, and James Niemi, Karen and Kevin Schmidt and Sean and Catherine Farrell. Dear brother of the late John Niemi, his twin brother, and the late William Niemi.

Funeral arrangements were made by H.M. Patterson & Son Canton Hill, Marietta, GA.

Memorial donations may be made to American Heart Association, 1101 N. Chase Pkwy, Suite 1, Marietta, GA 30067.

Janina Kuczynski, 66

A funeral Mass for Janina (Kusy) Kuczynski, 66, of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 10 at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Kuczynski died Dec. 4 at Quincy Medical Center after a brief illness.

She was born in Poland on July 19, 1946 and came to the US in 1971.

Wife of the late Kazimierz Kuczynski. Devoted mother of Anna Miner and her husband Christopher and their children Krista and Gabrielle of Braintree. Dear sister of Jadwiga Lipinski, Anna Kaczmarczyk and Kazimera Sawicka, all of Poland.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made to Fontbonne Academy Scholarship Fund, 930 Brook Rd., Milton, MA 02186.

Annemarie P. Ryan, 73Retired Nursing Assistant

A private memorial service for Annemarie P. Baldassini Ryan, 73, of Braintree and formerly Quincy will be held at a later date.

Mrs. Ryan died Dec. 4 at Quincy Medical Center following a brief illness.

Raised in Quincy, she attended St. Mary's School and graduated from Archbishop Williams High School in 1956. She was an avid reader, loved cooking and worked at the former Quincy City Hospital as a nursing assistant.

Loving mother of Philip A. Baldassini, Jr. and his wife Denise of Braintree, Richard J. Baldassini of Quincy, Barbara A. and her husband Leonard Kasanoff of Quincy and Patricia M. and her husband Peter Szymaniak of FL. Also survived by nine grandchildren two great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. She was the former wife of Philip Baldassini, Sr. of Quincy for 27 years.

Ralph R. Williamson, 79Army Paratrooper, Bartender

A Mass of Christian Burial for Ralph R. Williamson, 79, of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 14 at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mr. Williamson died Dec. 11.

Born and raised in Boston, he was a paratrooper in the U.S. Army and later worked as a Bartender at many of the Boston area hotels.

Son of the late Ralph W. and Irene (Arsenault) Williamson. Beloved brother of Audrey Bodey and her husband Hugh of OR, Jean Gessner and her husband Gene of NH, Irene "Renie" O'Mara and her husband John of NH, Kathy Keddy of Dorchester and her late husband Bill, and the late Carol Rines. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews and a great grandniece.

Funeral arrangements were made by Deware Funeral Home, 576 Hancock St., Quincy.

Bruce Weaver McGrath, 57Retired Chief Engineer

A private funeral service for Bruce Weaver McGrath, 57, of Quincy was held at Colebrook Cemetery, Whitman.

Mr. McGrath died Nov. 28 at his house from complications of pneumonia.

He grew up in Whitman, and had lived in Quincy for 7 years. After receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, he worked for United Technologies, Ambac Corporation, and Stanadyne, Inc. as Chief Engineer, Tool Engineering & Design.

He had studied music with his uncle, Al Anthony, the renowned big band musician and was active in the local music scene wherever he was residing. Since returning to Massachusetts in the late 90s, Mr. McGrath played with various bands including Bellevue Cadillac, The Love Dogs, The Mike Garvey Band and Sam Gentle and Basic Black.

Beloved son of the late Daniel M. and Louise A. Billee (Weaver) McGrath. Beloved brother of Judith L. Boudreau of Fla. Devoted nephew of Norine Renee Anthony of Whitman. Beloved cousin of Tyrone Terry Anthony and his wife Karen of Billerica, John Jack Schnyer and his wife Debra of Hanover and West Yarmouth, Sandra Fermo and her husband Louis of VA, Mary Riddle of FL, David Schnyer of FL, Gary Schnyer and his wife Dana of West Yarmouth, Richard Schnyer and his wife Margo of FL, and William Schnyer and his wife Deborah of FL.

Funeral arrangements were made by Clancy-Lucid Funeral Home, Weymouth.

Henry Ortiz, 84Army Veteran, Boston Gear Works Employee

A funeral service for Henry Ortiz, 84, of Quincy was held Dec. 14 at Dennis Sweeney Funeral Home, 74 Elm St., Quincy.

Mr. Ortiz died Dec. 9.

A lifelong Quincy resident, where he was raised and educated, he was a Veteran of the US Army and served during the Korean War and in Europe after the end of WWII.

Mr. Ortiz was a longtime worker at Boston Gear Works.

An animal lover, he was fond of his cats, enjoyed reading and watching the New England sports teams on TV.

Beloved son of the late Michael and Bella (Heaney) Ortiz. Loving brother of John W. Ortiz of Weymouth, Amelia Stearns of Rockland and the late Lawrence Ortiz of Quincy and is also survived by eight nieces and nephews.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to the Quincy Animal Shelter 56 Broad Street Quincy, MA 02169 or online at quincyanimalshelter.org.

A Better Value
For Quincy Families

At Deware Funeral Home, we are proud to offer more value and superior service to Quincy families. A full service traditional funeral is $5,995* with no hidden costs. The price includes:

Funeral Ceremony • Visitation • Casket

At Deware Funeral Home, we put the needs of our customer first. We also offer a Simple Burial Plan for $3,395.

With Deware Funeral Home, you can trust us to provide the compassionate care you expect at an exceptional value, backed by a 100% service guarantee.

Exclusive provider of Dignity Memorial® benefits.

Deware Funeral Home

576 Hancock Street | Quincy, MA 02170 | 617-472-1137

For more information visit
www.dewarefuneralhome.com

*$5,995 plan includes basic services of funeral director and staff, embalming and preparation, visitation, funeral ceremony, transportation to place of disposition, 20-gauge metal casket, website announcement, and memorial stationery package (a register book, 100 thank you cards, 100 prayer cards).
A Service Family Affiliate of AFPS and Service Corporation International, 206 Winter Street, Fall River, MA 02720, (508) 676-0454.

Honor Your Loved One's
Memory
With Flowers

cliffords.com
1.800.441.8884

Jonathan Gaines Swan, 62

Tax Preparer

A memorial service for Jonathan Gaines Swan, 62, of Canton and formerly Quincy was held Dec. 15 at First Baptist Church of Wollaston.

Mr. Swan died Dec. 11.

He was born in Quincy and lived in Canton for 23 years. Mr. Swan was a graduate of the University of Maine at Orono where he was a proud member of the Tau Kappa Epsilon "TKE" fraternity.

He was a tax preparer for the last fifteen years. Previously, he worked as a materials manager for thirty-five years. He was also proud to be an eagle scout.

Beloved husband of Janice "Lani". Devoted father of Christine Doodly Tedesco of Pembroke, Michelle Doodly Tripodi of Pembroke, Jennifer and her husband Louie Collado of Foxboro and the late Matthew Swan. Loving grandfather of Greg, Samantha, Elizabeth and the late Jessica Tedesco, Stacy and her husband Nate Berry and Zachary Tripodi, Mia, Matthew and Sophia Collado. Cherished great-grandfather of Logan Berry. Dear son of the late Dr. Daniel and Pauline Swan. Brother of Daniel and his wife Cindy of Hopedale, Carolyn of Hudson, NH, the late Nancy and the late David Swan. Also survived by several nieces and nephews.

JONATHAN G. SWAN

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

A private interment will at Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree will be held at a later date.

Memorial donations may be made to the charity of choice.

Domenic DiNanno, 90

Retired Fork Lift Operator

A funeral Mass for Domenic "Dom" DiNanno, 90, of Whitman and formerly Quincy was celebrated Monday at St. Michael Church, Avon.

Mr. DiNanno died Dec. 12.

He was born in his family home in South Boston and grew up in Quincy. Mr. DiNanno was a retired Fork Lift Operator for Boston Gear where he worked for 35 years. He was a member of the (USW of A) Steel Workers Union.

Loving father of John DiNanno and his wife Praipait of Pembroke, Patricia Laffin and her husband Dan of Marshfield, Carol Mont and her late husband Gerald of Pembroke and the late Richard DiNanno. Son of the late Giovanni and Francesca (Bonaduce) DiNanno. Devoted brother of Rita Webster of Quincy, Mary McCallum of Avon, Janet Canney of Hanson and the late Angelina DiNanno. Dear grandfather of Colleen and Katie Laffin, Francesca and John DiNanno, Richard, Eva and Mara Mont. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Cartwright Funeral Home, Randolph.

Interment was in St. Michael Cemetery, Avon.

Helen F. Kelley

Retired AT&T Operator

A funeral Mass for Helen F. (Nolan) Kelley of Quincy was celebrated Monday at St. Jerome Church, Weymouth.

Mrs. Kelley died Dec. 12.

She was raised in Mission Hill and had lived in Weymouth many years before moving to Quincy. She was an operator at the former AT & T. Co. from 1936-1952.

She was a late member of the Ladies Guild, Ladies Sodality & Altar Society at St. Jerome's Church. She was also a volunteer at Fr. Bill's Place, St. Jerome's Church & the Weymouth Food Pantry.

Beloved wife of the late John J. Kelley. Mother of Patricia E. LeBlanc and her husband Richard of LA and Jean M. Kelley of Weymouth. Sister of the late Gertrude Lehan. Grandmother of Nicole M. LeBlanc and Richard A. LeBlanc.

Funeral arrangements were made by McDonald Funeral Home, Weymouth.

Interment was in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Memorial donations may be made to William B. Rice Evantide Home, 215 Adams St., Quincy, MA 02169.

Umberto R. DiPaolo, 90

Retired Tailor

A funeral Mass for Umberto R. DiPaolo, 90, of Quincy, was celebrated Tuesday in Saint John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mr. DiPaolo died peacefully Dec. 14 at home surrounded by his loving family.

Born in Villalago, Italy, he raised and educated there. He immigrated to the United States in 1954. He had lived in Quincy for 58 years.

Mr. DiPaolo was a well-known and talented tailor. He was employed for 20 years at Brooks Brothers in Boston and previously had worked at the former Remick's of Quincy store for many years. He retired many years ago.

He was devoted to his family and friends and was especially proud of his five grandsons and two great grandsons. He loved spending time with them and attending their many sporting events and games.

He was a longtime usher at Saint John the Baptist Church in Quincy. He enjoyed gardening, cooking and wine making. He also enjoyed the game of soccer.

Beloved husband for 59 years of Filomena "Meme-na" (DiCesare) DiPaolo.

Devoted father of Patricia M. DiBenedetto and her husband Guido of Braintree, Rita M. Ranalli and her husband Steven of Quincy.

Loving "Nunno" of Anthony DiBenedetto and his wife Pavla of Quincy, Steven and Michael DiBenedetto both of Braintree, Brandon and Robert Ranalli both of Quincy.

UMBERTO R. DIPAOLO

Cherished "Nunno Bet-to" of Anthony Umberto, and Luca.

Dear brother of Paolina Mandolini of Pescara, Italy, the late Antonio DiPaolo and the late Pasqualina Fusco.

Brother-in-law of Delia and Thomas Rupp of Braintree. Also survived by many nieces and nephews in Italy.

Interment was in Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the South Shore VNA and Hospice, 30 Reservoir Park Drive, Rockland, MA 02370 or to the Alzheimer's Association, 480 Pleasant St., Watertown, MA 02472.

William F. Chase, Jr., 80

Korean War Navy Veteran, Printer

A funeral service for William F. "Bill" Chase, Jr., 80, of Whitman and formerly Quincy was held Dec. 14 at Blanchard Funeral Chapel, Whitman.

Mr. Chase died Dec. 11.

Born in Boston and raised in Quincy he was the son of the late William F. and Nellie (Bockman) Chase, and a graduate of Quincy High School.

Mr. Chase was a proud Veteran of the US Navy having served from 1949-1953 during the Korean War. For his service overseas he earned both the Korean Service Medal and the United Nations Service Medal.

Before his retirement he worked many years as a printer in the Boston and South Shore areas. Mr. Chase was a talented artist and after his retirement he spent many enjoyable hours painting and drawing. He had lived in Whitman for 49 years.

Beloved husband of 55 years to Margaret "Peggy" (Joyce) Chase. Devoted father of Holly Chase of Weymouth, Billy Chase of Whitman, and Gregory Chase and his wife Laura of Whitman. Cherished grandchildren Olivia and Harrison Chase.

Interment was in Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne.

Donations in his name may be made to the Dana-Farber/Brigham & Women's Cancer Center, 101 Columbia Street, South Weymouth, MA 02190.

IN MEMORIAM

Edgar Spargo
1907-2004

William Clark Spargo
1937-1974

Katherine Spargo
1908-1995

May God continue to keep you in his loving care.

Sadly missed by
Daughter & Sister Nancy,
Family and Friends

Christine 'Topsy' Brigette, 84

Funeral services for Christine "Topsy" Brigette, 84, of Quincy, were conducted Monday at the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy. The Rev. Dr. Susan Jarek-Glidden, pastor of the Quincy Community United Methodist Church, officiated.

Ms. Brigette died peacefully Dec. 12 at home, in the presence of her loving and caring son, Timothy.

She was born in Boston, raised and educated in Quincy schools and was a graduate of Quincy High School. She had lived in Quincy for most of her life.

Ms. Brigette was a surgical technician at the Boston City Hospital for over 20 years and had previously worked at the former Quincy City Hospital.

She enjoyed music and sang in church choirs and travelled with the MIT Choral Society.

Beloved mother of Timothy A. Brigette of Quincy.

Dear sister of Paul F. Brigette and his wife Marlene of Middleboro.

She was predeceased by seven sisters, two brothers and is survived by many nieces and nephews.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to the Norwell VNA and Hospice, 120 Longwater Drive, Norwell, MA 02061.

Rose M. Megna

A funeral Mass for Rose M. Megna of Weymouth, formerly of Quincy, will be celebrated today (Thursday) at 10 a.m. in St. John's Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Megna died Dec. 16.

She was fortunate to have known her late husband since they were children and married while he was in the military. Their loved spanned the years and Rose was heartbroken when he died this Oct. 16, 2012.

Her family was the focal point of her life and she took great pride in her children and grandchildren. She enjoyed cooking and took great pleasure in the appearance of her home.

Mrs. Megna worked for various manufacturers as an assembler with the last being Milham's of Quincy many years ago.

Beloved wife of the late Albert A. Megna. Loving mother of Mary DeAngelis and her husband John of Weymouth, and the late Virginia Elchholm. Cherished grandmother of Teresa, Janine and her husband George, and John and his wife Kerri. Great grandmother of Kendall. Sister of Mark Cook of So. Boston, and pre-deceased by four brothers. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Visiting hours were Wednesday from 4 to 8 p.m. in the Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Burial will be in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the Wounded Warrior Project, P.O. Box 758517, Topeka, KS 66675.

She outlived
all her friends...
What should
we do?

Maybe we should first
ask these questions:
What about you? What about your friends?
We help lots of families balance what they'd like to do...

John Keohane

with the people who will be there, and the money that's available. What's the right thing to do? You decide...
At Keohane Funeral and Cremation Service we can help you find it.

Keohane
FUNERAL & CREMATION SERVICE

785 Hancock Street
Quincy
333 Hancock Street
North Quincy
21 Emerald Street
Hingham

www.Keohane.com
1-800-KEOHANE

Other Obituaries Online
at www.thequincysun.com

Impact Quincy Community Heroes

Cont'd From Page 2

for installing prescription drug drop-off kiosks in the county's police station. The kiosks have been placed in all but two of the county's communities, and the program is funded through assets seized from drug dealers.

"One of the key things I think that we've experienced with him is that he's put 26 med kiosks throughout Norfolk County and he's used the drug dealers' money to get these things up and running," Bay State Community Services Director of Prevention & Intervention Services Bill Spinks said. "Now people can drop of their prescriptions there 24/7."

"It's a pretty good deal and it's really getting those meds out of the medicine cabinets and it creates a little more safety for our young kids who used to have easy access to those drugs."

Morrissey said the program has been successful at keeping drugs away from children — many prescription drug abusers start out by taking what they find in mom and dad's medicine cabinet.

"It's been tons and tons of drugs that have been taken off the streets and they estimate the 60 to 70 percent of kids, young kids, actually get them out of your own medicine cabinet," Morrissey said. "This simple idea has been adopted by a number of my colleagues in the district attorney's group and they're doing the same thing."

The program would not have been possible without assistance from the Department of Public Health and local police departments. Morrissey credited Quincy Police Chief Paul Keenan and Mayor Tom Koch for helping get a kiosk installed in the city.

"Public Health is a great partner and the police departments [also]," Morrissey said. "The chief put up some money in the City of Quincy and the mayor was most helpful in that."

Police Lt. Timothy Sorgi, who is in charge of the community policing program, was given the award for his unit's work with the business community. Maralin Manning, director of business development for the Quincy Chamber, said many

RECIPIENTS of Impact Quincy's 2012 Community Hero Awards were honored at a ceremony Dec. 12 at the Thomas Crane Public Library. A dozen individuals, organizations, business owners consider Sorgi's unit their heroes.

"They truly are what we consider in the business community our heroes," Manning said. "Many [businesses] are owned by Quincy residents. Others are [owned by] people who go home to their own community every single night and go home with pleasant thoughts of their day in Quincy as a result of the connection they have with these gentlemen who watch over them."

Sorgi, who called running the unit his dream job, said he was happy to work with business owners. He added the award, while given to him, was truly for the unit as a whole.

"The business community doesn't always get the voice that it should when it comes to the day to day matters within the police department. It's a pleasure to be able to work with them day in and day out to find out what their concerns are," Sorgi said. "But to be honest this award isn't for me, it's for the unit as a whole. There's seven officers in my unit that do the job day in and day out."

Lt. Det. Patrick Glynn received his award for overseeing the department's Narcan program. Under the program, each member of the department has been trained to administer Narcan to help counter the effects of an opiate overdose. The program has served as a model nationwide and Glynn will receive an award from the White House for it next spring.

"He truly believes that you can't go to treatment if you're dead. He is never judgmental, he protects and serves our community, and he truly cares about people," Impact Quincy's Nancy Holler said. "Pat is now being asked to speak all over the country about the Quincy Police and their Narcan program. He is being nationally recognized by the office of National Control Drug Policy when he is presented the Advocate for Action award. They are calling it the Quincy model."

Glynn credited the police officers who are out on the streets for making the program such a success.

"Without their commitment and without their day in and day out going out to these calls, being non-judgmental, assessing the situation, and administering the Narcan, we wouldn't be here and businesses were recognized for helping prevent substance abuse in Quincy and other communities.

Quincy Sun Photo/Scott Jackson

today to honor everyone and also have 133 Narcan reversals in a 20-month period in the city," Glynn said.

Glynn highlighted three instances where officers were able to save people's lives by administering Narcan. In one case an officer saved two people in one day, in another a father drove his daughter to police headquarters to save her, and in the third friends of an overdose victim flagged down officers for their assistance.

"This officer went out and saved a 19-year-old individual who was thrown in a snow bank outside Quincy Hospital by his friends, came back to the station and was resupplied with Narcan and within 45 minutes was back on the street and saved another individual," Glynn said. "His statement was 'I couldn't look at that kid's eyes and couldn't believe if we didn't have this and that happened to be my son or someone I knew.' He saved those two individuals that day."

"The next one was someone who was taking their daughter to the hospital who was in an overdose state — drove into the station because he knew Narcan was in the station also. The officers came out of the station, administered the Narcan, saved the individual and off to the hospital they went."

"The last one, on Dec. 7, officers responded. A person was blue, unresponsive in a home. The friends came running out yelling

'hey, hey you guys! You're the Quincy Police, you carry Narcan! Come in here and help us!'"

Other recipients of the 2012 awards included Baxter Pharmacy, CVS, Rite Aid, Stop & Shop Pharmacies, and Walgreens for participating in Quincy's prescription drop-off days by helping to spread the word about them. COVANTA Energy also received an award for helping out with the drop-off days; a COVANTA incinerator in Wareham is used to destroy medication dropped off at those events and at the kiosks in Norfolk County.

The Weymouth Youth Coalition and Nicholas Martel, a Weymouth resident who produced a documentary on drug abuse, also received awards.

Koch thanked all the winners for their efforts in fighting substance abuse and vowed to continue working with them.

"We're going to do what we've got to do to help our youngsters, to help our brothers and sisters in the community," Koch said. "I'm not afraid to admit I'm a praying guy, and every night I pray that my three children do not make a bad decision that could change their life. It's a real problem that every family has been touched by, certainly a problem that Quincy has been touched by. We're going to continue to work together to make the difference that we can."

JOAN'S OLYMPIC GYM
GYMNASTICS & DANCE SCHOOL
WAS VOTED #1 ON THE SOUTH SHORE
Ages 2 - Adult
NOW ACCEPTING REGISTRATIONS!
781-843-9624
"An Excellent Education Environment For Your Child!"
197 Quincy Avenue, Braintree • www.joansolympicgym.com

Nicole's Studio
261 Copeland St
Quincy, MA
617-934-5135
Nicole's Studio offers the very Best in modern hair design
Ladies, Come into Nicole's Studio for a Cut & Color
Bring the guy of your choice, he gets a "FREE CUT"
(He must be a first time client)
Always free parking
Call today for an appointment.
617-935-5135
Visit
www.nicolessalon.com
Like us on Facebook
www.facebook.com/nicolesstudio

Burke's Seafood
Established 1979
CELEBRATE WITH SEAFOOD THIS HOLIDAY SEASON
Featuring all your Holiday Favorites
SHRIMP COCKTAIL
FRESH LOBSTER MEAT
SCALLOPS WRAPPED IN BACON
WARM CRABMEAT DIP
HOMEMADE CRABCAKES (LARGE & BITE SIZE)
BAKED STUFFED LOBSTERS
OUR FAMOUS CHOWDERS
LOBSTER MAC & CHEESE BY THE TRAY
ALL YOUR FRESH FISH & SHELLFISH NEEDS
PLACE YOUR ORDERS EARLY!
★ Special Holiday Hours ★
Sun 12/23 9am-6pm
Mon 12/24 9am-5pm
VISIT WWW.BURKESSEAFOOD.COM
OR CALL FOR MORE HOLIDAY IDEAS
61 BILLINGS RD. NO. QUINCY
617-328-9765 • 617-479-1540

Ask the GEMOLOGIST®
BY JEFFREY M. BERTMAN
GRADUATE GEMOLOGIST
AN ORGANIC MIX OF METALS AND PATTERNS
To fully appreciate the distinctive layered pattern effect produced by the Japanese mixed-metal laminating technique known as Mokume gane, you must see it for yourself. Until you do, try conjuring the image of sun-dappled water seen from the broadside of a boat, only substitute bronze and copper colors for blue and aqua. Mokume gane, which was first employed by 17th-century Japanese metal-crafters to make sword fittings, means "burl metal" since it looks somewhat like burl wood. The metal-crafting process from which gorgeous rings and other fine jewelry emerge involves laminating sheets of various metals into a solid billet. After careful heat control and careful forging, the final result materializes as an organic blend of metals that only colored glass might approximate.
People have always appreciated beauty and uniqueness in all things. This appreciation is perhaps most evident in jewelry. Jewelry has always been a form of self-adornment as well as self-expression. Come to 1402 Hancock Street, Quincy Center and browse our jewelry selection or call us at 617-773-3636, and allow us to assist you.
Don't Forget: We pay cash for Gold - Platinum - Diamonds... highest prices paid.
Rogers
Diamonds...Watches...Jewelry
www.rogersjewelry.com
BANK OF AMERICA BUILDING

The Catholic Community in Quincy invites you to worship with us this Christmas.

Holy Trinity Parish

Our Lady of Good Counsel Church
227 Sea Street
Blessed Sacrament Church
1011 Sea Street
617.479.9200

holytrinityquincy.com

Sacred Heart Parish

386 Hancock Street
North Quincy
617.328.8666
sacredheartquincy.org

St. Ann Parish

757 Hancock Street
Wollaston
617.479.5400
stannquincy.org

St. John the Baptist Parish

44 School Street
Quincy Center
617.773.1021
stjohnsquincy.org

St. Joseph Parish

550 Washington Street
Quincy Point
617.472.6321
stjosephsquincy.com

St. Mary Parish

95 Crescent Street
West Quincy
617.773.0120

Christmas Eve

MONDAY, DECEMBER 24

4:00 PM

Holy Trinity Parish
(Our Lady of Good Counsel)
Sacred Heart Parish
St. Ann Parish (upper & lower church)
St. John Parish
St. Joseph Parish
St. Mary Parish

4:30 PM

Holy Trinity Parish (Blessed Sacrament)

6:00 PM

St. John Parish
St. Joseph Parish (Family Mass)

7:00 PM

Sacred Heart Parish

Midnight Mass

12:00 AM

CAROLING AT 11:30 PM

St. John Parish
Sacred Heart Parish

Christmas Day

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 25

7:00 AM

St. Ann Parish

8:00 AM

St. John Parish

9:00 AM

Sacred Heart Parish
St. Joseph Parish

9:30 AM

St. Mary Parish

10:00 AM

St. Ann Parish
St. John Parish

10:30 AM

Holy Trinity Parish
(Our Lady of Good Counsel)
Sacred Heart Parish

11:30 AM

St. Mary Parish

CHRISTMAS IN CHURCH

lights the way to the spirit and brotherhood of Christmas

United First Parish Church

United First Parish services on Christmas Eve Church, 1306 Hancock St., Quincy Center, will celebrate Christmas with two Monday, Dec. 24. The Family Christmas Eve service for 4 to 4:45 p.m. created for small children and families will feature the Spirit Play Story, "The Miraculous Ordinary Story of a Baby" and traditional Christmas Carols. All ages welcome.

The Traditional Candlelight service starts at 7 p.m. and features readings from the Religious Education's Youth Group.

Quincy Catholic Parishes

The Catholic Community in Quincy announces its Christmas worship services. On Christmas Eve, Monday, Dec. 24, Masses at 4 p.m. will be celebrated at Holy Trinity Parish (Our Lady of Good Counsel), 227 Sea St.; Sacred Heart Parish, 386 Hancock St.; St. Ann Parish (upper and lower church), 757 Hancock St.; St. John Parish, 44 School St.; St. Joseph Parish, 550 Washington St.; and St. Mary Parish, 95 Crescent St.

There will be a 4:30 p.m. Mass at Holy Trinity Parish (Blessed Sacrament), 1011 Sea St.; a 6 p.m. Mass at St. John Parish and St. Joseph Parish (family Mass); 7 p.m. Mass at Sacred Heart and Midnight Mass with caroling at 11:30 p.m. at St. John Parish and Sacred Heart Parish.

Parish.

Christmas Day Masses will be celebrated Tuesday, Dec. 25 at 7 a.m. at St. Ann Parish; 8 a.m. at St. John Parish; 9 a.m. at Sacred Heart Parish and St. Joseph Parish; 9:30 a.m. at St. Mary Parish; 10 a.m. at St. Ann Parish and St. John Parish; 11:30 a.m. at Holy Trinity Parish (Our Lady of Good Counsel) and Sacred Heart Church and at 11:30 a.m. at St. Mary Parish.

Quincy Community United Methodist Church

Christmas Eve, Monday, Dec. 24

Candlelight Service of Carols and Holy Communion 11 pm

40 Beale Street, Wollaston
617-773-3319

www.QCUMC3.org • QCUMC2@comcast.net

Christmas Eve Service 6 PM

Wollaston Church of the Nazarene

37 E. Elm Ave., Quincy www.wollastonnazarene.org
617-472-5669

Christmas Eve at Union Church

Service of Lessons and Carols
7:30pm - Reception to Follow
Service of Holy Communion
11:30pm

Rev. John C. Swanson, Pastor
Corner of Beach St. & Rawson Rd.
Wollaston
617-479-6661

~ REJOICE ~ Christ is Born!

Bethany Congregational church
(UNITED CHURCH CHRIST)
18 Spear Street, Quincy Center, 02169
617-479-7300

Christmas Sunday Service
Sunday December 23rd, 10am
Rev. William C. Harding
"A Humble Manger"

Christmas Eve - Candlelight Service
Monday, December 24th, 7pm
"Bring Bells for Ringing"
Rev. William C. Harding
"The Promised Messiah"

"All are welcome to all events"

Jesus

Benjamin Mafera, Director of Music and Choirs

Quincy Point Congregational
444 Washington Street

Christmas Eve Service
December 24th, 2012 ~ 6:30pm

6:10 pm ~ Musical preludes
Special Christmas Music and Candlelight

Featuring the Chancel Choir

www.quincypointcong.org
Rev. Ann G. Suzedell, Pastor

St. Agatha Parish
432 Adams St., Milton
Invites you to join us for our Celebration of Christmas Mass

CHRISTMAS EVE MASS SCHEDULE MONDAY DECEMBER 24TH

4:00pm (Upper Church) - Congregational Singing
4:00pm (Parish Center) - Congregational Singing
6:00pm - Pageant & Children's Choir
7:30pm - Contemporary Choir
12 Midnight - Music Ensemble and Congregational singing

CHRISTMAS DAY MASS SCHEDULE TUESDAY DECEMBER 25TH

7:30am - Congregational Singing
9:00am - Congregational Singing
10:30am - Traditional Choir
12 Noon - Congregational Singing
NO 5:00PM MASS

We wish you
Joy & Peace
this Christmas Season

"Don't Eat Your Halo... Yet."

Christmas Eve Worship at First Baptist Church of Wollaston
A family friendly, interactive (and tasty) experience.

7:00 PM, Monday December 24th

First Baptist Church of Wollaston

81 Prospect Avenue
Quincy, MA 02170
(617) 472-0824

Corner of Warren and Prospect Avenues

All Are Welcome

www.FirstBaptistChurchofWollaston.org

Quincy Community United Methodist

Carols, candles and Holy Communion will mark the 11 p.m. Christmas Eve service Monday, Dec. 24 at Quincy Community United Methodist Church, 40 Beale St., Wollaston.

"The emphasis of the service is on singing carols," said Rev. Dr. Susan F.

Jarek-Glidden, pastor of the church. "What better way is there to express the joy of Christmas Eve?"

The church building is handicapped accessible through the door near the flagpole.

For more information, call the church office at 617-773-3319.

First Baptist Church

Sunday's Worship service at 10:30 a.m. will be a Congregational Cantata of Lessons and Carols at the First Baptist Church of Wollaston, 81 Prospect Ave.

Serving the Church will be Rev. A. Michael Cunningham. Greeters will be Shirley Wolfe and Beverly Moulton.

Following the service

there will be a fellowship coffee hour in the Chapel.

On Christmas Eve Monday, Dec. 24 at 7 p.m., there will be a family friendly candlelight service. Rev. Cunningham's sermon will be titled "Don't Eat Your Halo Yet!"

All are welcome. All areas of the church are handicapped accessible.

Union Congregational Church

Union Congregational Church, corner of Beach Street and Rawson Road, Wollaston, will hold a Christmas Eve Service of Lessons and Carols at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 24.

The choir, under the direction of Kristen McKinny, has prepared several wonderful anthems and Christmas Carols will be sung.

A special reception will follow the service.

At 11:30 p.m., a Midnight Service of Holy Communion will be held in the Church Chancel.

The public is invited to attend the services.

Houghs Neck Congregational

Houghs Neck Congregational Church, 310 Manet Ave., will hold a series of Christmas programs and services beginning Saturday, Dec. 22 at 5 p.m., when the church Sunday school will present a traditional Christmas pageant, followed by a church supper.

Admission is free; reservations are recommended.

On Sunday, Dec. 23, the church will observe the third Sunday in Advent during its 10 a.m. worship service. Pastor John Castricum will deliver the sermon "He is Near!" and Shirley Pearson and Christian Jacobs will serve for the Diaconate. A fellowship coffee hour will follow the service.

On Christmas Eve, Monday, Dec. 24, the church will hold a family worship service at 5 p.m. The service will feature the Christmas story interwoven with Christmas carols and a candle lighting ceremony.

Janice Hughes, Helen Miller, Ralph Jacobs and Bryan Logue will serve for the Diaconate.

Quincy Point Congregational

The congregation will celebrate the fourth week of Advent Sunday at 10 a.m. worship at Quincy Point Congregational Church, 444 Washington St.

Jack Sweeney will be deacon of the day and Raedora Stewart will be the lay reader. The sermon by The Rev Ann G. Suzedell is named, "Christmas Story, Christmas Glory."

The Christmas Eve Candlelight service will be at 6:30 p.m. on Christmas Eve. Musical preludes begin at 6:10 p.m. Bus service from 1000 Southern Artery will be available. Bus departure times to be posted at the Artery.

Wollaston Church Of The Nazarene

The Wollaston Church of the Nazarene, 37 East Elm Ave., Quincy, will hold a Christmas Eve service Monday, Dec. 24 at 6 p.m.

Bethany Congregational

Bethany Congregational Church, Quincy Center will have Sunday Worship Service and Sunday School at 10 a.m.

The Rev. William C. Harding will conduct the service and preach a sermon entitled "A Humble Manger."

Fellowship with light refreshments will follow the worship service.

The church will hold a Christmas Eve candlelight service Monday, Dec. 24 at 7 p.m. Bring bells for ringing.

Rev. Harding will conduct the service and preach a sermon entitled "The Promised Messiah".

All are welcome to attend Bethany Church Worship

Services and its numerous group activities. Bethany has a Youth Group, a Men's Group, an Outreach Mission Group doing various charity works and a Friday morning Bible Study Class.

The church office is open from 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. Visit <http://www.bethanycongregationchurchquincy.org/> for updates and activities.

The Bethany Church Service is broadcast on Quincy Access Television at 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Thursdays and Sundays on Channel 8.

Childcare will be available for infants and toddlers during worship service on Sundays.

The church is wheelchair accessible.

St. Agatha Parish

St. Agatha Parish, 432 Adams St., Milton, announces its schedule of Christmas Masses.

Monday, Dec. 24 - Christmas Eve Masses will be celebrated at 4 p.m. (upper church, congregational singing), 4 p.m. (Parish Center, congregational singing); 6 p.m. (Pageant and Children's Choir), 7:30 p.m., (contemporary choir) and Midnight (music ensemble and congregational singing.)

On Christmas Day, Tuesday, Dec. 25, Masses will be celebrated at 7:30 a.m. (congregational singing), 9 a.m. (congregational singing), 10:30 a.m. (traditional choir) and noon (Congregational singing).

There is no 5 p.m. Mass on Christmas Day.

Quincy Religion Directory			Christian Science
SERVICES & ACTIVITIES			First Church of Christ, Scientist 16 Beale Street, Quincy 617-472-0055
Catholic	Congregational	Congregational	Sunday Services and Sunday School 10:30 a.m. Wednesday Evening Meetings - where testimonies of healing are shared 7:30 p.m.
St. Mary's Church 95 Crescent St., Quincy • 617-773-0120 Masses Saturday, 4pm, Sunday 7, 9:30 & 11:30am, Weekdays 9am Handicapped Accessible New Members Welcome!	SACRED HEART CHURCH "A Roman Catholic Community walking together in Faith, Worship, Education and Service" 386 Hancock St., North Quincy, MA 02171 (617) 328-8666 Sunday Masses 4pm (Sat.) 7:45am, 9am (Family Liturgy) 10:30am (with Choir) and 5pm Weekday Masses Mon.-Fri. 7am and 9am, Sat. 9am Handicapped Accessible Confessions Sat. 3-3:45pm in Saint Joseph Oratory	HOUGH'S NECK CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 310 Manet Avenue 617-479-8778 www.hncong.org Sunday Worship at 10 a.m. 'He Is Near!' All are welcome to attend FELLOWSHIP COFFEE HOUR FOLLOWING SERVICE Christmas Eve Service 5 pm Christmas Carols, Candlelighting	ALL ARE WELCOME!
ST. AGATHA CHURCH MILTON-QUINCY 432 Adams Street Milton, MA 02186 • 617-698-2439 Schedule of Masses: Saturday: 4:30PM Sunday: 7:30AM, 9:00AM (Family Mass), 10:30AM, 12 NOON, 5:00PM Weekday Masses: 7:00 & 9:00AM Reconciliation 3:45PM-4:15pm on Saturdays, other times by appointment Handicapped Accessible, handicapped parking, elevator to Upper/Lower Churches ~ Air-Conditioned	St. Joseph's Church 550 Washington Street Quincy, MA 02169 617-472-6321 SUNDAY MASSES: 4 p.m. (On Saturday) 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Weekday Masses 9am CONFESSIONS: Saturday, 3:00-3:30 pm Handicapped accessible & Handicapped parking, side entrance air conditioned	WOLLASTON CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH United Church of Christ 48 Winthrop Avenue Quincy, Massachusetts Sunday Worship at 10 a.m. Rev. Dr. Mary Louise Gifford Office: 617-773-7432 www.wollycong.org UNION CONGREGATIONAL Beach St. & Rawson Rd., Wollaston (617) 479-6661 Rev. John Swanson, Pastor Sunday Worship Service 10 AM	Catholic Community  Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender CATHOLICS Our families, friends And allies Liturgy & social hour: Sundays, 5:30 PM St. John the Evangelist Church 35 Bowdoin St., Beacon Hill, Boston 617-421-1915 www.dignityboston.org
St. John The Baptist ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH 44 School St., Quincy 617-773-1021 Weekend Mass Schedule Saturday, 4:00 PM Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 AM Sunday night 5:30 PM Weekday Masses Monday - Saturday 8:00 AM Latin Mass 1st & 3rd Wednesdays (Lower Chapel) 7:00 AM Confessions Wed. 8:30 - 9:00 AM Sat. 2:30 - 3:30 PM Handicapped Accessible	Saint Ann's Church 757 Hancock St., Wollaston 617-479-5400 Pastor: Rev. John J. Ronaghan Weekend Mass Schedule: Saturday 4:00 PM Sunday 7:00, 9:00, 11:30AM Daily Masses: 9:00 AM	BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH Spear & Coddington Streets Quincy Center, 617-479-7300 WWW.QUINCYBETHANYCHURCH.ORG Sunday Worship Dec. 23 and Sunday School at 10AM. The Rev. William Harding 'A Humble Manger' Christmas Eve Candlelight Service Dec. 24 at 7 PM Child Care Available ALL ARE WELCOME! Fellowship Time in Allen Parlor	Nazarene Wollaston Church of the Nazarene Sunday Worship 8:30 AM Liturgical Worship 9:45 AM Sunday School 11:00 AM Celebration Worship Kevin C. Dunlap, Lead Pastor Phil Haux, Youth & Small Groups Pastor Julie Chosko, Music & Campus Pastor Rev. Kenneth, Children's Pastor Don Reed, Visitation Pastor 37 E. Elm Ave., Wollaston 617-472-5668 Email: office@wcnaz.org WWW.WCNZ.ORG
Salvationist THE SALVATION ARMY 6 Baxter St., Quincy • 617-472-2345 9:45 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION 11AM WORSHIP SERVICE BRASS BAND MUSIC 7PM TUES WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP 6:45PM WEDS. BIBLE STUDY	Methodist QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH 40 Beale St., Wollaston 617-773-3319 10:30 AM Sunday Worship Rev. Dr. Susan Jarek-Glidden, Pastor	QUINCY POINT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH 444 Washington St. • 617-773-6424 Worship and Church School 10 am Rev. Ann Suzedell, Pastor email: office@quincypointcong.org Unitarian Universalist United First Parish Church A theologically liberal congregation, encouraging people to seek their own spiritual path. All are welcome. Worship Service, Church School and Childcare Sundays at 10:30 AM Followed by Fellowship & Refreshments Rev. Dave Johnson 1306 Hancock St., Quincy www.ufpc.org	PEACE JOY

To Advertise
in this Directory,
Call 617-471-3100

SUN FUN PAGE

King Crossword

- ACROSS
- 1 First name of 7-Down
 - 4 Baseball stats
 - 8 Crock-Pot contents
 - 12 Unclose, poetically
 - 13 Not procrastinating
 - 14 "National Treasure" star
 - 15 A-ha's megahit
 - 17 Desire
 - 18 "2001: A Space Odyssey" author
 - 19 Symbol of intrigue
 - 21 Corn spike
 - 22 Online gamer's icon
 - 26 Gee follower
 - 29 Underwear with underwire
 - 30 Inseparable
 - 31 Castle protection
 - 32 Decay
 - 33 Snips
 - 34 Hooter
 - 35 Fellow
 - 36 Insertion mark
 - 37 Holy Actor
 - 39 McBride
 - 40 Comic Philips
 - 41 Molest
 - 45 Donkey's pin-on?
 - 48 1989 Morgan Freeman movie
 - 50 "— Karenina"
 - 51 Obnoxiously proper sort
 - 52 "Monkey suit"
 - 53 Hoodoo
 - 54 Tortoise's rival
 - 55 Pigs' digs
 - 8 Diving gear
 - 9 Pitch
 - 10 Early bird?
 - 11 Tiny
 - 16 Upright
 - 20 Actress Longoria
 - 23 Go sightseeing
 - 24 Initial stake
 - 25 Whatever's left over
 - 26 Andy's pal
 - 27 "The Music Man" setting
 - 28 Body powder
 - 29 Tarzan's son
 - 32 Santa's guide
 - 33 Egypt's capital
 - 35 Jewel
 - 36 Alter
 - 38 Take it easy
 - 39 Lead the meeting
 - 42 Picnic invaders
 - 43 Filth
 - 44 Alluring
 - 45 — Mahal
 - 46 Singer DiFranco
 - 47 Hostel
 - 49 Historic time
- DOWN
- 1 Mil. training grp.
 - 2 October birthstone
 - 3 Prefix meaning "10"
 - 4 Water pipe
 - 5 Central
 - 6 Curry or Conway
 - 7 "Maggie May" singer

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

MAGIC MAZE

FRENCH CHEESES

M N K I F T R O F E U Q O R D
A X V T Q O G R U Y E R E E M
J H F C A Y N W U R P T T I N
L J H F D B Z I X V S T R B R
Q O M K I H S F T N S D O R U
B C C H E V R E U O E U F O O
Z Y O C A M E M B E R T U M C
W V T M R Q L O N S G V A L E
K I L A T N A C I H N F E D B
C A Z X W E S N O N A B B H A
V U S R T O R A V I L Q O N C

Find the listed words in the diagram. They run in all directions - forward, backward, up, down and diagonally.

Banon Beaufort Boursin Cabecou
Camembert Cantal Chèvre Chevroton
Comté Gruyère Langres Livarot
Morbier Munster Salers

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

HOCUS-FOCUS

BY HENRY BOLTIKOFF

CAN YOU TRUST YOUR EYES? There are at least six differences in drawing details between top and bottom panels. How quickly can you find them? Check answers with those below.

Trivia test

1. ANIMAL KINGDOM: What is a formicary?
2. ASTRONOMY: Which planet has two moons called Titania and Oberon?
3. GAMES: What is the color of St. James Place in the game "Monopoly"?
4. LANGUAGE: What does the Greek word "platypus" mean?
5. MEDICINE: What is a more common name for the condition called odontalgia?
6. GEOGRAPHY: The island nation of Madagascar lies off the coast of which continent?
7. INVENTIONS: Who invented the modern ballpoint pen?
8. MEASUREMENTS:

How many gallons are contained in a firkin?
9. MYTHOLOGY: Who was the daughter of King Minos who helped Theseus to escape from the Labyrinth?
10. MOVIES: What was the name of the women's baseball team in "A League of Their Own"?

- Answers
1. The scientific name for an anthill
 2. Uranus
 3. Orange
 4. Flat-footed
 5. A toothache
 6. Africa
 7. Laszlo Biro
 8. 9 gallons
 9. Ariadne
 10. Rockford Peaches

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Wishing Well®

6 7 4 3 7 8 4 7 8 7 4 6 5
T N O Y E G T W I S H I G
7 2 8 4 6 2 3 4 6 8 7 3 4
K U F E M N O R E T I U S
3 2 7 6 2 8 5 2 6 5 3 4 3
G I L F O F I N O V A H I
7 2 6 5 7 4 8 6 3 5 6 7 6
L O R E S E R P N F L N A
3 7 4 7 2 4 7 2 4 8 3 2 7
S E L E F P D I Y O T D E
4 3 7 3 6 5 4 2 5 8 5 3 5
O R D E Y R U E E M E N L
8 3 8 2 5 8 3 8 2 8 3 8 8
A G F A Y R T I S E H N D

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) It's a good time for reunions with those very special people from your past. You could be pleasantly surprised by what comes to light during one of these get-togethers.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) The new year gets off to an encouraging start for the Bold Bovine who takes that demanding workplace challenge by the horns and steers it in the right direction.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) The clever Gemini will be quick to spot the telltale signs of workplace changes that could open up new opportunities for the right person. (And that's you, isn't it?)

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) The Moon Child's post-holiday letdown soon lifts as you begin to get back into your comfortable routine. Someone from your past extends a surprise bid to reconnect.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You've been the ultimate social Lion over the holidays. Now it's time to relax and recharge your energy so you can be at your best when you pounce on that new project.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A relationship could be moving in a direction you might not want to follow. Step back for a better overview of the situation. You might be surprised at what you see.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Emotions rule at the start of the week, affecting your perception about a decision. Best advice: Avoid commitments until that good Libran sense kicks back in.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A longtime friendship could take a romantic turn early in the new year. While this pleases your passionate side, your logical self might want to go slow.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Someone might make a surprising disclosure about a trusted friend or workplace colleague. Stay cool and reserve judgment until you get more facts.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You might think you've found what you've been looking for. But appearances can be deceiving. Don't act on your discovery until you know more about it.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You're no doubt anxious for that confusing situation to be cleared up. But don't press for a quick resolution or you might overlook some vital facts.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Now that your holiday distractions are easing, you need to apply yourself to getting those unfinished tasks done so you can begin a new project with a clean slate.

BORN THIS WEEK: People respect both your wisdom and your deep sense of loyalty and compassion.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

CryptoQuip

This is a simple substitution cipher in which each letter used stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Solution is accomplished by trial and error.

Clue: J equals L

VMEK OUIJG QUI OEJJ KMRCSL
JRYW LKHRCSL, MEZZWHL, ECG
VUUGWC YWQL? BRECUBRWOWL.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

King Crossword — Answers

Cryptoquip ANSWER:

wooden keys? Piano pieces like strings, hammers and what could you call things

Real Estate

Quincy Real Estate Transactions Dec. 10 - Dec. 14

Seller	Buyer	Amount	Address
Wing H. Lau & Elaina K. Wong	Moria Y. Wong	$220,000.00	20 Turning Mill Lane Unit 12
Granite Lofts Condominium LLC	Casey L. MacDonald	$245,000.00	120 Holmes Street Unit 221E
Christopher Angers, Jr.	Mary Hassett	$216,000.00	15 Bower Road Unit E-11
Dane Smith, Hong Le-Smith	Lionsgate Properties LLC	$405,000.00	22-24 Carlmark Street
WQ Development LLC	Christine Ryan	$500,000.00	64 Adele Road
Debora A. Symonds & Donna Cabral	Martin T. Rigby & Elizabeth R. Owens-Rigby	$490,000.00	105 Narragansett Road
Melvin R. Mallock & Judith B. Mallock	Cheng L. Xu	$401,000.00	39 Whitney Road
Henry M. Thornton	Peggy X. Chan	$148,000.00	215 Thomas S. Burgin Parkway Unit C-4
601 Sunny Lea Realty Trust	Yue-Qin Kuang	$80,000.00	195 Thomas S. Burgin Parkway Unit 601
Mary E. Neagle	Kenneth A. Segura & Kathleen E.M. Segura	$279,000.00	77 Adams Street Unit 1009
Fabio Dangelo	Ying Lin	$270,000.00	30 Albertina Street
Ajit Kale & Kalpana Kale	Ajay Saini	$194,500.00	62 South Street Unit 9
Reino A. Nurmenniemi & Lee A. Nurmenniemi	Victor Petreca & Richard Moore	$285,000.00	17 Owens Place
Warren Patterson & William Newton	Dingli Zhou & Yuchan Liang	$285,000.00	6 Littlefield Street
John P. McCaffery	Wah T. Hum & Gloria Hum	$312,000.00	54 Bird Street
Bank of America N.A.	Peter Le	$205,000.00	144 Quincy Shore Drive Unit 129
Carol A. Cahill	Chow Family Realty Trust	$328,000.00	15-17 Baxter Avenue
Karen DeWolfe & Eric DeWolfe	Anna Y. Jan	$275,000.00	87 Franklin Street Unit 205
86 Upton Street Realty Trust	Rita M. Shinnick & Daniel S. Tarabelli	$300,000.00	86 Upton Street
Sarah C. Ruiz & Hector R. Ruiz	Koon W. Wong	$310,000.00	51-53 Smith Street
Dana P. Chiavaroli	Heather M. Cloran	$240,000.00	100 Marina Drive Unit 107
Kenneth A. Segura & Kathleen E.M. Segura	Xiao Ling Wen	$212,000.00	27 Field Street Unit 6
Harry J. Robinson & Janet V. Robinson	Debora Ann Symonds	$442,500.00	42 Joan Drive
Edward J. Kelly & Mary M. Kelly	John P. Friel	$480,000.00	135 Plymouth Avenue

Fixing A Broken Windowpane

By SAMANTHA MAZZOTTA

Question: I was putting away my ladder after hanging up lights when it slipped and fell against the front window. One of the panes cracked all the way up. It's an older window, and I don't think I'll be able to get a repair service in this late in the holiday season. How can I fix it? -- A Reader, via email

Answer: Believe it or not, the newer, double-paned windows can take longer to fix than older ones. So, you're in luck. Because you have an older, single-pane window with multiple panes, replacing a single pane can be pretty easy. Here's what you'll need for the job: a replacement pane of glass, glazier's points, glazing compound or putty, wood primer, small paintbrush, needle-nose pliers, a screwdriver or chisel, a small putty knife, sturdy work gloves, eye protection, a hammer, masking tape, sandpaper and a tape measure.

Measure the size of the windowpane opening before heading to the home improvement or window specialty store. Purchase a replacement pane that is about 1/8 inch smaller than the length and width of the opening. This is a good time to purchase the glazier's points, putty, primer and any tools you'll need, too.

First, remove the window sash from the frame and lay it down on a towel or old cloth. Keep heat inside the house by closing the storm window or taping a sheet of plastic around the frame.

Next, carefully remove the cracked glass. You'll need to break the pane to get it out, so put on gloves and eye protection and put a strip of masking tape on both sides of the cracked glass pane. Carefully tap the cracked pane with a hammer until it breaks. Tap pieces downward onto the protective cloth, then carefully pull shards out of the panel frame, as well as any old glazier's points (discard them).

Use a screwdriver or chisel to carefully remove old glazing compound from the frame, then sand the area smooth and clean away debris. To finish prepping the frame, put a coat of wood primer (preferably fast-drying) over the sanded area. This will help the glazing compound last longer.

Once the primer is dry, test-fit your replacement glass, then remove. Roll out a very thin rope of glazing compound around the wood frame. (You also could use clear silicone caulk at this point, as it's an extra step to ensure a water-resistant seal.) Carefully press the replacement glass into place.

Next, put new glazier's points into place. These secure the pane in place firmly. Press the pointed end into the wooden frame about two inches from each corner, then use a screwdriver to press them in firmly.

Finish sealing the windowpane by rolling out another rope of glazing compound. Press this into the seam between the windowpane and the wood frame. Use your putty knife to really push it in there, and then smooth down the compound.

Clean accidental globs of compound or primer from the glass with mineral spirits or turpentine. You can now put the window sash back into the frame. Let the glazing compound dry for about a week so that it sets well, then paint the wood around the new pane to match the rest of the window.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Harold Brown Receives Lifetime Achievement Award

Harold Brown, chairman and CEO of The Hamilton Company, was recently honored by the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) with its Lifetime Achievement Award at the Seaport World Trade Center.

The award was presented at the organization's annual dinner, a gathering of more than 200 of the area's real estate professionals.

The Hamilton Company owns and operates several properties in Quincy including Hamilton Bay and The Hamilton.

Brown has been an industry leader for more than six decades.

In accepting the Lifetime Achievement Award, Brown told the audience of real estate executives how he purchased his first property in Allston 58 years ago and has since turned that $7,000 investment into a $1.4 billion empire by learning the real estate cycles and buying at the bottom.

Brown also talked about his commitment to giving back to the community.

HAROLD BROWN (center), chairman and CEO of The Hamilton Company, recently received the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) Lifetime Achievement Award. With Brown are (left) IREM National President James Evans and IREM Boston Chapter President Jonathan Donahue.

Through his two charitable foundations, the Hamilton Charitable Trust and the Hamilton Company Chartable Foundation, Brown donates more than $300,000 annually to local non-profit organizations.

Tina Belcher

For Personal Help with all of your Real Estate Needs

CALL FOR FREE HOME MARKET ANALYSIS

(781)812-6497

Flavin & Flavin 1005 Hancock St. Quincy
Visit: www.tinabelcherhomes.com

FLAVIN Insurance Agency

Complete Insurance Service Since 1925

Auto • Home • Condos • Apartments
Travel Trailers • Umbrellas • Flood • Business
Boats • Commercial Auto

Offering great rates and discounts

Call or drop in for Premium Quote

Flavin & Flavin

1085 Hancock St. Quincy Center
Visit: www.flavinandflavin.com

617-479-1000

SEE JAYNE TALK
WWW.C21ABIGAILADAMS.COM

Century 21
ABIGAIL ADAMS AGENCY

617-471-7575

Century 21
Annex Realty, Inc.

49 Beale St., Quincy, MA 02170
617-472-4330
www.c21annex.com

Over 70 Seller and Buyer Agents specializing in Residential, Commercial Real Estate, Bank Owned Properties, Short Sales and Rentals

ANNEX REAL ESTATE SCHOOL

Offering Salesperson's, Broker's and Continuing Ed. classes

"STILL NUMBER ONE"

'Breakfast With Santa' Spreads Holiday Cheer

Dunkin' Donuts franchisees Victor and Octavio Carvalho, in partnership with the Germantown Neighborhood Center, recently hosted the 12th annual "Breakfast with Santa" to spread holiday cheer to the children of Quincy.

Approximately 100 deserving children and adults enjoyed a special Christmas story reading by Santa (a very close friend of a Quincy firefighter), a holiday music sing-along, and various activities including face painting and Christmas tree ornament decorating. Each child got his or her picture taken with Santa and went home with a gift bag provided by Dunkin' Donuts.

Since 2000, Dunkin' Donuts franchisees Victor and Octavio Carvalho have co-hosted the Breakfast with Santa event with the Germantown Center to provide all Quincy children with the opportunity to meet Santa, listen to a Christmas story reading and enjoy a free breakfast. They are proud to continue their partnership with the Germantown Neighborhood Center as part of their ongoing commitment to giving back to their local community.

QUINCY FIREFIGHTERS (back row, left), Dunkin' Donuts franchisees (back row, middle), and members of the Germantown Neighborhood Center enjoy a visit by Santa at the center's 12th annual "Breakfast With Santa."

Blackwood Pharmacy Closes After 24 Years

By EMILY TAFT

For 24 years, Blackwood Pharmacy filled the prescriptions of locals in Quincy until last week when their customers were notified by a telephone call that stated their prescriptions could be picked up at the nearby Rite Aid on Granite St.

"It's certainly is a sign of the times when you see a small independent store close," said Dean Rizzo, president of the Quincy Chamber of Commerce. "I think it's a shame to lose a long time institution from the City of Quincy."

Blackwood Pharmacy was established in 1988 and was located in Wollaston until moving to Quincy center in 2004. Since its opening it has been owned and operated by Bonnie Seely. Holiday decorations still sit in the windows of the pharmacy but posted on the windows of the building are signs informing customers the business is closed and that their prescriptions are now available at the Rite Aid store at 132 Granite St.

Blackwood Pharmacy is one of the city's last two independently owned pharmacies. The closing of the pharmacy, located on 181 Parkway, leaves Baxter Pharmacy on Washington Street as the city's only independently owned drugstore.

"Any time a business closes it is a concern for the Chamber. Blackwood was a very active member," said Rizzo. "The only remaining pharmacy now is Baxter."

Holiday Gift Guide

CHRISTINE'S
DAY SPA & ELECTROLOGY

Gift Certificates
Available Online for Men & Women

go to www.quincyspa.com

65 Willard St., Quincy • 617-786-1620

The Four's Restaurant

FREE $20 GIFT CARD WHEN YOU PURCHASE $100 IN GIFT CARDS

HAVE A HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON

15 Cottage Avenue
Quincy • 617-471-4447

certificates available on-line
www.thefours.com

285 Washington Street
Norwell • 781-659-4414

166 Canal Street
Boston • 617-720-4455

Happy Holidays from the Fowler House

Fowler House
C • A • F • E
Restaurant & Pub
617-773-9000
www.fowlerhousecafe.com

FREE $10.00 Gift Card
with every $50.00
gift card purchase

FREE $20.00 Gift Card
with every $100.00
gift card purchase

1049 Hancock St., Quincy, MA offer expires 12/31/12

The Gift Garden

Tis the season to shop!

Come explore our great selection of gifts including stylish scarves and handbags handcrafted jewelry and fragrances Carolers, musicals and fabulous ornaments

Gifts for the holidays and all occasions

Visit us at the second level of the Milton Marketplace
Convenient parking and complimentary gift packaging
617-696-6644

This year, Give Quincy a Year-Round Christmas Present!

A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION TO

The Quincy Sun

$25.00 in Quincy * $30.00 outside Quincy
$38.00 out of state

to order, call 617-471-3100

CAPTAIN FISHBONES
SEAFOOD STEAKS AND MORE

332 Victory Road,
Marina Bay, MA 02171
617 471-3511

FREE $25.00 GIFT CARD
for every $100.00 in gift cards purchased

(offer expires 12/25/12)

Holiday Gift Guide

*A Christmas Twinkler That
Will Last for Years!*

Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers

52 Billings Rd. No. Quincy 617-328-0084

Ginger Betty's Bakery—where you'll find the sweetest gifts this holiday season!

Ginger Betty's Bakery

Let the magic of Christmas come alive as you decorate your own gingerbread house or person while the aroma of gingerbread wafts through the bakery... just like grandma used to make!

Write a holiday letter to a soldier! f Facebook.com/GingerBettyBakery
Call today! 617-472-4729 | www.gingerbettys.com | 215 Samoset Ave. Quincy

Farm Direct Roses

(Assorted Colors while supplies last)

$19.99
per dozen

CLIFFORD'S FLOWERS

1229 Hancock St.

617-479-8884

FREE $10
GIFT CARD
when you purchase

$50 worth of GIFT CARDS

(until Dec. 31, 2012)

VILLA
Rosa

Restaurant & Lounge

FINE ITALIAN FOOD

'Party Platters for celebrating the Holidays'

go to villarosaquincy.com

705 Adams St., Quincy • Free Parking • 617-773-0095

Hours: Sun, Noon - 1am / Mon-Sat, 11-1am

Like us on Facebook f

B Baker, Braverman & Barbadoro, P.C.

"South Shore's Full Service Law Firm"

Announces the Relocation of its offices

to:

300 Crown Colony Drive

Suite 500

Quincy, MA 02169

Baker, Braverman & Barbadoro, P.C.

Tel: 781-848-9610

Fax: 781-848-9790

www.bbb-lawfirm.com

Manet Community Health Center

*Happy
Holidays*

Hough's Neck
Phone: (617) 471 8683

Hull
Phone: (781) 925 4550

North Quincy
Phone: (617) 376 3000

Snug Harbor/Germantown
Phone: (617) 471 4715

Quincy Medical Center,
Phone: (857) 403 0820

Chúng tôi nói tiếng việt

我們說中文

نتكلم العربية

हम हिंदी बोलते है

Include as a
New Year's resolution a commitment to your

Good Health!

As you hang your 2013 calendars, please mark the date of Thursday, May 9, 2013
for Manet's

Dinner & Auction
at the Boston Quincy Marriott!

Massachusetts League
of Community Health Centers

DEAP
DIABETES EDUCATION
ACCREDITATION PROGRAM

AACE American Association
of Diabetes Educators

We are a not-for-profit health and social services provider and we exist to be your partner for a healthier life.

www.manetchc.org

Lydon, Jorgensen Lead Presidents Past Red Raiders

By BILL GRIFFIN

There are few more enjoyable treats in basketball than watching a point guard who can play.

A point guard directs and controls a basketball game the way a conductor leads an orchestra. A great one handles the ball cleanly, gets it to the right people in the right spots, hits her jumpers, makes her free throws, drives to the bucket, plays sticky one-on-one defense and leads her team with a smart, confident presence.

On a special night for her, junior Alyssa Lydon did all this and more for Quincy. Lydon scored 21, freshman Nicole Jorgensen added 16 with a powerful inside game to support a stifling defense and give Quincy its ninth straight win over North Quincy, 51-40 in a Patriot League showdown Friday night.

"This was an important night for Alyssa," said Quincy (2-0, 1-0) coach Jeff Bretsch. "The team dedicated the game and the season to her mother who passed away this fall. Alyssa is a special person. She's come through so much adversity with such grace. This game

NORTH QUINCY'S Jane Minton drives to the hoop for two of her team-high 13 points against Quincy.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

was her gift to her mother"

How good was she? In the first, she broke a Quincy scoring drought which was approaching four minutes with a three-point jumper. In the second, she hit another three, cut cleanly off two picks for layups, and caught Jorgensen flying to the hoop with a perfect feed. In the third, she cashed two more quicksil-

Cont'd On Page 26

QUINCY'S ALYSSA LYDON (top, No. 5) and Nicole Jorgensen (bottom, No. 32) scored 21 and 16 points respectively as the Presidents rolled to a 51-40 win over North Quincy last Friday at QHS.

MARINA BAY
Nursing & Rehabilitation Center

Wave of the Future

www.marinabaynursing.com

For a tour please call
617-769-5100 (x 115)

5 Star Customer Service

Specializing in Short Term Recovery

Orthopedic Care

- Hips
- Knees

Cardiac Care Stroke

BANECARE
A Matter of Trust

NORTH QUINCY'S Dan Gould led the Red Raiders' offense with 19 points including four three-pointers in their 57-49 win over Quincy last Friday at Quincy High School.

QUINCY'S JAMES LAM leaps high to block this shot by North Quincy's Kyle Richardson. The Red Raiders' defeated the Presidents 57-49 to improve their record to 2-0.

MARQUIS McCLENDON goes strong to the net for two of his 15 points in the Red Raiders' victory over Quincy. Defending the Presidents' goal are J.T. Bain (No. 15) and Jaquan Harris (No. 3).

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

Gould, McClendon Power Red Raiders Over Presidents

By BILL GRIFFIN

Basketball is a game of runs. When two good teams play, shifts of momentum flow freely from one side to the other. Leads grow, leads shrink. Fans cheer, fans weep.

The streaks, the blitzes are inevitable, as much a part of the game as the rim and the backboard. What defines a good, veteran team is not whether it can avoid them, but how it responds to them.

North Quincy responded just fine. After Quincy trimmed a 14-point lead to six with a endline-to-endline press in the third period, the Red Raiders returned to the fundamentals. They took good shots, got to the line and clamped down their trademark man-to-man defense to earn their ninth straight win over the Presidents, 57-49 in a Patriot League contest Friday night.

"We got the tempo we wanted, the press got us back into the game, but we couldn't get over the hump," said Quincy coach Dave Parry. "The reason is they knew exactly what to do. They settled down, slowed the pace down and played smart basketball."

North (2-0, 1-0) led from start to finish thanks to its offensive balance and a half-court defense which slowed down an ultra-fast Quincy team which put up 78 points

Cont'd On Page 26

Steward. The New Health Care.

Experience the New Health Care.

Best wishes for a happy and healthy holiday season from the doctors and staff at Quincy Medical Center.

We're committed to keeping you healthy, and that means providing you with world class health care when you need it, right in your neighborhood. Quincy Medical Center provides access to some of the South Shore's most respected physicians and advanced treatments for a full-range of medical specialties including community-based primary care and family medicine.

L to R (back row) Christopher Wenger, MD, Thomas O'Keefe, MD, Thomas Fitzgerald, MD, John Cooney, MD, Tomas Divinagracia, MD, Kevin McCusker, MD, Anthony Dragone, MD, Robert Dart, MD, Michael Snyder, MD, Bruno West, MD, Aniket Chakrabarti, MD, George Qiao, MD, Alfredo Martija, MD, (front row) Leonid Dabuzhsky, MD, Peter Ambrus, MD, Geetanjali Kulkarni, MD, Nissage Cadet, MD, Antonietta Mauri, MD, Eric Cohen, MD.

Quincy Medical Center •

A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

To find a physician affiliated with Quincy Medical Center, contact us at Doctor Finder at 1-800-488-5959 or www.steward.org/doctorfinder. Most major insurance plans accepted. For more information, visit steward.org/quincy ver drives to the basket and found Kayla McArdle with a fullcourt, floating pass for a layup which would have made Mr. Rondo proud. In the fourth, she swished a jumper and a free throw to halt a late North rally. She hit six straight free throws and played terrific defense on North's talented Caitlin Bulger. She gave her team whatever her team needed. She was the point guard.

Lydon, Jorgensen Lead Presidents Past Red Raiders

Cont'd From Page 24

"The best part of playing point guard is passing. I love passing the ball," said Lydon. "It gives everyone a chance to score. Tonight I tried to come out with confidence and go to the basket because I thought it would get us going."

Amazingly, she has formed an instant connection with Jorgensen. They have had barely three weeks to work together, but already they have this unseen sense for each other. Lydon knows where Jorgensen is on the floor without looking. This could be quite the outside-inside combination before the season is over.

"It just came from working together in practice," said Lydon. "Nicole is just really good. She's always where she should be and we have a lot of fun working together. She's not only gets open for the passes, she makes the shots."

Jorgensen was excellent. She showed no stage fright for her opening night against North. She is 6'4", but there is a lot more than height here. She moves beautifully to the ball, she catches the it cleanly, works inside well, and shows a nice fallaway jumper. She had 14 rebounds and eight blocks, and there were stretches where she gave North very little around the basket.

"She has great hands and an excellent sense for the game," said Bretsch. "I was happy she came out aggressive tonight. There was a big crowd, our archrival and she was playing against Maya Umoren, who is outstanding, but she didn't shy away from anything."

Quincy's defense, which has given just 75 points in two games, backboned everything. North (0-2, 0-1) had just 26 points through three as the Presidents built an 18-point lead. Lydon and Kayla McArdle were terrific, but they had plenty of support. Quincy's halfcourt man-to-man pressured the ball, contested jump shots, and protected the basket. They played tough individual defense and they helped each other.

"I like the man-to-man because it creates pride and responsibility," said Bretsch. "You own it. You're responsible for your own player, but you also know if you need help, there is someone right there waiting for you."

Junior point guard Jane Minton had a fine night for North. She hit her jump shot and got to the basket for a team-high 13. Umoren had eight points and three blocks despite being limited by foul trouble.

The Red Raiders also received a strong effort from their bench, particularly in the fourth period when they outscored the Presidents, 14-7.

"Jane played good defense as well," said North coach Jessica Worden. "I liked what I saw from our bench especially Haley McKay. We need to keep working on stopping turnovers and boxing out on the boards."

Quincy led, 8-6 after one, 27-17 at the half and 44-26 after three. Lydon played from start to finish and when it was over, Bretsch had high praise for his point guard.

"She started as a sophomore for the best team in school history and she sees everything a point guard should see."

North Quincy hosts Rockland Tuesday at 6:30 and Quincy hosts Hanover Friday at 6:30.

Earlier last week, Quincy edged Bridgewater-Raynham, 36-35. Jorgensen had nine points and 10 rebounds while Lydon, McArdle, and Alysha Dunbar had eight apiece. Courtney Ryan played a strong game off the bench.

North dropped a 55-52 overtime heart-breaker to Plymouth North. Bulger had 11 points, including a three-pointer at the final buzzer to force overtime. Umoren, who had a double-double at halftime, finished with 18 points and 23 rebounds. Minton had eight. McKay, Annie Dow, Camile Mullaney, and Hannah Donovan had strong games for the Red Raiders.

Gould, McClendon Power Red Raiders Over Presidents

Cont'd From Page 25

in its season opener against Bridgewater-Raynham. The Red Raiders had the lead up to 14 (35-21) early in the third, but the Presidents came flying back into the game on the wings of its press with senior guard Tino Goncalves (nine for the night, seven straight in a 1:24 spree late in the third) at the throttle to move within 41-35 entering the fourth. Timeout.

"In a game like this against an archrival, kids tend to be overzealous, to play too fast, to look for the spectacular play to get a roar from the crowd," said North coach Kevin Barrett. "We just needed to slow down and execute. We know what to do, it was just a matter of doing it."

They got to the line. Dan Gould (19 points, 4 three-pointers) and Marquis McClendon (15 points, five rebounds, three blocks) hit three free throws. They got good shots. Gould knocked home a three-pointer and Efthim Butka cashed an offensive rebound. They moved the ball crisply through the press. They played defense. North held Quincy to two points in the first 4:30 of the period. The lead grew to 52-39 with just over 3:00 left. A smart, talented team had taken a good shot of momentum and had responded with solid basketball.

Quincy had narrowed the lead with an 11-3 run. North opened it up with an 8-2. A game of momentum.

"We keep saying it's all about us, not who we're playing. It's how we execute," said Barrett.

North's balance was evident throughout. When the Red Raiders use Pat and Dan Gould, McClendon, and Kyle Richardson (13 points, six rebounds) at the same time, they are very quick. They can shoot the three, shoot the mid-range jumper and get to the basket. Butka (eight points, 11 rebounds), a 6'4" junior, is an emerging force underneath. When the Red Raiders stayed away from self-inflicted turnovers and played within themselves they controlled the game.

"We have the experience to play solid basketball, it's a matter of doing it," said Barrett.

Quincy (1-1, 0-1) is at its best in the fast lane. In third period they opened up the floor with the press. They sped North out of its comfort zone, forced turnovers and Goncalves (two drives and a three-pointer) and Jaquan Harris flew to the basket at the offensive end. Parry debated about whether he should press North, but he was happy he did.

"We really didn't press them last year," he said. "But we are at our best when we run and force the tempo, so I decided to go with it. It worked well. If we can press this team, we can press anyone because North can handle the ball."

Sophomores Colin Evans (10) and J.T. Bain (10) led the Presidents. Bain is a tough competitor close to the bucket with a good assortment of inside moves. They are players with promise, but Parry is not thinking about the future.

"I know the future is bright, but I'm thinking about this year," he said. "This is Jacquan's, Tino's and Jalen's (Green) senior year. This is their last shot. We're playing the young players a lot, and I think they'll develop quickly and make us much stronger over the second half of the season."

North led at every checkpoint: 12-6 after one, 30-17 at the half and 41-35 after three. The Red Raiders are at Middleboro Friday at 6:30. Quincy is at Hanover Friday at 6:30.

Earlier last week, Quincy dropped Bridgewater-Raynham, 78-68 behind 23 points, seven assists and three steals from Goncalves. Harris had 15 points, four steals and six assists. Bain had 15 points and seven rebounds.

North finished a brutal non-league stretch with a 61-58 decision over a strong Wareham club who made the Garden last March in the EMass championships. Earlier, North had scrimmaged Division 2 power Stoughton and lost by one to Brockton. Against Wareham, Dan Gould had 22, including seven straight free throws in the fourth period to seal the win. McClendon added 13 for the winners.

Quincy/North Quincy Swim, Dive Teams Defeat Hanover

Both the Quincy/North Quincy boys swimming and diving team, and girls squad improved to 2-0 beating Hanover Dec. 13 at the Lincoln Hancock Pool.

The Q-NQ girls placed two swimmers in the top-three spots in 10 of 12 events en route to a 99-72 victory while the boys surpassed the visitors for its second consecutive victory, 74-63.

For the girls, three swimmers took home top honors in two individual events and two relay events. Securing QNQ's dominance in the sprint freestyle events was senior Kat O'Connor (NQ) who placed first in the 50- (28.12) and 100-yard (1:03.34) races while also contributing to the QNQ 200- and 400-yard freestyle relay triumphs.

Sophomore newcomer Rachel O'Driscoll (NQ) finished first in the middle and long distance freestyle, swimming the 200- (2:05.97) and 500-yard (5:44.41) events in addition to the 200-yard medley and 200-yard freestyle relay events.

Fellow sophomore Evelyn Scuzzarella (NQ) proved her all-around talents by winning the 200-yard individual medley (2:41.71) and 100-yard backstroke (1:15.38) along with victorious legs in the 200-yard medley relay and the 400-yard freestyle relay.

Freshman Grace Anderson won QNQ's other individual event, the grueling 100-yard butterfly (1:21.18).

On the boys side, three swimmers won two individual events in addition to buoying two QNQ triumphant relays.

A new sophomore addition to the team, Randall Kwong (NQ), touched the wall first in both the 200-yard freestyle (2:14.23) and 100-yard butterfly (1:04.00) and bolstered the 200-yard medley and 200-yard freestyle relay units.

Junior Elio Daci's (Q) efforts of 2:35.0 in the 100-yard individual medley and 6:13.56 in the 500-yard freestyle paced the field. Daci also contributed to the winning 200-yard medley and 400-yard freestyle relays.

Senior Emmitt Harrow, part of the 200-yard medley relay, placed first in the 50- (26.90) and 100-yard (1:02.30) freestyle events in addition to the 200-yard freestyle relay.

Q-NQ returned to action Tuesday when they host Hingham at the Lincoln Hancock Pool in Quincy.

VOICE FOR HEALTH

by Dr. Gabrielle Freedman
Chiropractor

JUMPING TO CONCLUSIONS

While warnings that children might "break their necks" doing something dangerous is often an overstated admonishment, trampolines actually pose such a risk. It is quite common for failed attempts at somersaults and flips to result in cervical spine injuries that often have devastating consequences. According to recent data from the National Electronic Injury Surveillance System (NEISS), the youngest children are at most risk for serious injury, including leg and spine fractures. Young children are particularly at risk for injury when playing on trampolines with multiple playmates simultaneously. The fact is that trampolines are inherently dangerous pieces of equipment, which has led the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) to declare them too dangerous for children to use. Parents take heed.

Fortunately, chiropractic has had many positive results in treating some very common childhood maladies.

Children respond well to chiropractic care. Make the right choice and let FAMILY PRACTICE OF CHIROPRACTIC help you with safe and gentle chiropractic care. We strive to keep the public educated about various health issues, feeling that education is the best tool a patient can use to make informed choices. We're located at 112 McGrath Hwy., Quincy. Please call 617.472.4220 to schedule an appointment. We offer computerized spinal scans. With chiropractic care you have nothing to lose and everything to gain, especially your health. If your problem is a chiropractic condition we offer you exceptional service.

P.S. The safety nets that have been added to trampolines in recent years do not seem to have any impact on safety, according to the American Academy of Pediatrics.

Check us out on facebook:
<http://www.facebook.com/familypacticeofchiropractic>

www.freedmanchiro.com

AGNITTI INSURANCE

HOME • AUTO • BUSINESS
LIFE • FINANCIAL

Anthony L. Agnitti, CIC, LIA
Certified Insurance Counselor
Licensed Insurance Advisor
CALL FOR A QUOTE ON PROPER INSURANCE
COVERAGE AT COMPETITIVE PRICES!
ASK ABOUT OUR AUTO AND HOMEOWNER INSURANCE DISCOUNT PROGRAMS
24-Hour Emergency Access
770-0123
21 FRANKLIN ST., QUINCY

GRANITE LOCK CO

SERVICE MOBILE

AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS

- DEADBOLTS INSTALLED
- LOCKS REKEYED
- DOOR CLOSERS
- PANIC HARDWARE
- AUTO KEYS FITTED

VISIT OUR SHOWROOM!
755 SO. ARTERY, QUINCY
472-2177

QUINT'S House of Flowers

Family Owned & Operated Since 1919

761 Southern Artery
QUINCY
617-773-7620

On Friday, Dec. 7, at approximately 8:20 p.m., Officers Daniel Francis and William Lanergan, along with Fallon Ambulance, were dispatched to Bates Avenue on a report of a motor vehicle accident with injuries. Quincy Police Communications updated responding units that a vehicle struck a wall.

Officer Francis was in the area and arrived at the accident scene in seconds. Upon arrival, the officer observed several people standing on the sidewalk adjacent to several large pieces of granite rock and dirt strewn about. The witnesses described the vehicle, reporting that the female suspect drove away toward O'Connell Avenue.

LT. DAN MINTON

As the officers searched the area, a citizen approached Officer Francis, pointing to an apartment building, stating the suspect vehicle just pulled behind a brick multi-unit apartment. Officer Francis pulled behind the building and found the suspect vehicle, confirmed by significant damage to the front-end with both air bags deployed. A registration check showed the vehicle's owner lived in the apartment building.

Officer Lanergan went directly to the door of the owner, which was immediately answered by a male. Before Officer Lanergan could speak, the male stated, "She's hiding in the bathroom." Officer Lanergan proceeded into the apartment where he encountered the female suspect. She immediately admitted that she had been involved in an accident, but left the scene to go home to call the police.

Officer Lanergan escorted the female outside to where Officer Francis was waiting. As the female suspect walked toward the officer, she appeared to stagger. Officer Francis noted the suspect's eyes were blood shot and her speech was slurred. The suspect said she was not injured and again confirmed that she was the driver. When asked where she was coming from, the suspect named a local bar less than a mile away. The suspect said she had two drinks of Jack

A Job Well Done

By QUINCY POLICE LT. DAN MINTON

Daniels and was alone in the vehicle. The suspect then blurted out, "It's not my fault, the other car hit me."

This statement was in conflict with what the witnesses said, along with the physical evidence of the wall damaged and no other vehicle around. Officer Francis requested the suspect perform some Field Sobriety Tests (FST) to determine her ability to operate a motor vehicle safely. The suspect said she was willing, so Officer Francis explained and exhibited the tests, then observed the suspect as she attempted the tests.

The first FST administered was the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus (HGN) test. The officer placed a pen approximately 12 inches in front of the suspect's head and asked her to touch the black plastic tip with her right index finger, which she was able to do. Officer Francis observed a distinct Nystagmus in both of the suspect's eyes at 45 degrees as well as the lack of smooth pursuit in her eyes. This is an indication of a significant rate of alcohol in her system. The officer concluded that the suspect had failed this test.

The second FST administered was the One Leg Stand. The suspect began the test and quickly lost her balance, bring up her arms for balance. She reset her foot back to the pavement three times in approximately five seconds. The suspect then requested the opportunity to try the test again, then put her leg up in the air, but immediately stumbled. Officer Francis reached out and grabbed her arm to prevent her from falling. This was another failed test.

The third FST administered was the Nine Step Walk and Turn. The suspect was unable to align her feet to walk heel-toe. She just walked one step and lost her balance and almost fell. The fourth FST was the Alphabet Test. The suspect was instructed to recite the alphabet, starting with the letter C and to end with the letter X without singing it. Although she began the test with C, she skipped the letter D and continued to Z. She then restarted the alphabet but sang it. While reciting the alphabet, the suspect's speech was slurred.

The last FST administered was the Finger Dexterity Test, which involves touching fingers to her thumbs on both hands. She failed this test, too.

Based on the above observations and statements, the suspect, a 27-year-old Quincy resident, was arrested and charged with operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol and leaving the scene of property damage. Her vehicle was towed and held for 18 hours under the City Ordinance for OUI arrests, which prevents the suspect from being bailed and then accessing her vehicle to drive again until sobering up. Once at the station, the suspect was offered a chemical breath test (breathalyzer test) by the booking officer, but she refused.

Nice work!

THINK BEFORE YOU DRINK

The consequences for drunk driving can be extraordinary. Aside from bodily injury and death, consider the following estimated costs for a drunk driving conviction:

- Towing - $100 • Car storage per day - $30
- Bail fee - $40 (min) • Defense attorney fee - $5,000
- Minimum fine - $500 • Victim's Trust Fund - $50
- Loss of two days work - $250
- Victim's witness fee - $35
- License reinstatement - $300
- Head injury surcharge - $125
- Driver alcohol education - $600
- Insurance increase (3 years) - $5,000
- Court Costs - $250 • Probation fee - $360
- Personal embarrassment - priceless
- Public humiliation - priceless

TOTAL: minimum $13,000

There is also the possibility of being incarcerated for "not more than 2 1/2 years House of Correction," for the first offense. There are significant increases for each additional offense. Your license will be suspended for 180 days for failure to take the breathalyzer test. This can be added to the one-year license suspension for the conviction. There are circumstances that would bring the cost considerably higher.

Remember, these numbers reflect the basic drunk driving charge. If there is an accident where someone is injured or killed, the penalties are much stiffer.

QUINCY POLICE HOT SPOTS

QUINCY POLICE STATISTICS: Dec. 7 - DEC. 13

ARRESTS: 39

TOTAL CALLS: 1,074

TOTAL STOLEN VEHICLES: 1

FRIDAY, DEC. 7

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 4:48 p.m., 235 Quincy Shore Dr. Two PlayStations gone. Report filed.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 5:25 p.m., 237 Quincy Shore Dr. Report filed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:16 p.m., 18 Narragansett Rd. Rock thrown at house.

SATURDAY, DEC. 8

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 8:20 a.m., 38 Longwood Rd. Decorations.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 3:33 p.m., 118 Shore Ave. Christmas decorations damaged, cut up outside house.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 6:14 p.m., 357 Palmer St. Past lap top. Report filed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 11:55 p.m., 151 Samoset Ave. Christmas lights vandalized.

SUNDAY, DEC. 9

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:59 a.m., 29 Quarterdeck Rd. To motor vehicle.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 7:53 a.m., 675 East Squantum St. Fence vandalized.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:22 a.m., 18 Virginia Rd. Christmas decorations.

LARCENY, 9:52 a.m., Super Fitness Center, 150 Parkwayway. Debit cards.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:56 a.m., 33 Virginia Rd. Christmas decorations damaged.

LARCENY, 12:46 p.m., Quincy Athletic Club, 100 Quincy Ave. Wallet. Report filed.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:16 p.m., 285 Adams St. To car. Dings near gas cap and rear door, past damage to tire.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 4:27 p.m., 177 Taffrail Rd. Rear window of house broken last night, possibly by a rock.

LARCENY, 10:12 p.m., Quirk Mitsubishi, 99 McGrath Highway. Wheels. Four tires taken from motor vehicle.

MONDAY, DEC. 10

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 6:48 a.m., Wash/Dry, 26 Hobart St. Business.

INDECENT EXPOSURE, 8:48 a.m., 1143 Hancock St. One under arrest for open and gross.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 9:11 a.m., Eastern Bank, 63 Franklin St. Business. ATM in rear of building broken into, possibly over weekend.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 10:43 a.m., Good Health Inc., 1627 Hancock St. Front door tagged sometime over weekend. Plate glass etched with knife.

LARCENY, 12:08 p.m., 12 Trescott St. Check.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:33 p.m., Common Market, 97 Willard St. Past. Occurred Nov. 8, parking lot of location above. Entire driver's side of motor vehicle was keyed - $2,100 in damage.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 2:21 p.m., Wal-Mart, 301 Falls Blvd. Past incident. Employee's tire was slashed on Dec. 6 - they have surveillance video.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 3:52 p.m., 30 Brockton Ave. Arrest made. Two under arrest. Arrest for defacing property and burning personal property.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 6:49 p.m., 59 Pond St. Motor vehicle - front passenger window smashed possibly by a BB gun.

TUESDAY, DEC. 11

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 6:10 a.m., 45 Brackett St. Broken window - rock thrown through window.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 7:10 a.m., 49 Arthur St. Motor vehicle. Motor vehicle involved in earlier incident, windows are smashed out. Lists to a party out of Lawrence. Unable to make contact with anyone.

LARCENY, 8:42 a.m., 116 Spring St. Construction equipment/supplies stolen - second recent incident.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:01 p.m., 947 Southern Artery. Past. Reporting person believes dwelling was B&E'd on Sunday; dwelling is vacant.

LARCENY, 1:23 p.m., Lincoln-Hancock School, 300 Granite St. Past.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 7:13 p.m., 193 Liberty St. Storm door. Youths threw a small battery at storm door and glass broke.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 7:57 p.m., 193 Billings Rd. Garage/bike stolen.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 12

LARCENY, 2:05 p.m., Quincy Telephone Answering Service, 29 Russell Park. Checks stolen and cashed out of account by ex-employee.

LARCENY/MOTOR VEHICLE, 4:42 p.m., 145 Willard St. Past. Motorcycle stolen from parking area at above address.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 9:02 p.m., 14 Morton St. Arrest made. Female charged with malicious destruction over and also charged with two default warrants.

ARMED ROBBERY, 10:09 p.m., 118 Doane St. Delivery driver reports two men robbed him with firearms.

THURSDAY, DEC. 13

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 11:27 a.m., 17 Greenleaf St. To building. Locks glued, handle on one door broken.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:15 p.m., Manet Community Health Center, 110 West Squantum St. To vehicles. Two vehicles vandalized overnight; one spraypainted, the other egged.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 40 Hummock Rd. Dwelling. Arrest made. Two males around house at corner. Known to officers. Arrest for B&E daytime felonious intent, malicious damage over, and receiving stolen property over.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 4:30 p.m., 8 Newhall St. Dwelling. Realtor on scene and believes that there are people inside the property.

LARCENY, 5:31 p.m., Dayton St. Small package with paint inside taken from porch on Dec. 3.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 9:36 p.m., 94 Aberdeen Rd. Dwelling.

LARCENY, 10:07 p.m., 25 School St. Medications.

If anyone has more information about any of the aforementioned incidents or would like more information, contact Crime Prevention Lieutenant Dan Minton at 617 745 5719

STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLES: 145 Willard St.

CAR BREAKS: None.

BREAKS AND ATTEMPTED BREAKS: Newhall Street, Hummock Road, 100 block of Billings Road, low numbers of Franklin Street, Hobart Street, 300 block of Palmer Street, 200 block of Quincy Shore Drive (2).

If you have information on the above crimes, drug activity or any crime, please call the Quincy Police Detective Bureau at 617-745-5764 or log onto the following website: <http://tinyurl.com/ytf6td>.

To report suspicious drug activity, call the Drug Hotline at 617-745-5730. You will not be required to identify yourself, but it could help. To make an appointment to view the Registered Sex Offenders book, call Detective James Dentrement at 617-745-5755.

To contact the Crime Prevention Officer for tips or comments, my direct line is 617-745-5719. My e-mail address is dminton@ci.quincy.ma.us

- Lt. Dan Minton

Entries in the Quincy Police Hot Spots are compiled and submitted by the Quincy Police Department.

They are published by The Quincy Sun as a public service to make local residents more aware of any crime activity in their neighborhood. Questions concerning the Hot Spots list should be directed to Crime Prevention Officer Lt. Dan Minton, 617-745-5719.

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

Fifth-grade students in Quincy's public schools and the Quincy Catholic Academy were invited again this year to write the answer to one question for this special issue of The Quincy Sun.

This year's theme is: "If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season It Would Be..."

We want to thank Colleen Roberts, Director of Curriculum, for coordinating the public schools' participation and the principals and classroom teachers of those schools.

We also thank Catherine Cameron, principal of the Quincy Catholic Academy, for her assistance, too.

To all who took part, we extend warmest holiday greetings. Thank you all, most sincerely.

Robert Bosworth
Publisher, The Quincy Sun

MONTCLAIR SCHOOL fifth grade students

It would be my true support to my mom. I want her to be supported because I haven't been supporting her so I feel bad so I want to give her this gift.

Jean Feliciano
Point Webster

It would be for my friend Ricky. I would give him the gift of happiness because I want to be nice to friends.

Ryan Duong
Point Webster

It would be a gift card for my mom. I will give it to my mom because she has been so good to me and so she will take care of the baby.

Nkechi Nwosu
Point Webster

It would be a new gold chain for my friend Charles. He helps me with my new game system.

Nick Crockett
Point Webster

It would be a house to the poor because they're poor and they can't afford it so I would give a house to the poor. They would live in happiness.

Colin Goyette
Point Webster

It would be for my mom and it would be a Pandora bracelet because she cares for me and takes care of me and she love me and buys me things that I need.

Elisia Garcia
Point Webster

It would be a new PS3 game to my brother. I would give it to him because he is loving. And I would give my mom a new pair of Uggs because I love my Uggs that she gave me.

Hannah Kyller
Point Webster

It would be a Lego box to my little cousin because he loves Legos.

Ethan Pham
Point Webster

It would be a Wii U because I think will be a great console.

Andrew Tran
Point Webster

It would be a wish because a wish can come true on a person's birthday.

Sabir Omar
Point Webster

This holiday season I am going to raise money so I can buy toys for Children's Hospital. Imagine the smiles on the faces and the joy that a gift could bring. Many people each year don't get presents, so let's make a difference and give a little!

Marisa Riley
Squantum School

I would give the cure for food allergies, because this holiday season people shouldn't be struggling with food allergies, they should be having fun. I know this would be hard, but I have food allergies and it would fill my heart with gratitude to know that someone would give a gift like that. It would make me happy to know that all of the problems with food allergies would be over, and that all of those people with food allergies would have a happy, healthy, holiday season.

Kaitlin Colman
Squantum School

You all know there are still people recovering from Hurricane Sandy, so my gift this season is to raise money for those people. I know it's a big job for a 10 year old, but I'm going to do everything I can to help them. These people that got hit by Sandy they deserve a nice home this season so let's make it happen!

Ainsley Walsh
Squantum School

I would give a child that was suffering with cancer a chance to visit "Disney World" Happy holidays!

Mellisa Myers
Squantum School

It would be a hundred dollar Visa card, because you can get anything you want with it in any store.

Mikey Adamson
Squantum School

It would be a gift card. It would be a gift card, because they could get what they want. If I get something they don't like they won't use it.

Shannon Boylan
Squantum School

It would be a Barbie Dream House for my sister, so she can be happy during the holiday season. Another reason why I would want to give my sister a Barbie Dream House is to thank her being a wonderful sister and for everything.

Emily O'Regan
Squantum School

It would be to give everyone without a gift would have one. So each gift would be something that person likes. That's my gift this holiday season.

Nathan McPhee
Squantum School

It would be a basketball, because it's my favorite sport and I enjoy playing it. It would also be a fun and healthy way to exercise.

Benjamin Fehan
Squantum School

I would give my uncle a great book. My uncle and I love to read books and we collect them. My uncle definitely deserves this gift, because of all the things he does for my family and I.

Tommy McGovern
Squantum School

From our Family to You and Yours

Merry Christmas and
Happy New Year

The McDermott Family

Norfolk County
Register of Probate
Patrick McDermott
Attorney
Tracy Wilson
Alana and Adam

Wishing You & Your Family a Wonderful Holiday Season

City Councillor at Large
Doug Gutro and Family

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season . . .

SNUG HARBOR SCHOOL fifth grade students

WOLLASTON SCHOOL fifth grade students

It would be shelter and food to the poor. I would do that because some people are less fortunate than I am. Some are just trying to help family members that are sick. Next time you walk by someone who is homeless don't be rude, be kind.

Franck Yhomby
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be money to the poor. I want to give this gift because some people aren't as fortunate as I am so they can use the money for food, clothes or anything they need.

Olivia Raneri
Quincy Catholic Academy

I am going to make a card and a coupon for everybody in my family. I wanted to make a coupon that allowed that person to give me orders for a day. Now that I am older I want to help out more.

Ethan Johnson
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be to give toys to the homeless at a homeless shelter. I would give them toys because I want to share the holiday spirit. I want them to be happy this holiday.

Sammi Lai
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be hope, love and kindness because I think that this is a great gift to give someone. The reason I'm doing it is to show how nice people can be.

William Farrell
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be a couple pairs of socks. Since I've seen people in Somerville or Quincy go barefoot or there are people sitting against the fence barefoot during the fall and winter.

Raymond Chau
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be money and shelter from Hurricane Sandy for all those who lost their homes and even family members. I hope for this season that we may pray for those who lost all of their belongings.

Olivia Marini
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be to donate food, clothing and money to the poor. I would donate those things because a lot of people celebrate their holiday without anything.

Vishvakishore Venkatesan
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be for everyone to have a happy holiday.

Vanessa Czajkowski
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for the less fortunate to have a wonderful Christmas.

Richelle Barry
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for world peace and to bring the military men and women to come home for the holidays.

Cameron Miller
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that everybody in the world would be healthy for Christmas.

Brenna Tobin
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for my mom to get a job close to home.

Isabella DeAmicis
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that my grandparents visit me from Illinois to Massachusetts.

Joseph Semini
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be to have world peace and no suffering.

Chris Donahue
Charles Bernazzani School

Our best wishes to you and your family for a very Merry Christmas and a Happy Holiday Season.
- Mayor Tom and Christine Koch and Family

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

BEECHWOOD KNOLL SCHOOL fifth grade students

POINT WEBSTER SCHOOL fifth grade students

It would be world peace.
Max Porter
Merrymount School

they have purple faces.
Crystal Chan
Merrymount School

cousin home from the hospital so that he has a good holiday.

Brooke Theriault
Merrymount School

It would be for everybody to have a roof over their head and food on the table.

Riley O'Connor
Merrymount School

It would be homes for all unfortunate families.

Brendan Bailey
Merrymount School

It would be help for all the kids who do not have a roof over their heads.

Braedan Kopp
Merrymount School

It would be to have my grandpa back from heaven so I could show him my little brother.

Destiny Pham
Merrymount School

It would be to have my great grandmother back.

Aldo Elezi
Merrymount School

It would be for my best teacher and also to help poor people.

Kailie Ham
Merrymount School

It would be clothes and money for poor people.

Zahraa Al-Saadi
Merrymount School

It would be homes for dogs and to stop animal abuse. This will be the law!

Stephen Hallahan
Merrymount School

It would be to give my dad his pension so that he can quit one of his jobs and be able to stay home more.

Allison McMorow
Merrymount School

It would be to make my family happy and to make them giggle so hard that

It would be to bring my

It would be shelter for all the victims of Hurricane

Sandy.

Brendan Kilcommons
Merrymount School

It would be to bring my uncle back from heaven.

Tommy Page
Merrymount School

It would be money, clothes and food to a charity.

Jared Bragdon
Parker School

It would be a huge donation to the animal shelter. I would hold a big show with all the animals in it so people would maybe decide to adopt animals.

Samantha Cao
Parker School

It would be a $10,000 donation to a food shelter.

Amanda Chan
Parker School

If I could give one gift this holiday season it would be a snack to Kenny.

Jason Chen
Parker School

It would be a pot of flowers to Mrs. Latini. I would give her a pot of flowers because she is nice and helpful.

Shirley Chen
Parker School

If I could give one gift this holiday season it would be money, food, and water to someone who is poor.

Alexa Cohen
Parker School

It would be a G-Shock to Kenny because he wants one really badly.

Joey Diep
Parker School

It would be my strength to anyone I know and care about.

Brandan Huang
Parker School

It would be a robot to my mom that would do anything you want it to do. You could tell him to fly you to Disney World and the robot has money in his tummy.

Hefi Jiang
Parker School

It would be money to the poor because the poor people don't have a lot of money.

Erin Leung
Parker School

It would be a home to a bunch of homeless children. I also would give them food and clothes.

Taylor Liang
Parker School

It would be a wish for my family.

ShiQin Lin
Parker School

It would be $100,000 dollars to a guy that doesn't have any money so he can buy a house to live in.

Winston Liu
Parker School

It would be a new house to my parents and my grandma because they care about me.

Helen Luu
Parker School

It would be money to the homeless. I would give money to the homeless so they can live better.

Derek Nguyen
Parker School

It would be $1,000,000 to a homeless person so he can live better and buy a home.

Kenny Nguyen
Parker School

It would be a school to Mrs. Latini. I would give a school to her because she teaches me lots of things in school and she likes students.

Xian Hao Ren
Parker School

Warmest Wishes
to you and your family for a great
holiday season.

Bruce and Maureen Ayers
State Representative

Although it's been said many times, many ways Merry Christmas to you.

Ward 3 Councillor
Kevin Coughlin
and the Coughlin Family

Madeline Cheney

Sam Rounseville

Red Hilton

Jeanne King

Happy Holidays
from our Family to Yours!

Sandra Fennelly

Michelle Mastrobattista

Mike Cheney

Sara Little

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

It would be to a foster care center. I would get them toys of characters from their favorite TV shows.

Nathan Hubley
Wollaston School

It would be a phone for my brother Conor. He is currently serving in Afghanistan, and I don't get to talk to him often.

Coleman Flaherty
Wollaston School

I would give my older sister a dog. She been begging for one for as long as I can remember.

Aengus O'Brien
Wollaston School

It would be money for the people with a disease so they can find a cure.

Christian Zhao
Wollaston School

It would be to give a gift card for CVS or another retail store since some people don't have much money. I think it would be a nice gift to help the poor.

Brandon Nyugen
Wollaston School

It would be a WiiU because my family doesn't have WiiU; it is very expensive.

Jack Li
Wollaston School

I would give my dad a new recorder. My dad has wanted a new recorder for a long time. He knows a lot of songs on his old one, but he needs a new one!

Amanda Powers
Wollaston School

It would be to donate food to the people of Haiti so they can continue to have hope.

Twuyen Tran
Wollaston School

It would be to help people in need. For instance, maybe I could help the people hit by Hurricane Sandy or people just having hard times.

Abby Decie
Wollaston School

It would be a trip to China to visit my grandparents. They always say they are lonely without me and my cousin and want us to go back to visit them someday.

Vena Chen
Wollaston School

It would be a nice ring for my mom because she always works very hard at work.

Wei Ning Mai
Wollaston School

It would be a donation to the orphans and poor people around the globe.

Rajashree Das
Wollaston School

It would be an Xbox game. I would give it to my brother Derek because his birthday is coming up.

Dayna Phan
Sterling Middle School

It would be some of my toys to little children who don't have any. I'm growing up and no longer need them and I'd rather give them away and make kids happy than keep them in my room and not play with them.

QUINCY CATHOLIC ACADEMY fifth grade students

Niyah Cardoso
Sterling Middle School

It would be a puppy for my little sister. My sister has wanted a dog for a long time. I know that is the only present she wants and deserves this year.

Andrea Vivas
Sterling Middle School

It would be warm clothes because some kids don't have them. Without warm clothes, they would be cold for the holiday season. That is why I would give warm clothes this holiday season.

Erin MacKay
Sterling Middle School

It would be a home for a homeless family. I would start building it right away and it would be the biggest house I could build.

Patrick Lee
Sterling Middle School

It would be new winter clothing because the weather is getting cold and some people don't have winter clothing. When it's early morning in winter it's freezing cold. That is why I would give new winter clothing.

Malita Rosa
Sterling Middle School

It would be a book because I want a little boy or girl from an orphanage to get an education. Some orphanages need books that kids like, so if I give one gift, it would be a book.

Nasaiah Santos
Sterling Middle School

It would be perfume. I would give perfume because in my family, everyone wears perfume so they can smell good for Christmas. That is why every holiday in my house smells good. So this holiday season I would give perfume for a present.

Stephanie Henriquez
Sterling Middle School

It would be love. I pick love because love is the best gift you can give. Love can make anyone feel good. There are many different kinds of love. There is family love, friend love, and animal love. This is why I would give love.

Brian Hall
Sterling Middle School

It would be The Amazing Spider Man video game for my best friend Llavian. He has been looking forward to getting that game, so I want to give him something special.

Kamani Herbin
Sterling Middle School

It would be a book to a child in Haiti because every child should have a book. When you read a book you increase your vocabulary.

Stuart Dozier
Sterling Middle School

It would be happiness to a homeless child.

Sean Dwyer
Point Webster

It would be money to students who can't afford education of school.

Virginia To
Point Webster

It would be to every homeless person a house with everything they need to survive and a job offer.

Alexander Spano
Point Webster

It would be for a homeless child a home, a meal, some clothes, blankets, and some furniture for their new home.

Jaya Bhalla
Point Webster

South Cove
Community Health Center

south cove
community health center

The Premier Asian Community
Health Center of Massachusetts

435 Hancock St. Clinic Tel: 617.745.0280

88 Holmes St. Clinic Tel: 617.318.3200

*Happy Holidays from the South Cove Family
to Your Family.*

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

State Senator John Keenan
and Family

*Season's Greetings
and a Healthy New Year
from our home to yours.*

City Council President Mike & Marty McFarland and Family

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

BERNAZZANI SCHOOL fifth grade students

MERRY MOUNT SCHOOL fifth grade students

It would be to give thanks to my friends and family for helping me on my long journey from transferring schools to making new friends.

Dylan Sullivan
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a necklace for my mom.

Adrianna Kellam
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be will power to anyone that needs strength to keep pushing through a disease or to stand up for what they believe in, even if no one else agrees. I wish that the people who need this gift would be able to get it.

Delaney Murphy
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be Madden 13 to my cousin because he really wants it and I want to play it.

Liam Dugan
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be for the people fighting in the armed forces to come home to their families for the holidays.

Sarah Baker
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be clothes, food and water to the people and those that are in need.

Jenny Li
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be to send food to countries like Haiti that have natural disasters. Also important supplies that will help them prepare for more natural disasters that might come at anytime.

Christian Toscanini
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be toys for children in need.

Madeline Bergonzi
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a bike to a kid who doesn't have one. That would really make my Christmas!

Olivia Fitzpatrick
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be blankets and food to the homeless people.

Vivian Wilson
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a Wii U. I would give it to my brother because I really want to make him happy on Christmas day.

William Huang
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be happiness to my entire family and the whole world.

Shane Lerkvikarn
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be bags of food to all the hungry people in the world so they don't go hungry.

Sarina Lau
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a million dollars to all of the charities so that everyone will have a place to stay and be happy.

Kaylin Chan
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be to help my older brother get into a very good, educated high school. What I would do is try to help him for the tests for BC High, Catholic Memorial, and Archbishop Williams.

Kaitlyn Fox
Atherton Hough

It would be supplies and money for victims of Hurricane Sandy. I would give them things because they are going through tough times.

Alex Gagné
Atherton Hough

It would be a stuffed animal and I would give it to my brother because he likes stuffed animals.

Will Galligan
Atherton Hough

It would be a necklace for my sister. She wants this necklace that costs a lot of money. It is a gold necklace and it is very pretty.

Marilea Galuani
Atherton Hough

It would be my time with senior citizens. I help by serving a hearty meal. Another thing I would do is play BINGO because I have helped many times before.

Abigail Hanley
Atherton Hough

It would be to give blankets and food to the victims of Hurricane Sandy. Some people got their houses blown and lost their food.

Shelagh Holler
Atherton Hough

It would be a ring for my mom. My mom would love a red ring, I would get it at a nice store. It would make her happy and my mom does so much for me.

Vinny Joyce
Atherton Hough

It would be the joy of spending time with family. Lots of people are not lucky as me because they don't have their loved ones. Some people don't even know their family.

Iris Katorri
Atherton Hough

It would be to the animal shelter. I would help them take care of the sick and non-sick animals. I would do anything to save an animal's life.

Rebecca Keane
Atherton Hough

It would be for my mom. I would be the best child ever. Cooking all the food if I can, clean up all parts of the house, and do all the kitchen work.

Tommy Le
Atherton Hough

It would be a new video game for my friend Matthew. The video game would be Borderlands 2 for Playstation 3.

Yovani Torves
Montclair

It would be Logo's Lord of the Rings to my Uncle Tony. He is dying for this game.

Matthew Cabrera
Montclair

It would be a private jet so my family could travel to all the places we want to travel to. I want my family to have a private jet because my mom and dad work really hard for money to pay bills, feed my sister and me. They also save money for college because college fees are expensive.

Karen Phung
Montclair

It would be an airplane ticket for my mom to China, where I was born. My mom always talks about the food that she had eaten in China and she would love to go to Beijing for shopping.

Sandy Li
Montclair

It would be a new headset for my brother, Ronan. He does not have one and wants one really bad.

Patrick Marshall
Montclair

It would be an upgrade for my two little sisters, Jillian and Danielle, on their favorite game. I always hear them saying things like "I would do anything for this."

Dylan O'Brien
Montclair

It would be to support the Sandy victims by donating money and equipment so they can start new homes.

I would also donate money to people who have serious cancer or diseases, so they can have a happy holiday, too.

Jacky Lam
Montclair

It would be to my mom and dad for them to have some touch screen gloves. In the winter, their hands are cold so they wear gloves but when they want to use their phones, their hands get cold again. Touch screen gloves would be really useful for them.

Lydia Chan
Montclair

It would be to give the homeless people Christmas treats. I feel bad for them starving in winter. I want them to have the best Christmas ever. I also want them to have nice clothes to wear.

Julie Wong
Montclair

It would be to give a winning $50,000 lottery ticket to my family. The money would be appreciated so my mom and dad could stay home and take care of me, my Grammie and Sissy.

Olivia Peluso
Montclair

It would be for all the children in orphanages to find parents. Everyone deserves a family to love.

Katie Whooley
Montclair

Seasons Greetings

from
Norfolk County Dist. Atty.
and Mrs. Michael Morrissey
and Family

Happy Holidays!!!

Ward 1 Councillor
Margaret Laforest & Family

*Wishing you a happy, and healthy
Holiday Season!*

From your friends at... Quincy
Chamber of Commerce

1400 Hancock Street, Suite 1A
Quincy, MA 02169
(617) 471-1700 • TheQuincyChamber.com

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season . . .

It would be to close the hole in the ozone.

Bobby Chin
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be to spend Christmas with my dad.

Shilan Arda
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for all the troops to come home.

Brendan Donovan
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for everyone to have food for Christmas.

Jim Xi
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for people to have warm houses to live in during the winter.

Paula Garcia-Cachero
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that everyone has a good Christmas.

Alecia DiCicco
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be to try and help all the kids in orphanages and help the poor.

Jullana Salbibia
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that all the kids have homes and a happy life.

Julia Kapcia
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for a family that lost their home in Hurricane Sandy a turkey dinner, cranberry sauce, stuffing, and mashed potatoes. I would get everyone in my family to donate five pieces of wood, a bunch of a nails, and a hammer.

Derek Little
Atherton Hough

It would be my time at a herpetological society. I would not only be helping the lizards and the people who work there, but also be enjoying myself.

Cullen Maher
Atherton Hough

It would be for my parents because they do so much for me without much in return.

Amanda Mauriella
Atherton Hough

It would be to all the babies in a shelter. I would give them toys, cribs, food, formula, and binkies.

Kaitlynn McAdam
Atherton Hough

It would be a soup kitchen to Quincy so they can serve delicious hot soup to the homeless people. The homeless would be well fed and not hungry.

Emily McCarthy
Atherton Hough

It would be a toy for my sister because she is very nice for me.

Matthew McCratic
Atherton Hough

It would be to help the homeless of Hurricane Sandy. I would help the homeless by giving them food and water because the people either lost a part of their family or their belongings.

Meghan McDonald
Atherton Hough

It would be to help the people who lost their homes and their family members from tornadoes. People died, lost houses, and have no food. I would help fix their homes and donate food and clothes.

Matthew McInnis
Atherton Hough

It would be blankets and baby bottles for the Quincy Teen Mother Program. At E.L.C. for fifth graders we are donating to them to make a difference.

Josh McMillen
Atherton Hough

It would be friendship. I think this is a wonderful gift to give to someone because if someone had no friends they would be sad.

Emma
Snug Harbor School

It would be volunteering my help at the Quincy Animal Shelter and at the Homeless Shelter. I would do this because I could help more instead of giving only one gift to a person.

Roman
Snug Harbor School

STERLING MIDDLE SCHOOL fifth grade students

It would be a picture frame with myself and my cat, Meesha inside. I would give this to my relatives in Hawaii so that they would always have us with them in their heart.

Bethanie
Snug Harbor School

It would be table tennis to my friend Devantae because he likes to play table tennis.

Tyler
Snug Harbor School

It would be it would be a gift card or an iTunes card to my family as a thank you for all they do.

Kelly
Snug Harbor School

It would be a toy helicopter for my little sister because that is what she has always wanted.

Trenton
Snug Harbor School

It would be giving my grandmother my love because she is sick and I would hope it would make her feel better.

Abdirabi
Snug Harbor School

It would be a kiss and a hug for my mom because she always cooks for me and takes really good care of me.

Raymond
Snug Harbor School

It would be a Nintendo Ds to my friend Daniel so that he and I could play together on it.

Simon
Snug Harbor School

It would be a cute and cuddly teddy bear. The teddy bear will keep whoever I am giving it to company while he or she is sleeping.

Jenny
Snug Harbor School

It would be an Xbox 360 to Gary because he is my friend.

Mostfa
Snug Harbor School

It would be two cards to each of my friends in China. The pink card represents felicity and the red card represents blessing.

Sandy
Snug Harbor School

It would be baby clothing and I would give it to Kristen.

Ty
Snug Harbor School

It would be to donate to schools and to families in New Jersey. I want the children there to learn and I want the families to have the best Christmas without being homeless.

Kawtar
Snug Harbor School

It would be a new car for my dad.

Mussab
Snug Harbor School

It would be a huge hug and kiss to all my family members. They work hard to feed me, give me shelter and clothing, and make me happy.

Sarah Pillone
Montclair School

It would be a vacation for my mom and dad. My mom works hard to keep me and my sister safe and my dad is working on building the house.

Jordan Hoang
Montclair School

It would be a speaker and headphone set for parents. Our speakers don't work and I want to give a headphone set because ours is broken.

Christina Nguyen
Montclair School

It would be giving money to the homeless and helping the people from Hurricane Sandy because I feel sad for all of them.

Norika Tang
Montclair School

It would be a big car for my dad because the old one makes a loud noise. He would love a new car.

Christine Zeng
Montclair School

It would be giving food to people in New Jersey that need food.

Gary
Snug Harbor School

It would be to donate money to Children's Hospital so children there who are ill could get better and help fight cancer.

Theodora Zygouras
Montclair School

It would be medicine to homeless people. The homeless people might have lost their jobs and not have medicine.

Maxwell Cheung
Montclair School

It would be a car to my dad because his car has trouble starting and a new tire for my mom. They would really like that.

Andrew Hally
Montclair School

It would be to give money and clothes to the homeless people in New York because I already have a great gift and that's my family.

Cailynn McGuinness
Montclair School

It would be a house for all the homeless people who don't have a warm place to sleep or eat. Without TV's and appliances is hard. I feel bad for them.

Ava Lapsley
Montclair School

It would be a necklace that I made for my sister Katherine. No gift is better than the one you make for someone you love.

Juliana Beane
Montclair School

 Holiday Greetings
from All of Us at
RIVER BAY CLUB—
Independent & Personalized
Assisted Living

Happy Holidays from QCU!

Serving Norfolk, Plymouth County and Dorchester.
100 Quincy Avenue • Quincy, MA 02169 • 617.479.5558
519 Columbian Street • Weymouth, MA 02190 • 781.340.7117
Toll Free: 866.479.5558 • www.qcu.org

Federally Insured by NCUA

Merry Christmas
from
THE QUINCY CITY CLUB

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

PARKER SCHOOL fifth grade students

ATHERTON HOUGH SCHOOL fifth grade students

It would be for everyone to have a lovely family.

Amy He
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be giving food for the people who are hungry and don't have enough money to buy food.

Yi Fei Chen
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be to give happiness to people who are lonely, need a friend, or just not happy.

Molly Cronin
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a gift of a caring and loving family to all the orphans who dream all day that they will have brothers, sisters, and a mom and dad. My wish is to make dreams come true for these orphans.

Xhoana Cuni
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be to my Granny who just last summer lost her husband. The gift I would like to give is impossible to give but I would like her and my grandfather to be together on earth again.

Gerard Gannon
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be to give a Quincy teen mother a gift basket full of everything she needs like clothes, food, water, shampoo, conditioner, soap, blankets, toys, and books for their children, and anything else they need.

Alessandra K-P
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a shooting star because if I gave a shooting star everyone would get anything they ever dreamed of without the worry of giving the perfect present.

Mya Le
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be to help out at the Helping Hands Pantry, that way I could help give supplies for the holidays.

Aisling Mannion
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a huge, thick handmade braided edge fabric blanket for whoever needs it, most likely homeless people at the shelter, Quincy Teen Mothers, or the people that go to Father Bills Homeless Shelter.

Zachary Mar
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be to give my family in Nepal a lot of money so that they can buy more cows, ducks, donkeys, and goats.

Santosh Murray
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a wish so people can have whatever they want.

Sean O'Toole
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be books for my mom.

Andrew Smith
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a nice home for homeless people because they don't have anywhere to stay and they have to sleep on the streets.

Kenny Tran
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a new iPod. I would give it to my mom because she could see and talk to her family in Vietnam. My mom had been hoping to get one for Christmas. I could play games on it and listen to music when I'm lonely.

Jennifer Cheung
Sterling Middle School

It would be the most beautiful necklace I could find to my sister. Kaitlyn is the best sister in the world.

Cayla Zapata
Sterling Middle School

It would be a sled to my little brother Abdul. He is begging my mother to get one. Since my little brother is special to me, I would give him a sled this holiday season.

Sham Almaleh
Sterling Middle School

It would be money to all the kids who don't have a family, and I would give money to charity.

Malachi Ortolaza
Sterling Middle School

It would be a turkey to a poor family because they might not have enough money to buy a turkey. That's why I would buy a turkey for a poor family.

Sherissa Alexis
Sterling Middle School

It would be to help people with cancer because I think cancer is sad for people. Many kids, adults, and babies have cancer and I want to help them any way I can.

Ashley Kwan
Sterling Middle School

It would be a kitten to my mom. I'd like to give this to my mom because she loves kittens and so do I.

Zhaoyu Li
Sterling Middle School

It would be a big Christmas tree. I would give this gift to a homeless family to enjoy while they spend time together for the holidays. Everyone deserves to enjoy Christmas no matter how poor or rich they are.

Bella Carey
Sterling Middle School

It would be to get a large Christmas tree filled with presents for everyone in the hospital. I want everyone to have a great holiday season.

Tammy Pham
Sterling Middle School

It would be a new car to my mom. The car my mom has now is very old, and it would make her very happy to get a new one.

John Valenzuela
Sterling Middle School

It would be a bunny to my friend Jessica. I would give her a bunny to replace the one that passed away, and then she won't be sad and lonely any more. She is my best friend, and I know she will love it.

Kelly Gerrish
Sterling Middle School

It would be diamond earrings to my sister. I want to give her diamond earrings to show her what a good brother I am.

Ilia Karello
Sterling Middle School

It would be money so people who are homeless can eat a good meal on a holiday night. Also, so they would be able to buy themselves nice comfortable clothes and a house to live in.

Cameron Seviour
Sterling Middle School

It would be to give my brother Jacey a fun Lego Star Wars set. He loves Lego Star Wars and I love my little brother.

Clarence Joseph Ham
Sterling Middle School

It would be a teddy bear to charity because I feel badly for the people that have less than I do. Also, that teddy bear would be very big and cozy to keep someone warm.

Michalina Weglarzy
Sterling Middle School

It would be a nice new car with cool leather seats and a sun roof to my mother. It will help her get around easier, and I would like it because she could pick me up from school in it.

James Fife
Sterling Middle School

It would be jobs for poor families around the world. After that they could be happy and healthy.

Eric Manter
Point Webster

It would be a house for a homeless family and food.

Annabelle Le
Point Webster

It would be so much food for a starving kid so he would never go hungry again.

Mark Broderick
Point Webster

It would be Legos because it is cheap and I would give it to my cousin.

Abdul Alnasiri
Point Webster

It would be a house or shelter for a homeless person.

Alyssa
Point Webster

It would be warm clothes for a homeless person so that they can be cozy this winter season. The clothes I would give are a warm coat, pants, and very warm shoes.

Maeve Farrell
Point Webster

It would be $1,000,000 for a homeless person.

Billy Nguyen
Point Webster

It would be world peace to the entire Earth and become a CNN hero.

Anthony Alves
Point Webster

Happy Holidays

Ward 2 Councillor
BRAD CROALL

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Don Uvanitte

Eastern Insurance
Eastern Insurance Group LLC
382 Quincy Avenue,
Quincy, MA 02169
617.328.8300x59317

Happy Holidays to All!!!

Brian F. McNamee
Ward 6 City Councillor

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

BEECHWOOD KNOLL SCHOOL fifth grade students

SQUANTUM SCHOOL fifth grade students

I would give my two sisters their usual gift of kindness to show them that I care for them. I hope they will understand that.

Talah Alamleh
Squantum School

It would be love. You can't wrap love in paper, but if you show a person that you care about them they feel much better than if you gave them a gift. Love is something that you can't touch, but you can feel it when someone is giving it to you.

Olga Kosinski
Squantum School

I would donate to a homeless shelter or a charity. I would donate food, warm clothes and maybe some money, because they need it more than I do. Every person deserves to enjoy life and not to starve or die.

Aimee Cluett
Squantum School

It would be a radio. I would give this gift because some people don't have enough money to buy one. Some people may not have an iPod, computer or iPhone, but if I give this gift those people will be able to sing and dance to their favorite songs.

Audrey Duclos
Squantum School

It would be a Christmas tree to a local orphanage. I would give the gift of a Christmas tree, because a Christmas tree brings holiday spirit and joy. It also feels nice to wake up on Christmas morning and see the wonderful tree that you decorated.

Courtney Ross
Squantum School

It would be for all the Marines to come home and see all their kids and for them to stay for the holidays.

Michael Costello
Squantum School

It would be to give money to the homeless. So they could buy food and water to survive. They might even get a house.

John Le
Squantum School

It would be the gift of loyalty and friendship to others. To the people who have lost the ability to trust or just need a friend because simply no one understands them. To have someone there for them when they need a friend the most.

Anastasia Luong
Squantum School

It would be holiday joy. Everybody loves to have holiday joy this season. That would be my one special gift I could give this holiday season.

Priscilla Lau
Squantum School

It would be love. I chose love because no one gets enough love in their lifetime.

Kevin Dinh
Squantum School

It would be a place to live for those who don't have one. I would give a place to live because people could be freezing cold and hungry.

Brian Chum
Squantum School

It would be for my sister to have a new bed to sleep in. She said it was pretty when she saw it at a store. I want to give her this gift this year.

Yasmin Amimer
Atherton Hough

It would be this one diamond studded bracelet for my mother. She has wanted since last Christmas. I want to get it for her to thank her for all she's done for my brothers, sisters, and me.

Jessi Andrews
Atherton Hough

It would be an iPad for my sister Rachel. I would get her an iPad because she has been asking for an iPad for years and I would love to get her one.

Megan Beck
Atherton Hough

It would be an exercise machine for my dad because he had two but they both broke and he really liked them.

Jane Berberan
Atherton Hough

It would be for my sister Holly. I would like to give her a lot of books. Holly loves to read and she reads all the time. Giving her new books would allow her read many new books.

Candace Chan
Atherton Hough

It be for the homeless to get homes. I think that because everyone should deserve a good Christmas even if they are naughty or nice.

Charlie Chau
Atherton Hough

It would be a new computer for my mom and dad. I'd get them it because the computer is on a hinge and it is so slow. They would like the present. I would feel good about giving them this present.

Brianna Conley
Atherton Hough

It would be supplies for people who don't have anything. I would give food, water, blankets, and other things.

Charles Culata
Atherton Hough

It would be for the homeless. If you see children on Christmas that are homeless give them a present because you get a lot, they get none.

Melanie Engrem
Atherton Hough

It would be hope to those who need it. So many people are going through rough times. This holiday season I want their worries gone.

Kevin Ferent
Atherton Hough

It would be talent because talent is what gets you a free scholarship to college. Talent amazes people, and accomplishes so much more.

Jonathan Tan
Beechwood Knoll School

some little boys like stuffed animals.

Melissa Zheng
Beechwood Knoll

It would be a home to everyone around the world who does not have one.

Gabi Popa
Beechwood Knoll

It would be a mother and father to children who don't have them.

Negwa Hamad
Beechwood Knoll

It would be snow for my friend in Hong Kong, because there is no snow in Hong Kong.

Kristy Kwong
Beechwood Knoll

It would be money for poor people who need it.

Jeffrey Chen
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be that everyone is noticed and cared for.

Serena Krejci-Papa
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be for all orphans to be adopted.

Denise O'Donovan
Beechwood Knoll

It would be a shelter with food, water and entertainment because lots of homeless families suffer most during the cold winter season.

Stanley Chen
Beechwood Knoll

It would be to give nature the ability to create new living things.

Jake Zhu
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a handmade holiday decoration for each person I know because it feels nice to give someone a gift that you made yourself.

Jessamine Bearchell
Beechwood Knoll

It would be to make everyone in the world happy.

Amanda Hellmuth
Beechwood Knoll

It would be a puppy because everyone deserves a best friend.

Rory Mahoney
Beechwood Knoll

It would be a Wordle because they could be full of words to describe the person you are giving it to.

Alison Cahill
Beechwood Knoll

It would be money for all the homeless people and children of the world.

Logan Almeida
Beechwood Knoll

It would be a stuffed animal because a lot of girls and

It would be an iPhone for my brother Jeffrey.

Jack Huang
Beechwood Knoll

Happy Holidays!

Attorney & Mrs. George Burke

In the spirit of this joyous season, may your hearts be filled with peace and love... brotherhood and faith.

Ron Mariano
State Representative

"Wishing you Peace & Joy this Holiday Season"

BRIAN PALMUCCI
Ward 4 City Councillor

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

STERLING MIDDLE SCHOOL fifth grade students

It would be money for the homeless and poor civilians of Quincy.

Logan Leclair
Beechwood Knoll

It would be joy and happiness because everyone should be happy around the holidays.

Linda Zou
Beechwood Knoll

It would be an ornament for my mom, filled with love.

Danny Levine
Beechwood Knoll

It would be a trip to Hawaii because my mom and dad want to go to Hawaii really badly!

Jillian O'Toole
Beechwood Knoll

It would be to end all violence in the world.

Veronica Hornbrook
Beechwood Knoll

It would be that the soldiers try to help bring peace.

Jack Gurwitch
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for my mom to have a very Merry Christmas because she does a lot.

Shania Butler
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for all the homeless people to have homes.

Ethan McDevitt
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for kids to stop bullying.

Zach Hatfield
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be to stop bullying all around the world.

Wil Hingston
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for me to see my family happy and healthy.

Philip Bryden Austin
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for all the soldiers in Iraq to come home for Christmas.

Drew Murphy
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for all the suffering people of Hurricane Sandy to be all right.

Olivia Herman
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for the people who got hit by Hurricane Sandy to be warm and safe during the winter.

Alita Warasilp
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for my cousin Alan from Ireland to stay for Christmas.

Thomas Conroy
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for the soldiers to come home for Christmas.

Milo Santangelo
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for me and my family to visit my cousins.

ins.
Emily Irion
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for my grandfather to be with me for Christmas.

Owen Dacunha
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be to have all the troops come home and have the best holiday season ever.

Jamie DiCicco
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for everyone to have a happy holiday.

Sara Mitchell
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that nobody is alone on Christmas.

Tara McCleary
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that the soldiers could come home for Christmas.

Rachel Egersheim
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for my family to have a good time on Christmas Day.

Juliana Stagg
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be a white Christmas.

Sabrina Soto
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be a home. Many people in the world don't have homes. I'd like to change a person's life and give them a home.

POINT WEBSTER SCHOOL fifth grade students

Allie Smith
Point Webster

It would be a paper heart with lots of colors to my mother for Christmas.

Alessandro
Point Webster

It would be giving a homeless family a house, food, education, and I would give them a good job.

Tiffany Pham
Point Webster

It would be to give someone a job.

Thomas MacPherson
Point Webster

It would be food, shelter, clothes, and more to the homeless people. I would give them as much as they need to survive. If they run out of supplies I will give them more.

Brandon Tran
Point Webster

It would be a phone. I would give this to a homeless child.

Sydney Nguyen
Point Webster

It would be peace. It breaks my heart to hear about violence and killing in the world.

Alexander Ireland
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be six tickets to Italy for my mom and the rest of my family. Italy has been a trip my mom has always wanted to go on. I think she would really enjoy it.

Ashley Caldwell
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be to win a championship for my basketball coach, Kyle Costa, because last year we made it to three championships but we lost them all.

Michael Levine
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be safety to the world.

Samantha Chan
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a trampoline to the Beechwood Knoll School! It would be a trampoline because it's a great work out for kids, teenagers and parents.

Aaron O'Toole
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a home for the homeless so they have shelter and protection.

Savannah Belding
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a first aid kit for the sick or wounded because a first aid kit contains all the material to heal wounds. I hope that a first aid kit and the ability to heal help people all around the world.

Jenny Zeng
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be to every child who is sick and is in Children's Hospital to get Santa Claus to go visit and to give each and every one of them a Santa hat.

Kasey O'Mahony
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be to Ms. Scales. I would give Ms. Scales a gift that would make her never have any problems because she is so kind to everyone.

Johnny Cristiani
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be food to the hungry so they won't starve.

Alexa Radzik
Beechwood Knoll School

I would give a remote-control rocket. I would give this gift to my neighbors because they are total space fanatics. I would also give this gift because of the rover that landed on Mars, so it would be appropriate. My neighbors spend more time on the computer than outside! Oh wait, now they will be making noise everywhere! What a catastrophe!

Jie yang Chen
Wollaston School

I would give Thomas my brother a big automatic marshmallow shooter. I love those things! You can shoot them and eat them. They are so fun!! I would give it because it shoots out marshmallows and it's a portable snack. You can't get anything better than that! Also, he could shoot my other brothers from trying to hurt me.

Andrew Bradley
Wollaston School

*Merry Christmas
and Best Wishes
Always*

Norfolk County Commissioner
John Gillis

Happy Holidays

City Clerk
JOSEPH SHEA
and Family

*Wishing you a joyous
Holiday Season!*

TACKEY CHAN
State Representative

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

BERNAZZANI SCHOOL fifth grade students

SNUG HARBOR SCHOOL fifth grade students

It would be for the poor. I would give them some food and I can give them my old clothes I don't need. I can donate some money too. It feels good helping out.

Imy Lei
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be to make sure everyone has a family, love and food to celebrate with this holiday. Especially the parts of New Jersey and New York who lost a lot of their belongings and homes. I would do this because I want everyone to have a great holiday season like I do every year.

Sarah Rixham
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be blankets. I would give the homeless blankets to keep them warm. I think they would be very happy to be warm during the winter.

Matthew Keohane
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be food for the people who can't afford it. I know not all people have the money to buy things that we need like food and it's not right to let them starve.

Michael Richardson
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be happiness. I would give the gift of happiness because I think it is important that everyone be happy. It is good to be happy because then you won't be mad or sad.

Madeleine Farrell
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be a nice interesting book. I would give someone an interesting book because I myself like books and I want a child to enjoy reading books as much as I do.

Arianna Vukosa
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be to play with someone who is lonely. First of all it would make them happy but it would make me happy to help them!

Brigid Duggan
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be for all families to have a home during winter. I think everyone deserves a place to sleep.

Lauren George
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be a bike for the Toys for Tots program. I would want to do this because usually people give small toys away but I want to help kids without toys, so they may have fun during their childhood. I would like to see that child smiling.

Matthew McGourty
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would donate $1,000.00 to families in need. The money can supply them with food, blankets and warmth in the winter.

Imuetiyan Eweka
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would donate money to find a cure for cancer because I want cancer victims to have a healthy life.

Anna Chau
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would give away all of my clothes that don't fit me anymore. I would give them to charity because I am not going to wear them again and there are others who can use them.

Michael Fonte
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would donate to the poor. I would donate to the poor because they could get more food and warm clothes.

Nico Maggioli
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be money for emergencies for my grandma.

Jason Soares Cardoso
Parker School

It would be a ticket to Sea World to a family.

Michelle Tian
Parker School

It would be shelter to a poor family because they need it for winter snow, spring rain, and protection.

Henry Zhang
Parker School

It would be to make earth a better place to live and nothing would be extinct in the place we live.

LeiJin Zheng
Parker School

It would be computers for my parents.

Jason Zheng
Parker School

It would be an Abraham Lincoln signature to my friend Ben. I would want to give it to him because he is a big fan of Abraham Lincoln.

Also Abraham Lincoln is his hero.

Nicholas Chan
Parker School

It would be to give the poor 1 billion dollars. Then they could have something to eat every day.

Jason Chen
Parker School

It would be a home to people without shelter, because I believe everybody should have a home.

Kathleen Chen
Parker School

It would be a new hamster for my best friend Nicholas. He was sad when his hamster died. I would do that because he is my best friend, and I don't want to see him sad.

Ben Do
Parker School

It would be giving toys to the kids who have cancer because it would be thoughtful to give it to them.

Tea Duka
Parker School

It would be love to the world, and it is because the season is about love and caring, but is especially about being with your family.

Aaron Huang
Parker School

It would be happiness to all the people in the world so they would be very happy even if they were poor.

Anna Lai
Parker School

It would be world peace.

I want the whole world to be peaceful and calm, without bullies and bad people.

Jessica Liu
Parker School

It would be my family. I love them so much. They take care of me. They give me presents a lot. I would give them love and peace.

Randy Meas
Parker School

It would be two billion dollars for the poor so they can have enough money to buy food and clothes.

Sam Mei
Parker School

It would be money to give to my Auntie and her family. The money would be for her to move into a nice house that is for her family.

Kathryn Moriarty
Parker School

It would be a puppy. I would give it to my sister because she wanted a puppy ever since she was four. I can see her walking and playing with it. It also might teach her responsibilities. I think she would like a puppy this holiday season.

Elizabeth McGough
Wollaston School

It would be a house for all the children and adults that need a home. It would be that gift because recently people have been losing jobs because of the economy. If there are no jobs there's no houses and food. Recently I have seen people sleeping behind restaurants and the freeway. If I gave that gift I would feel great about it just because I'm helping out the community.

Shane O'Connell
Wollaston School

It would be my old computer because we got a new one. We don't use it much. We only use it when we are bored, so I am giving it to the people who need it more. If I had to I would throw in my game cube too because we don't use it anymore because we have two Xboxes. Thank you and Merry Christmas.

Will Whooley
Wollaston School

It would be a diamond necklace to my mom. I would give her a necklace because my mom never gets anything for herself.

Christina McLeod
Wollaston School

It would be a brand new MP3 for my cousin because every day she would say, "I want a MP3 so bad." Something good is that Christmas is almost here, and she won't say, "I want a MP3!" anymore.

Ziyan Lin
Wollaston School

It would be a toy car. I would give a toy car to a helpless little boy that has a problem in his life. I would give the little boy a toy car so when he is bored or has nothing to do he can play with it.

Thomas Le
Wollaston School

Wish All a Very Blessed & Joyous Christmas Season
Thank you for your generous support of the
MARIA DROSTE AWARD
PEACE
Maria Droste Counseling Services

May the Joy
of this Season
fill your Home with Health & Happiness!
FLAVIN
& FLAVIN REALTY
1085 Hancock St., Quincy Center
617-479-1000 • www.FlavinandFlavin.com

Happy Holidays
and Best Wishes for the New Year!
Norfolk County Sheriff
Michael Bellotti and Family

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

WOLLASTON SCHOOL fifth grade students

It would be to bring my friend back from heaven so that he and his dad could make his family happy.

Sydney Hester
Merrymount School

It would be to bring my grandmother, Nanny, back for Christmas Day so she could spend time with our family.

Erin Collins
Merrymount School

It would be medicine to help sick people recover.

Joshua Alves
Merrymount School

It would be a million dollars to charity and shelters so that everyone can enjoy a merry Christmas.

Patrick Rak
Merrymount School

It would be jobs and homes for less fortunate people.

Madi Dondero
Merrymount School

It would be a remote control car for my little brother.

Angad Jasuja
Merrymount School

It would be money for the poor, as well as for the health of animals.

Ty Chafa
Merrymount School

It would be more animal shelters for the animals without homes.

Maggie Martin
Merrymount School

It would be food for less fortunate people.

Devin Dinh
Merrymount School

It would be to resolve all conflicts in the world so all wars would end.

Jaman Liang
Merrymount School

It would be a big fountain in front of city hall where people could throw money in to donate to less fortunate people.

Michelle McLaughlin
Merrymount School

It would be homes for the homeless.

Jessica Tran
Merrymount School

It would be to feed the hungry.

Joey Murphy
Merrymount School

It would be world peace.

Robbie Carney
Merrymount School

It would be me singing to all the sad people out in the town.

Mikey Kiley
Merrymount School

It would be a lifetime supply of meals to the less fortunate.

Chris Hussey
Merrymount School

It would be money for the poor.

Brody Gillespie
Merrymount School

It would be homes to the homeless people.

Crystal Zeng
Merrymount School

It would be food to people that are hungry.

Hope Hays
Merrymount School

It would be food, clean water, and shelter for poor people.

Aakash Hasabnis
Merrymount School

It would be the chance for my family to see my grandmother.

Thomas McCormack
Merrymount School

It would be to give water, food, mansions, and sports cars to all the hungry people of Africa.

Michael Cugini
Merrymount School

It would be a coffee mug for my dad.

LiQi Chen
Merrymount School

It would be money to the middle class and homeless.

Brendan Holloway
Merrymount School

It would be a home to a homeless kid and food because I would want to change someone's life and maybe change more.

Ximena Charco
Point Webster

It would be some food, water, and a place to stay for a homeless kid. Merry Christmas.

Michael Semancik
Point Webster

It would be another life for a homeless child.

Didu
Point Webster

It would be to a person or family who are homeless. I'd give them a home to live in.

Krystyna Ryan
Point Webster

It would be food to the hungry people so they may live; people have died because of hunger.

Calvin
Point Webster

It would be an Old Navy giftcard to a homeless girl for new clothes because she doesn't have the things I have.

Talia Maloof
Point Webster

It would be a gift for the holiday for my cousins and sister.

Marc Hendrick M. Galecia
Point Webster

It would be food and a heater for surviving the snowy day for poor people. I think this gift will be perfect for the winter for the poor people.

Christopher Thi
Point Webster

It would be a home, food, help and love for all the homeless people. I want to give them medicine to help keep them healthy. I hope those people have help and love this winter season.

Olivia Skinner
Point Webster

It would be a new house to a homeless person with kids. I would do that because some people lose their kids from illness. Also a nice warm meal.

Kara Geoffrion
Point Webster

It would be for the poor places to live, food, drinks, and make lot's of friends.

Anthony Mora
Point Webster

It would be clothes and jackets and sweatshirts to homeless kids.

Dylan Gelovan
Point Webster

It would be to donate money to the animal shelter to save their lives.

Casey Zhang
Montclair

It would be good luck for my family and everyone because everyone wants good luck and everyone wants money. I want everyone to have good luck with their family.

Steven La
Montclair

It would be a huge money donation to the Cancer Research Lab to help find a cure. People keep dying from cancer. I want to end this horrible disease.

Brendon Lee
Montclair

It would be the newest Skyline for my dad. He has really been wishing for one.

Jared Szeto
Montclair

It would be a lava lamp to my cousin Ethan. He likes stuff that moves in a bottle.

Jacob Vagnani
Montclair

It would be a new football video game for my dad. He can't seem to find one he wants to play.

Mike Palmer
Montclair

It would be a home for an animal that is a stray. Everybody always thinks of homeless people, but nobody thinks of all the animals who don't have homes. I want at least one to have a home this Christmas.

Elizabeth Kocher
Montclair

It would be a donation for breast cancer. I wish cancer didn't exist. People who have breast cancer are sick a lot so I wish I could donate money to help.

Tiffany Chiu
Montclair

It would be to a child who has cancer. I would try to invent a cure for him and this would make me feel great because I was helping him.

Stephen
Snug Harbor School

It would be a blanket. A lot of people don't have blankets and it would be nice to give one on Christmas.

Sabrina
Snug Harbor School

It would be to give money to children who can't afford to go to school. I would give money to build a school where everything is free.

Shyana
Snug Harbor School

It would be to give books to a homeless shelter. I would feel happy because I would be giving books to kids who don't have them.

Jessica
Snug Harbor School

PARKER SCHOOL fifth grade students

Happy Holidays!!!

Thank you for your Patronage!!!

REGGIE'S OIL

92-94 (REAR) Franklin St.

Quincy

617-471-2095

SEASON'S GREETINGS
FROM YOUR FRIENDS AT GRANITE CITY ELECTRIC SUPPLY

www.granitecityelectric.com
Toll Free: 800-850-9400
Serving New England with 25 Locations

Happy Holidays from Our Family to Yours!

CENTURY 21 Annex Realty, Inc.

#1 Real Estate Office in Quincy

617 472-4330

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season . . .

POINT WEBSTER SCHOOL fifth graders

STERLING MIDDLE SCHOOL fifth graders

It would be a house to whoever needs it most or a family to whomever needs it most.

Joshua Welch
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be what other people need.

Jordan
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be one million dollars to a homeless person because they have would have a home and food to survive.

Tyler Carey
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be happiness to someone who is going through hard times right now.

Abigail Der
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a shelter for the homeless people so they will be happy.

Cormac Flaherty
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a home for everyone.

Yah Lin
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be a gigantic present box, mountain high and as wide as it could be, stuffed full of smaller gifts of anything you could think of or want inside. It would be for every single one of my friends and family members.

Kelly Chen
Beechwood Knoll School

It would be food for homeless people because they can't afford to buy food. I would feel good because the homeless would not be hungry during a cold winter.

William
Snug Harbor School

It would be warm clothes. I would feel happy because I would know that they would have warm clothes during the winter.

Alyssa
Snug Harbor School

It would be clothes for an orphan. I am willing to give clothes because it would make me happy and an orphan happy.

Daisy
Snug Harbor School

It would be shoes for the homeless. I would feel happy if I could give this to them.

Tracy
Snug Harbor School

It would be shoes for a homeless person. I would feel great because I would have helped them.

Tresor
Snug Harbor School

It would be giving clothes to the homeless. If I did, I would feel happy knowing that I am helping someone.

Kenny
Snug Harbor School

It would be warm clothes for the homeless. It would make me feel useful because

I am helping people.

Kerry
Snug Harbor School

It would be clothes for the people in Africa. I would give clothes to people in Africa because I feel bad when I see people struggling.

Kamari
Snug Harbor School

It would be food for the homeless. It will make me feel happy that I am being a good person.

Katelyn
Snug Harbor School

It would be love. I want to give love to people that don't have any in their life.

Ying Xin
Snug Harbor School

It would be a pet hamster. I would give this present because kids like hamsters and it would be a good family pet.

Erik Mayo
Squantum

I would give an iPad mini so that someone could play unlimited apps and take lots of pictures.

Mairead Kelly
Squantum School

It would be a laptop. I would give it to someone who doesn't have one because it is fun and educational. Happy holidays!

Taylor Burgess
Squantum School

It would be warm winter clothes. I would give it to someone who needs them to warm them up for the cold, winter season.

Isabella Enbar-Salo
Squantum School

It would be a warm nice, cozy coat and mittens and pants.

Flori Bouma
Squantum School

I would give someone a puppy. I would give a puppy because they are loveable creatures that you can play with all day. They also can amuse you and jump through hoops.

Adam Higgins
Squantum School

It would be a Christmas tree made of recycled cardboard and newspaper. I would give this gift because it is good for the environment and would look nice.

Benjamin DeBisschop
Squantum School

It would be the book Allie Finkle's Rules for Girls: Moving Day. I would give it away because it is an extremely fascinating book for girls my age and they could relate to it. It would be a good gift because anyone can read it any time they want.

Jennifer Small
Squantum School

It would be a lava lamp. I would give this because it lights up your room in the dark.

Lindsey Toland
Squantum School

It would be a book. I would give to Yi because she helped me since I was a little kindergartener on homework.

Wen Wu
Squantum School

It would be a puzzle set. I would give a puzzle set because they are challenging for the mind.

Connor Kulig
Squantum School

I would give an Xbox 360 as a gift. An Xbox is fun and you can go on line and have fun.

Kyler Pham
Squantum School

It would be puppy. I would give it to someone because that is a cuddly and cute animal.

Rachel Capone
Squantum School

I would give them a book. I will give this because they might need it for a book report.

Tyler Li
Squantum School

I would give my stuffed animal to my cousin Elaine because she is afraid of the dark. I would also give her my old night light just in case.

Chau Pham
Squantum School

It would be warm winter clothes. I would give them to someone who needs them.

Aoife O'Donovan
Squantum School

It would be a Lego set because it could have enough pieces to build a sculpture of Harry Potter and an ogre.

James Cawley
Squantum School

I would give a blue Apple laptop to Aoife because she is a great friend. Also, the computer would be fast.

Dominique Monteiro
Squantum School

It would be a teddy bear. I would give it to my little brother Timothy because he is afraid of the dark. I hope he would enjoy it.

Hannah Myers
Squantum

It would be a tv so they could watch the news and see if there is a hurricane or storm.

Dylan Connors
Squantum

It would be a first aid kit. I would give it to my aunt because needs one. She can use it to heal my baby cousin.

Salwah Shuman
Squantum

I would give someone who did not have them a hat, gloves, scarf and a jacket with a pair of pants, socks and boots.

Ryan Bergin
Squantum

Happy Holidays
FROM YOUR FRIENDS AT
WILLARD STREET
Collision and
Automotive Center, Inc.
248 Willard St., Quincy
617-471-7072

Happy Holidays
from
BAXTER PHARMACY
464 Washington Street, Quincy, MA
617-773-7733
www.baxterpharmacy.com

Merry Christmas & Happy Holidays
EMILY LEBO
School Committeewoman

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

BEECHWOOD KNOLL SCHOOL fifth grade students

PARKER SCHOOL fifth grade students

I would give a person who is homeless a new house that is already paid for. I would give this gift to the homeless because the homeless are struggling to survive and those are the people who need our help the most.

Kayla Larkin-Goldman
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would find parents for an orphan.

Emma Jaehnig
Quincy Catholic Academy

If I could give one gift this season, I would give a box full of toys and care products to a kid in need

Jenna Cohen
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would give all of my old clothes to charity because I think they might need more clothes.

Sydney Taylor
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would give clothes, money or food to the people in need.

Katherine Scanlan
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would give my teacher, Mrs. Kazlousky, things for her dog.

Ethan Tran
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would give books to charity so people can read more.

David Tran
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would give a mom to an orphan. I would do that because I wouldn't be able to be away from my mother, so it must be difficult for children without parents.

Fionnuala McDermott
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would give food to all the starving people in the world so that they would not die of hunger.

Niharika Burugapalli
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would give money to a children's charity because I want to help kids in need.

James Maloney
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would give out One Direction tickets because they might bring me to the concert.

Sinead Qiu
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be to donate to the poor; because poor people are in need of help.

Michael Dooley
Quincy Catholic Academy

I would give $1,000.00 to every parent that I know because they work so hard for us. With that money they could either buy themselves something they want or pay their bills.

Caroline Jaehnig
Quincy Catholic Academy

It would be an Apple product for every person who doesn't have one.

Yhsuf Nasr
Point Webster

It would be a laptop to someone who can't afford it. If you can't afford something it's okay maybe someone will donate something to you for Christmas or your birthday.

Kiana Molina
Point Webster

It would be a home and meals for homeless people.

Sarah Alkhafaji
Point Webster

It would be a purse to my mother because I think she deserves it for everything she does for me. I hope my mom will like it.

Luana Vilarino
Sterling Middle School

It would be to send a get well wish to my grandpa because he is sick and I don't want him to be sick anymore. I want to see him by Christmas. This is my holiday wish.

Orion Byrne
Sterling Middle School

It would be to give money to the people who had lost their homes in Hurricane Sandy because they have no place to live. Hurricane Sandy killed and hurt people too.

Reese Winter
Sterling Middle School

It would be a PS3. I would give it to my friend Kamani because he is always nice to me.

Llavian Figueroa
Sterling Middle School

It would be a house next to mine to my grandma, so I can see her more often. She lives far away and I don't get to see her as much as I used to.

Patrick Devoy
Sterling Middle School

It would be a brand new cell phone for my mom. In October she shattered her phone and it still doesn't work after it got fixed. I feel so bad, and that's why I want to give my mom a new cell phone.

Ainslee Eaton
Sterling Middle School

It would be a free plane ticket to Brazil. I would give it to my mom because her family lives there and she really wants to see her family again.

Lucas Teixeira
Sterling Middle School

It would be a bracelet to my aunt because she is wonderful, lovely, and a nice babysitter to me. She is always there for me.

Jenny Nguyen
Sterling Middle School

It would be a bunch of flowers to my grandmother. I want to give her flowers because she went through a bit of trouble with cancer. I want to say "You are the best, and congratulations for beating it."

Joseph Corbett
Sterling Middle School

It would be a kitten to my aunty Domanique. I would give it to her because she always wanted one.

Empress Laguerre
Sterling Middle School

It would be a pair of boots to my older sister because she helps me with everything like homework, cleaning, and doing my chores.

Sarai Pereira
Sterling Middle School

It would be for my little brother Sammy. I would give him lots of Thomas the Tank Engines because I love to see him smile as he makes his voice deeper and says "choo, choo, hello I'm Thomas."

Will McMillen
Atherton Hough

It would be a coupon book for my generous mom and dad. The coupons would be like 'one free car wash and wax.' They really deserve these coupons because they are the best parents ever!

Sophia Mercurio
Atherton Hough

I would be money to the Red Cross to help buy medicine for victims of Hurricane Sandy. Everyone deserves a wonderful holiday season no matter what.

Amanda Morris
Atherton Hough

It would be an iPod Touch for my sister. She has been begging for one for a month now.

Shane Murphy
Atherton Hough

It would be an Animal Jam giftcard to my cousin my cousin Lillian. We love Animal Jam! It could be a lion giftcard or an arctic wolf giftcard.

Jenna Napolitano
Atherton Hough

It would be some old records to my teacher Mr. Reichel. I would give them to him because he can listen to them, unlike me who doesn't have a record player.

Mikey O'Connor
Atherton Hough

It would be to the Saint Paul's homeless center. I would give them money, food, water, clothing, and blankets because I think everyone should be equal.

Neasa O'Donnell
Atherton Hough

It would be for my grandmother. She said she wanted a new coat, but she said it was too much money.

Aidan Perry
Atherton Hough

It would be to bring back the troops in Afghanistan and Iraq. I would bring them back to their families.

Timothy Pick
Atherton Hough

It would be world peace. World peace is very valuable to all the soldiers who are fighting in Afghanistan. The idea of world peace is dangerous but it will save a lot of lives.

Gen Reardon
Atherton Hough

It would be for my parents because they always give me what I need for myself. I would also give it to my teacher because they teach me.

Aparna Rai
Point Webster

Merry Christmas

BARBARA ISOLA
School Committeewoman

Happy Holidays!
Looking forward to hosting your events
in 2013!

Quincy
Sons of Italy
617-472-5900

TODAY,
tomorrow,
and throughout the new year, we wish you
the spirit of Christmas.

Merry Christmas
Happy 2013

Stamos & Stamos Realtors
617-328-9400
www.stamosandstamosrealtors.com

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season . . .

STERLING MIDDLE SCHOOL fifth grade students

POINT WEBSTER SCHOOL fifth grade students

It would be me because I'm helpful and I would give it to my mom and dad.

Paige E. Maze
Point Webster

It would be to my parent. It would be Christmas music. I like to write new Christmas music for my parent because my parent like to hear music.

Bhuvaneswari
Sumdararajan
Point Webster

It would be a cute Chihuahua puppy.

Kyler Hoang
Point Webster

It would be to help homeless people around the world, and give them food, shelter, and water. It would make homeless people happy.

Frankie D'Agostino
Point Webster

It would be to give a homeless person a new outfit.

Lorena Martinez
Point Webster

It would be extra food to homeless people around the world. I can give the homeless people new clothes and a little bit of money so they can buy a couple of things that they need for themselves.

Arianna K. Dalrymple
Point Webster

It would be the gift of happiness because happiness is what helps us get on with our day. Feeling happy is what you need every day. Some days you have a bad day but don't let that day bring you down.

Alexia
Point Webster

It would be a dinner to the homeless people who don't have food.

Nevach
Point Webster

It would be a card for my mom.

Sofe Alfrihat
Point Webster

It would be to visit and cheer up the elderly people around the holidays who may be lonely.

Kathy Xu
Wollaston School

It would be a nice jewelry item for my Nana because she is sick.

Julia Collins
Wollaston School

It would be a vacation for my parents. My parents work very hard, and a vacation should do the trick!

Su Yee Mon
Wollaston Elementary School

It would be to take my family out for dinner because they do so much for me.

Joshua Jackson
Wollaston Elementary School

It would be a necklace to my mom because she really deserves it.

Sarah Knight
Wollaston School

I would give my mom and dad a vacation because they work extremely hard providing for my brother and I and take very good care of us.

Lauren Beardsley
Wollaston School

It would be a bracelet to a girl that I like. She is a helpful, smart friend.

Michael Mei
Wollaston School

It would be money to the poor. I want everyone to have a good holiday this season.

Annie Yang
Wollaston School

It would be a new fluffy little cat for my Nana. I would give it to her because hers just died after 19 years.

Jose Betancourt
Wollaston School

It would be for my aunt because she always gets me things when I want them like an iPod Touch and Xbox 360.

Matthew Wong
Wollaston School

It would be a new Range Rover for my mom. She has wanted one ever since they came out, and she likes jeeps!

Damien Wilson
Wollaston School

It would be a Nintendo 3DS for my cousin.

Francis Wong
Wollaston School

It would be to give my mom a gift because she really works hard for my dad and me. She does a lot of things to make me happy, and I wish I could just help her to do less work.

Linda Lin
Wollaston School

It would be to give money to the St. Jude's Research Hospital. They could use the money to find a cure for cancer.

Jody Serani
Montclair

It would be the gift of reading for all kids who can't afford books. When you read you're being transported into new lands and every child needs an adventure now and then.

Gigi Soto
Montclair

It would be a fast new computer for my big sister so she doesn't have to do her homework on the computer I use, which often prevents me from making use of it for entire days.

William Brown
Montclair

It would be love for the victims of Hurricane Sandy. These people really need it after the tragic event.

Joanna Setow
Montclair

It would be money for people who can't afford food and other things so they will not starve.

Jackson Zhao
Montclair

It would be for homeless people to get homes. These people might spend a cold winter outside without a home to go to.

Tony Nguyen
Montclair

It would be good luck for my family and everybody else in the world. I want to buy my mom a new engine and a new car so we can go places together around the world.

Gabriel Randall
Montclair

It would be a brand new truck for my dad. A lot of dads have a truck and he drives a minivan.

Peyton McGaffigan
Montclair

It would be a big donation to the Boston Children's Hospital. There are many children in need.

Brian Chen
Montclair

It would be a new camera for my Auntie BB, because she always takes me shopping and she loves to take pictures.

Brigid Flynn
Montclair

It would be giving money to cure breast cancer, because it is sad to hear when people have it.

Amanda Wong
Montclair

It would be the best massage chair ever. I would like to give it to my nana because it is her dream to get one.

Aidan Healy
Sterling Middle School

It would be a collage of pictures. I would give it to my parents. I think they would like it because they love craft projects and they like them even more when I give one to them as a gift.

Jennifer Segale
Sterling Middle School

It would be the gift of education. I would give this to a child who does not receive a proper learning experience. Making someone happy will fill me with joy because I love to help other people. After all, this is the season of caring for and helping others.

Maggie Murphy
Sterling Middle School

It would be a jade necklace on a silver charm to my mother. I would give it to my mom because it would make both of us happy. Although she would like whatever I give to her, a jade necklace is what it would be.

Katelyn Nguyen
Sterling Middle School

Manet Community Health Center
www.manetchc.org
617-376-3000

Season's Greetings
Best Wishes for a Healthy New Year!

As you hang your 2013 calendar, please mark the date of Thursday, May 9, 2013 for Manet's Dinner Auction at the Boston Quincy Marriott!

Dinner Auction
at the Boston Quincy Marriott

We are a not-for-profit health and social services provider and we exist to be your partner for a healthier life.

Happy Holidays!

Atria
Marina Place
617-770-3264

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

My best wishes for a wonderful holiday season to all!

Kirsten Hughes
Ward 5 Councillor

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

SQUANTUM SCHOOL fifth grade students

It would be to prevent global warming. I don't want penguin's homes to melt and I worry where the polar bears would go.

Johnathan Nguyen
Parker School

It would be for a person that can't afford many things. I would give them a million dollars so they can use it to get food and toys for themselves.

Srujana Pannem
Parker School

It would be a cat for my cousin because he always wanted one.

Isabella Thong
Parker School

It would be a book about how to save the planet by recycling. I would write a note on the back saying, "Please recycle this when you're done," just to be funny.

Arielle Williams
Parker School

It would be money for charity. It would buy the needy new clothes and toys.

Elizabeth Yung
Parker School

It would be food to the people that are poor. I will give the poor food because they are very hungry.

Lin Zeng
Parker School

It would be a soft chair so when my mom and dad are tired they could sit on it.

Zach Zhang
Parker School

It would be health to my grandma. She has done a lot for my family and I want her to live longer.

Britney Zheng
Parker School

It would be a car for my sister. She takes care of me and needs a car so she won't have to walk home.

Jeffrey Zheng
Parker School

It would be money to my mom because my mom spends a lot of money on me so I want to give the money back to her.

Winnie Zhou
Parker School

It would be a pair of glasses for my grandma because she can't see well.

Jenny Zhuo
Parker School

It would be a car to my big brother and my mom.

Kevin Zou
Parker School

It would be a car for my family. They help me with my chores and need a car to go on journeys to people's houses.

Megan Callaghan
Parker School

It would be a computer for my Dad so he can play games.

Ethan Voeun-Ros
Parker School

It would be a pokemon card for my brother. My brother lost his Zedo card so I want to give him a new one.

Ivy Ching
Parker School

It would be that the world would be full of peace.

Eoin Gormley
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that scientists would find a cure for cancer.

Aaron Huang
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that people that are poor still have a wonderful Christmas.

Megan Miller
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that all the soldiers would come home to their families for Christmas.

Alyssa Chen
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for world peace.

Jake McGahey
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be to end world hunger.

Zachary DeMore
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for my aunt to have a healthy baby.

Ygan Jae Tumapang
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for my family to have the best Christmas ever.

Rosie McLoughlin
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for my aunt to get better.

Colleen McGee
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be to give homeless people houses.

Jasmine Horburapa
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for everybody to be happy and nobody to fight.

Landon Pierron
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be for all the people at Charity to have a great Christmas.

Nicole Gaykova
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be to find a cure for the incurable diseases that there are now.

Jessica Roa
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that all the people of the world would cooperate and all of the war in the world would stop.

Kevin Gallagher
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that all the troops and soldiers would come home.

Franco Calabro
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be that everyone has a wonderful Christmas.

Samantha Jaehnig
Charles Bernazzani School

It would be warm, winter jackets for the homeless. I would like to give these things to the homeless that are outside. I think this gift is a great gift to the homeless because it's going to get colder outside.

Jordan Feng
Wollaston School

It would be to donate money to people who have cancer. I would give it to them because innocent people have died because of cancer.

Elva Zheng
Wollaston School

It would be a football. I would give it to my little cousin, Scarlet because every time she sees a football she wants to play with it.

She loves to carry a football and run around with it. I want her to be very happy because she doesn't really do anything but play football. She can even be a future running back!

Edwin Nguyen
Wollaston School

It would be blankets to give to the shelters because they could use them during the winter and when it is cold out. I would also give blankets to the shelters because the people who are there can use them to sleep with.

Taylor Kinsley
Wollaston School

It would be nice, big, warm winter jackets for the homeless. My heart really goes out to them. That is why I would love to help them. I would think that winter is the hardest season for them because of the snow and the cold weather.

Victoria Durham
Wollaston School

It would be giving food to the poor. The reason why I would do this is because they have no food at all. They would be so happy even if I gave them an Oreo. When I go for a walk I see lots of poor people and I don't like seeing that. I think that feeding the poor would be a great gift.

Ben Welch
Wollaston School

It would be nice, warm clothes for the poor people out in the world. I wouldn't want families to freeze to death. I would give the socks, shoes, pants and shirts. They would be colorful and cozy.

Sokha Walsh
Wollaston School

It would be a diamond to my mom because she loves diamonds and this year will be her best year.

James Corkery
Wollaston School

It would be an X-box 360 for my brother Will. He would also love it if I got him games to play in it too. Even though the X-box 360 is expensive it is still a gift. I would live to give him this.

Ethan Lunny
Wollaston School

It would be Patriot tickets. I would give them to my brother and dad. I would give them to my brother because he has never been to a game.

Aidan Murphy
Wollaston School

It would be more gifts to give. I would give a lot, some to charity or some to cancer research. One example of a gift I would give is a huge pack of batteries. Some kids in hospitals have awesome toys, with no batteries to keep them on. That is definitely what I would give this holiday season.

Jackson McMahon
Wollaston School

It would be shelters. No one wants to see people outside in the cold weather with nowhere to go. How could anyone look and see people who don't have homes and not try to help them? Some people do help to build homes and I think it's great that people try to help less fortunate people.

Melissa Knight
Wollaston School

It would be lots of good food, school supplies and warm clothes. It's because kids could use them. People from poor families can eat the good food. I would also give new clothes to poor people too.

Shu Qian Zheng
Wollaston School

It would be a remote control boat for my brother. I would get this because he loves remote control cars and going on the boat.

Evan Bentley
Wollaston School

It would be a toy train for my little baby cousin Owen. When we go to the mall he would cry over a toy train and will not stop till we give him a treat. If I give him a toy train he will not cry like he does now.

Misha Li
Wollaston School

Happy Holidays
To All Of You
School Committeeman
Dave and Rosanne McCarthy
and Family

*Season's Greetings
To All of You
from Your Friends at*

Hancock T.V.
& Appliance

115 Franklin St., Quincy
617-472-1710

HAPPY HOLIDAYS
from
QUINCY COLLEGE

Home for the Holidays?

It's not too late to take classes during
our Winter Session
(Dec. 26th - Jan. 15th)
Or register today for
the Spring Semester!

quincycollege.edu | 800-698-1700

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season...

It would be a car to my parents. My dad says when I grow up I'll be rich and famous and then I can buy him a car. I've always kept that close to my heart and believe anything is possible. Since I can't afford it now, I hope I will be able to in the future. I hope to give a car to my parents someday.

Michelle Vu
Sterling Middle School

It would be any canned food that is not needed at home to homeless and hungry families. I wouldn't want those families to not have a good time and to go hungry; especially during the Christmas holiday.

Emily Vu
Sterling Middle School

It would be a special breakfast in bed to my mom. She has done so much for me and that's the least I can do.

Kendrick Kheav
Sterling Middle School

It would be money to charity. I would also donate money to the church. I would donate money to them because they can use the money in many ways and it would make me feel happy.

David Devoy
Sterling Middle School

It would be a key chain to my uncle. I would give this to him because he would like it on his keys.

Jaydek Wong
Sterling Middle School

It would be the best remote control car to my brother. My brother is disabled and can't do things that I can. A remote controlled car would make him so happy and I would be happy too.

Yousef Binalsheikh
Sterling Middle School

It would be the best Christmas ever to my sister because I always have a great time on Christmas and now I want my sister to have a great day on Christmas. This would make me feel good to help with my sister's great Christmas.

Sam Ngo
Sterling Middle School

It would be a home to a person who needs one. I think the person who should receive this holiday gift would be an orphan. I want to give this gift because it would bring happiness.

Jessica Nguyen
Sterling Middle School

It would be a toy or stuffed bear to my second cousin. He deserves this gift because he is the best second cousin.

Kayla Vu
Sterling Middle School

It would be love to my mom because she helps me with everything. She is also loving and caring. I'm thankful for what my mom does. That is a gift I would give this holiday season.

Ayanna Jones
Sterling Middle School

It would be a ticket to the Ellen Degeneres Show. I would give this ticket to my mom because she watches the Ellen show every day with me, and she has always wanted to go and see the show live. I want to give this to her because she would be so happy and that would make me happy too.

Sheala Driscoll
Sterling Middle School

It would be cookies and milk to Santa Claus.

Qiwen
Point Webster

It would be spirit for this holiday. I would give this to everybody because I would like everyone to celebrate Christmas because you should enjoy it.

Karen Cao
Point Webster

It would be to help all the kids with diabetes and to cure it.

Lina
Point Webster

It would be a new bike because bikes are cool and fun to ride. And I would help anyone on the street by making them hot chocolate.

Joseph Osgood
Point Webster

It would be a meal to people who don't have food.

Michelle Sinawski
Point Webster

It would be clothes for the person to wear.

Amaryllis Gu
Point Webster

It would be giving donations like toys or money for charity for a homeless family or one that needs money for medication.

Hillary Chen
Point Webster

It would be world peace for everyone in the world.

Kayleigh Donofrio
Point Webster

It would be lots of love and respect for my parents.

Rebecca Dang
Point Webster

It would be food and some donations to people and kids who don't have these stuff.

Elizabeth Huynh
Point Webster

It would be food and shelter to the poor.

Timothy Truong
Point Webster

It would be to the Quincy Animal Shelter because I can help by giving blankets, toys, leashes, and collars. I can also help by walking the dogs in the shelter. I love animals so I want to help.

Alexis Robertson
Atherton Hough

It would be clothes and food to the ones in need so they can live longer and not be hungry and get plenty of healthy food. I would give them money so they can have a nice place to live.

Jake Russo
Atherton Hough

It would be a puppy to my dad and mom because they love dogs and so do I. I hope to give them one this year, so do not tell them.

Jocelyn Saldi
Atherton Hough

It would be a new Skylanders set for my little brothers Owen, Dean, and Mark. My brothers are very kind and as an example when my mom and dad and me need help they are always there for me.

Lukas Schaaf
Atherton Hough

It would be food to people that are in need. I would give them a nice, steamy, hot, and juicy turkey with all the fixings. People in need should be able to have a nice turkey dinner with their family.

Michael Scibilio
Atherton Hough

It would be a nice house to a family that lost their house and cars. A couple of weeks ago a bad storm hit called Hurricane Sandy. A bunch of people in Northern New Jersey lost their cars, house, and even family members.

Joseph Smiddy
Atherton Hough

It would be an education to someone else because not everyone is able to get an education. I would teach someone to read, write, and their math facts. I'd feel good about this.

Alec Thompson
Atherton Hough

It would be toys, clothes, and means to have a good life to the kids less fortunate than I. When you decorate the Christmas tree or light the last candle on the menorah, these children are suffering.

Juliana Tracey
Atherton Hough

It would be a bracelet for my mom because I just want to be a nice daughter and I know she would love to get a ladybug bracelet. It would say "you're the best mom ever!"

Amber Tran
Atherton Hough

It would be giving all the homeless people a home or shelter so they won't be cold or hungry and they won't die through the cold winter.

Jack Wilson
Atherton Hough

It would be warm coats for homeless people to help them stay warm during the winter.

R.J. Merna
Montclair

It would be homes to the victims of Hurricane Sandy. Some people don't have homes and I feel really bad for them.

Alyssa Gonzales
Montclair

It would be a scarf to Jody because her scarf is dirty. Then she can wash her favorite scarf and wear the lovely scarf that I give her.

Kitty Kwong
Montclair

It would be giving food to the people who can't afford any. I really want to give food to the poor people.

Mariah Everett
Montclair

It would be houses for the people whose homes got destroyed from Sandy. People are cold and hungry. They need a warm place to be in.

Marc Cabrera
Montclair

It would be a trip to China for my family. My family has to work to earn money to feed me and my sister so I want them to sit on an airplane to fly to China and relax.

Shuyang Chen
Montclair

It would be to donate extra time to the animal shelter. All cats and dogs need love.

Hanna MacDonald
Montclair

It would be a week off to my mom, dad, and brother because they are always taking care of me. A week off would allow them to relax and not worry about us. On their week off I would make them feel like they were at a hotel by making them breakfast, lunch, and dinner every day.

Jordan O'Connor
Sterling Middle School

It would be toys to kids who don't have a lot of money. I feel badly when I get a gift for the holiday and someone else may not.

Tynierah Cantave
Sterling Middle School

It would be money to the homeless because they need more help.

Ja'Qury Gray
Sterling Middle School

It would be a dream job to my mom because the job that she has now only gives her one day off a week.

Axel Arias
Sterling Middle School

It would be breakfast for three days to my mom, dad, stepdad, and stepmom. I will have to get up early in the morning to make sure everything goes smoothly.

John Cheney
Sterling Middle School

It would be a Batman game to my friend who would love it. It would be an early birthday present.

Justin Echols
Sterling Middle School

It would be to give money to charity because that way people could be given homes, food, and supplies.

Kevin Velasquez
Sterling Middle School

It would be money to the animal hospital and children's hospital. Animals that are sick or hurt need money so they can get surgery. Children who are sick need money for surgery or medicine.

Samantha Brown
Sterling Middle School

It would be free hot chocolate to everyone to keep warm because it is cold outside, and it is hot and yummy.

Truman Seto
Sterling Middle School

*Wishing you and
your family
Peace, Love and Health
during the Holiday Season
and throughout the New Year.*

School Committeeman
PAUL BREGOLI

Seasons Greetings
from the Staff of
Deware
Funeral Home
576 Hancock St.,
Quincy, MA 02170
617-472-1137
www.dewarefuneralhome.com

Dignity
MEMORIAL

Happy Holidays
and
A Happy
New Year

CURRY
HARDWARE
ACE
The Store You Can't Forget

370 COPELAND STREET
617-472-8250

If I Could Give One Gift This Holiday Season . . .

It would be Mario figures because Mario is my biggest video game fan and Kirby 64 because the copy abilities are awesome (I wish they had it in co-op).

Quintin Thompson
Point Webster

It would be a wish because I really love wishes. I would give a wish to someone because if they wish for something that they really want wishes can come true.

Anthony Ho
Point Webster

It would be food for people who don't have any food and I would give them blankets.

Kierstin Tilton
Point Webster

I would be money to the homeless people so they have roof over their heads.

Nick Buonopane
Point Webster

It would be a new laptop for my brother.

Caren Wang
Point Webster

It would be a new PS3 to my cousin.

Abdul Bin Nasir
Point Webster

It would be happiness for all the children.

Brooke
Point Webster

It would be a stack of cards.

Terry Su
Point Webster

It would be my old toys to the Children's Hospital.

Benson
Point Webster

It would be a wonderful Christmas to many children. I would want many children to have the great spirit of Christmas. I want children to be smiling during Christmas.

It would be a mini iPad. A lot of people like them.

Adam Trag
Point Webster

It would be a dog to a blind person so they can be guided safely. When a blind person crosses the street the dog will stop the person if a car is coming.

Jacquelyn Goodfellow
Sterling Middle School

It would be to give food and build houses for people in Haiti. They should have food to eat and houses to sleep and stay warm in.

Lauren Anshewitz
Sterling Middle School

It would be an Xbox to my friend Kevin because he is my best friend and I care about him.

Jonathan Ortiz
Sterling Middle School

It would be a Play Station to my family. With this my family will be able to play together.

Nicholas Wong
Sterling Middle School

It would be medicine for my cousin that has cancer. He needs it to get better fast.

Malia Charles-Etienne
Sterling Middle School

School Vacation Pool Schedule

The Quincy Recreation Department announces its schedule of recreational swims at the Lincoln Hancock Community School Pool during school vacation.

The pool will have "Santa's helper" swims Friday, Dec. 21 and Sunday, Dec. 23. On Friday, the usual family swim time will be expanded to 6 to 8 p.m. and will include youth age 6 through 14. Parents may drop off youngsters age 6-14 at the combined youth/family swims who have swimming ability and then go shopping at local stores.

Youth non-swimmers and those under six may take part in the program. However, a parent or guardian must accompany the youngster in the pool.

On Sunday, the "Santa's helper" hours will be from 1 to 3 p.m. and the same rules will apply.

The department will also offer expanded day time youth and family swim program from noon to 2 p.m. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of school vacation week. These day time recreational swims are ideal for family and adults. Adults need to accompany non swimmers in the pool.

The pool staff will also conduct combined youth and family swims on Wednesday, Dec. 26, Thursday, Dec. 27 and Friday, Dec. 28. The swims will be from 6 to 6:50 p.m.

The Sunday, Dec. 30th youth/family will be from 1 to 2:45 p.m.

Adult lap swimming will remain on their regular schedule Sundays, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights at 7:55 p.m.

Persons with current valid pool membership cards may take part in all the above programs. Persons without current active membership may pay a guest fee at the Water Street entrance of the pool or sign up at any of the swims for a half year or year membership.

Gift certificates are also available for pool memberships. Certificates can be obtained at the pool at the time of the recreation supervised swim programs are underway.

For more information, call 617-376-1394.

LEGO Workshops Set For Dec. 26-28

The Quincy Recreation Department will offer LEGO workshops during School Vacation for boys and girls entering kindergarten through grade 3.

With the emphasis on fun, children will create and build with LEGO toys in both individual and group projects.

Workshops will be held in the community room of the Richard J. Koch Park and Recreation Complex, 1 Merrymount Parkway. Cost is $20 for a three-hour session and includes LEGOs, supervised instruction and a snack.

Sessions will be held:
• Wednesday, Dec. 26 from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m.
• Thursday, Dec. 27 from 9 a.m. to noon.

• Thursday, Dec. 27 from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m.

• Friday, Dec. 28 from 9 a.m. to noon.

• Friday, Dec. 28 from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Enrollment is limited and a minimum number will be needed for each session for proper group activities.

Supervision will be provided by members of the Quincy Recreation Department staff and participants will also be guided in related LEGO activities such as design challenges and games.

Registration is underway and can be done online at www.QuincyRec.com or in person at 1 Merrymount Parkway between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

For more information, call 617-376-1394.

Other Sports, Recreation News Online
at www.thequincysun.com

HAVE A BAD BACK?

MODIFIED YOGA/EXERCISE CAN HELP
6 WEEK PROGRAM BEGINS JAN. 7TH
2x/wk Mon & Wed 5:45-6:45pm
12 Classes $120.00

Call (617)769-9642 or www.powerhouseyogastudio.com

POWERHOUSE YOGA

42 ST. ANNS RD., QUINCY

Merry Christmas
Happy Chanukah

from all of us at

The Quincy Sun

ROBERT BOSWORTH	MARIE D'OLIMPIO
DONNA GRAY	ROBERT NOBLE
MICHELLE COLLINS	EMILY TAFT
DOLLY NEWMAN	BILL GRIFFIN
SCOTT JACKSON	JEFF OHLSON
KELLY BOGNANNO	TOM GALVIN
LAUREN McGRATH	MIRIAM JOSEPH
LYNNE GARLAND	JULIE O'BRIEN
LISA AIMOLA	JIM SHIELDS
LARRY CARCHEDI	KERRI O'HARE

KRISTINA KALABOKAS

Lt. Daniel Minton, Quincy Police Department
And Our Dedicated Quincy Sun Newscarrers

Merry
Christmas
from
AGNITTI INSURANCE

Wollaston Garden Club

Thanks The Quincy Community
For Its Continuing Support
&
Sends Best Wishes For A
Happy Holiday Season

NQ's Defense Solid But Offense Stalls Against Canton

By BILL GRIFFIN

It was just one game, but the story was not what was expected from North Quincy's hockey team.

The strength of the Red Raiders figured to be their offense where they return five of their top six forward's from last year's tourney team. If there were questions, they were on defense where North graduated all-league goalie James Dunn and four starting defensemen.

In the non-league opener against Canton, the script changed. Goalie Richie Nee made 20 saves and Canton backboned the effort with a disciplined, tight-checking defense to halt North, 2-0 at Quincy Youth Arena Saturday night and gain a measure of revenge for their overtime loss to the Red Raiders in the sectional tournament last season.

"The goalie and defense played great," said North coach Matt Gibbons. "We just didn't get anything going offensively. Give Canton credit. They're disciplined and well-coached, but our offense has to do better."

The number one star of the night goes to North goalie junior Nolan Greene who turned aside 24 shots. He had no chance on either goal. He was poised and confident in net, played his angles well and made both the routine and difficult stops. His finest moments were in the first and third periods. In the first, he turned back a shot and rebound from the slot by Brian Brooks. His best was a point-blank robbery of John Femial in the final seconds of the period. In the third, he somehow got two deflections which completely changed directions in front of the crease.

Boys' Hockey

"There were no questions about Nolan. None at all," said Gibbons.

The defense was solid in front of him led by senior captain Rudy Tryon. Josh Hayward, Ryan Martin, Brendan Brady, Matt Monahan and Matt McDonald all had strong games. In addition, North's short-handed unit led by Nick McGaughey, Shawn Grady, Martin Blake, and James Doherty successfully killed seven penalties without giving a goal.

"Our defense was excellent. They played the body and kept things clean in front of Nolan," said Gibbons.

North's best flurry came late in the second. Grady started it with a strong rush up the left wing. He fired a hard slapper which Nee turned back. Seconds later, Grady deflected a shot in front which Nee handled. Tryon had two low, hard blasts, but Nee got them both.

"We didn't drive to the net and get second chances. There were rebounds, we just couldn't get them. We need to create more chances," said Gibbons.

Kurt Leavett scored Canton's first with 7:32 left in the second with a low drive from the faceoff circle off a feed from Justin Rudy. Canton made it 2-0 with 3:33 left when Femia finished a perfect 2-on-1 with Brooks.

"Nolan had no chance on the first goal and on the second, we pinched in taking a chance to tie it. Canton just broke out clean," said Gibbons.

North opens its Patriot League schedule Wednesday night at Silver Lake.

Jorgensen's 26 Rebounds, 12 Blocked Shots Set Records

Freshman Nicole Jorgensen had a historic night, setting school records with 26 rebounds and 12 blocked shots to lift the Presidents past Brockton, 34-31 in a non-league game Monday night.

Jorgensen, who had 16 points and 13 rebounds against North Quincy Friday, broke the previous school mark for rebounds (25 by Kiley McDonald) and blocks (6 by Maria Berberan).

Kayla McArdle was a key in the victory for the Presidents. She scored 15 points, seven in the fourth period including four straight free throws to nail down the win. She also played fine

By BILL GRIFFIN

Quincy ended its first week of hockey action with an impressive win and a loss to a perennial EMass powerhouse in a pair of non-league games.

The vastly improved Presidents dominated Everett from start to finish in posting a 4-2 decision. Oliver Ames, a Hockomock League powerhouse, stopped Quincy, 5-2 Saturday night.

"We have some things to work on, but I was very happy with our first week," said coach Tim Lewis. "There is a fraternity in the locker room and the improvement from last year is considerable. We're preparing for our next game with cautious confidence."

Boys' Hockey

Against Everett, freshman Jake Hallisey scored twice for Quincy while sophomore Pat Freeman and Steve Ross added single goals. Sophomore Ryan Higgins was solid in goal with nine saves.

Against Oliver Ames, defenseman Matt Davis scored on a slap shot and Hallisey scored his third goal of the week by redirecting a Davis drive late in the first period. Quincy was tied with the powerful Tigers 2-2 after one. Higgins was outstanding in goal, turning back 35 shots.

"Oliver Ames is always good and this is the strongest they've been in years," said Lewis. "We scheduled them by design to give us a good test. They have 12 seniors who have played together, and we have two. But we skated right with them."

"Ryan was excellent. He saw the puck very well and he's growing into his role as a varsity goalie," said Lewis.

A constant in the two games has been the work of the defense and the short-handed unit. Ross, Davis, Brandon Beal, Jimmy Brennick, and Matt Kozlowski have been terrific. The Presidents have killed 14 of 15 penalties thanks to the work of Aidan Pugsley and Ryan Harty.

"The defense has been a real strong point and our penalty killers have checked very well," said Lewis.

Against Everett, Quincy controlled the play, posting a 38-11 edge in shots on goal.

"Ryan was solid in net. They scored on a power play and a fluke goal," said Lewis. "The score wasn't reflective of the game. We dominated in the offensive zone and had some great chances. We ran into a hot goaltender."

Quincy broke open the game with three goals late in the second period. The scoring was the result of digging and hard work, especially on the part of Hallisey, who had two goals in the scrimmage against Norwell and has a scorer's touch from in close.

"He has a high hockey IQ," said Lewis. "But the goals came because we took the hits and did the hard work in front of the net."

Hallisey had his two and Freeman had his from close range. Ross scored on a slap shot. Lewis was happy with his team's reaction to facing a hot goalie.

"We didn't get discouraged. We showed the resiliency I'm looking for and kept working for our chances," he said.

In the Oliver Ames game, the Tigers scored twice in the second period and once in the third to win the game. Quincy finished strong, putting 12 shots on goal in the third and narrowly missing a goal out of a scramble in the final seconds.

Quincy opens its Patriot League season against Whitman-Hanson at Rockland Wednesday night.

QUINCY HIGH SCHOOL freshman Nicole Jorgensen set a school mark with 26 rebounds and 12 blocked shots Monday night.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth
Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth
while Courtney Ryan played strong defense off the bench.

Quincy is 3-0 and will host Hanover Friday.
By BILL GRIFFIN

Junior guard Alyssa Lydon scored seven and played excellent defense

Want a hearing aid that fits just right?

Then have it custom built in
Quincy Mass!
Get 100% digital models with advanced noise reduction capability!

December specials!

Try our custom in-the-ear products at half of suggested retail price!
full shell model, retail $2795.00.

Special $1395.00 each!

Includes a FREE hearing evaluation, consultation and a 60 day trial period.
We service what we build "in house" and same day!

The Tobias family has been serving
Boston and South Shore since 1959!

(must present ad with order) Steve

617 770-3395

Stephen P. Tobias B.C. HIS
MA Lic #59
B.S. Science UMass 1978

Tobias Hearing Aids, Inc. 382 Quincy Ave, Quincy near Roche Bros and Walmart. Where Eddies Diner was!

"People's Choice Award"
- Pat Whitley Restaurant Show, WRKO 680 AM

Cronin's
Publick House

Christmas Party

Thurs., Dec. 20 at 7PM

Grand Buffet &
Holiday Cheer
DJ Bill Coleman

All Are Welcome!!!

25¢ WINGS*

Plain or Buffalo Style *Dine-In Only

DURING ALL PATS GAMES &
MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL 8PM-10PM

23 DesMoines Rd. • Quincy Point
• Takeout 617-786-9804

(Between the Shipyard and 1000 Southern Artery Senior Center)

WWW.STEAKTIPS.COM

CLASSIFIEDS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-100

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Michael Walsh for a Special Permit and Finding to renovate and expand living area into existing enclosed porches and attic in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.2 (nonconforming uses) on the premises numbered 100 ROBERTSON STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-101

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Alexander and Bill Fok for a Finding to enclose the front porch in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.3 (alteration nonconforming) on the premises numbered 217-219 MARLBORO STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-102

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of T-Mobile Northeast, LLC for a Special Permit to modify the existing wireless communications facility in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 6.6 (wireless) on the premises numbered 93-97 WILLARD STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-103

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of T-Mobile Northeast, LLC for a Special Permit to modify the existing wireless communications facility in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 6.6 (wireless) on the premises numbered 1 BILLINGS ROAD, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-104

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Ulrik & Michaela Nielsen for a Variance to demolish the existing single family home and accessory building and construct a new single family and accessory building in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 4.0 (dimensional requirements) and Chapter 3.2.3 (accessory uses) on the premises numbered 49 SYCAMORE ROAD, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-105

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Toan Le for a Finding to construct a mudroom in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.3 (alteration nonconforming) on the premises numbered 55 STERLING STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

INVITATION TO BID

INVITATION TO BID

CITY OF QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS
PURCHASING DEPARTMENT
1305 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY, MA 02169

The City of Quincy invites sealed bids/proposals for:

"REPAIR OR REPLACEMENT OF CERTAIN DOORS AT THOMAS CRANE LIBRARY"

LIBRARY DEPT.

JANUARY 9, 2013 @ 11:00A.M

The City of Quincy, acting through its Purchasing Department, hereby solicits bids from qualified bidders to repair or replace certain doors at the Thomas Crane Public Library. It is mandatory that all contractors submitting bids be highly skilled and qualified to perform sensitively detailed work on building elements and buildings of special historical importance.

Detailed specifications are available on-line at the City of Quincy's website, www.quincyma.gov and also available at the office of the Purchasing Agent, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, Massachusetts, 02169, between the hours of 8:30 AM and 4:30 PM for a non-refundable printing charge of $25.00.

A non-mandatory pre-bid walk thru will be held on Dec. 27, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. at the site; Thomas Crane Library, 40 Washington St. Quincy, MA 02169.

All questions regarding this bid should be directed to Kathryn R. Hobin, Purchasing Agent through fax: 617-376-1074 and email: khobin@quincyma.gov and cc: to kimtrillcott@quincyma.gov Questions will be accepted until January 3, 2013 at 4:00 p.m.

Bids/Proposals must be in a sealed envelope. The outside of the sealed envelope is to be clearly marked "BID EN-CLOSED" with time/date of bid call.

The successful bidder will be required to conform to the payment of Prevailing Wage Rates, as determined by the Commissioner of Labor & Industries under the provision of M.G.L. Chapter 149, Section 26 to 27D as amended.

Firm bid prices will be given first consideration. Bids/Proposals will be received at the office of the Purchasing Agent until the time and date stated above, at which time and date they will be publicly opened and read. Late Bids/Proposals, delivered by mail or in person, will be rejected.

If applicable, bids shall be in accordance with M.G.L. Chapter 30B, Chapter 149 as amended, and Chapter 30, Sections 39A, 39B and 39F-R.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids or to accept any part of a bid or the one deemed best for the City and waive any informality in the bidding if it is in the best interest of the City to do so.

Thomas P. Koch, MAYOR
Kathryn R. Hobin, PURCHASING AGENT

12/20/12

LEGAL NOTICE

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS THE TRIAL COURT THE PROBATE AND FAMILY COURT DEPARTMENT

Norfolk Division

Docket No. 12E0087

To Pauline Tom, co-trustee of the Tom Family Trust UDT DTD 11-2-05 and Nancy Tom, co-trustee of the TOrn Family Trust UDT DTD 11-2-05 and to all other persons interested.

A petition has been presented to said Court by Nancy Tom of 10 Weston St. #322, Quincy in the County, Norfolk representing that she holds as tenant in common an undivided 50% part or share of certain land lying in Quincy in said County of Norfolk and briefly described as follows: 23 Joan Dr., Quincy, MA as described in exhibit "A" attached to said petition.

Setting for that she desires that - all - the following described part - of said land may be sold at private sale for not less than $355,600.00 dollars and praying that partition may be made of all the land aforesaid according to law, and to that end that a commissioner be appointed to make such partition and be ordered to make sale and conveyance of all, or any part of said land which the Court finds cannot be advantageously divided, either at private sale or public auction, and be ordered to distribute the net proceeds thereof.

If you desire to object thereto, you or your attorney should file a written appearance in said Court at Canton before ten o'clock in the forenoon on the 28th day of Dec 2012, the return day of this citation.

Witness, Angela M. Ordoñez, Esquire, First Justice of said Court, this 8th day of Nov, 2012.

PATRICK W. McDERMOTT
Register of Probate

12/6, 12/13, 12/20/12

KARATE

KARATE/SELF-DEFENSE
BRAintree, WEYMOUTH.
FREE MONTH - NO
OBLIGATION AGES 5 & UP.
SOUTH SHORE'S OLDEST SCHOOL
CALL BOB 617-285-3071

12/20

CLEANING SERVICES

DASILVA CLEANING SERVICES

Home & Office Cleaning
Professional, Affordable
Reliable & Trustworthy
Weekly or Bi-Weekly References
CALL MEIRY 781-803-2922

12/27

SISTERS CLEANING

IF YOU NEED
SOMEONE TO CLEAN
YOUR HOUSE. WE DO HOUSES, APTS &
OFFICES.
CALL NOW 978-587-2252

12/27

HALLS FOR RENT

MORRISETTE LEGION POST
81-83 Liberty St., Quincy
Function Hall Available
Call for Details 617-770-4876
Internet Capable • Weddings •
Showers • Christenings • Meetings
After Funeral Gatherings

TF

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION GIVING NOTICE OF PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN FOR INCAPACITATED PERSON PURSUANT TO

G.L. c. 190B, §5-304

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

The Trial Court

Probate and

Family Court

Norfolk Probate

and Family Court

Canton, MA 02021

Docket No. NO12P2738GD

In the matter of:

Joseph Hogan

Of: Quincy, MA

RESPONDENT

Alleged Incapacitated Person

To the named Respondent and all other interested persons, a petition has been filed by Radius Speciality Hospital of Boston, MA in the above captioned matter alleging that Joseph Hogan is in need of a Guardian and requesting that some suitable person be appointed as Guardian to serve Without Surety on the bond.

The petition asks the court to determine that the Respondent is incapacitated, that the appointment of a Guardian is necessary, and that the proposed Guardian is appropriate. The petition is on file with this court and may contain a request for certain specific authority.

You have the right to object to this proceeding.

If you wish to do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance at this court on or before 10:00 A.M. on the return date of 01/16/2013. This day is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline date by which you have to file the written appearance if you object to the petition. If you fail to file the written appearance by the return date, action may be taken in this matter without further notice to you. In addition to filing the written appearance, you or your attorney must file a written affidavit stating the specific facts and grounds of your objection within 30 days after the return date.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The outcome of this proceeding may limit or completely take away the above-named person's right to make decisions about personal affairs or financial affairs or both. The above-named person has the right to ask for a lawyer. Anyone may make this request on behalf of the above-named person. If the above-named person cannot afford a lawyer, one may be appointed at State expense.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: December 4, 2012

PATRICK W. McDERMOTT

Register of Probate

12/20/12

CLASSIFIEDS

LEGAL NOTICE	PERSONAL	PERSONAL	SERVICES	SERVICES	SERVICES
NOTICE OF PETITION FOR CHANGE OF NAME Docket No. NO12C0179CA Commonwealth of Massachusetts The Trial Court Probate and Family Court Norfolk Probate and Family Court 35 Shawmut Road Canton, MA 02021 (781) 830-1200 In the matter of: b7C Austin J Tobin To all persons interested in petition described: A petition has been presented by Austin J Tobin requesting that Austin J Tobin be allowed to change his/her name as follows: Austin J Kelley. IF YOU DESIRE TO OBJECT THERETO, YOU OR YOUR ATTORNEY MUST FILE A WRITTEN APPEARANCE IN SAID COURT AT: Canton ON OR BEFORE TEN O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING (10:00 AM) ON: 01/09/2013. WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court. Date: November 15, 2012 PATRICK W. McDERMOTT Register of Probate 12/20/12	SCOTT - RUSTY - JOHN WHITNEY Missing you more during this holiday season. Your family 12/20	Mom & Dad, Thank you for always being there. Our Love, Bob & Donna, Alicia & Bill, Nancy & Charlie, Andrea & Roger 12/20	POWER PLUMBING Plumbing, Heating, Gas Fitting Repairs • New Installations Dave 617-328-3007 Emergencies 617-792-4054 Master Lic # 13749 TF	SAVE Budget Fuel Fuel Assistance Senior Discount Full Service 617-328-4063 TF	 Hancock T.V. & Appliance Sales, Service, Parts & Installation Since 1945 (617) 472-1710 115 Franklin Street, Quincy, MA hancocktvdappliance.com
	HAPPY BIRTHDAY BABY JESUS AND MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL 12/20	Prayer to Blessed Virgin "Oh, most beautiful, flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful vine, splendor of heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh, Star of the Sea, help me and show me, herein you are my Mother. Oh, Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth! I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in this necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. Oh, Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mother, I place this cause in your hands (three times). Say this prayer 3 consecutive days, and then you must publish and it will be granted to you. Thanks to St. Anthony & St. Joseph. K.L..." 12/20	AFFORDABLE, HIGHEST QUALITY PAINTING AND HANDYMAN SERVICES. FREE Estimates • No Job Too Small • Insured • Quincy-Based CALL KURT AT HAMMERHEAD SERVICES, LLC 901-219-9652 12/27	LOCAL PAINTER CLIP & SAVE Average Room - walls $150 Ceilings $75. Also windows, doors, trim, etc. Inside or out. Prompt, clean service. Kevin 617-302-5136 Cell 617-774-7479 1/3	5 CLANCY BROTHERS PEST CONTROL You got 'em! We'll get 'em! (617) 328-8387 1/17
	MERRY CHRISTMAS & HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL OUR QUINCY FRIENDS SANDY & BOB BRENNAN 12/20		GUTTER CLEANING & REPAIRS PEST CONTROL Home Repairs I Answer My Phone! RICH 617-773-6432 12/27	DCS PROPERTY MANAGEMENT One call does it ALL!!! • Fall Clean ups • Snow Plowing • Snow Removal & more FREE ESTIMATES 10% OFF FIRST SERVICE Joe (857) 939-3442 1/17	MASONRY All Types New and Repair FREE ESTIMATES Call Ed 781-254-1648 2/28
	Congratulations to the Quincy Sun, The only paper with Quincy in its name and Quincy in its heart! 12/20	Save Gas & Money, Shop Locally	THOMAS C. SWEENEY Smaller Jobs a Specialty 49 Years Experience Carpentry, Siding, Painting, Porches Vinyl/Windows, Doors Roofing, Decking, Steps License #1373 Free Estimates Reliable 617-825-1210 References 3/7
	Nana Julia Merry Christmas Happy New Year Special to you Love & Hugs Your Family 12/20		S.G. HAROLD PLUMBING, HEATING & AC Specializing in Viessman Boiler Unico Air Conditioning Home heating repairs & service Radiant floor heating QUINCY 617-471-0914 Unprecedented Service Tailored to You MA Lic. #10589 TF
	Joe in Texas Wishing you a happy Christmas and New Year. Your friends in Quincy 12/20	SERVICES FASOLI CORP. 617-288-1255 Certified reprocessed gravel. Asphalt - Fill - Concrete Recycling 12/20	HANDYMAN Painting, Roof Repair, Carpentry, Windows, Sealcoating, Siding Lic. & Ins • FREE Estimates 617-571-1744 781-871-9752 1/10
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS CASE NO. 12-106 Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Arthur Choo Jr. & Company for a Special Permit / Flood Plain to construct an addition in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 8.1.9 (flood plain) on the premises numbered 318 SEA STREET, QUINCY. Martin Aikens, Chairman 12/20/12, 12/27/12		WANTED OLD HAND TOOLS & BOOKS WANTED Planes, chisels, adzes, shaves, machinist, and sheetmetal tools, calipers, clamps, anvils, vices. USEFUL TOOLS, ALL TRADES. New England history books Collections: old postcards, toys, military, hunting and fishing items. LIBERTY TOOL CO. 888-405-2007 Davistownmuseum.org e-Store & antique sale! TF	CERAMICS Made to Order Finished Ceramic Christmas Trees and Gifts. Replacement Lights Stars & Wiring Ceramic Supplies & Classes E & T Ceramics & Printing 367 Billings Rd - Wollaston 617-479-4107 12/20
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS CASE NO. 12-107 Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Alexander Goodstein for a Finding to remodel the existing structure in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.3 (alteration to nonconforming) on the premises numbered 23 BEEBE ROAD, QUINCY. Martin Aikens, Chairman 12/20/12, 12/27/12		JUNK CARS WANTED JUNK CARS WANTED (617) 481-6699 (508) 577-0073 1/17	SKIN CARE FREE FACIAL Individual or groups MARY KAY Celebrating 50 Years Skincare for Women Age 12 & Beyond MICHELLE, Consultant 781-258-7564 TF
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City of Quincy ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS CASE NO. 12-108 Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Joseph Walsh for a Finding to add a family room addition above existing garage in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.3 (alteration to nonconforming) on the premises numbered 10 HAMILTON AVENUE, QUINCY. Martin Aikens, Chairman 12/20/12, 12/27/12		FOR SALE DOUBLE CEMETERY PLOT. KNOLLWOOD MEMORIAL PARK, CANTON, MA - VETERANS SECTION $1200.00 B/O (Cemetery price $3500.00) CONTACT JAMIE 781-740-1614 12/20
		FOR SALE: Snow Tires - Master Craft Size 255/55R18 $200.00 617-471-5103 12/20
		Mazda Miata Car Cover Fits 2006-2011 Models New In Box Cost $189.00 Sell For $140.00 Call 617-653-2294 12/20

Want to pick up a copy of The Quincy Sun?

Here are stores in Quincy that sell it on their newsstands:

QUINCY MARKET Corner of Temple & Washington St.	ARTERY GROCERY 1000 Southern Artery	7-11 721 Hancock St.
GOODIE'S STORE 1250 Hancock St., Presidents Place	DAIRY FARM 330 Washington St.	BEALE ST. SMOKE SHOP 17 Beale St.
NEW STORE ON THE BLOCK 1183 Hancock St., Quincy Ctr. T Station	TEDESCHI'S 230 Washington St.	CVS 42 Beale St.
BRENNANS 1442 Hancock St.	STOP & SHOP Southern Artery	COFFEE BREAK CAFE 12 Old Colony Ave.
HANCOCK TOBACCO 1500 Hancock St.	CVS Southern Artery	SUPREME LIQUORS 615 Hancock St.
MIGNOSA'S FRUIT BASKET 138 Granite St.	BAXTER'S PHARMACY 385 Washington St.	S & A CONVENIENCE STORE 498 Hancock St.
RITE-AID 132 Granite St.	WALGREENS 550 Adams St.	HANNAFORD BROTHERS 475 Hancock St.
COFFEE BREAK CAFE 77 Parkingway	TEDESCHI'S 650 Adams St.	MULLANEY'S VARIETY 205 W. Squantum St.
HANCOCK PARK LOBBY SHOP 164 Parkingway	7-11 Adams St.	STOP & SHOP 65 Newport Ave.
FRANKLIN ST. BP 60 Franklin St.	VILLAGE COMM. MARKET 100 Willard St.	7-11 363 Hancock St.
7-11 78 Franklin St.	COPELAND LIQUORS 273 Copeland St.	RED APPLE FOOD SHOP 48 Billings Rd.
CVS Independence Ave.	GRANITE MART 308 Willard St.	SAM'S VARIETY 125 Billings Rd.
SHOP N SAVE LIQUORS 20 Independence Ave.	7-11 Copeland St.	T & T LIQUORS & VARIETY 66 Newbury Ave.
DONUT + DONUTS 33 Scamell St.	ALBA DELI 1089 Hancock St.	RICHARD'S MARKET 247 Atlantic Ave.
PRESIDENTIAL LIQUORS Scamell St.	CORNER FOOD MARKET 1060 Hancock St.	CARMINE'S CAFE 69 Huckins Ave.
TEDESCHI'S 85 Quincy Ave.	DAIRY MART 200 Sea St.	TEDESCHI'S 751 E. Squantum St.
DAILY MART 291 Quincy Ave.	ADAMS SHORE SUPERMARKET 494 Sea St.	W. ELM VARIETY 139 West Elm Ave.
ROCHE BROTHERS The Falls	PALMER STREET MARKET 231 Palmer St.	LUCKY SHAMROCK 265 Beale St.
WALGREENS 418 Quincy Ave.	BERNIE'S GENERAL STORE 1147 Sea St.	ANDRE'S STORE 20 Brook St.

2012-2013 Winter Parking Rules

October 15, 2012—April 15, 2013

- ❖ NO PARKING allowed on either side of Emergency Arteries during a snow emergency. Emergency Arteries are identified by signs.
- ❖ Residents on side streets (not Emergency Arteries) are allowed to park on the EVEN SIDE of the street with resident parking permits this winter season.
- ❖ Overnight parking is prohibited without a resident parking permit all year. Permits are available at the Quincy Police Department.
- ❖ Vehicles in violation of winter parking rules will be towed at owner's expense. Also, if your vehicle is hampering snow plowing operations (i.e. parked too close to an intersection, etc.) it will be towed.
- ❖ The average tow fee is $125.00, plus cost of storage.
- ❖ No exceptions can be made for short-term (10-15 min.) parking.

To find out if a snow emergency has been declared call 617-770-7669 or log onto www.quincyma.gov.

For other snow concerns call the SNOW HOTLINE 617-376-1927.

Curbside Collection for the Holidays

There will be No curbside collection of trash or recycling on Tuesday, December 25 due to the Christmas holiday. Collection for the rest of the week will be delayed by one day.

There will be No curbside collection of trash or recycling on Tuesday, January 1 due to the New Year holiday. Collection for the rest of the week will be delayed by one day.

Christmas trees will be collected curbside during the week of January 7 through 11, on your regular trash day. Please remove all tree decorations. Please DO NOT wrap trees in plastic bags.

For the latest in Quincy Public School closings tune into the Quincy Educational Channel 22.

The DPW Yard

The DPW rear yard is closed on Saturdays until mid-April 2013.

The DPW rear yard is opens year-round Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. to accept yardwaste, recycling, TVs, monitors, appliances, metal, electronics, textiles, books, CDs and audio/video tapes.

The DPW yard cannot take trash or construction material. Please bring construction debris to the Braintree Transfer station, 257 Ivory St., Braintree. Quincy residents enjoy a special, 10 cents per-pound disposal rate. Call 781-843-6209 for more information.

The dangers of ice and snow begin at your front door!

Please keep your sidewalk and steps free and clear of snow and ice for the mail carrier, the oil delivery person, and police and fire this winter season. Don't force school children to walk in the street. Help your elderly neighbors to shovel.

Get the latest Alerts and information automatically sent to your e-mail or cell phone through CityLink. Sign-up at <http://www.quincyma.gov/CityLink/>

Get the City Newsletter containing links to news and information including construction updates, City Council agenda and calendar of events. Also get Alerts containing important up-to-the-minute information about events happening in our city, including snow emergency parking bans, school closings and public safety alerts.

THOMAS P. KOCH
MAYOR

Quincy Sends Toys - And Love - To Newtown
 Pages 4, 12, 25
Nicole Lee In U.S. Figure Skating Championship
 Page 24

69
 THOMAS CRAN PUBLIC LIBRARY
 PO BOX 699164
 QUINCY MA 02269-9164

The Quincy Sun

Historic Quincy's Hometown Weekly Newspaper Since 1968

VOL. 45 No. 15

Thursday, December 27, 2012

75¢

2012 IN QUINCY - THE YEAR IN REVIEW

A Look Back At The Top Stories Of 2012 - Starts On Page 2

Lynch Potential Candidate In Special U.S. Senate Election - Page 9
 Gala Raises $100,000 For Interfaith Social Services - Page 14
 Monday Last Day For Henry Bosworth Award Nominations - Page 13

For more Quincy news, visit:
The Quincy Sun.com

New Downtown, Other Projects Among Local Top News Stories

By SCOTT JACKSON

After years of planning, work on the $1.6 billion new downtown began in 2012 as Quincy started to re-route Town Brook.

The year began with developer Street-Works announcing a partnership agreement with the Beal Companies. By year's end Beal/Street-Works, as the partnership was now known, received approval for the first part of its downtown construction – the $120 million Merchants Row project. The city began its $10 million Town Brook project after receiving state approval and all appeals were resolved.

Quincy Center was not the only place for major construction. The Neponset Bridge repair project was completed in the fall. Shortly after that, Gov. Deval Patrick and local officials broke ground on a new Fore River Bridge. Work on a new Central Middle School continued as Mayor Tom Koch announced that the city would take a look at renovating or replacing Sterling. Meanwhile, the Montclair School celebrated its 100th anniversary.

2012 The Year In Review

Repair work on the clock tower at the United First Parish Church wrapped up. The City Council approved renovations for both old City Hall and Coddington Hall, at a combined cost of $18 million.

There was no city election in 2012, but Republican Sen. Scott Brown and Democratic challenger Elizabeth Warren both paid Quincy multiple visits. In the November election, Quincy went with the statewide trend and voted Brown out of office. Quincy also followed the nationwide trend, voting to give President Barack Obama a second term over former Gov. Mitt Romney.

Two Quincy residents who held statewide office were in the news in 2012.

Former Treasurer Tim Cahill was indicted and tried on public corruption charges; a hung jury led to a mistrial in that case after his co-defendant was acquitted. Frank Bellotti, a former lieutenant governor and attorney general, had the Quincy District Courthouse dedicated to him.

Quincy avoided major weather problems of past years. But an early June flood forced the evacuation of 30 houses in Merrymount. And Superstorm Sandy knocked out power to about 7,500 residences in the city.

Here's a month-by-month retrospect of the top news stories in Quincy during 2012:

JANUARY

Mayor Thomas Koch was sworn in for his third term by City Clerk Joseph Shea. During a 12-minute long address, the mayor said the City of Quincy stands on MAYOR THOMAS KOCH, sworn in to his third term as mayor in January at inauguration ceremonies at Quincy High School, said the city stood on the threshold of job growth and opportunity while pledging high achievement in education, public safety and public services.

Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

the threshold of job growth and opportunity while pledging high achievement in education, public safety, and public services. He also called on his colleagues in government in attendance to work together and to meet and exceed the challenges in front of them, invoking the words of former President Theodore Roosevelt.

"When history judges our deeds, let it be said that we met our challenges with courage and that we forged ahead with creativity and conviction," Mayor Koch said at the ceremony, held at Quincy High's auditorium.

"Ladies and gentlemen, we will continue to meet the needs of our citizens and lay the foundation for prosperity – and the triumph of high achievement – for our children and grandchildren."

During the speech, the mayor pledged several initiatives he plans on undertaking over the course of his two-year term. Those include a campaign to draw bio-tech firms to the city, $3 million in spending for roof repairs throughout the city, the installation of solar panels as part of a plan to reduce energy used by 20 percent over the next five years, delivery of a new ladder track to the fire department by month's end, and an expansion of the city's Drug Task Force and enhanced partnerships with Norfolk County Sheriff Michael Bellotti and Dist. Atty. Michael Morrissey.

Mayor Koch also took time in his speech to praise four outgoing elected officials – former City Councillors John Keenan, who chose not to run for re-election after winning a seat in the State Senate, and Daniel Raymondi, who was named Commissioner of Public Works after choosing not to seek re-election, and former School Committee members Jo-Ann Bragg and Elaine Dwyer. The mayor drew some laughs when he noted it hadn't snowed since Raymondi was appointed to his new post. The mayor also welcomed their replacements – Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall, Ward 5 Councillor Kirsten Hughes, and School Committee members Paul Bregoli and Kathy Hubley.

During the ceremony, the City Council unanimously

Con'd On Page 3

*Our best wishes to you and your family for a Happy and Healthy New Year.
- Mayor Tom and Christine Koch
and Family*

Petition To Save Winfield Tree, UFPC Bell Rings

Cont'd From Page 2

elected Michael McFarland as council president, but he was unable to attend the ceremony as he was hospitalized with flu-like symptoms.

McFarland, an at-large councillor, succeeded Ward 3 Councillor Kevin Coughlin as council president.

The School Committee also elected its leader during the inauguration, naming Barbara Isola vice chairperson by a unanimous vote. Isola succeeded Anne Mahoney as vice chair of the committee – Mayor Koch is the committee's chairperson. During her address at the ceremony, Isola urged her fellow committee members to be "creative and cost efficient."

"We are in the midst of a cultural sea change – having to do more with less," Isola said in her remarks. "Therefore, it is incumbent upon us to be creative and cost efficient."

Street-Works, the firm responsible for the $1.6 billion redevelopment announced the purchase of the Granite Trust Building at 1400 Hancock St. Street-Works purchased the building from Ronus Properties for $5.77 million, about $1 million less the building's assessed value of $6.79 million. Street-Works entered an agreement to purchase the building from Ronus in 2008.

Former Boston Celtic Chris Herren spoke to all of the city's high school students in four separate assemblies over the course of two days. Herren, a Fall River native, appeared in the ESPN documentary "Un-guarded," which detailed his struggles with drug addiction. "There's no reason to change who you are by drinking, smoking, becoming someone else," Herren told students at one of the assemblies, "because you're perfect the way you are."

Quincy Medical Center announced plans to build a new maternity ward. The maternity ward is planned to be 22,000 square feet large and is expected to cost $12.8 million. The state Department of Public Health needs to approve the plan before work on the ward can begin. The hospital's previous maternity serviced closed in 1998. QMC also plans an $11 million renovation of its surgical suite, a $3.4 million renovation of its parking area, and a $3 million lobby and reception area to be built in the hospital's rear.

2012 The Year In Review

Members of the Adams family mourned the loss of Arthur Ducharme, who passed away on Jan. 10. Ducharme had spent the previous 15 years as the director of the Historic Interactive Program at the United First Parish Church, known as "Church of the Presidents" because the tombs of both John and John Quincy Adams are in the church's basement. A funeral for Ducharme was held at the church on Jan. 14 where he was remembered as a great father and a loving man. He was also noted for his love of the Adamases. "I am certain he is up there having a cup of tea with them right now," said Jarrett McKay Adams.

Some 250 residents signed a petition to save the Winfield Elm. The 80-foot tall tree, which is thought to be over 100 years old, was set to be razed before construction of the new Central Middle School begins. Members of the Wollaston Garden Club were responsible for the petition. The club's president, Pat Artis, said she received mostly positive feedback regarding the petition. She also shared a study of the tree done by UMass forestry lab on behalf of the club, which found the tree to be in good condition. A study backed by the city, however, found heart rot in the tree.

Michael McFarland was sworn-in as City Council President on Jan. 17. After taking the oath of office, he vowed that the council would review and provide oversight over city projects. "Mayor Koch and his administration have laid out an aggressive agenda for the next two years," he said. "The role of the City Council is to provide review and oversight of these projects. We must continually review our expense and revenue budgets, debt service, and overall tax structure to insure the taxpayers that we are operating within our means."

For the first time in 25 years, the bell at the United First Parish Church could be heard ringing in Quincy Center. The old bell hadn't swung in years, and was taken down at the end of December. The new bell was hoisted into place on Jan. 25, and the bell could be heard ringing the next day.

The city received a new $709,000 ladder truck, purchased as part of the $25 million capital improvement plan (CIP). Fire Chief Joseph Barron said the truck, dubbed ladder 1, would replace an unreliable ladder truck from 2001.

Deaths during January 2012 included: Charles F. Anderson, Jr., 95, a retired Quincy Fire lieutenant; Grace M. Manna, 93, a bank teller; Kevin P. Collieran, a New England Telephone/NYNEX worker; Jill D. DiBona, 65, a bank teller; Ellen M. Lynch, a school teacher; John T. Luddy, a veteran and chief inspector for the MBTA; Mae D'Angelo, Quincy traffic supervisor; Robert J. Montgomery, a computer programmer for Liberty Mutual; James A. Tellier, 97, a railroad engineer; Norman E. Mahoney, a World War II Army veteran and chemist; Bertha

C. "Dolly" Smith, a retired traffic crossing supervisor; Kenneth J. Kearns, a union laborer and active member of St. Joseph's Church; Helen D. DeCross, 94, a retired Raytheon employee; Dorothy T. Norris, a retired supervisor for John Hancock Co.; Steven W. Guest, 57, a Marine veteran and bartender; Heather Lee Johnson, 50, principal clerk for the Weymouth DPW; Eleanor O. Villard, 58, an accountant at Boston Company, Multibank and Nellie Mae; Friel I. "Pete" Stacy, an Air Force veteran; Thirza Smith, 88, a hematologist at Quincy Hospital; Noca Pepdjonovic, 85, a retired building maintenance employee; Joan E. Willbridge, 75, a former Patriot Ledger employee; Virginia E. Cameron, a retired payroll clerk; Catherine Flaherty, 84, a payroll supervisor for

Cont'd On Page 15

REFURBISHED BRONZE BELL is positioned in the bell tower at United First Parish Church in January after being lifted into place by a crane. The new bell was struck – the first time a church bell had rung in several decades.

Quincy Sun Photo/Emily Taft

SPREAD HOLIDAY HAPPINESS...FREE!

Who says you have to spend money to have a memorable holiday? Give these a try – they're fun... and free!

Mend a quarrel. Keep a promise.
Gladden the heart of a child. Listen.
Seek out a long-lost friend. Give a soft answer.
Do a good deed anonymously.
Think before you speak. Apologize if you were wrong.
Share a treasure. Try to understand.
Let someone else go first. Welcome a stranger.
Appreciate the beauty and wonder of the earth.
And, while there's time, let people know
you're glad they're in your life.
That's the greatest gift of all.

Here's where we take our own advice:

To all our Colonial Federal customers & friends, thank you!
We appreciate you more than you will ever know.
From each and every one of us, happy holidays and a healthy, prosperous New Year to you and yours.

COLONIAL FEDERAL SAVINGS BANK

"Your neighborhood bank!"

QUINCY: 15 Beach Street 617-471-0750 • 1000 Southern Artery (Residents only) 617-479-1430
HOLBROOK: 802 South Franklin Street 781-767-1776
EAST WEYMOUTH: Middle & Washington Streets 781-331-1776 • www.colonialfed.com

Insured FDIC

QUINT'S
House
of Flowers
Family Owned & Operated
Since 1919

761 Southern Artery
QUINCY

617-773-7620

PAYING TOP DOLLAR for your unwanted jewelry!

APPRAISING,
BUYING &
SELLING...

Del Greco Coins

399 WASHINGTON STREET • ROUTE 53 • WEYMOUTH
LOCATED OFF RT. 3, EXIT 16A, TO RT. 53N

781.337.5069

HOURS: MONDAY - FRIDAY 9 - 5 • SATURDAY 9:30 - 2

The Quincy Sun

(USPS 453-060)
Published Weekly on Thursday by
The Quincy Sun Publishing Co., Inc.
1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

Robert H. Bosworth
Publisher and Editor

Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.
Founder
1968 - 2009

75¢ per copy. $25.00 per year by mail in Quincy
$30.00 per year by mail outside Quincy - $38.00 out-of-state

Telephone: 617-471-3100 Fax: 617-472-3963

email address:
thequincysun@verizon.net

Periodicals postage paid at Boston, MA
Postmaster Send address change to:
The Quincy Sun, 1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

The Quincy Sun assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Jan. 7, 1789, America's first presidential election is held as voters cast ballots to choose state electors. Only white men who owned property were allowed to vote. As expected, George Washington won the election and was sworn into office on April 30, 1789.

• On Jan. 12, 1928, a young pianist from Kiev named Vladimir Horowitz makes his American debut at Carnegie Hall. Sir Thomas Beecham, guest conductor of the New York Philharmonic, was the headliner, but it was the young Russian pianist playing Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1 who stole the show.

• On Jan. 11, 1937, nearly two weeks into a sit-down strike by General Motors auto workers at the Fisher Body Plant in Flint, Mich., a riot breaks out when police try to prevent the strikers from receiving food deliveries from supporters on the outside. The melee was later nicknamed the "Battle of the Running Bulls."

• On Jan. 10, 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Lend-Lease program is brought before the U.S. Congress. It gave the chief executive the power to "sell, transfer title to, exchange, lease, lend or otherwise dispose of" any military resources he deemed in the ultimate interest of the defense of the United States.

• On Jan. 8, 1962, at the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C., Leonardo da Vinci's masterpiece, the Mona Lisa, is exhibited for the first time in America. The painting is a portrait of the wife of wealthy Florentine citizen Francesco del Gioconda.

• On Jan. 9, 1972, in Hong Kong harbor, a fire breaks out aboard the Queen Elizabeth, and by the next morning the famous vessel lies in a wreck on the bottom of the sea floor. After being purchased in 1970 by C.W. Tung, a Taiwanese shipping tycoon, the vessel was renamed the Seawise University.

• On Jan. 13, 1982, an Air Florida Boeing 727 plunges into the Potomac River in Washington, D.C., killing 78 people. The plane was forced to wait 45 minutes for clearance after de-icing, and at the end of the runway was able to achieve only a few hundred feet of altitude.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Schlager's Auto Body Collects Toys For Operation Jersey Shore Santa

Schlager's Auto Body and Repair, Inc. of Quincy was among the members of the Statewide Towing Association that recently participated in a toy drive for families devastated by Hurricane Sandy.

Schlager's collected toys that were part of Operation

Jersey Shore Santa. Over $10,000 toys and more than $5,000 in gift cards were donated to this worthy cause.

The toys were delivered by two flatbed tow trucks to needy families of Matawan, NJ, a community devastated by Hurricane Sandy.

Son Beams

By ROBERT BOSWORTH

Lots Of Toys – And Love – For Newtown

They came carrying bags of toys and clutching gifts for little girls and boys.

Some were adults who quietly handed the toy-stuffed bags to volunteers. Others were children who walked proudly with a gift or two because they knew they were doing an act of love and kindness.

It was Saturday and Ryan and Meredith Craig of Quincy and a host of volunteers held a toy drive at Pageant Field to benefit the families who lost young children in the horrific tragedy at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, CT Dec. 14.

It wasn't only toys that people brought. Some handed checks or cash. Others gas cards to help fuel the two trucks carrying toys from Quincy to Newtown Sunday morning.

But most of all, those trucks were loaded with lots of love from local residents. Some wrote down their heart-felt expressions on a large white banner that was also delivered with the toys.

One family wrote "Merry Christmas and God Bless You All this Christmas." Another added: "Hugs, hugs and more hugs."

As he glanced over at more toys being dropped off, Ryan Craig put it simply:

"We're doing something but everybody is doing something. Everybody in the city is contributing. It's been a very, very positive experience."

It is Quincy's way of showing how much this community cares about Sandy Hook – a town 158 miles away.

The Craigs came up with the idea for the toy drive shortly after that terrible day that left a nation in mourning.

"We were feeling terrible about what happened there. We have three young children who about the same age as the kids (innocent victims) and we were devastated ourselves."

As parents, they thought about the young children lost. They also thought about the grief-stricken parents who may not have been able to provide a Christmas this year.

"We thought collecting toys would help," Ryan says, wearing a white tee shirt with the words "Toy Drive for the Families of Sandy Hook Elementary" spelled out in green lettering. The colors match Sandy Hook's colors.

"Some of these kids receiving the toys may have lost a sibling. Or they may have lost a good friend. And the parents may not be able to go out and buy presents."

"We figured a toy drive would help these kids have a Christmas."

The toy drive was coordinated with an employee of the Social Services Department for the Town of Newtown.

"We had a conversation and I asked her, 'what could we do? What do you need?'"

"I told her we were planning on doing a toy drive and we will get whatever they need. She focused on the kids in the elementary school in kindergarten through grade 5. That was their biggest need and that's what we focused on."

Ryan and other volunteers left Sunday morning on a two and a half-hour drive to Newtown with enough toys to fill a store. The toys were dropped off at the town's Park and Recreation warehouse where they were checked and sorted before delivery by Christmas to the families directly impacted by the tragedy.

"That was one of our main goals. If we're going to do this, the 20 families that were directly affected will get these toys," he said.

Any surplus toys were distributed to other families in Newtown first and then to local charities.

It's a few hours into the toy drive on Saturday morning. Many folks are huddled in small groups, some sipping coffee as a blustery wind makes a sunny December morning feel more like late January.

Related Story On Page 12, Other Photos Page 25

RYAN AND MEREDITH Craig organized last Saturday's toy drive to benefit the families who lost children in the Newtown, CT tragedy Dec. 14. Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

One of the trucks is more than half-filled already with six more hours of toy collection before the good deed is done.

"The turnout has been unbelievable," Ryan says. "The people of Quincy have really stepped it up. It makes me feel proud to be from the City of Quincy the way that everybody has come together. It's been very moving."

It times of tragedy and helplessness, there's always hopefulness and blessing.

"There's a lot of goodness in this world and a lot of it's coming from Quincy right now," Ryan says. "We're going to send two truckloads of toys to the people of Newtown."

"This will be a Christmas that we'll never forget."

THERE WILL BE another opportunity to help the people of Newtown next month.

Quincy Youth Baseball and Softball will be collecting donations at a Family Day Saturday, Jan. 12 at the Marine Bay Sportsplex. The organization will be collecting $5 for each child who attends the Family Day. Donations will benefit the Sandy Hook School Support Fund.

While many may not have known about Newtown before the Dec. 14th tragedy, some in Quincy became quite familiar with the town this past summer.

Newtown is where the Quincy American 12-Year-old baseball team competed in the Cal Ripken New England Regional Tournament last July. The field where the team played is about three miles from the Sandy Hook Elementary School.

Mike Lynch, one of the team's coaches and active with Quincy Youth Baseball and Softball, says the community of Newtown – a town full of "100 year-old homes with farmer's porches and streets lined with American flags – "could not have been more kind to our players, coaches and families" during the team's stay.

"We arrived on a rainy Friday with the hopes of participating in an opening ceremony and skills competition at the baseball field. However, they quickly rescheduled all events to an indoor facility to ensure that our week started off the way the players and their families had hoped," Lynch recalled.

"After the events, we moved down the road to the local middle school for a pasta dinner where Newtown volunteers of all ages were ready and willing to help us however they could. Before the first game each team played, they asked a mother from each team to throw out the first pitch. Clearly, they were more focused on celebrating and acknowledging the participating teams and their families."

"It's difficult to think that the families that we met that week, and were involved in making this a memorable experience for us, are having to deal with this tragedy."

Scenes From Yesterday

THIS IS A 1909 real photo postcard view of Brewers Corner in South Quincy looking from the end of Garfield Street east down Water Street. Granite Street crosses in the foreground going up the hill on the left to Quincy Square. The store on the left now has a more commercial façade and is home to Brewers Corner Liquors. On the right the buildings are all gone with the corner now home to The Granite Street Cafe. The trolley tracks on the right ran from Quincy Center along Water, Copeland and Willard Streets to East Milton Square. To contact Tom Galvin, e-mail tmgalvin@verizon.net.

From the Collection of City Historian Tom Galvin

Quincy's Yesterdays

This Week
1962
50 Years Ago

Shea Elected City Council President

Charles Shea was elected city council president in one of the most dramatic elections in recent history.

As City Clerk John Gillis read the roll call, Councillor John Quinn had four votes when his name was called. He voted for Shea. Had he voted for himself, he would have been elected president, but he wanted to keep his prior commitment to vote for Shea.

Shea was elected by a 5-to-4 vote with his vote, Quinn's, and those of Councillors Carl Anderson, James McCormack, and David McIntosh. Voting for Quinn were Councillors Richard Barry, George Burke, George McDonald, and Joseph LaRaia.

In other action at the council's organizational meeting, Percy Lane was re-elected clerk of committees for his 23rd year. A moment of silence was observed for former Mayor William Bradford who died the week before.

DELLA CHIESA BOOSTS HIGH RISE

In his 22-page inaugural address, Mayor Amelio Della Chiesa boosted high rise apartment construction as the best way to shift the tax burden from the homeowner.

"Unless measures are taken in this direction there is very little hope of maintaining a reasonable tax rate." He noted it was virtually impossible to reduce taxes by trying to reduce the cost of government, noting that the salary increase for the year was $1.4 million.

He referred to the proposed $3 million North Quincy project as a step in the right direction.

Despite a call by the Quincy Taxpayers Association, the mayor did not mention the need for tax equalization in the city, even though he supported it in the past.

ROTARY HOSTS WOODWARD SCHOOL

The Quincy Rotary Club hosted Woodward School Principal Katherine Bacon and 12 members of the Madrigal singers at its weekly luncheon at the Hollow Restaurant.

Miss Bacon outlined the history of the school that had an enrollment of 75 students, all Quincy born, with a faculty of 14.

Among the directors of the school were Quincy Co-op Bank President Heslip Southerland, Judge James Mulhall, and Robert Blair of South Shore National Bank.

QUINCY-ISMS

Reuben Grossman was negotiating for the purchase of the Art Theater that closed last month after 40 years of operations. B and Q Associates of Boston, who owned the Art, also rented the Strand, the last movie theater in Quincy Center.

Charles Sweeny was elected vice chairman of the school committee, succeeding Wendell Clark who served in that post for 16 years. The biggest American flag tanker, the SS Manhattan, left Fore River for three days of sea trials.

Quincy's New Year's Eve baby, Victoria Faith Geddes, was born at Quincy City Hospital at 2:45 a.m. Twenty-eight members of the DiMazio family attended the family reunion at the DiMazio rink in Houghs Neck.

The Quincy High School basketball team defeated two tough competitors this week: undefeated Chelsea and Somerville. A funeral was held at Christ Church for constable Frederick Carson of Russell Park.

Dist. Atty. Myron Lane held a mock trial for 150 members of the GOP Women's group meeting at the YMCA. The city continued its fight for 43 acres of MDC land for cemetery purposed with the filing of legislation by Reps. Della Chiesa and James McIntyre for land near the Quincy-Braintree line.

A $100 a plate dinner was held at Joseph's Restaurant in Braintree for Quincy Democrat Frank Bellotti, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor. Tuano Rapo was the new moderator at the West Quincy Congregational Church.

Mrs. Howard McGlaughlin, president the Catholic Club, presented a check for $2,500 to Rt. Rev. Richard Hawko for the Star of the Sea building fund. Thirty students signed up for Russian classes offered by the Quincy Evening Adult School. Five passed the Civil Service exam for clerk stenographer in the school department: Hope Cole of Willow Ave., Alice Greene of West Elm Ave., Mary Moore of Trevore St., Mary McDermott of Waterston Ave., and Shirley Paulson of Edwin St.

READERS FORUM

Republican Wafflers Have Over-Stayed Their Welcome

Frank McCauley's recent article bemoaning the fact that the Tea Party torpedoed Mitt Romney and blew a few Senate seats, while true, is only part of the story.

Guys like me got tired of Republican backstabbers who went down the bipartisan road; which was usually a one-way street. Their favorite term "consensus" meant sacrificing principle to appease the Democrats.

Here in Massachusetts, the Republican State Committees repeatedly sold out for a few measly scraps in exchange for being allowed to win a few elective offices of no consequence and a few figurehead governorships, like Romney's. McCauley's party died with Christian Herter and John Volpe. Democrats like King, Peabody and Furcolo had more honor than all the lightweights we have seen since; Republican and Democrat alike.

Scott Brown, the last turncoat I will ever support, sealed his doom when he kissed up to Barney Frank and the McCain/Snowe faction of the Democrat party; immediately upon occupying the Kennedy seat. The liberals ridiculed him and independents like me told him he was finished. I didn't bother to vote for senator this last time around.

Ronald Reagan, the last great Republican president we will probably see, was hated by the Eastern establishment. George H.W. Bush would have destroyed Reagan's legacy if he had won a second term. When his son got in, fossils like John McCain, who proved that he would have been worse as a President, made life miserable for "Dubbya" and sabotaged him at every opportunity.

The Tea Party has some work to do but, the Republican wafflers have overstayed their welcome. I say to hell with them and the flaming wild-eyed liberals and good luck to the Tea Party.

Chuck Fazio
Fenno Street

Sensible Reuse Of Our Buildings

I remember when Quincy had 28 elementary schools, if memory serves. The school population got smaller when the boomers listened to the overpopulation fanatics and had only enough kids to replace the existing population.

Quincy, like many other communities, closed lots of schools in response to their lack of demand. This was a logical response and no one really objected, it was a reality.

What Quincy did was sell off these wonderful old buildings instead of leasing them for some indefinite period of time. We were told that because there were old buildings that they were not ever going to be retrofitted for alternate use or later reclaim from lease to reopen as schols. Almost every one of these buildings has been remodeled and serve as condos and office buildings. Our population is now on the rise and we should have some of these buildings available for reuse by the city, but in its short-sighted response they were sold for what we now know is far less than what it would cost us to replace them.

I suggest that the city either retrofit the High School and Central Middle for other uses, or use them as annexes for the existing schools. There is a proposal to renovate Sterling, a wonderful building, but our kids from Sterling could occupy the High School until the job is done.

The Town of Rockland went from five elementary schools in the late 60's to two when the population was down. They wisely leased the others out until they needed them back, they are up to four again.

If we don't think these buildings can be renovated, I suggest a short ride to Hull and tour the Memorial

Middle School, a beautiful renovation. And if you believe that the schools we foolishly sold off were useless old buildings, I suggest you took at them today. Gridley Bryant, Solomon Willard, Mass Fields, Quincy School, Cranch are just a few of those "unusable" buildings we lost, yet they still are in use by others at a profit today.

Bob Littler
Bass Street

Don't Bite Off More Than You Can Chew

Sucker punch No. 2, this one from Beal/Street Works. We cannot continue the project without 27 liquor licenses in our hands.

You're taking big bucks - some people would give their right arm to get a liquor license.

Why do they always have a reason why they can't start the project? There are too many back room deals going on with this project.

The mayor knew about the licenses and not the City Council. Is that a way to sham the people of Quincy if the only way we can get people in the new Quincy is by giving them a liquor license?

I say junk the whole billion dollar project before it's too late. Beal/Street Works, go to bed with the give me's and wake up with the wants.

We all agree Quincy Center needs a pick up.

Don't bite off more than you can chew.

Like I always say, big isn't always better.

John Isaac
Shaw Street

Arts & Entertainment

THE ATRIUM GARDEN at the Thomas Crane Library is decked out for the winter with more than a dozen bamboo tuteurs of different sizes, painted in the warm colors of red, orange and yellow. Garden designer, Claire Fitzmaurice hopes that these tuteurs will discourage foot traffic through the perennial garden when many of the plants have died back and also provide some exciting winter interest.

STUDENT MEMBERS of Operations Days Work from Broad Meadows Middle School with their advisor, Ron Adams, and Claire Fitzmaurice from the Wollaston Garden Club and the Friends of the Thomas Crane Library celebrate the completion of the planting of 550 crocus, daffodil and red emperor tulip bulbs at the Atrium Garden and the Childrens' Peace Garden at the main branch of the Thomas Crane Library.

Perennial Gardens Created At Thomas Crane Library Main Branch

This past summer, the Thomas Crane Library's 'Atrium Garden' on the Washington Street side of the library's grounds was ablaze with color from the newly planted perennial flower beds.

Work on the Atrium Garden began in late April when the beds were weeded and the soiled tilled and amended.

Ron Adams and 20 students from Operation Days Work from Broad Meadows Middle School under the guidance of Claire Fitzmaurice and Civic Beautification committee members of the Wollaston Garden Club worked on this beautification project then, and later on Cleaner Greener Quincy day.

The Wollaston Garden Club and the Friends of the Thomas Crane Library purchased the large granite boulder that anchors the garden and Fitzmaurice selected the perennials and planted them throughout the summer with the help of garden club volunteers.

Perennials included in the flower beds are: creeping phlox, hens and chicks, daylilies, sedum, gaillardia, echinacea, lavender, rudebeckia, and a variety of grasses. A young yellow tree peony and a spirea are protected beneath bamboo tripods. Stage three involves planting on the slope adjacent to the library's Atrium.

This fall, the beds were planted with spring-blooming crocus, daffodils, and tulips purchased by the garden club and planted by Operation Days Work students. A system of tuteurs (bamboo guardians) were installed in the past few weeks to protect the garden beds over the winter from foot traffic and to provide "winter interest"; those tuteurs were purchased by the TCPL Friends.

Both the garden club and the TCPL Friends appreciate the work of library staff, particularly, Kevin Mele, in helping to set up irrigation systems, and clear invasive weeds from the parking lot beds. The renovation of the library gardens has involved collaboration from many groups, including Library Director Harry Williams III and his Board of Trustees and staff; the Wollaston Garden Club, The Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library, Operation Days Work from Broad Meadows Middle School, QATV staff, The Home Depot, the Quincy DPW and the Quincy Parks Department. "It takes a village to make a beautiful garden" says project manager, Claire Fitzmaurice.

Puzzled about your future?

Let us help you put the pieces together.

Regina Russell's Tea Room

We have been in the Psychic business since 1973.
Walk-in service & private readings by appointment.
Psychics available for home and office parties.

Phone Readings Available: 888-655-3456

Open Monday thru Friday 10:30 am - 9:30 pm
Saturday & Sunday 10:30 am - 5:00 pm

40 Franklin Street - Quincy, MA - Phone: 617-472-9606
Free weekly horoscopes on our website: www.rtsroom.com

Find us on Facebook
Highlights of Local Programming found on...

QATV

Quincy Access Television
88 Washington Street
Quincy, MA 02169
617-376-1440

Public Access Channel 8

Government Access Channel 11

Thursday, December 27th:
7:00pm: NQHS vs. QHS Girls Basketball
10:00pm: Freddy K

Friday, December 28th:
5:30pm: Sound Advice
7:00pm: QHS Holiday Concert

Saturday, December 29th:
2:00pm: NQHS Holiday Concert
7:00pm: ENC Messiah Concert

Sunday, December 30th:
11:00am: Eye on Quincy
10:00pm: The Constitution: Then & Now

Monday, December 31st:
12:00pm: Quincy In Focus: December 2012
10:00pm: Quincy In Focus Year in Review

Tuesday, January 1st:
12:00pm: Quincy In Focus Year in Review
6:00pm: Quincy In Focus Year in Review

Wednesday, January 2nd:
6:00pm: Good News
9:00pm: Free Our Voices

Thursday, December 27th:
7:00pm: In Your Neighborhood Ward 2
8:30pm: At the Library: January

Friday, December 28th:
7:00pm: Fire Prevention & You: Home Safety
8:00pm: In Your Neighborhood Ward 2

Saturday/Sunday, December 29th/30th:
11:00am: Crime Watch: Scams Revisted
11:30am: At the Library: January
12:00pm: Quincy In Focus Year in Review
3:00pm: At the Library: Concert Series
Lisa Yves & Friends

Monday, December 31st:
6:00pm: Crime Watch: 911/Pedestrian's
7:00pm: Quincy In Focus Year in Review

Tuesday, January 1st:
12:00pm: Quincy In Focus Year in Review
6:00pm: Health Links: Fitness Centers

Wednesday, January 2nd:
6:00pm: In the Know: Influenza
6:30pm: FYI:QHD Costochondritis

Programming is subject to change. For a complete list of programs, please consult our website at www.qatv.org

332 Victory Road,
Marina Bay, MA 02171
617 471-3511

Celebration

New Years Eve Masquerade Party

Be who ever you want to be!!

Monday, December 31 @ 8:00 PM

$29.99 per person

DJ Hammer 9PM-2AM

Includes 4 Course Dinner

Champagne Toast @ Midnight

Breakfast Sandwiches, Cheese Pizza

& Coffee @ 1 AM

Make Your Reservations Now!!

Cover Charge After 10:30 PM $10.00

Go to website for Dinner Specials!
www.captainfishbones.com

GLORIA MARINI

Quincy Sun Photo/Emily Taft

Gloria Marini Celebrating 100 Years Young Jan. 7

By EMILY TAFT

On Jan. 7th Quincy native Gloria Marini will celebrate her 100th birthday, a milestone she says she never thought would happen.

"I never thought I would make it to 100," said Marini. "It must be in my genes, my mother lived till she was 97."

At 100-years-old Marini is still active, with a sharp memory of the past, and she continues to keep up with the headlines of today, she even voted in the last election.

"I believe Woodrow Wilson was president when I was young, but I wasn't really into politics until I was older," said Marini. "I have voted in every election, I voted in the last one."

Marini grew up in West Quincy, her front yard faced Larry St. and her backyard was Furnace Brook Parkway. She said things in the city are a lot different now than they were when she was growing up. Marini remembers growing up with dirt roads, cows grazing in the fields near her home, paying only 25 cents for a loaf of bread, and being paid $10 a week was a stable income.

"We lived on a dirt road when I was young, in what was the Ward 4 section of Quincy," said Marini. "I remember being paid the large sum of $15 to be a checker during the elections. My mother was so happy because in those days $15 was a lot of money."

In 1918 her father died leaving her mother to care for four young children. Marini went to Quincy High School for three years but never graduated because she decided to take a job at a furniture store to help her mom pay the bills.

"Things were tough. My mother wasn't receiving aid anymore because her kids weren't young anymore, so I went to work for a furniture store and left school," said Marini. "I had taken a business course in high school so I was hired to write letters to those customers at the furniture store that weren't paying their bills. I was paid $10 a week, and that was a lot of money to somebody who had nothing."

At the time Marini was hired, four furniture stores existed on Hancock Street but as the recession grew worse the stores began to go out of business.

"When I worked on Hancock St. it was beautiful," said Marini. "Everything has changed since then. With all the new plans for the center I wouldn't be able to recognize Hancock St."

In 1937 she married John Marini, a man who worked in the printing business with his brother, the pair made a combine total of $30 a week, which Marini said was a salary they could live off of at the time.

"We decided to get married because he made $20 a week and I was making $10 so we thought we would be ok. We couldn't afford a Mass so we got married in the rectory where the priest lives," said Marini. "We went to New York by Greyhound bus for our honeymoon and when we returned I went to work and found that the store had closed. You couldn't even buy a job during that time. It was the great depression, you were lucky to have a job."

Marini and her husband spent 8 years in Connecticut helping family until his death when she decided to move back to Quincy, she left her home a few years ago to live in Braintree.

Marini is known throughout her family as the woman who is always willing to help others, and for some she has been an inspiration.

"She is and always has been a great inspiration for her family," said nephew Gerry DeSantis. "She has a great positive attitude, can always laugh, and has been a selfless, caring woman her entire life."

12 ON 12-12-12 - Emma Peterson, a sixth grade student at the Broad Meadows Middle School, recently celebrated her 12th birthday on Dec. 12 - a numerical oddity (12/12/2012) that won't be repeated for another 88 years (Jan. 1, 2101.) Emma, the daughter of Roy and Diane Peterson of Houghs Neck, enjoys tap dancing and jazz dancing. She also enjoys playing the flute in the band and being with her friends.

Winter Survival For Seniors At Kennedy Center Jan. 18

Ruth Jones, BSN, RN, BC, CP-FS of the Quincy Health Department will discuss "winter survival" tips for seniors at the Kennedy Center, 440 East Squantum St., Quincy, Friday, Jan. 18 at 10 a.m.

Participants will learn tips and precautions for cold weather.

Refreshments will be served.

Registration is required as space is limited. Call the Quincy Council on Aging at 617-376-1506; have your member ID number ready.

Maintaining Memory Topic

A program focusing on tips to improve one's memory will be held Friday, Jan. 11 at 10:30 a.m. at the Kennedy Center, 440 East Squantum St., Quincy.

The fun presentation is for elders and their family members. Light refreshments will be served.

Registration is required. Call 617-376-1506.

CPR Certification Course Jan. 15

Health Ed of New England will hold a CPR AED certification course for childcare providers and the public Tuesday, Jan. 15 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Christ Church, 12 Quincy Ave., Quincy.

Learn to save the life of an adult, child and infant victim. The cost is $40 per person.

The course, sponsored

'Ted' Comedy At Library Tonight

The 2012 comedy "Ted" will be shown tonight (Thursday) at 7 p.m. at the Thomas Craen Public Library, 40 Washington St., Quincy.

Directed by Seth MacFarlane, the film stars Mark Wahlberg, Mila Kunis and McFarlane. The 106-minute movie is rated R.

The screening is sponsored by the Friends of the Thomas Crane Public Library.

For more information, call 617-376-1316.

Social

A YOUNG 100 - Vasilika Anastas of Quincy celebrated her 100th birthday with about 100 residents at 125 Granite Street. Vasilika came to the United States from Albania in 1933. A former South Boston resident, she has lived at 125 Granite St. for the past 12 years. Ward 3 Councillor Kevin Coughlin presented Vasilika with a City Council commendation in recognition of this special milestone. She is highly and affectionately regarded by her neighbors and recently had her license renewed by the Registry of Motor Vehicles and is quite capable and independent.

QUINCY GIRL SCOUT Lindsay Schrier (right) recently presented the Leading Women Award to Beth I. Z. Boland, Partner, Bingham McCutchen LLP at Girl Scouts of Eastern Massachusetts' 21st annual Leading Women Awards Breakfast. Schrier, a 16-year-old Ambassador Girl Scout, has been involved in Girl Scouts for 11 years. She has participated in a number of exciting activities as a Girl Scout, such as her trip to Costa Rica this summer. For ten days, Schrier and Girl Scouts from all over the country camped out on the beach, learned to surf, zip lined, and went white water rafting. When she's not busy with Girl Scout activities, Schrier serves as the Treasurer of her Student Council and acts in school plays. She loves studying politics and government, and hopes to pursue a career in business or computer programming.

Ring in the New Year with a New Look! Call for your appointment today!

HAIRPLACE ONE
85 QUINCY AVENUE

Call for Appt. 617-472-1060

PLENTY OF PARKING

www.hairplaceone.com

Marie's Kitchen

BY MARIE D'OLIMPIO

Nancy's Portabella Pizza

There's nothing like a delicious slice of hot pizza, but today's recipe as made with portabella mushrooms—a delicious alternative to regular pizza.

I made them after tasting them at my daughter Nancy's house. They are prepared exactly the same way and with the same ingredients as a regular cheese, tomato pizza. She used Parmesan cheese instead of the traditional mozzarella cheese. It added a zing to the flavor.

Portabella Pizza

½ cup or so of tomato sauce

Parmesan shredded cheese
Oregano or favorite herb
Salt and pepper to taste

Rinse and dry the mushrooms. Pour sauce into the cavity. Sprinkle the oregano or basil or whatever herb you prefer. Add the Parmesan cheese and bake in a 350-degree oven for 30 minutes. They are light and tasty and of course much lower in calories.

P.S. Any other kind of stuffing can be used — from a bread stuffing to clams and then some.

Anita's Mexican Appetizer

Ever since I started writing recipes, sporadically I will get a phone call from either one of my children, or a relative or friend telling me about a new recipe they have tried and might it be one I would want to put in the paper.

And so it was last week when my niece Anita called me from Arizona to tell me about a Mexican appetizer she was fixing for the holidays.

It sounds delicious and so simple to make.

MEXICAN APPETIZER

1-14 ounce- can stewed tomatoes (drained)

8 ounces shredded cheddar cheese

2-3 slices Velveeta cheese
4 ounce can of diced or chopped green chili's garlic powder
Chili powder

In a casserole dish, place a layer of tomatoes on the bottom. Sprinkle a layer of the cheddar cheese, then the chilies, and the garlic powder over that. Top with the Velveeta cheese. She said she cut the cheese diamond shape for a nicer presentation.

There are two ways of cooking this appetizer. Either on high in the microwave for 10 minutes, or a 300-degree oven for 15 minutes.

Use any kind of a cracker or chip.

SOUTH SHORE MENTAL Health President and CEO Harry Shulman (center) accepts a $10,000 donation in behalf of SSMH from The Conrad Group/Quincy. Making the presentation are Paul McCourt (left) and Bob Conrad of The Conrad Group.

South Shore Mental Health Receives $10,000 Donation From The Conrad Group

South Shore Mental Health (SSMH) announces it has received a $10,000 donation from The Conrad Group/Quincy.

The gift was given in support of SSMH's 2nd Annual Building Hope, Changing Lives Breakfast being held on May 15, 2013. The gift will support the programs and services of SSMH.

"The Conrad Group is proud to be a major sponsor of South Shore Mental Health's Annual Building Hope/Changing Lives Campaign," said Robert Conrad, president and founder. "For the past 25 years, we have seen how important South Shore Mental Health's services are to thousands of citizens from Boston to Cape Cod. Their tireless effort and enthusiasm is amazing."

Paul McCourt, Principal at the Conrad Group, added:

"We believe that SSMH's work in the community is vital to ensuring a healthy community and eliminating the stigma associated with mental illness and it is our hope by providing support to SSMH we can help them provide access to programs and services to those who are in most in need."

Harry Shulman, president and CEO of SSMH said, "South Shore Mental Health is very appreciative of The Conrad Group's generous gift which will help SSMH meet the increasing demand for our services in a time of funding reductions."

The Building Hope, Changing Lives breakfast will be held May 15 8:30 a.m. at Lombardo's in Randolph, MA. For more information contact Amy Katz - akatz@ssmh.org.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Join us New Year's Day for breakfast or lunch and help us celebrate our 25th year in business.

I would like to thank the visitors and citizens of Quincy for their loyal patronage over the years. Bring this coupon during the month of January for a

Early American Restaurant Est. 1988
Breakfast & Lunch
Best Burgers in Town

FREE EARLY BIRD SPECIAL

7AM - 2PM Monday-Friday

2 eggs, homefries, bacon, sausage or ham toast & coffee or juice

expires 1/31/13

1054 Hancock Street • 617-328-8225

Thanks again.
Sincerely,
Jeff Barcelo

Injured in an accident?
Should you talk to a lawyer?

Absolutely yes!

After an accident, you may be in shock. You've been hurt. Chances are you've never had anything like this happen before. You aren't sure what to do next, or who you can trust. That's exactly why you should talk to us. At Bates & Riordan, we are experienced attorneys representing individuals and families on the South Shore. We specialize in putting the pieces together — protecting your interests and making sure you're treated fairly — after an accident. If you've been injured, call Deborah Bates Riordan or Theodore Riordan at 617-328-8080 to see how we can help you. (That conversation and your first meeting with us are absolutely free.)

BATES & RIORDAN, LLP
~ On your side ~

645 Hancock Street, Wollaston/Quincy • 617-328-8080 • BatesRiordan.com

ATTENTION QUINCY RESIDENTS
DUE TO THE NEW YEARS HOLIDAY,
TUESDAY, JAN. 1, 2013, TRASH
PICKUP WILL BE DELAYED BY ONE
DAY BEGINNING ON TUESDAY.
Capitol Waste, Inc.

On Possible Campaign In Special Senate Election

Cong Lynch: 'Big Decisions To Make'

By ROBERT BOSWORTH

Cong. Stephen F. Lynch, who will be sworn in as Quincy's representative in the House of Representatives Jan. 3, is considering a possible run for the U.S. Senate seat that will likely become vacant since Sen. John Kerry has been nominated as Secretary of State by President Barack Obama.

Kerry's nomination is expected to be confirmed by the U.S. Senate. The state's senior senator would have to resign the Senate seat he has held since 1985 to serve as Secretary of State, a post that is fourth in line to the Presidency.

Kerry's current Senate term expires in 2014. His departure would likely set off a scramble for his seat and would require a special election to fill his unexpired term after an interim senator is named by Gov. Deval Patrick.

Among those considered potential candidates in a special election is Cong. Lynch. The popular South Boston Democrat — who won a seventh term in November defeating Republican newcomer Joseph Selvaggi — will be sworn in Jan. 3. Lynch will represent the new 9th District which includes Quincy.

On Friday, after a request from The Quincy Sun, Lynch's office released this statement regarding a potential campaign in a special U.S. Senate election:

STEPHEN LYNCH

"Firstly, Senator John Kerry's nomination for U.S. Secretary of State is a tremendous honor and a credit to Massachusetts. It is a well-deserved achievement. I congratulate him and wish him every success.

"As for my own plans, right now I am focused on the few days left for Congress to avoid the fiscal cliff. After that, I will have some big decisions to make."

If Lynch were to seek the Senate seat and win, another special election would have to be called to fill his unexpired Congressional term that also expires in 2014.

Republican Sen. Scott Brown, who was unseated by Democrat Elizabeth Warren in November, is considered a likely candidate for a vacant Kerry seat.

Mayor: Merchants Row Approval 'Major Milestone'

By SCOTT JACKSON

Mayor Tom Koch called the Planning Board's 4-0 vote to approve Beal/Street-Works' $120 million Merchants Row proposal a major milestone in the $1.6 billion redevelopment of Quincy Center.

"This is another major milestone for our historic downtown redevelopment project, and one that sets in motion construction to begin in early 2013," Koch said. "Quincy Center revitalization has been talked about for decades, and we are now making it a reality thanks to the hard work of so many people."

The board had previously reviewed the proposal in two different meetings over the course of several weeks. It gave final approval last Thursday night, and issued a series of conditions.

Those conditions include that remaining issues in the peer review of the proposal need to be addressed to the satisfaction of Planning Director Dennis Harrington and Inspectional Services Director Jay Duca before a building permit is issued; utility work will take place in conjunction with the Department of Public Works; final design of public improvements and a schedule for their construction is due within 90 days; plans for a LEED silver residential rating need to be submitted to the Planning Board; and a construction timeline needs to be filed when a demolition permit is issued.

Prior to the vote the board waived the requirements for a percolation test and a wind test. In a prior meeting, Street-Works co-founder Richard asked that the wind test requirement be waived because of $250,000 price tag and three to four month waiting period. The board also waived a requirement that a parking management plan be submitted. Harrington said that plan would not be submitted until the entire plan for the remainder of step one is put forward.

"That requirement relates solely to the entire step one of this project not this single building," Harrington said. "It is an impossibility."

Merchants Row, built on a wedge-shaped parcel of anchored by the Granite Trust Building and bounded by Hancock Street, Cottage Avenue, and Chestnut Street, will include two new buildings offering street-level retail and residential units — the 15-story Kilroy and the five-story Granite Trust Lofts. The Granite Trust Building will also be renovated as part of the project.

During previous Planning Board meetings, it was discovered that the top floors of the Kilroy would

Cont'd On Page 10

COPELAND PACKAGE STORE

273 Copeland Street - Quincy 617-471-5418

NEW YEAR'S SPECIALS

Bud Light		Budweiser		Michelob
BUD & BUD LIGHT	$17.79	BUD & BUD LIGHT	$17.79	NATURAL ICE & LIGHT	$15.99
24 Bottle Loose	PLUS DEPOSIT	24 Cans Loose	PLUS DEPOSIT	30 Pack	PLUS DEPOSIT
MILLER LITE	$19.99	COORS LIGHT	$19.99	CORONA EXTRA	$22.99
30 Pack	PLUS DEPOSIT	30 Pack	PLUS DEPOSIT	24 Bottle Loose	PLUS DEPOSIT
CAPT. MORGAN ORIGINAL	$27.99	SMIRNOFF 80 PROOF	$19.99	SOUTHERN COMFORT	$25.99
1.75 ML		1.75 ML		1.75 ML
HENNESSY BLACK	$33.99	HENNESSY V.S.	$29.99	BAILEY'S ORIG. COFFEE & MINT Caramel	$24.99
750 ML		750 ML		750 ML
CROWN ROYAL	$26.99	KETEL ONE VODKA	$39.99	BAILEYS ORIGINAL	$29.99
750 ML		1.75 ML		1.75 ML
JOHNNIE WALKER BLK	$35.99	JOHNNIE WALKER RED	$22.99	GREAT WESTERN EXTRA DRY & BRUT	$6.99
750 ML		750 ML		750 ML
SMIRNOFF 80% FLAVORS Rasp, Straw, Lime	$13.99	PARROT BAY ALL FLAVORS	$14.99	KETEL ONE CITROEN & ORANJE	$22.99
Apple, B.B. 750 ML		750 ML		750 ML
BOLLA WINES	$10.99	C.K. MONDAVI	$8.99	CHATEAU ST. MICHELLE CHARDONNAY	$8.99
1.5 L		1.5 L		750 ML
ROSCATO WINES	$9.99	MARK WEST PINOT NOIR	$8.99	FOLONARI PINOT GRIGIO	$9.99
750 ML		750 ML		1.5 ML
CAVIT WINES ALL	$11.99	ROBERT MONDAVI WOODBRIDGE	$12.99	MEZZA CORONA PINOT GRIGIO	$11.99
1.5 L		750 ML 2 for		1.5 ML

SALE RUNS DECEMBER 20th to JANUARY 1st

Closed New Year's Day 1/1/2013
Open 8am-11pm New Year's Eve 12/31/2012
COME VISIT OUR TOTALLY NEW STORE

Find Us On Facebook For Tastings, New Products, And More.
Over 60 years of Neighbors Serving Neighbors

Burke's Seafood

Reel in the New Year

With a little help from Burke's

PLAN THE PERFECT CELEBRATION!
★★★

LIVE OR STEAMED LOBSTERS
BAKED STUFFED LOBSTERS
SHRIMP COCKTAIL • LOBSTER RAVIOLI
FRESH LOBSTER MEAT • OYSTERS
SCALLOPS WRAPPED IN BACON
LUMP CRABCAKES & MUCH MORE

OPEN NEW YEAR'S EVE 9AM — 5PM
THANK YOU FOR A GREAT 2012

VISIT WWW.BURKESSEAFOOD.COM FOR MORE PARTY PLANNING IDEAS

61 BILLINGS RD. NO QUINCY 617-328-9765

DANCERS FROM CENTER STAGE in Quincy performed at the recent Quincy Tree Lighting Festival at City Hall. The students are members of Center Stage's excel team and range in age from 11 to 17. Nine of the students live in Quincy. Others are from Braintree, Milton and Canton. Front row from left:

Taryn Lamb, Carley O'Toole, Julia Mayo, Shayna Hanaphy, Ally Graf. Middle row: Christina Haley, Erika LaPierre, Olivia Noonan, Julia MacDougall, Angela Hyslip, Aly Churchill. Back row: Alex Bregoli, Julianne Carey, Molly O'Toole, Jillian Brow, Isabella Cobble and Jacquelyn Baldwin.

Mayor: Merchants Row 'Major Milestone'

Cont'd From Page 9

need to be stepped back to be consistent with neighboring buildings. Before last week's vote, Heapes said they would setback the top floors four feet; parts on the opposite site will be pushed out to compensate.

"The last time we were here we had looked at stepping the building back to meet the guidelines on Chestnut Street. We had proposed a five-foot setback. As we looked the impact on the unit designs inside — we tweaked those — we felt that they had gotten so small we were concerned about their viability," Heapes said. "We proposed two things. Making the setback four feet and then out of the back of the building were we have some studio apartments, pushing that out six-feet which I think resolves some concerns that were mentioned about the plainness, blandness, flatness of that rear façade."

"Now that façade is articulated in three separate bays with the middle bay projecting. We think it's a far superior solution to those issues."

Additionally, the developer submitted a new plan for the underground garage that will be constructed as part of the project. The garage will still house 186 cars, but was redesigned for better traffic flow.

"It is effectively the same location, same number of parking spaces," Heapes said. "It works very hard on a clear circulation route. And I think a cleaner garage, a better garage for the citizens of Quincy."

At the first Planning

Board meeting to review the proposal, Fire Department officials raised concerns over whether or not a new road through the block would be accessible to fire trucks. At last week's meeting, peer reviewer Stephen Wessling said that Fire Chief Joseph Barron was 'comfortable and confident' those issues could be resolved.

After the Planning Board approved the project and issued a certificate of consistency, Heapes said the developers will begin filing for building permits in January and still plan on breaking ground early in 2013. Merchants Row is expected to be completed by the fall of 2014.

Joseph P. Reggiannini
92-94 (Rear) Franklin St.
Quincy, MA 02169

Office Hours:
M-F 7:30 am - 5:00 pm
(617) 471-2095
(24 Hour Emergency Service)
www.reggiesoil.com

CO., INC.
Heating & Air Conditioning Service
We are a local, family-owned & operated oil company located right here in Quincy. We've been providing a quality product & superior service to our customers here in Quincy & throughout Southeastern MA for more than 50 years....and we always will!

by Steven A. Brustin, D.M.D.

UNSPORTSMANLIKE CONDUCT

It is commendable that many people do everything they can to stay in shape. However, even those with the best intentions may have been led astray to health claims from the producers of sports and energy drinks. The fact is that these popular drinks can damage tooth enamel as much as soda can. Just how much sports and energy drinks can harm teeth was recently reflected by research that involved subjecting tooth enamel to sports/energy drinks for 15 minutes at a time, four times a day, for five days. At the end of the study, sports drinks had resulted in a 1.5% loss of enamel while energy drinks caused twice as much damage (3% loss). Try water instead.

Today's Informative column has been brought to you as a public service. Because your smile plays an important role in your life — laughing, speaking, smiling, and kissing — our goal is to make sure it enhances rather than detracts from your self-confidence. Let us help you create a great looking smile. We're located at 44 Greenleaf Street, where we offer full-service dentistry and the newest cosmetic procedures. Call us at 617-476-2220 to schedule an appointment. We offer the services of anesthesiology and a full trained and qualified anesthesiologist. Visit us on the web at www.quincydentist.com.

P.S. Soda, sports drinks, and energy drinks have acids that etch away tooth enamel.

Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers

- Quality, Reliable Service
- Over 100 Years of Satisfied Customers
- Honest Values
- On-Premise Repairs

52 Billings Road North Quincy

GIFT CARDS AVAILABLE!

In addition to all the selections from the Winter Menu, we are pleased to offer these New Year's Specials:

New Year's Eve Dinner

4pm-Closing

Appetizer Special - Lobster Quesadilla
Roast Prime Rib
Baked Stuffed Shrimp
Lazy Man's Lobster
All entrées are served with a choice of two of our delicious sides

New Year's Day

Special Entrées served 7am to 3pm
Eggs Benedict • Prime Rib Hash and Eggs
Lobster Omelette

Hearth 'n Kettle
RESTAURANTS • Est. 1973
WYOMOUTH: 25 Summer St. (John Carver Inn) • (508) 746-7100
WEYMOUTH: 151 Main Street • (781) 331-7007
HEARTHnKETTLE.COM

The 12 Sites Of Social Security

By KRISTEN ALBERINO

Social Security Public Affairs Specialist

One of the most popular traditional holiday songs is "The Twelve Days of Christmas." It's been a holiday favorite since it was published in 1780. Last year, we introduced our own classic: "The Twelve Sites of Social Security." It was a big hit, so we've remixed it for the new holiday season.

For the first site of Social Security, we present to you: our home page, www.socialsecurity.gov. It's the place to go for all things Social Security. Everything you could want — from online services and benefit screening tools to publications and press releases — you can find easily from this starting place.

For the second site of Social Security, we present to you: our brand new online Statement. You'll find it at www.socialsecurity.gov/mystatement. The Statement provides you with a personalized estimate of future Social Security benefits — retirement, disability, and survivors. It also provides your earnings record for your lifetime, allowing you to check to make sure your earnings are posted correctly.

For the third site of Social Security, we present to you: an easy way to learn how to replace your Social Security card at www.socialsecurity.gov/ssnumber.

For the fourth site of Social Security, we present to you: an online application for retirement benefits that you can complete and submit in as little as 15 minutes at www.socialsecurity.gov/applytoretire.

For the fifth site of Social Security, we present to you: five estimates of your future Social Security benefits! Or one, or as many estimates as you would like using different scenarios. Get instant, personalized estimates of your future benefits at www.socialsecurity.gov/estimator.

For the sixth site of Social Security, we present to you: a secure, convenient way to apply for disability benefits at www.socialsecurity.gov/applyfordisability.

For the seventh site of Social Security, we present to you: an online application for Medicare that you can complete in as little as 10 minutes, at www.socialsecurity.gov/medicareonly.

For the eighth site of Social Security, we present to you: Extra Help with Medicare prescription drug costs. You can learn more and apply online at www.socialsecurity.gov/prescriptionhelp.

For the ninth site of Social Security, we present to you: our convenient publication library with online booklets and pamphlets on numerous subjects, at www.socialsecurity.gov/pubs.

For the tenth site of Social Security, we present to you: America's most popular baby names. Learn about popular baby names and trends based on Social Security card applications over the years at www.socialsecurity.gov/OACT/babynames.

For the eleventh site of Social Security, we present to you: a way to get your Social Security forms online, at www.socialsecurity.gov/online.

On the twelfth site of Social Security, we present to you: services for people who are currently receiving benefits, like the ability to replace your Medicare card, get or change a password, request a proof of income letter, or check your Social Security information or benefits. You can do these and other things at www.socialsecurity.gov/pgm/getservice-change.htm.

And a partridge in a pear tree. Find it all (except the partridge and pear tree) at www.socialsecurity.gov.

NEW Year, NEW Commit 2B Fit YOU!

SEE OUR SPECIAL OFFERS at www.Commit2BFitStudio.com or find us on Facebook

Michael Connor New NQHS Assistant Principal

By EMILY TAFT

For over 14 years Michael Connor has served as a teacher, department head, and coach at North Quincy High School, and now he will be taking on a new role, Assistant Principal.

Connor began serving as the acting assistant in August and was recently named the official assistant principal after Thanksgiving break.

"Mike brings the experience and skills necessary to be effective as this school's assistant principal. As a former teacher and department head he has a history of instructional and managerial leadership. In some of his other leadership roles at the school and in the district he has had experiences in support services," said NQHS Principal Robert Shaw. "In all of his roles he has been committed to maintaining the strong traditions of North Quincy High School and working on behalf of all of our students and families."

Growing up in Quincy, Connor was a student of Quincy Public Schools until high school when he attended Archbishop Williams High School. He received his undergraduate degree at Bridgewater State University, and began his career in the Quincy Public School system after teaching at schools in Middleboro and Stoughton.

Superintendent Dr. Richard DeCristofaro said that Connor stood out as the right choice for the job because of his experience and background.

MICHAEL CONNOR

"He was a coach, he was an advocate for special education students, and so we know that he has a great touch with our students, he has a lot of experience with the students," said DeCristofaro. "He knows the staff; he knows the school, the climate, and the culture. He'll hit the ground running, he's done a nice job so far and we know he will continue to do that."

Connor began his QPS career working for a year at Broad Meadows Middle School as a Behavior Growth and Development (BGD) teacher. He then moved on to Sterling Middle School as a BGD teacher and history teacher. Connor spent two years at Sterling before becoming a history teacher at NQHS in 2002. In 2009 he became the history department head, and in 2010 he added on the duty and title of Coordinator of Evening High School Program, and now he will leave those two roles and become a full time assistant principal.

Connor said his first order of business, as the new assistant is to do what ever the principal wants him to do.

"The first step is to do what ever the principal wants," joked Connor. "Being the assistant you are dealing with the whole school community, the teachers, the parents, the students. It's about working with them and making the best decisions for the high school. I can't believe how many decisions I make each day as assistant principal, I can't imagine how many the principal makes."

One thing Connor said he has already begun to miss is being able to teach in the classroom. In his new role as assistant he is able to teach in a different way and also be more involved in the activities of the school.

"I miss it (teaching) already, I really miss it, but I know I will be able to affect the kids in a different way in this position," said Connor. "I have always been involved in all aspects of the school, but with my role as the Coordinator of the Evening High School Program I wasn't able to attend plays and sporting events and other after school programs. Now I get to do all that again, it allows me to see how well rounded these kids are. They really continue to amaze me."

$60,000 For Law Costs OKed In Police Officer Dispute

Quincy has paid nearly $60,000 to a law firm for costs relating to an ongoing dispute with a now-fired police officer.

Stephen McGrath, Quincy's human resources director, appeared before the City Council Dec. 17 to ask an appropriation of $98,000 to pay the law firm Murphy, Hesse, Toomey & Lehan. McGrath said the law firm has been contracted by the city to help with labor issues, including helping to renegotiate contracts with the city's unions.

But the bulk of that money, about $58,000, is for expenses related to the dispute with Police Officer Joseph McGunigle.

McGunigle was at first suspended for a month after as a result of long-running dispute with his Houghs Neck neighbors. He was also ordered to attend anger management classes.

Police Chief Paul Keenan then alleged that McGunigle returned to the Police Station while suspended, in violation of a direct order to not do so. Keenan revoked McGunigle's gun license at the time, and the officer was terminated after a subsequent disciplinary hearing.

Murphy, Hesse, Toomey & Lehan is working with the city on three cases related to the dispute.

McGunigle appealed the revocation of his firearms license to the district court and lost; McGrath said he does not know if that decision will be appealed to superior court.

McGunigle has also filed for arbitration over the termination, and filed a civil rights lawsuit in federal court. McGrath said testimony in the arbitration case will begin in January. It could take until April for a decision to be made as the panel will not be able to take testimony on consecutive days. No date has been set for the civil rights case.

The council approved the requested appropriation of $98,369.99 by a unanimous vote.

George, Sandra Burke Donate $100,000 To Charities

For the eighth consecutive year Attorney George G. Burke and his wife Sandra J. Burke have donated $100,000 to charitable organizations, education and the poor.

The organizations are: Father Bill's Place, Germantown Neighborhood Center, Salvation Army, Quincy Community Action Programs Inc., St. Ann Parish, Quincy YMCA.

University of Massachusetts-Library, Quincy High School Fitness Center, Quincy High School Basketball, Quincy After School Child Care Inc., Quincy Catholic Academy, Thayer Academy.

University of Massachusetts Newman Center, University of Massachusetts Scholarships, University of Massachusetts Athletic Department-Men's Basketball, Charity Fund of the Knights of Columbus, Emily Dickinson, Maria Droste.

Lend A Hand, Boy Scouts of America, Thomas Crane Public Library, Boston College Law School, Supportive Living Inc.

Archbishop Williams High School, Interfaith Social Services, Black Bear

Fund - The University of Maine, Georgetown Law School, United States Coast Guard Academy.

Also, Attorney Burke has given over $1 million to the University of Massachusetts and for the past 22 years he has given over $134,000 in scholarships to Quincy students attending the University of Massachusetts thus sending 134 students from Quincy High School and North Quincy High School to the University of Massachusetts.

Nicole's Studio
261 Copeland St
Quincy, MA
617-934-5135

Nicole's Studio offers the very Best in modern hair design

Ladies, Come into Nicole's Studio for a Cut & Color
Bring the guy of your choice, he gets a "FREE CUT"
(He must be a first time client)

Always free parking
Call today for an appointment.
617-935-5135

Visit
www.nicolessalon.com
Like us on Facebook
www.facebook.com/nicolesstudio

HAVE A BAD BACK?
MODIFIED YOGA/EXERCISE CAN HELP
6 WEEK PROGRAM BEGINS JAN. 7TH
2x/wk Mon & Wed 5:45-6:45pm
12 Classes $120.00
Call (617)769-9642 or www.powerhouseyogastudio.com
POWERHOUSE YOGA
42 ST. ANNS RD., QUINCY

Ask the
GEMOLOGIST®
BY JEFFREY M. BERTMAN
GRADUATE GEMOLOGIST
CASCADING DIAMONDS
If you are looking to make a splash with diamond jewelry, you can hardly create a more dramatic effect than a cascade of diamonds in the form of chandelier earrings. While there is certainly nothing new about earrings that dangle like a chandelier from the ear, the most recent expressions of this dazzling art form are a bit more restrained than they have been in recent years. Simply put, women and jewelry designers are letting diamonds do most of the talking. Positioned so closely to the face, diamond chandelier earrings capture and hold attention while showering wearers in elegance. Just as a crystal chandelier casts its commanding presence over the entire room, diamond chandelier earrings make their presence felt.
Our earring collection includes everything from simple diamond studs to intricate chandelier earrings. Come into our store at 1402 Hancock Street, Quincy Center to find the perfect earrings for you or someone you love! We offer more than just the "usual" experience. Contact our store at 617-773-3636 and allow us to assist you.
Don't Forget: We pay cash for Gold - Platinum - Diamonds... highest prices paid.
Rogers
Diamonds... Watches... Jewelry
www.rogersjewelry.com
BANK OF AMERICA BUILDING

JOAN'S OLYMPIC GYM
GYMNASTICS & DANCE SCHOOL
WAS VOTED #1 ON THE SOUTH SHORE
Ages 2 - Adult
NOW ACCEPTING REGISTRATIONS!
781-843-9624
"An Excellent Education Environment For Your Child"
197 Quincy Avenue, Braintree • www.joansolympicgym.com

SUPER BINGO
at Quincy Catholic Academy
Monday, December 31st
Start the New Year with a fun-filled evening of Super Bingo.
A new parking lot next to the school has been built, so parking will not be a problem.
Our location is at 370 Hancock St., Quincy the former Sacred Heart School
Doors open at 3:00
Admission sales at 5:00
after 5:30 only a paid admission card saves a seat
Games start at 6:30
A handicap ramp is available for easy access
free coffee, tea, and snacks
All of our(38) games will be worth at least $200-
Thanks for supporting the Quincy Catholic Academy

Quincy Toy Drive Benefits Sandy Hook Families

Community's Outpouring Of Generosity Expresses Love, Support For Newtown, CT

By KRIS KALABOKAS

Ryan Craig and his wife Meredith brought together a community with an act of charity and holiday goodwill last Saturday by hosting a toy drive benefiting the families of Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newton, CT.

Citizens of Quincy, and surrounding towns and cities, made their way to Pageant Field between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., unloading new, unwrapped toys to be delivered to Newtown in time for Christmas morning.

By 11 a.m. the large moving truck, which the couple had hoped to fill with gifts, was practically overflowing. Luckily, they had prepared for such a scenario.

"Absolutely no doubt, we're going to fill this one," said Craig. "We're getting a little nervous right now...we have a back-up."

Craig said he was simply "thinking about the kids" when he and his wife came up with the idea. "Everybody is heartbroken and feels terrible, and myself and my wife kind of looked at ourselves- looked at each other-and said what can we do?"

"We have three young children right around that age and you think what if it happened around here? How would you deal with it?" he said. "It's a tragedy that's beyond words."

What started out simply as a concept discussed between the couple soon started taking shape, and eventually took-off like wildfire. Fliers circulated through the Beechwood

BILLY MacDOUGALL drops off a gift at last Saturday's toy drive for the families of Sandy Hook Elementary School to volunteer Deirdre O'Connor. Other Photos On Page 25.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

Knoll Elementary School, where the Craigs' children attend classes. Parents and children volunteered to help sort through the puzzles, coloring books, teddy bears, and other toys they anticipated would be donated.

"These parents are heartbroken and they're not going to feel like going out shopping," said Craig. "What are you going to tell the kids? You went through this and now you have no Christmas?"

Helping fill the day's quota was the Quincy Fire Department, who showed up with a pick-up truck

Cont'd On Page 25

OLIVIA O'DRISCOLL hands a toy to Jack O'Driscoll as Kathleen Griffin makes room for more gifts that were collected and stored in the back of a truck during last Saturday's toy drive at Pageant Field. The toy drive benefitted families affected by the Dec. 14 tragedy at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newton, CT.

Sean Glennon City's New Director Of Community Development

Mayor Thomas P. Koch has named Sean Glennon the city's new Director of Community Development.

Glennon, who has been with the city's Department of Planning and Community Development for nearly eight years, succeeds Nancy Callanan, who has retired after 16 years of service to the department.

The Director of Community Development oversees the administration of $6 million in annual block grant funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Glennon is a life-long Quincy resident and a product of the Quincy public school system. He holds a B.A. in government and M.S. in political science - both from Suffolk University.

"Sean comes from a very

SEAN GLENNON

civic-minded family with deep roots in Quincy," said Mayor Koch. "His background in community service and experience in federal grant management is a perfect fit for this position."

"I am honored to be serving the city in this capacity," said Glennon. "Our community development programs provide a better quality of life for all Quincy residents. I feel privileged to be part of that mission."

Glennon is a member of the city's Fair Housing Committee and Board on Homelessness. He is also a member of the Quincy Lions Club and sits on the Board of Directors of Neighborhood Housing Services of the South Shore and the National Community Development Association (NCDA).

In related news, Glennon was recently elected Chairman of the New England region of NCDA. In that capacity, he is responsible for setting policy for the organization; providing leadership and support to the organization's membership; and coordinating regional meetings. He is also co-Chair of the organization's national Technology Committee.

Glennon lives in Squantum with his wife, Erin. They have a two-year-old son, Robert.

LOCKSMITH SERVICES

GRANITE LOCK CO. INC.

www.granitelock.com
617-472-2177
617-479-3341 (Fax)
MA Sys. Con. Lic. 7025-C

•COMMERCIAL•

- Access Control
- Electric Strikes
- Door Openers
- Commercial Mail Boxes
- High Security Key Systems
- Master Key Systems
- Lever Handle Hardware
- Handicap Access Hardware
- ADA Specialists

•AUTOMOTIVE•

- Fit Keys to Autos/Rekeying
- Auto Transponder Keys
- Key Cloning

•SAFES•

- Sales/Repairs/Installations
- Openings
- Combinations Changed
- Fire & Burglary Resistant Safes

•RESIDENTIAL•

- Deadbolts Installed
- Emtek Decorative Hardware
- Rekeying/Lockouts

755 Southern Artery, Rte. 3A Quincy, MA 02169

A

S

S

E

M

B

L

Y

NOW OPEN!!!

Serving Lunch 11:30-4:00 & Dinner 4:00-10:00

ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAYS & SATURDAYS

10pm-1am

Friday Dec 28th.... DJ Damien

Saturday Dec 29th.... Cherry Orchard

Ring in the New Year with Nighttime Radio

No Cover

A

S

S

E

M

B

L

Y

425 Hancock St. Quincy

(617) 302-4696 • (617) 302-4987

WHEN THE PARTY'S OVER

BRING YOUR BOTTLES

& CANS TO BROAD ST.

BOTTLES & CANS

24 BROAD ST., QUINCY

(OFF SOUTHERN ARTERY BEHIND POLICE STATION)

Quincy After School Child Care Receives $500 Donation From Stephen J. Wessling Architects, Inc.

Quincy After School Child Care (QCARE) recently received a $500 donation from Stephen J. Wessling Architects, Inc., for the second year, for the Scholarship Fund.

The fund, which is for working parents, provides financial assistance to low-moderate income families who meet federal and state income guidelines for eligibility. A scholarship decreases the weekly cost of tuition in order to help them to afford the cost of care in the program. Having quality child care in place helps working parents to achieve the goal of economic self-sufficiency as they can work to support their families without worry, knowing their children are safe. Being able to afford care prevents parents from having to seek other arrangements which are less than ideal, or leaving their children unsupervised.

Quincy After School Child Care (QCARE) is a non-profit organization for school aged children kindergarten through thirteen years old. They provide after school care in nine elementary schools and are the largest provider of after school care in the Quincy Public Schools, serving approximately 350 children during the school year. Additionally, they offer February, April and summer programs during the school vacations. They have been in operation for 25 years.

CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION is presented to Stephen Wessling, Stephen J. Wessling Architects, Inc. from Quincy After School Child Care Executive Director Sarah Morrison (left) and Carole Saia, QCARE Development Associate.

Carole Saia, QCARE Development Associate, said "We feel a responsibility and commitment to the goal of assisting families through tuition scholarships. However, we cannot offer scholarships without donations and rely on, and are grateful for, the generosity of donors, such as Stephen Wessling, to assist us in this goal."

"We met with Stephen in his office recently to present him with a Certificate of Appreciation to acknowledge our gratitude for his donation," Saia said. "It was a pleasure to meet Stephen and learn what motivates him to give. He was the recent recipient of the well-deserved Maria Droste award. One example of his giving, which impressed me greatly, was the way he volunteers his time on days off with My Brother's Keeper. He struck me as a very giving, yet humble man, the kind who gives quietly, not looking for acknowledgement."

QCARE Executive Director, Sarah Morrison, said, "It was such a joy to finally meet Stephen and learn more about his work and life. He reminded me that we all need to continue to give to the best of our abilities, whether our gifts are of time, money or kindness. These supports are the key to a stronger Quincy."

For more information about the services provided by QCARE, call 617-773-3299.

Mail Or Drop-Off Ballot By Dec. 31 Deadline Monday For Henry Bosworth Citizen Award Nominations

Monday, Dec. 31 is the last day to submit nominations for the Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award presented by The Quincy Sun.

The award - formerly known as the Sun Citizen of the Year - was renamed in 2010 in memory of Mr. Bosworth, The Quincy Sun's founder and longtime publisher.

Last year, Ruth Elizabeth (Betty) DeCristofaro, a lifelong Quincy Point resident, was honored for a lifetime of volunteerism and selfless dedication to her church, veterans, schools and many other neighbors in need.

She was selected for the award by a judging panel among 22 nominees submitted by Quincy Sun readers.

DeCristofaro is the second recipient of the Bosworth Award - formerly known as The Quincy Sun Citizen of the Year Award - and the 29th individual to be recognized by The Sun for outstanding community service.

Established in 1985, the award recognizes an individual for outstanding community service or a special achievement.

"Again this year, Sun readers may nominate the person they feel is most deserving of the award.

A nomination ballot to help the selection process appears below in this week's issue of The Quincy Sun.

Nominations will close Monday, Dec. 31. After nominations close, a judging panel will be selected to make the final choice from nominations submitted.

If you know someone you would like to see recognized with the 2012 Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award, fill out the ballot and mail it to:

The Quincy Sun
Attn: Bosworth Award
1372 Hancock St.
Quincy, MA 02169

Ballots can also be dropped off at The Sun office at the above address by 5 p.m. Dec. 31.

Those submitting nominations should identify themselves. They can also attach to the ballot a letter detailing the reason for the their nomination.

Nominees can be someone in elective office, a member of an appointed board, a clergy member, a teacher or school administrator, a police or firefighter, someone in the business community, a sports figure or an "unsung" neighbor, friend or community activist who has given freely of his or her time to a worthy project or cause.

Those nominated in the past are eligible to be nominated again this year. Since this is not a popularity contest, each nominee has an equal chance of being selected regardless of the number of nominations received. Anyone nominated just once has the same chance of being the award recipient.

The name of the winner will be announced in The Quincy Sun in January or February.

The Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award presented by

The Quincy Sun

I would like to nominate
(Please type or print neatly)

for

The Henry W. Bosworth, Jr.

Memorial Citizenship Award

I believe he/she deserves this award because:

Submitted by:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Tel. No. _____

Fill out form and mail (or bring) to:

The Quincy Sun

c/o The Henry W. Bosworth Memorial Citizenship Award

1372 Hancock St., Quincy, MA 02169

NOMINATION DEADLINE: Monday, Dec. 31

CHOOSE QUALITY

Successful Short-term Rehabilitation

- Comprehensive rehabilitation for joint replacement, stroke, cardiac conditions & diabetes
- Occupational, physical, & speech therapies
- Experienced & dedicated nursing staff
- Detailed discharge planning for a safe transition home

Regain strength,
confidence & mobility

Hancock
Park

REHABILITATION &
NURSING CENTER

164 Parkingway
Quincy, MA
617-773-4222

Call today
for a Free
Rehabilitation
Brochure & Tour!

Over 60 Years of
Quality Service
Welch
HEALTHCARE AND
RETIREMENT GROUP

INTERFAITH SOCIAL SERVICES Executive Director Rick Doane is flanked by Miss Massachusetts Sarah Kidd of Leominster and Miss Teen Massachusetts Madison Milordia of Lynnfield.

MANY LOCAL BUSINESSES sponsored the Feed the Hungry Gala. Including this group of ladies from Quincy's State Street (from left to right): Leah Lorn of Dracut, Susan Case of Braintree, Kathy Nasuti of Blackstone, Allison Bayramshian of Marshfield, Effie Lee of Weymouth, Beth Wilkening of Somerville and Sarah Izzi from Waltham.

Interfaith Social Services Feed the Hungry Gala Raises Over $100,000

Organization Celebrates 65th Anniversary At Granite Links

Rick Doane, Executive Director of Interfaith Social Services, Quincy, announces the organization raised in excess of $100,000 at this year's Feed the Hungry Gala & 65th Anniversary Celebration.

The fundraiser was held at the Granite Links Golf Club in Quincy Dec. 6 as a means to help feed, clothe and support disadvantaged families and individuals throughout the South Shore.

"It is fitting as we celebrate our 65th anniversary that we have the most successful fundraiser in our organization's history," Doane said. "This year's co-chairs, Ally Donnelly, Reporter for NECN, and Greg Wallingford, Financial Consultant, New England Schooner, Inc., and our Honorary Co-Chair, Governor Deval L. Patrick, were instrumental in making this event so successful during this milestone anniversary year."

During the Gala Paula

Lombardo, Chief Administrative Officer of The Lombardo Companies, was honored with Interfaith Social Services' 2012 Community Hero of the Year award for her generous donations of time, business services and personal resources to help disadvantaged South Shore residents.

Guests enjoyed an evening of interactive raffles, which included a wine raffle, a traditional raffle and a 50/50 raffle, where the lucky winner walked away with $3,600.

The evening also featured a silent auction, a live auction, a wine tasting from South Liquor Mart and delectable dessert tastings from various South Shore eateries. The auctioneer for the evening, Salvatore Corio, received some help cheering on the live auction bidding from New England Patriot Cheerleaders Casey and Gina, both local college students.

AMONG THE GUESTS attending Interfaith Social Services' recent 65th Anniversary Gala were (left) Meredith Lane and Graham Chevy of Quincy and (right) Elizabeth and Josh Archambault, also of Quincy.

This year's live auction featured prizes including JetBlue vacation packages; a Creative Playthings complete play set; an afternoon with Glenn Ordway and Michael Holley of WEEL's "The Big Show"; an official Celtics team autographed basketball; an afternoon with Billy Costa for a taping of "Lights Camera Action Kitchen"; Boston Celtics courtside seats and club access; a five-course dinner for six at Riva Restaurant;

a one-year wine club membership with South Liquor Mart, where the winner received a 12-bottle case of wine delivered every month for a year; and a seven day trip to the Hilton Los Cabos Beach and Golf Resort in Cabo San Lucas, courtesy of Heather and Peter Karlovitz.

This year's grand prize live auction item was to have Paul Wahlberg as your personal, in-home chef for a dinner party of 10, food and wine included. One very charitable foodie walked away with this item for over $3,000.

"I'd especially like to thank our Presenting Sponsors, Arbella Insurance Foundation and South Liquor Mart, for their incredible generosity," Doane said. "This year, Arbella's donation included a Facebook 'like' campaign, where the company donated one dollar for every 'like' received on their Facebook page."

"While South Liquor Mart donated all the wine to support the sample tastings as well as all raffle and auction activities. We thank all of our donors, sponsors, volunteers and participants for their generous donations of gifts, money and time which make it possible for hungry South Shore residents to have food on their tables tomorrow. Thank you to everyone who helped us Feed the Hungry this year and to make the holidays a happier time for families in need."

Interfaith Social Services was founded in 1947 with a mission to "strengthen family life and offer assistance to anyone in need". Last year, Interfaith's programs helped more than 25,000 local residents with emergency food assistance, homelessness prevention and mental health counseling. Supported by hundreds of community volunteers, their food pantry, one of Greater Boston's largest, distributed over 500,000 pounds of food last year to hungry families and individuals throughout the South Shore.

This multiservice center for local families and individuals also includes: The Learning Pantry, educating food pantry clients about vital life skills such as financial literacy and nutrition; HomeSafe, providing assistance and homelessness prevention services to families and individuals in emergency situations; Harvest Helpers, which organizes backyard gardeners and community groups who donate fresh local produce to food pantries; New Directions Counseling Center, which serves adults, children, couples and families who are dealing with a myriad of life issues; Quincy Medical Center Interfaith Chaplaincy, which delivers counseling to hospital patients and grieving families; Bureau Drawer thrift shop, which is run entirely by volunteers, provides the community with an affordable option for clothing and household items; and the Career Closet, which outfits low income job seekers with free professional attire.

For more information on ISS, visit the website www.interfaithsocialservices.org.

ALL-YOU-CAN-EAT PRIME RIB SPECIAL.

Available Friday - Saturday
Starting at 6:00 PM
$18.95 per person

Hancock's
STEAK & SEAFOOD
KILROY'S

Located in the
Boston Marriott Quincy
617.774.2077 | 617.774.2078

STOECKEL INSURANCE AGENCY, LLC

• stoeckelinsurance.com •

Professional Insurance Advice with a Personal Touch
for your AUTO • HOME • BUSINESS • FAMILY

128 McGrath Highway
Quincy, MA 02169-4607

617.786.7444

CMart Settlement Sparks Criticism; New Pedestrian Safety Initiative Announced

Cont'd From Page 3

New England Telephone; Margaret F. DiModica, 84, a retired medical researcher at University Hospital; Eugene K. McCarthy a retired government inspector and Quincy school teacher; Helen J. Cook, 83, a nursing supervisor at Quincy City Hospital; William J. Ragusa, a retired State Street Corp. and ING worker; William E. Pitts, 77, a retired Fore River Shipyard worker; James M. Jacobson, a member of the Morrisette Legion Post; Barbara A. McConaghy, a Quincy Public Schools worker; Barbara F. Nelson, 85, a retired registered nurse and WWII nurse cadet; Paul D. Schwemin, 83, a Navy Veteran and retired brick and stonemason; Marie I. Simmons, a retired Boston Police employee; Robert J. Bennett, Jr., 54, a tunnel worker for Local 78; Willis F. McGue, retired vice president of Adams & Abbott; Jean M. Bouchard, an office manager for Alcom Security; Ellis E. Laycock, 89, a Navy Veteran who participated in the invasion of Southern France; Robert A. Fischer, 89, a retired marketing director and adjunct professor; Sotirios Souliopoulos, 74, a banquet manager at Radisson 57 Restaurant; John P. Donlan, Sr., a pipefitter; Arthur L. Johnson, 92, a layout designer and a veteran; Margaret E. "Peggy" Meek, 84, a drum majorette at NQHS and American Legion; Richard E. Blake, a veteran and owner of Blake Appliance; Ella S. Morrill, 88, a technician for Quincy Health Department; Mary E. Butler, 81, a retired Federal Reserve employee; Kevin A. Galvin, 63, owner of Galvin Associates; Helen E. Montoya, 90, a retired postal service secretary; Freddy R. Lutfy, Past Grand Knight of the North Quincy Knights of Columbus; Olga M. Coriarty, 96, a stitcher for MacIntosh and Forcaster; Ralph R. Lewis, Jr., 67, an engineer for Gillette Safety Razor Co.; Edward J. Leslie, a veteran and merchant marine; Hobart A. Chase, Jr., 76, a manager for New England Telephone Co. and a veteran; and Malcolm J. MacDonald, 86, a WWII Army veteran.

2012 The Year In Review

FEBRUARY

The Fire Department honored one of Quincy's youngest heroes. Trevor Kirby, a 13-year-old, received a certificate of appreciation from the department for helping save the lives of his sisters and family dog. Kirby spotted a fire in his house two days before Thanksgiving, and ushered his sisters and pet out of the house. Fire officials praised the teenager for keeping his composure during the ordeal. "Trevor is a very brave young man, he saved his sisters and he didn't panic," QFD investigator Jimmy Wong said. "He did all the right things, which is hard when you are facing an emergency like this."

A settlement between the city and C-Mart owner Mio Kun "Michael" Fang sparked criticism. The council in its capacity as a special permit granting authority (SPGA) had previously rejected Fang's application to build a 34,000 square foot supermarket in North Quincy. The issue was taken to court, and City Solicitor Jim Timmins and Fang's attorney reached a settlement, remanding the issue back to the council with the condition that Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee not vote on the matter. McNamee ripped the solicitor for the settlement, saying he never would've agreed to it.

"Mr. Timmins, I'm going to make this very clear," McNamee said. "I never said to you that I would recuse myself. I said to you 'if the court orders me, I have no alternative but then to recuse, but I will not voluntarily step aside' and that's my position today."

Timmins defended the deal, and said he had discussed it with Council President Mike McFarland. McFarland, according to

THE YEAR OF THE DRAGON - The Vietnamese Dance Group Ethereal performed a traditional dance the Quincy Lunar New Year Festival held in February at North Quincy High School. The 24th annual festival, organized by Quincy Asian Resources, Inc., celebrated the beginning of the Year of the Dragon which, according to the Chinese zodiac, means good fortune and prosperity are forthcoming.
Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Noble

Timmins, said consulting with the full council before reaching the settlement would've have put the four councillors who weren't serving at the time of original C-Mart decision in a difficult position.

Fang had also purchased the Wollaston Theater, known to many residents as the Wolly. He bought the theater from longtime owner Yvonne Chandler for $600,00. Fang said he had no plans for the Wolly, which opened in 1926 and closed in 2003.

"I bought the property because it was such a great deal at the time," Fang said. "The condition of the building is bad right now. I have to look at it and decide if it is safe before moving forward."

A new device to help police officers test drugs in the field was hailed by the Police Department. TruNarc, a $20,000 device, is able to identify more than 60 drugs and over 80 precursors, and can conduct tests within 19 seconds. "This new technology has the potential to impact the entire system, from the streets to the prosecution," Police Chief Paul Keenan said. "It could save us valuable time and money." The department had been testing the device for 18 months, and following February's announcement the device would be used in future court cases.

Chief Keenan and Mayor

Tom Koch also announced a new pedestrian safety initiative. The two announced that April 8 through 14 would serve as "Public Safety Week," a highly visible and aggressive effort targeting every segment of the city's population. The announcement followed an uptick in pedestrian related accidents in the city, which included two fatalities. In addition to Public Safety Week, the announcement called for immediate enforcement operations in high-volume pedestrian areas.

The senior class at North Quincy High received CPR training. The training came at the behest of class president Tessie McGough. She

Cont'd On Page 16

Happy Holidays

and
A Happy
New Year

CURRY
HARDWARE
ACE
The Store You Can't Forget

370 COPELAND STREET
617-472-8250

Happy
New Year
from AGNITTI
INSURANCE

Season's Greetings
and a Healthy New Year
from our home to yours.

City Council President Mike & Marty McFarland and Family

Fire Damages Yacht Club; Wind Turbine Withdrawn

Cont'd From Page 15

was inspired by an event two years earlier, where she happened upon a stranger who had collapsed – McGough felt bad that all she could do to help the man was call 911. Since that day, she worked to raise funds to train the 250 members of her senior class. By her junior year, McGough had raised enough to train 100 students, but held off until the whole class could be. Instructors from Carney Hospital eventually volunteered to do it for free.

Residents expressed concerns over the proposed design of a new Fore River Bridge at a public meeting in Weymouth. Particularly at issue was the time it would take for the proposed vertical lift bridge to open and close – MassDOT officials said it would take 2.5 minutes to open or close, but residents were skeptical of that point. Some also questioned the lack of a median in the proposed bridge, saying not having one could lead to incidents.

Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall and Ward 1 Councillor Margaret Laforest, who represent different parts of neighboring Quincy Point, attended the meeting along with Councillor-at-Large Doug Gutro, State Senator

John Keenan and State Rep. Tackey Chan.

A two-alarm fire caused an estimated $200,000 in damage to the Quincy Yacht Club in Houghs Neck. According to Deputy Fire Chief Gary Smyth, the fire was likely caused by an electrical malfunction under the club. The club was empty at the time of the fire, and no boats were damaged.

Work on the clocks at the United First Parish Church wound down. Workers spent a month painting the new clock faces at the church, also known as the Church of the Presidents.

According to architect Jim Edwards, who's firm oversaw the project, workers first stripped away the old clock faces using a peel away product, leaving the granite tower bare. Primer and three coats of black paint were applied, and gold leaf was used for the Roman numerals and other elements of the clock face. Edwards said the $8,000 spent on the gold leaf was well worth it.

Thousands of people went to the city's 24th annual Lunar New Year Festival at North Quincy High School. Activities for the event included traditional Chinese dancing, musical performances, and storytelling. Local restaurants provided traditional Asian foods including fried rice, pork buns, and bubble tea. There were more modern activities at the event, including a Korean hip-hop troupe composed of students from Quincy and North Quincy High Schools. Additionally, Irish, Spanish, and Indian dance troupes performed, representing of the changing nature of culture in Quincy.

2012 The Year In Review

Quincy High Senior diver Taryn Urbanus finished third in the state diving championships. Urbanus had previously won three-straight Patriot League and South Sectional titles, and earned a scholarship to the University of Connecticut. Urbanus was a former gymnast who started diving months before her freshman year; she had been a gymnast before having surgery for a torn meniscus, something she said gave her a leg up on the competition.

The inaugural class of the North Quincy Hockey High Hockey Hall of Fame was inducted at ceremonies attended by 350 people at the Quincy Neighborhood Club.

The first inductees numbered 27 Red Raiders from the era spanning the 1940s to the 1990s.

Houghs Neck resident Kathy Nugent's four-year old English Springer Spaniel Riley competed in the Westminster Kennel Club's dog show. Riley, who had competed at the Madison Square Garden event previously in 2010, didn't fetch an award at the competition. But Nugent was still pleased with her pup's performance. "A small town boy in a big city, he stood there with the all the rest of the dogs that are out there all of the time."

The first stage of restoration work at the Lyons Turning Mill off Ricciuti Drive was completed. Workers spent several months capping the top of one of the mill's walls with concrete, in an effort to prevent from seeping in and eroding the walls.

The project was expected to take two or three years total to complete, depending on how much funding the group behind the work – the Quincy Quarry and Granite Workers Museum – was able to get funding. Al Bina, the museum's president, called the mill the "last remaining remnant of our granite history here in Quincy."

Plans to build a nearly 400-foot tall wind turbine were scrapped due to objections from Squantum residents.

"After speaking with many of your Squantum neighbors over the last few weeks," said Mayor Thomas Koch, "it has become clear to me that the kind of strong community consensus necessary to allow construction of a major wind turbine on Moon Island simply does not exist," Koch wrote.

Boston Mayor Tom Menino formally withdrew the plan after Koch ended his support for it.

The decision was praised by Squantum residents. Community association leader Louise Grabowski thanked Menino for withdrawing the proposal. "I thank Mayor Menino for asking Boston to withdraw its application," she said. "Our group expressed concern that the project's impact outweighed its benefits."

A new revolving fund for the DPW was approved by the City Council. It authorizes Public Works Commissioner Dan Raymondi to spend on certain items without first seeking council approval. Raymondi told the council the money would primarily be used so the city could celebrate National Public Works week in May.

The council approved it by a 7-2 vote.

Father Bill's & Main-Spring was featured in a segment on CBS evening news. The show discussed the shelter's Housing First program, which helped reduce homelessness in Quincy by 63 percent and also cut medical costs for formerly homeless people by more than two-thirds.

Deaths during February included:

Olive Hodgkins, 88, an administrative assistant for Quincy Vo-Tech; Marie V. White, a Bennett Research employee; Alice E. Williams, 93, the owner of Colonial Cafeteria; Olive E. Blaisdell, 89, a former Quincy Chamber of Commerce Employee; Carol A. Hanon, 70, a bartender at Granite Rail; John F. Dorlay, 83, a hairdresser, bartender, and veteran; Mitchell S. Miecznikowski, 93, an employee at the Federal Reserve Bank in Boston; Lois C. Burton, an executive secretary for the Federal Government; William M. Bryan, 68, a convenience store manager; Mary K. Cyr, a union carpenter; Gaetano Spinelli, 87, a veteran and retired Boston Police officer; Sandra Silverio, 88, a worker for Boston University; Michael M. Brosnan, a manager for John Hancock Life Insurance; Nicholas M. Bertone, 78, a horse breeder, Norma Woormer-Faenza, 78, principal clerk for the Brockton DPW and a veteran; Carole Spear, 67, a financial industry employee; John W. Walsh, 99, former North Quincy High principal; William E. Scott, 72, owner of Scott Fuel Company; Paul E. Barry, a veteran and retired Mass Electric worker; Arthur E. Foster, 79, a retired Quincy elementary school teacher; John 'Jack' V. Jenkins, a Teamster and limousine driver; Rev. James F. Curtin, 84, senior priest and retired pastor for Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish; Mary P. Cooney, a teacher; Henry Adler, a WWII Army Air Corps veteran; Robert F. Straughn, 87, a ship welder and veteran; Antonio F. Castelejo, a machinist and veteran; Gerard L. Goslin, a John Hancock accountant; Edward A. Franco, 87, a Postal Service worker and Bronze Star and Purple Heart Winner; George F. Moscardelli, 70, factory general manager; Bruce N. Hollis, 75, a self-employed painter; and Joe McCarthy, a restaurant worker.

Cont'd On Page 17

Warmest Wishes
to you and your family for a great
holiday season.

Bruce and Maureen Ayers
State Representative

Madelene Cheney

Sam Rounseville

Red Hilton

Jeanne King

Happy New Year
from our Family to Yours!

Sandra Fennelly

Michelle Mastrobattista

Mike Cheney

Sara Little

Wishing You & Your Family a Happy & Healthy New Year

City Councillor at Large
Doug Gutro and Family

Romney Wins 'Super Tuesday' Here

MARCH

Mitt Romney routed fellow Republicans in the city's Super Tuesday presidential primary voting. The former Massachusetts governor won over 72 percent of the vote in Quincy, beating runner-up Rick Santorum 2,944 votes to 463. Romney, who won the state primary by a similar margin, also received more votes in Quincy than President Barack Obama, who ran unopposed in the Democratic Primary and received 1,966 votes.

Turnout for the primary was at 12.81 percent, down from 43 percent in 2008. City Clerk Joseph Shea said he expected a bigger turnout, and said the lack of a contest on the Democratic ballot was to blame for the low number.

The Police Department hired three new officers. Mark J. Connolly of Quincy, Matthew F. Pantazelos of Randolph, and Daniel J. Clark of Quincy were sworn-in at a ceremony at City Hall. Police Chief Paul Keenan said the new officers were brought on because of an anticipated retirement. After the ceremony, the officers reported to a training academy for a 26-week course. Following that, they were to undergo a field-training program, which included ride-alongs with veteran officers.

Photographs from the 1922 funeral of Cyril P. Morrisette were presented to his family and the American Legion that bears his name. Morrisette was the first Quincy resident killed in World War I. He died one day after being wounded at the Battle of Chemin-des Dames in 1918, and his body was first interred in France. His body was returned to Quincy four years later where it lay in state and then was interred at Saint Mary Cemetery.

2012 The Year In Review

Bob LaFleur, a past commander of the Morrisette post, had found the photos when the post moved from Miller Street to Liberty Street. He then stumbled upon the photos in his basement, and decided to do something with them before they completely faded away. He then made a collage out of them, and donated it to the post. He also made copies, one of which was presented to state Rep. Bruce Ayers, Morrisette's great-great nephew.

Mediation between the city and Revere Road resident Arline Goodman over the rerouting of Town Brook failed to produce a settlement, but both sides feel progress was made during negotiations. Paul Hines, the assistant city solicitor assigned to the matter, said the talks were both cordial and productive.

The work on Town Brook is a precursor to the city's redevelopment of Quincy Center. Goodman, who's lived on Revere Road for 43 years, challenged the city's plan because she isn't happy a turn in the new culvert will be placed a few feet from the foundation of her house.

Her main concern about having the turn there is the potential flooding on her property. In her appeal she stated that since the construction of the Quincy Center Concourse water has seeped into her basement after every moderate rainstorm. She said that with the exception of a March 2010 flood that impacted the whole area, she hadn't had flooding issues at her house since work on the brook took place in the 1990s.

Goodman said the city offered her money for flood insurance, but declined because she, "doesn't want the flooding in the first place."

Since no agreement was reached, a Department of Environmental Protection hearing was scheduled for April 20.

North Quincy High held its 54th annual science fair. Sophomore Nisreen Abo-Sido topped the field of 130 participants with her project "Lemon-Aid." Junior Amanda Lee finished second with her project "The Effects of Subfreezing Temperatures on Plants," and sophomore Sarah Tran took home third place with her entry "Using Microbial Fuel Cells and Bacteria to Generate Energy."

Eight Quincy residents joined the ranks of the Massachusetts State Police. Michael P. Callahan, Daniel C. Close, Patrick M. Devin, Joseph T. Flynn, Michael J. Haines, Malachy Higgins, Joseph W. Paul, and Michael F. Rockett were appointed to the rank of trooper during a ceremony at the DCU Center in Worcester. The eight Quincy residents were joined by 200 other new troopers, all of whom underwent a 21-week training program that started in October. Following their appointment, each member of the class were to undergo a three-month break-in period, where each new trooper would be assigned to patrols with a field-training officer.

A Quincy native and Bronze Star recipient was honored at the 17th annual St. Patrick's Day Celebration. Army National Guard Lt. Col. Bill O'Brien was presented with a special plaque by Mayor Thomas Koch, who also declared March 16 "Bill O'Brien Day" in the city. The honor came as a complete surprise to O'Brien, who had planned on attending the event at the Lodge of Elk's Tirrell Room but didn't know why he was called on stage. "It was awesome," he said after the event. "I was really surprised, for all I knew I was part of the roast when they called me up."

Mayor Thomas Koch proposed renovating Old City Hall and the Coddington School for a combined $18 million. Old City Hall and the Coddington School could soon be getting a $18 million overhaul. According to the plan, Old City Hall (formally the James R. McIntyre Government Center) would be used to house the City Council and public meeting space while the Coddington School would be home to the School Committee and offices of the School Department.

The city planned to fund the bond payment through Community Preservation Act (CPA) funds; $900,000 of the expected $1 million to $1.2 million annual bond payments would come from CPA funding and the rest would be paid out of debt service.

The Old City Hall building would be renovated at a cost of $8.2 million. The second floor would house the "Great Hall" — a 181-seat space to be used by the City Council. The third floor would be converted into a balcony overlooking the chamber. The first floor of the building would feature exhibit space and two meeting halls, one of which would seat 85 people and be used for the license and zoning boards and the conservation commission.

SPRING INTO SUMMER — Emily Weddleton (left), 11 months old, and her sister Ella Weddleton, 3, enjoy the first day of spring March 20 on a summer-like day at Wollaston Beach as temperatures climbed into the 70s.

Quincy Sun Photo/Emily Taft

The other $9.8 million would be used to restore the Coddington School, located near Quincy High School on Coddington Street. A new permanent home for the School Committee, including television facilities, would go on the first floor. The second floor would house the Superintendent's office and other school offices as well storage for school records. Space on the third floor is unassigned other than the area allocated for mechanical equipment. The lower level would be used for both the school department's and the city's IT departments and the city's print shop.

The City Council's Ordinance gave Ward 3 Councilor Kevin Coughlin's plan to regulate donation bins in the city a preliminary okay. Coughlin said he was worried about an influx of bins in the city and outlined some the key ideas behind his proposal. Coughlin told his colleagues, "My hope was that we could implement some regulations that were reasonable," he said, "set some standards in terms

Cont'd On Page 18

From our Family to You and Yours

Best Wishes For A Happy New Year

The McDermott Family

Norfolk County
Register of Probate
Patrick McDermott
Attorney
Tracy Wilson
Alana and Adam

May God bless you and send you a
Happy New Year

Ward 3 Councillor
Kevin Coughlin
and the Coughlin Family

City A 'Safe Community,' But Drugs A Top Issue

Cont'd From Page 17

of location in particular zoning districts where the bins would be located on lots where they are not abutting residential property, that they not take up parking spaces required by particular zoning [regulations], that they do not block access or egress from a parking lot or block site lines."

The proposed ordinance was amended twice in committee. They first increased the annual fee charged per bin from $50 as proposed by Coughlin to $150. The second says only non-profit companies can operate bins in the city. Both amendments were proposed by Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee, and each was approved by an 8-0 vote. The committee approved the ordinance by the same margin, sending it to the full council for a final vote.

March was high school tournament time, and both the Quincy High girls' basketball and North Quincy High boys' hockey teams advanced to the South Sectional semifinals in their respective sports.

Quincy started its tournament run by knocking-off 13 seed Durfee 48-40 in the first round. In the second round, they upset No. 4 Wellesley 50-44. In the semifinals, they lost to top-seeded Franklin 57-53. Despite the loss, head coach Jeff Bretsch said his team had proven doubters wrong.

"Nobody had us playing in this game except for us,"

Bretsch said following the game at Massasoit Community College. "We believed from the beginning of the season that we were going to be a team to be reckoned with in the tournament and we definitely proved that tonight."

The North Quincy boys' hockey team advanced to the semifinals after knocking off Coyle & Cassidy 4-1 in the first round. In the second round, they went to a shoot-out against Canton before winning 3-2. They bowed out in the sectional semifinals with a 5-3 loss to Mansfield at Gallo Ice Arena in Bourne. Coach Matt Gibbons said he was still happy with his team's season in spite of the loss.

"I could not be prouder of my players," said Gibbons. "Nobody gave us a chance to get this far in the tournament and here we were just three minutes away from a chance to play at the Boston Garden."

The Quincy High School Women's Athletic Hall of Fame enshrined its inaugural 18-member class. Committee member and inductee Christine Barrett said at the ceremony that it was past time for female athletes to have their own hall of fame as male athletes had for years.

Deaths during March included:

Richard J. Bragg, 57, a Plexiglas shipper and Montclair School custodian; Doris M. Sweetman, 85, a retired tax analyst; Dr. Carol

Lee Griffin, a retired QPS assistant superintendent; Catherine Mitchell, 92, an active member of Sacred Heart Parish; Ruth L. Nickerson, 85, a worker for Coban Shoe Leather Co.; Joseph C. McManus, a drug counselor; Marilyn L. Ericson, 80, a legal secretary; Gino R. Sacchetti, 94, a disabled WWII Navy veteran and business owner; Frederick J. Opanasets, Sr., 60, a warehouse manager; John E. Cushing, 73, a printer for the Boston Herald; John J. Hendrick, 87, a retired manager at Sears Roebuck and a veteran; Constance A. Leroy, 73, a dance instructor; Donald L. Gauthier, 73, a crane foreman and veteran; Joseph P. Marsden, 73, a machinist; Edward Jordan, Jr., 85, a machinist and veteran; George D. Packard, a tax accountant and veteran; Donald M. McMullen, 71, an account manager at State Street Bank; Silvia Tanner, 67, a unit coordinator at South Shore Hospital; Harry Needle, 94, a veteran and electrician; Anne M. Gendreau, 75, Joyce & Gendreau Jewelers co-owner; Joseph L. Graham, a retired Quincy Fire Dept. lieutenant; Arthur Lamborghini, a chef and veteran; Doris M. Gloster, 83, a Pneumatic Scale Co. employee; Sylvia Rabinovitz Roffo, 82, a Quincy realtor; Elliot L. Luoni, 100, a salesman for National Overall Co.; Philip P. Gacicia, a local business owner; Edward Leiblein, 84, a mechanical engineer and U.S.M.C. staff sergeant; Miriam E. Coombs, deaconess emerita at Houghs Neck Congregational Church; Kevin B. Joyce, a truck driver and veteran; Patricia R. Kezer, 84, a telephone operator; Thomas M. Walsh, 82, a Shreve, Crump & Lowe employee and U.S.A.F. veteran; Thaddeus T. Lewis, Jr., 80, a retired Boston Police officer and veteran; Daniel J. Dykens, Sr., retired MBTA carman and veteran; Doris M. Sweetman, 85, a retired tax analyst; Richard Lyons, 72, a U.S.P.S. work-

BETTY DeCRISTOFARO, a lifelong Quincy Point resident who has served the city as a tireless volunteer to many local causes and for providing solace and comforting to neighbors and all in need, was honored in April as the 2012 recipient of the Henry W. Bosworth, Jr. Memorial Citizenship Award. Presenting the award are Mr. Bosworth's daughter, Donna Gray, office manager of The Quincy Sun, and Mr. Bosworth's son, Sun Publisher Robert Bosworth. DeCristofaro was recognized for her outstanding community service at a recent reception attended by more than 100 family, past and present elected officials and invited guests at the Quincy Sons of Italy Social Center.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Noble

er and veteran; and William A. Mitchell, retired MBTA general counsel.

APRIL

Former State Treasurer Tim Cahill was indicted on public corruption charges for his alleged role in orchestrating an advertising campaign for the State Lottery that was intended to boost his 2010 campaign for governor. Attorney General Martha Coakley claimed that Cahill's campaign identified through a series of focus groups that promoting Cahill's management of the Lottery would boost his appeal to voters. Coakley said $1.5 million of the Lottery's $2 million budget would've gone to such ads had Cahill not agreed to suspend them following a request from the AG.

Cahill defended running the ads, saying they were needed to rebut claims that the Lottery was mismanaged. "It was entirely appropriate and legal for the Lottery to run its ads in response to the Republican Governors Association's attack ads on the integrity of the Lottery," Cahill said. "It was the right thing for [the Lottery] to do. Knowing what I knew then and even what I know today, we'd do it again because it was the right thing to do."

Two other Quincy residents were indicted along with Cahill. Scott Campbell, Cahill's chief of staff at the Treasury and his former campaign manager was charged with ethics law violations. And Alfred J. Grazioso, Jr., the Lottery's former chief of staff, was charged with obstructing justice.

A celebration for Rev. Dr. Sheldon Bennett was held at the United First Parish Church. Rev. Bennett had served as minister of the church, also known as the Church of Presidents, for 25 years and was retiring in June. City leaders, fellow clergy members, friends, and family all attended the celebration held at Rev. Bennett's church, where he was praised for his advocacy of social justice, his public service, and both his leadership of the church and dedication to seeing it preserved.

Quincy's financial advisor Cinder McNerney urged the city to increase taxes. Appearing before the City Council, McNerney said raising taxes would help boost Quincy's credit rating by increasing the city's cash reserves.

McNerney, an advisor for First Southwest, told the council that the city's credit was rated by Moody's as Aa3 - the fourth best ranking possible. But she said the city's high untaxed levy capacity, about $19 million, was weighing the rating down.

"You don't get much credit for it because it's not taxed," McNerney said about the untapped levy. "The cash reserve is the only area where the city is weak...you've got an opportunity right now to deal with the one and only thing that needs to be rebuilt."

In an interview with The Sun, Police Chief Paul Keenan deemed Quincy to be a "very safe community." He added that Quincy's larger population leads to more crime, but said the overall crime rate was comparable to neighboring municipalities. "We're as safe as other communities," he said. "We're the biggest city in Norfolk County, and bigger cities have bigger issues, but we're as safe as Weymouth, Braintree, and Randolph."

One of the top issues facing the city, according to the chief, was drugs. Keenan said that drug users not only do harm to themselves, but

Cont'd On Page 19

Happy New Year
and Best Wishes
Always

Norfolk County Commissioner
John Gillis

Happy Holidays

City Clerk

JOSEPH SHEA
and Family

HAPPY HOLIDAYS
from
QUINCY COLLEGE

Home for the Holidays?

It's not too late to take classes during
our Winter Session
(Dec. 26th - Jan. 15th)
Or register today for
the Spring Semester!

quincycollege.edu | 800-698-1700

Seasons Greetings
from the Staff of

Deware
Funeral Home
576 Hancock St.,
Quincy, MA 02170
617-472-1137
www.dewarefuneralhome.com

Rosemary, Archie Wahlberg Early Learning Center Opens

Cont'd From Page 18

are also more likely to commit other crimes. In 2011, there were 315 drug arrests in the city, up from 303 in 2010 and 254 in 2007. The chief attributed part of the rise in arrests to Mayor Koch's increased focus on drug control.

Keenan's comments came during the run-up to a City Council committee meeting on public safety. During that meeting, he said he would seek an increase in officers as the mayor prepared a budget for the fiscal year beginning in July. The chief's goal was to bring the department back to its 2008 staffing level. In 2008, Keenan's first year as chief, the department had five captains, 16 lieutenants, 27 sergeants, and 154 patrol officers on the force. In April, the department had four captains, 14 lieutenants, 27 sergeants, and 145 patrol officers.

Lifelong Quincy resident Lt. Alan Borgal received recognition for being one of America's Top 10 Animal Defenders. Borgal, a special officer in the Massachusetts State Police, was honored by Animal Legal Defense Fund for "taking a real stand in seeking justice for abused and neglected animals."

When he accepted the award, Borgal said he did so on the behalf of those he works with at the Animal Rescue League of Boston. "I may rescue these animals," he said, "but it is really the whole shelter of volunteers and the veterinarians that service them that do all the work. It is really a lifetime reward for the Animal Rescue League of Boston."

Borgal had recently led a team that seized 33 miniature horses from a small farm in West Boylston. But the lieutenant said such seizures are something his unit tries to avoid by educating owners. "We try and go in and work with the owners and correct the issue," he said. "Education is many times the key to keeping the animal with their owner."

Fire Department and Norfolk County officials held a meeting about a new emergency alert system.

2012 The Year In Review

THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY of the Marina Bay Vietnam Veterans Memorial Clock Tower was observed in April. Placing a wreath at the base of the clock tower is Joseph H. Booker (second from left), past president, Vietnam Combat Veterans Combined Armed Forces of Quincy, aided by Richard Churchill (left) and George Nicholson, members of the Quincy VCVCAF. Capt. Paul W. Bucha, U.S. Army, Medal of Honor Recipient, and Past President, Congressional Medal of Honor Society, was the guest speaker at the ceremony.

The new CodeRED system allows people to sign up at norfolksherrif.com to have such notifications sent to their mobile phones as a call or text message, or through email, which the old system couldn't do. Like the old system, the new one automatically sends notifications to landline phones, as long as they aren't unlisted. Fire Chief Joseph Barron said he was pleased with new system, and happy the county was footing the bill. "It's great, since we don't have it in our budget, that they were able to provide it," he said.

Parks Department foreman Paul Franz told the City Council that remediation work on seven acres of land near Faxon Park had been completed. The land would've been used for a new Quincy High but hazardous waste was found on the site, and the developer paid to have the soil cleaned up. Franz said the process was completed and the land was going to be covered with dirt and seeded so it could be incorporated into the park.

Some 200 people were on hand as the Rosemary & Archie Wahlberg Early Learning Center was dedicated. The new school, in the building formerly used by St. Joseph's School on Pray Street in Quincy Point, has 16 classrooms and enough space for up to 240 children. At a cost of $7.5 million, Quincy Community Action Program (QCAP) bought and renovated the building to house its Head Start program.

"We have traveled a long way to get to this building," QCAP executive director Beth Ann Strollo said at the ceremony. "We knew this was the right building for us, and we knew this location was perfect for us."

The building was dedicated to Rosemary Wahlberg, a former executive director of QCAP and Archie Wahlberg, a former QCAP board member. In addition, a room in the building was dedicated to Bill Delahunt - the former congressman, district attorney, and city councillor - for his efforts in securing money for the organization.

Six year-old Madison Logan and her mother, Christine Cedrone Logan, were able to attend the White House's annual egg roll on Easter Sunday. Madison, who has been legally blind since birth, was chosen to go by the Perkins School for the Blind. While in Washington, they went to the Natural History Museum before heading to the egg roll on the White House's south lawn. Madison had fun throughout the day, including the plane ride down, the first she'd been on. "It was all my favorite part," she said. "We did an Easter egg roll it was fun. I even liked flying too."

QUINCY COMMUNITY ACTION Program's New Early Learning Center in Quincy was dedicated to longtime Quincy residents and community activists Rosemary and Archie Wahlberg at a ceremony April 11. In front of the new Head Start Learning Center at 22 Pray St. in Quincy Point are (from left) QCAP Executive Director Beth Ann Strollo, Archie and Rosemary Wahlberg, and Josephine Shea, president of the QCAP Board of Directors.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Noble

Record high temperatures didn't stop Quincy residents from running in the 116th Boston Marathon. The temperature on race day reached 88 degrees, and Boston Athletic Association officials offered runners the chance to wait until next year to run the 26.2-mile course. Some 4,000 runners took the BAA up on the offer, but Quincy attorney Tracy Wilson said she never considered dropping out, considering all the money she'd raised for Children's Hospital in Boston.

"I never considered not doing Boston," Wilson said. "You train all winter for it and so many people gave money for my fundraising cause. Also, I knew my running partner (a patient at Children's Hospital) would be at Mile 13, so I had to run it."

The heat also didn't stop resident Hassan Haydar from running his twelfth marathon. But it did slow him down, making him finish 40 minutes slower than he did in 2011, when the temperature on race day was 55 degrees. "I have run Boston twelve times and that was the most difficult one yet."

Large contingents of Quincy Police officers traveled to funerals for fallen law enforcement officers. Up to 30 members of Quincy's force attended the funerals of Greenland, N.H. Police Chief Michael Maloney and Norfolk County Dept. Sheriff Ryan Tvelia. Maloney, 48, was shot and killed while executing a drug-related search warrant on April 12 and Tvelia, 42, was killed after being thrown from his police motorcycle on I-95 on April 10.

"When one is affected, we all are affected," Quincy Police Chief Paul Keenan said. "We attend these wakes and funerals to show solidarity."

The City Council gave its approval to an overhaul of the city's Water Service Ordinance in a series of unanimous votes. The new code authorizes Public Works Commissioner Dan Raymond to fine residents $25 a day for denying access to their property for city workers who need to inspect water meters, pipes, or other equipment. It also allows the city to place a lien on any property whose owner doesn't pay their water bill within 60 days or doesn't pay any fee charged by the Water Department.

The council also unanimously backed stricter regulations for donation bins within the city. The proposal, introduced by Ward 3 Councillor Kevin Coughlin, restricts bins to business zoning districts that don't abut residential neighborhoods, limits their size, and allows only three per lot. Additionally, only registered non-profits can operate bins as a result of an amendment proposed by Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee.

Two residents who attended an hour-long ceremony for Fenway Park's 100th anniversary were both moved by the experience. Richard Sweeney, who runs Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, had been a season ticket holder for 30 seasons said he was most excited to share the occasion with fellow season ticket holders, as they don't always get to see each other.

"It was nice seeing all the people around us," Sweeney said. "The season ticket holders we don't see much of anymore. When you're there together you have these moments."

For Janice Walsh, the coordinator of the Quincy Teen Mothers Program, the best part was seeing 212 former players and coaches who played with the Red Sox take the field. Her favorites? Hall of Fame outfielder Carl Yastrzemski and All Star pitcher Jim Lonborg, both

Cont'd On Page 20

Happy Holidays
To All Of You
School Committeeman
Dave and Rosanne McCarthy
and Family

*Season's Greetings
To All of You
from Your Friends at*

Hancock T.V.
& Appliance

115 Franklin St., Quincy
617-472-1710

*Wishing you and
your family
Peace, Love and Health
during the Holiday Season
and throughout the New Year.*

School Committeeman
PAUL BREGOLI

Koch Budget Calls For $2.6M Increase In Education Funding

Cont'd From Page 19

members of the 1967 "Impossible Dream" team that became the first Red Sox team to make it to the World Series since 1946.

U.S. Army Capt. Paul W. Bucha, a Medal of Honor recipient, was the keynote speaker at a ceremony commemorating the 25th anniversary of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Clock Tower. He urged those in attendance to lead a life worthy of the sacrifice those in uniform have made for this country, including 48 Quincy residents whose names are engraved in the clock tower.

"Let's all leave here dedicated to one simple proposition," Bucha said. "We lead our lives, from this moment on, worthy of the sacrifice that these men made for us along with countless others across this nation, in war after war."

In addition to the clock tower commemoration, ceremonies were also held honoring three Quincy residents killed in the Vietnam War. The intersection of Connell and Robertson Streets in West Quincy was dedicated to Air Force Major Basil L. Ciriello, whose C-47 cargo plane crashed over South Vietnam when he was 34. The backstop at Quincy Point's Fore River Field was dedicated to Marine Corps Private First Class David A. Pitts, who was 18 when he was killed in a firefight outside the South Vietnamese city of Hue. And a square in front of the Merrymount School was dedicated to Army Specialist George W. Underwood, who was 21 when a convoy he was leading was ambushed; he was the first New England resident killed in the Vietnam War.

Mayor Tom Koch hailed the YMCA's future home as a gateway to the new Quincy Center at groundbreaking ceremony.

"We're certainly looking forward to the construction of the new facility which is going to add beautifully to the corridor here along Coddington Street," Mayor Koch said of the new building. "As we all look across and see the new high school, we're seeing the construction of a new track facility, coincidentally going to be located right across the street for those runners. A little further up the city's investing in Coddington School, the 1909 elementary school, which is going to be refurbished historically, and hopefully this summer the old Quincy High School will come down. This really is the gateway to the Coddington Street entrance feeding into Quincy Square."

2012 The Year In Review

The new, $30 million facility will stand where the YMCA's outdoor track once stood. The two-story building will have more than 120,000 square feet inside, replacing a three-story building with 85,000 square feet of space. The new facility will include a field house, an indoor area with synthetic grass that can be used for sports like field hockey or soccer. It will also include five locker rooms — one each for men, women, boys, and girls, and a family one — two indoor basketball/volleyball courts, an indoor track, two pools, and eight rooms for pre-school classes and community meetings.

Betty DeCristofaro accepted the Henry Bosworth Citizenship Award at the Quincy Sons of Italy. She said she was blessed to be able to help so many people.

"My church has always been Quincy Point Congregational Church and my community has always been this great city of Quincy and my neighborhood of Quincy Point — the best place on this Earth."

"For my whole life I've lived in only three homes within a mile of a half of each other and just a short distance from 1000 Southern Artery. I am blessed to have the ability and the strength to help all these people whether they are just beginning in life or seniors like myself," DeCristofaro said.

Deaths during April included:

Francis O. Ryan, 67, a hospital administrative unit assistant; Mary A. Donoghue, a longtime waitress; Muriel F. Finn, 94, a retired nursing home owner; Myrtle M. Bourgoine, 84, an employee for Electroswitch Company; John H. Creeth, Jr., 92, a retired Gillette employee; Ralph A. Pearson, Jr., 75, a former banker; Ann Dalton Fitzpatrick, 83, a retired Jordan Hospital employee; William E. Hedvig, a veteran and shipping/receiving manager; Claire I. Fasci, 83, a volunteer for Meals on Wheels; Stanley R. Cramond, a retired Quincy Police officer and veteran; Ardis F. Lally, 93, a food service worker at North Quincy High; Thomas J. Evans, 43, a truck driver; William M. Dimattio, 78, a garment designer; Lionel H. Buckley, 89, a supervisor in the Quincy Recreation Department and veteran; Anne Marie O'Malley-Luce, 57, a nurse; Robert J. Broadbent, an engineer and Quincy College adjunct professor; Grace M. Kenney, 93, a City Hall employee; Robert J. Burke, 98, an accountant and veteran; Clifford L. Greene, Jr., 88, a IBEW 103 member and veteran; Thelma G. Pascucci, 97, a homemaker; Absaloms 'Abby' Ochieng, 15, a Quincy High student; Mark G. McNulty, a fire protection salesman; Antonio G. Nicastro, 85, a retired service representative and veteran; Margaret F. Rioux, a worker for JM Fields and King's Department Store; Francis L. Hol-

QUINCY POLICE Lt. Kevin Tobin (second from left) received the Robert P. Dana Distinguished Service Award for Law Enforcement at Quincy District Court Law Day ceremonies held in May. The award was presented by Norfolk County Dist. Atty. Michael Morrissey (left.) Among those offering congratulations were Police Chief Paul Kean (second from right) and Quincy District Court First Justice Mark S. Coven (far right).

Quincy Sun Photo Robert Noble

MAY

Mayor Thomas Koch proposed a $247.85 million budget for the upcoming fiscal year (FY13), an increase of four percent over the current fiscal year (FY12). The extra money would go towards hiring teachers and police officers, keeping fire stations staffed more often, restoring Sunday hours at the Thomas Crane Library, and tackling a backlog in sidewalk repairs. The proposed added spending could likely cost the average homeowner an extra $112 on their tax bill starting in 2013.

As proposed, the mayor's budget included $88.88 million for education, $2.6 million more than the previous year. Koch said he wanted at least $500,000 of that increase to go towards "hiring additional teachers to deal with classroom size."

Koch proposed spending $42.38 million for public safety. The Police Department's budget would increase by 2.3 percent, adding a new sergeant's position and a new patrol officer. It also included raises for officers, including an extra $5,000 for Chief Paul Keenan, bringing his salary to $114,764. The Fire Department's budget would increase by 1.2 percent, allowing for more overtime pay.

Before the mayor presented his budget to the City Council, members of Quincy's delegation to Beacon Hill said they were optimistic that the city would receive a boost in state aid for education. Sen. John Keenan said that in two different budget proposals — one backed by Gov. Deval Patrick and another passed by the House — the city would get $22.98 million in Chapter 70 funds for education. In FY12, the city received $20.96 in Chapter 70 funds. The amount of other aid received was expected to be the same in FY13 as FY12.

The school committee gave its stamp of approval to the mayor's plan to renovate Coddington Hall and use it to house the school system's offices by a 6-1 vote. Anne Mahoney was the lone dissenter, saying she was concerned about the use of $9.8 million to make a more comfortable building for the administration when it could be better spent elsewhere.

Koch defended his plan. "I resent the implication that we are trying to build some sort of Taj Mahal here," he said. "We are making first-class space for our first-class professionals."

Meanwhile, members of the City Council expressed concern that the proposed bond order for the City and Coddington Hall renovations could let the mayor

Cont'd On Page 21

Happy Holidays!

Atria
Marina Place
617-770-3264

www.manetchc.org
617-376-3000

Manet Community Health Center

Season's Greetings

Best Wishes for a Healthy New Year!

As you hang your 2013 calendars, please mark the date of Thursday, May 9, 2013 for Manet's

Dinner Auction
at the Boston Quincy Marriott!

We are a not-for-profit health and social services provider and we exist to be your partner for a healthier life.

Happy New Year!

My best wishes for a wonderful holiday season to all!

Kirsten Hughes
Ward 5 Councillor

MEMORIAL DAY REMEMBRANCE – After placing a wreath at the World War II Memorial at Mount Wollaston Cemetery, June Quinn, sister of deceased Norman J. Lancy, Angela Durkin, Gold Star Mother and Marc Connolly, commander of the Quincy Veterans Council, salute as “Taps” is played at the city’s Memorial Day observance at the cemetery in May.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Noble

REMEMBERING DEBBIE – A bench in memory of Debbie Troup, past President of the Morrisette Ladies Auxiliary, was dedicated by the Morrisette Legion Post Family - Post, Squadron and Ladies Auxiliary – at the SAL Squadron 294’s Memorial Day observance at Veterans Island, Fort Square in May. From left are SAL Commander Paul Moody, Pam Norton, president of the Ladies Auxiliary; and Morrisette Post Commander Heikki Pakkala.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

Adams Green Transportation Project Details Outlined

Con’t From Page 21

spend the money on other projects. “One of the things that I’m concerned about is that this money is going to end up being used for, I don’t know, say DPW rehab, or some city building we didn’t vote on” Councilor Doug Gutro said.

Gutro suggested that Rick Manley, the city’s bond counselor, appear before the committee to review the proposed $18 million order.

Quincy Police Lt. Kevin Tobin received the Robert P. Dana Distinguished Service Award for Law Enforcement at Quincy District Court’s annual Law Day. Tobin was given the award for saving the life of a suicidal man in Faxon Park in April 2011. Tobin was able to talk a man into giving up a .9mm handgun after talking to the man on his cellphone.

Norfolk County DA Michael Morrissey received the Alfred P. Maloney award at the Law Day ceremony. Morrissey, a North Quincy High graduate and former state senator, won the award for his effort fighting crime in the county. At the ceremony he was thankful for having the chance to “make a difference.”

A third Quincy resident, Nannette Canniff, was awarded the James R. McIntyre Humanitarian Award. Canniff, a mother of 10, received the award helping St. Boniface parish’s Haiti

2012 The Year In Review

Foundation. Money from the foundation helped build a 30-bed hospital and numerous outreach clinics.

Quincy High’s Lloyd Hill auditorium was packed for a fashion show organized by QHS students. Over 70 students participated in the show, coordinated by junior Maggie Mahoney.

“The crowd this year surpassed the crowd we had my freshman year and last year combined,” Mahoney said. “Naturally I was giddy with excitement to see that.”

Students got creative designing the more than 85 garments displayed during the show. The show included skirts made out of tissue paper, dresses made out of neckties, and a dress Mahoney designed made out of Capri Sun juice boxes.

A 4.6 grade point average helped earn Quincy High senior Kevin Mullin the distinction of Outstanding Vocational Student of the Year. An engineering technology student and the fifth-ranked student at QHS, Mullin was chosen out of 15 students in Quincy high schools nominated by their teachers.

“It feels really good to receive this award. I was pretty nervous during the interviewing process,” Mullin said. “I knew there were a lot of other worthy candidates so nothing was sure.”

Mullin was honored by the school committee and at the 26th annual Outstanding Vocational Student of the Year banquet in Worcester, where other students from around the state joined him.

Possible changes to major thoroughfares in Quincy Center were outlined during a special hearing on the Adams Green transportation project’s 25 percent plan. The plan calls for widened sidewalks, raised crosswalks, and bicycle lanes. Adams Green park designer Bob Uhlig said the goal was to extend the feel of Adams Green to surrounding streets.

“Don’t just think of Adams Green as stopping at the street,” Uhlig said. “We’ve tried to extend the experience of Adams Green.”

The plan also called for new turning restriction at the intersection of Washington, Temple, and Codrington Streets. In addition, trucks larger than 2.5 tons would be banned from a corridor of Quincy Center near Adams Green. Ward 1 Councilor Margaret Laforest questioned that idea, saying it could have a negative impact on businesses in the area who receive deliveries.

A ceremony was held to dedicate the United First Parish Church’s new bell and illuminated clock faces.

The dedication marked the conclusion of restoration work on the tower that began more than a dozen years before. In an interview before the ceremony, Mayor Thomas Koch said the restoration was symbolic of the planned redevelopment of Quincy Center.

“I think it’s symbolic of what’s to come. It stands in the middle of what will be Adams Green and the front door to the whole development that should be underway next year,” Koch said. “I think it sends a clear message that we’re a city that cares about our history and our past but we’re also forging ahead into the future.”

Rev. Sheldon Bennett, the retiring minister at the church, said the newly restored tower would lift one’s spirits while also echoing Koch’s sentiments.

“We are thrilled at the success of this project. To see the sunlight gleaming from the golden dome, to hear the bell ringing as it swings back and forth, and to see the belfry illuminated at night gives a lift to the spirit,” Bennett said. “The newly restored bell tower, clock faces, and working bell will be a centerpiece of the Adams Green of which we can all be proud.”

Students from Quincy Public Schools helped the city celebrate National Public Works Week by writing essays and designing banners

NEW EXTERIOR LIGHTING illuminates the clock faces and bell tower of United First Parish Church. City and church officials dedicated the restored clock tower and new city bell at an evening ceremony May 15. Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth ners showing the importance of public works in their daily lives.

“The week is to allow students to be able to get a sense of what the DPW is all about,” said Keith Segalla, executive director of career and technical education and instructional technology. “We are excited about what is being done and we hope it will continue in the future. It is a great opportunity for the students to see how the DPW affects our community.”

Banners were displayed around Quincy Center and 11 schools received mini grants to beautify a portion of an area outside their school. Combined, the schools received about $5,000 in mini grants, more than half of the $8,000 in grants awarded by the DPW.

Cont’d On Page 28

Wishing you a
Happy & Prosperous
New Year

BAXTER
PHARMACY

464 Washington Street, Quincy, MA
617-773-7733
www.baxterpharmacy.com

Happy New Year!
New Members
always welcome!

Quincy
Sons of Italy

617-472-5900

Happy New Year
& Good Health to All

BARBARA ISOLA
School Committeewoman

On Friday, Dec. 14 at approximately 4:40 p.m., Officers Lauren Lambert and Keith Wilbur were dispatched to a Burgin Parkway address on a report of a family disturbance in progress. Upon arrival, Officer Lambert approached the front door to the multi-unit dwelling and was greeted outside by a female, who was crying and holding a face cloth on her bleeding lip.

The female (victim) stated that her boyfriend (suspect) "beat me up for the past five hours." She said he punched her in the face, choked her more than once and refused to let her leave the apartment. The victim said that she believed that the suspect was still in the area because she saw him moments earlier at the end of the driveway and he left his belongings on a nearby stone wall. The victim refused medical attention.

A description of the suspect was given out to area cruisers after the victim added that the suspect did not have a car and unlikely he had much money. She added that the suspect could be suicidal because he attempted to hang himself in the bathroom of their apartment approximately 3 weeks ago and was just discharged from a treatment center after a ten day committal.

Officer Lambert then interviewed the victim in depth to determine what actually occurred. The victim, visibly upset, shaking and crying, tended to her facial injuries as she recounted what occurred. She said that they had been dating since August. She stated that at approximately 1:30 P.M., they engaged in a verbal argument about her going out Christmas shopping with a male friend, which quickly became physical. The victim said that the suspect punched her in the face with a closed fist causing her nose and upper lip to bleed. He then told her to leave so she went into her bedroom.

The victim took her cell phone and placed it down her pants so that she could go in the other room and call for help. The suspect saw her do this, so he grabbed her and physically removed the phone from her as she tried to fight him off. Once he had her phone, the suspect scanned through her recent calls and became even more enraged when he saw that she had texted a friend seeking help during the assault. The suspect then smashed her phone, grabbed her and began choking her and punched her repeatedly with both hands using closed fists. The suspect placed his hands around her neck as he choked her, stating, "You deserve to die. Are you ready to die? I'm going to find your (racial slur) friend and I'm going to kill him too."

LT. DAN MINTON

A Job Well Done

By QUINCY POLICE LT. DAN MINTON

The victim, fearing death, fought back and was able to get free of the suspect's grip. The victim then tried to run out of the apartment but the suspect grabbed her, threw her on the bed and began choking her again. She said that she believed that "He tried to break my neck" by placing his hands near her ears as he tried to snap her neck. The victim tried banging her foot on the floor and screaming in hopes that the downstairs neighbor would come to her rescue. The victim said that the suspect muffled her screams by shoving a pair of white socks down her throat to silence her. She said it was very difficult to breathe, but then he removed the sock, however, for the next hour, the suspect stood over her, making threats as she cried.

At one point, the suspect took a set of keys, placed them between his two fingers and pointed them at her as he said, "I should stab you." The suspect called a friend to pick him up, then packed his belongings and went outside to put them on the porch. The victim, seeing an opportunity to escape, ran to a neighbor's apartment upstairs and then called the Police.

Officer Lambert assisted the victim in getting an emergency restraining order and then helped the victim arrange to stay elsewhere because the victim was afraid to stay at the apartment. As the victim prepared to leave the apartment, she was still visibly upset, crying and shaking. On several occasions she had to stop talking to regain her composure. At this time, the suspect called the police station asking if he could go to the apartment to get his belongings. The suspect said he took the train to Brockton. Officer Lambert instructed the suspect to return to Quincy to straighten the matter out.

At approximately 9:30 p.m., the suspect came into the Quincy Police Station, where he was placed under arrest. After being booked, Officer Lambert read Miranda warnings to the suspect, which he waived.

The suspect said that they were arguing for most of the afternoon because he wanted her to go to Brockton with him to get food stamps. After numerous attempts to get her to go, the arguing escalated and was topped off when he heard her making phone arrangements to go out with friends. The suspect then remarked, "I went over the line" referring to the argument becoming physical. At this time, the suspect refused to answer any further questions, so he was served the emergency restraining and held in custody.

The suspect, a 42 year-old Quincy resident, was charged with assault with intent to murder, attempted murder by strangulation/poisoning, assault and battery with a dangerous weapon (socks), assault and battery, kidnapping, intimidation of a witness and threats to commit a crime.

Nice Work!

RULES OF THE ROAD:

The Fundamental Speed Law, from the Massachusetts Driver's Manual:

Do not travel faster than is safe to do so. Even if the speed limit is higher, your speed must be based on the following conditions:

- Traffic conditions – the number of vehicles on the road and their speed
- Road conditions – road surface conditions.
- * Weather conditions: the travel effects of ice, snow, rain, etc. on the road surface.
- Visibility issues – including rain, snow, ice, dust, fog and wind.
- Pedestrians or bicyclists traveling along or across the road.

Drivers are required to lower their speed if there are poor driving conditions or hazards, such as an accident or other distractions. It does not matter if the posted speed limit is higher. Unless posted otherwise, your speed would not be reasonable if you drive over:

- 20 mph in a school zone
- 30 mph in a thickly settled or business district
- 40 mph outside a thickly settled or business district
- 50 mph on a highway outside a thickly settled or business district.

QUINCY POLICE HOT SPOTS

QUINCY POLICE STATISTICS: DEC. 14 - DEC. 20

ARRESTS: 28

TOTAL CALLS: 1,077

TOTAL STOLEN VEHICLES: None

FRIDAY, DEC. 14

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 12:21 p.m., Lincoln-Hancock School, 300 Granite St. Car window.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:59 p.m., Citizens Bank, 1200 Hancock St. Male wearing a red coat carrying a bag just kicked in the front door and was swearing at customers. One in custody for malicious damage.

LARCENY, 3:46 p.m., River St. Package stolen from doorway yesterday.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 6:38 p.m., 29 Shirley St. Dwelling.

LARCENY, 8:53 p.m., Hancock Parking area, 50 Revere Rd. Three cars took off without paying.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT, 9:13 p.m., 73 Charles St. Dwelling.

SATURDAY, DEC. 15

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 12:41 a.m., 53 Franklin St. (out front). Fighting over a pool game. Guy punched caller in the face. Victim doesn't want to pursue matter.

ARMED ROBBERY/ATTEMPTED, 4:12 a.m., 355 Water St. Three males, one reached at his belt. No weapon shown. Weapon alluded to; report submitted on armed assault with intent to rob.

LARCENY, 8:52 a.m., 83 Arthur St. Lawn ornaments - stolen gnome.

LARCENY, 10:39 a.m., Stop & Shop Supermarket, 495 Southern Artery. Arrest made - female.

LARCENY, 10:45 a.m., 41 South St. Items stolen from package left in door.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 11:57 a.m., 31 Westford St. To motor vehicle - front windshield smashed.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT (past), 7:38 p.m., 41 Theresa Rd.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 9:24 p.m., 65 Utica St. Dwelling.

LARCENY, 10:04 p.m., Walgreen Pharmacy, 418 Quincy Ave. Pocketbook.

SUNDAY, DEC. 16

LARCENY, 5:53 a.m., Beale Street News, 19 Beale St. Newspapers. Caller is a driver for The Globe. Reports newspapers are being taken from numerous drop off spots on every Sunday. Today papers were taken from Beale Street News drop as well as numerous papers thrown all over the place. Ongoing problem and reported numerous times.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/ATTEMPT (past), 11:22 a.m., Adams Shore Supermarket, 494 Sea St.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 10:58 p.m., 35 Arthur St. Dwelling.

MONDAY, DEC. 17

ARMED ROBBERY, 5:13 a.m., Elm and Washington Streets. Three males with a knife. One white male, black male, and possibly a Spanish male.

LARCENY, 11:53 a.m., Sagamore Ave. Package - $11,000 check was dropped off and signed by ex-landlord is now missing.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 4:22 p.m., 64 Russell St. Dwelling.

TUESDAY, DEC. 18

ARMED ROBBERY, 3:48 a.m., Seven Eleven Store, 721 Hancock St. Gun. Black male, slim build, 5'9", wearing maroon sweatshirt with logo on front, blue jeans, black sneakers, with black gun fled on foot southbound towards Wentworth Road.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 9:54 a.m., Felton St. DOVE report.

LARCENY, 1:13 p.m., Walmart, 301 Falls Blvd. Past.

LARCENY/ATTEMPT, 3:52 p.m., South Shore Check, 416 Hancock St. Party trying to cash a fake check. One under arrest.

LARCENY, 4:18 p.m., 114 Town Hill St. Overnight. Party is missing paperwork from two months ago.

LARCENY, 4:39 p.m., 14 Morton St. Past - iPad.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 19

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 1:41 p.m., Kam Man Food, 215 Quincy Ave. Motor vehicle damage. Entire rear of truck keyed and letter X gouged into rear of truck.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 5:17 p.m., 375 Washington St., rear parking lot. Complaints for A&B.

LARCENY, 7:15 p.m., 15 Mill St. Christmas decorations.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY, 8:35 p.m., Walmart, 301 Falls Blvd. Threats. Caller reports after altercation in checkout line, three black females - one with braids - assaulted caller and threatened to get a gun from trunk of car and shoot her.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 10:06 p.m., 48 Howe St. Dwelling.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 10:11 p.m., 247 Holbrook Rd. Car egged.

THURSDAY, DEC. 20

LARCENY, 11:27 a.m., Dunkin' Donuts, 825 Southern Artery. Wallet.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 12:28 p.m., 29 Hobomack Rd. To car - front right tire.

VANDALISM/PROPERTY, 12:36 p.m., 169 Beach St. Decorations.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PROGRESS, 4:06 p.m., 572 Willard St. Dwelling. White male, 20's, jeans and shoes, no shirt, fled from the back door, female came into the home which she is buying and found this male in the bathroom.

LARCENY, 4:30 p.m., 380 Water St. Backpack.

BREAKING AND ENTERING/PAST, 6:24 p.m., 35 Norman Rd. Dwelling.

If anyone has more information about any of the aforementioned incidents or would like more information, contact Crime Prevention Lieutenant Dan Minton at 617-745-5719

□

STOLEN MOTOR VEHICLES: None.

□

CAR BREAKS: City View Lane, 365 Washington St., Cleverly Ct.

□

BREAKS AND ATTEMPTED BREAKS: Shirley Street, Charles Street, Theresa Road, Utica Street, Falls Boulevard, 400 block of Sea St., Arthur Street, Russell Street, Howe Street, 500 block of Willard Street.

If you have information on the above crimes, drug activity or any crime, please call the Quincy Police Detective Bureau at 617-745-5764 or log onto the following website: <http://tinyurl.com/ytf6td>.

To report suspicious drug activity, call the Drug Hot-Line at 617-745-5730. You will not be required to identify yourself, but it could help. To make an appointment to view the Registered Sex Offenders book, call Detective James Dentremon at 617-745-5755.

To contact the Crime Prevention Officer for tips or comments, my direct line is 617-745-5719. My e-mail address is dminton@ci.quincy.ma.us

- Lt. Dan Minton

Entries in the Quincy Police Hot Spots are compiled and submitted by the Quincy Police Department.

They are published by The Quincy Sun as a public service to make local residents more aware of any crime activity in their neighborhood. Questions concerning the Hot Spots list should be directed to Crime Prevention Officer Lt. Dan Minton, 617-745-5719.

Santa Visits Adult Day Health Holiday Party

Members of the Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group's adult day health programs, including the Colonial Adult Day Health Center in Weymouth, Hancock Park Adult Day Health Center in Quincy and the Harbor House Adult Day Memory Care Program in Hingham celebrated the holiday season with a festive Christmas party and a visit from Santa Claus at the Elks Lodge in Weymouth.

HEATHER SHUTTUCK, activities assistant at Hancock Park Adult Day Health in Quincy, enjoys a dance with Santa at the Welch Group's Adult Day Health Christmas party.

Photos Courtesy Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group

PAT LEAVEY (second from the left), director of the Welch Group's Adult Day Health Centers, with her staff at the annual Welch Adult Day Health Christmas Party. (From left) Deborah Brenna, RN, site supervisor at Colonial Adult Day

Health in Weymouth; Pat Leavey; Donna O'Connell, RN, site supervisor at Hancock Park Adult Day Health in Quincy, and Ruth Frost-Cameron, LPN, Welch Healthcare & Retirement Group Adult Day Health.

Steward. The New Health Care.

This is the New Health Care.

Congratulations to Quincy Medical Center for being named one of Massachusetts' top performers for Clinical Excellence by HealthGrades®, America's most comprehensive source of information on hospitals and doctors.

Quincy Medical Center is proud to have earned HealthGrades® General Surgery Excellence Award for 2013 – ranked among the top 5 hospitals in Massachusetts and the top 10% in the nation for General Surgery. In addition, Quincy Medical Center is the proud Five-Star Recipient for:

- Treatment of Heart Attack for 5 Years in a Row (2009-2013)
- Total Hip Replacement for 3 years in a row (2011-2013)
- Hip Fracture Treatment 2 years in a row (2012-2013)
- Treatment of Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease for 3 years in a Row (2011-2013)
- Cholecystectomy (2013)
- Gynecological Surgery and Ranked among the Top 10 in MA for Gynecological Surgery 2 years in a row (2011-2012)

Nationally recognized for quality.
HealthGrades® 2013 Five-Star Achievement

Quincy Medical Center

A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

For more information, visit steward.org/quincy

Nicole Lee To Compete In U.S. Figure Skating Championship

15-Year-Old QHS Sophomore, Pairs Partner
Heading To Omaha, Nebraska Jan. 20-27

By EMILY TAFT

Ten years ago Quincy resident Nicole Lee tried figure skating for the first time because her best friend was doing it. Now, 10 years later, she is heading to the U.S. Figure Skating Championships for the first time with her pairs partner, Tim Habeeb.

"My best friend started skating so I wanted to try it, and I just loved it," said Lee. "I remember getting on the ice for the first time, and these two older girls were on the ice calling my name, I got on and I just fell in love with it."

Lee, who is now a 15-year-old sophomore at Quincy High School, began her career at the age of five as a singles skater. About a year ago she decided to try pairs skating in hopes of moving forward in her skating career.

"Nicole's a very finesse skater, she's always had a talent. She has very good edges, very good moves, very good presentation on the ice, she has always been very polished, those are the words of her coaches," said mom Robin Lee. "At this level you kind of need the full package of everything. She can be the most finessed, the most polished skater going, but at her level of skating you need combination jumps and triples, and jumps don't come as easy to her, but because she has a lot of the other things

NICOLE LEE, a 15-year-old Quincy High School sophomore, will travel to Omaha, Nebraska next month to compete in the novice level at the U.S. Figure Skating Championships with her pairs partner, Tim Habeeb.
Photos Courtesy Robin Lee

PAIRS PARTNERS Nicole Lee and Tim Habeeb have been practicing their routine three hours a day, four or five times a week, in preparation for the U.S. Figure Skating Championships Jan. 20-27 in Omaha, Nebraska.

in that package one of her coaches thought it would be a really great idea for her to try pairs. So she started taking pair lessons with a coach, but boys are not a dime a dozen so she started taking lessons just to take them and have the experience under her belt, to see if she liked it."

Lee auditioned a number of male skaters before meeting Habeeb, a 20-year-old sophomore at Boston College, who has years of pairs skating experience.

"There is such a mutual respect between Tim and Nicole, you can really see it on the ice. They work really well together when they are on the ice. I've watched them really evolve within these past six months," said Robin. "Tim is very calming. He is probably the best fit for Nicole for her first partner, he couldn't be a better partner for Nicole."

Habeeb and Lee practice four to five times a week for three hours each day, not including the off ice training, conditioning and lifts. The pair placed fourth in the in the sectionals competition, which was their first major competition together. They will compete against 12 other pairs on Jan. 20-27 at the Novice Level during the U.S. Figure Skating Championships in Omaha, Nebraska.

"It's a huge deal to go there. There are a lot of great pair skaters that are going to be there," said Lee. "We had a few fumbles in our short program at sectionals so I would like to improve our short program score. I think it's everyone who skates dream to go to the Olympics, but the reality is, is everyone going to go? No. You have to be realistic in this sport."

The cost of participating in the sport and being competitive is something that can become very expensive. The cost of Lee's skates alone average over $1,000, she has to buy the boot and blade separate, and on top of that they pay for coaches, ice time, costumes, and travel expenses among other things. So, for their trip to Nebraska the Lee family, along with a family friend, is trying something different, asking for sponsors.

"If your going to do this from the recreational stand point you can get away with doing this fairly inexpensively. The more competitive the skater gets the more expensive it gets," said Robin. "This is all worth it. To see Nicole happy is 110 percent worth it."

So far Lee has received donations from six local sponsors: Paul's Barber Shop, Newcomb Farm Restaurant, Officer Jamie Cochrane Memorial Road Race, Clancy Construction, Unchained Pizza, and the American Legion—Jake Comer.

Along with those sponsoring her, Lee has a wall of support that has helped her throughout her entire career, not only built up of family and friends, but teachers and school administrators.

"Nicole has a great support system behind her," said Robin. "Dr. DeCristofaro, the School Committee, and Frank Santoro have been extremely supportive of Nicole's endeavors to follow her dream and pursue this path. Her teachers have been extremely supportive about letting her make up work. This isn't just the Lee family and Nicole, this has been a partnership with the schools."

Lee said she isn't sure what the future will hold for her skating career, but no matter what happens she will always stay connected to the ice, whether it be participating and competing with Act One of Boston, skating in the Evening of Champions, or teaching at the local rinks.

To sponsor Lee's trip to the U.S. Figure Skating Championships contact Sara Levine at mattibo4@aol.com.

Spend the Holidays with Us!

*2-for-1
Assisted Living
Short Stay
*Stay for 2 Weeks,
pay for Only
1 Week!

Over 60 Years of
Quality Service
Welch
HEALTHCARE AND
RETIREMENT GROUP
A tradition of quality care
from our family to yours

164 Parkway • Quincy, MA 02169

www.welchhrg.com

Allerton House

Assisted Living Community
at Hancock Park

Enjoy our:

- Caring, personal approach
- Genuine interest in your family
- Fully furnished apartments
- Excellent dining options
- Fun holiday activities

Reserve your apartment today.

Call Kelly at: 339-788-2979

LOOKING TO MAKE A MOVE?

Sam's New Office Is...

Red Door
Real Estate

222 Sea Street - Quincy

Call
(617) 875-1776

SAM ROUNSEVILLE

email: ussam76@gmail.com

Quincy Sends Toys – And Love – To Newtown

QUINCY TOY DRIVE coordinators and volunteers who collected toys for families in Newtown, CT who were affected by the Dec. 14 tragedy at Sandy Hook Elementary School. From left - toy drive coordinators Ryan and Meredith Craig with volunteers Deirdre O'Connor, Aiden Brown, Tara Brown, Kathleen Griffin, Bo Levine and Nicole Heely. Front row: Olivia O'Driscoll and Jack O'Driscoll.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

Cont'd From Page 12
loaded with gifts. The Quincy Youth Hockey league "donated bags and bags of toys," he said.

A banner to be sent to Newtown was laid across a table, and donors were encouraged to write notes, prayers, and well-wishes to the devastated community. "Merry Christmas from the Mulligans," read one note. "God bless," read another.

Craig, with the help of a family friend, arranged to have the Red Sox 2004 and 2007 World Series trophies on display, in the hopes that fans would flock to the site for photo-ops with donations in hand, of course. The organization "jumped at the chance" to participate, he said.

Ami Smith and her husband Conor came for the toy drive, but the World Series trophies were an "added bonus."

"I think it's a really nice thing to have but people would have donated because that's how Quincy is," she said.

"Everybody wanted to do something, and they're here to show their support," said Meredith Craig. "What better than to give toys to children."

Getting folks to help with the undertaking was a breeze. "It was so simple. All we did was say 'this is what we want to do' and so many people stepped up and said 'I want to help,' she said.

The outpouring of generosity shown Saturday not only benefited the families of Newtown, but also gave solace to the citizens of Quincy, according to Craig.

"It's a way for us, as a community, to heal and show our support for their community."

Karen Curran of Milton said she "wanted to donate to the families just to help out."

"I think any community, and all communities, have all been doing what they can and I think this is one other area doing the little that they can to help the families," she said. "You always want to do something, and if it's just giving one little thing it helps."

Decked out head to toe in Red Sox gear, Maureen Reed donated Dunkin' Donuts gift cards to volunteers and took time to take a photo with the trophies. "We would have donated regardless, but this was an added bonus," she said.

MERRY CHRISTMAS and other well wishes for the families of Newtown, CT were signed on a banner by citizens dropping off toys at Saturday's toy drive at Pageant Field.

BOSTON RED SOX World Series trophies from the 2004 and 2007 championship seasons helped attract a steady stream of citizens donating toys at Saturday's toy drive at Pageant Field. Here the trophies are admired by youngsters (top photo from left) Oliver Smith, Neil McCole and Ben Akkara and (bottom photo) Nina Smith.

Steward Medical Group is pleased to welcome Dr. Brian Kenny to the Quincy Medical Center community. A graduate of the University of Navarra Faculty of Medicine, Pamplona, Spain, Dr. Kenny completed his residency at Carney Hospital in Boston. With a focus on primary care and internal medicine, he also has an interest in geriatric medicine. In addition to English, Dr. Kenny speaks Spanish. Please call DoctorFinder™ at 1-800-488-5959 to make an appointment.

Quincy Medical Center

A STEWARD FAMILY HOSPITAL

Call 800-488-5959 or visit steward.org/doctorfinder

North Girls Rout Middleboro, Quincy Bows To Hanover

NORTH QUINCY'S Caitlin Bulger, a senior guard, drives to the basket in the second half of the Red Raiders' against Middleboro last Friday night. Bulger led all scorers with 17 points as North Quincy sailed past the Sachems, 80-21.

Quincy Sun Photo/Larry Carchedi

JUNIOR GUARD Jane Minton scores two of her 12 points in last Friday night's 80-21 win against Middleboro.

Quincy Sun Photo/Larry Carchedi

SOPHOMORE HANNAH DONOVAN gets wrapped up on her way to the basket in the Red Raiders 80-21 win over Middleboro last Friday. Donovan scored seven points in the victory, Story, other photo on Page 37.

Quincy Sun Photo/Larry Carchedi

QUINCY HIGH SCHOOL junior guard Courtney Ryan blocks the shot by Hanover Captain Alicia Varasso in the Presidents' 54-25 loss to the Indians last Friday night. Ryan led Quincy with eight points.

JUNIOR FORWARD Caroline McBride puts up a shot for the Quincy Presidents against Hanover.

Quincy Sun Photos/Lisa Aimola

QUINCY JUNIOR GUARD Kayla McArdle drives towards the net against Hanover's Caroline Bickford.

Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

SENIOR GUARD Maryssa Dwyer drives past Hanover's Becca Ritchie for the layup during Quincy's game last Friday night. The Presidents fell to the Indians, 54-25.

Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

Real Estate

Registry Of Deeds Wraps Up Sixth Annual Toys For Tots Drive

Norfolk County Register of Deeds William P. O'Donnell recently delivered this year's Toys for Tots donations to U.S. Marine Corps Sergeant Richard Dobbryn.

On hand to deliver the toys with Register O'Donnell were Norfolk County Commissioners Francis W. O'Brien, Chairman of Dedham, John M. Gillis of Quincy and Peter H. Collins of Milton.

O'Donnell expressed his gratitude for the generosity of the Registry of Deeds employees, title examiners, attorneys and many Norfolk County residents for contributing to the Toys for Tots drive.

"I would like to thank everyone who generously donated to the Registry's 6th Annual Toys for Tots Drive. We are grateful for the service of all veterans past and present and are as always honored to partner with the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve in their annual toy drive which helps make the holiday brighter for so many," O'Donnell said.

Anyone interested in making a donation may still do so by contacting the Greater Boston Toys for Tots at www.toysfortots.org or by calling (617) 737-0500.

To learn more about this and other Registry of Deeds services, events and initiatives "Like" us at Facebook.com/NorfolkDeeds or follow us on twitter.com/NorfolkDeeds.

The Norfolk County Registry of Deeds, located at 649 High St., Dedham, is the principal office for real property in Norfolk County. The Registry is a resource for homeowners, title examiners, mortgage lenders, municipalities and others with a need for secure, accurate, accessible land record information.

Residents in need of assistance can contact the Registry of Deeds Customer Service Department via telephone at (781) 461-6101, or visit www.norfolkdeeds.org.

NORFOLK COUNTY Registry of Deeds recently wrapped up its sixth annual Toys for Tots Drive. From left to right: County Commissioner Peter Collins, Norfolk County Register of Deeds William O'Donnell, U.S.M.C. Sergeant Richard Dobbryn, Norfolk County Commissioner Francis O'Brien and Norfolk County Commissioner John Gillis.

By Samantha Mazzotta

Cleaning Up After The Holidays

Happy New Year! While the holidays might not quite be over, planning for post-holiday cleanup can help combat the winter blues and keep you from being that one house on the block that has a holiday wreath hanging on the door until July.

Here are a few tips that might help holiday cleanup go a little easier:

--If you have a real tree, check with your local government to find out if and when there is tree pickup and disposal in your area. Otherwise, look for a tree disposal service nearby. Remove and pack away all the tree ornaments and decorations. The night before scheduled disposal or pickup, prep the tree. If the disposal service wants it in a tree bag, put the bag over the tree and cover the tree fully while it's still in its stand. With a helper holding the tree in place, loosen the trunk from the stand and carefully lift away. Drain excess water from the stand into a sink, dry and store for next year.

--When removing the tree from the stand, don't set the trunk down on the carpet or floor, as sap will create a sticky mess. Don't use the tree as firewood: It's not seasoned and the branches may have been pre-treated at the tree lot with chemicals to prevent insects.

--Use a shop vac to vacuum up pine needles, tinsel and other small debris from where the tree once sat.

--Put used wrapping paper into the recycling bin -- don't burn it in the fireplace.

--Tree sap on tile or wood floors, or on protective cloths, can be cleaned with warm water and soap. Sap on the carpet should be dabbed with a cloth dampened with rubbing alcohol until the sap comes up.

--Take down outdoor Christmas lights and decorations in clear weather. Work with a partner and use a sturdy ladder for lights on the roof eaves. Some DIYers replace burnt bulbs when they take down the lights, but I usually don't, as I often have to replace burned or broken bulbs next holiday season anyway. Wrap the strands around a piece of cardboard to keep them from tangling, and store in a dry, cool place until next year.

HOME TIP: "To clean up tinsel stuck in the carpet, I put my grandkids to work by having them put on thick socks, stick folded-over duct tape all along the bottoms, and scoot around the floor! It works great! -- Mary B., Watertown, Mass.

Send your questions or tips to ask@thisisahammer.com, or write This Is a Hammer, c/o King Features Weekly Service, P.O. Box 536475, Orlando, FL 32853-6475.

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Free GED Preparation Course Begins Jan. 3 At Germantown Center

The Germantown Neighborhood Center will hold its next GED preparation class beginning Jan. 3.

The free course will be held Tuesday and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Center, 366 Palmer St., Quincy.

Students will learn study skills and test taking strategies; teamwork, goal setting and computer skills; and obtain the knowledge and skill necessary to obtain a GED.

Students must be a resident of Quincy (proof of residency required) and be unemployed or low-income.

Enrollment is underway. For more information, call 617-376-1384.

RE/MAX Realty Pros
Buying, Selling or Investing?
Call Tom McFarland
For All Your Real Estate Answers
QUINCY - (617) 328-3200
On the Web visit McFarlandproperties.com

REALTY 7
617-472-7700
Working for you
7 days a week

Tom McMahon
realty7.biz
tom@realty7.biz

FLAVIN Insurance Agency
Complete Insurance Service Since 1925
OFFERING FLOOD INSURANCE
Winter Rainy Season Can Increase Risk of Flooding
Call or drop in for Premium Quote
Flavin & Flavin
1085 Hancock St. Quincy Center
Visit: www.flavinandflavin.com
617-479-1000

QUINCY
WWW. stamosandstamosrealtors.com
Stamos & Stamos Realtors
747 East Suantum St.
Squantum, MA 02171
617.328.9400

Century 21
Annex Realty, Inc.
49 Beale St., Quincy, MA 02170
617-472-4330
www.c21annex.com
Over 70 Seller and Buyer Agents
specializing in Residential, Commercial
Real Estate, Bank Owned Properties,
Short Sales and Rentals
ANNEX REAL ESTATE SCHOOL
Offering Salesperson's, Broker's and Continuing Ed. classes
"STILL NUMBER ONE"

Thinking of buying or selling?
Think of us...
Red Door Real Estate
222 Sea Street - Quincy
(617) 553-1880
www.RedDoor-RE.com

DEP Upholds City's Plan To Re-Align Town Brook

Cont'd From Page 21

The City Council heard for the first time details of a proposal to finance core improvements needed for downtown redevelopment. The city applied to use up to $50 million in funds from the state's Infrastructure Investment Incentive (I-cubed) Program to pay for the re-routing of the Town Brook, creating Adams Green, and building the Cliveden Street Bridge. Under I-cubed, the state would use bonds to pay for the work, and the bonds would be paid for by 'net new' tax revenues created by the downtown project.

According to financial projections vetted by the state, the Quincy Center redevelopment would generate $179.4 million in net new revenue over the bonds' 30-year payoff. Factoring in interest, it would take an estimated $148.6 million to payoff the bonds, assuming the full $50 million was bonded.

A Department of Environmental Protection hearing officer upheld the city's plan to realign Town Brook. Pamela D. Harvey issued a recommended final decision on the matter, favoring the city's plan to route the brook along Hannon Parkway over an alternate plan to realign it through Quincy Center. In her ruling, Harvey said the city's plan would improve the smelt-spawning habitat in the culvert, something the backers of the alternate plan had contested.

"Indeed, the project offers a much improved habitat for spawning smelt," Harvey wrote.

The project still needed final approval from the DEP commissioner before going forward.

Army National Guard Sgt. First Class David Petrie was the keynote speaker at the city's Memorial Day ceremonies. A Quincy resident, Petrie told the crowd at the Mount Wollaston Cemetery that Memorial Day was the most solemn national holiday — despite the fact that some see it solely as an informal start to summer.

"Memorial Day to some means the backyard barbecues, the days the pools open, or the kickoff to the summer season," Petrie said. "But we today as our nation's most solemn holiday and with remembrances like these shared around the country we help to keep the memories alive — memories of those men and women who with pride and courage so willingly gave their lives."

The Sons of the American Legion held their own Memorial Day ceremony that weekend, dedicated over 50 flags at Flags for Veterans Island in Fort Square. The flags were dedicated to both deceased veterans and those who continue to serve. During the brief commemoration, SAL Commander Paul Moody emphasized the importance of veterans to the country.

"Always remember if there were no veterans, there would be no America," Moody said. "Freedom is not free."

On a sad note, the city mourned the loss of former Mayoral Chief of Staff Thomas Largey. Largey, 59, served as chief of staff to former Mayor William Phelan before joining the office of Norfolk County Sheriff Michael Bellotti. Both Phelan and Bellotti praised Largey for his integrity.

"He was a wonderful father, husband, and friend," Phelan said. "He served the citizens of Quincy with integrity."

"Tom brought great political and personal skills and most importantly he was a man of great integrity," Bellotti said. "It's a major loss for me personally and for the Sheriff's Department professionally. He was a great friend."

Other deaths during May include:

Joan M. McGuire, 74, a homemaker; Robert Chester Vinal, 66, a retired machine operator and Peace Corps volunteer; John J. Nolan, a Korean War veteran; Eleanor J. Pino Koelsch, 82, a retired Quincy Junior College secretary; Eleanor J. Tormey, former director of Faxon House; Mary C.

Flaherty, a member of Telephone Pioneers of America; Richard F. Buckley, 93, a WWII veteran and former housing director; Annie D. Olofsson, 84, a retired South Shore National Bank employee; Marjorie Granahan, an executive secretary and veteran; Robert O. Bird, a retired Quincy Police detective and veteran; Phung Phan, 88, an accounting clerk; Evelyn M. Philie, 91, a stenographer; Robert D. Rideout, 90, a steel worker and veteran; Leo P. Fallon, 89, a retired sales manager and veteran; Jamie M. Manning, a 208 North Quincy High graduate; Beatrice M. Dibona, 92, a supervisor at the former Millham Curtain Co.; Lorraine J. Gallagher, Eucharist minister at Star of the Sea Parish; Richard J. Wade, 53, worker for the former Tucker Concrete Form Co.; Helvi Ahola, 84, a retired registered nurse; Marjorie Cristadora, 75, owner of Miji Designs and 1958's Miss Quincy; Patrick J. Brady, a retired Boston Police detective; Russell L. Turcott, 67, a laborer and veteran; John J. Manning, an MBTA bus driver and veteran; Kenneth E. Campbell, former head professional at Ponkapoag Golf Course; Eleanor M. LaScola, 88, a homemaker and office administrator; Robert L. Halfyard, 86, a U.S. administrative law judge; Marguerite C. DellaBarba, 87, waitress at the Egg & I; Ellis Tom Cook, a Postal Service general supervisor and veteran; Margaret E. Plowman, 85, a framer for Jordan Marsh; Deirdre A. Mock, a waitress; Mildred Jaspon, 89, former owner of Samoset Pharmacy; Lena M. Morreale, 83, a hairdresser; Marguerite A. Custeau, a Bank of New England employee; Jacqueline McCarthy, finance director at Nativity School; Lillian A. Kennedy, 76, an office supervisor; Michael E. Sullivan, 59, a handyman; Bridget A. Gorman, 82, former head housekeeper at Faulkner Hospital; Henry F. Scott, 77, an electrician and veteran; Richard Stande, 82, REACH THE BEACH — Paige Carpenter, 9, and grandmother Penny Estee, formerly of Quincy, drove all the way from their home in Tewksbury to enjoy the first day of summer June 20 at Wollaston Beach as temperatures soared into the 90's.

Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

a truck driver and veteran; Susan L. Nickerson, 64, a nurse; Joseph R. Buttner, 88, an attorney and veteran; Paul Vespaziana, 54, a computer engineer; Edward G. Kelly, a community activist and veteran.

JUNE

The Fire Department hired four new firefighters and promoted a new lieutenant in front of a standing-room-only crowd at City Hall. The four new firefighters, all of whom served in the military, were Joseph Ceurvels, Jr., Mark A. Locken, Brendan J. Molloy, and Derek E. Monroe. Robert J. Kay, a Pembroke resident who joined the department in October 2001, was promoted to Lieutenant. Fire Chief Joseph Barron said Kay's superiors all raved about his work.

"I know he does an outstanding job as a firefighter," Barron said. "I've spoken to his deputy chief, and I know we have great confidence in his abilities and he's going to be an outstanding lieutenant."

Thirty houses on Lafayette, Armory, and Putnam Streets were flooded just before midnight on June 3rd after a combination of wind, high tide, and storm surge — as well as tide gates slated for replacement — caused Blacks Creek to overflow in a Merrymount neighborhood.

"This was an event that occurred as a result of a confluence of events," Public Works Commissioner Dan Raymondi said. "We had high tides, we had strong storm surges, and we had northeast winds that were also very strong as well. And also, the physical structure of the tide gates within the Blacks Creek."

Raymondi explained that the tide gates were left open because they needed to be closed hours before any flooding was anticipated. Those gates were to be replaced, and Blacks Creek dredged, at a combined cost of $800,000 as part of the city's capital improvement plan.

Reports of flooding started coming in around 11 p.m. that Sunday night. Fire and DPW officials began knocking on doors and warning residents after the flooding had already started, and power was cut to 30 homes. Power to all but one of the houses was restored by the next evening. The city would agree to pay residents for items not covered by insurance. By month's end, 19 claims would be filed.

The storm also forced postponements for both Quincy and North Quincy High's graduations. At QHS's graduation, held two days late and inside the school's gym, valedictorian Michaela Walker told her fellow graduates to care about their future and persevere to make it better.

"So care class of 2012, and as long as you can hold onto that, you will find the strength and the courage to struggle, to persevere, to persist," Walker said. "Never let that fire go out, never wave a white flag because it is easier than standing your ground. Never forget the people that make your life worth living or the future you are fighting to create."

At North Quincy's graduation, likewise delayed two days and moved to its gym, Class President Mary Theresa McGough urged the graduates to continue serving the community.

"These last four years of hard work and service do not come to an end with this day, but rather to a beginning," McGough said. "In the future, continue to serve your community and give back in whatever you do. Never forget your Raider pride and the duty of service it entails."

With summer vacation approaching, state Rep. Bruce Ayers warned juniors at North Quincy High about the dangers of texting and driving. "In my opinion the biggest danger is that drivers think they can handle it. They think they can text while they are driving," Ayers told the students.

As part of the assembly students watched a short video, "The Last Text," on

Cont'd On Page 29

South Cove
Community Health Center

south cove The Premier Asian Community Health Center of Massachusetts

435 Hancock St. Clinic Tel: 617.745.0280

88 Holmes St. Clinic Tel: 617.318.3200

Happy Holidays from
The South Cove Family
To Your Family.

Happy
Holidays

FROM YOUR FRIENDS AT

Collision and Automotive Center, Inc.
248 Willard St., Quincy
617-471-7072

Wishing You a Peaceful New Year

EMILY LEBO
School Committeewoman

Council OKs FY 2013 Budget Of $246.96M, Up 3.76%

Cont'd From Page 28

the dangers of texting behind the wheel. Stories in the video showed crashes caused by drivers who were texting, and others showed the impact on families who had teens killed in such crashes. Ayers said he intended to visit each school in his district to spread the message.

Two longtime educators at the Atherton Hough School retired at the end of the school year. Principal Dorothy Greene and kindergarten teacher Nancy Brennan had worked at the school for 22 and 19 years, respectively, before retiring in June.

A Quincy Police patrolman was fired following an independent hearing. Joseph McGunigle had been suspended as a result of a long running dispute with neighbors. While suspended, Chief Paul Keenan said McGunigle violated an order to stay away from police headquarters when he visited it while a witness to the first dispute was in the station. A subsequent hearing was held, and the hearing officer recommended termination.

Before approving the mayor's proposed budget, the City Council finance committee found nearly $900,000 in pension savings. Most of that money — $847,626 — was taken from the city's pension fund contribution. The money the council cut represents the amount the Quincy Housing Authority would contribute to the pension pool. QHA pays into the fund independently of the city but the city pays for the contributions for other entities, like Quincy College, which then reimburse the city. The council also found $10,000 in savings by cutting that amount from the non-contributory pension line. Even with those cuts, beneficiaries of those benefits would still see an increase in the surviving spouse benefits they'd receive. The committee had previously cut $10,000 from an inspection services line item.

The revised budget for fiscal year 2013 was approved by a unanimous vote of the council. The final approved FY13 budget was $246.96 million, a 3.76 percent increase over the previous year's budget. It was predicted that the added spending would increase the property tax bill on the average homeowner by about $112.

2012 The Year In Review

The school committee approved a $91.3 million budget for FY13 by a 6-1 vote, with Anne Mahoney opposed. The budget, a $1.8 million increase over FY12, allows the hiring of five new classroom teachers, 10 special education aids, two office aids, and two athletic trainers at both high schools. Two of the five new teachers would be ELL (English Learners Language) teachers, two would be special education teachers, and the other a literacy teacher.

The school committee also approved a pilot community service program for high school students. Starting in October, grade 10 and 11 students would need to complete 10 hours of community service a year. Former committee member Jo-Ann Bragg, a longtime champion of the program, was happy to see the committee test the program out.

"I am proud of the school committee for working out the details to implement making community service a high school graduation requirement. By taking the vote, the Quincy School Committee has shown our young people it is important to give back to your community and help others," Bragg told the Sun.

Under the program, each high school will have a community service coordinator who would help students find community service opportunities; a current faculty member would be assigned that role and paid a stipend for it. Other details needed to be ironed out, including creating a list of organizations or groups students could volunteer with.

The renovations of City and Coddington Hall were approved by the City Council. As proposed the buildings would be renovated at a combined cost of $18 million. The council had delayed approval for three months until the use of Community Preservation Act (CPA) funds for the project was approved. The bond authorization passed by an 8-1 vote, with Councillor Joe Finn opposed.

The city council also unanimously approved two measures related to the redevelopment of Quincy Center. One vote allowed the city to use the state's Infrastructure Investment Incentive (I-cubed) program to pay for $40 million of projects — Adams Green, Town Brook relocation, and the Cliveden Street Bridge. Under the agreement with the developer, Quincy was responsible for paying for those projects. Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci warned his colleagues that if the council didn't authorize the use I-cubed funds, which are paid back with new tax revenue with the city required to make-up any difference. In doing so, he alluded to the French Foreign Legion's creed.

"March or Die," Palmucci said. "Tonight I can appreciate those words more than ever, because tonight it's vote to support this or die; to support the I-cubed funding or sit idly by while we watch the downtown continue to die a slow death."

The second downtown vote was an endorsement of a proposal to start the project earlier than originally thought. The private development was originally to begin in the fall of 2013, but in June Mayor Koch announced plans to begin private work in February or March instead. Under the new timeline, work would begin in Block 4, the area around the Granite Trust Building, and not in the area of the Ross Garage as originally planned. Outside legal counsel Bob Fishman said the plan was altered because investors wanted residential development to precede big-box retail.

"What retailers are telling [the developers] and what their investors are and equity sources are telling them is 'start with something that isn't retail — create the market,'" Fishman said.

YOUNGSTERS SHOW THEIR patriotic spirit by waving American flags on the Quincy Partnership float during the 61st annual Quincy Flag Day Parade in June. Nearly 2,000 youngsters also marched in the parade. The celebration also featured a spectacular fireworks display over Blacks Creek.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Noble

To make way for the new Central Middle School, the city cut down the Winfield Elm Tree. Residents had petitioned Mayor Tom Koch to save the tree, believed to be more than 100 years old. The mayor said he sought three different opinions before ordering the tree removed, and each review found that the tree wouldn't survive construction and couldn't feasibly be moved. Pat Artis, Wollaston Garden Club president, called it a "real loss to the community." Koch was said to be considering saving some of the tree's wood for use in the school.

The city held a wreath-laying ceremony at the Korean War Veterans Memorial commemorated the 62nd anniversary of the war's beginning. The special speaker at the rain-shortened ceremony was Richard F. Foy, an Army veteran of the war and Quincy native. He said that Quincy hadn't forgotten the Korean War, which claimed the lives of 38 city residents.

"The Korean War is known as the forgotten war, but it was a horrible, bloody war," Foy said. "The forgotten war was not forgotten by Quincy. There were a bunch of young veterans who got together, raised donations, sold bricks, and they got the city to give us a piece of this property so we can honor the men that served."

A proposal to build nine townhouses at the site of St. Mary's Convent in West Quincy won the blessing of the Zoning Board of Appeals and awaited review from the Planning Board. At an estimated cost of $3.2 million, developers Scott and Sean Galvin planned to construct Cape Cod Style townhouses. Each would have two bedrooms and two bathrooms and would be sold in the mid $300,000 range.

All six ward councillors voted down a proposal to remove the Zoning Board of Appeals from the review process for projects in federally designated flood plains. The proposed change would've still required approval from both the Planning Board and the Conservation Commission, but councillors said they preferred to keep the ZBA involved for the sake of residents.

Deaths during June include:

Geraldine Storella, an executive assistant in the finance industry; Dorothy L. Tocci, 89, a Navy veteran; Catherine E. Thoms, 77, a registered nurse; Richard B. Weston, 64, a computer technician; Beverly Ann Loud, 69, office manager for Hamel, Wickens & Troupe; Agnes A. Morin, 95, owner of Grammie's Day Care; John J. Russell, 86, an Army Veteran; Robert A. Driscoll III, an electrical engineer for General Dynamics; Ruth A. Lindblom, 84, a former assembler; Carolyn E. Goyette, 68, a high school secretary; Richard J. Scanlon, a Quincy High teacher and Army veteran; William H. Greene, 80, a union iron worker; Edward T. Ryan, 41, a Quincy Police detective and Air Force veteran; Richard P. Carroll, 51, a self-employed carpenter; James V. Ryan, a government employee and Navy veteran; William J. Farrell, 87, a civil engineer and Navy veteran; Leona G. Abbondanzio, a former Howard Johnson's bookkeeper; Neil F. Marini, 78, a Boy Scout leader and shipyard worker; Louise R. Donovan, 86, a choreographer; Mary E. Estabrook, a retired bank teller; Warren O'Sines, 77, a retired Quincy firefighter and Air Force veteran; Roger W. Kent, 92, co-founder of Kent's Carpetland and a Navy veteran; Lorraine F. Curley, 85, a registered nurse; Mark A. Colletti, 53, jeweler for LeColson Fine Jewellery; Barbara M. Collins, 87, a retired Wentworth Institute controller; Jessie Rathke, 88, a QPCC member; Rena A. Testa, 89, a banking industry employee; Francis C. Downey, 74, an electrician and Army veteran; John H. Swenson, a carpenter and Army veteran; Anne Moore, 57, a former Williams Coal and Oil employee; Richard F. Devlin, a retired trial court officer; Carlton L. Howorth, Jr., 88, owner of American Industrial Corp. and Army veteran; Chris Simonelli, former owner of C. Simonelli & Sons, Inc.; Jonas Baciulis, member of IBEW Local 103; Gladys F. Ingram, a retired postal clerk; and Freida Condos, retired Quincy Savings Bank Teller.

Cont'd On Page 30

NEW YEAR GREETINGS 2013

Wishing you...

All the joy a day can hold,
All the luck a year can bring
All the happiest things in life
All the best of everything!

Stamos & Stamos Realtors

617-328-9400

www.stamosandstamosrealtors.com

BEST WISHES FOR THE NEW YEAR
FROM YOUR FRIENDS AT GRANITE CITY ELECTRIC SUPPLY

www.granitecityelectric.com
Toll Free: 800-850-9400
Serving New England with 25 Locations

Happy Holidays!!!

Thank you for your Patronage!!!

REGGIE'S
OIL

92-94 (REAR) Franklin St.

Quincy

617-471-2095

Barron Appointed Fire Chief

JULY

Lamar Thompson, an 18-year-old from Houghs Neck, drowned in Quincy Bay after jumping into the water from a pier near the Quincy Yacht Club. He had made it halfway from the pier to a boat dock when he went underwater because of some sort of distress.

About 10 members of the yacht club jumped in the water to search for Thompson but couldn't find him because of poor visibility underwater. Police divers arrived on scene and found Thompson's body under about eight feet of water. After attempts to resuscitate him at the scene, he was rushed to Quincy Medical Center where he was later pronounced dead.

Thompson was a native of Jamaica who immigrated to Quincy in 2011. A senior at Quincy High, he was a member of the school's soccer team. QHS Coach Mark Spendlove told the Sun Thompson was a popular kid with a great sense of humor.

A groundbreaking ceremony for the city's Town Brook relocation project was held at the corner of Mechanic Street and Hannon Parkway. During the event, state Secretary of Administration and Finance Jay Gonzalez told residents they should be proud of the upcoming downtown revitalization.

"It is all extremely exciting," Gonzalez said. "This is one of the biggest, most transformative economic developments going on in the Commonwealth right now and I think all of you should take a lot of pride in that happening. I'm just happy to be here."

The $10 million relocation project is one of three improvements the city is responsible for as part of the $1.6 billion redevelopment of the downtown. Days before the groundbreaking, the city and Revere Road resident Arline Goodman reached a settlement allowing work to go forward. Goodman had previously fought against the plan to re-route the brook, citing concerns over flooding on her property.

2012 The Year In Review

To help alleviate those concerns, the city agreed to pay Goodman's flood insurance premiums for five years, and install a French drain under her basement. Among other terms, the settlement also gives Goodman $25,000 for the use of her land and calls for the creation of a memorial to the American Legion near Goodman's house that needed to be torn down as part of the brook relocation.

Elections, special events, and interest in the Adams family all helped bring more visitors to Quincy's historic site. The Adams National Historical Park, for example, had more than 60,000 visitors through early July — a 30 percent increase over the same time frame in 2011, which park Deputy Supt. Caroline Keinath credited to the upcoming presidential election and events organized at the park.

The First United Parish Church had 1,500 visitors in June alone, which visitors director Gary Haynes credited to interest in the Adams family sparked by David McCullough's biography of John Adams and the HBO miniseries based on it.

After five years of deliberation, the Quincy Masons decided to move out of the Masonic Temple on Hancock Street that had been their home for 85 years. They reached that decision because they couldn't afford to stay in the building, and other community organizations couldn't afford the building at the rates the Masons needed to keep the building.

"It's been a very painful decision," board member David Smith said. "We are hoping to find another place in Quincy but we are still looking around and have a couple in mind."

The three-story, neoclassical building was put on the market for $3 million. Inside the building are a theater/ballroom, three separate lodge rooms, elaborate ante-library.

Repaving of Sea Street and nine other roads began after the city received $1.9 million in Chapter 90 funds from the state. Public Works Commissioner Dan Raymondi said the city would have all 10 streets — Sea Street Quincy Point's Massachusetts Avenue and Hannah, Beachwood, and Follett Streets, Governors Road in West Quincy, Pratt Road in Squantum, Douse Road in Wollaston, Conant Road in North Quincy, and portions of Merrymount's Samoset Avenue — would be finished by the end of the construction season.

State Sen. John Kennan announced his support for Senate Bill 1654 that would give communities the ability to fine utility companies for not removing double poles promptly enough. Quincy, according to Keenan, had about 200 such double poles. Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci, a longtime critic of double poles said he supported Keenan's bill "100 percent."

Two Quincy teen parents were honored with the Young Families Moving Forward Award for their strength and determination in overcoming the difficulties of being teen parents. Cassandra Walsh and Kevin Failla received the award during a conference at Northeastern University. Walsh is a 2011 graduate of Quincy High's Teen Mothers Program and Failla is a 2009 QHS grad.

Joseph Barron was appointed fire chief following the recommendation of an independent panel. Mayor Tom Koch named Barron fire chief in 2009, but a Civil Service panel threw out that appointment in 2011 after finding that the mayor inappropriately bypassed Deputy Chief Gary Smyth for the job. An independent panel was brought in to decide between the two candidates. They chose Barron and Koch followed their recommendation.

"Based on the results of the interview process and a comparison of the qualifications of each candidate against national standards and best practices for the position, the fire chief interview panel unanimously recommends that Mayor Koch appoint Joseph J. Barron as the permanent fire chief," the panel wrote.

The panel cited Barron for managing the department during a time of budgetary setbacks, his knowledge of city and other government processes, and his ability to work with the firefighter's union. The panel held a public meeting on the issue, but closed the public from the interview process. City Council Public Safety Committee Chairman Brian Palmucci said the panel should've allowed the public to see the interviews.

The 245th anniversary of John Quincy Adams' birth was commemorated with a presidential wreath. At the ceremony at the First United Parish Church, Mayor Tom Koch said the sixth president's intellect was unparalleled in the nation's history.

"His intellect and his contributions were unparalleled in our nation's history," Koch said. "Though many authors discuss his lack of warmth and friendship the authors also indicate that there was nobody at his level of intellect at the time. He was so far ahead of his time in the nation's history that public support would take 100 years to catch up."

At the ceremony, officials also paid tribute to Adams' wife Louisa Catherine Adams, the only first lady born outside the United States.

"Everyone knows behind every great man there is a great woman," said Helen Furbush, commanding officer of the Joint Intelligence Center Central Command 0597. "Louisa was that woman, supporting and in some cases empowering JQA."

During the ceremony, Peter Boylston Adams, a seventh-generation descendant of the sixth-president, paid tribute to the late Arthur Ducharme, who spent 15 years as director of interpretative program at the church. Adams and his family had successfully lobbied the church to put up a plaque in Ducharme's honor, and he said he traveled from Florida to honor him.

A FOUR-ALARM FIRE July 14 gutted the headquarters of Dependable Cleaners on Quincy Avenue. An equipment failure was believed the cause of the blaze. Photo By Michael Worley

"The most important reason I came these 1,500 miles for this particular activity was to honor Arthur Ducharme," Adams said. "The standard procedure [is] for people to have a moment of silence for someone they respected and for someone who is now gone on. I would like to change that and have you all stand and give three cheers."

A four-alarm blaze gutted Dependable Cleaners' headquarters on Quincy Avenue. Firefighters initially tried to fight the fire inside the building, which housed a laundromat and office. But they quickly had to retreat as the situation inside rapidly deteriorated, and had to go into defensive mode outside.

Making matters worse, temperatures reached 91 degrees with high humidity as firefighters attempted to put down the fire. The fire required all 11 of Quincy's fire trucks — eight engines and three ladders — and an engine and a ladder from Boston. Deputy Fire Chief Joe Jackson said they all did an outstanding job.

"The guys did an outstanding job," Jackson said, "given the weather conditions and given the speed of the fire."

Four firefighters received medical attention. Two Quincy firefighters were sent to the hospital because of heat and breathing issues, and a third was taken to the hospital after being cut. A Boston firefighter was also taken to the hospital. The rendered the building unusable, and Dependable CEO Christa Hagearty vowed to rebuild.

A joint operation between Quincy and Malden police and the South Shore Drug Task Force resulted in the seizure of heroin and marijuana worth $3,500. Four people, including two Quincy residents, were arrested and charged with various drug offenses. They were released after arraignment and due back in court in August.

An increased desire amongst consumers to eat locally produced food helped drive more than 750 a week to Quincy's weekly farmers market. The movement, known as the locavore movement, helped increase the number of vendors at the market from 12 to 24 in just two years.

More than 225 disabled veterans enjoyed a day fishing in Boston Harbor as part of the Harvey's Salt Water Fishing Club's 56th annual outing. The boats cast off from the Quincy Yacht Club around 9:30 a.m. and returned around 2 p.m.

"The fishing was great
Cont'd On Page 31

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

State Senator John Keenan and Family

Wishing you & your loved ones a Happy, Healthy & Safe New Year!

CENTURY 21 Annex Realty, Inc.
#1 Real Estate Office in Quincy
617 472-4330

Happy Holidays and Best Wishes for the New Year!

Norfolk County Sheriff Michael Bellotti and Family

Survivor Recalls Quincy On 70th Anniversary Of Heavy Cruiser's Sinking

Cont'd From Page 30

but the most important part of the day for the disabled veterans was just to get out on the boat and enjoy the day," said Harvey's President John Urbanus. "For some disabled veterans this will be the only day out of the hospital on an outing. We have veterans who look forward to this day all year long."

The city mourned the loss of former Quincy District Court assistant clerk Lawrence "Larry" Falvey. City Clerk Joe Shea said Falvey, 69, was a friendly guy who treated everyone with respect. Arthur Tobin, the clerk magistrate at the court, called him a good soul with a generous heart.

"He was very generous to people at the courthouse," Tobin said. "He had such a generous heart - he was generous to a fault with the people he was close to. He was a good soul."

Deaths during July include:

Samuel D. Adair, 86, retired Navy chief hull technician; Jeanné M. Flynn, former administrative assistant for BFDS; Patricia F. Morrell, a Quincy Art Association member; Richard W. Marshall, 67, a retired computer systems analyst; Margaret C. Smith, 96, a former Talbots sales associate; Irene M. Tajc-Conley, 90, a homemaker; Mary B. Brewster, 98, a seamstress; Thomas Joseph Jackson, 86, a WWII Navy veteran; Ann E. Stark, 76, a retired Quincy Public Schools secretary; Gerard A. MacNeil, Sr., 82, a self-employed auto dealer; Robert G. Carlson, 85, a retired production engineer and veteran; Gerald L. Donovan, a retired Postal Service employee and veteran; Americo A. Curto, 89, a retired MBTA employee and veteran; Paul F. Sheridan, 72, a retired Postal Service employee; Edmund T. Burke, 88, a retired Boston Fire captain and veteran; Ford S. Dame, 98, a retired tool and die engineer; Michael F. Farnham, a Boston firefighter; Michael Polvere, owner of Able Pest Control; Virginia G. Holdstock, 89, a retired bank secretary; Helen T. Connolly, a retired telephone operator; Thomas C. Kelly, 71, an Owens-Corning Fiberglass employee; Margaret M. Cipolla, 87, a retired administrative assistant; Evelyn L. Murphy, 93, a worker for the Boston Building Department; Gut T. McGuinn, 51, an ironworker; William J. Cornwell, 88, a Navy veteran; Edith L. Volpe, 97, an officer for Rice Eventide Auxiliary; and Julia MacLean, 80, a retired legal secretary and Quincy Hospital volunteer.

2012 The Year In Review

AUGUST

After 13 years a 'three-strikes' law championed by Quincy resident Les Gosule - and backed by the entirety of Quincy state house delegation - was finally enacted.

In July of 1999, Gosule's 27-year-old daughter Melissa was brutally raped and murdered after her car broke down. Her killer, Michael Gentile, had been previously been convicted of more than two-dozen felony counts, but he served only about two years for those convictions. Les fought for a law to mandate life in prison without parole for anyone convicted of three felonies to help make sure no one went through what his daughter did.

"My daughter lived through her own private holocaust. I live through it every night thinking about her," Gosule said. "The government has a responsibility to stop that crime. No other family should have to go through a holocaust."

Gov. Deval Patrick at first vetoed the bill and submitted an amendment allowing for judicial discretion in allowing the possibility of parole.

But both houses of the Legislature voted to override the veto, and Patrick signed the bill. All four members of Quincy's delegation voted to overturn the veto.

Grumpy White's parking lot began to attract a pack of four coyote pups. Restaurant owner Bob White said he'd seen adult coyotes before, but usually in the wee hours of the morning on security camera footage. White said the pups were visiting during the day, and would just sit in the parking lot.

"They look like a puppy," White said, "just sitting there waiting to be petted."

The husband and wife team of Lt. Tim and Lt. Nicole Ross arrived in Quincy to run the Quincy Salvation Army after Capt. Heather Odom moved to New York to work at the Salvation Army College.

The Rosses spent four years running the Plymouth Salvation Army before moving to Braintree and taking over in Quincy. The two met in 2004 while in a childcare program at Lynn Salvation Army and had two young children together. Tim said he and Nicole would work to expand children's programs in Quincy.

"In our four years in Plymouth we saw the kids program increase," Tim said. "We would like to see that happen here - take what they have and as best as we can see if there are more kids who need that safety net or a place to feel safe."

Hundreds gathered at Marina Bay for the 17th annual Arts Affair, which featured more than 175 pieces of art. Artists from about 20 different arts associations took place took place in the two-day event that awarded prizes in six different categories - Ruthe Sholler from the South Shore Art Center won the Best in Show award for her pastel drawing "Interlude."

REMEMBERING USS QUINCY - World War II Navy veteran Daniel H. Galvin, a survivor of the sinking of the USS Quincy, salutes after his American flag - raised on the USS Constitution and then at half-staff at the DPW flagpole - is returned to him by HM2 Crystal Galvin of the Navy Operational Support Center in Quincy. The moment was among the highlights at a poignant and patriotic ceremony outside the city's Department of Public Works facility Aug. 9 marking the 70th anniversary of Quincy's sinking. A granite memorial commemorates the ship outside the facility near the flag pole.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

"We had hundreds of people show up and that is the best part about the event," Arts Affair committee member Marilyn Reisberg said. "The paintings are just beautiful, it is so nice for those who come to see some beautiful artwork."

Flagship Marina Bay and Redgate Real Estate Advisors announced their intentions replace the 62,000 square foot Ocean Club and some boat storage facilities with two luxury apartment buildings with 460 total residential units and additional street-level retail. Bryan Connolly, an attorney for the developers, said they intended to make the apartments the most expensive in the city. Buildings would include amenities such as billiards rooms, a gym, and yoga center.

Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee said residents who'd heard about the building had concerns over parking and traffic that the new units would bring, and were also concerned that the new buildings wouldn't blend in well with existing buildings. But he said residents had long complained about the Ocean Club and would be happy to see it go.

"It's been problematic since day one. It's a nightclub that's a few hundred feet away from some very expensive apartments. I can't think of a bigger juxtaposition," McNamee said.

After spending 25 years as an administrative assistant for the Recreation Department, 82-year-old Quincy resident Mary Dowling began her retirement. Dowling, who worked at City Hall for 12 years prior to joining the Recreation Department, said she planned on spending as much time as possible in August at the beach.

"I am going to be a beach bum until the end of August, no one can talk to me about anything," Dowling said. "I promised I wouldn't think about anything until (the summer) is over. I love the beach, absolutely love it. I love Nantasket."

Dowling was honored the previous month with a retirement picnic. At the reception she received a citation from Mayor Koch, proclaiming July 31 Mary Dowling Day in the city.

Norfolk County DA Michael Morrissey launched a media campaign for information on a missing North Quincy woman. Evelin Valibayova, a Hodges Avenue resident, hadn't been seen since July 17, 2011. Since then she has not contacted family or friends, accessed her bank accounts, or used any social media. Morrissey said his office believes Valibayova encountered foul play in her apartment the night she went missing.

Morrissey appeared with State Police Det. John Morris on Fox 25's "New England Unsolved" segment with Bob Ward to discuss the case. Billboards were also installed in four locations - Quincy, Dorchester, Mattapan, and Weymouth - with Valibayova's picture and information.

In a poignant ceremony, Quincy remember the USS Quincy on the 70th anniversary of its sinking by Japanese ships at the Battle of Savo Island. Firecontrolman First Class Daniel H. Galvin, who was on the Quincy that night, read a list of those killed in action that night. He also talked about that faithful night in the Pacific.

"They came at night and we had no idea about night fighting," Galvin said. "Our training was bombardments at 20,000 yards in the daylight, and that's not the way the Japanese trained. They trained at night with torpedoes and that's why they took us down. We had no torpedoes, we had no way of responding to an attack by Japanese cruisers using torpedoes."

The ceremony was held at DPW headquarters on Sea Street, where a plaque memorializing the Quincy sits. Both Mayor Koch and DPW Commissioner Dan Raymondi spoke at the ceremony. Koch, referencing Gen. George S. Patton, said Quincy should be thankful that those who died that

Cont'd On Page 32

Happy Holidays!

Attorney & Mrs. George Burke

Wish All a Very Blessed, Joyous and Happy New Year

Thank you for your generous support of the MARIA DROSTE AWARD

PEACE

Maria Droste Counseling Services

Wishing you a joyous Holiday Season!

TACKEY CHAN

State Representative

Vertical Lift Design Selected For New Fore River Bridge

Cont'd From Page 31

night lived.

"You know what would have been had they not stepped up and served? We would have seen oppression — no freedom. I think General Patton said it well, and I am paraphrasing, I don't know the quote exactly, 'it's foolish to mourn the death of these men, for we should thank God that such men lived.' I think that really speaks of those folks of the USS Quincy that perished that faithful day," Koch said.

One Quincy resident was nearby the night the Quincy was sunk. Marine Corps PFC Dean Schaeffer, who moved to Quincy after the war, was on Guadalcanal that night, and could hear the explosions at sea 15-20 miles away. The next day he and fellow Marines helped survivors from the Quincy and three other Allied ships sank that night as they came ashore in shock.

House Majority Leader Ron Mariano and Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall both expressed their support for the new Fore River Bridge that the state awarded White-Skanska Koch, J.V. a $244.6 million contract to build. The new vertical-lift style bridge would replace a temporary bridge that many residents disliked because of its resemblance to Erector Sets.

"The current temporary structure has been an expensive eyesore and public safety risk for far too long and new permanent structure is crucial," Mariano said.

"It's been 10 years too temporary," Croall said. "I'm excited that the bridge is going to be replaced."

The state chose to make the new span a vertical-lift bridge and not a bascule one like the original bridge because the Coast Guard wanted a wider navigable channel than a bascule bridge could provide. The channel for the new bridge will be 250 feet wide, compared to the 175-foot wide channel both the temporary and 1936 bridge had. Both Mariano and Croall supported the vertical-lift because of the widened channel.

The August Moon Festival, the South Shore's largest outdoor event, set another record for attendance after drawing an estimated crowd of 12,000. Quincy Asian Resources, Inc. executive director John Brothers credited terrific weather and his team of volunteers for making the event such a success. The event also set a fundraising record, bringing in more than $100,000 for QARI.

It was announced that Quincy District Courthouse would be renamed for Francis X. Bellotti, a Quincy resident and former state lieutenant governor and attorney general. He began his legal career more than 50 years ago in the city, and said it was a great honor.

"I tried my first case there in 1953. I always came back here, so for me it's a great thing," Bellotti said.

Over 150 family members, friends, and community members came together to remember those struggling with addiction and those who died because of it at a vigil at Veterans' Memorial Stadium.

"It is so important not to do this by yourself. There is no stigma here — it is a family disease — you are not alone," said Quincy parent and activist Kathy Deady. "Addicts in recovery, whether they be alcohol or substance abusers, have to work at their recovery every single day. It is the hardest work they will ever do, but you can have a life, you can get your life back."

By a 3-2, the Board of License Commissioners denied a request for an all alcohol permit for the Tilted Kilt, a proposed Quincy Center restaurant that would take the place of an Outback Steakhouse. Opposition to the restaurant, whose waiters wear revealing outfits, was led by local churches — especially nearby St. John the Baptist and Fort Square Presbyterian. Ward 2 Councillor Brad Croall also voiced his opposition to the restaurant.

"We talked about the major religious stakeholder in St. John's," Croall said. "Now here's an institution that's out there promoting love and tolerance and concern for other people and we have a potential applicant whose motif is quite the contrary. I received a phone call this morning from a resident of 45 School

QUINCY YOUTH BASEBALL's 11-Year-Old American Travel Team and reigning Cal Ripken New England Champions were honored by Mayor Thomas Koch at his office in August.

The team presented the mayor with a team hat and a baseball signed by all the players. Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

2012 The Year In Review

St. who had the opportunity, and I use that word loosely, to watch the Tilted Kilt commercial. In her words, and I quote, 'I almost fell out of the chair.'"

The board had originally approved the license by a 5-0 vote. But a re-vote was required because St. John's wasn't given proper notice. City Clerk Joe Shea and Director of Inspectional Services Jay Duca changed their votes at the second hearing. They were joined by Police Chief Paul Keenan, who was absent at the first hearing.

Robin Moreira was named the new principal at Atherton Hough. Moreira, who spent the past two seasons as assistant principal at the school, replaced Dorothy Greene after the latter spent 22 years as principal.

The Quincy Fire Department promoted four officers. Lt. James Cosgrove was named captain. Joseph Barron, Jr., Paul Cohane, and Timothy Marks were all named lieutenants. Cosgrove joined the department in October 1998 and named lieutenant in September 2003. Barron joined in October 2004, Cohane in October 1998, and Marks in August 2002.

City Councillors raised questions about the city's $485,000 purchase of 20 Furnace Ave. from realtor Dan Flynn.

Council Finance Committee Chairman Joe Finn was one of the most vocal critics of the deal, said the deal needed council approval.

Councillors Doug Gutro and Brian McNamee also questioned the sale. Gutro was concerned the mayor might have broken the law by not getting approval, and McNamee was concerned that the sales price was more than three-times the land's assessed value of $135,200.

But mayoral spokesman Chris Walker defended the deal, saying it was discussed as part of the $25 million capital improvement project.

"This is a land purchase that was sought and discussed for several years as part of flood-relief plans for residents in this neighborhood and it going to make a real difference that is long overdue. We are very much looking forward to clarifying any issues councillors may have," Walker said.

The players of the Quincy Youth Baseball's 11-Year Old American travel team were recognized Aug. 29th by Mayor Tom Koch for making local youth baseball history when they became the first Quincy team to win the 2012 Cal Ripken New England Championship on Aug. 13th.

"We just wanted to take a moment to acknowledge your accomplishments," Koch said to the 12 players as the team gathered near the mayor's desk at City Hall. "We want to let you know how proud we are of you as individuals and as a team. We are proud of each of you for the way you conducted yourselves on and off the field."

The players along with their coaches received commendations, baseball shaped cookies, and a gift certificate to Villa Rosa to celebrate with a pizza party. In return the team presented the mayor with a baseball signed by each of them and one of their baseball hats.

"We are very proud of the boys. All 12 boys participated and were key in each game," said Coach Mark Free. "It has been a great experience and a great journey for all of them."

Deaths during August include:

Frank E. Morse, former owner of Morse's Auto Repair and WWII veteran; Edward T. Dobbyn, 94, a business vice president and Navy captain; Winifred 'Claire' McKeough, former president of Seaside Gardeners; William J. Jolly, Jr., 58, a self-employed contractor; Nicholas Varraso, 85, a former welder and veteran; Stella Hult, 89, former Quincy schools teacher; Paul Harvey, 63, retired Boston Police officer; William F. Kimball, 88, a lumber industry worker and veteran; Margaret E. Crowther, 92, a member of St. Chrysostom's Church; Philip R. Doyle, 79, a self-employed painter and veteran; Geraldine E. Biasetti, retired secretary; Helen J. Walsh, 73, a former store manager; Doris F. Chamberlain, 84, a homemaker; Owen J. Eaton, Jr., 82, retired Quincy Water superintendent and veteran; William J. Higgins, 66, a retired contract negotiator; John J. Svizzero, 81, a hotel industry employee; Vincent J. Feulo, 79, owner of J & H Woodworking and veteran; Mary Louise Petitti, 80, a homemaker; Muriel J. Hamaty, former owner of Hamaty's Creations; Rita Lynch, a retired executive secretary; Margaret G. Hourihan, 98, retired assistant Boston Court clerk; Bernard J. Ronan, 82, a retired General Dynamics worker; David T. Alty, 73, member Local IBEW Local #103 and Army veteran; Bessie A. Santagata, 98, a longtime bookkeeper; Elsie Bailey Comer, 84, past national president American Legion Auxillary; Frank B. Hill, 92, retired hardware salesman and veteran; Mark S. Gillis, Sr., 59, Mass Lottery sales representative; Joseph E. Pacetti, 83, former owner of the Locker Room and a veteran; Michael A. Panarelli, 89, former foreman and WWII Navy veteran; Stephen W. Yovino, retired Sears Roebuck worker; Harold A. Southerland, 83, retired senior staff manager and veteran; Priscilla M. Johnston, 87, retired school bus driver; Ruth Amanda Westerbeke, homemaker; Ellen Barbara DeWolfe, retired school teacher and assistant principal; Alphonse A. Principato, former print foreman and veteran; Suzanne M. Kingsbury, Quincy College graduate; Janet M. Rosato, 84, home health aide; Alice M. Carron, retired executive secretary; Paul M. Cassidy, 87, retired printer and WWII veteran; Frances E. Reilly, retired Wollaston School secretary.

Cont'd On Page 33

In the spirit of this joyous season, may your hearts be filled with peace and love... brotherhood and faith.

Ron Mariano
State Representative

Happier
New Year

Don Uvanitte

Eastern Insurance

Eastern Insurance Group LLC

382 Quincy Avenue, • Quincy, MA 02169

617.328.8300x59317

"Wishing you Peace & Joy
this Holiday Season"

BRIAN PALMUCCI
Ward 4 City Councillor

500 Attend Bellotti Courthouse Dedication

Cont'd From Page 32

SEPTEMBER

The city and the police patrol union reached an agreement on a new three-year contract. The contract provides for annual raises of 1, 2, and 2 percent, retroactive to July 1. It also cuts in half the city's obligation to pay for education, or Quinn Bill, expenses for new hires. It also rolls back the number of sick days for new hires and puts off their longevity pay for 20 years.

"This is a tremendous group of police officers that cares very deeply about the community it protects on a daily basis, and because of that commitment we were once again able to come together, roll up our sleeves and agree on a contract that is fair to our officers and fair to our taxpayers," said Mayor Tom Koch. "Our police have worked together with us every step of the way through an unprecedented series of challenges and I am grateful for all of their efforts."

Quincy Police Patrol Officers' Association President Terrence Downing could not be reached for comment.

Councillors Doug Gutro and Margaret Laforest introduced a resolve at a City Council meeting calling for an update on the city's tide gate procedures in the wake of flooding caused by open tide gates in June.

"We want to find out what was done in terms of protocol, procedures, and training," Gutro told The Sun. "I can't imagine the administration hasn't reviewed their policies and procedures - this is an opportunity for the public and the council to hear [those changes]."

Gutro also introduced another resolve, calling for the MBTA to give an update on the Quincy Center station. The station's 872-car garage had been closed in July with little notice given because of concerns over its structural integrity.

Robert Shaw was named acting principal at North Quincy High after Dr. Earl Metzler accepted a superintendent's position in New Hampshire. Shaw is a North Quincy graduate who taught there and served as a department head and assistant principal. He left the school at the end of the previous school year to teach at Bridgewater-Raynham High School.

Supt. Dr. Richard DeCristofaro was responsible for hiring a permanent replacement for Metzler. Metzler served as principal at Quincy High since 2008. Prior to that, he was principal at Sterling Middle School for 10 years.

"Personally this was a very hard decision for me to make," Metzler told the Sun. "The hardest part really had to do with saying goodbye to the people at Sterling and North. The well wishes and support I have received from the staff at both schools has been overwhelming."

Councillor Joe Finn objected to a review of the city's purchase of 20 Furnace Ave., tabling discussion until another date.

"Under the rules of this body I wish to object to this particular matter," Finn said. "This is a very serious matter. I chair the Finance Committee - I've yet to hear from anyone in the administration."

On the 11th anniversary of 9/11, city officials, residents, and veterans gathered to dedicate a newly renovated four-bedroom home for a returning veteran and their family. The ceremony at 51 Empire St. in Germantown included a tree planting, a ribbon cutting, dedication of an engraved stone, and a moment of silence. Gail Huff, wife of U.S. Sen. Scott Brown, presented a flag that flew at the Capitol Building.

"What you are doing here today is so important and so wonderful," Huff said. "Quincy is an example, a model, for the rest of the state and country."

The state primary was a low-turnout affair as only 9.1 percent of registered voters cast ballots. There were just two contested races in the primary. On the Democratic side incumbent Christopher Iannella defeated Stephen F. Flynn in the race for Governor's Council in both Quincy and the district. On the Republican ballot, Mattias Temperly received more Quincy votes but lost the overall vote to Joe Selvaggi. Selvaggi would face Cong. Stephen Lynch in November.

Houghs Neck resident Brendan Cavin won a $1,000 scholarship and $50 gift card to Kohl's after being named a regional winner of the Kohl's Cares Scholarship program for his work bringing clean water to Africa. The nine-year old Cavin raised over $4,900 for the organization Charity:Water. He started raising money for the group when his father explained to him that people in many countries around the world don't have clean drinking water.

"I've learned a lot of things from doing this," Cavin said. "I learned that people in Africa and different countries are different from us because of water, and we need to help them get water - clean water. People are dying and getting very sick because their water isn't clean. I want to continue to do this for a very long time to stop that from happening."

Some 2,000 people flocked to the 8th annual Houghs Neck Chowda Fest. Houghs Neck Congregational Church Rev. John Castri-cum took home the top prize in the individual contest, followed by John Carvello and Quincy Firefighter John Crosta. In the restaurant competition, Adams Pub at Best Western from Quincy won first place. Peggy O'Neil's Pub in Dorchester and Braintree's Wood Road Deli rounded out the top three.

During the event, Joe Giggey was crowned 'May-

NEW SIGN at the re-named Francis X. Bellotti Courthouse in Quincy is admired by (right) former Supreme Court Justice David Souter (holding patriotic bunting) and the court's namesake - former state lieutenant governor and three-term state attorney general Francis X. Bellotti. Justice Souter, a friend of Bellotti's, was the keynote speaker at the Sept. 23rd dedication ceremony attended by over 500 invited guests and well-wishers. At left is House Majority Leader Ron Mariano who filed legislation to rename the building after Bellotti. The court has been an integral part of Bellotti's political and legal life.

Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Noble

or of Houghs Neck' after helping raise $2,100 for the Houghs Neck Community Council. He received a bronze flounder trophy for his efforts.

Jacqui Niosi notched her 100th win as head coach of Quincy High's girls' volleyball team. The victory came in a 3-0 route of Middleboro which Quincy won 25-16, 25-16, and 25-8. After the match, Niosi said her players deserved all the credit.

"I didn't do anything. We have great teams who go out there and work hard. Every once in a while I feel like I do something that contributes...but it's all the girls' work," Niosi said.

Nearly 900 runners took part in the fifth annual Officer Jamie Cochrane Road Race, helping raise upwards of $25,000 for local charities. According to Quincy Police Sgt. Jennifer Tapper, 470 runners ran the 5K race and about 400 ran the 10K. Money from the race goes towards six scholarships - two for Quincy High, two for North Quincy High, and two for city residents at other high schools. The rest was split up amongst local charities, like DOVE Inc., the Salvation Army, and QCAP.

Keith Segalla, director of instructional technology for the school department, outlined technology upgrades that took place in Quincy schools throughout the summer. The upgrades, paid for with $800,000 the city got from Comcast, include 349 desktop computers, 27 laptops, 83 new interactive whiteboards, 78 document cameras, 49 interactive tablets, 70 short-throw projectors, and six new technology labs.

Segalla and his team were also training teachers and principals on the new technology; over the summer 22 teachers and every principal went through training.

"We are trying to prepare teachers and students with a 21st century was of learning. This allows them to create more of an enhanced and engaging learning environment," Segalla said. "We had a lot of fun installing and purchasing all the new equipment."

After a public meeting, developers proposing two new buildings at Marina Bay scaled back their proposal from 464 units to 401. Attorney Bryan Connolly said the decision to reduce the number of units was because of concerns over parking at the meeting. Ward 6 Councillor Brian McNamee said that change was welcome.

"The overall project is considered to be quite large - any reduction will be quite welcome," McNamee said. "For residents living in Marina Bay right now, more isn't necessarily better."

The Planning Board gave its approval to a new townhouse for veterans at the former site of the Houghs Neck American Legion Post. The residence, at 1110-1118 Sea St., will be a two-family side-by-side townhouse style bedroom. Each unit would have three bedrooms. Tenants would be screened and selected by the city's Veterans Service Department, and Neighborhood Housing Services would be property taxes and be the property manager.

History buffs filed into Quincy High to attend the premiere of the Adams National Historical Park's new visitor orientation film. The 25-minute film, "Enduring Legacy," features the vocal talents of Tom Hanks, Laura Linney, Paul Giamatti, and Edward James Olmos.

In front of more than 500 guests - including scores of federal, state, and local officials - former Lieutenant Governor and Attorney General Frank Bellotti said having Quincy District Court renamed after him was the most personal honor anyone he could receive because of his connections to Quincy.

"I can't imagine anyone receiving an honor that is more personal than this is to me," Bellotti said at the dedication ceremony. "We've come full circle, it all began in Quincy for me so many years ago, so it's fitting that it end here on this wonderful September Sunday."

Other speakers at the hour-long ceremony includ-

Con't On Page 34

Happy
New Year
from
THE QUINCY CITY CLUB

May the Joy
of this Season
fill your Home with Health & Happiness!

FLAVIN
FLAVIN REALTY
1085 Hancock St., Quincy Center
617-479-1000 • www.FlavinandFlavin.com

Wishing you a
Happy & Healthy
New Year

Brian F. McNamee
Ward 6 City Councillor

Motel Renovations OK'd; Seawall Money Sought

Cont'd From Page 33

ed House Majority Leader Ron Mariano, who called Bellotti his mentor and read a letter praising Bellotti from former Gov. Bill Weld. Mayor Tom Koch said the honor was long overdue, and Norfolk County Sheriff Mike Bellotti — one of Frank and Maggie Bellotti's 12 children — talked about his father's upbringing during the Great Depression. Former Associate Justice of the Supreme Court David Souter keynoted the event and said his mother was proud to have a son who would be attending a retirement dinner for Bellotti.

"I used to have dinner at least once a week with my mother and the week before the gathering for Frank I told her where I was going to be," Souter said. "She said she was proud to have a son who would be in that kind of company."

Mayor Koch announced that all city-owned streetlights would be replaced with energy efficient LED lights. The program was funded by a state grant, and would only entail lights the city owns, mostly those in business districts, and not the majority of lights, which National Grid owns. The city also began a pilot solar light program at the Adams Shore Library.

Quincy College received a $2.97 million federal grant to train students for jobs in the biotechnology industry. College President Peter Tsaffaras said the money would buy new equipment, like machines that separate proteins and specialty freezers.

Rev. Nathan Piphio celebrated his 10th anniversary at Good Shephard Lutheran Church. A party for Piphio, or Pastor Nathan as his congregants call him, was held at the Tirrell Room. He said it was a 'humbling and overwhelming experience,' especially when a video played where a former church member now living in Florida thanked Piphio for helping him deal with rough times.

"It just really strikes me that none of us know the impact we have on others," Piphio said. "I was blessed to know the impact I had."

Nine-year-old Brae Road resident Bridget Gardiner raised $220 for the National Ovarian Cancer Coalition selling lemonade. Gardiner and her family took part in an Ovarian Cancer walk and raised a total of $5,500. She decided to raise money because she lost one grandmother to cancer and her other grandmother was diagnosed with ovarian cancer in January.

Deaths during September include:

Michael G. Cronin, a 2007 graduate of North Quincy High; Pauline T. Ziniti, a retired registered nurse; Claire F. Robbins, 70, former manager for J.L. Hammonds Co.; James L. Rae, 98, a railroad industry employee; Maria E. Tenero, 81, a retired tailor; Dorothy Walsh, retired construction manager for the BHA; Jennie "Jay" Pascarella, 98, retired Frank Basiles Caterer employee; Bob Bryan, 56, MBTA supervisor; Lawrence H. Cutler, a retired GE Supply Co. employee; Margareta H. Rundquist, 85, retired bookkeeper; Charles J. Morris, retired Army major; William G. Preskins, Jr., retired machinist and WWII veteran; John Johnson, 82, former Golden Gloves boxing champion; Kevin Moore, 33, 1998 QHS graduate and football captain; Elizabeth M. Hanbury, a Bradlees Department Store employee; Paul B. Reardon, a plumber; Dr. Charles J. Hamilton, former assistant state treasurer; Leo W. Hallisey, deli manager and shipyard welder; John J. Hogan, Jr., 88, a WWII Army veteran; Vincent J. Crimi, 70, a Marine Corps reservist; Mary L. Sirois, 95, a Gold Star mother; Samuel E. Burke, 87, a WWII veteran and polio survivor; Gilbert A. Meyer, a food delivery employee and WWII veteran; Kristine E. Riihimaki, 45, a UMass Boston graduate; Anthony Di Cesare, 86, a retired sheet metal spot welder; Dr. Lawrence P. Crendon, 80, former QPS superintendent; Thomas Coffey, 40, and Ethan Coffey, 8, a father and son killed in a motorcycle accident.

OCTOBER

The City Council approved proposed renovations for the Presidents' City Inn by an 8-1 vote. Hotel owner Ashish Sangani wanted to add 22 rooms to the hotel's second floor, and enclose all rooms with an inner hallway. The renovations would allow Sangani to rebrand the hotel as a Howard Johnson's. Ward 4 Councillor Brian Palmucci voted against the renovations, citing a police report detailing calls to the property.

"The call log here is three pages — there's a number of overdoses, there's a report here of a pimp in the room, reports of prostitution, arrest of fugitive from justice, bank robbery suspect caught trying to check in, alcohol poisoning, restraining orders being served, mother with knife — daughter wants to hang herself," Palmucci said. "There's certainly been a lot of police activity here and that's concerning."

Quincy-based Bay State Community Services announced a merger with The Dianne DeVanna Center in Braintree. Bay State CEO and President Kenneth Tarabelli said the DeVanna Center wanted to merge to help grow their organization. He said the two groups were a great fit for each other.

"They told me it would be difficult to succeed in the future unless they became a part of a larger organization," Tarabelli said. "We've known each other for years and are very impressed with the work they do there and know it will be a great fit."

The City Council passed a resolution calling on the state to free up dam money for seawall repairs. The resolution urges the passage of an amendment that would give $7 million from a dam repair fund to communities for repairs to seawalls, revetments, jetties, and groins. Councillors Doug Gutro and Margaret Laforest introduced the resolution.

A new state report showed that vehicle crashes in the city fell 32 percent over a five-year period between 2005 and 2010. The

MONTCLAIR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL students Juliana Beane (left) and Cailynn McGuinness (right) hold up the centennial program for the school's 100th anniversary celebration held October 20.

Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

MassDOT report outlines the number of vehicle crashes reported to the registry of motor vehicles between 1990 and 2010 in each of Massachusetts' 351 cities and towns. In 2005, 2,706 crashes were reported compared to 1,782 in 2010. Palmucci, chairman of the council's public safety committee, credited cooperation between police, drivers, and pedestrians for the decrease.

"I think it's reflective of the amount of work the city has done with raising awareness for drivers and pedestrians," Palmucci said. "There's been a concerted effort by the city to increase awareness. It certainly has paid off."

A Quincy Center bar was allowed to keep a mural featuring guitar legend Jimi Hendrix and President Barack Obama's campaign logo and slogan was allowed to stay after intervention from Mayor Tom Koch. The city's Inspectional Services Department had ordered that the mural at Presidents City Rock Club be removed because no permit was issued, but the mayor offered to allow the club to keep the mural up if it applied for a permit. That process was expected to take about a month.

"Here Comes the Boom," a movie shot at Quincy High School and Veterans' Memorial Stadium, debuted in theaters across the country. Members of the Quincy/North Quincy band were featured in the film, and one former band member — Mike Batson — made it into the movie's trailer and commercials. In the trailer and commercial, Batson could be seen fist bumping the star of the film Kevin James.

Organizers began placing about 100 memorial and honor flags at Flags for Veterans Island in Fort Square. The flags were placed in anticipation of Sons of the American Legion's Veterans Day observance to be held there in November. Quincy High's class of 1966 to donate 36 flags to honor fellow classmates, including those killed during the Vietnam War. Those classmates would have special photos and nametags on their flags.

State Sen. John Keenan announced his opposition to a question on November's ballot that would legalize medical marijuana in the state. Keenan said that if questioned Number 3 passed, it would lead to an increase in marijuana use not related to medical conditions.

In an effort to promote Fire Safety Week, the Fire Department hosted an open house. The theme of the open house was "have two ways out," which stressed the importance of being prepared should an emergency happen. Safety demonstrations were given and safety materials were distributed. Food was served at the open house, and children were able to take supervised tours of fire engines and ambulances. Capt. Roger Ki-neavy said a couple hundred people attended, and the department was considering making the event an annual one.

The School Committee was briefed on class sizes in the city's schools, and two classes at North Quincy High were the only one's over the target class size. The committee had designated a target class size of 25-30 students, but North's honors expository writing and honors western philosophy class were both over that upper limit. Both classes are electives offered to seniors at the school.

At an Oversight Committee meeting, Councillors Joe Finn and Doug Gutro called for the state inspector general to review city's purchase of 20 Furnace Ave. Before that, City Solicitor Jim Timmins reiterated that the council's approval was given when they authorized a $25 million capital improvement bond. But neither Finn nor Gutro was satisfied with Timmins' explanation.

"The bottom line is we could've spoken as much as we wanted to at that specific talk around the development plan. It could've been mentioned — I certainly don't recall a specific property being mentioned. But we could have had all of that and none of that frees the city and the mayor from the responsibility."

Cont'd On Page 35

All the Best Wishes for a Memorable 2013

Ward 2 Councillor
BRAD CROALL

Happy Holidays
from QCU!

Serving Norfolk, Plymouth County and Dorchester.

100 Quincy Avenue • Quincy, MA 02169 • 617.479.5558
519 Columbian Street • Weymouth, MA 02190 • 781.340.7117
Toll Free: 866.479.5558 • www.qcu.org

Holiday
Greetings

from All of Us at

RIVER BAY CLUB—
Independent & Personalized
Assisted Living

City In Step With Obama, Warren, Lynch Victories

Cont'd From Page 34

ity of coming back before this body," Finn said.

At a subsequent council meeting, a resolution calling for an IG review was rejected 6-3. Ward 6 Councilor Brian McNamee joined Finn and Gutro in calling for a review.

The city and developer Beal/Street-Works held a press conference to announce formal plans for the first phase of private redevelopment in Quincy Center. The planned first step entails $120 million worth of work in the area by the Granite Trust Building. It includes two new buildings — The Kilroy and Granite Trust Lofts — and renovations at the Granite Trust Building itself. The work would create 306 residential units and 30,000 square feet of retail space. Mayor Tom Koch called to the occasion as a significant step to achieving the destiny of a new downtown.

"At a recent Chamber meeting I used a quote from William Jennings Bryan which was 'destiny is not a matter of chance, it's a matter of choice.' We've chosen what our destiny will be and today is a step in the real vision, the real aspect of the private piece stepping up big time," Koch said. "Those non-believers out there will become believers."

The city reached a new 10-year trash disposal contract projected to save $10 million. The contract with disposal operator Covanta SEMASS would see a first year savings of $840,000 for FY14. Rate increases for future years would be lower than the expiring contract provided. The new contract only affects the city's waste, and not curbside collection.

The City Council approved 21 new fees for Sewer Department customers as part an overhaul of Quincy's Sewer Code. Public Works Commissioner Dan Raymond urged approval of the new fees because he wanted to get customers to comply with MWRA regulations. The fees won't take effect until July 2013 because councillors wanted to give residents time to come in compliance with the new fees, especially a $5,000 fee for unauthorized sewer connections because people might not be aware of such problems.

Plans to repair 94 different sections of Furnace Brook were unveiled at a City Council meeting. Woodard and Curran Senior Vice President Joseph D. Shea told the council 26 areas of underground pipe and 68 areas of open culvert needed to be repaired. Repair on the underground portions was scheduled to begin in spring 2013 and the open portion work was scheduled to start in August and September 2013.

2012 The Year In Review

Astronaut Daniel Burbank talked to students at the Merrymount School about his time in space. NASA selected Burbank to be an astronaut in 1996, and is a veteran of two space shuttle missions. He had recently returned from space after spending six months aboard the International Space Station. He urged students to follow their dreams.

"I didn't want to be an astronaut. I was very interested in the concept but I didn't think I was smart enough. And I was wrong," Burbank said. "You have no idea what you are capable of doing. Believe in your capabilities and believe in what you can do."

Some 7,500 Quincy residents lost power as a result of Superstorm Sandy. The storm brought high surf and tropical storm strength winds to the city, and more emergency workers responded to more than 200 calls, mostly for downed trees. Coastal flooding from the storm was minor.

Local officials joined Lt. Gov. Tim Murray to celebrate the completion of work on the Neponset River Bridge. The $33.7 million project started in February 2010 and fixed structural deficiencies in the bridge. Minor work and punch-list items still needed to be completed, but those repairs weren't expected to happen during normal commuting hours.

Quincy Police Lt. Patrick Glynn received the White House Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP) 2012 'Advocate for Action' award. The award is given to those who have made tremendous advances in reducing substance abuse. Glynn received his award for his staunch advocacy of Quincy's Narcan program. All of Quincy's officers have been trained to use Narcan to help deliver the nasal spray to overdose victims. Since 2010, over 50 people have been saved by Narcan in the city.

More than 500 past and present students, teachers, and administrators attended a 100th birthday celebration for the Montclair School. The celebration started in the school's gym where the school received citations from the city and state. A musical revue from the school's fifth graders followed; during their revue 300 or so slides showing pictures, report cards, diplomas, and newspaper clippings played on a screen. Classrooms in the building were dedicated to show different decades in the school's history.

"Everyone was so proud to have come here. The school is such a rich community, it is pretty special to be a part of it," Montclair Principal Renee Malvesti said.

North Quincy freshman Nancy Aimola received a citation from the School Committee for a video she made railing against cyber bullying. Aimola made her video after online hackers rigged a contest so the Horace Mann School for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing would host a Taylor Swift concert. After seeing the story on the local news, Aimola made a video with her friends and posted it to YouTube.

"They thought it would be funny that they would win it because they wouldn't be able to hear it, so it would be a joke that Taylor Swift would go there," Aimola said. "We just thought that was wrong so we decided to make a video about it."

Deaths during October include:

Lois E. Crosby, 85, a N.E. Mutual Life Insurance employee; Dorothy DiTullio, 104, a homemaker; Francis A. Nigro, 96, a union sheet metal worker; Allan Larson, 60, union iron worker; George J. Barry, 88, retired electrician; Ugo P. Conti, 90, Quincy Highway Department worker; Henry Lindblom, 75, cabinet maker; Joan A. Gray, 79, homemaker; Paul E. Pitcher, Jr., 46, sales specialist and limousine service owner; Dorothy M. Lach, 93, Corcoran Management Co. worker; Louis Rizzo, 85, owner of Louis Rizzo Hair Styles and a realtor; Josephine M. Galvin, a Lottery employee and author; Tito Ferrara, 76, union laborer; Joan E. Borey, 84, export clerk for Gillette; Alfred DiBona, 82, a union machinist and Korean War veteran; Eileen R. Donaghey, 86, retired QPS teacher; Albert A. Megna, WWII Army veteran; Patrick M. Faherty, Jr., 45, paralegal and former AG's office employee; Diana Giunta, retired nurse; Daniel T. DeCoste, Sr., 74, Marine Corps veteran and Verizon operator; Brian W. Picard, 55, union longshoreman; Katherine E. Mullen, 91, member of St. Ann's Women's Club; Michael C.

QUINCY PRESIDENTS football team celebrates with the city football championship after defeating rival North Quincy 30-14 in the 80th football game between the two high schools on Thanksgiving Day at Veterans' Memorial Stadium. Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Bosworth

Christopher, 52, union laborer; Elizabeth A. Faherty, 84, retired Carney Hospital employee; Sheila G. Grant, 65, regional manager for Eastern Newsstand; Arthur W. Rochelle, 97, WWII veteran and Lincoln Stores employee; Kenneth A. Balducci, 79, former restaurateur; Mark X. Ahern, financial sector senior vice president and Marine Corps veteran; Ann M. Carroll, QPS secretary; Luisa Vella, 97, homemaker; Raymond D. Dunn, Jr., 68, retired FAA flight service specialist; Thomas J. Nee, Jr., Korean War Veteran, Modern Electroplating employee; James P. McNulty, founder of McNulty Construction.

NOVEMBER

Quincy was in step with the nation and Massachusetts as voters re-elected President Barack Obama and elected Elizabeth Warren the state's first female U.S. senator. Obama finished with 24,714 votes in the city, easily beating former Massachusetts Gov. Mitt Romney's 14,816 votes. Obama took Massachusetts and its 11 electoral votes, and won the election with a total of 332 electoral votes.

Warren, a Democrat, beat incumbent Sen. Scott Brown 21,469 votes to 18,566 in the city. Overall in the state she beat Brown 53.7 percent to 46.3 percent. Democratic Cong. Stephen Lynch was easily elected to his seventh term in Congress beating challenger Joe Selva by a four-to-one margin in Quincy and three-to-one across the district. Quincy's Beacon Hill delegation and county officials all ran unopposed.

The state announced Quincy would be receiving $360,000 over three years to help fight prescription drug abuse in the city, especially in people ages 12 to 15. Quincy was one of eight communities chosen for the program; each had more than 300 fatal and non-fatal overdoses between 2007 and 2009. Impact Quincy Program Director Alejandro Rivera welcomed the announcement, saying it was good to be proactive and not reactive to problems.

The Quincy-North Quincy Football Hall of Fame welcomed 15 new members:

The inductees for Quincy were Rob Mowbray, Dan Morrell, Mike Notarangelo, Ally Slieman, and Mike Lorenzano. The special inductee was former city councillor and Norfolk County Dist. Atty. George Burke. Kevin Moore was inducted posthumously.

North Quincy inductees were Bernard Creedon, Dan Polvere, Neil Fisher, Joseph Mulvey, Keith Gott, and Frank McNamara. Norfolk County Dist. Atty. Mike Morrissey was the special inductee and Justin Dilks was inducted posthumously.

QHS Senior Amelia Wool was one of just 23 students in Norfolk County to receive a Peer Leadership Award from DA Michael Morrissey. Principal Frank Santoro nominated Wool for helping organize Red Cross and Quincy Crisis Center

Cont'd On Page 36

*Happy, Healthy
New Year!*

from all of us at

The Quincy Sun

ROBERT BOSWORTH

DONNA GRAY

MICHELLE COLLINS

DOLLY NEWMAN

SCOTT JACKSON

KELLY BOGNANNO

LAUREN McGRATH

LYNNE GARLAND

LISA AIMOLA

LARRY CARCHEDI

MARIE D'OLIMPIO

ROBERT NOBLE

EMILY TAFT

BILL GRIFFIN

JEFF OHLSON

TOM GALVIN

MIRIAM JOSEPH

JULIE O'BRIEN

JIM SHIELDS

KERRI O'HARE

KRISTINA KALABOKAS

Lt. Daniel Minton, Quincy Police Department
And Our Dedicated Quincy Sun Newscarrers

QUINCY'S CHRISTMAS PARADE marked its 60th anniversary Nov. 25 as thousands lined the 3-mile parade route on Hancock Street from Quincy Center to North Quincy. One of the main attractions was, of course, Santa Clause, who rode the parade route from the back of a Quincy firetruck with Firefighter Mike Casey.

Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

Council OKs Tax Rates, Weather Reserve Fund

Cont'd From Page 35

Food Drives, her leadership at QHS Leadership Camp, and helping found Quincy High's Student's Against Destructive Decisions (SADD) chapter, among other things.

At a wreath-laying ceremony celebrating the 277th anniversary of his birth, President John Adams was honored for commitment to public education and the Navy. At the event, delayed more than a week because of Superstorm Sandy, Woodward School for Girls student Emily Rines said his greatest gift was ensuring education in the state's constitution.

"For students his greatest gift to us might be his contribution to our Massachusetts state constitution," Rines said. In addition to articulating the structure of government, President Adams saw the education of citizens as necessary for the survival of democracy and this is written directly into our state's constitution as a duty of the legislature."

Brock Miller, commander of Navy Operational Support Center (NOSC) Quincy, said the second president took great pride in writing the Navy's first rules and regulations. Miller added that Adams' "advocacy of a strong navy was second to none."

Gov. Deval Patrick joined with local and state officials to break ground on the new, $244 million Fore River Bridge. Site work on the bridge had begun, and the new bridge was to open in 2015. By 2016, the temporary bridge was to be torn down.

"This bridge is going to be a great addition to the community. It's going to be higher and wider. Higher so there's more clearance and doesn't have to open as often and wider so that it can accommodate more of the traffic needs of the South Shore," Patrick said. "There will be opportunities for biking and for walking on the bridge as well."

"I know there's been some back and forth about the design but the design is thoughtful, sensible, attractive and it certainly beats the temporary bridge we have."

George Nicholson, an Air Force veteran of the Vietnam War, was chosen to speak at Quincy's annual Veterans Day ceremonies. Nicholson had spoken during the ceremonies 30 years prior, becoming the first Vietnam veteran to do so. He thanked Quincy for supporting veterans, and said the nation does a much better job supporting veterans than it did 30 years prior.

"I have seen a steady progression of improvement, prosperity, and hope," Nicholson said. "I have seen, in fact we here have all seen, a remarkable change in attitude towards our fellow veterans and the men and women in uniform by the American people."

Robert Shaw was named the permanent principal at North Quincy High. He had been the interim principal, filling the role left by Earl Metzler. A former English teacher, he said he hopes to encourage students to read more. "It's a lifelong skill and necessity," he said.

An audit of Quincy's FY11 books shows the city's biggest problem was a deficit in police and fire detail accounts. At the end of that fiscal year, the two funds had a combined deficit of more than $1.2 million. Jim Powers, a CPA at Powers & Sullivan, said the deficit would still be a problem identified in his firm's audit of the city's FY12 accounting.

The city's new track opened at Faxon Field. The six-lane, regulation-sized track cost $1.1 million to construct.

The Quincy Chamber of Commerce began circulating a petition asking voters to back four-year mayoral terms. With enough signatures, that question would appear on the ballot for the 2013 city elections. Ed Kehane, former chairman of the Chamber's board of directors, said four-year terms would improve accountability and allow the mayor to focus more on his or her job instead of campaigning every other year.

Mike Healy, a Stedman Street resident, announced his candidacy for Ward 4 city councillor. Healy is a project manager in the health care field with an MBA in technology management from Northeastern.

Quincy High defeated North Quincy High 30-14 in the 80th annual Thanksgiving Day game. Jalen Green, a senior running back for the Presidents, had 224 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 31 carries. North quarterback Andrew Minton, a senior, had 10 completions on 19 attempts for 208 yards, including a 75-yard TD in the fourth. With the win, Quincy improved its all-time record against North to 44-31-5; the Presidents also snapped

A THREE-ALARM fire in a vacant building at 488 Quincy Ave. in the early morning of Nov. 27 was ruled as arson by the state fire marshal. Here firefighters from Engine 5 and Engine 4 advancing lines into the third floor.

Photo By Michael J. Worley

a three-game losing streak against the Red Raiders.

State Fire Marshal Stephen Coan ruled a three-alarm fire at 488 Quincy Ave. arson. The fire started in the vacant building's rear stairwell and crews tried to fight it on the inside but withdrew because the stairwell — the only one in the building — was compromised. Quincy Avenue and East Howard Street were both closed during the fire. No injuries were reported.

Street-Works co-founder Richard Heapes defended his company's outreach to Quincy Center merchants after Councillors Brian Palmucci and Doug Gutro faulted them for not doing enough at a council meeting. Heapes said representatives from his company had had one-on-one talks with downtown business owners, adding that he felt some of those they'd had frequent talks with still turned to city councillors.

Palmucci, who runs a law office downtown, said he hadn't heard anything from Beal/Street-Works regarding the new downtown. Others merchants Palmucci spoke to had similar complaints. Gutro said he'd heard the same issues.

A home rule petition for 27 new liquor licenses was submitted to the City Council by Mayor Tom Koch. Liquor licenses in the state are awarded based on population, though communities can petition the Legislature for additional licenses. Quincy has 98 licenses under the quota system, including 23 in the area the special licenses would be awarded in. The new licenses couldn't be transferred outside a designated area of the downtown.

Deaths during November include:

William P. Sutterly, 91, a glass glazer and veteran; Mark K. Miner, Sr., 65, a mason; Patricia C. Joyce, retired QPS lunch mother; M. Alice Walsh, 91, part-owner of Walsh's Variety Store; Blanca Flora Figueroa, 72, a homemaker; Joseph P. Ciarcia, 80, hospital maintenance fireman; William J. MacDonald, 87, retired N.E. Telephone manager; Janet T. McCann, 83, retired office manager; Rosemary E. Hanrahan, retired Verizon operator; William H. Woods, 89, retired Boston firefighter and WWII Navy veteran; L. Kenneth LaBombard, 65, Vietnam War Army veteran; Shirley C. Carbonneau, 76, former Scout leader; Doris A. Randolph Lyon, 90, retired South Shore Bank employee; John E. Battista, 94, structural engineer and WWII veteran; Justin T. Giglio, 22, electrical apprentice; Rita M. Smith, retired librarian; Santino "Sonny" Nicastro, 88, retired master pipefitter and QHA worker; Mary E. McDonald Montani, 89, Navy ensign and registered nurse; Brenda D. Villa, a teacher; Mildred L. Starr, 85, South Shore bank employee; John J. "Jack" Colligan, retired Quincy firefighter; Robert J. Bowes, retired Boston police officer; Stephen C. Ricciardi, 68, a developer; Lorraine G. Irvine, 71, a homemaker; Dr. Kathleen Bennett, chief medical officer at SeniorWholeHealth.

DECEMBER

The City Council approved Mayor Tom Koch's proposed tax rates for 2013, increasing the average single-family property tax bill by $110. The residential rate was set at $14.50 per $1,000 of valuation, up from $13.42. The commercial rate was raised to $30.61 from $28.66.

The council also approved an inclement weather reserve fund, and allocated $420,000 to it. The fund was intended to be used for weather emergencies other than snowstorms. Additionally, the council appropriated $947,000 to close out deficits in the city's fire and police detail accounts.

After more than 90 pedestrians in Quincy, the City Council passed a resolution asking the Police Department to provide reports on all accidents since 2010.

State Treasurer Steve Grossman, Mayor Tom Koch, and other officials toured Sterling Middle School. Koch said he wanted the 85-year-old school to be renovated or replaced and would start the process soon. "We'll be filing the necessary paperwork in the coming weeks once we go to the School Committee and City Council to their support," he said.

A mistrial was declared in the corruption case against former Treasurer Tim Cahill after a jury failed to reach a verdict following seven days of deliberations. Cahill was accused of using state money to run ads to bolster his 2010 gubernatorial campaign; Cahill maintained the

Cont'd On Page 47

Red Raiders Rally And Roll

North Girls' Basketball Defeats Rockland 61-54; Middleboro 80-21

By BILL GRIFFIN

There are nights when everything goes right. North Quincy had one of them against Middleboro.

The Red Raiders scored the first 24 points of the game and rode their gifted backcourt of Jane Minton and Caitlin Bulger to 80-21 rout of Middleboro in a Patriot League contest Friday night.

The easy win gave North a two-game sweep of a pair of home games last week. Earlier in the week, North rallied from a 10-point deficit in the second half for a 61-54 win over Rockland.

"I thought we played a strong overall game and our press looked good," said North coach Jessica Worden after her team went to 2-2 overall and 1-1 in the league. "We ran our offense though all our options and we played a good game inside off the boards."

Bulger had her second-straight 17-point performance and seven assists despite not playing the final 11 minutes. Minton had 12 points and eight assists and did not play the final seven minutes. They were especially brilliant in the first period as North built a 27-3 lead. Bulger had 13 points and two assists while Minton had four and three assists which meant the pair scored or assisted on all of North's 13 hoops in the period.

Not only did they shoot and pass, they broke down Middleboro's defense with their drives, distributed the ball generously (11 North players cracked the scoring sheet), and played tough defense. Annie Dow, Kristyn Mark and Haley McKay each scored four and played solid games in the backcourt.

"Jane and Caitlin are both unselfish to a fault," said Worden. "They are always looking to pass which is good, but when they are open, I want them to shoot."

The Red Raiders controlled the inside game. Maya Umoren had 16, but she had plenty of help. Sam McNally (7), Hannah Donovan (7), Christine Kelliher (4), Therese Riordan and Camile Mullaney all had strong games.

"I think our guards broke them down a little with their drives," said Worden. "What I liked was Caitlin and Jane didn't just look for Maya, they looked for everyone underneath."

North ran a tough zone press for the opening five minutes and backed it with a strong halfcourt man-to-man to hold Middleboro without a point for the first 6:34 of then game and without a field goal until Kelsey Hardiman scored with 5:30 left in the second. They forced turnovers and permitted no easy shots.

"We were able to work on some new things like our matchup halfcourt zone. I liked our effort. We played 100 per cent on defense all night," said Worden.

The Red Raiders also fully ran their offense. Bulger, Minton, Dow and McKay didn't settle for the first shot that showed, but worked the motion offense and found cutters and open teammates close to the hoop.

"That's probably the biggest improvement since the Quincy game. We're a running our offense right to the end and that lets us control the clock," said Worden.

North led 27-3 after one, 41-10 at the half and 68-17 after three.

Earlier last week, North rallied behind 17 points from Bulger and nine points, and five assists from Minton for a 61-54 non-league win over Rockland.

Mullaney had eight rebounds and made the game-deciding plays in the final minutes for North. She hit a free throw, put home a rebound and grabbed three offensive rebounds in the final 30 seconds to lead the Red Raiders to victory.

North is 2-2, and is an overtime loss to Plymouth North away from being 3-1. Worden likes where her team is.

"I think the loss to Quincy made us realize what we had to do," said Bulger. "We wanted to be at least 2-2 going into the break. This week gave us some confidence and let us work on things we need to improve."

North Quincy plays Braintree in the holiday tourney at Quincy High tonight (Thursday) at 5 p.m.

MAYA UMOREN (52) surrounded by Middleboro defenders, gets off a shot against Middleboro last Friday night. Umoren scored 16 points in the Red Raiders' 80-21 win.

Quincy Sun Photo/Larry Carchedi

Quincy Boys Defeat Cambridge R&L, Hanover

By BILL GRIFFIN

It began with a pluperfect first period which deserves to be preserved in a highlight film. It ended with a pass that you had to see to believe.

Quincy built an 18-point lead after the first quarter and fiercely defended it as if it were a vault full of gold to edge traditional powerhouse Cambridge Rindge and Latin, 62-58 last week in a non-league classic which will be long remembered when talk turns to the subject of great basketball games.

This was Cambridge. This was an elite program through the years. Not only did Quincy win, the Presidents never trailed after the opening minute of the game. When this score makes the rounds of the Patriot League, heads will snap to attention.

"Outside of Duxbury last year, it was the biggest win I've coached," said Quincy coach Dave Parry. "Obviously, it's a game you want to build on, but it's also a game that you hope defines yourself as a team. I think we defined ourselves as a defensive team."

The Presidents made it a clean sweep of last week's action as sophomore Colin Evans scored 19 points to lead a complete team performance of rebounding, scoring, passing and defense to beat Hanover, 73-53 Friday and up their record to 3-1 overall and 2-1 in the Patriot League.

Quincy got great floor leadership from point guard Tino Goncalves who had 12 assists and played defense on Hanover's best player, Sean McNally.

Against Cambridge, there was defense to be sure, but there were many stories. Although Quincy never lost the lead, Cambridge got within two twice and within one twice in the fourth period. There was the sense that if Quincy lost the lead and the dyke became unplugged, it could all wash away and not come back.

"Psychologically, it was important not to give up the lead," said Parry.

The eye-popping play which turned the game came after Cambridge drew within 57-56 with less than a minute left. Forward J.T. Bain grabbed an offensive rebound despite giving away a half foot to two Cambridge players. Bain fired a no-look, bullet pass behind his ear through heavy traffic to a wide-open James Lam for a layup and a 59-56 edge with 0:52 left. It was special.

"You can't teach that. You either make that pass or you don't. We were kidding the guards in practice the other day that J.T. was the best passer on the team," said Parry.

Following an Evans' steal, senior Jacquan Harris, who was the best player on the floor when the game was decided, drove for a bucket and a 61-56 edge and Quincy had its huge upset.

"Jaquan was in control down the stretch," said Parry. "He did a good job moving the ball for the whole game and that gives us more options."

Harris led all scorers with 19. Evans added 14 while Bain had eight and point guard Tino Goncalves added seven. Senior Peter Cedrone stuck in two key hoops and three rebounds when Cambridge was wearing down Quincy in the third. Frendus Denys was a power inside with 17 for Cambridge.

The first period was a showcase. The ball moved. Quincy's first six buckets and seven of the first eight came off assists. They played defense. Cambridge scored six points and went nearly five minutes without a hoop. They shot the ball. Evans knocked home two three-pointers, Goncalves and Drew Myers had one apiece. They ran. They scored four fast-break baskets. They were in their own zone. They ran 14 straight points and led, 24-6 after one.

"I think the most important thing in the quarter was our passing," said "We knew with their height that we had to drive and kick for the outside shot. We asked the kids to have faith in Drew and Colin because even though they're sophomores, they are our best shooters."

Clearly, this wasn't going to continue. Cambridge wasn't about to lose by 72. Cambridge got within 32-26 at the half and 46-43 after three, but Quincy's tough man-to-man defense, both half and fullcourt, never wavered. What led Cambridge back was size. They had 18 points off the offensive rebounds. Take those away, and Quincy wins easily.

Parry has the utmost respect for Cambridge. Before the game, he said if you want to get better, you have to play the best. After the game, he said "We aspire one day to reach their level."

For one night, Quincy did a bit more than that.

Quincy controlled the game against Hanover. Goncalves handed out 12 assists and played excellent defense on Hanover's top scorer Sean McNally. Bain and Cedrone led a strong inside game with 11 points and 10 rebounds apiece.

Quincy meets Weymouth at 7 p.m. tonight (Thursday) in the holiday tournament at Weymouth High. North Quincy and Braintree play at 5 p.m.

Happy Holidays!!!

Ward 1 Councillor
Margaret Laforest & Family

Wishing you a happy, and healthy
Holiday Season!

From your friends at... Quincy
Chamber of Commerce

1400 Hancock Street, Suite 1A
Quincy, MA 02169
(617) 471-1700 • TheQuincyChamber.com

Seasons Greetings

from
Norfolk County Dist. Atty.
and Mrs. Michael Morrissey
and Family

SARAH TABEEK of Quincy, a junior at the Middlesex School in Concord, was recently named an All American in field hockey. The Middlesex School is an ISL Prep School. TabEEK She was also named to the Mass. All State Team, First Team All ISL and the NEPSAC All Tournament team. An honor roll student, Sarah has committed to Dartmouth College to play field hockey for the Big Green in 2014. She is an alumni of St. Agatha School, Quincy Youth Hockey, Quincy Youth Softball and Quincy Youth Lacrosse. She is a three-sport varsity athlete at Middlesex (field hockey, hockey and lacrosse).

Recreation Department Gym Programs During School Vacation Week

The Quincy Recreation Department will conduct an expanded recreation program of activities utilizing school gymnasiums for the upcoming school vacation period.

Recreation staff will supervise neighborhood school gymnasiums in nine locations for a free program for boys and girls age 8 through high school.

"The Quincy Recreation tradition of free vacation open gym programs will be supervised by members of the Recreation staff who normally supervise our ongoing After School and Saturday recreational programs. With many parents working we feel that these programs are both practical and necessary while providing positive use of leisure time by the participants," said Recreation Director Barry Welch.

Vacation week program will be conducted Wednesday, Dec. 26, Thursday, Dec. 27 and Saturday, Dec. 29, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The core schedule on these days is 9 to 11:30 a.m. for boys and girls ages 8 through 5th grade; and from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. for children in middle and high school, grades 6-12.

The following gyms will be open from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.: Atherton Hough, Atlantic, Beechwood Knoll, Bernazzani, Montclair, Point Webster, Snug Harbor and Squantum.

The Wollaston School gym will be open Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

On Monday, Dec. 31, New Year's Eve, the gyms will operate from 9 to 11:30 a.m. only.

The regular Saturday supervised gym program will be conducted as usual from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 29.

Due to maintenance work at the Merrymount School, the gym will be closed Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Merrymount participants may attend any other program of their choice.

Participants must be Quincy residents and may attend the location of their choice. Registration will be done at the program. Youth who have not previously attended the Quincy Recreation Department After School and Saturday Program are invited to attend.

Gym games include basketball, floor hockey, dodge ball and other activities. Participants are requested to wear sneakers for these activities. In all, over 160 hours of programming in the gyms will be offered on the expanded day schedule.

The night gym schedules will be modified due to school vacation week and will be announced at each location.

All recreation department programs will not be conducted Tuesday, Jan. 1.

NQ Hockey Skates Past Brockton, 7-2

By BILL GRIFFIN

The scoring and the offense were excellent, but the coach is still looking for improvement.

Andrew Currie and Sean Farnham each scored twice as North Quincy poured in four goals in the first 12 minutes of the game and rolled to a 7-2 non-league win over Brockton at the Quincy Youth Ice Arena Saturday night.

The win lifts the Raiders to 2-1 on the season and gives them a two-game sweep of last week's action. Earlier in the week, goalie Nolan Greene played a terrific first period and North Quincy rallied behind him for a 3-1 decision over Silver Lake in its Patriot League opener.

"Our first period against Brockton was our best, but I thought we got sloppy after that," said coach Matt Gibbons. "We hit the back of the net against a good goalie and that's good, but too much of the offense was just turn around and shoot instead of making passes. We have a lot to clean up."

The first line of Currie, Nick McGaughey, and Shawn Grady boosted the Red Raiders to their fast start. Each had a goal and an assist in North's first three goals. They checked, passed and finished well.

"They play together well. They know where each other is," said Gibbons.

Farnham and fellow sophomore Mike Finn worked hard for Farnham's two goals in the first and second periods and if the coach were giving out three stars, they would likely have earned two of them.

"Farnham has worked hard in practice and it was good to see it pay off tonight. I think Mike created more chances than anyone else tonight with his checking. They were my bright spots," said Gibbons.

The defense, which has given just five goals in three games, was sturdy again. Senior captain Rudy Tryon was the leader, but North's second grouping of Ryan Martin and Josh Hayward continue to impress with clean, solid play. They move the puck out of the zone, keep it clear in front of the net and win the battles in the corners.

"We put them together because we thought they were our two best behind Rudy and they're playing as many minutes as he is," said Gibbons. "One is a righty and the other lefty which is ideal on the blue line. They're friends, they've played together and work well as a pair."

Greene left the game with 8:40 remaining and a 5-1 lead. He has 65 saves in just under 125 minutes of hockey while giving just four goals. He saved the Red Raiders against Silver Lake and has answered North's biggest question mark in the early going.

"He was very solid again," said Gibbons.

Grady started the offense at 3:20 of the first with an assist to McGaughey. Grady grabbed a loose puck behind the net, whirled in front and finished with a low drive from the slot. At 6:39, Grady centered a pass from the left boards and Currie, who scored four goals in two games last week, drove it home from the slot. North made it 3-0 when McGaughey took a pass from Currie in the left faceoff circle and connected on a low, hard finish. Farnham won a one-on-one battle on the boards, swept to the middle and found the top corner for a 4-0 lead at 12:06.

North, who enjoyed a 48-26 edge in shots, only scored once in the second, but peppered Brockton sophomore goalie Frankel Massero with 21 shots. Massero, who made 42 saves in an upset of the Red Raiders last year, was at his best here giving only one goal when Finn walked in from the faceoff circle for a great chance and Farnham drove home the rebound.

Currie hit the top corner and John McEvilly scored from the slot on a pass from Pat Verhault for North in the third. Mike Heffernan scored both goals for Brockton.

North faces Quincy in the second game of the holiday tournament Wednesday at 8:30 at the Quincy Youth Arena. King Philip and Milton play in the opener. Gibbons knows his team will have to be better against the Presidents.

"We have to improve for Wednesday. We have some work to do," he said.

Earlier last week, Greene saved North with an outstanding first period and the Red Raiders dropped previously unbeaten Silver Lake.

Silver Lake led, 1-0 after one, but it would have been much worse without a 13-save effort from Greene in the period. Several off the stops were exceptional. Greene finished with 26 saves.

"Nolan stood on his head for us and we were much better the last two periods," said Gibbons.

North came back behind its goalie and controlled the final two periods led by Currie who scored twice. He blasted home a rebound in the second to tie it at 1-1.

McGaughey scored the game-winner. Grady took a backhand which was stopped, but he pounced on the rebound and found McGaughey open for the goal.

Currie hit the top corner for the insurance goal with just less than five minutes to play in the third period.

Hoop, Hockey Sports Roundup

By BILL GRIFFIN

It was the ideal bounce-back game.

Dan Gould scored 23 points and North Quincy controlled the game with its defense to handle Middleboro, 70-29 in a Patriot League Fischer Division game Friday night.

The Red Raiders rebounded well from Monday night's disappointing four-point loss to Arlington Catholic, and boosted their record to 3-1, 2-0 in the Patriot League.

"It was a night when everything came together for us," said coach Kevin Barrett. "We were able to use our whole roster. We played all 13 players. It gave kids who work hard in practice every day a chance to play and that's a good thing for morale."

Gould knocked home four three-point shots. Eftim Butka chipped in with eight points and eight rebounds while Aaron Anderson helped out with a flurry of two three-pointers and a field goal in a five-minute stretch.

Senior point-guard Pat Gould was solid again at point guard, running the offense and handing out seven assists. Junior Anthony Green (6'7") made the most of his first varsity start with four points, seven rebounds, and five blocks. Senior Kevin Pillone scored seven points in the fourth period for the Red Raiders.

"Everybody contributed," said Barrett. "Anthony has improved his game. Hopefully, he'll be a presence inside that other teams will need to contend with."

North's defense allowed just 19 points through three periods and produced good scoring chances.

"The defense played well and when it does, we can run and get easier shots," said Barrett.

Barrett was pleased with improved energy level his team showed after the loss to Arlington Catholic.

"We talked a lot about adversity and how to come back from it. We had a good week in practice and played with the energy level we need to succeed. Hopefully, we learned our lesson," said Barrett.

North will play Braintree at 5 p.m. tonight (Thursday) in the opening round of the John Adams Tournament at Weymouth. Quincy will face Weymouth in the nightcap at 7 p.m.

Brian O'Callaghan scored a second-period goal, but Quincy dropped a 5-1 Patriot League decision to Whitman-Hanson last week.

"Give Whitman-Hanson credit. They won most of the one-on-one battles," said Quincy coach Tim Lewis. "We didn't sustain the intensity of our play the way we need to. When we did, we had the edge, but we have to do it for the whole game."

After the Panthers took a 2-0 lead after the first period, Quincy (1-2) cut it to 2-1. Chris Andrews dug the puck out along the boards, fed Pat Donovan just to the right of the net and Donovan set up O'Callaghan for the goal.

The second period ended with W-H up 2-1. The Panthers scored twice early in the third, and connected on an empty-net goal in the final seconds for the 5-1 final.

Anytime Fitness Opening In January

Anytime Fitness will open next month at the Hanaford Shopping Plaza, 475 Hancock St., North Quincy.

Members can work out any time of the day or night, every day of the year—even when the club is not staffed—said owner Matt Gulino.

"Anytime Fitness offers a convenient and affordable exercise option for the area.

Wingers Sean Brennick and Jo Jo McArdle came off the bench to play well for the Presidents.

Quincy will face North Quincy in the nightcap of the holiday tourney Wednesday at the Quincy Youth Arena. Faceoff is scheduled for 8:30. Milton and King Philip play in the first game.

After rolling to three straight wins, Quincy's girls basketball team suffered its first defeat of the season, 54-25 to unbeaten Hanover in a Patriot League game Friday.

Courtney Ryan had eight points for Quincy who is 3-1 overall and 1-1 in the league.

Quincy will face Weymouth at 7 p.m. Thursday in the holiday tournament. North Quincy and Braintree will play at 5 p.m.

We believe our 24-hour co-ed fitness club will be a great addition to all of Quincy and the surrounding area," Gulino said.

The club features state-of-the-art strength training and cardiovascular equipment.

For more information, call 617-472-2447.

Quincy Tennis Club Celebrates 125th Anniversary

In June of 1887 residents of Quincy held a meeting for those interested in forming a lawn tennis club. A committee was formed naming Perry Lawton the president and Rev H. E. Cotton vice president. The Quincy Tennis Club was born.

The first tennis courts in the city were laid out on Bigelow Street, the back of Rev. Cotton's property, 125 years ago. Since then the QTC has seen many major changes, including three different locations. By the closing of the first year, the club had 32 members and dues were $2.00 a year for men and $1.00 for women.

Now you will find the Quincy Tennis Club at the end of a long driveway, tucked behind houses and trees at 19R Glendale Rd. A short walk from the Adams' Mansion, the club has been on Glendale Road since Charles Francis Adams signed the deed in 1913.

The club currently has 185 memberships, with dues around $300 a year, and a $58,000 initiation fee. For the past 10 years the club has been full with waiting list of 30-40 waiting to be accepted.

"It's a lot of work to keep the club running," said Michael Kenney, a former president. "The board is all volunteers. There's always meetings held during the winter to develop projects and improvements for the spring. You do it for the club."

A huge part of keeping the club running is the maintenance of the courts. Current QTC President Jim Rougvie said the courts have been red clay for a long time.

"In 1913 we got red clay and it's been that way ever since. Grass is so hard to maintain," said Rougvie. "There's not too many grass courts around. There are not too many red courts either."

Each year at the end of the season the courts freeze and the surface has to be completely re-done in the spring. The old surface is raked out and a new top coating of clay is rolled out. Then the tape is laid down.

"It's all done by hand," said Kenney. There's over 2,000 nails put in per court. And they're taken up each year."

Rougvie said they like to keep the club open from the beginning of May through November, but it all depends on the weather.

"If there's a freeze or a thaw we have to close it down because it turns to mud and it damages it for the next year," said Rougvie. "We have to be careful."

The club has faced some challenges over the years. Back in 1913, when it first moved to Glendale Rd., the QTC was raided by the Quincy police for breaking the Sabbath. At that time, the reverend of Bethany Congregational Church denounced Sunday play. The police were tipped off and served summonses to 16 players and warned women on the porch who were watching that they were violating the law.

QUINCY TENNIS CLUB features five red class tennis courts.

The club voted to stop playing on Sunday, a rule that stayed in effect for many years. Now the club is open from sunrise to sunset on Sundays during season.

During WWI and WWII membership dropped dramatically, but the club managed stay alive. Kenney said members would do anything to keep the club going, so they created a bowling team.

"They made a bowling team in the winter when there wasn't tennis and won tournaments to raise money for the club," said Kenney. "There was a Quincy Tennis Club bowling team and we have the trophies they won at the clubhouse to prove it."

The club faced its biggest hardship in November of 1978. The then wooden clubhouse burned to the ground.

"Losing the building was huge. They didn't have much money back then. They barely made it by," said Kenney. "Instead of going to a wooden structure they decided to make it as fire proof as possible. That's why it's all brick and concrete."

Dr. Philip Maloney was president at the time and spearheaded the new clubhouse project.

"I don't know how he did, but he pulled it all together," said Kenney of Maloney.

Women's roles have also changed. Now the clubs memberships are equally split between women and men, according to Rougvie. But when the club first started women had to abide by certain rules.

"Women were only allowed to play on one court back then," said Rougvie. "That's the way it was. It wouldn't work now at all. If you were at the club on a Monday through Friday morning now you'd think it was a women's club."

In 1989 the club got its first female president, Hildegard "Hildy" Gillis. She served as president until 1991, and currently is QTC's treasurer.

The social aspect has also changed.

"It's not only tennis its become social," said Rougvie. "People originally went there played tennis and left. Now people will hang around and socialize."

As a way to show appreciation to the community, the club hosts the annual rivalry match between the Quincy and North Quincy high tennis teams each year, a newer tradition Rougvie said he was proud of.

Rougvie added, "I like tennis and I like the people involved. A lot of people have done a lot of work before me. With 125 years you think well, I'd like to keep it going. That's part of the motivation. There's not too many companies or organizations in the city that are 125 years old."

Quincy/North Quincy Swimming/Diving Defeats Randolph, Bows To Hingham

Sophomore Rachel O'Driscoll (North Quincy) established a new school standard, but the Quincy/North Quincy girls swimming and diving team (2-1, 1-1 Patriot League) still fell to visiting Hingham, 97-81, Dec. 18, at the Lincoln Hancock Pool in Quincy.

The QNQ boys (2-1, 1-1) also slipped to the visitors by a 95-75 margin after winning each of its first two meets by less than 11 points.

O'Driscoll, who swam 1:04.50 to win the 100-yard butterfly besting a 13-year North Quincy school best by Sheila Bohan, also finished first in the 200-yard freestyle (2:06.59). Senior captain Kat O'Connor (North Quincy) paced QNQ in the sprint freestyle events with a win in each of the 50-yard freestyle (28.19) and 100 freestyle (1:00.56) events. O'Connor's gold medal performance was bolstered by Sarah Tran (North Quincy) who placed second (28.91) in the shorter race. Junior captain Marlena Forrester (Quincy) won the 100 breaststroke with a time of 1:25.72.

QNQ boys were led by Elio Daci (Quincy). The junior captain placed second in both the 200 individual medley (2:31.71) and 500 freestyle (6:13.10).

Also earning a pair of seconds was sophomore Randall Kwong (North Quincy), who finished at 24.50 in the 50 free and 1:04.69 in the 100 butterfly. QNQ's 200 free relay contingent of seniors Diego Espinola and Emmitt Harrow (both North Quincy), along with Daci and Kwong touched the wall first in a speedy clip of 1:46.69 establishing a new Quincy High School standard.

In other action:

The Quincy/North Quincy 200-yard freestyle relay unit bested its own school standard clocked just two days earlier to lead the boys swimming and diving team (3-1) past visiting Randolph, 89-59, Dec. 20 at the Lincoln-Hancock Pool.

The QNQ girls (3-1) achieved a 57-31 victorious decision.

Three-quarters of Tuesday's record-breaking relay including junior captain Elio Daci (Q), senior Emmitt Harrow (NQ) and sophomore Randall Kwong (NQ) united with sophomore captain Mike Mullaney (NQ) to swim 1:45.06, over a second faster than this week's other historic effort.

The boys won nine of 12 events led by Elio Daci, Emmitt Harrow, and sophomore Steven Kodra (Q) who each tallied a pair of individual victories. Harrow dominated in the 50- (26.28) and 200-yard (2:33.19) freestyle events while Daci logged 100 butterfly (1:07.97) and 100 backstroke (1:08.57) triumphs.

Kodra earned the event's fastest clip in both the 100 breaststroke (1:30.00) and 200 individual medley (3:26.31).

Eight different QNQ girls recorded individual wins in tonight's meet including junior Lauren Thorne's (NQ) wins in both the 200 (2:41.50) and 100 (1:09.29) events.

Junior Carolyn Schwartz (NQ) paced the 50 free (31.62) and came in second to Thorne in the 100 free (1:14.40); and junior Nikki Moutsopoulos (NQ) won the meet's diving event with 103.87 points.

QNQ hosts Rockland Jan. 3 at the Lincoln-Hancock Pool. Meet starts at 3:45 p.m.

ELEMENTARY LUNCH MENU

Monday, Dec. 31

No School.

Tuesday, Jan. 1

No School - New Year's Day.

Wednesday, Jan. 2

Toasted cheese goldfish sandwich, carrot snack pack, 100% fruit juice, fresh fruit or juice.

Thursday, Jan. 3

Grilled hot dog (beef, chicken, pork), on a WG bun, baked beans, fruit cup.

Friday, Jan. 4

Make your own meatball sandwich with tomato sauce, broccoli florets, fresh fruit or juice.

SECONDARY LUNCH MENU

Monday, Dec. 31

No School.

Tuesday, Jan. 1

No School - New Year's Day.

Wednesday, Jan. 2

Cheeseburger on a whole wheat bun, lettuce and tomato, corn on the cob, potato wedges, fruit, juice, and milk choices.

Thursday, Jan. 3

Chicken fajita, steamed brown rice, carrot coins, WW tortilla, fruit, juice, and milk choices.

Friday, Jan. 4

Meatball submarine sandwich with tomato sauce, green and red beans, fruit, juice, and milk choices.

VOICE FOR HEALTH
by Dr. Gabrielle Freedman
Chiropractor

A PARTICULAR CHALLENGE

Not so long ago, "fibromyalgia" patients were told that their problem was all in their heads. Health professionals have since learned that this painful condition is a complex neurological problem that is complicated by the presence of headaches, fatigue, muscle tenderness, abdominal pain, constipation, bladder spasms, and other symptoms. Moreover, no single causative factor has been isolated, which leads many to think that there are multiple causes and degrees of manifestation. As a result, fibromyalgia is difficult to diagnose and even harder to treat. From the chiropractic perspective, fibromyalgia may be caused by neurochemical imbalances in the central nervous system. Also, because many of the tender soft-tissue points associated with fibromyalgia are in postural muscles, improving flexed posture may help.

Other problems commonly linked with fibromyalgia include morning stiffness, sleep problems, numbness in hands and feet, depression, and anxiety. At FAMILY PRACTICE OF CHIROPRACTIC, we are dedicated to providing you with a care program designed for your age, condition, and lifestyle. Call us at 617.472.4220 and find out how chiropractic care, combined with proper diet, exercise, and other aspects of good health can enhance your well-being and help you enjoy your life to the fullest. We are located at 112 McGrath Hwy., Quincy, where we are currently accepting new patients. We offer computerized spinal scans. With chiropractic care you have nothing to lose and everything to gain, especially your health. If your problem is a chiropractic condition we offer you exceptional service.

P.S. Much of the chiropractic approach to treating fibromyalgia is aimed at correcting spinal misalignment and increasing mobility through spinal manipulation and hands-on soft-tissue work.

www.freedmanchiro.com

OBITUARIES

Michael J. Blinn, 57

Funeral services for Michael J. Blinn, 57, of Quincy were privately held.

Mr. Blinn died Dec. 19.

Born in Quincy, he was a son of the late George H. and Doris (O'Connell) Blinn.

Dear Brother of Susan A. Mueller and her husband Ulli of Beverly, Alice R. Bottary and her husband Michael of Hull, Stephen M. Blinn and his wife Susan of NH and George H. Blinn and his wife Beverly of NJ. Nephew of Barbara Babcock of Weymouth, and is also survived by many cherished nieces, nephews and cousins, including Marilyn Blinn of Concord.

Funeral arrangements were made by Hamel, Wickens & Troupe Funeral Home, 26 Adams St., Quincy.

MICHAEL J. BLINN

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to Alliance for The Mentally III of Massachusetts, Inc., 400 W. Cummings Park, #6650, Woburn, MA 01801.

Edward C. Barton, 76

A funeral Mass for Edward C. "Ted" Barton, 76, of Braintree and formerly Quincy was celebrated Dec. 22 at Sacred Heart Church, Weymouth.

Mr. Barton died Dec. 18.

He was born and raised in Quincy and had lived in Braintree for 45 years. Mr. Barton was an Army Veteran and a sales executive and publishing consultant for various publishing companies, including the Patriot Ledger, Electra Products in Waltham, and Mergenthaler Corp. Mr. Barton was an avid, lifelong student of human origins and anthropology.

Beloved husband of Elizabeth C. (Taylor) Barton. Devoted father of Edward D. Barton and his wife Cathy of Stoughton, Linda C. Barton of Braintree, Christopher J. Barton and his wife Sarah of Braintree, and Holly B. Barton of Braintree. Beloved brother of Joyce Shores of Weymouth, the late Brenda Manley and the late John Barton. Brother-in-law of Lucille Barton of Braintree, William Manley, Sr. of Braintree and the late George Shores. Loving grandfather of Mary, Ned, John, Elizabeth, Thomas, Larry, Shawn, John, and Brady. Great-grandfather to Landon and Makaylah. Also survived by many beloved nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Clancy-Lucid Funeral Home, Weymouth.

Interment was in Braintree Cemetery.

Ralph J. Bergonzi

Retired Quincy Police Officer

Funeral services for Ralph J. Bergonzi of Braintree and formerly Quincy were privately held.

Mr. Bergonzi died Dec. 19.

He lived in Quincy for many years before moving to Braintree. He worked as a Quincy Police Officer and retired back in 1988. He enjoyed fishing and relaxing on his boat. He will be remembered as a loving husband, a devoted father and cherished grandfather who will be sadly missed.

Beloved husband of Denise (Marella) Bergonzi of Braintree. Loving father of Paul W. Bergonzi and his wife Jennifer and Laura Latini and her husband Rick, all of Quincy. Son of the late Louis and Claire (Hyder) Bergonzi. Brother of the late Paul Bergonzi. Cherished grandfather of Robert, Ashley, Jake, and Madeline Bergonzi and Zachary, Jake William and Megan Latini. Mr. Bergonzi also leaves his furry companion Bear.

RALPH J. BERGONZI

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Children's Hospital, 300 Longwood Avenue, Boston, MA 02115.

Priscilla M. Amorelli, 71

A funeral service for Priscilla M. (Burns) Amorelli, 71, of Quincy was held Dec. 22 at Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Mrs. Amorelli died Dec. 19 at the Plymouth Rehabilitation and Healthcare Center.

She was born in Quincy, raised and educated in Quincy schools and was a graduate of Quincy High School, Class of 1961. She was a homemaker and was devoted to her family and friends.

Devoted mother of Jo-

Patricia H. Loring, 75

A memorial service for Patricia H. (Hibben) Loring, 75, of Quincy and Nantucket will be held at a later date to be announced.

Mrs. Loring died Dec. 11.

Born and raised in Great Barrington, she was the daughter of the late Dr. Freeman Hibben and Dr. Josephine (Frey) Hibben. She worked as a legal assistant with the Nutter, McClennen and Fish Law Firm in Boston.

Loving wife of 43 years to Thomas B. Loring of Quincy and Nantucket. Loving mother of Edward B. Loring of Nantucket and Christopher B. Loring of Boston. Grandmother of Jennifer Bergeron of Taunton. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements are being made by Deware Funeral Home, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be to Maria Mitchell Assoc., 2 Vestal Street Nantucket, MA 02554 or to the New England Wildlife Center, 500 Columbian Street, So. Weymouth, MA 02190.

Valerie J. Sullivan, 58

Former Gillette Company Employee

A funeral service for Valerie J. Sullivan, 58, of Quincy was held privately.

Ms. Sullivan died Dec. 16.

She was a former employee of The Gillette Company and graduate of Cathedral High School in Boston. She was a #1 N.E. Patriots fan.

She was diagnosed in 1983 with a form of ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease) and met the challenges of this disease with great strength and courage. She made the best of her years despite her limitations. With assistance from dedicated caretakers, who became lifelong friends, she was able to maintain her independence by living on her own until her passing. Over time, daily tasks became more difficult, but her strong will and determination allowed her to get through any obstacles she faced. She retained a hopeful outlook for a cure, and participated in many experimental remedies. Her unique sense of humor and relentless spirit inspired those who came in contact with her and will continue to live on.

Beloved daughter of Kathryn Sullivan and her companion Robert Reynolds of Quincy, and Richard Sullivan of FL. Cherished sister of Richard Sullivan and his wife Paula of Randolph, Linda Allen of Chestnut Hill, Owen Sullivan of CA, Mary (Sullivan) Hovagimian and her husband Michael of Easton, and Patti Sullivan of Quincy. Proud aunt of Patrick, Brendan, and Amy Sullivan, Daniel and Caroline Allen, Steven Sullivan and Christine (Sullivan) Vroom, Zachary and Nicole Conley, Jeremy Sullivan, and Kathleen Sullivan. Great aunt of additional nieces and nephews. She leaves many devoted caretakers and dear friends.

VALERIE J. SULLIVAN

Funeral arrangements were made by Kane Funeral Home, Easton.

Memorial donations may be made to MDA, 33 Lyman Street, #304, Westboro, MA 01581.

Bianca Zanghi, 87

Former Owner Of Maxine's Beauty Salon

A funeral Mass for Bianca "Anne" (Marinelli) Zanghi, 87, of Braintree and formerly Quincy was celebrated Dec. 19 at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Braintree.

Mrs. Zanghi died Dec. 16.

She came to the United States when she was three years old and grew up in Quincy where she was a graduate of Quincy High School class of 1943 and then the Wilfred Beauty Academy. She was the former owner of Maxine's Beauty Salon in Quincy and was a member of the Braintree Women's Club and the Braintree Catholic Women's Club. She enjoyed spending the winter in Venice, FL.

Beloved wife of the late

BIANCA ZANGHI

Dominic P. Zanghi. Loving mother of Anne-Marie Crawford and her husband Jonathan, Lucille McGrady and her husband Paul, Mary Ellen Kilmer and her husband Carleton, and Carmen Zanghi, all of Braintree. Beloved grandmother of Eric Crawley and his wife Samantha of Hyde Park, Jonathan Kilmer of NY, and Lisa Crawford of Quincy. Devoted sister of Dora Macdonald and Nancy Cirillo both of Quincy. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Cartwright-Venuti Funeral Home, Braintree.

Interment was in Blue Hill Cemetery, Braintree.

Memorial donations may be made in Bianca's name to the American Heart Association, 30 Speen St., Framingham MA 01701.

A Better Value For Quincy Families

At Deware Funeral Home, we are proud to offer more value and superior service to Quincy families. A full service traditional funeral is $5,995* with no hidden costs. The price includes:

Funeral Ceremony • Visitation • Casket

At Deware Funeral Home, we put the needs of our customer first. We also offer a Simple Burial Plan for $3,395.

With Deware Funeral Home, you can trust us to provide the compassionate care you expect at an exceptional value, backed by a 100% service guarantee.

Exclusive provider of Dignity Memorial® benefits.

Deware Funeral Home

576 Hancock Street | Quincy, MA 02170 | 617-472-1137

For more information visit
www.dewarefuneralhome.com

*$5,995 plan includes basic services of funeral director and staff, embalming and preparation, visitation, funeral ceremony, transportation to place of disposition, 20-gauge metal casket, website announcement, and memorial stationary package (a register book, 100 thank you cards, 100 prayer cards).
A Service Family Affiliate of ADFS and Service Corporation International, 206 Winter Street, Fall River, MA 02720. (508) 676-2454.

Over 60 Years
Of Personalized Service

SWEENEY BROTHERS

Home for Funerals, Inc.

RICHARD T. SWEENEY, JR. • FRANCIS M. SWEENEY

1 INDEPENDENCE AVENUE

QUINCY, MASSACHUSETTS 02169

(617) 472-6344

www.thesweeneybrothers.com

James C. Kilrain

Retired Navy Electrician,
QHS Football, Baseball Hall Of Famer

A funeral Mass for James C. "Cecil" Kilrain of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 22 at St. Joseph's Church, Quincy.

Mr. Kilrain died Dec. 19.

He was a lifelong resident of Quincy and a graduate of Quincy High School. He was a career Navy electrician before retiring in 1958. In his earlier years, Mr. Kilrain was an amazing athlete — he was inducted into the Quincy High School Football and Baseball Halls of Fame in 1991.

He was proud to be the grandson of Jake Kilrain who was the last bare knuckle fighter in the United States. He was a sincere man with deep devotion to his family and his faith, he was a devoted Catholic. He will be missed by all who had the pleasure to have known him.

Beloved husband of Effie (Cameron) Kilrain of Quincy. Loving father of James J. Kilrain and his wife Marie of Braintree and the late Jack C. Kilrain. Brother of the late John J. Kilrain. Father in law of Diane Kilrain of

JAMES C. KILRAIN

Quincy. Cherished Grandfather of James L. Kilrain and wife Jackie of Quincy, Jacqueline M. Kilrain of Quincy, Bonnie L. Kilrain of Weymouth, John C. Kilrain, Jr. and wife Denise of Quincy. Great-grandfather of John, Samantha, Jamie Colin, Kelsey, and Aurora. Also survived by many loving nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was at Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to St. Joseph's Church, 550 Washington St., Quincy, MA 02169.

Paul Gorachy, 91

WWII Veteran, Retired Manager

Funeral services for Paul Gorachy, 91, of Quincy, a retired manager for New England Telephone Co., will be conducted today (Thursday) at 11 a.m. at the Quincy Point Congregational Church, 444 Washington St., Quincy.

Peter D. Johnston will officiate.

Mr. Gorachy died unexpectedly Dec. 20 at the Quincy Medical Center.

He was born in Portsmouth, N.H., raised and educated in Quincy schools and was a 1939 graduate of Quincy High School. He graduated from Northeastern University and also received his MBA from Northeastern. He had lived in Quincy for most of his life.

Mr. Gorachy was a long-time employee of the New England Telephone Company. He worked as a manager in the Boston office and has been retired many years.

He was a World War II veteran having served in the U.S. Army as a Second Lieutenant.

Beloved husband of the late Carol A. (Curtis) Gorachy.

Devoted father of Gail A. Bean and her husband Richard of Westwood and Paul C. Gorachy of Quincy.

Loving grandfather of Kevin M. Bean and Amy A. Bean both of Westwood.

Brother of the late George Gorachy.

Brother-in-law of Dr. Richard Curtis and his wife Laurinda of Shrewsbury. Also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Visiting hours were Wednesday from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment with Military Honors at Mount Wollaston Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to a charity of choice.

Richard A. Boidi, 57

A private funeral service for Richard A. Boidi, 57, of Weymouth and formerly Quincy was held recently.

Mr. Boidi died Dec. 8 at Sagem Nursing Home in East Bridgewater.

Beloved son of the late Angele Boidi. Survived by his aunt Marie Goodmuth, several cousins, and his caretakers Frank Jones and Linda Zawadzki.

Funeral arrangements were made by Chapman, Cole & Gleason Funeral Home, East Bridgewater.

Rev. Edward A. Roberts, 81

Served 51 Years As A Columban Father,
Retired Navy Commander

A Concelebrated Funeral Mass for Rev. Edward A. Roberts, 81, of Sebastian, FL and formerly of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 20 at St. Thecla's Church, Pembroke.

Fr. Roberts died Dec. 15.

Fr. Roberts was born in Quincy and was a graduate of Boston College High School, Class of 1949. He went to Bristol and the Columban major seminary in Milton and was ordained on December 21, 1960.

Fr. Roberts served 51 years as a Columban Father. He was assigned to the Philippines in 1961 and worked in Mindanao, Negros and Bacolod before he received permission to enter the Chaplain's Corps. He was a graduate of the Naval Chaplain School in Newport, RI and was assigned to U.S. Naval Stations in the Philippines from 1969 to 1976 after which he returned to the Naval Station in Mayport, Florida.

Fr. Roberts retired from the U.S. Navy in 1982 as a Commander and returned to Pembroke as an associate pastor at Saint Thecla's Parish for several years. He continued to share his missionary experiences as he lived in Marshfield for many years and in Sebastian, FL where he moved in 2004.

Beloved son of the late Herbert W. and Lora M. (Jolicoeur) Roberts. Devoted brother of the late Ernest A. Roberts and the late Lora A. Ettridge. Dear uncle of Charles Ettridge of Boston, Gregory Ettridge, Stephen Ettridge, both of Marshfield, and Jennifer Ettridge of VA. Also survived by six grand-nephews, one grandniece and several cousins.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to the Columban Fathers, P.O. Box 10, St. Columbans, NE 68056.

Louis A. Coglianò

Accountant, Auditor For Defense Department

A funeral Mass for Louis A. Coglianò of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 22 at St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Mr. Coglianò died Dec. 20.

He was born in Boston and lived most of his life in Quincy. He worked for the Federal Government for 38 years as an accountant and auditor at the Defense Department in Boston before retiring in 1986.

Mr. Coglianò was a decorated WWII Army Veteran. He was a life member of Disabled American Veterans and Life member of Quincy Knights of Columbus. Louis was a very faithful man and a devoted Catholic. He was a Minister Prefect and organizer of the Third Order at Saint Anthony Shrine in Boston in 1954. Most of all he loved his family and will be missed by all who had the pleasure to have known him.

Beloved husband of Alice (Scanlon) Coglianò of Quincy. Loving father of Kevin F. Coglianò and his wife Lisa of Weymouth and Kathleen A. Coglianò of Quincy. Brother of the late Louise LaVerde, Phillip, Dominic, Vincent, and John Coglianò. Brother-in-law of Tillie Coglianò of Everett and Joan Coglianò of CT. Uncle and godfather of Tonia Schramm of Everett and Steven Coglianò of West Newbury. Also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Milton Cemetery.

Memorial donations may be made to St. Anthony's Shrine, 100 Arch Street, Boston, MA 02110.

Eileen Kintigos, 47

A funeral Mass for Eileen Kintigos, 47, of Quincy was celebrated Dec. 22 at St. Ann's Church, Quincy.

Ms. Kintigos died Dec. 19.

She was born in Boston, raised and educated in Quincy schools. A North Quincy High School graduate, she was a lifelong Quincy resident.

She was employed in retail sales. She was well-known for being very social and bubbly.

Beloved daughter of Joseph F. and Mary A. (Ridge) Kintigos of Quincy. Cherished granddaughter of the late Arthur and Ethel (Schuler) Kintigos and the late John and Delia (Flaherty) Ridge. Devoted sister of Joseph F. Kintigos, Jr., of Quincy, Marianne Giovannucci and her husband William of Milton, and Mark A. Kintigos of Quincy. Loving aunt of Nicholas, Ryan,

EILEEN KINTIGOS

Delia, and Sienna. Also survived by many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Funeral arrangements were made by Sweeney Brothers Home for Funerals, 1 Independence Ave., Quincy.

Interment was in New Calvary Cemetery, Roslindale.

Memorial donations may be made to Crossroads for Kids, 119 Myrtle St., Duxbury, MA 02332.

Anne N. McCloskey

A funeral Mass for Anne N. (Bare) McCloskey of North Quincy was celebrated Dec. 21 at Sacred Heart Church, Quincy.

Mrs. McCloskey died Dec. 14.

She was born in Hull and raised in South Boston before settling to raise her family in Quincy where she lived for 67 years. She worked for Bradlees in Dorchester for 35 years before retiring in 1998. She was a communicant at Sacred Heart Church in North Quincy and was a member of the North Quincy Senior Club. She was past president of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion Post in Hull.

Mrs. McCloskey was a very generous person and remained active in local charities over the years. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends.

She will be missed by all who had the pleasure to have known her.

Beloved wife of the late Francis X. McCloskey. Loving mother of Catherine A. Waterman of FL, Nancy A. Thompson of CA, Susan P. Flowers of MO, Judith F. O'Donnell and the late Patrick W. McCloskey. Sister of the late Arthur Bare. Cherished grandmother of nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were made by Keohane Funeral Home, 785 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment was in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to Father Bill's Place, 38 Broad St. Quincy, MA 02169 or American Heart Association, 20 Speen Street, Framingham, MA 01701.

Other Obituaries On Page 43
and Online at
www.thequincysun.com

HAMEL FUNERAL CARE & CREMATION SERVICES OF MASSACHUSETTS

Honored Providers of:

PHONE TOLL FREE
(800) 696-5887

26 Adams Street, Quincy, Ma 02169
www.HamelFuneralCare.com

DOLAN
FUNERAL SERVICES

"Caring for your life's journey"

- ◆ Funerals
- ◆ Cremations
- ◆ Pre-Arrangements

Service times and directions at:
www.dolanfuneral.com

THE DOLAN FAMILY
W. Craig
Paul F.
Frederick J.
Courtney

1140 WASHINGTON STREET
DORCHESTER, MA 02124
(617) 298-8011

460 GRANITE AVENUE
MILTON, MA 02186
(617) 698-6264

Honor Your Loved One's
Memory
With Flowers

cliffords.com
1.800.441.8884

RELIGION

CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES at Sacred Heart Church are studying the Second Temple of Jerusalem, and its liturgical practices as they relate to Jesus Christ. From left are: Zachary Erickson, Samuel Erickson, Joseph McGillicuddy, and Father John O'Brien, pastor.

Sacred Heart Confirmation Candidates Study Jewish Temple

Confirmation candidates at Sacred Heart Church are studying the Second Temple of Jerusalem, and its liturgical practices as they relate to Jesus Christ.

The Jewish Temple plays a prominent part in many of the events described in the Gospels, including the presentation of the Infant Jesus, the finding of the adolescent Jesus, and the tearing of the Temple curtain at the time of the Crucifixion. The Temple was destroyed by the Romans in the year 70. A detailed model of the Temple, imported directly from Israel, was assembled by Confirmation candidates, Joseph McGillicuddy, Zachary Erickson, and Samuel Erickson. Father Raymond Kiley is advisor to the Confirmation Program; Joseph and Kate Shannon serve as directors.

'Feast Of Lights' Ecumenical Celebration

The 37th Annual "Feast of Lights" Ecumenical celebration of Christmas and Epiphany will be held Sunday, Jan. 6 at 7 p.m. at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, 386 Hancock St., North Quincy.

The annual ecumenical worship is a time for Christians from all traditions to gather as one community in Christ around scripture, prayer, song, and reflection. It is sponsored by the Interchurch Council of North Quincy and Wollaston and the Quincy Choral Society will provide several anthems.

Local clergy will lead the service and an offering will be collected to support the work of Interfaith Social Services, D.O.V.E. (Domestic Violence Ended), Quincy Crisis Center, and Father Bill's Place.

The worship service is open to all and the public is invited to attend. A time for refreshments and fellowship will follow the service.

For more information, contact the rectory at Sacred Heart at 617-328-8666.

Quincy Community United Methodist

Quincy Community United Methodist Church's first worship service of the New Year 2013 will be a service of song. Instead of a sermon, there will be a 'Christmas Carol Sing.'

"The first Sunday of 2013 is Jan. 6th, the Feast of the Epiphany, also known as 'Little Christmas,' which brings the Christmas season to a close," said Rev. Dr. Susan F. Jarek-Glidden, pastor of the church. "Singing in the New Year is a chance to sing all the old favorites, to learn a couple of new carols, and a fun way to start the New Year."

The service will also include Holy Communion. It will be held Sunday, Jan. 6, at 10:30 a.m.

Quincy Community United Methodist Church is located at 40 Beale St. in Wollaston. For more information, call the church office at 617-773-3319.

Houghs Neck Congregational

Houghs Neck Congregational Church, 310 Manet Ave. will hold its regular weekly worship service this Sunday, Dec. 30 at 10 a.m.

All are welcome to attend.

Pastor John Castricum will deliver the sermon "I've Seen the Salvation" and the church choir will perform the anthem, "Mary, Did You Know?"

A fellowship coffee hour will follow the service.

Genetic Disorders Topic At Temple Shalom

Dr. Jodi Hoffman, geneticist at Tufts Medical Center, will be the guest speaker at the next Temple Shalom of Milton Brunch Speaker Series on Sunday, Jan 6th, at the Pierce Middle School, Milton, at 10:15 a.m.

Dr. Hoffman's topic will be "What's Hiding in Your Genes?" a discussion of the genetic disorders that can be carried by healthy Ashkenazi (Eastern and Central European) Jews.

The public is invited to the brunch. For more information, call 617-698-3394.

Quincy Religion Directory

SERVICES & ACTIVITIES

Catholic

St. Mary's Church
95 Crescent St., Quincy • 617-773-0120
Masses
Saturday, 4pm, Sunday 7, 9:30
& 11:30am, Weekdays 9am
Handicapped Accessible
New Members Welcome!

ST. AGATHA CHURCH MILTON-QUINCY
432 Adams Street
Milton, MA 02186 • 617-698-2439
Schedule of Masses:
Saturday: 4:30PM
Sunday: 7:30AM, 9:00AM (Family Mass), 10:30AM, 12 NOON, 5:00PM
Weekday Masses: 7:00 & 9:00AM
Reconciliation 3:45PM-4:15pm on Saturdays, other times by appointment
Handicapped Accessible, handicapped parking, elevator to Upper/Lower Churches ~ Air-Conditioned

St. John The Baptist ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH
44 School St., Quincy
617-773-1021
Weekend Mass Schedule
Saturday, 4:00 PM
Sunday 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 AM
Sunday night 5:30 PM
Weekday Masses
Monday - Saturday 8:00 AM
Latin Mass
1st & 3rd Wednesdays (Lower Chapel) 7:00 AM
Confessions
Wed. 8:30 - 9:00 AM
Sat. 2:30 - 3:30 PM
Handicapped Accessible

Salvationist

THE SALVATION ARMY
6 Baxter St., Quincy • 617-472-2345
9:45 CHRISTIAN EDUCATION
11AM WORSHIP SERVICE
BRASS BAND MUSIC
7PM TUES WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP
6:45PM WEDS. BIBLE STUDY

Catholic

Sacred Heart Church
"A Roman Catholic Community walking together in Faith, Worship, Education and Service"
386 Hancock St., North Quincy, MA 02171
(617) 328-8666
Sunday Masses
4pm (Sat.) 7:45am, 9am (Family Liturgy)
10:30am (with Choir) and 5pm
Weekday Masses
Mon.-Fri. 7am and 9am, Sat. 9am
Handicapped Accessible
Confessions
Sat. 3-3:45pm in Saint Joseph Oratory

St. Joseph's Church
550 Washington Street
Quincy, MA 02169
617-472-6321
SUNDAY MASSES:
4 p.m. (On Saturday)
8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.
Weekday Masses 9am
CONFESSIONS: Saturday, 3:00-3:30 pm
Handicapped accessible & Handicapped parking, side entrance air conditioned

Saint Ann's Church
757 Hancock St., Wollaston
617-479-5400
Pastor: Rev. John J. Ronaghan
Weekend Mass Schedule:
Saturday 4:00 PM
Sunday 7:00, 9:00, 11:30AM
Daily Masses: 9:00 AM

Methodist

QUINCY COMMUNITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
40 Beale St., Wollaston
617-773-3319
10:30 AM Sunday Worship
Rev. Dr. Susan Jarek-Glidden, Pastor

Congregational

HOUGH'S NECK CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
310 Manet Avenue
617-479-8778
www.hncong.org
Sunday Worship at 10 a.m.
'I've Seen The Salvation'
Pastor John Castricum
All are welcome to attend
FELLOWSHIP COFFEE HOUR FOLLOWING SERVICE

BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Spear & Coddington Streets
Quincy Center, 617-479-7300
WWW.QUINCYBETHANYCHURCH.ORG
Sunday Worship Dec. 30 10 AM
'The Upward Road'
The Rev. William Harding
Child Care Available
ALL ARE WELCOME!
Fellowship Time in Allen Parlor

HOPE LOVE

Congregational

Wollaston Congregational Church
United Church of Christ
48 Winthrop Avenue
Quincy, Massachusetts
Sunday Worship at 10 a.m.
Rev. Dr. Mary Louise Gifford
Office: 617-773-7432 www.wollycong.org

UNION CONGREGATIONAL
Beach St. & Rawson Rd., Wollaston
(617) 479-6661
Rev. John Swanson, Pastor
Sunday Worship Service 10 AM

QUINCY POINT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
444 Washington St. • 617-773-6424
Worship and Church School 10 am
Rev. Ann Suzedell, Pastor
email: office@quincypointcong.org

Unitarian Universalist

United First Parish Church
A theologically liberal congregation, encouraging people to seek their own spiritual path. All are welcome.
Worship Service, Church School and Childcare Sundays at 10:30 AM
Followed by Fellowship & Refreshments
Rev. Dave Johnson
1306 Hancock St., Quincy
www.ufpc.org

Christian Science

First Church of Christ, Scientist
16 Beale Street, Quincy
617-472-0055
Sunday Services and Sunday School 10:30 a.m.
Wednesday Evening Meetings - where testimonies of healing are shared 7:30 p.m.
ALL ARE WELCOME!

Catholic Community

Dignity BOSTON
Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender
CATHOLICS
Our families, friends And allies
Liturgy & social hour: Sundays, 5:30 PM
St. John the Evangelist Church
35 Bowdoin St., Beacon Hill, Boston
617-421-1915
www.dignityboston.org

Nazarene

Wollaston Church of the Nazarene
Sunday Worship
8:30 AM Liturgical Worship
9:45 AM Sunday School
11:00 AM Celebration Worship
Kevin C. Dunlop, Lead Pastor
Phil Huse, Youth & Small Groups Pastor
John Chastote, Music & Congregation Pastor
Rev. Heather, Children's Pastor
Don Reed, Visitation Pastor
37 E. Elm Ave., Wollaston
617-472-5668
E-mail: office@wconaz.org
www.wconaz.org

PEACE JOY

To Advertise
in this Directory,
Call 617-471-3100

Frank J. Masciulli, 85Retired MBTA Inspector

A funeral Mass for Frank J. Masciulli, 85, of Quincy, a retired MBTA inspector, will be celebrated today (Thursday) at 10 a.m. in St. Ann's Church, 757 Hancock St., Wollaston.

Mr. Masciulli died Dec. 21.

He was born and raised in South Boston prior to moving to Quincy in 1956. He proudly served in the U.S. Navy and spent time in the Philippines during World War II.

After his military service he spent 36 years as an Inspector on the MBTA before retiring in 1987. After retiring, he and his wife Marilyn enjoyed traveling, golfing, eating Whoppers at Burger King, spending time at their lake home in Wareham, and participating in the Quincy Senior Olympics, where Mr. Masciulli won many gold medals.

FRANK J. MASCIULLI

Devoted husband of 37 years to Marilyn (O'Connor) Masciulli and loving father and stepfather to Mary McDonough, Helen LaRose Venezia, Frank Masciulli, Pat O'Connor, Dan O'Connor, Nancy Donovan, Karen Kunevich, Sharon O'Connor, Steven Masciulli, Donna Magnell and their spouses. He is also survived by many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

He was the son of the Joseph and Nancy Masciulli and was brother to Irene Mirisola and the late Vincent Masciulli, Sam Masciulli, Nancy Baszkiewicz, Jenny Goodfellow, and Anthony Masciulli. He was also the husband of the late Agnes Heft.

Visiting hours were Wednesday from 3 to 7 p.m. at the Lydon Chapel for Funerals, 644 Hancock St., Quincy.

Interment will be in Pine Hill Cemetery, Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, 480 Pleasant St., Watertown, MA 02472 and Old Colony Hospice, 1 Credit Union Way Randolph, MA 02368.

Walter V. Worth, 91World War II Veteran, Sales Engineer

A memorial service for Walter V. "Wally" Worth, 91, of Quincy will be held today (Thursday) at 3 p.m. at River Bay Club, Quincy.

Mr. Worth died Dec. 21.

He was a graduate of Braintree High School and a World War II veteran of the European Theatre.

Mr. Worth was a sales engineer who had many varied talents and interests. A fine woodworker, he could build anything for anyone. His family has wonderful examples of his work to remember him by.

After retiring, he was deeply involved in building and restoring antique radios,

WALTER V. WORTH

an interest since his childhood and clocks. He was a member of several antique radio and clock clubs and published articles in their magazines.

Beloved husband of 70 years to Louise (Holton) Worth. Devoted father of Carol Appgar of Scituate, Patricia McLaughlin of Peabody and Ronald Worth of Hudson. Also survived by five grandchildren and nine great grandchildren, all of whom loved their "Ha Ha". He will be sorely missed. Son of the late John and Bertha (Shurtleff) Worth. His five siblings preceded him in death.

Funeral arrangements were made by Lydon Chapel for Funerals, 644 Hancock St., Quincy.

Memorial donations may be made to a charity of choice.

Mildred E. Ivester, 79MILDRED E. IVESTER

a.m. at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Ivester died Sunday.

Born in Quincy where she was raised and educated, she also lived in Canton and Stoughton and worked as a housekeeper for many years.

Beloved daughter of the late Frank and Ethel (Sweezy) Monti. Loving mother of Michael Ivester of CT, Donald Ivester of Woburn, Stephen Ivester of New Bedford and Laurie White of NH. Dear sister of Marion Baker of MS, Frank Monti II of RI, Pauline Pace of Brockton, John Monti of Randolph, and the late Robie Monti and Florence Weeks. Also survived by seven grandchildren.

Visiting hours are Friday 9-10:30 a.m. at Dennis Sweeney Funeral Home, 74 Elm St., Quincy.

Barbara A. Nadeau

A funeral service for Barbara A. (McCormack) Nadeau of Weymouth and formerly Quincy will be celebrated today (Thursday) at 11 a.m. at McDonald Funeral Home, Weymouth.

Mrs. Nadeau died Dec. 21.

She grew up in Quincy and had lived in Weymouth for the last 28 years. She worked in banking for many years at various locations but most recently Bank of Canton for the past five years. She had a love for the beach but her passion was spending time with her grandchildren. She will be remembered as a kind and modest woman who will be sadly missed.

Beloved wife of 42 years to Mark Nadeau, Sr. of Weymouth. Dear mother of Mark Nadeau, Jr. and his wife Darci of Hanover and William C. Nadeau and his wife Lisa of Abington. Cherished Grandma of Ella, Jack and Kate. Loving sister of William McCormack of Stoughton, Francis McCormack of Quincy, Paul McCormack of Canton, Mary O'Connor of Weymouth, John McCormack of Boston and Joe McCormack of Boston. Also survived by many nieces, nephews and dear friends.

BARBARA A. NADEAU

Visiting hours were 4-8 p.m. Wednesday.

Memorial donations may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

Isabel R. Souffront, 92

A funeral Mass for Isabel R. Souffront, 92, of Quincy will be celebrated tomorrow (Friday) at 10 a.m. at St. John the Baptist Church, Quincy.

Mrs. Souffront died Nov. 12.

She lived a long life full of family and friends. She truly enjoyed social events and traveling and was very active throughout her life.

She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Wife of the late Luis Oscar Souffront. Loving mother of Elizabeth Souffront and her husband John Christian of Quincy and Luis Oscar Souffront, Jr. and his partner Jonathan Osborne of VA. Grandmother of Nick Scott of NJ and Isabelle Scott of Quincy; great-grandmother of Layla Scott of NJ.

LEGAL NOTICELEGAL NOTICE

2012-200

Currently pending in the Ordinance Committee of the Quincy City Council

Be it ordained that the Quincy Municipal Code is amended as follows:

In Title 17 City of Quincy Zoning Add a new section:

Section 6.9 MEDICAL MARIJUANA DISTRIBUTION &

AMEND Section 10 to include definition of Medical Marijuana Distribution

6.9 MEDICAL MARIJUANA DISTRIBUTION.

6.9.1 Purpose. It is the purpose of this section titled Medical Marijuana Distribution to address and mitigate the secondary effects of the Medical Marijuana Distribution and drug dispensing and cultivation oriented businesses that are referenced and defined herein. Secondary effects have been shown to include increased crime, adverse impacts on public health, adverse impacts on the business climate of the City, adverse impacts on the property values of residential and commercial properties, and adverse impacts on the quality of life in the City. All of said secondary impacts are adverse to the health, safety, and general welfare of the City and its inhabitants. It is the purpose of this ordinance to establish specific standards and procedures for local licensing of medical marijuana centers, medical marijuana infused products, manufacturers, and medical marijuana cultivation operations.

1. The provisions of this Ordinance have neither the purpose nor intent of imposing a limitation on the content of any communicative matter or materials. Similarly, it is not the purpose or intent of this Ordinance to restrict or deny access by adults to Medical Marijuana Distribution or to other related matter or materials that are protected by the Constitution of the United States of America or of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, nor to restrict or deny rights that distributors of such materials may have to sell or distribute such materials. Neither is it the purpose or intent of this Ordinance to legalize the sale, rental, or distribution of illicit or other illegal matter or materials.

6.9.2 General. Medical Marijuana Distribution may be authorized by special permit as set forth in the Table of Principal Uses. The following regulations shall apply to Medical Marijuana Distribution as defined in this Ordinance. An Urban Renewal Use is exempt from the provisions of Section 6.9.

6.9.3 Prohibition. No Medical Marijuana Distribution special permit shall be issued to any person convicted of violating the provisions of G.L. c. 119, s. 63, or G.L. c. 94C or similar laws in other jurisdictions. Any applicant for licensure under this Ordinance must allow for a criminal background check which includes jurisdictions beyond Massachusetts.

6.9.4 Separation. No Medical Marijuana Distribution use shall be located within fifteen hundred linear feet of:

1. any Residential District as designated herein; or
2. any school or child care establishment; or
3. any other Medical Marijuana Distribution site; or
4. any establishment licensed under the provisions of G.L. c. 138, s. 12.

Distances shall be calculated by direct measurement from the nearest property line of the land used for school or child care purposes to the nearest portion of the building in which the medical marijuana dispensary is located, using a route of direct pedestrian access.

6.9.5 No Entitlement or vested rights to licensing. No person shall be deemed to have any entitlement or vested right to licensing under this Ordinance by virtue of having received any prior license or permit from the city including, by way of example only, any zoning permit, any wholesale food manufacturer's license. In order to lawfully engage in the business of selling, cultivating, or manufacturing medical marijuana in the city on and after the date of passage of this Ordinance, any person must qualify for and obtain a license in accordance with the requirements of this Ordinance.

6.9.6 Conflict of laws. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Ordinance and any other applicable state or local law, the stricter provision, as deemed by the Zoning Administrator, shall control.

6.9.7 Off-site delivery prohibited. All sales and distribution of medical marijuana by a licensed medical marijuana distributor shall occur only upon the licensed premises, and the licensee shall be strictly prohibited from delivering medical marijuana to any person at any other location.

6.9.8 Signage. Any licensed medical marijuana distribution site shall comply with the requirements of the city sign ordinances at all times. In addition, no licensed medical marijuana distribution site shall use any advertising material that is misleading, deceptive, or false, or that is designed to appeal to minors upon penalty of license revocation.

6.9.9 Manufacturing. A local license for medical marijuana infused product manufacturing may be issued in any location where commercial manufacturing of products is permitted by the zoning code Manufacturing locations.

6.9.10 Term of License. Any local license issued pursuant to this Ordinance shall be valid for a period of two years from the date of issuance. Any renewal of the license shall be governed by the standards and procedures set forth in this Ordinance and any regulations adopted pursuant thereto by the Zoning administrator and/or Licensing Board.

6.9.11 Notification. Any new applications sought under this Ordinance must be publically advertised for a period of no less than fourteen (14) days. A butters within 400 feet must be notified in writing of said application, and include any and all dates for public hearings on said application.

10 DEFINITIONS

Medical Marijuana Distribution establishments: Shall include and be defined as follows.

An establishment having as any portion of its stock in trade marijuana or marijuana based products, as allowed for medical uses under state law, including but not limited to retail distribution, wholesale distribution, or growth and/or cultivation of medical marijuana or the manufacturing or sale of marijuana infused products.

"to be acted upon at a later date by the City Council."

12/27/12

Joseph P. Shea
Clerk of the Council

CLASSIFIEDS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-100

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Michael Walsh for a Special Permit and Finding to renovate and expand living area into existing enclosed porches and attic in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.2 (nonconforming uses) on the premises numbered 100 ROBERTSON STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-101

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Alexander and Bill Fok for a Finding to enclose the front porch in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.3 (alteration nonconforming) on the premises numbered 217-219 MARLBORO STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-102

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of T-Mobile Northeast, LLC for a Special Permit to modify the existing wireless communications facility in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 6.6 (wireless) on the premises numbered 93-97 WILLARD STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-103

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of T-Mobile Northeast, LLC for a Special Permit to modify the existing wireless communications facility in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 6.6 (wireless) on the premises numbered 1 BILLINGS ROAD, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-104

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Ulrik & Michaela Nielsen for a Variance to demolish the existing single family home and accessory building and construct a new single family and accessory building in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 4.0 (dimensional requirements) and Chapter 3.2.3 (accessory uses) on the premises numbered 49 SYCAMORE ROAD, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

MISCELLANEOUS

SAWMILLS from only $3997-
MAKE & SAVE MONEY with your own bandmill-Cut lumber any dimension. In stock ready to ship. FREE Info / DVD: www.Norwood-Sawmills.com 1-800-578-1363 Ext.300N

MISCELLANEOUS

ATTEND COLLEGE ONLINE from home. *Medical, *Business, *Criminal Justice, *Hospitality. Job placement assistance. Computer available. Financial Aid if qualified. SCHEV authorized. Call 888-216-1791 www.CenturaOnline.com

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-105

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Toan Le for a Finding to construct a mudroom in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.3 (alteration nonconforming) on the premises numbered 55 STERLING STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-106

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Arthur Choo Jr. & Company for a Special Permit / Flood Plain to construct an addition in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 8.1.9 (flood plain) on the premises numbered 318 SEA STREET, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-107

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Alexander Goodstein for a Finding to remodel the existing structure in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.3 (alteration to nonconforming) on the premises numbered 23 BEEBE ROAD, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
City of Quincy
ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

CASE NO. 12-108

Pursuant to the provisions of TITLE 17 of the QUINCY MUNICIPAL CODE as amended, the Quincy Zoning Board of Appeals will hold an Open Public Hearing on Tuesday, January 8, 2013 at 7:15 pm on the Second Floor in the Council Chambers, Quincy City Hall, 1305 Hancock Street, Quincy, MA 02169. On the application of Joseph Walsh for a Finding to add a family room addition above existing garage in violation of Title 17 as amended Chapter 3.4.3 (alteration to nonconforming) on the premises numbered 10 HAMILTON AVENUE, QUINCY.

Martin Aikens, Chairman

12/20/12, 12/27/12

MISCELLANEOUS

AUCTIONS

Wanted To Purchase Antiques & Fine Art, 1 item Or Entire Estate Or Collection. Gold, Silver, Coins, Jewelry, Toys, Oriental Glass, China, Lamps, Books, Textiles, Paintings, Prints almost anything old Evergreen Auctions 973-818-1100. Email evergreenauctions@hotmail.com

EDUCATION

MEDICAL OFFICE TRAINEES NEEDED! Train to become a Medical Office Assistant! No Experience Needed! Job Training & Local Placement assistance! HS Diploma/GED & PC/Internet needed! 1-888-589-9680

HELP WANTED

Exp. Reefer Drivers: GREAT PAY! Freight lanes from Presque Isle, ME, Boston-Lehigh PA. 800-277-0212 or primeinc.com

MISCELLANEOUS

HELP WANTED DRIVERS

Drivers-Pyle Transport (A Division of A.Duie Pyle) Needs Owner Operators. Regional Truckload Operations. HOME EVERY WEEKEND! O/O Average $1.85/Mile. Steady, Year-Round Work. Requires CDL-A, 2 Yrs Exp. Call Dan: 888-611-5052 www.DriveForPyle.com

HOME IMPROVEMENT

HAS YOUR BUILDING SHIFTED OR SETTLED? Contact Woodford Brothers Inc, for straightening, leveling, foundation and wood frame repairs at 1-800-OLD-BARN. www.woodfordbros.com

MISCELLANEOUS

AIRLINES ARE HIRING-Train for hands on Aviation Career. FAA approved program. Financial aid if qualified-Job placement assistance. Call Aviation Institute of Maintenance 877-202-0386

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON
PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION

Docket No. NO12P2909EA

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court

Probate and Family Court

Norfolk Probate

and Family Court

35 Shawmut Road

Canton, MA 02021

(781) 830-1200

Estate of:

Patricia A Lydon

Date of Death:

September 16, 2012

To all interested persons:

A petition has been filed by: Robert J Lydon of Quincy, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Robert J Lydon of Quincy, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 01/09/2013. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: December 7, 2012

PATRICK W. McDERMOTT

Register of Probate

12/27/12

LEGAL NOTICE

CITATION ON
PETITION FOR FORMAL ADJUDICATION

Docket No. NO12P2918EA

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court

Probate and Family Court

Norfolk Probate

and Family Court

35 Shawmut Road

Canton, MA 02021

(781) 830-1200

Estate of:

Adris F Lally

Date of Death:

April 11, 2012

To all interested persons:

A petition has been filed by: Cynthia F Lane of Quincy, MA requesting that the Court enter a formal Decree and Order of testacy and for such other relief as requested in the Petition.

And also requesting that: Cynthia F Lane of Quincy, MA and Diane Atkinson of Quincy, MA be appointed as Personal Representative(s) of said estate to serve Without Surety on the bond.

You have the right to obtain a copy of the Petition from the Petitioner or at the Court. You have a right to object to this proceeding. To do so, you or your attorney must file a written appearance and objection at this Court before: 10:00 A.M. on 01/16/2013. This is NOT a hearing date, but a deadline by which you must file a written appearance and objection if you object to this proceeding. If you fail to file a timely written appearance and objection followed by an Affidavit of Objections within thirty (30) days of the return date, action may be taken without further notice to you.

The estate is being administered under formal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but recipients are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration.

WITNESS, Hon. Angela M. Ordoñez, First Justice of this Court.

Date: December 10, 2012

PATRICK W. McDERMOTT

Register of Probate

12/27/12

QUINCY SUN NEWSCARRIERS WANTED

Here's a chance to earn extra money by building a Quincy Sun home delivery route.

Telephone
617-471-3100

CLASSIFIEDS

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF INFORMAL PROBATE

G.L. c. 190B, §3-306
Docket No. NO12P2528EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Division
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200
Estate of:
Lucy L. Joyce
Date of Death:
August 29, 2012

To all persons who have or may have some interest in the above captioned estate, to the Division of Medical Assistance and, if interested, to the Office of the Attorney General and the Department of Veterans Affairs, notice is hereby given on September 24, 2012 that the Petitioner William P. Joyce of Quincy, MA intends to file with the above-named Probate and Family Court, not sooner than seven (7) days after this notice, a Petition for Informal Probate of a Will, Petition for Informal Appointment of Personal Representative, to serve without surety on the bond William P. Joyce of Quincy, MA.

The estate is being administered under informal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but interested parties are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration. Interested parties are entitled to petition the Court to institute formal proceedings and to obtain orders terminating or restricting the powers of Personal Representatives appointed under informal procedure. A copy of the Petition and Will, if any, can be obtained from the Petitioner.

12/27/12

PERSONAL

ST. JUDE NOVENA

May the Sacred heart of Jesus be adored, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever. Sacred heart of Jesus pray for us, St. Jude worker of miracles pray for us, St. Jude, helper of the hopeless pray for us. Say this prayer nine times a day for nine days and your prayers will be answered. This prayer must be published. M.O.

12/27

REPORT POTHOLES

Potholes are a year-round problem and should be reported to the Department of Public Works.

PERSONAL

Thank You St. Jude for Prayers Answered. NFG

12/27

MERRY CHRISTMAS BAILEY

12/27

M/M LEARY 1ST CHRISTMAS

12/27

Emma and Austin.
Thanks for being such great kids.
We are so proud of you both.
Love, Mom & Dad

12/27

Save Gas & Money, Shop Locally

LEGAL NOTICE

INFORMAL PROBATE PUBLICATION NOTICE

Docket No. NO12P2870EA
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
The Trial Court
Probate and Family Court
Norfolk Probate and Family Court
35 Shawmut Road
Canton, MA 02021
(781) 830-1200
Estate of:
Kathleen Susan MacGillivray

Also Known As:
Kathleen S. MacGillivray
Date of Death:
October 8, 2012

To all persons interested in the above captioned estate, by Petition of:

Petitioner Tracey S. Fitzgerald of Arvada, CO a Will has been admitted to informal probate.

Tracey S. Fitzgerald of Arvada, CO has been informally appointed as the Personal Representative of the estate to serve without surety on the bond.

The estate is being administered under informal procedure by the Personal Representative under the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code without supervision by the Court. Inventory and accounts are not required to be filed with the Court, but interested parties are entitled to notice regarding the administration from the Personal Representative and can petition the Court in any matter relating to the estate, including distribution of assets and expenses of administration. Interested parties are entitled to petition the Court to institute formal proceedings and to obtain orders terminating or restricting the powers of Personal Representatives appointed under informal procedure. A copy of the Petition and Will, if any, can be obtained from the Petitioner.

12/27/12

WANTED

OLD HAND TOOLS & BOOKS WANTED

Planes, chisels, adzes, shaves, machinist, and sheetmetal tools, calipers, clamps, anvils, vises.

USEFUL TOOLS, ALL TRADES.

New England history books
Collections: old postcards, toys, military, hunting and fishing items.

LIBERTY TOOL CO.
888-405-2007
Davistownmuseum.org
e-Store & antique sale!

TF

JUNK CARS WANTED

JUNK CARS WANTED

(617) 481-6699
(508) 577-0073

1/17

SKIN CARE

FREE FACIAL

Individual or groups

MARY KAY
Celebrating 50 Years
Skincare for Women
Age 12 & Beyond

MICHELLE, Consultant
781-258-7564

TF

CLEANING SERVICES

DASILVA CLEANING SERVICES

Home & Office Cleaning
Professional, Affordable
Reliable & Trustworthy
Weekly or Bi-Weekly References
CALL MEIRY 781-803-2922

12/27

SISTERS CLEANING

IF YOU NEED
SOMEONE TO CLEAN
YOUR HOUSE. WE
DO HOUSES, APTS &
OFFICES.

CALL NOW 978-587-2252

12/27

HALLS FOR RENT

MORRISETTE LEGION POST

81-83 Liberty St., Quincy
Function Hall Available
Call for Details 617-770-4876
Internet Capable • Weddings •
Showers • Christenings • Meetings
After Funeral Gatherings

TF

FOR RENT

Quincy Hair Salon
For Rent

781-664-0569

12/27

NURSING HOME

Please visit us. We provide the loving care your family members deserve.
Eventide Home • 215 Adams St.
617-472-8300

12/27

SERVICES

AFFORDABLE, HIGHEST QUALITY PAINTING AND HANDYMAN SERVICES.

FREE Estimates • No Job Too Small • Insured • Quincy-Based
CALL KURT AT HAMMERHEAD SERVICES, LLC 901-219-9652

1/24

SERVICES

POWER PLUMBING

Plumbing, Heating, Gas Fitting

Repairs • New Installations
Dave 617-328-3007

Emergencies
617-792-4054

Master Lic # 13749

TF

DCS PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

One call does it ALL!!!

• Fall Clean ups
• Snow Plowing
• Snow Removal & more

FREE ESTIMATES

10% OFF FIRST SERVICE

Joe (857)939-3442

1/17

PLEASE RECYCLE This Newspaper

SERVICES

SAVE Budget Fuel

Fuel Assistance
Senior Discount
Full Service

617-328-4063

TF

LOCAL PAINTER CLIP & SAVE

Average Room - walls $150
Ceilings $75. Also windows, doors, trim, etc. Inside or out.
Prompt, clean service.
Kevin 617-302-5136
Cell 617-774-7479

1/3

HANDYMAN

Painting, Roof Repair, Carpentry, Windows, Sealcoating, Siding
Lic. & Ins • FREE Estimates
617-571-1744
781-871-9752

1/10

S.G. HAROLD

PLUMBING, HEATING & AC

Specializing in Viessman Boiler
Unico Air Conditioning
Home heating repairs & service
Radiant Floor heating

QUINCY

617-471-0914

Unprecedented Service Tailored to You

MA Lic. #10589

TF

THOMAS C. SWEENEY

Smaller Jobs a Specialty
49 Years Experience
Carpentry, Siding, Painting, Porches
Vinyl Windows, Doors
Roofing, Decking, Steps
License #1373 Free Estimates
Reliable 617-825-1210 References

3/7

SERVICES

Hancock T.V. & Appliance

Sales, Service, Parts & Installation
Since 1945

(617) 472-1710

115 Franklin Street,
Quincy, MA

hancocktvandappliance.com

5 CLANCY BROTHERS

PEST CONTROL

You got 'em! We'll get 'em!

(617)328-8387

4/18

MASONRY

All Types

New and Repair

FREE ESTIMATES

Call Ed 781-254-1648

2/28

GUTTER CLEANING & REPAIRS

PEST CONTROL

Home Repairs

I Answer My Phone!

RICH 617-773-6432

12/27

The Quincy Sun

CLASSIFIED AD FORM

MAIL TO: THE QUINCY SUN, 1372 HANCOCK STREET,
QUINCY, MA 02169

PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. Payment must accompany order.

RATES

1 WEEK

☐ $8.00 for one insertion, up to 20 words, 10¢ for each additional word.

3-7 WEEKS

☐ $7.00 per insertion up to 20 words for 3-7 insertions of the same ad, 10¢ each additional word.

8-12 WEEKS

☐ $6.75 per insertion, up to 20 words, for 8-12 insertions of the same ad 10¢ for each additional word.

13 WEEKS OR MORE

☐ $6.50 per insertion, up to 20 words, for 13 or more insertions of the same ad 10¢ for each additional word.

☐ Enclosed is $ _____ for the following ad to run _____ weeks in

The Quincy Sun.

COPY: _____

INDEX

- ☐ Services
- ☐ For Sale
- ☐ Autos
- ☐ Boats
- ☐ For Rent
- ☐ Wanted
- ☐ Help Wanted
- ☐ Work Wanted
- ☐ Pets
- ☐ Lost & Found
- ☐ Real Estate
- ☐ Antiques
- ☐ Flea Markets
- ☐ Yard Sales
- ☐ Instruction
- ☐ Day Care
- ☐ Personal
- ☐ Miscellaneous

NO REFUND WILL BE MADE AT THIS CONTRACT RATE IN THE EVENT OF CANCELLATION.
DEADLINE: FRIDAY AT 4PM. PLEASE INCLUDE YOUR PHONE NUMBER IN AD.

SUN FUN PAGE

King Crossword

- ACROSS
- Moment
 - Second-hand
 - Tousle
 - 401(k) alternative
 - Nevada city
 - Exam format
 - Utensil made from a gourd shell
 - Data, for short
 - Open slightly
 - Surround
 - Jordan's capital
 - Categorize
 - Wheedle
 - Aerosol vessel
 - Pitch
 - Corn
 - Consumed
 - Thick-bladed dagger
 - Turn the soil
 - Don Juan's mother
 - Soil samples rich in clay
 - Big glitch
 - Throat clearer
 - Grown-up nits
 - Poison ivy aid
 - Culture medium
 - Burden
 - Sawbuck
 - Anything but that
 - Crimson Tide school
 - Nevertheless
 - hero
 - Highland hillside
 - New Testament book
 - Castle protection
 - Olympic swimming legend
 - Mark Rice-shaped pasta
 - Fill fully
 - Dire situation
 - Fermi's bit
 - 11 o'clock broadcast
 - Carte
 - Longtime convicts
 - Verse
 - Tibet's capital
 - Venetian blind part
 - In the offing
 - Exotic berry
 - Grad
 - Stocky horse
 - Santa winds
 - Born
 - Tolkien character
- DOWN
- [Uncorrected]
 - Mound stat
 - Trattoria dish
 - City-related
 - Burn something
 - Type measures
 - Homer's interjection
 - Half
 - Coffee shop vessels
 - Well-protected
 - Coin aperture
 - Trojan War

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

MAGIC MAZE

AVIATION PIONEERS

P D Y A X V S P N E K I A F C
A X S E H G U H V L S S C H Q
O L J H L A R M S T R O N G E
C S A A X G V T T T R R A R P
N L S N N J N E R I H B L E F
D R B I S Y S A X L V T L B T
R P E O T S H M L O K H E D I
G O E G O R E K K O F G B N D
B B Z F A X U C W D U I T I R
Q O N E L E H C E E B R J L I
G F L D C A Y Y X W V W T S R

Find the listed words in the diagram. They run in all directions - forward, backward, up, down and diagonally.

Armstrong Cessna Fokker Lindbergh
Beech Curtiss Fossett Wright Bros.
Bellanca Doolittle Langley Yeager
Boeing Earhart Lear

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

HOCUS-FOCUS

BY HENRY BOLTIHOFF

CAN YOU TRUST YOUR EYES? There are at least six differences in drawing details between top and bottom panels. How quickly can you find them? Check answers with those below.

Trivia test by Fifi Rodriguez

- MOVIES: What was the name of the planet where Luke Skywalker ("Star Wars") grew up?
- LITERATURE: Who wrote the children's book "The Wind in the Willows"?
- GENERAL KNOWLEDGE: What is a common name for the dog breed Borzoi?
- MYTHOLOGY: What was the name of the sun god in Greek mythology?
- GEOGRAPHY: Where is the island of Curacao located?
- HISTORY: In what U.S. state did the Battle of Bunker Hill take place?
- GEOMETRY: How many sides does a quadrilateral have?
- PSYCHOLOGY: What type of fear is represented by hedonophobia?
- TELEVISION: What was the name of the lead character on "Miami Vice," and who played the role?
- MILITARY: What is the highest decoration awarded for heroism in the U.S. military?

- Answers
- Tatooine
 - Kenneth Grahame
 - Russian Wolfhound
 - Helios
 - Caribbean
 - Massachusetts
 - Four
 - Fear of pleasure
 - Sonny Crockett (played by Don Johnson)
 - Medal of Honor

(c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Wishing Well®

7 2 7 3 6 2 5 6 5 7 8 7 3
L P I G A R A C R V B E R
4 5 4 6 8 6 5 7 8 5 7 3 5
C T H C E L I Y A S O E T
6 4 2 6 5 2 7 8 3 7 4 8 6
A A O I I C U D A R R V M
5 3 4 7 3 5 2 8 6 7 5 3 2
C T M I J V E E I D E O E
3 7 2 5 8 6 4 3 5 8 5 2 6
Y E D N N S E S T T U U Y
4 2 7 5 8 6 4 2 6 8 6 7 4
D N A R U O L A U R R L I
7 5 2 4 8 2 8 4 6 2 8 2 2
S E F F O R U E S A S I D

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc. All rights reserved.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Shutting people out to avoid distractions, even under a deadline, can cause hurt feelings. Instead, return calls and emails, and explain why you need a zone of privacy for now.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Although your keen Bull's eyes usually can discern what's fact from what's faux, that upcoming decision will need really solid data before you can risk a commitment.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) As your confidence grows, you should be able to work toward your goals with more enthusiasm. Open your mind to suggestions. Some of them might even work for you.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Reconnecting with someone from your past stirs up that old sense of adventure. But before you do anything else, be sure to get answers to those still-lingering questions.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Some people might resent the way you plan to resolve a difficult situation. But your commitment to making tough but fair decisions soon wins you their respect and support.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Mixed signals could be causing that vexing workplace problem. Before you choose to leave the project, ask for a meeting so you can get things out in the open.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your good intentions could backfire if you're not careful with other people's feelings. Try using persuasion, not pressure, to get others to see your side of the situation.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your dedication to finishing the task at hand is laudable. But be careful not to overdo the midnight oil bit. Take time for relaxation with someone very special.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Although your intuition will help you make some tough choices in the first half of the month, you'll need more facts to back up your actions later on.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) All that hard work and research in the workplace finally pays off as you hoped it would. Ignore comments from jealous types who are out to get the Goat riled up.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) An unfair decision creates unnecessary problems. But avoid anger and move carefully as you work this out. Expect to get support from an unlikely source.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A fuzzy financial vista persists until midmonth, when things begin to clear up. You'll also gain a better perspective on how to handle those pesky personal problems.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a wonderful way of being there for those who need your help in difficult times.

(c) 2012 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

CryptoQuip

This is a simple substitution cipher in which each letter used stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Solution is accomplished by trial and error.

Clue: W equals D

NS T ATQNDJ GS TRTCUT ETW
CXBIF-CETFB DNCNGA, N QENAU
N'W ITRR EJF TA GBQNTR
TRJXQNTA.

© 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

King Crossword — Answers

Solution time: 27 mins.

Magic Maze ANSWERS: — MASTER

Cryptoquip ANSWER:

Alutian.
I'd call her an optical super-sharp vision. I think if a native of Alaska had

The Year 2012 In Quincy - Some Final Images

QUINCY'S GIRLS SENIOR basketball players were among the students who met former Boston Celtic Chris Herren after an assembly at the school coordinated by the QHS Students Against Destructive Decisions chapter in January. From left to right Emily Nguyen, Juli Tomer, Caitly Lowry, Herren, Kiley McDonald, Nicole Lamie, and Maria Berberan. Herren, who also visited North Quincy High School, told students about his fight with drugs and alcohol: "There's no reason to change who you are by drinking, smoking, becoming someone else, because you're perfect the way you are." Quincy Sun Photo/Scott Jackson

WILLIAM O'BRIEN (second from right) of Quincy, a lieutenant colonel in the Army National Guard, was honored for his military service at the Quincy Partnership's 17th annual St. Patrick's Day Celebration held at The Tirrell Room, Quincy Lodge of Elks in March. O'Brien, who had recently completed a tour of duty in Afghanistan, was presented a plaque by Mayor Thomas Koch (right) who also proclaimed March 16 as "Lt. Col. Bill O'Brien Day" in Quincy. Looking on are O'Brien's wife, Christine (second from left) and their daughter, Devin (far left). Quincy Sun Photo/Robert Noble

ABRAR AHMED and Hawra Al-Rekabi smile after receiving their diplomas as newly minted 2012 graduates of Quincy High School at commencement ceremonies June 6. Inclement weather forced both high school commencements indoors this year. Quincy Sun Photo/Lisa Aimola

NORTH QUINCY HIGH School Class of 2012 graduates (from left) Katelyn Layden, Lisamarie Flora, Valerie O'Driscoll, Emily England and Taylor McKay smile before commencement held inside the school's gym June 7. Inclement weather forced North Quincy High School's graduation ceremony to be postponed from Tuesday, June 5 to Thursday, June 7 and then indoors. Quincy Sun Photos/Lisa Aimola

Aide Acquitted; Cahill 'Vindicated' After Mistrial

Cont'd From Page 36

ads were needed to defend the integrity of the Lottery against attack ads. He said he felt vindicated after the mistrial was declared; his wife Tina called it a victory.

Two former prosecutors - former Attorney General Frank Bellotti and former Dist. Atty. George Burke - both told the Sun they would not retry Cahill on the charges. Former Mayor Frank McCauley, a Republican, said the trial was a waste of time and money.

Cahill's co-defendant Scott Campbell, a top aide to Cahill at the Treasury and a Quincy resident, was acquitted in the same case.

More than 100 community leaders - including elected officials, businessmen and women, and directors of social services institutions and educational institutions - banded together to ring bells at Salvation Army Kettles in Quincy Center.

Blackwood Pharmacy, one of only two independent pharmacies in the city, closed for good after 24 years of business. Quincy Chamber of Commerce President Dean Rizzo said it was a shame to lose a long-time institution.

Sen. John Keenan, Norfolk County Dist. Atty. Michael Morrissey, and Quincy Police Lieutenants Patrick Glynn and Timothy Sorgi were among the recipients of Impact Quincy's 2012 Community Heroes awards for helping substance abuse and improving the community as a whole.

After three meetings the Planning Board gave its final approval to Béal/Street-Works' $120 Merchants Row proposal. As a result of the review The Kilroy - a 15-story mixed-use building - was shortened by 17 feet and the top floors were stepped back four-feet. The project also includes the five-story Granite Trust Lofts - also a mixed-use building.

The approval came a week after the state's environmental regulators approved the entirety of the $1.6 billion Quincy Center project. The city also received final approval for the $10 million Town Brook relocation project and submitted its final plans for Adams Green transportation improvements.

Deaths during December include:

Toufic "John" Hajjar, 85, founder of Hajjar's Big & Tall clothing; Paul E. Grady, 69, a Vietnam veteran and contractor; Davenport Jackson, a Marine Corps veteran; Mary Conroy, retired sales associate; Virginia M. Welch, an employee of the First National Bank of Boston; F. Wendell Boyden, Jr., 72, a ham radio operator; Sean A. Repetto, 25, a rap music artist; Mary A. Curran, a retired USPS worker; Americo Vardaro, 90, a retired USPS worker and Navy veteran of WWII and Korea; Mary M. Nolan, a secretary in Boston City Hall; Mary E. Pasuteri, 82, retired secretary; Dr. James Will, 89, a retired dentist and veteran; Mary D. Gillis, 86, assistant editor at Banker & Tradesman; Margaret C. Slathe, retired St. Ann's School teacher; Anthony R. "Tony" Tiro, Sr., 72, owner of Paddock Café; Alexander P. Farquhar, 87, WWII Navy veteran who participated in the D-Day landing; Frederick E. Costello, retired sheet metal worker; Augustino "Gus" Purpura, 87, a retired Quincy City Hospital employee; Kevin Kelley, merchant seaman; Helen C. Flynn, retired United Way employee; Lester Orrin Andre, 92, a WWII veteran and Pennzoil worker; Joan M. Fitzgerald, a registered nurse; Leo Niemi, 93, WWII Navy veteran and retired General Dynamics worker; Ralph R. Williamson, 79, Army paratrooper and bartender; Annemarie P. Ryan, 73, retired nursing assistant; Bruce Weaver McGrath, 57, retired chief engineer; Henry Ortiz, Army veteran and Boston Gear Works employee; Jonathan Gaines Swan, 62, tax preparer; Umberto R. DiPaolo, 90, retired tailor; Domenic DiNanno, 90, retired fork lift operator; Helen F. Kelley, retired AT&T operator; William F. Chase, Korean War Navy veteran and printer; Ralph J. Bergonzi, a retired Quincy Police officer; Bianca Zanghi, 87, former owner of Maxine's Beauty Salon; Edward C. Barton, 76, Army veteran and sales executive; James C. Kilrain, retired Navy electrician and member of the QHS Baseball and Football Halls of Fame.

Pretty Holiday Displays Light Up Quincy

Early Deadline Next Week

Because of the New Year's Day holiday, there is an early news and advertising deadline for next week's Quincy Sun.

News, church, organizations and youth sports releases, retail and classified advertising and legal notices should be in The Sun office, 1372 Hancock St., by noon tomorrow (Friday) to assure publication in the Jan. 3rd issue.

The issue will go to press next Monday, Dec. 31 and be circulated next Wednesday, Jan. 2.

Baker, Braverman & Barbadoro, P.C.

"South Shore's Full Service Law Firm"

Announces the Relocation of its offices

to:

300 Crown Colony Drive
Suite 500
Quincy, MA 02169

Baker, Braverman & Barbadoro, P.C.

Tel: 781-848-9610

Fax: 781-848-9790

www.bbb-lawfirm.com

THE QUINCY SUN also invites readers to submit photos of their own holiday displays. We will post them on our website - www.thequincysun.com. Email photos of holiday displays (jpeg files) to rbosworth@thequincysun.com. Happy holidays to all from The Quincy Sun.

Quincy Sun Photos/Robert Bosworth

MARINA BAY

Nursing & Rehabilitation Center
Wave of the Future

www.marinabaynursing.com

For a tour please call 617-769-5100 (x115)

★★★★★

5 Star Customer Service

Specializing in Short Term Recovery

Orthopedic Care

Hips & Knees

Cardiac Care

Stroke

The Quincy Sun

Historic Quincy's Hometown Weekly Newspaper

Quincy, MA

JULY

THRU

DECEMBER

2012

MICROFILMED

2012

FILMED BY:

New England
Micrographics, inc.

40 Hudson Street - Suite C
Marlboro, Ma. 01752

1-800-433-4065

END
PLEASE REWIND